A committee of water users representing directors and officers of 60 Idaho irrigation companies and districts Saturday sent on record here as opposed to the Columbia valley authority legislation.

Don Stafford, chairman of the board of directors of the Twin Falls Canal company and spokesman for the committee, said that the "drastic far-reaching" power granted the authority under provisions of pending the bureau of reclamation officers.

Other members of the committee are W. A. Helt, Jerome, chairman of the board of directors of the North Side Canal company, Ltd., and John Kelly, Shelley, chairman of the Upper Snake River Water Users Protective union.

Stafford also denied that Idaho Power company rights interfere with irrigation. He said that storage rights on Blackfoot marsh reservoirs for 3,272,000 acre feet of water for annual use. Out of this amount, the Idaho Power company has primary right of only 45,000 acre feet in the American Falls reservoir, which is an insignificant amount and never affects irrigation.

Stafford declared that CVA would have the right to determine the use of a farm unit and pointed out that it might be 10 acres or 1,000 acres. He said that the CVA would have the power to condemn private property for any of the purposes of the act without review by the courts as any individual.

The reclamation spokesman also pointed out that the "CVA threatens to take the private property of the Idaho constitution which provides that the use of all waters... is subject to the regulation and control of the state as approved by the federal congress when it adopted the Idaho reclamation act in 1902."

In commenting that CVA could not be required to comply with state law, Stafford pointed out that present reclamation law requires the secretary of the bureau of reclamation to file a claim to proceed in conformity with state laws in the same manner as any individual.

Small Nations Flay U. N. Bid Rejection

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 2 (AP)—Despite strenuous efforts of Soviet Russia to block criticism of the United Nations security council, Egypt and Argentina today led a small-nations attack on the council for rejecting the applications of Ireland, Portugal, Transjordan, Albania and Outer Mongolia for U. N. membership.

The sharpest attack came from Argentine Delegate Jose Arce, who protested particularly against the veto of membership applications and declared that if this procedure is to be followed "it is better if the other 46 nations simply folded up their papers and turned over to the five great powers the solution of our problems."

The controversy developed at the opening meeting of the general assembly, a powerful political committee which has been set up to discuss such issues as the Soviet arms limitation proposals, demands for action against France Spain and the veto question.

Australian Delegate Paul Hasluck pointed out in a formal move that the security council be given no authority over the admission of new members, except to state whether it believes the applicant state is able and willing to carry out its obligations in so far as peace and security are concerned.

He proposed that a committee be named to work out terms acceptable to both the assembly and the council laying down specific requirements for membership.

One of the high spots in the debate was a clash between Senator Don Connolly, D. N. Y., representative, and Soviet Representative Andrei V. Vishinsky over the principle of the committee's right to review the security council's action.

"A minority insisted that the committee had no 'mandate' to criticize the council, while 'Connolly' insisted that the committee had the right to review the council's action and could discuss any part of the council's decision on the admission of new members."

Bevin Sounds Note of Hope For Treaties

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin today sounded a note of hope for the future of the four-power foreign ministers' meeting in London, saying that the United Nations is pledged to keep, French Deputy Foreign Minister Maurice Coue de Murville, who arrived on the Atlantic liner, said he thought the foreign ministers would find it easier to reach agreement on the 20th of November for the treaties for Italy, Finland, Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania.

In this connection, Bevin approved a request by Belgium and the Netherlands to participate in the four-powers discussion on Germany.

Although Bevin did not mention that he intended to confer immediately with Secretary of State James V. Byrnes on Anglo-American relations in the peace deliberations, an authorized source said he would probably be in London within 36 hours on this matter.

Hunting Accident Costs Man's Eye

JERICHO, N. Y., Nov. 2—Harold Kuhn, 26, lost his right eye as result of a hunting accident on his farm south of Jericho, where the Falls City district is located.

Kuhn was hunting pheasants with Adam Meyer, a 20-year-old son of Meyer's, when the accident occurred. According to Meyer, the pair was walking across a wheat field to some willows when Meyer's gun flashed fire into the willows, and Meyer went in after him.

Kuhn, who was shot in the eye, was brought to the Twin Falls county hospital, where the eye was removed by a Twin Falls surgeon.

Voters Give Amazing Replies Here, Say Taylor in Race, Rarely Hear of Sanborn

How intelligent... politically... are many of our voters?

