GOP Platform Gets Okay In 6-Hour Secret Meeting

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—The resolutions committee of the Republican convention agreed Tuesday upon a compromise 1952 platform after more than six hours of continuous debate. A compromise agreement was reported reached on the touchy civil rights plank, but a vote was not taken.

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—The Republican platform committee met behind locked and barred doors today to approve a 6,000-word campaign document pledging an end to inflation, support of collective security, and "quickest possible development of appropriate laws, supplies adequate air power."

The committee was directed by key party policy makers and top wordsmiths for consideration of the 100-word platform group the document denounces the administration for fostering inflation policies at home and playing into the hands of communists abroad.

Members were expected to approve these and most other main points of the platform in no more than minor change and without difficulty. Their toughest hurdle was a controversial civil rights plank over which Negro delegates had threatened a fight on the Republican convention floor.

The security council voted 9 to 1 for the American resolution but the single negative vote of the Russian delegate constituted a veto. The 10th council member, Pakistan, abstained.

Taft-Dominated Committee Gives Disputed Votes to Ike's Forces; Convention Wins Behind Schedule

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, July 9 (AP)—A surprise strategy move by Sen. Robert A. Taft today cut the firepower of the delegate-scandal charges in their GOP nomination battle. Shortly before the third day's session of the torrid 25th Taft-dominated credentials committee voted unanimously to seat a heavily pro-Eisenhower delegation from Louisiana, a net gain of 11 votes, punched a hole in the three-state lineup of Georgia, Louisiana and Texas contests that the general's backers had planned to carry to the convention floor for a showdown vote on delegate contests that might go a long way toward indicating the nominee.

Hoover Rips Into Demos in 'Farewell' Convention Talk

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—Aging Herbert Hoover bade farewell to Republican convention delegates Tuesday night with a plea to rip away the Democrats "plus curtain" at home and salvage "lost statesmanship" abroad.

Hoover, the only living former President and the last Republican to hold that office, attacked the Democratic administration with a vigor that belied his 77 years.

His calm statements at the outset and at the end of his speech—that he did not expect to address another GOP convention because of inexorable course of nature—were met with rapt attention.

Churchill, Delaware, chairman of the Young Republican National Federation, and Mrs. Clifford Myers of Idaho, assistant chairman of the Republican national committee.

Indicates Leanings The action at an open caucus came as the first possible indication of the leanings of the big bloc toward Eisenhower in the event that he pledged choice. Gov. Earl Warren drops out of the running for the nomination.

However, Sen. William F. Knowland, although chairman, urged reporters not to construe the vote on a political basis. He said the issue was being raised on the fact that he had no connection with the battle over contested delegates between Eisenhower and Truman.

But in the New Jersey delegation, there was an indication of the possible effect of the "Tart" Louisiana vote. Three Eisenhower supporters announced they will vote for the Republican candidate, although they are a real fraud has been perpetrated.

By the maneuver on Louisiana, "Tart" forces evidently hoped to tip the scales in the traditionally unbroken caucus by GOP convention of credentials committee reports and (2) to counter "steamroller" charges made by the Eisenhower faction.

Secret Parley Forming GOP 1952 Platform

(From Page One) mantling the military machine after World War II. The GOP is pledged to build a balanced budget and sufficient to deter aggression and repel unexpected attack.

The Democratic administration was denounced for "the failure to stabilize the economy. It was accused of using wage and price control to advance the welfare of the Democratic regime rather than to control inflation."

Further inflation can and must be halted," the proposed platform said.

It outlined a number of steps to attain this end, including: 1. A reduction in government spending. 2. A cut in taxes. 3. Non-political administration of the laws.

Removal of outside influences such as that from the White House attack on alleged restriction by the platform to ending economic controls wherever possible. It would oppose any expansion of defense production where expansion of defense production has been accomplished by a critical housing program.

It denounces the Truman farm plan and calls for a flexible farm price support system "aimed at 100 per cent parity in the market place. It proposes a "reasonable effort allowance" against taxes for persons engaged in production of natural resources like oil.

It calls for a cost-of-living adjustment of veterans benefits and for extension of all such benefits to veterans of the Korean campaign. It opposes removal of key functions from the veterans administration, as proposed by the Hoover commission.

 case is no longer in the board's hands.

Chairman Bacon said he wanted to emphasize that from the standpoint of at least, the board in question amounted to handling of funds—the use of county building fund, rather than the hospital operating fund, and the purchase and sale of equipment should have been authorized by the county commission.

