Speaker Urges Delegates At Soil Meetings to Pass Better Land to Posterity

Elroy Nelson, vice president and economist for the First Security corporation, Salt Lake City, charged delegates to the 14th annual Idaho Association of Soil Conservation Districts convention with "passing on better land to the next generation through the use of soil conservation practices."

Reports at Convention

Nelson addressed a noon luncheon meeting of male delegates while auxiliary members met with Mrs. Basic M. Basil, Prairie, president, and Mrs. Jessie Danner, Shoshone, district vice president.

Delegates to the state convention met in an advisory capacity, spoke briefly at both luncheon meetings and the replacing of top soil.

During one of two panel discussions held in the morning, the speakers were: Elroy Nelson, vice president of the First Security Corporation, Salt Lake City; and Elroy Nelson, vice president of the First Security Corporation, Salt Lake City.

Local district members were urged to contact state legislators in their respective areas to urge the passage of legislation on the existing law and asking for a revision.

In another panel, delegates were urged to do more for their conservation research and to do more to get the dollar and to do more to get the dollar and to do more to get the dollar.

Hells Canyon Area Periled By New Dam

 Pleasant Valley.
 Asked about the report last night, Assistant Director of the Interior, Fred G. Aandahl replied:
 "I wouldn't want to make any comment on the report."
 Aandahl directs the department's water and power policies.
 "But in Salt Lake City, Secretary of the Interior DeLoach said in response to a question at a news conference that a study is under way to determine how the Pleasant Valley project may be developed."
 The administration was to propose a federal Pleasant Valley dam it would amount to reversal of its previous policy of letting private or local interests build dams and other water projects in instances where some major flood hazard is involved.
 Last week, however, this administration was reported starting on a complete review of its natural resources policies as a result of election setbacks in midwestern and western states.
 At the power commission hearing, the question was asked if the Pleasant Valley would flood a low dam which the Idaho Power Commission has increased to build in the Snake's Hells Canyon.
 The group she represents is opposing "power plants" to be built in the Snake Valley and Mountain Sheep state, arguing they would develop a dam in the middle stretch of the Snake.
 She also contended that new project standards adopted by the army engineers for a review of Pacific Northwest water developments pose the threat of a "great downgrading" of the Corps' comprehensive plan for the Columbia river.
 Rival attorneys repeatedly challenged her, as she questioned the project.
 Moment said that within the last 30 days the reclamation bureau has asked army engineers to study the possibility of a high dam at Pleasant Valley.
 Mrs. Cooper, replying to challenges to the question asking if the Pleasant Valley dam would inundate the low Hells Canyon dam licensed to Idaho Power.
 She said she understood it was being considered by the bureau because of an understanding that the dam does not plan to build the low Hells Canyon dam.
 The dispute over army engineers' new project standards has led out a few minutes later when Moment said the Corps now is reviewing only those projects believed "reasonable of accomplishment" and is excluding others from consideration.
 He said Pacific Power and Light Company, one of four private utilities making up Pacific Northwest Power, had concurred in the new standards.

 especially advised against over-grazing. He added that all farmers should be notified in eliminating erosion on public lands, noting that erosion on public lands is a serious problem. He said that these areas furnish perfect channels for runoff water.
 During the other panel discussion, Alton B. Jones, state superintendent of public instruction, Boise, told the group that conservation was being worked into the public school curriculum wherever possible. He said that the state is studying textbooks to be used select the local or state situation.
 He noted that educating and interesting the teachers in conservation will help the most, at this time. He said that the teachers do the best jobs on certain courses and that he is interested and has been informed on the matter.
 Mrs. John A. Lucke, Latah soil conservation district, closed the evening by presenting a number of educational contests that district had sponsored in the past few years.

