would set up a new prison plant.

The H. R. 3 amendment eliminates from the constitution the phrase shown here in parentheses: "The governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall constitute a board of state prison commissioners which board shall have such supervision of all matters connected with the state prison as may be prescribed by law. They shall also constitute a board of clemency, with power, etc."

H. R. 3 would vest the pardoning power in a pardon board located at the governor, secretary of state and attorney general, as is now the case.

Proposed amendment S. J. R. 4 is another clarifying proposal to correct an amendment passed in 1940. Through an oversight the word "state" was left out of the approved list of bonds in which Idaho may invest surplus funds.

The fourth proposed amendment, H. R. No. 1, would increase the salary of state legislators from $5 to $10 a day, with a 50-day limit for regular session and 20 days for special sessions.

The Rev. Mr. Gardner pointed out that the amendment would repeal a 1941 law which made slot machines legal in the state. He added that the measure had got out of hand because "too many non-profit clubs were authorized."

The local prohibition initiative would make it possible for persons who are predominantly "dry" in thinking to become "wet" and permit those counties which are predominantly "wet" to become "dry." It would give the county the right to decide its own policy regarding the sale of intoxicating liquors. Regulations for beer are not covered in the initiative.

The prohibition initiative would make bootlegging difficult by eliminating "block" purchases from the state liquor stores and limit sales to one quart a day and two quarts a week. The Rev. Mr. Gardner declared he said that the measure also would do away with the locker system in night clubs and make it illegal for liquor peddlers to act as representatives of liquor interests in the sale and promotion of their products. Liquor advertising also would be restrained under the measure.

So It Wasn't a Train Holdup, After All, Out on the Salmon

By H. L. CRAIG
(Twin Falls)

Mr. J. H. H. was riding on the Salmon Canal company's party line and heard Dale March ask Jim Farrar, "Who was making the telephone at a check this morning?"

"Jim's voice," I don't know," Farrar said.

"What was the matter with him?"

"I don't know either," voice of Leonard Graves.

"What was the matter with him?"

"I was trying to hold up a freight train."

"That is the way matters start out to stupefy myself and to show that I acted in good faith through the affair I must let the real facts of the case be known."

"It is not true that I held up the train nor did I kidnap the conductor, as he has been charged, and force him to ride around the Salmon tract with me for a while. I went with me on his own fire will neither did I take up half the price of the hold-up, as a pretense. I believe the prank was as being alleged. I was only trying to wake up W. M. H. about the train."

The real facts are simple. The train from Wells pulled at the side of the southbound train to pass. The southbound train was stuck waiting for three hours the conductor came to the house seeking a telephone to call the dispatcher. The train was stuck waiting for three hours the conductor came to the house seeking a telephone to call the dispatcher. FARMED AT WENDLE

WENDLE, Nov. 4.—A man who farmed five miles west of Wendle, was riding with his wife, Edith, in the back seat of a car driven by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hartley, also of Wendle, about Sunday.

The group had just left the Sunbeam store in the Stanley basin area for groceries and had gone about 20 yards into the 20-30 rifle, lying on the back seat between Moore and his wife, discharged at 6:30 p. m.

The bullet entered his left side, going completely through his body and out the rear window of the car, tearing the upholstery of the car as it went. He was rushed back to the store where he died at 9:20 p. m.

The party had seen numerous deer on the road before they reached the store and Moore had loaded his rifle, intending to shoot at the next one he saw, Hartley reported.

He was born March 27, 1914, at Fruita, Colo. In addition to his wife, Moore is survived by five small children and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore, Wendle.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Thompson funeral chapel. (Cooding burial) will be in the Wendle cemetery.

Army-Irish Battle to Decide National Title

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—They'll play the usual quota of college football games on the white-striped fields around the country this week but to the average fan the only thing that matters will be the national championship struggle between Army and Notre Dame.

Not since the Titanic sank the iceberg has a head-on collision attracted as much attention as this important clash bringing the nation's two outstanding gridiron powers face to face at New York's Yankee stadium on Saturday afternoon.

These two outfits still remain unbeaten and untied—a condition shared only by UCLA and Georgia among all the major eleven in the land.

Both of them warmed up to the battle of the year by scoring stout victories last weekend. Army, which in which Pennsylvania and Harvard were humbled rudely only to be avenged by a 14-0 victory over the victor.

Notre Dame whipped Navy, 20-0, for its fifth triumph.

