

Coal Walkout Seen on Pay Disagreement

ment negotiated by Benjamin F. Poirer, president of the U. S. Steel corporation, and George M. Humphrey, chairman of the Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal company, is reported to contain these general terms:

Terms Told
1. The daily pay for an inside day miner is set at $11.08 for eight hours underground, with no premium pay for partial-to-partial travel but with basic hourly rate hiked from $11.85 to $11.65. The miner actually would work only six and one-half hours. Thirty minutes would be allowed for lunch and one hour to get to and from the mine opening underground. This worker got $11.85 for a nine-hour day under the government contract, which expired when the federally-aided pits were returned to private ownership last Monday.

2. Inclusion of the federal mine safety code in the contract, superseding the hodge-podge of state laws.

Boasts Royalty
3. Boosting of the controversial royalty for the miners' welfare fund from five to 10 cents. At the latter figure, the fund would get more than $50,000,000 a year if accepted by the industry.

Representatives of the far west left last week, after the Poirer-Humphrey negotiations were disclosed. Whether they would follow the remainder of the industry into line was not clear to some of their associates here.

be held. He said Mr. Rauch had died from hemorrhage and placed the time of death at about 8:30 a. m.

Mr. Rauch's body was found lying on the floor in a pool of blood about 9:15 a. m. by Kenneth Kinney, starch factory employee. Kinney had noted the warehouse door was open and had gone into the warehouse to talk with Mr. Rauch.

Claude H. Detweiler, president of the Magic Valley Processing company, said Mr. Rauch had come to work about 8 a. m. and gone to the warehouse, which is being used as a carpenter shop during construction of new plant.

The accident probably had happened shortly after Mr. Rauch had turned on the large circular saw as there was no evidence of any work having been done.

Mr. Rauch was born Oct. 12, 1885, in Bellefontaine, O., and had been a resident of Twin Falls since 1941.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Rauch; one daughter, Mrs. Bette Malone, Twin Falls; Roy Wells, Honduras, Central America, a nephew whom he raised as a son; three brothers, John, Tom and Roy Rauch, all of Van Wert, O.; a sister, Mrs. Alda Phelps, of Plover; and two grandchildren, Marlene Fayne Malone, Twin Falls, and Kenneth Duane Wells, Honduras.

The body is at the Twin Falls mortuary pending arrival of Wells from Honduras.

Low Rent—One Small Red Rose

MANHEIM, Pa., (U.P.)—The parish of the Lutheran church has paid its annual rental for the church chapel—one red rose.

The rose was paid to an heir of Baron William Henry Stiegel, who donated the chapel to the church 162 years ago. Its presentation was made by Owen J. Roberts, Kimberlinberg, of the United States supreme court justice, at the annual "Feast of the Roses."

The traditional ceremony dates back to the rental of the church to Stiegel generations ago. The deeply religious baron founded Manheim, and built the chapel.

He designated the rental would be "one red rose, one of June." The 1947 rose was accepted by W. Jones Hughes, Westfield, N. J., a direct descendant of the original baron.

Baron Stiegel came to America in 1750. He was a manufacturer of glassware. Priceless collections of the Stiegel glass now are held by various museums.

The 1946-47 citrus crop in the United States is estimated at about one-eighth larger than the previous record set in 1945-46.

Disc Mystery Grows; More Seen in U. S.

"saucers" have been accompanied by sound.

A Hagerstown, Md., woman said she saw five objects at "terrific speed" and that they "roared with sound like a faraway train." Mrs. Walter Johnson, Spokane, who reported she was one of a group which saw the objects fall near St. Maries, said she and her companions could not find either the discs or anything to indicate where they might have fallen. She described them as "about the size of a five-room house" and said they resembled washbasins, more than discs.

No Foreign Vessels
The coast guard at Seattle said there was nothing to indicate that the objects might have come from foreign vessels near shore.

Gen. Carl Spaatz, commander of the army air forces, in the Pacific northwest on a fishing trip said he knew nothing about the mystery objects or of plans to use AAF planes to search for them.

