Report Fails to Set Liquor Dearth Blame

No one in particular was blamed for the disappearance of 42 bottles of liquor evidence in a report submitted Friday to Twin Falls county commissioner by Sheriff Brod R. Rayburn.

The report states the sheriff's belief that this case should be handled no differently than any other case where the investigation progress and methods are not usually revealed. The commissioners expressed themselves as generally satisfied with the sheriff's report. They indicated their regret the matter could not be cleared up more quickly but pointed out such matters take time.

The sheriff's report states he first suspected "trust prisoners" and is still working on that phase of the case. Disappearance of only cheap liquor implies it was taken for purposes other than drinking, his report continues.

Later in the report, the sheriff states he has some evidence that the liquor was taken as a political bribe. The report also states the sheriff's investigators are determining if there was any connection between the liquor loss and the loss of his apartment, missing from his apartment in the county house.

When questioned by a Times-News reporter, the sheriff did not elaborate on details of purposes for which liquor might have been taken, what political implications are involved or what possible connection there is between the missing liquor and the missing apartment.

Following is the complete text of the sheriff's report: "In response to your recent inquiry as to whether I could make a report on my investigation of the missing liquor, I am submitting the following information in the belief that this is accurate and that it may be of some help to you."

When I first found the lock to the liquor room broken and the door was broken into I called you down to the apartment. The purpose was to get a look over the door to see if the door had been broken into from the outside. As you know at that time I was not in the apartment and I am not sure if it was the same person who broke into the apartment. At that time I had the following information: (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

WENDELL, May 22—The transportation of a family of three from the lowlands of Holland to Magic Valley was completed when a 6-year-old Dutch girl joined her mother and father after a 5,500-mile air trip from her native country. The blue-eyed girl, Wilma Neumann, who first emerged at the airport of a plane in Boise was (in Dutch), "Look at the mountain!" she cried as she stepped out of the plane. She was greeted by her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas, who had been waiting for her at the airport. Overjoyed at being able to see outdoors of red tape and gain a passport on an airliner to bring the family together, the LaBordets said they are prepared to stay a "long, long time" on the Berkswort ranch where they are employed.

DeWEy Registers Triumph Over Stassen in Important Primary Voting in Oregon

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The victory by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the Oregon primary threatened today to apply the brakes on long-planned Dewey-Stassen drive for the GOP presidential nomination. With 82 per cent of the precincts reported on counting stopped for the night, Dewey's lead had increased to 6,621 votes. The tally was Dewey 92,316, Stassen 85,695 in 1,630 of the state's 1,861 precincts.

Stassen announced he had wired congratulations to Dewey. Dewey himself said he was "happy" over the returns but delayed victory celebrations.

Most politicians here said Stassen lost in Oregon the chance to start again the bandwagon that rolled out of the Wisconsin and Nebraska primaries but which slowed in Ohio.

Nevertheless, Stassen announced plans to campaign in Illinois, Missouri, Massachusetts and the south before concentrating at home. He will double our efforts to gain support for a sound liberal program in the November, 1948, campaign.

First Since March If the trend in Oregon continued, Dewey would be able to chalk up a margin of around 10,000 votes in his first primary victory since March. In New Hampshire that month he set Stassen down with two delegates and took 61 himself. Oregon's 12 convention nominating votes would give Dewey a total of 64 fully pledged delegates.

Stassen himself will call on the new York state legislature to set the date for the next primary election on Saturday, June 5. Dewey will have the advantage of a 60-day campaign in the state before the election on June 5. Dewey will have the advantage of a 60-day campaign in the state before the election on June 5.

Reclamation Association Favors Extension of Project Repayments

BOISE, May 22 (AP)—The Idaho State Reclamation association today went on record approving legislation for the extension of reclamation project repayments. Earlier in the day Maurice H. Greene, Boise, chairman of the water users committee of the National Reclamation association, had said the present period of repayment places "an economic straightjacket on the water users."

He said "we must have a method of extending the payoff period for reclamation projects," adding that the present payment period for water users is 40 years.

Other resolutions passed by the association included urging legislation to set up a code of control for use of underground water supplies. Ascertaining that supplemental water for land under cultivation should not be put over putting new land under irrigation.

Meat plants throughout the country have industry sources forecasted that the strike will end by May 23.

Soviet "Peace Move" Seems To Be Fading

WASHINGTON, May 27.—An American official said today that Russia's "peace offensive" appears to be playing out without serious damage to the Soviet's foreign policy or its prestige abroad.

Two further Soviet moves were reported today, but they are, however, not really possible.

1. An offer of a conference on any of a number of outstanding issues in the United Nations Security Council, to be held in Moscow's good faith in settling differences.

2. A full-blown propaganda campaign designed to show that Premier Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov are anxious to negotiate an end to the "cold war" but President Truman and Secretary Marshall blocked their efforts.

An indication that the latter course may be followed can be seen in the fact that the Russian-American exchanges showed up an "atomic assistance" in the light of the present government of the United States.

The American authorities agreed that probably the best American counter-stroke to Russia's "peace offensive" was Secretary Marshall's challenge to Premier Stalin to prove by action that the Soviet government is ready to improve relations with the west.

