Jury Asserts Accident Was Unavoidable

GLENN FERRY, Sept. 14 (AP)—A coroner's jury, hastily summoned at 1 a. m. today, pronounced "unavoidable" an automobile accident near King Hill last night in which Charles E. Redeye, 70, Wabash, Ind., was struck and dragged 20 feet, to die instantly of a fractured skull.

When the fatality occurred about 7:45 p. m. Friday, Redeye was standing on a straight stretch of highway about 20 miles east of King Hill, near a car in which he had been riding with a friend, who was killed and whose shoulder of the road in a previous mishap.

A death-dealing vehicle, driven eastward by William Kenneth Mitchell, Montrose, Calif., drove down the five men in the car of the initial wreck, three of them moved aside. Dale D. Darrah, Boise, driver of one of the vehicles, crashed cars, was grazed but unhurt and Redeye was killed.

Death came as a result of an "accident unavoidable" due to the fact that there were no flares out at the time it happened. The jury decided at the early inquest called by Philip F. Green, Elmore county coroner.

Although a 10-minute railroad-type flare was placed on the road after the crash, it was not seen by Redeye, Gooding, brother of the dead man, had called earlier, it was found. The jury also found Mitchell came along, Elmore county Sheriff C. R. (Bob) Love, deputy.

Testimony at the inquest, which was held at the Elmore county courthouse, showed that the car was Park C. A. Redeye, Sheriff Love, two Boise crash-drivers who had stopped to help the car, and Sheriff C. R. (Bob) Love, deputy.

Truman Vows Wallace Talk Not Endorsed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—President Truman today disavowed endorsement of the address of Secretary Wallace's controversial foreign policy speech, explaining in a statement that he had not approved the speech he approved.

"There has been no change in the established foreign policy of our government," the President told a news conference here today, "and the world which we live in is not a world which has been changed."

Sumner Reporters Mr. Truman today rebuffed a brief comment through the national press conference of summoning reporters to the White House office. He read the statement and said he had no more questions. The statement said:

"There has been a natural misunderstanding regarding the answer I made to a question asked at the press conference on Thursday, Sept. 12, with reference to the speech of the secretary of commerce delivered in New York last night. The question was answered extemporaneously and in answer did not come the thought that I intended it to convey."

When I intended to express the thought that I approved the right of the secretary of commerce to discuss the speech, I did not intend to indicate that I approved the speech as constituting a statement of the foreign policy of this country."

"There has been no change in the established foreign policy of our government. There will be no significant change in that policy without the consent of the Congress and the people of the United States."

Stassen Endorsed As '48 Candidate

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 14 (AP)—The Minnesota Republican state convention today unanimously endorsed former Gov. Harold E. Stassen as a candidate for President in 1948.

Stassen was named as a leader in public affairs and as a statesman with a clear understanding of the national and world problems of today, the resolution said, "Harold Stassen is a preeminently qualified to lead the Republican party in 1948 and the country as a whole."

British Move To End Reds' Housing Plan

LONDON, Sept. 14 (AP)—Five prominent members of the communist party were arrested tonight in a crackdown on "luxury squatters" as the government acted to halt the spreading communist-directed campaign.

The arrests followed quickly a government statement deploring the "unauthorized occupation of houses and flats" and the "unauthorized use of public buildings" for the purpose of "agitation and propaganda."

One of the points in the committee's preamble states that the council is "opposed to the federalization of our natural resources, as well as the nationalization of industry."

The purpose of the council is to "unify the existing agricultural organization leaders into a group to act as a coordinating unit of the agricultural policy."

It is not intended to duplicate the force and strength of the separate farm organizations, he said. (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

End Believed Near in Huge Ship Walkout

By The Associated Press

A conference of CIO National Maritime union leaders and shipyard workers in New York City adjourned last night without reaching a wage agreement, but a spokesman for the union said the walkout has been made "and the nation's vast shipping fleet was nearing end."

The spokesman was Frank J. Taylor, head of the American Maritime Union, which is leading the walkout. The conference was scheduled to resume at 10 a. m. (EST) today.

600-MPH Jet Ship Ready To Buzz Airport Monday

A P-50 "Shooting Star" traveling so fast that it would reach Jerome 90 seconds after passing over Twin Falls—that's one of the thrills awaiting spectators at the U. S. army air force show to appear Monday afternoon at the municipal airport under auspices of the Twin Falls Fair.

The show, featuring 14 of the latest in combat aircraft, will start at 1 p. m., with gates opening at noon, according to George N. Taylor, commander of the squadron.

While here to map final details for the show, Col. Chester C. Cox, commander of the eighth air force and commander of the new air transport command air demonstration unit which will appear, provided some interesting data on the event.