His comment came after Louis E. Starr, national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, said at a luncheon in Seattle that he had seen a "group of objects" searching for the objects.

Mormon Leader's Chair Is Dedicated
PONCA CITY, Okla., (U.P.)—Frederick L. Hanks has decided that an old kitchen chair he inherited as a family heirloom was made by Brigham Young, one of the founders of the Latter Day Saints (Mormon) church.

He promised to donate the chair to a group of women church members in Salt Lake City, who asked the chair be placed in their museum of early-day Mormon mementos.

Checking the chair's history, Hanks found it was the great-grandfather's bought it in 1824 at a cabinet maker's shop near Mendon, N. Y.

The church history indicates that Brigham Young operated the shop as a young man and that he made chairs, tables and other furniture for farmers in the Mendon community.

BOISE, July 7 (U.P.)—Kenneth Arnold, whose June 24 story that he had seen flying saucers over Washington state has created the biggest news since Orson Welles' "War of the Worlds" broadcast startled the nation several years ago, is going hunting for the peculiar objects which now have been reported seen in 35 states and Canada.

Arnold announced he has purchased a movie camera and will take it with him on every flight he makes over the five-state territory he travels by air in his business and hopes to obtain photographic proof of what he saw.

"Would Be Beautiful"
"A picture of them would be the most beautiful thing you ever saw and it would provide a record that I saw and what I know to be true," he explained.

Arnold's story started the epidemic of "disc" reports across the nation and brought comments from foreign nations and both scoffing skepticism and learned attempts at explanation from scientists and writers across the nation.

It also brought him quantities of fan mail, he revealed today.

All Want to Help
"None of the writers has called me and asked me to write. They really want to help figure this thing out."

Many of his correspondents placed religious interpretation on his report, he said, and "one fellow in obscure seriousness wrote that he believed the flying saucers were responsible for peculiar fog conditions recently in Los Angeles." Other writers suggested the discs were visitations from another planet.

We, the Women

By RUTH MILLET

NEA Staff Writer

A Chicago woman who thought the children in her neighborhood deserved a better place to play than in streets and dirty gutters got parents of the neighborhood together and formed a playground association.

Then she gave the association a check for $100, helped secure use of several vacant lots for a playground, and formed a playground association.

She also gave parents all over the country a badly needed lesson. Small towns as well as city kids need an out-of-door place to play. Not a mile or two away—a place right in their own neighborhoods.

And the quickest way for any neighborhood to get a playground is to form an association of parents and go after it.

If the parents co-operated almost any neighborhood could have a playground for its young ones. Furthermore, with a little organization they could do it so that there was no neighborhood high school youngster or one mother on duty at certain hours each day—so the children could have the benefit of supervised play.

Some Day We'll Be Smart

Some day we'll be smart enough to include a playground in every residential neighborhood—so that town kids can have a little freedom and safety at play.

But until our towns and cities make that aim a part of their program—parents had better take the matter into their own hands.

Early Residents Meet

KIMBERLY, July 7.—The Sagebrush Friends held their annual meeting Wednesday, July 2, at the home of Mrs. Jay Staley with 20 members and guests present.

The group, originally comprising former pupils of, or teachers associated with, Laura V. Hale, former teacher and superintendent of Kimberly schools, has expanded to include other early residents of Kimberly living in Jerome, Eden, Hazelton, Buhl and Twin Falls.

A potluck dinner was served by the hostesses. The tables were decorated with summer flowers from the garden of Mrs. W. M. Van Houten, assistant hostess.

During the business meeting the group decided to serve a breakfast next year at the picnic grounds in the Twin Falls area.

The social hour was spent by each member giving her first impressions of Kimberly. The meeting closed with group singing of old-time songs.

Laura and Mae Hale, now residents of Salem, Ore., were present at the meeting. They are vacationing at the home of their sister, Mrs. Edgar Moorman, Murietta. A special guest of the club was Mrs. B. H. Atkinson, Whittier, Calif., a former member of the group.

