Demos Join GOP Drive to Unseat Anti-Negro Bilbo

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The Republican drive to bar Senator Bilbo, D., Miss., from his seat gained serious Democratic aid today as the senate campaign investigating committee voted a full-scale inquiry into his anti-Negro stand.

Senate Lead in Over by Pair

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Senate Republicans apparently set today on a Tatt-White combine to lead them in the 80th congress but both Democratic and GOP house leadership races were further marred by new aspirants.

Senator Tatt, Ohio, said today that the final seal on the Republican set-up in the senate with an announcement of his personal choice for floor leader, Tatt said he himself would "hope" stay at the head of the party's leading committee.

In the house Representative Billingsley of Illinois announced his candidacy for the Republican leadership. The other announced contestants are Representatives Halleck of Indiana and Jenkins of Ohio, with Charles Brown, Ohio, "available." The race is for the job Representative Martin of Massachusetts will vacate to become speaker.

On the Democratic side the position of a north-eastern test for the minority leadership arose with a report that Representative Rankin of Mississippi may be a starter.

Some Disaffection
Some southern Democrats dissatisfied with the present Democratic leadership, Representative McCormack of Massachusetts.

The Rankin report reinforced talk of "drafting" Sam Rayburn of Texas, the retiring speaker, who has said he does not want the leadership post to which he is being elected. The move was led by Representative Walter of Pennsylvania as a compromise candidate.

Progress for Trieste Made By Ministers
NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—The council of foreign ministers made progress today toward a decision on the thorny issue of control of Trieste, but ran into a snag on the problem of occupation troops.

A three-hour session ended with a decision to turn over to Deputy Minister Coudé de Marville of France the problem of drafting an agreement on the control of Trieste police—a point which Secretary of State Acheson said was a "major" step toward a solution on administration of the ancient Adriatic port.

Foreign Minister M. Molotov of Russia once again raised the issue of a deadline for departure of occupation troops from Trieste.

Russian Use of U.N. Veto Hit by Britain

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 16 (AP)—Great Britain today leveled a strong attack against Russia's use of the veto as preparations went ahead for a meeting of the big five powers called to try for a private agreement on modification of the much-debated voting power.

In assailing the Soviet tactic, the British stood firm with the other four major powers against changing the charter as demanded by small nations, but welcomed a chance to get the issue temporarily out of the hands of the general assembly.

Philip Noel-Baker, British delegate said Russia's position relegated him of the matter who said "everybody is out of step but my Johnny," and then added sharply: "There could have been unanimity on nearly every occasion if our Soviet colleague had desired unanimity."

Debate End Sought
The British delegate spoke before the United Nations assembly today. This latest "rolling ice box" will be placed on display at the end of the United Nations session, scheduled an exhibition here, Monday, Nov. 25, of an experimental lightweight racing car.

Freeze Order Issued to Control Supplies in Face Of Lewis Strike Threat

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—A drastic government order froze the nation's meager soft coal supplies and placed them under rationing today as John L. Lewis stood pat on the challenge which threatens a strike at midnight Wednesday.

Going far beyond the freeze order issued at the time of the bituminous strike last spring, the government seized control not only of future coal production but also of all stocks now in transit and in dealers' yards. It will be doled out only to utilities, railroads, ships, hospitals, laundries, food plants and householders having less than 10 days' supply on hand.

As the government thus prepared for the worst, Lewis ignored the administration's second appeal for a 60-day truce and its pointed warning that he has no legal grounds for terminating the miners' present contract.

Members of the operators' negotiating committee, who had agreed to the administration proposal for negotiations with Lewis over his new wage demands, took Lewis' refusal as the face and sententia of their homes.

And the impulse continued without sign of a break. A high government official covered coal in transit and that which may be produced hereafter, estimated to come to $500,000 by midnight Wednesday with normal production. Another covered all coal in shipment to the West Coast and other waterways, including tidewater shipments not affected by earlier freeze orders.

