"Hunters" of 17 States Go After Snakes

OKMENE, Okla., April 8 (AP)—Twenty-five rattlesnake hunters from 17 states are starting their annual hunt for the venomous reptiles in the Oklahoma Territory today.

From more than 17 states rattlesnake hunters are arriving with their little forked sticks and bluing sticks.

For next Sunday is the ninth annual revival of that fabulous Oklahoma sporting event—the Oklahoma rattlesnake hunt.

Starting tomorrow, hunters will open a three-day convention at Okmene and nearby Enid before heading for the rocky climax of the hunt itself.

For next snakes haven't got along too well since that time in the Garden of Eden, but it's been more or less a non-go-out-of-way and Tills mine affair.

It required hot-blooded Oklahomans to lance and remove the snake's venomous fangs.

It is expected that the convention will be a success.

For past form is any guide, about 5,000 hunters will converge Sunday night on at least most of them will lug about 500 highly venomous rattlesnakes.

To catch a rattler, you have to find him before he finds you. Then you pin his head down with a forked stick. Then you get a noose over his head and gently roll him into a sack. The snake doesn't like this, and all the time it makes a noise like a ball collector at the door.

If the rattler catches you, it means a good after-dinner story for the rest of your life... maybe.

The hand-organ makes go to 2000 to study humanity from behind glass windows. The fat boys wind up as enraptured rattlesnake stick or salad. Athletic rattlers find new lives in classrooms and circles.

Last but not least, some go to medical laboratories, for the hunt is not all a game. The snakes are the only source of anti-venom serum, and also produce pain-killer for cancer victims.

And despite the popularity of a well-known folk remedy, the serum is the only reliable antidote for snake bite.

Odom Sets Africa Big Game Flights

CHICAGO, April 8 (AP)—Pilot Bill Odom said today he planned to take his $125,000 "gilt" plane to Africa within two weeks on a big game hunting trip.

He flew here last night in the big C-87, the Explorer, which he bought from the Army. He plans to make a round-the-world flight across the poles next winter. But for this he would use a surplus B-37, the air force's giant version of the Liberator.

"The only thing about the trip is that we would have to land somewhere in China probably," Odom said. "Maybe they'll forbid us there."

Paul Hoffman Clears Decks On ERP Aid

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Paul Hoffman today pitched into the job of setting up a staff to get the multi-billion dollar European recovery program into operation.

The new ERP boss has 5,000 or more job applications ready for study. But officials expect him to turn to the state department at the outset for key appointments.

In voting $5,300,000,000 to help 16 western European countries help themselves, ruled that the enterprise should be run by an agency independent of the state department. But that department is the only one with any sizable group of workers familiar with Europe's economic headaches.

One top government official commented that the ERP law permits Hoffman, as a "corporate trustee" of the people, to be free from any government agency.

Hoffman's most pressing problem is to pick a deputy agreeable to both President Truman and the Senate. Speculation has included the names of Ferdinand Eberstadt, New York banker and wartime government official, and Richard F. Allen, a Red Cross administrator who directed American winter relief for France, Italy and Austria.

Acting with unusual speed, the Senate suspended its rules yesterday to confirm Hoffman as the $2000,000,000 year recovery administrator.

Hoffman conferred afterward with Presidential Asst. John R. Stegman at the White House.

He told reporters he hopes to have at least a skeleton working organization set up within a week.

2 Combat Loaded B-29s Hop From Hawaii to Florida

MACDILL AIR FORCE BASE, Fla., April 8 (AP)—Two air force B-29s with normal combat equipment and fuel loads flew non-stop from Hawaii to Florida on a "routine" training flight last March 22, air force officers declared today.

The two big bombers took off from Hawaii on a flight intended to end at their home base here.

The two big bombers took off from MacDill Air Force Base near Panama City, Fla.

Capt. George Barnes, public relations officer at MacDill, said the air force was not "claiming any special records" although the flight was believed to be one of the longest made by the heavy bombers carrying only a normal combat fuel load of 4,500 gallons. Each plane had 200 gallons remaining in its tanks on landing.

A B-29 attached to the 30th bomb squadron and commanded by Capt. Robert H. Steinhilber of Binghamton, N. Y., covered 4,510 ground miles from Hawaii to Florida in 21 hours and 20 minutes. The other bomber, from the 31st squadron, flew 4,470 miles in 20 hours and 20 minutes.

The flight was commanded by Major Leo Lewis of Pensacola.

Solon Raps State Bureau on Denial Of Visa to Paris

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Rep. Leo Lawson, A.P.C. N.Y., rapped today the state department's denial of his passport application as an example of the book-binding mentality which now controls our government.

Lawson said, however, that he would not file legislation to force the department to turn down a passport to attend a Paris rally of supporters of the Greek guerrilla movement.

Acting Sec. of State Robert A. Lovett ruled that Lawson's statement would be contrary to the best interests of the country. The U.S. is a source of arms to Greek government forces to fight the communist-supported guerrillas.

"The state department," said Lawson, "is in effect trying to decide what books I may read, what information I may gather, by limiting where I may want to go as a congressman in search of facts."

"Before we try to teach the children of the world about brotherhood and the rights of man, we must feed, clothe and care for them. It is useless to talk of democracy to a starving child... If we desert this generation in their hour of need they will neither forgive nor forget. They will recall their sufferings and grow stunted in mind as well as in body—full of suspicion, hatred and bitterness. They will one day rule the world, and the chance for peace is small if they are not cared for."

