Red Party of France Asks Rule

PARIS, July 20 (AP)—Communists proposed today that the leader, Maurice Thorez, be designated the French premier to head a coalition government of socialists and communists.

There was the first majority party to call on President Vincent Auriol, who is searching for a new premier. France's middle-of-the-road government, headed by Raymond Laroque, collapsed last night after a dispute over the army's budget.

No Immediate Prospect
There was no immediate prospect of Thorez being invited to share in the government. He called on Auriol first because the Communists have the largest representation in the national assembly. It had 105 members out of 460 out of a total of 460. They were not represented in the last cabinet.

Following Thorez was Andre Colin, secretary general of the popular republican group with 153 members in the assembly. Another member of the MRP, and many believe he will be called upon to form a new cabinet.

Bidault Harries Back
Former Minister Georges Bidault, also a popular republican, was hurriedly back to Paris from Brussels where he had been attending a meeting of the five-power western European union.

Socialists also called upon Auriol. They have 103 members in the assembly, and like the MRP were represented in the Schuman cabinet. Guy Mollet, Charles Lussy and Alex Houbert made up the socialist delegation.

To Seek Recruiting
Auriol was expected to try to find a premise which could reunite the left. Auriol was expected to try to find a premise which could reunite the left. Auriol was expected to try to find a premise which could reunite the left.

Andre Marie was mentioned as the candidate of the radical socialists. Former Premier Paul Reynaud, an independent republican, figured also in the speculation.

Fighting Continued by Israel, Arabs

CAIRO, July 20 (AP)—Jewish forces in Haifa said today fighting was going on in northern Palestine on the 20th day of the fighting imposed by the United Nations.

Members of the Israeli underground blasted last night with hand grenades and machine guns the Egyptian camp at the entrance of the Egyptian interior ministry and captured experts said the plane dropped an atomic mine which damaged a motion picture theater.

From Matmoud Fahmy, Nakhla, July 20 (AP)—A cable reported and rushed to the scene of the explosion. He told newsmen: "If this report proves to be true, it is a very serious matter and such an action is repugnant to the Zionists, we will reply immediately."

The Israeli government said it was not one of its planes. A spokesman said the plane was in the vicinity of Cairo, July 15 and no Israeli plane has been in the vicinity of Cairo since July 15.

Cairo was under an air raid alarm from 9:45 to 11:10 p. m. The thorough central and southern parts of the city. Anti-aircraft guns went into action.

Some Egyptian investigators said the Metropole cinema, which had been closed for the summer, was brought here and exploded during the department store. First estimates said two persons were killed and 17 wounded.

Tito Handed Help As Two Disputes With U. S. Ended

WASHINGTON, July 20 (AP)—Marshall Tito's Yugoslav government was brought to a new agreement with the U. S. after two disputes were settled today by settlement of two outstanding disputes with the United States.

The state department announced that Yugoslavia had agreed to pay the U. S. a "sum" of $100,000 to cover:

Indemnities for two U. S. planes shot down in Yugoslavia 10 months ago and for a jeep that was "captured" during a postwar border incident.

Grange Erects Another Rural Road Sign

Twin Falls Grange Continues Project To Mark All Rural Roads in Vicinity

As part of a nation Grange contest, members of the Twin Falls Grange are continuing a project marking rural roads in the vicinity of Twin Falls.

The road signs, placed at prominent intersections, carry the names of persons who reside along the road and list how far their homes are from the intersection.

I. T. Creed, chairman of the Grange project, and R. C. Wark, placed the fifth of these signs at the intersection of the labor camp road and South Park road Monday.

Council Hears Suggestions to Relieve Congestion of Traffic

Suggestions to relieve congested parking conditions were heard Monday night at a meeting of the city council. Members heard by the council were complaints on the street and water matters. Public Safety Commissioner

I. E. Nitschke told the other councilmen he has been appalled by a number of merchants and merchant organizations interested in the traffic survey to be started in the near future. Nitschke said the merchants are particularly interested in the survey's recommendations as to parking conditions.

Nitschke said he had with him, Nitschke said, want the present single parking replaced by parallel parking. However, he pointed out that there would be only half the number of present parking spaces. To provide more parking spaces, the merchants are suggesting joint acquisition of parking lots by the city and their organizations.

Those proposals were presented to the city council by Nitschke. In the event the lots were rented, the owners would have to pay for the improvement. If an organization and the city purchase the lot, the organization would receive the cost of the improvement.

Nitschke described the difference between angle and parallel parking as a difference between village ways and city ways. However, he pointed out, although the merchants desire parallel parking they fear loss of parking space. He suggested that the city make to increase parking space, and wish to take action while vacant lots are still available.

Suggestions were welcomed by the other councilmen. Nitschke also said he would welcome suggestions from the public. He also suggested that business buildings constructed in the future should set aside part of their lots for parking.