Arrests Made On Picketing In 2 Strikes
Police arrested approximately 100 more miners in the Hollywood movie labor jurisdictional dispute Saturday and 12 men involved in a Birmingham, Ala., cafe strike were denied bond and jailed under 90-day to six months sentences for illegal picketing and continuing a strike.

At World Airlines' twin and four engine planes were back in the air as the company resumed Saturday flights. The airline said after its pilots went back to work in a wage and rules dispute. The dispute is expected to be settled by arbitration.

Large Users Stocked
The 12 men arrested at Birmingham were accused of violating a coal pact. The coal pact was a result of the freeze order. He said that many of the larger homes in Birmingham also had ample coal supplies.

Credit Brake Released for Holiday Boom

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The federal reserve board is ending, in time for the Christmas buying boom, all controls over consumer credit except installment purchases of autos, radios, furniture and other kinds of durable goods.

Effective Dec. 1, the board eliminated requirements that charge accounts be settled in 70 days and single repayment loans in 90. For the first time in five years parties to these deals now may work out their own terms.

Restrictions also will no longer apply to time payments on durable goods involving credit of less than $50 or more than $2,000, the board announced last night.

On sums in between these limits, the board still will require a one-third down payment on automobiles, refrigerators, cooking stoves, ironers, dishwashers, air conditioners, radios and phonographs, sewing machines, and vacuum cleaners.

However, buyers may have 15 months to pay for any of these articles instead of the present 12-month limit on all but automobiles, where the 15-month term already is in effect.

On furniture and soft-surface floor coverings, the down payment will continue to be 20 per cent. The payment time on these also was extended from 12 to 15 months.

Children's Clothing Sought In Drive to Fill 'Kiddie Kits'

"Kiddie kit" will be a word and a reality to Twin Falls residents this Thanksgiving month in the drive for clothing for the suffering children of Europe and Asia sponsored by the United Council of Church Women here.

From now until Thanksgiving day, the women's groups in all Twin Falls churches will be assembling garments, both used and new in sizes from four to four, into packets known as "kiddie kits."

Mrs. C. H. Kresel, president of the UCCW, stated at a council meeting Friday, "This particular problem has been given to the women of the churches because the hearts of women are especially tender toward the very young children."

More than 40 denominations belong to the sponsoring council nationally. The goal is 500,000 kiddie kits.

A $10 check, specified for purchase of clothing, was received at the council meeting, and a special collection for the purchase of milk for the needy children totaled $58.43, Mrs. H. L. Hovett stated.

The Episcopal suit has to date one kit, complete except for two articles. Mrs. Harry North, chairman of the UCCW clothing drive, said the need especially is for long underwear, used but wearable, and for sleepers.

Contributions from any resident in the community will be welcomed by all church women's groups at their regularly scheduled meetings this month. Donations will also be received from 10 a. m. until noon Friday, Nov. 22, at the First Methodist church basement where the council committee on clothing collections will meet to sort and pack the kits.

Auto Accidents Checked Into by Traffic Officers

Twin Falls city and county officers investigated a sprinkling of highway accidents Friday and Saturday, their reports showed last evening.

Dean Lee Robinson, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Robinson, Blackfoot, was taken to the Twin Falls county general hospital for examination Friday afternoon, following an accident one-half mile east of Kimberly on U. S. highway 30. She was found to be uninjured.

The little girl was riding in a 1941 coupe driven by her father, which went into the borrow pit when the trailer it was pulling whipped while rounding a curve and the car lurched, according to the report received by Deputy Sheriff Ed F. Hall. The driver and his wife, Carol, both escaped injury in late accident, which damaged the car.

City police are investigating a hit-and-run accident which occurred Saturday morning on Blue Lakes boulevard north, when an unidentified car crashed into the front of a parked machine owned by Frank Robert. The car was parked in front of 256 Blue Lakes boulevard north when it was rammed and badly damaged at the front. The driver of the other machine left the scene of the accident.

