

Boom-Time Taxes
Collection to Cut
Deficits—Truman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—President Truman forecast tonight that a boom-time flood of tax collections he hadn't counted on before would wash out much of the deficit for the current fiscal year.

He bolstered those hopes with economy orders to federal agencies that could tighten the strings of the federal purse to the point of affecting veterans and the 48 states.

Boosting both revenue and spending estimates above the peacetime record figures he issued seven months ago, the president said it now appears the government will go to the red by $1,000,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947.

That is less than half the $4,500,000,000 deficit he forecast last January, due mainly to the sudden rise of receipts estimates by a total $2,500,000,000 in an unprecedented percentage total of $29,600,000,000.

Still further attacks on the big four were met by a vote of 12-0 when the all-powerful rules committee approved a decision to allow the conference chairman to make any other changes.

Meanwhile, Greece demanded allies of Bulgaria and Albania territory and served notice on the peace conference that she expects reparations for the "material damage inflicted upon the country" by Italy and other invaders.

Spain, in a bitter attack on the big powers, said: "The great powers meet together to treat themselves. They prepare treaties without consulting us, they impose upon us rules of voting which, in practice, prevent us from securing acceptance for our point of view, they place us before the painful dilemma of accepting humiliating conditions or of being judged what they have decided to be."

He bolstered those hopes with economy orders to federal agencies that could tighten the strings of the federal purse to the point of affecting veterans and the 48 states.

Triplets on Birthday Bang at Piano, Dishes

The President set out the bill of legislative proposals in his annual message to Congress, which he delivered last night.

It's Birthday No. 1 for Triplets. The triplets have not been weighed for 10 days, Mrs. Carey said, but estimated that they weigh between 24 and 26 pounds each now.

Three Twin Falls youngsters—two girls and a boy—today are celebrating their first birthday. They are the Bruce Carey triplets who moved here from Salt Lake City last April.

Revealed Opposition. The President took a recent Washington news conference that he was opposed to the renomination of Roger C. Slaughter, Democratic fifth district representative, because of the latter's opposition to administration proposals.

He said Mr. Truman planned to speak and on "political" matters. He came primarily to vote "yes" on the re-nomination of Slaughter in the fifth district in the forthcoming fourth election.

Washington, Aug. 3 (AP)—Slaughter, D. N. Y., proposed today an investigation of what he called "excessive freight rates paid by the armed services."

Three Killed, One
Injured in Accident
North of Shoshone

SHOSHONE, Aug. 4 (Sunday)—One woman and two men are dead and a second woman is in serious condition as result of an unexplained auto accident 14 miles north of Shoshone on U. S. highway 93 early today or late Saturday night.

The dead are Achsa Ellen Shryver, Twin Falls, and two men believed to be Tom Mayes, about 27, Twin Falls, and Elmer Gruff, Murtaugh, about 30.

Injured is Esther Leno, Twin Falls, who was taken by ambulance to the Twin Falls county general hospital early today. She had lost considerable blood and was understood to have at least shoulder injuries, possibly internal hurts.

Both the dead woman and Mrs. Leno were employed at the S. and M. cafe in Twin Falls. The former lived at the Rogers home, the latter at the American hotel. Mayes was a war veteran, lived at a Twin Falls tourist camp.

Justice of the Peace Frank Dice said Mrs. Leno appeared injured but was still conscious when removed from the wreck scene.

Mrs. Leno is the mother of five children. About 30 Miss Shryver, married and divorced, was about 20 to 30 years of age. She had formerly lived at Kimberly.

A driver of an oil tanker discovered the accident today. Immediately proceeded to Shoshone for help, Dice said.

Time of the accident was not known. The wreckage was lying about 50 feet from the highway and had been run over by a truck for some time, Dice reported. He said the auto, a 1936 Ford, was going south toward Shoshone on highway 93 when it left the road. The car traveled for about 120 feet before leaving the road.

Justice Dice, who went to the scene of the accident with Sheriff Earl Clayton, said only identification was from papers found on the person of the dead woman. No papers were found on the bodies of the two men. (Extensive identification of the men was made by Twin Falls police.)

Chinese Boasting Solution to War. HANKING, Aug. 3 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek today boasted that his army had won a victory over the Japanese in the Szechuan province.

He said the Japanese had been driven out of the province and that his army was now in control of the area. He also claimed that his army had captured a large number of Japanese weapons and supplies.

Truman Plans
No More Aid
To Candidate

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3 (AP)—A White House spokesman declared Friday tonight that President Truman will take no further part in Missouri's fifth district congressional campaign beyond his endorsement of E. A. Axtell.

Charles G. Ross told reporters a few hours after Mr. Truman's arrival here that he would "endorse" Axtell if the President doesn't want Mr. Axtell while he is home to vote Tuesday.

Revealed Opposition. The President took a recent Washington news conference that he was opposed to the renomination of Roger C. Slaughter, Democratic fifth district representative, because of the latter's opposition to administration proposals.

Chances for Federal Hospital Funds Dim

Probability that Twin Falls will have little or only slight chance to share in federal funds for hospital construction was revealed here last night.