Army, which defeated a stubborn Virginia team 10-0 to run its three-year victory string to 25 in a row, 49-00 to Sea Game.

A crowd of some 80,000 will squeeze into the park that Babe Ruth's built to see the season's top attraction, and anyone calling it a sellout would be guilty of understatement.

Officials say at least a million tickets could be sold at $4.00 a copy if they had the seats.

Pennsylvania, upset by Princeton, 17-14, also plays in New York this week, leaving its home field for the first time in three years to meet Columbia, which was surprised by Cornell, 12-0. Harvard, clipped by Rutgers, 13-0, returns to Ivy league play where it tops the standings in league standings.

A third Ivy league clash sends Brown, led by Holy Cross, into New Haven to test a Yale team which stopped Dartmouth, 33-2.

Other top games in the east will have Syracuse at Cornell, Temple at Penn State, Fordham at West Virginia, Colgate at Holy Cross and Virginia at Princeton.

Important Week-End

On the other side of the country, an important week end is coming up in the Pacific coast conference, where Southern California has emerged as the likely team to fight it out with UCLA for the title when they meet Nov. 23. UCLA kept its record clean Friday night by beating St. Mary's, 46-20, and Southern Cal wrestled second place from Oregon with a 43-0 triumph on Saturday.

UCLA invades Oregon this week while Southern California goes to California, 47-14 conqueror of Washington State, and Stanford and Oregon State, who played a scoreless tie, entertain Washington and Idaho, respectively.

Georgia, the south's major power, kept its slate unmarred by white-washing Alabama, 14-0, and bids for further Southern domination honors this week at Florida, Tennessee, which knocked North Carolina out of the undefeated circle, 20-14, and Mississippi met together at Memphis, while Alabama goes to Louisiana State, 34-21 conqueror of

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Rice's smashing 18-13 upset of Texas is the latest reminder that football games are still decided on the ground—the line by rubbing.

Taking advantage of the quick openings created by brash blocking from the modern "T" with man-in-motion, George Wainwright, Carl Russ and Don Anderson flared through the Longhorn forwards, chiefly inside tackle, for 232 yards. There was only one occasional error.

Rice's attack had the proper balance. Ed Eikenberry passed only 11 times, but two went for touchdowns. It was Houston's running game that set up the scores, however, and on this afternoon, at least, Jess Neely's men were the superior blockers and tacklers.

With the Steers lickered in the line, the remarkable Bobby Layne had to resort to passing, which is when an air attack is not at its best.

Duke's heavily lined seven and eight-man lines invited Army's "Cadets" to run the game had helped pave the way to touchdowns. That is when an air attack is most effective and why young Arnold Tucker completed three passes for touchdowns to whip the Blue Devils, 19-0.

The punting and running games complement each other, must so together. One won't work well without the other.

And the combination of the two will never appear cleverly conceived without blocking and tackling. Fundamentals can't be beaten.

the field we ran an end run to the other, right? What's wrong with that?" I asked.

"We don't play any of those teams," they said.

"That doesn't make any difference," I said. "Scout them anyway." "Which teams should we watch?" they wanted to know.

"I don't care," I said. "Watch whatever team you want. You're the scouts."

The scouts wound up in Bellevue.

"I got out of the wrong side of the bed, ankle around the house with an open umbrella. I thought I was crazy, but I thought she was nuts. I walked under all the leaders I could find."

"I gave each of our scouts a ticket for a game. This is for Lafayette and Bucknell," one of them said. "This is for Fordham and the Merchant Marine Academy," said

"Little Jack Hadike, the Cowboy's star second-sacker, who takes his bowling as seriously as he does his baseball—and that means intensely—had 'time for the book' when Ye Olde Sportsman ran onto him. Jim Arnold and the petite, blond here from California's plier back Miss Pat Goodyear, topping the map, had Jack's arm over his shoulder. "Did you ever hear of a bowler making a spare with the aid of a bowler who isn't even rolling on the same alley with him?" Jack asked.

"You're kidding," naturally.

"Well, Jim Henry—you know, that Kimberly produce guy who didn't miss a game in his last season—had the No. 7 pin up on alley No. 1. In the major league the other night he had a bowler on No. 5 alley crashed into the maples and one of the pins flew over onto the No. 4 and knocked down Jim No. 7. "That gave Jim another chance. The No. 7 was put up and then Jim knocked it over for his spare."