With that goal in mind and a firm belief in the principle that an intelligent voter, one who is aware of the political issues and the candidates involved, is the foundation of a workable democracy, this Times-News set out to ask 20 Twin Falls voters—25 women and 14 men—about political questions.

The results are amazing—and make you wonder just why democracy does work.

The first question was: "For how long has the name of Taylor been running?" I had heard it a tricky question, but then I asked the voters to name the candidates for governor, U. S. senator, and congressman. The answers were amazing. Not a single voter had heard of Sanborn.

One man replied that Taylor was running for dogcatcher and another said that "he's running for everything."

They were labeled "Republicans" and the polling procedure was simple. The voters were asked to name the Democrat and Republican candidates for governor, U. S. senator, and congressman. The results were amazing. Not a single voter had heard of Sanborn.

The "second district" fooled a lot of people but it was successfully fooled by explaining that the election was made to the congressional candidates for whom Twin Falls and Blaine Valley voters would ballot Tuesday.

Here are the correct answers, just in case: Republicans—Dr. C. A. Hobbs, governor; Dewarshak, U. S. senator; John Sanborn, congressman. Democrats—Gov. James M. Wilson, governor; George Donaghy, U. S. senator; and Pete Lequinque, congressman.

Except for the one woman who answered "I don't know" for all three candidates, George Dewarshak made a clean sweep. Thirty-eight knew he was seeking reelection. Only one voter, a woman, named him in the GOP primary, accord twice as the Republican candidate in the Blaine Valley district. The Republican candidate named was Sanborn, who was chosen nine women. Dewarshak was chosen

Record Turnout of Idaho Voters to Polish Off One of Most Bitter Campaigns

BOISE, Nov. 2 (AP)—The surrender terms in Idaho's 1946 political battle will be written Tuesday by about 200,000 voters who have listened for two long months to an artillery barrage of oratory, tactical argument and personal attacks that turned the campaign into one of the state's bitterest.

A record turnout of voters for a non-presidential election was predicted by state chairmen of the Republican and Democratic parties. The weatherman forecast tonight that conditions would be "generally fair and warmer Tuesday"—an allusion to getting out the Idaho vote. The polls open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m.

Both Parties Predict Wins In U. S. Vote

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—The 1946 battle of the ballots produced for the first time a prediction of a tie between the Democratic and Republican parties. The prediction was made by the two parties' state chairmen, who predicted that the election would be a "close one."

Horse-Buggy Hospital Branded As Perilous

Describing the Twin Falls county general hospital as "a horse and buggy hospital in which it is impossible to practice any but horse and buggy medicine," Dr. Luther C. Thompson, Twin Falls child specialist, Saturday called for serious consideration of these and other dire by-laws of the hospital. He said that the hospital was "a horse and buggy hospital in which it is impossible to practice any but horse and buggy medicine."

County Press, Radio Uphold Hospital Plan

As a sounding board for public opinion, as well as a strong force in shaping public thought, the press of Twin Falls county, through its editorial pages, has expressed keen interest in the outcome of next Tuesday's hospital bond election. The pediatrician, secretary of the South Side Medical society, appeared under auspices of a group of mothers with the address.

"It has been definitely established that the present hospital facilities are grossly inadequate. Not only are they inadequate, they are dangerous. Dr. Thompson declared over KVMV.

"Can't be impossible. Continuing, he said, 'Nurses, respectively of their excellent training, cannot do the impossible. They cannot give the best care under crowded conditions with outmoded and insufficient equipment. We no longer believe that babies are safe in this hospital. We know that outmoded equipment suitable for treating adults is not suitable for treating small children.'

"Merely a space in a hall cannot be considered modern equipment. A hospital for a critically ill child who needs constant temperature, oxygen therapy, specific medication, constant feeding and constant observation.

Cries Linda Hall, a nurse. 'Because of the winter the inadequate conditions of the hospital constantly asked me was, 'When is this baby going to go home? Is this baby going to go home?'

"We feel that the time has come when most voters in the county will evidence their faith and will get the new hospital for a greater Twin Falls county. It will not cost the taxpayers very much more. It is needed is urgent. The question is fair and will benefit all of us to a degree. It is a question of off-our financial consideration from the taxpayers."

R. A. McIntire, editor and publisher of the Herald, said: "When deciding which way to vote on this issue, ask yourself—'How is the county to have complete and adequate hospital facilities 18 miles away if necessary, rather than to put up with what we have here for too many years? Ask yourself—'Which way should I vote to do the best for the county?'