U.N. Is Placed Into Wrangle On China Bid

UNITED NATIONS—Y. Nov. 16—India and the Soviet bloc forced the United Nations into a wrangle today on their efforts to oust Nationalist China from the world assembly in favor of Communist China.
 The debates caused postponement of a series of policy statements in which Herbert Hoover, acting secretary of state, planned to make a major policy address. Hoover is to follow the Brazilian and Iraq delegates.
 Talks Planned
 Washington sources said Hoover was expected to arrive here this morning anyway for possible "big three" talks with French Premier Guy Mollet and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.
 Three and a half hours of debate on the Chinese question will be held on Tuesday. The general assembly will meet on Tuesday.
 The assembly had hoped to start its general debate this morning—while the Chinese question was being discussed by foreign ministers or the highest representatives of the "big three" in the world body today.
 The discussion on representation of China actually involved the placing of the United Nations on the agenda for the rest of the 1956 session.
 Mrs. J. V. K. Krishna Menon and speakers for the Soviet bloc pressed for the planary session of the assembly to open this and place the Chinese issue on the agenda for full debate.

Benson Asks ICC to Delay Rate Hearing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson asked the Interstate Commerce Commission today to postpone for at least two weeks hearings on freight rate increases proposed by eastern, western and southern railroads.
 Benson said the department, which opposes the increases, needs more time to prepare evidence.
 The ICC set a hearing for Nov. 26 on a request for a seven per cent rate boost to meet increased costs. It set Dec. 14 as the date for filing statements and exhibits in connection with a petition for a 10 per cent increase to provide a higher return on investment.
 Benson asked postponement of both dates to enable the department to report to Congress the interests of farmers and the agricultural community in general in opposition to the proposed increases.
 In a letter to ICC Chairman Anthony P. Benson, Benson said the department of agriculture has a statutory responsibility to represent the interests of the agricultural community in matters of this nature.

Speaker Asks Better Lands For Posterity

 proving a case for better land.
 He pointed out that while industrial production has risen 44 per cent in the past eight years with no significant increase in employment, agricultural production has increased 20 per cent.
 Woodlot management and conservation of youth were studied by the group.
 The use of small farm woodlots to bolster the local economy was noted for years by the woodlot, ranging in size from a few acres to 200 acres.
 The group is currently using the woodlands to supply about two per cent of the local agricultural income.
 Vernon Burison, extension forester, Moscow, reiterated that through management the small woodlot could become a steady, if not large, income to the owner.
 He noted that 15 years ago farmers could only sell a small amount of their cedar post and pole demand and while pine logs, he added, this was an inconsistent market. Today, however, pulp and stud mills are able to take trees down to five inches in diameter. This means a lot more trees are being cut and would be marketable. Burison said this is where education of the farmer is needed on the sound principles of harvesting only mature trees and those that will not make good wood material. He said if the woodlot owner learns good management and follows it, the small stand will be able to produce a steady income.
 With the increase of population and the corresponding increase in home demand, the small woodlot owner will be required to supply more and more of the harvested timber. Burison predicted, he added, only through proper management and good planning can the woodlot owner be able to supply the needs of this country.
 L. W. Myman, Boundary soil conservation district, also urged woodlot owners to use them carefully. He said that the woodlot owner should be able to supply the needs of this country.

Elmore Votes Canvassed by Board Action

MOUNTAIN HOME, Nov. 16.—With the completion of the official canvass of votes here by the county commissioners Thursday, the Elmore complete tally of votes for Elmore in the recent presidential election was announced. The unofficial tally was compiled on the night of the election contained only 13 of the county's 16 precincts.

Each of the precincts was small and the votes cast in them did not substantially change the results announced in the unofficial tabulation.

On the Republican side of the ledger the votes cast were: Elmore 1,489; Herman Welker for U. S. senator 632; Hamer Idaho winner for sheriff 2,631; Percie Hall for prosecuting attorney 1,546; Paul Bremer for justice of the peace at Mountain Home 805, and Jay Taylor for constable at Mountain Home 1,011.

The Democratic vote was eleven: McLaughlin 1,750; Frank Church for U. S. senator 2,230; John Ray for U. S. representative 1,733; R. M. Wetherill for state senator representative 818; Samuel Blackwell for county commissioner in the second district 2,609; P. L. Williams for county treasurer 2,474; E. W. Williams for probate judge 2,631; Val Bertrando for justice of the peace at 2452.

Clifford Smith and H. G. Sanders, Democrats, were elected justices of the peace at Glens Ferry with 642 and 573 votes, respectively. Bert Walker and O. W. Young, Democrats, were elected justices of the peace in Hammett with 58 and 70 votes, respectively. In Pine Grove McGowan and James Monroe, Democrats, were elected justices of the peace in Atlanta with 50 and 47 votes and James Monroe and H. J. McKee, Democrats, were elected justices of the peace in King Hill with 114 and 80 votes, respectively. W. W. Sanders, Democrat, was elected Mountain Home justice of the peace with 352 votes.