The forthcoming court action does not clear up any misunderstanding in this connection," said Chairman Bacon, "and the public's confidence in the board will be restored with all details."

Bacon pointed out that the board has every confidence in the hospital administrator's ability. He expressed his "wholehearted appreciation for the public's cooperative attitude" and the cooperation during the hospital period in change of hospital administration.

"I am sure that everything at the trial will continue to run along smoothly," he said, "and that the ultimate development we encountered will not prove too serious from hospital's standpoint."

Local Cab Firm Has More Than Million Miles Without One Chargeable Mishap

Over a million miles without a chargeable accident. That's the record of the Yellow Cab company of Twin Falls, owned and operated by Phil Cargill.

The local Yellow Cab company is the winner of nationwide safety contest awards for the years of 1947, '48, '49 and '50. The contests are sponsored by the National Association of Taxicab Owners.

The awards are based on the percentage of chargeable accidents every 100,000 miles. Cargill explained that by chargeable accidents he means accidents for which the cab company is at fault.

The local company placed second in the 1951 nationwide safety campaign. The chances of winning the championship were upset when one of the drivers slid into a garage door during the winter.

The company competes for safety awards with other cab companies in cities with less than 25,000 population. The Twin Falls accident average is four tenths of an accident every 100,000 miles, according to the National Association of Taxicab Owners.

Cargill, currently celebrating his 20th anniversary in the taxicab business, recalls that he started out in licensed cabs.

All of Cargill's drivers are Traffic Safety Volunteers. He believes the organization makes for better and more courteous drivers. "At least every driver tends to be a little more careful when he sees the Traffic Safety Volunteer sticker," he points out.

As for desirable qualities in cab drivers, Cargill demands a safe, courteous driver. "He has got to be clean and neat appearing, too," Cargill declares.

The company has its own unique training program. Every new driver is broken in under Cargill. If a driver goes six months without an accident, he is awarded a pair of trousers. The driver gets a complete uniform if he goes without an accident for one year.

Value of safety training can be seen in recent awards presented to the local cab company by the General Insurance Company of America. Cargill recently was presented an award for driving 11 years without a chargeable accident.

Other drivers receiving awards were Ed Bremren, who boasts a seven-year, accident-free record; Charles Reeves and Frank Goss, five years; and Clarence Rapp one year.

The drivers might well win the 1952 national award. Thus far they have accident-free records. "We are keeping our fingers crossed," Cargill declares.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

CHICAGO—Despite the seemingly advantageous situation which would be created as cold-blooded, backroom, political hounding of labor, farm and economic problems, widespread federal corruption, peak prices and taxes, the "cold war" general, GOP leaders here are fighting in the 1952 presidential election.

An elementary acquaintance with the "cold war" general, GOP leaders here are fighting in the 1952 presidential election.

Recognizing that the Chicago convention decides only the identity of the nominee, both the senator and the general are looking forward to the November possibilities at the polls.

It is done at Chicago will be meaningless. If the declarations and nominations here are not ratified by the voters four months from now.

POT SHOTS

BRIGHTEN THE DAY

Dear Shooter:

Yes, the city does know what they are doing when they hold the diagonal parking in our fair city, if you're feeling a bit grumpy or are having trouble with your car, it is to scatter down the main drag and you feel in a lot better mood.

It is not difficult to find a woman driver putting on a public show. They twist the steering wheel this way and that and back up and drive forward, but just can't seem to get the hang of it all.

Yes, you can find a laugh on the main drag any day. Sure it improves dispositions. Except for the little women.

Superior Male

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

CHICAGO—That stupendous outpouring of mass imbecility by which the presidents of the greatest free nation on earth are foisted on the people, the season of nominating conventions should be a new official holiday. The stylized Lake front scene should be a certain area of the loop area, and 4027 strangers wearing the badges of "Taff"

The "Conrad" Hilton Hotel, Westbank Plaza, Chicago, Illinois, is the scene of the convention. The delegates are here from all over the world, and the delegates are here from all over the world, and the delegates are here from all over the world.

Americans had been shot, burned, blasted and otherwise put to death, that left millions of others safe and indifferent back home, and yet the convention of one of the major parties the first of the two this month, was a marvellous.

One explanation is, of course, that these things are a freak which has evolved out of ignorance, carelessness and habit. The constitution directed that the state should elect the President and in the beginning the Republican principle was so strong that at the time of the precedents became long ago a travesty on the original, basic system and today it is a noisy, haphazard system and today it is a noisy, haphazard system and today it is a noisy, haphazard system.

