

Caldwell Jail Work Halted In Pay Fight

CALDWELL, March 6 (AP)—Construction work on the new Canyon county jail came to an abrupt halt here today with the contractors, H. J. McNeil, Inc., Caldwell, bringing a $3,000 damage action charging breach of contract against the county commissioners and the county.

H. E. McCluskey, president of the contractors, said the work had not been paid for on the basis of work completed monthly as called for in the contract.

The question of the proceedings in setting up the jail fund was raised several weeks ago when Glacier county treasurer, who was reportedly warned that after the jail was completed an action was to be brought to check the legality of the expenditures.

The treasurer declined to pay the warrants pending word from the bondsmen, who advised him to make payment only to written authorization from the county commissioners and written order by the county attorney.

Wednesday the commissioners ordered the treasurer not to pay the warrants pending clarification of the situation.

Mrs. Frost said today that on Friday the bondsmen insisted that the treasurer pay the warrants at the present time.

"Friendly suit" stated the commissioners said that a friendly suit was to have been brought soon against the county to determine the legality of the proceedings.

McCluskey said the concern had invested considerable funds in the structure to date in an effort to complete the foundation and basement work prior to the irrigation season.

The water level in that part of the canyon during the irrigation season will be within three feet of the top of the excavation, McCluskey explained.

Georgia 'Proves' Its 'Civil Rights'

SWAINSBORO, Ga., March 6 (AP)—One man and two women charged with slaying a Georgia state policeman were returned today to the county where the crime was committed as a "test" of Georgia justice.

The three were transferred from Tallapoosa state prison to the Emanuel county jail here without incident. The fourth of the accused remained at the state prison. He is being treated for a gunshot wound inflicted by officers who captured the quartet.

Gov. M. E. Thompson asked for the transfer. He said he wanted to show those outside the state, who are protesting for federal anti-lynching legislation, that local authorities are able to preserve law and order.

About 175 spectators gathered at the jail in Swainboro, apparently in a spirit of curiosity rather than mob violence.

Young Demo Raps U. S. Complacency

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 6 (AP)—Roy G. Baker, national president of the Young Democrats, said tonight the biggest threat to American democracy "is our own complacency."

At the annual convention of Missouri's Young Democratic club, Baker said "our greatest enemy is not Russia nor communism but rather our own complacency. If we love our democracy it will not be because of anything Russia does or does not do but rather because of our failure to discharge our duties."

At present, the guard holds its weekly meetings in the armory here, but has to share the building with the YMCA and other organizations.

Georgia's Leader Accused by RKK 'Of Double-Cross'

ATLANTA, March 6 (AP)—The grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan today virtually accused the governor of Georgia, M. E. Thompson, of a double-cross.

Dr. Samuel Green, the Klan chief who says he "practices medicine for a living and Klans for a principle," was hurt because Thompson had some harsh things to say yesterday about Klan "meetings of intimidation."

Green, a gray little man with a clipped mustache, wrote the governor an open letter today in which he said:

"In 1946 when you were begging me for Klan support for Lieutenant governor... and you were elected, you thought the Klan was a respectable organization... 'The thousands of Klansmen who voted for you in 1946... will certainly feel that their confidence in you has been misplaced.'"

When Governor Thompson was advised of the statement by Dr. Green, he chuckled and then snuffed "I never sought Klan support. I never attended a Klan meeting and I am not a member."

The U. S. merchant marine in 1946 contained almost two-thirds of all the world's shipping tonnage.

She Says Rupert Noted for 'Wild' Shots From Guns

Editor, Times-News:—After reading of the 12-year-old boy being shot by the two youths, I will say that Rupert is noted for this kind of shooting.

About a week or 10 days ago I was in my yard playing with my dog when a bullet tipped by close to my head. Hearing someone call, I turned and saw my neighbor standing a short distance behind me in his yard. He asked me if I could see anyone down the street where the shot came from because the bullet traveled even closer to him. We never saw anyone so the shot must have come from quite a distance. We took it to be a 22 and I live just outside the city limits on East Third street.

Why can't people respect the lives of others? Their guns should be taken away.

Plans were made to get stock in readiness for the rodeo.

Good Cherry Crop Seen for Lewiston

LEWISTON, March 6.—A good cherry crop is foreseen in the Lewiston area this year, Martin Fisher, president of the Lewiston-Chlankton Cherry Growers association, said today.

"Lewister bud sets indicate this year's crop should be normal and considerably better than last year's small crop," he said.

Fisher added that cold winter has reduced the number of insects and current frosty nights are delaying blossoms so they should escape late frosts.

'Rain Making' Plan Sifted to Curb Drought

ELY, Nev., March 6.—The federal government may be asked to look into the feasibility of a so-called "cloud making" program to avert a drought in the west, Gov. Vall Pittman said today.

Pittman reported from his home here that the suggestion that federal agencies investigate the scientific and practical aspects of artificial rain making was advanced by Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Suggestions Approved

Governors of Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Oregon and Washington approved the suggestion in a telephone conference yesterday, Pittman said.

Pittman said the plan calls for the seven western governors to urge President Truman to direct an appropriate federal agency to study the idea and inform the states whether such a project could be put into effect.

Fewer Reduced

Northern California and western Nevada, especially, have been suffering from a drought so severe that electrical power has been reduced drastically.

Farmers and cattlemen have predicted "calamity" in the drought area this summer if heavy rain or snow doesn't fall soon.

DICKINSON, Ind., March 6.—"Oncoming spring had never been so lush before."

Walking home from the grocery, Mrs. Oscar Pinks saw a 220 bill on a bush. She dropped her groceries and started picking. Soon she had $25.

"Uncle" Dips His Hands in Radio Prizes

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—If you're a radio contest prize winner, whether the prize is big or small, get ready to give Uncle Sam his cut. And it doesn't matter whether you win cash or merchandise, or how hard you work for it.