Minor damage resulted from a collision at 1:32 p.m. Saturday involving a 1939 pick-up truck driven by Neil Douglas, 402 Second avenue south, and a 1938 sedan driven by Marvin B. Hubler, route two, Piler, according to city police. Scene of the accident was Third avenue and Second street south.

The sheriff's office received a report Saturday morning from Robert Stevens that he had inadvertently struck a sheep on U. S. highway in two miles east of Twin Falls.

Automatic Parking Meter Not Too High, He Says; Urges Test

Rest Room for Women Needed: It's City Task

Schoolboy Says Utah Hunter Sore Because He Got Caught

Editor, Times-News:

In your Oct. 24 city issue there appeared on the front page an article by John Price, about the parking meters that have been recently installed in your city.

As representatives of the Dual Automatic Parking Meter Company, Inc., in Twin Falls, Idaho and Montana, we ask the privilege of pointing out a few facts that were not included in this article. As a taxpayer of Twin Falls, we feel some responsibility to do this.

In the first paragraph, John Stephens of the city parking meter department makes the statement: "The repair work on automatic parking meters is a very big job." This is quite a broad statement, and numerous examples can be given to show that it is not based on facts. For the sake of brevity, however, one example will serve the purpose.

City of Hammett, Mich., April 5, 1946.

Number in operation, 400.
Date of installation, May 27, 1939.
Parts and repair material, 1944, $341.14.
Average cost per meter per year, 70 cents.

City of Lansing, Mich., April 5, 1946.

Number in operation, 400.
Date of installation, June 6, 1941.
Parts and repair material 1944, $121.82.
Average cost per meter per year, 14 cents.

Copies of the complete letters from which this information was taken are enclosed. Seventy cents per meter per year to maintain the mark time meter as against ten cents for the dual automatic parking meter, Mr. Stephens' statement.

The city of Boise has had 67 dual automatic parking meters in operation since 1940. Up until October, 1945, the total cost of repair parts had been 12 cents per meter per year. From these records the cost of maintaining the dual automatic meters appears to be considerably low.

In another part of the article Mr. Stephens says: "Only a skilled watchmaker can keep the automatic meters in working order." This statement if correct pays a 1.40 cent premium to the men who maintain the automatic meters in the several hundred cities that have them. Let me be more specific: Due to the manpower shortage during the war, the city of Boise contracted the repairing and maintenance of their 577 meters with a local type-writer, Mr. John Van der Velde, a skilled watchmaker. The men who service the dual automatic parking meters in Idaho Falls, Blackfoot and Boise, Mont., received a short training course varying from four days to a week in the maintenance, and repairing of the meters at the time we installed the meters this past spring and summer.

None of the men were "skilled watchmakers" nor were they experienced in the repair of any device that resembles a meter. The operation of these meters has proven most satisfactory to these cities.

The installation of 230 dual automatic meters is now in progress at Weiser, Ida. The maintenance, and repair on these will be done by the Weiser city repair department.

Installation of dual automatic meters will be made in Rehring in the near future. The city has already selected the assistant fire chief to handle the repair work. It is not in order to have in the city a number of men as "skilled watchmakers."

Mr. Stephens implies that repairing the damage caused by jammed coins is very difficult with the automatic meters. The removal and replacement of two small screws and one nut which may scratch but can be replaced without difficulty is hardly a difficult repair job.

The last official figures show there are more dual automatic meters in operation in the United States than any other two meters combined. Such leadership could not be obtained with a machine that required excessive maintenance.

The automatic parking meter is a very popular with the public, because there are no cranks to wind, or handles to turn and because of the wide time selections available. It is not unusual where a city is first suited to their needs to make a trial installation of another type of parking meter. The dual automatic meter on just one block of your city would give you the answer very quickly.

Editor, Times-News:

I am writing in regard to an article in the Nov. 10 Public Forum about Mr. E. Vandehel, Salt Lake City, bearing about the hunting rules. It seems that Vandehel is a bit mixed up with our rules for hunting in southern Idaho. If he will write, it is to be understood that there are to be only three cock shot per day. If this were not true, 42 Utah hunting violations would not have been listed.

