State Tax Hike Plan Is Rapped

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP)—A proposal to do away with the property tax and greatly increase income taxes got a cool reception Saturday from the members of the Idaho legislative tax structure committee.

State Rep. Ralph Wickberg, R., chairman of the committee, said income tax hikes would be of the mark as a means of raising revenue lost by slashing the property levy.

Wickberg pointed out that regulated public utilities, which pay a lion's share of property assessments, operate on a narrow profit margin and hence insufficient state income tax to make up the loss.

Can't Expect Local Rate
If you expect millage locally, you won't be able to gain it back by a state income tax from the same people," Wickberg commented. "One is likely to the other, but not in the same proportion."

The proposal, advanced by an Idaho Farm Bureau federation official Saturday, was greeted with little enthusiasm by other committee members also. The Farm Bureau claims would help the farmer.

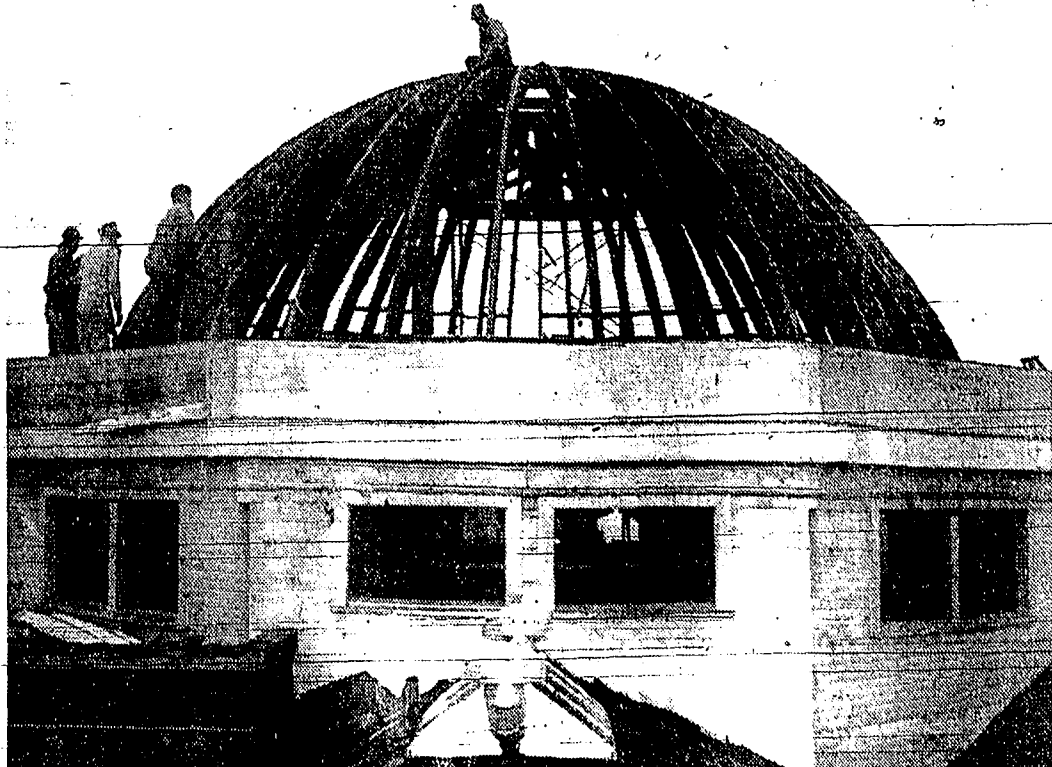

March Meeting Set
Wickberg said the committee is to meet again in Boise March 3 and 4.

He said it was investigating other things, the question of whether there is any way that cities can obtain revenue from surrounding areas outside the city limits. He said he was also looking into why cities are not getting their share of the state income tax.

Wickberg said the committee's recommendations to the legislature regarding state revenues, and probably take the form of a bill. The legislature would be advised to pick the one which fitted the amount of money which to appropriate.

Revision Favored
The chairman said any income tax which the committee recommended would be in the form of a bill.

Dome Removed From Junior High School Building

Owen Kinney, right foreground, supervises the removal of the dome on the Junior high school building. Kinney, building supervisor, estimates this will remove 15 tons from the trusses supporting the auditorium ceiling. Work was begun on the interior Tuesday and the crew expects to complete the project next week. Only four workmen were added to the building maintenance crew. (Staff photo-engraving)

Old Landmark Atop Building Is Torn Down

A 45-year-old landmark is gradually disappearing and should be completely gone by the latter part of this week.

The dome on top of the Junior high school building is being torn down because of the excessive weight it puts on trusses above the auditorium.

Condemned since about 1948, the dome has not been used for anything since that time. Recent collapsing of the plaster ceilings in the curriculum workshop resulted in an investigation by the board of education and overall renovating of the older part of the building.

Four workmen were added to the building maintenance crew as work began on the interior of the dome Tuesday. Saturday, the dome was completely down with only a four-foot wall to be removed.

Owen Kinney, building supervisor, estimated the removal will relieve the trusses of approximately 15 tons of weight. Excessive weight had resulted in condemnation of the auditorium.

The materials are being lowered through the opened auditorium ceiling.

Driver Draws Penitentiary Term For Charge of Drunken Driving

One driver, charged with second offense drunken driving, drew a five-year penitentiary sentence in a Magic Valley court; another driver, charged with drunken driving, was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $150, a Twin Falls woman has been charged with drunken driving and four other drivers will face or have faced charges of negligent driving.

James T. Whitlock, Twin Falls, who entered a plea of guilty to the second-offense drunken-driving charge on Dec. 30, was sentenced Friday to five years in the penitentiary by District Judge Hugh A. Baker. The sentencing followed a pre-sentence investigation.

After Whitlock had pleaded guilty to the charge he was released on $500 bond. Later he was returned to the Twin Falls county jail when his bondsman withdrew bond. He was arrested on Sept. 4, 1955, on Third avenue west by Twin Falls police.

Mrs. Leslie Laraby, 1585 Lindy lane, was charged with drunken driving by Twin Falls police Saturday night following a traffic accident on Fourth avenue east.

A 1951 Hudson driven by Mrs. Laraby collided with a 1949 Cadillac owned by Harold Soper, 305 Third avenue west, which was parked in front of a house at 1437 Fourth avenue east. Damage to the Cadillac was estimated at $50 and to the Hudson at $30.

Rodney Madron, 353 Third avenue east, was sentenced to 30 days in the Twin Falls county jail and was fined $150 and $3 costs Friday in Twin Falls justice court on a charge of drunken driving. The court picked up his driver's license and sent to the department of law enforcement, Boise, for revocation for one year.

Madron was arrested Dec. 24 in the 800 block of Main avenue south by Twin Falls police. He pleaded guilty to the charge, reversing an innocent plea entered by his attorney on Jan. 10.

A 17-year-old Kimberly youth was cited by state police Saturday on a charge of negligent driving.

Magic Valley Covered With Wet Snowfall

Snow fell almost all day Saturday throughout Magic Valley but melted so fast as it fell.

The snow was mixed with rain in the lower part of the valley but on north side of Snake river most of the precipitation was in the form of snow.

The state highway district office at Bonanza reported Saturday that all highways were open but that a few were slippery in the most alpine areas were near the Craters of the Moon, south of Burley and south Twin Falls on highway 93.

Had the weather been colder the snow might have been considerably deeper but as it fell, not even two inches were recorded in the higher altitudes.

The Associated Press also reported slick spots on highway 30 between Boise and Bliss.

Floods Sweep Coastal Areas In California

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14 (AP)—North coastal California, already drenched beyond the saturation point, was hit by a new series of floods Saturday night as heavy rains continued to pelt down.

The new flood area ranged from the San Mateo peninsula, south of San Francisco, north to the Oregon line.

Rains Continuing
The rains, which started Friday night and dumped 3 1/2 inches of rain here in a day, were expected to continue through Sunday night as far south as Paso Robles and Fresno.

Both the multi-forked Eel and the Mad river were out of their banks at places again in Humboldt county where Christmas week floods caused unprecedented devastation.

However, weather bureau men and disaster specialists who were alerted to move swiftly into critical areas did not expect for the time at least that the new floods would reach the severity of those which swept the region three weeks ago.

River Over Banks
Assistant Civil Defense Director J. Ted Gamble at Eureka said that the Eel again was out of its banks near Ferndale. In southern Humboldt county it was washing again across the Washington road, where the first fatality of the December floods was reported.

Gamble sent out an emergency order for 10,000 sacks to make sandbags to plug a rift in the levee along the Mad river north of Eureka. He said Blinn Lake, a town of 850 about 13 miles northeast of Eureka, was threatened.

Smylie Wires Protest Over Planes Slash

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie today wired United Airlines urging "most strongly" that the company restore service to Twin Falls.

United's shuttle service to the city was suspended last Monday due to "lack of business."

In a telegram to United President W. A. Patterson, Smylie said "sparsely settled areas of the country need more not less air service." He said the curtailment of service was a "threat to the economy of the whole Snake river basin."

Meanwhile, the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce was drafting a letter of protest to be filed with the civil aeronautics board.

Rep. Homer H. Budge, R., Idaho, said in Washington the CAB could not act in the matter until it had received a formal complaint.

French Warplanes Bomb Rebel Force

RABAT, Morocco, Jan. 14 (AP)—French warplanes have bombed a "heavy" force of rebel forces north of Fez in low-level bombing and strafing attacks.

Reports reaching here said the French planes surprised a rebel force of 1,000 men in the Tizi-Ouzi area of eastern Morocco. They pounded on the rebels before they could flee.

The rebels were equipped with rifles and machine guns. They had captured a number of French soldiers and were holding them captive.

Idaho's Projects Listed in Budget

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Sen. Henry Dworshak, R., Idaho, said Saturday that the Michael Pilsa project would receive $2,480,000 for the 1957 fiscal year if congress adopts the President's budget to be submitted Monday.

Other items in the budget, Dworshak said, will include $2,768,000 for the Mindoko north side project at Rupert, $6,000,000 for the Palisades project and $500,000 for the Michael division of the Fort Hall Indian reservation.

TALKS RESUMED
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 14 (AP)—Top-ranking negotiators for Westinghouse Electric corporation and the International Union of Electrical Workers resumed talks with a federal mediator Saturday to try to settle a three-month-old strike.

Valley Youth Missing From Air Force Jail

An 18-year-old AVOL Bush sailor escaped from military authorities at Mountain Home air force base Saturday night exactly one week after being released by local authorities the military.

Robert Gene Clayton was under $20,000 bond here until his release to military Jan. 6. He was arrested Monday in 2 in Bush by Sheriff James Benham and charged with stealing eight automobiles, five guns and taking into a ski lodge in the hills.