The Internal Revenue bureau said today that such winnings are considered earnings. As earnings they're subject to income tax at the usual rates. The bigger the prize, the bigger the tax.

These winnings, an official said, are added to any other income the prize winner may have. If it is cash, well, that is simple. If it is merchandise, then the value of the goods in cash makes up the total to be added to income. For example, if it is an automobile and the automobile value is $2,000, then $2,000 would be added to your income.

"No matter how trivial the prize or how trivial the contestant's part may be in determining the amount of the cash or value of the goods is considered earned and part of your income," the official said. "And that even if the winner's name is simply drawn out of a hat, there would be some effort involved in getting the name in the hat in the first place. That makes it 'earned' income."

If you've won a house full of merchandise and haven't the cash to pay the tax, the bureau says the value of the goods, be ready to sell some of it to get the cash.

1 in 3,000,000 Mother-in-Law Is 'Surprised'

HOLLYWOOD, March 6 (AP)—Mrs. Edger Parrett—one in 3,000,000 mother-in-law—says she "really didn't expect to win."

She referred to the $35,000 bonus of 40 prizes she was awarded yesterday in a mother-in-law contest on "Queen for a Day" radio program.

Mrs. Parrett, 32 and a grandmother, lives in the tiny Navajo Indian reservation community of Shiprock, N. M., where her husband is in charge of an Indian service farm.

She didn't hear the program on which her name was picked from a bowl from among 34 finalists. Her daughter, Mrs. Jack Leonard, 31, who lives 30 miles away, relayed the news a few minutes later over Shiprock's one telephone.

She was nominated by her son-in-law's sister, Mrs. Paul Leonard of Montebello, Calif., who was in the studio audience when the winner was announced and let go with a shriek of delight.

Mutual Broadcasting company officials said the prizes surpassed any radio jackpot to date.

They included an automobile and trailer, a $1,000 Persian lamb coat, a diamond ring and watch, a full set of electric and gas-operated appliances, and a two-week trip to New York City, Vermont and Bermuda.

Traffic Fines

Overtime parking fines totaling $21 and fines for illegal left turns totaling $4 were paid Friday and Saturday in Twin Falls city traffic court.

Leboeuf, C. F. Norris, Ben Tibery, J. C. Montgomery, Louis B. Myers, R. E. Stinson, J. O. Robinson, D. M. Oline, I. D. Amos and a "John Doe."

Amos paid two fines for overtime parking. Police explained that the "John Doe" entry was a Boise man, whose signature on the check sent to pay the fine was undecipherable.

School Changes 'May Be Too Rapid,' Robins Tells Trustees

BOISE, March 6 (AP)—Gov. C. A. Robins today warned Idaho trustees that progress of school reorganization in Idaho "may have been too rapid" and asked education groups to cooperate in the program.

The governor spoke to the annual meeting here of the Idaho School Trustees association.

The association re-elected Howard W. Anderson, Blackfoot, as president and elevated from second to first vice president E. A. Jensen, Preston.

Jensen succeeded J. D. Armstrong, Idaho Falls. Named second vice president to fill the vacancy created by Jensen's switch was J. Adrian Nelson, Grangeville. J. C. Edgely, Twin Falls, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

In his talk to the trustees, Robins said "the momentum" engendered by our enthusiasm for change by reorganization may have carried us along more rapidly than our people have been prepared, adding: "It yet remains a possibility that a sufficient educational program to explain and popularize the objectives has not been accomplished. Foundations regularly precede superstructures in all permanent buildings."

The far-reaching program of school consolidation and reorganization was provided by the last legislature.

The governor said he was in sympathy with reorganization, but pointed out "our obligation . . . directly to the taxpayer that we should not expect too much reorganization for wise purposes and with equity."

He said also that he had discovered "signs of jealousy of prerogatives and of the priority of ideas and of occasional appearance of the principle of 'We'll do it our way or else.'"

"My plea," said the governor, "is that before we let differences disrupt, we use the council table freely and let the judgment await until sober and thoughtful consideration."

The association concluded its annual meeting with a forum discussion of various phases of educational problems.

State 'Leader' in Purebred Sheep

BOISE, March 6 (AP)—The state wool growers association believes this state is ahead of others in the quality of purebred sheep.

M. C. Clear, association secretary, said Idaho furnished 42.75 per cent of the rams in Salt Lake City at the 1947 national ram sale. However, Idaho growers took away 4.67 per cent of the sale proceeds, Clear reported.

Clear said Idaho now ranks high in providing breeding rams for Texas, Arizona, Wyoming, Nevada, Utah and other states.

Vets' Housing Law Approval Believed Near

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The house veterans' committee was reported near agreement today on legislation intended to spur construction of veterans housing.

Under tentatively agreed-to proposals, the measure would require the secretary of treasury to make available $1,000,000 to liberalize loans on single and multi-unit dwellings and farms. The funds would be used by the veterans administration; the home loan bank board and the secretary of agriculture.

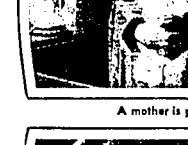

Guarantee 50 Per Cent
The veterans administration would be permitted to guarantee up to 50 per cent of either or both the construction loan and the permanent financing of multi-unit dwellings. Now he is able to do so only when the project is sold out in advance to veterans.

Billion Would Be Lent
To supply adequate credit to veterans for purchase of homes, $1,000,000,000 a year would be lent at 2 to 2 1/2 per cent to institutions now making veterans' home loans through the federal home-loan banks.

Existing sources of credit for farm loans would be supplemented by putting $300,000,000 at the disposal of the secretary of agriculture. This would be allocated by him between the federal land banks and the farmers home administration.

The wool committee has been meeting with Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, officials of the U.S. forest service and representatives from the cattle industry in Washington.

