Atomic Plane Will Be Built In Gem Area

WASHINGTON, May 5 (AP)—President Eisenhower signed a measure today which authorizes an atomic airplane project in eastern Idaho to cost 70 million dollars. Idaho is to receive a $25,000,000 atomic energy commission authorization which is to be matched by 45 million for the atomic airplane project in Idaho. The actual money may be used for the actual construction.

The bill also contained items to cover more than eight million dollars for other projects at the national leader testing station.

Congress Asked After he signed the bill, Eisenhower asked congress for a supplemental appropriation of $14,000,000 for projects submitted in the measure.

A ground test plant for the atomic airplane would cost 25 million dollars at the station's No. 2 area. This area has not been defined. The area is located near the Mud Lake area on Highway 22.

Modifications and expansion of the atomic engine test facilities at the No. 1 would cost 15 million dollars. This area presumably is the site of the atomic airplane at the Idaho site, where testing already has begun.

General Electric company operating the initial test area for the AEC at the No. 244 for the AEC. The bill for the starting other items for the atomic airplane project. In addition to the electric power system, $1,800,000 for an expended core handling and service plant. The bill also provides for a material testing hot cell installation, $300,000, and for a materials testing reactor maintenance shop, $235,000.

Rocket Firing Is $100,000 Fizzle

An Arco-III rocket like the one at left crashes, right, at White Sands proving grounds in New Mexico, sending up a cloud of smoke and dust. The U. S. navy had hoped the two-stage rocket would reach the vicinity of 100 miles altitude, but the main rocket motors failed to fire and it crashed back to earth from only 18,000 feet. Failure cost an estimated $100,000. (AP Wirephoto)

U.S. Consumers Becoming Collectors Of Multi-Colored Stamps and Coupons

NEW YORK, May 5 (AP)—Consumers are becoming avid stamp collectors in a coupon craze which is sweeping the country, a United Press survey reveals today.

Chain stores, supermarkets, and individual store owners have entered the competition for explorers by issuing multi-colored savings stamps and premium coupons for purchases. The amount of stamps a consumer receives is proportionate with the amount of the purchase. The bigger the purchase, the greater number of stamps received.

The stamps are redeemable either at the store where the purchase was made or at redemption stores. After saving a certain number of stamps the consumer may then turn them in for a certain amount of merchandise or prizes listed in a premium catalog.

Mrs. Housewife is lured by a potpourri of bonus gifts at the end of a rainbow assortment of savings stamps when she does the family marketing.

She may have a choice of shopping at a variety of stores which offer pink tapes, blue, green, brown, gold, yellow or even purple stamps, which may be redeemable for anything ranging from aluminum cookware to automobiles.

Mrs. Housewife may decide to stop in the Grand Union Food markets in New York, which offer "Triple-S" blue stamps or a grocery in Sacramento, Calif., which offers "S and I" green stamps.

In either case she loads her pushcart from the store's shelves and then takes her purchases to the check-out counter where they are totaled. For each ten cents worth of merchandise she receives one stamp. If her purchase comes to $4.80 she gets 48 stamps, a stamp book, and an 8-oz. catalog.

In Oklahoma City the competition became so keen that some independent stores tried to outlast the issuance of stamps in the 1955 legislature but failed. The independents charged that Safeway stores were violating state minimum price laws which require a six per cent markup on wholesale prices. A lower court upheld the independents but courts later filed by Safeway are now on appeal in a higher court.

In the California, Nevada, Oregon area four major companies all offer savings stamps. The S and I chain often redeems $2.00 in coupons a day in Sacramento.

Minneapolis, Minn., in addition to the stamps, offers customers drawings for prizes ranging from automobiles, expensive-old vacations, to outdoor motors and boats. National Food stores will hold a drawing later this month for 40,000 worth of motors, boats and other prizes.

The A and P food chain, one of the nation's largest, does not offer stamps or tapes. Instead the chain claims they give their customers lower prices. But A and P stores in Atlanta, Ga., Buffalo, N. Y., and Columbus, O., are offering 1950 prices as door prizes. To become eligible the customer merely fills out an entry blank and leaves it at the store.

Is That So!

Days Filled With Feathered Music—These are the days that have a stirring air about them. With dawn's early light, the robin begins his rolling call. Next a blue jay makes a flute-like call. Far from this nesting day, the wings of a pair of white-throats are seen in flight.

The CATHOLIC Woman Is Never In Doubt!

The Catholic woman, of course, has the same problems of living that other women have.

But she is never in doubt as to how to solve them. In every decision she makes... large and small... whether they occur in her adolescence or later on as a wife and mother... she can use the clearly defined principles of her Catholic Faith. Some will say that this is a form of "thought control" to which they would not submit. By the same token, the Bible with its strict commandments guiding human behavior might also be called a form of thought control.