Court Stalled In Ruling on Flying Youths

"Jimmy took her off ... and I flew her for 20 or 30 miles ... then I told him to let me out and he took over and landed her. It wasn't any trouble."

"You see, Jimmy had a book called 'How to Fly an Airplane' and he knew all about it."

"I must have been a good book. The plane's owner, Ted Geller, said Jimmy made a perfect landing in a freshly hatched wharf."

"The plane wasn't hurt until they tried another take off and buckled the undercarriage," he said. "It's '60, '60, '60."

"After landing, the boys attached to the horse, rode eight miles to the plane's owner, Ted Geller, and were picked up by the sheriff as runaway."

Attorney Boyard was talking about a long search for Jimmy, followed by military school next fall, Chief Juvenile Officer John Zwick reported.

As for co-pilot Peterson, he found his future in the bill blue yonder. "I'm going to be a pilot," he announced. "I'm 13 now, and that's old enough to start taking lessons."

148 Lambs Shipped From Here In Season's First Stock Pool

A former Twin Falls county farmer, W. A. Peckert, Wendell, came "back home" Friday to oversee the largest number of lambs in the season's first livestock pool shipment by the Twin Falls County Stock and Marketing association.
Peckert brought 62 lambs, with an average weight of 163 pounds. Other large consignments, each with a total of 68 head, were from Buckhorn, with 34 lambs, 10 ewes and two yearlings; Ed Tabor, with 27 lambs, 10 ewes and two yearlings; and 31 ewes and two yearlings.
Total figures for the shipment of 148 head, were 372 head to choice 148 head, were 372 head to choice 103 pounds, 54 fat ewes, 12 yearlings, three medium ewes, two old ewes and one carrier ewe. The shipment exceeded by 150 head a similar shipment made at this time last year.
Selection of the sheep for the pool was made by Harold Johnson, president of the pool, and Marvin Lehr, who visited ranches and marked lambs and drew meeting pool requirements.
County Agent C. W. Dulch, association secretary, said another pool shipment of 62 lambs will be made in two to three weeks, depending upon weather and livestock conditions. The shipment made Friday included livestock raised by 15 farmers.
The animals were sent to the Producers Livestock Marketing association, Ogden, Utah.

U. S. Consul Is Wounded In Palestine

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The state department announced today that American Consul General Thomas C. Watson was seriously wounded in Jerusalem today.
Watson was wounded while returning to the consulate general from a true commission meeting at the consulate general, but the department was not immediately advised how he incurred his injuries.
He was taken to Habashah, English mission hospital.
According to reports to the department from Vice Consul William Burdette, Herbert M. Walker, a member of the naval communications unit, also was wounded by machine-gun bullets near the consulate general.
Burdette reported that he has assumed charge of the consul general temporarily.
The last telegram from Watson recommended continuation of a member of the communications unit for helping to rescue a fellow worker who was slightly wounded the other day.
Watson, 35, a native of Great Falls, Mont., went into diplomatic service in 1924 as chief of the American consulate at Melbourne, Australia, and has served in many parts of the world.

OREGON'S HIGHWAY SYSTEM
Since agitation is gaining momentum in Idaho for a non-political highway commission...
It is only natural for the people to wonder how such a commission would operate...

Whenever a non-political highway commission comes up for discussion...
It is usually made to the "Oregon system" as the one after which a new set-up in this state should be patterned.

In fact, many states have looked upon Oregon's system as an outstanding example of efficiency in highway administration...
The people of Idaho are naturally interested in knowing more about Oregon's high commission...

"Oregon's state highway officials have gained national recognition for their work...
And they believe the reason is that their state has built up a long tradition of keeping highways free from political interference.

"They say the way to keep the highways out of politics is to have them administered by a non-political, non-partisan commission... consisting of men who are genuinely interested in public service.

"Oregon has a three-man highway commission, appointed by the governor for three-year terms...
The only cash they get from the state is for their expenses. To make sure that the people in Magic Valley are interested in knowing more about Oregon's high commission...

"The commission meets two days each month to decide what roads to build and to handle administrative matters...
But it spends several other days a month getting around the state to see how things are going.

"The working boys is H. H. Baldock, state highway engineer, who gets $8,400 a year...
Baldock is nationally known, and now is president of the American Association of State Highway Officials.

Under Baldock are two assistants. Under them are seven division heads, the divisions being construction, maintenance, bridges, legal, traffic, state parks and tourist information.

"To make sure that no section of the state is neglected when it comes to building new roads, the commission divides the state into five districts...
Each district gets the same amount of money spent on road construction.

"Oregon state employees went on civil service two years ago, and that will reinforce the highway commission's non-political rule...
The three commissioners, as always has been the case, are men who have been successful in business. The chairman, T. H. Baufeld of Portland, heads the Iron Fireman Manufacturing company.

The other two members are Arthur H. Schupp, Klamath Falls lawyer and farmer, and Ben R. Chandler, Coos Bay banker.

"When asked how politics is kept out, Baldock said: "Everybody in our department is hired to do his work, and has NO time to be monkeying around with politics."