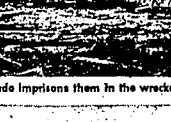

Intermountain committee members are Don Clyde, Heber City, Utah, president of the Utah Wool Growers association; G. N. Winder, Craig, Colo., past president of the national association; and J. B. Wilson, McKinley, Wyo., chairman of the legislative committee of the national group.

Karelians 'in Flight' From Finnish Area

Helsinki, Finland, March 6 (AP)—Many Finnish-speaking Karelians today were reported trying to flee across Finland's northern border into Sweden. These Karelians were alarmed by reports of Finnish-Russian treaty negotiations.

Press dispatches telling of the flight reached Helsinki as government sources predicted that Finland would reach a decision Monday on the question of opening negotiations for a treaty of friendship and military alliance with Russia.

Extent Not Revealed

The extent of the Karelians' exodus was not revealed. One account said a group of 30 Karelian men, women and children was stopped at the frontier last night.

Formerly Russian citizens, the Karelians moved to Finland around 1920 because these people have not received Finnish citizenship they fear Finland may be forced to turn them over to Russia if a Finnish-Soviet friendship agreement is reached, informants said.

Pres. Juho Paasikivi conferred for two hours today with the Finnish government's liaison officer in Helsinki on Russia's request for a treaty.

Government sources said the committee would meet again Monday morning to formulate its recommendations. Following that, the 15-man cabinet will convene to give the issue final consideration.

The cabinet has been advised to stand by for a possible emergency session.

The farm cooperative system, from its establishment to the present day, was outlined Saturday at the annual meeting of the Twin Falls district of the Jerome Co-operative Creamery by Elder Ezra T. Benson, former secretary of the national council of farm cooperatives.

Elder Benson, who is a member of the council of twelve apostles of the LDS church, pointed out that the cooperative movement has been approved by legislatures of all 48 states and the congress of the United States.

He told the group that the cooperative plan can be used to assist farmers in various problems of marketing. It said while the federal system is not efficient it is effective.

Inflation Isn't Tough Enough; Next It'll Be 'Dickles,' 'Jimes'

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Editorial in the New York Times today said Washington with an idea he says will save the public $5,000,000 a year.

He wants a dickle or maybe a jime.

That is, he wants the United States to make 10 cents, 7 1/2 cents, 7 1/2 cents, and 1 1/2 cents.

His friends suggested the coin be called a "dickle" or "jime" for jumpy and dime.

That would make the 2 cent piece a "dickle" for penny and nickel, or "jime" for "jumpy" and penny. The 1 1/2 cent coin of course would be "jime" for "jumpy" and dime.

For nearly a year Menden has been on his crusade for fractional coinage. Now the Beverly Hills, Calif., soft drink manufacturer is taking the matter to the mint.

The billions of dollars savings estimated comes from Menden's figures. He says the American drunk 25,000,000 cups of nickel coffee in 1937. Today that coffee ranges up to 10 cents a cup. Drinking dickle coffee would save $25,000,000 a year, he said. It is the same with other things.

Menden argues this way: America has only four coins worth a quarter or less. But Britain has six, and The Netherlands and Sweden each have seven coins worth a quarter or less.

With the addition of three new coins, the U. S. would have seven, too.

Taylor Seeks Arguments on Wallace Sack

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Sen. Glen H. Taylor, D. Idaho, today appeared determined to bring President Truman into a new argument over Henry A. Wallace's forced resignation from the cabinet in 1946.

Taylor wrote the President suggesting that since he fired Wallace for criticizing the administration's foreign policy, he also should "renew and accept" the resignations of Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Lieut.-Gen. A. C. Wedemeyer for criticizing his policy toward China.

The letter may be ignored by the White House. Democratic party leaders here have been giving Taylor the silent treatment since he announced two weeks ago he would run as vice president on Wallace's third party ticket.

Taylor contended in his letter that the actions of the two generals appeared to be "clearly analogous with that of Henry Wallace, who as secretary of commerce and administrator foreign policy."

He pointed out that MacArthur and Wedemeyer had complained to the house foreign affairs committee that there had been no military aid for China during the war.

Taylor stressed that he does not endorse "forced resignations." But he added, the general's resignations should be asked "in order that you may be confident with the policy which you laid down in the case of Mr. Wallace."

Judge Orders Bail Releases For 4 "Reds"

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Four men awaiting deportation proceedings on charges of being alien communists gained their release on bail today and immediately broke their nearly week-long fast.

A small but noisy crowd of well-wishers met the men as they stepped off the ferry boat, which brought them from Ellis island. They had been held there on order of Atty.-Gen. Tom Clark.

Before they left Ellis island, each of the men took a bowl of soup and a glass of fruit juice.

They told reporters it was their first food since Monday when they started a self-styled hunger strike to obtain their release on bail pending hearings on the deportation proceedings.

The four are Gerhart Eisler, described by a congressional committee as America's No. 1 communist; John Williamson, labor secretary of the CIO National Maritime union; and Charles A. Doyle, West Indian-born Negro, who is secretary of the CIO United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers.

Earlier in the afternoon Federal Judge William Denny had ordered each pending argument Monday on petitions for release from his denial of their petitions. Habeas corpus writs.

The bail was supplied in U.S. government bonds, by their attorneys.

Old records show that between 1874 and 1914, a total of 1,232 vessels were built in this country.

Johnson Case Decree Given After 8 Years

owned by the late C. F. Johnson in Arkansas will be tried in the near future, according to Marshall Chapman, attorney for M. W. Johnson. The Arkansas property includes holdings valued at more than $12,000, Chapman revealed.
The case was first tried, after pending for several years, in June 1945, and was continued in May 1947, for an accounting. Judge Stevens was called to preside in the case because Judge James W. Porter, Twin Falls, and the late Judge T. Bailey Lee, Dursey, were disqualified.
In his decree Judge Stevens also retained jurisdiction for the court and awarded M. W. Johnson his costs in the eight year suit.
Attorneys for M. W. Johnson, in addition to Chapman, R. P. Parry and Graydon W. Smith, representing Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Wilbur were J. R. Doherty, J. W. Taylor and Branch Bird.

