Demos Carry Idaho; Dwarshak Losing

President Is Winner; Goff Loses Office

BOISE, Nov. 3 (UP)—Idaho today had repudiated a Republican senator and representative, and given four electoral votes to President Truman in yesterday's general election.

Republican Sen. Henry Dwarshak was trailing his Democratic opponent, supreme court Justice Bert H. Miller with well over 95 per cent of the vote counted. The senator was 3,600 votes behind at 11:30 a. m.

However, Dwarshak refused to admit defeat, and friends of the senator at Burley said he would not be available for comment to the press until 4 p. m. today.

Abe McGregor Goff, GOP first district congressman, already has conceded his loss to the Democrat, Compton I. White.

Trend Shows School Laws Gaining Okay

BOISE, Nov. 3 (UP)—Idaho voters have taken the first steps in "removing education from politics" by proposed constitutional amendments five and six.

Although reports of voting on the two amendments today were still incomplete, the trend in favor of the two proposals has been definitely established.

Okayed by Legislature

The two proposals, approved by the 1947 legislature as part of the state school reorganization program, will make the county school superintendent's office appointive rather than elective and remove the constitutional requirements for the office of state school superintendent.

Five more amendments were planned as part of the whole scheme to make school superintendents appointive rather than elective.

The passing of the amendments represents a major victory for the Idaho Education Association.

Progressives Say They Gave Aid in Dwarshak Defeat

BOISE, Nov. 3 (UP)—Idaho's Progressive Party today claimed credit for the Democratic victory in the senate and the first congressional district races by virtue of having "exposed the shameful voting record" of the Republican congressional candidates.

Helen McCann, executive secretary of the Idaho Progressive Party, issued a statement today claiming that "we placed in the hands of 100,000 persons in Idaho the decision for all present in Idaho the Republican congressional candidates."

Miss McCann added that "we are going to stay in business and see to it that they (the Democrats) keep their campaign pledges."

Carlton Edges Out Rayborn

The seven-to-five defeat of a Democratic sheriff in 1944 was reversed at the polls Tuesday when Sheriff Broda R. Rayborn, Republican, was defeated by Jesse Carlton, Democrat. Complete unofficial returns from Twin Falls county's 38 precincts gave Carlton 7,225 votes to Rayborn's 7,039, a narrow majority of 186 in the county's spotlight contest.

In 1944, Rayborn became one of the youngest sheriffs in the northwest and the first Republican sheriff in this county for some 14 years when he ousted Democrat Warren W. Lowery, 6,987 to 4,607. Republicans were the winners in this county in all other contests, but majorities were not sizeable.

Carlton, D. Dewey, Sen. Henry C. Dwarshak and Rep. Goff carried this county. Republicans also won in the state senate and representative races and carried all county contests except the race for sheriff.

The total vote in the U. S. senatorial battle was 14,048, a 14,082 ballot cast in the gubernatorial contest in the 1944 presidential election. The total this year exceeded those of the 1942 and 1946 general elections when 9,076 and 11,652 ballots were voted respectively.

In the presidential race, Governor Dewey led President Truman 7,200 to 5,929, with Progressive Henry A. Wallace garnering 132 votes. Senatorial returns showed: Republican Norman Thomas receiving 15, and Prohibitionist Claude A. Watson taking 13, in incomplete returns.

Support Dwarshak

Totals in the senatorial contest showed Twin Falls county supporting Senator Dwarshak to the tune of 8,023 ballots. Bert H. Miller, Democrat, received 1,689. Progressive John Dier trailed with 78 votes, and Socialist Paul Wengert got in with four votes.

A similar Republican majority was noted in the race for U. S. representative. Incumbent Sanborn defeated Democrat Asael Lyman 8,156 to 5,746, and C. W. Dahl, Progressive, picked up 78 votes.

State Sen. Carl D. Irwin was re-elected with 7,002 ballots to Tom P. Alworth's 6,232. One state representative, C. W. Colner, was re-elected with 8,024 votes and two Republicans were sent to join him, County Commissioner K. E. Green, 1,444, and Jay M. Merrill, new to politics, with the higher vote of 1,745.

Demos Voted

Votes for Democratic candidates for that office were: James L. Barnes, 6,180; Harold B. Clark, 6,053, and Asher T. Wilson, 2,000.

Demos Also Win Control Of Congress

By The Associated Press

President Truman, in an astounding upset of pre-balloting predictions, today won the presidency for a full four year term. He will have a Democratic senate and house to work with him.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, his Republican opponent, conceded Mr. Truman's election at 11:15 a. m. EST.

At that time, Mr. Truman was leading in 28 states having 304 electoral votes. Needed to win are 266 electoral votes.

Dewey was leading in 16 states with 139 electoral votes. Four states with 38 electoral votes had been captured, or were leaning to, States' Rights Candidate J. Strom Thurmond. James Hagerly, Dewey's press secretary announced that Dewey had conceded the election in a telegram to Mr. Truman.

At the time Dewey conceded, Truman was leading in or had won the following states: Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

"Peace Goal" Pledge Given By President

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 3 (AP)—President Truman promised today to dedicate himself "to the cause of peace in the world" and "prosperity and happiness at home" as he won the election. He said the greatest upset victory.

He promised to "serve the American people to the best of my ability in the four years ago."

And he acknowledged the congratulations of his defeated opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, and commended him for his "fine sportsmanship."

"I feel very deeply the responsibility which has fallen to my lot as the result of the election," he said in a statement. "I shall continue to serve the American people to the best of my ability."

He said the greatest upset victory was devoted to the cause of peace in the world and the prosperity and happiness of our people here at home.

And he wired Dewey, "I thank you sincerely for your congratulations and good wishes. Your fine sportsmanship is deeply appreciated."

Truman told his congratulations to the American people who have again shown the world the vitality of our institutions.

As he left the hotel, the President was asked, "Can you tell us how that Truman poll worked?"

"I can't," he said, "when you win you can't say anything about it."

