Senate Tax Ballot Slated Monday as GOP Drive Flops

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Republican sponsors failed in an effort to ram the $4,000,000,000 income tax cut bill through at a night session tonight, and final action was put off until Monday. A vote then—with passage assured—was arranged in an informal gentlemen's agreement between leaders of Democratic and Republican parties.

The GOP leadership once turned down such an agreement, but accepted it later after Democratic Leader Barkley, Ky., told them he believed President Truman will veto the measure promptly without waiting the usual 10 days.

Girl Drowned In Castleford Ditch Waters

CASTLEFORD, July 12 (AP)—Cheryl Skeem, 17½-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Skeem, Castleford, was found drowned in an irrigation ditch about 6 p. m. Friday, only a half hour after she had gone out in the yard to play.

Her body was found in the ditch on the Harry Reese farm, about one-half mile from the Skeem farm. Mrs. Skeem said her daughter was playing in the ditch and one-half mile south of Castleford.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Buhl LDS church with the Rev. Marion W. Hammond of the LDS church officiating. Burial will be in Sunset Memorial park.

Mrs. Skeem was sewing a dress for the little girl and she went out in the yard to play while her mother was finishing the sewing. When Mrs. Skeem was ready to find her about a half-hour later, she couldn't locate Cheryl. Mrs. Skeem and her oldest daughter, Maurine, 10½, looked in the irrigation coulee, but couldn't find her.

Father John Search, Skeem, who was on a neighboring farm, was notified and after a short search the girl's body was found in the ditch on the Reese farm. Attempts to revive the baby failed and she was pronounced dead when a physician arrived.

Cheryl was born Jan. 25, 1946, in Twin Falls.

Survivors are her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Search, and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood, who are on a mission for the LDS church in England.

Labor Agency Chief Charts Fight for Post

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Charles C. Smith, ill and bedridden by cancer, hinted today that instead of resigning from the post which he will leave to rebuild his ailing labor department.

Alida who visited the 63-year-old secretary at the Bethesda, Md., hospital said he outlined a detailed program for making the best of what Congress has left him.

The new Taft-Hartley labor law, coupled with severe appropriations cuts, stripped the once powerful department almost to the bone. The labor law, effective Aug. 22, took away the conciliation service from independent federal agency.

Alida said he did not completely rule out the possibility of resigning, but they cannot say whether he means to continue in office for the time being at least.

Ill for weeks.

The former federal labor judge and Washington state attorney, who came to know President Truman personally as a member of the U. S. senate from 1939 to 1946, has been ill and under observation at the naval hospital for weeks.

A few days before the Taft-Hartley bill became law, Schweinfach told a reporter jokingly that the measure and the equally restrictive budgetary allocations would force him to "take a long vacation."

PRICE 5 CENTS

It's Cherry Picking Time in the Valley

Boughs loaded with pie cherries will soon be relieved of their delicious burden when pickers go to work on them this week to harvest the crop. Sampling the cherries in an orchard near Kimberly is Leah Dunken of Twin Falls, who found that it was sweet but that it took a long time to fill just one pail. Miss Dunken, who was graduated from Twin Falls high school this spring, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunken. (Staff photo-engraving)

Most of the sweet cherry crop in this vicinity has been picked and workers will begin harvesting pie cherries about the middle of this week. The cherry crop described by fruit growers as "very good," although late frost damage kept the cherry crop from reaching bumper proportions anticipated earlier.

Others fruits presently being picked include a few early apples and early peaches. Apples are expected to be in the next few days. Fruit growers predict prospects are good for excellent yields of apples, peaches, pears, prunes and winter apples later in the season.

With sugar again in plentiful supply, a heavy demand for all kinds of fruit is expected from housewives who can once again get out their canning equipment as well as make jams, jellies and preserves, all without worrying about ration points.

Barker 'Out'; Dewey Grabs Parley 'Spot'

SALE LAKE CITY, July 12 (AP)—Ben John W. Bricker, O., who was expected to spearhead the Republican presidential drive of Robert A. Taft, O., at the governor's conference here, cancelled a trip tonight in order to remain in Washington for the vote Monday on the tax reduction bill.

The deputy sheriff said the "total wreck" in Washington left Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the center of the conference spotlight into which he had been thrust upon his arrival here this morning.

The New York governor had intended to stay out of the limelight as much as possible during the conference, Sunday through Wednesday, so that he could work privately on his drive for the Republican presidential nomination, but events dictated otherwise.

Political observers believe Idaho and Nevada convinced with him in his state.

Favored in Utah.

George T. Hansen, national committee chairman from Utah, said that sentiment for a 1948 presidential nominee had not crystallized in the state but added that Dewey and Taft had considerable strength.

The FBI said in a statement that the 43-year-old former Arizona hotel manager, originally from Hudson, N. J., who has been charged with the action of an army court martial which last fall convicted her of helping to remove the 10 million dollar jewel cache from Kronberg castle at Frankfurt, Germany.

FBI Nabs 2 Ex-Sergeants on Taking 'Bomb' Secret Papers

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Two men today arrested two FBI agents charged with taking atomic bomb documents—some of them said to be "top secret"—from the Los Alamos, N. M., testing station.

The FBI, making the announcement, said of recovering the documents and photographs of "the various phases" of the A-bomb from a variety of places—a student's room at Princeton University, a wall safe in Pennsylvania and a photograph album in Chicago.