Women generally, of course, are opposed to divorce. Many of them regard it as a grave social evil. Catholic women not only share this view, but know that according to God's law, divorce with remarriage is a serious sin.

Catholic women may be tempted, at times, unlawfully to limit the number of their children to fit the family income. But the Church teaches them this is a violation of God's law. Likewise, the obligation to provide religious training for their children is not a matter of choice. It is a clear duty.

Sincere people of all faiths, it is said, are regular in their church attendance and conscious of their duty to worship God. But for all Catholics, including women, these are regular obligations which they can never shirk. Attendance at Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, Holy Communion and the Sacrament of Penance, are not merely religious exercises which a Catholic may ignore or ignore. They constitute elements in the required Catholic "way of life."

Catholics gladly believe this way because they know that the Church... from Peter to the present day... speaks with the voice and authority of Christ. And believing this, they are never in doubt as to how to solve their spiritual values... never at a loss for spiritual assurance and help for guidance and consolation.

Whether you are a woman or a man... married or single... it will be an interesting and moving experience for you to read our specially-prepared pamphlet describing the powerful impact of the Catholic Faith upon the life of a woman. It's yours for the asking... will be sent to you in plain wrapper—and nobody will call on you. Write today for Pamphlet KC-44.

2 Awards Are Scheduled on Nurses Study

The South Central Idaho Medical society will award two awards to two students who have been accepted to enter nursing training in the next fall. Mrs. Ella V. Smith, president, reports. Preference will be given to residents of southern Idaho.

The auxiliary decided to give awards this year to honor the past year's work and improve the quality of nursing training in the area. The awards, for which either boys or girls are eligible, will be given for a combination of grades, personality and financial help.

Students are urged to apply soon as they are accepted by a school, so the evaluating committee may announce the awards early. Letters should be mailed to Mrs. Royal Cutler, 1806 Piller avenue east, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Mrs. Maura Cutler, president-elect, is assisting Mrs. Knight by sending word to the 27 high schools and all the newspapers in the area. Five copies of nursing in Idaho will be informed of the awards. This money for the 1950 awards was earned by selling subscriptions to Today's Nurse.

Nurse recruitment has been a project with the auxiliary for years. A loan fund also has been set up to advance student of the nurse who desires post graduate work. Information on the loan fund can be obtained from Mrs. Cutler.

State Printing Job Awarded To Utah Firm

The Idaho department of commerce and development was criticized Friday for going outside the state to get on the printing of a brochure publicizing Idaho. A state legislator led the criticism.

Rep. Roy P. Baker, R-Idaho, raised the charge in the Intermountain and Alameda newspapers last week. Baker is an editor and publisher in Pocatello.

The department confirmed that it had given the job to Salt Lake City printer, passed up the bids of two or three Idaho firms. It also is doing so in doing so on the Idaho taxpayers' money.

"All Idaho bookbinders are hurt when the state of Idaho business is accepted as standard printer and any proposal to get or create dualism is radical and suspect," Baker wrote. He added that the travel folder and brochure was awarded to four cities.

B. Johnson stated that any Idaho taxpayer had a right to know what they had been asked to accept the lowest bid.

The department said the contract went to the Wheelwright Lithographing company, Salt Lake City, on a low bid of $1,400. The bid was the lowest of the four bids. The department said this was "15 per cent lower than the lowest of two or three bids received from Idaho printers."

Arms for Israel Ideas Advanced

WASHINGTON, May 5 (AP)—A possibility of land-arms shipments to Israel, to balance Czech shipments to Egypt, was advanced today in the report of a special congressional study group.

The report called, however, for the use of "every diplomatic means" at highest levels to bring about a prompt settlement of the dispute between Israel and her Arab neighbors.

The shipment of U. S. arms to Israel came in a series of recommendations on minimum agreement for settlement.

The report was prepared by a House foreign affairs subcommittee headed by Representative Zablocki, D-Wis. The subcommittee took 28 Asian and mid-eastern nations into account.

WASHINGTON, May 5 (AP)—Labor unions, despite increased organizing efforts, are finding it harder to persuade workers to become members than at any time since World War II.

The trend is revealed in data on collective bargaining elections, published today by the national labor relations board. These elections determine whether unions shall be considered bargaining agents for workers.

TWO ARE FINED

SHOSHONE, May 5—C. W. Dill, Shoshone, and Floyd D. Gooding, were fined $5 each in Shoshone police court on charges of over-time parking.

Brainwashing Wears Off

New Study of Returned Korea POWs Shows Red Brainwashing Didn't Hold

WASHINGTON (NEA) The Chinese Reds either used bad soap trying to brainwash American prisoners of war—or it was the wrong bundle for their political laundry.

Extensive, periodic checks have recently been made on more than 800 former Korean POWs still in uniform who were reported to have absorbed some part of the red propaganda line while they were captives.

Results reveal that if the brainwashing did have some temporary effect, it has now all but vanished.