What I think is wrong with Mr. Vandehel is that he is sore because he got caught violating our hunting rules and is trying to make excuses. In the first place, I think any boy or girl could understand the hunting laws after reading them a time or two. In the second place, anyone with any knowledge of hunting would know you could only shoot three. If not, you could shoot three, put them in your car and then shoot some more. And in the third place, I think these fellows from out-of-state hunters do as to come the first day or two when the birds don't know what it is about. I think a little hunting would do them good. I am sure Vandehel or some of his probably amateur shooting pals up here the last of our Utah hunters are better than an African ape. It would not be a different story then. I think the Utah hunters are good. They care not if a "no hunting" sign is up, just just just. I do quite a little hunting myself and I think these back-lash hunters should be caught more often.

I went out the second morning thinking I would get two or three. I did not get any. I was disappointed for dinner. I could not find even a field for fear of getting caught. I went out. Every time I would stop there were about four

GRAMMAR AS SHE IS WRIT

Dear Pota: Hidden beneath one of these green eye-shades in the U.S. treasury department is the sober mien of an accountant minding the soul of a child. Along with compiling his share of the respectable figures that go into reports he has enclosed some of the most dis-, un- or non-respectable excerpts from all-hungry women's letters to him. Herewith a few:

"I can't get my key. I got six children and can't tell you why this is."

"In forwarding my marriage certificate and my two children, one is a mistake as you can see."

Words Have Exact Meanings But We Don't Stick to 'em

Editor, Times-News:

It has long been my opinion that most of the arguments, wrangling and misunderstandings among people in general are caused by misuse and varied interpretations of words despite the fact each is a standard meaning in the dictionary.

The election campaign just ended has brought this point out rather forcibly. A political friend of mine who volubly insists he is a Democrat and who sincerely believes he is trying to keep this a government "of, by and for the people" and one which will guarantee the people equitable opportunity with the greatest good for the greatest number, has been called both socialist and communist in this campaign.

It seems to me that pure working democracy must be a realistic picture or else it takes on some of the aspects of fakery. On the other hand, a form of socialism can be attained with few, if any, of the democratic principles or procedures. Both words, communism and socialism, have been used as smear terms until they automatically produced a defensive reaction in many people.

Several news items have recently pointed out that Russia has no real communism; she allows profits and pays wages and salaries to workers. I.e., she is capitalist. The term, "Union of Soviet Socialist Republics," infers a socialist republic. There are Republicans in the American democracy that are as dictatorial as Hitlerite Germany which was national socialism. And Great Britain and France add to the confusion by nationalizing their respective republics or democracies. Nevertheless, friend and foe alike refer to these reforms as socialism. At the same time, I am informed, Norway and Sweden have a practical form of democratic socialism under monarchy.

Christianity is another word no widely used (or abused) as to cause creation of a conglomeration of cults and creeds. Some of these go all-out for capitalistic exploitation in the name of democracy; others throw their weight behind fascism and the spokesmen of others speak out for atheism. At the same time, the philosophy of Christ is enthusiastically quoted from the Bible to support communism.

As for the phrases "free enterprise" and "private enterprise" it occurs to me that when free enterprise becomes a free and enterprise as to be private the word "free" has little meaning for those excluded. In the accepted sense that is.

The "American way of life" carries a variety of meanings for those with long memories of war lines, Hop houses, the road, WPA, for-profit, debts and on up to the millionaire baron in the fine estate. For those who are allergic to the foreign scene and wish to disagree with them, we could begin with the political lines including capitalism, the American, Protestant, Catholicism, Judaism—the list is endless. About all we have left is the Republics, Democracy, psychology and a headache unless, as seems desirable, we limit words to their true meanings as they were intended to convey; place principles above party, creed, race or class; replace intolerance, selfishness and rivalry with understanding, sympathy, tolerance, mutual goodwill and

Why Do Farmers Get Sugar, Asks Burley Legislator

Editor, Times-News:

Could someone, maybe you, tell me why the farmers can have sugar just because they raise sugar beets? They have extra sugar without sugar stamps just because they are raising beets, while they are supposed to do nothing.

