

Study Set for 'Best Size' of State's Spuds

POCATELLO, Dec. 6 (AP)—A study is under way to determine what the American housewife's needs are in connection with potato sizes and packaging.

Such was the information known by Milton F. Eberhard, Boise, to the Idaho potato industry coordinating committee. The group's session was held in connection with a meeting of the Idaho Potato and Onion Shippers' association and a meeting of the Idaho advertising commission.

Federal Cash Finances

Eberhard said the study is being financed by Hope-Financing federal funds and directed by Dr. Paul A. Eke, University of Idaho farm economist.

"Primary purpose of the research, starting with a poll of consumers this winter in Los Angeles, is simply to increase potato consumption," Eberhard said. "The per capita potato consumption has shown a constant decrease in the United States these last few years."

"We hope to determine what size potato the housewife likes and how she wants potatoes packed."

Cooperation Pledged

The coordinating committee, under the leadership of Lee H. Warner, Boise, pledged to cooperate in the survey by getting practical information from the industry in Idaho.

A total of 702 per cent of shippers answering an association survey favored washing potatoes before shipping, Mr. O. Stratford, Idaho Falls, manager of the potato and onion shippers' group, said.

12 Million Britons 'Must Disappear,' Churchill Asserts

MANCHESTER, Eng., Dec. 6 (AP)—Winston Churchill said today that socialism will mean that 12,000,000 Britons "will have to disappear in one way or another."

The former prime minister, addressing 14,000 persons at a rally of the Conservative party here, said that Britain as "the best there is in the degree which I have hardly ever known before," he said:

"It is quite true that socialism, as I see it, the substitution of state control by officials instead of by private enterprise—will make it impossible to 40,000,000 people to live in this island, and that at least one-quarter of all who are alive today will have to disappear in one way or another after enduring a lowering of standards of food and comfort inconceivable in the last 50 years."

"Emigration, even if practiced on a scale never before dreamed of, could not operate in time to prevent this melancholy decline."

"I believe that the monopoly by the state of all the means of production, distribution and exchange would be fatal to the very idea of well being and to our personal freedom."

"Such a monopoly is the long-term goal of socialism, but the present labor (socialist) government has announced only the state ownership of key industries as goals of the five-year term of office it began in 1945."

Lightning Told as Reason for Blast Of Gasoline Tank

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., Dec. 6 (AP)—Investigators believed today that a bolt of lightning exploded a huge gasoline tank yesterday, turning 40,000 gallons of gasoline into a flaming torch and killing one workman.

James E. Morris, 26, Santa Monica, Calif., was the only known casualty in the Standard Oil refinery blast. He was atop the 140-foot tank gauging its contents when it blew up during a rainstorm. The blast was heard for a dozen miles, and sent up a column of smoke visible 25 miles away. Flames billowed 200 feet above the tank.

Witnesses said the blast coincided with a lightning flash.

The plant and El Segundo fire departments fought the fire for four hours. They were aided by the rain. Equipment from nearby communities stood by ready to help keep the blaze from spreading to some 400 surrounding tanks.

The tank contained unfinished gasoline valued at $50,000. The tank's steel sides melted to the ground in the intense heat.

A New Generation Stirs Old Memories

While time has been healing the wound that was Pearl Harbor, and Dec. 7, 1941, has passed into history, a new generation has been growing up alongside of those to whom that date is still a poignant memory. Today, six years after Pearl Harbor, Linda Laughridge, age 11, knows of it only as something that occurred here, recalls it vividly. In this scene at the public library, he tells Linda of Pearl Harbor and points it out as a globe of the world. While with the marines, First Sergeant Laughridge left Pearl Harbor Dec. 11, 1941. Another child, this time the Russian emigrant, Livinoff would talk to reporters today with the fourth marine division that was destined for action at Guadalcanal, Guam and Okinawa. # How Was Your Nice World 6 Years Ago Today? Here's What Globe Was Doing

By SAUL FETT
AP News Features Writer

The calendar combination known as Sunday, Dec. 7, recurs today for the first time in six years. It comes back on a flood tide of memories of these last moments of peace.

Shortly before 8 a.m. on that Sunday in 1941, little groups of natives waited out on the Hawaiian beach, trying to spear some fish. Most of the white population was still asleep. The pineapple exporter in Honolulu, the soldier at Oahu, the sailor at Pearl. It was a lazy Sunday morning and the only plane in the sky was a small private craft flown by a local lawyer.

On the west coast of the mainland, Americans were getting ready for Sunday dinner, and on the east coast they were getting over it. In Chicago, the Bears took the field against the Cardinals in a pro-football game and flowers bloomed in New York after some unseasonably high temperature which was only thinning. In Pittsburgh, Sen. Gerald P. Nease prepared to mount the platform at a meeting of 2,500 America Firsters, and in Dallas 2,500 people sat watching the movie, "Sergeant York."

From coast to coast, people talked about when they'd get into the war, and nobody could be sure when would and nobody could be sure when wouldn't, but the growing citizen army talked about Christmas furloughs. Jule boxes ground out "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" and "I Don't Want to Get Wet" on the radio.

Personal peace appeal to Emperor Hirohito in the face of new reports of Jap troop movements in Indochina. . . The Russians were chasing routed German forces west to Moscow and taking the initiative before Moscow . . .

Washington was full of servicemen on week-end leave. Franklin Roosevelt relaxed momentarily in the White House and, on Broadway "Life With Father" was only 15 months old. The 4th division was returning from war games in North Carolina to its home post at Fort Dix, N. J., and half of the 41st division at Ft. Lewis was on furlough.

The latest public opinion polls revealed women were becoming more and more vitamin-conscious. In London, it was night, and at his country place near London, Prime Minister Winston Churchill was sitting down to dinner with U. S. Ambassador John G. Winant.

At home, for the relaxation of after-dinner nappers, the four radio networks were offering sleepily music by Benny Kaye; a Russian play called "Inspector General"; also "The Spirit of '41," a dramatization of the stories of various military units, and the latest reports of a Hollywood columnist. Americans devoted to best-sellers were reading "Out of the Night," "Hein Dely," "The Keys of the Kingdom," "H. M. Pulham, Esquire." Americans reading the Sunday newspapers read:

President Roosevelt had made a

ABCD powers and accused Roosevelt of "inducement."

Sen. Harry S. Truman, chairman of the defense investigating committee, urged the President to appoint a "defense works czar" to eliminate waste . . . The RAF attacked three factories in northern France . . . The Texas football team crushed Oregon 11 to 7 . . .

Tucked away in the N. Y. Times in a corner of the page in the fourth section, was a brief story by the name, "The University of California's 4,500-ton cyclotron, or atom-smasher, is gradually taking shape and will be complete by the autumn of 1943."

That's what Americans were reading in the papers as the day wore on.

In the Pacific, an admiral named William F. Halsey was returning with a small task force toward Hawaii when his ship's radio began crackling with sudden, excited message:

But 6,000 miles away, in Washington, the capital dined in the early afternoon quiet. The Sunday golf course also had settled over the Associated Press office, where a skeleton staff was on hand. The only "breaking" story in sight was Livinoff's activities. The telephone rang. The state department said the Japanese ambassador, Nomura and Kurosu, had made an appointment to call Secretary Hull at 1:45 p.m.

Another call. This time the Russian emigrant, Livinoff would talk to reporters. The Japanese press complained of encirclement by the

Aid Purchase Price Control To Get Sifting

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—A plan to impose price control on government foreign aid purchases was headed today for house consideration, and the chances were good that it would have the blessing of the house foreign affairs committee.

The proposal will be presented on Monday by Rep. Karl E. Mundt, R. D., in the form of an amendment to the house bill authorizing $500,000,000 in stop-gap aid for France, Italy, Austria and China.

Details remaining. Mundt said details of his amendment remained to be worked out, but in general, it would bar purchases of commodities authorized in the bill as costs higher than the prevailing market price for those supplies on the day when and in the area where they were bought.

For instance, if wheat were selling at $3 a bushel on the Chicago exchange, the government would be prohibited by this amendment from offering $2.95 or higher to assure itself of supplies.

Reaction Favorable
The South Dakota congressman outlined his proposed amendment at an executive session of the foreign affairs committee. He said he received a "very favorable" reaction, which led him to believe that the committee would support the amendment when it is offered on the house floor.

Rep. John M. Vorys, R. O., a high ranking member of the foreign affairs committee, said that if the group accepted any amendment it would be something similar to Mundt's. Usually committee acceptance of amendments has great influence in their adoption by the house.

J. F. Sheriff Still Questioning Man On Old Slaying

OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 6 (AP)—Sheriff Dean Wilkie, Bonneville county, Ida., said today he would continue to question Donald T. Paxton, 36, held for investigation of the death of Mrs. Mary Margaret Norris at Idaho Falls, but that Paxton had given him no confession, nor had he asked him to.

Wilkie said that so far he had questioned Paxton only concerning his whereabouts three or four days prior to the slaying of 16-year-old Mrs. Norris in 1945.

