

Reds Attempt To Participate in British Deals

LONDON, March 18 (AP)—Russia is trying to renegotiate some of its much-publicized orders for millions of dollars worth of British goods, official sources said today.

The orders were placed in Britain before Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin and Malenkov got booted out along with his policy of advocating more consignment goods to make life easier for the Russian people.

The attempt to cancel his orders were believed to be an immediate outcome of the shift of priority back to heavy industry and arms production that accompanied the change in command at the Kremlin.

Suma Involved
Authoritative sources said orders placed in Britain worth between 14 million dollars and 20 million dollars were believed involved.

The Soviet trade delegation in London, which was quietly working to reflect its new policy, is working on the cancellations.

The British board of trade said the Russian trade delegation has told many firms that Russian importing agencies wish to cancel or modify orders placed with them. British sources are "mainly consumer goods or machinery to make consumer goods," the government agency said.

Doesn't Participate
But the government itself seemed clear of direct participation in the matter.

Russia is now expected to seek more goods in the west, but it may run into the embargo on shipping strategic goods to the communists.

Lodge Names New Leaders

Robert E. White was elected grand master of the Twin Falls Elks lodge No. 1183 Thursday night at a meeting in the lodge hall here.

White replaces David F. Fox whose term expires April 1.

Other officers elected are Alfred W. Madland, eastern district leader; Donald W. Bertach, secretary; Edwin A. Egan, treasurer; Arthur E. Knight, Charles E. Larsen, secretary; Wellington Hawkins, treasurer; D. F. Durkin, treasurer; and H. A. Gibbs, five-year trustee.

White was chosen delegate to the grand lodge with Fox as alternate. Fox will be installed April 7.

In other action, the lodge installed two candidates, Robert E. Hoge and Samuel G. Hickman.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. E. Bunn

Gravestone services for Mrs. Esther Bunn were held at 4:30 p. m. Thursday at the Sunset Memorial park under the direction of White mortuary.

D. A. Hinder, third ward bishop, officiated at the graveside. The veteran of Foreign Wars auxiliary conducted short rites.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Thursday at Ely, Nev.

Last Honor Paid For Leslie Tyler

Funeral services for Leslie Tyler were held at 2 p. m. Friday at White mortuary chapel with the Rev. Eugene Croff officiating.

Mrs. Mae Benson was soloist, and Mrs. Florence Mylen, organist at the graveside. Burial was in the Evergreen Cross crematorium.

Mrs. Tyler was 71 years old. She was a member of the P. O. E. and the Elks lodge. She was born in Wisconsin and lived in Idaho for many years.

Survey Starts

TWO national organizations have started surveys to determine the cause, prevention and treatment of mental retardation.

The Utah Association for Retarded Children said the survey is believed to be the first of its kind ever undertaken. Sponsors are the National Association for Retarded Children and the Association for the Aid of Crippled Children.

rights, we thoughtlessly permit to progressive restrictions upon those rights, we may discover a decade, a generation hence that we have scuttled the ship ourselves to keep it from being sunk by an enemy."

Wiggins said President Eisenhower's executive order on secrecy classification of government information, issued Nov. 8, 1953, was an improvement over former President Truman's similar order but "still remains a formidable barrier to the free flow of information."

The last trouble, he said, is that there is no way of assuring that government officials will actually comply with the order without "exhortation" not to overclassify information.

Retired Stockman Claimed by Death

Jessie Orin Smith, 60, died at 10 p. m. Monday at his home, 451 1/2 N. Main, following a lingering illness.

Born Dec. 3, 1874, in Ridgeway, Mo., Mr. Smith came to Idaho in 1898. He was a stockman and rancher near Pico for 30 years and a member of the Idaho Cattle-raisers' association.

He married Addie Belle Chisholm Jan. 29, 1907, in Shoshone. They reared three children.

Besides his wife he is survived by four sons, Lawrence Smith, Carey, Adrian Smith, B. J. Smith, and two daughters, Pearl and Mellie. He was a member of the Twin Falls Elks lodge.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by Twin Falls mortuary.

Potato Readings Planned by Trio

BOISE, March 18 (AP)—Three Idaho specialists will be in California next week to read potato blights.

The trio, consisting of Read potatoes, that's what they call it.

T. C. Blackburn, secretary of the Idaho Potato Growers' association, Boise; Earl Spencer, association fieldman, Idaho Falls; and Jim Gregory, University of Idaho extension agent, Boise, will be on the trip.

Their purpose is to check for late blight, a disease that has been spreading in California. They will be in California next week to read potato blights.

needed at home have any real use for automobiles at school, he said.

Acquisition of an automobile by a student usually results in an immediate, marked decline in that student's scholarship rating, Carlson added. He also cited other dangers of too much free-time use of automobiles by youngsters.

Carlson stressed to parents the importance of taking an active interest in their children's school activities and social life. Parents must be companions to their children, he said, and strive to make home life pleasant and interesting.

