by President Brings Leaders to Steel Crisis Talks

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—A possible break in the steel strike like loomed today after Benjamin Fairless, U. S. Steel and steel union President Philip Murray met at the White House to consider President Truman's plan for settlement.

The two-day meeting between the two main protagonists of the long and costly dispute was recessed after a little more than an hour and a half.

Voting Slated For Plans to Close School

JEROME, July 24 (AP)—Patrons of the Russell Lane school district will vote Friday on whether or not the Russell Lane school will be continued as a attendance unit even though it has been incorporated into a new consolidated district. Patrons of the Greenwood district last week voted on a similar proposition and decided to retain their school.

The new Eden-Hazleton district was formed last month when a majority of the voters decided in favor of consolidation. In that election, however, Russell Lane favored consolidation by only a slim margin and Greenwood turned it down. Nonetheless, both districts were carried into the consolidated district by the heavy vote elsewhere.

To close schools under consolidation was to close the schools at Greenwood and Russell Lane and to transport the 227 children to the new consolidated school, Mrs. Sam Eakin, county superintendent of schools, said.

Under the plan, the school used by the Acquia district in Minidoka county to retain the Acquia high school, no attendance unit can be discontinued unless a 60 per cent majority vote by patrons in the affected district. Mrs. Eakin explained that districts within the Greenwood and Russell Lane districts petitioned the school trustees for such decisions. The Greenwood school was held last Friday and the Russell Lane election is slated for this Friday.

Barkley, "too Old" for Nominee Post, Whips Demo Meet Into Record Frenzy

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—They said he was "too old." They said he was a "big centimetre" and a "stagnated public figure, but heavy with years, too many years, to be the Democratic presidential nominee."

The Democratic convention is on the verge because of the man who was "too old."

Palisades Project Due to Create Several Problems in Swan Valley Area

The first change in the area, of course, was the sudden influx of more than 100 employees of the U. S. bureau of reclamation. Not too much trouble has been caused finding room for them. But the actual work force is yet to come.

Louis B. Ackerman, project engineer for the bureau, estimates about 300 construction workers now are living in the valley. He says the number will swell to 500 by the end of the summer, and jump to a peak of 1,000 during 1963 and 1964. This may decline to 800 in 1965, he says, and then fall to 500 in 1966, when the dam is scheduled for completion.

What to do with all these people? And what about the inevitable growth of service facilities, the lunch stands, clearing establishments, stores, which must expand to meet the needs of this growing community.

As then what happens when, in five years, this population growth suddenly reverses itself when the workers move on to another job? The latter question will have to be answered. There must be some way to cope with the present growth.

Howing, the No. 1 problem, is being handled adequately. Traller courts are the big answer. There is a number of them now, and the private contractors, working on the dam, are clearing ground for a 300-trailer campsite near the dam. The reclamation bureau has a 30-unit court near its housing center, and other projects under way.

Schooling also is a big headache. Particularly so because there is a slack construction season for late fall to early spring. Workers move away during that time, taking their children out of school. This means a fluctuating school population.

The Swan valley normal school enrollment now is about 125. It is a safe guess that when the peak of 1,000 workers is reached, school facilities will be needed for about 200 more children. The people in Swan valley admit there just isn't enough local money to construct such facilities. So the reclamation bureau is trying to obtain federal aid, but the government recently said funds would not be available this year, when the dam is scheduled for completion. The bureau is arranging to utilize one of its buildings for a temporary school.

What about recreational facilities? If the workers like to fish, they've got it made. The bureau has erected a community house, not too fish-urate, but it fits the needs of the construction community.

What will come of all this crowding into temporary homes, temporary schools by a temporary population?

There's the power and the irrigation water to be taken from the dam, of course.

And there will be many recreational possibilities. The dam will create a sizable lake for fishing and boating. Canoes will dot the rim of the reservoir. Reclamation bureau officials predict the site will see heavy use by some 50,000 residents living within a 100-mile radius of the project, and by tourists.

