Talk Dims Chance For Agreement at Ministers' Parley

MOSCOW, March 13 (AP)—Prospects for agreement on any such major four-power controversies as the unification of Germany paled today as the world's statesmen anxiously awaited Russian reaction to President Truman's declarations on Greece and Turkey.

Top American diplomats said Secretary of State Marshall was determined henceforth to keep U. S. foreign policy on the offensive. But, as the council of foreign ministers prepared for its fourth session, top conference sources said the Americans might have to face the reality of a split Germany.

These informants said American policy must accept this as a permanent condition, but that the United States, Britain and France might have to deal for a long time with a de facto divided Germany.

Marshall's reported decision to retain the offensive from here on in was one charged with vital implications for the outcome of the conference. In the development of the conference, the informants said, a major part was played by the declaration of the president, which he urged congress to send $400,000,000 to Greece and Turkey and asserted that the communists were spearheading terrorist activities in Greece.

French diplomats here say they believe the president's declaration—assuming it will be approved by congress—will do much to restore the balance of power upon which the Russians have been counting in the Balkans. The new American attitude would be extremely reluctant to pull troops out of the Balkans, and would be supported by the satellite press there.

While Soviet reaction to the president's declaration was awaited with keen interest in diplomatic circles, while the reality of the Russian attitude toward the United States and Washington was the subject of much speculation, there seemed to be general agreement that the conduct of foreign affairs under the president's declaration would be more dynamic than many years, with the present meeting of the council of foreign ministers the first indication of this.

There are no signs of a change in the attitude of the Russians toward the United States, and one of the main reasons for this is the high freight rates for oil and other goods. The freight rates for oil and other goods are high, and this is a major factor in the cost of living. The freight rates for oil and other goods are high, and this is a major factor in the cost of living.

Prices here for the past four months, gasoline prices have risen about two, and one-half cents per gallon. One distributor indicated that the increase represented a one-cent living to meet the higher cost of oil and one-half cent for the higher freight rates. The freight rates for oil and other goods are high, and this is a major factor in the cost of living.

Local distributors generally have had no official word regarding the increase. Nearest thing to any official word was a telephone conversation between a distributor and a local Lake City headquarters. The company officials there indicated an increase in gasoline prices was expected, probably by two cents per gallon.

Another distributor, H. J. Sidwell, said the last increase was only one-half cent per gallon Feb. 23 as a result of higher freight rates. This increase followed by other gasoline dealers since then, was not of a general nature, although it was a result of the increase in the freight rates for oil and other goods.

Cabinet, Solons Discuss Plan for Greece, Turkey; Threats of Warfare Seen

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—Heads of the state, navy and war department discussed with the senate foreign relations committee behind closed doors today President Truman's appeal for $400,000,000 cash and indirect military help for Greece and Turkey. War Secretary Patterson, Navy Secretary Forrestal and Acting State Secretary Acheson brought along top aides to explain details of the proposed moves which some members of congress openly declared might lead eventually to war with Russia. To report on the military aspects of the president's proposal to help train and sustain Greek and Turkish troops, Forrestal had Vice Adm. F. P. Sherman, deputy chief of naval operations, with him.

Undersecretary of War Kenneth C. Royall and Brig.-Gen. Miles Rober accompanied Patterson, R. Mich., said the session was called "to canvass the whole situation," but that any action might be delayed for some time.

"It is my understanding," he said, "that the house will be asked to act first on this legislation." He referred to measures to carry out Mr. Truman's proposals.

Actually, Vandenberg said, the senate group has not yet received any bills dealing with the subject.

Meanwhile, Chairman Taber, R., N.Y., said the house appropriations committee has rejected a state department request for authority to send $25,000,000 worth of oil refining equipment to Russia.

The senate appropriations committee turned down the request earlier.

The chairman said the equipment, mostly pipelines, was obtained for shipment to Russia under lend-lease agreement but had not been transported prior to last Dec. 31.

A provision in a 1946 lend-lease appropriation prohibited use of any administrative funds for shipments after that date. Taber said the state department asked for authority to complete the transaction anyway.

