Speaker Raps Opposition to Plan for Dams

BOISE, May 11 (AP)—An Idaho Power company official declared yesterday that the Hells Canyon association "actually has placed itself in a position of preferring a power shortage in the northwest rather than to have any development by private enterprise."

R. F. Ball, assistant to the president, spoke at the opening of the annual sales conference of the Northwest Electric Light and Power association, attended by 175 representatives of private power companies in Washington, Oregon, Montana, Utah, Idaho and British Columbia.

He said public power proponents have continued opposing Idaho Power's three-dam plan for the Snake river despite the fact that a proposed government dam has been turned down twice by congress. "Actually, there is no application by the government before the federal power commission, and on the basis of past actions by congress, there may never be the high dam, even if Idaho Power's application were not up for consideration," he said.

No Increases Scheduled on Power Rating

PORTLAND, Ore., May 11 (AP)—The Bonneville power administration will not increase power rates for at least another two years, Interior Secretary Douglas McKay said last night. Bonneville is the distributing agency for federal hydro-electric dams in the Pacific northwest, and the possibility of a rate increase over the present $450-per-kilowatt year has been the subject of speculation for some time.

McKay gave the assurance in a speech delivered last night on a Portland television station under auspices of the Republican national committee. McKay said, however, it is "probable that we will have to make some increase" in Bonneville rates "two or three years hence." That, he explained, is because new federal dams being added to the Bonneville system cost more than the Grand Coulee and Bonneville projects, built in the 1930s.

"I do not know at this time what the amount will be but feel fully confident it will be something less than a base rate of $22.50," the secretary said.

Man Finds Space Ship Not Related To Flying Saucer

SHOSHONE, May 11—For a change, it wasn't a flying saucer F. N. Stowell, Shoshone, found in a ditch on his farm five miles west of Richfield Monday. It was a weather bureau radio transmitter. The instructions on the box said, "Affixed to the radio was a broken weather balloon and a parachute. The box containing the radio was 10 inches square and between four and five inches thick, Stowell said. On the box was stamped 'U. S. Department of Weather Bureau, Idaho National Airport, Boise, April 16, 1954'."

Stowell said the information on the box said the radio was carried to a height of 16 miles before the balloon burst and the transmitter fell. He said he had called the radio to Joliet, Ill.

Attorney for Public Power
Guiding Data

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Cooper guided witnesses today through prepared testimony designed to show the impact of a single, high federal dam at Hells canyon upon the agricultural economy of the Pacific northwest.

But when she branched into the subject of using power revenues from a high dam—or from any other dam on the middle Snake river—to subsidize distant, or unrelated, irrigation projects, she was stopped.

Parry Objects
Chief objector was R. P. Parry, attorney for Idaho Power company, who seeks power commission authority to build three dams in Hells canyon. He was joined by John O. Mason of the FPC staff. They were upheld by Examiner William J. Costello on grounds congress has not provided for irrigation subsidization by funds derived from power revenues.

Mrs. Cooper, attorney for the National Hells Canyon association, questioned Elmer McElure, Portland, master of the Oregon State Grange, about the relationship between power and power revenues from a high Hells canyon dam and irrigation development to provide greater agricultural production.

Solution Seen
Parry observed that McElure's testimony seemed to be leading to a solution of the farm surplus problem and suggested it might be well to pass it on to Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson. Mrs. Cooper argued that irrigation and power development were bound together in an established concept that has been, and is being, used in comprehensive river basin development.

Parry retorted that it would be just as reasonable a concept for the income tax that Idaho Power company pays to be allocated by the federal government to the development of irrigation.

That sank it. Chairman Karl E. Mundt, R., S. D., had pledged in advance that he would resist forcing a speed-up or out-of-session on either side against its will. He voted with the three Democrats on the investigating subcommittee against the Dirksen plan.

Board Slates June Tour of Entire Idaho

BOISE, May 11—Idaho Highway Board Chairman Roscoe C. Rich, Burley, announced that the three-man highway board, accompanied by State Highway Engineer E. V. Miller and Planning Officer N. F. McCoy will start a 2,975-mile tour of the state highway on May 21. The trip will be concluded in Boise June 5.

Rich said that during the trip, which is scheduled for the purpose of inspecting recently completed projects as well as to study construction proposed for the future, the highway group will hold 24 meetings throughout the state.

According to Rich, city and county officials, state legislators, chamber of commerce officials and interested individuals are being invited to the meetings. "We only wish that we could stop in every community in the state for a discussion meeting but naturally this is a physical impossibility in the limited time," Rich said. "However, we do try to stop at different places on each one of these trips."

Rich said that the group will leave for northern Idaho May 21 and return to Boise on the 28th. The regular monthly board meeting will be held at the main office May 29, 30 and 31.

The southern and eastern portion of the trip will start June 1 with a luncheon meeting at Buhl, then to Rogers for an afternoon meeting, and on to American Falls for an evening meeting, spending the night in Pocatello. June 2, they will drive from Pocatello to Preston for a luncheon meeting at 12 o'clock, will visit Soda Springs in the afternoon and meet in Blackfoot at 7 p. m. for a dinner meeting, spending the night at Idaho Falls.

Following a 7 a. m. breakfast meeting in Idaho Falls the group goes to Rexburg, attending a luncheon meeting at Rexburg at noon, meeting in the afternoon at Roberts and driving to the Montana line. At 6 p. m. they will be at Dubois for a dinner meeting, returning to Idaho Falls for the night.

June 4 there will be a luncheon meeting at Arco and on to Halley for a 6 p. m. dinner meeting, spending the night at Ketchum. June 5 they return to Boise by way of Shoshone, Fairfield and Gooding, stopping in Gooding for a luncheon meeting, driving to the Mountain Home air base and concluding their trip in Boise.

