Winter's Storms Cost 19 Lives in Northeast Areas

By The Associated Press.

Snow and sleet brought death and destruction to the northeastern states Saturday, the end of at least 19 lives, many of them in traffic accidents on glazed highways. Trees covered with snow and ice resembled Christmas car scenes, but the snapping of heavily laden branches broke power lines and cut off electricity from more than 25,000 homes. It left many without heating or cooking facilities. A power company official in Hartford, Conn., said the damage to lines was as bad as during the 1938 New England hurricane. The death toll: Connecticut—3, Massachusetts—3, New Jersey—6, New Hampshire—1.

Northern areas had up to 60 inches of snow. Sleet hit the coastal areas. Much of the coastal area, except what still remains in Connecticut, where more than 20,000 homes were cut off from electricity.

Emergency crews in New Jersey, emergency crews in New York, Albany and some other areas, had to dig out of snow. New York City was battered by rain.

Some sections of Vermont and New Hampshire reported up to 15 inches of snow. Northeast winds drove snow, sleet and rain into Massachusetts.

West Virginia had another problem—floods that cost at least 10 lives.

A landslide caused by rains wrecked a Baltimore and Ohio Co. train, killing 37 cars.

Others' Blood Saves Life Of Man Who Often Gave

A man who had often answered the call of blood donors in emergencies found the tables turned two weeks ago and became their recipient as he lay in the hospital.

Rupert, is alive today.

On Nov. 20, Zimmerman was stricken the end of his working day when he suddenly collapsed. Only a few minutes later 30 willing volunteers stood between him and death.

He required 15 pints of blood, which was donated by local residents in response to an emergency appeal broadcast Dec. 1.

After his collapse, Zimmerman was rushed to Maglo Valley Memorial hospital.

Some 11 persons, who donate blood to the American Red Cross bloodmobile Monday afternoon at the American Legion, will be repaid with Christmas dinner.

Through the cooperation of local grocery stores and delicatessen companies, seven turkeys and four hams will be given to donors through a major operation and bloodmobile will be open from 1 to 5 p. m.

Eisenhower, Dulles Note New Signs of Vitality for NATO

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles today hailed what they called "renewed evidence of vigor and unity" in the Atlantic alliance. They said that this renewed vigor is being displayed in the face of "difficulties and dangers"—apparently dangers arising from the unprovoked Soviet domination in eastern Europe. Dulles spent an hour and 40 minutes reporting to the President immediately after he returned here by air from Paris. In that city he held a week of conferences with allied foreign ministers at a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty council.

Hospital Says Crash Victim Listed 'Good'

Condition of Mrs. May Anderson, 42, was reported by Maglo Valley Memorial hospital Saturday following a "good" Saturday night following an accident Friday afternoon near Hazelton.

Mrs. Anderson and her sister Lulu (Mrs. Brownell) were taken to the hospital following the 1936 Ford driven by Dan S. Egan, Twin Falls, at a rural road near Hazelton.

Mrs. Anderson was reported having an injured chest and fractured right leg.

Newbury reported high weeds at the intersection apparently blocked the driver's vision. The Dodge rolled over.

The deputy estimated approximately $200 damage to the car and said Mrs. Anderson's car was demolished.

A Saturday investigation on the crash was completed.

Gifts for Blood

Some 11 persons, who donate blood to the American Red Cross bloodmobile Monday afternoon at the American Legion, will be repaid with Christmas dinner.

Through the cooperation of local grocery stores and delicatessen companies, seven turkeys and four hams will be given to donors through a major operation and bloodmobile will be open from 1 to 5 p. m.

Rupert Zimmerman, Rupert, says at drinking fountain in corridor at Maglo Valley Memorial hospital where he was a patient for the past three weeks. Zimmerman received blood donated after an emergency bloodmobile arrived at his home in Hazelton, B.C., through a major operation and bloodmobile will be open from 1 to 5 p. m.

Natural Gas Reaches Plant in Magic Valley

The official arrival of natural gas in Magic Valley was commemorated Friday at the Great Giant Canning company, Buhl, where the firm became the first customer. Intermountain Gas company in this area. In a brief ceremony, Mayor Marion Ambrose turned the valve which sent natural gas from the southwest flowing into the canning company's warehouse heating system. Earlier this month Fayette became the first customer in Idaho to receive the gas. About 30 Buhl civic leaders and officials of Intermountain Gas company, Universal Pipeline Constructors, Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corporation and Field Service Corporation attended a luncheon on Friday noon in honor of the occasion.

Driver Lands in Jail For License Charge

Joseph A. Martinez, 34, 333 Third avenue south, Twin Falls, was sentenced to 30 days in jail by Justice of the Peace J. O. Humphrey on a charge of driving a driver's license was revoked. Martinez was convicted Sept. 17 in Twin Falls district court on a charge of drunken driving, second offense. He was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary but was placed on probation to the state board of corrections for a period of 18 months.

Free Turkeys Scheduled for Blood Donors

KIMBERLY, Dec. 15.—Several free turkeys will be given away to persons who register for the East End Red Cross bloodmobile starting at 10 a. m. Friday, Dec. 28. It was announced by Mrs. J. M. Jackson, East End Red Cross blood chairman.

Local citizens have already pledged to donate turkeys for the drawing and other donations will be welcomed, Mrs. Jackson said.

"Christmas Spirit" Help Sought for Blood Drive

Appealing to Twin Falls residents to enter into the Christmas spirit, which has done so much to help the Red Cross blood drive, the Rev. Norman E. Stockwell, pastor of the First Methodist church, said today.

"The blood drive is a part of the Christmas spirit," he said. "It is a time to give of ourselves to our fellow men."

Board Okays Agreement on Use for Space

BURLEY, Dec. 15.—Water users in Snake River Watermasters district No. 30 Saturday approved an agreement for the bureau of Indian Affairs to buy water storage space in American Falls and Burley reservoirs. Approval was given at a meeting of the Committee of Nine in Burley.

The agreement, the reservoir water actually won't be used. It will be held as "replacement water" for the Bureau of Reclamation. Approval was given at a meeting of the Committee of Nine in Burley.

Sales Tax Not Approved by State's Demos

BOISE, Dec. 15.—Idaho's state democratic central committee rejected a plan to raise a sales tax today, but decided to make a recommendation concerning proposed amendments to the primary election law.

John Chasby, state chairman, said the committee had rejected the sales tax in the primary law but decided to make a recommendation concerning proposed amendments to the primary election law.

Eden to Face Gas Limiting Chaos; Battle

LONDON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Prime Minister Eden today stepped into the chaos caused by Britain's fuel shortage and sought to calm the situation by promising to ration gas.

"I am sure that the public will understand the necessity for this," he said.

Long Line Hunger Aids Reds to Split Latest Strike

BUDAPEST, Dec. 15 (AP)—Hungarian workers maintained their strike today as the aid of some 100,000 workers split into two groups.

The government made no move toward releasing two workers' leaders who were arrested last Thursday.

2 Stations Lose First Round in Court Case

District Judge Robert M. Beckwith in an opinion issued Friday overruled objections by the Perkins Standard and Gasser's Conoco service stations to a complaint filed by the city of Twin Falls charging violation of the city's zoning ordinance by staying open at hours prohibited in the zoning law. In overruling the special and general demurrers made by the service stations, Judge Beckwith opened the way for the case to be tried in court on the owner's merits.

Man Has Short Freedom From Stay in Lockup

BOISE, Dec. 15.—Anthony "Slim" Duffy, 30, Wendell, made a record of his stay in the county jail Saturday but his freedom lasted less than a couple of hours.

Duffy was arrested at Burley late Saturday afternoon on a charge of being drunk in his truck on the highway. Shortly after 10 p. m. he was arrested at Burley.

Give a Pint of Blood for Christmas; Bloodmobile to Stop Here Monday

BOISE, Dec. 15.—The state board of health asked Gov. Ronald W. Smeiley today to recommend that the legislature consolidate two of the three independent commissions in the state health department.

The board acted after a motion calling for the resignation of State Health Director L. J. Peterson directed by a resolution. This motion was made by board member Harry "Doc" Twin Falls, who said, "I am lost confidence in the director of the present administrator, and I feel he has lost confidence in me."

Later board member Charles Peterson, Salmon, moved that the board recommend to the legislature that two of the three present commissions be consolidated.

Bypass Plans Change Ecatello For Potatello

BOISE, Dec. 15 (AP) — The state delegation to Friday told a possible delegation to investigate possibilities of moving the location of the bypass around the southeastern Idaho city.

Camille Nielson, Banrock county commissioner and Wendell Marshall asked the board to consider such a move to make a real estate development.

Masonic Officers Picked in Burley

BURLEY, Dec. 15 (AP) — Officers have been chosen for the Burley lodge No. 68, AF and AM, with Robert Lylich, senior warden, Eugene Babin, junior warden, S. H. Kunaui, treasurer, and Mack Crouch, secretary.