Elmore county voters approved all three of the amendments to the constitution by a vote of 1,272 to 855 for the amendment to change the jurisdiction of the county courts, 1,670 to 1,127 to change the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, and 174 to 134 to permit a governor to succeed himself.

Indians Receive Delicacies Early

BARTOW, Calif., Nov. 16 (AP)—Thanksgiving came early in an Indian village near here. A freight line truck, loaded with such delicacies as cases of root beer and chocolate syrup, canned cherries, fruit cake and marshmallows, collided with a Santa Fe freight train at the bagget crossing.

Rail traffic was held up 45 minutes yesterday while the goodies were removed from the tracks. The Indians hurried away with some of the loot.

The three engines of the train were damaged as well as splashed with chocolate syrup. The van was destroyed. There were no injuries.

Idaho Power To Argue for Dams' Permit

BOISE, Nov. 16 (AP)—Idaho Power company said yesterday it will argue against the Oregon hydroelectric permit Monday for the final permit to build a dam on the Snake river.

F. E. Roach, president of Idaho Power, said he believed the hearing would be a contest of argument by attorneys. Under the regulations of the Oregon commission, he said it is necessary for protesting groups to give advance notice of their intentions.

Roach said Idaho Power will be represented by attorneys A. C. Grant, Baker, Owen, A. C. Tamm, and H. P. Parry, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Idaho Power has been granted authority by the Idaho state reclamation engineer and the federal power commission to build Brown-Orchow and Hells canyon dams. In previous proceedings, the National Hells Canyon association and other public power groups have protested the Idaho Power proposal. They favor a high federal dam in the same stretch of river.

Last summer, the Baker county court and jury indicted Idaho Power on a charge of violating Oregon law by beginning preliminary work on the dam without a permit from the Oregon commission. The Oregon commission, at the point in time, took Oregon district court jurisdiction over the case.

Doctors Disagree on Growing Uses of 'Tranquilizing' Drugs

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—A complaint that too many family physicians are prescribing "happy pills" for too many people has drawn a yes-and-no answer from the professional organization of family physicians—the American Academy of General Practice.

The complaint was made recently by the professional organization of psychiatrists, the American Psychiatric Association. It was based in part on the fact that in 1955 almost one third of all prescriptions written in 1955 were for one or another of the "tranquilizing" drugs.

The academy asked two of its members, Dr. Andrew S. Tomk, Victoria, Tex., and Dr. Joseph F. Fazekas, Washington, D. C., to editorialize on the complaint in its technical journal. Dr. Tomk found the complaint justified; Dr. Fazekas thought the opposite.

"Anytime that we let our patients think that peace of mind can come from a capsule or that contentment can be started by a pill, we are allowing them to be misled," said Dr. Tomk. "A pill or capsule cannot take the place of the physician's tolerance, sympathy and understanding."

"Patients are coming to the doctor's office even now asking for 'happy pills' or 'no-worry capsules.' In certain instances the prescription had become a substitute for the physician's personal care and advice. The elation (euphoria) of a tension state has thus become less important than the anesthetic effect of the tranquilizers, which are classified as 'ataractic' drugs."

Dr. Fazekas pointed out that before the advent of the tranquilizers, approximately one third of all prescriptions were for drugs which achieve the same effect but with more danger—sedatives, hypnotics, and anti-spasmodics. Furthermore, he continued, "the high alcohol consumption may perhaps be best attributed to self treatment of neurotic manifestations."

He further reminded psychiatrists that family physicians for the most part are "better versed" in the use of drugs than are colleagues who "have not had occasion to utilize such therapy since their internship." He granted that drugs alone cannot "cure certain psychiatric disturbances." He also said "that a complete repression of guilt, hostility, and anxiety, which presumably may occur following the administration of tranquilizing agents, may be undesirable. Yet it is difficult to measure how much guilt or hostility or anxiety in any given patient pushes that patient over the line between emotional health and illness."