The unit, based at Memphis, Tenn., is composed of hand-picked personnel from combat units, as well as the air demonstration unit, as the only prior appearances will be at Boise and Portland.

The primary purpose of the air demonstration unit is to familiarize the American public with the present and future of the army air force, commented Col. Cox, and "to show that as much as the army is doing to improve its air force, it is also doing to improve its ground force."

27 New Plane Records Made By Air Force

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—Determined to make a new entry on every line of the world's record book, the army air force has set 27 marks this year and is trying for more.

The AAF listed a summary of eight months' achievement today and said it will continue "until the United States holds every important aviation record possible to attain with present equipment."

Four types of aircraft were used—The Boeing B-29 Superfortress, the Lockheed P-48 Shooting Star, the Douglas A-26 Invader and the Sikorsky H-34 helicopter.

Of the 27 new marks, nine previously were held in the United States (five by the AAF); seven were held in Europe, five in Italy, three in Russia, one in France and three were open with no official entry.

The air force noted that it had set an additional mark in December, the 450 miles an hour transcontinental crossing by Col. Clarence G. Irvine in his B-29 "Dreamboat."

However, it did not mention that the B-29 had set a record for a 10,000 miles to Cairo, Egypt.

The same plane holds the present world altitude distance record of 31,800 miles set last year in a Guam to Washington flight.

The AAF also omitted mention of the current effort to smash the world speed mark with a Republic P-48 Thunderbolt at Muroc, Calif. Trial runs have been underway for weeks.

The British, who put the record for a 10,000 miles to Cairo, Egypt, just filed a new record made with a Gloster Meteor two-engine jet.

Severe Meat Dearth Spreads Across U.S.

A severe meat shortage extended from coast to coast yesterday and even the most optimistic predictions placed substantial relief still several weeks away.

The shortage, which has been building since last week, is being felt in all parts of the country, from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific, and from the north to the south.

Red Insists Soviet's Veto Rights

PARIS, Sept. 14 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov said today that efforts to repudiate the right of veto in the U. N. security council should be rejected "as an attempt to prepare a new war" and warned that "it would be dangerous to ignore the Soviet Union" if the United Nations want peace.

Proposing "a Soviet system of democracy" for Trieste, Molotov made this statement after Australia charged yesterday that a security council was unfit to administer Trieste and had fallen "into disrepute" through "arbitrary, irresponsible and dictatorial" use of the veto power.

Molotov declared that "if the United Nations want to defend peace without the Soviet Union, it would be doomed to failure."

"Attempts to repudiate the right of veto in the security council should be rejected as an attempt to prepare a new war."

The repudiation or repudiation of the right of veto will help those who are trying to set up an Anglo-American bloc, but they will come to nothing for they are doomed to the same ignominious failure as in the past."

Molotov presented to the Italian political and territorial commission of the European peace conference a proposal for an international committee seeking to "neutralize and demilitarize" the area and assure withdrawal of foreign troops within 30 days after the signing of the Italian treaty.

Other points included the giving of Italy and Yugoslavia free port zones and all other commercial areas, setting up a "Trieste" zone, a customs and railway union, election of a legislature by universal suffrage and the giving of a governor to enforce the Trieste statute.

He proposed placing police powers under executive control by the legislature and the giving of citizenship to all inhabitants of the area except "fascists" and "Nazis."

He advocated also that the big powers should "re-examine" the Trieste problem and "re-examine" the Trieste problem and "re-examine" the Trieste problem.

Six Men Held For Sedition After Threat

WHITEFOOT, Ky., Sept. 14 (AP)—Sheriff Herman Combs announced tonight the arrest of six men on sedition charges which, he said, stemmed from mob agitation and threats to throw county officials out and blow up the county house.

Two other arrests, he added, may be expected the first of the week.

Responsible Letcher countyans were reluctant to comment, but it was learned reliably that the alleged agitation was an outgrowth of the recent Elk Horn Coal corporation strike in which the miners threatened the company's employment of one of Combs' deputies.

Combs said those booked on the sedition charges included Irvin Cornett and Aaron Adams of the Fennhill district, acene of one of the two mines operated by Elk Horn; Sam Perry, Stanley and Kenneth Profit and Frank Wright, in the county jail here; the sheriff and Perry were being held in the other, undisclosed jail, and that the two Profits and Frank Wright had been released on bonds of $5,000 each.

"There was a serious threat of trouble in the county earlier in the week," the sheriff said, adding that things seem to have quieted down now.

Police Get Boy, Stuck in Hole, Back to Safety

There's always some new problem for the Twin Falls city police department to solve.

Called to South Park Saturday afternoon by a report that a small boy was "trapped," they found him in a five-year-old hole housing the water cover equipment in a park.

