Up in Hospital Budget Lowers County's Costs

County budget $43,025 lower than last year's budget approved Monday by the county commission. The total is $1,476,315 compared with $1,567,340 last year.

The decrease is the result of a drop of about $100,000 in the Valley Memorial hospital budget.

Other respects, the county budget has been increased. For example, funds have been provided for the general election this year—for which there was no expense last year in some cases, salaries have been increased.

The budget for the hospital was only the second of operation of the new hospital, which was opened last year. The hospital expense is $1,476,315, which is $100,000 less than last year's $1,576,315.

Demos Smart Under Attack On Red Link

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The Eisenhower administration today was attacked by a group of publicists linking their party to subversion in government and that they will strike back at every chance.

Their resentment carried an implied threat that they will not all be cooperative about reporting on the Eisenhower administration's program in congress, where the Democrats are the majority in both the house and senate.

Basic Plans to Clear

Responsible party spokesmen said, however, any non-cooperation would more likely affect the amount of the program clearing congress rather than its substance.

Many Republicans are making speeches observing the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, the first GOP president. They have stopped to pay tribute to the president's administration has been left to ward communists in government.

Red Issues Hammered

Senator Jenner R. Ford, charged in St. Paul, Minn. last night that the Democratic fair dealers "opened the gates of the United States to the communists" in a series of speeches.

Senator McCarthy, R. Wis., said Democrats carry "the stain of history" in their betrayal.

Damage to the truck was minor, the driver being uninjured. (AP wirephoto)

Radiological Charges At Hospital Reduced

Radiological charges at Magic Valley Memorial hospital will be reduced an average of 15 per cent effective March 1. It was decided at the monthly meeting of the hospital board Monday afternoon. C. D. Hiatt, board chairman, pointed out the action is the result of studies initiated weeks ago through the various committees. Board committees are still studying other phases of rates at the hospital.

Mrs. Gordon Gray gave the report for the radiological committee. She said the new rates were set after study of rates charged at hospitals in Lewiston, Nampa, two in Boise, Caldwell, Idaho Falls and Pocatello.

Reports Said Fair

The report noted that the committee believed the new rates would be fair to both the public and the radiologist.

Considerable discussion was devoted to operation of the radiology department. In line with the hospital's policy of giving the best possible care to the patient, it was decided the radiology department should provide 24-hour coverage. Dr. C. R. Williams, head of the radiology department, conferred with the board and said he would take steps to provide 24-hour coverage, but no indication of when or if it will reply.

Potato Cellar Blaze Defying Crew Efforts

RICHFIELD, Feb. 9—Richfield firemen, at noon Tuesday, were uncertain if the fire in Leon Oiler potato cellar was out or not. There was no indication of a blaze at the time but the fire broke out Tuesday morning after it had been extinguished.

Oiler, who was repairing a truck in the cellar, spilled some gasoline on the floor. He said there were other men engaged in extinguishing the blaze after it broke out. No damage has been done.

Early Tuesday, the Richfield firemen were called to extinguish a fire in the cellar. Oiler said he was repairing a truck in the cellar. He said there were other men engaged in extinguishing the blaze after it broke out. No damage has been done.

Senator Raps Benson Claim In Prop Loss

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—Senator Humphrey, D. Minn., declared today farm price support programs have cost only about one billion dollars in the last year, while farm income went up 184 billion in the same period.

The senator said Agriculture Secretary Benson had "reckoned up" a deliberately misleading figure of nearly 17 billion dollars in a recent statement on the cost of farm programs since 1932.

Total subsidies to agriculture under price support operations have been far less than those to business and to new crops and magnesia, Humphrey said.

He spoke out as the senate planned to debate a series of bills to adjust price support programs to reimburse the commodity credit corporation for about 683 million dollars of estimated losses. Of this, about 600 million is for price support operations.

The OCO, agriculture department agency financing the support program, has asked for prompt passage of this bill. It says the 6 billion dollars of borrowing authority it has under present law expires at the end of this year. The bill would extend the authority to $1 billion dollars, to $1 billion.

88 Neutral POWs Are Sent to India

INDIANOPOLIS, Feb. 9 (AP)—Eighty-eight war prisoners seeking haven in a neutral country called for India today aboard the British troopship Andania and the United Kingdom government protested angrily.

Molotov Flays U.S. Role in EDC, Will Give His Own Plan

BERLIN, Feb. 9 (UP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov blasted the United States role in European defense in a two-hour speech today and announced he would formally introduce a proposed European security pact of his own at the big four conference tomorrow.

The western foreign ministers believed the new Molotov plan, on the basis of his speech today, would mean communist domination of European defense and the exclusion of the United States from it.

