

3 Weeks' Reading, One Writing Nets Conservation Essay Prize for Youth

For three weeks' reading and one week's writing, Terry Haggard, son of Mrs. Wilda Haggard, 312 Harrison street, has collected $50 and national recognition.

Terry entered the national conservation essay contest, sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation, by the National Wildlife Federation, and came out with the second place and $50 in the junior division.

Previously the same paper had won him first place and $20 on the district level and $10 and second place in the state. The girl whose paper beat him in the state contest took the first prize nationally.

Under the general topic for this year, "How farmers can help wildlife," Terry wrote his article on "How farm practices to driving an automobile. Continuing on his general idea, he placed small pictures of road signs at the beginning of each paragraph with a word on the sign to lead into his thought.

A seventh grade student here, Terry admits he would not have entered an essay if it hadn't been for the "prodding" of Russell Hart, junior high school instructor. Hart conducted a wildlife club each Tuesday during the noon hour and urged members to submit entries in the contest.

Although he used material gleaned from national magazines and pamphlets and books on conservation, Terry credits the Idaho Wildlife Review, a bi-monthly report issued by the state fish and game department, for most of his material.

Haggard's interest does not stop at the essay stage, but continues into outdoor sports of all kinds. He spends three to four weeks each summer at a cabin on the Clearwater river. In the winter he takes active part in the local Junior Rifleman's association.

Surrounded by reference material he used in compiling his conservation essay, which received second place in the national contest, Terry Haggard, son of Mrs. Wilda Haggard, 312 Harrison street, displays the telegram notifying him of his prize. Terry spent three weeks in reference work and one week preparing the essay. The contest was sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation. (Staff photo-engraving)

Rural Health Needs Shown By Educator

PORTLAND, March 10 (U) — An Oregon State college educator proposed here today that each state have at least one specialist to work exclusively on rural health problems.

Health conditions in the rural areas of the country, though improved and still improving, are a challenge to society, F. L. Ballard, director of the agricultural extension division at OSC, said. He addressed the closing session of the National Congress of Rural Health. He suggested that the rural health specialist be attached to each state extension service.

A movement to do this is underway, he said, but is lagging because of a shortage of trained personnel and heavy demands on extension workers for other programs.

W. O. Vokull, Wisconsin farm editor, reported on a poll on doctors his magazine conducted. He said 86 per cent of those questioned said in general they are satisfied with the service of the doctors in their communities.

Charge Not Filed

BURLEY, March 10 — No complaint has been filed in Burley on the robbery that was reported here last Thursday night. Prosecuting Attorney Norman Nielson reported Saturday.

The prosecutor said the matter still is under investigation but that no arrests have been made and no charges filed.

The earth's rotation slows down very slightly over any long period of years.

Prospects for Water 'Good'

BURLEY, March 10 — Ed Cazier, forest service ranger here, reports the water content in snow at Bostetter and the Albion division of the Sawtooth national forest is very good from an irrigation standpoint. Snow and water measurements were taken March 4 at Bostetter and March 5 in Howell canyon by Walter Hankins, Twin Falls, soil conservation service, and Elmer Taylor, forest service representative, Oakley.

At Bostetter there are 64 inches of snow with a water content of 21 inches. At this time last year there were 57 inches of snow and 16 inches of water. Cazier said on a 10-year average, this is 121 per cent of normal for snow and 119 per cent of normal for water.

At Howell canyon there are 93.5 inches of snow with a water content of 32.3 inches. Last year's measurement showed 43.5 inches of snow and 9.9 inches of water. On a six-year average, this is 121 per cent of normal for snow and 112 per cent of normal for water.

Cazier said the water at Bostetter should go a long way toward filling the Oakley reservoir, and that the water supply in Howell canyon should be very good.

Resistance Is Fixed Against Racial Ruling

WASHINGTON, March 10—Informed sources disclosed today that house members from seven southern states have signed up 100 per cent to a group pledged to resist by "any and every means" the supreme court ruling outlawing racial segregation in public schools.

Sponsors of the proposed manifesto, which originated in the senate, predicted it may have as many as 100 house and senate signatures when it is published Monday.

But some southerners were said to be balking at what they considered its "inflammatory" language.

Members reported that the strongest members reported that the strongest the supreme court in "the strongest kind of language."

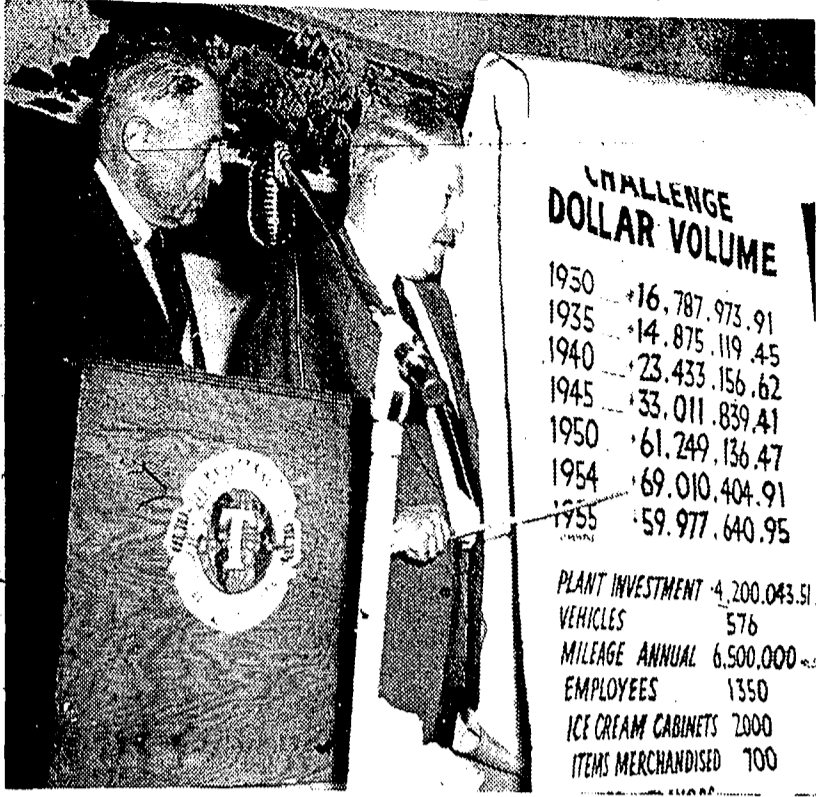

Besides pledging the use of all legal means to resist the court's ruling against school segregation, the manifesto is said to:

1. Commend states resisting forced integration.
2. Caution other states that their people, too, in time may be victims of "judicial encroachment."
3. Call on southerners not to be provoked by "trouble-makers" and agitators invading our states."
4. Urge southerners to refrain from disorder and lawless acts.

The manifesto was drafted jointly by three-man committees in both houses. The groups were composed solely of southern Democratic leadership. Selected members secretly circulated copies, collecting signatures.

Sponsors hoped for near-unanimous support of legislators from southern states in both the house and senate.

Grazing Land Ruling Asked For Soil Bank

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Two Democratic senators announced today they will try to amend the farm bill to include grazing land in the administration's $1 billion dollar soil bank plan.

Oklahoma Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney and Robert E. Kerr said in a joint statement that they will introduce the amendment when the Senate resumes action on the big farm bill Monday.

Under their proposal, enough grazing land would be set aside as voluntary "conservation reserves" to cut beef production by four million head.

They estimated the government would have to pay out about 75 million dollars to reimburse farmers for taking the lands out of livestock production.

As the farm bill now stands, 25 million acres would be taken out of crop production and put into conservation crops to cut down on the food surplus. But grazing land is not included.

April Date Is Set For Demo's Talk

SPOKANE, March 10 (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, D. Tenn., has been formally scheduled for a talk here on April 27, the chairman of the 11th district Democratic council announced today.

The candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination will address a fund raising dinner, said Vic McMillan, Wenatchee. The price for each plate and other details were still to be worked out, he said.

Kefauver is also slated to talk at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, during his inland Empire visit.

Red Chiefs Asked To English "Pub"

LONDON, March 10 (AP)—Regulars at the Bull and Bush, one of London's oldest pubs, are hoping for a visit from Soviet leaders Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev.

Landlord Bill Horner read in his evening paper that "B. and K." are due here April 18 for an official visit. So he telephoned the Kremlin and told an English-speaking official.