Chief of Police George Forth of nearby Hayward said that Paxton, an itinerant laborer, made a witnessed statement in the Hayward police station Tuesday that he shot Mrs. Norris to death and that he was "haunted by my conscience." The next day he repudiated the statement.

Wilkie said he would continue to "work on" Paxton "between now and Monday."

State Traffic Toll 12 for November

BOISE, Dec. 6 (AP)—Twelve traffic fatalities during November have boosted the toll to 164 for the year, George Vaughn, state safety director, said today. The death toll on Idaho highways last year was 170 and the total for the first 11 months was 162.

Vaughn said eight of the November fatalities were caused by human carelessness and the cause of one motorcycle accident was not known.

Two of the traffic fatalities resulted from motorcycle accidents and one from a motor scooter mishap, he said.

Court Grants Five Divorce Decrees Here

Five divorces were granted Friday in district court by Judge James W. Porter. All defendants defaulted.

Verla Marshall was granted a divorce from Rev. Marshall and was given the custody of four minor children. She also was given ownership of property, $300 and household effects and equity in a 1939 automobile and a 1941 GMC truck.

No Alimony
Judge Porter remarked from the bench that he could not award any alimony to Mrs. Marshall or any money for the support of the children, inasmuch as her complaint, filed by Rayborn and Rayborn, did not seek any.

Jean Randell was awarded divorce from Harold Randell and was given the custody of two minor children. In addition, Randell was ordered to pay $50 monthly for the children's support, and was permanently restrained from "interfering" with either his wife or the children.

Costs Awarded
Mrs. Randell who was also awarded her request for costs and fees, was represented by Attorney J. H. Blandford.

William L. Nelson, who was represented by Rayborn and Rayborn, was granted a divorce from Shirley Nelson and Elva Quisenberry was awarded a divorce from Roy Quisenberry. Mrs. Quisenberry also was awarded their 1941 sedan. She was represented by Attorney Edward Babcock.

The fifth divorce was granted to Etta Pierce. She was granted custody of two minor children, although her husband, Cecil Pierce, was granted permission to visit them.

A property settlement which the two had drawn up for the division of their community property was approved by the court. She was represented by Attorney J. W. Taylor.

Two of the traffic fatalities resulted from motorcycle accidents and one from a motor scooter mishap, he said.

Arabs Girding For Fights on Palestine Split

(From Page One)
The first intimation of the "liberation" of Palestine committee, which declared the U.N. decision on partition void.

Members of the seven-nation Arab League were gathered in Cairo to decide upon an Arab high command and take other measures.

"Army in Beer"
Premier Jamil Mardam Bey, Syria, declared there the Syrian army was now on the Palestine border and would move into Palestine "in due time."

Saif Salih Salih, prime minister of Iraq, declared in Cairo that Iraq troops totaling between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 were ready to fight and the Transjordan minister in Cairo asserted the British-commanded Arab legion of Transjordan already had taken part in Palestine fighting by trying Jewish attacks on Jaffa yesterday.

Hagan, the self-styled Jewish defense army, declared in a communique last night that some Arabs yesterday were fighting in the uniforms of the legion. Some of the legion has been brought to Palestine by the British for police duty.

Police Retaliates

In Jerusalem the Jewish Sabbath was marked by violence when a thousand angry Jews swarmed into downtown Jaffa road and began smashing Arab vehicles in retaliation for recent Arab attacks on Jewish buses on the highway.

Police smashed Arab and Hagana squads bared into the mob and eventually restored order.

At least three new fires flared in the volcanic market place area between Jewish Tel Aviv and Arab Jaffa where 50 Arab-owned Jewish homes were burned last night, apparently by the Jewish families encircling them.

Braking Distances on Various Road Surfaces at 20 mph

New winter accident facts, based on research by the National Safety Council, show an alarming increase in skidding and crashes caused by poor visibility during snow. The chart above shows how heavy roads increase the danger of accidents by making it impossible to stop in "normal" distances. Authorities urge equalized brakes, use of chains, windshield wipers, defrosters, good lights and lower speeds to minimize added hazards caused by winter road conditions.

Thousands of Tests Show Best System for Driving in Winter

AMES, Ia., Dec. 6—Prof. Ralph A. Meyer of Iowa State college, a national authority on highway engineering and safety, today made public a formula for safe winter driving. It is based on tests of actual tests on snow and ice.

1. Get the "feel" of the road on starting out.

2. Adjust speed to weather, road conditions.

3. Slow down well in advance of intersections, curves.

4. Use tire chains when snow or ice prevail.

5. Keep windshield free of snow, fog and frost.

6. Follow vehicles at safer distance. Signal intent of turns or stops.

7. Apply brakes with a gentle pump, not a hard slam.

Professor Meyer, whom contemporaries have called a "research man who never talks or writes his pen until he has carefully determined the facts," is chairman of the National Safety Council's committee on winter driving. The committee is made up of 22 leaders in automotive transportation, traffic engineering, safety education and law enforcement.

Traffic death rates during winter are 24 to 33 per cent higher than in the summer in the northern half of the nation.

Major factors producing this higher accident rate are inadequate traction, reduced visibility, poor control of the vehicle on snow or ice, and, to a lesser extent, to wet roads and snow, fog or steam-covered windshields.

Braking distances increase three to 12 times on snow or ice. The committee found that many drivers place false reliance on traction of "anti-skid" tire treads on snow or ice. Tests showed good treads are highly desirable because they do help considerably in wet and steam-covered roads, but even new treads offer no advantages on packed snow or ice.

Tests also showed "rubber chains," which appeared on the market last year, actually skid farther than bare tires on ice. Many drivers also have misplaced confidence in reducing tire air pressure below normal to improve traction on ice. Tests showed there is no safety aid in this reduction, and it wears out tires fast.

Concerning winter equipment for improving traction on snow or ice, tests were made of tire chains and sanders.

Tests showed that tire chains were most helpful for improving traction on snow or ice. On rear wheels, they reduced passenger car braking distances by 40 to 50 per cent, provided traction often essential for starting or climbing grades. On heavy trucks, chains were found even more essential, braking distances being reduced by 60 to 70 per cent with chains on rear wheels.

On tractor and trailer equipment, however, chains should be put on rear wheels of trailer when used on grade wheels of tractor. This helps avoid "jackknifing" and improves stopping ability of such heavy units.

Regarding sanders, used on some commercial vehicles, committee tests showed their stopping effectiveness limited. While easy to operate, tests showed three of four winter drivers actually increased braking distance with sanders. Maximum aid with sanders was attained by skilful pumping of brakes and gearling down, which reduced distance about 10 per cent.

Adequate windshield defrosters, wipers and other visibility equipment are vital, the committee found. You must see, or cease driving.

European Aid Going Toward Critical Tests

The way the economic-foreign aid issues add up to political analysis on Capitol Hill.

Republican party chances of capturing the White House and winning control of congress in next year's elections could certainly be affected if the party does not produce a convincing general program for a winning fight against the high cost of living.

GOP on Spot

Democrats say that the GOP is on the spot and President Truman put it there. He did it with a definite, 10-point program he said, a program they have criticized harshly.

Since the Republicans argue that the party does not produce a convincing general program for a winning fight against the high cost of living, they are seriously considering a subcommittee of commodities for foreign aid.

That would be on the reasoning that a cut would relieve some of the pressure behind high prices and only limited controls would be needed to relieve the rest.

Senator Jenner R. Lind, said today that "stupid buying policies" of government agencies has added hundreds of millions of dollars to the aid program cost.

Could Pass Back

GOP leaders say they could pass the bill right back to the President if they gave him exactly what he asked for. But that would mean accepting a program they have criticized harshly.

14 Years of FDR Cured Him Of "Socialism," He Declares

Editor, Times-News: The events of the last two years have awakened our people to the dangers of socialism. Our nation of free enterprise with a standard of living that is the envy of the world is in danger of being lost. I have studied socialism for a long time and even voted for it at times to save the old parties. But 14 years of FDR about took it out of my system.

For years I had hated the rich, but about 1934 it dawned on me that we needed some of those rich men with their capital and confidence, which had been shattered by Roosevelt's crackpot NRA, and his tinkering with the gold content of the dollar.

The common man who is more interested in keeping up with the Joneses and having a good time than in saving his money, will not provide the support for our capitalist industries. So we must look to the rich—the greedy rich—to provide capital. Where would we be without the Fords, Chryslers, DuPonts and Harrimans?

It is not a question of our needing the rich, but rather how many of them do we need, and how many of them we can control and if we can't control them, we'll have to own them.

Let the haters of socialism explain about our postoffice system, our public school and road systems. Aren't these socialist? Also our Sherman anti-trust law, the IGO and the FUG are obstacles to free enterprise.

It is not a question of our wanting socialism, but how much of our present socialism do we want because we do have definite socialist trends now in our government.

The reason we have the most democratic great nation in the world today is that we have had the foresight to keep the reforms in balance. If we let people have to pay tuition to educate their children our country would go communist almost overnight.

He Asks Support of Jaycees' Drive to Get Fund for Youth

The Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce is directing a drive to raise $25,000 for youth activities in Twin Falls. The youngsters need help and they can have it if everybody in the community pledges their wholehearted cooperation.