Details of the study are to be set forth in a report which will be published by the apparent failure of the brainwashing program.

Former POWs who have left China to return to the U.S. have left behind a trail of red propaganda leaflets that the 16 still left in China are being distributed.

Careful interrogations of the 443 POWs turned up reports on 565 of those who conducted as a result of brainwashing during captivity, was considered questionable.

Of that number to punishment was ordered for 373. Nine have been convicted by court-martials. Cases are either pending against the others.

Husky Men Should Learn to Live Longer by Talking More

By HIL BOYLE

NEW YORK, May 5 (AP)—Would American men, if they talked as much as American women, also live as long?

Dr. Ira M. Altshuler, a Detroit physician, says that a study of 21 American men, who he says are as healthy as the women, shows that the men who talk more live longer.

Dr. Altshuler says that the men who talk more live longer because they are more health conscious. He says that the men who talk more live longer because they are more health conscious.

New Machine Is Demon for Solving Math

By ROBERT EUNSON
TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, May 5.—A machine which has been shown to a number of prominent mathematicians is said to solve a problem in less than two hours which would take a man at least three months to solve.

The machine, which is a type of electronic calculator, is said to be able to solve a problem in less than two hours which would take a man at least three months to solve.

Year-Old Raccoon Pet of T. F. Couple Is Pride and Joy; Requires Attention

Many people favor cats, dogs, parakeets, birds, and other pets. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wolff, 525 Jackson street, have both a dog and cat, but their pride and joy is a year-old raccoon they have named Rocky.

Rocky probably gets more attention than the Wolffs' cat or dog. As a matter of fact, they have to give Rocky more attention if they don't want items pulled out of cupboards or the fingers chewed off dolls belonging to the daughter, Karen, 11.

Rocky is just about as content as they come. To hear Mr. and Mrs. Wolff tell it, the phrase should be put, "Curiously killing the coon."

For instance, last fall at the time of the first snow, Rocky wandered off through a hole in the screen door. Mr. and Mrs. Wolff noticed early the following morning that Rocky was gone. They followed his tracks in the snow. Rocky had directed the coon, couldn't find his way back in and had gone looking for shelter elsewhere.

At about 11 a. m. in the block, Rocky's tracks led up to the front door and back again. He finally was found in a vacant block away where he had found a way in and had taken refuge.

He does for stunts down town with the Wolffs and leads a normal pet existence at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolff were given the raccoon last September when he was five months old. He was given to them by a high school boy who found Rocky in the nest in Rock creek canyon after the animal's mother had been shot.

Rocky was raised on the bottle then and the Wolffs continued the practice for a year. "I eat almost anything," says Wolff. The exception is potatoes, which Rocky definitely doesn't like. He particularly likes sweets.

Curious Rocky has the ability to open doors which aren't securely closed and has to be watched carefully lest he pull out the family's hardware or find one of Karen's dolls and start nibbling on its fingers or toes.

He's about full grown, the Wolffs estimate, and weighs 20 pounds.

The Wolffs feed him primarily dog biscuits and canned dog food, but vary this with fruits, vegetables and meats.

Rocky and the Wolffs' cat play together, but the dog won't have anything to do with the raccoon. After Rocky's initial efforts at friendliness toward the dog were rebuffed, the raccoon began to tease the dog. His favorite trick is to walk unceremoniously past the dog, then snake back one of his long legs and poke the dog.

Rocky is "worse than a baby" in his need for attention, Mrs. Wolff says. Wolff compares him to a 3-year-old child.

His favorite pastime is playing with marbles. The Wolffs put marbles in a shoe on some other enclosure and Rocky labors long and hard until he retrieves the marbles. He'll stay around marbles, but content with the Wolffs.

BELLEVUE, May 5.—Someone apparently was awfully generous at a family gathering on Easter Sunday.

As a result of the generosity, there are four widely scattered cases of mumps. The victims are Mrs. Ben Anderson, Bellevue; Mrs. Anderson's mother in Wendell, her brother in Pocatello, and her uncle in LeFlore, Ore.

They were together Easter Sunday at a family gathering. At that time, there was many a sign of mumps, but during the past week, all have had the disease. Doctors say mumps will become apparent within 21 days after exposure.

Ben Evans, fish and wildlife service, is cooperating with the county health officer in the program. He will attend the meetings.

Interior Decorating

The current trend of living outdoors as much as possible during the seasons when weather permits is reality, more so than ever before. It is a fact, and a happy one, that many of us have always longed to relax outdoors but, until now, though, have our work days and week ends been short enough to allow us the free time to make our own plans for outdoor living worthwhile consideration.

Today we plan our outdoor living areas with the same thoughtfulness as we do our interiors for comfort, utility and attractiveness.