HORSE-AND-BUGGY HANGOVER

If there is any more inconvenient and cumbersome way to nominate a presidential candidate than the system now in use, nobody has thought out the details.

The conventions are held in the hottest month of the year. The ordeal itself is so great that politics and politicians go into the doldrums during the dog days that follow to recover. The campaign then emerges again in September and runs hot and heavy for two months till election day.

While this election schedule may have been suited for the horse-and-buggy days, in this era of fast press wires, high-speed printing, radio and television, it's outmoded. Conventions in cooler September, followed immediately by an intensified campaign, might be less painful, and a lot cheaper for all concerned.

ADVANTAGE—Assuming that the Democratic nomination for state is not exciting and the GOP-ers must count on that possibility, the "ins" are assured of 128 electoral votes from the solid south.

A few Dixie commonwealths desert their historic party, as they did in 1928 and 1948, the Democrats would advance to the Mason and Dixon line.

But the Democrats are conceded a heavy advantage in the 30-called border states, with an electoral total of 58. These states are Kentucky, Tennessee, Maryland, Oklahoma, Missouri.

If the southern and border area vote in accord with their historic trend, the Democrats will control 194 electoral ballots in that area, with 226 necessary for election.

Thus, they have rounded up only 82 presidential votes throughout the country.

KITTENS FOR KID DEPT.

This great kitten is being given to the owner and the owner insists it must have a good home. You can call 948-R.

"Just too many cats to keep in town," says the owner. So you can take your choice of the whole bunch. They are all kittens and the mother cat is two years old.

Phone 3330-1 in the evening. The address is 1100 Northgate drive.

DATE TOPIC

Yes, there is a lot of interest in the political conventions this year. We didn't really start to realize it until we heard about a young girl who awakened her folks after a "date" to ask them about the GOP convention.

It seems the boy friend, probably desperate for a topic of conversation, asked, "Who do you think will be nominated at the GOP convention?"

"That seems like right safe conversation for me," she said, "but I don't know. Anyway, the girl got home, thought about it for awhile and decided to ask her folks about the "GOP convention" business if it were so all-fired important.

Tip to the fellow: If you want to keep getting dates, don't try to discuss politics with a woman, even if she appears to know what she's talking about!

It came with grotesque speed, however, from a faction led by Thomas E. Dewey, a seasoned New York, by virtue of a feat of rascality of Tom Dewey and Harry E. Truman, to the control of the Dewey, himself. This was an arrangement by which Dewey, a seasoned and redoubtable nonentity, who was then lieutenant-governor of New York, received a de luxe nomination to the presidency at the expense of the crux of a conspiracy to give Winthrop Aldrich and the National States' Rights Party the New York delegation in support of Eisenhower.

There has been a great deal of talk about the "Wall Street and the Internationalists" in this connection, but the gist of the matter is that the Eisenhower faction, now deal capitalists who have adulterated their monumental interests to the inflation wrought by the war, are to have control of the party.

It does seem that men of meager expectancy and colossal wealth should oppose the stringent economic proposals of the conservative Republicans.

Nevertheless they have coiled up, as the war-jargon had it, to inflation.

CLAIMS—Any three of four states can provide the "ins" with that batch of 82 votes. They are New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and California. As a matter of mathematical fact, the combined electoral total of New York and Pennsylvania, if they get Democratic majorities, is 128.

The Trumanites believe that they are sitting pretty in these four states, and Frank O'Conor here recently accepted the early claim that he had a miracle will re-arrange to switch them to the Republican column.

MARGIN—Governor Dewey, for instance, carried New York by less than 100,000 four years ago. But he would have been snuffed under if it had not been for the 100,000 possibly secured by independent votes cast for Henry A. Wallace. Henry has promised, although his pledges are not too trustworthy, that he will re-arrange to switch them to the Republican column.

The GOP won in Pennsylvania by an extremely narrow margin in 1948. It would have lost the Keystone state except for the vote which the machine took out around Philadelphia.

Last year, in revolt against 67 years of incompetent and corrupt Republican rule, the once "corrupt and inefficient" Democrats installed a Democratic reform regime in city hall.

PUPS FOR KID DEPT.

There are eight pups, cross between collie and show-in-need-of-good-name, in all. One is a male and the others are females. The owner has offered some for adoption. They are all very nice and would make good pets. Call 3330-1 in the evening. The address is 1100 Northgate drive.

FAMOUS LAST LINE

It does appear if you're going to turn on the radio, you're going to listen to the GOP convention.