At today's meeting, the 14th of the conference, the foreign ministers agreed to hold a second session Thursday in London. Molotov demanded for a big five conference including Red China and a world disarmament conference.

Apparently he is highly dissatisfied on the issue of German unification. The foreign ministers agreed today to take up Friday a treaty to restore Austrian sovereignty. Molotov said Adolf Hitler should see the country in 1954.

East German Protest Against Reds Swells

BERLIN, Feb. 9 (UP)—Demands of East Germany's communist government for western style free elections which would enable them to throw off the red yoke swelled to a zone-wide chorus today, threatening to explode into open revolt.

Anti-communist underground organizations defied a tough red police crackdown to distribute tens of thousands of leaflets demanding free elections and German unity.

Nervous Soviet communist authorities rushed police reinforcements to larger city areas throughout the Soviet zone under orders to "keep the lid on" the spreading unrest.

But West Berlin sources, with extensive and reliable contacts in the East, said the East German communists were being out of a flood of pamphlets demanding acceptance of the plan for elections and reunification by the big four foreign ministers' conference here.

Reports from major Soviet zone industrial areas said the unrest of workers still was growing, with the communists in some cases burning their headquarters buildings and key factories into irreparable ruin.

Workers' protest meetings, factory slowdowns and widespread arrests, reported by the U. S. High Commission in Berlin, said the East German government was being out of a flood of pamphlets demanding acceptance of the plan for elections and reunification by the big four foreign ministers' conference here.

The city commission Monday night suggested a report from the planning and zoning commission suggesting that representatives of the city commission, including Mayor Floyd and Paul Stierner, owners of the Floyd-Stierner subdivision, to reach an agreement on the city's plan to purchase the road.

Commission Chairman A. P. Nelson said the report from the planning and zoning commission suggesting that representatives of the city commission, including Mayor Floyd and Paul Stierner, owners of the Floyd-Stierner subdivision, to reach an agreement on the city's plan to purchase the road.

French Seek U. S. Air Aid In Red Fight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—France has asked the United States to rush transport pilots to Indo-China to bolster its air communications in the battle with communist rebels.

Informed sources said the French particularly requested men to fly U. S. C-119 Flying Boxcars. They are tricky to maneuver into the jungle landing strips in Indo-China.

The move would put American airmen closer than ever before to the communist forces in the south-east Asian struggle and produce serious political repercussions.

A rebel, but significant, senate debate yesterday showed congressmen are becoming increasingly anxious over the possible further American involvement.

Senator Charles McNary, D. Ore., said the country is being pulled into the southeast Asian struggle and produce serious political repercussions.

Plevan Scans Indo-Chinese War Squeeze

HANOI, Indo-China, Feb. 9 (AP)—French Defense Minister Rene Plevan arrived in Indo-China today, and he is expected to take whatever steps are necessary to halt a slacking communist drive now being arrested in Laos.

Frontline dispatches, handed Plevan by French troops in Saigon, informed him the red spearheads, pushing down the left bank of the Red River, are now within 10 to 15 miles of the beleaguered city.

Rushed by Plans

Plevan's flight from Paris with France was expected to confer with U. S. military authorities on measures to save the deteriorating situation.

All able-bodied civilians of the Laotian capital took up positions alongside French professional military units for a last-ditch defense of their pagoda-spired capital.

U. S. Buying Power High, Experts Say

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—A number of economic experts said today Americans still have a lot of buying power and are willing to use it.

For that reason, they said, the business dip should turn into an upswing in the last half of the year.

The economists, representing research or industrial groups, discussed the 1954 consumption outlook with members of the congressional economic committee.

Most of them said consumer demand remains strong but business this year probably won't hit the peaks of 1953.

14-Year Term For Forger Is Slashed Here

Claude Seaga, convicted forger, was sentenced to not more than 14 years in the state penitentiary Tuesday by District Judge Hugh A. Baker. The judge commuted the sentence to six months in the county jail, providing the defendant may be released on parole after 90 days if his behavior is good.

A district court jury Monday afternoon required about 20 minutes to find George V. Carmichael guilty of forgery. Judge Baker set sentencing for 2 p.m. Friday.

In other district court matters Monday afternoon, George Vernon McCowan and Paul Hennells pleaded guilty to felony charges.

George previously pleaded guilty, but changed his plea to innocent. A jury was unable to arrive at a verdict last week, but Seaga changed his plea again to guilty Monday. He had been held for a new trial Wednesday. Howard Jewell was his attorney.

McCowan was slated for a new trial Tuesday because the jury could not reach a verdict in a case where Seaga charged last week. However, he appeared in court with his attorney, and the court set a 2 p.m. Feb. 12 hearing and pleaded guilty.

