Swollen Kootenai Governor Declares State Fund Is Passed to Bolster Farm Bill OK'd by President

Inundating More Fertile Farmland Upper Snake River Area

BOONERS FERRY, May 29 (AP)—Army troops and civilians abandoned efforts today to save another 950 acres from flooding and it appeared the swollen Kootenai river would rise even higher. Flood fighters surrendered to the 550-acre Nystrom farm elsewhere in 80-degree weather that threatened to bring down more of the heavy mountain snow. The Kootenai stood at 35.55 feet here today, more than four feet above flood stage, and was almost stationary upstream at Libby, Mont. The weather bureau said it feared a gradual rising in prospect.

Woe alike along the Nystrom tract downstream near the Canadian border was given up as useless. "The river rose too high for the dikes," said James Graves, the boundary county agent. "Water was washing over the top of the dikes along its entire length." The decision to give up thereabouts was made after equipment for use on diking districts No. 6 and which contain more than 5,000 acres of farmland in the Kootenai valley. Graves said the best estimates now are that 28,000 acres of land in upper Kootenai valley is a roughly half of the rich wheat land protected by the original diking districts and private tracts.

The dirt dikes are built to withstand 30-foot levels around this area, but the water has already escaped flooding so far but there are soft spots on continued tracts.

Business activity in town has virtually stopped. Drinking water has to be trucked in. There is only river traffic in the area. Families in low-lying areas have moved out.

The weather bureau said yesterday that a bottleneck downstream had continued warmer weather may lead to a rise in a dangerous level here indefinitely.

 Gov. Robert E. Smylie today proclaimed a state of emergency because of dangerous flooding conditions in the entire upper Snake river basin above American Falls. Smylie requested that Col. Myron Page, Wada Wall, Wash. district engineer for the army corps of engineers, assume full direction and control of flood fighting activities in the basin. Page was asked to direct flood fighting in Bingham, Bonneville, Madison, Jefferson, Fremont and Teton counties. W. C. Specht, state civil defense director, said he had received reports that farmland in the Roberts area was under six to eight feet of water and the swollen Snake river, Harold Lee, secretary of the flood control district at Rob-

WASHINGTON, May 29 (AP)—The house passed a record $1,933,744,968 money bill for the agriculture department today as the administration moved with "judicious haste" to put the new farm bill into effect. The compromise appropriation, sent to the senate for final approval, was 3 million dollars more than President Eisenhower requested. It was the fourth straight year in which funds to operate the department and its various farm programs have topped those budgeted by the administration.

Funds voted for the fiscal year starting July 1 surpassed by any previous annual agriculture appropriation. The chief reason is that it includes $1 billion dollars to reimburse the commodity credit corporation for past losses on its price support, export subsidies and other farm programs.

Sen. Frank Carlson, R. Kan., said today that the agriculture department is considering implementing the bill back plan on some of this year's crops. Carlson told the senate that after the bill was signed yesterday he wrote Benson urging that it be put into operation this year. The senator said he was assured by the agriculture department that the White House on plans to put the "second choice" farm bill into operation as quickly as possible.

Benson said an early morning call from Mr. Eisenhower who signed the "second choice" farm bill yesterday to end a four-month election-year stalemate. Benson expressed his belief that the measure would be put into operation as quickly as possible.

Arabs Oppose British Moves In U. N. Meets

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., May 28.—A British delegation to the Arab League met today to discuss the security council to convene in the Middle East peace conference for his Middle East peace conference.

Assistant secretary general of the power, said the British move was "unacceptable" in its present form. He met with representatives of other Arab nations to explain his views.

The widely-ventured British resolution, calling for full compliance by the Arab neighbors with the Palestine armistice agreement, was adopted yesterday by British representatives.

They's security council meeting was the first since it authorized the Middle East peace conference in April to restore peace. It was successful in succeeding in securing the agreement between the Arab nations.

Some objections also were expressed from Russia and Yugoslavia. U. N. observers believed the resolution would approve it in the end, perhaps with some redaction, but it was not expected before Thursday.