His foot had slipped in between two pipes, holding him securely. Because of the small size of the hole, the boy could not bend down to free his foot, and when police arrived they could see just the top of his head above ground.

After considerable maneuvering, police were able to break his shoe string by a hook on the end of a pole, enabling the boy to slip out of the shoe and escape the "trap."

Blame for the drastic housing shortage was laid on government forces out of the States in order to get material shipped, Davidson stated, quoting sentiment expressed at the DAV national convention.

Burley Holds Housing Meet

BURLEY, Sept. 14.—Sixty five per cent of the building material in the county is being shipped out of the States, according to reports received at the national Disabled American Veterans meeting in Portland, J. F. Davidson, Wendell, deputy chief of staff who is attending here Friday night.

The session, held in the IOOF hall, was attended by representatives from all the veterans groups and civic organizations. Albert Nichols, Legion post commander, presided.

The group appointed a committee to work on securing emergency housing units from the POW camp at Paul for the winter. The group also discussed cutting red tape in an effort to get materials shipped to Burley for more housing next year.

Building Permits Hit $14,205 Mark In 7-Day Period

Although outdistancing the previous week by a substantial margin, building permit applications received at the Twin Falls city hall during the week just past totaled only $14,025, according to records at the city clerk's office.

This figure is below previous weeks which had been averaging about $20,000.

Four new applications were received Saturday involving construction, and improvements of family dwellings.

Frank L. Sumner, jr., plans remodeling of a frame dwelling at Maurice and Ninth avenue east at a cost of $5,000. Size of the structure is 50 by 125 feet.

A frame structure is scheduled for the Buena Vista addition at a cost of $1,000 by Fred E. Stout. Size of the unit is 24 by 32 feet.

Leo Cecil will build a three-room addition to a stucco dwelling on Addison avenue west for $2,000. Size of this is 14 by 38 feet.

Construction of a basement and addition of one room to a house, which will be a gabled-in porch, is planned by Van Rogers at 127 Austin street. This will be of frame and concrete construction, and cost will be $500.

State Highway 22 Rates As "Rough"

Motorists were advised that state highway 22 is in "rough" condition between Fairfield and Dixie, "fair" from there to Mountain Home, by state highway department officials.

Oiling and reconstruction are still in progress between Dixie and Mountain Home on U. S. highway 30 and drivers must still pursue a five and one-half mile detour between Twin Falls and Plover on the same road.

German Scrip Aimed to End Black Market

FRANKFURT, Sept. 14 (AP)—In a move to smash black marketing by American soldiers, the U. S. army has announced it will issue scrip next Tuesday in lieu of Allied marks as the legal tender in all post exchanges and other military establishments in the American zone of Germany.

Official reports said that millions of dollars obtained through black market operations have been sent back to the States by American soldiers and civilians in the past 18 months. Recently, under a strict currency control system, the flow of illicit dollars to the U. S. has been greatly retarded, but under the scrip system, it is expected that even that leak will be plugged.

Acting simultaneously in Rome to curb military black marketing, U. S. army authorities declared a 24-hour prohibition on virtually all soldiers' financial transactions.

The substitution of scrip for Allied marks will involve the redemption of an estimated 700,000,000 in Allied marks now believed to be credited as dollar-backed currency in the control books of more than 300,000 American and Allied personnel in the U. S. zone.

By making it impossible to convert marks into dollars, or make purchases in military establishments, army officials believed that the incentive would be removed for sales of cigarettes and other U. S. supplies in the black market. Under the scrip system, marks will be useless to Allied personnel, except to make purchases from German civilians who have virtually nothing to sell. From now until Tuesday the marks will be good only for the purchase of meals.

The youth was also judged grand champion showman in the event. At side is the grand champion lamb of Harold Hildford, Beryl, which was the first lamb to go on sale during the auction Saturday. (From Page One)

Cars driven by William Wiedeman, route 2, Kimberly, and Edwin W. Ames, Heyburn, were damaged when they "piled up" on Kimberly road east of here. Wiedeman failed to avoid striking a sedan driven by Lena G. Kunkle, route 1, Kimberly, who had stopped for a school bus. The accident occurred Friday morning.

At 9:31 a. m., a coupe driven by Clarence H. Boutman, 437 Locust street, was damaged in the front and when it collided with a city bus driven by Harold Macgiffin, 284 Jefferson street, at Fourth avenue east and Walnut street.

Neither driver was hurt when two cars bumped lightly at 10:47 p. m. Friday in heavy rain. A county fair traffic crossing the Rock creek bridge on U. S. highway 30 west of Twin Falls.