Although the giraffe was found in Europe and India in previous geological ages, it has been native only in Africa in relatively modern times.

New Highway Opened for First Time; Work Not Completed Yet

Traffic was moving across the new highway from the Perrine Memorial bridge to the Y east of Jerome Thursday morning. The first cars drove onto the new section at 9:15 a.m.

The road will be open for two weeks or longer, according to H. B. Stenberg, district highway engineer. It will be closed after the oil mat has been packed. A seal coat and gravel chips will complete the road. Seal coating operations are expected to last three to five days.

Considerable amount of cleaning up remains to be done now that the road is open, reports Wendell Fredrickson superintendent for Peter Klewett Sons Construction company, road builders.

Virgil Lickley, Jerome, road district No. 1 secretary, said completion of the highway will be the realization of a dream come true. Lickley was one of the principal advocates of the highway.

The contract for construction of the road was awarded by John McKinstry, Payette, former Idaho commissioner of roads.

Orville E. Chaney, past chairman of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce highway committee, said he is happy to see the new road opening.

Earth Rumble Still Noted in Quake Region

YTHACHAPI, Calif., July 24 (AP) — The earth still rumbled and trembled in southern California, crumpled buildings already weakened by Monday's "killer quake," but scientists said today the aftershocks were "lapping off."

Dr. Hugo Benioff, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, said seismograph readings indicated today's jolts from the quake had taken 11 lives here and one in nearby Arvin, Calif., were following the "usual pattern."

Arvin, hard hit by the original quake, noted some additional damage from after-jolts yesterday. Buildings weakened by the big quake crumbled still more from settling shocks and the front of one damaged building collapsed.

A Red Cross public information officer, Joe Barber, said one entire block of the downtown was roped off.

At least 20 settling shocks made

Solon Counts On Bid Help From People

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Ester Koster, Texan, last night counted on the "people back home" last night to fire up Democratic convention delegates in favor of his nomination for President.

He said he believes they will "let their delegates know how they feel."

Boom Paid Peak
The boom in days of Adlai Stevenson, Illinois, he told a news conference, "has passed its peak."

Kefauver made the assertion shortly after spending two hours in a huddle with advisers.

The meeting was held immediately after his appearance at the convention, touched off a 25-minute demonstration which refused to die upon his departure from the hall.

His backers from Tennessee, California, Wyoming, Oregon, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Puerto Rico, Indiana and other states continued to whip it up, with the senator's 81-year-old father, Robert Koster Kefauver, Madisonville, Tenn., taking the lead.

The outbreak of cheering interrupted convention proceedings.

Clashes Gain
Kefauver claimed that within 24 hours he has picked up new support and all of the delegates pledged to him are standing pat.

Kefauver also said he found a growing resentment "over the effort of a few political bosses to dictate to this convention and draft an unwilling candidate to run."

Bitterness in GOP Fading
WASHINGTON, July 24 (Special)—The bitterness of GOP convention fight is fading here under the pressure of a need for all hands to cooperate in getting out some word.

From Denver the headquarters of Dwight D. Eisenhower sent out a distress signal that urged all Republicans. Over-loaded with work, the nominee's staff asked Ben Frank Carlson, R., to pull the strings in getting out letters to all delegates and alternates to the Chicago show.

The letters, all identical, are headed "From the Office of Dwight D. Eisenhower" and will be sent from here to Denver by mail.

Each had to be typed individually, however. The letter is cordial in tone, and asks for all possible assistance in the name of Ben Frank Carlson, R., and Dworkin and Walker, Idaho. All four were ardent trait men.

Parcel Explosion Injures Workman
SALT LAKE CITY, July 24 (AP)—A time-bomb exploded early this morning in the parcel post annex of the Union Pacific railroad here, injuring one U. P. employe.

