Red Bloc Silent on Talk Bid

PARIS, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Soviet bloc remained silent today in possibly awaiting Moscow's decision on proposed secret disarmament discussions while the western bloc three appeared agreed that such talks would be useful in easing international tensions.

The United States was expected to press for a time limit on any secret disarmament discussions. The assembly might result from the proposal of the Arab-Bloc plan at the United Nations meeting of the world summit and put it behind closed doors.

Debate Continues
The general assembly's political commission today in the western portion for a foolproof disarmament plan, and it seems likely that discussion of the secret talk proposal might come before the committee tomorrow.

Elsewhere in the U. S.:
1. The United States denied Soviet charges that the assembly mutual security act constituted aggression against the USSR in the Red Bloc's view.

2. The United States strongly supported Italian U. N. membership.

3. Yugoslavia concluded the listing of her charges against the Soviet Union, Minister of State Acheson said today.

4. The economic commission today in the assembly in discussing the world summit of a poverty stricken people.

Twenty Models of Other Makes of Cars Cost More!

There are hundreds of thousands of people who should be intensely interested in what we're writing here. They are the people who paid more for their cars than a Cadillac cost—and still didn't get a Cadillac.

You see—there are five manufacturers of motor cars who produce a total of twenty models which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac. And during recent years, hundreds of thousands of people have taken title to these higher-priced models.

Surely, a large percentage of these owners did not understand, at the time of purchase, how little a Cadillac can cost. They assumed that a Cadillac must cost more—because of its reputation. So they paid for a Cadillac—and still failed to get the things a Cadillac provides.

If I already have your order for a Cadillac—please be assured that you have made a wise decision—and stand firm until your car is ready for delivery.

But if we don't have your order—better come in and see us today. We are certain you don't want to pay the price of a Cadillac—and still not get one!

MORE ROTTEN POLITICS

On the Pacific coast there is an organization calling itself the Partisan Republicans of California. Fortunately, the official republican party is in competition with the group, for the group's performance has been shameful and completely out of harmony with ordinary notions of decency.

Currently the Partisan Republicans are imitating a pamphlet campaign for anti-assemblies chiefly on General Eisenhower but also on Governor Warren of California and Harold Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Examples of all parties ought to be outraged at the low moral tone of this campaign. In Eisenhower's case, it represents an attack on both his public and private life.

On the day he announced his own candidacy for the 1952 GOP nomination to the presidency, Senator Taft publicly deplored the tactics of the Partisan Republicans.

In fact, the organization's activities are becoming an increasing embarrassment to all honorable Republicans. They are aware of the efforts to besmirch a few may result in the unmaking of a great political party.

It seems none too early for aggressive elements of the GOP to uncover the true nature of this organization and any others (there are some) which are following the same sort.

So long as their calumny stays short of libel and slander, there is no legal course against these groups. Of necessity, freedom of speech often means something pretty close to license.

But at least the American public ought to know who the Partisan Republicans are. For whom do they speak? Who supplies their funds? What do they want?

Obviously, many fairly desperate men are associated with the group, since they are resorting to extreme measures to achieve their goal. What are they desperate for?

The Republican party cannot prevent unofficial organizations from using the Republican label. But the Partisan Republicans are a slur on an historic party's name.

In sheer self-interest, GOP leaders should take the initiative in exposing the managers and financiers of this organization and bringing to them the public discredit they have so richly earned.

BLACKMAILER MOSSADEGH
It would not be surprising to describe Premier Mossadegh's lengthy stay in America as a total loss for Iran. But it has not proved much better than that.

In the long series of talks with the U. S. State Department over the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute, Mossadegh has shown himself incapable of significant compromise.

Unquestionably his performance, was dictated in large part by the Iranian extremists who are his prisoner here. It is he could not yield one inch that he would look like a concession to the hated British.

WHY HE WOULD BE THE LATTER DAY'S STRAITS

From that section of the country, as will be explained subsequently. But it also may help the nation in the far west than it has ever had.

ECLES enjoys considerable prestige among the great strength of his position. He led the fight for anti-inflation measures at a time when President Truman and his Secretary Snyder seemed indifferent to that threat.

Besides demanding controls over consumer credit and water facilities, he is a proponent of the treasury policy of financing government deficits through sale of bond issues to the federal reserve at an actual rate of interest that is lower than the monthly rate.