McKay Lists
Joint Efforts
For Projects

PORTLAND, Ore., May 11 (AP)—The Eisenhower administration favors a "partnership plan" for construction of another huge hydroelectric power project on the Columbia river, Interior Secretary McKay said Monday night.

McKay, a former governor of Oregon, told how the administration's "partnership policy" would apply to construction of the proposed multimillion-dollar John Day dam, an army engineers project.

"In effect," McKay said, "the local public and private parties propose to put up some 60 per cent of the cost of the dam and get repayment in power over a period of 50 years. The federal government would pay the balance for power, flood control and navigation benefits. Ownership of the dam, including all power generating equipment, would remain in the federal government."

"This is a partnership arrangement in its broadest concept. It includes the federal government, public agencies, such as public utility districts and municipal systems, and commercial companies joining in a concerted effort to produce electric energy."

McKay said the Interior department had joined with the secretary of the army in pushing for an early start on the great Libby dam project on the Kootenai river in Montana.

"Libby is second only to Grand Coulee in its potential power production. It is very much better than the proposed Hells canyon dam on Snake river between Oregon and Idaho and less expensive," McKay said.

Institute for Red Part Law Urged

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Attorney General Brownell proposed today a sweeping substitute for the 1940 Hartley-Sixes act which requires registration of non-Communist groups to take a non-Communist oath.

Under the oath, Brownell said, the government, through its administrative control, would be able to dissolve labor union or a private organization found by the attorney general to be communist infiltrated, or to adversely affect defense or security.

Department officials said the new act would provide a bigger club than the present one, which requires registration of organizations to get their leadership cleared.

Attorney General Brownell said the new act would give the federal government authority to bar subversive activities of civilians.

Sales for Stores Increase

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—The department reported today that sales of retail stores in April were $150,000,000 higher than in March.

All types of retail stores except food stores were up from March.

Department officials said the increase was due to a combination of factors, including the end of the winter season and the start of the spring season.

Improvement for Soil Moisture May Mean New Wheat Surplus

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—The agriculture department says recent improvement in soil moisture in grain growing areas now appears likely to result in another surplus wheat crop.

Earlier reports indicated that federal acreage controls coupled with drought damage would hold this year's wheat production fairly close to demand.

However, a report yesterday showed that while winter wheat conditions continued to deteriorate last month in the panhandle dust area, rains brought some improvement in other drought regions of Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma.

In addition, prospects brightened considerably in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, where subsoil moisture had been short. The winter wheat crop estimates rose 20,000,000 bushels to a total of 707,118,000.

A crop that size, added to the 233,000,000 bushel spring wheat crop farmers indicated they intended to plant last March, would mean total wheat output this year of about 940,000,000 bushels.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson has estimated that domestic and export wheat needs this year will amount to only about 880,000,000 bushels—about equal to surplus stocks piled up in storage from previous harvests.

Weather still could change this year's crop prospects. The report said rainfall in May is "essential" to bring much of the surviving wheat in the panhandle areas to maturity.

Taking a look at general farm crop conditions, the report said the 1954 season is "off to an encouraging start." It said spring farm work is "normal to advanced" and spring-sown grains are making a "good start."

Truman Isn't Going to Try to Get Job Back "for 20 Years"

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—It's any comfort to President Eisenhower, Harry S. Truman isn't going to try to get his old job back for at least another 20 years.

Not that he didn't like being President. Not at all. He told reporters he even misses the old rough-and-tumble of White House press conferences.

But he added with a twinkle: "I'm just as happy trying to be a private citizen which is a helluva job."

He noted he had turned only 70 last week. But he hastened to add that he has "no intention of running for office until after I'm 80."

The man from Missouri distributed these observations in a lively give-and-take with reporters yesterday afternoon after he had delivered a speech at the National Press club.

He was in high good humor, laughed often and obviously enjoyed the session.

Mr. Truman turned aside questions on what he would do about various presidential problems if he were back in the White House. But he made it clear he would take some positive action to silence Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, R., Wis., if the senator were a Democrat and Mr. Truman were in control.

"If I were President, I'd tell you and I'd do it," he said. "Were I head of the Democratic party and we had a demagogue in the Democratic party, I'd take care of him."

Mr. Truman declined to say whether Mr. Eisenhower is doing as well as good or a better job as President than himself. But Mr. Truman is "interested in the success and welfare" of President Eisenhower and "he will always have my sympathy because I know what he goes through."

He was asked if it is as windy in his home town of Independence, Mo., as in Washington.

"It is when I'm there," he shot back with a laugh.

Life Expectancy Increases Again

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—An American now has an average length of life of 69 1/2 years, a gain of nearly four years in the past decade, the U. S. public health service reports. Based on death rates prevailing in 1951, the service said women live six years longer than men, on the average. In 1906 the difference was only two years.

The average lifetime now expected for women at birth is 71.8 years, while the average for men is 65.9 years.

Between Labor Union, Farmer Seen

DALENE May 11 (AP)—Clark Hamilton, Democratic candidate for governor, said here today in an address to the CIO labor union, that organized farmers union, that organized Idaho farmer are tied together.

He says the products of the farmer buys the products of the labor, the senator said. "This primary economy of this state of Idaho, and any split between labor and the farmer, which a republican administration is to make, spells disaster to our economy."

Hamilton went on to say that labor is dedicated to the opportunity for every citizen to have a better life.

He never seen a selfish bill, request for pro-labor legislation by Idaho labor in my six years in the state senate," Hamilton said.

Hamilton has been for the labor union, but he has been for the farmer, who would exploit the labor in the interests of the state.

