

Labor Agency Office Blasted In Holy Land

JERUSALEM, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Jewish underground blew up the labor department building of the Palestine government in the heart of Jerusalem today, killing at least three persons and wounding a number of others.

The whole city shuddered under the impact of a terrific explosion at 2:30 p. m., which sheared off the front wall of the public works department building, a two-story stone structure on the street of the prophets.

Policeman Killed
A British policeman was killed outright. Rescue workers removed two bodies from the wreckage. Authorities believed one more man might be buried.

Irgun Veal Leumi, according to one of its self-identified spokesmen, gave a scant five minutes warning that the building was being blown up. He called the Palestine Post with the warning. Critics of the war of nerves, this one proved accurate.

Area Cordoned Off
Rescuers were working under tottering walls which threatened to crash at any moment. Police and army searching for the bombers even as the rescue work went on.

On another front in the Anglo-Jewish conflict, police and troops searched through the orange groves near Tel Leiwinsky for a British car reported to have been kidnapped after three hours they had found nothing to substantiate a report by a band of Arabs that they had seized the car and dragged it into a grove.

Goal for the program is 10,000 commissioned army nurses. Those who are interested may receive application forms and additional information at the local recruiting station, 249 Main avenue east.

Odd Assortment of Bookmarks Is Daily Puzzle to Librarians

Figuring out what to do with the odd assortment of bookmarks inadvertently left in volumes by readers when they hustled them back to the Twin Falls public library is a daily puzzle that confronts the staff there.

Unmanned letters are a frequent source of wonderment. Librarians can never be quite sure whether the writers decided not to send them at the last minute or just forgot. Whenever indications are that it was an oversight, the letters are stamped and sent on their way with best wishes of the librarians.

Many other unusual articles turn up between the pages of best-sellers, old standbys, textbooks or what have you.

Librarian Jessie Fraser recalls off-hand running across such items as packages of assorted needles, small scissors, bills (both due and paid), insurance receipts and notices, tape-tapes and small rulers, regulation bookshelves, checks (usually cancelled), photographs, playing cards, notes, hairpins, combs, pens, paper clips, flowers and leaves, handkerchiefs, keys, small purses, handkerchiefs, valentines and blot-

Articles of value are always retained by the library and, whenever identification is possible, they are returned to the owners.

The makeshift bookmarks which go astray are frequently indices to the reader's interests. Before the war, fingering files frequently dropped out of returned books. When these became scarce because of wartime restrictions, readers evidently became fingering-file conscious and started using more plentiful items to mark where they fell asleep in the middle of a chapter. During flush times, dollar bills occasionally crop up in books, but become very scarce when the going gets tough.

Except for combs and other large objects which break the backs of books, library officials would rather have readers use the customary assortment of book marks, rather than to dog-ear or pencil mark the books.

Cornel Wilde and Wife "Separated"

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 5 (AP)—A celebrated Hollywood romance has ended with the announcement that Cornel Wilde and his wife, Pat Knight, have separated.

"I have had too many pictures during the last two and a half years," said Wilde in a statement issued from Catalina Island where he is staying. "I have been exhausted and nervous. Pat has had her problems. At this time we have no further plans."

Wilde and his actress wife were married Sept. 21, 1937 at Elkhorn, Nev. They have a four-year-old daughter, Wendy.

The Hard Way

WILDWOOD, N. J., Aug. 5 (AP)—After his 18th try, Joseph Daniels of Philadelphia got a chance to talk with his friend Joseph Edwards in jail — but it cost him $5.

Edwards, also a Philadelphian, had been arrested on a charge of breaking glass in the street. Subsequently, Daniels appeared in police headquarters 15 times in an attempt to see his friend. Finally Daniels was given his chance when Sgt. James Shine arrested him on a disorderly conduct charge and placed him in the same cell with Edwards.

Daniels was fined $5, Edwards $10.

HEYBURN, Aug. 5—Mrs. W. P. Croft has received word of the death of her step-father, Levi McDavitt, in Monticello, Ill. Mr. McDavitt, one of Heyburn's early pioneers, had been ill for several years.