Modern Methods Flayed by Baptist

The pastor's conference is a forerunner of the Southern Baptist convention (SBC) which begins its 100th session tomorrow.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—The Democrats will enter the 1956 presidential campaign—almost certain of major and probably decisive victory—on Capitol Hill at the current session. The legislators have knocked the platform—from their own party—out of the hands of the nominee as President Eisenhower's opponent.

The opposition had expected to carry several farm state votes because of the reputation of the administration's program, and especially in view of the veto of the original national program for farm relief by the cent party's opponents. But they were absent this field by enactment of the bill which the President's opponent.

Now there is no noticeable difference of opinion between the two parties on this question. The only effect of Democratic maneuvering will be a delay in distributing federal funds to farmers.

UNSTABLE INVOLVEMENT

Another vanished issue is the 1946-47 program for farm relief. The program has been announced as a "giveaway" of national resources. This indictment will hardly hold up under factual scrutiny.

In the first place, it is the Rayburn-Connally leadership which sponsored legislation for farm relief. The program was announced as a "giveaway" of national resources. This indictment will hardly hold up under factual scrutiny.

WAGONA RIVER DEVELOPMENT

Even granting that the 1946-47 program for farm relief was a "giveaway" of national resources, it is not clear that the agency has split the difference to one of the greatest undeveloped hydroelectric projects. It awarded the rights to the Wagona River company under a "partnership" idea. But it handed the St. Lawrence river program to the New York state authority.

SCHOOLS, LABOR, SOCIAL SECURITY

On three popular humanitarian programs—labor, social security and schools—the Democratic congress has given their presidential candidate nothing to brag about.

The three leading Democratic demands—demand for repeal or softening of the Taft-Hartley act as unfair to the unions, but two congresses controlled by their party have refused to do so.

TWO DEMOCRATS HEATED SCHOOL BUILDING

Two Democratic liberals—Sen. Herbert H. Lehman and Rep. Charles McNary—were so heated by the issue of school building that they were expelled from the Senate and House respectively.

The hopeful forecasts come from a report made by scientists at California Institute of Technology. The work was not lightly undertaken, and is no idle dreaming. Some members of the report's staff may be said to believe that the findings have been soberly discussed in the board rooms of 27 of this country's leading corporations.

Naturally enough, they envision utilizing sunlight for power. Experiments in this direction already are numerous, and many scientists feel the sun one day will make nuclear energy look like small potatoes as a driving force for modern civilization.

WORLD OF TOMORROW

The one warning note the scholars strike is this: They do fear a shortage of brain power, of men with ability and imagination and training to understand the possibilities that lie ahead and find means of realizing them.

WORLD OF TOMORROW

They think there'll be plenty of food for all, and ample supplies of metals, minerals in general and other useful materials.

A song set to a merry tune is the best medicine that can be found for a depressed spirit. It will lift the gloom that clouds the mind. It will put a zest into lagging hands and feet. It will inspire the soul and lift the spirit to greater heights and endurance. Singing has its place in daily living, and it is not used often enough.

French Claim
New Victories
In Two Fights

ALGERIA, May 29 (AP)—French troops supported by fighters captured several Algerian villages in two hard skirmishes and killed 25. The French column encountered a band of nationalists southwest of Algiers. Military dispatches said the troops were carrying "important quantities of arms" which were seized.

The black rally of Saumaman, chief of Bougie, French troops killed 11 rebels. French troops captured a French grain convoy south of Oran and attempted to link trucks with gasoline when French troops tried to "beat off" the trucks. In the Alger, French army and police often posed their questions of nationalist suspects picked in Sunday's massive raid on the Arab camp, the Arab quarter. The police sweep turned up boxes of weapons, ammunition and documents apparently for shipment to nationalists.

Former First Lady of Indian
Land Plans Honor for Chief

CACHE, Okla., May 29 (AP)—An old crippled woman, once a proud "first lady of her land," will pay her Memorial day tribute at the grave of Quahar chief, last great chief of the Comanche Indian nation.