Utah Farmers Praise Butter Support Plans

SALT LAKE CITY, May 11 (AP)—The board of directors of the newly organized Utah Farmers Union yesterday commended—with qualifications—the new program of butter support prices announced by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

"According to press reports, Secretary Benson is now recognizing that merely lowering support prices from 90 to 75 per cent of parity does not solve the problem facing dairy farmers," said Jesse Tuttle, Oastle Dale, state president of the organization.

"Such reduced supports neither moved butter into trade channels nor reduced production as the administration expected. On the contrary, lower prices only encouraged farmers to produce more milk than formerly in an effort to maintain their income at previous levels."

"We of the Farmers Union believe the present proposal of direct payments is the soundest approach to the problem," he said.

gives up to 15% more power within 400 miles

Shell-discovered additive blended into Shell Premium Gasoline releases power formerly held captive by lead and carbon deposits.

TCP* is the greatest gasoline development in 31 years.

Acts so fast you'll think your engine's had a tune-up before you've finished your second tankful—within 400 miles

You can be almost certain that you are not getting the full power your car's engine was designed to deliver.

That's because lead and carbon deposits build up fast in the combustion chambers and on spark plugs. Power you should be getting is held captive in your engine.

No exceptions

This happens to all cars. In combustion chambers these deposits get red hot and pre-fire the fuel before the piston reaches its proper firing position. Power fights itself as a result of pre-ignition.

Power is also wasted when these deposits short-circuit spark plugs and cause misfiring. This misfiring and pre-ignition are the major cause of power loss in your car.

TCP Unleashes Captive Power

This Shell-discovered additive "fire-proofs" deposits in combustion chambers to stop pre-ignition. On spark plugs it makes the deposits non-conductive and prevents spark plug short-circuiting.

Up to 15% more engine power is released by Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP.

Less Than Two Tankfuls

So rapid is the action of Shell Premium with TCP that you'll feel your engine has had a tune-up before you've finished the second tankful.

TCP is a Shell-discovered additive carefully blended into Shell Premium Gasoline. There's nothing like it for keeping harmless the deposits that constantly build up in combustion chambers and on spark plugs. To keep your engine tuned as only TCP additive can do it, buy Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP every time you fill your tank. Remember, the only place you can get it is at Shell stations.

Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research. Patent applied for.

Israel Leader Lashes Out at U. S., Soviets

Jerusalem, Israel, May 11 (AP)—Prime Minister Moshe Sharett lashed out at both United States and Soviet Russia in opening the summer session of the Knesset (parliament) yesterday.

Sharett said Israel will oppose American grants of military aid to Arab countries as long as Arab policy is "pro-war." At the same time, he criticized Russia for its support of the Arab nations in disputes before the United Nations.

Blasts Red Veto

"The Soviet veto acts today in exactly the same direction as American readiness to grant arms to Iraq," the prime minister said.

Sharett told the Knesset, however, that Israel's main concern continues to be the question of border security. He said that the fresh outbreaks of violence along the frontier again raise the question of Jordan's responsibility for border control.

Israeli officials reported three soldiers killed and two wounded in week-end clashes. Jordanian officials claimed four Arabs died in new skirmishes yesterday.

Says Israel Ready

The prime minister said that Israel remains ready at any time to open peace negotiations with any of the neighboring Arab states. Such negotiations, he said, could concern either a final or partial settlement, or interim arrangements designed to pave the way to peace.

But, he added, any such agreement must be reciprocal and must be a settlement with "Israel as it is," without any changes in her borders and without the introduction of Arab refugees.

Reuther Avers Unemployment For Industry Still Is Mounting

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—President Walter Reuther said today unemployment is still mounting in basic manufacturing industries. He urged the administration to call a labor-management conference to discuss this serious situation.

Reuther was interviewed on a television program by 300 CIO delegates from all parts of the country opened a two-day conference here on unemployment.

He said a recent government report, indicating that unemployment dropped about 280,000 from mid-March to mid-April, was no reason for optimism about the economic situation because the pick-up in jobs was confined to "highly seasonal industries" that customarily do extra hiring in the spring.

He said unemployment in basic manufacturing industries is still "increasing" and estimated that a total of 5,000,000 workers are now out of jobs. This figure is much higher than the official government figures for mid-April, 3,425,000.

Reuther said the government should "take specific corrective action" to stimulate the economy, and mentioned as examples: "Tax relief for low and middle income groups, expanded construction of houses, schools, hospitals, roads, and resource development."

He said farm leaders should be asked to sit in on the proposed labor-management conference so that "we can all sit down together and discuss how to achieve full employment in peacetime."

The CIO conference on unemployment coincided with new moves toward "labor unity" with the AFL. The CIO executive board gave CIO unions a go-ahead yesterday to sign a non-aggression pact with AFL unions.

Seek to 'Front' Whip GOP

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—The communist program in the United States is to switch the party in the United States to a political party of convenience with the communists. The objectives are to defeat this year and in the next year.

Plans Detailed

Immediate communist political action in the United States is in a pamphlet, "The American Communist Party," now being widely circulated.

Immediate objective in 1954, the pamphlet states, "must be to the Eisenhower administration congress from taking the down the road to McCarthyism."

New Deal Cheers

The pamphlet cheers the new deal deal and Franklin D. Roosevelt, but has no kind words for President Harry S. Truman.

It is needed," it continued, "is an administration which starts with the new deal deal to unite a new political machine in 1954 and 1956 requires re-organization of the two-party system through which the overwhelming majority of the people now express their political views."

These circumstances the destruction of organized labor, which a mass third party will first attempt to take the issues within the ranks of the democratic party.