"The chemotherapeutic approach to psychiatric problems may be one of the most significant advances in modern medicine," he said, "and the rational use of such drugs by the practicing physician will do much to ascertain their rightful place in the management of patients with emotional disorders."

Grange Plans for Attendance Fete

RICHFIELD, Nov. 16 — An attendance fete was planned at the Richfield Grange meeting Wednesday evening. The group also voted to install a new ceiling in the Grange hall.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson and Mrs. Rex Flavel were named team captains for the three-month attendance contest. Lending side will give a banquet. Committee appointments include:

Mrs. Flavel, Mrs. Jerry Davis and Mrs. Francis Sinclair, home economists; Mrs. Louisa Base, card sales; Mrs. Eugene Alexander, courtesy; Mrs. Base and Mrs. Alexander, publicity; Edgar Stubbs and Jack Hubsmith, rent, and Russell Powell, banquet agent.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson, lecturer, presented the high school freshmen speech class in a one-act play. Mrs. Ralph Smith was play director. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hidy and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hubsmith served refreshments.

Woman Says Mail Carrier 'Upsets' Pet

DALLAS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Postal authorities said yesterday that a Dallas woman complained that a substitute mail carrier was "upsetting" her dog.

"The regular carrier gets along with the dog," she explained angrily, "but every time the substitute makes the route it upsets my dog."

"Where is the dog now?" she was asked.

"Oh, he's under the mimosa tree in my yard," she replied.

"And where's the mail carrier?" "He's up in the tree," she related, "and he's upsetting my dog and making him bark."

Conduits for Stream Beds Are Forecast

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 16 (AP)—Senator Malone, R. Nev., has introduced a bill which would be valuable in the west in 50 years or so, as many streams will flow through conduits.

Malone told the National Reclamation association that as water-bearing "mud" valleys are "drowned" as spent in the conservation and this conservation will go on for centuries.

"Evaporation from reservoirs and running streams varies from four to seven feet annually, depending on latitude and elevation," Malone said.

Does not take a fortune lawyer to say that in a half century or more many of the waters of the west will be flowing through conduits.

The senator also said that the reclamation act is a "reclamation" act leading to plans "beyond conception" a few years ago.

California is talking of taking surplus Columbia river water south and of taking waters from the Missouri and Mississippi rivers lands west of the 90th meridian which are arid and semi-arid areas.

It may surprise you, but engineers have known for years this project is feasible but it would cost money.

A founder and charter member of the "National Reclamation" act of the organization for the past 25 years.

Malone said future years had even greater promise, with no one yet in position to know how cheap atomic energy will be.

Experiments now under way to perfect portable reactors to produce electric power may revolutionize the use of power for pumping in the west, he added. He said the experiments are directed at producing portable reactors for the armed services for use anywhere in the world.

Resumption Eyed Of School Census

BOISE, Nov. 16 (AP)—Alton B. Jones, state superintendent of public instruction, set out today for a series of school meetings at which he said he would see how much progress he can find for resumption of the annual Idaho school census.

Jones is scheduled to talk on a special discussion of school problems at the Sol Conventual District Association meeting in Twin Falls and at meetings of school trustees and administrators in Pocatello.

He said he favors legislative re-orientation of the census law because it would fill "a realistic need" for information about the number of Idaho school children and the "classification into which they fall."

The census was discontinued several years ago because the smaller school districts were not turning in reports.

Plans Services

KIMBERLY, Nov. 16—The Rev. Paul R. Kenyon, pastor of the King's First Christian church, will conduct communion Thanksgiving services at 10 a. m. Thursday at his church.

The Rev. Mr. Kenyon invited members of all churches as well as other interested persons to attend. "It is important that we in America pause to give thanks to God for all His benefits to us on Thanksgiving day," he said.

Services Slated

Recognition services for the winter Baptist church, 238 Tyler street, will be held at 7 p. m. Monday at the church.

Members from Conservative Baptist church of Idaho will meet in concert to recognize the church as "worthy of entering into the fellowship with the Baptist church of Idaho."

Eleven States Ask Hearings On Rate Hike

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 15 (AP)—The public service commissions of the 11 western states have asked the interstate commerce commission to hold public hearings on proposed railroad freight rate increases.