She is Topsy, surviving widow of the half-white Indian warrior and diplomat. For months Topsy has worked in her wheel chair, fashioning paper bouquets of yellow, lavender, red, blue and white flowers for her husband's grave.

Topsy says she was born near Anadarko, Okla., and married the handsome chief when she was 23. Nobody is sure of her present age. Wind and time are etched on her bronzed and wrinkled face, but her spirit is as young as a colt.

She lives in a two-room house not far from the squalid Wichita Mountain slopes, and near enough to recall happy memories of the rambling home where she lived with her husband.

Talking Boy Lets
Place Burn Down

SPRINGDALE, W. Va., May 29 (AP)—A $15,000 rural home burned to the ground yesterday while a boy gawked on a telephone party line relating to field for a call to the fire department.

Mrs. Paul Phillips said she broke into the conversation. "I told him my house was on fire and I wanted to call the fire department, but he said, 'Are you kidding?' and went on talking."

As she was leaving to seek another telephone, a neighbor, Hoyte Eller, drove up. He ran into the flaming house and pleaded with the boy to get off the phone.

"Let it burn," the boy said. Eller then went to another house and called firemen. When they arrived the fire was beyond control.

France Plans
To Clear Her
Political Aim

By United Press
The continued political situation in France may start to clear up soon. The national assembly, the controlling house of parliament, will start a debate Thursday on every aspect of French policy. Foreign policy, internal financial economic and social policy and policy throughout North Africa will be included.

Socialist Premier Guy Mollet, leader of the government "Republican Front" coalition, proposed the debate. He demands a blanket vote of confidence. What Mollet wants is a complete new start after serving as premier since Feb. 1.

He is expected to give for the first time, a detailed and specific program aimed at bringing peace in Algeria. French political experts predict that Mollet will get his vote by a big and possibly by an overwhelming majority.

Mollet leads a minority government. His coalition actually holds only 183 of the 555 seats in the assembly. The full strength of the house is 577, but there are 32 vacancies. Mollet holds office largely because the 146 communists and four fellow-traveling progressives support him.

Many members of the assembly disagree with Mollet's North African policy and with various aspects of his internal and foreign policies. But very few of them feel that this is the right time to overthrow the government. Hence Mollet is expected, in a sense, to get a new start. How long he will last then, nobody cares to predict.

But there are strong indications that France is moving steadily toward a decision to strengthen its government after going through 21 cabinet overthrows since the end of World War II.

Bureau Says
Retail Trade
Is "Sluggish"

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP)—Retail trade has turned a little sluggish. Analysts say many merchants are looking for a spring tonic. Otherwise, the present boom to profits they won realize largely by trying to squeeze more out of a sale dollar—may be lost.

Some retailers got a good lift out of the heavy purchases for Mother's day. Others hope to benefit the same way out of Father's day next month when the won't get to until July 1. But without these special events the picture isn't as bright.

The U. S. department of commerce puts it this way: "Retail sales declined somewhat more than usual in April." If you remember that auto dealers are retail merchants too, you can guess that the department may find somewhat the same condition in May, in spite of Mother's day.

Retail trade failures in the first three months of the year rose to 1,618, an increase of 17 per cent over the previous year.

Department store sales, even counting in the big mother's day splurge, are only moderately ahead for the year so far. Chain stores and mail order firms, as a group, report sales this April down 23 per cent from last year.

Many appliance dealers report sales slow and fret about rising stocks of big ticket items. This has led to some drops in factory output and has worked back to some decline in orders for the steel mill.

Quick Switch in Verdict

Umpire Artie Grove's changed verdict was the reason to call Cincinnati's Frank Robinson out at the plate, but Robinson barged into Wes Westman, the Great Falls catcher, then walked across the plate safely as the ball was dropped. Robinson had been thrown out (apparently) while trying to score on a fly ball to Willie Davis in centerfield. (NEA photo)

Zarilla Sees "Real Tussle" in Race for Pioneer League Pennant

"Looks like a real tussle, doesn't it?" remarked Al (Zek) Zarilla, affable manager of the Magic Valley Cowboys as he studied the Pioneer league standings. Zek's words stood at the top of the league Monday night, but only by a few slender percentages ahead of Pocatello and Salt Lake City. "I look for the race to be of close for a long time as evenly as these teams are playing right now," said Zarilla. Zarilla, of course, wants his first year as manager, but he's not making any rash promises.

