

Vandenberg Says 'Human Survival' Present Problem

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg, R., Mich., said today that in the matter of emergency aid for Europe "the immediate question is one of elemental human survival in a free society."

Vandenberg's recognized senate Republican spokesman on foreign policy matters, made that statement in announcing he has called the senate foreign relations committee to meet Nov. 10 in accordance with a request from President Truman. Vandenberg is chairman of the group. Noting Mr. Truman's request that key senate and house committees explore western Europe's "urgent winter needs for food and fuel," Vandenberg said:

"This proposal is submitted separately from plans dealing with long range economic recovery on a self-help basis although they have factors in common."

Mr. Truman asked yesterday that four congressional committees study a $650,000,000 fund for European winter aid before he determines whether to announce a special session of congress.

Explains Late Meeting

Explaining why he had not called his committee to meet until Nov. 10, Vandenberg said the state department will not be ready with necessary information until then. He added that "other essential reports, including findings of congressional committees on the situation in Europe and the report of the Harman commission, will not be available until that time."

Secretary of Commerce Harman is directing a study into the question of how much aid the United States can give Europe without injury to its own economy.

Highs in Trading, Then Drop in Sharp Declines

All wheat futures hit record highs on the Chicago board of trade today in early trading, then slumped sharply toward the close of trading as an administration leader predicted that a waste-lass food program in the United States would bring food prices down and provide more aid for hungry persons abroad. Highs were the highest prices at $2.67 high at the board for delivery in those months, and broad indication for a time that $3 wheat might have been reached in Wednesday trading.

Soviet Share of U. S. Trade Back To Pre-War Size

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—Russia's share of total United States exports has dropped back to pre-war levels after being swelled by wartime lend lease and postwar UNRRA aid, the census bureau reported today.

The agency's figures show that Russia got 1.2 per cent of the value of U. S. exports during the first half of this year and provided 1.1 per cent of total goods imported into the U. S. This is about the same percentage of American trade that Russia handled before the war.

However, Russia's "commercial" or cash buying rose considerably. Soviet agencies paid cash for half of the $91,200,000 in U. S. exports of goods to Russia during the first six months of 1947.

Machinery and vehicles made up over more than 70 per cent of the goods Russia obtained in the U. S. during the first half of this year. U. S. imports from Russia were, as usual, concentrated in undressed lumber which accounted for 41 per cent of total imports from Russia and metallic ore, which accounted for 20 per cent.

Heardings on Mail Rate Hike Reopen

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce commission today resumed hearings on the general railroad petition for a 45 per cent increase in rates charged for mail service for carrying the mails.

Postmaster General Robert E. Foster, in opposing a request estimating the changes would boost the annual mail transportation bill by $600,000,000, has requested the ICC in a counter-petition to examine the mail pay schedules with the view of making reductions rather than increase.

The ICC heard preliminary statements in July and then granted the post office motion for a recess until the department time to prepare the opposition.

U. S. Catching up On Jet Production

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—The engineering chief for the nation's major builder of jet engines said today that the United States is catching up with the British in some ways ahead of the British in jet propulsion.

Heaven said the United States is leading in building and using axial flow compressors—a type in which the air is shoved straight back by a series of blades, as compared with the centrifugal type in which air is compressed by throwing it off the ends of the blades—and in the use of water injection for extra thrust.

Russia-Exiled Leaders Stir Protest 'Pot'

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Editor

Efforts by exiled representatives of the Russian-dominated committee of the eastern bloc to bring their plight before the United Nations have lighted the fire under a pot which promises to boil fast.

Not that there is any chance of early revolt by democratic forces in Bulgaria, Hungary, Rumania or Romania. Oppression within the countries is being suppressed with vicious success.

While active anti-communists are treated to blackmail, imprisonment and death, efforts are being made to improve the lot of the unreeling lower classes and bring them into the communist fold. Barriers erected between the Russian sphere and western Europe, coupled with the reparations setup, have forced integration of the business and industry of these countries with that of Russia.