In a resolution, they requested the plan of the federal agency to hold public hearings on the application of the Interstate Commerce Commission of the Mountain Pacific States Conference at a meeting here.

The application involves a request for a 15 per cent increase, except for the maximum amount of 10 per cent, on commodities including fresh fruits and vegetables, canned goods, lumber, sugar and coal.

The ICC has set the matter for hearings in Washington Jan. 16-17, 24 and 25 and at Salt Lake City Feb. 4, 7, 11 and 14.

The commission of witnesses who filed in opposition to the increase by the state.

The state commission asked for hearings with adequate time so that interested persons could be heard.

Tight Money Jam Increases, Borrowing to Be More Costly

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—Still another borrowing and another boom in the standards for good credit risks are foreseen by some observers of the financial market.

If so, it means that more persons will be turned down when they seek to buy goods on time, that some will find it still harder to finance a house purchase, that some stores will find it easier to carry their Christmas stocks and some getting less credit from the bank may have to look for other ideas about how much stock to carry.

Some bankers see the renewed tightening of money as due in part to the international crisis, which is bringing a greater demand for American dollars in Europe—although not in Canada, where the reverse is true.

But most bankers think the chief factor is the government's need of funds for expansion is still the chief factor and will remain so.

The first major change in the money market since early October came this week when dealers in bankers' acceptances raised their rates—the seventh increase this year. They blamed tightening money conditions for the hike of one eighth percentage point. Bankers' acceptances are used for financing exports and imports and domestic shipments of goods.

The last previous hike in interest rates was about five weeks ago when the sales finance companies' dealers in commercial paper boosted their rates by one eighth percentage point. Interest rates generally had risen in a series of hikes last summer.

Refugees Arrive

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, Nov. 15 (AP)—Some 600 newly arrived Hungarian refugees were picked up by the planes of their shattered lives.

Queen Juliana welcomed them yesterday in a radio address. She told the people of the Netherlands that they will have them along to further strength to live on after their suffering.

AGREEMENT REACHED

CLEVELAND, Nov. 15 (AP)—Speakers for the publishers of the city's three big daily newspapers and the Cleveland Newspaper Guild said last night they had reached agreement on terms of new contracts replacing those which expired Oct. 31.

Appeals Are Filed For Cut in Terms

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Illinois supreme court today had under advisement appeals of the union sentences which a lower court imposed on two Boise men convicted of illicit acts with other males.

The court heard oral statements yesterday on the appeals of James Moore, 54, a former Boise high school football player, and Willard Wilson, 31, a liquor salesman.

Ada county district court had sentenced Moore to seven years in the state prison and Wilson to 10 years.

Their appeals are against the severity of the sentences.

Moore and Wilson were among 16 men arrested on similar charges involving 2000 youths and adult males.

ann sothern... at the sun valley shopping center?

There's been a lot of mysterious activity in one corner of the Sun Valley Shopping Center. With the flurry of hammers, saws and paint brushes it's obvious that something is going to happen... and soon!

And we have it on good authority that Ann Sothern... motion picture and television favorite is behind all the excitement.

Watch your newspapers and if you have a chance... keep your eye on the Sun Valley Shopping Center.

Remember... NOVEMBER 23rd, the day after Thanksgiving, will be a BIG DAY!!!

Two Types of Inflation Now Noted by 'Ike'

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—President Eisenhower points out there are two types of inflation and he finds that many business economists are wrong in their opinion that the rise in prices is to be feared that when the new chairman of the council of economic advisers over a couple of dollars may have a hard row to hoe if he tries to halt the price rise, he will be checked.

Inflation in simple terms means that your pocketbook buys less at the same time it is used, that your savings buy less of a house, that your money doesn't stretch as far as you thought it would.

The two types the President defines are:

1. The classical one, cheapened money, achieved by borrowing to spend or by just printing more money and therefore goods cheaper. This happened, notably during and after the two world wars.
2. Price rises brought on by economic factors, such as efforts to curb the inflation of the postwar period, but the President notes: "If you continue going up too rapidly in one area, say the labor market, then prices will rise and he puts his faith in business and labor leadership, maintaining a balance between rising prices and keeping it within bounds."