"The main fact is that the commission has consisted of broad-gauge big people who get NO pay, and enjoy giving their services to the state.

There were early vigorous objections to political interference, and it has come to be a tradition. The people have recognized they can't have an efficient highway department and also have it mixed up in politics.

The commission appoints Baldock, his two assistants and the legal adviser. Baldock appoints the rest of the members. All projects are let out to competitive bids, and the lowest competent bidder gets the job.

Incidentally, neither the military authority nor his...
has approached the internal revenue bureau on the matter, but it is generally understood that the new president of Columbia University... will pay the least amount. In several places against such an attempted restriction, the U. S. tax court has held that the parties are free to work up in the right kind of package.

SELL—The real estate is trapped up in the right kind of package...
The book makers apparently suffer no quins on Oregon's system with respect to the above. With James A. Farley's book still among the best sellers two months after publication, there is no reason to believe that the book will ever be out of circulation.

PRECEDENT—The most famous precedent for the Eisenhower amendment involved Rafael Sabatini, who published a book on "Blood and Scramble" in 1935. His publisher, Houghton-Mifflin company, tried to pay him the capital gain tax instead of the higher amount for a book.

But the U. S. tax court held that Sabatini had not complied with requirements because he had reversed the order of the rights in foreign translations, to motion picture and stage reproduction. This he had not arranged for a "perfect and correct" copy to be turned over to the publisher and its collateral values to the publisher. Sax Rohmer made the same blunder in disposing of his "The Marchesa" to Liberty magazine.

DECISION—The usually genial Irving Berlin also... outlines the agreement to grant royalties for songs for "Top Hat," the motion picture starring Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. Besides forcing the copyright on the publisher, the publisher has guaranteed fee of $25,000. The court's decision revealed that the nation's best known song writer is a self-publisher, writing and rewriting old melodies again and again.

Mr. Berlin did not make the "perfect and correct" copy because several of his songs for "Top Hat" had been used in earlier movies and were revisions of tunes he had composed as long ago as World War I, when he knocked out a couple of songs for the Broadway musical "The Merry Day" and then used in a subsequent movie entitled "Follow the Fleet."

It could have been better if he had sold his music and kept it, too, as did another paragraph from the stand guard's opinion—let a single member can keep on the key—notes.

the picture, the lyrics being from a previous song by that name, the lyrics being from a previous song by that name. The picture, the lyrics being from a previous song by that name.

BREACH—Congressional widening of the capital gains breach in the tax law may provoke a movement to change the law. If the provision for payment of the smaller amount continues to be extended by the legislators, it will mean that a heavier tax burden will have to be placed on individuals.

In 1912, the law levied a 75 per cent capital gain rate to twenty-five per cent. Also making it applicable to timber growth. Although the new provision would have been a relief to the farmer, it was vetoed by the measure, providing Democratic Senate Leader Albert W. Barkley to offer a substitute. The measure was passed over the presidential veto.

In proposed tax amendments a few years ago, the measure was vetoed by the president. The measure was passed over the presidential veto. The measure was passed over the presidential veto.

Under the bill, "communist-front organizations" must register with the attorney general and publicly make known, in a variety of ways, the fact that they are communist-front organizations. The bill sets up four tests for determining whether a "front" is "under the control of a communist political organization."

The fourth test is the position taken or advanced by the front from time to time on matters of policy. If it fails to pass "some or all" of the tests, then it is reasonable to conclude that it is a front organization therefore subject to the law. This conclusion can be reached.

In the backyard of fact and fiction that the house of American activities committee has put together, the pattern of the communist front by various organizations, has we think we know.

Off and on for the last three weeks has been following several tales of cooked food. This all started when we spotted a group of public school teachers and their wives and children who were sitting at a table in a restaurant. They were eating and talking and laughing and talking and laughing.

Now we'd like to know if any of you has ever been in charge of a party. I've been thinking about it for a long time. I've been thinking about it for a long time. I've been thinking about it for a long time.

In my opinion, that bill threatens the foundation of the house of freedom. It gives a great deal of discretionary power that could be used not merely to check the communist.

NEWS VIEWS
Travel companies report a boom in foreign travel. Luxury hotels are being built in many cities. The records of the police department show that peddlers and fraudulent merchants with fake credentials and a high-pressure sales pitch have succeeded in defrauding many citizens. Remember that this type of stranger has no interest in your community, do not get on his sucker-bait by expecting something for nothing. Peddlers are a type of stranger who are not doing business with you and remember who has his home and business here in Twin Falls.

Do not pay cash in advance to strangers as down payment on any merchandise. If you do you will likely find yourself holding the bag. Do not lose checks to strangers as down payment on future delivery, many times such checks are used as a means to defraud.

If the person who calls at your home or legitimate business with you, he will not be offended if he is asked to identify himself. If he has no credentials and cannot give you a high-pressure sales pitch, call your Police Department at once, don't delay, as we are anxious to cooperate with our citizens at all times.

Plane Makers Claim Federal Aid Is Needed

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Leading airplane makers told a congressional subcommittee today that unless the government finds the bill they can develop no more new transports.