Four days after his arrest he was released on $2,000 bond to enter a hospital south at Blackfoot for treatment and treatment. His preliminary hearing in Twin Falls state court was continued at that time.

On Jan. 6, he returned to Twin Falls and was turned over to military authorities. Clayton was scheduled to stand military trial on charges of being absent without leave.

Clayton began his auto-stealing spree with a trio of Ford's in Sherman, Harrison and Piler during the week. Questioned by military officials at the Twin Falls county jail, he revealed he had stolen cars from five counties. He admitted taking a five-gallon can of ranch near the state line.

Clayton was broadcast at 8:40 p.m. Saturday reported the theft of an automobile Saturday night from Mountain Home air force base.

Danger Grows

YUBA CITY, Calif., Jan. 14 (AP)—Civilian Defense Coordinator Robert M. Stevenson Saturday night ordered most of the previously flooded areas in Sutter county and Yuba City evacuated by 8 a.m. Sunday.

Stevenson made his announcement after a joint meeting of the levee commission, the army corps of engineers, civilian defense officials, state highway patrolmen, Sutter county supervisors and the Yuba City council. Heavy rains drenched the region.

Air Passenger Volume Is Tripled Here During Six Years

The number of passengers using air service from Joelin field has almost tripled in the six years commercial airlines have scheduled flights through Twin Falls, according to figures released by Don Alton Duvall, airport manager.

In 1949-50, 2,271 departed and 2,294 arrived, on United Air lines planes while in 1954-55, 6,147 departed and 6,044 arrived. West Coast Air lines showed a 300-passenger rise during this time.

In 1949-50, 2,271 departed and 2,294 arrived, on United Air lines planes while in 1954-55, 6,147 departed and 6,044 arrived. West Coast Air lines showed a 300-passenger rise during this time.

This year the city commission has allocated $70,770 for the airport budget. This includes $9,276 for salaries and wages, $12,445 for maintenance and supplies, $3,500 for equipment and $51,849 for improvements.

The commission anticipates revenue of $30,767 with the unexpended balance bringing the total to $70,770.

When compared to the 1950-51 budget, these figures disclose the importance the airport is playing in Magic Valley development. The 1950-51 budget allotted $23,276 for expenses with an anticipated return of $28,038, Duvall said.

For the overall revenue from June, 1940, to July 1, 1955, the airport received $7,164.84 from West Coast and Empire Air lines; $21,586.34 from United Air lines; $37,187.42 from farming and other concessions; $6,108.48 from Reader-Flying service; $6,850.77 from Magic Valley aircraft, and $3,411 from other revenues for a total income of $80,307.88.

Coupled with the taxes received for operation of the airport during this time, $70,728, the net gain was approximately $150,000 more than the expenses, $160,303.

Original cost of the airport bond issue was $200,000 in 1940. The remainder of construction money came from the general fund and tax mill levy for the airport, he reported.

Broken down into individual cost the runways cost $68,842; ramp, $21,324; water system, $20,300; lighting system, $10,453; fire station, $16,825; tie-down area, $11,876; and the access road, $34,414, giving a total cost over the past year of $700,763.

Of this amount the federal government paid $447,708 and the city $253,055.

During 1955, planes from Joelin field dusted 26,000 acres locally and 105,000 in the Northwest.

Reader flying service has an investment in hangars, equipment and aircraft parts of $100,000.

The amount of gasoline and oil sold last year was 40,000 gallons and 500 gallons respectively.

Duvall lists the length of the runways and especially the lack of a south-southwest runway as the greatest handicap at the airport.

He says although the runways were laid in the direction the wind came from a large percentage of the time, it is not adequate many times. "This fact has resulted in loss of commercial flights into Twin Falls and a reputation among flying personnel and airline pilots that Joelin is not conducive to aviation in this airport," he said.

"This, as I see it, is the basic problem. Twin Falls needs to be adequate a runway with a minimum of 500 gallons respectively.

Cooperatives Join Forces to Hasten Gas Distribution

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP)—Cooperatives are forging ahead with distribution plans which will speed the arrival of natural gas in southern Idaho, State Rep. Perry Swisher, R.-Bannock, said Saturday.

Swisher, temporary president of an organization of natural gas co-ops formed Friday night in Burley, said the Burley co-op expects to have engineering work on its distribution system completed within two weeks. He added that representatives of an engineering firm would arrive Monday to begin engineering of the Pocatello and Alameda systems.

Burley, Alameda, Pocatello and Rupert have awarded distribution franchises to local co-ops.

"One of the rumors being circulated is that if the co-ops continue their plans they will be involved in a long legal hassle that will delay bringing natural gas to Idaho for two or three years," Swisher said.

"I would like to point out that at present there is no legal action being brought against the co-ops. If the co-ops continue the fast progress already displayed, instead of delaying the advent of natural gas into the area, they will hasten its arrival."

Intermountain Gas company now holds a distribution certificate for all of southern Idaho from the state public utilities commission. Idaho Natural Gas company, which held the certificate before a recent reversal by the state supreme court and the PUC, has been denied a re-hearing by the commission. The company has indicated it will go to the U. S. supreme court if necessary to obtain a rehearing.

Franchise Hurdle
Rivals of Intermountain in seeking to line up local franchisees are the co-ops, which would be financed by two Omaha bonding houses.

Swisher said 52 persons, representing both city governments and co-ops, sent delegates to the Burley meeting.

He said the cities included Caldwell, Weiser, Jerome, Blackfoot, Idaho Falls and Meridian, which have formed co-ops but have not yet granted franchises.

Also represented were Mountain Home, Nampa and Gooding.

Mountain Home previously granted a franchise to Idaho Natural, but Swisher said the city is reported "inclined" toward the cooperative plan.

Gooding officials have indicated they will give a franchise to Intermountain, he added. No co-op has been formed in Nampa, either.

X-Ray Fees Adjusted; Officers Are Retained

Directors of Magic Valley Memorial hospital elected officers Friday during the annual meeting and unanimously approved an adjustment in X-ray charges to correspond with charges at other hospitals in Magic Valley.

Glen Briggs, Murlaugh, was unanimously reelected chairman of the board for 1956. Following Briggs' reelection, the board unanimously approved a motion instructing the secretary to cast a ballot reelecting Charles Lunte, vice chairman; William Savage, treasurer, and Mrs. Martin Miller, secretary.

The adjustment in hospital rates for X-rays lowers some as much as 60 per cent and raises others as much as 33 1/2 per cent. In asking the board to approve the adjustments in rates for the hospital, Mrs. Irene Oliver, administrator, pointed out that the change would bring charges into line with the Southeastern Hospital Council, Southcentral Medical society and St. Benedict's hospital, Jerome.

The new rates for X-rays went into effect on approval of the board. Briggs said he would make his committee appointments for the coming year during the meeting of the board at 2 p. m. Feb. 6.

Other business of the board included review of yearly reports, paying "current" bills and acceptance of medical staff appointments for the year.

Briggs thanked the board for its cooperation during the past year and pledged continued support to the hospital staff. He indicated he would make changes in the various committees so members may become better acquainted with members of the hospital staff and the operation of the hospital.

'56 Budget to Be Balanced

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—President Eisenhower is sending his annual budget to congress Monday and he has said it will be a balanced one.

He also has said he expects the current budget to be in balance by the end of the fiscal year, next June 30.

On the basis of the President's state of the union message and other official statements, it seemed certain Saturday that the new budget to be delivered Monday will provide for spending of between 65 1/2 and 66 billion dollars in the next fiscal year starting July 1; and income of at least that much.

The "inexact" budget figures were secret until submitted to congress.

Eisenhower is expected to revise his estimates for the current year to predict a balanced budget by June 30 with spending at about 64 1/2 billion dollars, or some three quarters of a billion higher than previously forecast.

The President expects a balance to be achieved this year and next, even while spending is going up, because of higher revenues from the expanding economy.

Dulles' Statement Is Attacked by Demos

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Democrats launched fresh attacks Saturday on Secretary of State Dulles' statement that this country had averted war by going to the "brink of war," but Republicans pose to his defense.

The White House remained silent on the controversy which grew out of a Life magazine interview quoting Dulles that Red China had been blocked three times by going "to the verge without getting into war."

Dulles said this policy of "deterrence" had worked successfully in the Korean, Indo-Chinese and Formosan crises of 1953 and 1954. He called it "a necessary art," and said "if you are scared to go to the brink you are lost."

In Chicago—Adlai B. Stevenson said in a statement Dulles is "willing to play Russian roulette with the life of our nation." Stevenson, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, added that the United States has no intention of conducting its foreign policy by bringing us, and the world, to the brink of war.

But Senator Knowland, R., California, contended Dulles "is not admitting that we go to the brink of war as a policy."

He said Dulles meant only that potential enemies may restrain themselves if they realize there is a point beyond which the United States cannot be pushed.

Seven Republican house members who issued last fall behind the curtain a statement praising Dulles' foreign policy as "the nation's best guarantee for maintaining peace."

Farm Problem Made by GOP, Truman Avers

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 14 (AP)—Former President Truman said Saturday night the American farmer is in a mess created by President Eisenhower and his secretary of agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson.

Accusing the Republican administration of following a deliberate policy of driving farm prices down, Truman said the "distress" of the rural population was not unintended.

Not "Inherited"
He (Benson) didn't inherit it. He and his made it themselves. He said in a speech prepared for a dinner honoring Gov. Orville Freeman and sponsored by the Democratic Farmer Labor state central committee.

Speaking with deep sarcasm and in the "give 'em hell" tradition of his campaign speeches in 1948 and 1952, the ex-President reminded his audience he had said any farmer who voted Republican should have his head examined.

"I am sure you believe that now," he said.

Cites Parity Drop
"I don't have to argue about it any more," he continued. "...over all, farm prices were 101 per cent lower."

Story of Plot To Bomb Jail Termed Hoax

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 14 (AP)—A telephone tip of a threat to bomb Middlesex county jail Saturday night was branded a hoax by officials after thorough search of the institution housing some 100 prisoners, including Joseph "Speck" O'Keefe, yielded in the solution of the Brink's robbery.

Sheriff Howard Fitzpatrick said the "thing appeared to be a complete hoax." He told that to newsmen after scores of police searched the building and area for more than 90 minutes.

Nevertheless, he ordered increased watches in the building and surroundings.

The bomb scare climaxed a day during which a Brink's employee received two telephoned threats.

In the jail threat, police shut off the area around the old red-brick building, ordering traffic and pedestrians out of the congested section.

Soviet Union Unveils Sixth '5-Year' Plan

MOSCOW, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Soviet Union unveiled Saturday its sixth five-year plan. It calls for tremendous boosts in heavy industry with special emphasis placed on an increase in production of atomic energy.