Asking through discussion by the other councilmen, Nitschke also said he would welcome suggestions from the public. He also suggested that business buildings constructed in the future should set aside part of their lots for parking.

Underground Fire Causes Only Minor Damage at Hailey Mine

HAILEY, July 20—Fire which early Tuesday morning extinguished an underground blaze which caused "very little damage" at the Tripp mine 11 miles north of here, Burnham, H. H. Shoemaker said. No injuries were reported.

The blaze was first noticed at 4 p. m. Monday when the equipment of 25 employees reported for work, Rupert Hoyer, shift foreman, said. The fire was brought under control at 1 a. m.

The "big" blazes "to have been" men an electric heater, used by miners to dry their clothing, and by miners to dry on the 900-foot level of the galvanized type mine. The mine produces silver, lead and zinc.

Truss Give Counter-Blow, Offer Berlin Food; West Europeans Urge Caution

BERLIN, July 20 (AP)—The Russians struck another blow at the western foothold in blockaded Berlin today by announcing they would send in more than 100,000 tons of food-stuffs and sell it to all comers, including Germans from the western sectors of the city.

Western occupation authorities at once attacked the Soviet announcements as a propaganda move toward Russia's intended victory of Berlin and ejection of the Americans, British and French.

Attacking the Soviet move as a propaganda move, American and British spokesmen said their planes would carry on the aerial supply operation, and would continue to supply the food needed in the western sectors of Berlin.

"Catchers" imposed the Soviet offer spotted that the western sectors would be required in Soviet-sponsored currency as account that imported to Berlin by the western powers. Theoretically at least, the western powers would lose much of its value.

The Russian government reported it was buying the stockpiles of wheat for the foodstuffs to feed Berlin, including the western sectors. It said it shipped wheat to account that imported to Berlin by the western powers. Theoretically at least, the western powers would lose much of its value.

But the announcement, as reported in a Moscow dispatch after the proposal had been published here, said it should be noted that the period of time they would be made. Neither it alleged what proportion of the wheat would be allocated to the western sectors.

Details Not Given
The announcement, as reported in a Moscow dispatch after the proposal had been published here, said it should be noted that the period of time they would be made. Neither it alleged what proportion of the wheat would be allocated to the western sectors.

Idaho Labor Drafts Plans Of New Acts

LEWISTON, July 20 (AP)—A program for submission to the 30th legislature next January was mapped yesterday by the AFL-CIO Federation of Labor joint legislative committee.

Representatives of the CIO, railroad brotherhoods and Farmers' union also attended the meeting. Fred H. McCabe, Boise chairman, said those organizations are in accord with the legislative program adopted.

After an address by D. B. Brigham of Geneva, candidate for the Democratic nomination for first district congressman, McCabe said although Brigham's views correspond with those of Idaho labor, the state union will not support any candidate in the primary election.

The labor leaders drew up a bill for repeal of the pocket-to-pocket pay law defining what workmen can be paid. He said the committee objects to the clause "receiving and giving orders and making reports shall not be compensable."

- The group also approved:
1. A bill to repeal the statute placing a six-month limitation on collection of wages by workers.
 2. Repeal of the state law defining a labor dispute.
 3. An eight hour day for women workers.
 4. An age limit for child labor—either 10 or 16 depending upon the job.

Third Party Has New Type 'Sign'

PHILADELPHIA, July 20 (AP)—The Republicans had their rubber stamp. The Democrats had their head-wagging donkey.

Today Wallace's new party added another differentiating mark—the square of the Bellevue-Stratford hotel convention headquarters—a display which turns with the wind.

The exhibit, designed by New York artist Ben Shahn, consists of 16 colored poles of different length standing upright in a four-foot high base emblazoned with the names "Wallace" and "Taylor," the party's candidates.

Each pole carries a slogan. The tallest pole in the background are 22 feet tall, the shortest seven feet. It's symbolic of what the new party stands for: a Wallace spokesman explained.

No Accord Seen At Extra Session

SALT LAKE CITY, July 20 (AP)—Idaho's Republican House, Henry C. Dworshak, said today in Salt Lake City it would take a miracle to sidestep partisanship at the coming special congressional session.

The senator left the Utah capital city today for his home in Burley, which turns with the wind.

Dworshak declared it would be virtually impossible for congress to take any constructive action during the coming session because leaders of both parties are bound to be influenced largely by political considerations.

The Idaho Republican added, however, that if the fiscal crisis grows there is a possibility of congress having to take action on far more serious matters.

BOARD CONFERRING

BOISE, July 20 (AP)—The state enabling board meets today to study applications of about 10 or 11 persons for Idaho licenses. In addition the board will study numerous requests for apprenticeship.