When Donald Lewis, Hagerman, halted his east-bound automobile, the car behind, which was driven by Lynn Sheppard, Phoenix, Ariz., failed to stop, backed and slightly damaged the left rear fender of the Idaho car. Front of the second car was bent slightly.

his Rupert coat and pasta, and his Cedar Draw studs and tie. Afterward we joined the well-known stilt man, the blawie new-laws, Papa and mama were there with the in-laws, shaking hands, flashing smiles and off like a couple of neon signs. Papa was awailing, and his jaws were crimson. Suddenly he spied us advancing, and a raffish grin split his face. "Hi there, gal!" he said. "Then putting one hand to his lips he added, in a whisper loud enough to be heard clear to Kimberly: 'How'd I do in your old man's shirt?'"

Notes on an evening in Twin Falls:

The new parking meters, awkward to work, but really solving the "round the block" problem for a place.

Five out-of-state cars practically in a row at the Perrine hotel curb - Oregon, New York, California, Nevada and Maine.

An enchanting gray suit in Iris Hale's window - suit made for some slim gal with long hair.

No doubt a chubby five-by-five will buy it. . . . A crowd of hungry people in a local salar.

Two men and a woman, seemingly civilized, sit and wait for 25 minutes (we timed) until after 10:15 p. m. asked, while before them stood patient couples waiting for places.

We like to think such a sad scene was transpiring passing through, and none of Magic Valley's own have their redone as a permanent landmark of the early days. Said one woman: "But these were here when the tract was long."

Mr. and Mrs. David Koenig walking home and inviting us to supper. . . . S. T. Henthorn strolling the pavement with a maitre d' look on his face. . . . People walking and talking, car rolling, children giggling and scurrying.

And the old clock above the bank marking the hours toward Eternity v. Time. . . . Time. . . . Time.

We hold the letter in our hands but its contents sound incredible here on the ranch where everything is so peaceful and safe. This is just a smattering. Leah is here at last. Her family were put in the Chetco - a filthy place - and every time the nixia came Mama Rosen hid the youngest daughter. The nixia finally got wise - declared everyone was to report or else. . . . Leah, the young sister, and Mama Rosen, marched three abreast next day and a nazi touched with a stick that he wanted to step out. He first touched Mama Rosen, then the young sister, but Leah, being beautiful, and looking like an Aryan, he passed her up. But she knew and they knew they were going to the gas chambers. The last thing Mama Rosen said to Leah was, "God be with you AND MAY HE HELP YOU GET TO AMERICA!"

America! They die for yearning to come here! Go on out and put your hands in the earth - maybe it's a long time since you touched good U. S. ground with your precious hands - and then thank the Lord you're here. This is Idaho! This is America! This is indeed the "good land of liberty" - what's left of it.

BOUQUET OF THE WEEK

To those lucky knights of the cow trail and sheep pen, who congregate daily in the Perrine lobby to talk shop and swap yarns. You'll usually find Ray Sackett, L. H.

Brown, Ed Quist and "Curley" Williams among them, and sooner or later Ed Splitter, Joe Barkley, Ray Lups or L. D. McCoy will wander in and join the gang. To all and hearken to these gents as they kid the juke-and-hiss off one another and spin their robust tales, is to enjoy the best show in town. These men represent a breed apart; they are shrewd, jovial and courageous. They could spot a stuffed shirt a mile off.

What's your Insurance Question?

"THE DOCTOR SAYS IT WILL BE MONTHS BEFORE JACK CAN WORK AGAIN... AND I DON'T KNOW HOW WE'LL MEET THE BILLS!"

Insurance Question:

What'll pay the bills if an accident strikes down the "breadwinner" in your family? Could you stand the loss of income... in addition to hospital bills, doctors' and nurses' fees, and other medical expenses?

Answer:

Harford will help you pay those bills - if you have the protection of Harford Personal Accident Insurance. You'll never miss the few pennies daily this protection costs. In serious trouble cases, your policy may save you hundreds or even thousands of dollars.

THE QUESTION

What suggestions do you have for improving the Twin Falls county fair next year?

THE PLACE

At the fairgrounds at Piler.

THE WINNER

Mrs. C. M. McEwain, 145 Ninth avenue north, wins the $1 award for submitting the question chosen this week. Questions may be submitted by phone, mail or in person up to noon Saturdays.

THE ANSWER

Mrs. Clarence Walcott, Twin Falls, leader of the 4-H Homemakers club, Twin Falls: "If you had the fair at the fairgrounds, that would make a much better fair."

A. E. Nelson, Jerome, whose daughter belongs to a 4-H beef club: "If you ask me, I'd suggest that the fair authorities ask clubs from outside counties to get their produce here until the day of the district 4-H judging. This was Friday, yet we were supposed to be here Tuesday—to fill in space, I guess."

Mrs. Frank Thatcher, Buhl, who was operating a hamburger stand: "If the superintendent of each district would go out and get more entries, there'd be more exhibitors for the fair."