"In my viewpoint? Ask yourself—'Can this county hope to attract and keep capital physicians, surgeons' (Continued on Page 4, Column 1)

Drive Opened To Hurry End Of 4 Strikes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The labor department announced today that it will place into effect a government order to force the nation's most stubborn strikes.

They are the maritime Pacific coast maritime and seafarers' strikes, a two-month strike of sugar workers in Hawaii, and the month-old strike of the West Coast, W. A. Tractor plant of the Alto-Chalmers manufacturing company.

There are the moves made by the two agencies:

1. The maritime commission authorized it will coast agents to place into effect on government Pacific coast ships the terms of the recent rat and coal coast maritime strike settlement.
 2. The labor department assigned Nathan P. Pennington, University of Wisconsin law professor who serves as an arbitrator mediator, to work on the Pacific maritime and coal workers disputes, as well as the Hawaiian sugar stoppage.
 3. Labor Secretary Harold Ickes ordered the Alto-Chalmers company and the striking CIO Auto Workers to send negotiators to a bargaining session here Monday.
- Only 11,000 workers are involved in Alto-Chalmers but it has been one of the more serious recent events because of the big farm demand for new equipment.

A Familiar Face

Gary Coopers Spotted Here On Way to Hunting Grounds

By JUANITA BAKER

In great good humor, headed for Magic Valley pleasant hunting and some early skiing, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cooper stopped in Twin Falls Wednesday night for a quiet dinner at Wray's cafe and look in cheerful when the anonymity faded.

The film star and his wife, cheerily inquired about the weather and the chances of the present season, even though they appeared a bit weary after driving from the coast in less than two days. Their car was parked in the rear.

They were seated in a booth in "Clock and Diner," was casually dressed in blue sweater, sports jacket, light tan slacks and buttoned belt. The atmosphere of the easy-going westerner he especially enjoyed by his drawing speech. The soft-spoken Rocky's green-green eyes and smile with little dimples were keynotes by a part, left almost unchanged with father.

Rocky's good was the lucky waitress who served the Coopers and among the children's welcome in for an autograph was little Miss Pea Shiner.

Truck, Car Overturn on Area Roads

Although two vehicles were damaged when they overturned in a pair of early morning highway accidents Friday, their occupants escaped unhurt, according to reports of investigating state and county officers. A third, less serious accident occurred here also.

When Tony Kirkland took stock of himself after coming up from a fall he was driving toward Twin Falls at 6:30 a. m. Friday, he went on to his job in an ice cream parlor after locating only one scratch—on his wedding ring.

Pulling to the side to avoid a collision with an oncoming car on U. S. highway 30, Kirkland said he hit a patch of oil and lost control of the car, which veered across the road and rolled off a telephone pole and overturned in the ditch.

Damage done to the 1941 vehicle was estimated at $400 by State Police Officer John E. Fisher, who investigated.

Truck Upsets

A 1946 pickup truck driven by Odie Lee Teague, 18, of 1141 N. 1st, was damaged at 4:30 a. m. Friday when it struck a telephone pole and overturned on U. S. highway 30 one-half mile east of Fort Deposit. Sheriff D. C. Parrott, county traffic officer, said the driver and one passenger, Tom Vaughn, 19, 1141 N. 1st, escaped injury, but the truck's top, fenders and hood were damaged.

The truck rolled into the construction area, turned over on its top and was crushed on the highway, said Parrott.

Two Cars Collide

When Francis M. Roberts, Jr., route two, Twin Falls, failed to signal before turning into a driveway on Kimberly road, the 1939 sedan he was driving was struck by a car operated by Robert Anderson, Twin Falls, at 8:20 a. m. Friday, according to investigating Twin Falls city police.

Right rear fender, right rear door and the running board of the Roberts machine were damaged, while the Anderson car, a 1940 model, received only slight damage, the report shows.

SERVING HIS FINE

Tony Falch, Mullanburg, was fined $15 and $500 costs on a charge of being intoxicated in public, when he appeared Friday before Probate Judge R. T. Hamilton. He was arrested Wednesday by his sheriff's deputies. Unable to pay the fine, he is being held in the county jail.

Leguineche Ends Magic Valley Trip

JEROME, Nov. 2.—A recapitulation of Pete Leguineche's platform made up the bulk of the Boise Democrat's last pre-election speech in south-central Idaho Friday night.

The young candidate for congress reviewed for his 400 auditors the principles he has affirmed "since the first day of the primaries."