"All of us here would be glad to welcome Mr. Khrushchev and Mr. Bulganin and buy them a pint of English beer."

"Thank you" said the voice in Moscow, "thank you again. But you will understand that it is impossible for us to say now whether they will be able to accept your kind invitation."

Idaho Solon OK's Surplus Food Bid

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Rep. Grace Pflast, D. Idaho, says she is solidly behind an amendment to the social security law which would make surplus foods available to people on the public assistance and unemployment rolls.

Mrs. Pflast said the plan would fix $10 certificates to public assistance payments for the purchase of surplus products. She said the program would give $100,000 each month to Idaho retailers.

The plan, introduced by Sen. Robert E. Kerr, D. Okla., would be the answer to the paradox of surplus products on the one hand and seven million American families on the other hand with incomes so low many of them go to bed hungry," Mrs. Pflast said.

The earliest steamboat was built in France, in 1780 says the Twentieth Century fund.

2 Oil Refineries Eyed for Region

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Rep. Jack Westland, R., Wash., said today two oil companies have received certificates of necessity permitting them to build refineries in the northwest Washington area.

The projects, he said, will cost 47 million dollars.

Westland said the certificates have been processed by the interior department and office of defense mobilization.

The two companies are Straits Refining company of Texas, which would build a 27 million dollar plant and New England Industries which proposes a 20 million dollar plant. Both are seeking sites in the Bellingham-Anacortes area.

Scrutiny Sought On Withdrawals

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Chester A. D. Brownfield of the national advisory board council for grazing yesterday urged closer interior department scrutiny of proposals by the armed services to withdraw additional public lands in the West.

Brownfield told the council it is high time we are getting concerned about the impact these withdrawals are having on the economy of our states.

He said the armed services now have applications pending for withdrawal for their exclusive use of more than 9,365,000 acres of additional land in seven states.

Brownfield, from Deming, N. M., said the applications cover acreages ranging from 393,420 in Nevada down to 29,616 in Idaho.

Pamphlet Hit In Statements By Chairman

WASHINGTON, March 10—O. R. Strackbein, chairman of the National Committee of Industry, Agriculture and Labor on Import-Export Policy, has lashed out at a department of state pamphlet which he calls "grossly misleading."

Strackbein charges the pamphlet, "Introducing . . . Organization for Trade Cooperation," is a misrepresentation of the OTC on the eve of legislation in congress to approve or reject United States membership in the OTC.

Strackbein contends the state department pamphlet conceals a design to take the regulation of foreign commerce out of the hands of congress and lodge it first in the department of state and then in the international trade organization called the OTC.

The state department, Strackbein claims, falls in the pamphlet to point out that the OTC could become a specialized agency of the United Nations if the OTC assembly agreed to take such a step.

The committee chairman opines the state department strongly seeks U.S. membership in the OTC so the department could forget about congress and "the annoyance of congressional elections." Then, according to Strackbein, the state department could act in the trade cooperation organization without having to account to congress.

This, Strackbein contends, the state department has been trying to accomplish for the past ten years.

Show People Want to Oust Noted Animal

KANSAS CITY, March 10—The Missouri mule, a standby of the biggest livestock show in its native state for 87 years, is being kicked out to make room for more show horses.

The American Royal Livestock and Horse Show will drop the mule from competition next fall.

"We had many more requests for stall space for show horses than we could handle," E. M. Dods, president of the Royal, explained. "As a result we decided to eliminate the mule competition from the show and turn the stall space over to the show horses for the show this year." Oct. 20-28.

Works in Army
The Missouri mule — tenacious, hard-working and even considered a thing of beauty by some of its fanciers—owes much of its reputation to the army.

A mule named Verdun was the most widely-known mascot of World War I. He belonged to the 15th U. S. Field artillery which held the lines where the memorable battle of Verdun was fought in 1916.

68,000 Casualties

An estimated 68,000 mules were casualties in World War I. And in World War II the mule was used extensively by both the United States and its allies.

As late as 1951, U. S. infantry commanders in Korea were pleading for Missouri mules. And the army still maintains two mule units — both at Ft. Carson, Colo.

Bingo Is Ruled Illegal in State

BOISE, March 20—Attorney General Graydon Smith said today bingo was illegal in the state of Idaho.

Asked for a ruling by a Pocatello newspaper, Smith referred to a 1954 opinion by then Attorney General Robert E. Smylie listing bingo as a game of chance and therefore illegal.

Smith said he had backed up Smylie's opinion with one of his own last year.

Any Choices?

WASHINGTON, March 10—Sen. Herman Welker, R., Ida., broke into the senate's farm bill debate last night, pointed a finger at Sen. George D. Aiken, R., Vt., and demanded that Aiken consider a Welker plan to store surplus food in the Antarctic.

"I've thought a lot about it. I think it's a good idea," said Aiken, looking past Welker's accusing forefinger. "And I'd like to pick out a delegation to accompany the first shipment."

Ex-Colorado Leader Eyed For Top Job

WASHINGTON, March 10—Former Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado was reported under White House consideration today to replace Secretary of the Interior McKay.

McKay unexpectedly announced yesterday he will leave his cabinet post about June 1 to seek the Oregon senate seat now held by Senator Morse. Morse, elected as a Republican, is seeking reelection as a Democrat.

Idahoan Is Jailed For Aiding Buddy

BUTTE, Mont., March 10—A federal judge sentenced a 25-year-old Caldwell, Ida., man to four years in prison yesterday for "conspiring to aid and assist" in an unsuccessful jail break.

Judge W. D. Murray handed the sentence to Donald E. Cocham. Cocham had pleaded guilty to delivering a revolver, cartridge handgun blades, crowbar and welding torch to Lawrence B. Smith, Nampa, Ida., a prisoner in the Silver Bow county jail.

The gun and equipment were found during a routine inspection.

Smith got a three-year prison sentence yesterday—his 23rd birthday—after he pleaded guilty to taking a stolen car from Oregon to Montana. Police said he took the car after escaping from a Baker, Ore., jail in January.

Vets Counted

WASHINGTON, March 10—New York continues to lead all states with 2,230,000 war veterans as of last Dec. 31.

Veterans administration figures showed today the New York roster was more than 10 per cent of the total of 22,131,000 American veterans. California ranked second with 1,830,000. Nevada had the fewest, only 28,000.

Although the number of U. S. heart disease deaths per 100,000 people declined from 1951 to 1955, the number of deaths from other causes decreased more rapidly so that the proportion of heart disease deaths to total deaths was increased.

Dead Tyrant Foresaw Evil From Soviets

MILAN, Italy, March 10—Dictator Benito Mussolini wrote to Winston Churchill nearly 11 years ago offering "documents" that would help the then British prime minister fight communism, it was reported yesterday.

The letter never reached Churchill, a German officer to whom it was entrusted was imprisoned before he could deliver it.

The Italian magazine "Epoca" published what it said was a photostatic copy of the letter, written on Mussolini's personal stationery.

The German officer, identified as Franz Spogler, said he received the letter April 24, 1945, from the Italian dictator personally. He said he was put in a prison camp at Rimini, before he could deliver it.

In the letter, Mussolini voiced belief that he would be placed on trial by the allies.

"It is useless to remind you what my position is before history," he wrote Churchill. "Perhaps you are the only one today to know that I must not fear its judgment. I do not therefore ask for mercy, but desire justice and the possibility of justifying and defending myself. And even now, a surrender without conditions is impossible because it would crush both victors and vanquished."

"Send me therefore a person of trust. You will be interested in the documents which I can furnish you concerning the necessity of opposing the peril from the East. A great part of the future is in your hands and may God assist you."

Demo Is Eyeing Senatorial Race

LEWISTON, March 10—State Sen. Ralph Litton, D. Fremont, a St. Anthony attorney and farm operator, said today he expects to decide within two weeks whether to seek the Democratic nomination for the U. S. senate.

Litton said he is making a tour of Idaho to sound out political sentiment. He visited the Twin Falls and Boise areas earlier and continued from here to Moscow and the Idaho panhandle.

Litton said his interest in state-wide politics grew out of his conviction that "something will have to be done to preserve the small businessman and the small farmer. The administration's prosperity is only on a big financial level."

Economy Edict Will Curtail Surplus Shipments Abroad

WASHINGTON, March 10—Church leaders said yesterday an unpublicized economy edict by Foreign Aid Chief John B. Hollister has sharply curtailed the "share our surplus" program announced with much fanfare just before Christmas.