Here in the U. S. the appeal is being conducted by American Overseas Aid—a national organization of 26 participating relief agencies. Its goal is $50,000,000. World events seem to make this final drive particularly appropriate. It comes at a time when the language of diplomacy is one of bitter words. Tension, unfriendliness and fear dictate the course of international relations. The talk is of governments, not of people—good governments and bad, governments of the enslaved, and the enslaver, and the free.

Into this atmosphere there is injected an appeal for children, and an appeal that is directed as much to children as to adults. It has no concern with politics or diplomacy. It is true, as the children's resolution says, that we cannot talk democracy into a starving child, or teach him about the brotherhood of man until we feed him. But it is likely that those who are able to help feed the hungry children will learn something of democracy and brotherhood in the process.

WHY MOUNTAIN TIME?

While talking with representatives of the Union Pacific railroad the other day, we entered into a discussion of time zones. These railroad officials raised an interesting question: Why is it that this particular section of Idaho, which extends considerably west of the general perpendicular bordering the Rocky mountain standard time zone, is not on Pacific time?

If the average person has given the matter no more consideration than we have, chances are a perusal of a map showing the dividing lines of the different time zones would be very interesting. It would be found that the entire area including Salmon, Grand Valley, Payette, empa, Boise and Twin Falls is west of the general north and south boundary line between the mountain and Pacific time belts. In other words all that portion of southern Idaho lying west of an imaginary line between Twin Falls and Salmon would be logical area to be included in the Pacific time belt. The "bulge" to the left of this general north and south line is several hundred miles wide, extending well into the state of Oregon.

No doubt there are reasons for the pronounced irregularity in the boundary line but railroad authorities suggest reasons which they believe are equally logical for having this section of Idaho on Pacific standard time. It would greatly facilitate railroad schedules, according to them, and they also believe the people would enjoy other benefits from such a change.

If you are at all interested, take a look at the map yourself. See if you can figure out why we should be included in the region that's on mountain standard time.

ANOTHER SUGGESTION

One of our readers has made a suggestion which we believe is good. He thinks there should be a meeting, open to the public, which O. J. Bothne, secretary of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, could make a complete report on his recent trip to Europe. As one of the four northwest Christmas tree representatives, who made a month-long tour of war-ravaged Germany and Austria, Mr. Bothne had an unusual opportunity to gain first hand impressions of conditions in that foreign hot-bed. It is true that he has been speaking before the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations, all of which have found his talks very interesting. But inasmuch as he represents our Chamber of Commerce, all those who contributed to the Christmas tree, and the public generally, it seems only reasonable that everyone interested should be given an opportunity to hear him report on his journey in detail. We would like to suggest that the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce make arrangements for such an occasion in the largest meeting place available at the earliest opportunity. The story which Mr. Bothne has brought back from Europe is one that all of us should hear.

Lots of things are simply remarkable until you understand them. Then they're remarkably simple.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG POT SHOTS

WASHINGTON—Republican legislative leaders on Capitol Hill are framing a statement summarizing a report of foreign news which will be virtually sure to get the pointing-with-wide portion of their 1948 presidential platform.

particular of it is to maintain a list of two years of GOP rule which would have wiped out many new deals, and excesses and strengthened the economy. It will also state that it will promise that the GOP will fund the job if given control of the executive arm of the government next November.

The party platform will headline their record of the past two years which will have played the country since the end of World War II. It will state that their importance as now listed (there may be changes, depending upon happenings between now and June) they are national defense, foreign affairs, finances, labor and federal reorganization.

With the one exception of questions involving re-arrangement and the campaign they combat overseas expansion of communism, the Vandenberg leadership will emphasize that they enacted this in the form of "constructive legislation" in the face of White House economic "obstruction."

It is expected to aggravate the division within the Democratic ranks, they will point out that they could not get the support from 50 to 100 members of the minority. That gratification reference will be a left jab at President Truman's refusal to control his party representation in his own senate.

RECOVERY—The Republicans will even attempt to depict the Truman administration of credit for the European recovery program and for the program of aid to the nation's armed forces for possible war with Russia.

The GOP will argue that the original Marshall plan would have been nothing more than a national WPA. They will maintain that, as revised in a budgetary arrangement with the Federal Reserve, the plan was the guiding consideration in advancing aid to European and other countries.

They will charge that President Truman neglected such areas as aviation, the atom bomb, stockpiling of atomic weapons, the development of space, atomic units and scientific developments, in his recent requests for military expansion. They expect to increase appropriations to $100 million beyond his figures.

They will also charge that they must assume the offensive on this issue because of their prospective refusal to install universal military training, and their lenient decision to approve only a limited draft system.

VACILLATION—On the general question of checking communism at home and abroad, the President's opposition will maintain that they took the initiative in forming the policy of opposing Joe Stalin, and in forcing Mr. Truman to agree to "red" from government employ.

On the local level, they will charge that they will make the charge of "vacillation," citing our attitude toward Palestine, China, Spain and the Scandinavian countries. They will charge that they were the only attitude which forced both President Truman and Secretary Marshall to adopt a firmer stand on these international issues.

They will, of course, mention such GOP-ers as Senator Vandenberg, Rep. Charles A. Eaton, N. J.; Rep. Christian A. Hester, Mass.; Karl Mundt, R. D.; James W. Westmoreland, R. X.; John F. Dulles, and former Sen. Warren Austin, Vt., and exalt their contributions to the administration's management of foreign affairs.

LABOR—The domestic issues on which the Republicans will make their strongest points will be the White House deal with his handling of labor and financial problems. Assuming that the world crisis during the campaign months, they figure that these bread-and-butter questions will command the voters' liveliest interest.

IT'S STILL MINING

A discussion came up the other day about what is being done if he were a Russian and attempted to pull some of the little tricks he has pulled in the past. One of our readers pointed out that John L. probably would end up in the hands of the FBI after his first attempt.