He filled in his listeners on his stand for CVA, his belief in a world organization to maintain peace, his support of a "long-range" farm program and his espousal of minimum wage and full employment guarantee plans.

Asserting that the Democratic party stands for "action, not inaction," Leguineche declared himself "proud" to have campaigned along the path charted for us by Franklin Roosevelt.

Robert L. Summerfield, Twin Falls Democrat aiming at the lieutenant-governor's post, declared himself "proud" to have campaigned on the Democratic ticket with such a "good group" of candidates.

Only 1 Crop Laborer Stayed, Says Coiner

Ill-starred was W. A. Coiner's quest for harvest workers which took the Kimberly farmer to Elmer, Ore., two weeks ago, when he rounded up 20 men whom he shipped to Twin Falls to be his.

By Saturday the last of the "harvesters" had pulled out of Twin Falls labor camp where they were housed. Said Coiner, "One of them didn't even go to the camp after he got to Twin Falls, another never went to work, some drifted away after a couple of days in my fields and a lone exception stayed till the job was done."

A WORD ABOUT SHOE PRICES

Now that footwear has been released from all price control it is our belief that ultimately shoes will be more plentiful but at much higher prices due to the world market price of leather.

The shoe industry, like so many others, flourished under the American enterprise system in the past and resulted in the world's finest quality footwear at the world's lowest prices consistent with that quality.

Hudson's have always featured the finest footwear obtainable... brands known the country over for their quality, durability and beauty... and have sold at the lowest possible prices, depending on volume rather than high mark-up to yield profit. It is your friendship and patronage that has made our large annual turnover possible.

Now, with price ceilings removed, we pledge ourselves to hold the line on prices and continue to offer only the best footwear available at the lowest possible prices. We pledge that we will not increase prices under any circumstances unless and until forced to do so by increased prices on replacement stocks from the manufacturers.

Shoe prices will rise in the very near future, in fact are already rising in the wholesale markets. These advances may be small and again they may be great... frankly we don't know how great the increases may be. We hope they will be small and of a temporary nature and that in the very near future free American enterprise and free American competition will again offer you the world's best footwear at the world's lowest prices.

Holding the line now on prices is our way of thanking you for your splendid patronage and your patience through the trying years of the war.

OPA Expands Staff to Work Rent Controls

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—A determined fight to maintain rent controls was signalled by OPA today with disclosure that the price agency is expanding its rental staff.

Even while knocking off other price bids by the dozens, OPA has recruited 336 new rent enforcers and expects to hire more this month, an official said.

4114 Employees Now

The field and national force already working efficiently on rental ceilings numbered 8,114 today. Many other OPA workers spend part of their time in enforcement, accounting and administration.

President Truman gave White House backing to the continuation of rental controls earlier when he started the recent decontrol wave in other fields by freeing meats and livestock.

OPA personnel heads said they will not know before Nov. 15 just how many of the 34,300 OPA employees will be dismissed as a result of the decontrol move. About 31,000 of their workers hold jobs out of Washington.

10,000 Notified

The price agency appeared certain to whistle its force down to 25,000 this month. Some 10,000 OPA workers already have been notified of their dismissal as a result of an order clearing out all local price control boards next Thursday.

Still to be determined is the status of another 3,500 who have been controlling food and meat prices, as well as jobs involved in the decontrol of shoes, leather, bibles and a long list of minor items this week.

Cars, Meters Damaged by Pranks Here

To the list of acts of malicious mischief performed by a group of hoodlums on Halloween have been added two more examples of activities which stirred Police Chief Howard Gillette to condemn the perpetrators for their lack of sportsmanship.

Waiting until the early morning hours when they knew they would be less likely to be apprehended by officers or civic-minded townspeople, several crews driving automobiles toured the city throwing "eggs" at automobiles.

"It would have been bad enough if these had been just ordinary eggs," Chief Gillette said, "but, to make it worse, they had taken empty shells, filled them with yellow and white paint to resemble the contents of eggs and then sealed them up with wax. Such a mischief permanently damages the finish of a car or anything else that it hits."

Other acts of vandalism included breaking the glass and some of the mechanism out of 38 parking meters with a small hammer and setting of fires in alleys and at other points in the city.

The police department and everyone else is disappointed and humored to put up with Halloween funmaking," Chief Gillette said. "As there are some who want to carry it too far, however, it looks as though we'll have to clamp down on everyone next Halloween, since our appeal to the sportsmanship of parents and their children didn't seem to be appreciated."