Mr. Truman not only had forecast his own victory in campaign talks, but Democratic control of both houses of congress.

3 Are Injured as Train Is Derailed

KENT, Fla., Nov. 3 (UP)—Three persons were injured today when six coaches of the Southern Railway's Fonce de Leon were derailed near here, Sheriff H. J. Youngblood reported.

The Nassau county sheriff said the wreck occurred as the Diesel-powered passenger train reached an isolated spot in extreme north Florida swampland en route from Jacksonville to Cincinnati.

A defective rail was blamed. The derailed coaches were not airtight. Identities and conditions of the injured persons were not immediately determined.

ROME, Nov. 3 (UP)—Roman newspapers devoted most of their front page space to the American election today, and the demand for them was unprecedented.

Dewey Avers He 'Will Not' Try It Again

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (UP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey conceded the election of President Truman today and announced he would not run for the presidency a third time.

In a press conference held less than two hours after he had conceded, the New York governor said he was "surprised as anybody else" about the loss he took from Mr. Truman.

"I have no plans for the future," Dewey told reporters.

He denied he would resign as governor and said he had no plans for running for re-election as New York's chief executive.

Asked whether he would run for the presidency a third time, Dewey replied: "No."

"Impossible to Tell"

He said it was "impossible to tell" what the role of organized labor was in his defeat. Asked whether labor opposition was the "chief factor," he said he would have to study the returns in greater detail than he had so far.

He was asked if he had any plans as head of the Republican party for achieving unity behind the administration.

"I have no comment on my future plans until I have a better opportunity to see what the returns mean," he answered.

RETURNS SURPRISE JAPAN

TOKYO, Nov. 3 (UP)—American army and civilian personnel and Japanese were surprised today by President Truman's strong showing in early election returns.

Explaining his delay in announcing his decision, the district judge stated he believed it would be "quite impossible" to conduct a grand jury investigation or act on the request for one before election "without incurring the charge that the action was taken to hinder or obstruct political ambitions," especially with a city policeman opposing the sheriff in the election.

Turning to considerations which prompted his decision, the judge emphasized the "considerable doubt," he phrased the "considerable doubt," as to what conditions warranted empaneling a grand jury, the manner of its operation, and the scope of its inquiry. He declared, "... many appear to have a deep but unwarranted faith in its efficacy."

13 Are Killed as Airplane Crashes

LONDON, Nov. 3 (UP)—A U. S. air force Superfortress crashed in today, apparently killing the three officers and 10 enlisted men aboard.

The big bomber, one of the fleet stationed in Britain since last summer when the Berlin crisis became acute, was reported to have crashed in a high hill and burned.

Medical crews sped to the scene of the crash 13 miles southeast of Manchester in north-central England. Authorities reported a 2,000-foot broken ceiling in the area at the time of the crash.

While the first reports lacked any confirmed word of casualties, an official statement said no signs of life were seen around the wreckage.

Judge Baker Denies City Request for Grand Jury Probe

The request for grand jury will, at this time, be denied," stated District Judge Hugh A. Baker in a six-page letter dated Nov. 3, and addressed to the mayor and city council of Twin Falls. The judge summarized his reasons for that decision in these paragraphs:

"1. You have not directed my attention definitely to any public offense triable in Twin Falls county, except two, one of which is not a felony."

"You have not pointed out any reason why these matters cannot properly be handled by the magistrate and procedures normally employed in the prosecution of crime."

"Aside from the two matters referred to, I would be unable to instruct as to matters likely to constitute a grand jury and am without identity of any person possessed of facts material to any inquiry."

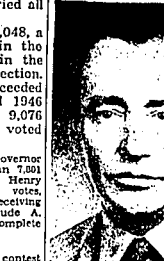

"2. I cannot believe that sixteen citizens of Twin Falls county, with experience in the investigation of crime and without authority to employ experienced investigators, would, without more definite direction than I could now give, be able to accomplish much when you, with your service, have been able to accomplish so little."

In his letter, Judge Baker pointed out the request for a grand jury, made Sept. 22, was mine not for the purpose of considering specific unresolved crimes but to investigate and determine the truth or falsity of rumors affecting the city's reputation.

Concerning the second conference Oct. 8, the judge wrote: "Except as to two matters, you appeared to have no evidence of specific violations of law or of official misconduct, but expressed the hope that a grand jury 'investigation' would 'clear the clouded atmosphere.'"

Judge Baker stated the two conferences with the city officials, and with others, disclosed the situation complained about is the outgrowth of "abuse of cooperation" between the city police department and the county sheriff's office. The district judge urged complete harmony and close cooperation between the two law enforcement agencies.

Quitting?

Secretary of state, who today neither confirmed nor denied published reports he intended to resign after Jan. 20, regardless of who is elected President.

Marshall Isn't Sure Whether He Will 'Quit'

PARIS, Nov. 3. (AP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall, when asked today if he planned to resign, said today he often had "expressed the sincere desire to retire from government service."

Marshall declined to say flatly whether he planned to quit for good after Jan. 20, when the President will be inaugurated.

Aides pointed out, however, that Marshall probably would follow the custom of all cabinet officers who invariably submit a formal resignation when a President is inaugurated.

Marshall probably would submit such a formal resignation even if President Truman wins, aides said. "He has made no statement whatsoever," they said, "regarding his intention to reshuffle his cabinet."

Pressed to confirm or deny reports he would quit Jan. 20 regardless of the outcome of the presidential elections, Marshall wrote out this reply for the United Press: "I have made no statement whatsoever. I have on numerous occasions expressed the very sincere desire to retire from government service."

Taylor Tosses in Sponge for Third Party at Midnight

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 3. (AP)—Ben. Glen H. Taylor, Progressive party candidate for vice president, threw in the sponge as far as his ticket was concerned shortly before midnight last night.

But the Idaho senator said he and Henry A. Wallace felt "the people haven't had enough of us." They've had too much of "war scare" politics, he claimed.

