General Motors' Bigness
General Motors made the financial pages of the other day with a story that deserves wider attention.

General Motors made the financial pages of the other day with a story that deserves wider attention. It announced that its 1940 net profit probably will top $300,000,000. If so, that will be the largest net profit ever rung up by any company in the United States.

Could GM somehow get out of paying any income taxes, that profit would be a whopping $400,000,000. Back in the early new financial days, such a sum would equal about a fourth of the revenues the federal government was drawing in.

But even that figure doesn't give you a full picture of GM's operations. Its 1940 sales total of $5,500,000,000 is a better bet. That's roughly the amount this country spent on foreign aid in the Marshall plan's first year.

All this means General Motors is not only a tremendous company, controlling a fourth of the revenues the federal government within the government, but also affects not only millions of its customers and stockholders, it concerns vital for GM.

It's a corporation that is a sort of government within the government. Its decisions affect not only millions of its customers and stockholders, it concerns vital for GM.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL DIFFERENTIAL POT SHOTS

WASHINGTON—The grand old party has finally found a way to "reconvert" after years of struggle over the direction it should take in an effort to combat the Roosevelt administration's policy of capital flight.

The extraordinary swiftness of the "reconversion" of the party is a reflection of the minor miracles of recent politics. But the quick changeover is explained partially by the fact that many of the leaders and a vast number of the rank-and-file were already in the "New York" - "Willkie-Dewey" camp to resist the historic principles of conservatism.

The extent of the rightist element's steadfastness in the opinion of GOPers is evidenced by the defense which the Republicans stood in from 1940, 1944 and 1948 presidential campaigns. Although the first two may be charged off to conditions brought about by the approach and actuality of World War II, the men now assuming chairmanship of the party were first elected on the ticket solely because of Thomas E. Dewey and Charles McNary, respectively the late quality of the Truman chair-fall deal.

FIGUREHEAD—Although National Chairman Caberton is committed firmly to this turn-of-mind, the party's "figurehead" is a Jersey lawyer and industrialist, known only as "Mr. X" and "Mr. Y". It is generally believed that he would have been forced to resign the party and circumstances beyond his control. It is so, he says, that he personally favors the present party.

But it is the background, ancient beliefs and voting records of the men dominating the house, the senate, the House of Representatives, and the cabinet, that is the real key to the party's present position. It is the fact that a large majority of these men are of the "old" school, and that they are not making for obvious reasons.

MAJORITY—The two outstanding figures on the national committee in the current reform are Harold G. Ickes and Charles McNary, both of whom have been in the cabinet since 1940. Both have persistently advocated a frontal attack on the Roosevelt-Truman regime—even if it means the loss of the party's present position.

It is a fact that a large majority of these men are of the "old" school, and that they are not making for obvious reasons. It is the fact that a large majority of these men are of the "old" school, and that they are not making for obvious reasons.

Don't believe everything you hear about Hollywood. You say I heard a rumor recently that if any of the stars in Hollywood were to be asked to give up their money if they spent the time to pick it up.

This is not true. The stars of Hollywood are not so stupid. They know that if they were to give up their money, they would be able to pick it up again. They are not so stupid.

WHO CARES?
Dear Pat Goble:
I've read, with amusement, current arguments in your column about the "reconversion" of the party.

Lower Price Predicted for State's Crops

BOISE, Jan. 26 (AP)—Plentiful supplies and slightly lower demand at the time are expected to mean lower prices for many crops in farm products this year.

That is the prediction of Virgil Mansley, farm management specialist of the University of Idaho, extension service.

Receipts Down — from the reported that production for the crop in 1938 was 10 months of 1938 were 250,000, compared with 2,000,000 in the same months of 1937. That is a decline of 17 per cent. In the crop receipts were essentially unchanged.

The long-term outlook for livestock producers in the western states relative to the rest of the country is favorable, he said.

Western livestock inventories are of large enough to meet far west demands. The supply of beef is expected to be increased to meet expanded production.

Market Expanding — Population increases in cities will continue to expand the market. This will reduce the price of meat as an increasing production of western production will reduce local markets.