Carlson's remarks were directed to a group of parents who had gathered for a meeting on youth problems at the home of Mrs. J. W. Walters, 1111 N. Main.

The first six years of a child's life are the most important in the development of his personality and character, Carlson said. Respect for parental authority should be established at this time and parents should follow through on promised punishment when a child deliberately disobeys. He added that half-way and hit-and-miss measures lead to a lack of respect for authority on the part of the child.

Chief Williams pointed out that children are not born with standard of moral behavior but must be taught them. He said the case histories of many of the children in the juvenile hall show that they gradually moved from petty misdemeanors to more and more serious crimes.

Carlson said that "moral tendencies must be 'nipped in the bud,'" of water may not be much greater than last year.

Elmo Farrar, manager of the Salmon River Canal company, said there were 8.8 feet of water behind Balmain dam Thursday morning.

This represented 12,000 acre feet of water. He said there was no carry-over from last year. On March 17, 1954, there were 15.3 feet of water behind the dam. This represented 22,010 acre feet of water.

He also pointed out that there has been no runoff of water since last December but that the reservoir has been filling slowly.

The canal company manager also pointed out that even though the low water in the watershed is below normal, the snow packs for other watersheds in the state also are below normal, some much shorter than the pack for the Salmon tract.

Farrar also said that the cloud seeding generators have been in operation for the watersheds for several weeks this winter.

Other speakers on the program were Alfred Reichers, chairman of the canal company, and George McCreger, chairman of the board of directors of the canal company. Walter Hankins, soil conservationist, also spoke.

Discuss Defense Methods

Team Warns Reservists on Biological Warfare, Outlines Defensive Measure

"Found for pound, atomic weapons may be more destructive than biological warfare but no true comparison can be made until the full potential has been demonstrated," a member of a sixth army instruction team told Magic Valley army reservists Thursday night.
 Maj. Richard G. Ford and Capt. Ralph G. Bell, both Ft. Lewis, Wash., discussed the chemical, biological and radiological (CBR) aspects of an attack for reserve units of Twin Falls, Burley and Gooding. They covered the defense phases of such an attack and prescribed de- fense measures.

 "We cannot wait for proof that atomic warfare is more destructive than biological warfare. Biological warfare should receive the same attention as is now devoted to atomic warfare," Major Ford said.
 He defined biological warfare as "the use of germs to cause casual- ty by disease."
 Captain Bell gave the atomic bomb its full share of credit as a de- structive weapon but pointed out that chemical agents strike al- most instantly, quickly and with little warn- ing.

 He warned that the United States does not have a monopoly on chemi- cal agents, nor the development of these agents.
 In discussing the radiological as- pects of warfare, Major Ford ex- plained the use-of-terms employed in atomic development. The casually producing effects of an atomic ex- plosion are thermal radiation, blast —direct and indirect—and nuclear radiation, Major Ford said.
 "Radiological defense is concerned with preventing and minimizing radiation casualties from atomic bursts, or from radioactive materials used as casualty agents," Major Ford explained.
 Defense against an atomic explo- sion is a strong shelter against the blast and any opaque material for protection against thermal radia- tion.
 "It must be emphasized that in view of recent technological develop- ments we must face the fact that CBR agents will be used in the event of an all-out war. However, none of these weapons is absolute invulnerable, as there have been con- siderable developments in defensive doctrine and technique," Major Ford assured his listeners.
 He emphasized that the best CBR defense is a well trained and in- formed personnel and said each per- son must know what to do before, during and after a CBR attack.
 Maj. L. R. Anderson, unit adviser for the army reserve in Magic Val- ley, introduced the two speakers.
 Reserve units attending the lec- tures were batteries B and C, 381st field artillery battalion, Twin Falls; service battery, 381st field artillery, Gooding; command and general staff school, army reserve service unit, Twin Falls; company M, 381st infantry regiment, Twin Falls, and headquarters and service company, 321st engineer battalion, Burley.

State Department Blamed for Clumsiness on Yalta Release

WASHINGTON, March 18—The state department has filed an early claim on the 1955 prize for clumsy handling. The way it hand- led, and then released, the Yalta papers was as clumsy as anything seen in Washington in at least a year.
 Secretary of State Dulles juggled the papers as if they were on fire. He didn't seem to know what to do. Make them public or keep them private? In the end they leaked. Then he made them public.
 A year ago the army gave cer- tain senators, conditionally, a re- port on its dealings with Senator McCarthy, R. Wis. One copy was "leaked" to a newspaper, presum- ably by one of the senators.
 Whereupon another senator, hearing of this, decided to release the report to newspapers generally. Publication led to a firing of Mc-Carthy army row and eventually to the McCarthy army hearings.
 Nothing as sensational is expected from release of the Yalta pa- pers, a two-volume account of the 1945 wartime conference of Presi- dent Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Generalissimo Stalin.
 Churchill is irritated by the state department's release of the papers. He gave grudging consent to their publication when pressed by the department. He said there are mis- takes in the American version.
 State department officials have worked on gathering the 1945 war- time Yalta documents for almost 10 years, intensely in the last two. They were printed by the govern- ment printer, in limited number.
 Republicans have denounced Roosevelt's performance at Yalta for years, and for years they have demanded the papers be published.
 Last Monday, Henry Stuydam, Dulles' press chief, said it was "in- advisable" to release the papers publicly because they involve na- tional security and U. S. relations abroad.
 He said Dulles had decided not to publish them but would make 24 copies available to Democratic and Republican leaders in the House and Senate and to six con- gressional committees.