Taylor flew here after casting his ballot in Fossil, Idaho, yesterday. His brother, Paul Taylor, is a Progressive party candidate for congress from California.

However, Taylor said he planned to retain his Democratic affiliation in the U. S. senate. His term has two more years to run, and he pointed out that four years ago "the people elected me" as a Democrat.

Oil Union OK Voted on Pact To End Strike

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3. (AP)—Representatives of the CIO Oil Workers union will sign a contract with the Shell Oil company today, ending a 62-day strike against one of eight major California oil producers.

Five locals of the union voted last night to accept the contract. They were Ventura, Soledad, Bakerfield and Long Beach.

Marinette rejected it, but a union official said the vote overruled the Marinette ballot.

Locals Met Today
The union locals probably will meet today to vote to determine when to lift their picket lines and return to their jobs.

The settlement provided for a 14½-cent wage increase. It set up a four-man board, two from industry and two from the union, to hear the cases of 32 employees accused of violence.

Others Returned
Earlier, workers returned to their jobs with Shell Chemical company at Dominguez. Union members will vote tonight whether to accept a contract covering 1,200 workers at Standard Oil's refinery at El Segundo.

Similar agreements were reported awaiting union approval at Tidewater and "Texaco Oil" companies. The union has not yet agreed on submission of the proposal at Union and Richmond.

Trained Donkeys Burned to Death

GLENN'S FERRY, Nov. 3. (AP)—Two of seven trained donkeys burned to death when a truck caught fire yesterday one mile west of Hammett.

The donkeys are owned by Jack Moore, Payette, and appear at various athletic games in feature acts. Moore said he valued the two animals lost at $5,000.

The fire was believed to have been caused by the truck's exhaust pipe.

Acquia Events
ACEQUIA, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Warren Nelson and infant, Opportunity, Wash., were recent visitors at the home of her brother, Earl Poole, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bill have received word of the birth of their first grandchild, a daughter born to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hardman, Procellon, on Oct. 18.

Warm
The fire department was called at midnight Tuesday to the home of Eva M. Stanger, 340 Elm street, to extinguish a blaze caused by electrical wiring around a radio, officials of the department said.

The radio, a footstool, bedding and curtains were burned. Firemen attributed the blaze to "hot election news on the air all evening."

Vets Told About Premium Savings On GI Insurance

A savings in insurance is available to World War II veterans who are still paying their GI insurance premiums on a monthly basis, according to Don Dwyall, Twin Falls veterans administration office.

Pointing out that approximately 70 per cent of the veteran policy holders in the Pacific northwest are paying monthly, the VA explained that a three per cent annual discount is granted when payments are made quarterly, semi-annually or annually. In addition, the small number of premiums to be paid lessens the chance of the veteran's policy lapsing, the VA said.

Veterans can take advantage of this savings by visiting any VA office or writing the VA branch office insurance service in Seattle, requesting the type of premium payment desired.

Decree Given for Holiday Shooting

PAYETTE, Nov. 3. (AP)—A corner's fury has found that Lee Ellis, former New Plymouth superintendent of schools, was "guilty of criminally shooting" a 15-year-old youth on a Halloween outing.

Sherriff Ray Bergstrom said Ellis had fired a shotgun at five youths Halloween night.

Earl L. Clowser, New Plymouth, died Monday morning in an Ochs, Ore. hospital. He was struck in the chest and abdomen by shot-gun pellets.

Corner Gifford Shaffer said Ellis did not take the stand in his own behalf at the inquest.

Gallup Gives His Reasons In Big Upset

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—The Gallup poll, which predicted a margin for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, easily today gave two reasons why President Truman piled up such a big vote:

1. He "recaptured" many votes from Henry A. Wallace.

2. A lot of the "undecided" voters in the poll voted for Truman.

Dr. George Gallup's American Institute of Public Opinion predicted in its final announcement Monday that Dewey would get 49.5 per cent of the vote and Truman 44.5 per cent.

Given at 6 a.m. at 6 a.m. today, with Truman's popular vote more than 1,200,000 ahead of Dewey's, a Gallup spokesman issued this statement:

"In the closest presidential race since the Hughes-Wilson election in 1916, all public opinion polls—national, state and local—have underestimated the Democratic strength."

"President Truman staged a strong upsurge in the closing days of the campaign to recapture votes previously lost to Henry A. Wallace."

Steady Wallace Decline
"The polls without exception showed a steady decline throughout the campaign in Wallace's following, but on election day his support skidded sharply."

"Polls earlier in the year showed that what votes the Progressive candidate would receive would come almost entirely from the Democratic party."

Over 3,000,000 voters remained undecided on their presidential choice right up to the week before election. Obviously substantial numbers of these undecided voters cast their ballots for President Truman."

EDUCATORS TO MEET
BOISE, Nov. 3. (AP)—The state board of education will meet in Boise three days this week. Allen B. Jones, superintendent of public instruction, said. The board will meet Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Sportsmen Turn to Game Birds as Angling Closes

BOISE, Nov. 3 (AP)—Pheasant, duck and quail will engage the attention of many Idaho hunters now that the general fishing season has ended and with most of the big game hunts over.

A few big game hunts remain. Starting Monday was a 15-day elk season in portions of Fremont and Teton counties. There is a 30-day deer season in the Panhandle counties and a special season for 200 permit holders Nov. 1-5 in the Big Lost river game preserve. Extending until Dec. 31 is a special season for deer and elk in a portion of Latah county.

Nevada Passer Eyes Pro-Football Ranks

RENO, Nov. 3 (AP)—Smilin' Stan Heath, Nevada's passing perfectionist, found himself wondering whether he would be able to turn pro after all when he completes his present phenomenal season with the Wolf Pack wonder team.

The curly-haired six-footer admitted he planned to join the ranks of the play for pay gridder at the end of the current season with unbroken Nevada. "I'm married," he explained, "and I need the money."

Reports from the mildest indicate that at the Reno book store, Heath is not eligible to turn professional at the end of the present season with unbroken Nevada. "I'm married," he explained, "and I need the money."