FOREIGN HURDLES

The recent session of the U. S. senate does not have too many solid accomplishments to its credit. But it can be justly proud of two milestones in foreign policy: The approval of the Japanese peace treaty and the German peace contract.

Knowing well that Western Germany, Britain and France, the other signatories to the German pact, are keenly attuned to U. S. attitudes, the senate acted with admirable speed to set an example to those countries.

At the same time, it approved the extension of the North Atlantic pact to embrace Western Germany and thus knit into a tighter fabric the whole anti-Communist bloc in Europe.

The American government has now done its part in the historic effort to bring Germany into the family of free nations and to keep that country's industrial might out of Russia's grasp. Significant as this victory is, however, it is still the easiest part of the battle.

HOPE FOR VIET NAM

PHONY SAVINGS

You hear a lot about the old army game, but you don't hear much about the old congressional game. That game is to trumpet loudly budget savings made in the spring, and then quietly restore the cut later on through deficiency appropriations to which the public customarily pays little attention.

It is a politician's way of taking credit for notable savings without, in the end, actually producing those savings.

TRIN THE MIRROR

Generalized about other peoples is a very human, if unfortunate, characteristic for any nation. Most Americans have standardized ideas about the French, the British and the Italian. It is not surprising, therefore, that a leader in the world, it should be worthwhile to know what others think of us, true or false, good or bad.

In commenting on this business of making words of praise or blame, Dr. Carl E. Winter, director of a United Nations survey of eight nations, words commonly used to describe the Russian were: Dumb, stupid, ignorant, backward, and uneducated. The American and British words, however, were: Dumb, stupid, ignorant, backward, and uneducated.

Bellhops Get $30 Daily for Chicago Jobs

By HERMAN W. NICHOLS
 CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—This is a wonderful, mad town. The convention remind the bands around the premises of the non-nonsense known to the Chicagoans as making $30 a day out of tagging bags from elevator shafts. Cattlemen Complete Roundup Of 2,200 Head in Carey Area

CAREY, July 9.—One of the largest roundups of cattle in Blaine county history took place last week near Carey. The roundup, directed by Lowell Mechem, was the bringing together of 2,200 head of cattle owned by members of the Laidlaw Park Cattle association preparatory to separating them into individual herds. Owners either took their herds home or to some range in the mountains.
 From the first of May this herd of cattle had been grazing in Laidlaw Park, an area controlled by Taylor grazing and under which regulations made it necessary for the men to have their cattle out of that territory around July 1.
 Work was started by 18 men who previously had taken their horses and riding equipment to the park located 20 miles east of Carey and directly south of the Craters of the Moon. By evening of the first day most of the herd, with the aid of an airplane spotting some of the animals, had been brought in the campsite. The men stopped only long enough to eat and to change fresh mounts.
 Eating was done in relays, for after the herd began to get larger several riders had to be put in all the time to keep the critters from straying back into the brush.
 On the second day the herd was trailed over the three strips of lava to the Huff creek cutting corral. The cattle were strung out over the road making a continuous string of cattle the width of the road and more than two miles long. Bringing up the rear were the obnoxious wagons, which should have been in the lead. Because of a flat tire the wagons had to remain at the end of the long line and caught more than their share of the dust.
 Cutting the animals into separate small herds and according to brands began that afternoon and took most of three days to complete. Approximately 40 riders were present to handle this work. Some of the men held the animals in a large herd while other riders, experienced in following animals and nodding them out of the herd, did the cutting. As soon as one man's stock had been cut out of the herd he moved them to his summer pasture.

 Owners of the herd are members of the Laidlaw Park Cattle association. They have pooled their Taylor grazing rights together and hire a rider to handle their cattle during the time they are in the park.
 Association members include Frank Knight, president; Henry Brasse, O. J. Parrish and S. Seale, all Ketchum and Halley, Milford Sparks, Bell Patterson, L. A. Smith and sons, Alfred Albrechtsen, Lyle Hallow, Lawrence Wildie, Al Billingsley, Boyd Barton, Lowell Mechem, Henry Smith, Harold Dilworth, J. G. Dilworth, Lavar Jurgens, Fred Hunt, Floyd Johnson, Kenneth Eldredge, Jim Stocking, William Laidlaw and Dave Baird, Carey.
 Lowell Mechem and Sherman Smith who have been with the cattle all spring, report that the feed is still good but that the water holes in the park are drying up and the small lava lakes soon will disappear.
 Hobart, the capital of Tasmania, is said to have one of the finest harbors in the world.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9 (AP)—The Pennsylvania hospital announces the success of a rare operation in which part of a dead man's torso; the body's largest blood vessel, was transplanted into a living person.
 The operation was performed on John Chatman, 48, Philadelphia, who was admitted to the hospital a month ago suffering from a weakening of the wall of the aorta. The vessel was swollen and any break would cause immediate death.
 During the seven-and-one-half hour operation, performed June 25, surgeons replaced the swollen vessel with a three-inch section taken from the body of a 19-year-old youth, who had been killed in an accident 10 days previously.
 The operation was of a type rarely performed successfully in medical history, according to hospital officials.
 The climate of the Azores is nearly ideal—45 degrees at the lowest extreme and 85 degrees at the highest.