"The plain truth is that Soviet-American relationships are at the point of no return," he said. "Every effort should be made to terminate these relationships. The effort must be made to terminate these relationships. The effort must be made to terminate these relationships."

Mr. Truman told congress privately yesterday that armed communists and political infiltrations threaten the independence of Greece and Turkey.

He asked $400,000,000 to loan the two countries $100,000,000 in cash and to send American military and civilian personnel to train troops and supervise rehabilitation expenditures.

But Vandenberg—while expressing belief that the request was "able" to do what the president wanted by March 21—served notice that he would carefully determine the methods and the details in so many months a departmental committee.

Although the Michigan senator obviously was guided by a desire to supervise the details of the plan as possible in order to protect the principle of bipartisan foreign policy, he said he would carefully determine the methods and the details in so many months a departmental committee.

These restrictions may include: (1) Limitation on the use of American troops in either country, beyond the relatively small force needed to train Greek and Turkish soldiers and those needed to supervise the transfer of supplies.

(2) A proposal to limit the help solely to relief, thus banning the military aid.

(3) A proposal to limit the help solely to relief, thus banning the military aid.

Laborites Win Britain's Vote Of Confidence

LONDON, March 13 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee won a solid vote of confidence in the house of commons tonight after calling for "full cooperation of industry" with the government in Britain's fight for economic survival.

The opposition party's big majority carried—374 to 108—conservative Winston Churchill's demand for a "no confidence" vote.

Then, by a vote of 371 to 204, the house agreed to support the government in all present measures for reconstruction as outlined in a recent white paper—a rigorous program that calls for continued food rationing, electricity and coal restrictions, and determined efforts to increase production.

Attlee struck back calmly and confidently at conservative attacks on the labor program—highlighted by Churchill's assertion that the government cannot save the country and carry on class warfare and a socialist program of nationalization at the same time.

Nationalization is not being pushed for nationalization's sake, Attlee declared. "It is merely a means to an end—a fine line and a fine balance. The government cannot save the country and carry on class warfare and a socialist program of nationalization at the same time."

Transfer of military supplies as suggested in the President's personal address to the lawmakers.

A move to make any aid to Greece contingent on the removal of King George from the throne.

While he proposed none of these restrictions, Senator Taft, O. chairman of the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee, mentioned left him in a statement which decided on the President's plan.

Declaring that "I do not want war with Russia," Taft said he was not fully advised whether intervention in Greece would make such a contingency more or less probable.

There could be no objection, he said, to Greece for food, rehabilitation and reconstruction, he said, adding that "in this regard, the United States is merely assisting to finance the army."

If he assumes this special position in Greece and Turkey," the Ohio senator continued, we can hardly longer reasonably object to Russia continuing their domination in Poland, Yugoslavia, Rumania and Bulgaria.

Change Asked on Army Promotions

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—A drastic revision of the entire promotion system for regular army officers was recommended to the senate today by Secretary of War Patterson.

At the same time a navy bill to create young admirals and speed up promotion in all ranks was introduced in the house.

The first effect of the navy measure would be to make admirals nearly all of the temporary ranks granted officers during the war. About 200 captains may be reduced to commanders, navy officers estimated, but no officers are expected to go down more than one grade.

All promotions in the navy have been temporary since June, 1942, when the regular promotion laws were suspended.

For the army, Secretary Patterson proposed that all future promotions be placed on a basis of selection rather than the present system of automatic service promotions, up to the grade of colonel.

Buhl's Camporee Plans Discussed

BURL, March 13—Plans for a spring camporee were discussed and the resignation of Scott Roberts as advancement chairman was accepted at a joint meeting of the Buhl district Boy Scout committee and Scout leaders at a roundtable dinner in the Buhl hotel.

It was suggested that the spring camporee be held at Banbury's camporee grounds in May and the group decided to send a troop of 32 boys to Salt Lake City July 1 to 25 for the 10th annual camporee.

Only boys who are first class Scouts or higher would be eligible for the Utah camporee.