Paul Hennells appeared with May and pleaded guilty to drawing a $21.58 check at the J. C. Farmer and Co. store when he had no funds in the bank. Sentencing was set for 2 p.m. Feb. 12 to allow a pre-sentencing investigation.

In the Carmichael case, testimony and arguments lasted about two hours. Prosecutor Max Lloyd called Mrs. Vera Cook, a storekeeper; O. R. N. Sheppard, Jerome banker; Detective W. A. Traylor, sheriff; Jesse Callison, Carmichael was the only witness called by Defense Attorney John Turnbull.

The courthouse janitor's budget was decreased from $32,850 to $33,250.

Dispute Over Water Supply Argued Anew

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (UP)—Further argument over whether Snake river should be adequate to fill the proposed federal reservoir in Hole canyon and meet the needs for future irrigation in Idaho marked the Hells canyon hearing today.

Alfred H. Hays, attorney for groups favoring the federal project, was cross-examined by John R. Ritter, reclamation bureau engineer. The lawyer asked whether Ritter's estimate is "harmonious with" estimates by Raymond A. Hill and Grandall, who also made Snake river studies for the interior department. Hill is a consulting engineer at Los Angeles. Grandall is a district engineer for the U. S. geologic survey and water master for Snake river.

Hills' deposition estimates is lower than Ritter's and Grandall's is the highest of the three, the witness said. Idaho Power engineers contend irrigation will expand so rapidly in the next 10 years that the proposed federal reservoir couldn't be filled annually. Their depletion figures are slightly higher than Grandall's. Proponents of the federal project claim depletion estimates of the three interior department engineers are adequate both for power production and irrigation.

Program Outlined

Various phases of the social security program were outlined in a film shown at the Grandall-Hills hearing today. The film was shown at the Twin Falls social security office Monday, at a public meeting of farmers Monday evening at the Twin Falls YOCF hall.

Young concluded the program with an hour-long question and answer period. About 50 persons attended the meeting. A chili supper for members followed by the Twin Falls Farm Bureau was served prior to the program.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON

The nation's farmers have unloaded almost three billion dollars worth of food surplus on Uncle Sam within three months, according to the commodity credit corporation. The movement has virtually bankrupted that agency—although congress will bail it out—and exhausted adequate storage space.

The Eisenhower-Benson farm program has been responsible for this unprecedented rush to obtain government loans to sell their crops outright to CCC. The growers, naturally, want cash in at 90 per cent of parity, the current figure for loans and purchases, rather than at the 75 or 80 per cent proposed by the administration. It is a bargain-basement jam in reserve.

The farmers simply are running for the barn roof now, although it is cover certain that congress will not grant the White House request for lower farm price support levels. It is especially likely against Secretary Benson for his alleged misrepresentation of the surplus problem, and his apparent sponsorship of an urban consumers' union to fix high food prices.

COUNTER TO SEASONAL TRENDS

This peak unloading runs counter to past seasonal trends. Normally, in the fall and winter the CCC depures of surplus prices are building up its purchasing and lending power for spring production.

Dairy surpluses, especially butter, usually decline at the time of year. But CCC is now paying out more than one million dollars a day for these products, offering 67 cents a pound for butter that retails at 80 cents. With pyramiding coffee costs, the discrepancy in price is a serious demand for direct action and boycotts by consumers.

Here is how the farmer has reacted to the White House proposal for flexible rather than high-fixed farm prices:

In early November CCC had bought or loaned money on about four billion dollars worth of surplus. Now, following Benson's disclosure of his farm plan, it had skyrocketed to $7,734,000,000, or only 18 million dollars less than the CCC's legal maximum for loans and purchases.

CCC WAS BANKRUPT

In other words, CCC's actual investment and incurred obligations were so huge that it was unable to pay its bills. Estimates indicated that in addition to present debts, CCC will require almost two billion dollars more by early 1937. For the unloading continues at a rapid rate.

Despite these astronomical figures, farm bloc spokesmen deny that the price support program has been too expensive. They charge that Benson has given an entirely erroneous idea in his public statements.

Over 20 years, from 1913 to 1933, according to CCC records, the total loss on basic commodities—cotton, tobacco, corn, wheat, rice, soybeans, and other crops—amounted to a million a year. They consider that a small outlay for maintaining farm prosperity and purchasing power.

SCANT CHANGE FOR PROGRAM

It is true that World War II and the Korean conflict kept losses down by providing a domestic and foreign market. But the farm bloc insists that food and fiber shortages among the nations of the world have created fantastic prices for consumers and possibly a defeat for the democracies.

What these figures mean, in view of the farm legislation which has been passed, is that the administration's program has scant chance of success. Also that organization of a consumers' union will not have capitol hills blessing!

