

Railroads' Peacetime Safety Record Nosedives To Its Lowest Point Since '29 in United States

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—You are sitting comfortably in a reclining coach seat, or maybe in a Pullman car, speeding along on a de luxe train. Suddenly, without warning, your car is off the rails, and you are on the floor. If you're lucky, the car stays upright and unsmashed. You have nothing more than a bad scare and a few bruises. At worst, you may lie for hours under a heavy beam while rescue workers try frantically to cut it away from you. In between you could be dead.

This isn't a common occurrence. In fact, it happens infrequently. The average person could ride 14 million miles in a train before it came his turn to get hurt—more than half a billion miles before it was his turn to be killed.

Last year American railroads delivered the equivalent of 5,000 passenger trains from coast to coast for every one injured. They gave the equivalent of 100,000 coast-to-coast round trips for every passenger they killed.

But that record is the worst peacetime year's showing since 1922. If you have thought there were an unusual lot of tragic wrecks in the past few months, you were right.

An average of about 40 train accidents a day was reported to the Interstate commission during 1946. During the first two months of 1947, 1,586 were reported. Most of them were very minor. They included every accident involving a train, of a locomotive, or a passenger car, or a freight car, or a car pulled up to a railroad property, including the cost of cleaning up.

Twenty-nine passengers were killed in January and February of this year, compared with 16 last year, and 770 were injured this year compared with 664 last year.

Employees have fared better this year, but not enough to offset the greater damage done to passengers.

In 1946 alone, 432 people were killed and 50,677 injured in wrecks like the one above, according to Interstate commerce commission reports. In the first two months of this year, 143 died, 2,068 were hurt.

The pace has stepped up this year. During the first two months, 2,067 accidents were reported, compared with 1,758 during the same months of 1946.

Twenty-nine passengers were killed in January and February of this year, compared with 16 last year, and 770 were injured this year compared with 664 last year.

speeded off Bennington curve, near Altoona.

One dead, one injured, passengers escaped miraculously when a through Pullman car broke loose from the Pennsylvania's Sunshine Special, backed wildly down grade and crashed an embankment, also near Altoona.

Nineteen killed, 139 injured when the Pennsylvania's Golden Triangle plowed into a derailed freight at Guthrie, Ok.

Eight killed, as hurt when the Southern Pacific's Owl hit a broken rail at Leno, Tex.

Six dead, 132 injured when the Union Pacific's Transcon went off a curve near Oro Grande, Calif., at 75 miles an hour.

Five dead, 47 injured when loose steel plates on a passing freight raked the sides of the Pennsylvania's American at Huntington, Penn.

Two killed and 38 hurt when the Burlington's Zephyr plowed into a 12-ton tractor which dropped off a freight train.

These aren't second rate trains on second rate roads. They're the crack trains of the best roads. Add to them, among others that have met with disaster in the period today, such famous names as Super Chief, St. Louisan, Powhatan Arrow, Broadway Limited, Havana Special, Transcontinental, Orange Blossom, Special, Rocket, Gotham Limited, Manhattan Limited.

These are the trains of which American railroads are justly proud. They are trains which certainly get their full share of careful attention. They are the latest, finest, safest equipment owned by the roads.

Yet they've all cranked up during a 12-month period from April 1, 1946, through April 30, 1947.

Peace Must Follow

These are the graves of American servicemen on the beachhead where they fell in battle. Where? Well, it might be Normandy or Tarawa or Iwo Jima or North Africa or some nameless islet that became a stepping stone to Tokyo. It doesn't matter. What does matter is that the men who died in those places and others gave their lives believing that their sacrifice would make the world a better place to live in. That means a world of peace. Not peace that just happens because of the lack of war—but peace that endures because the people of the world have outlawed war and banished it forever from the face of the earth.

39 Dead in Worst U.S. Air Wreck

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)—A four-engined United Airlines DC-4 plane failed to gain altitude on a takeoff from La Guardia field last night during a heavy thunderstorm and crashed in flames, killing 39 of the 48 people aboard in the nation's worst commercial airline disaster.

Thirty-eight people were burned to death at the crash site. Ten were taken to hospitals. One of these, a young man en route to Cleveland for his wedding, died early today.