In event of war, they said, the nation will be left in a dangerously weak position if transport production falls off.

While the plane manufacturers testified, the air force was left wondering by President Truman whether it will get all the money that congress voted it to build up a 70-group force of modern planes.

Truman Signs Bill

Mr. Truman has signed a bill giving the air force and navy $3,100,000,000 to begin the program. But he indicated he will not authorize the spending of all of it.

Speakers for Lockheed, Douglas, and a host of other aircraft manufacturers testified today on their problems. They endorsed a bill to let the government finance development of new transport planes that could be converted in time of war to military use.

They said they are losing millions of dollars on such planes as the new four-engine DC-6 and the two-engine Convair aircraft which cost about $30,000,000 to develop one of these planes.

Resources Lacking

"No such resources as these are available in the industry today," said Robert E. Gross, president of Lockheed Aircraft Corporation. "Very little advance can be made in transport planes in the near future unless the government steps in with help."

Alfred E. Lombard, Jr., military aircraft manager for Consolidated, said his firm expects to lose $46,000,000 on its new 40-passenger Convair transport.

"May I See Your Blue Card?"

Residents have been urged by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce to ask for "blue cards" when any salesman or solicitor appears, and that's just what Mrs. Paul Hest was asking when the above photo was snapped. A Hest secretary of the chamber, pointed out that businesses can protect themselves from fraud by demanding to see blue cards issued by the Chamber of Commerce. (Staff photo-gram)

Ask Salesmen for Blue Cards in Twin Falls, Chamber Urges

Information pertaining to the operation of the "blue card" system in Twin Falls is being distributed to every home in the city as a step in educating residents to ask salesmen for such cards.

The "blue card" system is led by the Chamber of Commerce as an aid in the suppression of illegitimate and costly promotion, sale and advertising schemes," according to the literature being distributed.

The system is designed as an encouragement of worthy enterprises as well as discouragement of unwise, expensive or unnecessary duplication," according to O. B. Nelson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. He also pointed out that residents will be protected from cases of out-and-out fraud when people in Twin Falls acquire the habit of asking all salesmen for blue cards.

During a review of the blue card committee's activities during the year's period, it was reported that 175 applications for blue cards had been received and only 14 had been approved.

Both pointed out that salesmen who run rackets or frauds will avoid Twin Falls when they learn that the "blue card" system is in operation here and the majority of local residents ask for such a card before dealing with salesmen.

The following conditions must be satisfied before blue cards are issued to salesmen: He must demonstrate that solicitation is necessary and funds raised will be properly handled and expended; there are

House GOP's Reject Public Housing Plan

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—House Republican leaders have turned thumbs down on the state-approved plan for a government-owned, financed public housing program.

Sen. Robert A. Taft, R. O., co-sponsor of the Taft-Henderson-Wagner low-rent housing legislation, has been advised of the house GOP leaders' decision that was made today.

One-Hour Bill

The senate approved bill calls for the construction of 15,000 houses and 100,000 beds for 1,000,000 people in 1949 and 1,000,000 more in 1950. It provides for the construction of 50,000 public housing units in the next five years.

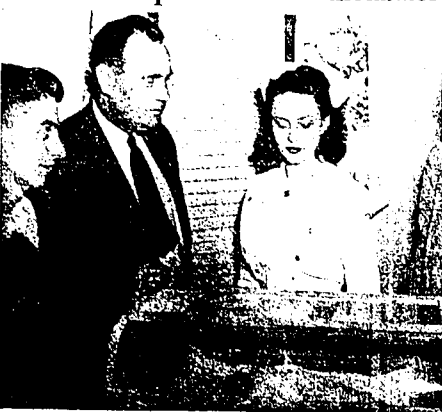

Except for the public housing program, house leaders are in general accord with the senate bill and are willing to push it that way. But on the provision of the government financing of the construction of houses for low-income families, the answer is a flat no.

Not This Year

House leaders made it clear that if the senate insists on all-out financing, there will be no large-scale housing legislation this year.

The house banking committee is scheduled to meet today on the Taft-Henderson-Wagner bill. Another week or so days will be required to complete the hearings. Then the committee will get down to amending the senate bill.

Hospital Gets New Incubator

Third Party Will Set Idaho Plans, Boise Man Says

BOISE, May 22 (AP)—State senators and campaign plans for the Henry A. Wallace third party took in Idaho will be mapped this week by H. R. Payne, Boise, national committee chairman.

Payne said the plans would be worked out with Wallace and Senator H. F. Taylor, the party's Idaho state central committee chairman, in a meeting in Boise Wednesday.

Payne said a large crowd is expected at the two speeches. He said dinner speeches would precede each of the addresses. Rep. Taylor and Wallace will speak at the Idaho meeting.

The party is building up good support in Kootenai and Shoshone counties, according to reports from Gov. A. C. Sawyer, Boise, Wallace declared.

Believe Wallace already has enough votes to beat Truman," he added.