Beet Leafhopper Numbers Low But Light Winter Favored Pest

Beet leafhoppers (whitefly) entering the 1953-54 winter hit a six-year low, reports J. R. Douglas, Twin Falls entomologist, in a review of leafhopper conditions of southern Idaho.

The winter was exceptionally favorable for leafhopper survival.

Spring studies of representative breeding areas in 1954 show an average of 88 overwintered beet leafhoppers per 100 square feet of weed-host area as compared to an average of 31 for the past 13 years.

Spring weed hosts, in general, are unfavorable for producing a maximum leafhopper population except in breeding areas, reports Douglas.

Spring weed-host plants at present are generally abundant and widely distributed in most of the burned and disturbed areas while

Hank Reports All His Dogs Have Enjoyed Him as 'Slave'

By HENRY MOLEMORE

There is no such thing as a man owning a dog—but millions of dogs own men.

Man is dog's best friend and let no one tell you different. I am surprised that Senator Vest's immortal eulogy was delivered on behalf of a man who had lost his dog and not on behalf of a dog whose master had departed this world.

All the dogs I have ever owned—from Major, who slept under my bed when I was four, to Dilly, my new English bull pup of 12 weeks—have enjoyed me as a slave.

I am surprised that I don't wear the collar and leash and have Dilly take me out for walks, romps, and neighborhood sniffing. The foot of my bed is Dilly's, and, in order not to disturb her, I sleep in a curled-up, circulation-halting spiral that leaves me partially rigid in the morning.

When I let her out to roam and wander, I am the one who worries about how she is getting along and who spends minutes—yes, hours—on the porch whistling, talking baby talk, and calling her. She is out among the flowers, not caring a hoot whether I have an idea for a column, whether I am going to like what I'll have for dinner and how my negotiations with the Morris plan and the household finance are coming along.

She bubbles in when she chooses to—and bubbling in is the only way to describe English bull pups. They are so awkward and so ill-proportioned that they look like a cross between a hippo and a pig. They snort, snore, wheeze, and walk sideways; they sit down with a supreme court sterness on their faces and then roll over for a loss of balance. Watch one in action and you will realize that not until you have had a bull pup have you ever really had a dog. Try a bull pup and you'll never be satisfied with a cocker (no matter how big its eyes), a boxer (no matter how splendid looking), a poodle or any other breed.

As I write this, Dilly is in the hospital. She tumbled down the front steps and pulled her leg out of joint. There go 60 bucks for X-rays, hospitalization and a gallon of gas each time I drop by to pat her on the head and let her know that she isn't abandoned.

When I bought her I got these instructions among others:

Bed: 27" by 30", raised from floor, mattress of cedar shavings and kapok.

Food: a.m. and p.m.: Fine ground meal; must be well soaked and mixed with a quarter pound of horse meat. Noon: Pabulum or barley cereal mixed with half canned milk, half water. Generous helping of calcium and cod liver oil once a day.

Habits: Newspaper training after eating or outdoors after eating.

Training: Use short words and mean them. Say, "Go to bed," "Down," "No."

Oh, yes, a light snack before mealtime.

Dilly doesn't like horse meat, hates Pabulum and barley, thinks milk is for sissies, despises her own bed, considers newspapers useful to humans only and likes the outdoors only when she thinks nature has made outdoors suitable to her.

Still I love Dilly. When she turns that monstrous tongue across my cheek, squirms when I tickle her pink tummy and insists on dogging my every step, I just have to say, "She's my dog, bless her."

Dinner Employed For Fund Raising

WEISER, May 11 (AP)—State Sen. Clark Hamilton is adopting the fund-raising dinner technique to pay the expenses of his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor, scheduling $5-a-plate dinner here May 21.

Summing up last week's campaigning through Lincoln, Blaine, Custer and Camas counties, Hamilton also said in a campaign statement that the economy of their towns "is in a very precarious position."

"They are drying up," he said, because "the people have lost foresight and faith in state government under the Republicans."

Insects destroyed about 600 million dollars worth of U. S. cotton in 1949.

Injuries in Crash Kill Californian

IDAHO FALLS, May 11 (AP)—Patrick Dougherty, 31, Santa Rosa, Calif., died Sunday night from injuries received in a traffic accident Sunday afternoon 14 miles east of Ririe.

Injured were Dougherty's wife, Vanlie, 18, and Leslie Lloyd, 28, of Johnston, Colo.

Officers said the three were riding in a car driven by Lloyd. They said the vehicle apparently went out of control and rolled over twice.

Chairman Picked

POCATELLO, May 11 (AP)—Yoram work, resident manager of the Westvaco chemical plant, has been named state chairman for Chemical Progress week, May 17-23, by the Manufacturing Chemists association.

Work said the chemical industry has grown more rapidly in the past few years than probably any other phase of Idaho resource development.

The first execution in an electric chair was in August, 1890, in Auburn prison, New York.

Review of 'Aida' Presented At Music Club Luncheon

Opera, in the form of "Aida" by Verdi and highlighted by comments by Mrs. Frank Johnson, Salt Lake City, came to Twin Falls Monday afternoon when members of the Twin Falls Music club and other interested persons gathered for a luncheon at the Turf club.

The program, an opera review, was presented by Mrs. Johnson's Salt Lake City opera group, which includes Marvin Sorenson, Mrs. Edgar Hempel and Marion Ostler Harker.

Proceeding the group's presentation, Mrs. Johnson, who is national opera chairman of the National Federation of Music clubs, discussed opera as she observed it during a four-month study in Europe last summer. She stressed that Europeans consider opera as important as education and, therefore, budget money for its support as they do for schools.

She also asked the guests at the luncheon to "get acquainted with opera" and to support opera sung in English.