Word received by the Times-New Herald from its Twin Falls representative about the hospital bid figures as the goal under new federal legislation.

The hospital survey and construction bill already passed by the House and expected soon to receive final action in the Senate, is aimed at providing better distribution of federal aid to hospitals.

Since the plan, in part, is to build hospitals so that there will be beds in general hospitals available on the average to every thousand people in the country, the Twin Falls county general hospital has been completely inadequate for the area-wide health care program.

It has been estimated that the hospital has 100 beds, but the county needs 200 beds to serve the population. The county has been unable to secure the necessary funds to build a new hospital.

Rupert Urges
Camp Assets
Go to Project

RUPERT, Aug. 3—Facilities of the Rupert POW camp should be retained for Minidoka north side extension, according to a lettergrams dispatched to the Idaho congressional delegation by the Rupert and Burley chambers of commerce and the Minidoka North Side Association.

The Magic Valley groups understood that the buildings, equipment and other assets are being inventoried and listed for sale or other disposal on or about Aug. 26.

They requested and urge stoppage be made of such disposal to the end that all of the properties transferred to the Minidoka extension, including pumping extension and Minidoka project, be the wire stated.

Congress Quits, but
Extra Meet Possible

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Heavy members of the adjourned Congress returned tonight, almost all of them hopeful that they will not be called back for a special session but with a few urging another session.

There will be no sessions until the next Congress begins Jan. 3, unless President Truman summons the lawmakers back.

Charles Colmer, D. Miss., of the House minority and planning committee said: "I don't think there will be a session until January."

Released Russ Pair
Obtained Documents

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 3 (AP)—The U. S. army announced tonight that two of the Russian soldiers recently released by G. S. authorities in Berlin had forced German employees of the army to deliver secret American documents in "clandestine activities" in the U. S. sector.

At the same time in Berlin, the three soldiers in question charged that they were "forced into criminal acts" and that the Americans attempted to force one of them to betray his country and become an American citizen.

The three Russians were arrested July 17 by U. S. authorities, apparently in exchange for the release of two American soldiers in the Russian zone, Warren Officer and Mrs. Samuel L. Harrison of San Francisco.

Cause of Fire on

Use of Credit
Termed Threat
To Land Price

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP)—Less use of credit, rather than more, is the way to avoid an upward spiral of the real estate market, according to the real estate price-fixing committee of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Current trends in the real estate market, said, duplicate in many respects those prevalent after World War I and may boost the volume of mortgage debt on home to "staggering proportions" in the next two years.

Dr. Fisher, professor of urban land economics at Columbia and consultant and former research director in real estate financing for the American Bankers Association, believes the best advice for home buyers is to pay down as much as possible and pay off their debt as fast as they can.

Secret Service
Tells Threat on Life of Truman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—A self-styled "executioner" who threatened the life of President Truman, was arrested today after a series of threats and a plot to assassinate the president.

The information about the would-be assassin was obtained from a secret source who had been in contact with the president's security detail.

Airlines Will Use Big Plane After Change

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP) — International airline operators looked forward eagerly today to return of the Lockheed Constellation to regular service after changes agreed upon by the manufacturers, users and the civil aeronautics administration.

The "Connie" with an official capacity of 41 passengers and a cruising speed of 271 miles an hour, was grounded by CAA order on July 11 pending investigation of a training flight accident near Reading, Pa., in which five men were killed.

Changes Summarized
The CAA summarized the changes in an announcement late yesterday after a long conference with representatives.

The alterations relate primarily to the electrical system, which caused the Reading fire. However, a further safety measure the airlines will be required to change the engines over to the system by which fuel is injected directly in the cylinders and mixed with air there instead of being mixed in a carburetor.

Fires Cause Problem
The fuel injection system, widely accepted by aviation, is regarded as more economical and safer than the carburetor method. Engine fires have been a problem with the carburetor system.
Planes modified to meet other CAA requirements may be put into service before the changeover to fuel injection, but all will be converted as soon as possible.

Buhl Will Leave Estate of $20,000

Petition for probate of the will of Mrs. Martha Tille Buhl, Buhl resident, who died July 12 in San Francisco, has been filed by her son, J. J. Buhl, Jr., in Twin Falls county probate court.

The son has appointed executor of the estate, in accordance with provisions of the will, and has asked the court to act in that capacity if Barbara Rugg Moore, now Barbara Rugg Buhl, of San Francisco, is unable to do so. The petition states that Mrs. Buhl is unable to serve as executrix.

Value of the estate, which includes 455 shares of capital stock in the Buhl Hardware company, does not exceed $20,000, according to the petition.

Also listed as heirs are Merville D. Rugg, Laramie, Calif., and Raymond P. Rugg, Ariz. Mont., both sons.

Mrs. Rugg's will provides that Barbara Rugg Buhl and J. J. Buhl, Jr. will receive the home and furnishings, as well as property upon which it is located, remainder of the estate is to be distributed among all four children.

Probate of the will has been set for 10 a.m. Aug. 16 by Judge C. A. Bailey, Attorney for the petitioner is J. W. Taylor, Buhl.