Observers at the field, some of them relatives of the victims, said the plane cleared the runway and started climbing, then hurtled into marshy ground beyond Grand Central parkway and burst into flames that shot 50 feet or more into the air. Exactly how high the plane got was not known.

Air Accidents Kill 94, Hurt 9; 26 Missing

By United Press

The death toll rose to 94 today in a series of airplane crashes throughout the world, and searchers still sought to learn the fate of 26 others who were missing. Nine were injured.

Forty persons were killed when a U. S. army four-motored courier plane crashed into the side of a mountain 30 miles from Tokyo last night, one of the worst disasters in aviation history.

Scene Searched

A three-man ground crew reached the scene of the accident early today, but the fate of the other person aboard was not yet known.

The crash of a United Airlines DC-4 at La Guardia field in New York City last night took 39 lives—the worst disaster in the history of U. S. commercial aviation. Seven of the nine survivors were in a critical condition.

Reds Blamed As Hungary's Chief Resigns

BUDAPEST, May 30 (AP)—An official government announcement said today that Premier Ferenc Nagy has resigned. A high Hungarian official said today that Nagy was "pushed from office" in what some sources called a "communist coup."

The announcement of the resignation, furnished by the official news agency, was only one sentence. It said that Nagy had resigned.

Paul Girl, 7, Killed When Struck by Car

PAUL, May 30—Seven-year-old Charlotte Twiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Twiss, Paul, was killed instantly about 12:30 p. m. Thursday when struck by a car driven by Charles H. Fogg, Nampa, in front of the Twiss home about one-half a mile east of Paul on highway 25.

Showdown in Atomic Battle Seen in U. N.

LAKE SUCCESS, May 30 (AP)—The United States and Russia headed today toward a showdown on the question of the veto in atomic control.

The controversial issue is whether all functions in the atomic field will be subject to the major-power veto in the United Nations security council.

City Band to Talk Here Features Memorial Day Rites

Twin Falls and the Magic Valley joined the state and nation Friday in paying homage to their fallen war heroes during the second peace-time Memorial Day since 1941.

Keynoting the Decoration day services at the Veterans' monument in the Twin Falls cemetery at 11 a. m. before an audience gathered under cloudy skies was Frank L. Meek, assistant Caldwell attorney, who called for translating American patriotism to the world peace as the only solution for the really counts.

Danish Note Asks Talk on Island Bases

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Denmark has asked that negotiations be started "at the earliest possible date" looking to termination of the 1941 agreement under which the United States established wartime bases on Greenland.

The Danish note was delivered May 27 to the state department. Secretary Marshall has replied expressing willingness of the United States to negotiate some new agreement on Greenland which would protect vital American defense interests on that strategic island.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30 (AP)—William (Shorty) Cantion, 35, was injured fatally today while competing in the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis motor Speedway.

Cantion's car skidded on the southwest turn and crashed into the retaining wall in full view of thousands of spectators occupying the grandstands in that section.

3 Missed Death

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)—Three persons missed their plane at La Guardia field last night and thereby missed possible death or injury in the flaming crash of a United Air Lines DC-4.

They failed to hear the field public address system announcing the takeoff.

2 Killed, 1 Hurt In Rail Accident

MANFIELD, Mo., May 30 (AP)—The engine and fireman in a passenger train were killed and one other person was severely injured today in the derailment of the Frisco railroad's "Plover" special near this southern Missouri town.

Firm Reports Loss of 1,200 Blasting Caps

Dangerous "fireworks" were in the hands of unknown persons today as the result of a break-in at an explosive magazine located on the north side of Snake river, Kenneth Shook, manager of Krenge's hardware, reported.

Entry into the magazine apparently was made by blasting off a lock, Shook said. A total of 1,200 blasting caps is missing from the magazine. The magazine was left behind, he said. Another magazine nearby, in which powder was stored, was not disturbed.

'Sea Serpent Invasion' Radio Play too Realistic for Tokyo

TOKYO, May 30 (AP)—An army radio station was too realistic today in a newsworthy broadcast of a "sea serpent" invasion of the United States. The broadcast was too realistic for Tokyo.

