The boss says to get him a shot of a stork with the expression he wears when he's bringing a brand new baby. Well, I ask you, how innocent can a guy get and still run a business? I couldn't talk him out of it so I got the shot as you see but if that stork had opened his trap, I'd have had a long drop. Build your photo outfit on an orderly plan—and you save both time and money. In planning your outfit, the major items you'll want first are a good camera, a good picture-taking aid, and—if you choose a miniature camera—a good projector or a viewer for color slides. A good camera is the first step. Let's assume that you have a camera. It may not be the camera you'll always keep, but, for the present, it's the center of your picture-taking activities. Certain aids are basic to good picture-taking. You don't have to spend a fortune on them, but you might get good quality—you'll be using them for many, many years. First of all, a flash equipment; and we recommend that extra dependability of a B-O flash system. Then, you'll find it handy to have at least two filters, one for black-and-white outdoor work and another for color, and you'll find lots of use for a clean-up lens for small subjects. Now you have your basic photo outfit. The next step is to extend your plan to include the additional equipment that will make your picture taking more convenient, increase the capabilities of your camera, improve the quality of your work. You'll want a field case to protect your camera from damage, filters to give you wider choice in variety of effects, two more close-up lenses, a case to protect your filters and close-up lenses, a clamp-type support or tripod. Here again, look for the quality and dependability that mean years of perfect service. When you buy your equipment here, you are assured of dependable quality. Come in and see these various accessories and we'll be glad to show them to you.

Report Is Issued On Dam Projects

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—Completion of the Joseph dam is running ahead of schedule and completion of McNary dam should be on time "except for possible delays in equipment deliveries," Representative Westland, R., Wash., was advised today.

Westland said the progress report on the two Columbia river projects was received from Brig. Gen. D. C. Shugart, head of the north Pacific division of army engineers at Portland.

He said the information came in answer to his request as to whether the projects had been delayed in the past year. He said he had read and heard so many contradictory reports on the two projects that he wanted to know the true situation.

School Lunch Aid Is Tallied

BOISE, Jan. 26 (AP)—Idaho school children received a total of $87,490 in direct financial aid and surplus commodities through the federal school lunch program in the 1953-54 school year, the state education department said Monday.

Allen B. Jeffries, director of federal projects for the department, said $500,995 of the amount went directly to the state's 389 school lunch programs in the form of cash at the rate of 3 cents and 4 1/2 cents per meal.

The lunches are provided free to many children, while those who can afford it pay up to 25 cents per meal. The rest of the aid was sent to the programs in the form of surplus commodities, Jeffries said. Those with the greatest dollar value were frozen turkeys, $129,850; smoked pork

Idaho Draft Set At 76 for March

BOISE, Jan. 26 (AP)—Idaho has been called on to supply 76 draftees of the 18,000-man national quota for March, Brig. Gen. John E. Walsh, state selective service director, said Monday.

The state's share of the 18,000-man February quota is 76. Walsh said he has been given authority to call up 10-year-olds if necessary, but he said he did not believe it would be necessary to call men under 20 in either month.

IKK'S SECURITY PLAN

The social security system has been part of the national and state government fabric since 1935. No politician who values his political life would propose that any substantial portion of it be repealed.

On the contrary, most politicians agree that social security is here to stay, whatever some of them may say publicly about "welfare-stateism." In fact, the Republicans, who did not author the system, promised in their 1952 national platform to extend security coverage and make other improvements.

In keeping with those pledges, President Eisenhower recently submitted a broad plan for the further development of social security.

First of all, the President proposed to widen coverage from the present 69 million Americans to 80 million, bringing under protection self-employed farmers, professional people, and others.

Second, he would liberalize provisions governing outside earnings for the aged. Right now, any time a person under 75 years of age earns $75 a month on the outside, he loses that month's social security benefit.

Mr. Eisenhower would allow an individual to make $1,000 a year in this manner without jeopardizing his government benefit.

Third, he would raise monthly payments. For those now retired, the existing individual minimum per month is $25, the maximum $65. The range for a man and wife is $37.50 and $127.50. Under the new plan, the individual low and high would be $30 and $98.50, the man and wife figures $45 and $147.75.

For people retiring in the future, the individual maximum would climb to $108.50, for a man and wife $162.75, as result of increased contributions.