MRS. THATCHER KNOX

Buddy Knox, who travels with the carnival and has appeared at fairgrounds all over the west: "This is the best fairgrounds that we've shown at anywhere; the thick grass is especially different from most grounds."

Bob Bell, cowboy from Richfield who rode in the amateur bronco contest each night: "The gates to the rodeo arena need some repainting."

BELL

Mrs. Emma Dunlap, Twin Falls: "If the roads in the grounds were improved, I think it would be a great boost to the fair."

I have just learned that ex-Sgt. Broda Rayborn is a candidate for Sheriff in your county. I do not know which ticket he is running on or whether or not he has an opponent, but I can not resist writing you some about this boy.

He is one of the few survivors of the original 21st infantry, who fought through the siege of Bataan and went from Bataan to Corregidor on the same boat with me. Where we were with the 4th marines until the Rock fell. I will not attempt to tell you of the sufferings and hardships that we went through, but I believe if there is ever a time when you fully know and become acquainted with a man's character it would be when he is going through what we did, and while prisoner of war in custody of the Japanese army.

We were all starving while prisoners and I know that Rayborn saved the lives of a number of American boys. I personally know that I owe my own life to him and one other man, as he gave us part of his food and there was not much food.

This boy was a leader and I do not believe you will find a more sincere or honest man living. He has plenty of ability and is fully capable of carrying out anything he undertakes to do.

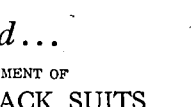

Respectfully,

A. G. Rucker

Ex-Master Sergeant and ex-prisoner of the Japanese army for three years and four months.

Postwar Road Work Delayed By Shortages

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—

The postwar highway construction program is moving slowly, and the public roads administration is not sure when it will begin to pick up speed.

Money is plentiful for the work—both state and federal. But shortages of materials, equipment and, in some cases, labor are holding things back.

Everything Short

A public roads administration official gave this picture of things as they stand today:

Structural steel—very short. Steel is needed for bridges and culverts. Bridge building is virtually stopped. Concrete—fairly sufficient supplies can be obtained.

Surfing materials—fairly plentiful.

Lumber—very short.

Equipment—shortages of trucks, tires and other machinery are hampering contractors.

Labor—shortages have slowed up work. Postwar conditions have led contractors to raise their bids on highway work. The official said that the average bid is from 50 to 60 percent, above the 1940 level. States have rejected about 20 percent of the offers as excessive.

Hopes Dashed

Most western states held high hopes at the end of the war of getting extensive road programs into high gear within a short time. These hopes have not been realized.

"Things are going to remain pretty much as they are now until economic conditions change," the official told a reporter. "Highway work will continue, but on a much reduced scale. Contractors can't get the materials to carry on a program at any price."

Lost Dog Returns To Police Station

If you want to argue the case that some dogs have more sense than some people, here's a point for the affirmative.

Last week, Charles Miller of Jerome reported to Twin Falls city police that he had lost his red cocker spaniel in Twin Falls. Shortly afterwards the dog wandered in to the police station, picked out a comfortable corner and went to sleep until his owner arrived to pick him up.

Contract Awarded On Cassia Roads

BOISE, Sept. 14 (AP)—Four contracts have been awarded for the reconstruction of 22 miles of roadways in three Idaho counties, State Highway Director T. Matt Hally reported today.

The Hoopa Construction company, Twin Falls, entered a low bid of $19,900 to construct a sub-base and surface on 5.55 miles of the Beeville road, one mile of the Church road, 2.30 miles of the View-west road and 2.5 miles of the Piler road, all in Cassia county.

Second low bid of $46,410 came from Carl E. Nelson Construction company, Logan, Utah. The engineer's estimate was $103,765.

Lost Dog Returns To Police Station

If you want to argue the case that some dogs have more sense than some people, here's a point for the affirmative.

Last week, Charles Miller of Jerome reported to Twin Falls city police that he had lost his red cocker spaniel in Twin Falls. Shortly afterwards the dog wandered in to the police station, picked out a comfortable corner and went to sleep until his owner arrived to pick him up.

Citizens Should Not Have to Force Officers, Says Minister

Editor, Times-News:

Since the sheriff's force made that raid on the gamblers in Piler Friday night, a number of people have been asking why didn't we do something about the gambling at the carnival and the filthy saloons and why put the blame on the local boys and let the outsiders go free—in all of which there is good reason. They have asked me these questions because I, along with H. E. Hammerquist, signed the affidavits that the gambling was going on and because I have made repeated protests against the wide-open gambling in this county. In all of this a public explanation is necessary.