The two men were identified as Alexander Von Der Luft, 23, arrested at his home at 414 West 10th St., and a 31-year-old man, identified as a student at Princeton University, who was arrested at his home at 101 West 10th St., Princeton, N. J.

Russ Playing Losing Game, Officials Aver

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Soviet Russia, with its once great veto power in world affairs much curtailed, is playing a losing game in trying to split Europe and wreck the Marshall plan for European recovery, American officials said today.

The plan will go through to the fullest extent possible without them and in spite of threats and protests, it was said here. There is considerable speculation even that in the long run they will be unable to hold their own eastern bloc countries in line.

Surprising new evidence that the Soviet, themselves as well as their satellite governments may be beginning to realize this was seen today in an extraordinary outburst of Russian officials.

The Russian officials, who were in a position to share in American assistance to Europe despite their boycott of the Marshall plan meeting at Paris.

This sudden and perhaps very significant turn of events found American officials privately expressing surprise and interest.

Secretary of State Acheson said today that the Russian officials were in a position to share in American assistance to Europe despite their boycott of the Marshall plan meeting at Paris.

As a matter of policy the United States does not yet admit a split Europe, it is working with a full faith and confidence in Russia at the moment and has a "wait and see" attitude toward the Paris conference and the whole European recovery picture.

Four "Ambitious" Local Youths Get Credit for Saucer

Take four teen-age lads seasoned with a normal amount of prankishness and American ingenuity, give them access to an assortment of junk including a ready-made disc and radio parts, and the result is a "flying disc" such as was tossed into the backyard of the H. H. Thompson residence at 219 Seventh avenue east at about 10:30 p. m. Thursday night.

Chamber to Erect Scenic Spot Signs

Tourists traveling hundreds of miles to view Shoshone falls and other scenic attractions of this section will no longer have to inquire their way to these spots.

That appeared certain today as result of action taken by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce Friday in approving the proposal to erect signs on major travel routes leading into Twin Falls, as well as within the city, pointing the way to world-famous Shoshone falls. Some 20 such signs are contemplated, as well as markers directing travelers to the city center.

During Friday's luncheon session, Charles Allen, chairman of the sign committee recommended that the chamber call for cost estimates on the project.

House Panel OK Given Wool Bill

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—The house agriculture committee today approved a bill to provide wool support prices on domestic wool until Dec. 31, 1948.

The measure, previously approved by the senate, does not contain the provision which brought a veto from President Truman because it authorized the secretary of agriculture to issue wool support prices on domestic wool until Dec. 31, 1948.

4 "Ambitious" Youths Given "Disc" Credit

They might know something about the disc.

Shortly after the disc was found by Mr. Fred Easterbrook, police were called and took it to the police station. An FBI agent was notified and after examining and measuring it, he called his headquarters at Butte, Mont., from where news of the discovery was first released to the nation.

Secretive

The FBI turned the case over to military intelligence authorities at Butte, Idaho, and, pending their arrival, they requested a list of silence clamped on the contrivance, placed under lock and key in the police station. The general public, as well as reporters, photographers, newsmen, were barred from seeing the disc. "Times-News" reporter had viewed it briefly before it was taken to the police station.

The "home-made disc" measured about 20 inches in diameter, weighed about 13 inches thick and weighed less than 20 pounds. It was learned the device was made principally from a huge block of copper, covered with gold on one side and silver on the other. A metallic dome was on one side and a flat, circular base on the other. The contrivance was held together by store bolts.

Use Luminous Paint

The youths removed the Plexiglas dome to insert three radio tubes and assorted wiring. Exercising some ingenuity in embellishing the ready-made disc, the youths used the radio tubes with luminous paint, burned insulation off one wire leading to a light bulb, and added a coil of wire to the exterior. Part of the wire was uncoiled to resemble an "antenna." Further evidence of the falsity of the "disc" was the words "inspired by T.M." stamped on the metal surface, and the difficulty with which the disc could be rolled to its landing spot without snapping over head telephone and power wires.

Hoax or not, the contrivance was taken back to Salt Lake City by the army authorities, who also confiscated all pictures taken of it, as well as all means of reproducing those pictures taken by local police.

Forbidden Photos

The army men had forbade any pictures being taken after their arrival although it was learned later through the Associated Press that higher headquarters in San Francisco and Washington, D. C., had no objection to pictures being taken and would so inform the officers dispatched here.

Pictures were taken of the gadget in Salt Lake City, however, after newsmen and photographers had been in vain to get even a glimpse of it.

Two lieutenant colonels, two first lieutenants and a civilian were among the party which covered the shortly before 2 p.m. Friday in a Utah national guard plane. The "top-secret" disc was smuggled out of the Twin Falls police station by clever deception on the part of national guard pilots.

The pilots, who had been contacted in their replies of "no comment" to all queries addressed them by newsmen, appeared to be on the verge of making a statement.

Reporters and photographers gathered around, expecting news from the two officers. While they were making small talk with the reporters and telling them nothing, other officers wrapped the "disc" in canvas and took it out the side door of the police station.

The "disc" had been kept in a room not over 15 feet from the backs of the reporters.

The youth's practical joke aroused such interest that even the most confirmed skeptics were losing their doubts.

Emergency beds only were available Saturday at Twin Falls county general hospital. Visiting hours are from 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p.m.