Hollister has notified Protestant, Catholic and Jewish relief agencies that the international cooperation administration will provide only three million dollars of the 7.5 million dollars they asked to cover ocean freight on surplus U.S. grains shipped to hungry families abroad.

Hollister said in letters to the relief agencies that it was "not possible to go higher" in view of the "many other demands of an important nature on our available funds."

The Rev. R. Norris Wilson, executive director of church world service, said the effect will be to reduce the planned relief shipments by more than 50 per cent.

He said this meant that about 300,000 tons of surplus American grain, which otherwise might have been used to feed the "chronically hungry" in other lands, will remain piled up in government warehouses.

He said the decision was a "keen disappointment" of the hopes aroused by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson on Dec. 14.

Benson announced then, at a ceremony attended by religious leaders, that the agriculture department would make available to relief agencies all of the surplus grains they could handle for distribution to needy families overseas.

ture 500,000 tons had been shipped, it would have made only a "very small dent" in the government's hoard of about one billion bushels of surplus wheat.

He noted that the agriculture department figures it is costing the government more than one million dollars a day just to keep this wheat in storage.

Meanwhile, all three of the nation's principal religious faiths are joining in an appeal for private contributions to keep the voluntary relief agencies going. The relief agencies must pay, out of their own funds, the costs of distributing the surplus foods once they arrive overseas.

Thousands of Protestant churches will take part this Sunday in "one great hour of sharing," at which their members will be asked to contribute to a united appeal for overseas relief funds.

Catholics on the same day will contribute through the "bishops' fund" of Catholic relief services. Jews will contribute through the United Jewish appeal culminating at the Passover celebration, March 27-April 3.

Spain to Purchase Spuds From U. S.

WASHINGTON, March 10—The department of agriculture said yesterday Spain has agreed to buy $14,000,000 worth of potatoes.

Officials said it is expected purchase authorizations will be issued soon to enable shipment before warm weather. But they emphasized issuance of authorizations will not necessarily assure purchases being made.

They said it would merely assure Spain of financing to the extent that potatoes are available to Spanish buyers at acceptable prices.

The attractive dining room sketched above was planned with working in mind. Wall-to-wall sculptured carpeting was chosen so floor could be cleaned in one operation, and a flowered cotton valance hung around the room for color accents at either end of long wall of storage space. Jerome Man Says Ike's Farm Plan Is 'Sedative for Farmer'

Editor Times-News: This is the 1956 election year and Ike has... repentance and has announced he will run again and is going to do things, things and things for the farmers, and the big boys have put up millions and have hired a public relations and advertising firm to do the work, and have dug up the old deal soil bank plan, and will sell it to the farmers, and think it will win the election.

To help Ike pass the soil bank plan by taking 25 million acres out of crop and livestock production for several years is a promise, so millions will be poured out to farmers before election until they can make a profit again, they think this will do the job.

Once started where will it end? Unfortunately, Eisenhower's farm plan is not a farm program at all. It's just an election gimmick. A sedative to calm the farmers down, it's a palliative is not a cure. It will give the farmers a shot in the arm and certainly he needs it, but will be less than his idle acres.

Then the money bags will open up and the farmer will be happy enough to forget they are living in a Benson dream world.

So while they are cutting out the 25 million acres and adding thousands of more new acres they will kill the goose that lay the golden egg, for agriculture income is the true key to prosperity.

So if our government finds it

Name of Salmon Falls Creek Wrong, Claims Buhl Woman

Editor Times-News: Old Times are not pleased over the changing of Little Salmon river to Salmon Falls creek.

Bancroft's "History of Oregon" states Lieut. J. W. Cullen was ordered to establish Camp Reed on Salmon Falls creek in 1865. That camp was placed at upper Salmon falls, five years after the Otter massacre at Pilgrim gulch, 20 miles above George W. Gohart, in his book, "Trails of Early Idaho," speaks of being here in 1860 and camping on Little Salmon river. It's Little Salmon river all the way from the headwaters in Nevada to its mouth, where it joins the Snake river.

The upper and lower Salmon falls were named when the salmon were seen climbing the falls. Salmon Falls creek was the deep gorge coming into Snake at upper Salmon falls from the south.

During melting snow it runs a good stream sometimes for weeks. In past years it has been a roaring torrent in summer when heavy rains visited this country. Travelers began calling it Salmon Falls creek, as those on the Oregon trail had to cross it.

A large immigrant camp ground was established there, but was dug away when the dam was built at upper Salmon falls.

Incidentally, Camp Reed was moved to Rock creek, then to Mountain Meadows, 18 miles east of Rock creek.

We want Little Salmon river to keep its name.

Look Out for Tots in Street, Urges Letter by T.F. Woman

Editor Times-News: I am not in any way prejudiced because I don't know any of the people involved, but I do think there's something wrong with our police courts when they see fit to fine a person two and one-half times as much for hitting a parked police car than for failing to yield the right-of-way, hitting and hospitalizing a small child. It was in the Times-News March 4.

It could be due to the fact that one was 18 years old while the other was 66. I do know one thing for sure, it never hurt anyone, no matter what age, to stop and wait on a child. If by any chance the police or judges think differently they should read the driver's manual which we, as residents of the state of Idaho, must read before we can get our driver's license.

As a matter of fact I was thoroughly disgusted three or four days ago when myself along with five or six other cars had stopped for a red light at Sixth east and Shoshone street. There was an adult with two small children coming across the street from our left. They were at the center line when the light changed. The driver on my left needed the car's motor, spun its tires and took off with the change of the light. If that parent hadn't been able to have jerked the one child back it could very easily have been an awful sad day at someone's home. How about everyone stopping for a minute or two and thinking of our children?

The Olympia ocean deep water canal would cut out the most dangerous water in the world, where marine insurance is higher than a cat's back, where the Pacific off Vancouver Island has a streak of water known as the zone of silence.

because this area is acoustically dead, no sound can penetrate it, and the ocean floor is covered with wrecks. The world of ideas has its "zone of silence" here too, everything is hushed, and no doubt they will keep right on cutting out good acres and adding new, and piling up more surpluses and paying out millions more for storage, thus holding a club over the farmer and depressing the federal farm program.

Stanley-Sawtooth Elk Starve, Charges Stanley Note Writer

Editor Times-News: Elk in the Stanley-Sawtooth area are beginning to die of starvation. A rain early in the winter put a seal of ice on the ridges that would normally be blown open for their winter feed. The elk have come down to the Salmon river and many creeks to try to live from the willows and brush along the banks. Up to a hundred of these animals can be counted from highway 93 in this vicinity. Already quite a few of them are dead and many are too weak to forage farther for feed. Local groups and individuals have bought and scattered hay for these starving refugees.

On a recent trip to Challis it was noticed that the Idaho game department was out in an airplane counting game. It would seem that by spring their count might not mean much if in the meantime a big percent of the game die. In such a winter it would seem more practical to spend the flying money for feed and the time in getting it to the game so that it will be here to count another time. It makes it hard for us to think of the men in that department being dedicated to conservation.

Welker Asks Details on All Help to Idaho

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Sen. Herman Welker, R., Ida., has asked a fellow Republican senator from the Midwest farm belt "what congress has done for the potato growers of Idaho."

Welker took the floor last night during the debate on the administration's farm bill to challenge a statement by Sen. Karl Mundt, R., E. D. Mundt said, "This bill will have done something for virtually every segment of the farm economy."

At this point the Idaho senator jumped to his feet and asked his colleague to yield.

"Will the senator from South Dakota tell me what congress has done for the potato growers of Idaho, or for the vegetable growers, milk producers, poultry industry, fruit growers and small farmers and stockmen in general in my state?"

Welker said he would like to "hear a little discourse on what has been done for the small farmer instead of so much talk about the big operators."

Welker concluded by saying: "I assure the senator from South Dakota and my colleagues in the senate that my state of Idaho is full of small farmers and livestock growers who I am quite sure are unaware that congress has done anything for them in this farm bill."

Debate continues on the farm bill Monday.

Fossil Fragments May Alter Darwin's Evolution Theories

NEW YORK, March 10 (AP)—Fossil fragments of 12 primitive-type "men" who lived in Italy 10 million years ago strongly challenge the Darwinian theory of man's descent from an ape-like ancestor, a Columbia university scientist said today.