Greenland is regarded as possibly more important than the other two because it is closer to home.

Paraguayan Civil War Nears End

BUEENOS AIRES, May 30 (AP)—The Argentine government today announced that it was preparing to send a large force of troops to Paraguay to help end the civil war.

For an hour, radio reports warned occupation personnel "to stay off the streets."

Texas City Is 'Not Favorably Impressed' by Wild V-Rocket

EL PASO, Tex., May 30 (AP)—At least one United States city has an inkling of rocket warfare today, and El Paso was definitely not favorably impressed.

Last night a four and one-half foot rocket exploded 700 miles per hour, swept on past hunting Juncos, Mexico, just across the Rio Grande river, and crashed into a hillside one mile south of the city.

Agency Ponders Telephone

BOISE, May 30 (AP)—Public utility officials here are considering whether to install a telephone system for the public utility.

Organist Set To Play Here Sunday Night

Richard W. Elmsasser, young concert organist and one of the world's foremost interpreters of Bach, will appear in a recital at 8 p. m. Sunday at the Methodist church, the concert to be sponsored by the Methodist choir.

The artist is now the concert organist for John Wamman's organ in New York City, playing weekly on the city's largest concert organ. His greatest accomplishment lies in the performance of the complete 219 works of Bach from memory. "Catholicism," he is only 20 years old, and according to a New York critic, "such a young man is doing nothing less than phenomenal."

The latest honor to come to Elmsasser is the Henry Leitch award for his composition of the score for "Greenwich Village," cited as the best American ballet of 1946. This is indicative of the fact that he is developing rapidly as an original composer of modern music.

A concert pianist since the age of 7, concert organist since he was 10, and probably the youngest person, and only American, to have memorized all the works of Bach, he is thoroughly disciplined musician. His repertoire includes the works of Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt, and others. He was a personal friend of Bartok and played at his funeral.

From a general educational standpoint, the youthful artist has also made a record for himself, graduating with honors from high school when only 14, he received a college diploma from Baldwin-Wallace college at the age of 18. Since then he has taken special studies in the University of Chicago, and at Harvard university. His desire to make a study of theology came from his intense interest in the religious themes of Bach and of his desire to interpret them with great religious feeling.

Four Valley Men Sign for Service In Regular Army

Four Magic Valley men have enlisted or re-enlisted in the regular army, according to First Lieut. George P. Claxton, officer in charge of the Twin Falls army recruiting station.

Harland O. Erikson of Wendell re-enlisted as staff sergeant in the air force. He served in the China-Burma theater for three and a half years, and before re-enlisting was employed with a life insurance company.

Redfield had served with the merchant marine for 28 months in the Pacific theater during World War II. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman P. Mills of Fairfield, Hatmaker, who has enlisted for three years, attended the Lincoln county high school before enlisting. He will be sent to Texas where he will take his basic training before being sent to a technical school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Con Hatmaker of Shoshone.

Wolcott also attended Lincoln county high school before enlisting. He will go to Texas to the army air force training center and then to the technical training center. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gehrig of Shoshone.

"A new mailed fist—that of communism—is reaching out for world dominion. America is the only hope for a free world. The U. S. has supremacy in the stream of history today. We can guide that stream, or let it be guided away by it. It all rests on one equation — our national strength."

"Given the strength, we can build a brave new world out of the dust of dead empires—a world rid forever of war and the fear of war—a world in which all people shall enjoy their God-given heritage of freedom and justice. It is a mighty undertaking, the greatest in all history, and it is no job for a weakling."

"When we have completed this mighty task which the gallant dead have left unfinished, then and only then—can we lift up our eyes and say to them:

"We, too, have kept the faith."

Before the speaker's introduction by Doug Bean, master of ceremonies, various veterans' organizations and their auxiliaries decorated the monument. These ceremonies were interspersed by selections by the Twin Falls municipal band, a prayer, reading of General Logan's general order No. 11 creating Memorial day and the Gettysburg address.