Installation will be held Thursday, preceded by an oyster supper at 7 p.m. in the IOOF hall. The list of appointive officers will be released by Redfield at that time.

Publication Is Halted for Two Old, Well-Known Magazines

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (AP) — Two of the nation's oldest magazines, Collier's and Woman's Home Companion, are going out of business.

Heavy financial losses were cited as the reason for the suspension, announced last night by Paul C. Smith, president and chairman of the board of the Crowell-Collier Publishing company, which publishes both magazines.

The decision was made at a meeting of the company's board of directors, which had been called to decide the fate of Crowell-Collier's two magazines.

Collier's, founded in 1888, will be suspended after Jan. 4 issue. Woman's Home Companion, started in 1893, will cease publication with the January issue.

Smith said the magazines lost over 7.5 million dollars this year. The company, a successful book publisher, will have a loss of about 2.5 million dollars, he said.

Gardner Cowles, president of Cowles Magazines, Inc. which publishes Look magazine, said an agreement had been reached with Crowell-Collier to take over obligation for unfilled subscriptions for Collier's.

In addition, he said, his firm is acquiring the magazine title "Collier's." Each subscriber to "Collier's" will be offered the choice of Look or any one of several other Look titles.

"Any subscriber requesting a cash refund for the unexpired portion of his Collier's subscription will receive a refund check," Cowles said.

Crowell-Collier is making arrangements with other publishers for the fulfillment of unexpired subscriptions to Woman's Home Companion, Cowles said.

Collier's estimated total net paid circulation over the last eight issues has averaged 4,175,000, Smith said, while Woman's Home Companion had an average circulation of 4,225,000 over the last four issues.

In all, both magazines have unfilled subscriptions totaling about 18 million dollars, according to Smith.

Suspension of the magazines will directly affect about 2,400 persons, Smith said.

MOST RECOVER

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 15 (AP) — Nearly all 62 persons treated for food poisoning after a church lunch were reported out of danger today with only one woman still hospitalized.

Of these, 368 are employed in the editorial and advertising departments of the two magazines. All were notified of their termination as of last night.

The Springfield, O., printing plant, which prints Friends, the Chevrolet magazine, as well as Collier's and the Companion, employs 2,400 persons, Smith said.

They asked the proposed bypass for U.S. highways 91, 101 and 30 north to be moved farther east than the current location of the bypass around the college terrace section of University Park.

Canas Road Discussed

The board also met Friday afternoon with a delegation of Canas county commissioners to discuss proposed improvements on state route 68 west of Fairfield.

During the meeting, the board met with Mayor R. E. Edleson and the Boise city council to discuss proposed state highway projects within the city.

Roseco Rich, board chairman, told the Boise delegation that planning work on a project between 18th street and the Fairview bridge is included in the highway department's 1957 budget.

Another project in the survey and planning stage, the group was told, is a three-mile stretch of state highway 44 on Boise's west side.

The board also discussed possible widening of a curve on U.S. Highway 30 near the Union Pacific depot and proposed locations of the bypass and under the federal interstate highway program.

Wages Requested

The board took under advisement a request by Porter Brothers of Boise for a wage increase. The Beaver Creek summit at the head of Otzima creek open throughout the winter.

Porter Brothers has mining interests in the Bear valley area.

The highway board wound up its three-day session Friday and is scheduled to meet again Jan. 15-18.

Leaders Plan for Cub Scouts' Meet

HAGERMAN, Dec. 15 — Plans are made for the monthly pack meeting of Cub Scout troop 35 to be held at 8 p.m. Friday in the Hagerman Orange hall, at the leaders meeting held Thursday evening, in the home of Mrs. Mrs. Elwood Ortime, state fish hatchery.

It was decided to hold the leaders meeting on the last Thursday of each month, instead of the second Thursday as now scheduled.

The theme for the Christmas pack meeting will be "Christmas in the Americas." Following the meeting refreshments were served by the host.

Ladies' Night Is Set by Rotarians

BOISE, Dec. 15 — Rotarian ladies' night will be held at 8:30 p.m. with dinner at the IOOF hall. It was announced at the Rotary meeting Thursday.

Vocal and instrumental solo and ensembles from the high school music department, introduced to the club by Judy Baly, presented entertainment at the meeting.

Clayde Robinson, Boise, and Frank Abernathy, Jackson, Wyo., were visiting Rotarians. A. W. Perkins, Jackson, Wyo.; F. T. Morris, Elsieblown, N. J.; Mac Turner and Frank Atkins were guests. High school guests were Douglas Albertson and Arthur Adam.

$108 Spent to Beat Payment Of Fine of $10

LONG BEACH, Calif., Dec. 15 (U)—It cost him $108 to do it, but James A. McCary, 20, got out of paying a $10 traffic fine.

A judge suspended McCary's penalty yesterday after hearing his attorney's arguments.

McCary, a former resident of Long Beach, now lives in Springfield, Ill. When he learned there was a traffic citation against him, he arranged to be cited and arrived Thursday night. Cost: $108.

But that didn't leave him enough money for a room, so police let him sleep the night in jail.

The judge's verdict: $10 fine, suspended. "I think you've earned that consideration,"

Now McCary has to figure out how to get back to Springfield where he has a new job.

KNOTHOLE NEWS

Twenty-eight team composed of players ranging from the fourth through the seventh grade took part in 14 games which marked the opening of Knothole league basketball in Twin Falls Saturday.

Dennis Burrell poured in 16 points as he paced the Bulldogs to a 42-22 win over the Juniors Friday afternoon at the Green Giant Gymnasium.

Tom Adlett scored eight points while Lyons tallied eight for the winners.

In another seventh grade game, the Bulldogs beat the Bulldogs 21-10.

David Driscoll hit for nine more as the All Stars took most of the light from the Fighting Five, 32-7. Burton Webb paced the losers with three.

Boof Diller was the top scorer of the day as he swished through 21 points in the Slinkers' 33-28 win over the Junior Pirates. Jerry Daulton topped the Pirates scoring with nine points, followed by Kenneth Parker with eight.

The Bee Boys broke an 8-8 tie at halftime to edge the Pioneers 21-10 in a 12-point surge by the end of the game.

Leads scored eight for the Bee Boys in the sixth grade, the Orioles rolled up a 12-0 lead at halftime and John Keiker collected eight points for the winners. The Bee Boys' scoring was divided evenly among Brent Stewart, Danny Hooton and Teddy Daaverson.

The Sparkplugs eked out a 17-15 win over the Cougars after holding all at 8-0 in the first half. Kenneth Kinghorn of the Sparkplugs and Bobby Satterwhite of the Cougars scored 10 points each.

The Sharpshooters lived up to their names as they piled up 29 points in the second half while rolling to an easy 47-8 win over the Panthers. Tom Adams with 10 and Jerry Mitchell with nine led the attack. Scoring for the Panthers was equally divided among "Reddy" Olescamp, Craig Hill, Joe Brooks and Calvin Gramer.

After battling to a scoreless tie in the first half of a fifth grade game, the Globetrotters and Livewires found the range in the final half, with the Trotters taking a 15-6 decision. Delbert Edmund scored eight points for the winners. Gary Walker, Nick Bennett and Steve Thorton scored two points each for the Livewires.

The Huskies stayed off a last-half rally by the Indians to preserve a 25-15 win. The Huskies led 18-1 at halftime. Curtis Eaton and Bill Robertson poured in six points each for the winners while Larry Brubaker scored the Indians with five.

A light defensive tussle saw the Junior Bruins stop the Bluejays, 24-12. Pierce-Rosen scored four points for the winners. The Bluejays' only basket was made by Gregory Brooks.

Kyle Dennis scored eight points as the Wildcats took a narrow 13-12 win from the Cubs. The teams were tied 4-4 at the half. Steve Hancock was high man for the losers.

The Saints edged the Spitfires 18-8 in a fourth grade game. Paul Stover of the Spitfires and Douglas Letterson and Mike Watson of the Saints tallied four points each.

Larry Satterwhite tossed in eight points to lead the Migs to a 10-7 decision over the Steelers. Steve Thorton did all the scoring for the Steelers.

William Blake and Jay Hair chalked up four points each as the Unknowns downed the Thunderbolts 12-4. Stephen Dick and Dick Cox scored two points each for the losers, whose other two points were made by mistake by a member of the opposing team.

Mrs. Fred Ramsey Claimed by Death

Mrs. Fred Ramsey, a former resident of Twin Falls, died Friday morning in Tacoma, Wash., following a lingering illness. She lived with her daughter, Edith Ramsey, who teaches in a Tacoma high school.

Mrs. Ramsey came to Twin Falls around 1933 and organized the first Sunday school class in the Wesleyan church here. Her husband, water commissioner at one time, preceded her in death, was city water commissioner at one time.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at Mellenger's funeral home in Tacoma.