C of C Signs Point Way to Scenic Spots

constructing and erecting the directional signs. They are triangular, as being arrow shaped, six feet long and three inches deep, with drop boards attached to indicate the number of miles to the points advertised.

These signs are to be located on U. S. highways 30 and 62 at strategic points, as well as at entrances to the city and other key spots where strangers could become easily confused. Broomhollow falls will be the subject of the first 20 signs, but it was indicated that other scenic areas would later receive similar attention.

Also before Friday's meeting were discussions of the chamber's industrial development site and the proposed re-naming of the city's streets.

More land is needed for the industrial site southwest of the city, R. J. Schwendman, committee chairman, pointed out in a report. The project already has a 20-acre site, but engineers have indicated that about half an acre more of farm land would be needed for the project.

Recommended employing an engineer to complete the final planning. The subject of re-naming Twin Falls streets, which E. Jenkins reported that Mayor H. G. Lauterbach would take steps to inform residents on problems involved in this venture, Jenkins did not go on record as favoring or opposing the proposal.

Milk Truck Hits Parked Sedan in East End Crash

Two serious accidents were reported to Twin Falls police officers Friday and Saturday.

Sheriff's officers were called Saturday afternoon to a detour road about six miles east of Hansen where a milk truck driven by Ronald K. Fairchild, route 1, Bury, had collided with a car parked by Curtis Elsworth, route 1, Hansen. After hitting the sedan the truck swerved across the highway and went into a borrow pit.

Damaged were the left front end of the truck and the left rear fender of the sedan. Officers reported that Fairchild told them he was following another truck and did not see the car, which officers said was parked off the side of the highway.

A minor automobile accident was investigated Friday morning by Twin Falls police in the 100 block of Main avenue south. In parking a sedan, H. S. Gault, Buhl, collided with the open door of another sedan parked by Mrs. Clarence Nye, 1401 Poplar street. Damaged were the right front door of the Gault car and the left front door of the Nye car.

CINCINNATI, July 12 (AP)—Glenn E. Snow, 47-year-old president of Idaho junior college at St. George, Utah, today shouldered the responsibility of directing for the next year newly-defined policies of the National Education association on questions ranging from teacher welfare to world peace.

The election of Snow, to succeed Mrs. Pearl A. Wamaker of Olympia, Wash., as president, was announced last night at a general session which concluded the five-day NEA convention.

Resolutions Adopted
Earlier, delegates adopted resolutions which:
Advocated a world conference "for the purpose of strengthening the United Nations by a system of world law";

Urged congress to enact "such legislation as may be required to provide an adequate national defense and, without making direct reference, expressed disapproval of proposed universal military training;

Endorsed federal aid to education; Condemned strikes by teachers;

$5,400 Salary Minimum
Urged annual salaries of at least $2,600 for elementary and secondary teachers with yearly increases until they reach $5,000 or above; and

Pavored at least four years of training for teachers, with an ultimate goal of five years, elimination of emergency teaching certificates, and programs to encourage high school graduates to become teachers.

Dworshak Sees Federal Aid for Idaho Highways

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Sen. Henry C. Dworshak, R., Ida., anticipates aid in the rehabilitation of some of Idaho's main highways as a result of an additional million dollars added to the forest highways bill by the senate appropriations committee.

The money would be used on forest sections of federal aid highways.

The senate committee, of which Dworshak is a member, also added $3,000,000 for forest roads and trails, bringing the total to $200,000,000.

"Idaho has some 20,000,000 acres of national forest land and should benefit from the increased funds as some of the forest highways in the state are actually in need of rebuilding," Dworshak said.

Harry Barry Ain't Mad at Nobody Hello Folks: Just a little news from the Harry Barry Lumber yard.

Mr. Barry and family are still visiting in the East, and will be gone a few weeks more. They are having a swell time according to latest report.

Charlie and Ed are at the yard doing their best, with the help of their employees, dishing out the items needed by so many people. It seems as if the warmer the sun shines the more the people are reminded they need a new house or remodel their old one. The Harry Barry Lumber yard is a good place to come if you need any kind of building supplies.

We have hardwood flooring, cedar shingles, hexagon asbestos shingles, aluminum roofing and a limited amount of doors and windows.

Our stock of rough lumber is getting low.

We have split cedar fence posts, five, six and seven inch in six and six and one half foot lengths. Price 25 cents apiece as long as they last.

Still have a few of those aluminum windows.

Our supply of roll and bat insulation is sufficient to meet your needs.

If you want a cool house for summer and a warm house next winter, insulate with Fibre-Glass insulation from the Harry Barry Lumber yard.

We have a few electric water heaters and softeners. They are best of quality and priced right.

Buck rake teeth, oak dimension and one inch hardwood to help you farmers who have the misfortune to break wooden parts on your machinery.

Our building program is still on the go. John Decks moved two houses for us this week. We have two more under construction.

If you need a tenant house or one to live in yourself see us as soon as possible. We build them to suit you and move them on your foundation.

Charlie reported a fine time on his trip to Missouri but he said the water was terrible. The electric storms he knows were worse than they used to be.

Ed Hall and family are taking off the first of the week for a little vacation.

We are all fine and hope you are the same.