Kenneth Shraeder reported on the health and safety for the district meeting places and John H. Barker, district camping chairman, led the discussion on camping. Dick Hitchcock, neighborhood committee, led the Scout leaders roundtable discussion.

The group set April 1 as the date for the next district meeting. It will be held at the Baptist church in Castelford.

Policy Brings Armed Forces New Problem

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—President Truman's newly announced foreign policy confronted the armed forces today with the problem of deciding quickly whether to continue reducing its armed strength.

The address to congress carried no implication that an armed clash is expected or contemplated. However, the armed forces are maintained for the support of foreign policy in time of peace.

At the war and navy departments a critical time element is involved in at least two phases of this general question:

—Should the planned average strength for the year beginning next July of 1,070,000 for the army and 271,000 for the navy be carried out or should the rate of reduction be checked to stabilize the armed services at a higher manpower figure?

—In this case, will congress and the White House proceed with Mr. Truman's recommendation of a 3:1 ratio of active service to be not reduced upon its expiration date of March 31?

The nation's military forces are of definitely modest proportions in the areas where the most sharply, the Mediterranean.

DeMolay Chapter To Be Organized Here by Masons

A DeMolay chapter in Twin Falls is being organized under the sponsorship of the Twin Falls Masonic lodge. It was announced Wednesday evening by Jack Fuller, past master of the lodge.

He declared that at least 18 boys were necessary to form the unit and that interested boys could register with John D. Platt, high school principal.

Boys between the ages of 14 and 21 are eligible for membership in the group. Fuller stressed that any church affiliation does not affect a youth's eligibility for the chapter.

A DeMolay chapter was active in Twin Falls before the war and the chapter for the group is still in force. It was pointed out that basketball, softball, and baseball teams would be organized by the chapter and that dances and other entertainment programs would be undertaken.

Claude M. Gordon, grand sword bearer of the state grand masculine lodge, pointed out that Masonic lodges in Paul, Burley, Rupert, Albion and Malia are going together to form a DeMolay chapter in that area.

RENT FARM

PAUL, March 13—McBurt Hubert and Nick Ochner have rented the Henry Kech farm for the coming year.

From where I sit...by Joe Marsh

Ma Hoskins has a favorite rocking chair that's worn and shabby, with a noisy creak. Pa Hoskins has listened to that squeak for thirty years... and he decided to do something about it. So he bought a new rocker, and hid the other in the barn.

Ma allowed as how grateful she was... but when Pa missed her one afternoon, he heard a familiar sound that led him to the barn. There was Ma rocking happily in her old chair—squeak... squeak.

No need to tell you how Pa felt.

Mystery of the Rocking Chair

Quick as a wink he hid the new rocker and then brought Ma's old chair back to the house. Now when he hears that squeak, he looks at the mellow glass of beer in his drinking and says to himself: "She's just as entitled to her small pleasures as I am."

From where I sit, that's one of the reasons the Hoskinses are the happiest, dearest, truest, peace-loving folks in our town.

U. S. Acts to Start Its Own Security Net

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The United States is moving out to establish her own security system in the world.

Facing a Russia which President Truman declares is undermining world peace by imposing totalitarian regimes on free peoples, benefit of the stabilizing influence of the British empire, says that the United States is not yet effective, we are told in effect that the long-developing battle of ideologies must now be actively joined.

First Steps Covered

The President spoke mostly on the first steps to be taken in Greece and Turkey, with loans, military aid and the materials to implement them. But he discussed their cases on the basis of a broad and clear general policy.

The atmosphere in which he spoke was reminiscent of 1938-39. Russia's ambassadors to the United States and Britain had been called home "for consultation." A dispatch from the Moscow government said that "Marshall was authoritatively reported to be developing a much better understanding of the dispatch than those from Munich to 1938. The talk was of "no" and "lease-land," and of aid short of sending troops, as against "aid short of war." Mr. Truman did not say "quarantine the aggressor," but he did say:

"I would not recommend it except that the alternative is much more serious... the assistance that I am recommending... amounts to little more than the payment of one per cent of the $400,000,000,000 invested in World War II. It is only common sense that we should safeguard this investment."