Water where planning in Idaho will be well as estimated at $720,000 in 1938, smaller than the $1,000,000 of a year previously, but still 20 per cent greater than the rate for the past 10 years.

Defiant Miner Blames Lewis; Scorns Attack

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26 (AP)—A 30-year-old Pittsburgh district coal miner who defied John L. Lewis' scorching attack on the union yesterday.

Joseph Dickman, a digger at nearby Liberty, publicly attacked the United Mine Workers' chief in a letter to the editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette on Tuesday. He said Lewis is a dictator and blamed him for the current strife in the coal industry.

Yesterday, Dickman said a Post-Gazette reporter he felt his letter expressed the majority feeling among the miners, adding:

"I am astounded, it will be by impertinent goons or bodyguards of Lewis and his lieutenants."

The young miner declared he got a sample of local opinion when he walked to a grocery store. He said: "Nearly everybody I met walked out 'Hello, Joe, saw your letter in the paper.' Nobody gave me a dirty look."

Lunch Committee of PTA at Bliss Sponsoring Dance

BLISS, Jan. 26 —The hot lunch committee of the Bliss PTA is sponsoring a square dance at the school Friday to help pay for kitchen equipment which was purchased this year.

The equipment includes dishes, silverware and cooking pans. A square dance was also held in November for the purpose of paying for the stencils.

The hot lunch program has been in operation at the school for the past two months under the sponsorship of the PTA. Well balanced lunches are sold to the children for 20 cents. On Thanksgiving and Christmas special menus were prepared.

Many commodities have been furnished by the government, thus helping to give a varied menu at a low cost. The government has contributed such things as butter, cheese, apples, potatoes, and dried eggs, canned peaches, peanut butter and honey.

Mrs. John Hess, the cook, has the help of two mothers who donate their time to the program each week.

All patrons are invited to come and enjoy a free lunch and visit and during the year.

Members of the hot lunch committee include Mrs. Paul Bye, chairman; Mr. Bob Gastin, co-chairman; and Raymond Welch.

Tropic? Note to Shiver American

VALDEZ, Alaska, Jan. 26 (AP)—Note to shiver, Americans! The weather up here is unprecedentedly warm.

For 23 days and nights there hasn't been any snowfall—unusually late for January.

Warm winds are blowing into the town from the north blowing down the coast.

The nightly thermometer reading has been as high as 50 above zero; above, only below.

Valdez is a coastal town about 400 miles south of the Arctic circle.

Youth Is Denied Mercy in Nevada Slaying Sentence

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 26 (AP)—The Nevada Supreme Court has denied mercy to a 19-year-old inmate, who convicted of murdering another youth.

The court ordered a new date for the execution of Richard Lutz, who on Oct. 10, 1938, intentionally pumped five bullets into the back of the neck of a 17-year-old inmate of Lander, Wyo.

The governor of Massachusetts said both of that state's senators have previously urged leniency in the case.

Bouffard confessed shooting Lutz on a highway near Reno, Nev., on Oct. 10, 1938. Both had been working with a railroad engine near at Twin Falls, Idaho.

Bouffard has never offered an explanation of the shooting and his motive was brought out at his trial in Reno.

10 Per Cent Cut In Idaho Turkey Crop Is Expected

BOISE, Jan. 26 (AP)—Idaho turkey growers are expected to cut their crop this year approximately 20 per cent from the 260,000 birds raised last year, the U. S. department of agriculture said today.

These intentions are followed, it was said, by a 10 per cent cut in production will be about 200,000 birds.

Feed and poultry costs will be major factors in determining whether growers will carry out their intentions, the report said.

The intended production comes in line with the 1937-38 crop of 260,000 birds.

Hank's Irked Plenty at Letter Insinuating He's Not 'Bright'

By HENRY McLEMORE

When a man gets a little mail as I do he opens everything.

So I read the letter which insinuates that I am not a "bright" fellow. I tore at it as if it were a live snake and if the young boy or girl, who came tearing over here after school doesn't like my answer, but tell him that I don't care.