Candidate Shuns Debate Challenge

REXHURD, July 20 (AP)—Ansel Lyman, Rexburg real estate man and candidate for the Democratic nomination as second district congressman, today stood out on his decision not to debate campaign issues with Bert Mitwelen, Montpelier history teacher and also a Democratic candidate.

Lyman said he would run his own campaign and that Mitwelen can run his, "but we are saving all debates for the Republican party after the campaign."

Lyman said he will visit all communities in the second congressional district during the next three weeks. Mitwelen yesterday proposed a series of "public discussions" on tax issues which might limit the two candidates to one hour each.

Only other congressional contact in the Aug. 10 primary election will be with the Republican party, against Burke B. Brigham, Geneva farmer. White was first district congressman from 1932-1946.

New Reclamation Drawing Planned

WASHINGTON, July 20 (AP)—The government today offered for sale the first 10 farm units on the 1,000,000-acre Columbia river basin project in Washington.

World War II veterans get first choice. But all applications should be filed by Sept. 3, the department said. Then public drawings will be held.

The 10 units are in the Pasco pumping unit at the southwestern end of the project where irrigation water started flowing over 8,000 acres last May 16.

Applicants must have certain capital assets and farming experience to buy land under the home-land act. The department is scheduled to open some 2,000 farm units by 1952 when construction is completed.

Boy Clings to Boat Overturned in Lake

MCCALL, July 20 (AP)—A 17-year-old Idaho boy clinging to a capsized sailboat in Payette lake yesterday until rescued.

The boat was upset by a sudden squall, losing David Potter into the water.

The mother, Mrs. Harold E. Potter, witnessed the accident from the shore through a telescope and summoned help.

Spry as Ever SODA SPRINGS, July 20 (AP)—

Keenly up with the day's news is just one of the activities of Mrs. Elizabeth Meads who recently celebrated her 103rd birthday.

Spiritedly and cheerfully, Mrs. Meads came to this country about the time the civil war broke out and has watched the world change through new inventions and scientific discoveries since she moved westward with her family to Salt Lake valley.

She thinks young people of today are healthily looking and very fine, but "they go too fast to have much fun."

Group Seeks Halt In Farm Mishaps

BOISE, July 20 (AP)—Idaho agricultural interests yesterday formed a committee to work against accidents on the farm.

J. W. Taylor, extension service, Boise, was picked an interim chairman. Stanley S. Richardson, state vocational agriculture supervisor, was named secretary and L. F. Rennstrom, production and marketing administration, was selected as vice chairman.

The extension service's permanent representative, when named, will be permanent chairman.

Burber said the committee would invite for membership in the group representatives of farm groups throughout the state.

Search for Plane Continues in Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, July 20 (AP)—Civilian and military aircraft today continued search for a plane missing since Sunday night on a local flight from the Robert H. Ingersoll airport at Ogden.

Joseph P. Gauthier of Salt Lake City, formerly of Millburg, Mass., took off Sunday night on a proposed flight over the Brighton area east of here and has been unheard from since.

Two planes from Hamilton field, Calif., joined with Utah ships in aerial searching, while Utah peace officers and volunteers continued checking of various reports on the ground.

All reported signs of the missing plane, which Gauthier had rented from Charleworth Flight, Inc., for the hop.

Officials to Tour Forest Projects

OGDEN, July 20 (AP)—Two high ranking Washington officials were in Ogden today to inspect the comparative accomplishment among the various projects of the intermountain forest and range experiment stations.

The officials, E. W. Lowderidge, assistant chief of the forest service, and L. J. Barrett, division chief in charge of forest management research, will also look over the administrative work of the forest officers in this area.

The two men plan to tour the forest projects in Utah, Wyoming

Tourist Told Not To Abduct Fawns

IDAHO FALLS, July 20 (AP)—Carrying off fawns comes under the same category as kidnapping, the state fish and game department warned today.

Tourists are reminded that while the fawn apparently is abandoned, does have their own way of taking care of their offspring—a task they are much better qualified to handle than humans.

In addition, possession of a fawn is against the law.

Pay Contracts Gain Approval Of Mine Units

SALT LAKE CITY, July 20 (AP)—New wage contracts have been signed by management and employees of five major Utah mining firms, granting several hundred workers a 12 cent hourly wage boost and other benefits.

Park City local No. 99, formerly affiliated with the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (IUMMSW), signed a contract for its 100 members employed by Silver Kings Coalition mines. Park Utah Consolidated mines, Newmont Exploration, Ltd., and New Park Mining companies in the Park City area.

A similar agreement was made between the United States Smelting, Refining and Mining company and officers of the Midvale mill and smelter men's local, the Lark miners' local and the Brigham canyon underground miners' local No. 2.

The contracts were the first agreed upon by major Utah operations and any of the locals formerly or now affiliated with the IUMMSW. All Utah mining and smelting firms have refused to negotiate with the IUMMSW and its locals, on grounds the union officers have not signed affidavits that they are not affiliated with the Communist party, as required under the Taft-Hartley act.