Hungarian Massacre Brings Repeated Questions to Yanks

By HENRY McLEMORE
AMSTERDAM—Holland's flag flies at half-mast.

The mourning for Hungary is a somber one here. The Emergency Red Cross office has a sign in the window that reads: "Hungary needs your help."

There is a steady stream of contributions from the American people. The Red Cross office is busy with the work of collecting and shipping supplies to the Hungarian people.

The American people are deeply sympathetic to the Hungarian people who are suffering from the effects of the Hungarian massacre.

News Clamps Are Slugged By Democrat

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Rep. Charles E. Wilson, D., Calif., today called the "shocking" a "pretext" for a proposal that newspapers be held responsible for the source of military news.

Wilson said the course "will never be permitted in this country and never should be." More to the point, he said, "the chairman of a house government operations subcommittee investigating the suppression of public information," said Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson should "publicly disown" the department's advisory committee headed by Charles A. Wilson, made the proposal to limit news as part of a program to keep down on "leaks" of military news.

Wilson said he had "serious reservations" about grand jury questionnaires on reporters. He said he would like to further and study report committee proposal.

More yesterday called a hearing on the issue for today, one reason he said that Assistant Defense Secretary Robert Trippe had to deny the subcommittee inquiry had been requested.

Wilson has returned to the subcommittee and what he called a "pretext" of the flow of information gathered by the armed services.

John D. McNabb Claimed by Death

BOISE, Nov. 16—John D. McNabb, an Idaho resident since 1918, died at 3:15 a.m. Thursday at the Magic Valley Memorial hospital.

McNabb was born Feb. 22, 1875, at Burns City, Ind., and married Zula Davis in March, 1903, at Eugene, Ore. They came to Idaho in March, 1918, and he worked as a farmer until 1948 when he retired. He was a member of the First Baptist church.

Surviving are three sons, Max C. McNabb and John D. McNabb, both of Twin Falls, and Donald P. McNabb, Bull; one brother, Ray McNabb, Boise; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at the First Baptist church with the Rev. John W. Barnhardt, in officio. Burial will be in the Bull city cemetery.

Forested Lands Opened to Entry

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The Bureau of land management announced today that about 800 acres of forested land in Douglas and Coconino counties, Ore., will be opened to entry under the public land laws.

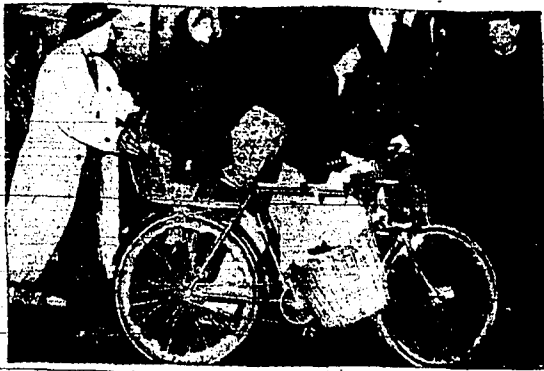

The land has been withdrawn since 1911 as a possible power site reserve. But the federal power commission and the geological survey reported it has no value for water power or storage purposes.

Applications for entry by veterans and others having preference rights will be received starting Dec. 1. Applications from non-veterans will be received starting March 14, 1957.

FIRM IS FORMED

BOISE, Nov. 16 (AP)—Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday for Payette-Bogard Bottling company, Inc., capitalized at $10,000, by William H. Bogard and Genevieve Bogard Payette and Judith A. Peller of Twin Falls.

Risked Death

Their bicycle loaded down with personal belongings, a Hungarian family arrives at Klingenbach, Austria, in Hungary, in a border where entire villages risked death to flee from Hitler's army. Although civilian support for the rebellion against Russian occupation was reported wanting, the fighting rages on in Hungary, as well as a general strike. (NEA telephoto)

Valley's Newest Sales Ring Will Open Sunday, Sale Set Monday

RUPERT, Nov. 16—Rupert's new sales business will hold open-house Sunday afternoon, Cecil Blinn, president of the Valley Livestock Commission company reports.

At 10 a. m. Monday the grand opening sale will begin with pigs and sheep on the block. A dedication ceremony will begin at 3 p. m. with Mayor Glover Acock giving the address of welcome. Other speakers will be Norman Westlake, Billings Mont., publisher of the Western Livestock Reporter, and Cecil Wilson, president of the Rupert Chamber of Commerce. A cattle sale will begin shortly after the ceremony.

