Hike in Phone Rates Denied Salmon Firm

BOISE, Aug. 28 (AP)—The Idaho public utilities commission unanimously rejected today a request by the Lambell Telephone company of Salmon to increase rates at its Salmon exchange.

Statehouse observers attached significance to the case because the major telephone companies in Idaho—Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company—have similar requests pending before the commission.

The decision was by President B. Ager and Commissioners W. B. Joy and H. N. Benner. Benner was appointed last January and is the newest member of the commission. He was not a member of the commission that granted last December a rate increase for Mountain States which has since been taken under reconsideration by the PUC.

Decisions on the Mountain States and Pacific requests for rate increases aggregating nearly $1,000,000 annually are expected next month. Extensive hearings on both cases were held this summer.

The Lambell order by the PUC said the company was "earning an adequate return on its investment with necessary and suitable amounts for operating expenses, depreciation and other expenses having been provided for."

Reduction Directed. The commission's order also directed a reduction in the listed book value of the property used and the value in the public service from $275,543 to $125,842.

It was also directed that the company reduce its depreciation expense from six per cent to two and one-fourth per cent on all depreciable property.

A request for the rate increase by L. B. McGilvrey, superintendent of the company at Salmon, was filed last week. It contended that increased operating expenses had resulted from the payment of higher wages and greater utility charges.

At a public hearing in Salmon last June 20, McGilvrey presented the company's case. R. E. Larsen, utility auditor, represented the PUC.

Coal Shortage Seen by Head Of Rail Group

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (AP)—William T. Parry, president of the American Association of Railroads, said today that the nation faces a possible coal shortage next winter, despite the fact that railroads are carrying more coal with fewer cars than ever before.

Parry said huge coal exports to Europe and other sections of the world were largely responsible for the coal shortage, but that the railroads realized the necessity of maintaining a high rate of export at this time.

Shortage of Cars
He said the railroads face a shortage of nearly every type of car but that the coal car situation was the most critical.

"The petroleum tank car situation is a little easier," he said. "It might be that fears on petroleum have been a little exaggerated. At any rate, we are not having the number of complaints about tank cars as box or coal cars."

Match Grain Moved
He said despite farmers' complaints that grain had been piling up at midwestern shipping points, the railroads had moved "a great deal" more grain this year than ever before in history—and with fewer cars.

"The fact that grain has been left on the ground doesn't mean it is rotting," he said. "That's been a common incident for many years."

The coal situation will become lighter until more care are made available, Parry said. He said the present rate of delivery on 35,000 cars which have been ordered is "extremely unsatisfactory."

Average Tourist Driving to West

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—The national park service took a look at ballooning registration figures from its parks in the wide open spaces today and concluded that the average tourist is heading west this year.

Generally, the bureau reported, western parks are showing huge attendance gains while some eastern areas are suffering slight declines or merely holding their own.

"Looks like it's a case of people getting into their new cars and heading out for the more distant parts they haven't been able to visit since before the war," commented Park Publicist Ralston Lattimore.

Travel to the units of the national park system was 30 per cent higher during July than for the same month last year, Lattimore said.

The After society of the Little Flower Catholic church served the banquet and handled accommodations for the meeting.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

DENHAM—Robert Denham, key figure in the national labor relations board as reorganized under the Hartley-Taft act, will face serious bipartisan opposition in the interim appointment because of the senate's failure to ratify the labor committee's unanimous approval of the selection at the last session.

The new appointment will be based on belated disclosure that the fifth and sixth circuit court severely criticized Mr. Denham's conduct of an NLRB case at Shreveport, La., in 1943. In scathing language it accused him of resorting to the very practices which helped to discredit administration of the original Wagner labor relations act which the Hartley-Taft law is designed to remedy.

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM BOB HOPE

Los Angeles banks have just started their own Groucho's Chinese theater. They require that everyone cashing check put his fingerprints on it. I don't want to say what my brother is doing about it, but he is known to the police as the best with fire finger.

As for myself I don't mind putting my fingerprints on a check. . . .