12 Hours Elapse Between Wrecks

Traffic accidents aren't usually scheduled, but two reports of minor mishaps in Twin Falls Friday night and Saturday morning make it look as though there's an element of timing involved.

At 6:24 p.m. Friday, cars driven by Paul O. Richardson, Sherman Oaks, Calif., and Opal M. Wagner, Rockland, collided at Third avenue and Third street west, causing minor damage.

Exactly 12 hours later to the minute, machines operated by John P. Greff, Brooks, Ia., and Utheria Pearl Munger, Twin Falls, came together at the West Five points. No serious damage resulted in the last collision at 6:24 a.m. Saturday.

Conquered the Salmon; Hell's Canyon Next

This photo shows Norman D. Nevills, famed river veteran of the Colorado, San Juan and Green rivers, running the Ruby rapids near Higgins in the Salmon "River of No Return." This is one of the roughest spots on the river and is the spot at which the party of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Stewart, Twin Falls, had a thrill and got both duff and drenching.

LEWISTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Norman D. Nevills of Mexican Hot, Utah, prepared today for a descent of the Snake river through 7,000-foot deep "Hell's canyon" after safely negotiating 275 miles of rapids on Idaho's "River of No Return," the Salmon, with a party of 12, including five women.

Nevills' fleet of four specially designed boats reached here at 4 p.m. yesterday to receive the congratulations of Mayor Leo J. Morgan and other civic leaders.

His party is believed to be the largest ever to make the Salmon river run, and the women are believed to be the first ever to make the passage through the white water between Salmon and Lewiston.

Nevills, who has taken four trips through the Grand canyon of the Snake and Arroyo rivers, Colorado river and for years has made other boat trips on the Colorado, said on the Green and San Juan rivers, began the expedition July 16 with the announced intention of comparing the dangers of the Idaho stream with those of the Snake and Arroyo rivers.

But on his arrival here the fast-water expert reported he found it difficult to compare the relative difficulties. He said, however, that the salt-laden waters of the Colorado are more dangerous than the clear waters of the Idaho stream.

Projects Total $81,080 in July For Twin Falls

Despite acute shortages of materials, experienced framers rang up an impressive total Twin Falls construction figure to the tune of $81,080 during July, records at the office of City Clerk George A. Davidson show.

This is below the June total of $125,200, which, however, was bolstered by a single project of $40,000 for the new Lutheran church school program. Construction during May reached $60,250.

The week just passed, although it overlapped into early August, did not include permit applications received from July 27 through August 3 amounted to $29,318.50.

This was above the previous week when construction dipped to a low for the month of $9,410. The week ending yesterday was the best recent seven-day period, as construction throughout the month has averaged about $17,000 weekly.

Most recent building permit applications involve improvements of existing buildings.

C. E. Keating plans to build an addition to a store at 1087 Blue Lakes boulevard at a cost of $400. Size of the new construction will be 24 by 28.

J. A. Christopherson will refinish a front porch of a family dwelling at 104 Green street west for $16, according to his application.

The other boy is five feet, five inches tall, and weighs 107 pounds. He has brown hair and was wearing a red and black jacket and gray pants when he disappeared.

A judgment by default in favor of Edward McCarty's suit against Dean Johnson for payment of a $49.95 debt, was pronounced Friday by District Judge James W. Porter.

AN UNJUST BARGAIN

Any solution of the Palestine problem must certainly will be a compromise with the Jews, the Arabs, and perhaps both. It will find unsatisfactory. It is not unlikely that there may have to be some added out- side considerations to force acceptance by both parties. Yet there is one element of the Palestine problem that the federalist constitution reportedly proposed by the Anglo-American committee studying this problem which seems most un- just.

The constitution, it is reported, gives the Jews a strip of territory running along the northern coast of Palestine, across the country, and up the narrow northeastern corridor between Syria and Lebanon. This strip, 1,500 of Palestine's more than 10,000 square miles. The British central government would control Jerusalem, Bethlehem, the coast of Haifa, and the southern region of Negev. The rest of the country would go to the Arabs.

The injustice of this proposed solution is that the surviving victims of Hitlerism in Europe, who seem to be the home-coming refugees, are being made to share the land with the Zionists. Until the plan went into effect there would be no move to grant President Truman's urgent request that 100,000 homeless European Jews be admitted to Palestine.

The United States has agreed to finance the feeding and transportation of those 100,000. But another part of the plan is to include an outright grant of $50,000,000 to the Arabs by this country. So, in effect, the United States would be buying the acceptance of both parties.

This might be all right if human lives were not so tragically involved. But it is cynical, to say the least, that these unhappy refugees, having been "rescued" from nazism, must now become pawns in an international game of politics.

Probably there will be complaints that Uncle Sam is a sucker to finance the whole deal. But an outlay of money seems pre- ferable to continuing active control over a new government in the turbulent Holy Land. Britain has volunteered for that unenvi- able task, probably more out of self-interest than altruism. But should she or, if it is not, rather a natural job for the United Nations?