Of course... it costs a little more than other straight bourbons

...but this is Old Taylor 86

Old Taylor 86 costs a little more than other straight bourbons because its quality is exactly the same as the proof-bonded bourbon. The higher its cost and sidrably less than bonded bourbon only because of lower taxes on 86 proof whiskey. Like any Old Taylor 86, mellow and satisfying — it's well worth its price.

Demo Royals Open Battles In California

SACRAMENTO, Calif., May 28 (AP)—Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver turned to California today to fight their final and most important presidential primary test.

Without even waiting to see how the vote went in the Florida primary where both were entered, the Tennessee senator and the ex-governor of Illinois hopped airplanes and took off for California.

Stevenson arrived in Los Angeles last night to start a seven-day whirlwind tour of the entire state. He and his headquarters in Twin Falls, Idaho, are in Los Angeles late today and also plans to stump the entire state during the next week.

In Vote State
At stake in the California primary next Tuesday are 60 big votes at the Democratic nominating convention in Chicago next Tuesday. But even more important is the prestige involved in a decisive defeat for either man in California would virtually eliminate him from the race. And there'll be no splitting of convention votes in California. The winner takes all.

Both men have something going for them in the election. Stevenson has the backing of almost every party leader in the state, including Attorney General Edmund G. Brown, the only Democrat holding a statewide elective office in California. His list of 119 delegates, many of whom were elected in the vote at Chicago if the Stevenson slate wins next Tuesday, is studied with "big wheels" among California Democrats.

Has 3 Names
Kefauver, on the other hand, had only two big names on his delegation—National Commission Chairman Charles McNamara and former Gov. Culbert L. Olson.

But he does have the assurance that the vote will be close. In the primary four years ago when he swept every one of the state's 60 counties against Stevenson, the man deflection nominally pledged to Brown, Stevenson was not an actual candidate in the 1954 California primary.

Voting next Tuesday will be strictly by party lines. The 119 delegates registered Democrats can vote only for Kefauver or Stevenson while the 2,774 non-party voters will be able to cast their ballots only for the unopposed "unity" slate of Republican leaders headed by Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The election will provide no test of the sentiments of some 150,000 independent voters who liked to state a party preference. They cannot vote in the primary.

Confusion Caused By Names of Pair
SACRAMENTO, N. C., May 28 (AP)—HARRIS COUNTY, Texas, is the reason for scratching their heads over which Robert B. Morgan is the newly elected county judge.

The two are not related, but both are well-known lawyers and both are well-known college graduates. They add to the confusion the wife of each is named Alice and each has a sister named Lucille.

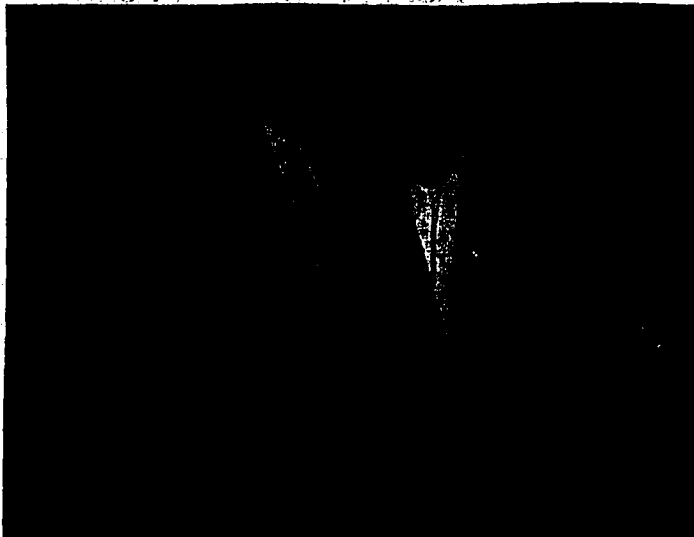

The senator still is receiving congratulations today on the judge's victory in last Saturday's dramatic primary.