Farm output was also stressed. The huge Soviet farm collectives are called upon to increase production by 100 per cent.

New Goals Listed
The new goals were announced in advance of the 20th congress of the Soviet Communist party next month, when the party will be asked to approve the new five-year plan.

According to figures splashed over the pages of Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, an average increase of 65 per cent is sought in the total industrial output.

It was divided this way: Heavy industry 70 per cent; consumer goods, light industry, 60 per cent.

The highly ambitious program would boost all industrial output by more than half over the next five years.

Atomic Power Boop
It includes a brisk leap of atomic energy power.

The program envisaged calls for construction of atomic stations to provide 2 1/2 million kilowatts. It represents a substantial program in a field heretofore virtually experimental.

The massive Kulybshayev hydroelectric station at full capacity is slated to produce 2,100,000 kilowatts.

The Russians' atomic power program apparently would see construction of several stations, all capable of providing a noticeable increase in the Soviet Union's electrical energy.

But the sharpest increases were seen for normal industry.

Spud Product Survey Shows Bright Future

MOSCOW, Jan. 14 (AP)—Idaho potato processing plants turned out more than $1,500,000 worth of potato products in 1954 and may have surpassed that figure last year, a survey showed today.

Kermit R. Bird, agricultural economist for the University of Idaho, said a 1955 survey by university Idaho's John Hansen showed that Idaho's 15 potato processing plants used 5,000,000 sacks of tubers.

His survey showed that the Idaho potatoes were used for dehydrated potatoes, granules and flour, starch, frozen french fries, patties and hash browns and for chips.

Some 60 per cent of the plant managers contacted by Hansen said they expected to expand their facilities and production if business conditions remained good, 40 per cent said they would continue at the same level of production and 20 per cent had not decided on future plans.

Bird said he expects further development in production and use of potatoes in frozen foods and added: "The future looks bright for greater demand."

Report Given on Potato Research

IDAHO FALLS, Jan. 14 (AP)—A research program aimed at quality improvement of potatoes is planned by the Idaho Potato Producers association.

M. O. Stratford, Idaho Falls, executive director of the association, said Saturday the organization plans to ask the University of Idaho to join with the association in a joint research program.

"The association is very much concerned with the high percentage of culls in the potato crop this year, and is going to take definite steps to determine the cause of this quality deterioration," said Stratford.

Blaine to Call Hospital Meet

HAILEY, Jan. 14—Organizations in Blaine county will meet representatives to a meeting at the courthouse at 8 p.m. Thursday to discuss the building of a hospital here to serve the entire area.

The meeting is the second to be held to discuss the proposal. Owen P. Hatley, a member of the hospital facilities section of the state board of health, met with 40 county residents at the courthouse last Thursday night. Residents of Hatley, Gannett, Keichum, Ploabo and Bellevue were present.

Hatley said the tentative plans for a 20-bed hospital would cost between $14,000, and $15,000 per bed.

As a result of the meeting those present decided to call the second meeting and to ask organizations in the county to send representatives so the plan could be aired thoroughly.

Plan to Hike Income Taxes Hit by Solon

form of a rate revision, rather than a surtax or change in dependency exemptions.

The morning session featured considerable discussion of the Farm Bureau proposal.

Against a background of heavy prospective increases in Idaho's public spending next year — especially for schools — the committee wrestled through the day with the problem of coaxing more revenue from the tax structure.

Max Yost of Boise, representing the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho, reminded the group that the state's revenue system has kept the same essential form since the early 1860s, when the territorial legislature enacted Idaho's first, property and poll taxes.

"It's taken 75 years to build up the tax structure," Miller commented, "and you just can't scrap it overnight. It's something we've got to live with."

Sen. Carl Irwin, R., Twin Falls, suggested the committee shouldn't try to tell the next legislature what to do, "because they wouldn't do it anyway."

Irwin said the better course would be to work up reliable sources of information for the lawmakers and suggest sensible alternative proposals.

Starving moose have been sighted one mile from Flin Flon feeding along the highway, and hungry wolves are reported trailing them.

"The prolonged cold weather and deep snow forced a coyote to enter the town. He came within a few blocks of the main street."

QUITO, Ecuador, Jan. 14 (AP) — The widows of the five U.S. missionaries slain by savage Aucas Indians were flown over the scene Saturday for a last look at the five crosses that mark their husbands' graves in the Amazon jungle.

Rescue parties Friday buried the five who had penetrated the wild country in hopes of converting the Aucas to Christianity.

The widows flew over the graves in the remote Curaray river valley aboard a U.S. air force plane. Near the graves remained the missionaries' plane, stripped by the Indians after their attack last Sunday.

The plane also flew over a nearby Auca village of round thatched huts on the opposite side of the river. There was no sign of life.

Old Landmark Atop Building Is Torn Down

Ernest Ragland, superintendent of schools, reported the wood was practically valueless because of its short length.

The ceiling on the dome has been replaced with a tarp to protect it from the weather but a permanent roof probably will be completed by next Saturday, Kinney said.

The board of education will probably discuss hiring a structural engineer to study bolstering of the stressed trusses, Ragland said.

Knowland to Rap Foreign Aid Proposal

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP) — Senator Knowland of California, the GOP senate leader, Saturday joined Senator George D. Aiken, in opposing President Eisenhower's proposal for a long-range foreign aid program.

Knowland told newsmen he has informed Secretary of State Dulles he thinks it would be a mistake for the administration to ask congress for any 10-year commitment to give economic and military assistance to other countries.

"It is my belief that it would be far better for them to come to congress and make their presentation each year rather than to propose a 10-year program," Knowland said.

Senator George, who heads the senate foreign relations committee and serves as Democratic spokesman in congress on international affairs, said Friday the administration may be risking bipartisan cooperation on foreign policy if it pushes the long range program.

The views of the two leaders forecast formidable opposition to any administration attempt to get foreign aid commitments for future years. But there was no sign that the administration was abandoning its plan.

Native Clays Core Is Eyed For Big Dam

CAMBRIDGE, Jan. 14 (AP) — Explorations have shown that native clay will be "very satisfactory" for the impervious core of Brownlee dam, Morrison-Knudsen resident engineer Glenn C. Johnson said Saturday.

Johnson said four deposits of clay were being made ready for use in the 395-foot dam. He said the deposits will be readily accessible with a minimum of road construction.

Johnson said 411 workers were employed at the site of the proposed Idaho Power company dam, compared to 334 a week ago. He said a bridge across the Snake river, designed to aid in building the dam, was scheduled for completion Feb. 15.

He also said 14 construction camp buildings on the Idaho side of the river would be completed by Feb. 15 and most of them would actually be occupied by Feb. 1.

A 300-man mess hall is nearly complete and two 80-man dormitories will be finished in another week, he said. A trailer court on the Oregon side of the river will be ready for occupancy Feb. 1, he added.

9 Youths Hurt in Big Gang Battle

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14 (AP) — A free-for-all gang battle early today resulted in injuries to nine youths. One had 221 stitches taken in his back, and another had an ear stitched back on. Police rounded up eight others in the wild brawl.

Three ambulances and 30 officers answered a dozen phone calls from residents. They said various versions of the brawl indicated the fight was between the "Lancers" gang and the "Alpine street" gang.

The youth with 221 stitches was identified as Heraclo (Lucky) Vasquez, 23, leader of the Alpine gang. His back had been deeply crisscrossed with a linoleum knife.

Widows View Jungle Graves Out of Plane

QUITO, Ecuador, Jan. 14 (AP) — The widows of the five U.S. missionaries slain by savage Aucas Indians were flown over the scene Saturday for a last look at the five crosses that mark their husbands' graves in the Amazon jungle.

Rescue parties Friday buried the five who had penetrated the wild country in hopes of converting the Aucas to Christianity.

The widows flew over the graves in the remote Curaray river valley aboard a U.S. air force plane. Near the graves remained the missionaries' plane, stripped by the Indians after their attack last Sunday.

The plane also flew over a nearby Auca village of round thatched huts on the opposite side of the river. There was no sign of life.

France Faces New Deadlock On Red Votes

PARIS, Jan. 14 (AP) — The new French national assembly is so nearly deadlocked even before it convenes that the job of premier may go to the first candidate willing to accept communist votes to get the job.

This would not necessarily mean that his government would be dominated by the communists. Nor does it mean that communists would be taken into the cabinet, although that is one of the possibilities.

Many New Faces

The new assembly goes into session next Thursday with slightly fewer than 600 members sitting. Of these about a third will be new faces scattered throughout all the many parties represented.

For the Western world the grimest spectacle will be the sight of the communist and fellow travelers swelled from 99 to 151, and an uncertain band of 52 eager but untried followers of Pierre Poincaré, the anti-tax rebel.

Division Is Great

Between those two groups sit approximately 400 Frenchmen so divided that no one at this time can say how they may be brought together to run a government.

Out of this arises the possibility that the center group farthest to the left led by Socialist Guy Mollet and Radical Socialist Pierre Mendes-France may accept the communist votes if no other way opens up to let them form the next cabinet.

Neither one likes the idea and both have said so. They would prefer to win to their side a majority from the middle-road 400 which could make some of the desperately needed decisions, more especially in Algeria, that have been held off so long by assembly discord.

Indian Tribes In Oregon to Ask U. N. Seat

FLORENCE, Ore., Jan. 14 (AP) — Three Indian tribes threaten to seek seats in the United Nations as a sovereign people, if the federal government continues to ignore them.

Their attorney, James Green, a justice of the peace here, said the tribes—the Confederated Tribes of the Siuslaw, Lower Umpqua, and Coos Bay—have never been compensated for their lands and are getting impatient.

The treaty the tribes signed on Aug. 11, 1855, was never ratified by the U.S. senate, he said, and so the Indians claim they never gave up their sovereignty. They own a strip of Oregon coast which includes the cities of Florence, Reedsport and Coos Bay, he says.

"We claim these tribes are free people and not subject to federal laws," Green declared. "The United States recognized their sovereignty in the 1855 treaty with them. Since the treaty was never ratified, no rights of sovereignty were surrendered and no conveyance of land took place. It won't take 15 minutes to settle this if the government lives up to its obligation." About 100 million dollars will do it.

Otherwise, he said, "we intend to apply for seats in the United Nations as sovereigns."

"Of course an important election is coming up. As a consequence the Eisenhower administration is going to say a lot of things and make a lot of gestures in a desperate effort to hide the record of what they have done in the last three years. Co-Ops Form Unit to Speed Gas Delivery ler of Chicago—has given the opinion that the plan is entirely legal in every respect.

"Some people say it is not right to oppose private enterprise. A study of every co-op board formed thus far shows they are made-up of leading private enterprise advocates, solid businessmen."