Toxic Poisons Are Attacking Marine Areas

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 15 (U)—A scientist recently returned from a four-month study of the sea said today a mysterious toxic poison is spreading among much of the world's marine life.

Dr. Bruce W. Halstead, associate professor of preventive medicine and public health at College of Medical Evangelists, Long Beach, Calif., said many formerly edible fish were becoming toxic from an unidentified poison that "seems to be chemical."

He said the problem was not serious in American waters, but was grave in many areas, particularly off the coast of Japan, "the Philippines and Hawaii."

He warned that fish in the Gulf of California and other Mexican waters were showing "increasing incidence of toxicity."

"Puffer and trigger fish in the Gulf of California are showing increasing evidence of poison and are especially dangerous at this time of year," he said.

Protest Made On Plans for Wool Imports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (U)—Carpet manufacturers endorsed and domestic wool producers protested today before a house ways and means subcommittee in a proposal to permit additional free imports of types of wools used in carpet making.

Under discussion was a bill by Representative Harrison D. V. Jones, N.Y., which would permit finer grades of wool to be imported duty free under bond for carpet manufacture.

Paul M. Jones, New York, president of the Carpet Institute, and other industry witnesses testified that a growing shortage of carpet wools from abroad is adversely affecting the American carpet industry.

He said the additional free imports proposed would not injure the domestic wool industry since American growers do not produce carpet grade wools.

The proposal was opposed by Representative Fisher D. Tamm, and Berry R. S. D., largely on grounds it would harm the domestic wool industry and set a precedent under which other wool users might ask special tariff treatment.

Wade noted that the agricultural Department had expressed "vigorous opposition" to the bill.

Another opposition statement came from John E. Breckridge, Twin Falls, Ida., on behalf of the National Wool Growers Association and the National Wool Marketing Corporation.

Breckridge said the bill would create a "privileged class" of manufacturers within the wool industry detrimental to other manufacturers and to wool growers generally.

Treatment for Indians Rapped in Note By Woman

Time-News:—Once again winter winds are blowing over the homeland of a once happy Indian people. With these winds come news that blankets the Indian reservation that—how many of these powerful nations of America and people of the world are shocked at the treatment of the Indian people by Soviet Russia. Already 1,300,000 dollars have been allocated, also a rehabilitation program is in progress for the people of Hungary. What about the rehabilitation bill for the American Indians? Will they be exacted? Is it right and so to do, to give help to the oppressed but let us not give too deeply into our savings that we cannot contribute a portion of the needy Indian people of our nation to make their homes warm and comfortable Christmas. It is expedient as well as right that justice and aid be given the American Indians for we have bungled badly our relations with them. For their wonderful gifts of agricultural products, their poetry, dances and traditions, we have taken them over and while their men's pattern of living, and their art on barren wastes and finally a reservation existence. The present plight of thousands of Indians constitutes one of the most critical conditions facing our nation today, in no situation on this continent could one do so much good and do it so readily. No question of human relations involves our spiritual integrity more seriously than this one.

Thanks Given to Those Who Aided Balloons Parade

Time-News:—I'm sure I speak for all the merchants in Twin Falls when I say "thanks" to citizens who helped make possible the successful glass balloon parade last Saturday. I would especially like to thank Ernest Cranner and his fine crew from the city parks and recreation department. All the hours they put into the parade. Additional credit should be accorded to Police Chief Howard Gillette and members of the force for the wonderful job they did in keeping children off the street and helping to route the balloons. The tremendous help of the Junior Chamber of Commerce also is appreciated greatly. I also thank the hundreds of youngsters who braved the chilly day to participate. I also thank the Twin Falls High School and Kimberly high school for providing the necessary festive air enjoyed in all parades. The merchants of Twin Falls say thanks for the help. NORMAN W. 'Charity at Home First,' Says Area Man on Refugee Influx

Time-News:—Would like to hear other opinions. The heads of our government have rapped and are bawling about war refugees into the U. S. according to our newspapers there is employment waiting. If there is employment for any of them, why do we have at the present time 2,510,000 unemployed U. S. citizens? I don't mean by this that we are not in sympathy and are sorry for their plight. But don't others think that our U. S. citizens should get the benefit of employment and living up to the American standard before people from other countries should be admitted to the U. S. by thousands? This is what the millions that are clipped of the American people and used for foreign aid. My personal opinion is that if we have a high school graduate to figure this out, charity should start at home. Some one told-off went MILLARD TAYLOR (Gooding)

Taxpayers, Parents, Citizens Are Asked What They Want

Time-News:—What do we as taxpayers, parents and citizens want and expect? I have just completed reading the report of the minimum education program evaluation committee. It reveals some very interesting and important facts. The part that impressed me the most was the report of the PTA. (It do not mean to be critical of the interim committee; they did a good job and I also have considerable respect for the report of the minimum education program evaluation committee.) Below is a compilation of findings and the principal questions and answers as tabulated by the officers of the PTA. 1. Do you have children in the public schools? Yes 9,837. No 1,221. 2. Do you pay taxes on real property? Yes 6,878. No 1,258. Total 8,136. 3. Are you willing to pay more taxes to support the public schools of Idaho? Yes 8,385. No 2,946. Total 11,331. 4. we are determined that more money should be raised, (as the above report would indicate). We better get dreaming and get our feet on firm ground. "I recall," the federal government would about 60 per cent of Idaho's land surface. No taxes there. I think the federal government took out of Idaho in 1918 around 120 million dollars in individual, corporate and miscellaneous federal taxes. On June 30, 1935, before Congress adjourned, I wrote to our senators and congressmen, and suggested they introduce legislation immediately that would force the federal government to refund at least five per cent of the above back to the states. Yes, a back door approach, but since the federal government has practically unpaired our taxing potential we must, in all states where the federal government has introduced legislation, demand relief. I received nice letters from all the congressmen but did you see or hear of this legislation being proposed? What could our general fund do with this six million surplus? Perhaps the time is ripe for us to think on action. GEORGE L. BLICK (Gooding)

Criticism of Jury for Death Of Baby Called 'Unchristian'

Time-News:—I believe for the sake of honest effort of the jury and the reputation of a good man, someone should speak up in defense of the verdict in the trial of Dec. 4. It certainly seems wrong and unchristian for anyone to criticize and condemn, publicly, something they have just completed beyond any doubt the charge in this trial was negligent homicide and the testimony of the officials who investigated this case is abundant beyond any doubt that the man who killed the baby had been no negligence on the part of the man on trial. Yes, I am a little about the home satisfied with themselves and the verdict. The justice in our country seems very good and comforting to know that an innocent man will not be condemned. What good would it have done to send a man to prison who has a perfect driving record for many years, and who would rather it had been his life in place of the baby's, if he could have had that choice? I believe that I can safely say that not one person who holds a driver's license has not shot a stop sign at some time. Most of us are lucky to that our mistakes never injure or kill anyone. There are many reasons why we have shot stop signs and for the most of us it is not because we have any criminal intent. It is because the road is unfamiliar. It is because the road is unfamiliar. This stop sign even blew up on me who are familiar with it. A little more practice of the Golden Rule would help most of us. Certainly, negligent homicide has never helped any cause. MRS. WAYNE FAGG (Wendell)

Editorials Rapped as Writer Says Pearl Harbor 'Planned'

Time-News:—I find your editorials are written contrary to facts and wonder if you know any better. It is the paper's policy to have a some time ago Sukuro, the Pearl Harbor gentleman, was exalted to the skies by the paper. Made to appear as a second George Washington and as one might expect his exaltation. King is, was doing this same. As a matter of fact, he is or was Japan's stooge and held his driver by arms set him by the tape, otherwise he wouldn't be dictating in East Asia. Ike, Military Leaders Desire Peace in Hopes for New Year

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—President Eisenhower, in special Christmas greetings to American soldiers throughout the world, voiced hope today for "a better world for all men."

"In this season, as we think of peace," he said, "the nation does not forget the efforts and sacrifices of those who protect our country from its enemies. May the blessings of health, in body and in spirit, be with you throughout the new year."

"As we celebrate the anniversary of the birth of our nation, we renew and fortify our hope and efforts for a better world for all men."

Mr. Eisenhower's message, sent in his capacity as commander-in-chief, set the theme for holiday greetings sent by secretary of defense, Charles E. Wilson, and other civilian and military leaders of the armed forces and chaplains board.

"You are the guardians of our country and our way of life," said Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, "and army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker said "... you are helping to keep alive in the heart of humanity the bright hope that freedom will someday supplant tyranny and oppression."

Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas said: "I invite you all to join me in the hope and thankful prayer to Him for peace on earth, good will toward

Hospital Workers Have Fun at Annual Party

The medical staff and hospital board of the Magic Valley Memorial hospital displayed their appreciation Friday night to hospital employees and their families by holding the annual Christmas party at the Turf club in Twin Falls.