My husband is a carpenter but he doesn't get any sugar. He has been building for a long time. So I just don't get the idea why the farmers should be so favored as to have extra sugar. My son likes sugar on his milk just as well as the farmers' sons like it on theirs. We don't mind having it rationed if it is necessary and fairly doled out. What do you think?

And I might add a little more about ceiling prices. While the men were over-seeing fighting, the civilians were here working in shipyards and such we had a ceiling price on everything so that they could have a little money.

Now that the servicemen have returned the ceiling prices are taken off so that the cost of living is so high that the man must make to live. They didn't get any high wages and ceiling prices. So this doesn't look fair to either that what is the opinion among millions?

You have a sugar pot. Roth, column and the paper and a darn good town I used to live there. But Burley is OK, too.

Minister Earns Listener Praise

Editor, Times-News:

Through your column I wish to extend my appreciation of the Rev. Mr. Cromberger's recent Sunday morning sermon. I have very warm sentiments for many years.

I do not pose as a saint but I revere, "The Christ-like and do his bidding," then there could be no offense on earth. The turmoil of the world grows from the attitude that causes the stealing from widows and orphans and destruction of other people's property by some who pose as Christians by going to church and sitting in the church in the morning and no crimes exemplify what Christ expects of us. "Do unto others as ye would they should do unto you."

My mother said to us children repeatedly, "Live every day as you can look your neighbor in the mirror and not be ashamed before God."

You were right, Rev. Mr. Cromberger, when you said, "Without God taken into consideration there can be no world peace."

15 Homes for Vets Started In Twin Falls

A forward step toward development of Twin Falls and easing the housing shortage is now in progress with start of construction of 15 new five-room homes for Twin Falls veterans.

Although not pre-fabricated, these homes are the pre-engineered type of structure that can be erected in a much shorter time than the customary dwellings. Completion of the project is expected within 90 days.

The homes will be sold to veterans only, including said Sargent, and they can be financed under either the G.I. bill or through FHA loans. Local veterans have all been advised of the project.

Bennett and Walker, Inc., is in charge of erecting the homes, for which the sale price will be determined by the FHA.

Bennett pointed out that the homes, when completed, will be offered to veterans only for 90 days and sold upon the basis of acceptance.

Advantage in obtaining certain income tax and other items for the homes is being provided by W. C. Park, local realty expert.

Pre-engineering of the houses relates only to the wall and roof framing members, windows, doors and trim, which are made in indoor plants and shipped in for erection. Wall material is cut to blue print specifications by production-line methods, and all pre-engineering materials are subjected to rigid inspections. Fixtures, furnishings and other phases of the finishing work are completed as in construction of standard dwellings and not included in the pre-engineering program.

Pouring of the foundations will be in progress this week, according to the building permit.

Twin Falls' building program in its overall aspects also moved ahead during the week with work with building permit applications totaling $122,010, indicating that construction of building permits is being held up by the city.

The preceding work totaled $102,022, according to records at the Twin Falls city clerk's office.

They Star in School Play

JACQUELINE HEYMER (Left) and GORDON FIGGE (Right) will be the stars in the play "Berkeley Square" at the high school auditorium Nov. 21-22.

'Berkeley Square' to Show Here Nov. 21-22 at School

All of the charm of the eighteenth century seems to enter around the name, "Berkeley Square." This play, to be presented Nov. 21 and 22, is the first dramatic production of the year by Twin Falls high school students. It concerns a young man who is an orphan, and his search for his father, who he believes is a doctor in the 18th century.

The play, written by John L. Balderston, is a play of simple imagination and beauty with a strong emotional quality.