At this time, both employer and employee contribute 2 percent each on earnings up to $3,600 a year. That rate is slated to go up to 3 percent by 1955. Mr. Eisenhower would hike it even higher, to 3.75 percent, by 1970. And he would have this hike taken out of $4,200 a year instead of $3,600.

All these proposals can be argued for on reasonable grounds.

If the system is here to stay, as seems evident, it is a matter of time before some of the working population as possible. No segment should suffer discrimination.

But certainly persons able and willing to continue working past retirement age ought to be encouraged to do so without penalty of loss of benefit. It appears reasonable, too, that contributions should gradually rise so that the ultimate return to the retired worker may be greater.

These proposals put wise stress on self-help within a system of group protection.

At the same time, the plan to hike benefits makes sense, since the postwar inflation has sharply reduced the purchasing power of the dollar. What may have seemed an adequate minimum some years back can look pretty skimpy in today's markets.

By this program Mr. Eisenhower has offered hard, specific evidence that his concern for the average American is not a thing of mere high-sounding generalities. His proposals deserve the attention of his party and the whole congress.

STRIKE-VOTE DEBATE

When congressional hearings on President Eisenhower's proposed amendments to the Taft-Hartley labor law begin, new Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell will be put on something of a spot. His embarrassment will arise over the most controversial of the President's proposals. This is for a government-supervised secret vote of employees on acceptance or rejection of a strike.

As a loyal member of the cabinet, Secretary Mitchell will be bound to support the President's program. He has already announced publicly that since this is the President's program, he—Mitchell—is for it.

If, however, the secretary is asked for his personal opinion as an experienced labor relations man, whether this pre-strike vote proposal will work, his answer may be something else.

That answer is fairly simple to deduce. What such a strike vote will hold out to in every case will be a question of whether the employees will accept—say five cents an hour increase, or whether they'll ask for 10 cents an hour.

When there was a provision of this kind in the wartime Smith-Connally labor act, the vote was in favor of the higher demand and a strike in 97 percent of the cases. This was at a time when there was an incentive of patriotism to stay on the job. Without that incentive, there is little reason to believe that the results would be much better.

Experienced labor relations men cite other reasons on the unsoundness of this proposal. They believe it would be wrong to get the government in on an issue that is the property of the workers.

It would run counter to the idea of retaining the workers bargaining to management and labor, without government interference until the negotiations have broken down.

Also, when grievances are put in writing as they would have to be for a secret ballot, the grievances have to be answered on the specific points brought up. That means less freedom to bargain and find a settlement on compromise terms.

Papers Called 'Potent Force' In Safety Help

BOZEMAN, Mont., Jan. 26 (AP)—Daily and weekly newspapers are one of the nation's "most potent instruments for controlling homes and highways accidents," the Institute for Safer Living was told today.

"There are encouraging signs that the national roll of accidents and injuries, while still staggeringly high, is beginning to level off," Arthur S. Johnson, safety engineering vice president of the American Mutual Liability Insurance company, said.

He told the institute's annual meeting that "with the help of the press, including TV and radio, the trend of accidents will be downward."

Though an overall increase of about 1.5 per cent in fatality and injury figures was noted for 1953, he said he believed this rise resulted from the present rapid yearly population growth. Actually, he said, there was a reduction in the rate of accident occurrence.

Johnson estimated that 90 per cent of the newspapers and radio and TV stations now regularly carry liability prevention features as a public service.

U. S. Revises Korean War Casualty List

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—The defense department announced Monday that a revised summary of Korean war battle casualties now shows a total of 142,118 casualties, including 5,024 for whom there is no accounting.

The revised summary listed 101 men as still on the captured list, including 21 who refused repatriation and 80 believed captured. The committee have given no accounting for the 80. In addition, 2,063 still are carried on military records as missing.

The new total showed a net decrease of 119 casualties since last September's report. A spokesman said that was accounted for by corrections in "bookkeeping," such as elimination of multiple reports for a single individual or erroneous reports on wounds.

There was a net increase of 258 men killed in action and a decrease of 416 in the number previously reported wounded or missing.

Jordan Indicates Primary Support

BOZEMAN, Mont., Jan. 26 (AP)—Governor William H. Pritchard today indicated that he thinks the idea of an Idaho presidential primary is a good one.

He said the people of the state should be allowed to express their preference for presidential candidates.

The governor emphasized, however, he was not approving any particular form of primary, but merely expressing approval of the general idea.

Jordan was commenting on an initiative proposed by a non-partisan group of Potomac and Washington residents to put the question before Idaho voters in November.