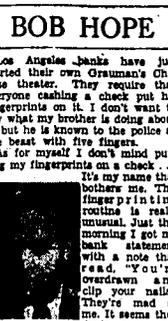

It's my name that bothers me. This fingerprinting routine is really and truly a nuisance but this morning I got my bank statement with a note that said "YOUR OVERDRAWN AND CLIP YOUR NAME".

Not at the end of my nose, anyway.

Jane Russell is having a lot of trouble cashing her checks. It's not that she's broke. The bank teller takes her hand in his and then forgives what he's doing!

One guy I'm looking for is a checkcashing friend known as "Hagman Harry".

He not only passes rubber checks; he banks save one million a year on had checks and spend three million on ink pads.

POLITICKING AMONG SCOUTS

According to reports from the World Scout jamboree in France, east and west are meeting on good terms in at least one place. Scouts from the Soviet-orbit countries of Czechoslovakia and Hungary behave like the others, the reports say. They're mainly interested in swapping insignia, neckerchiefs and addresses of Scouts from other countries whose language they are studying.

But there are political overtones to the meetings, all the same. For the Czech and Hungarian boys brought with them pamphlets to be distributed to Scouts from non-communist countries in case their reception was unfriendly.

The pamphlets asked Scouts of the western countries to be tolerant of communist youth. The Czech pamphlet said, in part: "We, the youth of Czechoslovakia, stand between the west and the east. To you of the west we shall tell about the heroism of Soviet and Yugoslav youth, who have paid such a high price to win their fight for freedom; and with you of the east, we shall play the game of a million children the world over—scouting . . . We believe that our common ideals will one day unite the world."

UNION—The Shreveport affair involved the discharge of three workers by the Atlas Pipeline company. The International Oil Workers union (CIO) alleged that the men had been discharged for joining union formation. Defendant claimed that one employee had been discharged for sleeping on the job and that the other two were not qualified.

The union on every count, ordering restoration of the trio with back pay from time of discharge. The existing NLRB accepted his findings and ruled accordingly. Although the circuit court reversed the ruling and ordered a new and fair trial, the NLRB did not appeal to the supreme court. It simply dropped the matter.

ACCUSATION—The three-judge tribunal, in reversing Mr. Denham, said that he was "not impartial but partial, not neutral but biased." It accused him of making "rash and unwarranted statements" and of expressing predetermined views of the guilt of the defendant.

He declared that he had acted as investigator, prosecutor, judge and jury when, as trial examiner, his legal function was solely to serve as "an impartial hearing officer."

Another major accusation was that Mr. Denham resorted to "false pretenses" to obtain a stipulation from defense counsel and then used the document to his own advantage in the prosecution or permitted by law. In other words, sharp practices not indulged in, in the best legal circles.

75 Attend Outing

WENDELL, Aug. 29 — Approximately 75 members of the Hagerman and Wendell churches attended a picnic in the Mindoka forest last Sunday, with the Rev. Amos Maxwell in charge of services.

Attending from Twin Falls were the Rev. George Roseberry, Mrs. Roseberry and their two daughters.

ing smartly, pouncing on cigarette butts and clearing brush for the leader when cruel fate removed the reason for the existence of the command.

Mr. Wilcox says a few men were court-martialed, some were allowed to go overseas to escape trial and, finally, after D-day in Europe, 70 of the less ornate saluters were sent to Fort Niagara to join an overseas company of M.P.'s.

Some, however, who had fine records applied for transfers to the war and several of them earned commissions.

DO NOT overfeed. A lean, muscular dog is healthier than an over-weight dog.

PUPPIES need 1/4 ounce of food daily per pound of weight. Divide into morning, noon and evening feedings.

MATURE DOGS normally require 1/2 oz. of an ounce of MOR-PEP for each pound of weight. Serve regularly in one evening meal or divide equally for morning and evening feedings.

BATTLE OF THE HELMLINE

We're afraid that 1,300 brave Texas women, who have banded together as the Little-Known-Knights Club, will not get far in their fight against the youth of Texas, even though they probably have the support of some 50,000,000 American males.

American women for too many years have been accustomed to submit dutifully to ridiculous creations. They endured the hoop, the bustle and the hobble skirt because fashion decreed. Never mind what is comfortable or becoming. High style becomes dowdiness when the dressmakers say so.