"They are taking the position that a monopolistic utility is not private enterprise in the true meaning of the word. We're not against private enterprise, but we are for doing something for our respective towns which are badly in need of added revenue."

"Further, the entire system will be financed by private funds. There is no financial responsibility on the part of the town, until such time as bonds are retired and the system is handed over free to the city."

"We also want to stress that cooperative gas distribution systems will pay ad valorem taxes exactly the same as a private utility. In fact they probably will pay more, because some of the proposed systems are larger than those proposed by the private companies. We are exempt from corporate and income taxes."

"Now about rates. The rate schedules for Idaho have been set by the federal power commission. No matter who is distributing gas in Idaho, these rates will apply."

Besides Swisher, others on the association's board of directors are Perry Stephenson, Burley; State Rep. Ray Robbins, R., Mindokka, Rupert; Homer Satterfield, Alameda; D. S. Richards, Idaho Falls; Paul Joseph, Welsler; Paul Smith, Jerome, and J. B. Holden, Caldwell.

The board will draft by-laws and effect an organization, details of which will be presented at a future meeting.

Strike Ends At Detroit's News Plants

DETROIT, Jan. 14 (AP) — All three striking unions ratified new contract terms with Detroit's three regular daily newspapers Saturday but a dispute with the Teamsters union delayed immediate publication.

Printers, stereotypers and mallets all approved new contracts with the Detroit News, Times and Free Press by 10 to 1 margins or better. They immediately called off picket lines which had paraded before the three newspaper plants for more than six weeks.

The stereotypers started the walk-out Dec. 1, hours after their contract expired. The printers and mallets joined the strike shortly before Christmas.

The Teamsters, who drive newspaper delivery trucks, did not go on strike. But they contract separately with the newspapers and still have not reached agreement with any of them. A dispute over management proposed limitations on sick leave reportedly was blocking a settlement.

The three unions which settled indicated they would respect picket lines if the Teamsters go on strike. All three of the striking unions were given wage increases of $3.75 a week immediately and an additional $2.75 next Dec. 1 under contracts running until Nov. 30, 1957. The same wage offer was made to the Teamsters.

Senate to Probe VASchool Funds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP) — The senate investigations subcommittee will launch hearings Tuesday on charges that the veterans administration has had to spend millions to send war veterans to four communist-owned private schools.

Chairman McClellan, D. Ark., declined to name the schools or disclose their location in advance. They reportedly are located in Pennsylvania and New York state.

McClellan emphasized that under existing federal law, the VA apparently has no right to withhold payment to the schools, even if it should find that communists run them. An objective of the inquiry, he said, is to determine whether new legislation is needed.

Ancient Art Is Modernized by Machine.

Mrs. Walter Thomas, Twin Falls, practices an art that is older than cloth but does it by machinery rather than by hand. Here she inspects a job of embroidering she has completed on one of her children's western shirts. The embroidered design on her husband's shirt hanging in front of her took thousands of yards of thread. Her vocation is book-keeping. (Staff photo-engraving)

Magic Valley Hobbies No. 3

Ancient Art of Embroidery Turned to Machine Hobby for Twin Falls Woman

More ancient than cloth and sewing, embroidery is an art that has been practiced through the centuries almost exclusively by women. Perhaps it is so because the art is done with a needle and thread—typical women's tools.

That it is an art and produces works of art, there is no doubt. Often called needle painting, embroidery once was the only means of decorating cloth. But, like many ancient arts, the ability to perform the task has been modernized to such a degree, most modern embroidery is done by machine.

The machines, though, are operated by women. Mrs. Walter Thomas, a bookkeeper during the day, is a machine embroiderer at night in her home. Although skilled in the art of embroidering with plain needle and thread, she prefers the machine "because it is quicker and more uniform job."

Mrs. Thomas has been sewing since she was a small girl. But unlike many of her playmates, she preferred her mother's sewing machine to a needle and thread. Today she refuses to sew a button on her husband's shirts unless she can do it on the sewing machine.

The machine she uses to create intricate embroidered designs calls for more coordination than artistic ability. The machine supplies the thread and Mrs. Thomas the coordination. The cloth is "maneuvered" under the machine's foot by means of a small crank. Crazy like the cloth twists and turns beneath the foot, but from the gyrations come beautiful designs.

Mrs. Thomas is certain the machine she owns is the only one of its kind in this area. It is designed for embroidering only and couldn't under any consideration, be called upon to do an ordinary stitch.

Just about as soon as primitive people began to sew pieces of skins together with thongs, they learned they could make the skin clothing more pleasing to the eye if "fancy" stitches were used. From this beginning came embroidery.

During the middle ages the art reached a high peak with queens and ladies in waiting as well as nuns and common people trying to outdo one another. In the late 18th and early 19th centuries, learning to embroider was a "must" for every little girl.

The stitches are difficult to classify, there are so many. The main ones, though, are "gros point" (cross stitching), "petit point" (one-half cross stitching), outline stitch, chain stitch and couching, the art of fastening a thread to cloth by stitching over it. Although, too, is a form of embroidery.

When the art of embroidering was at its peak, persons versed in it could tell from which country or locality a finished product had come by the colors, designs and stitching. Tapestries actually are embroidering of a very high degree.

The practice of the art by Mrs. Thomas has taken her into many fields. She has made flags and numerous, highly-decorated western shirts and currently is working on a tablecloth she hopes to some day have covered with the signatures of friends who have come to dinner.

Recently she had a birthday party for one of her three small children, using the tablecloth.

"That's the bad feature of the project," she explained. "The embroidery has to be done each time before the cloth is laundered, else the signatures will wash off."

Her brother, Kenneth Harrison Piler, a sophomore at the University of Idaho, is a hotrod racer. Recently she embroidered jacket designs for Harrison and his teammates at the university.

While early embroiderers had a small selection of threads from which to choose, the modern practitioner has an endless array of colors, quality and kinds. Some threads, made of rayon, produce glossy designs. The thread comes on large cones, rather than spools, which is understandable since several thousand yards went into a floral design on the shoulders of one of husband's western shirts.

Mrs. Thomas creates her own designs and then transfers them to the shirt, jacket or tablecloth. She makes all her own clothing as well as clothing for her children and shirts and jackets for her husband.

But a little more is needed than a machine and cones of thread. A knowledge of cloth comes in handy since not all cloth will take machine embroidery. Mrs. Thomas learned this by long experimentation. Off-hand, now, she can tell if a certain piece of cloth will take embroidery but even with her knowledge she sometimes finds weaves that will shir and gather at the most crucial moment.

Her interest in embroidering perhaps is natural, she being a woman. But through that interest she has kindled a spark of interest in her husband and he, too, will sit down at the machine and try his hand. "But so far I haven't been able to learn how to do it," he said.

Consolidation of Feb. 4, 1945, of the Idaho Evening Times... SUBSCRIPTION RATES... NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES... FOOD FOR THOUGHT

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG... Every Sunday, Ray Tucker answers readers' questions of general interest on national and international politics and personalities... WASHINGTON - "Why are all the so-called experts so sure that the present prosperous conditions will continue?"

POT SHOTS... DANGEROUS GUESS... Dear Pots: There's no frost in the ground. Anyone who doubts that statement is invited to try using our driveway...

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE... Most of us have forgotten and many of us never knew that one of the conditions which lifted Adolf Hitler to power was the horrible violence of the communist uprising...

Is That So! Eugene Burns... Severe Ice Storm Expensive Spectacle... Although it is one of the most sublime spectacles on earth, a severe ice storm is a disastrous calamity to forests and those in them...

Since our recent editorial comment on juvenile delinquency, vandalism, and sex offenses involving teenage boys and adult men at Boise there have been added developments which to our way of thinking are worthy of further discussion.

SOLID SUPPORT FOR NATIONAL ECONOMY—Federal, state and local governments will spend approximately 110 billion dollars in the coming year, according to the best estimates.

By a strange madness the people of the United States were whipped into a rage. They thought it was a victory of an illusion called democracy, even though it should have been plain to the most ignorant American that the consequent reinforcement of the enemy's western front would delay and might prevent our victory.

As in our own country since then, communists had created an artistic underworld of sneering journalists, novelists, actors and other entertainers. Communists lifted into the bureau of all the attempts at orderly government. They flattered and wheedled the police who were the first defense against riots.

For the animals of the woods the result of the ice storm can be a tragic one. Deer may break through the ice crust formed over the snow and be chased by a coyote and cut their legs badly or even break their necks running after the crust.

It will be recalled that the state board of health back in December served notice to Idaho's youths that vandalism and hoodlumism will not be tolerated.

SAVINGS AT ALL-TIME PEAK — Savings—cash, securities, life insurance, etc.—are at an all-time peak. Behind this bulwark are such "cushions" as pensions, a modified guaranteed annual wage, retirement plans, paid-up life insurance policies, social security benefits.

But there were both communists and patriots who were eager to meet on the ramparts. The influx of communists among the refugees from Poland and the Baltic complicated the situation.

Some American have laughed at the brutal picket-line outbreaks at Kohler, treasonous insurrections against the governments of three states, Wisconsin, Indiana and Ohio.

cuts a broad swath from New England and the Middle Atlantic states westward through the Ohio valley to the lower Great Lakes region, and on into Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska.

Chairman Paul Boyd warned that "vandalism and hoodlumism will have to stop in this state" because "the public is entitled to protection from these kids who believe there is no penalty under the youth rehabilitation act."

LESSON OF 1929 — Both government agencies and private banks have a better understanding of the management of money than ever before. The federal reserve and the treasury, to a certain extent, can make money tight or plentiful, depending on inflationary trends.

Our Bulletin Board Mrs. E. H. R. Eden—Gee, you sorta got us over a barrel. Just off-hand, we'd say it's much too long. Folks have a way of passing over the long ones and reading the short ones.

Yet even members of the clergy and some giants of the American press have condoned their conduct. This very day many professional unionists, mainly of the CIO, who have been guilty of flagrant capital crimes against individual states and the United States, in collusion with communists, have the confidence of the government.

Lawrence B. Quinn, Administrator of the Estate of Mary D. McPherson, deceased, in the probate court of the state of Idaho, county of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, being the place fixed by the transaction of the business of said estate.

But whether or not the public is entitled to protection, vandalism and hoodlumism have been raised as to the effectiveness of the new act conceived by the last session of the state legislature.

DEMOCRATIC VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES — "In your recent discussion of Democratic vice presidential candidates on a ticket headed by Stevenson," writes F.M. Flint, Mich., "why didn't you mention Senator Humphrey of Minnesota and our governor, G. Mennen Williams?"

Dear Pots: A woman called at our house the other day to ask all sorts of questions about the family shopping habits. She particularly asked whether we'd like a shopping area closer to the neighborhood.