Acts to Curb Inflation Has Solon's Okay

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Sen. Fulbright, D. Ark., today voiced support of government policy for curbing inflation through tighter credit and higher interest rates. "I think this policy is probably justified," said Fulbright, chairman of the senate banking committee. "Securing stability is a good thing, of course, politically it is a difficult thing."

Firm Will Not Declare Extra '56 Dividends

BOISE, Dec. 15 (AP)—Notwithstanding indications that the 1956 net income of Morrison-Knudsen Co. Inc. was $25 million, the firm did not declare a year-end extra dividend. An announcement made at the conclusion of a directors' meeting here, H. W. Morrison, president and chairman of the board, stated that "the very substantial" volume of construction in progress together with other factors dictated that the firm requires "an extraordinarily large amount of cash working funds."

Deadline Set for Trip Application

COLLEGE OF IDAHO, Caldwell, Dec. 15—Applications for 31 openings on the 10th annual College of Idaho field biology expedition to Mexico must be submitted by Jan. 1, reports Dr. Robert Brata, biology instructor at the college and co-leader of the tour. Dr. Lyle M. Blanford, also a biology instructor at College of Idaho, will accompany the group. The tour is scheduled for June and July of 1957 and will cost approximately $225 plus spending money, Dr. Brata added.

More Than 300 Turn Out Here For Party of Hospital Workers

More than 300 doctors, hospital board members, hospital employees and their families attended an annual Christmas party Friday night at the Turf Club. The party was sponsored by the hospital.

Speaker Named for Trip Application

Dr. Lyle M. Blanford, also a biology instructor at College of Idaho, will accompany the group. The tour is scheduled for June and July of 1957 and will cost approximately $225 plus spending money, Dr. Brata added.

Inspection Set in 5 Drought States

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—President Eisenhower and Agriculture Secretary Benson tentatively plan trips in five arid states hit by the drought next month, but their itinerary still is not definite. Spokesmen say the President plans to fly over the parched areas and to make auto drives into the country at points where the rains land. The trip will give the visitors a "greatly good picture" of drought conditions in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado and New Mexico, Benson told reporters.

Retains Post

ROME, Dec. 15 (AP)—Palmino Tognoli, secretary of Italy's Communist party today, following the final sessions of the organization's annual congress. Before the congress opened early this week, there had been speculation that party troubles at home and abroad might lead to an effort to shake Tognoli's grip.

Workshop of Unit Leaders Set in Burley

BURLEY, Dec. 15—A workshop of student council in Magic Valley high schools will be held Monday afternoon at the Burley high school. Dinner will be served at the Elks club at 6 p.m. at which Dr. Royal B. Garff, speech director at the University of Utah, will speak. The workshop will be called to order by Earl M. Carlson at 7 p.m. Dr. Garff will give the address of welcome. James Roper, a member of the Justice Chamber of Commerce, will speak and Newell Dayley will lead singing, accompanied by Sheila Gunnerson. Dr. Garff also will speak during the afternoon as will representatives of three schools. They are Bonnie Barney, Shoshone; James Kirkpatrick, Valley high school; and Mark Gorringer, Oakley. Six panels are scheduled for the afternoon. William Eden, Shoshone, will be chairman of the panel discussion for the student body presidents. On the panel will be Gary Haurich, Richfield; Gary Moore, Hagerman; Gray Brown, Kimberly; and Margaret Klutz, Hansen. Jerry Grant, Richfield, will be chairman for the panel for vice presidents. Other members will be Bruce Kenner, Valley high school; Debra Roberts, Murtaugh; Roberta Delmers, Burley; and Allen Frank, Oakley. The panel for secretaries will be handled by Connie Block, Jerome. On the panel will be Elaine Anderson, Wendell; Karen Allen, Hansen; Marie Peterson, Wendell; and June Taylor, Carey. Presidents of senior classes will confer under Adrian Deigh, Twin Falls. Members of his panel are Mickey O'Brien, Richfield; Kent Howe, Kimberly; and Carol Matthews, Burley. Sandra Schofield, Burley, will be chairman of the panel on Pep clubs. On the panel will be Patricia Sullivan, Minidoka county high school; Daro Stevens, Bellevue; and Diane Beiko, Oakley. Dean Perry, Declo, is chairman of the panel for presidents of letterman clubs. Garth Larsen, Hagerman, will lead the invocation at the banquet. In addition to Dr. Garff's speech, panels will give reports on their discussions.

Posse Scores for Wild Area for "Ball of Fire"

ANTIMONY, Utah, Dec. 15 (AP)—A posse led by Platte County Sheriff Carl O. Beebe hoped to find out more today about that "ball of fire" seen plunging into a nearby mountain. Several Antimony residents said yesterday afternoon, and an air force plane that flew over the area reported spotting a fire about five air miles east of here. That's where residents thought the object might have come down. The civil aeronautics administration post-hood reports that the object may have been a plane. Officials in Salt Lake City said all planes in the area have been accounted for. "It could have been a meteor," a spokesman suggested. Beebe, who led a three-Jep posse into the area last night but had to come back when darkness fell, said it is 12 miles by jeep to the spot where the fire was reported seen.

Artist's Sketch of Regulus II

The Regulus II, now superfluous missile, is launched from a submarine in this artist's sketch released in Washington by the U. S. navy. Describing it as faster and with longer range than its predecessor, Regulus I, the navy said it is currently under test. Both missiles are suitable for surface weapons. New contracts for manufacture of the ten missiles totaling 26 million dollars have been awarded to Chance Vought Aircraft, Dallas, Tex., the navy said. (U. S. navy photo via AP wirephoto)

Plane Is Landed Despite Trouble

LONDON, Dec. 15 (AP)—A TransCanada Air Lines Super-Constellation airliner which developed engine trouble over the Atlantic landed safely on three engines at the London airport today. The plane, carrying 58 passengers and eight crewmen. Veterans pilot Bruce Bowden was reported during the night that one of the plane's engines was not operating properly. He said then that he would land at Shannon, Ireland. But as the big plane approached the Irish coast the trouble was in-

Election Held For Wendell's Chamber Unit

WENDELL, Dec. 15—B. D. Zollinger was elected president of the Wendell Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening.

Officers elected are J. Forde Weaver, vice president; Mrs. B. K. Bungum, secretary; Craig Robinson, treasurer; and Arnold Runyon, president. Also elected are S. H. Albertson, M. L. McBride, and R. B. Knutson, members of the executive committee.

A resolution was passed by the chamber opposing a sales tax or any other tax burden being placed on taxpayers until a complete study is made of the present expenditures in order to see where savings may be accomplished. It was recommended that the legislature immediately appoint a commission of qualified citizens or a similar body to study ways to study ways of lightening the burden of taxation.

Copies of this resolution are to be sent to the state representative, state senator and the Idaho Chamber of Commerce.

Plans were made for 4:30 p.m. meetings to be held beginning with the January meeting.

Reports on the Christmas pageant were made by J. H. Freeman and Douglas Schrank and by Charles Miller on the credit of the holiday scene in the park. Clyde Nielsen, O. F. Eisenhauer and Francis Chandler will be in charge of the Christmas home lighting contest. Three prizes of merchandise will be given.

Edison was in charge of the publicity for the arrival of Santa Claus Saturday, with treats for the children of the area. Morris Perkins and S. H. Albertson were in charge of the funds for the Christmas pageant.

Five dollars was given to be used for a local prize in an essay contest on the subject of "Employment of the Physically Handicapped."

"Now Don't Go Messing up Christmas!"

American Correspondent in Budapest Removes Stars and Stripes From Car

THIS is another in a series of the only American correspondent who "crossed" Budapest throughout the revolution and the second attack on Nov. 4 and crushed the young democracy, the West stood by, seemingly helpless.

On Csepel Island where the workers fought for the seized Hungarians' greatest complex of factories, a president Eisenhower said the United States has never encouraged a revolt against a legitimate government. What does he mean? "What does he mean?" asked the correspondent. "I don't know and I still don't know."

One man in Munkacs, 160 miles northwest of Budapest, pushed his head into our car to say: "You Americans, you give us a lot of help when we need it. Drop dead."

Much harder to take was the kindness of an old woman. She too asked why the Americans didn't help. I told her, "but I am only one person." He patted by shoulder.

Most blame in Hungary is aimed at Radio Free Europe and the Voice of America. They have been successful in reaching the Hungarian people. So much so that over and over again, Hungarians would ask:

"Why do you bother talking if you are not going to do anything?"

But the problem goes deeper than radio broadcasts. The mere example of free societies in the West was an encouragement for Hungarians to attempt, and almost achieve, the impossible.

The United States was not the only target. Britain and France were accused time and again of having enabled the revolution to cover their attack on Egypt.

A worker in Csepel said, "Britain has robbed the chestnuts of Suez in the fires of Budapest."

Another said more bluntly, "Eisenhower has stabbed the Hungarian revolution in the back."

But the United States drew blame, too, for its Suez policy.