"Old Faithful" Salutes Idaho Spuds

This portion of a movement of 100-pound bags of Idaho potatoes to hostilities throughout Yellowstone National Park is photographed with the famous "Old Faithful" geyser, as a setting. All potatoes served to thousands of tourists who flock through the park are from Idaho, and, as the bags indicate, appropriate advertising measures are taken to identify the origin of the bakers. This picture was made by C. G. Rice, field representative of the Idaho advertising commission, during a recent trip through the park. (Staff engraving)

Famous Park Boosts Idaho Potato Crop

Despite the time-worn jest that you have to go to New York to get Idaho potatoes, thousands of tourists are finding out that there are plenty of them at Yellowstone national park.

C. G. Rice, field representative of the Idaho advertising commission, while passing through Twin Falls last week, disclosed that the famous Idaho spuds are offered exclusively to those who stop off at various Yellowstone park eating places. Among those chiefly responsible for making this possible is Eugene (Happy) Lyman, Idaho Falls distributor, who handles the shipments going to the famous tourist mecca.

The potatoes are stored at Idaho Falls and then taken to Yellowstone by truck for the tourist season, according to Rice.

While in Twin Falls en route to Boise, Rice conferred with Joe Marshall, large-scale potato producer in this section.

BOISE, July 12 (AP)—The new Idaho board of correction was handed some advice today by Attorney General Robert Altable on matters dealing with pardons, paroles or commutations of sentence for state prison inmates.

The board had requested an opinion from Altable who said the agency should adjust all "inequities of old inmates by applying not only the law as of the time they were received at the institution, but also to apply the same general customs as existed prior to the creation of this board."

The opinion held further: "All of the inmates of the penitentiary who were convicted and are now serving time with convictions preceding July 1, 1947, should be acted upon in all matters pertaining to pardons, paroles or commutations on the basis of the law in effect at the time of their conviction."

2 Polio Cases Are Reported, 'Not Epidemic'

BOISE, July 12 (AP)—The state department of public health disclaimed the prevalence of a poliomyelitis epidemic despite the report today of two "definitely diagnosed cases" of the disease.

Dr. L. J. Lull, director of local health services for the department, said one of the cases was reported from Boise and the other from Caldwell.

Two other suspected cases are being given further study by physicians and the results have not yet been forwarded to the department, he said.

Precautions Told
Warm summer months, he explained, generally bring on the peak of the disease and Lull urged an awareness of the following precautionary measures:

1. Consult your family physician if any of the following symptoms are noticed: Headache, nausea, a cold, upset stomach, muscle soreness or unexplained fever.

2. Don't leave your garbage exposed to flies and other insects. Keep flies and other insects away from food. The use of DDT is recommended by the state department of public health.

3. Avoid Extreme Fatigue
Extreme fatigue can make persons easier victims of the disease.

4. See that children have regular rest periods during the hot periods of the day and that they avoid strenuous play.

5. Avoid swimming in waters that are known to be contaminated or polluted. The information furnished is for general information only. Children should be kept away from swimming pools and other places where the water is not clean.

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

By INEZ FUCKETT

Man notes with dismay
And each year with more sorrow,
That his scalp of today
Is his forehead tomorrow.

Bob and Shirley just drove in from Texas to join Bill and Shannon, who arrived from California Saturday. The old ranch kitchen is full of young voices and the endless chatter of children and Shannon gave us a handsome 12-cup coffee pot last summer. We were tickled at such thoughtfulness, but as soon as they departed, put the Slick away and went back to our old aluminum coffee pot.

When they were due again this summer, we hunted the Slick, figured we'd have it in use so they wouldn't get hurt feelings. We are still hunting the thing. Even looked in the granary under the old harness. Bob told us about an awash-buckling old Texan who called himself "Judge" Roy Bean, and swore he was the law west of the Pecos. He told two gals, was mean and mean, and feared nobody. His "four" decision were unique. Once a body was found in the river, in the hip pocket was a gun and $40. "Judge" Bean fined the corpse 40 bucks for carrying the concealed weapons! "He ran a bar, noted for its brawls and shootings," said Bob. "And one day a stranger got off the train and walked in. He looked at a dish on the bar and said, 'Those are fine looking grapes you got there. Didn't know they grew in this part of Texas.' 'Judge' Bean chopped his quid, spit on the floor, and said: 'Mister, them ain't grapes, them's eyeballs! We had a fight in here last night.'"

Interesting to note how various states rate on this old age pension business. Here are the ones which have the highest old-age assistance allowances:

Washington	$52.53
California	47.66
Massachusetts	46.83
Colorado	41.48
Alaska (territory)	41.03
Connecticut	40.93

No other state or territory pays as much as $40.

The family hair apparent is now 19 months. He has cinnamon eyes and a little pink punch. His Great Love is a photograph record which he carries to the bathtub, the table, and to bed. Yesterday he whammed a hunk out of the record, howled bitterly for us to put the hunk back. We stood holding the broken record. "Little guy," we thought, "Many a time up the years you are going to cry to have some hunk in the broken record of your experience restored. But there is no making fine and whole again that which has been broken." We felt so bad about this we shed a few salt tears in the nipper's govt hair.

Remember that request we made as to just what constitutes Magic Valley? Comes a nice letter from a fellow scribe, C. O. Merrill of Buhl. He says Magic Valley is that part of southern Idaho of which Twin Falls is the natural trading center. "It extends from Kelchum on the Report Claims Sewage Wells Health Threat

A solution to the problem of sewage wells described by Sanitarian H. S. Post of the south central district health unit as a menace to Magic Valley residents, is simple in words, but difficult in execution, the official said Saturday in response to questions regarding protective measures.