Law Enforcement Body Has Answer To What Is Jeep

BOISE, March 13 (AP)—When is a jeep?

Asked that question unmythologically during last month's flood of requests for new auto titles, the state department of law enforcement today issues this for the record:

If all the seats still are in the jeep and the owner declares it is used primarily as a passenger car, it must be so licensed. The fee, $5.

If all but the driver's seat is removed and the jeep is used for commercial hauling, it must be licensed as a commercial vehicle. The fee, $20 on up, depending on the weight.

If the jeep is used as a light farm truck, it must be licensed accordingly. The fee, $5 on up.

But if the jeep is used only in the field for draft purposes, it is considered a tractor and no license is required. In this case application also may be made for refund of gasoline tax paid.

Antique Display Shown Grangers

A display of antiques and a collection of silver spoons were shown to Twin Falls Grange members at the meeting Wednesday night. The collections belong to Mrs. D. J. Roonig.

At the business session Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton were reinstated as members and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nielson were given the Orange obligation. The group voted $10 for the American Red Cross.

A pie auction was held with Frank Eastman as auctioneer and a quiz program on Orange degree work was held.

Flier "Blown" From Astrodome

Artist's sketch shows location of astrodome, from which navigator "blows" portion of plane, and illustrates how George H. Hart of Bag Harbor, N. Y., (inset) presumably was literally sucked out by alpiratram when astrodome of the Europe-bound Constellation on which he was navigator came off southeast of Gander, Newfoundland, at 19,000 feet. None of the other five crew members nor any of the 15 passengers aboard were injured.

Stars to Get Valley Trout, Oscars Today

HOLLYWOOD, March 13 (AP)—Hollywood is supposed to be used to climatic monotony, but those coming up tonight when the Oscars are presented have Hollywood in a dither, as usual. Little else was discussed today except who will get the awards for last year's best film performance.

At the banquet, the movie colony's elite will feast on Magic Valley trout provided by the Blue Lakes Rainbow Ranch, of which Burton Perrine is the manager. The trout, all uniform in size, were purchased especially for the occasion through the Barber Fish Company in Los Angeles.

Everyone seems to believe Olivia De Havilland will win over Celia Johnson, Jennifer Jones, Bessie Love and Jane Wyman for her work in "To Each His Own."

Predicament appears to have the edge as the best actor for "The Best Years of Our Lives," although Laurence Olivier is considered by many to be a strong contender not only because he acted in the English-made "Henry V" but because he produced and directed it.

None will hazard a guess on the best of the five pictures nominated, but some pre-Oscar guessing has it that either "The Best Years of Our Lives" or "The Yearling" will win the gold-plated statuette.

This year's affair has been switched to the biggest hall in town, the Shrine auditorium, which has 6,700 seats. All but a few seats, at prices ranging from $3.00 for the balcony, to $15 for main floor, center, have been sold.

The show preceding the award announcements is scheduled to get underway at 8:45 p. m. (MST), with Jack Benny as master of ceremonies. The entertainment will present Slimm Shriver, Judy Garland, Frank Sinatra, Hoagy Carmichael and Dick Haymes singing 1946's best film songs, and a film montage of previous winning performances.

Leads Cougar Derby

BOISE, March 13 (AP)—Don Donnelly, Garden valley hunter, is successfully defending his cougar derby championship won last year.

The state fish and game commission reported last night that Donnelly, with a bag of 21 cougar is leading the current derby that ends March 31. Wilson Wild, Big Creek, is in second place with 16 cougar and Pat Reed, Boise, is in third spot, with 12.

Queer Queries Keep Writer Thumbing Through Almanac

By JUANITA BAKER

Only those of the editorial staff of a newspaper could know of the grilling with which John G. Public bends our ears in his eternal quest for information. Not just the details of copy ground out daily but the "add useless bits of info" needed to settle a bet or win an argument.