Famine, imposed by the British with our collusion; disgusting horrors inflicted on refined, religious German girls by primitive French colonial troops; and continuous dreary failures of unrecognized "leaders" to establish a government with legitimate power.

Perhaps more thought provoking than anything else was a Boise Statesman interview with its senior high school correspondent, who in turn called on other youngsters for their opinions as to the cause of juvenile delinquency.

GOVERNOR OF UTAH PRESIDENTIAL TIMBER (continued) He prays: "Grant me the wisdom to see clearly the problems of state, and the energy and determination necessary to carry them to a successful conclusion in order that I might at all times do the things that will inspire the confidence of the people in my interest to be just, fair and equally considerate of every citizen, to the end that I may assist in the preservation of this free country and its constitution."

Personally, I believe the recent and so-called "teenage crime wave" may be attributed to lack of parental interest, not enough teenage jobs, and other factors.

"We teenagers want to help remove the smear against us. We need work, many more jobs. We are willing to cooperate, we don't want everyone to think that we all steal hubcaps for spending money or shoot out windows for amusement, but please don't discourage and antagonize us by punishing all of us for the offense of a few. Give us a chance to speak, and listen to us; for we have the closest contact with those who are causing the trouble."

Air Passenger Volume Hiked Sixfold in T.F.

Runway length—of 6,000 feet in a south-southwest direction for commercial-airline operation.

Cost of construction of such a runway, considering the width and type needed to accommodate the load for air traffic, would be conservatively estimated at $500,000," he noted.

"He noted that although the airport is supported by the 20,000 people in Twin Falls, it is utilized by approximately 100,000 in the area."

"The basic problem for solving the shortcomings of the airport is one of finances," Duvall said. "I feel the matter should be brought to the attention of the people so they know the position the city is in regarding commercial airlines problems."

"United Air lines wants longer runways to allow the maximum load factor into Twin Falls. At present, they have reduced from four flights to two flights a day. These Twin Falls managers think this is temporary, however," Duvall added.

"But United Air lines definitely wants another runway to take care of the cross-wind condition," he said.

"Although West Coast Air lines is not so concerned with the longer runways at present, the new aircraft they are purchasing will probably require them. They also want the new runway to take care of crosswind conditions," he reported.

"Joan Field was completed in May, 1948, and was the first joint federal-municipal constructed airport completed after World War II."

"However," Duvall continued, "the airport was designed to accommodate aircraft up to the DC3s. United Air lines has progressed to the Convair 340, and, although they can use the present runways, often they are required to reduce load capacity because of the short run."

"Private and business flying is not concerned with the longer runways but they are definitely concerned with the new runway to take care of the high-velocity crosswind condition," he added.

"These are not all of the problems facing us," Duvall concluded, "but they are the most important and the hardest to solve."

Boise Swept by New Vandalism

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP)—Police were investigating Saturday new cases of vandalism reported late Friday night and early Saturday morning.

Crucibles and other equipment made of the precious metal platinum are employed by the optical industry for handling special types of glass which are extremely corrosive to other materials.

New Project of Aid for Small Shops Listed by SBA Official

SEATTLE, Jan. 14.—Robert P. Buck, regional director of the small business administration, for the northwestern area, Saturday announced a new program of financial assistance tailored to the needs of small shops, particularly in the retail, wholesale and service trades.

Loans can be made to small firms under this new program, known as the limited loan participation plan, up to a limit of $15,000 in government funds plus a share from the borrower's bank.

The new program has been tested by the small business administration on a trial basis since July 8, 1955. It is designed to provide term bank-participation loans to very small firms—such as retail stores, repair shops, restaurants, dry cleaning establishments and many other similar enterprises.

Interest on these loans has been set at not more than 6 per cent, with the requirement that the borrower's bank take at least a 25 per cent share of each loan.

Buck explained that loans approved under the limited loan participation plan will be approved locally, and will not have to be sent to Washington for approval. These loans will provide financial assistance for longer periods to very small firms which need additional funds for expansion, modernization, acquiring new fixtures, acquiring parking facilities, adding a second location, providing additional inventories, and other purposes.

Under the new limited loan participation plan, loans can be made to these small establishments, provided they have a good enough past earnings record to show that the loan can be repaid, Buck said.

These loans may run as long as 5 years, a maximum selected by the small business administration because a survey of the credit needs of small firms showed that credit from one to five years is the type of loan that would meet most of their requirements.

Security will be required in all cases, Buck said, but the participating bank will handle the details of appraising and obtaining the property security for the loan.

Any type of security may be considered, including mortgages on real or personal property, assignment of accounts receivable or monies due on contracts, pledge of warehouse receipts, negative pledge agreements, and corporate guaranties or personal endorsements.

Buck said the new limited loan participation plan should meet most of the unmet demands for loan funds by qualified small firms since the loan amounts will be carefully related to the repayment ability of the individual applicant, and since the borrower's bank will have continuing knowledge and interest in the success of the business activities of the borrower.

He emphasized that small loans made under the limited loan participation plan, the Small Business Administration's share shall be limited to $15,000 or 75 per cent of the

Probe Continues On Burley Theft

BURLEY, Jan. 14.—Burley police are continuing their investigation of the theft of between $400 and $500 from the safe at the Utah Oil company office here Thursday night.

Fred Allen, distributor for the company, discovered the theft Friday morning. "The safe had been moved from the office into the warehouse and the door pried off. Left in the safe were bonds and checks."

Company papers were strewn over the floor in the warehouse and some personal papers belonging to Allen were torn. Rain Thursday night wiped out tire tracks at the scene of the burglary.

Williams Says He Is Not Candidate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Walter Williams, undersecretary of commerce, said he definitely is not a candidate for governor of Washington.

AS YOUR MINISTER SEES IT

By REV. E. E. CROW

Pastor, First Baptist Church

This column is not one that is devoted to explaining theological terms; rather its purpose is to relate religion to contemporary life. Yet the great Christian seasons are forever related to today.

As we observe them the religion which Jesus Christ revealed is brought to bear on present day life.

"I might now be in one of the great seasons of the Christian year, Epiphany. This begins on Jan. 6 and continues until Ash Wednesday. Its climax is on Sunday, Feb. 12, which is set aside as the Day of Transfiguration, when our Lord was revealed in all of his glory. The term "Epiphany" means literally, "to shine upon." The same root word was used by John when he said concerning Christ:

"In Him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not." John 1:14.

John also used it when he said of Christ: "Again a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in Him and in you; because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth." 1 John 2:8.

Literally, the season of Epiphany is the season of the Christian calendar which commemorates the self-revelation of our Saviour.

Christmas is a time of rejoicing because we remember the birth of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Easter is the season of hope because it is the time dedicated to the remembrance of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Epiphany should be the time when our hearts and minds turn to Jesus Christ to learn the truth about God, literally to "see the light" that you see, obey, and surrender to God, the Father. He came to reveal that we see the eternal God in terms that we can understand. It is the most fitting that at this season, but how can we? One way is to make a study of the four Gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Read them to see just how Jesus gave light concerning God. Read them to see how He revealed the Father. Read them to see how He fulfilled His statement when He declared Himself, "I am the light of the world."

The next step is to obey the light that you see in Christ as you study His life. Jesus Christ never promised to give light to tickle the intellect. He promised to give light for daily living that would light the way to

Protestant Group Wants Revolution in Religious Emphasis for Business Life

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—The nation's largest church organization is trying to instigate an "ethical revolution" in American business life. That is the goal of the "living right at work" program which the National Council of Churches has asked its 30 member denominations to push during 1956. The message the council wants to get across to 35 million Protestant laymen is that Christianity is not a Sunday morning state of mind, but a practical rule of life that should govern the way we act in our Monday-through-Saturday jobs. It represents a major effort by the churches to translate into higher standards of everyday conduct the new spirit of religious faith reflected in record attendance at worship services. Why the emphasis on work as the arena of life in which a Christian should demonstrate the sincerity of his convictions? "America today is a business society," explained a council spokesman. "Often our most meaningful experiences in life occur at work. Also because of its increasing competitive tempo, our business life is one arena in which religious principles are in danger of being excluded. The Rev. Cameron P. Hall, executive director of the council's department on economic life, described the program as an effort to bring Christian ethics directly to bear on a whole range of business and professional problems "which many Americans persist in keeping separate from the church."

The problem of business ethics and labor ethics and farm ethics is crucial to the future of Christianity in our country," said Hall. "If our religion only operates on the fringes of our business society one day a week we might as well stop giving lip service to it." The council has urged member denominations to sponsor both local and statewide conferences of laymen to discuss ethics in their particular occupations. A number of such meetings have already been held. Many more will be held next week which the council has designated "church and economic life week."

Theme of these meetings is that every type of job—housewife, farmer, lawyer, doctor, newspaperman, business executive, labor organizer, factory worker or stenographer—presents each day problems in "applied Christianity." Church leaders hope to encourage laymen in each occupation to work out their own solutions. They are convinced that the process of discussing such problems will help laymen find other ways in which religious principles should be applied to their work, and will demonstrate the truth of the program's motto: "God is not truly honored on Sunday if he is dishonored on weekdays."

Cassia and Minidoka Areas Buy New Rural Fire Truck

RUPERT, Jan. 14 — A new tank truck, designed for rural fire fighting, has been purchased for use in Cassia and Minidoka counties through contributions from farmers and organizations in the two counties. A committee headed by William Beck, Cassia county, and Burt Van Every, Minidoka county, solicited a total of $4,314 which went for the purchase of the GMC truck and a 2,000-gallon tank. The Burley fire department turned over receipts from the annual firemen's ball toward the truck purchase. Noted Opera Contralto Is Set For Community Concert Fete

A leading contralto of the Metropolitan Opera association, Elena Nikolaidi, will be presented by the Community Concert association at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Twin Falls Methodist church.

A Columbia recording artist as well as a member of the Metropolitan opera company, MISS Nikolaidi has appeared throughout Europe as a concert artist and former leading contralto of Vienna opera. Her Vienna debut was at New York's Town hall in January, 1949.

Her New York success was confirmed later by her popularity in recitals in Boston, Chicago and Cleveland. With appearances on radio and recordings, Miss Nikolaidi's first tour was sold out—74 concert and orchestral engagements.

The 1950-51 season saw another sell-out tour and new conquests. She was engaged by the Metropolitan, making her debut as soloist in the Verdi Requiem. Her first operatic appearance was as Amneris in "Aida" with the San Francisco opera company.

In succeeding years she made a tour of Australia, sang with the Metropolitan and in Europe.

NEW PLATINUM GASOLINE REDUCES ENGINE WEAR!