Mrs. Johnson reviewed the story of "Aida" before its presentation by Sorenson in two roles, those of Radames and Amonasro, Aida's father; Mrs. Hempel, Amneris, and Mrs. Harker, Aida.

The Salt Lake City visitors sang parts of the opera, interspersed with story and explanation by Mrs. Johnson. The guests at the luncheon served as the chorus for parts of the opera.

Also highlighting the Music club's annual May luncheon was the installation of new officers. They are Mrs. James Kinney, president; Mrs. Sterling Vaughn, first vice president; Mrs. J. Garland Gibbs, second vice president; Mrs. G. K. Nesbitt, secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Longhella, treasurer; Mrs. W. A. Van Engelen, historian; and Mrs. Howard Wiseman, publicity.

Mrs. Marshall LeBaron is the retiring president.

The installation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Max Brown and Mrs. LeBaron received a past president's pin from Mrs. Kinney.

It was announced that the Pocatello Music club has invited Twin Falls members to the May luncheon May 21 in Pocatello. Women interested in attending are asked to contact Mrs. LeBaron.

The western regional convention was announced for July 9-12 at Denver. Outdoor programs and a visit of the national board of Federated Music clubs will be featured.

The afternoon's meeting was conducted by Mrs. LeBaron, who also gave the opening prayer and welcome. Among the guests were women from Pocatello and Burley.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

"Those two girls are about as thoughtless, as selfish as they can be. They never give a thought to how much things cost, nor to what their father and mother have to do to make ends meet. They just spend money as if it grew on bushes. What is this world coming to?"

Children cannot think about that of which they know nothing. When the family's financial situation is a secret guarded like a state security measure, the children cannot be expected to behave as if they were in full possession of the facts. When they are not given definite allowances and they ask and receive without any knowledge of the circumstances or the results of their getting, they are truly thoughtless regarding the whole business and the fault does not lie with them.

Most boys and girls of adolescent years are intelligent. They can add and subtract. They can reason about so simple a matter as "taking out" and "putting in," and they will do so if they are permitted. They have an affectionate regard for their parents, and they also have a hopeful outlook toward their future. Given the material to think with they will use it, and more understanding than some people believe.

To save the children from wasteful stupid spending, to save parents needless worry and anxiety, to weld the family into an understanding, sympathetic appreciation of each other, the business side of the family life needs to be shared. Just as soon as a child begins to spend money he should be put on an allowance and taught how to use it, for his wants, as far as it goes. Its limitations soon teach him to keep his wants within his possibilities and put his needs first.

When a child is of the age when he can understand something of what the finances are and something of his relation to them, he needs to be admitted to family partnership to the extent of his understanding. He should begin to share family responsibilities and to learn to carry his share of them by cooperating with his parents in spirit, if not in actuality.

Children and young people must have first-hand experiences in family finances in order to act intelligently about them. It is not they who are thoughtless in this matter.

Learning to spend is difficult for some children, but you can give them help at home. Dr. Patri outlines a method in booklet P-30, "Aid for Poor Spenders." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, c/o Times-News, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 10, N. Y.

ATLANTA, May 11 (AP)—Nathan Perlmutter, secretary of the Communist Party, said today that the party is not a threat to the nation's security.

Perlmutter was speaking at a hearing before a subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

He said the party is a "peace-loving organization" and that its members are "law-abiding citizens."

Perlmutter was ordered by the subcommittee to appear before it on May 12 to answer questions about the party's activities.

Homey

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Transit police yesterday found a teenage boy who had set up housekeeping in a cable-splicing room 20 feet below a street manhole in Brooklyn.

The youth, identified as Robert Lindell, 15, apparently had been living in the room about three weeks.

What caused him to take up such a residence was not known immediately.

Police said the quarters were neat and orderly. There was an auto seat for sleeping, two stools from an old car as chairs, a can of alcohol for cooking and even two pictures—one of a basket of flowers on the wall.

A woman saw young Lindell walking along a railroad cut Sunday and notified police. He evidently entered the room via a door off the cut, rather than through the manhole above.

Board Expresses Hope for End To Trouble Plaguing Hospital

"After all," he said, "she has the closest contact with all concerned in the operation of the hospital."

Mrs. Oliver joined with the board in the hope that "this may bring us all to a satisfactory understanding."

"If nothing else has been accomplished," she pointed out, "the people are better informed about their hospital, with the result that they already are showing more interest in its success and will probably play a more active part in giving it their support hereafter."

"But I do not feel that this is all that has been accomplished by any means," she added. "Some very important points, having a vital bearing on public relations with the hospital, surely must have been cleared up in the people's minds. For instance, the best authority was cited to uphold the rules and regulations which have been established by the hospital with only one purpose in mind—the welfare of the patient."

"It also was thoroughly explained why it is so important that Magic Valley Memorial should be fully accredited as soon as possible, as an added assurance that patient care will always be of high standard. Formal application for a survey for accreditation has been made and we are all hoping the examination will be scheduled within the near future. As has been explained, certain routine details remain to be worked out in preparation for the survey, but we are confident these required steps will be taken."

It also has been explained so thoroughly and conclusively that everyone now should realize that Magic Valley Memorial is truly an outstanding hospital for a community of this size, with its exceptional facilities and highly specialized departments.

"In most instances, at least, it should now be apparent to everyone that room charges and the fees for different services in the various specialized departments compare favorably with the rates prevailing in other hospitals of similar size and with equal facilities. I doubt if the people realized before that our hospital and all its departments are so outstanding. Actually, we all should be boasting of these facilities. There shouldn't be any reason for criticism."