Heath again to explain Nevada's player eligibility rules, Shekett replied, "I have no comment to make at this time."

Heath said he felt he was eligible to enter the pro ranks at the end of the current season with unbroken Nevada. "I'm married," he explained, "and I need the money."

Bear Dogs Hit Trail

John Fernald is shown above with his pack of bear dogs as they hit the trail in search of a member of North Carolina's growing bear population. Although it is illegal to kill a bear in North Carolina, Fernald is hunting the bears from farmers' fields.

The bear population started coming back and as of now has arrived with a vengeance.

In fall and summer, many of them leave the swamps and raid farms, causing considerable damage to crops and livestock.

The west and mysterious Green Swamp, located in the heart of the southeastern North Carolina, teeming with bears since state protection halted the ravages of forest fires which once threatened to exterminate them.

SICE Panthers Gird for Battle With Boise Squad

ALBION, Nov. 3.—Members of the Southern Idaho College of Education football team resumed practice Tuesday for the all-important game Friday night with Boise Junior college in Jerome.

Winner of the game probably will wind up as champion of the newly formed Intermountain Collegiate Athletic association. Both Boise and the Panthers have only one game left to play.

Boise has not lost a game in the last three years and only the Panthers have only one game left to play.

On the basis of previous game scores, the Panthers will enter the game on about even terms. Indications point to one of the finest college football games ever played in Idaho.

Coach Gene Cooper's Albion squad is keyed up for the game, which has been an old rivalry for the two teams.

The Panther backfield boasts a hard hitting combination of halfbacks in Wes Bell, Burley, and Gene Hildes, and a fullback in Glenn Perry.

Leahy Tried To Hold Irish Back in Game

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP)—Dane Leahy, who saw the Navy-Navy game last Saturday, won by Notre Dame 41-7, are convinced Coach Leahy did everything but put chains on his rampaging players in an effort to hold down the score.

No joke on a fast break in a forced race over pulled harder on the rear end when a bunch of vicious men get out there on a football field there's not much you can do to hold them back.

The score was large possibly was due to the fact that Leahy never points to team for any game. He points it to every game. The game coming up any particular week, even if it is against some winners, is a hopeless opponent, is the big game.

Leahy prepares the team mentally for every emergency, although occasionally a situation arises which he himself created. Such a situation arose at Newport, during the recent trip to Iowa City to meet the Hawkeyes.

An elevator containing Mr. and Mrs. Leahy, among others, stuck between floors so there was only one way between the top of the lift and a floor level. After Leahy had been there about 15 minutes, while the elevator struggled to release the stuck elevator, Leahy and Mrs. Leahy were seen to be shouting and shouting Leahy.

"Here, coach," he called impatiently, "what do we now? Pump!"

Yellowstone Area Sets Ski Lift

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont., Nov. 3 (AP)—New ski lift is ready for use at the Lion Head mountain area by Dec. 10, Hans Scharf, a sponsor of the project, announced.

Last year the area had two rope tows and construction on the half-mile lift was started last April.

Indianay Have Chance

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 3 (AP)—Injuries plagued Stanford's football team Saturday. Stanford's Schwartz said his Indians were "capable of beating Army." The Indians met Vandyek stadium at New York.

Finland won 10 track and field titles in the 1924 Olympic games. Number ever scored by other than a U. S. team.

Bird in Hand

MEI Carter looks upon bird hunters who use shotguns with deep disdain. Mei was driving down a road Monday near Twin Falls with a friend who was bird hunting.

The friend was hunting, but Mei wasn't. The friend got one bird and they were moving to a new location when a cock flew across the road in front of the car.

Mei didn't even have a hunting license, leaped from the machine and caught the bird with his bare hands.

When asked what he was going to do with it, Mei said he was going to put a tag of some kind on it and turn it loose—it's a good story anyway.

Coach Blamed for Suspended Skater

NUTLEY, N. J., Nov. 3 (AP)—Ray Blum, Olympic skater who has been suspended by the Amateur Skating Union, said he resented the suspension.

The ASU, concluding its annual convention in Milwaukee, announced yesterday suspension of Blum and Ken Bartholomew, another ice skater, after he had been charged with the use of unsportsmanlike conduct.

A five-man committee has been named to conduct a hearing on the charges against the two members of the U. S. Olympic skating team.

No first round starting skater took part in the final round. Coach Ernie Gran took only reserve men to the final round against the Junior college contest Friday night in Jerome.

Blum said he "never did get along with the skating coach (Peter Miller) of Chicago."

Pinehurst Develops in Pinehurst Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 3 (AP)—Chuck Herbert, long driving pro from Northville, Mich.; Julius Barnes, a good amateur from Bridgeport, Conn.; and Glenn Teal, unsifted Charlotte, N. C., pro, shot their way into a three-cornered fight for the lead in the first round of the North and South open tournament.

Each had an opening round of 64 or four under par. Herbert and Barnes each shot 33-33. One round behind them were Clayton Herbert, Charlotte, while Sam Bread, the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., slugger had an even 70.

North Carolina Bears Elude Dogs With Help of Alligators

SOUTHPORT, N. C. (AP)—John Fernald's bear dogs don't have a chance to get rusty. They hunt most of the year, and strictly legally.

The vast and mysterious Green Swamp, located in the heart of the southeastern North Carolina, teeming with bears since state protection halted the ravages of forest fires which once threatened to exterminate them.

The bear population started coming back and as of now has arrived with a vengeance.

In fall and summer, many of them leave the swamps and raid farms, causing considerable damage to crops and livestock.

Cornell Coach Defends Free Player Usage

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 3 (AP)—Suggestion that substitutions in college football be limited was panned by Cornell coach, George K. (Lefty) James, who is credited with making 200 substitutions last Saturday.

James Phelan, coach of the Los Angeles Rams, of the All-American football conference, took issue with the unlimited substitutions rule at a New York football writers' luncheon.

James said he didn't know Phelan or any other professional football coach would "enter into the discussion."