 But Senator George D. Ga- briel, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, declined. He didn't want to be blamed, he said. For any "leak" that might occur after the Yalta volumes were sent to congress.
 Dulles, after this shuff, with- drew a bit. He said members of congress could have the volumes if they wanted them. And on Tuesday at his news conference he said the papers would be made public some day. He didn't know when.
 But that same day, Tuesday, one of Dulles' aids told a group of vol- unteers that the volumes would be re- leased to newspapers for publication in Friday morning editions.
 Then, just as in the McCarthy case, there was a "leak." It is not yet known who did the "leaking." The state department doesn't seem to be investigating.

Better to Doctor Gives Thanks for New Way of Life

BOYLE
 March 18—An An- Ansa A. Tobey, al you how much see how I looked. I promptly got down on all fours.
 "Why you look much better that way," she said. "It hides your stom- ach."
 The first few days I ran around on all four only at home, or in my immediate neighborhood late at night. My back and arms hurt terribly, and everytime I tried to go faster than a dog I fell on my face.
 As my muscles strengthened, my shape thinned down, and the callouses thickened on my palms and fingertips. I found I could gallop around the block without getting tired.
 For some reason the dogs I met in these early nocturnal training ramblings resented my four-limbed posture. I had fights with a police dog, a doberman, two fox terriers and a French poodle. Oddly enough, the poodle put up the best scrap.
 The first time I climbed into the bus on all fours to go to work I felt a little self-conscious. I was afraid of being stared at. But after a startled first glance the other pas- sengers made room for me to read my newspaper on the floor, and paid me no more heed.
 The same thing is true at cock- tail parties. My new posture ac- tually has reduced by social drink- ing. For when I lope up on three limbs to my host, holding up my glass for a nip for the road, he looks down at seeing me for the first time, and says, "really, old fellow, don't you think you've had enough?"
 My only trouble, Doc, is at the office. My boss says that for policy reasons he can't allow me to do my work on all fours, the only way I now feel comfortable.
 But, Doc, those eight hours at a desk are sheer torture. Once you learn the afterlife pleasure of going about on all fours you can never be happy again even in a semi-upright position.
 But what can I do about this dog- house I find myself in at the office? I'd like to quit my job, and I would too—if I knew of any way I could earn a respectable living working on all fours.
 It isn't my posture that gives me backaches now, Doc. It's the rule- book of civilization; and it causes most of our backaches as well as backaches. How are we going to cure people of civilization, Doc?
 Hopefully yours, Hal Boyle.

Famed Scientist Asks Tests Ban

PASADENA, Calif., March 18—A ban on testing of nuclear weapons by either Russia or the United States is urged by Dr. Linus Pauling, Nobel prize-winning chemi- st at the California Institute of Technology.
 The 51-year-old scientist says continued dispersal of radioactive materials into the atmosphere is creating a critical situation. Dr. Pauling gave his views in address- ing the Franklin Delano Roosevelt club here Wednesday night.
 He called for a halt in the arms race and for the launching of peace talks among nations of the world, including Red China.
 Radioactive rain has fallen in Germany and Japan, Pauling said, and the resulting irradiation may have started a new cycle of heri- tary mutations.

STOCK MARKET INQUIRY Any connection between the senate stock market investigation and the Democrats' proposed changes in the federal tax laws may not be apparent or intentional, but it's there.

Income taxes were cut 10 per cent shortly after the fighting stopped in Korea. The excess profits tax was killed. New depreciation and business expense carry-forward provisions were written into tax code.

Another factor here was that many corporations found it more advantageous to finance expansion on new enterprises by bond issues rather than stocks.

The theory that giving tax incentives to business would encourage new stock issues for financing business expansion didn't quite work out in this respect. Also, there was more buyer interest in the old reliable blue chip issues than in new and untried stocks.

SMYLIE SIGNS BYPASS BILL It is not surprising that Gov. Robert E. Smylie signed the controversial highway bypass bill, even though he waited until the last day to do so.

From the start of the legislative session, it was apparent that Governor Smylie would like greater control of the state highway commission.

"No harm so lasting can come of this proposal as that which would arise from the disaffection of a people convinced that the highway system which they pay for is not to be designed to serve their needs," said the Governor in signing the bill.

FLU REACTION Mrs. Eisenhower has recovered from her bout with influenza, but it may be quite a while before some Republicans recover from the things Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said about her health.

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE. Winthrop H. Smith, the managing director of a piggy-wiggly chain of play-pens stretched across the country, which suckers try to out-guess the stock market, made a statement recently which a friend of mine would describe as 'like to challenge.'