Probably the most logical question touched in the "column" part of the discussion was that John would still be a miner even in Russia. The only answer was in the product. If he were in Russia, he'd be mining salt in a Siberian salt mine.

"WASHINGTON CALLING" BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Administering the huge European recovery program will take a staff of about 800 in this country and approximately the same number abroad. Even before the No. 1 and No. 2 men get organized the drive has begun to recruit this force.

Immediately the question of clearance for loyalty comes up. It is increasingly with spread of fear and suspicion in the public mind, this becomes an obstacle in the state department area of the opinion of the government.

As spelled out in the EITP bill that obstacle looks particularly tough. It is a beautiful example of the lack of confidence which seems to plague congress.

Under the loyalty provision of the bill, there is a period of grace of three months when members of the staff may go to work. This is a modification of the language put in by the house, which specified that no one could be employed at all without first undergoing a loyalty check and certification.

On Vacation Westrook Pegler is on vacation until April 27. During his absence the Washington Column columns of Marquis Childs will appear in the space usually occupied by Pegler's column.

Both in the state department and the FBI, there was a great sense of relief when the three-month grace period was substituted.

There is still, however, a big hurdle in the loyalty provision. All employees must be investigated during the three-month grace period. They cannot be retained after that time except on the following terms: Unless such individual has been investigated as to loyalty and security by the federal bureau of investigation and a report thereon has been made to the secretary of state.

and the administrator, and until the secretary of state or the administrator has certified in writing and filed copies thereof with the senate committee on foreign relations and the house committee on foreign affairs that after full consideration of such report he believes such individual is loyal to the United States. It is certification and form of government and is not now and has never been a member of any organization advocating the overthrow of the government.

The catch word in the above is "believe." Legal advisers in the state department are of the opinion that this means the secretary or the administrator must personally vouch for the loyalty of each individual employee.

That appeared to be the view of members of congress who wrote the provision into law. They wanted a guarantee from the top man.

Ordinarily, of course, certification of loyalty after a thorough FBI investigation would be delegated to an administrative assistance. In the state department this responsibility falls on John E. Peurifoy, assistant secretary for administration. But Peurifoy's head adviser has informed him that in this instance, because of the language in the EITP act, Secretary Marshall could not have his assistant act for him.

Even if the secretary and the administrator should divide the task, it would put a great burden on 13 men who already have far too much to do. To look over several hundred FBI reports and personally vouch for that number of employees would consume the invaluable time of officials charged with top responsibility for American foreign policy.

At the same time a heavy new burden is placed on the outer office of the FBI. Under President Truman's loyalty order the FBI has thus far checked 1,400,000 government employees, with nearly 400,000 still to go. The FBI must clear all employees of all applicants for work with the atomic energy commission.

The budget bureau cut the FBI from the $50,000,000 requested by the central intelligence office. This means that the number of agents will be reduced by 413 on

State Oleo Sales Continuing High

DOISE, April 8 (UP)—Oleomargarine sales are continuing at high peak. State Dairy Director Lester Hendrix said today.

Hendrix said the $34,717.65 in stamps and $16,670.50 in licenses sold the first three months of this year is four times greater than for a corresponding period a year ago.

The state takes uncollected oleo at the rate of five cents a pound and the colored variety at 10 cents a pound.

Sugar Beet Contest Sponsored by Bank

IDAHO FALLS, April 8 (UP)—The American National bank of Idaho, Falls will again sponsor a best-sugar beet contest for farm youths in eastern Idaho.

The bank said it would award prizes totaling $15. The contest is open to boys and girls under 16. Last year, Jack Eames, 16, Menah, won the grand prize for growing 28.6 tons of beets on a measured acre.

Army's Commands Changed for West

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8 (UP)—Sixth army headquarters yesterday announced three new military districts to replace existing military commands in eight western states.

Gen. Mark W. Clark, commanding general of sixth army, said the new commands will result in closer army supervision of national guard, organized reserve and ROTC units.

The southern district headquarters will be at Fort MacArthur, Los Angeles. The central district at the Presidio, San Francisco, and the northern district at Portland, Ore.

Finance Plan Wedding Sold By Ex-GI, 28

DEVELOP. April 8 (AP)—Love's helping hand in this leap year of pursuing women is Weddings, Inc., which will marry the groom for the finance plan and give you 12 months to pay the bill.

Robert Ostloff, 28, got the idea while he sweated out four months of delay overseas in marrying the Polish girl who is now his wife. He discovered that "saying 'I do'" costs a long, tiresome and expensive process.

Finances Set Up Ostloff's answer is "marriage on the finance plan." The couple decide how much they want to spend, and Weddings, Inc., takes over from there.

A finance company underwrites the bills for Weddings, Inc. and the bridegroom pays back the money in 12 monthly installments.

However, Ostloff recommends a list of firms where the bride may shop. If she wishes, she may accept recommendations of Weddings, Inc. Ostloff gets a commission—ranging from three to 15 per cent—from the store.

"The average couple," Ostloff reports, "will spend about $50 on a wedding. For that amount, they get a small church affair. The bride's gown costs about $20, the rings $100, and the rest goes for flowers, a cake, gifts, photos and refreshments for the reception."

To reach young couples hovering near the brink of matrimony—but hesitating because of a busted bank account—Weddings, Inc., has a near-midnight radio show of romantic music.

"We figure they will be holding hands on the sofa about that time and thinking about how they'd like to be married," Ostloff reasons.