The success of the Cornell team, James observed, "has been due to the fact that we have used our substitutes."

"I had an idea," James said, "that we would hear something of this sort or later because certain coaches either didn't originate the idea or didn't get into the act early

Enrollment of Nurses Urged By Red Cross

A renewed appeal for more of the community's nurses to enroll with the Red Cross to meet local and national nursing needs beyond the line of duty was made today by Mrs. Lisa Molony, nursing service chairman of the Twin Falls Red Cross chapter.

Mrs. Molony called the summer's outbreak of polioepidemics throughout the country as evidence of the continuing need for nurses to combat epidemics and disasters "which may strike any community at any time."

"Although the Red Cross recruited more than 1,000 nurses for polio work since the first of the year," Mrs. Molony said, "last reports indicated that there were still nurses needed, particularly in North Carolina, where the epidemic was most severe."

She pointed out that 75 disasters requiring nurses occurred in 35 states in the year ending June 30, in those disasters 1,621 nurses served a total of 10,737 days.

Nurses are also needed, Mrs. Molony emphasized, in the expanding Red Cross national blood program, to be instructors in the organization's home nursing and nurses aid program and to interpret the basic philosophy of the Red Cross to student and nursing groups.

In addition to the active nurses who can give part of their spare time to Red Cross work, registered nurses no longer active are also urged to enroll, Mrs. Molony said. Former nurses who have either retired or become housewives can give added service to their communities as well as keep informed on the latest nursing information and skills through enrollment for service with the Red Cross, she said.

Garth Reid made the second speech and described "Events leading up to World War II." The third speech was made by Elvia Cain whose subject was "Events Leading to the Korean War."

The last address, "Consequences of War," was made by Arthur Klein, Dr. Gordon R. Tobin, was toastmaster, and chief critics were Al Nelson, John Platt, Merrill Skinner and Leonard Jacob.

Blue pencil award for the best speech went to Arthur Klein.

District Governor Merrill Helmbold announced a council meeting of Toastmaster clubs in district 13 will be held Nov. 20 in Caldwell. All Toastmasters and their wives are invited.

New Fight Flares In Korean Region

SEOUL, Nov. 3 (AP)—Reports from South Korea today said fighting of unspecified scope has broken out between Korean troops and military policemen at Taegu, 100 miles southeast of Seoul.

Official sources minimized the clashes, saying they were minor. "The Korean defense department said a U. S. army unit persuaded 150 Korean rebels to lay down their arms at Taegu, 100 miles southeast of here."

This would be the first reported intervention, even in a strictly non-combat role, of U. S. occupation forces in the Korean revolt.

Missing Man Is Elected as Solon

LEWISTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—Joe Rosenkrantz, Lewiston rancher who has been missing in the rugged Selway forest since a week ago Sunday, was elected to the Idaho state legislature yesterday.

Rosenkrantz, a Democrat, was elected by Nez Perce county voters as state representative.

Rosenkrantz and J. W. Bolick, also Lewiston, have been unreported since Oct. 24 when they took off in a light plane for the Moose creek landing field in the wilderness area.

"Victory" Party Left at Altar As GOP Hopes Receive Kick

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP)—Republicans who stayed up all night at national headquarters to celebrate looked at dawn today like haggard brides left waiting at the altar.

It was no quiet around the Hotel Roosevelt, where they could hear a politician's chin drop.

But if there was a politician in the place he wisely kept his mouth shut. There was no Republican chins any longer able to fall open. They had all done that hours before.

It was a scene of political carnage over which a Republican shadow cast by the little man from Missouri, Harry S. Truman, stubbornly riding out threats of a Republican landslide, had lived up to the tough motto of his state—"You got to show me."

Win, lose or draw, he had—almost single-mindedly—annihilated Republican hopes of gaining control of both congress and the presidency.

The tidal flood of Democratic votes completely ruined the grand old party's brand new victory party. It was a Manhattan version of the eve before Waterloo.

Some 300 happy party workers crowded into the gold ballroom of the hotel, confident they would see a Democratic debacle.

A score or more television and newsmen cameras were trained on the flag-draped balcony. When Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was expected to deliver his victory speech before midnight. Rumor said his aide had composed the speech two days ago.

The crowd stirred uneasily as early returns showed Truman ahead. But they cheered when Campaign Manager Herbert Brownell, grinning widely, stepped out on the gallery and minimized the figures—again predicting victory. It was the last grin of the evening.

Some Republicans left then, sure Dewey had won. But they were probably the only ones who got a good night's rest.

For after midnight deepening alarm seized the gaily-bannered room. The facts of the three-way slow-motion study of confidence changing from surprise to doubt, from doubt to disbelief—and then on to stunned fear and panic.

As Truman bobbed up like a cork.

Farm Future Appears Dim In U. S. Area

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—The farm future as depicted by recent agriculture department forecasts appears likely to be less rosy than the boom times the last known since the start of World War II.

Step by step, the department has been scanning prospects in the various phases of the nation's farm economy. The findings have special meaning for the great grain-producing midwestern states, where prosperity has been riding high.

Indications Revealed

Here's what the department reports in official documents:

1. Farmers' net income, on the average for several years now, may soon begin to turn downward.
2. Farm costs, which have risen sharply but less steeply than income, can be expected to be set up more and more of the farmers' cash returns as income gains slow down and expenses continue to climb.
3. The farmers' "real" income, in terms of what money will buy in family living, already is dropping and probably will decline further.
4. The value of farm real estate—at record or near-record peaks in many big agricultural regions—may be close to the limit of its upward march. Assuming continued high level output in the U. S. economy, land values may go up or down 10 per cent from here on. If a recession should occur, the farmer is warned to look for a slide of as much as 20 per cent.
5. Farm real estate debt on Jan. 1, 1947 was 28 per cent below the total outstanding in 1940. But there are signs the wartime and postwar trend toward debt reduction is being reversed. In 1940, farm debt was 28 per cent below 1940.
6. The farmers' tax burdens are still growing. Real estate taxes continue to move upward, and the income tax load has become much heavier.
7. Despite many storm signals, prospects are for new peak expenditures by farmers in 1949 for farm machinery, household equipment and furnishings.
8. Such outlays, however, are likely to cause farmers to dig deeper into their accumulated savings in the future than they have in recent years. They piled up greater liquid assets during and after the war than at any time in their history. But there are signs such holdings are diminishing.
9. In this connection, it is noted that farmers' non-real estate debt in 1947 reached the highest level since the early 1930s.