Imagine uncracking a telephone receiver and hearing the question, all the way from Los Angeles, "Say what's the price of red beans up there?" A frenzied search, while the toll mounts, through the air-point type of the market columns gleams that latest quotation, which news we impart and another man's faith is revived in the reliability of the press.

In the midst of late political campaign stories in early November, one of our subscribers or readers wrote me not sure which but we hope it was one or the other rang up for a temperature reading in Des Moines. That took several minutes but the Associated Press came through to boost our batting average a point.

Why Valentine's?

To the novel, "What is St. Valentine's day and why?" we dug up the contents of the book for our faithful Webster unabridged, but not without stopping to wonder at the human who goes along for a traditionally celebrating we know not what on a certain day. Do YOU know what St. Valentine's day commemorates?

From a civics student came the scholarly interrogation: "Can you name the cabinet officers and the justices of the supreme court?" Frankly, we couldn't, but we tipped him off that both groups' pictures had been published in recent editions of "Time" magazine.

It's our humble opinion that the populace must picture each of us as a toting a World Almanac under one arm and a book of sporting statistics under the other. Why else would we be queried?

Questions Unlimited

"How many race tracks in New York?"

"When was the first practical use of the radio made in the United States?"

"What was the longest run in football history, how long, who made it, where and when?"

"What are the four freedoms?"

"On what date was Idaho admitted to the Union?"

The one that stumped us at deadline one midnight was, "Are bananas grown on a large scale in Texas?" As a four-year-old "friend of mine" always pondered, "How you could know it?" How could we?

When the inquisitive challenge, "When did World War II begin?" came through the receiver, "Poland... 1939" flashed into mind. But it was in September, not August as we incorrectly recalled.

To the oft-repeated "Will the same, or the light, be broadcast tonight?" we have only one alternative—a suggestion that the inquirer refer to a local radio station.

New Idaho Labor Election Ordered

BOISE, March 13 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor has ordered a new election by Idaho unions for the selection of a state secretary-treasurer, Leonard Hall, Boise, the incumbent, said today.

Hall said President William Green of the AFL has notified him that Joe Granite, Gillette, Ill., general organizer for the AFL, would come to Idaho to supervise the election.

Hall took office Jan. 18 after a controversial election last October in which August Roerqvist, Pocatello, was defeated after 19 years as secretary-treasurer.

Granite has been doing organization work at the steel plant as Geneva, Utah, but will come to Boise in a day or two, Hall said. Until Granite's arrival, Hall said, "I don't know when the election will be or much else about it."

Fire Burns Out Secret Meeting Place for Boys

"Secret" headquarters of an organization of small boys literally was smoked out at 5:40 p.m. Wednesday. After the fire department extinguished a blaze in the roof of the garage at the residence of Mrs. Pauline L. Erickson, 144 Seventh avenue east, her son, Larry, 10, sheepishly confessed to the probable origin of the fire.

He and other boys of the neighborhood have been climbing up into the rafters to confer by candlelight. Wednesday afternoon when he and a playmate left the garage, they forgot to snuff out the candle.

In the resulting fire, the shingles of half the roof were burned.

Ladies and Gentlemen
It is indeed gratifying the way you folks have received us since we reopened our new Hi-Way Furniture store.

Brand new Furniture designs have been rolling in regularly since January first and too, it has been rolling out about the same speed. February proved to be our very biggest month so far.

We find that good furniture priced for "spot cash" is good business for the buyer as well as the seller.

Idaho County Not Affected By New Time

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP)—With the exception of Shoshone county in Idaho, which announces cheerfully it is on daylight saving time the whole year around, the question of whether to turn the clock forward is making its annual appearance in many areas.

A survey shows that about 50,000 people, most of them in the northeast, probably will observe daylight saving time beginning Sunday, April 27. Transportation lines already are beginning the timetable changing that the change involves Shoshone county in Idaho finds the all-year daylight saving time a convenient method to put it in mountain time, which the residents prefer, although it lies in the Pacific time zone.