"If Eisenhower can threaten war when the Russians talk about volunteers, why can't he do the same when they send 5,000 tanks into Hungary?" asked a miner in Doros.

Are we less important than the Egyptians and the Israelis? Is the blood we shed less red than theirs?

Despite the inability of the Hungarians to understand the reasons why they were not helped, the West and America in particular, has a great reservoir of good will.

On the simple human side, the Hungarians are grateful for the help the West has given them over the years. Time and again, anonymous little people would come to me to ask that I help send messages to friends. No requests for aid, just assurances they had survived.

The messages were left in the hotel, slipped in our pockets, left under the windshield wipers of our cars or handed over openly under the noses of Soviet soldiers.

I remember one it read: "Tell Louie we are living. Tell him we love him."

The Vienna license plates on my car brought the repeated query, "are you going to Vienna?" but no one ever asked that I take him along.

It was in a feeling of utter inadequacy that I took the flag off my car on Nov. 12. The burden of being a representative of all America was too much.

CHURCH TO SPEAK

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 15—Bentley-Elect Free Church will speak at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday in the R and R cafe. His appearance was arranged by Grace Spradling, vice chairman of the Twin Falls county Central Democratic committee.

Union Ugring Teachers Pay Hike in State

Members of Twin Falls local No. 1 American Federation of Teachers recommended Thursday evening that Idaho teachers salaries be raised to at least the average of those in other western states.

Following Twin Falls high school the group noted that state salaries are approximately $700 less than the average wage paid to teachers in Montana, Utah, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Wyoming.

Legislative proposals scheduled for presentation by the state federation were outlined. Among them were creation of a pre-dismissal notice, listing causes for dismissal of teachers; right of appeal of dismissal to the board of education and courts in case of dismissal; and a guaranteed 40-minute duty-free lunch period.

2 Bonds Go to Grange Chief

Brian Platt, Knoll Grange master, was awarded two bonds from the state Grange for achievement in the community service in the past year by E. M. Dossert Friday evening at the community dinner.

Mr. Tom Hiral, home economics chairman reported on the last bridge dinner. A card of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Albert Cederberg by Mrs. T. M. Knoll. Appreciation was announced that the next Pomona Grange meeting would be held Dec. 21 at Knoll.

Mrs. Charles Stevens, program chairman, reported on the Christmas piano numbers were played and Christmas cards mailed.

Myron Dossert and son and Mrs. Roy Deussen McKinney were guests.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 28 with Mr. and Mrs. Platt, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jones as host.

Frank Peterson Taken by Death

Frank P. Peterson, 71, died at 4:30 a.m. Saturday in St. Benedict's hospital, Jerome, following a seven-month illness.

Mr. Peterson, who lived at 208 Sidney street, Twin Falls, was born in Populville, Ill., March 4, 1885—his mother, Mrs. Mary Peterson, died in Fulton, Mo., in 1948.

He was a member of the Lutheran church and of the Farmers Union, local No. 443. Mr. Peterson was an employee of the Jerome Cooperative creamery.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Peterson, Twin Falls; three sons, Frank Peterson, Jr., Olney, Wash.; Phillip Peterson, Boise; and Robert Peterson, Twin Falls; four daughters, Mrs. Vera Peterson, Riofield; Mrs. Violet Delgado, Morgan Hill, Calif.; Mrs. Vivian Turner, Denver, Colo.; and Jack Thompson, Olympia, Wash.

Also surviving are four brothers, George Peterson, Wylie City, Kans.; Harry Peterson, California; Edgar Peterson and Lawrence Peterson, both near Springdale, Kans.; and Lester, Mrs. Lena Loggins, Harrington, Kans.; Mrs. Emma Paulings, St. Joseph, Mo.; and Mrs. Dorothy Swartz, Salina, Kans.; twelve grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Reynolds funeral home staged with the Rev. A. E. Mueller, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church, officiating. Concluding services will be held at Sunset Memorial park.

FISHERMEN HELD
TOKYO, Dec. 15 (AP)—The maritime safety board said today Russia is holding 129 Japanese fishermen captured in Soviet waters since the end of World War II.

Kiwanis Clothing Collection Declared Tremendous Success in T.F. Saturday

Chairman Harold D. Cook of the Kiwanis Clothing Collection Saturday declared a tremendous success, adding that Kiwanis club members had collected a "large and varied assortment" of used clothing to be distributed to needy Twin Falls families.

Cook reported that club members were still collecting clothing at the time this week-end.

The project has been such a success that the Kiwanis club will make it an annual event, Cook said.

Occupying several rooms in the old hospital building, the clothing will be divided into men's, women's and children's groups and hung on racks furnished by Mrs. L. L. Lang.

Paul Happenings And Visits Listed

PAUL, Dec. 15—Davis Green underwent a major operation Tuesday in the LDS hospital, Salt Lake City. Mrs. Green remained in Salt Lake to be near him. Their son, Averil, returned home Wednesday. Mr. Green's condition is good.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Spruler of Populville spent Wednesday night with Keith Treiber.

Mrs. Lynn Coon returned Friday from a three-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Booth of Coldwater, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Francisco and family left Saturday for California to spend Christmas with her parents.

Herbert Rau underwent a major operation at the Cottage hospital in Burley Tuesday.

Haiti Chief Tries To Form Cabinet
PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti, Dec. 15 (AP)—Provisional President Joseph Nemours Pierre Louis consulted top Haitian leaders today in an effort to form a new coalition cabinet.

Pierre Louis, who assumed power after President Paul E. Magloire resigned and went into exile, said he planned to withdraw armed soldiers from the capital streets now formed normal activity yesterday. Women on foot or outside burros resumed their usual daily trek down the hills to bring produce to city markets.

Lions Club Holds Christmas Party

PAUL, Dec. 15—The Paul Lions club entertained members' ladies at a Christmas dinner and party Thursday evening at the club room of "Cordoba-est."

Each woman received a Christmas gift as a favor. The tables were decorated in the Christmas motif.

Howard Cortes was in charge of the program and led the Christmas carol singing by the group. Those who appeared on the program were Lila Opp, flute solo accompanied by Mrs. Rhinhold Opp, and Rose Hamilton, Judy Twiss, Judy Francisco and Joan Schmitter playing a woodwind ensemble number.

It was announced by the president, Harper Hunsaker, that the birthday calendars were being printed and would soon be ready for distribution.

Mrs. Harold Cook assists with sorting clothing collected by Kiwanians Saturday. The clothing will be available to needy Twin Falls residents from the "clothing room," located in the old hospital building. (Staff photo-enlarging)

Train Mishap Injures 26 in New England

HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 11 (AP)—Three coaches and a dining car of a New Haven railroad train derailed from New York to Montreal Tuesday the rails today and at least 26 persons were removed to hospitals.

Seven were treated at Hartford hospital, but not admitted because their injuries were not regarded as serious.

Another 19 were treated at a Francis hospital.

The derailed cars were at the end of a 12-car train and remained upright after the accident.

Federal Payroll Growth Is Seen

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Congressmen are compiling that the administration's four-year-old effort to trim the federal payroll is making headway.

The government has added 100,000 employees to its payroll since last January.

Both Democratic and GOP congressmen complained yesterday that Assistant Budget Bureau Director Robert E. Merriam, III, reported before a house subcommittee studies the government's use of the manpower on the 10-billion-dollar payroll.

Police Work to Notify Bicycle Owners

Twin Falls Patrolmen Don Scott, right, and Francis Ashcraft, check a few of the bicycles and bicycles recovered by the police department. The patrolmen are checking for identification marks or numbers so owners may be notified. Over 80 per cent of the three dozen vehicles now at the station have been notified. Police pick up around 60 bicycles a month which have been stolen and then abandoned. (Staff photo-Engraving)

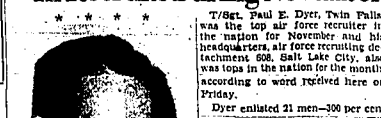

Recovery, Storage of Lost Bicycles Are Time-Consuming Jobs of Police

Have you lost a bicycle or tricycle lately? The chances are good that the vehicle is now at Twin Falls police station. Recovering and identifying stolen and abandoned bicycles occupies considerable time of Twin Falls patrolmen. Police Officer Howard Gillette says 80 per cent of the owners, or parents of owners, have been notified. He estimated around 60 bicycles are stolen and then abandoned in Twin Falls each month. Unless the owner comes to the station immediately upon notification of the recovery of his bicycle storage becomes a problem. Bicycles which are unclaimed or unidentified are eventually stored in the city barn. A few of the bicycles now stored at the police station have been there for several months. Many of the vehicles are new, expensive models. Gillette urges all bicycle owners to place a number or mark on the vehicle so that in event it is stolen it can be identified positively when recovered. He further suggests all owners padlock their bicycles when not in use.

Santa Fined

CLINTON, Ill., Dec. 15—Santa Claus was a bit peeved today at the Clinton police department's lack of Christmas spirit. Edward Pollock, who dressed as Santa and listens to children's requests in a small mobile hut, was fined $20 for parking the hut in a metered parking lot.