But in coming can win this uneven battle, it will probably be the ladies of Texas. The independence and resourcefulness of Texans is well known and well advertised. And be it remembered that the state's men folk have stuck to Stetson hats and cowboy boots while soot suits came and went. Maybe the ladies can do as well. Anyway, more power to 'em.

DISAPPOINTMENT—The senate labor committee's 12-0 approval given to the Denham nomination, which provided for the 1943 castigation of the nominee, whose appointment caused some surprise and disappointment, was the first instance because of his lack of legal prominence.

One phase of his handling of the Shreveport case was brought up briefly but Mr. Denham gave a sharp rebuff of legislative administration, which apparently satisfied the committee.

As a matter of fact, it was his conduct in this part of the proceeding that drew the judge's most serious fire from a legal standpoint. It concerned his use of the stipulation which he was charged with having obtained under "false pretenses."

Private Wilcox read once in the column of Eleanor the great that the 240th M. P. Bn. Z. I. (special), the largest and most elaborately equipped special corps of its kind, organized to guard an American President was actually a school for M. P.'s.

With a bluish and a stammer for his tensity, he insists that a lady who undertakes to know everything must read some histories. Mr. Wilcox says that those who performed their duties best were practically all women.

Lead desirable guardsmen, who expressed irreverent sentiments, who did not salute or march like G.I.s, who were steep in post and drank too much beer in the village joints where the lower orders gathered were like the transfer of the 240th M. P. Bn. Z. I. (special) to Fort Niagara.

Major Stowell, being still a soldier, is unable to speak for publication at all. One officer has said that the replacements in the 240th M. P. Bn. Z. I. (special) consisted 100 per cent. But that still could mean as Mr. Wilcox says, 70 per cent of the original cast, were still saluting.

INSTANTANEOUS HOT WATER?

IT'S A SNAP!

JUST TURN the tap marked hot any time of day or night and you'll have the hot water you need, when your home is equipped with automatic electric water heating.

Automatic electric water heating is safe and clean . . . no fires to build, no waiting. It's as dependable as your electric light, but you don't even have to turn on or off, because it's fully automatic. Thermostatic controls that turn the current when not needed make it easy on the family budget too, particularly at Idaho Power's low electric rates.

Your family deserves the convenience and comfort of having all the hot water they want WHEN they want it. Talk it over with your dealer . . . no doubt he'll recommend a 52-gallon electric water heater or larger, if yours is an average size family.

The proper amount of circuits, wiring and outlets will help you enjoy your electric appliances more. When you build or remodel, insist on adequate wiring. It's economical.

Electricity Does So MUCH—Costs So LITTLE!

WELL NEED IT

As things look now, Americans are going to wind up 1947 with a record national income of around $191,000,000,000, maybe more. That looks pretty impressive beside the $71,000,000,000 national income in the fairly prosperous peacetime year of 1939.

But we shall pay around $9,000,000,000 in individual income taxes on that record sum. No 1939 figures on individual income tax payments are immediately at hand, but the country's entire internal revenue collection that year was only a little more than $5,000,000,000.

Then it might be well to cut such dollars as we spend for the necessities of life right in two before comparing them with the 1939 dollar. Having done so we might conclude that, while it's wonderful to have a great big record national income, we're certainly going to need it.

POIR IT ON!

Most of the Judges of Magic Valley are entering into the spirit of the current safety campaign through which it is hoped to bring a lot of wild drivers to their senses.

At Durley, for instance, a judge socked one violator $100 for drunken driving and assessed another motorist $25 for speeding.

But a report man found out, is no place for a driver who is drunk. He was fined $50 and costs and ordered to pay for repairs on a car which he damaged.

Bluff fines may not be the solution to traffic violations, but at least they are expensive and some people are more concerned about their pocketbooks than anything else.

That valiant foe of communism, President Juan D. Peron of Argentina, already has taken over all branches of government, sewed up the labor unions, intimidated and imprisoned his leading opponents, and threatened to tax opposition newspapers out of existence. Now he is insisting on a veto power at the Rio de Janeiro conference.