Fete Preview Presented at Board Parley

Members of the executive board steering plans for the Magic Valley Year-days observance in Twin Falls during July were treated to a "preview" of what promises to be a stirring spectacle when Mrs. Fannie G. Brunt, writer of the pageant, read the program during Thursday night's meeting.

Relying upon their imaginations to provide the lights, music, costumes and properties which will figure importantly in the pageant, board members could visualize the sweep and grandeur of the tide of empire that at first rolled through central Idaho on the way to Oregon.

When the time came when the waters of Snake river transpired barren wasteland into the Magic Valley of today, and the fertile area beckoned to pioneers.

Throughout the production is the Snake river, and the pageant has been appropriately named, "Basis of the Snake." The pageant is also interspersed with poetry written by Mrs. Brunt and a song dedicated to "Valley of My Dreams" prepared especially for this occasion.

Lawrence, board chairman, outlined progress made to date in other fields of preparation and commended the committee for their preparation of appropriate window displays in the pioneer theme.

Cruelty Charged In Divorce Suits

Two suits for divorce were filed Thursday afternoon in district court. Nellie R. Smith seeks a divorce from Elsie Smith, to whom she was married Nov. 1943, at Reno, Nev., Calif. They have no children and no community property. She charges extreme cruelty resulting in physical and mental suffering. Her attorney is Earl E. Walker.

Shirley E. McClain requests a divorce from Grace D. McClain, to whom she was married May 17, 1937, in Twin Falls county. They have a 5-year-old son and two daughters, 7 and 3, of whom she takes custody. The couple has agreed upon a property settlement.

In his complaint, McClain charges extreme cruelty. He offers to pay Mrs. McClain $20 per month unless she remarries. His attorney is Roy E. Smith.

Mrs. S. H. McGinnis was hostess to members of the NNC club at a luncheon recently. Arrangements of roses and iris decorated the room. Mrs. J. C. Musgrave, who has a birthday in May, received a shower of presents. Gifts were Mrs. Elmer Jacobs, Mrs. Fred Knapp, Mrs. Ken Medford, Mrs. Dan Dalis, Mrs. G. M. Reitor and Mrs. Musgrave.

A forest conservation exhibit will be on display in the Challenger Inn lobby, as well as also on one polo, and an art exhibit, "Vacation on Camanche."

Dr. Stevenson will speak at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 14, on "Russia and the United States, the Issue Between Us."

Mrs. Hayes will participate in the discussion on career opportunities, as well as also Dorothy Collier, Twin Falls, who is president of the Idaho State Nurses association.

Concluding Event
Dr. James Miller, formerly of Twin Falls, will give the address at the banquet which will conclude the three-day convention, and will be held in the lodge dining room.

Appearing on the musical program at the banquet will be Mrs. Teala Bellini, concert pianist. The California federation will be in charge of the concluding event, which will be followed by an ice skating show through the courtesy of the Sun Valley management.

Mrs. Frankie K. Alworth heads the program committee for the conference, and Mrs. Alta Day and Edna Nanolosa, Jerome, are in charge of reservations.

A well-rounded program of entertainment is being planned for the large delegation expected to attend the conference.

HAIR BRUSHING TECHNIQUE
By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

What accomplishes results with a hair brush is the technique used; not the 100 strokes you knock off.

So says Laura DeGex, leading New York woman hairdresser. She teaches customers brushing techniques that serve different needs of scalp and hair.

One technique taught is how to revive curl. If your own manner of brushing doesn't bring results,

Use pretzel sticks and twisted pretzels to spell out names and sentiments for birthday or bridal party table decorations.

Looking for a gala dessert for that spring party dinner? Then here's one delicious answer.

Party Raisin Cream Pie
(Yield: 1 8-inch pie)

One-half cup raisins, 3/4 cup water, 1/3 cup sugar, 1/4 cup plus 2 table.

spoons cornstarch, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon powdered cloves, 1 teaspoon grated nutmeg, 1/2 cup spoon powdered cinnamon, 1 tall can evaporated milk (1 2/3 cups), 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/2 cup marmalade, 2 egg yolks (reserve whites for meringue), 1 baked 8-inch pastry shell.