What generally is forgotten is that it was Eccles who first urged heavy government spending in the depression era. It has his position in this question, which horrified banker friends at the time, that Franklin D. Roosevelt to name him head of the reserve, although he is a Republican.

POWER—It is not believed that Eccles will figure openly or officially in the Taft drive to obtain pledged convention delegates. But the First Security Corporation, which he controls, has power, influence and connections in Utah, Wyoming and Idaho.

This institution and Eccles personally are interested in such diverse matters as power, railroads, oil, lumber, construction and hotels throughout a large area.

He is the son of Ernest B. Bennett, late president of First Security, who helped to set up so many delegates for Taft. Thomas J. W. Egan, Sr., late of the Oil Co. of California, also is a delegate for Taft.

INFLUENCE—The first-bailout ally in 1948, has political connections that Eccles goes to as best and active for Taft as Bennett was for Dewey.

But in western states where the Bennett influence had an effect, Governor Dewey obtained 41 delegates to only 15 for Taft. In Harold E. Stassen for Taft and Gov. Earl Warren for California. The last state is not included in the area of this survey.

BENEFICIARY—Since neither Dewey nor Stassen seems ready to give up the socialist issue, it is possible that the Ohio senator may be the beneficiary of their 1948 support.

CHARMANSHIP—The demand of a few Republicans for the resignation of National Chairman Guy C. Gabrielson seems to have died quickly. As a result, no changes will be made in the management of the national committee holds its annual meeting in San Francisco on Jan. 17.

The principal gubernatorial critic was Sen. Richard H. Nixon. He asked the New Jersey man to quit because, as head of a corporation, he obtained a loan from the FPC and recently conducted negotiations for the filing of partial repayment. Pro-Gabrielson committee members warn that his quitting would seem to be an admission of the unpopularity of the present management.

THIRD PARTY—It is a handshaker and does not make friends easily. Gabrielson's backers say he is more popular with national leaders than he has ever before. He set a precedent recently when he toured the south on invitation of various groups. He said he would not be invited to the state because he is a Taft man. He has maintained strict neutrality since the party was organized in 1948.

He is also given the GOP a unique 1952 slogan. He describes the Truman taxation policy as a "soak the poor" program!

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

The children of the neighborhood did not seem to want Susan Jane to play with them. She was usually to be found on the outer ring of the circle when games were afoot and she was rarely invited to the little parties of two or three which usually offers a few friends.

Mrs. Lovoy noticed Susan Jane's plight and suggested to her little daughter that she make friends with this lonesome child, bring her home with her some day. Lou Anne did so and soon the two were chummy. Then mother discovered that cookies and candies were disappearing from the pantry. This had not happened before because Lou Anne was always given what she asked for, unless there was a good reason such as dinner in the immediate offing. Then Lou Anne made use of a word hitherto unknown in the household.

"What did you hear that word, child?"

"Oh, nowhere," said Lou Anne with a spiritfully shrug.

A brief conversation brought out the fact that Susan Jane liked candy and didn't get any at all. That she used funny words, and that she was not always as truthful as she might be. "Dear dear," said mother, "she isn't the right kind of friend for you. I have made a mistake. You'll have to drop her at once."

That was easy to say but difficult to achieve for Lou Anne had come to enjoy the unusual things

A brief conversation brought out the fact that Susan Jane liked candy and didn't get any at all. That she used funny words, and that she was not always as truthful as she might be. "Dear dear," said mother, "she isn't the right kind of friend for you. I have made a mistake. You'll have to drop her at once."

That was easy to say but difficult to achieve for Lou Anne had come to enjoy the unusual things

Demo Leader Voices Scorn Of GOP Bids

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Frank McClintock, Democratic national chairman, said today that he did not believe the Republican party would be elected in 1936. He said the party has never caught up with the American people since 1920.

"I do not believe that the American people have any intention of turning back to meet those who are behind the procession," he told 100 per cent plate dinner at a Democratic national banquet in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

McClintock's address, his first major speech since he took over the helm of the Democratic party Oct. 31, was a confident review of nearly 20 years of Democratic national administration. It was peppered with praise of President Truman and dispraise of Republicans.

"We can truthfully say that but for the leadership of President Truman and his administration, the Russian might dominate the world today," he said in his prepared address.

"It was the Truman doctrine which defeated the red threat to Greece and Turkey."