The locals involved are among 11 groups now independent which have grouped themselves into the Utah-Nevada reorganized committee.

Pocatello Woman Finds Her 'Lost' Mother in South

LYNCHBURG, Va., July 20 (AP)—After 18 years, Mrs. Nellie Arthur of Lynchburg was able to say: "A fairy tale come true."

Sixteen years ago a childless couple took Mrs. Arthur's 2½-year-old daughter, Joyce, with them on a trip to New York.

The last word Mrs. Arthur heard from the couple was two weeks later. They wrote that the trip would be extended.

The efforts of Mrs. Arthur, a factory worker and mother of two children, to locate her daughter were unsuccessful.

But last spring Joyce—now Mrs.

William Eldridge of Pocatello, Idaho, who thought she had been adopted, asked the juvenile court here for legal papers.

Mrs. Arthur was notified and the mother was off to visit her daughter. And the couple who took Joyce to New York 16 years ago? They died leaving two children. Joyce is going to adopt them.

Minerals were first discovered in Canada in 1004 by a French mining engineer known as Master Simon.

NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES

WEST-HOLLYWOOD, CALIF., INC.

825 Market Street, San Francisco, Calif.

TURKEY'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

PHILADELPHIA—The Democrats' deepest fear as they prepare for the presidential campaign is of a mass defection on the part of the labor leaders and their followers.

The four election loyals have assumed the mantle of neutrality. It is not what President Truman expected, which explains the extremely forceful pro-labor plank in the Democratic platform. It is not what the conservative speakers charge that the GOP had "sold out to the interests."

It is not what the public and private pressure by President Truman, no top labor boss delivered a speech before the Democratic party here.

William Green, AFL president, has said that his people will vote for Dewey-Warren ticket, but it is recognized that he cannot speak for his union with any authority.

Philly Hurker, CIO boss, was one of the original Eisenhower voters, despite his ignorance of military leaders' views on all problems of close concern to the working men.

Daniel J. Tobin, head of the AFL teamsters' group, has apparently quit active politics although he was the Democratic labor division during several Roosevelt campaigns.

Ray Tucker

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

NEW YORK—In one final, thundering, dazzling blast of hubbub, hypocrisy and confusion, the Democrats have taken the floor of their convention and went along reasonably well.

It is not that they are proud of a job well done. This is not a matter of pride. It is a matter of survival.

Now, a man who has been the target of the most intense and sustained attack of all weathers in the history of the party is in the ditch at last. Therefore, there is a certain relief in the fact that the true Democrats of the deep south had anything to say in the election next order of business was an open confession of opinion by all these fretful inmates of the crazy house.

The southern Democrat is less aloof toward Negroes than the late Roosevelt, and he is more honest in all his statements of policy on the subject.

Only 75 years ago, within the life of the grandfathers, the southern white man was Jim Crowed by an illiterate, uneducated horde of freedmen who were stimulated and overbearing conduct by unscrupulous whites.

These ex-patriots were the true political and moral fathers of the left-wing northern new dealers of today.

The southern white man was cowed with guile, driven from the polls while the Negroes were encouraged to vote away his last trifles of liberty and property.

Finally, he was forced to organize the Ku Klux Klan.

His policy is that he will never let that happen again. He has never been betrayed by any of the vague assurances of the northern white Democrats, who rarely look the trouble to try to persuade him, anyway. On the contrary, most of them have grimly indicated that another crop of humblings would serve them right.

The Roosevelt party contained this enmity in a mutually helpful and powerful household for all his 12 years and for about two of Harry Truman's years, besides.

Not only that, but Brooklyn Catholic and Brooklyn communist, there was many of both in Brooklyn, walked in the same parades and pulled the same levers on "Jim" day.

And some of the most intolerant bigots in the notably hysterical story of American popular causes and lunacies took to the bench in the federal courts to preach the official text of liberal doctrine.

Notorious among them but by no means the worst, Hugen Black, now often called the worst guide to a life of beautiful reason, got his first preference in Alabama in a case exalting homicidal bigotry to the catholic and Negro.

His conduct in that issue was such that his election to perpetual membership in the Ku Klux Klan was not an excellent political compliment but an honor well deserved.

One reason, the most important reason, in fact, why the mahatma could succeed in this enormous im-

BOB HOPE

Everyone is going to start framing his money.

He will if Mrs. Veronica Deering of New York university school of retailing has her way, she's pulling a one-woman campaign to get women's faces on the dollar.

This is interesting. It is interesting because she had the idea a long time ago. For years he put his girl's picture on the dollar bill he wrote "a plurius Mame."

But if they want to use girls' pictures they ought to do it right. They should put those beautiful Hollywood stars on them. Then, making money would be fun.