Recruiter Here Leads Nation In Recruits During November

T/Sgt. Paul E. Dyer, Twin Falls, was the top air force recruiter in the nation for November and his headquarters, air force recruiting detachment 608, Salt Lake City, also was tops in the nation for the month, according to word received here on Friday. Dyer enlisted 21 men—300 per cent ahead of all air force recruiters in the United States. Detachment 608 posted a 140 per cent figure with 114 enlistments. Dyer reported Friday he actually had processed 29 Marine Valley men during November, but eight of them were rejected after taking physical examinations in Salt Lake City. His office is located at 142 Main avenue south.

Man, 65, Enlists Into Air Force

MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 15—An 65-year-old man, Roy E. Allen, who lost a son in World War II, yesterday re-enlisted for a six-year hitch. Starter, who claims to be the second oldest enlisted serviceman in the nation, explained "there's no age limit for enlisted men." His son, Roy, Jr., was killed at Wake Island in one of the early battles of World War II.

Mishap Kills 4

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 15—Four men were killed, and two of their companions and two waitresses were hurt, when an auto plunged through the front of a tavern early today. Police said the car was going so fast it broke through the back front of the building. The women behind the bar, cleaning it, were not seriously injured.

Broken Dentures

Apparently the delay in parents coming to the station to claim their children's bicycles is an attempt to punish the child for not taking the bicycle, police think. Such action also contributes to the police storage problem. Gillette recommended bicycle riders not leave their vehicles on sidewalks, even though padlocked. Some instances have been noted of bicycles being left downtown and then recovered as stolen.

'Ike' Wins by Nine Millions Plurality Vote

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—President Eisenhower swept to a reelection on Nov. 8 by a whopping 5,128,492 majority for admi- nistrator Eisenhower, over Sen. Stevenson, on a plurality of 9,547,354. Other candidates polled—417,000 for grand total of 62,628,700.

This total set a new record, but only by 479,839 over the previous high of 1928. Election ex- perts had estimated in advance that this year's vote would be about 10 million more than the 52 million of four years ago when a gain of around 11 million was achieved.

Largest for GOP Eisenhower's margin this time over Stevenson was the largest ever attained by a Republican for admi- nistrator Franklin D. Roose- velt's 11,072,014 plurality over Alf Landon in 1928, the record.

Eisenhower's percentage of the total vote this year was 57.3. This compared with 56.4 per cent ob- tained by Roosevelt in 1936, when the total vote was 45,647,117.

Eisenhower's percentage also fell short of the 60.3 rolled up by Warren G. Harding in 1920 and the 60.2 received by Herbert Hoover in 1928.

Large Percentage Vote The total 1950 vote was 71.4 per cent of the estimated eligibles and 60.4 per cent of the estimated civ- ilian population voting age. In 1936 the total vote was 57 per cent of the estimated civilian popula- tion voting age.

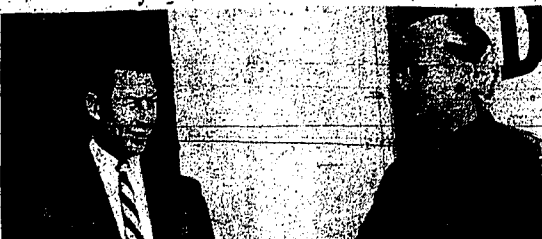

The figures as tabulated by The Associated Press today are official for all states except Rhode Island. There absentee voters are still being counted to establish a winner in a disputed election, thus holding up an official total also in the presidential contest.

Electoral College Presidential electors meet in state capitols to make formal recordings of the vote, which shows Eisenhower carried 41 states with 457 electoral votes and Steven- son seven states with 74. In 1936 Eisenhower won 33 states with 45 electoral votes and Stevenson 17 states with 29. An electoral majority is 270.

Splitter Votes Counted The splitter party vote this time was 100,000 more than in 1936, an increase of more than 100,000 over 1932, due largely to various states' rights tickets in the field, which polled an aggregate of 310,218. These independent groups, favoring the states' handling of sovereignty and other problems, income tax reform and drastic cuts in federal aid, were not behind one candidate, and divided their vote.

Headquarters Opened in T. F. For March of Dimes Campaign

The Twin Falls March of Dimes committee opened its campaign headquarters Saturday at the corner of Second street and Third avenue east. The drive for polo funds will be in full swing by Jan. 2, but preliminary work is being done now, said W. A. Reynolds, Twin Falls county chairman.

Features of the drive will include the annual Lions club redneck, a children's mother's march, and a variety show in March.

Reynolds said funds for the forth- coming year are needed to purchase radios and rehabilitate polo vic- tims. He said there were seven cases of polo in Twin Falls county in 1949.

2 Children Die In Home Blaze

OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 15 (AP)—Oakland police today said the father of two young children who perished in a fire early this morning admitted setting the blaze because he wanted to keep his estranged wife at home.

Police said Gerald Clayton ad- mitted setting the blaze which burned to death 3-year-old Jerry, and 2-year-old sister, Dilene, a third child, Stephanie, 2, was rescued safely by a babysitter, Rosale Scott, 15.

Police said Clayton told them he watched his estranged wife, Dolores, make a tour of neighborhood bars last night. He got mad and went to his home at 1018 E. 25th street, Oakland, and set fire to the outside of the building.

Police said Clayton claimed he was trying to scare his wife into staying home with the children. When the fire got out of control, Clayton said he got scared and fled. Mrs. Clayton came home at about 3 a.m. and went into hysterics when she heard her two children had been burned to death. She was hospi- talized.

Susie Will Reside In Lap of Luxury

OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 15 (AP)—A $60,000 trust fund, made public yesterday, is to see that Susie, a col- lege three-prawn for breakfast, beef kidney for lunch and beef liver for dinner.

Susie also is to drink half cream and half milk at each meal. The will of Lottie M. Conklin, 76, of nearby San Leandro, gave custody of Susie to her sister, Ruth Clinger, also San Leandro.

The sister is to get $50 a month to buy Susie's food and pay other incidental bills for the cat. A separate trust fund for Mrs. Clinger provides $200 a month.

Student Priests To Be Ordained

Budge Battles Wool Imports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Rep. Hamer H. Budge, R. Ind., today urged congressional defeat of proposed tariff law which would permit free entry of certain coarse wools.

Budge said such legislation, enacted, might have an adverse effect on the wool industry of the intermediate areas. He would oppose to the proposed amend- ment in a statement to a house committee on wool.

The proposed amendment would change the 1930 tariff act to suspend for three years the wool duties on some coarse wool hair imported into the United States.

Budge, who helped lead oppo- sition to the amendment in the session of congress, said the pro- posed legislation would mean a try of wools which might be competition with domestic pro- duction.

First Family Mails Cards

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower today mailed out their Christmas cards.

The air by seven link cards fea- turing the presidential seal sur- mounted by a gold eagle, and a gold background, will go to chil- dren, "cabinets" members, and other VIP's.

Personal Christmas cards, details of which are not made public, are being mailed to close friends.

The formal card for VIP's has a gold front. At the center, embos- sed in a round, white space, is the presidential seal with a gold eagle and a red, white and blue ribbon.

Season's greetings, 1950, is em- bossed in the gold below the seal. Inscribed inside the card are the words: "The President and Mrs. Eisenhower extend their best wishes for Christmas and the New Year."

SHOPS GUTTED TAIPEI, Formosa, Dec. 15 (AP)—Fire gutted more than 100 shops today at Tsalien, an east coast Por- tuese town 78 miles south of Taipei. Damage was estimated at $100,000. No casualties were reported.

HOLIDAY HOSPITALITY

Christmas time is a time for enter- taining, for having fun, for renew- ing old friendships and for strength- ening family ties. Among the most important pleasures of the holiday season—and important the whole year through—are the friends and relatives who visit your home.

Have you checked your home to make sure that it is ready to make this year's memorabilia Christmas? Our trained decorators will be glad to assist you with ideas and sugges- tions along this line. So do come in while there is still time.

Prepare for Christmas

Mrs. Agge Stilling, 1125 Fifth avenue east, Twin Falls, says Americans don't know how to eat and back to the by providing 20 to 40 different kinds of pastry for her family during the Christmas season. A former citizen of Denmark, Mrs. Stilling uses the cooking skill she learned there. Her husband is a former cartoonist in Denmark having had several of his cartoons in some of that country's largest publications. (Staff photo)

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

With the approach of Christmas, Mrs. Agge Stilling, TWIN FALLS, a former resident of Denmark, says she can't get over her surprise that Christmas is a time for feasting and Mrs. Stilling is preparing for the event in typical Danish style even though her way of doing things is not the custom in this country.

Mrs. Stilling who claims eating is the great Danish pastime, says she has lost 40 pounds since coming to America two years ago. She recalls her shock when, at her visit to an American home, she was served sandwiches, roll drinks, coffee and carrot sticks.