"It was the Truman decision to resist aggression in Korea which held all the world in breath and saved the free countries of the United Nations from the Communist menace."

McClintock predicted the voters would "scorn and repudiate any one who seeks to make the election the occasion for petty squabbling, malicious personal attacks, or stalling efforts to undermine the people's faith in their leadership and government."

"Any man who betrays the people's trust in public office is a public enemy," he said.

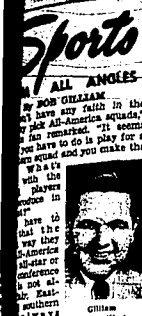

"I do not believe that any man in public office shall go unpunished."

He said he had no doubt that the people are ready to support a man who is more important, Harry S. Truman is ready to help."

Recent scenes in the Democratic administration, including investigations of the reconstruction finance agency and the post office, and the service, have given the GOP campaign ammunition it already is using to warm up for the 1936 presidential race.

Powerful Vols Move Back Into First as Top Squad

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Powerful Tennessee rolled up the largest vote of the season today in its bid to hold on to the No. 1 position in the Associated Press football poll. The Volunteers were an impressive 10-0 in the Kentucky 28-0 Saturday that they received first place on 92 of the 168 ballots cast by sports writers and broadcasters across the nation.

Michigan state won convincingly over Colorado 45-7 but just managed to protect its No. 2 position from fading. Maryland which closed a perfect nine-game season with a 54-7 rout of West Virginia. The Terrapins, who met Tennessee Saturday, moved into third place, replacing Stanford, which slipped to eighth as the result of a 30-7 loss to California.

Other main changes in the semi-annual rankings of college teams saw Illinois, Stanford's foe in the Rose bowl, climb from sixth to fourth and Kentucky plummet from ninth to 17th.

The Wildcats place in the select top 10 was taken by Oklahoma, which made Nebraska the sixth straight victory, 21-0. The Sooners, who closed the season, showing Baylor up a notch.

Here's how the first 10 are arranged in this year's poll: 1. Tennessee, 2. Michigan State, 3. Maryland, 4. Illinois, 5. Princeton, 6. Georgia Tech, Wisconsin, 7. Stanford, Baylor and California.

Last week's lineup went like this: Tennessee, Michigan State, Illinois, Maryland, Princeton, Illinois, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin, Kentucky and Stanford.

Gen. Bob Neyland's sharp-blocking Vols, who will be seeking their eighth straight victory next Saturday against Vanderbilt, piled up 1,208 points, awarded on the basis of 10 first place votes, nine for last season, etc.

Michigan State's total was 1,170 with Maryland, runner-up, 1,100. Nebraska, 31-0 winner over Northwestern on Sammy Rocco's field goal, was the only team to get the thousand mark, getting 1,000.

Three other eleven battles Tennessee have this season, including a remaining before swinging into bowl activity, Georgia Tech plays in the Sugar bowl, Dec. 29. Baylor, still shooting for the Southwestern conference title, tangles with Oklahoma Saturday, Nov. 30. All are Saturday games.

Princeton closed out its regular season with a 13-0 triumph over Dartmouth and held firm in the East-West game, Nov. 24. Wisconsin, finishing the campaign under a tremendous blitz with Oklahoma, 30-6. Baylor won over Southern Methodist 14-13.

Stanford, which closed the year with 87 votes and Washington State (7-3) ranked 18th with 47.

ISC Guard Is Popular Pick As All-Star

DENVER, Nov. 27 (AP)—Three players shared the honor of being named to the All-Star team of the Inter-School Conference (ISC) Saturday in a vote by members of the conference.

Quarterback Virg Stein, Western State, missed by only one vote being chosen as the conference's best player. Guard Gene Boucher, Colorado College, and guard Eddie Gammara, Colorado College, were the only players chosen on both the offensive and defensive platoon.

Three other outstanding players placed three players each on the defensive platoon. Guard Lee Frothe, Colorado College, and center Gene Swank, over Whelan, Colorado College, and guard Ned Mann, Colorado College, were the only players placed three players each on the defensive platoon.

Important Split Second

Left: Bowling ball in the first photograph that the thumb should come out of the ball before the fingers. In the second photo, the ball is striking in mid-air as Levin slides to the foul line. In the third picture, the ball is making contact with the alley as the New York bowler releases his slide. The clenched fist is the tipoff that he was applying strong pressure to the ball at release.