I like the old Greek legend that tells of a man who loved youth. He used to hide himself in a hedge along the road to the temple. If he saw a youth faller or loiter, he would roll a golden ball in front of him. At once, the youth would forget his fatigue and folly and his feet would quicken their pace along the sacred way.

A famous headmaster of a school said that if he saw a boy in despair over his work, he always gave him a higher mark than he deserved. The following words he always made a higher mark himself.

How sadly people need encouragement and how little they get.

It is so easy, by a word, look or lift to put new heart into fellow men, especially the young who are so sensitive.

The proper recreation now will make better men and women of the youth a decade hence. Twin Falls needs funds for youth activities and the support of every individual is needed. I hope everyone will support the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the drive to raise money for youth activities.

Editor, Times-News: This is a community problem. If we, the Twin Falls citizens support the merchants whose stores are being picketed, it will save all other stores from union tie-up.

Remember the telephone tie-up and the coal strike? Do we want the food stores all closed? We will of an no-American union shop contract?

At least while they are being picketed, let's trade with merchants who are brave enough to fight for their freedom.

Pearl Harbor Day Finds U.S. Army Smaller, Navy Bigger, Air Arm Longer

The United States is better armed today than it was at the time of the Pearl Harbor attack six years ago, although some authorities say our military strength still is pitifully inadequate. In naval categories the moth-balled fleet, not shown in this chart, includes 1,722 ships which would not be ready for action for some months if new hostilities broke out. Today's combat fleet has 1,867 ships in reserve status that could be placed in service in a short time.

All Is Peace, Harmony Now In State GOP

BOISE, Dec. 6 (UP)—Idaho's Republican county chairmen today dissolved an inter-party controversy by giving state GOP Chairman Tom W. Smith and Gov. A. C. Robins and his administration a unanimous vote of confidence.

Earlier, several party factions had sought to bring about the resignation of Smith as state chairman. The Twin Falls county central committee had adopted a resolution to that effect.

To Plan Conclave
The county chairmen's conference will be followed tomorrow by a meeting of the party's executive committee. The committee will plan for the meeting of the Republican state central committee here Jan. 2-3. One of the main items of business at that meeting will be fixing the site and date of the 1948 delegate convention, at which delegates to the national convention in June are elected.

The county chairmen formed the Idaho Republican County Chairmen's association before adjourning today. R. M. Logsdon, Boise, Ada county chairman, was named president; Joe Call, Idaho Falls, Bonneville county, vice president, and Dave Stubbfield, Caldwell, Canyon county, secretary-treasurer.

Troubles Ironed Out
The meeting, called by Smith, was the first of its kind, and Logsdon said, "it was one of the most important in the party's history." He added that "all difficulties were ironed out." The difficulties revolved primarily around state patronage.

The chairmen adopted a resolution urging the replacement of any state employee "not well qualified for the position he is holding" by a better qualified person on grounds that "greater efficiency in state government results."

Thirty-seven GOP county chairmen and representatives from three other counties attended the meeting.

REPAIR SHOP OPENED
RICHFIELD, Dec. 6—The Richfield shoe repair shop was opened here this week at the former Johnson cafe building. Francis Jones, owner and operator, came here from Tacoma, Wash.

Meat, Eggs, Milk Consumption Hiked 15 Per Cent Since 1941

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (UP)—Americans are eating more meat and eggs and drinking more milk this year than they did in 1941, before war and postwar inflation sent food prices skyrocketing.

Bureau of agricultural economics statistics showed today that per capita civilian consumption of meat this year is 18 per cent higher than in the last prewar year. Egg consumption, as compared with 1941, is up 22 per cent and use of milk and cream has increased 14 per cent.

But some food habits have changed. People are eating less butter than they did in 1941. Some are using margarine as a substitute. Margarine consumption has increased 42 per cent over 1941. At the same time, annual per capita consumption of butter has declined 4½ pounds below 1941 levels.

A comparison between the per capita civilian food consumption in 1941 and the estimated 1947 consumption follows (in pounds):

Meat	141.2	166.0
Eggs	311.0	380.0
Butter	13.9	11.5
Margarine	2.7	4.7
Fluid milk and cream	300.9	400.9
Sugar	100.7	94.9

In an analysis of the livestock situation, the bureau said today that the short feed supply and the high price of feed would mean less meat on the table next year—at higher prices. Meat supplies for 1948 are forecast at 146 pounds per capita.

Even so, that still would be about five pounds higher than in 1941. Egg consumption next year is expected to drop about one per cent. Prices for some of the six food items have increased more than 100 per cent during the past six years. Here is the bureau of labor statistics' comparison between retail prices in Sept., 1941, and Sept., 1947, based on a survey of the nation's 56 largest cities.

Meats—Round steak, 41½ cents a pound in Sept., 1941, as compared with 84½ cents a pound last September. Pork chops, 41½ cents a pound, as compared with 83 cents; bacon, 26½ cents, as compared with 83½ cents.

Milk—14½ cents a quart in 1941, as compared with 19½ cents a quart last September.

Farm Surplus For Aid Plan To Be Sought

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (UP)—Congressmen from four states will support an amendment to the $500,000,000 interior foreign aid bill to compel the government to buy U. S. food surpluses for feed-Europe phases of the aid program.

Rep. Jack Anderson, R., Calif., who will sponsor the measure, estimated it would add a total of $50,000,000 to the bill for France, Italy, Austria and China.

Eggs on List
That sum represents the difference between what the agriculture department pays in price supports for surplus and what the foreign aid administrator would pay agriculture for the foods. Chief surplus foods now held by the government are dried and frozen eggs, prunes, raisins, and white and sweet potatoes.

Anderson's amendment was drafted by congressmen from California, Florida, Texas and Arizona. Food producers in those areas have been beset by surpluses.

Citrus Men Suffer
Citrus growers, suffering from the same problem, hope to persuade the agriculture department to undertake a big surplus purchase from them. Their case would be strengthened if agriculture has a guaranteed market for the citrus.

The measure, if finally agreed to by the senate and enacted into law, would replace a weaker senate version. The amendment to the senate bill would only give the foreign aid administrator permission to buy surpluses. The house amendment would direct the administrators to make surplus purchases.

Cattle Sales Boom
BOISE, Dec. 6 (UP)—About 1,000 head of cattle went through Idaho's 31 auction rings during November. O. J. Shaw, state brand inspector, said today. He said state brand inspectors had matched the brands of all cattle sold at the sales.

Shaw said the amount of cattle going through the auction rings was increasing this fall.

New Manager of Airport Here Was Combat Pilot for Gliders

BY JIM QUIGLEY
It's a mighty thin one, to be sure, but there's a thread linking the Twin Falls airport with paratroopers landing at Arnhem and combat gliders landing in Europe.

He didn't remark about it, but the connection probably ran through the mind of the new airport manager as he paid a visit Saturday morning to the field with Mayor H. O. Lauterbach.

So far as Fred C. Taplin is concerned, it's a job connected with aviation. Maybe, too, it was an auspicious occasion for the airport, for Mayor Lauterbach announced that the airport has been approved by the civil aeronautics administration.

Taplin, 28-year-old former glider pilot, took over his new job Dec. 1. A 1947 graduate of the University of California, Taplin spent four years lighting arrangements for the new airport. Specifications as planned by Larry Hoffman are about to be forwarded to the CAA regional office, Seattle, for action, according to Taplin. These must be approved and returned to Twin Falls before the city can advertise for bidders. According to the two men, a temporary administration building will be erected as soon as lighting problems are cleared up. Meanwhile, construction continues on two hangars on the grounds. One is being built by the Magic Valley Aircraft company and the other by the Reeder Flying Service.

As he surveyed the scene, Taplin realized he's going to learn a good deal about building airports. He admits there's plenty to learn. But, now, if you want to talk about destroying airfields—

A battery device has been developed to light up a lady's handbag when opened.

Honor Goes to Power Worker As Life Saver

E. R. Basom, Twin Falls division chairman, was awarded the Edison Electric Institute life-saving medal for saving the life of a fellow worker by T. E. Rosch, general manager and vice-president of the Idaho Power company, at a dinner meeting of company employees Friday.

Basom was working with Wilbur Barker, formerly an apprentice lineman with the company, when Barker touched a high power tension wire. Through prompt manual resuscitation Basom was able to revive Barker.

"Because Basom understands first aid and was able to use it intelligently and quickly, a fellow workman's life was saved. His recovery was complete," Rosch said in presenting the medal.

Idaho Power has more than 85,000 customers and an increase of 10 per cent in the use of electricity is increasing steadily, Rosch said.

Idaho Power will have the capacity for increasing use wherever it is needed, Rosch said in referring to the company's $50,000,000 expansion program.

New power plants on the Snake river in the Hagerman valley will add 154,000 kilowatts to capacity.

The company pays about 37 per cent of its income in taxes to support federal, state and local governments, and yet maintains electric rates among the lowest in the nation, Rosch concluded.

'Clearing House' For Santa Aides Established Here

At the request of various organizations in town a clearing house has been established for the convenience of those who wish to help Santa Claus this Christmas for Twin Falls needy families.