I can see a guy staring to death; he has it left and Lena Turner's picture is on it.

And it will be easy to spot a counterfeit; you'll know it's phony if the girl isn't wearing a Westmore hairdo.

But if they start putting glamour O'Dwyer, of New York, Catholics all and stalwarts of reaction, by a marvel possible only to Democrats in the most advanced states, were found on the side of Justice William O. Douglas, who is somewhat of the left of Henry Wallace, the candidate of Josef Stalin.

It was time to turn it off. Another hour and they would have nominated Tom Dewey.

Graduates Feted At Orange Party

BUHL, July 20—Orange member graduates of area grammar and high schools were entertained at a banquet last week by members of the Fairview Grange.

Master Charles Latham introduced each graduate and presented them a corsage or a boutonniere. Graduates responded with a few words of appreciation.

Graduates included Dick Denney, Arlene Bell, Helen Kurland, Allen Chambers, Bill Murphy, Jean Calloun and Dale Everson.

The program included an acrobatic dance by Ruby Jo Palat, tap dances by Sharon Probasco and Judy Rung, a piano selection by Rachel Ann Heathcote, a face paint skit by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skottwick.

Following the banquet a dance was held.

SMALL FRY

WEIGHT LIFTERS

When other forms of exercise no longer hold interest we've seen toddlers take on the telephone instrument for a little weight lifting session. They can't do much damage to the telephone but they usually forget to replace the receiver. That means you can't receive any incoming calls and if you're on a party line the other telephones are put out of service as well. So if there are youngsters in the household, a word about being a good telephone user starts the small fry on the right path.—The Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co.

LUCE WIT OVERSHOT

Ideally, politics should be the climax of an American's career in public life. Sometimes it is. There are plenty of examples, past and present, of high-minded men and women who have served in congress or in the cabinet or at some other high post at a considerable sacrifice of time, money and comfort.

This not only helps offset the fact that every congress has its share of members who could not hope to make $15,000 a year doing anything else, it also gives proof that political idealism is not entirely in vain.

In spite of this, however, we were rather glad to learn that Mrs. Claire Booth Luce is retiring from politics.

Mrs. Luce was a welcome ornament to our political life. She lent beauty, grace and wit to the congress in which she served. She lent the same to a couple of Republican conventions. And we can't think of any two institutions of American life more in need of a little glamor.

But we often suspected that Mrs. Luce was playing over the heads of her audience. To see what we mean one need only recall that the gentleman from Connecticut in the 79th congress was also the author of three excellent plays, a witty and satirical piece called "The Women," a delightfully hilarious success called "Kiss the Boys Goodbye," and a more serious number titled "Margin for Error."

Then one may recall those ponderous witticisms by our legislators which, according to the Congressional Record, provoke a parenthetical (Laughter) and the inevitable conclusion is that Mrs. Luce, a AAA wit, farmed herself out to a class D league when she got elected to congress.

We need good minds in Washington, heaven knows, minds with agility as well as depth, minds with a deep purpose as well as with a leaven of humor. But there are minds which cannot make up in what they contribute to Washington for what they subtract from our national life.

A distinguished career in government demands a mental brilliance that the brilliance does not necessarily call for a high polish. So we cannot be too sorry that the acintillating Mrs. Luce has turned her back on politics and on congress where, for all the great things accomplished there, the wit is so often fashioned as the snuff boxes in the senate chamber.

But a public career, once sought and embraced, cannot be dismissed without a second thought. When one has asked and received his fellow citizens' confidence and vote, a small debt of responsibility remains. So we should like to suggest that Mrs. Luce, a woman Luce owes the American electorate one thing—a play about politics.

We hope that she has one in her system, and that it is far enough along for an early winter production. By the time that the general election has come and she has all its flaming oratory and fateful implications, the American public will be in need of the sort of relaxing evening in the theater that Mrs. Luce can provide when humdrum duties don't intervene.

DOESN'T BELIEVE IT

Dear Pat Shiola:

You've said those salmon caught by him and his party weigh an average of 25 pounds when caught and 15 pounds when dressed.

Now, a man who knows the average innards of the male salmon will weigh about one pound with the eggs and innards of a female will seldom weigh more than four pounds.

Where those salmon filled with lead sinkers?

All I can say is those salmon sure had a lot of guts!

ANOTHER DOUBTER

Dear Pat:

The sidem I doubt any fishing tale, but I'm afraid my attitude is somewhat of a "you'll have to show me" split regarding the contention of one Mr. Cox that his son, age 8, caught two salmon.

I have caught several salmon in the past few years. They don't put much of a scrap, and the "dram" is something like an anchor. Mr. Cox, I believe your son would have been well-tended if he had been holding a pole when a salmon got him.

You were misquoted, weren't you, Mr. Cox?