He homesteaded at Heyburn in 1903 and was employed as a carpenter. He and his wife ran the post-office for several years and at one time he was Heyburn correspondent for the Twin Falls News.

Mr. McDavitt was active in the Masonic lodge here and was master several years.

Drop in Demand For Farm Labor Noted in Report

A drop in the demand for agricultural labor in Jerome and Idaho was noted by the state employment service received here.

The report shows a shortage of skilled labor at the Twin Falls 1938 office, in contrast to the surplus of unskilled labor.

From Gooding came the report that farm openings dropped off rapidly as beet and bean hoeing was completed. The Wendell Mill and Lumber company opened its sawmill at Fairfield. This concern has been operating on a small scale, but it is now in full production; and recently six lumber piles were needed.

The Prairie Power company at Fairfield is building a new power line, and three workers were needed recently.

Jerome has reported closing of the Shoshone mine, handling lead and zinc, and eight men were laid off. The Idaho Products concern released 12 men, but operations will be resumed as soon as potatoes are harvested.

From 30 to 40 hotel and restaurant workers will be needed for replacement at Sun Valley. Skilled carpenters are also needed at Kelchum, according to the report.

Start of the grain and pea harvest will create a need for sack sewers and combine men this week, the summary indicates.

19 Persons Dead In Trachach Accident

WAXACHACHIE, Tex., Aug. 5 (AP)—Nineteen persons were killed in Texas' worst 1947 traffic accident at dawn today when two trucks collided in a tight curve near here. Six were injured.

Two white men, the driver of a machine tank truck and a hitch hiker, and 17 Negroes, all construction workers, were the victims.

Hours after the crash the trucks were still burning, and traffic on the heavily-traveled main highway to Dallas was being delayed.

Highway patrol officers shot bullet holes in the tank truck to cause it to burn out more quickly.

Deputy Sheriff Willis Cox described the scene as "terrible."

The truck load of Negroes was heading for Dallas, where the men were to work.

U. S. National 'Saved' From Political Cops

BUDAPEST, Aug. 5 (AP)—An American citizen—restored for criticizing Hungarian communists—was in U. S. custody today after escaping from three political policemen when the aid of an American legation official while his captors were transferring him from one jail to another.

American officials identified the American as Stephen Thuransky, 35, formerly a farmer near Columbus, O., and a naturalized American.

Escaped Saturday

They said the escape took place last Saturday outside the Marko jail when Thuransky made a break for freedom. In the melee Thuransky was reported to have knocked down one of his three guards, while his wife grabbed a second. The third knocked Thuransky unconscious and he fell into the rear seat of an American legation car parked in front of the jail.

A U. S. official who had been waiting to see the prisoner pushed Mrs. Thuransky into the car behind her husband and drove away.

"Good and Stared"

Later the official said the three Hungarian policemen stood there and stared when he made off with their prisoner.

The Hungarian ministry of the interior issued a statement saying that Thuransky—who was naturalized in 1930 and said he represented the International Harvester company in Hungary—was being taken to the national defense department "for a hearing" when "two unknown men and one woman grabbed him and shoved him into a waiting vehicle bearing American license plates."

Chemical Control 'Not Fly Answer'

MOSCOW, Aug. 5 (AP)—H. O. Manis, entomologist at the University of Idaho, said today that chemical control is "still not the complete answer to Idaho's fly problem."

In discussing Idaho's "no fly" campaign, Manis said "no chemical fly killer can eliminate flies without a definite program of sanitation."

He said the 1947 fly population is heavy and can not be killed through a single treatment, and home owners not to be concerned about varieties of flies other than house flies now appearing throughout the state.

These other varieties are "very beneficial" in destroying harmful insects, Manis said. He listed them as including the Tachinid fly, Sarcophagid fly, and two varieties of the common Hover fly.

Reasons Told On Odd Duck Laws for '47

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—The unhappy hunter who sportingly protests against government laws trying to keep him from shooting any ducks can turn to Frederick C. Lincoln for confirmation.