Incubator Donated to Hospital By Jaycees Will Save Infants

Newborn babies—undernourished or premature birth—will stand a better chance of survival through the donation of a new infant incubator to the Twin Falls county hospital by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The incubator, which literally acts as a foster mother to infants either malnourished, or suffering from malnutrition, was the second gift acquired by the hospital last week from the Twin Falls chapter of the American War Medical Association presented the hospital with a new type abdominal pump.

Ever E. Moody, superintendent of the hospital, accepted the incubator gift from Cliff Simmons, Jaycee president, and Don Zick, Jaycee secretary. Cliff Simmons, chairman of the Jaycee public health committee, who was instrumental in procuring the incubator, was unable to attend the ceremony.

With the new acquisition, the hospital now has three incubators at its disposal. The number of births at the hospital is so great, however, a fourth machine will have to be added before the hospital is fully equipped, according to Moody.

The superintendent explained that the incubator is designed to keep humidity and temperature even around the infant at all times.

A control panel on the side of the crib, which contains a reservoir's standing water, has a white enamel and a glass covering. Allow a trained attendant to keep a constant check on the atmosphere around the infant.

Although no exact statistics are available on the subject, Moody said he is assured the incubator is in use at the hospital has been largely responsible for holding the infant mortality here well below the national average.

Nearly every physically sound premature baby born in the past few years at the hospital has survived mainly through the use of incubators, he said. Many other babies, he continued, which are born at the normal time but are suffering from under-nourishment or some other ailment, also have been

Times-News Forum -- Voice of the Reader

Northsiders Not Happy Over Roads, Either, Writer Opines

Editor, Times-News: I have just read Mr. Shipman's letter concerning the highway department and must say we agree with him except when he speaks of the north side in that tone of voice. We are not happy with the situation either. When I was out there for a change he started coming thing and it certainly applies here. Shipman says there isn't enough equipment. He probably is right. But if men who know how to take care of machinery were hired instead of political friends of the boss, maybe there would be more equipment. If they need trucks why don't they

He Maintains Roads in Idaho Equal Adjoining State Roads

Editor, Times-News: In answer to the Times-News articles concerning the road situation in Idaho, I say that the roads in adjoining states are just as good as the roads in Idaho. I also think our highway personnel, both high officials and laborers, are up to par with any occupation. A discharged foreman that wrote an article for the May 13 North Forum said he had been discharged for talking about the condition of the highways. Perhaps if he had done more work and less talking, he still would be working for the highway department. I think it is a good thing to have the highway department connected with politics. If it gets too bad, the people can write on the state flag.

Where would you put the highway department? In the civil service? Oh, no! You can't do that. You put them there. If you do it takes too long and the civil service let too far away from the common people. In the Times-News editorial of the 17th the people are asked if they are ready. Yes, the people of the Carey valley are ready to defend the highway crew. Both Republicans and Democrats will say they are A-1 at their job. I know that one of the four men is a Democrat, but he is a good

Profit: 2 Pennies
OAKLAND, Md., May 22 (AP)—Fremont Porter, first National bank employe, was carrying a sack of pennies—2,000 of them—over his shoulder when the bottom of the bag dropped off. A crowd quickly gathered and, with the aid of a shovel borrowed from the town cleanup truck and a broom lent by a neighbor, helped the messenger retrieve the coin.

Back at the bank, Porter laboriously counted up. The total: 2,002.

He Asks Support For Federal Act On Highway Help

Editor, Times-News: Here is a copy of a letter I have sent to our two Idaho senators, Henry Dauterbach and Glen H. Taylor.

As far as to your support of the federal highway aid act of 1948 on which Senate hearings are now being held under which Idaho would receive $4,857,000 in federal funds for highway construction for each of the next three years. If this bill becomes law, it will enable Idaho to get back from the federal government some of the $22,000,000 in expenses paid in federal income taxes in 1947. It will also provide Idaho with the road funds badly needed to rebuild highways worn out during the war. I understand that in allocation of federal funds, $2,233,000 would be earmarked for federal aid primary highways; $1,923,000 for secondary highways; and $,701,000 for urban roads and directly state highway officials in planning and construction of new highway projects. Enactment of the authorization bill is necessary for the state to receive its share of the federal highway funds during 1949.

Canyon Has Great Possibility For Development, He Declares

Editor, Times-News: So many people do not realize the possibilities of developing Snake river canyon between the Blue Lakes grade and the Crystal Springs grade.

One of the largest orchards in Twin Falls county, owned by R. C. Taylor and son, is growing steadily with more plantings each year. This orchard covers only a small part of the land which is suitable for orchard and better. Two trout hatcheries are in operation now, and there is suitable water for two or three more. A real business has been made by the Blue Lakes Country Club association. They have opened all the fairways for a new golf course and are beautifying the old Blue Lakes ranch.

No Blame Set In Report on Liqueur Theft

An idea that some liquor might be gone but did not know for sure. "My first idea that something big was going on was the fact that the liquor was all over there when two of the Times-News reporters came down and wanted to take pictures of the whiskey. I saw the liquor was all over there and that all the whiskey was gone. At that time I called the prosecuting attorney and told him the report were here and what they wanted. The prosecuting attorney said not to let them take pictures. I then took them down to the liquor room and showed them where the liquor was kept. I was asked questions on why the liquor was moved and answered that since the prosecuting attorney had been informed they had better see him for information.