Dr. Helmut de Terra, research associate in Columbia's department of geology, said a recently-intensified study of bone fragments by a Swiss anthropologist indicates that men and apes evolved side-by-side from a remote ancestor that may have had no resemblance to either man or ape.

De Terra announced that he and the anthropologist, Dr. Johannes Hurler of the Basle Museum of Natural History, will search the Tuscan foothills of Italy late this spring for further fossil evidence to clinch their revolutionary new theory of the origin of man. The expedition, which will include Italian scientists, will be financed by the Winner-Green Foundation for Anthropological Research.

Some 26 fossil fragments of jaws and limbs from 12 creatures known as crepitaceous "man" were deposited this week by Hurler with the American Museum of Natural History. The fossils were found as long ago as 1872 in a 10 million-year-old coal bed in the Apennine foothills of Tuscany together with fossil plants and animals of the period.

According to De Terra, the fossils have caused a sensation in scientific circles here for the following reasons:

1. They indicate that a "humanoid" creature inhabited the earth 9.4 million years before the Java and Peking man, which for many years have been considered the earliest human types.

2. They push back the estimated date of the beginning of the separate evolution of man and ape some 20 or 30 million years.

3. They point to a common ancestor of man and ape which probably lived 100 million years ago and looked like neither man nor ape.

The latter point, particularly, threatens to explode Charles Darwin's theory of man's ancestry which has dominated scientific thinking since 1859. De Terra said, Darwin believed both men and apes descended from an "ape-man" creature which had the characteristics of both species.

A demonstration of the best known methods of hair and scalp treatments to be given to the citizens of our city.

WHAT IS YOUR REASON FOR BALDNESS?

ALL MERRILL CLIENTS IN THE VICINITY OF TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, ARE INVITED TO APPEAR AT ROGERSON HOTEL, ON MONDAY ONLY, MARCH 12, 12 NOON UNTIL 9 P. M. THESE PRIVATE INDIVIDUAL REEXAMINATIONS ARE FREE OF CHARGE AND ARE A PART OF THE ESTABLISHED SERVICE TO OUR CLIENTS.

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Feb. 10—In an interview here today, R. Blaine Dixon, international hair and scalp consultant and Director of Merrill Hair & Scalp Consultants, said: "There are many different scalp conditions that may cause men and women to lose their hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so called cure-all can correct all these different conditions," he explained.

READ WHAT A FEW OF THE MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN HAIR AND SCALP ASSOCIATIONS' MANY SATISFIED CLIENTS HAVE SAID ABOUT THEIR HOME TREATMENT IN THEIR UNSOLICITED REPORTS; THERE ARE MANY MORE IN OUR FILES:

"My hair has grown very much, you can see new hair all over my scalp. The new hair looks lively and much better. I am well pleased with my hair. It looks so much better and much thicker and I thank you so much."

C. Burkett, Dothan, Alabama
"I have been told that you can not grow hair on a bald scalp. Merrill is doing it! The treatment should go on the records as the greatest discovery of all times."

Ernest Johnson, 567 Lynn Street, Potosi, Ohio

"Since beginning my treatment my hair is softer, more manageable, and it is not breaking or coming out nearly so much. I notice a general appearance of new hair all over my scalp. I am very pleased with the treatment."

B. P. Brown, Alva, Oklahoma
Guaranteed

Not everyone can be helped by the Merrill Home Treatment. Only those we think we can help are accepted for treatment. Those who are accepted for Merrill Home Treatment are given this guarantee. "If you are not completely satisfied at the end of thirty days, your money will be returned." This is only because most people are skeptical of claims that hair can grow on balding heads. Usually when a person avails himself of the Merrill treatment, his skepticism disappears.

Free Examination
In addition to reexamining present clients, the Merrill method of home treatment will be demonstrated to others who are interested. The examination is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. The Consultant makes no charge for this examination and no appointment is necessary. After examining the person, he is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost. Regular reports are made to the Merrill firm in Oklahoma City to check the progress of the home treatment.

HOW'S YOUR HAIR?
IF IT WORRIES YOU, CALL OUR CONSULTANT, H. H. SWINEHEART AT THE ROGERSON IN TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, ON MONDAY ONLY, MARCH 12, 12 NOON UNTIL 9:00 P. M. THE PUBLIC IS INVITED. THE EXAMINATIONS ARE PRIVATE AND OPEN TO MEN AND WOMEN. YOU DO NOT NEED AN APPOINTMENT AND YOU WILL NOT BE EMBARRASSED OR OBLIGATED IN ANY WAY.

Hasty

FT WORTH, Tex., March 10—Joe Trunson Allen's wife testified at their divorce trial yesterday that the 33-year-old packing house worker did not wait for court action to divide their community property.

Mrs. Allen said her husband took their chairs and a sofa apart and put the pieces in two equal piles. When he came to the dining room table he sawed it in half, she said.

Liquor Salesman Has Costly Urge

NEW YORK, March 10—A 60-year-old liquor store clerk decided to "treat people good" yesterday and it cost his boss an estimated $1,000.

The clerk, John Closhesey, said he "got a message from God to treat people good" and decided on the way to distribute goodness when the first customer arrived after he opened the store.

He told the customer "to pay what he wants or pay nothing. That was how I treated people good."

It wasn't very long before the word got around and the store was crowded with voluntary recipients of Closhesey's good. By the time police noticed the crowd and investigated, the shelves were all but stripped of about $1,000 worth of whisky.

The cash register contained $17.46.

French Offer Apologies for Mob Actions

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—France apologized to the United States today for the "unpardonable acts" of a French mob in wrecking U.S. property in Tunis.

The state department said the formal apology was made in Paris to U.S. Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon by French Secretary of State Alain Savary.

French Embassy Minister Charles Lucet called at the state department here to inform Deputy Assistant Secretary of State C. Burke Elbrick of the apology.

Elbrick last night had summoned Lucet to the department to ask for an explanation of the incident which resulted in wrecking the U.S. consulate general and the U.S. information service offices in Tunis.

France also offered to pay for all repairs to the U.S. government offices and to investigate actions of police who had been reported standing by while the mob took over.

Idaho Potato Band Names Top Officers

POCATELLO, March 10 (AP)—Members of the Idaho Potato Producers association yesterday renamed their top officers and adopted a resolution aimed at easing restrictions on sugar beet acreages.

One of the resolutions noted that potato producers "feel that restrictions on sugar beet acreage directly affects the acreage planted to potatoes."

The association went on record as opposing importation of "offshore sugar" until after the American farmer is permitted to plant sugar acreage necessary to meet domestic consumption.

The association called also for a poll of grower sentiment on marketing agreements and use of cull potatoes for processing for human consumption.

Leland Moore, Roberts, was re-elected president; Robert Colner, Twin Falls, was named vice president and M. O. Stratford, Idaho Falls, secretary-treasurer.

Farmers Oppose Auto Sales Laws

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The American Farm Bureau federation today opposed any anti-trust law changes that would restrict auto sales by distributors on the basis of buyer classifications or dealer territory boundaries.

Matt Trigg, assistant legislative director of the federation, presented a statement to a senate commerce subcommittee which is holding hearings on automobile marketing.

Trigg said farmers have a major interest in any legislation relating to automobile distribution because they are heavy purchasers of automotive equipment.

"We do not see any reason why the consumer should be prevented, by economic penalty, from purchasing his needs from any dealer with whom he desires to do business," Trigg said.

Supplies Taken to Stranded Group

CRESCENT CITY, Calif., March 10 (AP)—A snowcut loaded with 200 pounds of food reached a mine last night where six persons had been stranded since Feb. 13. A radio report from the tracked vehicle said they were all well.

E. H. Pyles, district manager here for the California-Oregon Power company, said Jim Smith of his firm had headed a rescue party of four that reached the mine after a 10-hour trip from Medford, Ore., over snow-blocked roads.

The six persons were isolated at Azalea Mine No. 1 in California's Del Norte county, six miles north of Gasquet.

Chicken on Menu Raises Top Beef in Cattle Raising Region

LINCOLN, Neb., March 10 (AP)—It was the lack of beef that made the president of the Nebraska Beef Council beef.

Lincoln, Neb., Thedford, sizzled today because Vice President Richard Nixon is going to be served chicken at the Republican party Founders day dinner here March 19.