3 Nations Set German Rule, Ruhr Accord

tion of Russian participation in the proposed international control of the Ruhr. Russia has advocated a four-power rule of the valley. It was agreed that Germany would participate, however.
The Ruhr agreement was described in general terms and specific recommendations were not disclosed. France has asked for an international control and ownership of the industrial valley's mines and resources.
Purpose of international control, the communiqué said, would be to prevent the Ruhr from being used again for purposes of aggression. The western powers also agreed that there should be adequate access to the coal, coke and steel of the Ruhr for the benefit of extensive parts of the European community including Germany.
The United States, Britain and France listed their broad objectives as:
1—Economic reconstruction of western Europe.
2—Creation of a basis for the participation of a democratic Germany in the community of free peoples.
Significantly, they did not particularly "western" Germany in setting down these goals, they added.
"While delay in reaching these objectives can no longer be accepted, ultimate four-power agreement is in no way precluded."

Ruhr Ownership 'Not Committed', U. S. Aide Says

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Willard L. Thorp, assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, said today that the agreement announced in London today does not commit the United States government to international ownership of the Ruhr. The United States, Great Britain and France announced in London that they agreed to international control of the Ruhr, but specific recommendations were not made public.
Thorp told a reporter that he had not seen a full draft of the London agreement when he returned to the U. S. situation in an address earlier today. He and Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, were among speakers at the New York Herald-Tribune youth forum.
In addressing the forum, Thorp said that the United States does not favor detaching the Ruhr industrial area from Germany, as a step in securing peace. Instead, he said, this country prefers "positive action designed to curb Germany's war-making power."

Western Europe Union Accord Is Near Agreement

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 6 (AP)—The political and legal basis of a western European economic and military union was laid down tonight.
Six sources said there was general agreement on the basic principles of a 50-year pact binding Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg, but considerable work remained before the basic agreements could be finalized. The conference, which opened last Thursday, is expected to continue until next Wednesday or Thursday.
British delegates said the structure agreed upon here will be a union committed to western democracy to which no totalitarianism could subscribe.
Sir George Rendel, British ambassador to Belgium, said it will definitely commit the western union to mutual armed defense, but will make no attempt to detail defense provisions.
The political basis of the pact was reached at tonight's session. Gladwyn Jebb of the British foreign office said one of the main points of political discussion was the attitude

Electric Union Leader's Next In Purge List

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Albert J. Fitzgerald, president of the powerful United Electrical Workers, appeared today on the list of those for the axe in the CIO's purge of Wallace-for-President boosters.
One usually reliable source indicated that CIO President Philip Murray has marked Fitzgerald for removal in his bid for reelection to CIO vice presidency at the 1948 convention.
The purging of the electrical workers is the last prominent CIO official who is supporting Henry A. Wallace in open defiance of CIO policy. General Counsel Lee Pressman quit under pressure last month. Harry Bridges was fired last night as CIO regional director for north and California.

Others Prebied

At the same time, Murray's aides said he was investigating the reported third party leanings of CIO councils in Los Angeles, Newark, N. J., and New York City, and the California state council.
CIO Vice Pres. Allan B. Haywood is looking into the west coast situation. It was learned, while John Brophy, director of the 386 city and state councils, is investigating the eastern councils.
Murray holds no constitutional authority to oust Fitzgerald from his CIO vice presidency, but he is, by the position is filled by the annual convention.
However, Murray demonstrated that he has the final say on who shall hold office. In the 1946 convention, when he brought about the defeat of Ed Ross, then president of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers.

In a letter to Victor Manuel Golez, president of the Guatemalan senate, Golez said:
"The Argentine republic has not recognized nor will it recognize, colonial possessions in America."

Purebred Lamb Is Expensive 'Barbecue' for Pair at Filer

The barbecuing of a purebred lamb, offspring of a blooded Hampshire sheep imported from England last summer by Robert Blackstock, Filer, resulted in filling of grand larceny charges against two men now being held under $1000 bond in the Twin Falls county jail.
Daphne Duffy and James Wilson, both Filer, were charged with grand larceny in connection with the theft of the lamb, missing since Feb. 24 or 25.
Duffy requested a preliminary hearing when arraigned before Probate Judge B. T. Hamilton Saturday after his arrest by the Cassia county sheriff. The hearing was set for Tuesday.
Apprehended earlier, Wilson waited the night to a hearing at his arraignment. Both are being held in the county jail in lieu of $1,000 bonds.

According to the charges, the pair allegedly stole the purebred lamb, butchered and ate choice parts of the valuable animal and disposed of the rest by giving it away.
The animal was valued at $40 to $50 as a lamb, Blackstock said Saturday, and would probably have been worth about $500 after attaining full growth.

Czech Chiefs Hope to Keep West's Trade

PRAGUE, March 6 (AP)—Foreign Trade Minister Antonin Gregor expressed the hope today that Czechoslovakia could continue to do business with western nations.
The communist minister told a new conference, Czechoslovakia planned to step up her exports to 48 percent with the eastern or "people's democracy" countries and to get the rest of her trade elsewhere. He defined western nations as those lacking a planned economy regardless of their geographic location.

Two Pacts Underway

Gregor said his country now under a communist-controlled government—was ready to start trade negotiations at any time with Britain. He announced new trade agreements are underway with Norway and Belgium and said agreements with France and Switzerland have been temporarily extended.
A purge of Czechoslovakia's army was disclosed in the social democratic newspaper Pravo Lidu.
Paragraph Cited
The newspaper published this paragraph:
"Action committees are not going to intervene in the purge going on in the army. In the case of intervention or doubt, action committees should apply directly to the ministry of defense, and at the same time report to the chairman of the defense committee of parliament."
The paragraph was signed "Blenaksky." This indicated Rudolf Blanský, secretary general of the Communist party in Czechoslovakia and a founder of the communist front, was directing the purge.