FOUR SHOTS: SUBSTITUE

We almost forgot to report this, but about two weeks ago the Eden Bachelor (ex) called us outside, in his head back to ye old rock pile, over to meet Mrs. Ellen Bachelor (ex), nee Lady No. 1. (Everyone following that monotonous "I'm chattered with Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Bachelor (ex)" option that is not being allowed to be the best man. Just as we were preparing to head back to ye old rock pile, the Ellen Bachelor (ex) thrust a package at us. We protested, he insisted. His insistence wore down our resistance.

Later we found half a dozen cigars, a box of candy (for Mrs. Pot Shiola) and a pint of w-e-y in the package. The cigars and candy have some of the way of all cigars and candy. The w-e-y was waiting for such an emergency as being bitten by a cobra or politician.

BLUE SKY

What is more beautiful than a clear blue sky? His, azure days a most serene poem, but deep blue skies make the days in our season. Not a-kim-milk blue, which is a sky full of clouds, but a deep blue sky, where the blue of blue flowers fresh at dawn, which makes a sky to be lived with and enjoyed.

Such a day is rare in our country at its best, and of the season on rare days, and of almost any where after a thunderstorm has cleared the air. It is a rippled by lightning and washed away by rain, and there was the sky of infinity and eternity, blue and innocent and full of benevolence.

It is the sky of infinity, and there is no blustery about it. Blue light is there, the blue end of the spectrum filled out of the sun's rays by dust particles that filter in the upper atmosphere, and that layer, in the cold stratosphere, the sky is a deep purplish gray. The murk that makes the blue lie back, backward, in layers of smoke, and of acid clouds gathering for a storm. Clear the sky and look up to the depths of infinity, and there it is, the blue light is healing to the heart and soothing to the senses.

It is bluest in high, dry country, which knows little mist is rare in this country, which perpetuates its own rain, and being rare, it is there most cherished. Gray summer days are sweltering days at best; but a flash of blue sky and the temperature is of little consequence. Give us one clear look at infinity and we know that life is good, the day is sweet.—New York Times.

MORE FOREST ROAD FUNDS

Two more Pacific Northwest highways in which few of the greatest interest stand to benefit from the increased road highway appropriations made available July 1, the opening of the new fiscal year.

Three Flats Highway, traversing the region east of the Cascades from Canada to Mexico, and the Lewis and Clark highway, intended to connect Lewiston with Astoria by the Clearwater valley, and Lolo pass through considerable national forest land. Contrasted with $9,800,000 which the forest highway and highway for construction in the next three years, congress appropriated a little more than $20,000,000 for the current year.

Forty senators and representatives from western states joined in the effort which was sold to the congress on grounds that immediate improvement of the roads is in the interest of our economic and defense needs.

It is hoped that, with the new start gained this year, the road program will be maintained so that previous outlays will not be wasted, that no that may be brought up to required standards and links along the most desirable routes now in various stages of serviceability will be attended to.—Walla Walla Union Bulletin.

CODE FOR COMICS

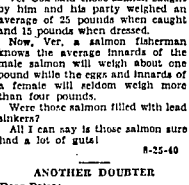

Fourteen publishers of comic books have agreed on a code of ethics designed to eliminate objectionable and offenses against good taste, glorification of crime and offenses against good taste.

Precedents for this step were taken years ago by the book business and the movies, both of which have been able to avoid the censor's order of enforcement powers. As in the previous instances, remedial action followed rising protests against abuses.

The comic book publisher is asking for the right of their own protection, otherwise restrictive legislation will do the job for them, and probably not in the best way. Return can come only by joint action, the individual concern is rather helpless.

For this reason one wonders that 20 other publishers have not joined in the effort of uniting to subject themselves to reasonable restrictions that they bring the house down on the whole industry.—Nampa Free Press.

Donna Flatt Announces Engagement to L. Sayre

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Flatt announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Donna Jean to Lowell L. Sayre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Sayre, Parma, at a party held Monday afternoon at their home, 1301 Fifth avenue east.

Miss Flatt's betrothal was revealed to the small group of friends attending the affair by a white satin ribbon which was held by a miniature bride and which bore the inscription, "Donna Jean Flatt, August 15." The refreshment table was centered with a bouquet of regal lilies and babies' breath arranged in a crystal bowl and flanked by white napkins.

The bride-elect was graduated from Twin Falls high school in 1946 and has attended the College of Idaho, Caldwell, for the past two years.

Sayre received his degree from Parma high school in 1942 and served three years with the coast guard during the war. He has completed two years of study in education at the College of Idaho.

The wedding has been tentatively set for Sunday, Aug. 16.

Relief Society Fetes Officers At Lawn Party

The retiring presidency and visiting teachers of the LDS third ward Relief society were honored at a garden breakfast held recently at the home of Mrs. Hadley Foote. Fifty-five members of the society attended the breakfast.