Greatest objections to the time changes are farmers, who get their fill of fire-drawn work in the winter and don't want milk trucks rolling around an hour earlier in the summer. The farmers point out that having the children stay up an hour later in the summer time is no blessing—for the parents.

New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New Jersey will have the daylight hour, as will most large communities in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Connecticut, and Vermont.

Utah is undecided, awaiting legislative action, and April 1 referendum will be held in Wisconsin and in St. Louis, Mo. The house of representatives turned down a proposal to put the national capital on daylight saving.

The change may be made in some communities of Idaho, Louisiana, Virginia, Ohio, Maryland, Missouri, Minnesota, Montana, West Virginia, Georgia, Tennessee and Florida.

Most other states probably will go by standard time, the survey shows.

CAA Officials to Inspect Airport Sites Near Buhl

BUTTE, March 13—Civil aeronautics authority officials and Chas. Moulton, state director of aeronautics, will be in Buhl sometime next week to help city officials select a suitable site for a Buhl municipal airport.

"We have some fine sites tentatively selected," Love said.

He said the CAA officials would survey the land as to the grade, landing approach hazards and other factors to determine the most suitable location. Buhl is attempting to get an airport site closer to the city and one that is not so much of an air traffic hazard as the present airport, which is located on the rim of Salmon river canyon.

Commission Sets Textbook Meet

BOISE, March 13 (AP)—Social studies in Idaho's elementary schools will be considered at a meeting tomorrow and Saturday in the state capital of the state textbook commission.

Alton B. Jones, state superintendent of public instruction, said today that commissioners would draw up an outline which would serve as a basis for publishers to submit proposed material on social studies in grades three to eight.

Commission members are: L. Edwin Hirsch of St. Anthony; Mrs. Jessie Kuntz, Montpelier; Miss Andrea Daniels, Lewiston, and N. J. Rice, Weiser.

Lutheran Church to Dedicate Memorial School on Sunday

The new memorial Lutheran school will be dedicated at special dedication service in the Immanuel Lutheran church at 10 p. m. Sunday followed by a ceremony at the school building.

The Rev. Martin H. Zigel, who was pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church here until 1944, will be guest speaker for the day, coming from Portland, Ore., for the dedication.

Memorial Lutheran school is being dedicated as a memorial to God for the safe return of servicemen from World War II. The building was designed by Holmes O. Laah, Twin Falls architect, and the contractor was A. D. Bolter, Twin Falls. Cost of the construction was $40,000. It is situated on a three and a half acre tract in west Twin Falls, a block off Addison on Shoup street.

The building is of concrete and brick construction, with two classrooms and office on the main floor, and a recreation room, school library, kitchen, furnace-room, and two storage rooms in the basement. Lighting and heat and ventilation are modern and the classrooms are equipped with new equipment.

The Rev. R. C. Mubly, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church, pointed out that no one was solicited for gifts or funds except members of the Lutheran parish and that such procedure would be contrary to long-standing parish practice.

Open house at the school is Sunday afternoon from 4 to 7. The guest-registry will be available for all who wish to see the school. Arrows will be placed at West five points directing visitors to the school.

Principal of the school is Edwin O. Koch, who will have his office at the school. The second teacher is Martin W. Holmiste, Weiser. The board of education of the congregation, responsible for educational policy and administration, is composed of Lawrence Taule, chairman, Arne Rommetvedt, S. S. Reinke, and Louisa Hansen.

The building committee of the congregation for Memorial Lutheran school was Henry Stockamp, chairman, Richard Loutier, Fred Thorne, John Schaler, and Edwin Thorne.

The Rev. Mr. Zigel also will be guest speaker at the 11 a. m. service Sunday, delivering the radio sermon which will be broadcast over KTFI in the regular 11-12 broadcast.

Sunday, The Rev. Mr. Mubly will preach the sermon at 9 a. m. Sunday.