"One of the important things the people should have gained from all this information, is that our present hospital rules and regulations follow out the recommendations of the nation's foremost medical and hospital organizations, including the American Medical Association, the American Hospital Association and the American College of Surgeons. These are rules and regulations recognized as standard the country over and, as it should be emphasized once more, for only one purpose—the assurance that the patient will receive the best possible care under all circumstances."

"From all the information brought out during the last week or so, it should be apparent to the people that most of the doctors on our medical staff are not only complying with our hospital rules and regulations voluntarily and wholeheartedly, but are working within the bounds of the privileges granted them by the hospital in a full spirit of cooperation. They recognize that these rules and regulations are set up for the patient's benefit and to maintain the highest of hospital standards at all times."

As the board pointed out, all doctors practicing in the hospital are required to respect all the rules and the privileges granted them, but the fact that some do not accept these rules voluntarily makes for dissension. As one of the board members expressed it:

"It's that minority of our staff members who could contribute more than anyone else to the success of Magic Valley Memorial at this time. If they would give us their full cooperation, most of our troubles would be over. In other words, if they would join in all-out support of the hospital, along with all the other members of the staff, and carry that impression to their patients, our chief difficulty would be ended. We are hoping, above everything else, that they will volunteer that support hereafter, now that we are all trying to start from scratch, so to speak, in a determined effort to make the most of our excellent hospital and all its fine facilities."

"As we have pointed out," Mrs. Oliver went on to explain, "certain details remain to be worked out in the hospital set-up itself. We have our own personnel problems, the same as do all other hospitals, but we are always striving for improvement. We realize, too, that some further revisions may be necessary in our rate schedules to keep the charges at Magic Valley Memorial completely in line. We have sent out questionnaires to many hospitals for comparative information, with all that in mind."

"Our pathology department, under which the blood bank is operated, for instance, is already undergoing reorganization. Once the board has had sufficient time to appraise the department's new system of operation from all angles, it is entirely possible that some rate revisions may be made. In any event, the people may rest assured that the hospital board is going to extend every effort along these lines."

"In all this connection, the people should realize there are a number of ways in which they can contribute immeasurably to the success of the hospital. If they will think constructively in any appraisal of Magic Valley Memorial, that will go a long way toward working out all our problems."

"Hereafter, we hope that any questions, misunderstandings, criticisms or constructive suggestions will be brought directly to us at the time, where they may serve a good purpose. We'll sincerely appreciate the public's cooperation in that respect because it will make for greater harmony all around."

"We also hope that anyone contemplating hospitalization hereafter will give Magic Valley Memorial first consideration, not only from the standpoint of its rightful merit as an institution, but from the standpoint of individual loyalty to our own hospital as well."

"Whether or not it has come as any direct result of the appeal to the people, we are gratified to note that our patient census has shown an appreciable increase during the last week or so."

"If, through a combined response, we can get our hospital fitted to its present rated capacity, that will do more than anything else to stabilize our operation."

"It would be a shame if Magic Valley Memorial hospital, for any reason, should fall of the important purpose for which it was conceived, constructed and dedicated."

"If we'll all work together, from here on and support the hospital in every way possible, there is no reason why it can't become the medical center it was planned to be. And that would be to everyone's advantage—the people, the doctors and the hospital board."

Ogden Scores Wild 16-10 Win Over Pocatello

OGDEN, May 11 (AP)—Dick Fontana, with three hits in five times at bat, knocked in four runs Monday night to lead Ogden to a wild 16-10 Pioneer league victory over Pocatello.

One of Fontana's blows was a third inning homer with one on base. Ogden got 15 hits from Guit Pocatello pitchers. John Vanderveer and Duane Zimmerman collected three hits each in the wild slugfest. Pocatello sent Ogden's Dick Hatten to the showers by shoving over four runs in the first and adding two more in the second. Reliever John Smith held the Banocks under control until the ninth, when they rallied for three more.

Pocatello's four runs in the first inning were all unearned. Ogden 16, Pocatello 10. Fontana 3-0, 10 runs, 10 hits, 10 RBIs. Hatten 1-1, 4 runs, 4 hits, 4 RBIs. Smith 1-0, 2 runs, 2 hits, 2 RBIs. Vanderveer 1-0, 3 runs, 3 hits, 3 RBIs. Zimmerman 1-0, 3 runs, 3 hits, 3 RBIs.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 11 (AP)—Idaho Falls set a Pioneer league scoring record by trouncing the circuit-leading Salt Lake Bees 31-5 Monday night. The old record for total runs by a team was 30.

It was the faltering Bees' third straight loss after winning nine straight. Salt Lake remained in first place because Billings lost to Boise 7-2.

The Russells pounded the ineffective Salt Lake pitchers for 24 hits. They made 10 runs on only three hits in the eighth as they paraded the bases on walks.

The Pioneer record for total runs by both teams is 41. The Russells-Bees marathon ran almost three hours.

Stan Musial Holds Top Spot in National; Tuttle Paces American

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Stan Musial, off to one of the best starts of his brilliant career, Monday was on top of the National League batting list—a spot not unfamiliar to the slugging St. Louis Cardinals' outfielder. Musial, seeking his seventh senior circuit championship, has collected 34 hits in 89 times at bat for a .382 mark. Among his safeties are 10 homers, a total which puts him in a tie for the lead in that department with Chicago's Hank Sauer. The Redbird star also is setting the pace in runs batted in with 28.

Musial's pace this season is in direct contrast with that of a year ago. On May 10, 1952, he was batting only .233 with a lone homer and four runs batted in. A late season surge lifted Stan's average to .336, good for third place behind Carl Fuld, Brooklyn, and teammate Red Schoendienst.

Despite his excellent showing, Musial is receiving stiff competition from Duke Snider of the Dodgers and Don Mueller of the New York Giants, both of whom finished among the top five last year.

