Final Honor Is Given for Queen Mary

WINDSOR, England, March 31.—Queen Mary was buried today beside her husband, King George V, while Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Windsor were openly at the coffin.

The 85-year-old queen who died last Tuesday was buried in simple family ceremonies in St. George's chapel within the walls of Windsor castle, seat of Britain's rulers from the time of William the Conqueror.

Remnants of Europe's dwindling royalty—many related by blood to the house of Windsor—gathered for the second time in little more than a year to mourn the passing of a royal lion. In the same 13th century chapel Queen Mary's son, King George VI, was buried in the private family vault in February, 1952.

Crushed by the death of his mother, the Duke of Windsor gave way to emotion built up under the obviously increasing strain since he rushed to her deathbed from the United States.

They streamed down his face, glistening in the sun's rays, as he stood by the coffin of his mother—a favorite son of his mother's and marriage in an American divorce.

Brother Alfred, his usually stolid brother, the Duke of Gloucester, who reached out a hand to touch him and wept himself.

Queen Elizabeth II wept too as she led her seat among the royal ladies in the choir facing the altar, earth on the coffin of the old lady she used to call "Grandma England."

"Alas to saith, dust to dust," the archbishop of Canterbury intoned. And the coffin, covered with Queen Mary's personal standard, was slowly sank beneath the floor of the chapel to the royal vaults below.

Fifth District Legion Meets

Buhl, March 31.—Mrs. Velma Treaswell, fifth district president of the American Legion auxiliary, conducted the business meeting Sunday afternoon in the Legion hall when Buhl was host to the fifth district convention of the American Legion and auxiliary.

Represented at the meeting were Filer, Paul Hunt, Eden, Burley, Hazelburg, Twin Falls, Rupert, and Buhl. President of the nine posts reported on activities. April was designated as child welfare month, and American month and savings bond month.

Mrs. Jackie Westendorf, Mrs. Norma Brown, and Mrs. Claire Theodor, Filer, sang trio numbers. They were accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Cobb.

A banquet was served by the Buhl auxiliary and Dr. F. A. Kallusky, Buhl, was master of ceremonies.

Don Brannan, Buhl, introduced the visiting officers of both Legion and auxiliary.

Andrew Jensen, Gooding, state department commander, warned Americans that Russia never has taken a country by armed conquest but always by infiltration and by use of the countries' own people—either traitors or dupes.

Papers Asked for Burgman Estate

A petition for letters of administration in the estate of Mrs. Sophia Burgman, local resident, who died in San Diego, Calif., Dec. 17, 1951, in probate court Monday by her son, Halver Burgman, Twin Falls.

The estate is valued as a portion of lot 1 and all of lot 2 in Martin subdivision, Twin Falls. The estate will not exceed $16,000, according to the petition.

In addition to the petitioner, the survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Ewars Thomas and Mrs. Freda Heath, both in San Diego, Calif. Guy L. Kinney represents Burgman. The hearing has been set for 2 p. m. April 4.

Fellowship Dinner Served at Church

JEROME, March 31.—More than 100 persons attended the fellowship dinner at the Methodist church Sunday night. The dinner was planned to honor new members of the church. The Rev. J. D. Cree, pastor, was master of ceremonies. He introduced new church members.

Music for the program was provided by a trio composed of Frank Beer, Mrs. Gerald Nicholson and Mrs. Elmer Correll. Mrs. Maxine Fisher was the accompanist. Dr. F. W. Werts, Twin Falls, superintendent of the eastern district of Idaho Methodist churches, was guest speaker. The invocation was given by Dr. Werts and the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Cree.

Judgment Asked

The First Security Bank of Idaho, Shoshone branch, filed a civil action in probate court Monday against Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Flew, Jr.

The bank charges in the complaint that the Flews borrowed $83 on a promissory note Sept. 5, 1952, maturing Jan. 6, 1953. No part of the note has been paid. The bank asked for a judgment for the principal of the note plus interest from the date of the note, attorney fees and costs of the action. Murphy and Schwartz represent the bank.