The first place it should be pointed out that the sheriff was forced to make this raid. Undoubtedly he and his deputies must have known that the gambling was in progress in Piler. If the sheriff's force didn't know that it was there, they shouldn't have their jobs. And besides that, I went on the radio last Wednesday and broadcasted the facts about the gambling to the whole county. Nothing was done. They were allowed to continue until Thursday and Thursday evening. Then that evening, the affidavits were signed and the affidavits of the peace issued warrants for the sheriff to confiscate the gambling devices forthwith. That was done Friday.

It should not be necessary for private citizens to have to kindle a fire under the officers before the officers will act. This business of signing complaints and so forth is designed for citizens to aid the officers, not to force them. What should have happened in this: The gambling began Tuesday night. The later than Wednesday either the Piler police or the sheriff's force, without papers, warrants or affidavits, arrested everybody involved and confiscated the gambling devices and money on them. But neither acted until forced.

Besides all this, if it has come to the place that action cannot be had until private citizens do detective work and get evidence and have it all set down and all that, what's the matter with a lot of other folks signing some complaints? I'm only one and I do not choose to stick my neck out all the time. Every time I do, I lose friends. There are several dozen other ministers in this county—let them act. They preach righteousness; let them help clean up the place.

From now on I'm drawing in my neck. But I'm going into politics and will enforce the law as a matter of duty and not as a matter of being forced to.

Yours with blood in my eyes and for the election of Broda Rayburn on Nov. 3.

He Says Article Casts Cloud on County Officers

Editor, Times-News:

In your paper of Sept. 8 there was an article from the Idaho Pioneer regarding Ma Reynolds of Kimberly and her arrest for the illegal sale of liquor.

This article appears to me to cast a cloud over law enforcement in this county. It insinuates that there are others engaged in the liquor business who operate saloons and are open to juveniles and who run crap games and black jack games, etc.

This kind of thing does not appear to me to come under the heading of good humor and if there is any such condition existing it is high time that something was done about it.

As to the fact that six officers made this arrest, that may have been too many officers. But it was not long ago that the sheriff of this county and a deputy attempted to make an arrest of a 17-year-old girl and her companion, and according to press reports the sheriff and the deputy were tied up and their guns and car taken.

The old saying that the female of the species is more deadly than the male may be true; and I don't care if they need 10 officers, we have plenty of officers, and there still should be something done.

Hansen Resident Declares Others 'Hid Behind Ma'

Editor, Times-News:

I am writing this in regard to an editorial I read in "Views of Others" of Sunday's Times-News. The heading was "Ma Didn't Know." Well, we still don't know who furnished Ma the whiskey or who bought the drink or the bottle that was used as the evidence to convict her. But, anyway, they were free by hiding behind Ma who takes the blame.

Well, there is a great deal of law performed that way in Hansen. The fellow who is honest goes to the city officer and pays his dog tax. The other fellow can have from one to three dogs and get by with it.

Things as small as small grade school children cannot play on the front school lawn. But on Sunday horses are run up and down our city streets and on the school lawn. Then on Monday morning the little ones

Californian Enjoyed Stop Here But Comments on Our Meters

Editor, Times-News:

(This letter was written to the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce and forwarded to the editor.) A few days ago I spent about one half hour in your town, and I did enjoy your pleasant little city.

However, I am sending along a pleasant reminder of the fact that I was there. (Enclosed was a police department meter for a 15 minute parking time.) You have parking meters for the payment of parking time on your streets. Upon reading the meter I noticed it said one hour, five cents; 15 minutes, one cent; so I placed three cents in the parking meter as I did not have a nickel change with me, and then went on my way.

I came back and found the police department had come along and was doing an excellent job. I paid the additional $1 for the privilege of staying 32 or 33 minutes in your town, making a total of $1.03. Now the question in my mind is: Are five pennies worth a nickel in Twin Falls? Apparently not.

Yours is the only town where parking meters do not give credit for each cent deposited. It seems to me that it is a good way to insure a town—sort of talking from the Chamber of Commerce point of view. I go into lots of busy towns and they even have two-hour parking limits for 10 cents and I am sure there is no busier city than Sacramento—at least in California. Occasionally there are places where one can park for only 12 minutes for a one-cent fee and then the car must be moved but in your town all the meters are alike, as I observed afterwards. Your method of doing business is to limit parking and to collect fees. Why don't you are again forbidden to be on said lawn. Sometimes we wonder if Idaho has laws.

HANSEN TAXPAYER

Survey's Results Should Be Given Before Election

Editor, Times-News:

The contract on the Idaho public school survey called for a report by the committee in October. The taxpayers paid $50,000 for this survey and I believe the report should be made as soon as possible, not held until after election as requested by some candidates.

The state should not be thrown into another quick, uninformed action as in the case of the teachers' retirement legislation where the state pays as high as $1,500 a year pension without a cent paid in by the teacher.