Snider moved from fourth into the runner-up position at .373 with a 7-for-16 performance last week while Mueller climbed from fifth to third and .370.

In the American league, Rookie Bill Tuttle, Detroit, managed only three hits in 12 trips last week but it was enough to keep him in first place. The young outfielder is hitting at a .375 rate and holds a comfortable margin over Boston's Billy Goodman at .362.

Ransom (Randy) Jackson, the National league's leader during the first three weeks of the campaign, slumped to fourth place with .355.

Cleveland's Bobby Avila and Boston's Jackie Jensen are tied for the No. 3 spot in the American league at .345. Al Rosen of the Indians and Ray Boone, Detroit, are tied for fifth with .333. Boone, in particular, made a fine showing last week, with a 7-for-13, a .538 pace.

Caroline Remains Safe From Draft
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., May 11 (AP)—J. C. Caroline, sensational sophomore halfback for Illinois last football season, is still enrolled in an ROTC course and is ineligible for the military draft if he maintains his scholastic standing, it was learned Monday.

Rumors that Caroline, the nation's leading ball carrier in 1952, was flunking out of school and was about to be drafted were spied by Illinois officials.

hit 61 feet this year. Told O'Brien was predicting 62 feet. Mortensen said, "It's certainly very possible. If he says he can, I won't say he can't."

Mortensen added, "Parry is a big strong boy. I don't know when he'll stop."

The 225-pound former Trojan, competing for the Los Angeles Athletic club, exceeded the 60-foot mark three times, twice officially and once with a practice heave.

The heaviest player on the Florida State football squad is 245-pound sophomore end Tom Fearnster, Warwick, Va.

Police Foil Ed Matthews' Attempt to 'Steal Home'
MILWAUKEE, May 11 (AP)—Milwaukee's Eddie Matthews, a young man with a problem at the plate, provided himself with a couple of the pocketbook Monday when he tried to outrun a suburban squadcar at 3 a.m.

The Braves' youthful third baseman, the major league's homerun king last season who has an undistinguished .275 batting average so far this year, pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving in Wauwatosa police court.

And after he was fined $50 and costs there by Justice Edgar A. Bark—who lectured him, then got his autograph—Matthews was plastered with another $100 fine by Braves manager Charlie Grimm.

Grimm said Matthews admitted he was wrong and had broken the club's midnight curfew, in effect after day games at home. The Braves lost Sunday afternoon to Chicago 5-3.

Mathews said he had dinner Sunday night at the home of Bob Buhl, Braves pitcher, and the two found they had a good deal in common.

Wendell Nips Bliss Nine in Close 7-6 Tilt
WENDELL, May 11 (AP)—The Wendell Trojans defeated Bliss 7-6 in a class B baseball game played here.

The Trojans came up with the winning run in the bottom of the seventh after Bliss had tied the score in the top of the same inning with a four-run rally featured by a bases-loaded triple by Miller.

Prith tripled a homerun for Wendell in the third inning.

O'Brien Predicts Toss Of 62 Feet in Future
LOS ANGELES, May 11 (AP)—Husky Parry O'Brien, first shot putter to card 60 feet, Monday primed for the West Coast relays at Fresno Saturday as his former coach predicted he would exceed "by far" his 60 feet, 5 1/4 inch mark.

Southern California track coach Jess Mortensen said he expects the 22-year-old former Trojan to hurl the 16-pound shot "a lot farther before he's through." But Mortensen said it may take "a good scare" from someone like Stan Lampert, New York Pioneer club, to help him along.

Lampert put the shot 59 feet, 5 1/2 inches last week.

O'Brien's effort Saturday at the Los Angeles coliseum bettered one of track and field's long-sought goals. It was the second time in a period of 48 hours a world goal was beaten.

Britain's Roger Bannister ran the mile in 3:58.4 Thursday. O'Brien had incentive for Saturday's performance. Lampert's mark was on his mind and UCLA's Don Vick had eclipsed O'Brien's freshman record with a 54-foot, 4-inch toss earlier in the afternoon.

"I saw all the records going down the drain, so I went out and heaved it," O'Brien said.

He said he felt "mentally right" for Saturday's effort. "I knew when the shot left my hand that it would break the record, but I didn't expect it to go that far."

O'Brien said he expected to do better. He said he was "positive" he would hit 62 feet by the Coliseum relays May 21.

Coach Mortensen said he "wouldn't be surprised" if O'Brien

Cleveland Topps Yankees 8-7; A's Lose to Baltimore

By The Associated Press

Dave Philley hit a grand slam homerun Wednesday as his Cleveland Indians scored all their runs in the ninth and then held on for an 8-7 victory over the New York Yankees in Cleveland. The win boosted the Indians to second place, a half-game behind Detroit and a few percentage points ahead of Chicago.

Cleveland sent 11 batters to the plate in this big opening inning when two Yankee pitchers, manager Casey Stengel and catcher Yogi Berra went to the showers. Stengel and Berra were thumped out for disputing the plate umpire.

Al Rosen singled two runs in after Bobby Avila, Al Smith and Wally Westlake filled the bases with a single and two walks. Philley's homerun came next, after Larry Doby walked.

George Strickland doubled and scored on Jim Hegan's triple. Hegan tallied the last Cleveland run on Avila's fly.

Umpire Bill Summers, who chased Stengel and Berra in the first, thumbed out Yankee third base coach Frank Crosetti in the third for arguing. Crosetti disputed Summers when the umpire ruled Bob Grim was out because he was hit by his own bunt.

Sam Mele blasted a sacrifice fly, scoring Jim Coan with the winning run Monday night as the Orioles rallied for four runs in the ninth inning to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics 7-6 before 7,887 chilled fans in Baltimore.

