

I. B. Perrine Lauded at Services

Dedicating Bridge in His Memory

By HARRY ARNOLD

Nearly 400 friends of the late I. B. Perrine gathered with his relatives this afternoon for the dedication of the Perrine Memorial bridge. Pioneer residents of this area heard prominent speakers praise one of their fellow pioneers as the man largely responsible for the existence of Magic Valley.

Master of ceremonies was Probate Judge Samuel T. Hamilton, probate attorney here and associate of Perrine for nearly four decades. In his introductory remarks, Judge Hamilton said the Memorial would be unveiled early in the program as those attending could carry the words on the plaque in their memories.

Judge Hamilton read a letter from former Congressman Addison T. Smith, a member of the memorial committee, regretting that he could not come here from Washington, D. C., to attend the ceremony. His letter paid high tribute to Perrine and broke the heritage left by him to the present generation.

In his dedicatory address, Judge Hamilton said Perrine's life should encourage young people to do well whatever their hands find to do, to be honest and straightforward, and to remember that it takes no difference from what humble condition they start, their future is within their own hands.

Physical Memory
He reviewed his association with Perrine in the bringing of irrigation to Magic Valley which he described as the fruition of Perrine's vision, and the relations it brought between north and south Idaho as a spiritual memory.

"Both Mr. and Mrs. Perrine have finished their life's work, and are at rest pillowed on the bosom of the place they loved so much," Judge Hamilton concluded.

Following an invocation by the Rev. E. Leslie Hollis, Episcopal rector, Mr. O. Lauterbach, another resident, was introduced, and in charge of the unveiling ceremony.

The memorial was unveiled by Mrs. Perrine, daughter of the late Mr. Perrine, who was accompanied by her husband and their two children.

Wreaths were placed on the Perrine monument by two of the famed pioneer's grandchildren, I. B. Perrine, 3rd, left, and Annabel Haight, right. First wreath was laid by Mrs. E. B. Williams, who was in charge of the Perrine hotel for 11 years after it opened in 1934. (Photo by Harry Arnold-staff engraving)

'Lowly' Spuds Again Causing Big Headache

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—The lowly spud threatens once again to cause food officials, farm leaders and possibly politicians many headaches during the next few months.

Potato supplies are expected by the federal department officials to start flooding to market within a few months.

If this is so, the government will be forced to find third straight year to carry over surplus potatoes.

Cost Over $125,000,000

The surplus of potatoes in the past two years exceeded $125,000,000.

The department formally predicts that it will have to buy from 300,000 to 500,000 bushels of potatoes a day this month, or a total of at least 20,000,000 bushels by the end of 1948.

Most of the surplus is expected in California, North Carolina and Virginia.

The market glut may reach its peak about the time Congress is expected to take up bills continuing farm price supports.

Council Rejects Bid For Ballot on Slots

Unanimous rejection of a proposal by the Citizens' committee to abolish slot machines here and submit the issue to voters at a special election was voted by the Twin Falls city council in regular session Monday night.

The council acted upon advice of City Attorney J. H. Blandford, who told them in his opinion the proposed ordinance and petition, calling for its passage and a vote by the people, are not sufficient and not legal. He advised no further action in the matter.

Grounds set forth by Blandford in a written opinion dated Saturday include passage of the 1947 legislature of laws authorizing slot machine and authorizing incorporation of cities to license, regulate, control, or prohibit them. He stated the legislative and referendum provisions of the act are not applicable to the city of Twin Falls.

His opinion, the city attorney declared, is that because the petitioners failed to include in their petition the necessary provisions for the referendum, the referendum provisions of the act are not applicable to the city of Twin Falls.

Thousands Flee 120-Mile Area as Northwest Flood Called 'National Calamity'

PORTLAND, Ore., June 1—Thousands of civilians fled areas stretching 120 miles along both sides of the Columbia river in an army-sponsored mass evacuation today as the Pacific northwest flood situation reached the proportions of a national calamity.

As the river's crest approached this metropolitan area, it pounded at dikes protecting thousands of acres of farmlands, small towns and suburban residential districts.

The army engineers, fighting to hold dikes scarcely above the surging river, ordered the entire lower Columbia closed to navigation immediately.

The order covered the Portland harbor in the Willamette river and the Columbia from

State Damage $15,000,000, Robins Avers

BOISE, June 1 (AP)—Gov. C. E. Robins said today businessmen estimated the ultimate flood damage in Blaine county, including Bonanza Ferry, at $15,000,000.