Other bridal attendants included Virginia Johnson, Jerome; Violet Rippe, Piler; and Anna May Anglesse, Twin Falls. They were gowning in matching pink formal and formal corsages of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John E. Kober, brother of the bride, Dale Bower, Piler, and Alton Weight, brother of the bridegroom, attended the bridegroom.

Gene Rulter presented vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. J. O. Naus, who also played the wedding marches. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue afternoon gown and Mrs. Kober, mother of the bride, wore a dress of aqua print after. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

A dance and shower was held following the ceremony at the American Legion hall. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. Bill Block, aunt of the bride, and cut by the bride and bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of Jerome high school and has been employed in Boise. The bridegroom attended school in South Dakota and is now employed at Carter's cleaners in Jerome.

Following a wedding trip to Salt Lake City, the couple will reside in Jerome.

Radtke, Leyrer, Loewe, Walkingshaw, Logue Named for All-Stars

POCAHELLO, July 7 (AP)—Pioneer League fans chose opposing squads with identical team batting averages in the first half season for Wednesday night's first all-star contest at Twin Falls.

President Jack P. Halliwell announced the identity of the north all-star squad today as chosen by league officials on the basis of fan choices indicated on newspaper ballots submitted by each Pioneer League city. Halliwell disclosed the southern team yesterday, and a check of the records today showed each squad named by the public has a team average for the first half season of .305.

Salt Lake City, Ogden and Pocatello players make up the southern squad while Boise, Twin Falls and Idaho Falls performers comprise the northern outfit.

The north squad, which has won the annual contest every year since the all-star series was started in 1930 with the exception of 1942, will have a slight advantage in pitching, however, with its five moundmen possessed of a record of 44 wins and 21 losses to 37 victories and 21 defeats for the southerners.

Actually, the south Wednesday night will have a slight edge in batting power, since league officials picked Don Colville of Salt Lake City for one of the southerners' outer garden spots instead of Tom O'Laughlin of Pocatello, who is killing with water on the knee. O'Laughlin's average is .340.

hitters who have proved more dangerous than any on the south squad, with Dave Molitor, Boise, high man in the batting line who has been at bat more than 100 times, leading the sluggers with .333.

Molitor, selected for an outfield berth, is the only player who has been at bat more than 100 times, leading the sluggers with .333.

The south's mound men are to be Con Dempsey, Salt Lake City (8-4), Bob Drilling, Salt Lake City (8-4), Zerkow, Boise (8-3), and George O'Connell, top man picked for the south.

The south, however, has Bob Thompson, Pocatello, who has a 13-1 record, bringing with him his circuit-leading record of 13 home runs.

Other north twirlers will be Ray Penman, Idaho Falls (8-4), Dick Walkingshaw, Twin Falls (9-5), Frank Logue, Twin Falls (7-7), and Bob Roberts, Boise (8-3).

McCarthy Puts In Busy Night To Even Series

The final game before the Pioneer League's long vacation period of the 1947 season—a three-day affair to allow the circuit to get in its all-star game at Jaycees park Wednesday night—will be played tonight on the field between Manager Earl Logue's Twin Falls Cowboys and Manager Jim Trayce's Pocatello Cardinals. And if Jim Trayce's Pocatello Cardinals win, it will be a record for the Red Birds as there was in no other year.

Logue's crew won 11-4, the fans will be in for an interesting evening. In only one frame, the very last, did pitcher Jack McCarthy of the Cowboys and Habicht of the Cardinals have a total of 15 runs scored, as few teams had in the entire season.

McCarthy put in quite a busy evening. He gave up only seven hits and pitched four innings but he pitched with his mates made it that much more uncomfortable for him by hitting him out of the park.

SPORT FRONT

With YOSS (The Fairy One)

"I'm going to be awfully mad if they leave my Bobby Thompson off the all-star team," said Jim Trayce, manager of the Pocatello Cardinals during a chin-fest with YOSS Sport Editor.

Jim's not going to be mad—his Bobby is on the team.