It may well be that, all things considered, Britain has done as well in Palestine as any- one could. However, the rising tension there strongly advises against her continuing to fulfill the mandate of the League of Nations.

The United Nations is fully equipped to administer territories now held under mandate by an international trusteeship system. It has an economic and social council em- powered to make recommendations "for the purpose of promoting respect for, and observance of, human rights."

The human rights of Jewish refugees, now held in semi-imprisonment in Europe, re- quire for them some just and decent pro- tection in the United Nations. That done, the U. N. could tackle the solution of Palestine, almost insoluble racial and political troubles on an international basis.

SOVIET CONFESSION

So you thought that Russia didn't have a free press and that the Russians didn't dare criticize their national institutions? Well, Tiza Ehrenburg, writing about his trip to America in Izvestia, has charged both government and people with serious faults. His indictment has been printed, and apparently Mr. Ehrenburg is still alive.

The faults? Oh, yes—bureaucracy, occa- sional rudeness, technical backwardness and bad telephone service.

So there you have a Russian admission of the evils and defects of communism. It would probably be too much to hope that this im- partial criticism is a start toward the healthy self-examination that prevails here. Still, it should be remembered that confession, like weight-lifting, is something that you have to start slowly and work up to gradually.

SALTY LINGO FOR THE AIR AGE

The future of navies may be threatened by the atomic bomb. The airplane may have muscled in on the ship's once-exclusive job of carrying goods and persons across the sea. But at least in the matter of defense, the mariners seem to have won a round.

For the army air forces reportedly have come around to the navy's way of thinking, and will henceforth share the courses of speeds in nautical miles and knots. Apparent- ly this is the result of transoceanic flying by maps which measure in nautical miles.

At any rate, the time may not be far distant when the landlubber will finally learn that a knot is 1.152 miles an hour. But we fear that it will take a long time before he learns to express an airplane's speed as so many knots, as so many miles, as the common, erroneous custom, as so many knots an hour.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

PRESSURE—Political and economic pressure on the part of thousands of veterans under the anti-trust actions which Attorney General Tom Clark has been waging.

There are many veterans who are being un- dermined by the very industries whose wages and might enabled the allies to de- feat the axis.

Congress refused to appropriate the money needed by the veterans for their own stores and distributing agents.

The recent suit against manufacturers of articles in the area is the most spectacular evidence of the red-white-and-blue inspiration.

There have been complaints that numerous Indus- try—automobile makers, oil producers, the manufacturers of other things—have turned down applications from World War II alums.

Another factor behind the campaign for legisla- tion is the desire to place labor and liberal groups who contend in their speeches and writings that President Roosevelt and even Henry Wallace have suc- ceeded to the right since the end of the war.

CONFLICT—Only recently in many instances of reported refusal the manufacturers are abiding by the regulations which the veterans' administration has set up.

VA officials have denied many loans for proposed ventures—small factories, stores, service centers etc.—for fear that the ex-soldier policy to enter an already saturated field in which he would waste his own money and the taxpayers'. Agriculture cautions a man against purchasing a farm for production of crops of which he has no turn.

ABUSES—The veterans' guardians take the view- point that too much money and untold "com- petition" are one of the objectives of the Clark-Rogers campaign, can be the economic death rather than life of the returned soldier.

There have been some abuses, according to a study of the complaints, but the government points out that the veterans' administration has been elimi- nating abuses by consultation and advice.

EFFICIENCY—Congressional objectors exchanged sharp words with it of J. Spackman in the behind-the-scenes battle. The veterans' administration has a barrage of devastating criticism of the proposed breakup and decentralization of the industry.

They asked, for instance, whether it was econom- ically wise to destroy or even enhance such a proved system of production. They wanted to know why it should be allowed to give the same service in peacetime that it did in the crisis.

They also pointed out that, until the advent of war costs and the pressure was on, the industry of almost every article produced or service rendered by American industry had decreased steadily.

POLICIES—The capital bill boys, including Democrats and Republicans, also placed their finger on another apparent inconsistency in the administra- tion's general attitude toward private industry in the postwar period.

They had no answer as to why, in disposing of 229 war plants during the first seven months after V-J day, the war assets administration and RPO sold 32 percent in 16 great concentrations among the buyers were General Motors, General Electric, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, International Harvester, Westing- house, Eastman Kodak, North-Kellogg, etc.

ELECTIONS—In fact, WAA and RPO are asked and urging the expansion of the very corporations which the D of J is prosecuting because they are "big."

Finally, in view of the complaints of the three powerful voting groups—the veterans, labor and lib- erals—there is a strong reason to believe that they wanted Attorney General Clark that they will keep an eye on his activities and his results in this regard. And they hinted at the prospect of a review of the government's attitude and relations with private industry, large or small, after the No- vember election.

CONFIDENCES—The political generals of the two major parties—National Chairman Robert E. Han- sen for the Democrats and Otto C. Brannan, Re- publican, for the Republicans—were in a dinner party and swapped party amenities. More often than is generally realized, like captured prisoners of war, rival political generals exchange confiden- ces.