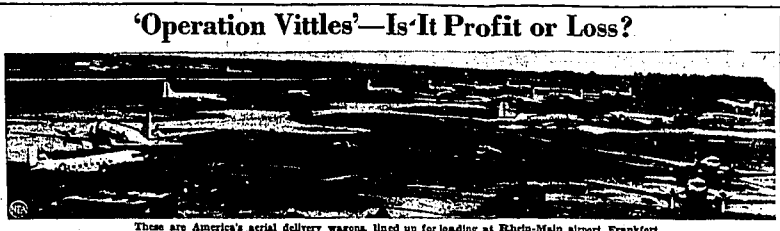

ICC Turns Down Rail Rate Raise

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission turned down the nation's railroads yesterday for their request for an immediate "emergency" eight per cent freight rate increase.

The industry wanted this boost while the ICC studied the request for a general increase of 13 per cent. This hearing was set for Nov. 30.

Shippers and other interests protested the emergency boost. They insisted on full hearings first.

New covered bridges are still being built in the United States.

These are America's aerial delivery wagons, lined up for loading at Rhein-Main airport, Frankfurt.

The Blockaded

Berliners pass to watch an airlift plane coming in to land. The plane is carrying a cache of coal and food.

Airlift Is Costing U. S. $500,000 Per Day, but Experts Say It's Paying Off

WIESBADEN, Germany (NEA)—The checks that finance officers write for "operation Vittles" at air force headquarters in Wiesbaden add up to $500,000 every day.

That's just the air force outlay. There are no figures for the rest of the bill, although unofficial figures put the daily total at about $500,000. But the books balance, say the experts. For every dollar spent, the U. S. is getting paid back full value in propaganda, training, persistence and military unification.

Berlin's "air bridge" as it is called in Europe, is the biggest air cargo operation ever undertaken. It requires constant attention on flying, and what time there is left over for bookkeeping is probably spent in adding in mileage and tonnage totals rather than dollar signs.

On the basis of the checks signed in Wiesbaden alone, however, it adds up to a $12,000,000 per month show, which is a healthy slice of the $2,000,000,000 air force appropriation. The air force discounts a big chunk of this as money that would be spent for training someplace else if "operation Vittles" were not under way.

The airlift, says the air force, is giving air transport pilots and crews much tougher around-the-clock all-weather crowded flying experience than any training course could simulate. The Berlin training is so valuable that it is the pattern for a new air lift course being established in Montana.

Even commercial aviation is taking notes on how it is done. On air force day last month, for instance, airlift planes flew almost 18 out of the 24 hours on instruments.

That was the day they delivered 5,372 tons of coal to Berlin, breaking the record of Aug. 1, 1945, when U. S. planes lifted 5,327 tons of supplies over the "hump" from India to China.

From June 26 to Sept. 26, they flew more than 16,000,000 miles and lugged an average of 3,600 tons of supplies each day.

In the process, ground maintenance crews have set new records for keeping planes in the air. Operations personnel have learned how to handle traffic problems created by take-offs and landings every three minutes and by aerial congestion that requires flying in lines of 500 feet between the altitudes of 5,000-7,000 feet.

The propaganda item on the credit side of the ledger is fairly obvious. The Berliners know the airlift means the difference between a normally rigorous winter and an unbearable one, in terms of food and fuel. What it means to the Russians is in a word, survival. No military expert counted on such a successful air cargo maneuver when they began the Berlin blockade.

Behind the scenes of "operation Vittles" is also a major example of unification of the armed forces. The air force is getting the top billing as far as publicity goes. But the navy is in the picture with "support flights" across the Atlantic. And the army transportation corps is a vital element; it carries the freight from the shipping ports to the airfields, from which the cargo planes lift it over the blockade.

Guiana, Honduras Growth Is OK'd

LONDON, Wednesday, Nov. 3 (AP)—A vast migration and development project in British Guiana and British Honduras was recommended today by the Evans commission on West Indian settlement.

The project would cost $16,000,000 pounds (about $40,000,000) to 25,000,000 pounds (about $100,000,000).

The commission's report envisages the migration of 100,000 West Indians from Barbados, Trinidad, Jamaica and other over-populated British islands to the mainland colonies within the next 10 years.

One machine can produce as many as 95,000 paper bags per hour.

Sharp Quake Hits Hoover Dam Area

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Nov. 3 (AP)—A sharp earth tremor was felt yesterday at Hoover dam, interrupting power temporarily and toppling rocks from nearby mountains.

There was no property damage.

Frank H. Werner, chief of the Lake Meade seismological survey, said the shock was the heaviest in the history of the area.

Loose rocks fell into Black canyon above and below the dam, littering the highway for two or three miles in either direction.

It caused landslides on Fortification mountain in Arizona, northeast of the dam.

The United States has a national society for the study and preservation of covered bridges.

Defense Chiefs
Foresee More
Service Fights

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—Defense officials predict Secretary James Forrester will have trouble keeping the army, navy and air force from quarreling in public despite his latest clamor.

Forrester, in an order Monday placed all legislation and contact with congress under the "central control" of his office.

His action followed by only a few days a statement by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, army chief of staff, that the army service would have the respect of the American public in the way they stopped their "stop-and-go" fight over the taxpayer's dollar.

Battle Is Foreseen

Defense officials predicted Forrester's most recent directive would fail to prevent a major battle in the next congress over the 70-group air force program. Forrester's order Monday placed all legislation and contact with congress under the "central control" of his office.