In Denmark, she continued, special emphasis is placed on eating at Christmas time. The people begin to prepare for the event around Dec. 10. The women bake between 20 and 40 different kinds of pastry while the men kill pigs, geese and ducks. Everything on the pig is used, including the blood, it is collected in large pans and mixed with spices, meat and other things and frozen. Mrs. Stilling said she doesn't care much for this combination. The pig's feet, all ears and also are treated as delicacies and eaten before Christmas. The fat made in the flesh on the skull and the loins are put away for the day.

beginning the third day of celebrating. Her husband, a telephone engineer in Denmark for 28 years, does cartooning as a hobby. Although he has not had any of his work published in this country, many of his cartoons have appeared in Danish newspapers. Stilling says he gets his ideas for cartoons from things heard in conversation, read in newspapers and humorous incidents that have happened to acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Stilling combine their talents at times to present chalk talks on Denmark. She provides the narrations, while he illustrates the highlights with drawings.

After supper everyone goes to the living room where the Christmas story is read, carols sung and gifts are opened. This is followed by a midnight snack which is just about the same size as the supper. After 4 a.m. everyone goes to bed to wait for Christmas daylight. At daybreak the celebration begins again. After a big breakfast, the family entertains guests or goes visiting. By noon the family is home again and the first gift is pulled from the table. More visiting and home eating complete the day and after a quiet midnight snack, the family goes to bed for the new year.

Most Idaho Legislators Feel State Can Manage on Proposed 60 Million Budget

BOISE, Dec. 15 (AP)—The men and women who will serve as Idaho's legislators for the 1957 session seem overwhelmingly sure that the state can live within a general budget of $60 million, although the legislature will not vote on the budget until the next year.

Sen. John S. Sawyer, D. Jerome, said Idaho will have to get by on around this figure. He added, however, that "the sure the state could use more and be justified."

Sen. Robert M. Weidner, D. Elmore, said the legislature will have to get by on around this figure. He added, however, that "the sure the state could use more and be justified."

Sen. Harry Cook, D. Valley, said the legislature will have to get by on around this figure. He added, however, that "the sure the state could use more and be justified."

Dog Mishaps Show Way to Aid Cripples

COULMBUS, O., Dec. 15 (AP)—Because dogs get hit by automobiles, humans who are crippled by deformed, dislocated, crushed or arthritic hip joints may be able to walk normally again.

Col. Harry A. Gorman, an air force veterinarian, has developed a ball of socket hip joint and successfully used it on 53 dogs. Ohio State university announced today.

Within the next few weeks, a modification of the Gorman joint will be placed in a human for the first time.

Made of stainless steel, a chromium-cobalt alloy, it is expected by doctors to outlast the human body. If successful, it may mean relief for persons crippled with hip joint defects.

Dr. Gorman got the idea for a man-made hip joint after noting the growing number of injuries to dogs from automobiles. Many injuries affected the hip joint, he observed.

Couple Fined Damages for Using Phone

DENVER, Dec. 15 (AP)—Because they telephoned their former neighbors as many as 30 times a day, a Denver couple was convicted today of harassment and invasion of privacy, and were assessed damages of $3,255.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Backus were scolded sharply by District Judge Albert T. Francis, who said in entering the damages.

"I hope this will be a lesson as a deterrent to others," Judge Francis said.

Mrs. Paul D. Cooper and Mr. Edward F. Vance were awarded damages of $1,000 each as a result of the calls, for which no fee was offered in court. Cooper was given $600 for the loss of sleep plus $25 for attorney. Vance was awarded $300.

Each of the four plaintiffs was awarded $150 in exemplary damages. The judge also made permanent a restraining order issued Feb. 11, 1955, forbidding the Backus telephone either family member a retired railroad employee.

Action Demands Premium Return

Maurice Query filed suit in Twin Falls district court Saturday seeking the return of $2,484 insurance premium from the Continental Life and Accident company.

Query states he applied for $10,000 insurance on Jan. 22, 1956, and the agent told him the premium would be $1,800 annually.

He says that when he received the policy the premiums were stated to be $2,484.

He claims his wife, by mistake, paid the later amount and he is seeking the return of his money. He says there was no contract between him and the company because there was no meeting of minds as to the actual amount of the premium.

He is represented by John C. Steppworth, Buhl attorney.

Estate Named in Action for $1,544

A total of $1,544.83 is sought in a complaint filed in Twin Falls district court Friday against the estate of Clyde King and Beatrice King, executrix of the estate, by Ruby King.

The complaint states that on July 26, 1954, a decree of settlement of final account and final distribution was entered in the estate of Samuel Earl King. In the decree, Ruby King was awarded a $1,544.83 account receivable from Clyde King.

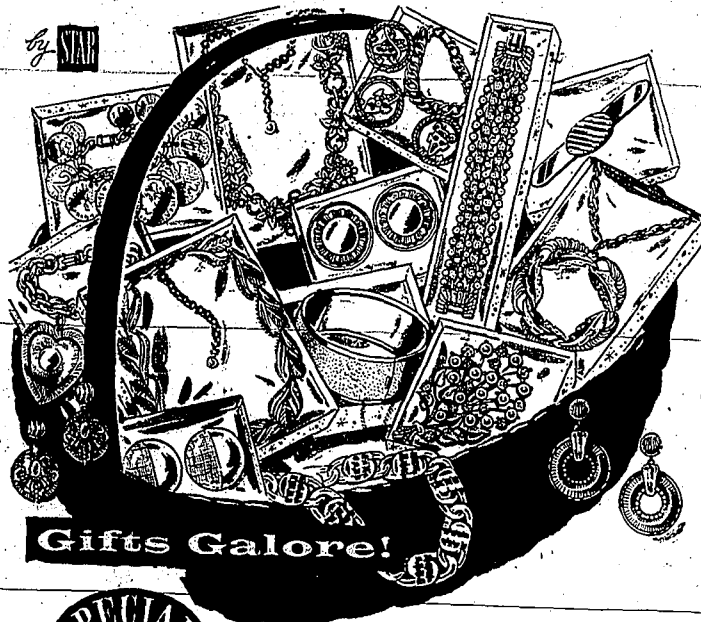

Since then Clyde King has died and his estate has filed for probate his will which names Beatrice King as executrix.

Ruby King states that her claim against the estate was rejected by the executrix of the estate.

Red Cross Fund Drive Chief Named

Harold Hove, standing left, has been named chairman of the Twin Falls Red Cross chapter fund drive. The drive will be conducted from March 1 through 31. Lack of support of the chapter's campaign last year resulted in near collapse of the Twin Falls organization. Hove is seen going over a preliminary outline of the campaign with Mrs. Charlotte Link, board member, and William Baker, chairman of the chapter board. (Staff photo- engraving)

Honey Bee Is Smart in Social Life and Devotion to Own Kin

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—You've gotta love the facts, folks. The honey bee is a smart one.

Bonafide authority for this statement is the annual Smithsonian Institution, which knows about everything from the horns of all our first ladies to dinosaur tracks in the good earth.

Getting around to the bees.

It says right here in a Smithsonian report that honey bees practice the business of share and share alike.

A single sample of sugar of nectar brought into the hive by a forager is participated in by all members of the family, all progeny of a single queen—which may number more than 50,000 individuals.

All kin bees wear the same odor, according to the same report, prepared for the Smithsonian by the learned Dr. Ronald Ribbands of Cambridge university.

This common smell enables bees from the same hive to recognize one another. You get better honey that way.

According to the doctor, "this odor constitutes a 'secret language' which is as basic of the extremely complex bee social life."

The observations were based on tests of radioactive sugar, which had been submitted to before.

Dr. Ribbands says that in one of his tests, "a marked bee is trained to collect sucrose solution from a small glass tube, and when radioactive sugar is substituted the bee continues to collect the radioactive syrup. It goes back to the hive."

And that's where the share-alike business comes in.

If you follow.

The bee, having radioactivated itself, buzzes back to the hive and the first thing you know the sugar is spread all over the hive. The scientists would like us to know that "the sugar is passed on, irrespective of the recipient's age or occupation."

Which is the way sugar should be passed around!

Bees have off seasons, too. That generally comes during the off-season when nectar from the flowers is scarce and the frost is on the pumpkin. That, according to the Smithsonian adds up to some mixed up bees. Not enough flowers to go around. Bees become dulleas. One per will file off a strange hive hell bent on getting himself a little honey.

There the odor comes in and he finds himself sobered.

Odor of the clan did it, no doubt, because to a bee the next one looks about the same.

I have been stung by 'em, but I've never been in a well-ordered beehive.

But the scientists tell me that it is an interesting experience. These experts say that if you are smart you rat what the owners of the hive do. Then you will smell alike, and even a stranger won't get bitten.

Maasai tribesmen of Kenya and Tanganyika have no written language.