The names must be in before Monday, Dec. 15.

She also asks any individuals or organizations who wish the names of families or anyone who has already selected a family to help, to contact her so that there will be no duplication of contacts.

J. Meeks, manager of the local state employment office, has in addition to the Red Cross, requested that the unemployment situation in Twin Falls is particularly critical this winter. Mrs. Bailey believes that the unemployment situation in Twin Falls is particularly critical this winter. ### President of GM Hits Short Week As 'Inflationary' Policies

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—The 40-hour week should be repudiated along with other "inflationary" policies, according to Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors.

Wilson addressed the final session of the 52nd congress of American industry sponsored by the National Association of Manufacturers, last night. He laid down a program to combat inflation through harder work, elimination of waste, avoidance of speculation, and greater cooperation.

"The 40-hour week, he said, is a heritage of the days of planned economy, of the days of cotton, and killing pigs to raise prices. It is a job rationing measure. The policy for extra hours of work interferes with the rights of many, particularly of lower paid and unskilled workers to earn a better living."

"Today the situation clearly calls for repudiation of these reactionary and inflationary policies."

U. S. Ponders 2-State Spud Goal Changes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—Department of agriculture potato specialists said today the government is considering reducing 1948 goals for early commercial potatoes in California and increasing those for North Carolina.

"Officially announced goals being considered for revision," they said, "are $2,000 acres for California and 27,100 for North Carolina."

"If growers exceed goals, they cannot receive federal price support," said G. R. Oran, government specialist.

This year California's goal was $3,000 and North Carolina's 28,000. California, the government potato experts said, exceeded the 1947 goal by 9,000 acres, producing a crop of approximately 25,420,000 bushels as compared with North Carolina's 4,075,000 bushels.

California, they said, didn't grow many potatoes until a few years ago when irrigation improved, and Kern county became the chief producer of commercial potatoes in the country.

Mary California Spuds. The trend toward more potatoes from California and less from North Carolina has continued fairly steadily.

The Carolinians maintain that they have best within government requested goals, whether they were upped, downed, and that California has failed to.

"The government experts told reporters, 'All we're trying to do is to get equitable goals so we won't grow too many potatoes.'"

Directors elected include William Cederberg, Pritch; W. O. Suddeth; G. D. Frick, Buhl and H. K. Yearley, Pocatello.

Announcing... A Series of Messages Relating to Land Titles

EACH WEEK, in this space, there will be a message which will contain interesting and important information about land titles—conditions that may affect titles to real estate, how titles are acquired and transferred, and concerning various forms of title evidence.

The history of land titles is as old as civilization. Ever since man acquired ownership of a piece of land and disposed of it to a neighbor, there have been questions of ownership and title involved.

In America, many transactions that affect land titles are matters of record. There are other circumstances, not always of record, that may also be a factor in determining the ownership of land.

There have been devised several methods of accumulating title evidence. These will be discussed in this series.

Also there will be given from time to time, dramatic examples of some of the ways in which titles may be found defective or may be subject to attack.

It is our hope that as you read this series of messages, you will find them informative and instructive in regard to one of your most valued possessions—your home or other real estate.

Right up in the FOUR-FRONT

SCATTERED across this nation are some of the easiest automobile buyers the world ever saw.

They cut their eyeteeth on a steering wheel, so to speak—they know car values from A to Z—and you have to be plenty good to step ahead of your price class in the volume of your sales to them.

That's why it's startling—sometimes even to us—to see the double-barreled story of public preference that's written in the sales records and registration figures:

Naturally, the smart buyer will ask "How come?"

Well, the most standout style of the season, the style that's the clearest forecast of wonderful things to be, undoubtedly has much to do with it.

But that isn't all. The dollar is still a pretty important measuring stick.

So we don't think Buick could be where it is if it didn't offer a bigger dollar's worth—bigger in size and substance, in lift and life, in soft ride and easy handling, bigger in the all-round happiness you'll get out of your buy.

Which suggests, of course: Why go against the solid judgment of your fellow men? Why not see your Buick dealer now—with or without a car to trade—and place the order that will put you where you belong, right up in the four-front?

Hold Fast on U. S. 'Ways', Warren Says

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6 (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren, in his last political speech since he announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination, called on Americans today to fight communism by "holding fast to our democratic principles" and "rejecting communist sticks in the eye."

The California governor doubted that war with Russia was around the corner, but warned that conflicts with communism could not be avoided by "vacillation or appeasement."

"Firm Adherence"
"Nothing but firm adherence to those principles to which we have subscribed will mobilize the sufficient world intelligence and cooperative action that is necessary to prevent war," Warren told the Hollywood Republican committee last night.

He said the country must help other nations and must strengthen its own economy.

Urges Inflation Fight
"We must solve the housing problem, expand our educational and health facilities and attack the high cost of living and other inflationary trends," he said.

All that is necessary for us to do is to stick to our own democratic principles."

The governor's plane was forced down at Bakersfield last night by bad weather. He came the rest of the way by car.

A delegation of department officials will be present at the meeting. Jim Freeman of the local post is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Thelma B. Heller, president of the Auxiliary, will preside at the meetings of that group to be conducted concurrently with the Legion meetings. Following the banquet, a dance and other entertainment will be arranged.

Holy Land Arms Shipments Halted

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—The United States has halted shipments of American arms to Palestine and neighboring countries "in view of the current disorders in that country," officials said previous shipments there have been too small to amount to anything.

The embargo, announced yesterday by the state department, applies to exports from this country, and also to war surplus goods located overseas.

Official records show that less than $8,000 worth of arms has been exported to the middle east from the United States in the past 22 months. There were no available figures on overseas surplus sales, but officials said these also have been small.

The American League for a Free Palestine greeted the announcement with a statement which said the Arabs already have $7,000,000 worth of surplus U. S. property.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6 (AP)—Gen. Holland M. ("Howlin' Mad") Smith, war-time marine corps commander in the Pacific, today advocated the immediate dropping of atomic bombs in "certain uninhabited areas of Russia to give them an actual demonstration of this powerful weapon."

The retired marine called the atomic bomb "the greatest weapon for peace that was ever known to mankind" but added flatly that "there is going to be a war."

"There never has been a war to avoid war," Smith told a recruiting drive press conference. "I think the time has come when we ought to tell the youth of America that there will be another war. We have learned that."

He urged compulsory military training "to prepare our youth for any eventualities." Smith said this country is in "everything except a shooting war."

Mystery of Idaho's Population 'Decline' Cleared by Officials

By JOHN CORLETT

BOISE, Dec. 6 (AP)—Idahoans from Gov. C. A. Robins on down were ready today to accuse the census bureau and the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce of "dreaming up Idaho's lost population out of a 'lost week-end'."

Robins, Idaho's Chamber of Commerce and the citizenry in general are getting pretty upset about all these reports of the state's decreased population. The last one came from the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. It said Idaho's population had dropped 225,000 in 1940 to 465,000 in July of this year.

A few months ago a national magazine came out with a similar report. And that carries the auto dealers and the natives no end. The state's population was never known to population. So are other items in short supply.

Robins is getting kind of hurt about these outsiders running off with his constituents, even on a paper basis.

"I wish some of these fellows that figured out our lost population would come to Idaho and try to find 'house,'" said the governor. "That would show them. I have traveled over this state from one end to the other and seen the people. There is a housing problem. And we're building new houses as fast as we can get supplies and materials."

At this point, H. P. Garrett, Idaho employment security agency director, and School Superintendent Alton B. Jones came in with some figures to dispel the mystery of the lost population.

"It ain't true," said Garrett. "Can't be true. We had 67,250 covered workers and 2,004 unemployed on our books for a total of 70,250 in 1940. Now we have 87,232 covered workers and 2,200 unemployed for a total of 89,432. That's a 21 per cent increase on people covered by the unemployment compensation law alone."

"Furthermore, if Idaho was losing population, it wouldn't be such a good place for new business. But what do we have. We had 8,862 covered employees on our books in 1940. Now we have 11,541 and they are still increasing."

"That takes care of the adults," Sucker fish sometimes live in sharks' mouths.

Now let's look at the kids. Records in the state department of education show the enrollment in grades one to 12 increased from 108,773 in 1940 to an estimated 120,000 for the 1947-48 school year.

And the state Chamber of Commerce pipe with figures showing the number of telephones have nearly doubled and that everyone is making a wonderful living. The chamber says in 1946 the per capita income in Idaho was $1,243. That compares with Oregon's $1,188 and Utah's $1,083.

"We have more adults and we have more children," said the governor. "Now let the census bureau figure out this mystery of the lost population. You can bet your bottom dollar that no one left Idaho to help give California its alleged big boost in population."

Shout a Cheer, Kids; Popeye's Food Not Good

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 6 (AP)—A public health consultant said today that if you are looking for energy, you might as well eat hay as spinach.

"God had intended for us to eat spinach. He would have flavored it with something," said Dr. Thurman B. Rice of the Indiana board of health.