The sketch above shows an outdoor living room that really "belongs" to the house. The flagstone walk-dove-grey — is the same color as the living room carpet. From inside the large window, more is seen than the room. A matching flagstone "island" has been centered in the lot to be surrounded by the green grass and foliage.

For entertaining, for regular family outdoor dining, for occasional garden parties, you'll find a mobile server a miraculous step saver. Bring whole meals to your outdoor eatup; piping hot sides yours today from central styles.

Law Fugitive Eludes Police For 30 Years

WYOMING, Va., May 5 (UP)—Booker T. Shapperson, national labor leader, escaped from a 30-year term in the Missouri State Penitentiary in 1926 after eluding the law for 30 years.

Moving over his three decades of illicit freedom, Shapperson recently said: "I often thought I'd turn myself in, but I couldn't quite get around to it."

Sentenced in 1926

The 61-year-old resident of nearby Henry Hill had been sentenced to a four-year term in a road camp back in 1926 for circumventing national prohibition with a home-made still.

He escaped on Aug. 24, 1926, after serving half of his term, police said.

Shapperson was arrested last Dec. 11 on another moonshining charge, but went free. However, the residence of the arrest included sending his fingerprints to Washington where it was learned they compared perfectly to those of the fugitive.

Shapperson told officers the whole thing was a big load off his shoulders anyway.

Sight Is Lost In Both Eyes By Columbian

NEW YORK, May 5 (UP)—Victor Riesel, labor columnist, who for years tried to shed light on labor racketeering, has lost the sight of both eyes. Riesel, 57, was blind in his face one month ago today.

Four eye specialists announced yesterday they had been unable to save the sight of the 41-year-old Riesel, set upon earlier April 5 by a mob on Broadway.

Riesel had made a radio attack on labor union racketeering on the radio.

Hope Is Gone

Robert M. Hall, president of the syndicate "distributors" Riesel had named in his newspaper, said: "There is no hope at all now that Riesel will ever see again."

Hall added that Riesel will continue his column with the aid of assistants.

More than $40,000 in rewards have been offered to turn up any clue to the columnist's assailants, described only as a "blond, black, middle-aged man wearing a blue and white checkered suit. The FBI as well as local police have been conducting an intensive manhunt.

News Broken

An associate said the news of his blindness was broken gradually to Riesel in his hospital room Thursday night and yesterday.

"He took it beautifully like a man," the unidentified associate said.

He added, however, that friends feared a depression reaction may set in later.

Methodist Church Will Allow Women to Be Full Ministers

MINNEAPOLIS, May 5 (UP)—The Methodist church today had a new kind of regular minister—women.

They're now eligible to join the ranks of the official clergy of America's largest Protestant denomination.

The church's law-making general conference gave its sanction yesterday after hours of turbulent sessions.

It was the climax of years of contention within the church over the status of women to serve full-fledged pastoral posts.

After the decision, Dr. Georgia Hazekamp, a Berkeley, Calif., theological professor who had been in the forefront of the struggle for full clerical status for women, rose and walked to a microphone.

She said some people had been wondering why she took no part in the final verbal battle.

"The Bible says," she added, "that there is a time to speak and a time to be silent. This was the time for me to be silent."

She smiled broadly, and sat down.

But few others had been silent in the whirl of proposals and counter-proposals that swirled about the subject of women—and their qualifications as ministers.

It was a move by the Rev. Dr. John T. Johnson, president of Asbury college, Wilmore, Ky., that finally was approved—putting women on par with men in filling the church's 40,000 pulpits.

There had been more than 2,000 varying propositions on the subject filed before the two-week church legislative meeting began.

After slogging through these, a committee headed by the Rev. James A. Chubb, Grand Island, Neb., recommended extension of full clerical rights only to "unmarried women and widows."

But the men's committee that went through included married women, too.

Refugee Issue Is Big Item in Defense Tests

BOZEMAN, May 5 (AP)—Pleading out what to do with more than half a million theoretical refugees from west coast cities will be the special headache of Idaho's civil defense and disaster relief agency during a big national defense test last July 20-26 that will be Idaho's principal problem in its participation in the national test, Adm. W. G. Specht, state director, said today.

The test, originally scheduled for about the middle of June, was recently rescheduled by federal authorities.

Situation Field

In a preliminary outline sent to state and local disaster relief authorities in Idaho, Specht set forth this hypothetical situation:

California cities, including Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, Oakland, San Portland, Seattle, Spokane and Hanford, will receive severe bombing attacks from hydrogen weapons.

A dearth of the Mountain Home air base will cause heavy traffic in the continuation of Elmore county and just south of Boise.

Subsage Orders

The AEC reactor plant in eastern Idaho will undergo hypothetical sabotage, looking severe doses of radiation.

Because of the mythical Spokane bombing, parts of north Idaho will also be threatened and some evacuation in Montana and Canada will be necessary.

Specht said some half a million evacuees would theoretically move into Idaho, practically doubling the population of the state.