Under the republican form of government ordained by the constitution the republic was content to live modestly and to let the lesson of our success impress the leaders before us.

Russ Disclose Churchill Plan To Have Meet

MOSCOW, March 18 (AP)—Russia charged last night that British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill had retracted without grounds his proposal of last week to meet with Soviet leaders at a meeting with Soviet leaders to establish world relations.

The Soviet foreign ministry published correspondence between Churchill and Soviet Foreign Minister M. Molotov in which Churchill suggested a meeting with Soviet leaders without the United States for the purpose of "finding a way for living together."

Churchill told the house of commons in London last Monday of his plan to hold a meeting with Soviet leaders without an agenda, with George Malenkov, then Soviet premier, and Molotov.

Churchill said he kept President Eisenhower informed of his moves, but the idea of personal talks with the Kremlin leaders was dropped because Russia proposed a European conference on European security which apparently would be held at the same time.

Letters Disclosed: The foreign ministry's preamble to the correspondence said Churchill in telling of his proposal, made public the contents of the letters without giving the "exact text."

It is evident from the contents of these letters, said the Soviet statement, "that, having made, on 4th of July last year the proposal regarding a meeting with the heads of governments of Britain and the USSR, Churchill himself retracted it."

The foreign ministry said this was done under the "pretex" that the Russian proposal of July 24 for the European security conference was a "substitute" for the two-power meeting on top level envisaged by Churchill.

Field Worker Makes Grand Leap to Fame

NEW YORK, March 18 (AP)—From cotton-patch worker at 30 cents a day to boss of a business empire grossing 40 million dollars a year is considerable of a jump. R. E. Dumas Milner, a big, blue-eyed southerner, made it in 20 years. He left the cotton patch at 18. Now, at 38, he is an auto dealer, the top man here, real estate man, and publisher.

Milner, the kind of easy-going southerner who's always addressed by his nickname (and is no fool of it that he has incorporated it, "Dumas," into his formal name), says the south's biggest budding industrialist.

Dream Got Him Going

Budding? He's flowered already. Milner Enterprises, Inc., figures 1937 for a 40-million year. And what got him going was a dream of pure escapism.

"When I was five, I walked from farmhouse to farmhouse selling garden seeds. When I was seven, I sold rooster alive. I was fascinated by business deals. And all the time until I was 18 I was picking cotton, chopping cotton, or ploughing with a mule and dog."

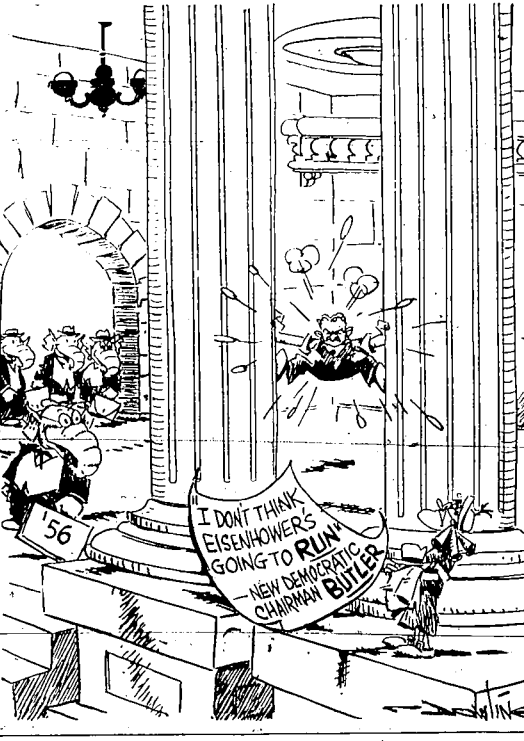

Boring Life

"You know the most boring thing in the world? Following a mule through a day and dreaming about being someplace else. I still got flat feet—have to wear arch supports—following that damn mule."

Milner said the mule's name was "Cilla"—probably short for Lucille—and he'll never forget it. She gave him his start, in a negative sort of way.

As Milner looks back on the two decades she made him a millionaire before 40, he figures the big break for him was a personality clash with his boss in an oil company. The boss got him fired, at 21. The firing made him borrow money. With the borrowed money, he got into business for himself. And he was out of the cotton patch and into the clover.

Grange Gives Construction Drive Award

MURTAUGH, March 18.—Harold Bradshaw, Ft. Ord, Calif., soldier, was awarded a 1935 Chevrolet Thursday night for his participation in the Grange's community building fund drive here.

The soldier was notified of the award by Art Carlier, Grange chairman. More than 5,000 persons availed with the event.

Announcement of the award was made as the climax of a father-son dinner at the high school here.

Ernest H. Ragland, Twin Falls superintendent of schools, was principal speaker. He discussed the responsibilities of sons to their families, their communities and their government.

Another program highlight was a number presented by the Murtaugh women's chorus.