Writing in a monthly health bulletin, he said "spinach has fewer nutritional properties than hay."

"It contains almost no protein and what protein it has is very hard to digest," he wrote.

"A man would starve to death very promptly on spinach. He would have to eat about 30 pounds a day to get average calorie requirements."

Not only is spinach a poor food, Rice said, but he asserted that it probably was dangerous. It has a high content of oxalic acid, he said, and removes from the body the calcium which other foods have provided.

Limb Loss Basis For Damage Suit

BURLINGAME, Dec. 6.—Thomas M. Lynch has filed suit in district court here against Joint Class A school district in Clatsop and Twin Falls counties, and Eugene Burns, seeking damages as a result of injuries received Dec. 4, 1946, when he was run over by a school bus.

Lynch is asking $25,000 damages. The amount includes $134 doctor fees, $77 hospital fees, $1,000 wages lost, and $20,000 damages for loss of a leg. In the complaint, the plaintiff charges that he was riding on the bus when it was driven by Burns, and was hurled down the road ahead of the bus. Lynch claims that Burns stopped to let him alight and then, without warning, lurched forward and crushed his leg.

VER LIGHTWEIGHT TO BOX WASHINGTON

Commission Will Hear Walcott's Protest of Decision Awarding Victory to Champ Louis

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—The Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott encounter on 1920 street corners today, and at the finish the somewhat over-aged star destroyer still was heavyweight champion of the world.
There will be yet another revival of last night's 15-round thriller at 11 a. m. on Monday, when Walcott's manager, Joe Webster, Camden, N. J., is scheduled to hear the New York state boxing commission and demand that his man be awarded the title on the "point system."
The result there will be the same. Louis will retain his crown and he will again receive the heavy end of the gate when he and Jersey Joe play a return engagement at Yankee stadium next summer. Twentieth Century Sporting Club officials were not sufficiently recovered to discuss the next meeting of the two big Negroes, but it is inevitable.
Little Chance of Reversal
According to informed opinion, there isn't a chance in the world that Webster's appeal to the commission will alter last night's 2-1 verdict in favor of Louis. They don't make refunds on fight results.
The "point system" on which Webster will base his claim comes into this state only when an official finds that his card shows two men have fought a draw on the basis of rounds won. In that event, he adds up his points to give the victory to one or the other. The idea was thought up by Egan to avoid draws. The necessity for computing the points didn't arise last night when judges tagged Louis the winner on rounds and referee Ruby Goldstein gave it to Walcott.

Scribes, 20-13, for Walcott

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—In a poll of 33 sports writers who saw last night's Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott fight, 20 thought Jersey Joe won. Wilbur Wood, sports editor of the New York Sun and a man who has seen almost every championship fight in the last 25 years, scored 11 rounds for Walcott and four for Louis—and was very emphatic about it.
Frank O'Donnell of the Waterbury Republican gave 12 rounds to Walcott and two for Louis and one even.
John Carmichael, sports editor of the Chicago Daily News, voted 10 in favor of Walcott, Ted Meyer of the Associated Press, had Walcott on top, 11-3-1.

but it still was swollen and painful. The injury is high up on the hand, nearly to the wrist.
It was generally agreed today that poor advice from the referee prevented Walcott from defeating the man who has been king for more than 10 years. The referee was ordered by his handlers to run like a thief in the last two rounds, and he obeyed. He lost both rounds by wide margins, because of Louis' aggressiveness, and when the fight was over, he was so far in front at that stage that he couldn't lose. It was a fatal mistake. Walcott still was fresh and strong enough to have fought Louis hard in the concluding rounds.
Ringsiders Favored Walcott
A majority of ringside observers who were hour-longers of the fight, Walcott earned the decision. In exceptional cases they gave him up to 10 rounds. This cornered Louis won it.
Louis' hand was raised amid boos after 16 rounds, and Walcott was cheered by a crowd of 18,000 that paid $10 a fight in Madison Square garden, a record indoor rate.
Twice the champion was knocked down, once for the count of seven. The 35-year-old Louis, 10 years a champion, rarely managed to catch

What Boxers Said After Bout

Walcott
NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—A tired and thoroughly bewildered Jersey Joe Walcott followed a cordon of policemen through a narrow tunnel under Madison Square garden, pushed his way into the dressing room and sat huddled on a rubber table.
"I thought I won," he muttered almost incoherently. "Louis told me he was sorry. After the decision he said to me 'I'm sorry Joe.'"
Almost unmarked, the round-faced, faded Champ, N. J., Negro kept repeating the same phrases.
"Louis himself said he was sorry," Trainer Danny Florio shouted. "He won the fight. If he didn't I don't know anything about fighting. I was so sure that after the 14th round I told him to take it easy, to coast. I wouldn't do that unless I thought he had won."
Walcott said he had not been hurt at any time although he "punched in pretty hard," especially in the ninth round when the champion had Jersey Joe on the ropes and apparently in trouble.
"I wasn't hurt bad. I knew all the time what I was doing," Walcott insisted. "After the first round I was confident I would beat him."

Ye Old Sport Scrivener never was an iconoclast, or a debunker, but he has—yes, sir, right from the old foot box—the info that world championship Klamopp trout aren't being caught in Lake Pend Oreille as stories coming out of that area would have you believe.
Why they're almost minnows compared with the Klamoppes that are world champions.
That's what Burton Perrine says, and he ought to know because it was when the Twin Falls trout fishery mania was fish cultural for the state that the propagation of the Klamoppes began in Pend Oreille. As a matter of fact, he was the gent that placed the fry there.
"Where we got the Klamoppes eggs—that is up in British Columbia—they have caught this species of trout weighing as much as 85 pounds that I know of and there's quite a difference between 58 and 37 pounds, the biggest they have caught in Pend Oreille," Burton told YOSS.

THAT FIGHT
The ancient word puddler learned long ago never to become to greatly opinionated on the result of a boxing bout and for the benefit of those who believe that a sport writer ought to know all about those things he'll say: "I just don't know" to the many queries he has received about the Louis-Walcott battle.
From the radio and many newspaper accounts boxing followers evidently had every reason to believe that Walcott really won. However, the many who recall many things having been told by radio listeners that the Louis fight that he had just covered was a "great battle."

YOSS believes that he got it all technically in judging a boxing bout. You can't get away with the fact that a championship battle is staged for the purpose of determining who of two fighters is the better man. The best man at the end of that fight is entitled to be champion in the mind of the public. If he isn't the best man in the mind of the public, and only in the opinion of the referee and judges, he just isn't champion.
Walcott apparently came out of the battle in the best condition. He was unmarked while Louis, who was down twice, was fairly well battered. However, there were some pretty fair sport writers who thought the champion had won. They included Red Smith, the New York Herald Tribune columnist, who was this old typewriter's sport writing pal back there in those dear, dear days beyond recall.
AND THAT'S THAT FOR NOW, except: You can call YOSS grand-nephew. "The newsmen" is a boy, a little on the Heavistide (in more ways than one) but still a chip off the old block. . . . While Louis and Walcott were biffing at each other in New York, the pudgy one had greater things in mind. Whether to make the prewarer's fullback at Notre Dame (he looks like it right now) or just cart him off to his old friend, Joe McCarthy, about 1955 and say: "Here's your new Babe Ruth, Joe!"

Hansford Who Fought Best in Game Is Signed

A lightweight who has been around with the stars of the game long enough to know how to muffle Buddy Washington's knockout wallop, has been signed as the opponent for the fast rising Pocatello colored boy in the main event of the boxing program to be staged by Veterans of Foreign Wars at the local gymnasium next Saturday night.
The boxer is Georgia Hansford, Los Angeles, a 135-pounder who has emerged in the battles and at one time was ranked with the nation's top fighters in his class.
His opponent, Mike Ruddy, won a victory for Washington over Hansford would place the Pocatello led in line for main event bouts in the larger fight arenas of the nation.
The Los Angeles fighter several months ago lost a close bout to Enrique Bolanos, who right now is ranked as the No. 1 challenger—according to the Ring magazine—of Ike Williams, the lightweight king. Among the other fighters he has engaged are Charlie Wright, the former featherweight champion; Cleo Shann, who has fought several main event bouts in Madison Square garden; Nick Moran, a ranking lightweight of a few years ago; Albie Stahl and Lulu Constantino.
Revenge Affair
Hansford is being brought here in something of a revenge affair by Ben Greenfield, the Denver fight manager who saw two of his fighters, knocked out by Washington here. "I've got a fighter who not only will be able to take Washington's hardest punches but who stands a good chance of stopping the Pocatello boy," Greenfield told Matchmaker Bob Bell.

Resist 'Raids' Of Resources, Truman Says

United States more than a century ago and accept no white men as honorary citizens.

Thousands crowded this tiny town of 600 population for the dedication ceremony in which Gov. Millard F. Caldwell gave title to the land to Interior Secretary Krug, who accepted and declared it to the nation's 25th national park. Additional land acquisitions eventually will make the park area approximately 1,500,000 acres in size.