LONGER LIFE FOR ENGINE PARTS
New triple-refined Frontier gasoline puts an end to harmful acid action caused by ordinary gasolines. Now 99.9% sulphur free, new Frontier gasoline burns cleaner and more evenly than any other Ethyl gasoline. Don't take chances with ordinary gasolines that cause formation of sulphuric acid in valves, piston walls and crankcase. Play safe—use new Frontier Platinum—specially refined to stop harmful acid action, stepped-up in octane to give you up to 30% more active horsepower.

Increases Active Engine Horsepower by Up to 30%! Stops Harmful Acid Action Caused by Ordinary Gasoline! Gives You 1 to 3 Extra Miles Per Gallon! Won't Knock in Any Car!

New triple-refined Frontier Platinum makes ordinary Ethyl gasoline old-fashioned, yet costs not a single penny extra. Frontier Platinum, now stepped-up in octane to the highest ever sold in this state, boosts the performance rating of both old and new cars by an average of 18%.

Tests Prove Frontier Burns Cleaner
Certified laboratory reports reveal that new triple-refined Frontier Platinum is the cleanest-burning gasoline your car can use. Carbon deposits are no problem because this amazing new gasoline burns so completely—your car's engine will never knock with new Frontier Platinum.

Because Frontier burns more evenly, piston wear is reduced. New triple-refined Frontier Platinum helps keep your fuel line and carburetor free of gummy residues left by ordinary gasolines.

Make Your Own Tail Pipe Test and Prove That FRONTIER PLATINUM BURNS CLEANER

See for yourself how much damage ordinary gasoline may do to your car's engine. Just check the pitting and corrosion in the chrome above your tail pipe. It shows you how sulphur and other fumes cause acid which pit and corrode metal parts. Switch to cleaner-burning, sulphur-free Frontier Platinum—the new triple-refined Ethyl gasoline that reduces engine wear.

HERE'S MY PERSONAL MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE OF PERFORMANCE

President of Frontier Refining Co.

MONEY-BACK PERFORMANCE GUARANTEE!
I personally guarantee that new Frontier Platinum will equal or outperform any other brand of gasoline sold or your purchase price will be refunded on your very first tankful of Frontier Platinum.

Now Frontier Platinum Is Triple-Refined—New Refinery Unit Produces Cleaner Gasoline!

Now for the first time you can buy a gasoline that actually reduces engine wear while it adds up to 30% more active horsepower every mile you drive. The addition of a new Platinum reformer to Frontier's Cheyenne Refinery makes possible this wonderful new Platinum gasoline. New Frontier Platinum releases all the horsepower that was built into your car. Platinum gasoline gives you split-second starting... even on coldest days. Now triple-refined to burn cleaner, to give more mileage and to end engine ping and knock, new Frontier Platinum easily outperforms all other brands of Ethyl gasoline.

Years of Research to Build Platinum Reformer

Although it was known shortly after World War II that new higher octane gasoline could be produced through the use of Platinum in the refining process, the cost factors were so prohibitive that Platinum gasoline was at first produced only for laboratory testing. After years of research involving the expenditure of millions of dollars an economical method of producing this new cleaner-burning high-octane gasoline was discovered. Now you can get the finest gasoline ever refined. Fill up with new Frontier Platinum and feel the difference.

Art Is Where You Find It

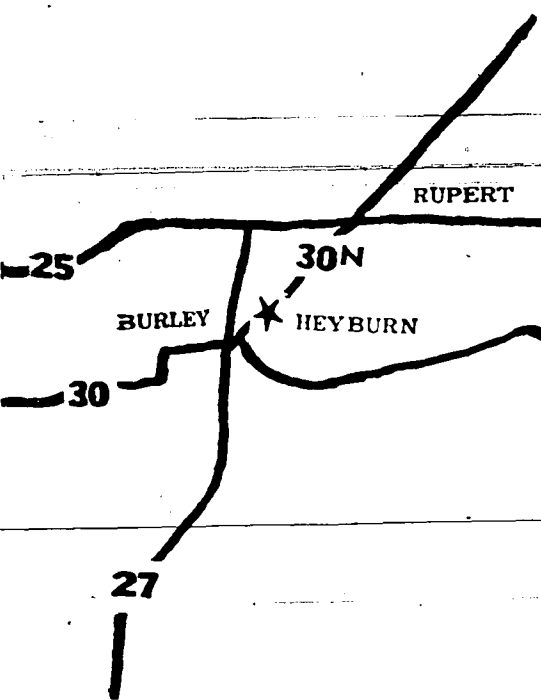

you can find it at Heyburn. The largest privately owned collection of oil paintings in Idaho is on display constantly at the Heyburn school. This painting, "Gulls at Lobos" by Jesse Arms Botke, is one of 46 paintings in the collection. Many well known artists, including Magic Valley's Olaf Moller, have paintings hanging in the exhibit. (Staff engraving)

Heyburn Boasts of Largest Privately Owned Oil Painting Collection in State

As you pass through Heyburn on highway 30N you will be able to see the largest privately owned collection of oil paintings in Idaho. The collection, now of 46 in number, are hung in the Heyburn school. The collection is the work of some of the west's most famous oil painters. Pictures were acquired during the annual art exhibit, held here from 1933 to 1953 for three years during World War II. The exhibit was discontinued in 1953 because of inadequate facilities of the school auditorium. The exhibits were held, however, in class rooms, leaving no room for an art gallery. Heyburn's art exhibit was started by M. Whiting, now of Los Angeles, who was superintendent of Heyburn school from 1932 to 1933. He had been associated with the art exhibit in Utah, the Springville art exhibit. He wished to bring the cultural advantages to Heyburn and to start a collection of oil paintings at the Heyburn school, purchasing at least one picture a year. He was capable of handling the business and advertising part of the exhibit but he realized his lack of experience in the field of art. He explained his idea to Olaf Moller, a young artist who returned from attending school in the east and from Whiting received such professional advice in art. It was through Moller's influence the list of artists entering paintings in the exhibit was enlarged. The first year only artists from Idaho and Utah showed pictures at the exhibit. As the exhibit grew, though, artists from nearly every state in the United States entered paintings. All pictures hung were of high professional standards and only oil paintings were accepted. In 1933 the exhibit was held in the small gymnasium of the old grade school building. Later the show was moved to the auditorium in the new building. The exhibits were free to the public and, in addition, programs of local talent and talent from universities, colleges and high schools were presented during the two weeks of the show every year. The exhibit has shown more than 10,000 persons have viewed the pictures in a single two-week showing. As a Christmas exhibit the pictures selected for the collection are unveiled during the last program of the exhibit. The exhibits were financed by businessmen from Heyburn, Burley, Rupert and Paul, who purchased advertising space in the art exhibit's printed programs. The first pictures purchased were the "Fortneuf Bridge" by J. P. Harwood and "Glorified Peaks" by Cornelius Salisbury. The "Desert Mirage" by George Schroeder was donated to the school that year. Artists whose pictures are hung in the collection include Olaf Moller, Leland Curtis, J. H. Stanfield, Roger M. Rittase, LeConte Stewart, Mrs. E. J. Stephenson, Eric Erickson, Mrs. J. Klinge, B. F. Larsen, Frank W. Kent, LaVonne Vincent, Florence Frandsen, B. Y. Aedelin, Florence Ware, Robert Cunn, Paul K. Smith, Garrett W. Jex, Jesse Arms Botke, Max Blaine, Edgar A. Payne, Mildred Miller, Earl M. Reed, T. R. Nielson, Walter Koeniger, Hans Jorgensen, Paul Salisbury, Robert Atwood, Leroy Greene, Eugene Schroeder, J. H. Harwood and Cornelius Salisbury. To reach the school where the pictures are exhibited, turn north at William Christensen's garage on highway 30N, go three blocks to the LDS church and then turn west four blocks on 17th street. Anyone visiting the school at lunch time can get refreshments at a small cafe on highway 30N in Heyburn.

Heyburn Is Place

The state's largest privately owned collection of oil paintings is housed at the public school in Heyburn. The star on the map shows the approximate location of the village of Heyburn on highway 30N between Burley and Rupert. (Staff engraving)

Reserve Plan Is Announced

The navy reserve offers all men the opportunity to meet their military obligations by enlisting under the reserve force act of 1955, according to information given by Lt. Cmdr. L. K. Clark, commanding officer of electronics company 13-33 in Twin Falls. Men enlisting in the navy reserve who are furthering their education in high school or college satisfactorily, may have their active duty delayed until they are graduated, fall in marks or attain their 20th birthday. This delay will enable the reservist to attain the advancement to pay grade E-2, Clark said. Draft liable enlistees are required to serve two years immediate active duty following their enlistment and serve three years in the ready reserve and one year in the standby reserve. Advancement opportunities are the same as in the regular navy. In Asia life expectancy at birth is comparatively brief—only about 30 years, says the Population Reference bureau.

Drew Pearson, Noted Column Writer, Plans Town Hall Talk

Drew Pearson, noted Washington, D. C. reporter, will address the Magic Valley Town Hall meeting at 8:15 p.m. Monday in the Piler high school auditorium. The meeting has been changed to the Piler school from the Twin Falls junior high school auditorium, because the latter has been condemned.

Twenty-three years of ferreting out news in the nation's capitol and reporting it to Americans are credited to Pearson. He began "Washington Merry-Go-Round" in 1932 in collaboration with Robert S. Allen. This column now is an exclusive Pearson product. It was begun when both Pearson and Allen were fired from their respective publications because of two books they had written.

Season tickets to this program and three more to follow are available at J. Hill's Gift shop.

Programs for Armed Force Duties Noted

Young men of military age have two programs available for fulfilling their armed forces obligations, reports Maj Wilbur E. Nicholas, unit adviser, Twin Falls army reserve office.

The first is a six-year enlistment in which the enlistee must perform two years on active duty and then serve in the ready reserve.

This reserve program requires 48 weekly drill meetings and a 17-day summer encampment for each of three years. The final year is serving with the standby reserve which requires no active training. In this enlistment the trainee may choose the time to fulfill the two-year active duty requirement. This will enable him to attend college without interruption, Nicholas said.

The other is an eight-year enlistment for men between 17 and 18 1/2 years of age. This enlistment offers deferment from the draft and requires only six months active duty followed by seven and one-half years in a ready reserve unit. High school students choosing this plan will be deferred from active duty until they are graduated, Nicholas noted.

The Yaqui are the best known and sturdiest Indian tribe of Sonora, Mexico.

This figure includes army drills, summer training camp and all other activities involving the more than 500 members, Leighton said.

Rupert Plans 'Bloodmobile' Events Jan. 31

RUPERT, Jan. 14 — The Red Cross bloodmobile will be in Rupert Jan. 31, Wayne Taylor, drive chairman, reports.

The drawing will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the civic building with a goal set for 150 pints.

"The need for blood is far ahead of the supply," Taylor said, "and if Minidoka county residents are to meet the quota, greater participation will be needed this time than at the last drawing."