The group is headed by Gregg Potvin, American Falls attorney who was chairman of the "Referendum for President" organization in Idaho in 1952.

Shoshone Church Class Has Party

Wanda Bancroft extended an invitation to the group to hold the party class party at her home the latter part of February. Either a party or a sing-along party will be planned.

During the Sunday morning bulletins the meeting of the class party was discussed.

Fewer GIs to Be Shipped to Korea

SEOUL, Jan. 26 (AP)—U. S. Army Secretary Robert Stevens said today that fewer American soldiers will be sent to Korea in the coming months.

Only Scattered Resistance on Coffee Price Spiral Is Noted

By United Press

Coffee prices rose in a steady spiral today with only scattered resistance from housewives and restaurateurs.

In fact, retailers in many localities reported sales had increased recently as housewives rushed to stock up on the beans needed for American favorite hot beverage.

Experts warned that the worst was yet to come with prices possibly hitting $1.25 a pound at the end of February. They said retailers still had not passed on to their customers the latest wholesale price raises.

Coffee was becoming so precious that at Chicago, a gang of burglars had-jacked 12,000 pounds—valued at $1.15 a pound—from a warehouse, and

California Solon Barred at A-Test

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—Rep. Robert L. Condon, D. Calif., said today he was barred from the atomic tests last May because of anonymous charges that he and his wife had been Communist party members.

Condon, in testimony prepared for delivery under oath to the joint atomic energy committee, denied that he or his wife had ever been or are now communists or Communist sympathizers.

The statement was Condon's first public disclosure of the reasons the atomic energy commission had branded him a security risk. It also was his effort to remove the threat to his reputation and political career.

Condon is a first term congressman from World War II combat hero.

Prison Sentence Appeal Is Slated

MIAMI, Jan. 26 (AP)—Russell Tonney's attorney today planned an appeal from the 10-year prison sentence Tonney received in connection with the death of his swimming star daughter.

The 36-year-old ex-coast guard was found guilty of manslaughter yesterday. He was sentenced to making his 8-year-old daughter, Kathy, perform a high-tower dive last May 4 which allegedly caused her death.

Kathy and her 9-year-old brother, Bubba, gained international fame as the "Aquatics" with their swimming feats which included long distance jaunts in the Mississippi river.

'Renegade' Men Ousted by Union

BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 26 (AP)—Officials to replace "renegade" officials who bolted to the CIO Steelworkers union have been elected by the Butte miners union No. 1.

The International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers said Glen Zorn was elected temporary president in a local election Sunday at a rally attended by nearly 1,700 members. Permanent officers are to be elected Feb. 27.

Mine-mill said the officers will replace "former leaders who went over to the CIO Steelworkers union," and described them as "renegades."

"Those officers defected from the local, protesting what they called the LUMMA-SW common control domination. The union was ousted in 1900 by the CIO on that same charge."

Pleasant

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 26 (AP)—A traffic summons here is good for a free cup of coffee... to violators from out of town.

The law, a part of a display, disappeared from a store here Jan. 16 and again on Jan. 20. The display was moved to a new location and was taken from there Saturday night.

Thames Bradley, chairman of the drive, reported Monday he received a letter about a jar containing $88.10 he had received earlier.

Bradley was found in a suitcase in a freight car at Meridian Jan. 16 by Hugh Beaudin, Union Pacific railroad inspector.

In his letter to Bradley, Saunders explained he thought it was mine. "I was sorry about it," he wrote. "Now that you are here, you have a cup of coffee with us."

The ticket is redeemable for coffee in any cafe in town.

TOKYO, Jan. 26 (AP)—James A. Michener said today Indian Premier Jawaharlal Nehru is a friend of the United States because "he is the only man who can hold India together."

The American novelist told a Chamber of Commerce luncheon here that Nehru has succeeded in "keeping India on an even keel... in a world where chaos is the enemy of democracy."

Therefore, he is valuable to the United States... Michener said.

"He is our friend," the writer praised the Eisenhower administration for promoting a "safer and saner" U. S. attitude toward Asia, and he predicted that the sprawling continent "never again will be an intellectual backwater."

BURLEY, Jan. 26 (AP)—March of Dimes drive activities are stepping up here this week with local three events slated to help boost the campaign.

First event, scheduled for Wednesday is the "Support" night to be held at the Burley Elks lodge. The event is a dinner honoring J. Garth Glin, Glin county school, a number of the dinner and all proceeds go to the drive.