The pressure is so great that even Czechoslovakia, which has retained considerable internal autonomy, can have no foreign policy call its own. And there are strong indications that eastern Germany and the Russian zone of Austria are headed for a new Anschluss as a Russian satellite or under some other guise.

In spite of all this, the joint action of the exiled leaders, the U.S. and U.N. action does represent a sort of preliminary coalition of resistance within the Russian bloc.

Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia, still not recognized as Soviet republics by the western powers, have long been conducting a similar campaign through exiled government officials.

Bradley and the Veterans

The man who took over the post-war VA had seen at first hand what his clients went through in battle. Since then General Bradley has been surrounded by veterans' post-war problems, just as he is surrounded by veterans here during a visit to a VA hospital. (NRA photo)

The VA: Bradley's Big Headache Is Spending 20 Per Cent of U.S. Budget

(This is the first of a series of articles on General Bradley and his role as chief of the veterans administration.)

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (NRA)—Since the war, the U. S. veterans administration under Gen. Omar B. Bradley has spent approximately $12,000,000,000 out of the U. S. treasury. That's more money than has been spent by any other single agency of the government except the armed services—about 20 per cent of the total federal budget for two years.

Have U. S. taxpayers gotten their money's worth? It is a question that has been asked by many of the veterans and the mandats of congress.

Bradley's assignment was complicated. The experts say he has made brilliant decisions, and they admit he has made costly mistakes. But any evaluation of the job he has done must take into account when he was sworn in August, 1945.

Into his lap was dumped: The biggest insurance business in America; the biggest and newest educational and training program in history. One of the biggest medical programs ever conceived. And the job of settling the human claims after one of the worst wars in history.

To start doing these jobs, he was inheriting one of the poorest bureaucracies in the nation. The years only one motive inspired workers in the old veterans administration—second hand money.

So secret that the VA was shunned by most federal workers.

Heavy iron gates clanked open at the entrance to corridors to open the doors. And changing bells marked the days end. If an official wanted to make a long distance telephone call, he had to get special authorization through a clerk which sometimes took five days. Under these conditions morale had dropped about as low as it could get. Employees had stayed on for one reason—to reach retirement age.

On the bright side, Bradley's brilliant military record gave him the unqualified support of the public, congress and the veterans themselves. And he had practically unlimited funds.

After the strain of months of fighting in Europe, Bradley attacked his new job with as much vigor as though he was coming in fresh from several months' rest in Florida. He set himself a rigid schedule of seven days a week, at his desk at 7:45 a. m.; a sandwich in his office for lunch; back home after 7:30 p. m.—with two brief cases. In the last year he has taken Sunday off—still with two brief cases.

Bradley used to tell his friends during the fighting that he was going to play golf on the day after the war. He has played once since taking over VA.

He started with a determination to talk to and see as many persons as possible who had served or been with him, and to make himself available to as many as possible who were in practical. A military device he instituted was a daily 6 o'clock staff meeting which is still in effect. It is the "kitchen cabinet" and which lasts from one quarter to five hours.

The only key man Bradley brought with him from the army was Col. C. E. Hansen, who was young man who was his close during most of the fighting and who has since become head of VA's public relations.

Bradley saw at first hand what the men who fought the war went through. He took over VA deter-

Film Town's Indian Tribe On Warpath

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 30 (AP)—Hollywood's own Indian tribe went on the warpath today to see what they could do about the housing situation. Even tapes are scarce.

And they're doing it with tribal war dances, ceremonial chants, and full warpaint—Cecil B. DeMille influence. Because these Indians all work in the movies.

They know how to get publicity. No tent show for them. They're hitting out the mammoth Shrine auditorium for a full-dress ceremonial show.

Object: Wampum. And plenty of it. The braves are fixin' to do a little warwhooping in court.

"We'd like to see if there isn't something we can do about guaranteeing our people the right to keep their homes," "Iron Eyes" Cody explained. "We call ourselves the 'Indian Citizens League'."