BUC-BOBCAT GAME DRAWS INTEREST

Rupert to Be Choice To Win for First Time

This is an announcement that Rupert's smart coach, Rulon Budge, wants more than any other Coach in the state to win the annual Armistice day clash between the traditional rivals at Rupert. The game will be the outstanding gridiron event of the season in southern Idaho and is expected to draw a record-breaking crowd.

Neither team has been defeated in conference play but standing against the Bobcats' record is a scoreless tie with the Blue Indians. This means that the winner of this game will win the Big Seven crown if the two teams get their remaining game, Rupert against Oakley and Hurley opposing Jerome.

The popular Budge would tell you this: "Too many times we have gone into the Rupert game over-whelmingly favored, only to have the Pirates give us the battle of our lives. Now the show is on the other foot. We are the underdog, the favorite, giving us a chance to reach new heights."

Comparative scores give Hays' T. playing Pirates a big edge, especially their 36-0 triumph over Gooding. That means that Hays' team spoke last.

There were few games on the week's schedule. The feature will be the "Pointo" bowl, contest between Fairfield and Heburn for the annual championship of the Magic Valley. This game is set for Friday.

In the other games, this week will play at Wendell Friday and the Twin Falls Club will go to Caldwell Thursday.

Other other games are scheduled for Armistice day. Kimberly at Fairfield, Richfield at Bellevue, Gooding at Buil, Pile at Harman and Gooding at Oakley.

Coach Hank Powers' Twin Falls Bruins will wind up their Big Season by playing the Braves at Boise on Armistice day.

Lead in National Grid League Snarled

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The battle for the National Football League's eastern division pennant is snarled today while the Chicago Bears continue to lead the western half by a slim one game margin.

Philadelphia's battling Eagles doublechecked the New York Giants for the eastern lead yesterday by triumphing the Polo ground crew 24-12.

Pittsburgh also edged into a technical tie for the lead by snapping Washington 14-7. The Steelers have won and lost the same number of games as the Eagles and Giants but have played one more game, a tie.

George Strickler, league publicist, said the circuit disregards ties and the standings are computed on won and lost percentage.

A record throng of 46,321 in Shibe park watched the Eagles, paced by Steve Van Buren, pile up a 17-0 victory while the Chicago Bears and the time lead and coast the rest of the way.

A record gathering of 39,000 at Pittsburgh watched Bill Dudley, the league's top ground passer, lead the Steelers on the road to victory by intercepting a Sammy Baugh pass. In the first period and four 14 yards to pay dirt.

Another record crowd of 46,321 at Chicago saw the Bears nose out the Green Bay Packers, 10-7. This strong helped avert the total rout to the five league games to 127-77 and bring the attendance for 71 games so far to 1,021,680.

The champion Los Angeles Rams, who play host to the Bears this Sunday, clung with easily hailing distance of the western leaders by compiling a 41-29 victory over the full-back Lins at Detroit.

Cincinnati's high scoring Cardinals defeated the last-place Denver Broncos, 29-14, in a game witnessed by the first frenzied 100,556 spectators at Boston.

Dons' Field Goal Humbles Cleveland Team

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Cleveland Browns, who at one time appeared well on their way to an 11-1 division over the last place Miami American (football) conference, found themselves leading their ace Jack Russell.

Winners of their first seven games, the Browns have had dropped two straight decisions, the latest to the Los Angeles Rams yesterday.

The Dons, based out of the Browns, 17-16, with Joe Venturi, center, committing for the victory by booting a field goal in the final 26 seconds of play.

Consequently the Browns now lead the second-place San Francisco 49ers, when they meet Sunday, by one game. The 49ers triumphed Buffalo, 24-14, Saturday night.

The largest crowd of the Browns' season, 24,890 was on hand and witnessed the home team come from behind and score 10 points in the final period.

The New York Yankees, eastern league leaders, squeaked out a 2-1 decision over the last place Miami American (football) conference, in the final 26 seconds when a Parker pitched a scoring pass to Jack Russell.

The Yankees now lead the runners-up Brooklyn Dodgers, who topped the Chicago Hornets, 21-14, Saturday night, by 2½ games.

SEAGULES BEATEN

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—The team's rampaging lions remained atop the Northern division of the Pacific coast for football league today, but the San Francisco Clippers, were cruising just a notch behind.