It is the climax of the annual GOP party "pep" celebration.

Nebraska's license plates this year carry the slogan "the beef state" as a result of the heat the Beef Council put under the legislature in their campaign to boost the state's reputation as a prime cattle area.

To Paxton, the idea of no prime steaks at a top grade banquet is a slur to that slogan.

So when he got a look at the GOP menu and saw chicken as the main course he felt seared.

He fired a letter to State GOP Treasurer Joseph Wishart: "Nebraska the beef state being honored by a visit of the vice president of the United States, so what do you feed him? Chicken!"

"I shall await your apologies for serving anything but choice Nebraska beef."

Wishart replied in a treasurer's manner. He wrote: "No apologies. A beef dinner would cost $6 instead of $3. Last year's Founders day established that the Sand Hills (center of the cattle country) boys wouldn't pay five bucks for a beef dinner!"

Wishart referred to the fact that at the 1955 banquet steak was on the menu and the $5 per ticket for the beefsteaks brought bull-like roars from cattlemen party members who thought the price too high and stayed away from the festive board.

Leader Slate Is Chosen by Unit of PTA

BURLEY, March 10—Ray Graham was elected president of the South-west elementary school PTA Thursday night in the school auditorium. Also elected were Mrs. Howard Anderson, vice president; Mrs. Glen Peterson, secretary; and Mrs. Ralph Gunn, treasurer.

Mrs. Don Chisholm, program chairman, introduced Jay Schofield who spoke on financial management at the home. He pointed out that the most important way for learning money management is experience. The third essential is information, and the fourth concerns temperament.

Community singing was led by Mrs. Jess Taylor, accompanied by Mrs. John Rye. The PTA prayer was read by Paul Darrell. Mrs. Oel Parson gave a reading on the PTA magazine.

Mrs. Tom Church, project chairman, reported that $306.63 was raised at the PTA carnival Feb. 17 at the national guard armory. Mrs. William Harpster announced that a film will be shown at the new high school auditorium April 21 as a county PTA council fund-raising project.

Anniversary for National Credit Unit Is Marked

The Associated Credit Bureaus of America, Inc. is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year, reports Mrs. Louise Hughes, manager of the Twin Falls Credit Bureau.

The local bureau has been a member of this organization since it began operation here 31 years ago.

"Through membership, credit grantors in Twin Falls are able to secure credit reports from almost any community in North America," she said.

"Last year," Mrs. Hughes reported, "545 new people moved in our community. Each newcomer, who had established credit in his old community, was offered charge privileges immediately in Twin Falls," she continued. "This was possible because the bureau had a credit report forwarded from the credit bureau where the newcomer formerly lived."

"This anniversary is only a stepping stone to future years of service to aid credit grantors in making profitable credit sales, and to help consumers enjoy the good things of life on credit."

Phones Reach 80th Birthday; Millions Used

NEW YORK, March 10 (AP)—More than 85 million telephones are in use today throughout the world.

Just 80 years ago there was only one, and the two men tinkering with it in the attic of a house in Boston were not sure it would work.

But on March 10, 1876, it did. Alexander Graham Bell spoke seven words into his end of the contraption: "Mr. Watson, come here. I want you!"

Runs Down Hall

Thomas A. Watson, in another room, ran down the hall shouting "Mr. Bell, I heard every word you said—distinctly!"

Thus a new industry was born, and a new era in the long struggle for more perfect communication. The world's telephone companies today were observing the birthday.

Cleo F. Craig, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, noted that the giant Bell system added 2.9 million phones to its lines last year and spent 1.8 billion dollars for expansion.

Millions Served

Bell now services 46.2 million telephones, or 82 per cent of the 52.8 million in use in the United States. There are about 4,900 other private telephone companies in this country. In Europe most telephone systems are operated by the government.

While the telephone industry now does more than five billion dollars a year in business in America, it was not regarded as a sure-fire bet when Bell first offered it to the world 80 years ago.

The Western Union Telegraph company refused in 1877 to buy of Bell's basic telephone patents for $100,000, a sum it denounced as "exorbitant."

SHOSHONE, March 10—The Shoshone school board will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the high school building for the regular March meeting.

GMC brings you the most impressive improvements of all 1956 trucks

Now we can show you these great new GMC's that are further than ever ahead of all others. Their advances not only clinch power supremacy—but reach into fields still unexplored by other truck-makers.

For example, GMC's Road Shock Damper Suspension*—plus a unique new stabilizer—produces in half-ton models a ride comparable to the finest passenger car.

An optional new fast-ratio cruising axle in light-duty GMC's gives you an overdrive's pace and economy without its cost.

Sharply increased engine displacement in both sixes and V8's gives you a power family unsurpassed in the light-duty field. Specifically, we offer 14.4% GREATER displacement on 6-cylinder models, 16.2% on V8's than our nearest competitors. And GMC V8's, mind you, match the shortest stroke ratios in the truck industry.

Styling is well into the future—panoramic windshield to sand-tight tail gate. Tubeless tires, of course. And a 12-volt electrical system is standard. These are some of the strides presented in new 1956 Blue Chip trucks we now have on view. The values are even more notable. Come in and get the facts!

*Standard on Suburban; optional at slight extra cost on other 1/2-ton models

Your Housecleaning Not Necessarily Tough Chore

By PATRICIA MATTHEWS

Although there are many jokes about the spring cleaning disease that hits all homes every year, it really does not have to be any back-breaking experience for anyone.

Rooms may be cleaned systematically without discomfort to anyone. Even the woman doing the cleaning does not have to tire herself out to the point of wondering if there is some nice quiet desert island to retire to.

The kitchen is practically the hardest room to clean thoroughly but even here the work can be done gradually. Dishes may be removed one shelf at a time and shelves washed before returning the contents.

Even canned goods should be washed off. This is also the time to rearrange any of the items in the kitchen that have not been within easy reach. A week spent in the kitchen is not wasted when you consider all the hot summer days when you will not want to spend any more time than absolutely necessary in it.

Take as many days as you need for each room and break the long, hard jobs into small, easy ones. Don't try to do one room a day or at the end of a week you'll feel like you are one of the living dead.

If you are planning to wash all the front room furniture, do it one piece at a time. It's better if you can move the separate pieces into the garage as the material will stretch if anyone sits on it before it is completely dry.

Even the rug may be washed but do it one section at a time. Draperies and curtains, if not washable, should be sent to the cleaners. Divide them up so that the cleaning bills don't hit the house all at one time.

An added lift to your spirits could be a different set of curtains for the kitchen or bedroom. Even a package of dye can change the color scheme in rooms with curtains, spreads or pillow covers.

Windows are the most exasperating so far as women go; mainly because of the height, not the work involved. They should be done room by room the same as the regular cleaning. If the windows are too high and completely out of reach even with a step ladder, the men usually will condescend to help with this project.

One closet can be set aside to take the winter clothes that do not fit in the suitcases in the garage. Coats and dresses that must be dry-cleaned should be hung carefully in a closet where they are not going to get mixed up with the summer apparel. There is no need to have anything not used in the summer hanging in closets and taking up space that could be used for something necessary to comfortable summer living.

If you don't want moths, never put anything away uncleaned whether it's a coat or a blouse. Moths are not particular when it comes to their diet.

Even the toy box can stand a spring cleaning. Children don't play indoors in the summer and therefore toys that are put away until winter are a new treat for the long winter months ahead. It's a good chance that the children will not remember the toys and as the winter progresses, it's nice to have something new each day to occupy them.

You'll be thrilled to see your house sparkling and shiny. Think of all the added time you'll have to work in the yard or sit in the patio while your neighbors slave in the heat and wonder why they didn't follow your example this spring.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Bubbs was visiting his grandfather, who lived in the country. Grandpa asked for some birch wood to heat up the oven for the pie, and Grandpa and Bubbs went to get it. There was a fence and a gate to separate the sheds from the garden.

When Grandpa, his arms full of wood, reached the gate, he stopped and looked expectantly at Bubbs. Bubbs looked at him but made no move. "Open the gate for Grandpa," said Grandpa, with a slight impatience in his tone.

"No, I won't open the gate for Grandpa," said the small one. "Incredulous, Grandpa said, 'You won't open the gate for Grandpa?'"

"No, I won't open the gate for Grandpa."

With no more words Grandpa laid the bundles of wood on the ground, picked up his small grandson, turned him upside down and set three smart slaps on the place intended for them.