Taken Away

Dependents at Mountain Home would theoretically be taken into Gooding, Jerome or Canyon county.

Providing housing for those evacuees and keeping a heavy theoretical flow of traffic moving will take up most of the planning, Specht said.

SAVES SOAP! SAVES WATER! SAVES CLOTHES! SAVES MONEY!

The Sensational, Years-Ahead

Rub-Free Washing Action

by FRIGIDAIRE

Here's a wholly different washing system that gets clothes cleaner—much cleaner—without rubbing.

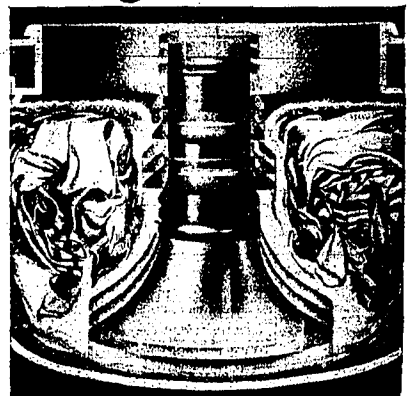

The whole washing action is done with water—thousands of swirling, churning currents of water that flush out dirt and grime. No stiff fins, no thrashing back and forth. In fact, there is no mechanical action to wear the life out of clothes. So, washables last longer.

It gives sheer fabrics the piece-by-piece care of hand laundering, yet is so thorough, the dirtiest work-clothes come clean.

It multiplies the cleaning power of soaps and detergents.

It uses much less water to wash clothes clean—as much as 13½ gallons less than some automatics. Takes less time, too.

You'll find this clothes-saving Rub-Free Washing Action no place on earth, except in a Frigidaire Automatic Washer. So why not come in today and we'll give you the whole story.

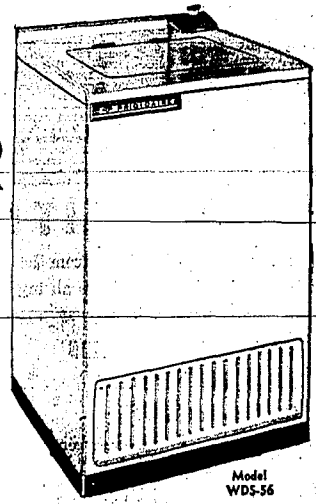

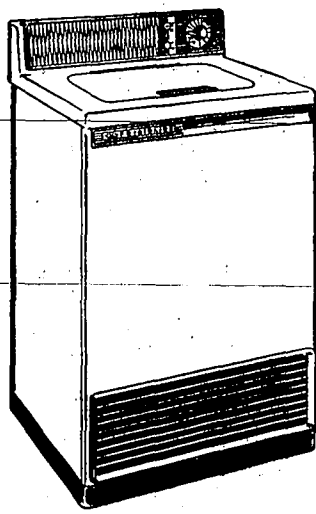

Here's how it works: The Pulsator-Agitator in the center plunges up and down, whips soap and water into a super-cleaning combination. Keeps clothes constantly moving in a head-over-heels spiral under water throughout the whole cycle.

- Look for these other famous Frigidaire Features:
- Rapidly Spin—that whips out extra pounds of water per load of clothes to save you from lifting this heavy extra weight. Clothes dry faster, too.
 - Floot-Over Rinse—that literally floats lint, suds and dirt-laden rods up and out of the tub before they can resettle to dull your just-washed clothes.
 - Flexible Controls—the Select-O-Dial and Econo-Dial that automatically regulate the water and wash cycle for the size of the load, the kind of fabric and the degree of soil.
 - Dependable Mechanism—gives years of wonderful service.

LIFETIME PORCELAIN FINISH — Inside and out — will not rust.

Stock Market Drives Ahead Toward Peak

NEW YORK, May 5.—The stock market drove ahead strongly this week in a continuation of its recent high advance.

The market opened higher and seemed to pause only briefly in the face of a sharp decline in the price of gold.

At the finish of the week, however, the market had advanced 1 1/2 points to 114.12, closing at 114.12.

The Associated Press average of 30 stocks went up three days out of four in the week ending at 114.12, up 1 1/2 points from 112.60, the highest since the record of 114.12 established last Nov. 14.

The peak was reached in the week ended May 1, when the market advanced 1 1/2 points to 114.12. Thereafter it fell into an irregular movement.

Prices completed a sharp decline that at least in the opinion of many observers, was a reaction to the news that the government would sell 100 million dollars of gold.

The market then advanced sharply through the week ending May 4, when it was 114.12, up 1 1/2 points from 112.60.

The market was again in the lead in the week ending May 5, when it was 114.12, up 1 1/2 points from 112.60.