Bowlers Advised to Get Thumb Out of Ball Before Fingers to Earn Strikes

NEW YORK, (AP)—Would you like to deliver a working ball that hooks neatly into the vital 1-3 pocket and captures the split second with frequent strikes? Then you should make a point of withdrawing your thumb from the ball before your fingers come out.

Two bowlers seem to have identical styles, approaching the alley and releasing the ball. But one averages 170, the other 140. The difference is that the second before the ball leaves the hand.

All the better bowlers give the ball a lift with the fingers just as the thumb leaves the ball.

Sugar Ray to Have Another Charity Bout

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson set up another charity fight for $1 a game when he agreed to meet Friday's Paddy Young-Ernie Durango winner in a non-title bout, 25 at Madison Square Garden for the heart fund.

"I want to help out Mr. Impeller—the mayor's wife," said Robinson. "She's interested in the heart fund."

Robinson said he wouldn't risk his world middleweight title in a young Durango and Jim Norris, the International Boxing club president, to picture Robinson in a fight for an upstart gym to restore work for another charity bout—his defense against Bobo Olson, St. Louis, on Jan. 20 for the Danon Runyon cancer fund.

"You can't make much for yourself," Robinson said. "Not after taxes. You might as well be helping some good cause. I'd like to see more of the police athletic league—after the Graziano bout."

"I've never had a lot of money, and I don't want to be tempted," Matthews said.

BUCKLE UP, RECEIVES BIDS LEWISBURG, Pa., Nov. 27 (AP)—Bucknell University announced Monday its undated and undet football team has declined all invitations to participate in post-season bowl games.

Stanford Coach Is Noncommittal

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27 (AP)—Stanford's rookie football coach, Chuck Taylor, who predicted timely success for his team but got tripped up on the 10th, left committing himself on the outcome of the Rose bowl classic.

At the Northern California football writers meeting, Taylor merely said the opinion "I've heard Illinois will be too tough to handle." Both the Illini and Stanford were 10-0.

The Stanford squad will start practice Dec. 16 for the New Year's game. Taylor is a former star to get in 14 or 15 days of drilling. The bowl pact with the Big 10 allows 16 days of practice. The Coast conference champions will leave Dec. 20 for the south.

Washington Loses Man Before Game

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Washington Redskins lost a man on injuries before the game Saturday night.

Jim Peebles, 236-pound end, was practicing kickoffs before the pro football game between the Redskins and the Washington Redskins lost a man on injuries before the game Saturday night.

But the words before-the-battle injunction "Don't let the Redskins get a man on injuries before the game Saturday night."

Illinois, Stanford Given Nod

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 27 (AP)—It became official Monday: Stanford versus Illinois in the 38th renewal of the Rose bowl game here on New Year's day.

Stanford footballists having been disappointed with the two conference championships may now begin concentrating their efforts on the Rose bowl to expect since the game was inaugurated back in 1902. It also figures to be a close one, as the team from the Pacific Coast in its series with the Big 10.

NCAA Asked to Clarify Policies

DELAND, Fla., Nov. 27 (AP)—Stetson university today asked the National Collegiate Athletic Association to clarify its policy of refusing to approve a bowl game played by a school which has been suspended from the national association.

Stetson, which is suspended from the national association, is scheduled to play a bowl game against the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Stetson officials said they would appeal the suspension if the NCAA does not clarify its policy.

Illini Dominate All-Loop Squad

CHICAGO, Nov. 27 (AP)—New champion Illinois grabbed six selections for the All-Loop football squad selected by the Associated Press by conference coaches.

It was the first time the AP's honor league was split into offensive and defensive units. Previously, the coaches named first and second teams.

Only Indiana failed to land a man on the two platoons.

Library Gets Gift of Book; Others Added

"Game Fish of the World" has been given to the Twin Falls public library by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Barton in memory of I. F. (Bud) Taylor. Librarian Jessie Fraser reported Monday.

The book is edited by Brian Vesey-Fitzgerald and Francesca Lamotte, assistant curator of fishes at the American Museum of Natural History. It contains 80 illustrations in full color. The middle fork of the Salmon river and other Idaho claims to fishing game are mentioned in the book.

Miss Fraser also reported the addition of 37 new books to the library shelves. They include 12 volumes of fiction and 15 of non-fiction.