We unloaded two more cars of oak flooring that sure looks mighty good to all our customers, who have seen it. We have the same grade of 2 1/2 inch flooring in two different widths, 23 3/4 and 24 inch thick. The price is less than the same grade of fir flooring.
Then we have vertical grain fir flooring in about all the different grades. B, C and D. We also have pine flooring that will do very well for kitchen and bathroom and will save you money over other kinds of flooring.
The stack of steel pipes is going down, we will have them in a few days. We also have extra good quality cedar posts at 30c each, and a good quantity of 3/4 inch heavy duty pipe.
Cedar siding has been difficult to buy. We now have a car load of O grade cedar siding. It is a grade you can sell you for about half the price of first grade cedar siding. You might have to throw out a piece of this siding occasionally, but it is that much cheaper than the first grade, and it makes a beautiful house siding. This siding is 6 inches wide. We also have asbestos shingles, and cedar shakes for siding.
If anyone has a 2 1/2 pipe, ship lap, and board, it's very good. We also have 2x4s, 2x6s, and wider dimension in all lengths from 8 to 20 feet.
Jon Seater was in after a load of lumber the other day and told us about driving top his car to Boise. Said he worked at home a half day, then took a plane to Boise, arriving there an hour later. Then he transferred business for a half day, and flew back to Twin Falls in time to get in two more hours work his hours in the evening.
We remember the time when it took all day to drive to Boise. A car load of lumber the capital city required two days.
Jon Clements, the baseball talking machine, was up at the lumber yard yesterday and saw our trucker roll off 11,000 board feet of lumber in a bundle as easy as you would take a load of lumber in a trailer. A prairie schooner. Carl had 22,000 board feet of good dimension on the truck and trailer. That is a car load.
We have just completed a two bedroom home with complete construction, hard wood floors in living room, bath, electric water heater, plenty of built in the kitchen. We will sell the house and lot at a low price. If you need a brand new home ready to move into, see the.

"Crossroads" Is Theme for Senior Rites

Time-honored traditions were combined with sparkling originality as 184 seniors were graduated from Twin Falls high school in the 40th annual commencement exercises Friday night in the high school gymnasium.

Elaborate tableaux were interspersed with excellent student speeches and musical selections. The speeches followed a theme of "At the Crossroads."

The exercises opened with a Cig-mund Bomberg selection played by the high school band directed by Charles Ratcliffe. Traditional was the processional march, "Pomp and Circumstance." The invocation was given by the Rev. F. W. Huddle, and the class sang "America."

The public, "Spirit of Liberty," was given by Maurine Bee Morgan. A medley of Hungarian melodies was played by a violin quartet composed of Paula Swan, Grace Johnson, Jo Alta Bishop and Pauline Domaganin, accompanied by Bangs Allen.

Student speakers and their subjects included Valedictorian Joyce Whitehead, "Reflection at the Crossroads"; Bill Watts, "Civilization at the Crossroads"; Arnold Carlson, "Democracy at the Crossroads"; Robert Roberts, "Science at the Crossroads"; Evelyn Dean, "Education at the Crossroads"; "Watts, "The American Citizen"; and Jacqueline Beyner, "Spiritual Challenge."

Tableaux included "Roger Williams and the Pilgrims," Bob McMillan, Eugene Pickett, "Constitutional Convention," Kenneth Smith, George Rose, James Davis, Henry Gardiana, Leon Yrascal, "The Atomic Scientist," Robert Martin, "Honor Man," Don Olson, "Youth and a New Vision," Chris Jensen and June Carr.

Background and regular numbers were sung by the high school choir, accompanied by Donna Rae Bailey; and the senior class, accompanied by Maurine Boren.

A cornet solo was played by James Gendle, accompanied by Joyce Pillsbury. A widely-loved hymn was sung by Maurine Boren, Mary Ann Lulliff, Pauline Brown, Barbara Cooper, Joyce Fisher, Katherine Fochmann, accompanied by Bonnie Allen.

Background pictures for the tableaux were prepared by Frances Gott's advanced art class. Commentators were Doris Ann Weaver, Denn Robbins, Marvin Centers, and Radiatorian Marlene Monroe. Lighting arrangements were by Duane Brill; stage assistants were Tom Ducasen, Pauline Moore, James Danner and Gerald Kleinhopf.

Senior class members were presented by Principal John D. Platt. Their diplomas were handed them by Ernest Jellison, chairman of the school board. The speech of acceptance was made by Max Kirkland, class president.

Sponsors of the class were Helen Minter and Bernice Babcock, who

The Importance of "Stepping Down"

Here is the story of a new principle of design that has rocked the industry and given Hudson unique beauty not possible in any other type of car.

The recessed floor in the new Hudson—now widely known as the "stepping-down" feature—is the talk of the automobile world. And rightly so! This interesting development is the key to a new kind of motor-car beauty never before obtainable.

People everywhere are attracted by Hudson's low, streamlined silhouette and free-flowing lines.