Effort to Please Spouse Has Man Learning to Cast Flies

By HENRY McLEMONTE

How far should a man go to elevate himself in his wife's eyes? There must be a limit, a point at which he should say, "Listen, I have made an alteration in my nature as a result of my wife's wishes. I make no more alterations in my nature as a result of my wife's wishes."

When that same mining company's acquire block out and get out with only $15,000,000 worth of ore, a 250 ton capacity mill near the mine site to process the ore, the potential of the company becomes tremendous. This is the kind of thing that you can do with your money.

Veterans Get VA Hospitals Rule Review

Families of veterans and veterans with peacetime service only are not entitled to veterans administration hospitalization, says Arnold Helweg, local representative of the VA.

Only veterans of wartime service and their families are eligible for hospitalization, and then only under certain rigid conditions, he said.

Under existing law, dependents of veterans may not be hospitalized with the possible exception of those brought to VA hospitals in emergencies when the VA hospital happens to be the closest one to the scene.

Helweg said peacetime service, for purposes of hospitalization, is any period of active service that occurs before or after a war and does not extend into a war period, as defined by congress.

For example, all persons who entered service for the first time on or after Feb. 1, 1955, are peacetime veterans for the purposes of VA hospitalization.

Another period of peacetime service for the purposes of VA hospitalization is between Dec. 31, 1946, and World War II was declared.

A third period of peacetime service for the purposes of VA hospitalization occurred between the two World wars, Dec. 12, 1918, when World War I ended for all except a few, and Dec. 1941, when World War II started.

Any veteran not sure of his status should inquire at his nearest VA office to check eligibility before applying for hospitalization, Helweg says.

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

While Charles Dickey, HAZELTON, says she's no Grandma Moses, she is in the same class as the famous artist.

She has been painting since she was in grade school. The new brick building was erected by the lodge at little cost since members did most of the work. The bricks and other items in the building were donated.

Furniture in the lodge is believed to be the oldest in the Magic Valley. The furniture came from BELLEVUE when the mines in the area all but shut down before the turn of the century. As people and lodge members moved from Bellevue, the furniture was moved to Heyburn.

Incorporated in the new building is a piece of sandstone taken from the White House in Washington, D. C., when the President's mansion was remodeled in 1901. A brick from the capitol building has been installed in the secretary's desk.

Another brick, made in Wales more than 100 years ago, also has been incorporated in the new building. Desk tops are marble, the marble coming from an old drugstore in Heyburn. All of the desks are made of brick, topped with marble.

Payne presided at the first meeting in the new building. The temple was built under the direction of Jack Bohren, who was master when building plans were made. The bricks were laid by Harold Brunser and Jack Smith.

Sometimes a person wonders if there is any concern for one's neighbors and friends aren't things of the past. Then all at once something happens and you know such a thing isn't out-fashioned after all.

Early on the morning of April 28, 1936, a man, led by Vest Simpson, CAREY, moved in on Ted Davis' farm, completely equipped with tractors, plows, harrows, disks, levelers and driers. They began work at once, with the plow acting the pace and the other pieces of machinery following along as fast as the ground was ready for them.

In an almost unbelievably short time 20 acres of ground had been plowed, harrowed, leveled, disked and drilled with grain seed. And now a harvest can be expected by a man who has been ill all winter and unable to do the work himself.

Those who are responsible for another year's planting are Simpson, Clifford Speck, "Digger" Cooper, Don Blackwell, Lee Day, Leland of Spain.

Magic Valley's Grandma Moses.

Car Industry Gets in Bind; Volume Falls

DETROIT, May 5.—The hottest kind of competition for the car buyer is a favor, which began at the end of World War II. It is squeezing the auto industry into one of its most uncertain positions.

These major producers—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—which made record or near-record profits last year, will make money again this year. But the profits won't be as great. The other two companies that make up the auto industry—American Motors and Studebaker-Packard—which lost money last year and the year before still are losing money.

And many of the more than 40,000 new car dealers around the country also are losing money again this year. They are losing it because the traditional spring sales upsurge has failed to materialize in the volume expected.

The 1937 models will incorporate many engineering and styling changes. They will begin to appear in November and the manufacturers are pointing up a tremendous upsurge in demand with new model presentations.

Such an upsurge, that brought in 1933 the fastest growth in industry volume since 1929, could provide the volume necessary to make 1936 the industry's second best year, both in production and retail deliveries.

Elements Leave Mark on Cemetery

Richard Tucker, Hagerman, inspects the damage done to the elements and time to a pioneer cemetery west and west of Hagerman. Tucker's stepfather, O. P. Johnson, donated the land on which the new Hagerman cemetery is located. (Staff photo-entraping)

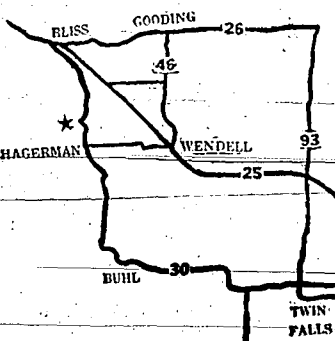

Magic Valley Tours Old Cemetery Is Place of Rest for Those Who Helped Valley's History

It is an old but abandoned cemetery in the north and west of Hagerman, Idaho. It is the place where the bones of those who helped build the Magic Valley rest. The cemetery is a place of history and interest to those who visit the Magic Valley.