There are about 100 redskins around Hollywood, including chiefs, braves, squaws, and peepoos. "Iron Eyes," a full-blooded Cherokee, is spokesman for some 50 different tribes.

"We've had two cases recently of our people being kicked out of their homes," he said. "Zoning laws, other white man, married to a redskin, has to pretend she's his maid so he can keep his home."

"What we're going to do is hit the warpath in the local courts, to see if these laws can't be changed."

New Ski Lift for Dollar Mountain Now Being Built

HAILEY, Sept. 30—Workers at Sun Valley who have had to stand in line at the bottom of Dollar mountain waiting their turn to ride the ski lift will be glad to know that a new lift is now being constructed to eliminate all that waiting.

The half-way stop on the present lift will be eliminated and only those desiring to reach the top of the hill will ride it. The new line, which will be parallel with the present one but approximately 600 feet to the west of it, will take beginners up the hill some 1,200 feet, with a vertical rise of 185 feet. The hourly capacity of this lift will be 400 riders.

A new lift also is being constructed on Baldy. Preliminary work of clearing brush and timber and getting the ground ready has been in progress since last spring to make readily accessible what is known as the Broadway and Sunning runs. The length of this line will be approximately 3,000 feet, with all towers of steel construction similar to those in use on the run now installed. The upper terminal will be located at the top of the run, with the lower terminal at the bottom of what is now commonly referred to as the Broadway canyon.

Between the top and bottom stations there is an elevation difference of 1,175 feet, which means the lift has an incline equal to that of the steepest portion of Canyon section. Present plans call for an hourly capacity of 300 riders, based on the cable speed of 324 feet per minute in a 12 second interval between chairs.

Songs were presented by the Grange quartet, composed of Guy Peters, Elmo Farrer, Mrs. Betty Schuller and Mrs. Betty Pastoor, accompanied by Mrs. Elmo Farrer.

Closing the skill was a play with a cast composed of T. B. Drvin, Mrs. A. E. Kunkel, Mrs. Guy Peters, Mrs. Lester Skrem, Mary Kunkel, Mrs. Homer Roberts, Mrs. Albert Kleinkopf, Mrs. William Lanting, Mrs. Edna Joslyn, Mrs. T. B. Irwin and Mrs. Wayne Joslyn. Refreshments were served and dancing ended the event of the night.

Customers Make Meat Price Soar, Butcher Tells Othman

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—The scalawags who invited Dick Ricketts, the honest butcher of Shamokin, Pa., to tell the secret of the 19-cent stein steaks, have turned him into a mental meat grinder. When the price of the 19-cent stein steaks, butchers around Twin Falls has resulted in placement on all types of temporary soles, but a shortage of beef workers has occurred, due largely to lack of housing facilities.

"But the public does it and that ruins competition. Why, a fellow looks at most prices on his window today and he's not even ashamed of himself. And the fellow across the street doesn't do anything about it, because he likes the high profits. Look and the housewife pays the price. So you afraid she brought this thing on herself." Brother Dick paused at this juncture. I could hear him shuddering the impatient customer.

"Of course," added Brother Dick (the name his customers have given him), "the dumbest farmer some times grows the biggest potatoes. I mean even as big as the one I saw with an idea and I'd sure like to tell it to those senators. So Brother Dick and I made a deal there on the phone. Since he had to stay behind the meat counter, he'd give me the details of his scheme and I'd relay them to the lawmakers. To run up a whopping telephone bill before we got through, but they the dope. Dick Ricketts, America's best known butcher, talking; my selling meat at these low prices is not behind the meat counter, he said. 'I'm just one little fellow in a little town. I'm not so smart, but I've been in the meat business a long time and I'd say it's the public's fault, their buying at crazy prices.'

Cooler Weather Slashes Number Of Jobs In Area

Recent cool weather has slowed agricultural work in south central Idaho with a resultant drop in job openings available, according to the most recent labor summary of the Idaho state employment service. An office of transient workers around Twin Falls has resulted in placement on all types of temporary soles, but a shortage of beef workers has occurred, due largely to lack of housing facilities.