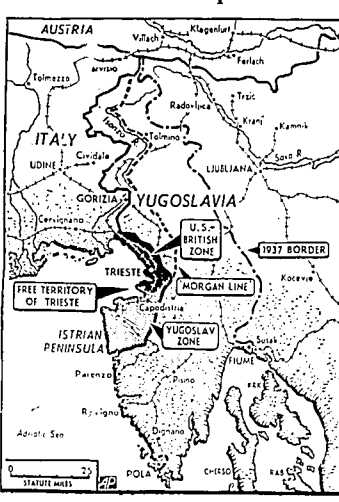

"Then we suggest how the finance plan. It's a cinch."

MacArthur Makes Short Statement On Vote Returns

TOKYO, April 8 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur issued a short statement on the Wisconsin election today but remained uncommittal on whether he intended to withdraw from the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

He said the Wisconsin primary gave the people of the state a chance to speak their minds but he declined direct comment on the results, which gave him only eight of the state's 27 delegates.

"Predatory Interests" in West Flayed as League Opens Parley

CHICAGO, April 8 (AP)—A fight to protect western lands from "predatory interests" shaped up at the prime business of the Inank Watten League convention today.

Kenneth A. Reid, League executive director, said the program to be developed at the 26th annual convention will cover the dust bowl, grazing lands and forest lands. The convention will close Saturday.

He identified as "predatory interests" 100-200 night "outcast farmers" who are looking for quick profits from the booming grain markets; the American National Livestock association, a cattlemen's group; and the National Wool Growers' association, a sheepmen's organization.

He said all for free enterprise, Reid said in an interview. "But free enterprise produced the dust bowl of the mid-1930s. We're now building a western dust bowl that will make the mid-1930s look like peanuts."

"Sulfate farmers trying to make a killing on the high forest watershed—and if you graze and log that off, it won't control water anymore that does a lin root."

"The cattle and sheep men's associations, Reid said, 'are trying to entangle the conservation services through forcing appropriation cuts and then howling about 'bureaucratic inefficiency.'"

"They want to get control of the bureau rather than the land so they can have clear way to over-graze and deforest the western countryside of our nation."

Contracts Given On Construction At Grand Coulee

COULÉE DAM, Wash., April 8 (AP)—The bureau of reclamation today awarded a $2,252,229 construction contract and Grand Coulee dam to Peter Ricourt sons of Omaha, Neb., and the Morrison-Kimball company of Seattle and Iowa.

The firms submitted the low bid jointly for a new central-city building, a city hall and companion structures at the huge dam.

The east control-bay powerhouse, the largest hydroelectric power plant ever operating in the world, is being prepared to hold the first $10,000,000-watt generating unit in the world.

The new east powerhouse will be installed on the east side of the dam.

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—A "number of Russians" working for the U. S. government's Information service in Moscow have disappeared.

House Committee Clears Action on Alaska State Bill

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Delegate Bartlett of Alaska today said the house committee approval of the Alaska statehood bill today as a "real victory for those who believe Alaska as proper as it should only if it becomes a state."

But the bill has a long and possibly tedious path to travel before it becomes law and Alaska is admitted as a state. It must first be approved by the house rules committee and then by the house.

From there it goes to the senate interior committee which probably will order hearings held on the measure. If and when that committee approves the measure, it must be passed by the senate.

Nebraskans' Vote Sought by Dewey

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 8 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, N. Y., picked his political tent in this Nebraska city last night and launched a fighting two-day campaign to win the state's presidential "popularity" primary.

Dewey flew here from Albany, En route he learned definitely he had been almost blanketed out in Wisconsin's primary election. But he wrote it off as the least of only one round in a long battle for the Republican presidential nomination.

Dewey lieutenant believe the governor will run well in Nebraska and thereby offset some of the bad psychological effect of the Wisconsin route, where he trailed Harold E. Stassen and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Solons Handed Responsibility On Road Fund

IDAHO FALLS, April 8 (UP)—It is up to the legislature to find more money for road building, Gov. C. Robina told highway delegations here at Blackfoot yesterday.

The governor said the legislature must consider higher registration fees for motor vehicles and added that money for road building is a consideration from the federal government in matching of highway funds.

Big Federal Holdings
Robina pointed out that 70 per cent of Idaho land is owned by the federal government.

The governor, Public Works Commissioner E. W. Hinchel and Highway Director James Reid met with the highway delegations in Blackfoot and Idaho Falls.

At Blackfoot, the Idaho Falls group he could see no reason why Blackfoot-Teton pass road, now designated as U. S. 30 alternate, should not be retitled "U. S. 29 south."

"I am well aware," said the governor, "that municipalities are cutting centers of the state without traveling into it."

At Blackfoot, the governor told delegations from Challis, Arco, Mackay, Aberdeen, Firth, Shelly, Blackfoot and Pocatello that they must adopt an adequate highway financing program.

Tolls of Need
He said "something must be done about the $5 flat fee license for passenger cars and the gasoline tax."

However, he pointed out that the gasoline tax had been raised "over and over and still funds are woefully short."

The delegations were assured that the Yellowstone highway would be mended but not widened to a four-lane road. The highway officials said U. S. 30 from Blackfoot to Arco would be mended but not widened. And they said funds have been allocated for construction of a new bridge across the Snake river at Pahr.

U. S. Investigates Brother, Asserts Taylor in Senate

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Sen. Glen Taylor of Idaho told the senate Wednesday that his brother is being investigated for no good reason. He also said: "I strongly believe this country is headed for fascism."

Taylor said his brother, Paul, a California railroad man, is being investigated by the FBI, the house un-American activities committee and the Tenny committee, California state counterpart of the house group.

"There is no reason to investigate him," Taylor told his colleagues in a one-hour speech. "He does not work for the government. He is not seeking public office."