"Now, will you open the gate for Grandpa?"

"Yes, Grandpa, I'll open the gate," and he did.

That night Bubbs came to kiss Grandpa goodnight and when he did so, Grandpa said, "Next time you see something in trouble at a gate what will you do?"

Bubbs chuckled and said, "I'll open the gate, Grandpa."

"Then you'll be a good boy," said Grandpa fondly.

One morning, years afterward, a letter from a far land reached Grandpa. It bore the name of his grandson, now a young officer in

Organization Marks 46th Anniversary

Three Camp Fire Girls prepare to rehearse their parts in the candle-lighting ceremony which will be a part of the observance of Camp Fire Girls week Friday at the junior high school gymnasium. Taking part in

Camp Fire Girls Observe 46th Birthday This Week

Camp Fire girls are celebrating their 46th birthday anniversary this week in the United States. The organization was founded by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick and a group of leading educators on March 17, 1910.

The national project for the girls this year is "Plant Seeds... Reap Friendship." They are sending seeds overseas for far eastern families. Raising vegetables in the Far East is not a hobby, it's a sheer necessity.

Girls in Magic Valley will mark the week by going to church Sunday in uniform and with a grand council fire Friday in the junior high school gymnasium.

More than 4,000,000 women in the United States are alumnae of Camp Fire Girls, Inc. Girls from 7 to 10 years of age are called Blue Birds and from this rank move up to Camp Fire Girls. The girls are trained in crafts such as home, creative arts, outdoors, frontiers of science, business, sports, games and citizenship. Their watchword is "Wohelo" which is made up of the first two letters of the words, work, health and love.

All girls of the torch bearer rank will take part in the ceremony Friday at the junior high school. The torch bearer rank is the fourth or advanced rank of the Camp Fire program. In order to earn the torch bearer rank, a girl is required to explore thoroughly new ideas which may lead to future hobbies or even a future career.

After a girl has earned two torch bearer crafts, she may earn the rank of all torch bearer in social leadership which is being presented this year to Carol Murphy at the grand council fire.

Carol Lindemer and Frances Peavey are becoming torch bearer craftsmen in camp craft. Sandra Hatzfeld has completed her work in games and sports. These three girls are members of the Canotawaki Camp Fire group which is sponsored by the Union Pacific Boosters club. Mrs. Thomas Peavey is guard-lan.

Valuation for Shoshone Set For $608,817

SHOSHONE, March 10—Assessed valuation of the city of Shoshone for 1956 tax levies will be $608,817, it was reported at the city council meeting this week.

The impending injunction the city has brought against American Falls reservoir district No. 2 on maintenance and operation charges was discussed.

Jack M. Murphy, city attorney, said the injunction is about ready for filing in the district court. If it holds, the city may get a refund on its 1956 charges. Others who have paid under protest, also may receive refunds. Purpose of the injunction is to force the irrigation district to levy maintenance and operational levies proportionately against the city lots and acres of land.

This year's levy on city lots was raised from 10 to 45 cents a lot. Jurisdiction of Little Wood river within city limits also was discussed. Logs and jams in the river may be a threat this spring if high water conditions occur as in past years of heavy runoff from the mountains, councilmen noted. The irrigation companies assume management of the river for carrying of irrigation water but responsibility for clearing the channel is not assumed by the companies.

en Refugees Will Settle in State Regions

WASHINGTON, March 10 (Special)—Idaho will soon welcome four Russian and six Rumanian refugees to permanent Gem state residents. The announcement was made by the refugee relief program of the department of state.

The Russians are: Karl Rabe, 47, and his wife, Elfride, 33, and their 9-year-old daughter Emmett; Stanislaus Ilin, 21, a general farmer, who is going to Nampa; and the Rumanians are: George and Anna Hartig, 43 and 41 respectively, with their four children, destined for Meridian. He is a farmer. All ten arrived today in New York among 125 European refugees and for 35 different states.

The refugee relief program is administered by the state department under the refugee relief act of 1953. Under the act each refugee must have an American sponsor who will provide employment without displacing any American from his or her job.

Church and social welfare organizations pay a part of the refugee's expenses, as well as finding American sponsors for them.

The Lutheran Refugee service and the Church world service handled the ten new Idahoans.

Lure of Gambling Doesn't Change

Today both men and women gamble in Elko, most of them using the slot machines in preference to other games of chance. This picture was taken in a hotel lobby early this year. The machines today are located in just about every available place in the city. Other forms of gambling continue to get a big play, though, in spite of the increased popularity of slot machines. (Staff engraving)

Magic Valley Tours Gambling May Be Way of Life in Elko But City Has Many Other Attractions

Lunch in Elko, Nev., is an experience. It's like trying to eat next door to a boiler factory. The clink, clank, toot and whistle doesn't start with soup and end with dessert. Though, it goes on relentlessly 24 hours a day.

Only it's not boilers they're making next door. The noise you hear is made by men and women participating in Nevada's favorite sport—Indian wrestling with slot machines.

Elko is only 164 miles from Twin Falls and is a round trip made frequently by many Magic Valley residents in a day. Drive south along highway 93 to Wells, Nev. 174 miles from Twin Falls, and then turn west on highway 40 for 50 more miles. There is Elko, county seat of Elko county, a community of 7,000 persons.

Elko was founded in 1868 as a construction camp for the Central Pacific railroad. It soon became a key freighting point for cattle and ore and remains that today. But it is better known for its gambling and Magic Valley weddings.

The city is located in a valley surrounded by mountains, the most picturesque of which are the Rubies, snowcapped in summer and a mass of snow and ice in the winter. Located on the main line of two railroads, the city is the terminal for ore. It has daily air mail passenger and freight service and is served by two transport buses and four truck freight lines. There are two grammar schools in Elko, one high school, a hospital and nine churches.

Elko, too, plays the gracious host to thousands of tourists every year. Its hotels, motels and restaurants are often packed from April through December and reservations usually are needed for overnight lodging. Restaurants specialize in Basque, Italian, Chinese and American foods.

Don't be surprised at the preponderance of gambling devices. Slot machines are located in just about any place where they will be convenient. On Mother's day last year, many women, most of them wearing corsages, played the slot machines in hotel lobbies after church while awaiting space for Sunday dinner in the dining rooms.

The tax paid on slot machines each year is large. The federal government collects $250, Elko county $120, Elko $30 and the state takes three per cent of the gross proceeds. There are 185 slot machines in the three major hotels and the price per play ranges from five cents to $1. Ten smaller business houses in the city have from one to 20 slot machines each.

But slots are not the only form of gambling in Elko. There are numerous gaming rooms in which race horse keno, roulette, black jack and craps are played. Mixed groups are at ease in the gaming rooms since the clubs employ women as change girls and cashiers. There also are a few women dealers.

From July 1, 1954, to June 30, 1955, when the state's share was only two per cent of the gross take on gambling, Nevada collected $3,341,651.28 in gambling taxes compared to $3,124,163.14 in general property taxes. This year the revenue is expected to be greater since the tax has been upped to three per cent.

Bars, cafes, clubs and gaming rooms never close in Elko. Three eight-hour shifts for employees keep them in operation on a 24-hour

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

A native daughter of WENDELL is making a name for herself on the marquee of the entertainment world. Sherry Jackson was born in Wendell in February, 1942, but Wendell didn't get much of a chance to become acquainted with her. She was taken to Hollywood the following year by her mother, the former Katherine Gilbert, who was active in the Kansas City Civic theater.

The 14-year-old is already a veteran in the entertainment field. For eight years she has been in movies and on the radio and in television. At the age of 6 she made her debut in Hollywood after she had been "discovered" by an ex-actor who was driving a sight-seeing bus. He saw her sipping a soda with her mother at a drive-in and sent her to an agent specializing in child actors. As a result, the pert 6-year-old debuted in "You're My Everything." Since then she has been in more than 30 movies and for the last three years has been a fixture in the award winning television show, "Make Room for Daddy."

Working on an award show is not surprising for Sherry. In 1953 she won three awards, including being named the most talented juvenile star of 1953. And even before her appearance on "Make Room for Daddy," she had appeared on Toast of the Town, Fireside Theater and other television shows.

While Sherry apparently has a bright future in acting, she has another career she can fall back upon if she wishes. Her dancing teacher predicts she has all the makings of a prima ballerina, too.