E. W. Moorman, Milner, gave a tribute to the son and James Grant, a student in the Murtaugh school, honored the dad.

The dinner was presided over by Chester Johnson, Jr.

Mill Workers Air Contract Desires

SPOKANE, March 18.—The International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter workers (I. M. S. W.) will demand a 20-cent-an-hour, "across-the-board" pay increase this year.

The general wage increase was held first on the list of bargaining goals approved yesterday by delegates to the Mine-Mills national convention.

Other contract aims include $60 a week lost-time pay, pension and health and welfare plans, improved holiday and vacation provisions and fair employment practices clauses.

Tune Off

TOKYO, March 18 (AP)—The Yomiuri newspaper deplored yesterday the number of simple quiz programs on Japanese radio stations.

The paper said "nothing will poison the society so effectively as incoherent knowledge and the speculative spirit that requires no effort."

You will be, too, if you plan to use the time and other material offers you so many different. Wood is easy to work... economical... for architectural design, every building size.

Whether you plan to build a home, or a large your present dwelling, you find you can quicker, if you do the job with wood. See us show you how!

Winter Spends Last of Time Getting in Some Hard Blos

By United Press

Spring was officially only four days away today, but winter was being kept in its last locks with a band of snow from Wisconsin to Pennsylvania.

Temperatures were below zero in Minnesota, and were chilly in the east. Rain stretched from Oklahoma to Virginia in the south.

The nippy weather marred New York City's giant St. Patrick's day celebration. About one million spectators and 115,000 marchers were chilled by 32 degree temperatures and 25-mile-per-hour winds.

In the New York harbor, an attempt was scheduled today to free a navy transport which stuck fast in the mud off the Brooklyn shore.

The Gen. R. Z. Callan got stuck Wednesday in a heavy fog and its plight became known yesterday when the overcast lifted.

In Texas, the bad weather contributed to a head-on collision of two cars which killed five persons, including three children, and injured two others critically. The accident, near Wichita Falls yesterday, occurred when a car carrying an air force captain's family apparently went off a rain-slicked, U. S. 801, hit a soft shoulder, and veered back into the other automobile's path.

At Eau Claire, Wis., an icy high-way was blamed for another traffic fatality, said at Peoria, Ill. Brooks Watson, news director of radio station WMBD, died of a heart attack as he walked through a wind, sleet and snow storm.

Smylie Names 2 Medics to Board

BOISE, March 18 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie announced the appointment of Dr. Leland K. Kranz, Idaho Falls, to the state board of medical examiners replacing Dr. E. V. Simson, Pocatello.

Dr. Paul M. Ellis, Wallace, was reappointed.

Ellis and Kranz will serve six-year terms. Simson is retiring after six years service.

Lee Kills Bill to Boost Tax Take

SALT LAKE CITY, March 18 (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee wiped out with a veto yesterday the Utah legislature's attempt to boost sales tax revenue by a half million dollars a year.

The measure, which was passed by the legislature which adjourned a week ago, would have made sales of cigarettes, beer and oleomargarine subject to the state's 2 per cent sales tax. They are now exempt from the sales tax but are covered by state excise taxes.

Family at Mackay Is Routed by Fire

MACKAY, March 18 (AP)—Fire drove a family of five into the pre-dawn darkness yesterday and destroyed their home in Mackay.

The fire woke Mrs. Orin Nelson and daughter, Jo Ann, 16, shortly before 4 a. m. They had only time to rouse Mrs. Nelson's husband and Jo Ann's two brothers and flee.

Mrs. Nelson said nothing could be saved from the home, which was partly covered by insurance.

Onion Trade Bill Is Sent to House

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—The house agriculture committee has voted to bring onion trading under control of the commodity exchange, Representative Hamer Budge said yesterday.

The measure, which Budge said was backed by Idaho onion producers and processors, now goes to the floor of the house for what the congressman said would be early consideration.

Budge said the bill would give onions the benefit of trading regulations now extended to wheat, eggs and other farm commodities.

Russia's new houses will have to go some in their 'guns, not butter' drive to catch up with the U. S. in steel production. In newsmagazine chart for 1934, we almost doubled what Russia made last year. And steel-making in the satellites is so much less than U. S. capacity there's no comparison. Data from American Iron and Steel Institute, exclude 1939 production figures for nations in the Soviet orbit, and estimated 1954 satellite production figure exclude Manchuria and North Korea. (NEA)

Uncle Sam has an eye-increasing appetite for steel. As newsmagazine shows, U. S. production has steadily increased during every decade of this century, with the exception of the depression '30's. Figures from American Iron and Steel Institute, show the yearly average for each decade. (NEA)

St. Lawrence Seaway Hailed Big Boon in World Economy

DETROIT, March 18 (UP)—Completion of the St. Lawrence seaway will have more impact on world economy than the construction of the Panama canal—the nation's waterways experts agreed today. The seaway will add 2,400 miles of coast line to the heart of North America, opening the way for some of the world's largest sea-going freighters to reach Detroit, Chicago and at least a dozen other major inland ports. A recent report by the Windsor, Ont., Junior Chamber of Commerce said, "Construction of the seaway, which will open up the St. Lawrence river to the world's largest sea-going freighters, will have more impact on world economy than the Panama canal." Since this report was prepared in January, other sources have predicted the opening of the St. Lawrence seaway as early as 1938. On March 3, Martin W. Detering, Chicago, deputy administrator of the Seaway Development corporation, said the new waterway may be open within the next three years.