Forrester's order said he has no intention of allowing the 70-group air force program to be included in defense plans. His budget for fiscal 1944-45 does not contain money for it.

Despite Forrester's order, it was said, the air force will continue to fight the battle. The aircraft manufacturing industry is backing the air force stand.

Teeth Said Needed

Defense officials believe Forrester never will be able to stop the battle among the air force, navy and army until congress puts teeth in the armed forces unification law.

Forrester's order yesterday is aimed at funneling all legislative proposals and congressional business through a central office headed by Maj.-Gen. Wilton B. Percece.

This is his third attempt to muzzle inter-service rivalry. On Oct. 11, 1941, he ordered each department to get concurrence of the other two on proposed legislation. Later, he appointed a director of legislative liaison.

The convention opens Friday and continues through Sunday.

Members from Nevada, Wyoming, Idaho and eastern Oregon will attend. Reports from representatives of hardware and implement manufacturers' concerns will feature the program.

Turks Take up
30 Million Loan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—Turkey yesterday took a $30,000,000 Marshall loan from the economic cooperation administration, bringing the total of recovery loans outstanding to $175,000,000.

The Turkish credit left only Belgium and Luxembourg as the Marshall plan countries which still must sign repayable loan agreements to complete LCA's lending program up to the end of this year.

Rail Association
Estimates Income

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP)—The Association of American Railroads yesterday estimated net railroad income in September at $22,000,000, compared with $20,000,000 in September, 1942.

The estimate was based on reports filed by the 1 railroads—those doing $1,000,000 or more gross business annually. Net income represents the amount remaining after operating costs and allowances for fixed charges, including taxes.

Soviets Reported
Plan 'Red Army'
In Russian Zone

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 3 (AP)—The Russians were said by a former German general yesterday to be organizing a German-manned "red army" in the Soviet zone.

Maj.-Gen. Walter Schrieber, who fled the Soviet zone, said he and five other former German generals had been told by Kurt Mehnert, minister of interior in east Germany, that the newly organized people's police would be armed with tanks and artillery.

"This police force is not a police force in the ordinary sense of the word," Schrieber said. "It is the first stage of a red army manned by Germans."

Price of Gold Is Worry to U. S. Miners

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP)—"We don't have time to mess with gold," says a Helena, Mont., hotel man. He says workers who struck pay-dirt when excavating for the hotel to shift for the hotel to go ahead and pour the concrete. He pretends the workers are slow to get the gold ore they might dig out.

The men who produce our gold don't have time to mess with it. But they are far from happy. What they want is more paper for their gold. Since they get the paper, they want under the law to get back for that paper. But the American paper dollar is still the world's hardest currency. Everyone wants it whether he can get gold for it or not.

And now gold, the metal, is feeling the pressure of inflation. The men who mine gold want the price raised from the present $35 an ounce, just as the men who mine copper, lead, zinc and iron have been raising their prices, and for about the same reason.

Some western congressmen are trying to get a new bill to like the price of gold. In fact, in the last session a bill was introduced to raise the price to $40 an ounce. This appears to be more than just a device to win votes today in the mining states and the drive is expected to come up again next session.

Price Hike Effect
The price of gold means academic to you, since you cannot buy a $3 gold piece for Junior's Christmas stocking as you once could. But the price the government sets for gold does have an effect on the prices of all commodities you use.

Although the effect is not as direct as was once thought, when gold was raised from $20 to $35 an ounce in 1933, it didn't have the anticipated result on the depressed prices of commodities.

The price of gold is far from academic to the mine operator. They point out that they get no more for it now than during the depression, when it cost far less to mine.

Machinery costs more. Because their mines were shut down by government order during the war (gold was not exported), much of the machinery had to be replaced at advanced post-war prices.

Labor costs more and there are fewer experienced gold miners around. During the war shutdown miners were driven away and stayed away, and no new ones were trained.

Man Is Fined $30 On Recklessness

BURLEY, Nov. 3—Sergeant Stevenson, charged with reckless driving, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $30 and $3 costs by Judge Judge Henry W. Tucker.

Luis Alvarado, a Mexican, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of drunken driving and was fined $125 for a 60-day jail sentence.

Paul and George entered a plea of guilty in police court to the charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants and was fined $125, $25 of which was suspended, and his driver's license forfeited.

'Rocket-Eye View' of U. S.; From Mexico to Wyoming

These two photographs show what is believed to be the largest section of the earth to be photographed within a short time. Under direction of the navy bureau, they were taken by automatic sequence cameras installed in rockets launched within 10 minutes of each other at White Sands proving grounds, Las Cruces, N. M. Despite the rocket's speed of about 2,700 miles an hour and their altitude, up to 70 miles, the pictures are clear. Easily identifiable landmarks are indicated in photos. The upper photo is a mosaic of pictures taken from a V-2 rocket, over 60 miles high.

'Old Sarge' Henry Awed Into Silence by General McArthur

By JEAN McLEMORE
TOKYO, Japan—General and Mrs. MacArthur had us for lunch at their home yesterday, and you should have heard the briefing I got from Henry before we went.

Believe it or not, we got through lunch without my being ushered out of the house or being given a summary court martial on the spot. General and Mrs. MacArthur are completely charming people. We had lunch with Mrs. MacArthur before the general arrived and she took great pride in showing us many of the lovely things she has purchased in Japan. They have made it a rule not to accept any gifts from the Japanese. The embassy was bare when they took it over, and everything has been purchased by Mrs. MacArthur in Japanese stores. The only two gifts in the beautiful living room are a horrible looking embroidered satin pillows of the sort you buy at summer resorts. They were made and given to the general by grateful Filipinos when he returned to Manila.

I sat next to General MacArthur at lunch and had to pinch myself when, in telling a story about his last days in Manila before the surrender of the Philippines, he said, "And I said to them, 'We are going to lose the Philippines, but I shall return.'"

I almost said, "what did you say, general?" just to get him to say it again.