Fred Bennett received injuries to his left eye and right side when a mail sack he was moving from one lorry to another exploded. He was listed as in "good" condition in the LDS hospital here.

Force of the explosion scattered mail for 400 feet and some letters jammed into cracks in the ceiling.

Bennett said, "If my face had been turned toward the mail sack it would have been blown off. I could feel the force of the explosion whose past my ear."

Idaho Claims Name Forged Upon Report

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Idaho's delegates to the Democratic national convention were angry Wednesday night.

They said a name was forged on a committee report and they also declared the temporary chairman of the convention was "filing indignation" over the delegates.

Later as Bigner, Tom Boise, an Idaho delegate who was a member of the credentials committee, was listed Wednesday as signing of a minority report concerning seating of delegations from Texas and Mississippi.

Boise told a reporter he had voted with the minority, which recommended the seating of pro-administration delegations from Texas and Mississippi.

The Idaho delegation chairman, R. N. Elder, tried in vain to get the attention of Gov. Paul A. Dever, Massachusetts, temporary convention chairman, to explain the situation.

Both Boise and Elder said the signing of Boise's name to the report was an "outrage."

Wholesale Food Prices Decline
NEW YORK, July 24 (AP)—Wholesale food prices declined for the first time in a month as the Dun and Bradstreet index fell 2 cents in the week ended July 22, the agency reported Wednesday.

Chick Output Drops
BOISE, July 24 (AP)—Idaho chick production dropped from 676,000 in May to 213,000 last month, the USDA census bureau said Wednesday.

The June total compares with 304,000 last June and is 10,000 below the 1948-50 average.

Buhl Resident Is Injured in Crash

BUHL, July 24—Word was received here Wednesday that Mrs. Elizabeth Hinkle and daughter, both of Florida, were hospitalized after the automobile was over a steep embankment Tuesday morning near Alberton, Mont.

Mrs. Hinkle was treated for broken ribs and shock and still in the Northern Pacific hospital, Missoula, Mont. Both Mrs. Hinkle and her daughter were released Wednesday morning.

The car went over the embankment, turned over several times and was stopped by a tree. An accident occurred within five miles of the trio's destination, the home of Mrs. Hinkle's daughter, Mrs. Raymond Rugs, Alberton, Mont.

Mrs. Hinkle, driver of the car, said she didn't know what happened. The last action she recalled, she said, was that of trying to shift gears.

Barkley, "too Old" for Nominee Post, Whips Demo Meet Into Record Frenzy

"I believe the programs of the Democratic party give the greatest good to the greatest number of the American people and if I did not believe that, I would join some other party that does believe in those eternal and immortal principles."

Then he turned to the Republicans, recalling that Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman have been two great world wars. I ask them to tell the American people what they would have done if they had been in power on Dec. 7, 1941, when Pearl Harbor was attacked by the armies of Japan.

His whole speech was a kind of keynote, address. It was packed with power and there was not a moment of inactivity—real tribute for almost any speaker at any convention.

When it was over, the demonstration was even greater than the one that preceded Barkley's speech. The ovation lasted and on, it was a moment—a moment that lasted more than a half-hour—of complete triumph for the man who was "too old" to be the choice of his party.

Full House

CHICAGO, July 24 (AP)—Vice President Alben Barkley drew the first full house of the two national conventions Wednesday night.

For the first time since the big political rallies began, every one of the 14,000 seats in convention hall was occupied for Barkley's speech. Late arrivals were turned away at the gates.

Eisenhower, the GOP nominee, had said he was going to lead a crusade. "We are not beginning a crusade," Barkley shouted. "We are continuing a crusade.... a crusade to see

Cruelty Claimed In Divorce Case

Mrs. Dorothy Leda Loggery, 47, Fall street, filed a divorce action in district court Wednesday against Claude Ray Loggery charged extreme cruelty. She asks custody of their two children, 2 and 15 months old.