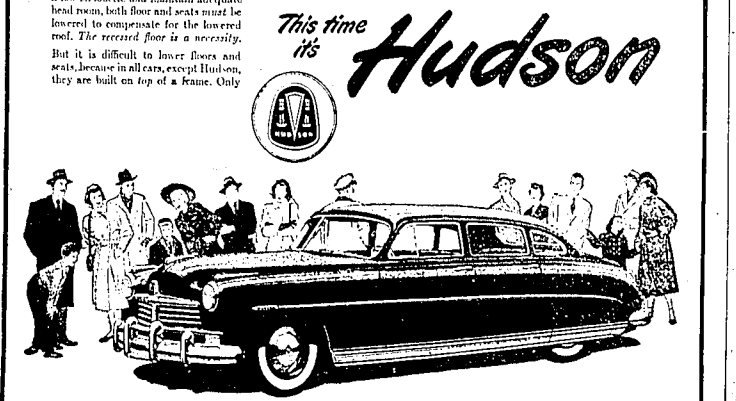

Only Hudson, because of its exclusive recessed floor that you step down onto, is able to offer streamlined, low-belt beauty without asking you to give up interior head room.

Let's take a frank look at the motor-car designer's problem. Since streamlining an automobile reduces available head room for rear-seat passengers, to achieve a low silhouette and maintain adequate head room, both floor and seats must be lowered to compensate for the lowered roof. The recessed floor is a necessity.

But it is difficult to lower floors and seats, because in all cars, except Hudson, they are built on top of a frame. Only Hudson has a new, all steel Monoglit body-and-frame, part of which is a rigid base structure that permits lowering floors and seats down within the frame. The sketches below illustrate this design problem and show how Hudson's recessed floor provides a low, streamlined silhouette yet preserves head room.

OTHER CARS
The car above cannot be streamlined because the seat is built on top of a frame that makes it impossible to lower the seat.

OTHER CARS
Of course, it is possible to adopt free-flowing lines without lowering the floor, as illustrated in the car above. But overall height must be raised, and this destroys the benefits of low silhouette, which is the mark of the modern motor car.

This time it's Hudson

"If It Isn't Right, Bring It Back"

Use of Color May Control House Work

HOLLYWOOD, May 23 (AP)—Housekeeping of a "tomorrow" will be ultra-violet clean, a color expert predicted yesterday. A flick of a dial will do everything—even cheer up the man when he rumbles home with a grudge.

That's what Albert King, chairman of the California Color society, told a roomful of women at the Art Center school. You won't do it with mirrors—you use the color spectrum.

Color to Work

"Tomorrow—and that means from 10 to 12 years—the ultra-violet and infra-red rays will do all your work for you," King said. "No more dusting floors, waxing floors, washing dishes, and mending clothes."

No dusting get a look-see into this house of the future, according to color experts, a magnetized bar will stop the stuff at windows and doors.

Kills Insects

Insects will drop dead from their tracks from an ultra-violet ray loop strung around the rooms.

Cooking will be a cinch. No more slaving over a hot stove for the bride of 19. She'll whip up a dinner just by her plastic dining table with infra-red rays.

Simple Process

"These tables will have grooved panels which plug into the infra-red rays," King said. "You put the food in, turn a dial, and your steam starts, sizzling plates under your watch. When the dinner, turn off the rays, and it's done."

The food will be hot and the table cool. To clean up afterwards, all you'll do is wipe the grooves with a damp cloth, turn on an ultra-violet ray, and sterilize the surface for the next meal.

Senators Will Settle 2-State Cheese Fight

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Senators—serious gourmets and casual nibblers alike—were asked to decide today whether Oregon or Wisconsin cheese is better.

Sen. Wayne Morse and Gay Cordon, Oregon, furnished 30 pounds of Tillamook cheese for free service to everybody eating lunch in the senate restaurant.

Wisconsin may protest. Her two senators, Alexander Wiley and Joseph R. McCarthy, were out of town when the Oregon challenge was made yesterday. Thus, while the "judges" can get free Oregon cheese, voters will take cash to eat the Wisconsin product.

Morse said he hoped "Tillamook cheese day" in the senate restaurant would settle a "long standing argument" between Wiley and him over the relative merits of the cheese produced in those two great dairy states.

Morse, who often is at odds with other Republican senators, capped his challenge with this tongue-in-cheek pledge: "I wish to say again, as always, I am perfectly willing to abide by the judgment of my colleagues."

Boyle Claims Men's Clothes Losing to Women's Fashions

By NEAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—The most forlorn spectacle of the last century and a half has been the steady feathering of the human male.

As women pile on more clothes to get the new look, men have less and less to wear.

And the way it's going down in America the lefty half of the species will end up looking like a stand-in for Tarzan.

This is only partly because of the chivalrousness of today's men. It is also because of the steady growth of an iron femininity which remains the dominant force in the world of male vanity. A family can afford only one peacock—and today it's mamma.

She elids the lily. Papa's function is to dig up the gilt.

Man used to be the fashion plate. Now he doesn't even get enough to wear to be a stylish saucer.