Listed as a grave danger to persons who get their drinking water from wells or springs in the same area where sewage wells are in operation, the resulting publicity has brought demands for preventive measures. Post said, in a report from his office he offers the following solution:

"The effluent from a septic tank should be discharged into a trench or tile field or a cesspool located in top soil, not into the lava formation below. Sometimes lava is on or near the surface, and in certain areas a type of hard-pan is so near the ground surface that liquids will not penetrate it."

"In most areas in the valley there is enough loose soil to absorb septic tank liquids if they are discharged into it."

"Figures in our laboratories indicate that over one third of the wells in Magic Valley are unsafe, and the number is increasing. This matter should be given consideration by thinking people in our communities," he concluded.

Idaho's Sagebrush Converted To Lamps by Wendell Woman

By MRS. CLAIR KING
WENDALL, July 12.—To our pioneers, Idaho sagebrush meant fuel for their fires and to the farmer it signified fertile soil, but to Mrs. Agatha Wolford it meant a new, fascinating hobby.

It began from a trip to the city dump at house cleaning time two years ago. As well as ridding herself of the usual collection at this time, she found something she wanted to take home. It was a sloaky piece of sagebrush a foot long, with two small branches completely wrapped around each other by the winds of several seasons. She foresaw a unique table lamp, placed the brush in her car and headed for home and to work.

After peeling the shaggy, coarse bark from the stalk she found a sap-wooded, but not enough to destroy the rustic appearance. The knots crevices and under bark were left intact. For several days she let the brush dry, and then applied a coat of clear varnish that did not change the color of the brush, only heightened its aureate depth.

After the varnish had thoroughly dried she strung an electric cord from the top to the bottom along one long, deep crevice where it lay barely visible. The base of the lamp she fashioned from a round piece of plywood which she covered with plaster of paris and native rocks. She then applied a coat of the clear varnish.

Fancy lamp shades from a store would not do for this lamp. But Wendell Mrs. Wolford had ideas. Purchasing some heavy, tan, oiled paper she created a shade by cutting the paper into strips two inches wide at one end, and three at the other. In each, she punched two holes through which she ran a small twisted rope. Pinned drawing these together she had a lamp shade six inches across at the top and 12 inches at the bottom. Tying the rope into bows she had the very accessory for her lamp.

It sat on her small table and soon all her friends were admiring it. She made others, some to grace her home and others for friends. Then someone asked why she should give them away and before she realized it, Mrs. Wolford was practically in business.

In one corner of her living room is a floor lamp that is one complete sage, three inches through and four feet high. About two feet from its base it has grown crooked and at top it is completely straightened, making the base and top in a perfect line.

The source of material in these finished pieces, one can not mistake, and that is the stems to add that western touch to the sun porch or den.

Demand for Mrs. Wolford's lamps has grown so that she has sold to customers from Oregon on the west and Pocatello on the east. Just recently a buyer has become interested in placing them in Los Angeles and Chicago markets.

U. S. Pricing Itself Out of World Marts; Writer Holds

Editor, Times-News:

It's funny. When the war ended, Uncle Sam had a big job to do—to reduce prices and wages to a level that would allow the world market to get on its feet. But the world market is still not on its feet, and Uncle Sam is still pricing himself out of it.

When the world gets going again, they will not buy our high-priced stuff. When the world gets going again, they will not buy our high-priced stuff. When the world gets going again, they will not buy our high-priced stuff.

Probe Shows Union Given Great Powers

NEW YORK, July 12 (AP)—An AFL teamster union chief testified yesterday his union had signed work contracts empowering it to "issue instructions to the employer" about the conduct of his business, but he added that he probably would change provisions of the agreements which had come under scrutiny of a special house of representatives subcommittee.

The disclosure was made by Joseph G. Papa as he testified before the subcommittee which is investigating high food prices in metropolitan New York.

Claude "Terrible" Papa, who described the empowering clause in the contract as "terrible," is president of the Commission Drivers and Chauffeurs Union, Local 202, of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, chauffeurs, warehousemen and helpers of America.

Papa said the contracts were signed with food dealer employers, and told the subcommittee that "I think we're going to take them (the empowered clauses) out because I think you gentlemen are going to criticize them. The newspapers are going to criticize them."

One section of the contract, discussed at the hearing, declared: "The union reserves the right to issue instructions to the employer relative to the conduct of his business, without dispute, when the union feels that the employer conducts business in such a manner as to jeopardize the employment security of his employees and where such conduct might be detrimental and interfere with the orderly and efficient operation of the movement of perishable products destined for distribution to the consumers."

The elderly hitchhiker received lacerations on his hand and body in the fall. He was found by John Yasutka, Strevell, and rushed by ambulance to Burley.

"Keep Hands Off Holy Land," Says This Twin Falls Woman

Editor, Times-News:

We have heard so much about the Palestine problem that it has become almost a nightmare to some of us.

We saw a picture where the underground Jews had wrecked a train carrying British soldiers. These soldiers had been sent down there to try to keep order in the Holy Land (?).

But why should the British people or even Americans care any more about these Jews?

They have shown that they want the British people out of their country and they do not appreciate the efforts of President Truman to return Jewish refugees to their home land. Why try to solve this problem which is so old as the hills around about Jerusalem? It is the same old story—bad blood between brothers, or rather half brothers.