The cemetery is located on a hillside overlooking the town of Hagerman. It is a place of interest to those who visit the Magic Valley. The cemetery is a place of history and interest to those who visit the Magic Valley.

The cemetery is a place of history and interest to those who visit the Magic Valley. The cemetery is a place of history and interest to those who visit the Magic Valley.

Easily Located

Local's three-fourths mile north of Hagerman and one-half mile off highway 30 is an old cemetery which was started in Hagerman valley before the turn of the century. Some of the oldest names in the valley are inscribed on the shaded marble headstones. (Staff engraving)

In Cross dispatched him, too. Deputy sheriff at the time was Roy Boyer, uncle of Riley Boyer, Emerson sayer and Mrs. Edward O'waley, all present residents of Hagerman. Boyer deputized all the men he could locate, sending them in all directions in an attempt to intercept Cross. Mrs. Ella's father was sent towards Boise while Charles Dillatash, a second cousin of Mrs. Charles Cary, sr. and Mrs. Roy Veder, was sent with a group of men towards Clear Lake.

They picked up Cross' trail and found where he had abandoned his horse to cross Snake river on foot on the ice.

Although they lost his trail for a while, they picked it up again later and found him asleep near Almo. Assisted by officials from Oakley and Albion they captured him. Cross was tried, convicted and sent to the state penitentiary.

Mrs. Ella believes Cross, like the other principals in the little bit of history recalled by the cemetery, also is dead.

James P. Curran died Sept. 9, 1888, at the age of 17 and is buried in the pioneer cemetery. Among his sisters and brothers are Martin Curran, August Curran and Mrs. Anna Purdy, all Hagerman, and John Curran, Twin Falls.

Two very small children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman also are buried in the cemetery. Aunts of the children are Mrs. Ernest Peck, Mrs. William Hurley and Mrs. Wes Glauser, all Hagerman.

A man by the name of Barium also has a final resting place in the old cemetery. He once owned the Thousand Springs, Island which later was known as the Minnie Miller ranch.

Captain Bell, who mined along Snake river, and other old soldiers are buried in the cemetery although the markers are gone.

On Jan. 14, 1900, the Salmon Falls Cemetery association decided the cemetery to the Modern Woodmen of America at Hagerman. There no longer is a chapter of the fraternity in Hagerman.

A few months later 2.9 acres of land were deeded to the Hagerman Local Storage & Shipping Building for a cemetery and later the lodge deeded the land to the Hagerman Cemetery association. Richard Tucker, Hagerman, says some of the persons buried in the old cemetery were moved to the new one because water was seeping into the pioneer graves.

No one seems to know for sure how many pioneers still are buried in the old cemetery. What with the removal of some and the disappearance of headstones and markers on others, the record of some of the pioneers in the valley has been lost.

Before white man came in any great numbers to Hagerman valley, Indians spent their winter months at Lower Salmon falls, making their camp just below the rim-on-land now owned by Ivan Dunham.

Indian artifacts found here and on J. W. Jones' ranch have led anthropologists to believe great numbers of Indians spent their winters in the valley. The areas still are rich in arrowheads and other Indian equipment but are not accessible to tourists. Cattle are pasturing at the sites now.

Picture Exhibit Planned in T. F.

An art exhibit will be presented in the banquet room of the Park hotel from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Picture will include a number of original oils and reproductions of the old and modern masters. The exhibit is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Plant Mahyred Reed Corn, from Globe Seed & Feed Co.—Adv.

Morris M. Pritchman of the Pritchman galleries in Boise.

A number of rare old prints will be shown from the Pritchman collection, including a vision manuscript of a religious chant dating from before the discovery of America. Also included is a 15th century miniature on parchment.

It's Bigger than Both of 'em - but its price makes it one of America's 3 best sellers!

It's as simple as this: Only two cars in all creation outsell Buick. And they are two of the well-known smaller cars.

So maybe it will pay you to ask how come Buick has zoomed to the No. 3 spot with such fast-selling company.

Well, one answer is the beautiful and heavy Buick SPECIAL you see pictured here—and the low price it carries.

It's the biggest bundle of high-powered performance and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

And, that means more people want it and can afford it, because it's priced only a few dollars more than its two smaller-car rivals—even less than some models of those very same cars.

But the big answer comes from a sure fact more folks have discovered: you get more pure automobile for your money in Buick than you get elsewhere.

Here, you get the extra wallop of big new Buick power rated to a new high—and pouring in smooth whisper from a brand-new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine of true high-compression.