On Saturday afternoon, the Kiwanis club will attempt to collect a "block of dimes." Starting at Main street on Cleveland avenue, the Kiwanians intend to string dimes to Thirteenth street.

Art Albert, president of the club, is in charge of the event.

Burley's second annual polio benefit square dance jamboree is scheduled for Saturday night at the Y-Dell ballroom.

Square dancers from Piler, Twin Falls, Murrah, Hazelton and Rupert, as well as all parts of Cassia county, are expected to attend.

A floor show including a number of acts has been planned. The acts are the Three Musketeers, Kent Holman, Maule, Harlan square dancers, Piler; impersonations by Dee Mayden, Lowery sisters, accompanied by Lou Drussell, all Oakley; Jack Connell, Silverdale, a number billed as Hyrum Henry and Hortense, Burley.

Dimes Jar Taken At Burley Again

BURLEY, Jan. 26 (AP)—Burley's twice-stolen jar of Dimes collection for polio was taken again Saturday night by a classmate who objected to the way the victim was guarding him during an intramural basketball game.

The victim, James Horton, grabbed a hunting knife from a companion and threw it at his fellow assailant as he lay bleeding to death on the ground near Chaney school.

The Horton boy, with a gaping wound in his abdomen, was dead on arrival at receiving hospital. Police said his slayer, another 12-year-old whose name was withheld because he is a juvenile, admitted the knife attack.

"I stuck 'him and ran," police quoted the knife-wielder.

The attack was the latest in a recent series of juvenile rowdiness which led to a ban on night basketball games between public high schools in Burley. The ban was ordered by School Supt. Arthur Donduane after the near-fatal stabbing of MacKenzie High school's star center, Ross De Becker, 18, after a night game Jan. 15.

Marilyn Monroe Renews Dispute

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Jan. 26 (AP)—Film actress Marilyn Monroe was back in hot water with her studio today because she doesn't like the script for her new picture and refused to start work on the film.

A spokesman for 20th Century-Fox studio said she was placed on suspension again yesterday for failure to report for work.

The shapely blond actress was placed on suspension for the same reason earlier this month but the studio released and put her back on salary, following her marriage to Joe DiMaggio, 11 days ago.

The studio ordered her suspended again yesterday, however, when, instead of reporting as asked, the actress sent word through her attorney, Loyd Wright, Jr., that she did not like the script.

Appropriations Continue Down

New appropriations asked for by President Eisenhower in his budget for fiscal 1955 continue the downward trend of the past two fiscal years. With appropriations less than estimated receipts and expenditures, the budget could be balanced if this trend continues in the future.

Jobless Gain Slowing Down; Halt by Mid-March Is Hoped

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—The government held out hope today that the rise in unemployment is slowing down and will halt by mid-March except in a couple of industries.

The labor department said a survey of employers in the nation's 149 major industrial centers indicates this is a distinct possibility.

From now until March, it predicted, "little or no change" in employment levels in more than half the 149 centers.

The increase in unemployment in the 1948-50 recession, January and February usually are the months of highest unemployment. The spring gain in jobs usually shows up in March.

The results of the employers' survey were released with the department's announcement yesterday that 20 of the major industrial centers and 31 smaller industrial areas now have "substantial" unemployment.

This is the first time in more than a year that the department has said "substantial" unemployment exists in so many centers.

An area is classified as having "substantial" jobless totals when six per cent or more of its labor supply is jobless. This classification includes the government's aid in defense contracts and special tax benefits for firms building in the area.

The report also showed 19 major industrial centers with "moderate" unemployment, three to six per cent.

It also noted increases in unemployment in 90 per cent of the 149 major industrial centers.

The department said the increase was due to "slack" in demand for autos, consumer goods and some soft goods.

Equipment, textiles and farm equipment; reductions in defense production, particularly ordnance and aircraft; and the usual seasonal decline in construction, food processing and retail trade.

The 79 major industrial centers with "moderate" unemployment represented an increase of 13 per cent from last year.

The new areas in this category—three to six per cent unemployment—include Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minneapolis, Mo.; Kansas City, Mo.-Kansas; Oklahoma City, Okla.; and Sacramento, Calif.

Farm Equipment Selling Gain Seen For Coming Year

BOISE, Jan. 26 (AP)—Farm equipment dealers in Idaho will do a better business in 1954 because of an expected rise in farm prices, according to Paul M. Milliken, St. Louis, managing director of the Retail Farm Equipment Association.