NLRB Rules Out Foremen Appeal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—The national labor relations board dismissed today a complaint of the Foreman's Association of America in its first decision since the Taft-Hartley act went into effect Aug. 22. The FAA, an independent, had charged in the complaint that Westinghouse Electric corporation, East Springfield, Mass., had refused to bargain with the union. The board said the Taft-Hartley act excluded supervisory workers from the status of employees protected by its provisions, and directed the dismissal without going into the merits of the case. The complaint was lodged before the Taft-Hartley act became effective.

How The BENDIX washer saved a million wives

BIGGEST SAVING OF ALL is the work and time the Bendix automatic Washer saves you. All you do is put in the clothes, set the dial, add soap... and RELAX! All by itself the Bendix washes, triple rinses and damp-drys the clothes... then cleans itself and shuts off automatically. You don't even have to be there.

THRIFTY WITH HOT WATER, TOO! The brilliant way to get clothes cleaner is to tumble them hundreds of times in and out of a small amount of hot suds... then rinse them thoroughly. That's exactly what the Bendix does, all by itself.

KIND TO CLOTHING BUDGETS! The Bendix "Tumble-Action" principle saves wear and tear on clothes. No agitator... no rub, scrub and twist... "Tumble-Action" is gentle action... safe with the delicate fabrics.

Truck radiators must be repaired very strongly to withstand the extreme vibration. It is in this kind of work that we excel. Our repairs "stand up" under the hardest conditions they last the life of the radiator.

Fans Converge on New York as "Subway" World Series Gets Off

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 (AP)—New York's first "subway" world series game drew a record crowd of 100,000 fans to the city for the opening game today.

"I know you expected speculators: they were demanding $100 for a set of four reserved seats, and as high as $20 for a single box seat to the opener.

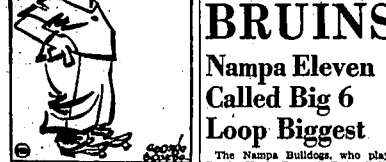

The game for the first time in the world series instead of the traditional four. The "active alternates," as they are called, sat in the park at first and third base to determine if balls are foul or fair, or decide if outfielders drop or actually catch fly balls on shooting catches, and rule whether or not fans interfere with balls close to the railing.

Reserved seats to the games were sold out long ago, and, although speculators were reported to have made a few dollars, it was reported that one Brooklyn fan had set up two such seats in different rooms, one for Yankee fans and one for Dodger fans, to eliminate any trouble.

The series was the sole topic of conversation in the pubs and dining rooms of the over-the-river borough.

BRUINS TO BE OUTWEIGHED

Nampa Eleven Called Big 6 Loop Biggest

The Nampa Bulldogs, who play Coach Hank Powers' Twin Falls boys basketball team, are the basis of the heaviest circuit in the Big Six conference, according to a story written for the Nampa Press by Bob Keightley, former Times-News Magic Valley editor.

According to Keightley, the Babe Brown, former Nampa mentor, as saying the Bulldogs are inexperienced and lacking in reserve strength.

Only five lettermen are back from last year's team. The first five only two were regular last year—Babe Brown, 180-pound, and triple threat back, and Wando Maupin, 160-pound tackle.

The Bulldogs' line averages 160 pounds and their hunky quartet of backs average 180, probably the heaviest in the league. The entire squad of 30 players is the smallest turnout at Nampa in several years however.

All Teams Tough

"All teams will be tough for us to beat this year," Brown declared. Nampa checked out a 6-0 victory over Meridian in the opening game but took a 4-0 beating from Missoula Monday, last Friday and won a narrow 13-10 victory over Idaho Falls.

Back Moore, who was named the almost unanimously on last year's all-conference team, is one of the best backs in the conference. Maupin is a powerful one in the line. At right halfback is Brown's leading formation, the triple threat back, a 165-pound runner, a good ball carrier and defensive back.

Jerry Diehl Skirts End

Jerome halfback Gerald Diehl (11) skirts end for a run in the second quarter that ended in a touchdown for the Vandals and opened a victory march of 19-16 over the Stanford Indians at Stanford.