The President said the "wise use of our natural resources" is the foundation of the nation's effectiveness in its efforts to maintain the spirit of its citizens, provide a good living for its people in industry, business and farming, and to bring "intelligent recognition by its citizens" of its responsibility for world order, world peace and world recovery.

Condemns Waste
He condemned waste of minerals by careless mining, of forest by careless lumbering and of water resources through failure to build hydro-electric plants, and the waste of soil through erosion.

President Truman himself drove a big open car from Everglades city to Naples after he made his 40-minute flight to Boca Chica to resume his vacation at the navy submarine base.

Day of Infamy Opens in U. S. Facing Perils

By The Associated Press
The day that shall live in infamy dawned today on a nation which is being exhorted to remember Pearl Harbor in terms of defense for the unseen perils of tomorrow.

Time has erased in that naval bastion of the Pacific the black scars of the Japanese attack which plunged the United States into war on Sunday, Dec. 7, 1941.

Scant Peace Found
But from Washington to Tokyo, Americans who find scant peace in peace time, are using the sixth anniversary of the attack to urge preparedness.

They mention no nation. Yet they speak, without saying so, of Russia, the sole power which emerged from the past war in a position to threaten the security the United States thought it had bought at heavy cost of men and treasure.

In Tokyo, Maj.-Gen. William C. Chase told his first cavalry division Pearl Harbor furnished "the most useful lesson in our history" and "until permanent peace is assured... we must remain strong and alert."

Press for UMY
In Washington, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars joined in statements urging universal military training.

The American Red Cross added a footnote. It said it no longer would have to recruit nurses for military service because the army and navy had established permanent nurse corps.

A second footnote was added all undated in Tokyo. There, the Japanese warlords who looted the attack on Pearl Harbor were on trial for their lives before an international tribunal.

Weiser Man Fined On Driving Count

BUIHL, Dec. 6.—Natura Nakamura, Weiser, paid a fine of $10 plus $3 costs here Saturday when he pleaded guilty to charges of reckless driving filed by State Police Lieut. A. E. Perkins. He appeared before Justice of the Peace Al Anderson.

Nakamura was cited after the car he was driving struck the rear of a machine operated by Daniel Lee Ritter, Twin Falls. The Ritter vehicle was stopped at a traffic light in Buhl when the incident occurred, Perkins said.

Officer Cites Five Here on Road Charge

Three men cited to appear before Justice of the Peace J. O. Humphrey Saturday by State Police Officer M. J. Bays, Jr., paid fines for various traffic offenses and two others cited by the same officer are to appear later.

Ira D. Lancaster, Piler, was fined $25 and $3 costs for permitting a motorist to illegally drive his automobile. The motorist had no license, according to Officer Bays.

The citation to appear was given when an investigation of an unreported accident in which the motorist was involved Nov. 30 was made. As a result of the accident, another child received a broken leg.

Roy L. Owen, Hollister, was fined $15 and $3 costs for failure to yield the right of way. He was cited about 11:30 a. m. Friday after he was involved in an accident with a car driven by Glen Bean, Piler, in Hollister.

Lloyd Ramsey, 223 Main avenue south, paid a $2 fine and $3 costs on a charge of failing to yield the right of way. He was arrested at 2:35 p. m. Friday four miles west of Twin Falls on U. S. highway 30 by Officer Bays.

Cited to appear later were Thomas E. Clawson, 1206 Eighth avenue east, and Raymond Huft, route 2, Twin Falls.

Clawson is charged with driving a Walcott Johnson truck through a 20-mile-an-hour zone at 50 miles an hour. The incident occurred at Piler, the officer reported.

Huft was cited at 6:30 p. m. Friday for speeding and driving without a muffler, west of Twin Falls on U. S. highway 30.

Russia Stand Bars Accord By Ministers

LONDON, Dec. 6 (UP).—A frustrated, irritated council of foreign ministers tonight appeared deadlocked on the same Soviet demand that wrecked the Moscow conference—$10,000,000,000 in reparations from Germany.

In a fruitless two-hour session today, official observers reported to three western ministers lined up against Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov in an argument over economic principles for Germany.

In three general papers submitted by Molotov, however, it was made clear that before agreeing to any basic economic principles for a peace treaty, the Soviet union would demand fulfillment of her reparations claim.

These reparations claims have been bluntly refused by Britain and America on the grounds that destitute Germany cannot pay them and any such payment could only come from American and British taxpayers in the long run.

Thus the Soviet demand—in western eyes—is completely impossible of fulfillment.

Molotov, in qualifying clauses to his three proposals, made payment of reparations a prerequisite to any Soviet agreement to establishment of central German agencies, level of German industry and removal of zonal restrictions.

This afternoon's futile session was indicative of the dead-end split which has shown no sign of healing during the conference. The ministers never came down to discussing any subject on the agenda.

Housing Lack Eases in City, Check Shows

needy, the local chapter constructed several temporary structures.

Today, we can find some sort of roof over a family's head," Mrs. Helen Bailey, executive secretary, reported.

Newspaper want-ads now appear in the paper advertising sleeping rooms. At the end of the war, with the return of thousands of veterans to Magic Valley, it was hard to find even single rooms for men. On the average, today, eight to 10 sleeping rooms ads appear in the Times-News.

"The saddest thing about the housing shortage has been with families with small children. Home owners will turn families away and rent to childless couples," O. J. Bohne, secretary of Chamber of Commerce said.

According to A. J. Meeks, manager of the Twin Falls employment service, the county farm labor camp is home to almost 600 of the estimated 700 unemployed persons in Twin Falls county.

From 46 to One
U. N. Terry, of the American Legion, points out that 30 to 40 calls were received a year ago concerning openings at the Legion sponsored veterans trailer camp. About one call a day is now received, he said.

Is the housing shortage worrying you and your family? Have faith in statistics, relief is in sight.

Nevada Town in Boom, Buys Self Off Land Bureau

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (UP).—In a rare transition from ghost town to boom town, Eureka, Nev., in effect purchased itself today from the interior department for about $600.

Charles D. Lee, of the bureau of land management, said that Eureka has been a boom town since its foundation in 1883—"only it can't be regarded as trespassing, because the town grew on unsurveyed land. More than $1,000,000 in improvements have been placed on the land."

In its early days, Eureka was a thriving gold and silver center. It dropped to the ghost category when the mines played out, but is staging a comeback as a result of the world shortage of lead and zinc.

Now with 700 inhabitants, Eureka is seeking incorporation as a city. A department report said the town "represents a well integrated picture of a going community."

There are four hotels, nine saloons, four general stores, one bank, three churches, a weekly newspaper, a large modern school building and more than 200 dwelling places," the report stated.

2 Events Shadow 'Things to Come'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (UP).—Two events next week—one social, the other strictly business—will be interesting to politicians trying to arrive at the many answers of 1948.

They are:
1—The winter dinner of the Gridiron club on Saturday night, a social affair with off-the-record speeches at which luminaries in both parties will be present for good-natured roasting.
2—A meeting of Democratic leaders from 11 western states at Omaha, Neb., Wednesday to discuss issues of interest to their region and maybe take about a running mate for President Truman.

The Gridiron dinner will be attended by nearly all of those mentioned for the Republican presidential nomination, or their backers. Potential nominees for the Democratic vice-presidential nomination will be there, too, as well as President Truman.

NLRB Chief Asks 'Chance' for Law

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6 (UP).—Paul H. Rogers, chairman of the national labor relations board, appealed today to give the Taft-Hartley labor law "a fair trial."

He spoke at an institute on labor at the University of Minnesota, sponsored jointly by the Minnesota state federation of labor and the university's center for continuation study.

Recalling that in October he had suggested that management executives restraint in using the newly won powers under the Taft-Hartley act, he said that labor members of his audience:

"Remember that although the brightest spotlight may now be on management the one that shines on you is far from dim. Your fellow citizens will judge you, not by your attitude toward the new law, but by your conduct under it."

It is important that you do more than just comply with the new provisions of the statute.

Analyst Mulls Windsor Tale Britain Effect

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
 Mr. Fergus, Analyst
 The Duke of Windsor has played many sensational parts during the 24 years which cover the drama of his life, but he has essayed a new and surprising role in writing a series of autobiographical articles which are beginning in the current issue of Life magazine.

Edward has had little to say for himself since the December day 11 years ago when he broadcast to a stunned world that he was abandoning the throne of his fathers for the woman he loved. Because of this, his story is likely to be received with mixed emotions in an England where as heir to the throne he was the beloved prince charming, and later as king was held in deepest affection by his subjects until his abdication produced a shock that time hasn't alleviated.

"Britain's Golden Hour"
 The Duke observes in the first article that the sense of his birth was "Britain's golden hour." He adds:
 "Income tax was measured in the pence on pound sterling. Socialism was scarcely more than a theory. The first telephone had been installed in a royal residence only four years previously, and eight years would pass before my father acquired his first motor car. . . . It was hard to imagine that anything could shake the structure of the Englishman's world."

World Madly Shaken
 Well, the Englishman's world—along with the worlds of other peoples—has been rudely shaken. And it is hard to imagine that anything could shake the structure of the Englishman's world.