The modern sales ring cost $135,000 and has a seating capacity of 700. The sales arena is all enclosed. The entire building, which houses a safe office and the arena is heated. The yards have concrete floors and railroad loading and unloading facilities are available at the yards.

The latest idea—in stock yards have been incorporated to make the handling of sales speedy and efficient, Blinn said.

Funeral Held for Man in Fairfield

GOODING, Nov. 16—Funeral services for Walter Bradford Wolf, Fairfield, were held at the Methodist church in Gooding Wednesday. The Rev. Moreland Woods, pastor of the Methodist church in Gooding, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Roy Duncan, Fairfield.

Tommy Thompson, Jr., son, accompanied himself on the electric guitar. Mrs. Tom Thompson, also accompanied her son on her own organ which had been moved to the church for the services. Kay Pond and Mrs. Jimmy Yammamoto, also sang.

Active pallbearers were Stan Peterson, Earl Wilson, Melvin Brooks, Darrell Thibault, George Perkins, and Wes Jones.

Honorary pallbearers were Ed Thompson, Harold Brooks, Jake Thurner, Henry Baucher, W. W. Leck, Omar Meeks, Charles Foster, and George Abbott.

Concluding rites were held at the Hill City cemetery.

Debt Cases Filed By Credit Bureau

A total of 3,000 judgments sought by the Professional Adjusters Bureau in two separate complaints filed in Twin Falls probate court Thursday.

One complaint alleges Kenneth Palmer received $18 worth of services from the Sun Valley Medical department on Jan. 31, 1954, for which he still owes. The bureau asks for six per cent interest from April 31, 1955, amounting to $1.60. In a second cause of action against Palmer, the bureau asks $3.75 for fees in the city hall to discuss the proposed sever system for Wendell Vern Anderson, Bull.

Sewer Meet Set

WENDELL, Nov. 16—An open meeting will be held at 8:30 p. m. today in the city hall to discuss the proposed sewer system for Wendell.

Representatives from the health department and the engineer will be present to answer questions.

GRANGE TO MEET

MURTAUGH, Nov. 16—Murtaugh Grange will meet at 8 p. m. tonight at the high school. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Breeding and Mr. and Mrs. William Pratt will serve.

Roundabout

SARANAS, Mich., Nov. 16 (AP)—The Saranac fire department hears a more direct fire alarm system.

The department learned of a fire yesterday after it had traveled about 100 acres of brush land. The blaze was spotted by a pilot, who radioed the news to Lansing airport, who called state police, who called Inoua police, who notified the fire department.

Restrictions Put On Elvis Concert

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 16 (AP)—A no-wiggle restriction has been placed on Elvis Presley's appearance here Nov. 25.

Police Chief Heustis said he won't permit "any lewd, lascivious conditions that would excite a crowd" when the long-haired, guitar strumming singer comes to town.

"As you can surmise," the chief said, "if just don't happen to be one of his admirers."

News of Russ Brutality Has World Notice

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Russia attacks Hungarian freedom fighters.

Headlines like this triggered a swift American campaign to tell the world—especially the Soviet Union—the full story of Soviet aggression that dominated the Hungarian revolt in blood.

Special emphasis was placed on getting the story to fence-sitting neutrals which have been unwilling to class the Russians as villains.

Priority Given

The drive was headed by the U. S. information agency which stamped "top priority" on the project and quickly marshaled all its forces to handle it.

One top official explained: "This was a clear case of Soviet aggression. And we wanted the world to see it and understand it."

Weapons Used of propaganda weapons—Voice of America radio broadcasts; international wire service; the agency's private wireless network; and its picture service.

The voice, the principal arm of the campaign, is the only one that could penetrate the Iron curtain. It beamed from 24 to 87 the number of programs beamed "live" to satellite audiences.

The broadcasts were in Russian, Polish, Czech, Ukrainian, Latvian, Estonian, Hungarian, Czech, Slovak, Bulgarian and Albanian.

Music Trained

Usual features like music and special extras were trimmed to the minimum so the voice could concentrate on straight news of the Hungarian crisis.