As an avid Idaho greeted the new coach, Howell calmly drawled that "a team that has a terrific line to win usually can win."

Diehl has no stars on his team except Billy Williams, a kid who won the state football title at the Vandals last year.

McCarthy Returns to Baseball As Manager of Boston Red Sox

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 (AP)—"Mare Joe" McCarthy, who led the Yankees to eight pennants and seven world championships before he retired last year because of ill health, came back to the big show as the new manager of the Boston Red Sox today.

Joe Cronin, who he succeeds as pitcher of the Sox, announced that McCarthy, after an all-night discussion, had signed a two-year contract, an undisciplined salary and would take charge of the team "at once."

Cronin, who managed the Boston club since 1934, advances to the post of general manager in succession to Eddie Collins, who has been handicapped by illness. Collins will remain in an advisory capacity as vice-president.

On the SPORT FRONT

With YOSS

(The Podgy One)

Mr. Marty Duggan, the Cowley prize, dropped in on Ye Oldie Sport Governor "the other night" to advise the pudgy one, who is having his yearly battle trying to transfer his allegiance from baseball to football, that the Twin Falls club has voted admission of Great Falls and Billings into the Pioneer league.

"But I haven't the right of vote like Russia and my vote won't mean a thing as all the other clubs appear to be ready to make the Pioneer an eight-club organization," Duggan commented.

"Now that we seem kinda mean of me to vote against expanding the league, but I looked up the records on the weather that prevails in Great Falls and learned that the mean temperature there is 65 during the summer," he continued.

"Now that's during the day and you know it will be considerably colder at night."

"That'll be just a bit too rugged for the players, I fear. Why I remember when it froze water there in mid-winter."

"And then, too, Great Falls is as far away from Twin Falls as Portland, Ore. Just think of having to play here one night and in Great Falls the next. Why we'll have to take an airplane to get there in time."

Jack Radtke, who stepped into the business manager role, said in his office all day Monday waiting for a call from New York to learn what the Yankees wanted to do with several players on the Cowboy roster, but the Bronx Bomber, big-wig, allied up with the world series, never placed the call. That necessitated Jack O'Hearts delaying a trip into Idaho's wilds after all.

One of the players involved is Hal Denelison, the champion catcher. The Yankees had selected him for Birmingham, their Eastern league farm, but George Trautman, president of the National Association, has ruled that the little fellow has been bounced around too much and now it looks like the Cowboys (with the advice of the Yankees) will have to sell him to a club outside the Pioneer chain.

Incidentally, Radtke revealed that to be selected as the Pioneer league's most valuable player, as he was this season, is nothing new to him. He had that honor while playing with Soles in 1941.

AND THAT'S THAT FOR NOW, except: Olney Patterson, the outfielder, and "Saber" Jensen, a third-sacker, who were with the Cowboys in 1944, have been "bought" from Victoria by the Kansas City Blues.

Pointer Makes Seven Finds in Jerome Trials

JEROME, Sept. 30 (AP)—Don Mike, a male pointer owned by E. W. Sherwood, Idaho Falls, set something of a record here in winning the feature event of the annual Jerome field trials—the gun dog stake—by making seven finds of pheasants.

The field trials drew 21 points and set a record for a "higher class than usual," according to Mel Evertson, president of the Twin Falls club, and there was an abundance of birds to bring out the dog's ability.

Finishing second in the gun dog stake was Calgary Trixie, setter female owned by Dale Gibb, Salt Lake City, while third was Wahoo's Nikk, a pointer female owned by Dick Bailey, Twin Falls.

Hunter's Heart's Delight, pointer female owned by Fred Hunter, Blackfoot, carried off the top honors in derby stake. A litter sister of the winner, Heart's Desire, owned by A. Galloway, Salt Lake City, second, setter male, owned by Tom Prescott, Jerome, was third.