Gone are the magnificent fur-brotons worn by the swaggering, sword-swinging dandies of old-time fashion. Gone are the ermine and sable cloak, the high-topped hat crowned with a rampant feather, the purple and gold of the throat, the splendid powdered wig, the billowy handkerchief in the sleeve, the velvet breeches, the varnished boots for riding, the silver buckled shoes for dancing.

The only back-up remaining to modern man is on his belt—so he can draw it tighter as he feels the bill for his hair.

Yes, boys, the old scarlet plumed helmet is down to his last petal. Men, in the days of his glory, drew it in every color of the prism. Today he feels lucky if he can afford to be a one-color rainbow.

His finery is going fast. When I was a boy, you could buy a suit and

Slayer Pleads Before State Top Tribunal

OLYMPIA, May 22—A convicted slayer appeared in person to argue his own case in an unusual proceeding before the state supreme court yesterday.

The man was Jake Bird, 47-year-old Negro transient who was convicted in Pierce county superior court of killing Mrs. Alberta Kubit.

Eight black-robed supreme court judges sat expressively as Bird denied the killing, upbraided his former attorneys and charged police officers beat him to obtain a confession.

He pleaded his pleadings with numerous gestures.

After Bird's conviction, authorities quoted him as saying he had committed or could "clear up" at other murders in addition to the slaying of Mrs. Kubit and her daughter.

Yesterday he declared "I didn't commit 4 killings and I didn't commit 2 killings."

Bird, saying he didn't know the "rules of the game" or legal terms, declared his confusion to the Kubit slaying was obtained under stress and had been "replaced" because it was introduced at his lower court trial.

New 6 Nation Plan Reported For Germany

LONDON, May 22 (AP)—Responsible diplomatic sources say a six-nation agreement has been reached here to set up a provisional government this year for western Germany.

They reported last night a tentative decision has been made that a constituent assembly should be set up with broad authority to draw up a constitution for that area.

The six nations are the United States, France and Great Britain, which share occupation of western Germany, and Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, linked in the Benelux customs union and adjoining Germany as France does.

Some of these details were reported to represent the specific procedure to be used in creating the government.

That the main reason for delay, said one source, are the demands of France and the low countries for guarantees that western Germany's industry should not be built up to the point where the Germans will be able to invade neighboring countries.

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

By INEZ PUCKETT

You wouldn't believe it! The numbers of Magic Valley people interested in writing for a book contest! We had no many queries about that recent Lewis and Clark northwest award coming up in 1947. But we are going to do up a little information in a book manuscript in the first place, dearie, its a book manuscript script, so if you haven't the staying power for the prize money you're sunk.

PUCKETT

took his train, Alaska's finest, exactly 24 hours. As far prices up there, the young major averages a bowl of soup, 50 cents; an average steak, six dollars; a lettuce and tomato salad, $1.25. . . The major's job is shipping and receiving office for the troops. His letter ends with these words: "As for threats of war, we feel it very possible, so many folks can't realize how close we are to our little red brother." We now have a 24-hour alert, . . . we were alerted over radio in the chain last week. . . today we started laying down plans for mounting our guns. . . today we started in the fighters are moving into Ft. Richardson. Draw your own conclusions.

Like time in Idaho! You have to be an oddtimer returned after many years to appreciate it. Not all the bloom of southern California can equal this rich abundance of perfume and blossom. Last evening we received our first lilac bouquet, Marguerite Constant of the Twin Falls Canal company, and her son phoned it for us from their yard back.

One bright tulip burned among the white plumes. As we walked away the moon was a pearly cup through the trees, and peace lay over the streets, such peace as millions in other lands will never know again.

We thought: "Here we are, alive in the spring! Walking the quiet street of an American town with moonlight in our hair and lilacs in our hand! What quirk of fate caused our Welsh and German grand-parents to sail strange seas, leave an alien land, that we might be here now, safe and well-ted?" Our good fortune seemed wonderful and strange.

It's just a reed instrument belonging to the oboe family. When you hear its name you are apt to think of Benny Goodman. The French call it a "clarinette." In our humble opinion (and professional musicians of the valley may throw a tizzy at this) it's the most expressive instrument of the woodwind group.

Even if it was the last instrument allowed in the classical orchestra, plenty of the Great Ones of music thought it was pretty swell. Mozart used it in his "Paris" symphony, and Beethoven has it imitate the call of the yellowhammer in his Pastoral.

Our favorite though, is Mozart's Concerto in A major for clarinet and orchestra, especially the second movement, where the melody is carried with rich sweetness, against a gentle background of strings. And if you're rushing to the Music Center or somewhere, to see this recording, try hard to make it Reginald Kell on the solo instrument. Once you hear Kell playing the A Major on a clarinet you'll never be the same.

John Gilson, head of Clifton book publishers, writes that we may assure all interested people that our book, "So This is Hanching," will be out in 1948. Caxton has a high reputation in the publishing field, so we know this is reliable. Meanwhile thank all you dear people who continue to be interested in that volume after all this time. We don't see how you hold such interest, but we certainly appreciate it.