Returning to his office today from a tour of the north Idaho flood area, the governor declared the damage probably "will take 10 years to put that area back on its feet."

"There probably won't be more trouble in north Idaho than we just can't tell," he said. "Of course, it's particularly bad for those fields to be under water just at the start of the summer and then back when the hot summer sun comes."

"There's not much which can be done now until the water recedes."

The only solution to the problem, the chief executive said, is a comprehensive flood control plan by both the United States and Canadian governments.

The floodwater river dropped yesterday a foot to a stage of 32.5 in Bonanza Ferry since yesterday. Water drained off the south end of Main street and almost a foot deep at the north end.

The Kootenai still was spread over 10,000 acres of the flood area. A 30-mile stretch almost to the Canadian border.

At 3:30 p. m., the St. Joe river fell to 37.7 feet after cresting last week at 39.5 feet.

The Kootenai and Upper Columbia rivers still were rising. The Columbia rose another foot in the city 24 hours to a stage of 40 feet at Boundary, Wash. The Pend Oreille was up another foot to a stage of 26.4 feet at Priest river.

Portland to Seal for the Next Three Days

C. E. Walsh, district engineer, said no dikes were in such a precarious state that the wake from a ship or a boat might be all that was needed to send the river crashing through.

In Red Cross trucks, in automobiles and on foot, residents moved out of immediately threatened districts. It was estimated unofficially that 10,000 were affected by the order, bringing the total of flood refugees and temporarily displaced persons in Washington, British Columbia, Idaho, Oregon and Montana to approximately 90,000.

Colored Walsh issued the mass evacuation order at midnight. He said all persons, except those active in fighting the floods, must leave the districts on both the Washington and Oregon banks of the Columbia, the mouth of the Sandy river, 12 miles east of Portland, by 10 a. m. of June 2.

The army announced Lieut.-Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, chief of the federal relief resources to help relieve hardship and suffering caused by the floods.

The president also asked for an "immediate" federal investigation of the disaster area, and for recommendations on the need for national legislative authority to meet such emergency.

Red Cross Units to Accept Help for Victims of Floods

BOISE, June 1 (AP)—Voluntary Red Cross contributions for the relief of northwest flood sufferers will be accepted by any of the 2,731 Red Cross chapters, Mrs. Charles Gifford, executive secretary of the Boise chapter, said today.

A message from Basil O'Connor, president, said "already a number of generous donors have been received from persons interested in supplying the initial Red Cross appropriation of $250,000 to help the victims of the floods."

O'Connor's announcement went to all Red Cross area offices. He also advised the governors of Idaho, Oregon and Washington that the "full forces of the American Red Cross are being marshaled to cope with the relief needs of those overwhelmed."

Toys, Rats and Full Apartments Adrift in Water

BOARD A COAST GUARD BOAT LAUNCH, North Portland, Ore., June 1 (AP)—Children's toys, rats and laundry appliances drifted across North Portland from the dead city of Vanport to William P. Davis' million-dollar race track today.

During an hour-long cruise over Columbia river floodwaters, there were hundreds of you could stand up in this motor launch and see no end to the water.

The original flood, sweeping through near breaks in the Columbia dike system, have picked up broken houses and carried them as far as three miles.

Everywhere there were reminders of Vanport—the housing community, built on a narrow strip of land, was a 30-minute rush of wild water Sunday afternoon.

The original flood which covered approximately 650 acres at Vanport now has spilled over at least 600 acres under the impact of new torrents.

ing minimums at not less than 90 per cent of parity, expire Dec. 31.

Farm leaders fear that a serious potato surplus would attract so much public attention to the support program that congress might vote lower guarantees than the 80 to 90 per cent of parity favored by most farm spokesmen.

The potato situation could easily become an issue in the coming campaign. The cost of living is a sore spot with many voters.

Potatoes moving to market this spring and summer contain a high percentage of moisture and are thus very perishable.

More Money This Holiday. Survey Finds

NEW YORK, June 1.—May's the graph-and-estimate economist in Washington was back by 1 p.m. today with every indication today that the sports fan had more money to spend this Memorial day than last.

A United Press survey shows an increase in the major league baseball attendance of $450 paid admissions and a hike of $170,354 in race track wagers over the same holiday a year later.