The Orioles put together three hits for four runs in the final frame to eke out the victory. The spectators warmed up in the 50-degree temperature as Ed Burtchsky ran into a spell of wildness to start the inning.

An angular righthander, Burtchsky walked Clint Courtney and Jim Fridley, with a strike out of Bob Kennedy, sandwiched in between. Then Young got the first hit off

FFA Chapter Sets Banquet On Thursday

An estimated 200 FFA members, their parents and guests are expected to attend the annual parent and son banquet of the Twin Falls chapter Thursday evening at the Junior high school gymnasium. Activities begin at 7:30 p. m.

Ralph Edwards, Boise, assistant state supervisor of vocational education, will be the featured speaker. Edwards is a former agriculture instructor and FFA adviser at Twin Falls high school.

Six businessmen and farmers will receive honorary chapter farmer degrees. The degrees are presented to businessmen, teachers, superintendents and others who make outstanding contributions in time and effort to the FFA program.

Awards for outstanding FFA work during the year will be made to chapter members, reports John Lawrence, adviser. The awards are for outstanding work in FFA.

A film, "The Silver Anniversary of FFA," will conclude the evening's program. The film shows the 1953 national FFA convention in Kansas City and depicts the progress and development of the FFA program.

stitutions, mission outposts and department-of-pensions for the aged workers of the church in retirement.

In addition to serving as an advisory board for the synod's general fiscal program and missionary education—each regional representative has been given a definite geographical area of the church in which he is to operate. The Rev. Mr. Muhly was given the southern California, the California-Nevada, the northwest and the Alberta-British Columbia districts and will be expected to attend the annual conventions of the four districts, assist with establishing stewardship schools, attend conferences and assist the stewardship committees set up in the four districts. The appointment is for a three-year term ending April 1, 1957.

For the past six years, The Rev. Mr. Muhly has been a member of the board of directors of the northwest district, serving first as chairman of the committee on parish education and since 1950 as chairman of the district committee on stewardship and finance.

The Rev. Mr. Muhly will continue to serve as senior pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran congregation in Twin Falls, where he was installed in January, 1945.

At the meeting, financial plans for 1955 also were studied together with reports on the 1954 national budget of $8,100,000 needed to operate the Lutheran synod's educational institutions, mission outposts and department-of-pensions for the aged workers of the church in retirement.

Merchants, Employees Will Go Western for Dollar Day Event

Members of the Twin Falls Retail Merchants' bureau and their employees will go western clothing May 18 for the bureau's "old fashion" dollar day promotion.

They planned originally to wear western clothing May 18, but the date was revised to coincide with the dollar day promotion, explains Bert Sweet, Jr., bureau chairman.

Bureau members and their employees will go western—as far as clothing is concerned—again May 26 through June 26.

Businessmen, employees and other local residents are requested to participate in the western dress campaign, explains Sweet.

A vigilante committee will enforce the western clothing decree beginning June 1. A "kangaroo court" will be set up to punish violators. Violators purchasing Golden Jubilee tickets will receive special consideration, Sweet said.

Purpose of the western attire is to create enthusiasm in the celebration and attract tourists to the city.

Male residents also are being asked to raise beards, mustaches, side-

Standard Oil Company of California's finest gasoline research achievement

At no increase in price... a new kind of motor fuel that ends forever the biggest single cause of engine trouble

THE World's first detergent-action gasoline

Cleans carburetors in old cars, keeps them clean in new cars to step up power, cut down gas waste, give you a smoother-running, quieter engine that doesn't die at stop signs.

How detergent-action does a repair job on your car... starting with the first tankful

Your car's carburetor, the "heart" of the engine, mixes air with gasoline to make the engine run. Until now carburetors have had one "heart trouble" no matter what car you drove—what kind of gasoline you used.

While your motor ran, a ring of deposits built up in the opening through which the air and gasoline flowed. After a few thousand miles, the ring gradually choked off the air supply, causing idling. Your engine began to idle roughly and die at stop lights.

Dust and dirt in the air passing through carburetor

Ring of deposits chokes off air supply

1 out of 3 repair jobs caused by carburetor troubles

The only solution was to take your car to a repair shop and have the carburetor fixed. No wonder surveys show that carburetor trouble is the greatest single reason for engine repairs.

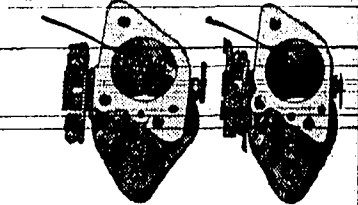

Then Standard scientists discovered the cause: Exhaust vapors and crankcase fumes contain tiny bits of soot, gum and dust. They're drawn in with the air your engine needs and die in the carburetor.

Smoke and dust Exhaust Blowby

Removes old carburetor deposits... stops new formations with the first tankful

To cure this, we perfected a new kind of motor fuel to guard the heart of your engine—"detergent-action" gasoline—that not only cleans the carburetor while you drive, but stops formation of new deposits. As long as you use detergent-action Chevron Gasolines you'll be safe from carburetor trouble except those due to mechanical causes.

Typical carburetor deposits Deposits removed by Detergent Action Chevron

Proved through millions of test miles...

Since last November, detergent-action Chevron Gasolines have been in gas pumps in a number of Western cities. Through millions of test miles, under the toughest driving conditions, they eliminated stalling of warmed-up engines at stop signs, ended jerking and bucking in traffic, gave cars new pep and power, chalked up money-saving gas mileage (one taxi fleet reported savings up to $1200 monthly). Best of all, you get the gas-saving, trouble-ending, performance-boosting extra advantages of detergent-action without paying a penny more. Get a tankful today.