Some of the blood is made available for emergency use locally, he emphasized.

"It might be a friend or a relative whose life you save," the chairman noted.

The United States was the first nation to plan a capital exclusively for its seat of government (Washington, D. C.).

ROUND-TABLE DISCUSSION

Part of the fun of being your own decorator is that you can give free reign to your individuality... express your own inherent good taste in a number of small ways. You can be outlandishly whimsical if you choose. You can be self-assertive, spirited in your choice of color, or you can use it with restraint and dignity.

Your own interpretation of your favorite period is what will make your home an interesting expression of you.

You undoubtedly have many things which you cherish and want to have around you... a collection of fine old glass perhaps, or pewter. The background decoration and the furniture in the dining room sketched above were inspired by an heirloomed set of old English china.

Pattern has been brought into the room with wallpaper which has delicate pink roses rambling over a brown background. The beautifully designed Maple furniture is very much at home in the provincial setting. The round Lazy-Susan table is a conversation piece in its own right. The open hutch, a replica of grandmother's most cherished piece, is a perfect showcase for the colorful china. Brace-back chairs are graceful and sturdy.

The old masters of furniture design were well aware of the gracefulness and restfulness of circles. That's why the circular dining room table has always been a universal favorite. We offer you several styles in circular tables. Choose yours today. From $74.95

Here's 'Sneak Preview' of Fashions Slated for 1956

By PATRICIA MATTHEWS
Hang onto your hats, girls, here we go again. Whether you like them or not, here's what the fashion designers are showing in their 1956 wardrobes.
Materials, more than styles, are making the big difference this year. Designers are striving to achieve the "soft look" in the new styles. To enable this, they are using "new soft" wools that combine wool with fur fibers of angora, muskrat, beaver and cashmere. Linen and lace are being used for the more elegant clothes; much lighter weights for suits and coats and chiffon, corduroy, organdy and taffeta are a few of the more favored materials.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Everybody who sends children to our public schools wants the very best school possible. "Better schools" is heard on every hand these days. Fine. The public school is the base of American life. Its health and quality is vital to the health and quality of the oncoming citizenry.

The needs for rearing children in better physical and mental health have become clearer to us, and many of them cannot be met in the home by itself but must be done by specialists. The school, built, organized and equipped for this care is the logical answer.

Such schools cost money—a lot of it. Now the question arises: Who is going to pay for them? Nobody wants to pay taxes. School taxes are already too high for many people, especially the older people living in the country towns and villages. Suddenly they are called on for increased taxes which they cannot pay.

Even people who could pay more object strenuously. Still this school bill must be met for the good of this nation. We all belong to it and the children belong to us. The only thing to do is to get busy and raise the money. How that is to be done is the responsibility of the political office holders.

The school must be made fit to rear fine citizens for this great country of ours.

If your child has bad eating habits, or is a food fussy, you can find the solution to your problems by following Dr. Patri's advice included in booklet No. 302, "Feeding Children." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, c/o Times-News, P. O. Box 99, Station C, New York 19, N. Y.

State Wildlife Group Holds Annual Meeting

BOISE, Jan. 14 (AP)—Election of new officers will highlight Sunday's session as the 21st annual Idaho Wildlife federation convention goes into its last day. Morning meetings will feature committee reports and discussion, with the election of officers during the afternoon.

More important resolutions expected to be presented include one by the Ada County Fish and Game League asking a ban on the use of salmon eggs as fish bait and one to withdraw the lands at the head of the Salmon river into a protected area. This would prevent huge spawning beds from being destroyed.

President Theo H. Wegener of Boise in his annual report said wildlife conservation had fared well last year on both state and national levels. "We should be heartened to further efforts to gain improvement in the operation of our wildlife and conservation programs," Wegener told some 200 delegates.

On the state level, he said the 1955 legislature passed a number of laws which the federation has been asking for over the year. Included was the raising of state license fees and the decision by the legislature to allow the fish and game commission to operate its own budget.

"The increase in license fees, though small, will provide much needed additional funds," Wegener said. He added that the fish and game group operating its own budget allows "more flexibility in operation of the fish and game department."

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

Quilting is an ancient avocation. Grandmothers of grandmothers made quilts because that was the quickest, surest and easiest way to acquire money. Times have changed but there are many women who spend hours of painstaking toil putting together quilts that sometimes are works of art.

Sumner, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sumner, Twin Falls, possesses such a quilt. The masterpiece, however, was not by one individual but by women who wanted "to do big nice" for Carol, who was sick with polio last May.

The quilt contains just about every color, hue and shade possible in cloth. State colors as well as the colors in the state flowers were picked with care so the finished product would be authentic. Despite the many colors in the quilt, it cannot be classed as a "crazy" quilt, a bed covering made up of many different pieces of cloth of as many different colors as possible.

The quilt Carol has, despite its many colors, is one in which the colors blend so perfectly there is no clash and the overall picture is more than pleasing to the eye.

KNOTHOLE NEWS

Approximately 25 girls interested in starting a girls' basketball team went through an hour's practice after Knothole league Saturday.

Penwick, director, said the girls will have another practice Saturday with the league starting Jan. 21. He urged wishing to play basketball at the junior high school gym at 3 p. m. Saturday.

In the seventh grade play, the Sinkers Hurricanes protected their records although they were forced into an over-time point at the end of the period. In the overtime they out a 21-19 win. Gary and Dick Bacon each netted 10 points for the victors as did the Billy Sutterfield.

Hurricanes were pressed by Sinkers but were able to pull away in the second half to gain a 22 to 10 win. David Johnson and David Wood bucketed six points for the Sinkers but high scores went to the losers' team with seven.

Dale Willis leading the way in points, the Junior Bruins made trouble dumping the 45 to 33. Charles Cutler eight for the Whirlwinds.

Whirlwinds needed the 12 points Neil Satterwhite as they by the Pepsis 39 to 37. Satterwhite carried the losers' 10 points.

From behind in the second, the Comets edged the 30 to 31. The losers posted 10-point men, Jimmy Ling 12 and Gary Jeff with 10. They were followed closely by Mike Green and Mike Whitesides with 10 apiece.

Whirlwinds maintained their lead in the sixth grade division with the Fighting Five 32 to 19. Kleinkopf's 12 points in the Kilowatts unmarred record with six points for the losers.

Only close sixth grade game, the 30 to 28. Billy Guffex poured in for the losers while Rick Smith led the way for the winners.

12 points dunked by Larry Hall paved the way for the 27 to 17 drubbing of the winners who were paced by Harold in points.

10-3 at the end of the first half, the Freightliners came back to Bagners 17 to 12 to produce an undefeated record. Richards scored 10 for the winners while Cramer accounted for the Bagners' total.

Hard luck Fighting Devils by one basket from winning the ball game. They went to the Cougars 14 to 13 after a split battle which saw the end at the end of the half. Webb scored five points for the winners while Bobby Satterwhite and Vanderbank scored six points.

Kilwatts netted four points the Typhoons swept past the 18 to 4. Rick Rennie and Silvers split the losers' total. Webb scored all points for the winners who sneaked past the 10 to 12. Ron Stepanovich 7 points for the losers.

Three ELKO nurses, once avid rock hounds, aren't much interested in rock anymore.

The trio, Calda Boucher, 21; Madeline Hummel, 23, and Haquel Sewell, 22, acquired their dislike for the hobby last Sunday.

The three left Elko at 7:30 a. m. in a jeep owned by one of the trio to collect a few specimens. They found desert roads frozen and impassable—at first.

They parked the jeep and walked some distance in a search for rocks. After a time one of them noticed the ground was getting soft. Only slightly alarmed, they returned to the automobile, and found it mired so seriously they were unable to turn it around. They discovered, though, that so long as they remained on the road they could continue in low gear and four-wheel drive. But the direction in which the jeep was headed was the opposite one from which they wished to go.

Nonetheless, moving was better than standing still in frustration so they drove along the little traveled Bullion mine road, bucking drifts and plowing through mud. Finally the jeep stalled. They continued on foot, arriving eventually at a cabin that had been used by miners but closed for the winter.

Ordinarily law abiding, the three broke into the cabin, lighted a fire and cooked some of the food they found in the building.

Justice of the Peace and Mrs. George R. Boucher became alarmed when their daughter did not return home and asked Elko County Sheriff J. C. Harris to help look for the nurses. The sheriff located them at 2:30 a. m. Monday, snug in the miners' cabin but with little interest in rock hunting.

BY JOVE, EASY, I HARDLY EXPECTED SUCH FANFARE ON MY ARRIVAL! I HEAR MUSIC IN THE STREETS, AND THEY'RE UNFURLING BANNERS WELCOMING ME TO BIKINI!

NOT YOU, SENOR! THAT IS FOR THE AMERICAN BIG SHOT NAME J.P. MCKEE WHO ARRIVE EARLIER TODAY

BUT HE'S THE IMPOSTOR, I WARNED THE GOVERNOR ABOUT! I'M—

HERE COMES THE GIRL COP WHO WENT TO NOTIFY THE GOVERNOR OF YOUR ARRIVAL, MR. MCKEE.

BUT I'M THE GENUINE J.P. MCKEE! THE IMPOSTOR I CABLED ABOUT HAS HOODWINKED THE GOVERNOR! I DEMAND TO SEE HIM—

HE'S CONVINCED YOU ARE THE PHONY! NOW SCRAM OR HE'LL THROW YOU IN IRONS!

WHY, THAT TIN HORN DICTATOR! COME, EASY... MY DIGNITY AND GOOD NAME ARE AT STAKE!

TOO BAD WE HAVE NO PROOF OF YOUR IDENTITY, SUH!

WELCOME J.P. MCKEE

OH, MY SOUL, EASY! LOOK AT THAT BRAZEN HUMBUG BASKING IN MY LIMELIGHT!

BLESS YOU, MY PUBLIC!

WHAT'S THE COMMOTION BEHIND US, LIEUTENANT, HONEY?

IT'S THAT MAN WHO INSISTS HE'S MCKEE, GOVERNOR, I WANTED IN THE PARADE, I GUESS, BUT THE ARMY HAS HIM UNDER CONTROL NOW!

WELL, WE'RE HEADED TOWARD THE DUNGEONS... LET HIM WALK IN THE PARADE IF IT'LL MAKE HIM HAPPY!

CHIN UP, MR. MCKEE! I'LL HAVE YOU OUT IN NO TIME!

YOU CAN'T CARRY BUNDLES ON A CROWDED BUS, WILLIS! OH, HES JUST BULL-HEADED--WE'RE GOING TO USE THE CAR AND THAT'S THAT!

I TOLD YOU YOU'D HAVE A HARD TIME PARKING! THAT'S WHY I SAID TO TAKE THE BUS! WHY DON'T YOU KEEP YOUR MOUTH CLOSED?