"He is being investigated simply because he is a brother of Glen Taylor, senator from Idaho, candidate for vice president on the Henry A. Wallace ticket."

"It is a sad commentary. We are not far from a police state."

POPPA BAKER (Member NAFPM) SAYS

IDAHO MAID POPCORN Idaho Corn Crown In Idaho by Idaho Farmers

"The said that you never get to old to learn, but I never thought a guy could hear so many scholarly (?) discourses handed to me on such a small subject as corn popping popcorn. Since this column made its first appearance a week ago as 'Pop O' Corn' many people have questioned me with a lack of amusement and a genuine concern of my sanity as to what gain there is in advertising—spending money, mind you—in advertising such a common, humble thing as popcorn.

I tell 'em anything that is good and you know it's good — like we know Poppa Baker's Idaho Maid popcorn is good — is worth talking about; advertising about it, yes, even bragging a little about it. Bill Wrigley Jr. only had a nickel pack of gum to sell, but it was good gum and today the whole world knows it. That "Buz" Thomas told me my popcorn ad was OK except I forgot to say one thing: "Buz" know "Buz", don't you? "Buz" know Coca-Cola got together just like a box of high golden Poppa Baker's Idaho Maid popcorn and a cold bottle of Coca-Cola mix good together. "Buz" said I forgot to tell you about my "popcorn diploma."

"That 'diploma' is a certificate of membership in NAFPM—National Association of Popcorn Manufacturers, and I think about the only one in Idaho. Not just being a member of NAFPM doesn't make your popcorn any better than the other fellow's, but thru that membership you are kept posted right up to date on the latest and constantly improved methods and means of making the best popcorn that can be made—and we claim in Poppa Baker's Idaho Maid popcorn we have the best. ### Students Sought By Water Agency For Basin Posts

BOISE, April 8 (UP)—The bureau of reclamation will soon begin a campaign of northwest schools for engineering students to work in the Columbia basin.

Victor Buchheit, bureau of reclamation personnel director, said a school-recreation company will be constituted to offer engineering students either full or part time work on bureau projects.

He said between 350 and 400 student engineers will be recruited. Recruits will be in all branches of engineering will be open with starting salaries ranging from $2,200 to $400 per year.

These studying civil, mechanical, electrical or general engineering are particularly desired, he said.

He explained that students with sophomore and junior standing will be given on-the-job training during the summer months, and will be able to go directly into their professional fields after graduation.

Representatives of the bureau will visit the University of Idaho during the week of April 10-14, Rutherford said.

2 Actions Move To Bolster Italy

WASHINGTON, April 8 (UP)—Italy got (A) a "manifesto of peace" and (B) a chance to win a prize in a trans-Atlantic radio show today from Americans interested in the April 10 Italian elections.

The two actions were independent. A group including Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and CIO Pres. Philip Murray dispatched the "manifesto of peace" to Italian premier Alcide De Gasperi.

They declared "the American people are proud to reaffirm the strong bonds that have always existed and always must exist between the people of Italy and ourselves. The signs also said they are with the Italian people 'wholeheartedly in their struggle to maintain their freedom and their dignity in a world that is again darkened with the threat of oppression and slavery.'"

Rising Trend of Price Index Is In Third Week

CHICAGO, April 8 (UP)—A rising trend in commodity prices carried into its third week yesterday.

Grains, livestock and cotton joined in the upsurge.

The Associated Press weighted wholesale price index of 35 commodities, which uses 1926 prices as 100, gained .45 of a point to 156.71. The index has been inching upwards since touching a seven-month low point of 154.40 on March 23.

On the New York Stock exchange, prices were irregular. Although some railroad favorites hit new 1938 highs, losses outnumbered advances in trading as a whole.

On the Chicago Board of Trade, wheat for future delivery closed 1/4 to 1/2 cents a bushel higher.

Uranium Find Causing Rush Up to Canada

FLIN FLON, Man., April 8 (AP)—More than 80 claims have been staked in the rocky hills around this town in the first week of a uranium rush that has brought here prospectors flocking here by airplane with geiger counters in their knapsacks. Smooth-faced nuclear physicists have taken the place of the old time grizzled miners in this modern day version of the Klondike gold rush of 50 years ago.

"Fewer" Victims
But the fortune-seekers who have hurried to Flin Flon hoping to find the material which atomic bombs are made are just as hopeful of getting rich-quick as were their grandfathers who sought silver and gold.
Airplanes loaded with wildcat prospectors, diamond drillers, geologists and speculators have arrived daily since Prospectors George Branscombe and John McCrellan announced a week ago that they had struck uranium in the hills north of here.
Filed 18 Claims
The two actually discovered the valuable atomic mineral only a year ago, but for some reason the government delayed the announcement until last week. They have filed 18 claims in the region.
Claim seekers have staked out most of the territory surrounding the location of the strike since the announcement.
Prices are soaring in this community. A 12,000 carload of uranium established 17 years ago by the Hudson Bay company. Supplies are hard to come by in the north.
The nearest big city is Winnipeg, 300 miles to the south.

Modern, Primitive
Flin Flon is a curious mixture of modern and primitive. Houses of modern design are being built. Sidewalks are built along the top of sewer pipes which are laid above the ground. Streets are so difficult to bury them in the hard rock.
However, the Flin Flon Chamber of Commerce is active and hopes that the uranium rush may be the means of building the population to 25,000. A golf course has been laid out on an old lake-bottom. More than $1,000,000 worth of business already is done each year in the 30 stores, saloons and restaurants. It gets so cold here that the light bulbs must be kept burning 24 hours a day. If they are turned off the filaments freeze and break.