Policy Told by Wallace Ought To Have Been True Years Ago

Editor, Times-News:

The Wallace pronouncement on foreign affairs, and endorsed by President Truman, is exactly what should always have been our foreign policy. I agree with Wallace, and the President, in their condemnation of the British "Balance of Power Doctrine."

That doctrine, which the British still pride themselves, had the Wallace pronouncement always been our foreign policy we would not have participated in World War I, nor in World War II.

Of the British "Balance of Power" I wrote in this Forum, Oct. 15, 1935: "It has caused more wars, spilled more blood, made more widows and orphans, done more to take the joy out of the world, done more to make mankind doubt whether there is a God in heaven, than—than—there is no comparison."

And then on Feb. 20, 1944, I wrote in this Forum: "Let us pray that when the war ends, the united Europe will become one great, united and indissoluble federation, even if it must be under the leadership of Russia; and that while extending to Britain a good neighbor policy they will bury the balance of power doctrine deep, and over it build a sky-piercing monument not unlike our own Statue of Liberty."

Mr. Editor, I am an opponent of the new deal, and of its counterpart, communism. I think the American way of life went out with the new deal and came in with the old. I think the American way of life went out with the new deal and came in with the old. I think the American way of life went out with the new deal and came in with the old.

Aid Salvation Army Is Plea In Campaign

Pointed at filling two vital needs—a day nursery and a general headquarters—the Salvation Army's appeal for funds to finance this project will open tomorrow with a kick-off breakfast at 7 a. m. at the Park hotel.

Under leadership of Chairman H. O. Lauterbach, final preparations will be made to canvass the city by division captains appointed at an organization meeting last week. The goal for the campaign is $25,000 and it has as its keynote, "Marching Forward With Twin Falls."

Lauterbach, in urging full support of the drive, pointed out that the present building housing the Salvation Army is inadequate for rendering the many services to the community which the army is capable, and that the projected day nursery would provide facilities for children of working mothers.

Mrs. Clara Nielsen, local officer of the Salvation Army, said that the pre-campaign statement last night said, "We are very grateful to the citizens of Twin Falls for their humble that they should undertake providing us with a new building. With adequate facilities, we shall be able to expand greatly our work here and to administer to many of our people, both physically and spiritually."

Also commenting on the drive was Mrs. Helen Bailey, executive secretary of the Twin Falls chapter of the American Red Cross. "The Red Cross has worked closely with the Salvation Army for the past three years," she observed. "Through cooperative planning, we have tried not to have duplication of service. We have found the Salvation Army personnel to be women of integrity, ability and we are in utmost sympathy with the furtherance of their program."

Gooding to Use Cachet on First Day Air Letters

GOODING, Sept. 14.—Philatelist and stamp enthusiasts are making a good showing by requesting cachets which will mark the start of air mail service for Gooding Sept. 16, said Mark Shotwell, Gooding postmaster.

The special cachet, he said, will be placed by the postoffice department on all air mail envelopes to make the first flight via Empire Airlines from here shortly after 8 a. m. Wednesday.

"Several hundred envelopes have been received for mailing and they continue to pour in daily," he said. Collectors who desire the cachet should place the envelope to be mailed, plus eight cents postage, in another envelope addressed to "Gooding postmaster."

The space in the lower left hand corner of the first-flight cover will be left vacant to accommodate a cachet approximately two and one-half inches square.

The cachet outlines the air mail route throughout Idaho, Oregon, and Washington, and bears the outline of heads of Poland China hog and Hereford cow, symbolizing Idaho meat production.

Completing arrangements here for the cachet was E. S. Ransom, San Francisco, Calif., assistant regional superintendent of air mail service.

BURLEY PLANS ENVELOPE. BURLEY, Sept. 14.—The Burley Chamber of Commerce is furnishing souvenir envelopes to be mailed on the initial air mail flight of Empire Airlines from here on Wednesday. It was stated today.

Collectors have shown a good response in securing the souvenir, it was said.

Farm Wage Board Studies Top for Sugar Beet Labor

Sugar beet growers from 20 Idaho counties plus Malheur county, Oregon, Saturday afternoon recommended a wage ceiling be imposed for the sugar beet harvest but that the ceiling be established at only a slight increase over the government prescribed minimum. The hearing was held here before the Idaho U. S. department of agriculture wage stabilization board.

No definite action was taken here by the wage board regarding establishment of wage ceilings. The hearing was one of many sessions of information being studied by the board to arrive at a decision, according to C. S. Safferting, executive director of the board.

Two Per Cent

The group recommended that a two per cent increase over the minimum be established, although there was considerable sentiment, especially from western Idaho, that the increase should be four or five per cent maximum.