Persons Over 65 Urged to Inquire About Aid Check
 Persons 65 years of age who expect to do work even one month this winter, should inquire about federal old age insurance payment, according to Lloyd C. Young, manager of the Twin Falls social security office.

It is not necessary to retire permanently to get these payments. They are made for any month in which a worker earns $14.99 or less under social security. Any person working on a job not covered by social security may receive his old age insurance check regardless of earnings. Young said.

To be eligible for this payment a worker must be 65 years of age, must be "fully insured" under the social security act, and must file an application. The social security office at 222 Main avenue west, Twin Falls, can explain the requirements and supply application blanks, Young added.

He Works Despite Broken Neck

Time was that a person with a broken neck was considered out of commission, but not so in the case of Robert L. Ellis, Twin Falls. After receiving three fractured vertebrae in an automobile collision, he is back on the job as a journeyman electrician with his head in a specially-constructed metal brace. The accident happened Sept. 3, and the brace probably will be removed in January. Ellis is shown above rewinding an electric motor. (Staff photo—enlarged)

Mere Broken Neck Can't Keep This Man Away From His Job

It takes more than a broken neck to keep Robert L. Ellis down. Ellis, who is a journeyman electrician in Twin Falls, came out of an automobile collision here last Sept. 3 with three fractured vertebrae, three broken ribs and a cut on the lip that required three stitches to close. Carrying on the repetition of "three" in the occurrence, he was out of circulation for only three weeks while in the hospital and home alone. At the end of that time he was back on the job at the Kyle M. Waite company with his head supported by a chromium brace.

Since that time, Bob has been going about his daily duties as though nothing had happened. Most of his work consists of electrical motor repairing, rewinding and rebuilding, and he finds that he's much happier when his mind and hands are busy than when he's "just lying around."

Also, Bob has a wife and five children, and, in his own words, "I had to get on the ball right away after the accident to keep the money coming in."

Unfortunately, the collision occurred while he was on his way home for dinner, so he received no remuneration under the workmen's small compensation law. The hospitalization and medical expenses incurred were covered by his accident insurance policy.

Both cars were demolished in the accident at the intersection of Highland avenue and South Locust. The driver of the other car was uninjured. Bob expressed the belief that he was lucky to come out of it without more serious injuries. Despite the broken neck, the spinal cord was not injured.

If all goes well, the electrician probably will be out of the brace by Jan. 15. Although it is an uncomfortable looking arrangement, that supports his chin and the back of his head on padded plates from a metal frame strapped to his chest, Bob mentioned that he's gotten so used to it that he hardly notices it, except when bathing or while lying down to sleep at night.

"In fact, I'll probably feel as though I've lost something when it's taken off," he observed as he tied down to the intricate task of rewinding the hundreds of wires on an electric motor.

There Is a Santa Claus, but His Office Location in Doubt

SANTA CLAUS, Ind., Dec. 6 (UP)—Residents of this Yuletide village were deadlocked today in an argument—not over whether there is a Santa Claus, but where his headquarters are.

The argument is over the exact location of the village, some say it's right where it was last year, but others claim it has moved a mile down the road.

But the argument isn't going to interfere with the annual rush of Christmas business. Residents have called a truce until after the holidays.

Each year the village is snowed in under tons of dog-eared letters addressed in childish scrawls to Santa Claus. Because of the magic postmark, several toy firms set up their headquarters here.

For years, the village has been a cluster of houses around the typically-rural post office, which was set up in the general store.

Last Christmas, the post office handled 3,500,000 pieces of mail, and the post office department started to look around for a bigger building.

Milton Harris, whose candy cane and toy displays are near the post office, made a bid. So did Louis J. Koch, who runs a rival "Santa Claus land" a mile away.

Koch won, and the post office was moved from the country store with its pot-bellied stove to Koch's miniature railroad.

Harris charged that the new post office was outside the village limits. Koch argued that "for the first time in history the post office is in Santa Claus."

In the 1890's, he said, the village with the general store as its nucleus was known as Santa Fe. But when residents applied for a post office they were turned down because there already was a Santa Fe in Indiana.

So they changed the name to Santa Claus and got a post office. But, according to Koch, nobody bothered to enter the changed name in the records at the county courthouse in Rockport. He said that the legal name of the village still is Santa Fe.

In other words, Koch said, there "really was no Santa Claus."

So he named the new site, on which he built his building, "Santa Claus, Ind."

Harris and his supporters charged that the post office was "stolen" from the village.

"The old location is historically known as Santa Claus," Harris said. "People have always had their mail in the village itself. Now they have to go almost a mile to get it."

His toy firm now will have to handle its mail order business in a post office situated in his competitor's building. Harris said that after Christmas he will go to Washington to present "all the facts" to the post office department.

Meanwhile, the Christmas spirit prevailed in both Santa Clauses, and both already were swamped with mail. About 3,500,000 cards, letters and packages are expected to be remailed with the Santa Claus postmark this season.

Payment of $540—Sought in Court

Recovery of $540, with interest and costs, is sought by Lauren Heideman from Henry Mothershead, according to a complaint filed in district court.

The check which Mothershead gave him "bounced" when presented to the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company, Heideman claims.

He presented the check Nov. 18, four days after Mothershead made out the check for settlement of an account, according to the complaint filed by Attorney Ray Agee.

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

That recent picture of Cokey, the Mad Scientist, has brought some hilarious knockbacks in the mail. You all remember the picture dealer; John Brownson, superdup reporter and publisher for the Times-News, took Cokey. Cokey was sitting on our lap and gazing at the world with a crazy and cockeyed expression.

PUCKETT

"I seen the picture of that little critter you write about," scribbles some Mountain Home reader. "I been a lot of places in my life but I never beheld no crit that looked like that. I don't believe it, madam. You got soot, or something on that fellow's face."

Another reader from somewhere near Piller: "Baw that out of the Cokey out of the Cokey out of the lap of something with a lot of blond hair and two chins. Is that thing really a CAT? Looks more like a sheep to me. Come on sister, you trying to give us some trick photography?"

The Edzer reader sent his message on bright pink newspaper: "Didn't see the starting eyes of that cat somewhere long ago. Anyhow, note what you say about weighing 70 pounds, with 40 pounds of clothes! Oosh, you must be a fashionable, wearing 40 pounds of clothes! That's what my grand-mother used to do. She was still a dress! I took her half an hour to shed them for bed at night. Didn't know there were still people like that in this world. But of course I'm just an old fogie with handkerchiefs. I don't keeps trying to hit the rathole in the floor with moon jelly."

But the letter from the Hagerman valley reader tops them all. It says: "I'm a hard-boiled man. I even drink block-and-tackle booze (one gulp and you walk a block and tackle anywhere). I've seen green snakes, pin a fly on a wall, and even blue monkeys in red and yellow tinsel. But I've never, drunk or sober, seen a cat that looks like the one in that picture! I don't even want to see a cat that looks like that! If I ever do, I'm sunk!"

There was a storm on the day he died. As a mighty thunderbolt rumbled across the heavens, the gaunt figure in the bed raised itself, lifted one clenched fist, and all back to passed Beethoven, the mighty musical genius. As we write this, the music is playing the movement of his tone. The symphony, the one so often called the "Fate" symphony. The old kitchen is throbbing with the sound of the entire string section of the orchestra pluck the notes instead of using the bow. Sounds like a giant mandolin. . . and now comes the double-bass in the most famous passage ever written for it. Better once said this part reminded him of great elephants, shaking the earth with mighty, soulful feet.

The "Fate" motif, that four-note knocking on the door, comes in again now via the brass. It was this Fifth symphony of Beethoven that Dorothy Chandler Fisher used to play in her "Dancing Stream" at what a strange and wonderful world, when a gal way out in the lawns of Idaho can sit in her kitchen and hear the London Philharmonic orchestra playing Beethoven!

Take a trip over the long wintry distances to Boise, and give yourself a laugh at the wacky signs stuck along the way. The signs are large and close to the highway so they can't be missed. One says: "Quiet, hoot owls are sleeping!" Further on another informs you: "Running rabbits have right of way."

One where the sage is practically endless is one which says: "Beware! Near Boise is full of laymen!" The backs of these droll signs contain a clue to all this delightful hocus-pocus. They say: "Fearless of the winter weather. Some call me the stinker!" Under it is the picture of a handsome skunk at for action. Seems this fellow Parris is a Boise vet of World War II who sells gasoline and does crop dusting on the side. He says folks call him "The Stinker" because he buys gas in tank car lots and sells it for two cents less than the major oil companies. Parris is a smart humorist as his highway advertising proves. As for his crop-dusting business, he covers the northern Idaho with 10 planes, all Cubs and Boeings fitted with BT-13 engines which pull the planes up steeply for short field take-offs. Parris is a husky young man with crisp dark hair and sharp eyes. "I put up those signs in the sage to get people in here buying gas," he said. "I would and usually tell me they read the 'skunk' ads."