JEROME Odd Fellows celebrated the 47th anniversary of the founding of the Jerome IOOF lodge last week with a sense of a job well done. The actual date of the founding of the lodge was Feb. 27 but the event was not observed until March 1.

In preparation for the occasion, members of the lodge did two things on Feb. 28. They painted the hall and polished off a feed provided by the Rebekah Thimble club. W. H. Clair, secretary of the lodge, reports the "painters" did their share at the latter event.

The Jerome lodge, No. 129, was instituted in the E. E. Levitt building now the Elwin motel. Fifty-three members of the lodge were present for the ceremony. Nine of them were members of other lodges but became charter members of the Jerome lodge. Fifty-seven members attended the anniversary meeting on March 1 and letters were read from 15 former members now living elsewhere.

Land recently sold to J. R. Simplot company in Mindoko county for "approximately one million dollars" was only sagebrush covered desert a few years ago.

Back in 1948 the late Julian Clawson, Salt Lake City businessman, arrived in RUPERT to dry farm 20,000 acres of land. The dry farming wasn't much of a success but Clawson became convinced that beneath the land was a large body of water and that dry land could be irrigated by deep wells.

One of the things that led him to believe there was a vast water supply beneath the land was the fact none of the nine domestic wells on his land showed any signs of "drying down" no matter how much they were used.

The story around Rupert today is that Clawson drilled his first deep well on a "hunch and a prayer."

Two years later he was pumping 20,000 gallons a minute from a number of wells and was growing fabulous crops on land that once was considered only good enough for sagebrush.

A few years later Larry Duffin, Bill Moller and Russell Wilson followed Clawson into the desert and repeated what the pioneer had done. In 1949 Wilson was electrocuted on the land and his place was taken by his father, Fred Wilson.

Then, in 1950, the B. A. Camp farms were established in the same general area, followed by the Keo Land company of Bakersfield, Calif., in 1951, and then John Kerbs in 1953.

Clawson and his family have sold out much of the original Clawson holdings but some still is being handled by the family.

Last week Simplot purchased 5,200 acres from the Keo Land company and then this week Kerbs announced the sale of another 560 acres to the Simplot company.

Plans for the land have not been announced by the firm but gradually the dream Clawson had while dry farming the land seems to be becoming an actuality.

Telepathy Demonstration Set At Town Hall's Show Monday

Tom and Betty Tucker, two young mentalists well known for their telepathy powers, will entertain members of the Magic Valley Town Hall association at their meeting 8:15 p.m. Monday in the Piler high school auditorium.

Betty can name objects without seeing them, calling people by name plus being able to tell them what they are thinking about.

The couple has been in demand for repeat engagements in most of the cities they have performed.

One interesting stunt they did was drive through a busy city blindfolded. With no guidance at all, Tom stopped for red lights, turned all corners properly and even stopped for a pedestrian, who stepped in the path of the automobile.

Their theme for the night will be "Sh, don't think too loudly."

Chairman Named

WENDELL, March 10—Jerry R. Williams has been appointed chairman of the 1956 Red Cross fund drive for Wendell and surrounding areas. Leland Burreas, Gooding, is county chairman and C.W. Walker, Gooding, is county finance chairman.

Williams reports the quota for the Wendell area is $600. Mrs. Glen Parsons have been appointed in charge of the drive in east Wendell; Mrs. M. R. Lancaster, west Wendell, and Melvin Gibson, Orchard Valley.

Commissioners to Set Election Date

SHOSHONE, March 10—Lincoln county commissioners will meet at 10 a.m. Monday at the courthouse in regular session to set an election date for Kimama highway district No. 6 of Lincoln county.

At the February meeting the commissioners approved such an election upon receipt of a petition signed by 19 land owners in the district. Three commissioners will be elected and the district will work toward road improvements in that part of the county. The district was formed many years ago but has not been active for the last several years.

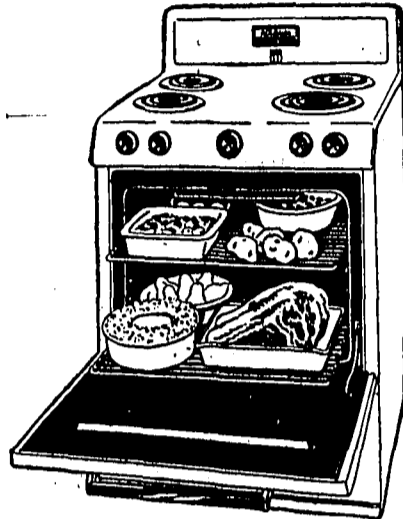

Speaker to Give Plans for Roads

KIMBERLY, March 10—C. Bryce Bennett, assistant state highway engineer, will present long range plans for U. S. highway 30 and other roads affecting Kimberly and Magic Valley at the Kimberly Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Monday noon at the American Legion hall.

A graduate of the University of Idaho and a World War II veteran, Bennett began work as junior construction engineer for the Pan American air lines.

After serving as engineering professor at the University of Washington and the University of Idaho, he accepted his current position last September.

Local Woman Gives Talk to PTA Council

BURLEY, March 10—The Cassia county PTA council met Wednesday night at the Albion high school. Dinner was served at 7 p.m. by the Albion PTA. Mrs. Arthur Schiewe, president of Albion PTA, introduced Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes, Twin Falls, guests of honor.

Mrs. Hayes, former national PTA president, spoke on PTA work. She pointed out the progress in education in the school buildings, playgrounds, and the hot lunch program as some of the accomplishments of the organization.

Mrs. Willard Harpster announced that the money making project for the council this year is the showing of a film "The American Nile," at the high school on April 21. This film shows a trip down the Colorado river with Georgia White and her Colorado River Rais. It is a feature length color film and will be narrated by Walter Blaylock, Twin Falls.

James Almsworth reported the clothing exchange plan has been accepted by a majority of the PTA groups and recommended that the council work out details in order to have the plan in operation by the time school starts in the fall.

New officers were installed by April Joyce, state rural service chairman. Mrs. Wilson Holt was installed as president, Mrs. Melvin Bailey, first vice president, Mrs. Lorraine Gorringer, second vice president, Mrs. Sam Ogawa, secretary, and Mrs. William Nix, treasurer. A past president's pin was presented to Mrs. Harpster by Joyce.

Mrs. Hayes reported for Mrs. Kenneth Whitesides, district president, that a special bus will be chartered to take delegates from the district to the state convention at Coeur d'Alene.

A workshop for new officers is being planned for this spring. The last regular meeting for the council for this year will be held May 2 at Malta.

Divorce Asked

Marion Barrington charges cruel and inhuman treatment in a divorce action filed Friday in Twin Falls district court against Donald H. Barrington.

Mrs. Barrington asks custody of their two children. The complaint says they were married April 6, 1947, in Twin Falls. It lists no community property. H. N. Jewell is attorney for Mrs. Barrington.

Group Elected

Magic Valley Hobbies No. 11 Woman in T.F. "Uses Her Head" in Matter of Hats; She Makes Her Own

Most women like the idea of buying a hat to enliven their spirits whenever adversity sets in, but Mrs. William Grange, Twin Falls, pockets the money and still wears a new topper.

Here's her formula. Take an old felt hat, steam it until moist, model it into the style desired, trim off the excess and let dry. In one day the derby has been recreated into a new original at no extra cost and Mrs. Grange has added a new piece to her hobby.

Mrs. Grange, a former New Zealander, has been in the clothing business for several years. She owned a dress shop before coming to this country in 1940. She carries her hat economy a bit farther by designing and making her own clothes.

She began renovating hats by sewing but found this unsatisfactory because the projects lack a "casual"

Mrs. William Grange, Twin Falls, maintains a person should have three hobbies to keep up his interest. Currently she makes her own hats, grows African violets and does wood carving. She poses here with one of her recent headaddress creations. (Staff photo-engraving)

Bazaar Slated

The fifth annual hobby bazaar in Twin Falls will be held at the Church of the Ascension, Episcopal, on March 23 and 24, reports Mrs. Charles Beymer, director.

Featured at the show this year will be Dr. Manley Shaw, Boise, and his ceramic and gem cutting display, Mrs. Beymer said.

air. She dropped the idea for a while until a hat refashioning class was offered at the YWCA in Salt Lake City.