Blame Placed In London on Yalta 'Battle'

WASHINGTON, March 18 (UP)—The state department made it clear today that the blame was in London, not Washington, if Prime Minister Winston Churchill was "outmaneuvered" on the Yalta documents. Complete cables, proofs were sent to London months ago, officials said. Churchill told comment yesterday he would like to see the documents which were sent to London Wednesday night by the state department. At another point, Churchill said, when he received the full text of the publication. Cleared With British "All documents of British origin were first cleared with the British," the state department informant said. "The British then requested to see all the proofs. They were sent to London last December. So far as we know, they are still there." In response to questions, officials said these proofs were of the same content as those published by the state department. The status was the more complete Churchill asserted he could tell from press "extracts" that the American version of the Yalta conference contained "some serious mistakes."

Looking back, U. S. diplomats say it probably was inevitable that something would go wrong in the long and arduous Washington-London liaison on the Yalta papers. Officials said that the British blocked earlier publication of the wartime documents. Churchill's final but reluctant okay was said to have reached Washington only "this week."

State Honor Goes To Wendell Youth

WENDELL, March 18—Claude Strickland has received word he has been chosen one of the Idaho state farmers for the year. This honor will be conferred upon him at the state FFA convention at Nampa on April 1 and 2. He has judged on many teams and has attended the state judging in Moscow. He has registered Guernsey cattle and registered spotted Poland China hogs as projects.

Hearings Are Set On Plane Mishap

WASHINGTON, March 18 (UP)—The civil aeronautics board yesterday scheduled a March 24 hearing on the Trans World airlines crash near Albuquerque, N. M., last month. The 12 passengers and three crew members aboard the Martin 404 transport were killed when the plane crashed in a wooded mountain area. The hearing will be held in Albuquerque.

No State Field Trials Scheduled Friday, Sunday

The Idaho State Field Trial Association's annual spring field trials this week-end here Thursday by Lynn M. Garner, secretary, will commence at 9 a. m. Saturday with the puppy stake event as the lead-off event. Immediately following the puppy stake will be the derby stake which will continue until all derbies have been judged.

The all-age and gun dogs events will be held Sunday with the starting time set at 9 a. m. All age dogs will be run on the dog track. The trial grounds are located eight miles south of Declo near the old Alhambra Normal school.

Garner pointed out that dogs whelped on or after Jan. 1, 1954, may be run in the puppy stake and dogs whelped on or after Jan. 1, 1953, may be entered in the derby stake.

The all-age and gun dogs drawing will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the National hotel banquet room. No pot entries will be accepted.

Trophies will be presented to first, second and third place winners in each event.

Some of the best entries from the Northwest states will be competing for top honors in the trials.

Garner asked that entries be mailed to him immediately at a residence on route 1, Paul, Telephonic inquiries also may be made to Robert in Butley.

Badgers Send Entry Blank For Fights

Stahler Has 18 Veterans On Vandal Workout List

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, March 18 (AP)—Coach Stahler will probably start his 20 days of spring practice on Dayton, 12, according to head coach Skip Stahler. He has indicated upwards of 40 others who will participate in the week-long workout which will be completed in a 30-day period.

There are a tremendous job factor in the 18 veterans included in the workout list. They include: guard, who did so well in the East-West Shrine game; George Elston, quarterback; and Kicker, Ed Barton, center and linebacker; two veteran ends, Frank Treworth and Paul Giles; Jerry Welch, tackle; John Armitage and Three have won two awards. These are John Payne, Idaho Falls; David May, Pocatello; and Jack, Idaho Falls. The other 15 are listed on the list.

Beginning with the first of the 1954 season because of the big injury to the team, the coach has had to make a lot of changes in the team.

Odds Fall as San Francisco Faces Loss of Star Player

KANSAS CITY, March 18 (AP)—The pre-favoritism of top-ranked San Francisco wavered Thursday with the possible loss of a star forward in Friday night's opening round of the National Collegiate Athletic Association basketball championships.

In the first game of the four-team playoff, defending champion LaSalle faces Big Ten champion Iowa.

There was little hope of Friday night's semifinals or Saturday night's championship game at municipal auditorium.

At a news conference San Francisco coach Phil Woopert said 6-foot, 5-inch Jerry Muller who sprained his right knee in Saturday's 57-56 slugging at Oregon State, is a doubtful starter against Colorado.

Woopert said it would not be determined until a pre-game drill Friday whether the fine all-around forward can face the Big Seven champion Golden Buffaloes.

Muller, who averaged 14.1 points as San Francisco fashioned the nation's best record, 29-1, would be replaced by Bob Wiebusch, who had a 3.7 average.