American Political Convention Gains World-Wide Interest for Initial Time

The United Press... the first time an American political convention has captured the interest of most of the world.

London delegates at the battle for delegates at the national convention in the front-page and other news columns in newspapers here.

London in the opinion of the delegates at the convention have been in a state of suspense since the start of the convention.

Like Roosevelt in the contest between Dewey and Eisenhower, Robert A. Taft, with self-justifying title of "Mr. America," is in the center of the storm.

European newspapers, headed by the state's Times, are devoting both their news and editorial columns to the Republican contest.

A Times editorial warned Britain that the Republican party was in danger of being "captured by its neo-isolationists and Pacific-fronters."

It accused Taft supporters of "brazenly" using party machinery to gain control of contested delegates.

Even the Sunday newspaper news of the world, whose exploitation of sex and crime has boosted its circulation to a world record, 9,421,115, showed these aids to give "on spot" to the GOP convention.

French newspapers also played up the Chicago developments. The left-wing socialist newspaper France Triumphant said the convention's choice "will influence... the policy of a power (the U. S.) which has taken, and in which the rest of the world has confided, an overwhelming responsibility."

West German newspapers are worried over the fate of Eisenhower's favorite son.

One commented that Eisenhower's "Alice in wonderland" innocence "is no match for last year's professional political knowledge."

In Japan, the Tokyo newspaper Meishichi devoted half its front page to a report on the first day of the convention.

Only Russia and her satellites profess to be disinterested in the all-American political leaders at Washington and "salute of Wall Street."

Election Charm Cultivated By Behind-Scenes Worker

By DOROTHY BOE AP Women's Editor Dear Candidate: So you want to be President?

If you are serious in this intent, it is likely to suggest that you look up a certain good-looking gal who stays mostly behind the scenes at the conventions, but knows more about how President gets elected than most campaign managers.

When you meet Helen Blount, don't be misled by her apparently feminine manner—her gay, business-like and her jangling charm bracelet.

This is the young lady who is in charge of radio talks for CBS. She probably has groomed more candidates for the air waves and the TV screen than anyone in the business.

She's been pulling strings behind the scenes at all presidential conventions since 1920, being careful not to be strictly impartial and assisting all comers in such matters as lumber, steno-graphs and more recently how to look good on TV.

She was right in her pitching when FDR showed the world the effectiveness of radio as a political tool. She scheduled the talks of Willkie and Dewey and General MacArthur making fast friends of them all.

She feels that the candidate who will occupy the White House next year is going to be the one who most effectively puts across his story to the nation's voters via the nation's radio and TV screens.

It isn't necessary for a candidate to be a great orator to get his story across to the people—through the air waves. He has to talk straight and put some conviction in his voice, because both radio and TV can show up a phony at 40 paces.

A successful candidate must make an impact on the millions of listeners and viewers who decide the elections in their own living rooms. And to do this a man must be able to project his own personality across the air waves. Some men can and some can't.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Usually children learn to talk on their own. But if they are slow or if their speech powers without too much difficulty, but now and then we meet a child who, after talking correctly for months, begins to stammer.

Any defect in speech should be mentioned to the dentist who will examine the child's teeth and his mouth, to learn if there is any cause for treatment of them.

Your child's health and happiness are the basis of his future success. An appreciation of this grave responsibility is the heart of a parent's prayer.

Setbacks for Stalin

A series of recent events in Europe adds up to a pattern of defeat for the communists, as shown on newspaper above. Shooting down of Swedish planes, including the "Korona" one of the Baltic was, served merely to teach Sweden that traditional neutrality is no protection against Russian ruthlessness. The same ruthlessness was experienced by East Germans who vainly fought against being torn out of their homes and having villages used to make a three-mile "no man's land" along the East German-West German border. Under the Finlay government's surprising anti-red drive, communists are on the run in France.