"I'm Truman going to run in 1948," Bob," said the GOP leader.

"I don't know," Carroll," replied Bob. "He hasn't discussed the question with me and I haven't asked him."

"Well," continued Mr. Reese, "who will you nomi- nate if he doesn't?"

"Oh," replied Mr. Hannagan, "we'll dig somebody up."

"My God!" exclaimed the Republican, "please don't do that!"

WASHINGTON—In order to put the peace conference in proper perspective, it is only necessary to look at what is happening in the rest of the world. Against that background, the peace conference seems to be a sideshow at the best.

BOB HOPE

You never know what to expect here in Hollywood and to prove my point, the Los Angeles American Legion is sponsoring, of all things, a baby festival.

Babies may be a little out of its line, but the Legion is always willing to make some changes and it's got the babies to prove it.

I don't think it will have much trouble, though. The American Legion members are all hands at the job.

Others attending the meeting were C. Raby, outdoor man and James Alexander, assistant secretary. Walter C. Burreas was appointed sec- retary and publicity chairman; Leo C. Burreas, finance officer; Walter C. Burreas, outdoor man and James Alexander, assistant secretary.

Also attending the meeting were Andrew P. Miller, R. M. Robertson, Fred Vandergriff, Jay Farmer, and James Alexander, assistant secretary of Gooding troop No. 33.

Seven hundred babies are entered in the contest and it promises to be a colorful affair. I can just see it now. In fact, I learned to run my toes across the steps in flower- bedded cardinals, and the judges are singing. "They're either too young or too old."

I won a baby contest once and I don't know if it was the cutest baby there. Not only was it a cute little thing, but it was a real baby. I was a remarkable baby and very advanced for my age. In fact, I learned to run before I even learned to crawl. It was really nothing, though, would make any advance too, if you had a blonde nurse.

CONVERSATION
Dear Bob: I overheard the following while I was in your yard. Lady to young man: If so, I'm not sure if you are not to ride a bicycle on the side- walk.

FAMOUS LAST LINE
"They can't decide whether it's a vacation he likes or the kind she serves."

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW
"Herman would appear with me at my lecture, sitting up the first row, drooping at the mouth, and staring at the audience with vacant, heavy, bloodshot eyes, I would point him out as an example of the evils of alcohol."

Unfortunately, poor Herman died last winter. A mutual friend has given me your name, and I wonder if you would care to accompany me on my summer tour and take Herman's place?

Young man, "What do you want me to do, ride on the grass?"

Do we have shirts, or what are they to be worn in?

WITH JOHN BROSNAN AND LORAYNE ORTON SMITH

THE QUESTION

What improvements would you suggest to make the municipal swimming pool safer or better?

THE WINNER

L. H. (Spec) Heaton, Twin Falls, wins the $1 award for submitting the question chosen this week. Question may be mailed, posted or brought personally to the Thumbnail Forum before noon on Saturday.

THE PLACE

At Hutton Park.

THE ANSWERS

Willard L. Smith, who was here with his wife and boys: "I think it's a fine place—especially when we have no facilities at Salmon. However, it wouldn't hurt to have lights on four, not only two sides of the pool."

PAUL MR. PAUL

Mrs. Paul: "I certainly appreciate such a nice place to bring our boys. I'd also suggest that something be done about the bottom of the pool. It's too rough, and I stubbed my toe."

BINTON MISS REINICK

Kathie Reinick, Seattle, Wash.: "I'd also suggest that something be done about the bottom of the pool. It's too rough, and I stubbed my toe."

TAYLOR MISS REINICK

Harvey Hinton, Dayton, Beach, Fla.: "I definitely think the bottom of the pool is too rough, but the park is a nice place."

REAR HARMON

George Rizza, who is manager for credit corporation: "I think what you had in the Times-News about needing lights there 'readers of color' is absolutely correct."

Don't Aid China Until They Stop Their Civil War

Editor, Times-News:

Do you think we, or any nation should give financial aid, or otherwise to the Chinese government, so long as they continue their civil war? I have never been quite sure as to why we have troops in China, but military men say it's for the protection of our troops and which part of China?

High ranking USMC men in Washington have informed me that we have always had marines in China, in that case I think we should change our tactics, and apply the golden rule to our national affairs. Since when would we have troops from some nation stationed in our country? And if our troops are there, why not let them fight the Chinese troops in turn? I suppose the strengthening of brotherly love between the two nations.

As for me, I'm sick and tired of hearing about the poor, starving Chinese. I think if we could send them millions of dollars for food, they would buy weapons for fighting and continue to eat their rice soup. And after all it is so much easier to starve than to kill each other. I think their civil war will continue so long as other nations furnish them with the weapons for fighting. And worst of all is the feeling of hatred that will exist between the Chinese and the Chinese, and not only just between the troops either.

If GOP Doesn't Win, People Will Pay Heavy Price

Editor, Times-News:

I note Marshall Chapman, in his address to the Democratic convention at St. Louis, made the remark that he was asked to contribute $100 to the Republican campaign—and in view of this he assumed the Republican party was going to spend a lot of money to win the coming election.