Muller, who averaged 14.1 points as San Francisco fashioned the nation's best record, 29-1, would be replaced by Bob Wiebusch, who had a 3.7 average.

At the news conference San Francisco coach Phil Woopert said 6-foot, 5-inch Jerry Muller who sprained his right knee in Saturday's 57-56 slugging at Oregon State, is a doubtful starter against Colorado.

Woopert said it would not be determined until a pre-game drill Friday whether the fine all-around forward can face the Big Seven champion Golden Buffaloes.

Top Favorites Bag Victories In NIT Play

NEW YORK, March 18 (AP)—Duke and Dayton, the top favorites, won in the National Invitation tournament Thursday night, but the action had been carried into overtime by the unexpected but exciting little team from the University of Cincinnati.

Duke whipped Cincinnati 65-51 after Dayton had pulled out a 70-73 victory over St. Francis.

The Duke and Dayton will meet for the championship Saturday night at St. Francis and Cincinnati, 12, preliminary to decide third place.

Duke's victory came as an anti-climax after the opening thriller in which the two top favorites of the tournament, in an upset, Second-seeded Dayton tied Cincinnati 65-65.

Dayton kept the crowd of 16,682 largest of the tournament, in an upset, Second-seeded Dayton tied Cincinnati 65-65.

Two Under Par Golfers Lead $12,500 Open

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 18 (AP)—Shooting deadly rain games, two under par golfers led the $12,500 Open tournament Thursday.

Higgins fired a 65, and Jimmie Hagan fired a 64 to set a blistering first round pace for the nation's golf stars in the $12,500 Open tournament.

The husky Barnum, an old timer on the tournament who plays the 18-hole course in a 1954 tour of Grand Rapids, Mich., played his approach shot so close to the pin he needed only 28 putts for the round, his second of the tournament.

Higgins, a youthful newcomer from Midland, Tex., was equally accurate. He had to put only 29 times as he joined Barnum in leading a field of 148 players, including seven champions of the winter tour, in a spectacular assault on par.

Barnum and Higgins ended the round with a 65 and 64, respectively, to tie for second place with Jimmie Hagan of Laguna Beach, Calif. Jay Hebert of Woodbury, N. J., and Jimmie Hagan of Laguna Beach, Ala., who wound up in a second place deadlock with 66.

Beckel Shoots Tally Record

SEATTLE, March 18 (AP)—The 46-point record by Lops Beckel in the ball tournament record also was the record in the history of the University of Washington.

Beckel's record was set in a 46-point game against the Washington State team in the pavilion again, Idaho on Jan. 10, 1952.

Yanks Keep Big Lead Despite Upset Losses

MEXICO CITY, March 18 (AP)—U. S. track and field forces collected three more championships in the Pan American games Thursday, but the Yank baseball team had a surprise reversal and Wes Santee, the Kansas mile king, gave a disappointing performance in the 1,500-meter trials.

The North Americans, however, continued to pile up an imposing lead in the unofficial team standings, boosting their points total to 930 against 102 1/2 for defending champion Argentina, their chief rival.

Other developments: 1. Miler, Ed McDaniel, a willow girl from Truckee Institute in Alabama, won the women's high jump with a mighty leap of 5 feet, 8 1/2 inches, which beat the games record of 5 feet 11 inches.

2. Franklin Bue Welch, world record holder in the javelin from Los Angeles, won the javelin event with a toss of 228 feet, 11 inches, breaking the world record of 223-4/4 set by Ricardo Lopez of Argentina in 1951.

3. Jack Davis, a soldier from Los Angeles captured the 100 meter hurdles in 14.3 seconds, despite a slow start.

4. Santee, still looking for a first minute mile, loosed through his first heat in the 1,500 meter preliminary and surprised the crowd of 30,000 by allowing himself to be slipped by the wire by little known Juan Miranda of Argentina. Both were timed at 4:06. Fred Dewey, barely managed to qualify for the final, finishing fifth in the second heat with the unimpressive time of 4:34.

Bob McMillan was a third qualified in 4:57.

5. The U. S. baseball team, here-to-fore unopposed and heavily favored to win the first round, bowed 8-2 to Venezuela.

6. Lon Jones of Manhattan twice broke the Pan-American record in winning preliminary heats in the 400-meter dash and qualified for the finals along with Jim Lea of Southern California and Jesse Masburn of Oklahoma A. and M. Jones did a tremendous 46 in the semifinals. Lea was scored to Jones in 47.6 and Masburn won his heat in 47.4.

7. All three U. S. competitors—James McClure, William Yorayk and Wayne Moore—easily qualified for the finals of the 1,500-meter free style event. The winner was the best time of 20:30 was made by Gilberto Martinez of Colombia.

8. The American victories Thursday raised the United States total to 14 championships.

Gavilan Loses To Bob Dykes

MIAMI, Fla., March 18 (AP)—Miami's Bob Dykes outpointed Gavilan's Gavilan in a five-round, 10-round fight at Miami Stadium.