Wash raisins; cook with water about five minutes. Mix together sugar, cornstarch, salt, cloves, nutmeg and cinnamon. Stir in milk, then lemon juice and marmalade. Add to cooked raisins and cook over hot water until very thick, stirring occasionally to keep smooth. Beat egg yolks, blend with a little of the hot mixture, then add to the rest of the hot mixture and cook 3 minutes longer. Cool. Pour into a baked 8-inch pie shell and top with meringue.

Fluffy Meringue
Two egg whites, 2 tablespoons cold water, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup sugar. Beat together egg whites, water and salt until foamy. Gradually add sugar, about a tablespoon at a time, beating constantly until meringue will stand in peaks, but is not dry. Pipe lightly on pie and bake in a moderate oven for 15 minutes.

Clever Hint
Here's a new idea for party fun: Pretzels are really amazingly handy for impromptu decorations. The little sticks can always be used to spell out names or to print the words "Happy Birthday" or "Welcome Home" or "Here's to the Bride," etc., or whatever the appropriate sentiment may be.

Amusing decorative effects can be achieved by inserting pretzel sticks into an orange or grapefruit to resemble a brilliant porcupine and then tipping each stick with a square of cheese or a segment of tangerine or even a slice of banana. Regular twisted pretzels in small and large sizes can be used to form a geometric pattern in the center of the table for a boy's party. Or the big ones can be tied together with bits of ribbon to form an amusing stripe down the center of an otherwise unadorned table.

NW Regional Conference

The seventh western regional conference of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs to be held at Sun Valley, will open with registration on the morning of June 12, sessions and social gatherings extend through June 14, with headquarters at the Challenger Inn.

Mrs. Ineta McCoy, Twin Falls, regional director, will preside at the opening session to convene at 10 a.m. in the Sun Valley open house. Following presentation of the flag, Mrs. Ineta McCoy will offer a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," with accompaniment by Donna Rae Bagby, both of Twin Falls. The address of welcome will be given by Mrs. Missa Buhl, Boise, chairman of the hostess committee, with response by Mrs. Edna L. Adams.

National officers expected to attend the conference include Mrs. William T. McGilly, associate director of field service on the executive staff of the National Federation, and Dr. K. Frances Scott, first vice president of the national federation. Dr. Scott's home is in Northampton, Mass., where she is associate professor of hygiene at the Harvard school of education and at Teachers' college in New York City.

Dr. Stevenson, associate professor of hygiene at Smith college, received her medical degree from Rush Medical college in Chicago. She has done special work at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the Harvard school of education and at Teachers' college in New York City.

For many years she was camp physician and lecturer for the national board of the YWCA. In states throughout the nation. She is the author of several text books, and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Alpha Zeta Phi Iota, a medical fraternity.

Among the distinguished guest speakers to appear on the program throughout the three-day conference will be Mrs. Gloria Bowman, Reno, Nev., international relations chairman; Ethel M. Johnston, San Francisco, editor and western director of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers; and Grace S. Stoermer, Los Angeles, finance chairman.

Disseminating the DeGex method, beginning with the brush is up there, she says. As bristles go down, slow up your strokes.

How do you brush your hair for scalp stimulation? And for all-out shine? For this, the head should be shaken. If hair is fine, it should either dangle from the edge of a bed or go down with you when, standing with feet apart, you bend over from the waist.

To brush, swing bristles down and out. But the important thing, says Miss DeGex, is to tackle scalp with the brush slanted at a right angle.

As you stroke, rotate your brush. Change hand position from right to left as your brush moves across your head.

More pointers from the hairdresser guide you in the right choice of a brush slant. If hair is fine, use a short bristled brush; if hair is luxuriantly thick, long bristles will do a better job of penetrating its density.

Dr. Stevenson will speak at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 14, on "Russia and the United States, the Issue Between Us."

Mrs. Hayes will participate in the discussion on career opportunities, as well as also Dorothy Collier, Twin Falls, who is president of the Idaho State Nurses association.