BURLEY, April 8 (AP)—Funeral services for Carl M. Johnson, former Burley police chief, were held at 4 p. m. Monday in the Presbyterian church with the Rev. Martin Crabb officiating.
Mary Barclay, accompanied by her mother, sang the hymn "The Lord Is My Shepherd." The Rev. Mr. Crabb gave the prayer, obituary and sermon. Members of the Burley Masonic lodge gave the burial.
Honorary pallbearers were G. T. Love, J. H. Love, N. C. Hatch, Jack Burke, D. Stephenson, W. W. Williams, F. P. Pace, Clarence Phillips, Loren Lewis and Dr. C. W. Kear.
Active pallbearers were A. H. Clayton, Otto Paulson, W. L. Turner, J. J. Burgess, William H. Thompson and H. H. Kisman.
Members of the Job's Daughters were in charge of flowers, with Mrs. J. H. Plank in charge. Burial was made in the Masonic plot of the Burley cemetery.

Wallace Declares He'll Stay in Race
PORTLAND, Ore., April 8 (AP)—The Democratic national committee chairman last night characterized Henry A. Wallace as "talking the same language, with the same reasoning," as Communist Earl Browder.
Sen. J. Howard McGrath, R. I., the chairman, in a speech before a Jefferson-Jackson day meeting in the civic auditorium, also was critical of Sen. Robert Taft, R. O. Taft, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, who was quoted as saying he hoped for information of any Russian intention for military aggression.
"If he knows the facts," McGrath said, "he certainly would be advocating rather than opposing such measures of American preparedness as universal military training."
It was against Wallace—and Russia—that the rest of the speech was leveled.

Propaganda Push Unity Is Possible
WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—The state department was reported last night to be considering a proposal for an organization of western nations jointly to counter Russian propaganda in Europe.
It would be a sort of counter-organization to combat the efforts of the organization of Soviet satellites which is coordinating anti-western moves.
Diplomatic informants said such a proposal was made by John Foster Dulles, a leading Republican spokesman on foreign affairs to Secretary of State Marshall.

Russ-Finland Pact Seen as Move on Italy

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
The new Russo-Finland mutual-aid treaty has been described by leading Finnish politicians as cementing the little Baltic republic tighter into the eastern bloc but preserving the country's sovereignty.

Mackenzie

On the face of it that would seem to be no cause for concern. Here is no question about Finland being firmly bound to Russia. However, because of the fact it strikes no one the wish is father to the thought that the treaty is freedom-just as it may have been in the case of the fiercely independent states of Estonia, Romania, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia. Look at them now, sweating under the Soviet yoke!
Anyway, let's examine this latest Russian move more carefully and not rush to conclusions.
In the first place, why should Moscow drop cave-nim tactics in dealing with Finland? Well, for one thing the Finns likely would prefer to see their country rather than accept servitude by treaty—and the bolsheviks can't afford to stir up a conflict of that sort at this critical juncture.
The common law of Czechoslovakia is still a horridly subject of anxious discussion about the frontiers of western Europe, and the Finns want to let the matter die under the Soviet yoke.
The Scandinavian countries of Sweden and Norway, lying close to Finland, are on edge. So is the Baltic republic of Estonia.
Then, too, the Muscovites are anxious to put their best side forward for the benefit of the Italian commonists in the forthcoming national election. Control of Italy is a stick with which to beat the Germans in her drive to combine western Europe and thus dominate the entire continent. In lesser degree this also is true of France.
So Moscow is using Finland as a mirror to reflect the state of Soviet jurisdiction and thereby building momentum to what is going on. Actually the nature of the Russo-Finland treaty doesn't alter one iota the fact that Moscow can take over the little country any time it wants to.

Soggy Fairways May Drop Masters Scores

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 6 (AP)—Soggy fairways led to the prediction Wednesday that golfers will finish under par in the Masters golf tournament which starts Thursday.

Since the formal practice round started Sunday, it has been evident that the name of the weather will have the advantage over the 6,800-yard National country club course, leading that list is Chuck Harbert.

There has been little or no rain in the past few days and wind to the west will turn the tide.

Generally, it is agreed that a score of 214 will be good enough to win. Bobby Locke, the South African star and one of the top players among those playing that four-under par total at 210.

Harbert, besides being the game's leading hitter, has had a 10-0 record in practice series. He posted 65, 66 and 69 on separate occasions and then played nine holes in 31, five under par.

Besides Harbert, others entered who are noted for their driving prowess are Sam Snead, Skipper and Ed Kink Alexander.

Rice and Sam Boyd will open the 72-hole competition Thursday for the field of 57 when they tee off at 8 a. m. (EST). The final round of the $10,000 event in which Demaret is the defending champion, is set for Sunday.

MARTIN ENDS AMATEUR CAREER

Paul "Pepper" Martin, Twin Falls lightweight will go into the ring as an amateur on the 10th of this Saturday night when he clashes with Stanley Noble, Postcillo AAU champion, in Jerome Tuesday afternoon at the American Legion's amateur boxing card.

Martin has sent for his professional license and said he expected to receive it by the 15th of this month. He is the only 135 pounder who in four trips to the Tournament of Champions in Chicago has won seven of eleven bouts is confident of a victory over Noble.

In spite of "surface cuts" received in a gang fight following a bout at which he would be ready to fight Saturday night.

Martin's decision to fight brought a 15 to 10 bet on the card as the Postcillo club said they may bring a heavyweight to Twin Falls.

Ticket proceeds from the fight will be used by the Legion to replace a deficit incurred in sending fighters to the Chicago Golden Gloves tournament and in conducting the tournament in Twin Falls.