Team's point its sixth win against a lone setback by wallowing in Seattle, First in the Western Division, San Francisco City Section, 24-7, yesterday at Tacoma. The marvelous Markos-Tommervik and Harshman had a hand in every tribe score. Tommervik flipped two touchdowns, one to Harshman, and set up a third. Harshman, booted a field goal and three conversions.

Convention of State Florists Opens Nov. 10

More than 100 florists are expected to attend the annual Idaho State Florists association convention and flower show here Nov. 10, 11, and 12, according to J. C. Williams, Twin Falls, state president. Flowers from nearly all western states are expected to be displayed at the flower show.

Among the florists to speak at the party are Tommy Lake, Portland, Ore.; J. Fred Austin, Spokane, Wash., past president of the society of American Florists; William H. Peters, Spokane, regional director of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery association; and Clarence Walker, Detroit, field man for the Florists' Telegraph Delivery association.

All flowers at the flower show will be auctioned off at 9 p. m. Nov. 11 at the Union Motor company. Williams said. The flower show will begin at noon. Luke will be master of ceremonies for the show.

3 States Participate
Williams said that florists from Denver, Colo.; Oregon, Washington and California will send flowers to the show.

Registration for the convention will be held from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the Twin Falls hotel. Registration will get underway Nov. 11, Williams declared. Fred Gust, Seattle, Wash., a representative of the Charles E. Sullivan florists, will conduct a design school for florists at 8 a. m. Monday.

Banquet Planned
Austin will speak at the noon luncheon at the Park hotel. The business session will be held in the afternoon. A banquet and dance will be held at the Turf club the evening of Nov. 11.

The Florists' Telegraph Delivery association will meet Tuesday. Williams said. Bertha Atkins, Portland, is chairman for the meeting.

The South Idaho Florists club met Friday evening at Dahl to make plans for the convention, according to Williams. Dave Fox, Buhl, is president of the organization.

Exams Listed for Budget Examiners

The civil service commission has announced examinations for budget examiner, and registration and methods examination, to fill federal positions in Washington, D. C., at salaries ranging from $2,397 to $5,995 per year.

Applicants must have had from four to six years of responsible administrative experience, part of which must have been in budget or organization and methods work, but appropriate education may be substituted for a maximum three years of the experience, according to H. F. Rexroat, Twin Falls secretary of the commission.

Further information may be secured from Rexroat at the U. S. post office, and applications must be received by the Washington office by Nov. 10.

Candidate Backed Only in Gas Probe

JEROME, Nov. 4.—Despite an endorsement of Rep. Henry C. Dworshak's actions and investigation pertaining to the burning of gasoline prices in Idaho, the Jerome Chamber of Commerce has not come out in support of Dworshak for election to the senate, Leroy A. Frazier, secretary of the organization, said today.

Civil Service Seeks Student Dietitians

An examination for student dietitians has been announced by H. F. Rexroat, Twin Falls secretary of the civil service commission.

Qualifying applicants will be trained in war department, veterans administration, or public health service hospitals throughout the country at a maximum yearly salary of $1,470 which includes allowances for subsistence, quarters and overtime.

Further information and application forms may be secured at the U. S. post office from Rexroat.

Charge No. Two Costs Him $150

George Antika, Twin Falls, was fined $150 and ordered to pay $25 costs Monday morning when he appeared before Judge J. O. Pumphrey after a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Court records show that last July Antika, 32, was arrested on a charge and at that time the state department of law enforcement received his drivers license to pay $25 and was arrested at 11:15 a. m. Sunday by Twin Falls police near Fifth street west and took him to jail.

Also appearing in state court Monday was David A. Ellett, Kimbrough road, who pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a motor vehicle with improper lights and was fined $25 and ordered to pay $25 costs by Judge J. O. Pumphrey. He was cited to appear in state police office Tuesday.

5 Hunters Fined In Jerome 'Block'

Five hunters appeared in state court during a block hunt at the Twin Falls-Jerome intercommunity block hunt Monday morning. The hunters were fined $25 each and ordered to pay $25 costs.

There were among several hundred persons stopped by state conservation officers, state police and Jerome police Monday morning. The hunters were cited to appear in court to face charges of hunting without a license, according to J. O. Pumphrey.

Ted Walker, 18, son of Peter and Mary Walker, 42, Twin Falls, appeared in state court before Judge J. O. Pumphrey on a charge of illegal possession of pheasant hunting license and was fined $25.