In all, more than a million and a half Americans spent their holiday on amusements in some ball park, race track or similar arena.

"The major league baseball games attracted 2,075,778 through the turnstiles—192,300 in the American league and 145,478 in the National league. The American league jumped $45,228 over 1947 while the National league dropped 218 principally because 17,400 found their way to Beaver field at Detroit.

Some 250,000 saw minor league games.

There were 10 tracks operating yesterday and they drew 347,337, only 17,001 less than 13 tracks drew Memorial day last year. But, despite the smaller attendance, the betting was up nearly a half million dollars as $1,015,254 poured through the mutual wagers.

Three tracks set new attendance records at Belmont Park, New York, 121,000 at Hollywood Park in Inglewood, Calif., and 117,000 at Akersden in Omaha, Neb.

A total of 105,562 saw auto races, including 150,000 at the famed Indianapolis circuit.

Some 150,000 according to police estimates, lined a 26-mile route in Massachusetts to see the 54th annual branch mountain race, and 20,000 saw a cycle race at New Brunswick, N.J.

Mary and Me

And what is so rare as a day in June? Ask the post town.

This morning I took a bouquet of my choicest tea roses to Mary. Bobbie was out getting his sun and Mary was busy studying a recipe booklet.

"You've always made your strawberry shortcake with biscuit dough," Mary told me. "But Bill says he prefers cake dough—and he's got me stumped."

Well, I know there's a difference of opinion about making shortcake. But I've tried billows of whipped Meringue Milk over them, there's 100% enthusiasm approved.

Just chill Morning Milk for crystal cold, chill bowl and beater—then whip. Add sugar and vanilla—taste. So delicious—and so economical, too!

Friends Laud I. B. Perrine At Dedication

(From First Post)

daughter, Anabel and Geneva. Mrs. Haight expressed the family appreciation for the honor given in the dedication. She was assisted in unveiling the memorial by two Boy Scouts, Garth Tyler and Dorwin Osborn.

The dedication was delivered by Joseph H. Seaver, Jr., pioneer resident and longtime friend of Perrine. Seaver called attention to the historical reference of irrigation of the desert, and declared Perrine was entitled to all credit given there.

More Than Pioneer

He called Perrine more than a pioneer, comparing his breadth of view and faith in the future to that of Revolutionary heroes and builders of the American Republic.

Wreaths were laid at the foot of the memorial by Mrs. E. B. Williams, who was in charge of the Perrine hotel for 11 years after it opened in 1904, when, as she related, "there was no buildings here then and not a tree."

Anabel Haight and I. B. Perrine, two of Mr. Perrine's grandchildren, placed wreaths on the memorial. The ceremonies were in charge of Mayor Luntzinger, who pointed out the propriety of dedicating the memorial while Perrine's relatives are still alive.

Emphasizes Modesty

The mayor also emphasized the extreme modesty of Mr. Perrine, declaring his projects were for the benefit of the people as a whole with no selfish motive.

Lieut.-Gov. Donald S. Whitehead was introduced by the mayor, who pointed out the official had made a special flight from Seattle, Wash. to be present in the absence of Gov. C. A. Robins, called elsewhere in the state by the flood emergency.

Lieutenant Governor Whitehead reviewed provisions of the Carry act which provided the bridge by which Perrine could bring true his dream of hundreds of thousands of acres of irrigated land in Magic Valley. He eulogized Perrine as a man not only of vision but also as a man of principle.

Challenge

Perrine's accomplishments, Whitehead declared, are a challenge to the present generation which would not be here but for Perrine's courage, rugged perseverance and effort. Such men are needed today, the official stated, adding there are far too few men of Perrine's caliber in the nation today.

The lieutenant governor said it was a personal privilege for him to take part in the dedication ceremonies because nine years ago he helped with legislation through which the state required the high rim-to-rim bridge, then a toll bridge, and removed the barrier to its free use.

Roads History

At the conclusion of the program, a brief history of Perrine life and accomplishments was read by Frank McIntire, manager of FRLX, which station also provided the Royal Radio and Electric Service's public address system.

Portions of the program were recorded by KTFI for broadcast later.

Among those attending the dedication was Mrs. Elfrid Thompson, Boston, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seaver. Her late husband was one of the founders of the General Electric company in 1892. Its more than 700 inventions include electric welding and the centrifugal cream separator.