Report Denied
PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, May 28 (AP)—An official spokesman today says there is no truth to Dominican press reports that two newsmen have been killed and a prospective presidential candidate denied the right to travel under the terms of Haiti's current state of siege.

Col. Marcelino Prosper, chief of the Port au Prince police, conceded that his men are looking for the co-editors of the unlicensed opposition newspaper Le Souverain, who had been reported killed. He added that so far neither they nor two other wanted newsmen have been found.

Men 'Rescued'
ST. NAZAIRE, France, May 28 (AP)—A mob of about 1,500 men stormed through police lines today and carried home in triumph a group of reservists who were scheduled to leave by train for service in Algeria. Several persons were injured.

Officials Confer Here on Plans for Natural Gas

Planners for installation of natural gas facilities in Twin Falls are indicated by City Manager J. H. Lattimore on city map that covers his desk. Photo was taken during an informal meeting held in Lattimore's office Monday by city officials and officers of the gas company and fiscal agents who will finance a gas distribution system. From left are H. L. Rossmel, White Wolf and company; John V. Keenan, Northwest Mutual Life Insurance company; Lattimore, and Otto J. Field, Metropolitan Life Insurance company. Waters Drain From Streets Of East City

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 28 (AP)—Floodwaters drained from Indianapolis streets and from the marshy fields of the big speedway track today, while citizens enjoyed a break in the dreary rain of the week-end.

Thunderbolts splattered the city last night, but there was no rain during the morning hours. Streets in the east side of the city, where flooded underpasses snarled traffic yesterday, were clearing out.

On the north and west outskirts, however, flooded streams still roar, threatening to cut off roads leading in and out of the city from those sections. Scattered showers were forecast.

The little lake which had formed in the infield of the speedway had drained away to a puddle by mid-morning. The track itself was not under water at any time, although surface water in the infield came to the edge of the racing surface for a time.

Turned Into Canal
For a time yesterday, the rain turned some streets into virtual canals.

Police and civil defense workers manned rowboats to get marooned motorists to safety on the city's west fringe.

A total of 1,500 families were evacuated in Indianapolis and surrounding Marion county and hospitals treated 30 exhausted persons. Damage was estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Malaria and yellow fever, often fatal to man, have no effect on the mosquitoes which carry the germs.

Banks Paying More Interest To Get Funds

NEW YORK, May 28 (AP)—Banks are getting more and more of the consumer's dollar into savings accounts under the toughest competitive conditions with the simple message formula: Higher interest.

"We don't need gimmicks, or trading stamps, or lures to get people to save money," a spokesman for one of the nation's largest savings banks said. "Offer enough interest, and good will and they put their money in the bank."

The ancient theory that higher interest will attract more savings has a surer test during the last six months.

The competition for wage earners' dollars was tougher than it had been in years. The "buy now-pay later" plans of millions of stores were attracting more and more customers. Consumer debt was increasing by leaps and bounds.

Wage earners who had saved $7 and $8 of every $100 in the take-home pay since 1950 suddenly shaved their savings to $4.50 for every $100 of disposable income.

Banks decided they had to do something to meet the challenge. Industry was clamoring for funds for record expansions. The demand was increasing steadily for mortgage money. Buildings and roads needed bank money for financing.

A few banks came up with unusual ideas to get more money into savings deposits. One concocted a plan to send his customers monthly "bills." When the bill was paid, the money went into the customer's savings account. A few other banks offered premiums to customers opening new accounts.

But most of them decided simply to raise interest rates. Banks paying two per cent interest boosted the rate to 2 1/2 per cent. Those paying 2 1/2 per cent hiked to three.

The magic worked for the banks. They started getting $8.00 of every $100 of take-home pay into saving accounts.