Here, you get the matchless buoyancy of Buick's great new ride—the extra-safe feeling of Buick's new handling ease—the extra stretch-out comfort of Buick's roominess—the extra solidity and strength of Buick's structure—the extra pride and prestige of Buick's new styling and dash.

Here, too—and nowhere else—you can get the silk-smooth performance and flash-fast response of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo®* the world's only transmission with the gas-saving mileage and switch-pitch action of the modern airplane propeller.

This week—this very day, if you wish—you can sample all these Buick blessings to your heart's content and your pocket's joy. Why not drop in on us and do just that?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick-Buick today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional on modest extra cost on the Special.

Lack of Chief Helps to Fire Algeria Fight

ALGERIA, May 13 (AP)—Three separate movements are contributing their bits to the 18-month-old nationalistic Algerian struggle for independence, but differ on methods and look at no man as their "Sirocco" factor in the French argument that it France gave Algeria independence.

The African league would go to while various elements battled among themselves.

"The one man who is cited as the terrorist activity in Algeria, I will negotiate with France," said the French minister.

No Negotiations

In present circumstances, French officials say there can be no thought of negotiations. They point out that France did negotiate the independence of Tunisia through Habib Bourguiba and the "Independence of Morocco through Mohammed VI and Mohammed Ben Houssain and in each case the man with whom there were negotiations brought in by the French government.

But the French government holds it will never recognize a man who is not a proponent as was Tunisia and French Morocco. It is reported that French law is in regard of itself.

By almost all estimates, the national liberation front has the majority of support. It is directed from Cairo, with Mohammed Bedi as its chief. Bedi has the strength is hard to estimate, French Premier Guy Mollet has charged that only 10,000 men are involved. Should these be eliminated, he says, calm would return.

Support Claimed

However, a declaration from leaders claim—without divulging any figures on the number.

The French government says it has the support of 80 to 90 per cent of the population.

Counting in this front is the national Algerian movement led by Messali Hadj, a bearded veteran of the first world war, who is based on an island in the Atlantic off western France.

The great element in the fight is made up of the communists who apparently have started forming their own militia bands. This has been a fairly recent development. The Communist party is outlawed in Algeria, but has no underground organization.

Daughter Enjoys Father's Hobby

Magic Valley Hobbies No. 19

Procedure Is Reversed as Vocation Becomes Hobby of Man in Richfield

Frequently people become so skillful at a hobby they abandon their vocation to spend all their time at their recreation. The hobby ceases to be a hobby and becomes a means of livelihood. That's the normal approach.

William E. (Bud) Swan, Richfield, has reversed the process. His vocation has ended up as a hobby. Now a safe and motel operator, a few years ago he was a rodeo rider. A back injury five years ago ended his career as a competitor but the lure of the arena, the danger, the thrill—and the money—were not something to be cut off without a look back.

Last year he took the bull by the horns, figuratively speaking, and the result is the reconstruction of his vocation as an attraction. He built himself a complete rodeo arena with chutes, judges' stand and bleachers that will seat 750 spectators.

Rodeos are typically American. They are an outgrowth of a way of life that existed briefly in the old west when large herds of cattle roamed the open range. Following roundups the cowboys would gather to compete in tests of skill and daring.

Once the range was fenced, the custom continued. Admission to one of these amateur events was charged for the first time in the 1890's. The sport developed rapidly as professional entertainers and traveling bands of cowboys began holding rodeos all over the country throughout the year. They competed with one another to perform in the larger cities and each claimed to have "the champion in all events."

In 1928 the Rodeo Association of America was formed and a regular schedule of cities was worked out for the traveling rodeos. Standards and a system of points were set up to determine championships.

The association listed eight events for deciding national champions. They were bronc riding, bareback riding, bullfighting or steer wrestling, calf roping, steer decorating, steer riding and roping and team roping.

Bud Swan took part in his first rodeo in South Dakota when, at the age of 8, he started riding calves. Continuing to practice at every opportunity, he graduated to bull riding and bareback riding. Whenever possible he followed the rodeo circuit. His last winning ride was made in Burns, Ore. five years ago.

In preparation for maintaining his own rodeo arena, Swan purchased a foundation herd of horses and is a member of the newly organized rodeo club at college.

With her rodeo skill, a hobby she still has her first horse, a Texas quarter horse, and a long line of descendants.

Bud's hobby is an expensive one. In addition to the initial cost of the stock and arena in Richfield, there is upkeep for both. But for 30 years, rodeos were more or less a way of life for him and having his own arena is his way of continuing his interest while not actually competing as a participant.

Idahoan Gets Complex Job In Italy Area

NAPLES, Italy, May 3 (U. S. Press)—Mr. Phil of allied forces southern Europe headquarters in the U. S. navy's utility chief George C. Wheatley, Mullan, Ida.