Mrs. Ralph E. Brown, sister of the late Mrs. I. B. Perrine, also was present. She recalled a letter she had received from Mr. Perrine who was traveling in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Brown has lived in Buhl since 1906 when she said, "There was one house there."

Marshall-Led Softball Team Captures Tilt

SUN VALLEY, June 1 (UP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall took it easy today after his softball coup yesterday.

Marshall forgot about the iron curtain and the cold war yesterday long enough to coach his hastily organized team to a 4-2 victory over the Sun Valley league leading "Sheldons."

But the former army chief of staff used his best military strategy to do it. He sent to Halley and got 25-year-old Kenneth Blake as pitcher. Blake, bank clerk and checker for the 1946 and 1947 state softball teams, came through as a true soldier. He pitched a 100 hitter.

Marshall threw out the first ball. Then he took a pitch from the Sheldons' hurler, George Campbell, and smacked it so hard across second it almost bowled over a photographer. Marshall then took to the bench and cut the rest of the game out.

Blake's Budder, all Sun Valley employees, went on the rampage in the second to drive in their four runs. The Sheldons hardly got warm. They managed to push over one in the sixth and another in the seventh on errors and walks.

Everything stopped during the game. The 350 delegates to the state mining association and several hundred guests and resort employees swarmed around the diamond.

Marshall got ready for the skunk by taking a 241-foot trip up Mt. Baldy.

The secretary plans to return to Washington tomorrow in the President's DCU, the Independence. It is to be flown to Gooding from Portland, Ore.

Best-Seller Author Is Suicide Victim

CALISTOGA, Calif., June 1 (UP)—William Martin Camp, best-selling author, former newspaperman and marine combat correspondent during the war, shot and killed himself yesterday. He was 35.

His body was found high on a hill at his ranch here, a 43 caliber service revolver in his hand. He was scheduled to speak a few hours later at Memorial day services for some of his former marine comrades.

Camp wrote the best-selling book, "Retreat, Hell!" about the marines in the Philippines. "Step to Me" and "Port of Gold," a history of San Francisco harbor.

His widow, Eleanor, said he had been depressed over ill health and financial troubles. Three sons, William, 12, George, 9, and Daniel, one year, also survive.

High Honors Won By Area Students

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, June 1—Special awards for scholarship were won by three Magic Valley students at the University of Idaho graduation exercises Monday.

Calvin George McIntyre, Jerome, graduated with the highest scholarship average during the first five semesters in the law course. 22 Perish as Naval Launch Is "Swamped"

NORFOLK, Va., June 1 (UP)—Twenty-two men—nine marines and 13 navy—perished in Hampton Roads last night when a navy launch swamped in choppy waters while returning 80 men to their ship after Memorial day liberty.

Rear Adm. C. A. P. Sprague, commander of a 12-ship task force whose sailing for the Mediterranean was delayed by the tragedy, issued this statement to newsmen at 9 a. m. from his flag ship, the aircraft carrier Kearsarge.

Bravery Reaches Its Bounds; Duty Finds Its Limits

ALTADENA, Calif., June 1 (UP)—Bravery has its bounds and duty its limits. Which may explain why staunch deputies went to their deaths at the sub-station.

It isn't something human, it's three skulls which have moved to Alta, which may explain why staunch deputies went to their deaths at the sub-station.

"Are they still there?" A reporter asked Sgt. R. C. Hall by telephone. "If you come out and look if you're brave enough," was the cold reply. "As far as I'm concerned they can stay there from now on."

Apparently Hall's attitude is unanimous. For days the case has been referred from shift crew to morning crew to day crew and nothing has been done.

MARSHING, June 1 (UP)—The memorial holiday death toll in Idaho rose to three when two Gold Hill, Ore., residents were killed in a crash 18 miles southwest of here yesterday.

Dead were David C. Handy and Vera Edwards Handy.

Injured were James W. Devon, Medford, Ore., and Shirley Johnson, Boise. They were taken to a hospital at Caldwell where Devon was released after receiving emergency treatment. Miss Johnson suffered a fractured leg.

The car in which they were traveling eastbound left the winding Idaho-Oregon-Nevada highway and rolled down a 100-foot embankment. It was stopped by huge boulders.

BOISE, June 1 (UP)—The Idaho Knights of Pythias announced today its annual grand lodge session would be held at Boise instead of at Bonanza Ferry as originally planned.