The couple was married at Elko, Nev., Oct. 4, 1948. The wife claims he left her and went to desert. She said he did not provide the common necessities of life and gave attention to other women. She alleged she has not seen him since he left their home in Twin Falls, Feb. 27. She claims he has not supported the family since then.

The wife is represented by Max Plyford. There is no community property.

His whole speech was a kind of keynote, address. It was packed with power and there was not a moment of inactivity—real tribute for almost any speaker at any convention.

When it was over, the demonstration was even greater than the one that preceded Barkley's speech. The ovation lasted and on, it was a moment—a moment that lasted more than a half-hour—of complete triumph for the man who was "too old" to be the choice of his party.

Strohmeier outlined his views on the situation in an address to the group on Tuesday night. He said he has more faith in the U.S. than in any other nation.

Strohmeier said he had talked with several Catholic and civil rights leaders and they were frank to admit they were not for the day to begin with.

County Paces Area in Sale Of U. S. Bond

Twin Falls county residents lead other Magic Valley counties in the purchase of defense bonds, buying $14,465 worth and 300% during the first six months of 1952, reports John B. Robertson, county bond chairman.

In second place was Minidoka county with $7,044. Cassia county was third with $4,987. Other county bond purchasers were Blaine, $10,957; Camas, $564; Clonding, $24,882; Jerome, $17,870; and Lincoln, $14,000.

Robertson said Idaho residents purchased close to three million dollars in series E bonds during the first half of 1952 for an increase of nine per cent over the corresponding period last year.

A total of $2,858,838 in E bonds was purchased, according to Robertson. An additional $750,000 were sold in all other series to bring the total sales for the first half of the year to $3,708,838.

Robertson said he anticipated an increase in defense bond purchases just as soon as the new bonds are distributed to banks and post-offices.

"We have been issuing interim receipts," he pointed out, "and many persons have withheld purchases until they can actually receive the new bonds. Distribution of the new bonds should take place within the next two weeks."

Allied Planes Renew Attack On Red Lines

SEOUL, Korea, July 24 (AP)—United Nations planes renewed the air war against the communists today with attacks on the main railway supply lines leading from Manchuria to enemy front lines.

Allied fighter-bombers, taking advantage of clearing weather, hit six important North Korean bridges. Three bridges were destroyed and two damaged along the main supply line from Kanggye to Hulsan along the northwest coast.

Trucks Cut
Mustangs, Shooting Stars and Thunderbolts also cut the tracks in 14 spots along the same line.

Other U. N. aircraft struck at enemy transportation and supply dumps, destroying a rail bridge and two tank positions, two troop trains and other targets.

Ground Action Halt
Ground action has ceased for a near stop. Fighting all but ceased for Old Baldy hill on the west-central front, where the allies and the communists held half the strategic height.

The communists fired only 2700 rounds of artillery and mortar across the front Wednesday, the lowest total since June 6. The allies repelled red probes all across the front.

Judge Rules Out Pay Suit of VA

BOISE, July 24 (AP)—In an memorandum opinion handed down in federal district court here Wednesday, Judge Chase A. Clark ruled that the widow of a North Idaho veteran should not be required to repay a portion of the disability benefits paid the veteran by the veterans administration.

In bringing suit against Elma Agnes Gibson, Sandpoint, the federal government had charged that $41.40 a month of the $101.40 a month paid to the late Virgil Thomas Gibson, a veteran of World War I, for June, 1941 to November, 1946, was in error and should be repaid.

Judge Clark ruled the error was on the part of the veterans administration and not such that any fault could attach to the deceased veteran.

Substitutes are Ethel Tucker, Carol Stacy, Sandra Tucker and Carol Tores.

you know with the "Touch-Test"

There's no guess-work with Ball Dome Lids—when the Dome is down the jar is sealed—just PRESS-TO-TEST.

Save time and money, use Ball Dome Lids instead of old-fashioned "flat-top" caps. This season, be sure, buy Ball home canning supplies.