New fiction includes: "End of the Affair," Greene; "The Heart," Sever; "The Stranger Beside Me," Seely; "The Puppet Masters," Heinlein; "The Querry Adventure," Korman; "Lady of the Mohawks," Widdemer; "The Duke's Daughter," Mitchell; "The Fortune Tellers," Fleming; "The Man Who Sold the Moon," Heinlein; "The Macbeth Woman," DeLair; "The Celebrity," Hobson; "This Was Tomorrow," Fichtelberg; "The Last Days of Pompeii," Fenimore; "The Forestal Director," Mills; "Honeybees and Their Management," Whitehead; "Green Book Ever," Wright; "Fighting the Lands and Friendly People," Douglas; "Lord of Alaska," Chevalier; "The Little Man Returns," Keefe; "Path Is a Bone," Dragoneite; "A Foreign Philis for the Time," "Time to Remember," Dotska.

Cruelty Charged In Divorce Case

Herman W. Hodges, Jerome, filed suit in district court here asking a divorce from Marie Hodges on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

The couple was married Dec. 21, 1916, at Reno, Nev. They have no children.

Hodges claims separate ownership of property in Jerome, including an equity in a restaurant and furnishings valued at $5,000, an equity in a business establishment known as "The Doghouse" and a savings account in his wife's name in her possession $5,000 drawn from the savings account, according to the complaint.

The court is asked to declare the equities and money the separate property of the husband and to order Mrs. Hodges to return the $5,000. Hodges also petitions the court to restrain his wife from causing a disturbance at their place of business.

Rayborn and Rayborn and Douglas Kramer represent the husband.

Spring School's Vacancy Is Filled

Mrs. Opal Mathews, Ruhl, has been hired to teach at Spring school, Mrs. Doris Bradley, county superintendent, announced Monday.

Mrs. Mathews fills a vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Mabel Thompson three weeks ago. She will begin her duties following the Christmas holidays.

Since Mrs. Thompson's resignation, Mrs. Leona Cronin, route 4, Ruhl, has been teaching at the one-room school house accepted the job until a new teacher could be found.

Long Hair, Beard Get Second Look From Draft Board Clerk

Accustomed as she is to meeting all kind of people with all kinds of questions about a questionnaire due from him Dec. 1, Fench's last haircut in July. He has spent most of the last year in ranch work in a remote part of Montana. (Staff photo-engraving)

Jimmy Fench, 21, left, a Rupert selective service registrant, accompanied a Twin Falls friend, Walter Martinez, 19, Twin Falls, right, to the Twin Falls draft board office where Mrs. Fernie Aldrich, clerk, answered Martinez' questions about a questionnaire due from him Dec. 1. But the bearded youth, Jimmy Fench, 21, wasn't just coming out of the hills and just finding out about selective service. Inquiry developed the information he is duly registered with the selective service board at Rupert, his hometown.

Jimmy was accompanied by Walter Martinez, 19, 840 Fourth avenue west, down to the draft office for an explanation of some of the questions on a selective service questionnaire Martinez was filling out for submission before Dec. 1.

But Mrs. Aldrich was right in suspecting Jimmy had been in the hills a long time—remote Montana hills for most of the past 11 months. To be exact, feeding cattle in the winter and running wild horses in the summer for a dog food cannery, and other work on a ranch near Armaud, Mont.

As to his whiskers, he has had them since June 27 and his last haircut came sometime last July. Jimmy says he hopes to keep both his beard and his long locks until next spring or summer. He gave no reason for either, but he is trying to make

Long Sought Top Criminal Gives Self up

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—One of the nation's top criminals has given himself up, aired, beaten, bank robber making a futile living at the gentle art of hooking rugs.

His name is Martin Dembin, 39, sought by the FBI from coast to coast for 16 years. He was on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted men.

His attorney, Robert Mitchell, said Dembin married 10 years ago and he made $75 to $100 a week wherever he hid out by fashioning hook rugs.

Dembin and the lawyer walked into the office of U. S. Attorney Miles J. Lane yesterday at the federal courthouse at Foley square.

Later, Dembin pleaded guilty to a federal offense charged by Judge George A. Conger to a charge of robbing the First National bank, Sparks, N. D., of $20,000 in 1922—when the bank bandit was 23 years old.

He was held in $20,000 bond for arraignment Wednesday.

The FBI said Dembin also is suspected of bank robberies in Detroit, Los Angeles, San Francisco, El Paso, Tex., and other cities.