Four-State Top Marksmen to Compete Here

The Idaho state gallery championship tournament, to be held on the Twin Falls Rifle and Pistol club range, at Lookout point, two and one-half miles north of the city on March 20 and 21, will be the first in the history of the Idaho state gallery championship tournament, according to Clyde Reza, the public chairman. In addition to Idaho's best rifle and pistol marksmen, Reza says sharpshooters from Nevada, Oregon and Salt Lake City in Utah and several points in Montana are likely entrants.

In the pistol division, Jim Sidwell, Twin Falls, will be the defending champion and will be one of the favorites to repeat. Jim has been shooting very well in the Idaho state gallery championship tournament.

Paul of Boise and Kenneth Kugler of Idaho Falls will probably have a lot to say as to who is going to win the high aggregate prize.

In the team event Boise will be the defending champion and, unless a Utah team prevails the competition should repeat.

The rifle division will find as the defending team Boise again, but with Twin Falls and Buhl running up the best scores they have ever had. It will be one of the outstanding events. Salt Lake with its record-breaking team from outdoor events.

Harold Greer, Boise, will be the defending aggregate champion, but will be hard pressed by George Baruch, Salt Lake; Clarence Mortensen, Twin Falls; Ralph Shaffer, Twin Falls; E. Kral, Buhl; J. McCann, Buhl; R. Dean, Buhl, and several other outstanding shooters of Idaho and Utah.

In the women's division Fern Smith will be the defending champion and has certainly got her work cut out in competition from several other women.

A new event has been added to the women's division. This is ladies' bow match in which two ladies shoot together and total score of the two count.

COWBOYS SHORT ON INFELDERS

'Power Down Middle,' 1947 Forte, Lacking

If the Cowboys fail to win the Pioneer league pennant or finish well up in the race this coming season it will be because they were "strong down the middle" as they were in the past two successful seasons. The western sports of the New York Yankees, which whom the Cowboys are affiliated, have outplayed the Cowboys in the past two seasons.

The lone infielder is Charlie Demotte and he is a rookie of whom little is known.

On the other hand, Cowboys have eight outfielders, four catchers and 14 hurlers on the roster of players they will take to the Agua Caliente, Calif., training camp April 4.

Strength "down the middle" has been the Yankees' forte in the past two successful seasons when they had Hal Luecke at shortstop, Jack Rutledge, the league's most valuable player at second, and George Lerner in centerfield. Although he is on the roster, Luecke says he is second baseman Eddie Stanky, who is being traded to Boston.

On the SPORT FRONT With YOSS (The Paddy One)

Ye Old Sport Scenarists pick 'em up and put 'em down right here: For the first time the Magic Valley has a player at a major league training camp... He's pitcher Tomoloon, of Burley, who is with Manager Joe McCarthy's Boston Red Sox at Worcester, Mass.

Grand Exalted Ruler Jess Carlson loves sports and that fact is paying off in a promotional way... The Elks don't shoot their deeds from the house tops but YOSS has learned these facts from the "little bird" who is always perched on his shoulder: A group of kids got to go to Jackson Hole to play a hockey game through a $50 donation; the expenses of a women's bowling team in the state tournament at Boise next week will be underwritten by the organization; they're paying the expenses incident to keeping open the high school gymnasium every Saturday between 300 and 400 boys; they saw to it that Twin Falls was well represented in the Elks and state state bowling tournament and they helped to see that the northwest Golden Gloves were fittingly robed in the "Tournament of Champions" at Chicago.

Ted Brush, Richfield, wants more info on how to organize a team for Junior Legion baseball... For the benefit of Mr. Brush and others who have similar desire the ancient weed grinder urged them to consult Mr. Ralph Denny at Jerome... He has the lowdown right at his finger tips. Johnny Drips said the only Twin Falls lad on that state championship basketball team at Norfolk, Neb., Junior college... There are also Billy Dwyer and Stewart Weger.

Member Clarence Berns pitched for Porterville in the Pioneer league before the war... He's now with the St. Louis Cardinals and Manager Eddie Dyer is predicting stardom for the lad.

BYU is expected to have a last-of-its-kind year next year... It's all because of a powerful freshman class, which has won eight straight... The top yearling score is Roland Munson, who starred for Idaho Falls high... He has an average of 13 points per game. AND THAT'S THAT FOR NOW, except—spring sports will now take over.

Scouts at Fairfield Complete Annual Jaunt Into Wilderness

FAIRFIELD, March 6—Twelve members and two leaders of the Fairfield Air Scout squadron returned Tuesday from their annual three-day ski trip into the rugged country north of Fairfield.

The trip, originally scheduled to begin last Saturday, was postponed to Sunday when an unfavorable weather report was received from the U. S. weather bureau.

Since supplies would be parachuted by plane to the Scouts on the trip, the group had to wait for favorable mountain flying conditions. At 8 a. m. Sunday the group got a go-ahead signal from the weather bureau.

After a difficult four-hour climb, the Scouts reached Wells summit at an elevation of 7,083 feet and stopped for lunch. Supplies were dropped by air to the group by C. D. Merrill and Robert Froese. Upon reaching their camp area campsite at 4 p. m. Sunday, the supplies parachuted to the group were inspected and found to be in good shape. As an experiment, two glass jars of food was inclosed with the parachuted packages. The jars didn't break, and the Scouts are planning to drop eggs next year.

More than 130 pounds of food was parachuted to the group during the trip.

After a night spent in below zero weather, the Scouts decided not to continue the trip as planned and spent Monday skilling in the Cow area.

About five inches of snow fell Monday night which made the return trip difficult. Scoutmaster Albert Thurber reported.