VIEW OF OTHERS

NEW LOW DAM IDEA

The argument is made that a high Hells canyon dam has been stuck to the theme that construction of the high dam was the only possible way to attain the fullest, best possible development of the middle Ganges river. The bureau of reclamation which first developed the high dam idea for Hells canyon, has continued to study the development of that stretch of the river.

The new idea gave consideration to a similar high dam further down the river at Mountain Sheep. This idea has now been revived by the bureau's engineers, who discovered that the rock on Hells canyon walls at Mountain Sheep is faulty, and that the best development of the stream might be achieved by a dam at Mountain Sheep and a second dam upstream.

The very interesting point about the present thinking of the bureau's engineers is that they have suggested that the second dam be built with water right over the Hells canyon dam, and upstream to Oxbow. They said this combination, with a dam at Oxbow and another upstream location, might produce the best, most efficient development of the whole stretch of water.

This new reclamation bureau report will not, of course, be considered from the Hells canyon dam. They are still saying a high dam in Hells canyon is the only thing, and that the site which bureau engineers now suggest might well be flooded out in the last remaining great damsite in the United States.

HOIL CONSERVATION KEEPS FOOD

J. N. (Ding) Darling, the famous cartoonist, put the case for oil conservation in these memorable words: half the nation's population, men, women, and children, are dependent on the oil that is used in the production of their food.

Every time an acre of farm land is properly and intelligently conserved, the whole country is permanently enriched. The Waller Register.

POT SHOTS

YOUR BOW, MURRAY!

Dear Pot Shooter: Benson mentioned in Thursday's column that Twin Falls coach was one of the best behaved coaches he had seen.

The Bruins may have a well-behaved coach, but have you ever seen Wendell Trojans' Coach Murray Satterfield? If you haven't seen him, you should make a point to do so.

He is the best behaved and best looked of any coach.

DOUBLE CHECK

If you've ever experienced difficulty with checks and/or checking accounts, you might get a little chuckle out of this story.

It seems a member of a certain household came up with a check for a small amount for some sort of work. The check was taken home where it was laid on a table. A few days later, the check was found in the house was quite upset and worried about the whole deal.

Finally a friend was asked about the usual procedure to follow in case of a missing check. The family was advised to write to the person who cashed the check and inform them of the deposit slip used to deposit the check.

This is called suspended animation.

OUR BULLETIN BOARD

R. U. Berry, Gooding—Better hold up the check. You're selling off along a tangent. The person to whom you refer had nothing to do with that, as you should be well aware.

WAIT FOR THE WIND

There's been a lot of loose talk recently about spring weather and no winter. Don't you believe it. But the weather has been fine. And yes, it might remain like this for the rest of the winter. But make no mistake about it: February in Idaho is still winter.

Let's not be talking about spring weather this year. Spring is not what we need. We have had the wind blows and blows and blows. About the time you think at least you have had the wind stop going through Twin Falls, the wind stops, and presto! It's spring!

FAMOUS LAST LINE

"The birds have been so good lately, that we have expected Christmas sometime next week!" GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

"WASHINGTON CALLING" BY MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—What has passed thus far for debate over the Bricker amendment in the senate bears little or no resemblance to the great debates of the senate's past. It is a farce.

Every country has its "Beemokha" and lately their public sector is increasing. In the west these brainless ones mean the death of everything western, civilization has achieved, not alone the things of the spirit and the mind, but the physical achievements of which we in America are so proud.

In frankly making plain the nature of this threat, Fulbright spoke words that will be remembered long after the event that called them forth.

At his press conference, President Eisenhower spoke out once again in unequivocal opposition to the language in the Bricker amendment which would permanently shack the chief executive.

The president has been remarkably patient with the prolonged struggle to find a compromise bringing a gap essentially unbridgeable unless Senator Bricker is willing to withdraw and he has shown himself a determined man.

Some Republicans have consistently supported the President. One of them is Sen. Alexander Wiley, Wis., chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. He has done everything possible in speeches and statements to show how the president would handicap the executive.

But there have been too few in his own party. The time has long since come to stand up and be counted.

She had no money and was forced to go to work to support the family, she charges.

What every good cook knows:

Just a little difference in ingredients makes a big difference in cooking results.

Snowdrift is just a little lighter than any other shortening — and that can make the big difference in giving your family lighter, more digestible food.

Snowdrift
100% PURE • ALL-Vegetarian Shortening • MADE BY THE WESSON OIL PEOPLE

Snowdrift gives just a little more safety than ordinary shortenings, because it fries perfectly at correct high temperatures. That can make the big difference in digestibility of fried foods.

Snowdrift's ingredients are just a little costlier than any other solid shortening (yet you pay no more). That can make the big difference in better tasting foods, whether fried or baked.

No other shortening at any price is so creamy, so digestible — and so light!