The distance along the horizon has been calculated at about 2,700 miles. From camera to the horizon is about 700 miles. The total land area visible is approximately 800,000 square miles. The lower mosaic, taken from a navy Argo rocket, was shot from about 100 miles up. It shows a strip of some 1,400 miles of terrain, stretching from upper Wyoming to deep in Mexico, taking in about 300,000 square miles. Each camera took more than 200 "snapshots" at one and a half second intervals. Pieced together, these give the "rocket-eye view."

him to be. He has the appearance of a man in his early 50s. His face has the color and glow of youth, and has as beautiful hands as I have ever seen on a man. In talking, he never hesitated for a word and, to my surprise, he told several stories which made him the butt of the joke. I had pictured him as a disciplinarian who never smiled. This isn't true at all.

Lunch was served by Japanese servants wearing kimono. It is customary for kimono to wear the family crest on back and sleeves. I felt the kimono of the general's servants bore the seal of the United States.

It was a great pleasure to have lunch with General and Mrs. MacArthur for many reasons. And not the least of them was to see the general's home the seal of the United States.

Idaho's Early Voters Were 'Early, Often'

BOISE, Nov. 3 (AP)—"Vote early and often" apparently was the creed of Idaho voters in the first territorial election.

The following newspaper clipping in the Idaho state museum relates the tale of the Oct. 31, 1863, election when Idaho territory residents voted for a delegate to U. S. congress.

"Only men on the poll books were legal voters," the clipping said. "There were surprising discrepancies, however, between the report of the census taker and the report of the election judges. In one case, the example of Laramie precincts there were 100 voters and 118 non-voters. On election day the precinct cast 485 votes, 470 of which were for Governor (W. H.) Wallace as delegate to congress."

The clipping said a census was taken in September and the voting was a month later.

The extract from the Fort Laramie election report makes no comment on the amazing number of votes cast. The clipping continued: "How 218 men—only 100 of whom were qualified to exercise the franchise—could cast 485 votes is still an official mystery. The probability is, however, that every man who felt inclined to vote spent election day touring the various polling booths and making up his mind about their merits until they were exhausted."

"Old Ad" received one vote for congress, John McAdams got two and "Blank" got two.

Report sworn to by "Phil Wheaton and John McAdams, election judges, swore to the report."

In this clipping in the historical files of the museum, quoted H. L. Takingson, veteran historian at the Idaho State Museum of Education (then Lewiston State Normal), as saying:

"In these early days it was votes that counted, regardless of where they came from. The little matter of winning more than 1,000 votes from Montana to a community that boasted but 50 men was taken as course."

Times have changed. Now election officials insist a voter cast his ballot only once.

Scout Plan Is Set for Blaine District Units

KETCHUM, Nov. 3.—Long-range plans for increasing Scout membership, camping, advancement, training and finance were completed at a meeting of the Blaine District Scout committee, according to Hal Williamson, district chairman.

The five-year program adopted by the district leaders calls for the organization of four new Cub Scout units, two additional troops, and two more Senior Scout units in Carey, Camaret, Bellevue, Hales and Ketchum. 113 additional boys will be enrolled.

Summer Plan Given

Robert W. DeBahr, field executive, outlined council summer camp plans, and the development of troop courts of honor. Program notebooks were presented to all the unit leaders present.

Neighborhood commissioner Alden Nelson, Hales, announced the reorganization of Troop 6, sponsored by the Rotary club. Jack Edwards was selected to serve as Scoutmaster. John Myers and Robert Thompson will be the assistant Scoutmasters. Bill Stahke is institutional representative, and Lyle McCordrich, Bellevue, and Jay McCordrich make up the new troop committee.

Assisted by Leaders

Ketchum leaders Lyman Hamman and Ray Brown assisted Nelson and DeBahr in conducting a leaders' training session for the new men during the meeting.

Joseph Swanner, Hales, was selected to complete arrangements for the next district meeting to be held in Hales on Nov. 24. Scout films will be shown by the Snake river council and the public will be invited.

Youngsters Flirt With Death

For nearly a year, these three youngsters, inmates of the psychiatric division of New York's Bellevue hospital, cavorted on this ledge, eight floors above the street. During a post-lunch play period, when children were allowed on the eighth floor playground, this trio climbed over the 16-foot wire fence to frolic along the parapet. They were lured to safety by a promise of lollipops.

U. S. to Give Notice of Cuts In Tariff Rate

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The state department will serve formal notice soon, probably this week, that it plans to negotiate new tariff-cutting pacts with 11 countries.

The countries are Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Greece, Haiti, Italy, Nicaragua, Peru and Germany. The formal announcement will set the stage for the first test of the new tariff-cutting procedure laid down by the Republican congress last spring. In extending the reciprocal trade program, congress put new restrictions on the President's tariff-cutting powers.

It gave the U. S. tariff commission the responsibility of setting limits to any tariff cuts on the basis of whether domestic producers would be harmed seriously.

Both President Truman, who reluctantly signed the measure, and Secretary of State George C. Marshall protested that national interest required that other factors besides protection be considered. They said the new procedure would hamper seriously this government's efforts to lead the way in reducing world trade barriers.

Officials said the state department within a few days will issue a "bargaining list" of commodities for proposed reciprocal tariff cuts with the 11 nations. There will be negotiations at which all American interests—importers, exporters, producers, raw material users, and consumers—will have a chance to argue the pro and con of tariff cuts on each commodity.

Rupert Crossing Under Discussion By Chamber Unit

RUPERT, Nov. 3.—At a recent meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, the problem of the railroad crossing at F street and highway No. 30 was discussed in detail.

The rule of spotting cars at least 100 feet from the crossing so that the vision of motorists might not be obstructed has been disregarded and in some instances cars have been spotted as close as four and five feet from the crossing, the group said.

With heavy traffic, the situation has caused considerable delay to people who are compelled to use that crossing. The blinker system in operation at the crossing also came up for criticism by the directors who pointed out that the system is inadequate.

The chamber voted to ask the Union Pacific to take action in the matter. A number of accidents have occurred at the crossing.