E. R. Starr and George S. Great-bow appeared in probate court on a charge of hunting pheasants without non-resident license. Starr was fined $25 and Greatbow $25.

M. L. Whitehead, who pleaded guilty to illegal possession of pheasant license, was also fined $25 in probate court.

4 Arrested Here On Drink Charge

Four persons were apprehended by Twin Falls city police Monday morning on intoxication charges. James S. Blanton, Denver, pleaded guilty to a drunk and was fined $25 and ordered to pay $25 costs. Monday morning in municipal court and was fined $15. Unable to pay, he is being held in the city jail.

Helen Miller McGill, Twin Falls, who was picked up by officers after she entered the post office and passed out early Sunday morning, posted a $25 bond which has been forfeited.

John Ray, who was arrested at 10:15 a. m. Sunday, has forfeited a $10 bond on intoxication charges. Arthur McKay, Sacramento, Calif., was released under a suspended fine on the provision that he leave the city. He was also arrested for drunkenness.

Jerome Gains $100 From Hunting Fines

JEROME, Nov. 4.—Hunting violations have netted the justice court here more than $100 as Judge John Gould has fined out-of-state and out-of-county hunters this week. Fined $25 each and ordered to pay $25 costs more than the limit of three weeks in their possession were J. T. Mark Savage, Salt Lake City; E. T. Cannon, Redlands, Calif. and Park River, Salt Lake City. Fined the same amount for shooting him pheasants was Garland Gibb, Kimberly.

Faces Forgery Charge

John Wesley Berchard, who was arrested at 10 p. m. Sunday by Twin Falls city police, is being held in the city jail to face a charge of forgery growing out of alleged forging of stolen checks.

This offense is claimed to have occurred last September.

Two New Junior Claim Examiners Hired for Valley

Personnel and administrative changes in the state unemployment compensation office here Saturday by Harold A. Solberg, district field representative, Lowell Solberg, a resident of the Twin Falls, has been hired as junior claims examiner out of the Twin Falls office and another junior claims examiner will work out of Burley.

Day, formerly unemployment compensation field representative at Jerome, has resigned to accept a position in the state department of labor. The territory formerly handled by Day, which includes Burley and the city of Burley, will again come under the supervision of Solberg.

Solberg, who was to leave Monday afternoon for Boise to attend an unemployment compensation conference, said that the junior claims examiner will handle off-employed claimants and that his work would deal primarily with employers.

Jaycees Head to Talk Here Nov. 12

Final plans for a joint meeting with the Jaycees and Jaycees were mapped at a board of directors meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday noon. The meeting will be held Nov. 12 at the Park hotel when David H. McWright, Kootenai state Jaycee president, is in Twin Falls.

The Jaycees also discussed Christmas projects and decided that work on the improvement of an historic building south of the city would be completed after Nov. 11.

Falls From Horse

Janet Mathilde, 12, was taken to the Twin Falls county general hospital shortly after 2 p. m. Sunday for treatment of minor injuries while riding in the fell from a horse. She was riding in the 400 block of Washington street.

Twin Falls city police were called to the scene of the accident and the girl was then taken to the hospital for treatment. She was dismissed Monday morning.

Munch's All Wet, Son Calls Home

Residents of Made Valley, who have been complaining about the "unusual" fall weather may receive some consolation from a telephone call from Munch, Germany.

Werner called from Munich Friday to extend birthday greetings to his mother, Mrs. Anna M. Werner, but his description of the weather could not have come from someone much closer.

Mrs. Werner said her son's description of intermittent rains led directly with what has occurred here. Lieutenant Werner was graduated from West Point academy last year and has been in Germany since February 11; was joined him in August. He is in the air corps.

Towns Told Of Need for Water Tests

The periodic submission of water samples for bacteriological analysis would help some towns in Made Valley obtain state approval of their water supply. That is the advice of H. Post, senior sanitarian of the district health unit here, who said that neglect in sending samples had caused the state to withhold approval in some cases.

Towns of under 2,500 population are required to submit two samples a month, and those over 2,500, four samples. The other requirement of the state is that the physical plant be of such construction that the water cannot be easily contaminated. Post said that certain towns were complying with the latter requirement, but had failed to submit their water samples regularly.

Joe Lattimore, Boise, state public health engineer, was in Twin Falls and vicinity last Monday through Friday making a follow-up of a survey he made the first part of October.