Pays Fine

JEROME, March 31.—Elwood G. Olsen was released from the Jerome county jail Monday following payment of $63, balance of a $100 fine plus cost of a bench warrant.

Olsen was confined in jail following his failure to make regular weekly payments of $10 on the $100 fine. He was fined following a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He appeared before Probate Judge Theron W. Ward.

USDA Revise Savings Cited

WASHINGTON, March 31.—An expert in government reorganization said Monday President Eisenhower's plan to remodel the agriculture department should bring "savings running into the millions."

The expert is John Stuart, chairman of the agriculture committee of the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report.

Stuart said of the plan: "It represents a fundamental step in the first thoroughgoing departmental reorganization in many years."

Eisenhower sent the plan to congress last Wednesday. Under his Agriculture Secretary Benson would have authority to reorganize the department and its many field agencies.

Buhl Bid Is Low - On Sheriff's Car

The Curtis Chevrolet company, Buhl, was the low bidder for the sale of a new car to the sheriff's office, the county commissioners reported today.

The Buhl firm submitted a bid of $460 as its price for a new car in addition to the 1951 Chevrolet to be traded in by the county. Bids by nine other firms ranged from $1,100 to $1,582. All were submitted by local companies.

World "Delightful, Confusing" To Formerly Blind Chicagoan

CHICAGO, March 31.—William W. Johnson, who is regaining some of his sight after a lifetime of blindness, explored a world today and found it both delightful and confusing.

The first time the 77-year-old Duluth, Minn., schoolteacher saw an automobile, he thought it was a "monster."

"Nothing actually looks like it should—or rather, as I thought it would," he said. "People look like people but things just don't look like things."

Johnson has done all his "seeing" with his fingers since he lost his sight at the age of one year. A cornea transplant at Presbyterian hospital here rehabilitated one eye.

Since then he and his wife, Polly have been on a "looking" binge with Johnson finding new objects and his wife identifying them.

"How I can see my wife's face and 'm most pleased," he said. "She's everything I imagined her to be and more."

His sister-in-law, Mrs. Hazel Becker, confirmed that Johnson was having difficulty reconciling mental images of everyday objects with reality.

"He'd always said before that he was pretty sure he would know what some things looked like," Mrs. Becker said. "But when he saw a car—it was a taxi—coming to ward him, he thought it was a monster. He keeps saying nothing looks like anything he knows."

Johnson's sight is still very poor. He can tell what color a visitor's clothes are and whether someone moves, but most things are dim and hazy. But he and his family hope his vision will improve steadily.

For the program Friday a motion picture was shown and Curtis Boston spoke.

Contest Slated for Granges' Meeting

KIMBERLY, March 31.—Pleasant Valley Grange will host to the Twin Falls County Grange achievement contest on April 10, officials announced at a meeting of the Grange Friday night. The program will be presented by the Kimberly Grange.

Short story of a long shopping list

If you were to jot down all the different goods and services Standard Oil Company of California buys, your shopping list would be about 60,000 items long. Over the years, we've been growing as a customer as well as a supplier here in the West. But the most important aspect of our "shopping," we believe, is where we do it. You might think that a large company like Standard would centralize its buying in a few metropolitan areas. Actually, our purchases are made in hundreds of Western communities. The almost infinite variety of Standard's needs—from paper clips to propellers, from produce to professional services—has made the Company an important factor in the economic well-being of Western towns and cities. Last year, once again, Standard was a very good customer for a great many firms—more than 10,000 suppliers, both large and small, to whom

From groceries to drilling pipe, Standard's local business to merchants all through the West.

We buy lumber, roofing, plumbing, carpentry, and more for oil fields, refineries, plants, and offices.

We also use the services of doctors, nurses, plant engineers, surveyors, drilling contractors, geophysicists.

we paid more than $125,000,000. We bought locally wherever possible and we do it not only because it's good for Standard, but also because it helps the West. We know that our long-run depends on that of the communities

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA plans ahead to serve you better.