Lincoln, assistant to the director of the fish and wildlife service—federal agency which makes the duck hunting rules—was smilingly observed to a reporter today.

"The 1947 regulations represent a very deliberate and admitted attempt to reduce the legal kill. They are, in effect, nuisance measures."

Migratory waterfowl, Lincoln said, have had four bad breeding seasons in a row.

Further "nuisance" restrictions for 1947:

1. Shooting prohibited during the half-hour before sunrise and the hour before sundown, when ducks make their twice-daily flights. This limits hunting hours from sunrise to an hour before sunset, a reduction of half an hour at each end of the day—60 minutes of the best hunting time.
2. No hunting before noon on the opening day of any season. Normally, the best hunting is on the opening day—and in the morning hours.
3. No season-openings on weekends.

Optional special seasons:

Some regulations protect species which are plentiful themselves but which resemble species near extinction, said Lincoln. Thus, snow geese are being protected in Wyoming, Idaho, Colorado and three Montana counties because of their resemblance to the rare trumpeter swan.

Disc Discoverer Piles His Plane At Oregon Field

BOISE, Aug. 5 (AP)—A plane piloted by Kenneth Arnold, Boise flying salesman who first reported sighting the flying disc crashed during a takeoff late yesterday at the Pendleton, Ore., airport.

The civil aeronautics administration station here said Arnold escaped injury when the engine of his two-place airplane quit while the craft was about 30 feet in the air.

The plane's landing gear was bent and the main spar in the left wing was broken, the OAA said.

Arnold was enroute to Boise from Tacoma where he and Capt. E. J. Smith of United Air Lines investigated another flying disc story.

Arnold on June 24 reported he saw nine of the saucers winging over a western Washington mountain range. Subsequently, similar reports came from nearly every station in the nation.

Smith at the controls of a T-6A trainer enroute from Boise to Portland, reported sighting what appeared to be a disc on July 4.

Youth, 19, Given 60 Days in Jail

MEVIN ERWIN, 19, Twin Falls, was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail Monday by Justice of the Peace J. O. Humphrey.

He was given three consecutive sentences of 30 days each on two counts of obtaining property under false pretenses. Charges involved the purchase of 75 pounds of sugar from two local stores and one count of embezzlement stemming from his alleged retention of change from a $5 bill belonging to another person.

Dodger

EMMETT, Aug. 5 (AP)—Edward Kash of Boise spared the life of a jack rabbit but his 1947 automobile was demolished as the result of the encounter.

The machine rolled over twice when Kash attempted to avoid striking the animal along a highway near here. Kash and a companion, Walter N. Durcan, also of Boise, escaped injury. Cash county Deputy Sheriff T. C. Fritchard said in his report.

U. S. Citizen Asks To Wed Jap Girl

TOKYO, Aug. 5 (AP)—Joseph W. Elliott, a red-haired 26-year-old veteran, today called a personal appeal to Gov. Sam Ford of Montana that he be allowed to marry pretty Hiako Furus and bring her home.

Elliott, at present a civilian employee of allied headquarters, said he had dispatched a request to the anti-discrimination committee in Washington requesting aid in his fight to marry the Tokyo seamstress. He said he met requirements of the recently-enacted federal war bride act, but that he had been informed by headquarters legal counsel that Montana law prohibited him from taking advantage of it.

Murder Charged In I. F. Slaying

IDAHO FALLS, Aug. 5 (AP)—A murder charge was filed last night against Richard L. Johnston, 31-year-old local wholesaler, after a coroner's jury returned a verdict saying he shot and killed a woman in Idaho Falls used car dealer.

Chief of Detectives P. O. Perrin, who signed the complaint, said the shooting occurred at the corner of an alley after a drinking party Saturday night. Lloyd died in a hospital less than an hour later.

Perrin said the men quarreled while both were at Johnston's warehouse "for a few drinks." They had been on a fishing trip with other men earlier in the day.

Perrin quoted Johnston as saying under questioning that "Lloyd was shooting me with a gun."

At arraignment Johnston was granted time to confer with an attorney. Preliminary hearing was postponed.