The trouble with dictatorships nowadays is that you can't tell the communists from the anti-communists without a scorecard.

The professor and his fiancée were out roaming in the fields when she plucked a daisy and looking longingly at him began to pull off the petals, saying: "He loves me, he loves me not."

"You are giving yourself a lot of unnecessary trouble," said the professor. "You should count up the petals, and if the total is an even number the answer will be 'yes'; if an uneven number, in the affirmative."—Lewiston Tribune.

City nurses complain that their rate of pay is less than that of an animal keeper at the municipal zoo.

"The nurses' charge is easy to understand, but this being a civilization world the zookeeper should be obvious to them.

An animal in a cage at the zoo is a valuable piece of property. It is paid for by someone and represents a heavy investment. It requires expert, trained nurses are responsible only for sick humans."—Detroit Free Press.

MRS. J. C. JEPSON State PTA president who spoke at the fourth district PTA conference held Thursday in Jerome. (Staff engraving).

Electors of district PTA officers highlighted the annual conference of the fourth district Parent-Teacher association held Thursday in Jerome.

Mrs. Sam Danner, Shoshone, was elected president. Vice-presidents elected from the counties in the district were Mrs. Eunice McClellan, Ketchum; Mrs. G. E. Young, Wendell; Mrs. Rollo Gibbons, Jerome; Mrs. Ralph Elliott, Twin Falls; Mrs. John Rencher, Burley, and Mrs. C. D. Johnson, Rupert. Mrs. Vic Goertzen, Twin Falls, was chosen district secretary. Mrs. J. C. Jepson, Lewiston, state PTA president, invited the officers.

Mrs. Goertzen, past district president, was presented with a life membership in the Idaho Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Workshops to discuss officers, membership, founder's day, and publicity were held during the afternoon. The workshops were conducted by Mrs. Ralph Elliott, assisted by Mrs. Benches, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Goertzen.

During the noon hour a magazine luncheon was held at Wood's cafe. Speakers were Mrs. R. J. Hayes, first vice-president of the Idaho Congress and Mrs. John E. Hayes, secretary for the National Parent-Teacher, Charles Hoff, Jerome, and the LDS women's trio presented musical numbers.

Special meals at the luncheon were teachers from the Lincoln and Washington schools in Jerome.

During the morning sessions Mrs. Jepson discussed the four-point program of the Idaho Congress. She stressed the necessity for school education, health, parent and family life, education and world understanding.

Aster B. Wilson spoke on the school reorganization program. He stated that there are 110,000 children in elementary and secondary schools in Idaho and $100,000,000 appropriated each year for their education.

"Finance is the only problem that is preventing the immediate acceptance of the reorganization plan," he said.

Mrs. John E. Hayes discussed the national legislative program, stressing the Parent-Teacher stand on national defense.

The Rev. Roy E. Howe read the Episcopal church's invitation and opened the session. Mrs. A. B. Crouch and Mrs. Fred Bell, both of Jerome, were in charge of registration.

Reports Show Joint Defense League Nears

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
 An Eastern League Against Reports from the British empire conference on the Japanese peace under way at Canberra, further emphasize the possibility of a world-wide mutual defense league.

The western hemisphere nations have agreed that all will join to repulse an attack on any one of them.

United States and British interests in Europe and the middle east have become so interlocked that it is practically impossible to mutual defense already.

At Canberra the Australians are reported to have won support for a policy of cooperating with the United States as the principal military power in the Pacific. Presumably the object is to get the U. S. to carry the main load, but with such help as can be offered by Australia, New Zealand, India, Pakistan, Burma, Canada, South Africa and the United Kingdom. The United States will certainly demand that such help consist of all-out assistance by the others as needed. That would mean a mutual defense clause in the Japanese peace treaty. Although it may be directed specifically only against Japan, it will add to the pattern begun at Rio, and lay the groundwork of an "all for one" mutual defense system in another vast area.

As already pointed out, development of a world defense league would not run counter to the United Nations. It merely would avoid the veto by which permanent members of the U. N. security council now can block action against aggressors, and would provide for at least a part of the world an anti-war military force which is now totally lacking.