While I am a member of the state Republican central committee, I do not know how much we will spend to win the election. But I do know we will spend all we can get to bring certain facts to the attention of the voters and I do not feel any price would be too much to pay to get back to the American way of life and a government of the people.

And furthermore, if we do not win it will be far more expensive to the people of Idaho than any campaign fund.

Plane Forced to Land, or Did It?

BURLEY, Aug. 3.—Reports that the pilot of a low flying trainer made a forced landing Friday when he ran out of fuel near Shoshone, were proving hard to verify today.

The CAA at Boise said Friday a plane piloted by a flier named "Auklet," en route from Spokane to Salt Lake City, reportedly made the forced landing, but the CAA added Saturday its information on the incident may not have been authentic.

Ronald M. Hawkes, Minidoka county sheriff, dispatched deputies to the scene to render aid, but they were unable to locate the ship, he said.

The CAA here said Friday night it was understood that the Salt Lake City-bound plane had arrived at American Falls at 5 p. m.

Salt Lake City airport officials said today they had not received "Auklet" landing at their field, but admitted no record is kept of transient fliers.

Dr. Robins Is the Answer to Oft-Expressed Wish of Voter

Editor, Times-News:

Once in a while an opportunity comes to the electors of a state to prove whether they really mean the frequently expressed desire, "If only we could get more capable, upright and honest men in public office."

I seem to me such an opportunity offered the people of Idaho this year in the candidacy of Dr. C. A. Robins for governor.

I have been deeply impressed by the universal respect for him expressed both by those who know of his work in the state senate and by men and women who know him as a private citizen. His ability as an executive and his unusual fairness and honesty in all dealings seen undisputed. Not only is he a man of personal integrity, but he is well trained for the office of governor.

We are glad that in our country we still have the right to choose our leaders. But we need to choose thoughtfully and to know as much as possible about each candidate. Next Wednesday evening in Twin Falls city park the citizens of Magic Valley may hear Dr. Robins express his ideas of good government and then may meet and talk with him and his wife. It would be well if many of us who are really interested in good government would avail ourselves of this chance to learn more about the candidate.

This Gang of Reg'lar Kids Is One Answer to "Delinquency"

By MARTHA MacNAMARA

Juvenile delinquency and youth crimes have been literally rammed down the throat of the public until it is difficult to realize that there are boys in the country who have constructive ideas and lead wholesome lives.

Very little effort was needed to discover a regular "Our Gang" in our own backyard, blushing out, building an automobile and planning a carnival are among the activities of the seven boys who live on Adams and Poplar avenues.

Amidst the busy, busy corners and much confusion, the youth branch of the Times-News research department set forth to invade the gang's sacred ground.

Here They Are

Pinning them in the final throes of a terrific baseball game, I immediately sized my subjects and discovered ages ranging from 7 to 15 years. Included in the gang are Pat and Mike Daly, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Daly; Bill Bass, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bass; Dick Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Jensen; Bobby Minslow, son of Mr. Raymond Minslow; and Robert Minslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Minslow. Excluded by the camera, a regular pitted battle ensued over who was going to get the used flash bulb.

Milling around the intricate equipment, the boys were all alert at the news photos who found her adult brain no match for the age of her subjects.

Their System

Well organized, the gang, first known three years ago, always in the backyard of one home, works on a car and other and other projects.

Chattering like magpies the boys lead me into the back yard, where a tent is a tenthouse that would make your eyes pop out.

Completely equipped, it would put many hunchmen's to shame. Corrugated cardboard boxes are used for the main structure and others are attached with nail. The tent is a clear plastic, and is ranged to form individual rooms. As you enter the home the first thing you see is a table, a lamp, electric light bulbs in every corner, which incidentally are fastened off with corrugated boxes.

A sink, with running water, is one of the major attractions in the house. Another unusual feature is a radio and a kitchen, and a bathroom. The house is a model of the home and a major portion of their extensive library of funny books.

Guest Room too

The boys informed me that they also had a guest room for unexpected callers. Bobby and various other members of the family, who keeps the house together. A covered

Steam Roller Used to Mash Spud Harvest

MOSES LAKE, Wash., Aug. 3 (AP) - Out here in north central Washington they use 15-ton steam rollers for mashing potatoes - and the mashing surface for an air base are as wide as a six-lane highway and a mile long.

The result will be enough potatoes for an army of Paul Bunyans, perhaps 20,000,000 pounds. It will be processed for livestock feed and alcohol, and won't go for human food.

The project is the result of efforts to save the production of 2,500 acres in this area, a crop which growers said otherwise would have been virtually a complete loss. The war department authorized use of its army airplane base and the T. R. Simpson company of Caldwell, Idaho, to mow the crop and under the job of drying the millions of potatoes.

Blaine Dams Inspected by AAA Leaders

HAILEY, Aug. 3.—The three-day district agricultural adjustment administration conference, concluded here this afternoon with tours of the Blaine area to view a testing project on rock crevices and two dams.