The Arabs claim this land of Canaan by right of inheritance, the Arabs being the father of Ishmael. The Jews claim this promised land by right of inheritance, the Jews being the father of Isaac.

Therefore, you can see that this is just another feud between neighbors. Why should the Gentiles enter into this problem? We will have plenty to do to save ourselves from the wrath of God.

Oh yes, I understand that there are wonderful oil wells out there in the desert. But there is also Mount Vesuvius down there, and I understand from my Bible that God has reserved that old mountain to bring

Action Varies in Charges Against Club's Operator

Of two charges filed against Buell Warner, owner and operator of the 400 club, as a result of a raid by sheriff's officers June 27, one was dismissed and the other was continued indefinitely at a preliminary hearing Friday before Justice of the Peace J. O. Humphrey, who fined Warner on a third and newly-filed charge.

Warner was fined $50 and assessed $5.00 court costs after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of disturbing the peace by offensive and tumultuous conduct in the club on or about June 27.

Dismissed, upon motion of Prosecuting Attorney Everett M. Sweeley, was a charge that Warner had maintained a liquor nuisance. On the other of the two charges filed following the raid, that of obstructing a public officer in the performance of his duty, Sweeley requested the charge be vacated and the matter continued indefinitely.

Following his arrest, June 27, Warner had been released on $1,000 bond. At the hearing Friday, his bondmen were relieved of their responsibility, and Warner was released on his own recognizance.

Nevada is the only state in the union that does not levy inheritance and estate taxes.

Crewless Engine Runs Away at 60 Per for 50 Miles

AUBURN, Ill., July 12 (AP)—A crewless Diesel switch engine, speeding at 60 miles-an-hour, was recovered after traveling 50 miles today after it had traveled more than 50 miles.

A crew in another locomotive intercepted the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio's Alton route locomotive, which started its crewless journey from the yards at Alton, Ill., north-east of St. Louis after the crew had left the cab momentarily. Auburn is 18 miles southwest of Springfield.

As the locomotive sped out of the yards word was flashed ahead to points along the line into Springfield. At several points railroad crews were preparing to derail the engine when it sped past.

Near Virden, Ill., 25 miles south of Springfield, another Alton locomotive with caboose attached waited on the same track for the runaway to appear. When it did, Engineer Robert Tiptoe of Bloomington, Ill., regulated his speed to allow the Diesel to gradually overhaul the caboose.

When Tiptoe's locomotive and the runaway Diesel came together gradually, the runaway was able to couple the train locomotive to the caboose and shut off the runaway's power.

An investigation was ordered to determine how the Diesel was able to start while the crew was absent.

Swim Pool at Summer Camp Assured Boys

Snake river council Boy Scouts will have the best swimming pool and camp site in the history of scouting in this area when the Boardman creek camp is completed, Herbert R. West, Scout executive, said Saturday.

Located 20 miles north of Fairfield at the Boardman creek crossing, the camp will be the scene of an eight-hour gathering when it opens Saturday. Listed for the opening session are troop 78 of Rupert, one of Buhl, 52 of Gooding, 54 of Fairfield, 58 of Shoshone, seven of Caldwell, 82 of Eden and 59 of Twin Falls. There is still room for about six more troops for the camp opening, West reported.

Pool construction, directed by Sam Savage, Gooding, is expected to be completed by next Saturday. Completed, it will measure 100 by 150 feet. A hot water spring will keep the water at an even temperature and allow swimming throughout the summer season.

Swimming programs are a major feature of the Boardman camp. Many boys in this area have never had proper instruction in swimming and water safety. West pointed out this program, directed by Jim Schutt, Twin Falls, will provide an opportunity for them to learn under expert supervision.

A land grant by the U. S. forest service makes this a permanent camp. It is known now only as the Boardman creek camp, but an official will be selected by Scouts this summer.

Scout Executives Bob DeBahr and Parshall Terry will leave Twin Falls this week to make final preparations for the opening Saturday. They will be joined later in the week by Schutt and Bob Gill, Jerome, who will assist in this work. District camping chairman J. A. Kutz, Shoshone, heads the program for development of the camp.

Hoover Praises VFW Resolution On Witch-hunts

As a result of a resolution adopted by the state encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in June, R. L. Summerfield of Twin Falls has received a letter of commendation from J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, Washington, D. C.

The resolution, dealing with "witch-hunting" and "isms" was introduced by Summerfield and Axel Rosenlund, former mayor of Coeur d'Alene.

In his letter, Director Hoover writes: "The views set out in the resolution, by their temperance and penetration, are a source of encouragement to all of us who share the belief that the problem is a complex one and that in dealing with it we must not fall into the errors of those who espouse an alien way of life."

In the resolution, it was pointed out that "some of the greatest witch-hunts in the world have been carried on in the name of patriotism. The appeal to patriotism has many times been the cause of refusal of some of the world's greatest scientists. Beware of the man who appeals to your patriotism and then calls you 'communist' or 'fascist' merely because you disagree with his political opinions or ambitions."

Murray Aims Courts "Test" Of Labor Act

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP).—President Philip Murray of the CIO tonight personally defied the Taft-Hartley act by endorsing Edward A. Garmatz of Baltimore, Democratic candidate for congress in a special Maryland district election Tuesday.

Seeking a court test of the act, Murray directed that his statement be printed on page one of the CIO News Monday. The law forbids "expenditures"—including comment in union-financed newspapers—in connection with federal elections.