Retiring officers honored at the affair were Mrs. Hazel Stevens, president; Mrs. Lydia Call, first counselor; Mrs. Olive Henry, second counselor, and Mrs. Phyllis Jackson, secretary. Each of the officers was presented a book from the society.

Following the breakfast, Florence Schully county home demonstration agent, spoke on the correct packaging of frozen foods. Miss Schully demonstrated the correct way to freeze frozen beans and chicken.

This demonstration table was a fine bouquet of delphinium and white lilies. Rosebuds and babies' breath centered the 15 tables while the breakfast was served in the Potee yard.

Hostesses were the new officers of the Relief society, Mrs. Phoebe Williams, president; Mrs. Paul Lloyd, first counselor; Mrs. Lillian Williams, second counselor, and Mrs. Florence Lewis, secretary.

The meeting of the group will be held Aug. 15 at the home of Mrs. Bruce at the Logan LDS temple. Mrs. P. L. Lawrence will present a program on school and fall merchandising at the meeting.

We, the Women

By RUTH MILLETT

Columnist Robert Riarik recently remarked: "I quarrel with our misplaced kindness to the female over the last few years. It has given her time to think, and a thinking woman is something to be proud of, for she has not yet learned to separate thought from intuition."

But, Mr. Riarik, being a man, you are right. You resent her because she eventually gets around to thinking. "Why should I bore myself with a man's peace of mind because I am a thinking woman? In a skeptical woman—she doesn't believe everything she is told by a great big, powerful man."

Then, too, a thinking woman can't be hushed up. Having something to say, she will say it. And, of course, men much prefer to do all the talking themselves. Sure, you probably could get along without a thinking woman, but she is the most dangerous thing they're thinking is that they're going to go right on thinking.

Low-Cost Menus

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Staff Writer

Looking for budget food items with top quality nutrition? Then look for seasonal foods that are abundant. Here are some. First, potatoes: their cantaloupe, spinach, cabbage, tomatoes, celery, green beans, beets. There's good food value in canned vegetables, peas, corn, sweet potatoes, tomato juice, tomato sauce, tomato puree and tomato soup, all plentiful. Canned citrus juices are abundant, too: apple sauce, apple juice and canned fruit juices (purple plums).

Study the following low-cost menus. They will help you plan your meals well and within a budget: Dinner: Corned beef and cabbage (using the comparatively low-cost pink corned beef), parsley potatoes, bread, butter or fortified margarine, vegetable relish, lemon sherbet, coffee, milk.

This dinner will cost about $3.10 for a family of five. Dinner: Grilled hamburgers, canned creamed corn, steamed cabbage, bread, butter or fortified margarine, stuffed celery, rhubarb Betty, coffee, milk.

This dinner will cost about $2.62 for a family of five. Dinner: Poached fillets of fish, baked potatoes, buttered peas, steamed green peas, onion and cucumber salad, bread, butter or fortified margarine, chocolate pudding, coffee, milk.

This dinner will cost about $2.77 for a family of five. Dinner: Glazed luncheon loaf, hot potato salad, creamed spinach, bread, butter or fortified margarine, cole slaw, filled cookies, coffee, milk.

"All Kiddin' Aside, Joe, You Can't Beat good Ol' BUTTER-KRUST"

There's no kiddin' about the fact that BUTTER-KRUST Bread is preferred by the majority of the people in Magic Valley. Its rich food value hits the spot with those who do a heavy day's work. For another reason, housewives like BUTTER-KRUST because of its unusual flavor and texture. Demand proves that it's Magic Valley's "all-purpose" favorite.

2 Ski Jumps Planned For Magic Mountain

The Magic mountain ski area will soon include one of the best ski jumps in the nation, according to plans completed at a meeting of interested persons at the ski lodge Sunday afternoon.

English, who has made a specialty of surveying new ski areas and planning the installation of lifts, said the 45-meter jump will be comparable to any in the country. He said a 175-foot jump will be possible from the 45-meter structure.

Other unpromisingly being made in the area, this year include the construction of a Constant Lift on the Magic Mountain ski club, with the assistance of the forest service and the Twin Falls youth and recreation club. Work will be done by Engen before.

Veteran Tells Tale of 'Hard' Pershing Way

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK, July 29 (AP)—It isn't every sergeant in the army who is promoted for splashing mud all over full-ranking general.

J. Norman (The Old Sarge) Lodge believes he is the only sergeant in the American army who got a higher rank by giving Gen. John J. Pershing an impromptu mud bath.

Lodge, an Associate Press correspondent overseas during World War I, served as an enlisted man with Pershing in Mexico and in France.

Serving as a company commander with the 101st Airborne Division, Lodge was gassed in one early engagement in World War I and hit in both legs by German machine gun bullets in another battle. When he recovered, he was assigned to duty as a motorcycle dispatch rider.