S. Moore, supervisor of the Sawtooth National forest, and Earl Morgan, assistant supervisor, conducted the tour. The rearing of 100 acres of charred land with water created wheat, timothy and bulbous blue grass was examined by the tour. It was pointed out that the area was established in 1944, and received a $10,000 grant from the federal government.

Also examined was a new by-pass dam built last winter south of Bellevue. Many Coffey, Blaine, watermaster, declared that the dam was responsible for preserving water in that area although the water table was lower the year than in several past seasons.

A small dam in Greenhorn creek constructed by R. F. Maltby was examined by the group. The dam held only 10 acre feet of water but has been responsible for the rearing of 50 acres of land under cultivation.

Howard Potter and Lloyd Campbell, Blaine, state AAA officials, will go to Blackfoot Monday to conduct a similar AAA conference.

Folder Explains "Vice" Measures

BOISE, Aug. 3.—Secretary of State Ira H. Masters today ordered the printing of 250,000 pamphlets which will be mailed to Idaho registered voters explaining to them three initiative measures which will appear on the November election ballot.

The pamphlets will be mailed in accordance with state law will contain the complete text of the three proposed measures, as well as arguments favoring them as proposed by the Allied Civil Forces.

While the state makes provision for including arguments against the initiative measures, Masters said he submitted to this office any arguments against the measures.

Most Vets Return To Former Posts

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark said today that a justice department survey indicates 99 of every 100 veterans with reemployment rights "have had no difficulties concerning reversion to their old jobs."

Of about 4,000,000 servicemen with reemployment rights, only 431 were reported to the department for assistance in obtaining their jobs between July 1, 1944, and July 1, 1946, Clark said.

And of the 431 cases, 1,231 "were assisted by available adjustment" between United States veterans and the veterans' employers, Clark said.

See, Hiatt, There ARE Blue Beans!

C. D. Hiatt, center, is shown here looking over a box of Magic Valley's famous blue beans presented to him by Ray Holmes, left, and Charles (Chie) Crabtree, right. Hiatt had doubted the veracity of Holmes and Crabtree when they mentioned using blue beans in a display during the bean festival scheduled here for this fall. (Staff photo engraving.)

What? Blue Beans? No, Says Hiatt—But Now He Has Some

C. D. Hiatt is a "doubting Thomas" as far as blue beans go. But Charles (Chie) Crabtree and Ray Holmes made a "beller" out of him. Anyway, they think so.

It all started a week ago over a cup of coffee or a Coke. Crabtree was waving eloquently about his proposal of a "blue bean festival" to promote that crop and publicize the county's bean yield.

With typical Crabtree flourish, he was describing all the interesting displays that could be arranged with beans during the celebration. Colored Beans.

"Women could make special bean dishes and child organizations could put up wonderful bean displays," Crabtree declared. "The Chamber of Commerce could put up a display of our national crops using red, white and blue beans, and in Germany."

Hiatt interrupted, casting aspersions upon the truth of the statements that Crabtree was flinging about. Holmes got into the excitement and denounced the "Chamber of Commerce" as a "bunch of fools."

"Glad today with rising temperatures," was Hiatt's first response to the "blue bean" idea. "I don't want to see the Twin Falls model airplane contest set for 3 p. m. today at McAdams Field."

"But if that road is closed for repairs, motorists can go south from South Park, then a mile east to the airport before swinging south again."

"Speculators will go 'three to four hours' of contests and exhibitions, but contestants were asked to be here by noon to 12:30 p. m. to get their ships warmed up."

Featured will be an exhibition by a jet-model model. Rubber-band models also may fly, but no contests will be held for that type craft.

"If the jet won't fly, will you type craft?"

By the time the "blue bean" idea was over, Hiatt was a changed man. He was now a "believer" in blue beans.

Hiatt is now a "believer" in blue beans. He has some blue beans. He has some blue beans. He has some blue beans.

Not this! But this

Bedrooms up to 15' cooler...when your home is Eagle insulated!

You don't have to toss and turn on sultry summer nights! Owners of Eagle-Insulated Homes report inside temperatures as much as 15° cooler than outside air, day and night.

That's because Eagle Foam Insulation is so good. A 4-inch thickness of it is easily installed in your home—scope heat and cold better than concrete 12 feet thick!

But high efficiency is not all. The insulation you choose for your home must retain its effectiveness year after year, much "like a housewife." So before you make your choice, consider this fact:

Eagle insulation is LASTINGLY EFFECTIVE! ... because it's made of MINERAL WOOL. Eagle insulation is as durable, as permanent, as the selected minerals from which it is made. Offers nothing edible to rats, mice, termites, vermin.

... because it's WATER-REPELLENT. In the presence of moisture, Eagle Insulation retains full efficiency, remains non-conductor of electricity. Will not "break down" under water.

... because it's FIRE-PROOF. Eagle Insulation can't burn... forms a fire-retarding barrier in walls and roofs. Materially reduces the fire hazard in your home.

... because it's LIGHT & EASY. Eagle Insulation "saves" space... will not pack down under its weight. There are no minuscule air spaces at the top through which heat and cold may pass freely. Goes on giving full wall-high protection indefinitely.