The voice denounced the Soviet brutality, but made no effort to incite Hungarians to rebellion. Its moderately worded broadcasts were intended to keep alive the breath of freedom for eventual liberation.

While the radio was pouring out the story, the wireless press service was sending thousands of words daily to approximately 200 posts abroad. The information was then distributed to local newspapers.

Pictures Used

The U.S. also managed to set pictures of the rebellion from Hungarian refugees who fled to freedom. These photographs, showing Hungarians battling against Soviet tanks, also were made available to newspapers around the world for use as they saw fit.

Officials said the pictures were particularly valuable in neutral areas because they showed beyond any doubt how brutal the Russians are in keeping its satellites in line.

Junior Legion Auxiliary Plans Installation, Initiation Sunday

FILER, Nov. 16—Installation of officers and initiation of new members will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Filer American Legion hall by the Filer American Legion Junior auxiliary.

Mrs. Blanche Brunel, ritualistic chairman for the senior auxiliary, will conduct both ceremonies. The Junior auxiliary, composed of school-age daughters of Filer Legion members, is one of the few organizations of its kind in the state.

All auxiliaries have junior members, reports Mrs. Max Dwyer, auxiliary president, but "very few have set up a separate organization for their younger members."

Meeting one afternoon a month, the Junior auxiliary carries out the same basic program as its older counterpart, participating in public service projects and charity work.

All Legion and auxiliary members are invited to the initiation and installation ceremonies, Mrs. Dwyer says.

Leaf Collection Is Set Here Nov. 26

Final leaf pickup will be staged by the city street department Nov. 26, reports H. H. Balleger, superintendent of streets.

"We might take a pariet crew to hauling leaves from in front of homes now, but said most of the crew is being kept on street roads as long as weather permits."

The entire street crew along with trucks from the sanitation department will begin the final mop-up Nov. 26 and should have it completed within a few days.

Homeowners who have their leaves raked and piled at the curbs are advised to wet them down to prevent scattering.

Balleger says a pariet crew is hauling leaves from in front of homes now, but said most of the crew is being kept on street roads as long as weather permits.

X-Ray on Girl, 2, Finds "Jackpot"

PONTIAC, Mich., Nov. 16 (AP)—They hit a jackpot when they X-rayed 2-year-old Sylvia McKinnon. Her mother, Mrs. Edna McKinnon of nearby Rochester, thought the child had swallowed a tiny plastic toy.

The X-ray showed the toy, all right—a two-inch plastic doll. It also showed a penny in Sylvia's stomach, next to the doll, and an open safety pin in her throat.

Physicians quickly persuaded Mrs. McKinnon to have her daughter have surgery.

Sylvia to eat some heavily buttered bread. That brought the pin into the stomach where it, the doll and the penny were removed by surgery.

'Rock 'n' Roll' Rhythm Helps Mentally Sick

DAVENPORT, Ia., Nov. 16 (AP)—The "rock 'n' roll" music of Elvis Presley is good therapy for mental patients, a specialist reported yesterday.

Dr. Florence Chambers, music therapist at the Independence State Mental Health Institute, told a staff meeting at Clear View sanitarium here.

"I can't stand the boy (Presley) myself, but his music is a very good thing for the patients," she said.

"The mentally ill, according to Freud, have lost their rhythm and are out of step with the world," Dr. Chambers said. "We use music to give them back their rhythm."

She said church hymns are used for rehabilitation work.

"They are nice songs in themselves but they have no rhythm and the lyrics are bad for the patients, reminding them of the past."

Dr. Chambers formerly was at State Hospital South in Blackfoot, Ida., but resigned in a dispute with the administration.

Joint Service Set

WETLAKE, Nov. 16—A special Thanksgiving service has been arranged for the community for 10 a.m. Thursday at the Methodist church.

The Rev. A. E. Gilbert will give the invocation, the Rev. Chad E. Bolek, pastor of the Presbyterian-Baptist church, will deliver the sermon. Thanksgiving music has been arranged.

GAME FEED SLATED

SHOSHONE, Nov. 16—A pleasant dinner will be served at the JPOC hall Monday evening for members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges and their families. The phoanis are to be furnished by Odd Fellows. Rebekahs will cook the dinner.