Maintained Schedule

"In spite of the shell-torn roads we had to keep a schedule," he recalled. "From Souilly to Chaumont, Pershing's headquarters, it was two hours—an almost impossible feat."

"On 1 May I was given a new uniform, the chateau yard at Chaumont just as Pershing was emerging, nearly dead."

"It had been raining—it always rains during a war—and as I skidded up to the steps the motorcycle splashed mud all over my uniform."

"His quick temper flared. His short riding crop, which was as much a part of his uniform as his highly polished boots, came up and down—across my knuckles."

Lodge, his knuckles stinging, saluted. Pershing took a look at the sergeant's stripes on his sleeve and said:

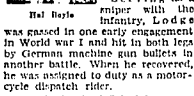

"What is your name, PRIVATE?"

"Lodge, sir, 6085, headquarters, 101st Infantry, 20th division."

Lodge thereupon handed the general's aide the dispatch. The next morning he cut the sergeant's stripes off his sleeves before reporting for orders.

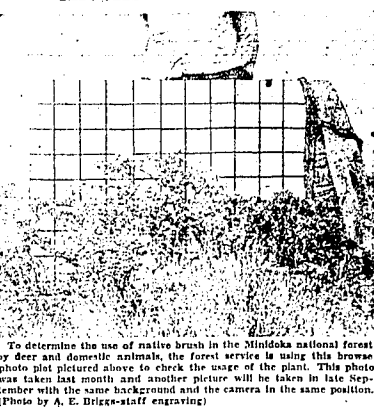

The adjutant noticed it and smiled. Lodge said, "When I returned to my unit I had been given a rating as battalion sergeant major—two pay grades above my former rating—by the general's own orders."

"But that's the way Pershing was—a tartar, yet a softie."

Checks Brush Growth

To determine the use of native brush in the Minidoka national forest by deer and domestic animals, the forest service is using this browse photo taken directly above to check the usage of plants. This photo was taken last month and another picture will be taken in late September with the same background and the camera in the same position. (Photo by A. E. Briggs-staff engraving)

Deer Population Shows Large Increase in Area Range Land

BURLEY, July 29—A substantial increase in the number of deer in the Albion and Casola division of the Minidoka national forest has been reported by A. E. Briggs, forest supervisor.

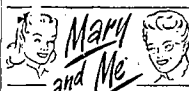

Briggs has just completed a survey of ranchlands and studied the plant life upon which deer depend for food during winter grazing.

Deer were found to be well distributed over all areas of the range. Excessive congregations of deer were found in the Green canyon area of the Albion division and the Squaw creek, Goose creek, Bacterian areas of the Casola division, Briggs said.

The forest service has established forage utilization plots on representative areas of winter and summer range where they can not maintain themselves in a good condition, less forage is available and the grazing capacity of the range is reduced, Briggs said.

Experience has shown when forage plants are excessively used over a period of years and reach a weakened and dying condition, many years of hard use to protect the plant are necessary, the forest supervisor said.

In recent years, the peak number of deer were reached in 1942, 1943 and 1944 in the Casola division.

Mary and Me

Some people think they are worth a lot of money just because they have it.

My father and mother were worth it. You would call wealthy. But I don't believe they had any more happiness than Father and I, or even Mary and Bill enjoy today.

For, after all, it's the everyday things in life that are most important.

Like the smile that comes over Bill's face when Mary brings him a slice of her freshly-baked coconut cake. "Best one you ever baked," he beams.

Mary says that Morning Milk really makes a difference in her recipe. "I didn't use it in the last 2 cakes because my supply was running low, but now I've learned my lesson and I'll always have enough Morning Milk in the house."

Yes, smooth-rich Morning Milk does make a difference.

Farm Safety Body To Name Council

BOISE, July 29 (AP)—An executive council of five men was established today to operate a farm safety committee in Idaho.

The group defined a representative of the University of Idaho extension service "should be chairman. He will be selected later."

Richardson of Boise, state vocational agriculture director, was elected secretary, and L. P. Beaman of Idaho, county production and marketing administration, was named vice chairman. The two remaining spots on the executive council will be filled by the Orange and Idaho Farm Bureau federations.

The organizational group decided future activities would be planned at the winter meeting of the Idaho chapter of the national safety council.

Columbia Basin Officials to Meet

BOISE, July 29 (AP)—The Columbia basin inter-agency committee will meet at Bonners Ferry July 27 with the international joint commission.

State Reclamation Engineer Mark B. Kulp said the inter-agency committee scheduled for Portland July 28 has been postponed until July 29 to enable members to attend the Bonners Ferry session.

The Columbia basin group had been invited by Gov. C. A. Robina to meet with the international joint commission to study flood control problems on the Kootenai river.