Village Withdraws From Two Groups

BLISS, July 9—Bliss withdrew Monday from the Idaho Municipal League and the Highway 26 Association. Action to withdraw from the two groups was taken at a meeting of the village board.

Withdrawal from the league was completed because dues had been increased from $15 to $25 a year, board members said. Decision to withdraw from the highway association was reached because the board said it could see no benefits derived from membership in the association.

The board also ordered $1,277.43 paid to the North Side Construction company, Jerome, for work done on village irrigation ditches. Purchase of an auxiliary booster pump for the fire-truck was authorized. The pump will be purchased from M. Curtis and son, Salt Lake City, for $488.86 and will be used for grass fires.

Board in Lincoln Studies Tax Roll

SHOSHONE, July 9—The Lincoln county commissioners met again Monday as a board of equalization to study personal property rolls. An assessment for J. A. Campbell was reduced from $210 to $185.

Exemptions were granted: Mrs. Gertrude Volkmeier, Mrs. Luda Hanson, Mrs. Angie McClure and Mrs. Ben Kisting with an exemption for Mrs. Idabelle Davis was denied.

The board will meet again next Monday as a board of equalization and then as a regular board of county commissioners.

People Asked to Give Cooperation

GOODING, July 9—Residents of Gooding were asked by the city council Monday night to cooperate with the ditch rider and to take irrigation water only when it is their turn. Many persons have been taking water out of turn, Mayor Harley V. Crilpen reported.

The mayor also announced that the city's new sewer system will be completed on Aug. 1 which is right on schedule.

For the protection of children swimming in the municipal pool the police were instructed by the council to patrol the pool more thoroughly. Motorists have a tendency to increase their speed too soon upon leaving the city, councilmen reported. This endangers the lives of the children at the pool, they added.

The council also announced that the east-west runway at the airport will receive a seal coat with Tom McCorlan, Boise, doing the work.

New Cowboy Hurler Pitches Five-Hitter as Teammates Slaughter Bannocks 18-2

POCATELLO, July 9 (AP)—A new Magic Valley pitcher, moved in from San Jose, Calif., hurled a five-hit ball game at the Pocatello Bannocks while his team took an 18-2 league game at Pocatello Tuesday night.

Troy Herriage kept the Bannocks under control until the seventh inning when Jack Sargun poked one over the fence with Jess Duran on base for the only Indian runs.

Ninth Inning Rally Gives Electric Win

GREAT FALLS, July 9 (AP)—Ed Serrano scored two runners with a long triple down the left field line in the ninth Tuesday night to give the Great Falls Farrows their first Pioneer League win over Salt Lake City.

The loosely-played contest was witnessed by 1,779 fans. It gave Great Falls the series three to one. The electric rally in the ninth—only one out came at the expense of the ace manager, Hugh Kittle. The Bear had gone ahead in the eighth when Bill Rogers slapped a grand slam home.

Kittle—the list of four Salt Lake City pitchers—went in to rescue John Anderson in the eighth. The game was anything but a pitchers' duel. Marion Hill started for Salt Lake City but was chased in the second. Fred Farnsworth lasted until the electric wind and for five runs in the seventh. He was replaced by Earl Silverthorn who lasted the rest of the way for his second win in three days over the Bear.

Big Trout

Thomas Dickerson, Twin Falls, landed a 12-pound Dolly Varden trout last Thursday with the fly-rod at the mouth of Hell's Run in Snake Creek. He is the biggest one reported caught in Stanley basin this season.

Dickerson caught the fish with a No. 4 spinner and a large trout fly. He says the fish weighed 12 pounds and was 18 inches long.

Good Season In Store for Duck Hunters

June rains have completely eliminated any drought threat on the Canadian prairie, particularly in southwestern Manitoba and nearly all eastern Saskatchewan, bidding well for the large early duck hatch now on the wing.

Cowboy Fans Lag in Votes For All-Stars

Major Valley patrons continue to respond unenthusiastically for the Pioneer League all-star game to be played July 26 at the home of the league-leaders.

Seventy-seven ballots have been cast from the Magic Valley area. With an estimated 1,000 votes required to elect a player to the all-star team it appears doubtful that the Pioneer League all-star game will be held.

Arizona Wins Title

LOS ANGELES, July 9 (AP)—The University of Arizona, with the Pioneer League's seventh annual American collegiate baseball field game team title, was announced Tuesday.