Jim LaMotte, who is leading the Pioneer League in home runs and playing a bang-up game at the shortstop, major league material and expects him to go quite far up the ladder before another season rolls around.

"He has several faults," said Jim, "but they'll be easily ironed out before this season ends."

Trayce revealed that Thompson is only 19 years old.

YOSS admits that Thompson has a world of promise, the scrapping gent has his eyes on another Bob in the league and he's a shortstop. His last name is Murphy and he plays with the Ogden Reds.

Murphy looked awkward at times but he is fast, possesses a fine arm and hits a long ball. He reminds the ancient word puffer of Red Schoendienst, the Germantown, Ill. lad who now plays second base for the St. Louis Cardinals.

If anything, Schoendienst when the pudgy one first saw him was a lot more ungainly than Murphy but now he is as smooth as silk around second base.

AND THAT'S THAT FOR NOW, except: Note: In answer to Mrs. Howard Barnes, Castleford, East Silverton, now with Idaho Falls, played with Idaho Falls in 1942 and with Boise last season.

Jimmy Russell Beats Purves for City Title

Jimmy Russell, former Idaho intercollegiate champion who returned from San Marcos college after a winter of golf in Texas, a much-proved player today had served notice on the other nubile swinging in the state that he was definitely a candidate for the championship in the annual tournament that opens in Idaho Falls Thursday.

The former Bruin all-around athlete served that notice with a sparkling 6-4 victory over Eddie Purves today in the championship match of the city tournament.

Russell, who had been the crown worn by Jerome's Rollo and Ed Gibson, who had led to Purves on Saturday.

Jimmy shot nine-hole rounds of 37, 38 and 33 and was one under par for the final round when he put Purves on the third hole. Purves had rounds of 38, 39 and 37.

Championship matches in the other flights of the tournament will be played during the week and next Sunday.

Course Master Fred Stone said that about 25 entries in the Twin Falls and possibly 15 in Jerome, Gooding, Burley and Buhl would compete in the state tournament.

Most of the Magic Valley golfers will leave early Wednesday to get in a practice round or two on the Idaho Falls course.

Kid Hurler Puts Cards Close to A. L. Lead

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—Jim Hearn, a kid pitcher with an unimpressive background, was getting a big share of the credit today for keeping the world champion Cardinals within striking distance of first place.

Hearn, who won only four games and lost five with the Cardinals' Columbus farm club of the American association last season, wasn't expected to be hanging his shirt on the hallowed hooks reserved for the world champions this year.

Yesterday, he won his third game in a row and his first major league shutout, toppling the Reds, 3 to 0, and setting the tempo for Dickson, who won the second game, 2 to 0, with his best pitching of the year.

The Dodgers regained first place when riffin' Ralph Branca won his 12th game and his third shutout, knocking the Braves out of the lead with a three-1, 4 to 0 decision in Brooklyn. Doubles by Bruce Edwards and a home run by Pete Reese were the main offensive blows.

The Giants were held without a homer after setting a new national league mark of 37 in 16 consecutive games. But they topped the Phils, 4 to 3, getting all their runs in the third inning. Willard Marshall pitched in two of the tallies with a single.

The Pirates got good pitching to win a double header for the first time this season, defeating the Cubs at Pittsburgh, 6 to 2, behind Ernie Bonham's eight-hit flinging, then 10 to 0 as old Fritz Ostermeyer carved a six-hit shutout. Hank Greenberg, Frankie Gustine and Jimmy Bloodworth hit first home runs, and Billy Cox, Frankie Westlake, Ed Fletcher and Gustine made three hits apiece in the 18-hit second game attack.

Squeeze in 9th Gives Boise Lead

The Associated Press

The Boise pilots, who wound up the first half in fifth place, held sole position of first place in the 1947 season. The league standings today after their second win in a row over the Ogden Reds, 3-1.

At the bottom of the heap and the other four clubs were tied in second place with one win and one loss apiece as Idaho Falls defeated the Salt Lake City Reds, 5 to 3 in 11 innings.

All teams rest the rivalry at the state parks tonight, then take a three-day rest for the all-star game at Twin Falls Wednesday night.