The Scouts returned to Fairfield at 4 p. m. Tuesday with a few blisters but anxious to make the trip next year. Thursday and Friday Scouts making the trip were Lowell Ruby, Harlan Olson, Elmer Johnson, Richard Jones, Kenneth Baldwin, Richard Baldwin, Jack Armistage, Lee Thurber, Lee Edwards, Doran Cluer, LeRoy Trader and Harold Lee.

Scout leaders were Thurber and Gary Edwards.

Fish, Wildlife Hit by Golden State Drought

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 6.—It's even too dry in California for the fish.

Deer are in mass migration. Ducks and quail are suffering. As are all the birds in the worst drought in record weather bureau history, the state's division of fish and game today reported.

Hatcheries have record amounts of fish—but there is a shortage of running streams in which to put them.

Stockhead in many cases have not been able to reach spawning grounds because coastal rivers were too shallow or dry. Many congregated at the mouths of rivers, filling prey to larger fish and sea lions.

Fish rescue work which normally begins in May or June is already under way.

Fish will be planted in lakes although that is not as desirable as stream planting. Fished fish with nowhere else to go will be placed in five reservoirs designated for that purpose as well as in some private farm ponds.

To help the salmon run on the San Joaquin, bureau of marine fisheries men are planning a 70-mile detour through irrigation ditches so the fish can migrate.

Deer in search of food and water have been forced into farm and residential areas. Yolo, Los Angeles, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Napa, Sonoma and Marin counties have all reported a sudden overpopulation of deer in the lower regions.

Ducks found no place to land in their usual resting places in the San Joaquin grasslands area. Lack of rain was partly blamed for the death of thousands of ducks at the woodland sewer farm pond.

In an attempt to aid quail, the division with the help of sportsmen's organizations, is speeding the installation of water supply units known as "gallinaceous gizzards."

Georgia 'Shiners' Go to Waterways

MOULTREE, Ga., Feb. 26.—Georgia revenue agents must have virtually a naval rating to compete with illicit whisky-makers today.

J. O. Stewart, alcoholic tax unit officer, reports that moonshiners in the river bottoms are carrying on their trade, high water or no high water.

The moonshiners build "island" platforms above the high-water mark, cover the floors with sand and set up their kettles and coils.

To reach the islands in the flooded bottom lands, the moonshiners use boats or rafts. The most practical method of running them to earth, according to Stewart, is for revenueurs to spot a boat hidden in the bushes along the bank and wait until the unsuspecting shiner returns with a load of "white lightning."

Mrs. Savaria Is First Blaine Woman to Get Pilot's License

HAILLEY, March 6.—Mrs. Robert Savaria, 24, Hailley, became the first woman pilot in Blaine county Thursday when she completed her flight training and was awarded her pilot's license by Paul Puller, Twin Falls.

Mrs. Savaria took her flying lessons from her husband, an ex-army pilot. She is the mother of two children, Jimmy, 3, and Vicki, six months.

She first soloed on Nov. 25 day after receiving eight hours of dual instruction. She flew to Boise on her cross-country solo flight and returned by way of the Twin Falls airport.

During World War II Mrs. Savaria was a WAVE at the naval air station, Alameda, Calif.

Joe Decker, Hailley, and James Reddy, Ketchum, also were awarded their pilot's licenses Thursday by Puller.

State Sales Tax Gnaws at Income

CHICAGO (AP)—A state-wide survey based on the average family revealed that Illinois residents would have paid a total of $41 in state sales taxes last year on the basis of a $1000 income to support a family of three.

The survey was drawn up by the Chicago Retail Merchants association and was offered to the public as a guide in computing their federal income taxes. State sales taxes are deductible on federal income.

Illinois collected $152,529,543 in sales tax last year, one of the highest years since the tax was placed into effect in 1942.

Red Scientists Told Warning To 'Toe Line'

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Russian scientists have just been warned by the Soviet ministry of higher education that they'd better remember the "party character" of their work.

This business of being too impressed by western scientists can lead to "anti-state, anti-patriotic actions," they are told. They are not told, presumably because telling is unnecessary, that it can also lead to loss of their professional and possibly their anatomical heads.

In Russia, the microscope must be used as a mouthpiece.

Part of Campaign

It's all a part of the current Soviet campaign against people who write music or books or express economic theories which fail to serve as communist propaganda.

To Americans this makes the Soviet incredible or laughable, or creates a deep feeling of envy. But it also has its practical aspects for which the anti-communist countries can be thankful. It is going to have a dampening effect on the advances of Russian science.

In recent discussion of the beneficial effects of chromosomes and genes before the Cooper union forum Frederick O'Brien told an interesting little story.

Science has proved definitely that genes and chromosomes, combined with but not controlled by environment, produce the individual man. But O'Brien reminds the mechanism of the chromosomes and genes was officially repudiated by Dr. Lyssenko, now director of the Institute of Genetics of the Soviet Academy of Science. The laws of Mendel and Morgan are false, the good doctor said, because they fail to conform to dialectical materialism. As a result, the Russian geneticist Vavilov was removed as director of the institute and replaced by Lyssenko, and Vavilov died in Siberia.

Freight Company Permit Cancelled On No Insurance

BOISE, March 6 (AP)—The public utilities commission today has cancelled the freight permit of James O. Malone, Cascade, for failure to insure.

William D. Fox, secretary of the commission, said Malone had a freight transfer permit from Boise to Seattle, but had failed to file liability or property damage insurance as required by state law.

The commission previously had denied Malone a permit and the case was taken to the supreme court by Malone and the Bradley Mining Company of Seattle.

The supreme court last February reversed the commission's decision and ordered the permit to be granted, saying the commission was not charged with the duty of protecting common carriers competing in open market or their economic loss of gain.

The court ruled that where an applicant has met the requirements of the law the commission must grant a permit.

Fox said the public utilities commission had given Malone the 15-day required notice to comply with provisions before the license was revoked.