Marlene Jensen is a husky, ruddy man with a shy and friendly smile. He lives in Pocatello now, but he came to Magic Valley in 1906, helped build the first school houses. "They were copied from Studebaker hacks," Jensen said, "and some of you will remember that they were still in the shop when I came here. When a fellow with a skinny little team came in and told us how easy they were to use, we thought, we felt to look them over. We happened to ride along on his trip to Kimberly and the old Balch house, which he now owns. It had been many years since we'd stopped at the back door of that house and been greeted by the warm, welcoming smile of Mrs. Emma Balch."

How time turned back! Once again we saw the two elder Balch boys, Arthur and John, preparing for the trip to the station where they'd train for the next morning. We saw the family table groaning with their favorite eats: felled, baked ham and cranberry sauce, cooked as only Emma Balch could do it. Once more we saw Arthur's friend, Melchior Balch, with her in her pretty blue eyes. Even Walter Balch was there, a whiff of a sister, with her red lips and red hair. From the Balch place and red lips to another ranch which is run for Jensen by Andrew Jensen and his son, Edwin. It was a bitter day when Mrs. Jensen refused to invite us in. Her kitchen was warm and cozy. There was a handsome hand-painted cracker jar on the table, and a stuffed coyote on the top of the cupboard. Mrs. M. explained that she'd been the family since 1900 when her papa's house had killed the coyote "stop a Nebraska yardstick!"

We warned to Mrs. M. instantly. Said she's the only gal in Magic Valley ornate enough to keep a grinning coyote in her kitchen. She showed us a swell green rug she'd crocheted for the war, and more, a picture of her pretty grandchild. Outside the window, as she talked, two puffed-up little sparrows sat perched on a bare bush. It was a long day we for forget Mrs. Jensen, her coyote, her kind smile, and the little birds in her icy shrubbery.

It was learned, before saying goodbye to all of them, that Jensen also has a hand in building 90 square-foot shacks to help clear the rich land of Magic Valley. Jensen also had once put in half a mile of 10-inch pipe out Kimberly way, which is known to this day as "the Jensen pipeline." What's more, this amazing man had made the pipe with his own hands!

Two Parleys To Air School Merger Plans

County Supt. Doris E. Stradley announced two meetings at which consolidation of rural high school districts, Piler No. 1 and Hollister No. 2, will be discussed.

The consolidation will be discussed at Hollister high school from 4 to 6 p. m. Monday and from 4 to 6 p. m. Tuesday at Piler high school, she said.

Superintendent Stradley urged all trustees, interested persons and parents to attend these meetings. She said she could not over-emphasize the importance of the two meetings. Many common and independent grade school districts will be affected by the consolidation. If it is approved and adopted, she said, persons from all these districts were urged to attend.

Piler rural high school district includes Piler independent No. 4, Marston independent No. 4, Poplar common No. 18, Washington common No. 11 and Elmwood common No. 10.

Hollister rural high includes Hollister independent No. 6, Amsterdam common No. 6, Berger common No. 29 and Rogers common No. 34.

Parts of Union No. 8, Brynnes No. 19 and Superior No. 46 as well as all of House Creek No. 58, have evidenced interest in consolidation with the proposed district. Interested persons from these districts also should attend, Mrs. Stradley said.

Blackfoot Firm Successful Bidder

BOISE, Dec. 6 (AP)—The H. A. Gardner company of Blackfoot, was the low bidder on the construction of nearly 10 miles of U. S. highway 92 in the Timmerman hill section, the state department of public works announced today. The firm bid $460,111.40.

Bids were opened on two other projects but contracts were not made as they are federal aid projects and must be processed through the federal road program.

Other two low bids on the Timmerman hill project were by the Duffy Reed Construction company, Twin Falls, $477,167.30, and Hoopes Construction company, Twin Falls, $478,662.10. The engineers' estimate for the project was $425,250.20.

Other projects and three low bids were:

Stockpiling of crushed gravel in Gooding, Blaine and Camas counties—Valley Graveling company, Boise, $42,520; Duffy Reed Construction company, Twin Falls, $44,130; Lawyer's Canyon bridge on the Cottonwood-Winona road in Lewis and Idaho counties—Twin Falls Concrete and Asphalt company, $22,800. Engineers estimated the project at $19,800.

$8,200 Asked in Court Action on Damages to Land

Lee Leichter, and Columbus Moorhead are being sued jointly for $8,200 by John P. Hawes, according to a complaint filed in district court.

Hawes contends that 800 acres of his pasture land and fences were destroyed and burned through the negligence of the two defendants. Moorhead is employed by Leichter, according to the charge.

The land involved is property about 10 miles west of the Salmon river reservoir on what is commonly known as "Hawes' bench," according to the description filed by the Boise law firm of Anderson and Thomas.

Hawes claims a brush fire was started Oct. 10 on a day when the area and brush was dry and the wind was blowing. He contends the defendants did not take precautions to keep the fire from getting out of control.

the car they said was years away!

This is your day! Set the time; see the car you've been told was years away!

A style-setting beauty, with a sparkling and massive front grille. A car that is only five feet high, and with the lowest center of gravity you've ever known, but with a new all steel Monobilt body-and-frame that gives you more inside head room than any other car built today.

A car with the roomiest seats ever built into any American-made automobile.

A car you step down into when entering, not up on—yet a car that maintains road clearance! A car that cradles you not only between axles, but ahead of the rear wheels.

All of this is made possible by a basic new development in motor car design—Hudson's Monobilt body-and-frame, shown in phantom view and described to the right.

The Hudson dealers listed here are ready with information about Hudson's all-new Super-Six engine—the most powerful six built today—and Hudson's masterful Super-Eight. They will tell you about Hudson's exclusive Drive-Master—no clutch pushing, no gear shifting in forward speeds.

See Hudson's gorgeously upholstered interiors, with chrome handles and hardware recessed into side panels, out of the way. Examine all of Hudson's new beauty, comfort and convenience features, including a new type of low-pressure, Super-Cushion tire that mounts on a new, wide safety rim. See how Hudson's wide, curved windshield and rear window give added vision all around.

Get a good look at this new kind of car—a type of automobile no one else in the world is prepared to build today! It's something to see—the nearest Hudson dealer will show it to you now!

A CAR YOU RIDE IN... NOT ON!

Hudson is the only motor car that completely encloses you, even outside the rear wheel, with a rigid box-steel foundation frame. You ride within this new construction, instead of on top of it as in other cars. And every unit of Hudson's new, all steel Monobilt body-and-frame is welded into one solid structure that provides unusual rigidity and stability.

Purchases on Credit Mount For Holidays

More merchandise will be purchased on credit within the next 30 days than at any time in this city's history, Louise Hughes, manager of the Twin Falls Credit bureau, predicted Saturday.

The reason for the surge of credit buying is that this is the first Christmas since 1940 that credit buying has been entirely free from government restrictions, she said.

Last controls under the wartime measure, which fixed terms and payments, were eliminated Nov. 1. As a result, the wave of buying isn't confined just to Twin Falls, but is taking place all over the nation.

While customers technically can "let their conscience be their guide" so far as credit buying is concerned, there isn't much danger of a credit spree, she said.

Credit bureaus throughout the country report an unprecedented number of inquiries from merchants checking up on credit applicants, Mrs. Hughes declared.

"This careful checking should do much to eliminate danger of inflation that might result from wild credit extension," she continued.

In granting credit largely on the basis of ability to pay, merchants are helping customers guard against an excess of Christmas generosity, the credit manager said.

"Credit men agree," said Mrs. Hughes, "that folks can avoid those 'New Year's blues' from bills by following four simple rules."

The four rules listed by Mrs. Hughes are:

1. Remember, credit doesn't raise your salary—it just lets you pay for your purchase over a longer period of time.

2. Keep track of the amount due on each charge account. A lot of little bills can spell trouble on the first of the month unless you total payments before buying.

3. Cooperate with credit departments by giving them the information they ask for when you open a new account.

4. Pay your bills promptly. Your credit record, kept in the credit bureau's files, is an accurate picture of your attitude toward obligations.

Credit bureau files show that the vast majority of people here pay their bills promptly and buy wisely, she concluded.

The big inch and little inch pipelines are scheduled to deliver 150 cubic feet of natural gas annually to the East.

Blanche Currie Quits as SICE Dean of Women

SOUTHERN IDAHO COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Albion, Dec. 6—Blanche M. Currie, dean of women here since 1934, has resigned to go to Focastello to care for her father, Dan Currie, who is seriously ill, President R. H. Snyder announced.

Maxine Johnson, school nurse, will fill the post of dean of women temporarily, Snyder said.

Miss Currie came to Albion from Bonners Ferry. Prior to that time she taught in Wendell and Hagerman schools. She is a graduate of Idaho State college, the University of Idaho and has done graduate work at the state university and at the University of Southern California.

From 1943 through 1945 Miss Currie was with the American Red Cross on a leave of absence from the school.

Home on Leave

H2/2 Alvin J. VanWagoner, son of Mrs. Dorsey Miller, Jerome, is home on a 12-day recruit leave after completing training at the naval training center, San Diego, Calif., according to CQM Edgar Palmer, who is in charge of the Twin Falls navy recruiting station.

VanWagoner will enter the hospital corpsman school at the naval hospital, San Diego, Palmer said.