After the math and butterfly question the letter from Merriam posed this one,—"your favorite radio commentator says something about 'infatuation' game. Would you know just exactly what he is talking about?"

That made me madder. It is entirely possible that I don't have a favorite radio commentator. There was a time when I did, but then Mr. Paley of CBS heard me and that was the end of it.

As for "infatuation" game, certainly I know what it is. When I was a kid Mama and Papa always took us to Infatuation game for the summer. One of the sweetest places in the mountains of North Carolina. Not far from Chimney rock. Mountains. Warm days. Cool nights that make a fellow want two blankets. Nice hotels that put pillows on your front bumper reading "Willing Infatuation Game." I have a pen name I got in Infatuation game handing over my best night today.

You can see why I am mad at C. and C. Merriam.

Autos Collide

RUPERT, Jan. 26 — Cleveland, N.Y., and C. E. Markham, Murtagh were drivers of cars which collided at 12:35 p.m. Wednesday.

According to police who investigated the accident, Voss was backing away from the curb and failed to yield the right-of-way. Markham's car, which was traveling east on Bliss street, received damage on the right fender.

Members of the hot lunch committee include Mrs. Paul Bye, chairman; Mr. Bob Gastin, co-chairman; and Raymond Welch.

University Asks Greenhouse Fund

BOISE, Jan. 26 (AP)—The University of Idaho is asking $100,000 of the special session of the legislature for erection of a "greenhouse" for the Idaho branch experiment station in Aberdeen, Leroy A. Puller, chairman of the governor's potato coordinating committee, said.

The request for the greenhouse to carry out advanced potato breeding work was recommended by the committee at its last meeting.

At that time it was explained the completion of the greenhouse would enable the state to share in federal funds for a potato disease research project.

Without Painful Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, nervousness and worry, often sometimes keep down. Many people, who may feel like to be in pain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness, getting up at night or frequent awakenings, may consult a chiropractor or a doctor for relief of their backache.

Chiropractic treatment, as done by Chas. W. Smith, D. C., 177 1/2 Main St., Twin Falls, Idaho, has relieved the backache of many. While these symptoms may be relieved, the cause of the backache should be eliminated. Chas. W. Smith, D. C., 177 1/2 Main St., Twin Falls, Idaho, has relieved the backache of many.

Buildings Are Considered at C. of C. Meet

SHOEHORN, Jan. 24.—The Chamber of Commerce met Monday noon at the Manhattan cafe with Chairman Martin, president, in charge of the meeting.

Letters from Sen. Henry C. Dworshak, Rep. Compton I. White and Rep. John Saboris were read stating they would do what they could in regard to a federal building here in Shoehorn when such a matter comes under consideration.

Mrs. Frank Burdett, mayor, discussed the federal building and a recreational building.

Assembly Discussed

A letter from Honor E. Davis, chairman of the Idaho Council of Retailers, was read. It requested a uniform procedure be used in assessing property and merchandise taxes. He asked for suggested improvements.

The Idaho highway study committee report was discussed by Sen. Howard Stodhill.

C. O. Paulson, Richfield, was a guest of Earl Clavien.

Building Investigated

LEONARD Bond reported on the investigation being made for a building to be used for the canning kitchen and for recreational use at the park. Following the Chamber meeting, the committee met with Mrs. Burdett further to consider such a building and several of them went to look over possible grazing lot buildings that could be used.

Others on the committee and meeting besides Mrs. Burdett and Bond were M. W. King, George Cook and James Campbell.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

City in ruins was the bustling metropolis of San Francisco (population 350,000) following the great earthquake that struck on April 18, 1906, and the disastrous fire that followed. Because the city's water system was destroyed, firemen were helpless to halt the blaze that reared four square miles of the city to ashes. Some 300 persons were killed in the disaster, and tens of thousands were left homeless. Property damage was estimated at $30,000,000. The army and the American Red Cross did heroic relief work. This view of the stricken city, taken from the tower of the ferry building, looks directly up famed Market street. Before the ruins were cool, crews of workmen were on the street, laying temporary saw-roads to begin the mammoth task of rebuilding.