No building alterations are required when you have Eagle Insulation installed in your home. Call the Authorized Eagle Contractor given below for a no-obligation estimate on how little it will cost.

Profit Probe Recesses for Month Period

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—The Senate is investigating committee members' recusal today along with the rest of congress but postpones that its ferreting for wartime frauds will go on.

Its formal recessing that it is based upon exposure of fraud to wartime spending in general and "discretionary" on the part of public officials in particular climaxed a month of investigation into the complicated operations of a multi-million dollar combine.

While congress expects to take the rest of the year off, the problem of committee recessing is a long-term record of public hearings "except for an emergency."

From sources close to the committee, it was learned that this phase was inserted to cover the possibility that Representative M. D. Ky, who was expected to appear before the committee to tell under oath of his intervention on behalf of the combine.

May, whose counsel pleaded illness on his behalf has been absent from congress since his collapse on the eve of a scheduled appearance before the committee. He has denied profiting personally through that intervention.

The committee announcement on its plans for working during the congressional recess came on the heels of the disclosure by Elmer Walker, New York investment banker, that he held a five-year-old unpaid $5,000 promissory note, signed by May.

Walker informed the committee that he made the loan at the request of Murray Garrison, one of the combine's promoters, and later had been informed by May that he had "accommodated" Garrison.

Garrison, too, has been conspicuous by his absence from the committee's inquiry. He has claimed heart trouble and has remained in Havana while the committee searched out details of the combine's operations.

200 Attend Picnic Of Utility Worker

Entertaining more than 200 Idaho Power company employees and their families, a picnic was staged Friday evening at the Twin Falls power plant park. The event was the first of a planned series of two.

Special lighting and a public address system were used during the evening. Following the dinner furnished by the company a program of stunts, children's games, community singing and bingo games was presented. Prizes were awarded at the bingo game for adults and there were balloons for the children.

George J. Holmes was song leader for the evening. M. C. Olson was in charge of refreshments and Walter G. Walstra presented stunts. More than 150 are expected to attend the second picnic Friday at the park.

Motorists to See Recruiting Signs

"Tired of paying
"Income tax?
"And arguing with
"Your battle tax?
"Join the regular army."

This message attached in a series of signs about 100 yards apart will soon greet motorists on the highway between Butte and Rupert, Idaho.

Lieut. George P. Claxton, Twin Falls army recruiter, announced Saturday.

The signs arrived in Twin Falls Saturday morning and will be erected along the highway soon, he said.

Families of 7 Vets To Get Apartments

Seven more veterans' families will move into temporary housing unit apartments Tuesday, U. N. Terry, a member of the American Legion housing committee, announced Saturday.

The units originally were scheduled for occupancy Saturday but workers were delayed on the project, Terry explained.

Furniture for the final eight apartments began arriving Saturday when a shipment of beds, springs and mattresses came in from Vancouver, Wash.

Sergeant Named to Marine Duties Here

Gunnery Sgt. Peter V. DeBantis returned to Twin Falls Saturday as non-commissioned officer in charge of the marine corps recruiting station, replacing Sgt. Ted Letendre, who has been transferred to Boise.

Sergeant DeBantis left Twin Falls for Boise for further transfer to Los Angeles, but his orders were cancelled and he was returned to Twin Falls. Sergeant Letendre, who reopened the marine recruiting station here last February, returned Friday from a 15-day furlough.

JOHN THOMAS ALDER, Scottville, N. C. youth who has been working in Twin Falls the past few months, has been enlisted in the army for three years. He volunteered for the transport service in the Alaskan theater.

Cloying Perfume
NIA Staff Writer
Cloying perfume and cloying cologne are so incompatible that they should have been divorced long ago. At the beginning of summer, as a matter of fact, when girls started assembling their head-drying wardrobes, the delicate florals or bouquets which are so appealing as accessories to shifts from a summer garden, as suited to cottons as the starch that stiffens and glosses them up.

For new ways to use your summer come-hither, so that you can get longer leas on its evanescent sweetness, listen to Joan Council, Cosmetics Editor.

Use cologne, she says, as a fragrant rinse for a washable hair net and lingerie. A scented polish of cotton used to clean up your skin after make-up repairs will, according to Joan, give you power and give a lift to your spirits. A brush grunged with cologne and run through your hair has as freshening an effect on you as it does on a wilted rose, she says.

Metorites are usually so small that they are burned up long before they reach the ground.

Dodgers Blow Tilt to Reds; Cards Victors

BROOKLYN, Aug. 3 (U.S.A.)—The Dodgers blew today's game with Cincinnati 2-1, with two out in the ninth inning and saw their national league lead once again cut to a game and a half as the Cardinals downed the Phillies.

Ahead 2-1 with nobody on the basepaths and only one more man to retire, Kirby Higbe walked. Ben Chapman hit a fly to shortstop, Ed Laker, lifted a fly to shortstop for it.

There were no changes in the team standings in the Junior American league for the Little Champs. The Cardinals defeated the Athletics 11-1.