I GUESS I MIGHT AS WELL TAKE A NAP! OH, THERE'S A PLACE--I TOLD YOU I'D FIND ONE! HUH! SOME SMART ALECK BACKED INTO IT!

NOW ARE YOU SATISFIED? WE'RE ALL SET--IT JUST TOOK A LITTLE TIME! DON'T BE TALKING--I'M TRYNA COUNT THE BLOCKS AS WE GO ALONG TO THE STORES!

OH, MY POOR DOGS! THERE'S OUR CAR--I SEE IT! NO, IT MUST BE IN THE NEXT BLOCK--OR THE NEXT!

IT'LL TAKE ME DAYS TO RECOVER! OH, BE QUIET! THAT WASN'T FAR!

I'M A WRECK! WE WALKED PAST YOUR HOUSE THREE TIMES TO FIND ONE'S WALKING TO TOWN, AND ONCE LOOKING FOR THE CAT AGAIN! WHY I DON'T RECALL PASSING THE HOUSE AT ALL!

COURSE YOU DON'T! YOU WERE TOO DOGGONE BUSY LOOKIN'! ARE YOU TRYING TO TELL ME I'M DUMB?

DON'T ANSWER THAT! JUST GO ON UP TO YOUR ROOM--I'VE HEARD ENOUGH FOR ONE DAY!

TODAY WE SHALL DISCUSS DIOGENES, THE OLD ATHENIAN PHILOSOPHER!!

DIOGENES LIVED IN AN OLD ABANDONED TUB--LANTERN IN HAND, HE WENT AROUND SEARCHING FOR AN HONEST MAN!!

TEACHER! MISS BAHR, I MEAN--IT'S A FUNNY THING YOU SHOULD MENTION THIS CHARACTER! I HAVE AN UNCLE WHO THINKS HE IS ANOTHER DIOGENES--HE ALSO CARRIES A LANTERN AND LIVES IN A BEAT-UP OLD TUB!

WHY, UNCLE!! WHAT'S THE TROUBLE?? SOME DAD-RATTED SCOUNDRELS SWIPED MY LANTERN!! AND MY TUB!!

AFTER SCHOOL I WANT YOU TO TAKE ME TO HIM!! IT WOULD BE EXCITING TO SEE A MODERN DIOGENES!!

NOT ONLY WILL YOU SEE A MODERN-DAY DIOGENES, BUT YOU'LL SEE A HAPPY, CHEERFUL PERSONALITY HE SMILES ALL THE TIME!

Vic FLINT

LUCKILY FOR ME, DON MIGUEL WAS OUT FOR THE DURATION!

YOU MUST GET UP OR WE ARE UNDOING THE GOOD DEEDS WITH HER. DO YOU HEAR? HEY, DON MIGUEL!

DON MIGUEL, THE GREAT BULLFIGHTER AND LOVER... BAH!

I MEAN IT, MR. FLINT, I'M NOT GOING BACK! MISS LAURIE, YOU'LL IMPERIL YOUR CHANCES BY SHOOTING ME. MEXICANS HAVE A HABIT OF REVOKING THE VISAS OF TOURISTS WHO SHOOT OTHER TOURISTS.

AND I DIDN'T TRAVEL 2000 MILES TO BE MAIMED BY A HOOKY-PLAYING HEADLINE HUNTER WITH A WEAKNESS FOR FORTUNE-HUNTING BULLFIGHTERS.

BY THE WAY, THAT RING YOU'RE SPORTING BELONGS TO A LOCAL BELLE, ONE LOLITA DEJLIAN. DON MIGUEL GAVE IT TO HER.

SOMEONE STOLE IT FROM HER PLACE. I SUSPECT DON MIGUEL, SO THAT HE COULD GIVE IT TO YOU.

ON THE WAY BACK, I WORKED CROSSWORD PUZZLES. DANDY DIDN'T GIVE ME ANY HINTS!

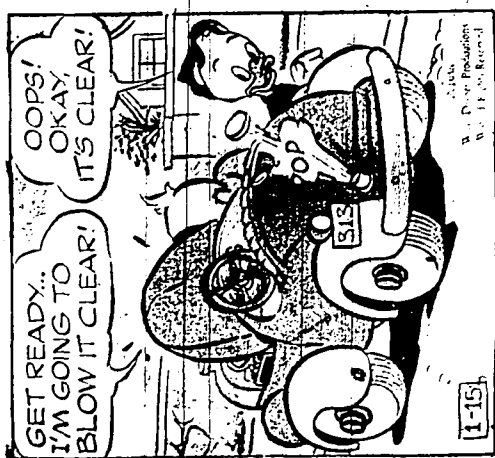

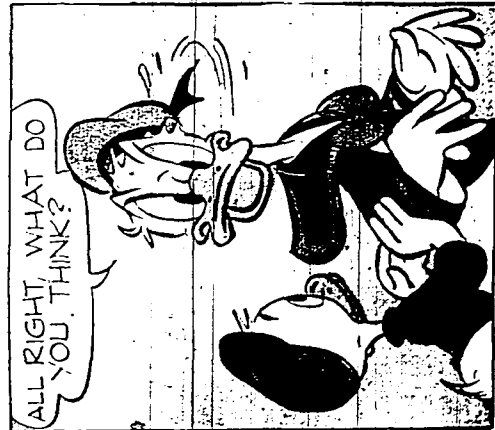

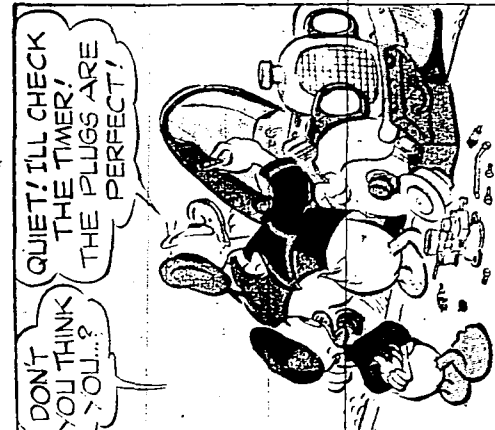

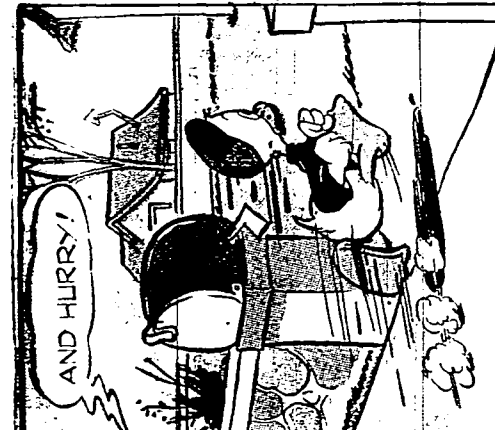

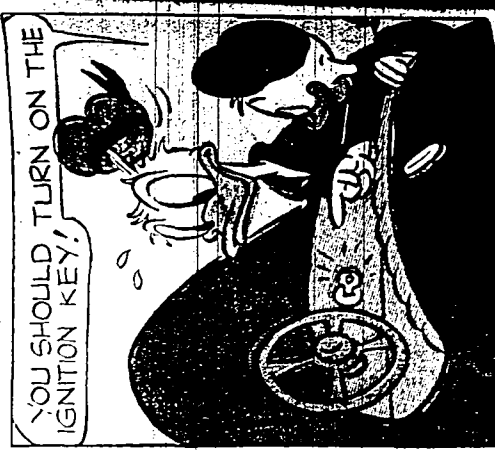

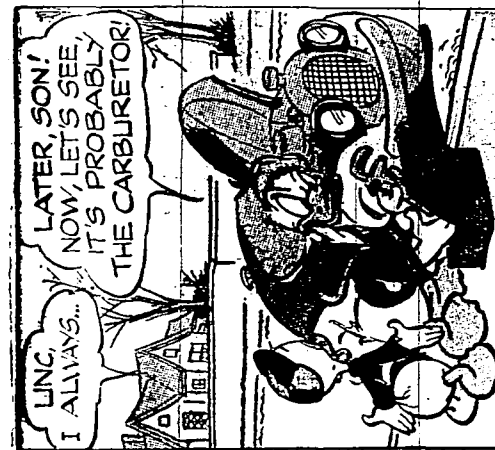

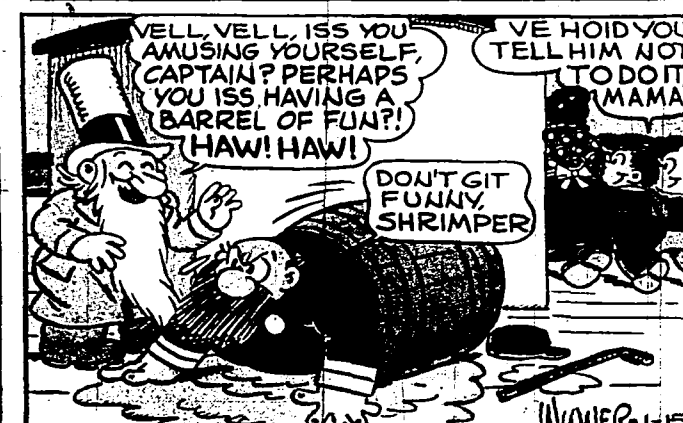

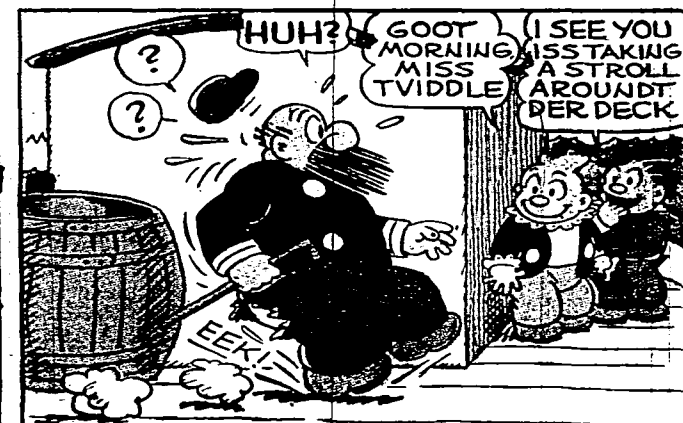

AT THE AIRPORT SHE WEAKENED...

I GUESS I OWE YOU A THANK YOU NOTE FOR SAVING ME FROM THAT TWO-FACED TREADOR. FATHER WILL PROBABLY MURDER ME WHEN I GET HOME FOR RUNNING AWAY AND EVERYTHING--SO, WELL, THANKS!

YOUNG LADY, WHAT YOU NEED IS A GOOD CANING! JUST A MINUTE, MR. LAURIE!