W. J. Taylor, Riley, speaking the sentiment of eastern Idaho growers, advocated an equal ceiling throughout the state lest laborers would migrate to higher paying areas.

William Carson, Weiser, pointed out that the western Idaho growers were seeking higher wages but were recommending a percentage increase that the board would be willing to accept.

The growers also recommended the beet ceiling be imposed as soon as the beet harvest gets underway. In Malheur Valley, beet harvesting stations are to open Sept. 30 and sugar factories at Burley, Rupert, and Twin Falls will begin processing the beets about Oct. 3 or 4, according to Harry A. Elcock, district manager of the Amalgamated Sugar company.

The sentiment of the growers was expressed at a mass meeting conducted by Carl Leonard, filer, president of the Twin Falls County Beet Growers association. Discussion did not go into the records of the hearing, but the sentiment expressed was that the growers wanted a "minimum" increase over the government minimum. The government prescribed minimum wage varies according to the type of work being done and the yield per acre of the farm, but is about $1.55 a ton in Magic Valley.

Would Hurt Acreage

Western Idaho growers expressed the sentiment that if the beet wage ceiling is set too high it will affect the beet acreage in 1947. Fred Nichols, Nampa, a representative of the Canyon county association, reported his group went on record opposing the wage ceiling because the wage rate is "exorbitant" and would result in "decreased acreage next year."

"However, if the growers were assured that only a four or five per cent increase above minimum would be established, the group would have favored a ceiling," he said.

Nichols added that the Canyon group had figured the wage ceiling would be set at 10 per cent over the minimum as in other farm wage ceilings in the state.

Olen Lewis, Burley, president of the Canyon County Beet Growers association, said his group went on record for a ceiling "for the protection of the grower."

Low Ceiling

J. C. Butler, Gooding, chairman of the Gooding County Beet Growers association, said his group had not met to consider the ceiling, but the Farm Labor Spontaneous action had approved a low ceiling. He added that 70 laborers put in the same effort on topping beets they'd make more money than they do in potatoes.

Sixty-eight growers, laborers and sugar company representatives attended the session. Sitting on the board were James W. Farrell, chairman; Herrington, Ronald W. Purman, state farm security administrator; and R. H. Richard, C. Ross, board member. I. L. Alvord, Twin Falls, district manager of the American Sugar company, also attended.

'Ins' Drunk With Power, Says Idaho GOP Chairman

The Democrats "have been in power so long that they have become drunk with ideas of personal importance and have entirely lost sight of the fact that they were elected to govern in the name of the common man," declared Tom W. Smith, Rexburg, state chairman of the Republican party, at a weekend political session here.

"The Democrats, he contended, 'have become so involved in their own muddled thinking and in their desperate attempts to control the votes of all the minorities, that they have worked the economy of this nation into a straight jacket,' from which, he added, 'only a change of administration can extract it.'"

"Conferring here and, incidentally, viewing the Twin Falls county fair at Piler, were Dr. C. A. Robbins, St. Maries, GOP governor candidate; U. S. Rep. Henry C. Dworshak, Burley, senator candidate; Clyde Musgrave, Piler, county chairman, and members of the county GOP executive committee.

Smith said that he remained unconvinced that "the people of Idaho want communism or socialism, or that they want the federal government to meddle in affairs which are strictly their own business, including the control of their heads."

The last remark was a criticism of Pete Leguineche, Boise, Democratic candidate for congress and proponent of CVA, who will race John Sanborn, Hagerman GOP candidate, for the post.

Idaho voters, said Smith, should examine six questions before going to the polls in November, for "these issues will determine the outcome of the election."

They are (1) the CVA; (2) current "tendencies to communism" in the national administration; (3) the "continued encroachment" of federal government in matters pertaining purely to the state; (4) a sound program of domestic economy that will remove the current threat of inflation; (5) bringing to book war profiteers and government contract chiselers; and (6) appealing Russia or any other country responsible for the death of our occupation troops.

"Never before have the issues been so clearly defined. Never before has Idaho and the nation so badly needed a change in political administration," Smith said.

Fire Pronounced As Dead-Out-Now

HAILEY, Sept. 14.—After burning across an estimated 600 acres of both federal and private land, a range fire that started Thursday morning and burned buildings at the non-operating Exner and Star mines west of here, was reported "dead out" at 8 p. m. today by Clay Eskridge, Hailey, fire aide in charge.

Fire was set by a rancher for a legitimate purpose—to clear off sagebrush so that sheep can graze on the land next spring—but wind whipped the flames out of control.

Before has Idaho and the nation so badly needed a change in political administration," Smith said.

aid J. A. Keith, district grazer. The rancher had the permission of the federal grazing service to light the fire, Keith reported.