It Was Red Sox or Piersall, so Zany

Recruit Left, but Memory Hopped on Piersall. The Red Sox sure could use that home run, he cracked.

In spring training, Piersall was a talkative, but normal enough rougher. Somewhere between the outfield and his first fight with Billy Martin of the Yankees, he became a true-mad psychomotor ward.

He spent after fly balls with arms straight out from his hips, in a strange fashion, and would doff his cap to the crowd, hopped, deeply, patting himself on the back, applauded as his own cheerleader.

The fans ate it up. Piersall told Paul White that he was going to hunt and hunt and hunt. Once on first, he leaped, his arms and barked like a dog. Unperturbed, Piersall filled the lines with balls, and he went on for a game-winning home run.

Hagerman Refuge Stock Several Ponds

HAGERMAN, July 9 (AP)—The Hagerman bird developed tract with one house five years ago. Its way to becoming one of Idaho's favorite fishing spots from fish egg to the frying pan. Four large ponds double as waterfowl nesting and public fishing areas have been hewn out of the lava rocks along the hillside of Snake River canyon.

The ponds, which cover an area of 40 acres, will be stocked with legal-size trout next spring. T. B. Murray, fish and game director, said at least two and possibly all of the ponds will be restricted to fly fishing.

Under a program contemplated by the department an additional 80 acres of state property will be added to provide more bird nesting and fishing spots.

The state, with help of federal aid money, has used concrete water from the federal fish hatchery on Riley creek, diked and dammed four levels of the hillside to create the ponds.

A good growth of moss has nearly covered the bottoms. Grass was needed to provide more stability and strengthen the banks.

Provisions have been made for an irrigation system out of the dike. The ponds already created will provide water for a contemplated picnic area, Murray said.

The ponds probably won't be opened to fishing until about July 1, so as not to interfere with nesting of migratory waterfowl, Murray said.

At the present construction rate, Murray said it will take another two or three years to complete the dike. The ponds already created from Tucker springs and create an additional 80 acres of ponds. One large pond which would extend to the edge of U. S. Highway 30 between Hagerman and Bliss would be for bass and bluegill, Murray said.

UCLA Student to Seek His Second Public Links Title

MIAMI, Fla., July 9 (AP)—Dave Stanley, 21-year-old UCLA student, ground out a 4 and 2 victory over George Binks, Winston, Ark., Tuesday in his opening bid for a second straight National Public Links golf championship.

The Miami country club's tricky Bermuda grass greens stumped even the champion. Stanley three-putted four of the greens and was five over par for the 16 holes as he ousted the only Canadian in the big field, Eluck Binks, three putts on six of the greens.

It was Stanley's first appearance after a first-round bye. Sixty-four matches were played in Tuesday's wild second-round scramble and only one player among the stars of the American municipal links could match par for the 6,411-yard Miami course with its ball-avoiding roughs and its gaping sand and water traps.

The par player was Bob Kay, Toledo, and he needed to halve just only 12 holes to eliminate Robert Wilder, Phoenix, Ariz., 5 and 5.

The U.S.T.A. singles and mixed doubles championships will be held at the West Side Tennis club in New York, Aug. 20-26-27.

Turnesa Bow

ALBANY, N. Y., July 9 (AP)—The Turnesa, former U.S. Open champion, eliminated Thomas J. Piersall, former U.S. Open champion, in the first round of the annual U.S. Open golf tournament.

Turnesa, 42, defeated Piersall, 34, in a 3 and 1 match. Piersall, who had a 14 and 14 match.

The most hit off one game was 16 and 16, who tied for when that club was in league in 1951.

Watchman in Fair Building Is Suggested

A resolution urging the Twin Falls county fair to provide a night watchman for the 4-H barns during the county fair was adopted by the Mountain Rock Grange Saturday night.

The resolution pointed out that there is great danger in the barns as the floors are strewn with straw. Many 4-H members spend the night in the barns to guard their livestock.

Other resolutions concerning the re-opening of the Albion and Lewis, Idaho, schools, the fish and game department and Grange insurance were tabled for further discussion.

Named as chairman of the Twin Falls county fair decorating committee was Mrs. Victor Nelson. Mrs. Jet Quigle was assist. Other fair committees will be announced later. A play was presented by Billy Brock, Roberta Ray, Hubert and Billy Redman. A true and false quiz on rules for displaying the American flag was won by Mrs. Robert Ray, Jr., Mrs. William Sparks, Carol Uley and Maurice Quigle. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Carol Uley and Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks.

The next regular meeting will be held July 21. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones will serve on the refreshment committee.