There she learned the "key" to success in hat remodeling was either steam or soaking the hat and remodeling while wet. Any type of light felt headpiece will serve, she confides. After being saturated with moisture, the felt becomes pliable and can be modeled into any desired design. When the excess is trimmed off, the brim is wired. After drying she is ready to face the world with a new hat.

Recently she was forced to buy two more hats, but these went through a hand inspection and were never modeled in front of a mirror. The quality of the felt was the only important factor.

She says the need for new toppers is apparent. Some felt is trimmed off every time a new creation is born and after a while material becomes scarce.

While this seems to occupy some of Mrs. Grange's time, woodcarving, raising dogs and African violets help pass the dismal day. She claims "every person should have at least three hobbies."

Mrs. Grange also believes hobbies should be defined as "something to help a person get away from the world for awhile." She believes hobbies, as other things, have a saturation point and should be discarded when they demand time which should be devoted to important things.

The daughter of a carpenter, she was brought up around wood and learned early "good" and "bad" wood and also which was best suited for what. If this wasn't a reason enough for taking up woodcarving, she says, her mother was exceptional in that field. One of her mother's products, a beautifully designed chair, has a prominent position in the Grange front room.

Mrs. Grange followed this hobby, specializing in carving human figures, until she had exhausted her knowledge of anatomy. She keeps her chisels shined, though, and promises to continue the hobby as soon as she can complete a course in anatomy.

A more recent hobby is collection of African violets. She propagates the plants and brings them into her home as they bloom.

Mrs. Grange had one hobby that backfired on her. Shortly after being released from the hospital two years ago, she and her husband decided to breed dogs and chose penguins as the breed.

After obtaining the dogs, they insistently wormed their way into her affection. When one of the females had a litter of pups, the dog got along fine but Mrs. Grange lost seven pounds.

The dogs now maintain a life of ease, the prospects of future motherhood far in the background.

FARMERS TO MEET
SHOSHONE, March 10 — The Farm Bureau will meet at 8:30 p. m. Monday at the IOOF hall.

Construction Is up in T.F.

Although construction is 39.8 per cent below last February in the eight major cities of Idaho, Twin Falls has shown a 94.6 per cent increase, according to figures released by the statistical department of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company.

Only 207 permits were issued in the eight cities, representing an estimated cost of $737,525.

In Twin Falls, 18 building permits listed a value of $99,750. Of that total, dwellings accounted for $34,000; nonresidential was $52,000, and alterations and repairs were valued at $13,750.

Coupled with January's permits, Twin Falls is 85.1 per cent ahead of last year's schedule. Total construction here has been estimated at $167,850.

NAMED FOR DISCUSSIONS
IDAHO STATE COLLEGE, Pocatello, March 10 — Elaine Brown, Gooding; Irene Scott, Burley; Melba Whittle, Twin Falls, and Marky Olsen, Kimberly, will take part in roundtable discussions on high school newspapers and year-books here March 23.

Science Finds New Substance That Destroys Health Guard

NEW YORK, March 10 (AP) — Scientists have extracted from the intricate chemistry of the mouse a startling fact. One part of its chemistry can manufacture a substance which prevents another part from manufacturing anti-bodies.

A weird chemical contradiction, this one part of the chemistry being devoted to preserving the mouse in health and life, while another part lays in ambush (so to speak) prepared to stymie that part and send the mouse into decline and death.

That is a discovery in what is called "basic" science which never goes beyond the fact in hand until it has another fact to add to it. But the basic science presumes that what nature set up in mice, she also set up in men. It takes little imagination to visualize to what this new and startling fact could lend.

However, first listen to what happened at the Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial laboratory in Bar Harbor, Me. Dr. George D. Snell and his associates had been uniformly unsuccessful in transplanting cancerous tissue into a particular strain of mice.

The mice were "resistant" — that is the transplant sent their anti-body manufacturing chemistry into frozen production and the antibodies destroyed the transplants in the blood and tissue of the mice. They finally found a hitherto unidentified substance.

By putting this substance back into mice and so "enhancing" their renewed supplies of it, the scientists put an end to their immunity. Antibodies no longer came rushing from the lymphatic system to defend the

Heard About "BEST BARGAIN" Electricity?

Your automatic electric water heater entitles you to 700 BEST BARGAIN kilowatt-hours at only 9/10 of a cent each (after you have used your first 200 KWH). Since the water heater ordinarily uses only a portion of this BEST BARGAIN electricity, the balance can be used for other electrical conveniences. For example: With average family use, if you have BEST BARGAIN electricity to spare you can operate an electric dryer for only 54c a month.

earsay Says Porcupine Is Tasty Eating

AN FRANCISCO, March 10 (AP)—A forester has claimed porcupine can be prepared in a variety of highly palatable dishes, but he admitted he had not tried any himself. L. Kolbe, chief forester of the Western Pine association, discussed desirability of adding porcupines to the family diet in a talk at the association's 25th annual meeting. He said the association instituted a desperate search for porcupine tips last year.

Growth Noted
"We had to do something," Kolbe said. "The porcupine population has seriously grown way out of balance. Porcupines cause millions of dollars worth of damage every year feeding on young trees. This could affect the economic life of entire communities. The situation is so serious that the association is sponsoring special schools to teach how to protect growing timber from the animals."

Fraternity Answers
"Now we realize there is a proud fraternity of outdoor-loving people who have developed what seem to be the excellent methods for cooking the porcupine," he said. "Most of them find as though they would taste pretty good."
Kolbe said most persons recommended using heavy leather gloves when cleaning and skinning the animal. Then for a few minutes in a salt water solution. After that, it can be cooked or fried much the same as rabbit or chicken both of which it resembles in flavor. Kolbe said he has yet to try any of the recipes himself.

Taken to Jail

SHOSHONE, March 10 — Robert Shuler was taken to the state penitentiary Wednesday by Sheriff Thomas Conner to begin a five-year jail sentence for violation of parole. Shuler was sentenced Monday by District Judge D. H. Sutphen after having been arrested in the Boise area. Prosecuting Attorney Howard Adkins had filed a petition to revoke Shuler's parole. Shuler had been put on parole in February, 1955, after having been arrested on charge of writing checks without funds in the bank.

PARTY PLANNED

SHOSHONE, March 10—A bowling party will be held March 13 by members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, members decided at a meeting Wednesday night.

AS YOUR MINISTER SEES IT

BY HAROLD DILLMAN
(Pastor, Southern Baptist Church)

Many churches in our fair city are displaying signs for a revival in their churches, either being held now or to be held in the future. If you were to attend could you be revived? In order to be revived there must have been something there to be brought back to a former condition — there must be life there to be brought to a new zeal.

Rev. Dillman

If you can be revived, can you feel the need of such a revival? Millions drive themselves like galley slaves forfeiting life's true joys, compromising character, and even committing crime to grasp more of this world's goods. Life is impoverished. The soul is withered and the heart is thrust through many sorrows. Do you find yourself in this mad rushing throng?

Jesus Christ said that in order to be revived we must live first. And to get that Life He was speaking about, the individual must be born again as He told Nicodemus. He must be born into the spiritual family in order to get his spirit revived. That birth must come after the travail of the mind over the sin that binds the soul in eternal torment.

The question is often asked, "Why be born again?" And the answer is that man is dead in sin so must be born into a new life to live through eternity.

As you look upon your flower bed there appears the dead stems left from the flowers of last year, but within a short time there will be new life visible as those plants begin to push shoots out of the ground to grow for another year; this life has been revived.

The trees look bare and forlorn now, but within a few short weeks the leaves will appear from those bare limbs and they will be useful once more. The bushes that you trimmed will soon revive and shoot forth leaves; and then come the buds that burst forth into a beautiful blossom.

Those blossoms are not only pretty to look at, but also have a fragrance to attract attention. This attention may be the means of causing that flower to be taken into some home to brighten it for a season. Fruit trees also have blossoms, but only to serve as a forerunner of fruit. An individual who has experienced this new life is to be brought back to the condition where he is anxious to work to get others to receive this new life into his existence.

Among other items of interest in this spring time comes the celebration of Easter. In the commemoration we look back to when our Lord broke the bands of death and arose a victor over all other powers. He died in this world of ours and was taken to a better atmosphere. And in His admonition to us to be with Him at a later date He tells us that we, too, must die to escape the penalty of sin and arise to walk anew with Him on higher ground.

Should something have come into the life to separate it from close harmony with God this revival is needed to restore the joy and happiness that once prevailed.