Milliken told the 50th annual convention of the International Association of Hardware and Implement Dealers Monday that 1954 would be a good year for farmers in Idaho.

"Since there will be good farm prices here," he added, "the farm equipment dealers should do a business in excess of 1953 in this area."

He said that in Idaho, where new land is being brought into cultivation, "there is a field for reconditioned equipment." He urged the dealers to "fix up the used equipment as good as new of June 1."

The association, which represents dealers in Idaho, Oregon, Utah, Nevada and Wyoming, opened its three-day meeting Sunday.

Third Mine Firm Cuts Work Hours

WALLACE, Jan. 26 (AP)—American Smelting and Refining company today became the third large mine in northern Idaho to announce it will go on a 40-hour week Feb. 1.

J. E. Berg, manager of the company's western mining department, said notices would be posted at Morning, Page, Frisco and Vulcan-Galena mines.

Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mining and Concentrating company shortened its work week because of increased stocks and low prices for lead and zinc.

The Sidney Mining company curtailed its work week the following day.

Record Spending Set for Atom Energy; Request Marked With Note of Urgency

By PAT MONROE (Washington Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—President Eisenhower says in his budget message that federal spending for atomic energy will reach "the highest level" next fiscal year.

A few topics, like farm prices, received more mention in his lengthy document on U. S. finances. But none was branded with such a note of urgency as the passage of money for atomic energy.

To give you the warm figures, the President proposes to spend next year $1,425,000,000 on atomic energy. This compares with a current pace of $2,200,000,000 and $1,500,000,000 the year before. As a result of the atomic energy commission has long since dwarfed the largest U. S. corporation.

He precedes his recital of atomic needs with this comment: "Authority is recommended for new and advanced work on the peacetime uses of atomic energy in the earnest hope that present international relations can be improved and the wonders of nuclear power can be turned gradually to the development of a more abundant life for ourselves and all mankind."

Here are other passages touching on his program: "The increase in expenditures for operations from $12 million dollars in 1953 to $100 million dollars in 1955 is due primarily to expanded operations at the commission's facilities at Oak Ridge (Tenn.), Paducah (Ky.), Portsmouth (Ohio), Hanford, (Wash.) and Savannah River (S. C.)."

To meet the greater requirements for raw materials for this enlarged productive capacity, increased amounts of uranium ores and concentrates will be purchased. Due to vigorous efforts in recent years to expand our sources of supply in this country and abroad, increased amounts are now being made available to match the increase in requirements. (Note—He wishes to increase funds for source and fissionable materials to $658,450,000 from $448,650,000 currently and $381,000,000 year before).

Uranium ores and concentrates are processed into fuel materials (al) from which plutonium is synthesized in the reactors now operating or under construction at Hanford and Savannah River or (b) from which the fissionable isotope uranium 235 is extracted in existing and projected plants at Oak Ridge, Paducah and Portsmouth.

"New foreign sources of uranium will contribute substantial tonnages to our requirements."

Hahnke also announced that the merchants' committee will meet on the first Monday of each month with the next meeting scheduled for Feb. 1.

Significant Link Seen in Smoking and Cancer of Mouth

DELOIS SMITH, Science Editor, Jan. 26 (AP)—A group of scientists reported today that the link between smoking and cancer of the mouth is "associated" with cancer of the mouth.

They touched on a key link in the chain of events which leads to cancer of the mouth.

When it is inhaled, it is the smoke, but the smoke is diluted.

In this minority group, it has been an increase of nasal passage cancers.

It is a link in the chain of events which leads to cancer of the mouth.

4 little words with a great big meaning!

Distilled and Bottled by

Look for this phrase on every bottle of straight whiskey you buy. If the word "DISTILLED" is missing and the label reads "bottled by" or "bottled for", then you should ask yourself these frank questions:

- Who distilled this whiskey?
- Where was it made?
- Was the whiskey bought elsewhere by the distillery that bottled it?
- What am I really getting?

Every drop of Glenmore is distilled and bottled by us only! We do not buy whiskey to bottle it under the Glenmore label.

You know what you're getting when it's Glenmore. You know you're getting a uniform product of one of the oldest, most respected distilleries in Kentucky.

So look for the words, "Distilled and Bottled by", and when you see the name Glenmore as well, you know you have the best.