Frank Stanger, promoting the fight for the Legion, said Wednesday that there would probably be 15 to 20 men on the card as the Postcillo club said they may bring a heavyweight to Twin Falls.

"If they do," said Stanger, "we have a good match for him." Tickets to the fight are $2.50 for reserved seats, $1.25 general admission. Reserved seats tickets are available at Trolinger Drug and Hardware, 100 N. Main.

General admission tickets may be obtained at D. W. Co. Hardware, 100 N. Main. The Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce is cooperating with the veterans organization in selling the tickets.

1948's Circus Season Opens In Manhattan

NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)—A puttynosed clown stepped into the spotlight center of the arena, tried to dust off a big globe of the world, shook his head, gave it up as too big a mess—and the big show was on.

It was the 1948 opener of the "greatest show on earth"—the Hinging Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus at Madison Square garden. If there was anything missing from this year's edition of brasserie, beans and brass-band rattle-dance, nobody noticed it.

There were jockeys who jugged each other, ironists who acted as if they wanted to eat their trousers, acrobats with tin ribs, and a packed house of 14,000 to see them. Costumes still had the starch in them, the clowns were full of vitality, the elephants were fat, the girls pretty and the people who watched were happy about it all.

The first-night show had a few slips, spills and stumbles. In one bareback riding performance, three alpacas galloped and a man fell in a heap. A horse stepped in the middle of them, but all got up unharmed. The show runs here until May 15 before it begins its country-wide tour.

Fur Farmers Ask Labeling For Fur Coats

By ROGER D. GREENE
WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Now you take that gorgeous blond in the mink coat.
Or is it?
That's the question American fur farmers want to settle, they told congress.
They don't care whether the blond is really a blond or her business. But they insisted that furs should be unmistakably labeled.
Joseph H. Francis, secretary of the national board of fur farm organizations, explained it this way to the house commerce committee:
"Fur is one of our oldest products, but most Americans don't know one fur from another—and they're getting to know less each year because of the confusion over mislabeled products."
The result, he said, is chaos in the multi-million-dollar fur industry. And the husband who thinks he's buying his wife (it says here) a mink coat may be getting something that used to hop around the lawn on Easter Sunday.

Examples Given
For example, Francis went on: "You'd think New Zealand seal would be real, wouldn't you? It's rabbit skin from New Zealand. And a blue dyed cone is just a red rabbit. That's French. Coney is a French name for rabbit."
"Let's take a mink. Mink is an ermine dyed cone. That sounds like something, doesn't it? Same answer. It's a blue dyed cone and a rabbit."
Francis testified in support of a bill by Representative O'Hara, R., Minn., which would require furs to be tagged according to its true origin, under penalty of $5,000 fine or one year in prison.

Norway Important to Hemisphere Defense

With red seizure of Czechoslovakia, Russia's demand for a military aid pact with Finland and propaganda pressure against Norway the USSR seems to be turning from political expansion to gaining control of areas of key military importance. Map shows strategic importance of Norway to U. S. Hemisphere defense. In addition, Russia fears Norway's rugged coastline could be a landing area for western powers in case of war.

U. S. Warned On Losses of Valuable Soil

CHICAGO, April 8 (AP)—A conservationist warned Uncle Sam today that his skin is wearing thin.
The skin he was talking about is dirt, the rich black topsoil from which the grains and grasses that have fed a sizable chunk of the world three past few years.
Kenneth A. Reid, executive secretary of the Isaac Walton League of America, said that rain and snow have "ground away three inches of soil since our country was founded, and that there is only six inches left."
"Curtains for America!" he said. "Our descendants won't have enough dirt to plant turnips. And that would be curtains for America."
The league of which he is an official opens its 25th annual convention here today. Soil conservation will be one of its principal subjects.
Reid said U. S. conservation department figures show billions of tons of top soil are carried into the ocean by streams and give throughout the nation.
Saved by Conservation
"All but a fraction of this could be saved by smart conservation," he said. "The American people must wake up to the need of saving soil or the ground will wash out from under them."
Soil erosion means the loss of corn in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois; less wheat in Oklahoma and Kansas; smaller dairy output in Wisconsin and Minnesota, he pointed out.
"Our top soil is more than just dirt," he said. "It is the measure of our nation's wealth. It not only supplies crops, but it determines the quality of our livestock and inland fish."

'Break,' Finally

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, April 8 (AP)—Things just had to get better for Mrs. Josephine Chantilly. Two weeks ago she slipped on some ice and broke an ankle. While climbing stairs on her crutches last Thursday, she fell and broke an arm.
Today in St. Joseph's hospital, Mrs. Chantilly said she has been notified she is one of four persons who will inherit $22,000 each—after taxes—from a great uncle, James Price of San Francisco.
She saw him once during his life—25 years ago.

Vote Posters Put up Over Most of Italy

ROME, April 8 (AP)—If you want to put that poster up, you'll have to get in line.
That quip exaggerates but still indicates the frenzy with which major Italian political parties and blocs are using paste pots and posters to appeal Italian voters in the last weeks before they choose their first postwar parliament.
In the principal squares of Rome, Milan, Turin and Bologna and in smaller cities and towns, the whole length of Italy, posters blossom day after day, are mutilated by opposition workers and grow, one atop the other, to the thickness of a lampshade.
Campaigner Francesco Cossiga, thus far campaigning has been peaceful compared with the two preceding months of 1947 in which more than a score were killed in political disorders. But no holds are barred in posters.
America and the Catholic church are favored subjects of the communitarian poster front.
In Rome's noted Piazza Colonna Galleria, a dramatic display of Christian Democrat and pro-American posters dominates pillars, too high to be torn down.
"U. S. Aid Will Help!" "American aid," says the red, white and blue posters, "will help us help ourselves."
But popular front broadsides—both printed and hand painted—tell a different tale.
One shows a statue of liberty enveloped in fire flames and holding aloft an atomic bomb. It tells Ital-