Magic Valley Social Tid-Bits

GLENNIS PERRY, May 30—Members of the JOG club, Hammett, gathered Thursday afternoon at the P. E. Wilson home for the quarterly birthday party of the group. Mrs. Myrtle Heller was hostess, and Mrs. Lucille Wilson her assistant.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Margaret Uhl, Mrs. Wallace Schwaiger, Mrs. Beatrice Nelson and Mrs. Donald Hancock, those seated at the birthday table including Mrs. Erwin, Mrs. Sam Bostic, Mrs. Florence Greer, Mrs. Elora Greer, Mrs. Von Pein, Mrs. Marsh Hoelst, Mrs. Bonnie Arkooch, Mrs. Shore and Mrs. Lucille Wilson. Mrs. Hoelst cut the birthday cake.

A following social business session, a program was given, which included vocal solos, Mrs. Edith Hancock, piano accompaniment, readings, Mrs. Fern Taylor and Mrs. Pearl Rice; and a paper on current events, Mrs. Jewel Leebster.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Pein, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Flora Vincent, Mrs. Stella Vincent, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Collier, Boise; and Mrs. Arkooch, Oodling.

JEROME, May 30—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ford, Jr., were honored at a reception and dinner recently at the home of Mrs. Ford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hoopes. Centerpieces for the table was a three-tiered cake with streamers extending to each place card.

Guests, besides the honorees, were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ford, Jr., Dean Ford, Mr. and Mrs. John Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hymas, Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nielsen, Mrs. W. A. Dunham and Vernon Hoopes.

Mrs. Hymas and daughter, Norma, also entertained recently at a post-nuptial shower honoring Mrs. Ford. Others present included Mrs. Nielson, Mrs. Orval Hymas and daughter, Ethel, Naden Polson, Helen Ott, Mrs. Gladys Hancock, Charlotte Anderson, Easter Ruth Beer and Mrs. Hoopes.

SONGS CHILD TESTED
SALT LAKE CITY—A person need not be a mother or a teacher to produce a book of children's songs, but it certainly helps to have three Fall Lake City women agree.

The three—Alene Dalton, Myrtal Ashton and Elia Young—have just published their first effort in a volume entitled "My Picture Book of Songs," with illustrations in color.

Mrs. Ashton, mother of two children, wrote the music; Mrs. Dalton, former teacher in the lower grades, the lyrics; and Mrs. Young, also the mother of two, did the illustrations.

They consider that their roles as mother and teacher gave them the impetus they needed to write the songs they had plenty of opportunity to hear the squeaky little voices of children struggling with the high and low notes found in many children's songbooks.

It was their own children and those of the neighbors who served as an audience and a testing ground for the songs as they were being written.

NAP RESTORES ENERGY
By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Take time out to take a nap. Every girl from 16 to 60 needs to snatch a cat-nap—or its equivalent in rest—if she's on the go all day. Ever notice the girl who stretches out on the couch in the ladies' room to salvage a few minutes of rest during her lunch hour? Watch her. See if she doesn't keep going with more vigor when her fellow workers are showing signs of strain.

Even a girl in her teens can't dodge the penalty of fatigue. Her pep dwindles. As fresh as her young skin is, its color ebbs. Her speech grows less brisk. The wise crack is slow in coming or it doesn't come at all.

The older woman is even less able

HANSEN, May 30—Bertie Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Young, Hansen, became the bride of Dale Mitchell, Denver, Colo., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mitchell, Paris, Ind., at a ceremony performed May 7, in Denver.

The bride wore a street length white eyelet embroidered frock with white accessories, accented by a corsage of red roses.

The former Miss Young attended schools at Hansen and is employed with the J. C. Penny company in Denver. The bridegroom attended school in Paris and now in the army air corps, is studying clerical work which he expects to complete in July. The couple will reside in Denver.

Among the distinguished guest speakers to appear on the program throughout the three-day conference will be Mrs. Gloria Bowman, Reno, Nev., international relations chairman; Ethel M. SPORT FRONT

"I hear you were down to see my pal, Dick Jack Diamond the other night," said Mr. Harry "Eagle" Arnold, the reporter, to the Old Sport Scrivener as they were about to close up shop a few mornings ago.

"Dick Jack take you missing down memory lane to dear, old Telluride?" inquired Mr. Arnold after being assured that YOSS had paid the desk a visit to the old sport.