Win On Squeeze

Jim Dempsey won the game at Boise with a squeeze bunt in the last of the ninth to score George Speno, who had singled and advanced on another one-base by Lou Tamone plus an overthrow at first. Ogden had tied the score at 2-2 in the bottom of the eighth.

After Dempsey staged a three-run rally in the sixth and a two-run uprising in the eighth to overcome an early 3-0 deficit.

Catcher Hal Spindler's sixth inning homer with none on was the best home run of the season and the longest of the 16 garnered by the losers of three Boise moundmen to ten by the pilots. Altogether there were two three-run doubles.

The game at Salt Lake City was regarded by the fans as involving three adversaries instead of the usual two opponents—the first half of the Champion, one the Idaho Falls Russels and one umpire-in-chief Tom Tomlinson who succeeded in riling the feelings of both sides, and the 1,000 spectators with his decisions.

Locke, Oliver in Tie

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—South African Bobby Locke, the delayed action putter, and Ed (Porky) Oliver, Wilmington, Del., who faltered in the stretch, today squared off for the $7,000 prize in the all-American golf tournament.

SUN VALLEY, July 7 (AP)—Elchen, Beverly Hills, Calif., professional, won the Idaho State shot singles yesterday with a record of 109 hits out of 200 targets.

Herb Parson, Sunnyside, Tenn., Val Preston, Spokane, and Earl Colton, Jr., Tacoma, Wash., tied for second with 197 of 200, and Ruth Ray, Eugene, Ore., H. R. Peterson, Dillon, Mont., and Basil Hickman, Garfield, Wash., tied for third with scores of 198.

Albert E. Boyd of Boise, won the Idaho handicap championship by breaking 23 of 22 extra targets in an overtime match after two other marksmen tied his regular score of 94 of 100.

L. V. Rothrock, Twin Falls, won the state 100-yard championship with 195 of 200. J. A. Bean and E. W. Phillips, both of Pocatello, tied for third with 194.

Under-Insurance

"It's nice to contemplate the fine, fat prices you could get for your house, today—if you decided to sell it. But unless you've boosted your insurance coverage recently, it's not so pleasant to think about the cost of replacing it. Better check with your insurance agent, right away. Chances are you need more coverage on household furnishings, too. While you're at it, make sure the family furs and jewelry and other valuables are completely insured against loss or damage. And how about your automobile liability—personal property liability? Adequate protection costs very little more than inadequate. Why stir up your insurance man? Phone him... instead of waiting for him to call on you."

Kimberly Man Lands Largest Salmon of 1947

The largest salmon caught in the Salmon river by 121 pounds was brought to Twin Falls today to place on display at Carter's market by Grant Heff, Kimberly. The salmon weighed 38 pounds and was four feet, eight inches in length.

The fish, which caught 47 and 22-pounds on his three-day trip, landed the big salmon at the head of Yankee fork near Five-Mile creek after a 45-minute battle that saw the fisherman dragged into the stream.

The largest previous salmon weighed at the Salmon dam state where a contest is being staged, was 23½ pounds.

Reds' Snub of Aid Intensifies Battle of Isms

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The battle of the isms between the Russian bloc and the western democracies is intensifying as the result of Moscow's curt refusal to join in a unified program for the economic rehabilitation of stricken Europe — a refusal generally accepted in the western world as signifying Soviet intentions to push the campaign for the communization of all the continent, and other lands.

That's a disconcerting development, though not unexpected. It clearly means an ideological fight to a finish. However, it strikes me we shall make a mistake if we adopt the pessimistic viewpoint being advanced by some that this ideological warfare necessarily means combat with bombs and guns.

Be Prepared

Of course we should be foolish not to recognize that the battle of isms might grow into a clash of arms, and we certainly must be prepared for all contingencies.

But the real danger of war lies in permitting aggressive communism to expand and gain power by using strong arm methods on helpless countries. If such expansion is halted now, the danger of the isms will be lessened and perhaps nullified.