U. S. Heading for 'Biggest Bust' of All, Goss Avers

LOS ANGELES, April 8 (AP)—The United States is headed for the biggest depression ever, Albert B. Goss, master of the National Grange, said here yesterday.
"We are piling up a new abnormal food surplus as soon as we stop furnishing tremendous credits to Europe, we will have another collapse of our economy," Goss told an insurance group.
"Instead of a depression of the scope of 1929 and thereafter, we will have one so tremendous that it could possibly plunge the world into one of its darkest periods. Communism could flood over the world at this time," the farmer spokesman said.
His suggested antidote for the gloomy forecast: Put Europe back on its feet industrially as well as agriculturally; establish stable prices on the world market.

The other was the Idaho Pottery Council, incorporated by Marshall Jones, Idaho Falls; Joe Jon, Caldwell; R. W. Albright, Julietta; Ray P. Storey, Nampa; E. L. Varaz, Caldwell; O. W. Lindemo, Twin Falls; and Charles Zeigler, Idaho Falls.

School Help Bill Gets Safeguards

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—Safeguards preventing state operation of schools have been written into the Senate bill, Sen. Henry Dvorzhak, R., Ind., said yesterday.
Dvorzhak, who was one of 58 senators voting for the bill, said "safeguards" to preserve the home rule theory of state operation of schools have been carefully written into the measure.
"Because of the wide divergence of national rates of literacy," Dvorzhak said, "the federal government should assume a portion of the responsibility to provide greater equality of educational opportunity."
The school aid bill passed the Senate April 7.

The suit charged that Evans struck the Flandro car with his truck after going through a stop sign in Malad. The accident occurred on highway 61.

Nichols Finds Fishing Trip Flop, for Him

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—It was one of the nicest days since the snow melted.

A frisky wind was flogging the skirts of the gals and blowing the Hemlocks off the trees. The men folks. But the sun beat down hard enough to fry the eggs for even the score.

The congressman had called on the phone to park the gear and would all go fishing. He had to chain bridge on the rock-jacked trailer of the District of Columbia.

It sounded like it might make an interesting piece for the paper. A chance to report how a congressman without any pockets in his suit handles the trout and and own gimmicks a little better when fishing.

Solon Calls

Clare Hoffman, Mich., was the gent on the phone. He knew darn well he was almost twice my age and just wanted to rub it in. He said he'd bring the lunch and a couple of his lovely secretaries to bait hooks. As if that would tempt me. He just wanted to show up a kid.

So we loaded Mr. H's car with fishing stuff and two of the lovely secretaries (both small hook baiters and both named Helen) and away we went. I rue the day. I have a cast net.

At length we arrived at the bridge and started the long climb to the fishing grounds. Part was across chain bridge and then down a flight of wooden steps. The trail led to a path to a patched up rock fence and me in my best cut and shoes. Over that and across the hill we had dredged rocks and then all of a sudden—you wouldn't believe—it was a hole in the ground. The remnants of winter. We have had dry after days of over 70. Still the ice remains. One long last the fishing grounds—40 rods this side of where you have to buy a license. The congressman no pockets, unprepared. He had no bait he had been carrying and—pockets. In the form of a swell jacket. Pockets all around, including in the back.

Good Fisherman

Mr. Hoffman is the greatest hand ever saw for doing without pockets when "on stage." He has only one. The hip pocket. He has a cast net and a fishing net and a cast net and a fishing net and a cast net and a fishing net.

So we started to fish. The two Helens that names Dilog and Boyer were baiting hooks like crazy. The man Nichols soon dropped out of the race, but not Mr. Hoffman. The baked potatoes sent a cloud of steam toward the rock where he was casting. Ditto the hot dogs. And the carrots, cooked on the rocks.

As the sun up above indicated six o'clock and it was about time we all went home. The 72-year-old gentleman from Michigan said he reckoned so. But about that time, he hooked one. That nothing, a swell story—about congress best fishermen who went out to show off and couldn't catch a fish.

This story could go on and on.

He went.

Clare Hoffman caught a bushel of fish. The gals and I baked pots to sifter potato.

Hostesses For District Music Meet

Magic Valley Music Festival Set for Burley on April 22-23

BURLEY, April 8—Plans are being completed this week for another district music festival to be held in Burley April 22 and 23 with high schools from throughout Magic Valley participating.

Halls Grauge, Burley high school music instructor, will have charge of local arrangements, assisted by Earl Carlson, high school principal. The festival is sponsored by the South Central Idaho Music Educators association, of which Richard Smith, Twin Falls, is president.

Program announced that instrumental and vocal solo and small ensemble group contests will be held April 22, while April 23 will be devoted to large groups, such as bands, orchestras and chorus contests.

Dr. Clair Johnson, Vester college, will judge the vocal numbers.

China's Assembly Votes New Power

NANKING, April 8 (AP)—National Assembly, rejecting strict constitutional limits to their powers, today voted themselves authority to "advise and question" China's government.

They delayed, meanwhile, their predicted nomination of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek as president.

Today's resolution seemed aimed at converting the assembly into a super advisory body, although China's new constitution gives it authority only to elect or recall the president and vice president and to amend the constitution.

Election of the president is expected next Sunday or Monday.

The draft Chiang movement sprang up after the long-time leader of China announced he did not want to continue as president.

Europe's monastic movement started in Egypt.