Following the regular meeting there will be a brief meeting for members of the Mountain Rock Grange Supply.

Open Saturday

BOISE, July 9.—Secretary of State Ira H. Masters says his office will remain open on Saturday to receive petitions for nomination for state offices.

Saturday is the last day on which candidates may file. All statewide offices normally close at noon on Saturdays, but Masters said he decided to delay the closing hour following receipt of an opinion by Attorney General and deputy secretary Smylie held that the normal business day of statewide offices extends to 5 p. m.

Top-heavy scores were less frequent in the Tuesday round of Knuthole league baseball competition. However, two such wins were noted.

In the Midget league, the Pythons defeated the Phoenixes 12 to 4 with Mickie Kono, Larry Watson, Pete Dewey, Dale Ford and Larry Yost.

In the Junior league, the Pythons trounced the Phoenixes 12 to 0. Pete Dewey and Larry Yost collected two triples. Doubles were hit by Dale Ford and Hal Hall. Roy Yost had a triple for the only Pheasant extra base hit.

In another high-scoring Midget league contest, the Reddy Klawatts downed the Comets 12 to 6. Richard Davis was the winning pitcher, hitting the Comets to three hits. Jimmy McCreary batted for the Pythons in the game. Richard Davis hit two triples and Gene Routt got another to lead the winners hitting. Tony Tripps led the Comets with a double.

In the Pee Wee league, the Speedball Juniors slapped down the Knuthole Kids 12 to 0. The Braves led all hitting with two triples and one double. Danny Keller was the winning pitcher.

The Elks dumped the Moose Mites 14 to 7. Donald Lyda of the Elks hit a triple and a double. Bart Brown hit a double. Tony Bachman was the winning pitcher.

In the Midget league, the Showmen defeated the Rockets 15 to 10. Larry Fike lashed a triple for the losers with Tommy Ballentine getting a double. Hitting for the Showmen were Oarl Lane, Jimmy Donnelly, Gail Brass, Don Brown, Larry Glah and Terry Dickerson.

Mike Blowe biased out a home-run to help pace the Blue Racers to a 12-7 win over the Jack Pioneers. Dan Murphy, Mike Stone, Bill Stone hit doubles. Getting doubles for the losers were Jerry Bacon and Gene Federico. Mike Stone was the winning pitcher.

In a major-league match, the Athletics edged the Senators 6-4. Kenneth Minck of the Hornets hit a double for the only extra base hit. Winning pitcher was Howard Tenant.

The Power Pilots slipped by the Anilers 15 to 10. Gaylon Jones of the Power Pilots rapped a triple while Russell Thomas of the Anilers hit a double. Dennis Mower was the winning pitcher.

Chicago Restaurant Promoter Of Spuds Honors Idaho Group

CHICAGO, July 9 (Special).—A restaurant tycoon who has done more than perhaps any one person to make the Idaho potato a preferred product everywhere entertained 140 Idahoans Sunday night at a steak dinner in one of his seven local establishments.

He is Darlo Toffenetti, an immigrant from the Italian Tyrol, who formerly belonged to Austria. He also operates a huge restaurant in strategic Times Square in New York City and soon will open his eighth one here in the new Greyhound bus terminal.

His guests were headed by Gov. Len Jordan and included Gen. Henry C. Dworshak and Herman Weiker and Reps. Hamer, Budge and John T. Wood, all in town for the GOP national convention.

Several years ago the Toffenettis were vacationing at McCall, Idaho, and Darlo Jr. decided that was the country for him. Last month he was graduated from the University of Idaho, where he was a Sigma Chi and now is a private in the army.

Toffenetti explains that "we specialize in Idaho potatoes, and we've been buying them since 1917."

As an Idahoan put it "he's been good for us and we've been good for him."

Gov. C. A. Robins in 1950 thought enough of the Chicagoan to make him a "Marshal of the Vigilantes." Toffenetti told the group, "I welcome you in behalf of the city of Chicago as a member of its convention committee. It gives me tonight the greatest pleasure to show you my deep appreciation for your great state."

Responding, Jordan said, "I regard it as a real pleasure to meet you and your fine family. In behalf of Idaho I want to say we have been so well-treated we shall never forget your hospitality."

The group promptly broke out into "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," following it with "Idaho," the state song, dedicating it to their host.

Also present were Mrs. Toffenetti and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vodicka, son-in-law and daughter of the host, also Chicago.

A potatoella plant can be kept until the following season by placing it in the basement or some dry place.