Bulwark Europe

The greatest bulwark against aggressive communism would be an economically healthy Europe, and the Anglo-French allies are proceeding energetically with arrangements for the conference of nations to consider the economic program proposed by U. S. Secretary of State Marshall.

At demonstrating that Russia's cooperation still is wanted, London and Paris at the week-end sent new notes to Moscow, expressing the hope that the Soviet decision to boycott the American plan wasn't final.

Summer Skiing Introduced at Sun Valley

Jeeps are used to carry Sun Valley guests to skiing areas only 45 minutes from the famed resort. Officially introduced for the first time this year, summer skiing is described as possible for the entire season on mountains near the resort. Alf Engen, famed skier and co-coach of the U. S. Olympic ski team is shown above as he skis down the slopes on Boulder mountain. At right is Virginia Scarborough, daughter of Bill Scarborough, Union Pacific station master at Kelchum, in the costume she uses for summer skiing. (Sun Valley photo-staff engravings)

Group Slates Overall Study For Minerals

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—Chairman Lemke, R., N. D., said today that his house public lands subcommittee on mines and mining plans an overall investigation of the nation's mineral resources.

The study probably will be launched when the next session of congress convenes, Lemke told a reporter. "We should get a lot of other things out of the way by then, so we will have time to give the whole picture our attention," he said.

Probe Aim Told

Lemke said it would be the "aim and purpose" of his subcommittee to provide for two things:

1. The building up of an adequate stockpile of critical minerals for national defense.

2. Orderly development of mineral resources.

Three Bills Up

The North Dakota noted that there are three major bills before congress—none of which has yet passed—relating to the development and use of minerals, but said he is not sure if they will be sufficient.

One bill would continue premium payments on copper, lead and zinc; another would authorize the appropriation of an additional $30,000,000 to continue the government's synthetic fuel program; while the third would provide for a laboratory where research could be carried on to develop new uses for lignite, one of which are located in North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana.

UPSET STOMACHS YIELD INCHES OF GAS AND BLOAT

"I was so full of gas I was afraid I'd burst. Sour, bitter substance rose up in my throat from my upset stomach after meals. I got INNER-AID, and it worked inches of gas and bloat from me. Waistline is way down now. Meals are a pleasure. I praise Inner-Aid to the sky."—This is an actual testimonial and we can verify it.

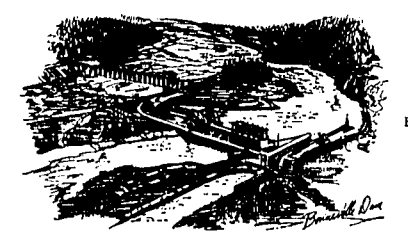

INNER-AID is the new formula containing medicinal juices from 12 Great Herbs; these herbs cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering—Get Inner-Aid. Sold by all drug stores.—Adv.

Our Footloose Artist Voyages Up the Columbia with Chevron Supreme

ALOOF AND LONELY, THE LIGHT ON HECETA HEAD broods over the restless Pacific. I wandered along twisting Highway 101 with the forests on one hand, and the ocean — now snarling at the heels of storm-carved rocks, now purring over golden beaches — on the other. This is an unforgettable trip for you and Chevron Supreme Gasoline.

At Celilo Falls, Indians netting salmon from spindly platforms over the Columbia made a scene no artist could resist. The climate changes as you leave the Coast, but since Chevron Supreme Gasoline is "climate-tailored" for each different altitude and temperature zone, the change didn't bother my car's power or pick-up.

Solitary Mt. Hood's two-mile-high snow-cap is the trademark of Northern Oregon. Bucked fugged passes in the Cascades, but none of them made my car ping — thanks to high-octane Chevron Supreme premium gasoline. Had some radiator trouble, until I stopped for Chevron Supreme and they fixed a leaky hose. On to Colorado.

Forty-five miles from The Dalles, Bonneville Dam harnesses the muscles of the Columbia. Here I saw the largest single-lift ship lock ever built, and watched salmon climb fish ladders.

It's good going on