Recruits for Air Force Pick Bases

A change in war department policy now enables those enlisting for the army air forces to specify the base at which they desire duty, according to information received by First Lieut. George P. Claxton, officer in charge of the Twin Falls army recruiting station.

Previously, enlistees had been able to select the air forces as the branch of the service in which they desired duty, but they had not had the privilege of specifying the field or base at which they desired to serve, Lieutenant Claxton pointed out.

Never Mind the Downy... CAN YOU COOK?

This fellow is living proof that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach." But he can worry less about his future wife's ability to cook if he will furnish her with an electric range.

Electric cooking is so simple and fast that even a novice can be a good cook. Automatic timers and thermostat controls on the oven make recipe results turn out uniformly, while the kitchen remains cool and clean.

Homemakers like the idea of putting dinner in the oven of an electric range, setting the controls and then forgetting about it until mealtime... the leisure time is a real pleasure dividend.

Ask your dealer to show you the new models... you'll be convinced that an electric range provides better living.

We, the Women

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

A bride of 26 who surprised her friends by marrying after they had put her down as a girl who had missed all her chances in life, because her husband and her good friends don't hit it off together.

The friends have been important to her for years, and she is hurt because her husband doesn't fit in with the group.

She wants to know what she can do about it. The answer, of course, is nothing.

She shouldn't even try. She was dependent on the friends when she was single, when friendship was all she had to depend on.

But now she has a husband, and the important thing in her marriage is her husband doesn't fit in with her old friends, then she had better get busy and make new friends with him—make them as a couple.

This really isn't as much of a tragedy as the bride thinks, unless she sees it only by feeling that perhaps she made a mistake by marrying outside her own circle.

Most husbands and wives aren't equally well-liked by all their friends. Wives almost always have some friends that bore or irritate their husbands. And most husbands have some old buddies their wives find impossible.

But that isn't important. What is important is that they have some friends that they both like. And those friends are usually made after marriage.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Albert Estling, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Gann, Paulson, Minn., on June 28. The couple exchanged wedding vows at the Holy Trinity church in Nashville, Tenn., with the Rev. John Keister, Jr., officiating.

Following the ceremony the couple took a 7,000-mile trip through Tennessee, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

The wedding trip included visits with Estling's daughter, Alice Wallace and family, Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. Bryce Hoshild, Owosso, Mich., all former residents of Twin Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland V. Johnson, Albion, Minn., son-in-law and daughter of the bride.

In Wisconsin the couple visited Estling's childhood home and visited friends in the vicinity of New Auburn, Wis.

Mrs. and Mrs. Estling returned to Twin Falls Saturday and are now at home at 1317 Sixth avenue east.

ALBION, Aug. 5 — Norma Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Bennett, Albion, became the bride of Clyde Klebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Klebe, Rupert, in a ceremony performed at 7:45 p. m. One of the finest jobs ever done by American housewives has been in saving used fats! Since 1942, over 800 million pounds have been salvaged. But, as Secretary of Commerce W. A. Harriman points out, the job isn't over. "Not only the United States, but the whole world still lacks adequate supplies of fats and oils. And we in America are particularly short of industrial fats." These industrial fats, or their products, are needed to make many things we use every day. The used fats you turn in will help tide us over until supplies are normal.

“End-of-War” Order Result Is Told Here

The effect of President Truman's recent approval of the resolution ending July 25, 1947, as the final day of war service is outlined in a communication received by the Twin Falls veterans' administration from Manager Leon Fields of the regional office at Boise.

For education and training, loan guarantees and readjustment allowances provided in the GI bill, and for vocational rehabilitation of disabled veterans under public law 16, the period considered as war service is Sept. 16, 1940, through July 25, 1947, the official pointed out.

Those entering the service after July 25 will not become eligible for GI bill benefits. Any compensation awarded veterans or dependents will be compensated at peace-time, rather than the higher wartime rates.