The winner of the puppy stake was Monte M. Crockett, a pointer female owned by Hunter, with Spunk Wasatch Rangretta, owned by W. A. Galloway, Salt Lake City, second, and Danny Defender, pointer male owned by Hunter, third.

Clyde Schenover, Pocatello; Dale Gibb, Salt Lake City, and Rulon Evertson and Wayne Williams, Twin Falls, were the judges.

Britons Show Thawing Sign To Windsors

LONDON, Sept. 30 (AP)—The social ostracism which the Duchess of Windsor has suffered for more than 10 years showed signs of thawing today.

The reason is the Duke of Windsor's unflinching loyalty to his American-born wife and his refusal to attend any social gathering where she would not be as welcome as he.

Not at Mother's Birthday
He would not attend the birthday party of his mother, Queen Mary. The queen mother has never reconciled herself to her American daughter-in-law. Nor will he attend the wedding of his favorite niece, Princess Elizabeth, for the same reason.

All this is slowly having its effect on the British public, which is beginning to see it "Eddie's way." The British commoner usually refers to the duke as "Eddie."

Invitation Recommended
Sunday, two influential newspapers strongly recommended that she be invited to the wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Lieut. Philip Mountbatten on Nov. 20. This in itself was a landmark.

The Evening Standard noted that she would be invited but would not come unless his wife were invited and said: "His attitude is a proper one and will be shared by many people."

The Sunday Pictorial said: "Most people in Britain consider that this ostracism of the duchess has gone on long enough. They would now welcome proof that the royal family is once again a united front."

Farmer's Finger Lost in Machine

RICHFIELD, Sept. 30 (AP)—O. Paulson, 47, prominent Richfield farmer, was taken to St. Valentine's hospital Monday afternoon after receiving emergency first aid from a Shoshone physician for injuries received when his left hand was caught in the belt of a threshing machine.

His little finger and a portion of the hand were torn off and the remainder of the hand was badly mangled when Paulson, in checking the threshing equipment, put his hand where it had no business to be and got caught, according to his own story of the accident.

Carlson was threshing clover on the E. E. Clements farm, five and one-half miles north of Richfield, at the time of the accident and was taken to the Shoshone doctor by Bill Clements.

Talkative Crow

HALLEY, Sept. 30 — A large black crow with a yen for conversation has been startling Halley residents.

Encounters with the talkative bird usually start with a "Here, Popeye; Here, Popeye." Or maybe it's "Hi, Bob," or some hot arguing or maybe barking of a small dog.

The crow's voice is so much like a human voice that several persons have answered the crow before they realize what's doing the talking.

Farmers Get More Cash, but Other Troubles Still Remain

CHICAGO, Sept. 30 (AP)—Farmers are making more money than ever before, but they have their problems. Particularly in South Dakota way, to hear them tell it, anyhow.

Dr. Stokessbury, Brookings, tells this one: Farmer Lenowitz's good fortune, however, was had news for Jim Whipple, who tills a plot of land near Lodgepole in the same county, according to Huett.

Apparently the birds scared away from the Lenowitz place took a shine to Whipple's wheat. Whipple, frankly, was shipped. He tried all the old scare methods known to man and then all of a sudden he had the editor of the weekly print up some handbills.

"I cheated a little," Whipple said. "But my trick worked."

"The handbills said something about wheat being poor stuff for little birds' digestion. Group biosoms, the black type said, were much better. Whipple, the old goat, signed the bills 'Miami Chamber of Commerce' and passed them around to the birds. Last he saw of them they were winging south.

Cash wheat market—about $2.50 a bushel.

People are so good at raising crops and selling lies in South Dakota. In fact, that they have called on O. C. Huett, president of the Burlington, Wis., Lears club to come out and pick a state champion. He's got some dandies to pick from, he said today.

Oran Lenowitz, who lives near White Butte in Perkins county—Huett says—was also having trouble with birds. They were raiding his soy bean fields. After everything else had failed he went down to his kennels and had a chat with his four bird dogs.

The dogs listened and then went into action. Oscar outlined his plan.

Production of diamonds from the mines of South Africa broke all records during World war II.