Dykes, lanky ex-Texas who lost to Gavilan in his same ring three years ago, started fast Wednesday night and clipped the Cuban with leading rights and lefts to win the unanimous decision.

Gavilan, the former welterweight champion from Camaguey, Cuba, never threw his famous "punch punch" one time and confined most of his activity to in-fighting.

Ski Event Set

SUN VALLEY, March 18—Nearly 100 entrants will compete in the seventh annual Sun Valley Junior Ski Championships at Dollar Mountain here Saturday.

The here-planned ski slalom is open to all children in the Wood River area. There is no minimum age limit in the seven race classifications.

Heavy favorites are Mike Eng, Dick Conroy and Gundl Primus.

Red Hearings Continuing in Pacific Areas

SEATTLE, March 18 (UP)—Mrs. Margaret (Peggy) Gustafson, second grade teacher at Haddon school in Bremerton, was scheduled to take the stand today in the second day of the current house un-American activities committee hearing here.

The hearing, second in Seattle in the past 10 months, got under way yesterday with six witnesses invoking the fifth amendment in refusing to answer questions about communist activities in the Pacific northwest.

Jerry O'Connell, former Montana congressman and one-time secretary of the Washington state Democratic central committee, was called as a witness but was not present. His family at Great Falls, Mont., where he now practices law, said he has been ill the past few weeks because of coronary thrombosis.

Most of yesterday's session was taken up by testimony of the committee's key witness, Eugene V. Dennis, Seattle steelworker.

Dennis told the committee that at one period orders for party discipline came directly from the late Joseph Stalin. He also testified at length on youth activities of the Communist party and how it organized the Young Pioneers of America to compete with such organizations as the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

He said teen-agers were taken to summer camps where they were indoctrinated with Communist party philosophy.

Israel Blamed in Holy Land Clash

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., March 18 (AP)—The United Nations top Palestine authority reported to the security council yesterday that mounting tension on both sides led to the most serious clash since the end of the Holy Land war in the Gaza frontier strip last month.

He reported that the Egyptian-Israeli mixed armistice commission found that Israeli forces, two platoons strong, crossed the demarcation line and attacked an Egyptian garrison and ambushed an Egyptian military truck.

Government Sues 3 Area Residents

BOISE, March 18 (UP)—The government filed action yesterday to recover small sums of money from southern Idaho residents.

It sought $70 from Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Fox, Burley, who it claimed owed them money on a previous judgment.

It asked $25 from Paul F. Duffy, Twin Falls, for hospitalization which it said he received from the veteran's administration without being entitled to it.

New Bus Scheduled Here

Overland Greyhound lines will exhibit this new Vesta Dome stage, a deck and a half scenicruiner, here Saturday. The bus will be on display at the Fidelity-National bank corner from 3:30 to 7:30 p. m. Earlier, city officials and school administrators will be taken on a demonstration ride in the new bus. L. W. Carter, Twin Falls depot manager, says the bus to be displayed here is one of 500 being built for Greyhound. It accommodates 43 passengers and has many new comforts and conveniences for passengers, including a fully equipped washroom.

Tryouts Held for Declamation Fete

Declamation tryouts were held Thursday and Friday at Twin Falls high school. Vern Hedner, speech instructor says winners will be announced next week.

The district declamation contest will be held at Haisley on March 28. The local winners will go to the district.

There are 10 divisions in the contest, original oratory, memorized interpretative oratory, humorous reading, dramatic reading, recitation, story, original essay, poetry, extemporaneous speaking, radio speaking and a panel discussion on "Segregation of Racial Minorities." On the panel there are to be not more than eight participants, excluding the chairman.

Only the best in each class will represent the district at the regional contest.

Lasser, Jack Schuler, Herman Woeckle, George Hartley, J. W. Stallinga, Mrs. Robert White, Lawrence Mambert and Idaho Parking company.

Mrs. W. B. Long posted a $2 bond for improper parking.

Davy Crockett Disk Hits Top Status Quickly

NEW YORK, March 18 (AP)—A simple, almost corny "folk song" about frontiersman Davy Crockett has picked off hot and cool competitors like so many hostile Indians in phenomenal rise to best-sellerdom in popular music.

"The Fun they ain't sure what to make of it. 'The thing sounds just like a folk song but it must have something special. Folk songs don't speak like this," a record company spokesman said.

Made TV Debut

While teen-agers supposedly dictate the success or failure of a new tune, "The Ballad of Davy Crockett" may owe its rise to the nursery crowd. It was first heard on the "Disneyland" television show last December.

Folk singer Burl Ives is among the artists who have recorded it since then, but it is not a folk song at all. Tom Blackburn and George Bruns of the musical staff at Walt Disney's studios wrote it especially for the three-part Disneyland series on the exploits of Davy Crockett.

Now in Third

The record made its first appearance on Variety's disc jockey popularity poll only four weeks ago, and this week stood in third place on that list of 45 top tunes. It also