Section Attacked

This section was attacked in congressional hearings last week. Senators Aldrich, R. V. and Hatch, D. N. M., introduced an amendment to remove the ban. They called it an unconstitutional "invasion of the rights of free speech and a free press."

Murray's statement said Garmatz, a Baltimore magistrate, "may be expected to appreciate the evils of this law and to act in the public interest for its repeal."

"The candidate for the opposition party is notorious among the working men and women of Baltimore for his anti-union views and activities," the statement continued.

Aimed at GOP

Len De Caux, editor of the CIO News, said this attack was aimed at Edwin S. Paret, the Republican candidate. An independent, Simon P. Jazdzinski, also is on the ballot. Garmatz is endorsed by former Rep. Thomas D'Alesandro, Jr., who resigned to become mayor of Baltimore.

The CIO president said he was acting at the request of the CIO in Baltimore, and asked all members in that city to vote and work for Garmatz's election.

Workshop Brings Results

Club Leaders Wield Needles At Shop Here

A four-day tailoring workshop for 4-H club senior girl leaders, directed by Alice Rigby, clothing specialist of the University of Idaho extension service, ended Thursday after six club leaders had undergone extensive training and practice in tailoring of coats, dresses and suits.

Assisting Miss Rigby in conducting the workshop, held in the home economics laboratory of the Twin Falls high school, was Florence Schults, county home demonstration agent.

The workshop was held for the small group so more individual attention could be given each. They will in turn hand down the knowledge gained to other county leaders and club members.

Attending the workshop were Mrs. Harold Hamline, Piler; Mrs. Otto Hiltner, Poplar Hill; Mrs. Faye Walcott, Mrs. Bill Bryan, and Mrs. J. M. Pierce, Twin Falls; Mrs. June Huffman, Piler; and Mrs. Sarah Egbert, Murtaugh.

Methods for best results were shown the club leaders for every phase of tailoring from patterns and measurement to steam-pressing the finished product.

The making of smart button holes and pockets, stitching linings and placement of padding were among the many skills stressed by Miss Rigby.

Divorce Action Follows Charge

E. L. Cobble, who was fined Friday on an assault and battery charge preferred by his wife, filed suit for divorce on the same day.

He was fined $25 and $3 court costs by Municipal Judge J. O. Humphrey after pleading guilty to the misdemeanor offense.

In his divorce complaint, filed in district court, he charges Lois Cobble with extreme cruelty. They were married Feb. 10, 1945, at Elko, Nev., and have no children and no community property. Cobble is represented by W. L. Dunn.

Suit for divorce was filed Friday also by Amy J. Scanlan against Richard T. Scanlan. Extreme cruelty was charged. They were married June 16, 1941, at Elko, Nev., and have no children.

Her complaint states that their community property, a car and a pick-up truck, was bought largely through her money and earnings, and she asks they be awarded to her. She is represented by Attorney Roy E. Smith.

Governors of Idaho, Maine Vow Support

IDAHO FALLS, July 12 (AP).—Idaho and Maine joined hands today in the persons of Gov. C. A. Robins and Gov. Horace Hildreth of Maine, and pledged cooperation in solving potato industry problems.

Governors of the two rival potato producing states sealed a pact of friendship between the two states while making a tour of the Idaho Falls vicinity this morning.

There was little banter between the two governors today, as they inspected potato fields, warehouses and cellars in the vicinity. Their discussion was mostly focused on agricultural problems identical to both states.

They agreed that one of the main factors in their states' ascendancy to the nation's potato throne was a comprehensive advertising program—backed up with a quality product.

"Forward Step Taken"

"We believe Maine has taken a forward step in adopting marketing specifications, which, in the last analysis, means that by law producers are required to put potatoes of specified grades and sizes in a specified pack," Governor Hildreth said.

"If the pack carries a state of Maine emblem, then it must meet certain specifications which assures the purchaser that he is getting just what he asks for. However, not all our potatoes shipped under the state of Maine emblem," Governor Hildreth explained.

Field trips this week by Lloyd Young, Twin Falls social security officer, will offer residents of Burley, Rupert and surrounding area the opportunity to make adjustments without coming to the Twin Falls office.

June bride are especially urged to make adjustments on their field trips. Young said. Those who have married recently and continued with their jobs often neglect to have their names changed on their social security records, he added. This should be taken care of to avoid confusion resulting from the social security card under a girl's maiden name.

Alshie Finds Himself 'Late' In Test Case

BOISE, July 12 (UP)—Ally, Gen. Alshie finally found out today that he should have appeared in Shoshone county district court June 30 to show cause why state and Shoshone county peace officers should not be restrained from enforcing state liquor and slot machine laws against a horse tavern operator.

"This is most unusual," said Alshie, "and certainly we're not clairvoyant."

No Summons
But the papers in the case of Lao Disbrow, the tavern operator, against Law Enforcement Commissioner R. C. Lewis; Shoshone County Sheriff Archie McPhail and Prosecutor Albert J. Graf still did not contain services of summons on Lewis.

Awards Won by Papers of Three Schools in Area

The Bur-Hur, published by the Burley high school journalism class, was adjudged an all-state winner in a state high school journalism contest, it was revealed Saturday in an Associated Press dispatch from Moscow.

First division ratings were won by the Burin of Twin Falls high school and High Tatler of Shoshone, the dispatch said.