Bright Stellar Lights Blazing In Early Spring Evening Sky

By J. HUGH FRANKET
Astronomer, Extension Division, Oregon Higher Education System

The evening skies of early spring are ablaze with bright stellar lights, but the unusual brilliance of Venus distinguishes it at once as the finest of the starry hosts. Surely no one who "looks up" needs direction in locating this superbly glorious planet at nightfall, for it glows like a little lantern hung high on the western side of heaven.

At the same early hours, Mars and Saturn, fairly closely grouped, shine with steady radiance in the east. Mars is easily identified as it is distinctly reddish-orange and the brighter of the two. The star Regulus, less luminous than either planet, twinkles clearly only a little below them.

Jupiter, the brightest star-like object in the morning sky, is now rising in the southeast about four hours before the sun. By sunrise, this old "king of the gods" of Roman mythology has almost reached a southern position.

For the real stars of evening—actual distant suns, not other worlds encircling our sun—let us observe at 7 p. m. The splendid Orion group is high in the south. The short list of three stars of equal brightness forms this ancient hunter's belt.

Considerably lower, these two brighter stars mark his shoulders. The red one is Betelgeuse. (Avoid the pronunciation "Bette Juice," occasionally heard.) Below the belt are found two others, the unusually bright one being Rigel.

Solons Agghast At Contests of 'Voice' Script

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Two-gun cowboys! Outlaws in the mayor's office! Feathered and naked women!

Representative Rich, R., Pa., raised his hands to high heaven. That he declared, is how our state department is picturing the United States to Latin America.

"I feel just like resigning from congress," he said with a tear in his eye.

Rich is the manufacturer-congressman who chews almost daily in the house to demand: "There are you going to get this money?"

Read Into Record

As to what the taxpayers' cash is being spent on, he read into today's Congressional Record a "Voice of America" radio script broadcast, he said to South America about three weeks ago.

Give a listen to the dialogue: "There was a time when the inhabitants of Chiquena were outlaws, including the mayor." (Laughter.)

"I suppose that he was elected by his own gang, like in the movies!" he said.

That was in the good old days. Today: "Look at those cowboys! Every one of them carries two guns. And Wyoming, all citizens are allowed to carry firearms if they keep them in plain view."

Get Better

The script gets better: "Look! What magnificent Indian girls!"

"Feathered and naked!" "What are they going to do?" "Nothing but run a footrace, as it turns out. Disappointed?"

Final announcement: "You have just heard 'South America,' a weekly program in which we relate the intellectual adventures of two travelers who are discovering the multiple surprises of historic and present-day life in the U. S."

"Surprise indeed," said Rep. Rich. "I want the members of congress to see how they have been in voting the money for the Voice of America," he told the house.

The "Voice of America" did not immediately voice any comment.

'Profs' Are Right, Students Discover

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—You can't blame those theme grades on the teachers.

The University of Idaho decided to test a cherished student theory that theme grades were based on "A" to "F" if they were submitted to enough instructors.

The results of the department sent 14 students to 14 faculty members for grading. The ratings were consistent throughout with all themes falling into average, above average or below average classes regardless of the grader. One theme received 15 "A" grades and two "B" marks, but none varied from "A" to "D."

Boulder Dam Draws Tourists; Water Vital to 'Desert' Area

BOULDER CITY, Nev., March 6.—Closed to the public during the war for obvious reasons, Boulder dam, generally recognized as the greatest engineering achievement of all times, is becoming more popular as a tourist attraction.

While thousands of sight-seers are guided through its tremendous ramifications, other hundreds of thousands of people living in the drought areas of Arizona and southern California are thanking their lucky stars that Boulder dam is a reality, large enough to hold the entire flow of the Colorado river on two full years.

Water Power Loans

With water in the great American desert area in the southwest becoming more and more scarce, there is every likelihood that many a sectional right will develop for a greater share of the water impounded in Lake Mead, the 11-mile reservoir backed up by the dam.

Although the dam, a bureau of reclamation project, was completed in 1935, additional generators are being installed periodically. When the hydro-electric plant is developed to full capacity with 17 vertical turbines installed, it will have an output of 1,600,000 horsepower, compared to the 750,000 horsepower of Russia's Dnieperstroy.

Silt Causes Problem

Although it's no immediate problem, there is one concern which the bureau of reclamation anticipates at the outset. Of the 16,000,000 tons of silt which the Colorado river carries downstream every 24 hours, the reservoir at Lake Mead is estimated that a total 10,000 acre-feet is being deposited in the reservoir annually.

At that rate, how long will it take before the reservoir is completely filled up with mud, sand and gravel?

Idaho Mine Shaft Work Commended

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The job of sinking a 70-foot shaft at the Hope mine, Clark Fork, Ida., was commended by the bureau of mines.

The work was in search of new ore. The mine, producing lead, silver and zinc, is owned by Hope Silver and Mines, Inc. It expects to explore the pearl vein for ore as it is and to explore and mine the downward extension of the vein.

In a publication issued as one of a series of reports disseminating technological information about mining and milling operations, the bureau says:

"Careful attention to training and stocking the timber site contributed largely to the good alignment of the 7½-compartment shaft, which penetrates the entire depth of the Wallace shale formation."

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

By INEZ PUCKETT

For architects, the construction;
For cooks, the puddings;
For politicians, the bargains;
For borrowers, the locations;
For shoemakers, the cobblers;
For editors, the grinders;
For motorists, the collisions;
For pedestrians, the tombstones.

Along the swarming streets, on trains, at bus stations and the railway terminal, people were reading about it. The Los Angeles papers all carried it. Gals accompanying the story showed a grave-faced little boy of 8 standing beside a splattered car. Probably Roy Lee Grindrod of Burley never knew that for one day he was a hero to thousands of people in a big city. Maybe he doesn't know it yet. But we know, because we were there to see.