“Veterans who served on active duty at any time during the period of September 16, 1940, through July 25, 1947, and are subsequently discharged after at least 90 days total service are entitled to certain GI bill benefits. So are veterans with less than 90 days if discharged for service-incurred disabilities,” Field continued.

Benefits include education and training, loans and readjustment allowances. July 25 becomes the date from which statutory time limitations will be figured. GI bill education benefits must be started within four years of that date, or date of discharge, whichever is later. This program ends in nine years.

All public law 16 training (vocational rehabilitation of disabled) ceases nine years after July 25. GI loan guarantees remain available for 10 years after that date. Readjustment allowances may be claimed until two years after July 25 date of discharge, whichever is later. This program ends in five years.

Jaycees Discuss “Manhattan Plan”

Plans for the Jaycees’ “Manhattan project” were discussed and it was decided to hold a pot-luck picnic at Rock creek in conjunction with Junior Chambers of Commerce of Buhl, Burley and Jerome at a general membership meeting of the Jaycees Monday night.

Tentative date set for the picnic was Aug. 24. Jaycees decided to bring the “Manhattan project,” a plan that would involve several thousand dollars and raise money for the construction of a bathhouse at the Harmon park swimming pool, before the board of directors next Monday.

Guest at the meeting was Wayne Hancock, Buhl, state vice president.

Wedemeyer Slates Manchurian Tour

MANHATTAN, Aug. 5 (AP)—High nationalistic commanders in Mukden, Manchuria, today prepared to extend Lieut.-Gen. Albert B. Wedemeyer a warm welcome when he arrives here on his fact-finding tour of China.

Wedemeyer was expected to land here early this evening from Tientsin. His arrival would coincide with reports of a possible “peace offensive” by Chinese communists, who were said to be “probing” west of Kungchulin, 14 miles north of Mukden. The communists were reported reinforced by a large concentration of “Korean communists.”

Commissions for Ex-Enlisted Men Open in Reserve

Direct commissions in the organized reserve corps are now available for former warrant officers and enlisted men of the first three grades, according to information received by First Sgt. Glenn C. Stover, assistant unit instructor for the 61st ORC composite group in Twin Falls.

Col. C. H. Bragg, senior instructor for the ORC in Idaho, has been notified by the war department that the time for securing such direct commissions has been extended to Dec. 31, 1947.

Attendance at an officer candidate school at graduation from a senior ROTC unit ordinarily is required to obtain such commissions. Recognizing the valuable combat and other training secured by warrant officers and enlisted men during the war, however, the war department seeks to place them in positions of responsibility, according to the announcement.

Those commissioned will be assigned to ORC units to assist in training activities. Further information may be obtained from Sergeant Stover at 249 Main avenue east.

135-Pound Man Loses Tiff With 65-Pound Dog

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 5 (AP)—A 135-pound Puebloan wants no further part of his 65-pound dog. The owner, Edgar Waites, 38, called police last night to come and get him and the dog.

Waites’ trouble with what he had considered man’s best friend all began when he whacked the dog with a newspaper. The animal took exception and dragged Waites all over the living room, biting him a few times for good measure.

Police took Waites to a clinic for treatment and the dog catcher took the dog to the dog pound.

Official Notes Law Requires State License

Although some persons are not aware of the state law requiring licensing of “day care” or foster homes, such licensing is mandatory. M. W. Moore, county supervisor of the department of public assistance, announced here Tuesday.

According to a recent communication from B. Childs, commissioner of the state department of public assistance, 300 homes of this type have been licensed in Idaho. These include 188 boarding homes, 68 day care homes or centers, and 43 homes for both boarding and day care.

The 1947 session of the legislature added amendments to the foster home licensing law, making it mandatory to secure licenses by persons giving regular care to children who are not related to them by blood or marriage. This law does not apply to adopted children. The new amendments also provide for licensing of all child-caring institutions, as well as private homes giving such care.

Purpose of the law is to protect children who must be cared for away from their own homes by insuring minimum standards of health, safety and welfare. Applications for a child care license may be made at any county office or the department of public assistance. There is no fee for the license. The Twin Falls county office is located at 260 Second street east above the south central district health unit.