"What's this about June 8, 1908?" inquired the sporty 'em. "That was not only the day that the police officer-to-be landed here but that was the day when he became a loyal baseball booster for Twin Falls." Arnold chuckled the pug nose. "I'll tell the story, just as Jack told it to me."

"He had induced his wife to take a hotel room after she, having given the town the once over from the railroad station, had demanded that he put her back on the train. He then sauntered out to get a little fresh air."

"Walking down the street—it was Sunday—I heard a lot of shouting and inquired what it was all about," said Jack. "They told me there was a baseball game in progress over on what is now known as the old Utah-Idaho league grounds. Liking baseball and having nothing else to do I went over."

"Twin Falls was playing the old Occidentals, a Negro team from Salt Lake City and the third and first base lines were lined with hundreds of people. It was quite a crowd."

"Well, anyway, I had no sooner arrived there than someone shouted that he had $35 to bet that the Occidentals would win. They were leaving the time, I took $35 in bills from my purse and said I'd cover the bet."

"That fellow whom I afterwards learned was Harry Allen grabbed the money out of my hand and said that he was the sporty one. I didn't know what to think of that, but I soon got acquainted with him and the late E. J. Ostrander assured me that he was all right."

"The wild rooting continued and soon the Negro team went up in the air and Twin Falls won and $70 was pressed into my hand."

"That was quite an emphatic introduction to Twin Falls, one that you wouldn't forget. You mean that you never got to Telluride?" inquired Mr. Arnold at the conclusion of the story.

"Nope, Jack never got out of Twin Falls for the night, wound up the old typewriter tormentor."

Card Hurler Loses First Tilt

POCATELLO, May 30 (AP)—Idaho Pals walloped the Pocatello Cardinals 11 to 8. The second-place Rustlers banged out 13 hits off Johnny Ortega.

Six Pocatello miscues at crucial moments contributed principally to the Cards' loss.

POCATELLO, May 30 (AP)—W. E. Crouch, chief game management agent of the U. S. fish and wildlife service, said today that duck hunters never again would enjoy good hunting seasons on the Baglimba because of the rapid increase in the number of hunters in the United States.

Records show that some hunters killed as many as 600 ducks each by travelling with the pack and hunting from Canada to Mexico last year. Crouch told a meeting of Missouri and Illinois duck hunters.

Hartung Again Pitches Giants Back Into Lead

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)—Clint Hartung, highly publicized local rookie who failed as an outfielder, hurled his mates back to the top of the National League by pitching a shutout against Brooklyn.

Hartung, who is 24, pitched the last of his most serious jam in the eighth by grabbing Duke Hader, who was already in the lead, and starting a double play after two men already had scored.

Hartung had scored. When Gene Hermanski greeted him with a homer to open the ninth he was replaced by Ken Plank.

It was the fourth straight pitching triumph for the Honcho Tex. Hurricane, who added a single and a triple to the Giants' attack.

Junior Baseball Booming Inama Named Rupert Coach

American Legion junior baseball in the Magic Valley will enjoy the greatest season in the history of the national competition that has sent more than half of the present players into the major leagues, according to Doug Bean, athletic officer of the local post.

In addition to Twin Falls, the Jerome, Hazelton, Burley, Rupert, Buhl, Kimberly and Shoshone posts will sponsor teams. No more than three posts have sponsored teams in any one season heretofore.

Bean said that Eddie Purves, who again will coach the local team, will make a call for players next week following the return of the local players from the state high school tournament in Lewiston. Wait Day, local baseball enthusiast, will be the business manager.

COWBOYS LOSE IN 9th Pilots Hand Waddies Fourth Straight Loss

BOISE, May 30 (AP)—Alexander Earl Boyard's Cowboys came out of their hitting slump last night, manufacturing 11 hits—the same total they got in all three previous games—but the pitching went haywire and as a result the Wranglers led, 8-7, in the first of a four game series with Manager Leroy Piles in Kootenai capital city. The loss was the fourth in a row for the Waddies but they remained four games off the pace when the Ogden Reds handed the leading Salt Lake City a defeat. However, the Reds, in fourth place, climbed to within a game of the Cowboys.