As we stood to hear the newsmen hollering: "Paper! Paper! Read all about the child hero of Idaho!"

Roy Grindrod has the spunk characteristic of Idaho kids. Everyone knows what he did over there on a Burley ranch. Some gas exploded and burned the faces of Roy's father, brother and another man.

Eight-year-old Roy managed to steer the family car all the way to Paul and so save the victims from being killed. He'd never driven a car before, and he wasn't even 10, but that didn't matter. There was a job to be done and Roy did it. Next time you forget to get out of the car, Roy Grindrod of Burley and the hundreds of clean, resourceful kids like him. It will restore your faith.

Great Scott! cried the doctor as he examined a Magic Valley citizen. "You're all black and blue, have a compound fracture, and six broken ribs! What happened to you?"

"Nothing," said the citizen faintly. "Except I tried to drive from Regester over highway 53!"

The cars swarm the highway with their new license plates gleaming behind. Among them is Idaho's with that baked potato on it. Folks lean out to yell smart cracks: "Where's the salt?" they'll say, or, "Send it back for more butter!" If it's Idaho's products we are bent on advertising, next year's plates may have a lamb chop and a dish of baked beans on 'em. No end to the possibilities of this thing.

Comes a letter from the emergency committee of atomic scientists. It's signed by Einstein. It says atom bombs can now be made cheaply and in large numbers, that they will increase in deadliness; it warns that no military defense against them is effective, that other countries can refit their own process in making them. "If another war comes," it says, "atom bombs will be used, and they will surely destroy our civilization."

Only future peace can save us, the letter states. It begs American citizens to send funds so information can be spread; it asks us to discuss the matter together while there is yet time.

Well, all of us would have to see atom bombs destroy every man, woman, animal and good earth, or humans with decent manners and honor.

He's 1, She's 21

Leap year stuff, of course! Michael Romano, 4, Cleveland, O., had his first genuine birthday anniversary on this Feb. 29 and Mrs. Emma Stromberg, 88, celebrated her 21st birthday anniversary. Above, they display their birthday cakes. Mrs. Stromberg, a great-grandmother, has only 21 candles because each century year leap year is by-passed. So she went eight years without a birthday.

Federal Offer on Drought Termed Of No Real Help

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 6 (AP)—A federal offer to relieve California's drought-born power crisis was received today.

But Governor Warren was not sure that the offer, as worded, could help matters.

Recy, of Interior J. A. Krug telegraphed Warren that the U. S. bureau of reclamation would make available to the state additional power to be generated at Shasta dam.

Warren said he did not believe the secretary would have the requirement in the law that public agencies should have preference in use of publicly generated power.

Rising Living Cost Seen by C. of C. Chief

BOISE, March 6 (AP)—Living costs will continue to creep upward.

This is the opinion of Earl O. Shreve, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

The recent dip in commodity prices "is a good thing, but probably only a corrective measure," Shreve told a news conference Friday. "It was a good thing because it made the country think."

Prosperity, Shreve said, is the country's in such a state there is no reason why we shouldn't experience prosperity for some time to come.

"However, this is an election year, and anything can happen."

Aid to Europe is endorsed by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, he said.

"Such a program should be kept simple and it should be administered by businessmen. It should be kept on a non-partisan basis."

Cabinet Hank Aid Chief Shreve said the U. S. Chamber of Commerce endorses universal military training.

"Personally, I think it would have a tremendous fine effect on Russia," he added.

Indians to Show Whites 'The Way'

RENO, Nev., March 6 (AP)—The Pitkin and Washoe Indians are going to show the pale faces a thing or two about bows and arrows.

Frank Johns, representing the Indians, said a group of Indian archers would compete in the National Archery association tournament here next August.

The Indians have been using lutes tossed into the air as targets instead of the stationary circular patterns used by sportsmen archers.

"We hit them, too," Johns added, "right in the middle."

Scouts Take Tests

PILER, March 6—Members of Piler Boy Scout troop 30, accompanied by their leaders, Frank Mogenssen and William Harsbarger, liked to Snake river recently to pass tracking and compass tests.

Here's 'Looking' at You

An "old look" member of his Irish guards and a "new look" London girl exchange critical glances while strolling in Hyde park. Kille has made their first appearance in 1948. She wears a plaid skirt with the new long hemline.

Chemical Blocks Decay for Teeth

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Decay in children's teeth may be cut 40 per cent merely by brushing a chemical on the enamel, congress heard.

The chemical is sodium fluoride. Dr. Thomas Parran said, and he added:

"Every child in America ought to be receiving this treatment."

Dr. Parran, the retiring surgeon general, made the statement to the house appropriations committee.

Representative Keefe, R. Wis., wanted to know why the preventive treatment isn't general.

Parran said there are two reasons: The information is new, and there is a shortage of dental manpower to treat the entire child population.

50-Calorie Cut Off U. S. Diet Seen for 1948

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Americans may have to trim 50 calories off their daily diets this year.

The agriculture department said so today after weighing 1948 food production possibilities.

But this reduced diet would have only one per cent fewer calories than last year's. What's more, it still would furnish almost 40 per cent more than nutritional say most people need.

The department said it looks now as though the food supply will provide 3,270 calories, on an average, in the American daily diet. Last year consumption averaged 3,320 calories. From 1935 to 1939 it averaged 3,260.

Nutritionists say the average adult doing ordinary work needs about 2,400 calories daily. Heavy workers require more.

In many other nutritional aspects, the 1948 diet will be below last year's the department predicted. It will have less protein, less fat, less thiamine, niacin and calcium. But it will contain more carbohydrates and ascorbic acid.

Real 'Dog-House'

GOSPORT, Ind., March 6 (AP)—The city fathers announced today that criminals hereafter will literally be in the doghouse.

The town has started a corral for stray dogs, and for lack of a better place they're impounded in the one-cell town jail.