Chorus to sing in the dedication service, the Memorial Lutheran school will sing two anthems, "I Am Jesus' Little Lamb" and "Beautiful Savior." Children's chorus of 60 voices has been rehearsing for several weeks. The offering during the dedication

Ashton's Dog Derby Serves Coast Writer

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13 (AP)—Queries from customers are a wonderful aid at times to overworked writers who often awaken in the most god awful hours thinking "what shall I stumpy the reading public with today?"

It is very refreshing therefore to have Roland Fox, who identifies himself as an old Dartmouth man now living in Los Angeles, write in asking about the American Dog derby.

The American Dog derby is a classic that was born in Idaho quite a number of years back.

Started in 1917 The derby first saw the light of day in Idaho in the smallest border town of Ashton. As we get the story a few of the boys were teasing their loss in the derby shop operated by Jay Ball when the idea of racing dog teams and sleds over a distance was first conceived. There was snow on the ground and chill in the air, the calendar having just turned into the year 1917.

Before the little group of non-paying, free warming agents in Jay Ball's lumber shop could get the derby like they had read of in Nonte, Alaska. The thing grew like a snowball rolling down hill and sure enough on March 4, 1917, the race was run. It started at West Yellowstone, Mont., and finished at Ashton, a 65 mile grind. Ted Kent, one of the original planners, won the race with his five-dog team in 29 hours and 23 minutes. This may seem like a lot of elapsed time but try mushing through thick snow, up hill and down dale, some time.

Distance Reduced The derby never again was run over such a distance. The mileage was halved and later cut to 10 miles but never has lost its popularity. Except for a war lapse from 1943-45, it has been a regular Idaho fixture, like those beautiful potatoes with which the state costs the stomachs of the country's population.

This is the American Dog derby, greatest event of its kind in the United States. The Ashton Chamber of Commerce should send some literature to Roland Fox, c/o The Downowner, Los Angeles.

Jerome Farmers Urged to Sign up On Weed Control

JEROME, March 13 — Jerome county farmers who have signed agricultural conservation association plan sheets and have not executed the pooling agreement for the eradication of weeds in the county today were requested by L. E. Pool, county ACA chairman, to sign up in the ACA office.

The county ACA committee has allocated $5,000 for materials for a weed control program providing a 100 per cent sign-up of water users in the county is obtained.

A. V. McCormack, Bolate, state chairman for the production and marketing administration, was in Jerome recently and explained the weed eradication plan and announced that the county's potato goal for 1947 was 7,500 acres. Farmers who plant within their allotted acreage goals will be eligible for price support under the department's 1947 potato price support program.

Pool requested that farmers who have not requested a goal should do so at once in order that the county committee may set goals for each farm.

MAGIC with Sperry Pancake & Waffle Flour

CAN YOU SPIN AN EGG LIKE A TOP?

Old egg-spinning pancake eaters know that spinning an egg is as mystifying as turning out a stack of old-fashioned pancakes with Sperry Pancake & Waffle Flour. This fine miniature from package to plate magic is the best way of saying a "Sperry good morning" when time is short, but, for the best way to spin an egg, see #1 in Answer Box.

CAN YOU REMOVE A COIN FROM BENEATH A BOTTLE NECK WITHOUT TOUCHING THE BOTTLE?

Impossible!—No, siree! The coin can be removed as surely as the Sperry millers removed the pain from breakfast preparatory. The 7 specialized ingredients, are-mixed, pre-mixed, in Sperry Pancake and Waffle Flour, including sour cream butter-milk for flavor and corn cones for texture, are the main removes. For the secret coin remover, see #2 in Answer Box.

FROM SPERRY'S TECHNICIANS TO KITCHEN MAGICIANS

If your family accuses you of legerdemain when you prepare pancakes, waffles, muffins, coffee cake or dumplings, with the Sperry Mix, you can thank the Sperry technicians. These highly specialized millers have combined speed, flavor, texture and versatility and have named the result Sperry Pancake and Waffle Flour. Quick recipes for all these dishes are on the Sperry package.

SPERRY'S MAGIC ANSWER BOX

2. Sweep a knife, flat, along the table. When it connects with the coin, follow through as in a golf stroke. The bottle will remain upright while the coin is removed.