First place honor rating went to Moscow high publications, Paul T. Scott, professor of journalism at the University of Idaho, told a teachers of journalism conference on the campus.

Best Tracks, Moscow's annual, were among 14 yearbook and 22 newspaper entries judged. The Pocatello annual published by Pocatello high, was the only all-state winner in the yearbook division. There were two other all-state winners among newspapers, Lewiston's Bengal Purr and Caldwell's Canyon Cougar.

The choir will provide background music for the many stirring scenes depicting pioneer days in this area, such as the selection, "Wagon Wheels." (Staff photo—enlarging)

Ancient Hack Will Roll Again During Nightly Pageant Here

By LEONARD MIRACLE
Automobiles have become "hacks" by common usage, but it's a stolen title, P. L. Lawrence, general chairman of the Magic Valley Yesterdays observance, will tell you.

The original "hack" owned by H. H. Soper of Twin Falls is now on display in the Hansen area, this vehicle rolled into Twin Falls when there was four inches of mud on Main street.

In a letter to Soper, Larsen tells that this hack was purchased in 1910. It served as the Larsen family conveyance until 1915, the letter reveals. At that time Larsen switched over to one of those new-fangled gadgets—an automobile.

A typical trip from Hansen to Twin Falls is described by Larsen. It was in the days when hacks did the hauling and a venture of that sort called for an early start. Cargo for this particular trip consisted of 74 nested chickens to be delivered to the Twin Falls meat company on May 1, 1911.

Leaving Hansen at 10 a. m., Larsen delivered his chickens at 2 p. m., a four-hour trip. Quartersing his CASTLEFORD, July 12—Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Leopold and daughters, Alma, Nebr., visited recently with the Rev. Gerald Gillespie and Mrs. Gillespie.

Booth Hospital Gets Added Aid

After receiving an urgent appeal for funds, Twin Falls county commissioners Friday increased the county's donation to Booth Memorial hospital, Boise, from $500 to $600 annually. The hospital is operated by the Salvation Army for Idaho young women and babies.

The commissioners pointed out that the hospitals expenditures for persons from this county are far in excess of even the increased donation.

In other business, the commissioners advertised for bids for the purchase of 400 tons of coal for all county buildings, except the county general hospital, which alone uses slightly more coal than the rest of the buildings.

Pageant's Chief Presses Search For Stagecoach

The mystery of the missing stagecoach deepened Saturday after P. L. Lawrence and C. C. Merrill had returned from their trip to the Shoshone basin hills with nothing more substantial than a flat tire and big appetite.

They left Twin Falls Friday morning in search of a coach that was reported at an abandoned ranch in that area. As one is urgently needed for the Magic Valley Yesterdays pageant, Lawrence offers "the best seat in the stands" to the person who can tell him where to find such a vehicle in operating condition.

Friday trip led into the canyons near Magic Hot springs where the party succeeded in locating a battered relic that could still be identified as a stagecoach. It was not the one that was reported, however. The legendary south-hills stage is still at large, and the search continues.

Lawrence explained that calls have been coming in telling him of the stagecoach at the Perrine ranch at Blue Lakes. Circumstances make it inconvenient to use that one, he continued. The one they want is supposed to be the property of the city of Twin Falls. Reports say that it was turned over to the city by the DAR several years ago for just such programs as the Yesterdays celebration. Now the coach is as hard to locate as an authentic flying disc.

If history bears out local information reports, this stage covered a lot of ground before it went into hiding in the hills. Mrs. J. H. Seaver, pioneer in the Twin Falls area, said that it is the coach that used to make the run from Kelton, Utah, to Boise with stops at the old Rock Creek stage station. She reports that Mrs. H. D. Miller, first postmistress in Twin Falls was once a passenger on this stage.

U. of I. ROTC Gets "Excellent" Rating
MOSCOW, July 12 (UP)—The ROTC officers' training corps unit at University of Idaho has been ranked "excellent," the highest rating the war department gives to ROTC units.
President J. E. Buchanan of the university was adviser of the rating, earned in the 1947 annual inspection, by Gen. Mark W. Clark, commanding general of the sixth army.

Exhibit of Historic Pictures and
Early Day Fashions
Now On Display In Our Windows

Most of the pictures are from the collection of C. E. Bisbee, pioneer photographer of Twin Falls who arrived here in 1905, and immediately set up his studio—a tent (of which a replica and photo is shown in our windows). His collection is undoubtedly the finest and most complete of any in existence today.

To the "old timers" it will recall memories of early day friendships in the form of community gatherings, those big Fourth of July celebrations, picnics, the big Fair of 1910 and lots of other interesting incidents. To the newly arrived residents this display represents a vivid picture of the early trials and hardships in the gradual development of the tract that has made Magic Valley what it is today—the finest in the nation!

- Outstanding in this assortment are pictures of:
- The first building in Twin Falls.
 - Land drawings in Twin Falls and adjoining towns.
 - The big Fair of 1910.
 - Construction of railroads and canals.
 - The "Homeless Twenty" (Twin Falls' first organization)
 - Machinery used in clearing the land of sage brush.
 - Reception given Wm. J. Bryan in his campaign for President.
 - The electric car system between the town and Shoshone Falls.
 - The first fire department of 1906.
 - The horse drawn fire department of later years.
 - The very muddy streets of Twin Falls in the earlier days.