The Pilots came up with 14 safeties, the starter and his helpers in a game so far on the Cowboys' road trip. However, he escaped the loss for the reason that the winning run, the ninth, was scored off hard-luck Dick Waddingham, who had relieved the staff's veteran in the seventh inning and was riding to what looked like a victory on the strength of George Leyser's 350-foot home run over the left field wall in the first half of the third inning.

The Pilots got off in the lead, pushing over a run in the first inning. Purcell, first up, lined a single over Will McClellan's head. Tamone was safe when Jack Radtke fumbled his hard-hit ball. Prows fanned Owens, while Lowe forced Tamone, McClellan to Radtke. Siles then singled through Hal Lore's at short to send Purcell home.

The Cowboys took the lead in the second frame. Lowe singled and Purcell followed with a single, pushing over a run in the first inning. Purcell, first up, lined a single over Will McClellan's head. Tamone was safe when Jack Radtke fumbled his hard-hit ball. Prows fanned Owens, while Lowe forced Tamone, McClellan to Radtke. Siles then singled through Hal Lore's at short to send Purcell home.

The Pilots took the lead with a three-run rally in the third frame. Purcell singled and field met in the 71-year history of the ICAA opened a two-day stand at Franklin field today with New York university's well-balanced array of athletes favored to halt Navy's three-year championship reign. More than 700 athletes from 46 colleges are entered.

There was no more scoring until the sixth when the Cowboys tied the score with a two-run rally. With one down, Lowe singled to left field and Balassi got a one-bagger to right, fast fielding holding Lowe at second. Newman fanned, but Marlow grounded to Purcell, Purcell fumbled Prows' hopper as Newman took third. Leyser then singled through Purcell's legs to put Newman over the plate.

30 Cars Roar Off in Memorial Day Race

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30 (AP)—Two more cars passed qualifying tests for the Indianapolis motor speedway in 11th hour runs late yesterday, tentatively increasing to 30 the field for the 500-mile race, which started at 10 a. m. today. The two were driven by Mel Hansen, Los Angeles, and Emil Andres, Chicago.

Hansen qualified the Pavey-Duffy Special, owned by Robert Pavey and Terence Duffy, at 117.286 miles an hour, and Andres qualified the Tucker Partnership Special at 116.812 miles an hour. The required 100 miles at 110 m.p.h. Hansen's car arrived at the speedway Thursday morning, having encountered transportation difficulties en route from Los Angeles. Andres attempted to qualify the Tucker car Wednesday but burned out a piston. The car is powered by the motor from the car in which Mauri Rose cracked up last year. Both drivers are speedway veterans. Andres finished fourth last year. Hansen's best was eighth place in 1936.

Presenting the new ALLSTATE 2-Wheel Trailer

with TORSION SHAFT SUSPENSION*

$14995

EASY TERMS

A Post-War Development to Make Your Hauling Up to 1,500 lbs. Easier, Safer, More Economical

At last! The all-around trailer. This Allstate 2-wheel Trailer has torsion shaft suspension (the axle is the spring) which allows each wheel to hug the road with no sway, surge, or bounce even over the roughest roads. Tested thousands of miles under full capacity, it's the ideal trailer for vacationists, suburbanites, farmers, merchants, salesmen. Easily attached. Weighs 476 lbs. Big 4x7 ft. body with removable front and tail gates. See it today. You'll want to buy it.

Specifications:

- Individual wheel springing. The axle is the spring! Amazing engineering, development used in tanks and other combat vehicles.
- Torsion shaft of strong alloy steel stamped in center. Brakes in constant contact, even length of shaft for added strength.
- Sturdy sleeve shaft, mounted on four strong and long bearings, covers smooth axle, even with wheels on different levels.
- Shaft is anchored to trailer arm, which in turn connects wheel. Shaft and arm together provide spring action, stability, wheel alignment.
- Rollback rubber bumper blocks control deflection of torsion arm and eliminate shock.

Heavy channel iron main cross members. Trailer body made of field 2 x 2 x 2 steel tubing. Steel welded construction. Cap steel 16" with high ball, built-in safety lock. New 600x16 tires, heavy removable disk wheels.