Defector Is Mentioned In Red Press

MOSCOW, Dec. 15 (AP)—Pravda has taken off its fire and published an interview and pictures of an American defector—former U. S. Army sergeant James M. McMillin.

McMillin defected from the staff of the U. S. embassy in May, 1948, but had not been mentioned in the Soviet press since he wrote a letter that time saying he was returning to his native land to help the United States as a "protest against anti-Soviet police of the capitalist who present rule America."

Living Happily
Reporters of the Communist youth newspaper who interviewed McMillin said they found him living happily with his Russian wife and their 7-year-old son, Valdek. The account said the former sergeant was graduated from the Soviet Technical Institute and was working as an engineer.

The pictures showed him sitting at a desk crowded with books, a radio, a gramophone and a small television set. He was wearing a military uniform and a woman, who could be his father and mother, and himself.

The paper also printed a picture of this son in Russian clothes and his mother standing by their Pobeda automobile. The reporters quoted him as saying he took his family on a winter vacation drive to the Caucasus, Crimea, Armenia and Moldavia and was planning a trip to the Baltic states.

The U. S. state department announced the defection of McMillin as an employee in the U. S. embassy's code room on May 11, 1948, and said he apparently had been "seduced and exploited by an experienced Soviet woman spy. He was 31 at the time. An indication for Mrs. Galina Dunayeva Bloomkin, Russian wife of another U. S. Army sergeant, John Bloomkin, Birmingham, N. Y., was blamed for his seduction.

Express Service
McMillin, who left Moscow in 1948, expressed surprise at the charges that his wife was a spy. He said she always requested him as a ballroom dancer, and had never questioned about his embassy work. He gave notice a few months later that he was divorcing her by default and she appeared to confirm the divorce.

It was disclosed later that the state department went on regarding its code machines all over the world as the result of McMillin's defection. His father, James M. McMillin, was stationed at the Army Arsenal, Ala., at the time, but he accepted a personal transfer with his son, but was rebuffed.

Pilot Escapes in Jet Plane Bailout

HOUSTON, Jan. 10 (AP)—A civilian pilot of the Hughes Aircraft company bailed out of a jet fighter from which the cockpit was unharmed Friday, Houston officials said.

Authorities said Pilot Harry E. Dugan was flying an F-100, one of the nation's newest jet fighters, when the Hughes home plant at Culver City, Calif., to the company's branch office at El Segundo.

They said he ejected himself from the plane and parachuted near the international border between Mexico and El Paso. Officials said the reason why he bailed out was unknown.

Buyers Station
MOSCOW, Dec. 15 (AP)—Cale L. KREPL announced he has bought radio station KREPL here from KREPL, Inc. and Roy Anderson, Seattle.

Mrs. who resigned as manager of the station six months ago and moved to Pfalling, Wash., said he would return to direct operations.

It was disclosed later that the state department went on regarding its code machines all over the world as the result of McMillin's defection. His father, James M. McMillin, was stationed at the Army Arsenal, Ala., at the time, but he accepted a personal transfer with his son, but was rebuffed.

Dormitory Act Is Proposed by Boise's College

BOISE, Dec. 15 (AP)—The Boise Junior college board of trustees has handed the Ada county legislative delegation a proposed measure providing for construction and operation of dormitory housing projects in junior college districts.

Rep. Carl Burr, W. D. Eyster and W. L. Hendrix and Sen. Blaine Pearson, all Republicans, met with the board to discuss the proposed legislation.

Bozema N. Chaffee, president of the college, said the measure would alleviate housing problems at existing or future junior colleges. It would provide a non-profit, bond-financed method of making dormitories available as needed.

The bill would set up a junior college housing commission in each district and make it possible to construct dormitories from funds obtained other than property taxes. The commission would transact no business until the board of trustees of the junior college decided there was a need for it.

BLOOD PLAN EXTENDED
BODA SPRINGS, Dec. 15 (AP)—The Red Cross said Friday it has made plans for Carbon county to participate in the blood bank program. Two donation periods are planned each year, each with a quota of 50 pints of blood.

I'm dreaming of an electric Christmas

Yes, Mom's dreaming of more work-saving electric appliances... an automatic electric fry pan or griddle, an automatic coffeemaker, or perhaps a new range or automatic dryer. You can't go wrong giving her an electric gift because if there's an appliance she needs, here, it's an appliance she needs. So, Christmas shop for Mom's gift (and for everyone on your list) at your favorite appliance dealer's.

FOR HER BIGGEST CHRISTMAS EVER...

Message for Men Only!
You've got the greatest wife in the world... right? She's pretty, sweet, smart, loving, a good cook... right? So what are you going to give her for Christmas this year... to show her how much you appreciate her? Some trifle she'll never notice? Something she'll have to exchange? A few leaves of folding money as impersonal as a government loan, and as cold as the guest room sheets? No, man! Don't do it! Give her something special this year. Something she'll really go for in a big way. Give her a major appliance. That's a gift she'll be glad to get... and one you'll be proud to give. For it saves her work, worry, steps and money. It gives her more leisure, more fun, the priceless gift of extra time! So make it a white Christmas (or a bright one, if you'd rather; there are some beautiful colored appliances, now). Choose a washer, dryer, ironer, refrigerator, range, dishwasher, freezer, water heater, or cabinet sink. Have it delivered to her by Christmas, with love, from you to her. Go to your appliance dealer today... pick out a new way of life for your wife!

"God Respects Man's Wishes"

By GLEN W. HUTTON
(Pastor, First Christian Church)

I was just a boy, but the lesson he started with me through the years. It has helped me to understand God, and made his love the most beautiful thing in my life.

My father owned a little farm. One day he was driving to the field to begin the day's work. There were no tractors then, but the team that he had bought had broken down. He was in a hurry to get to the field where he was to spend the day. He was driving a beautiful horse, but it was the only one he had.

As we talked over the quarter-mile road, father tried to interest me in his work. I sat in the back of the wagon box giving him a curtain lecture, talking to myself but being sure that he heard. He only smiled, and sometimes would sing a little song to amuse me.

As we neared the field I looked ahead to the gate. It was one of those old-fashioned gates with two posts on either side and a big two-inch plank across the road from the top of one to the other. There on that board sat a robin, looking at me. In his morning robe of gathering worms for the little brood in the nest.

In my mumbling I blurted out, "I wish that I didn't have any more to do than that bird."

Father didn't reply. He drove until we were under the gate top. "Whoa," he said. And the team stopped. He wrapped the lines around the wagon brake's lever, came back to where I was, picked me up, and with his powerful arms sat me on the board. He smiled and said, "Well, boy, (that's what he always called me), I want you to be happy, so you can sit here."

He drove on and left me sitting there in the morning sunshine. I was elated. No work, just sit and eat.

Why didn't I get down? Well, my father was a man that a boy was better off if he sat where his father put him. So I sat, with the sun getting hotter as the hours passed. Then I thought it was noon, for my father was coming toward me. But it was only nine o'clock and his great heart was bringing me a drink of water.

Without a word, he let me drink from the water sack, patted my leg, and went back to his work. While the horses rested he sat beside the narrow with his head in his great hands. I have often wondered if he shed a tear for his boy atop the gate.

Noon came, and when father stopped beneath the gate and asked, "Want to go home, boy?" I jumped into his waiting arms, and half sobbed, "Papa, I don't want to be a bird anymore!"

Jesus once said, "You would not come unto me that you might have life," and again, "Oh Jerusalem, how often would I have gathered you to myself, but you wouldn't let me." God would, but man wouldn't.

There is the eternal tragedy. God so created man that he could make a choice, else he would have been an animal. He can sit atop the gate and suffer if he wishes. God may give him drink in his suffering, but still man dies to God's arms when they are extended? His way is best.

Court Orders

End of Firm

A decree dissolving the Independent Warehousing corporation, Hansen, was issued Friday by District Judge Hugh A. Baker in Twin Falls.

The court ordered Mrs. Charlotte M. Link, surviving director of the corporation, appointed trustee of the corporation to end the business affairs of the company.

Mrs. Link was owner of 350 shares of the company's capital stock and executed the sale of Twentysix shares. The estate owns 450 shares of the total 800 outstanding shares.

On Oct. 29, Mrs. Link assented to liquidation and dissolution. A petition for dissolution was filed Nov. 2 with the clerk of Twin Falls district court.

No objections were filed to the application and the court found that all debts, claims and demands against the corporation had been satisfied.

Burglar Assessed Term of 20 Years

BOISE, Dec. 15 (AP)—A term of not less than 20 years in Idaho state prison was pronounced by District Judge M. Oliver Koelich Friday to Russ Arave, 22, who pleaded guilty of first degree burglary.

Arave was charged with the Nov. 8 burglary of the Star-Mercantile company at Star.

James Dean Bubak, 22, Star, a companion of Arave, was sentenced last week to an indeterminate term of not to exceed 15 years by Judge Martin B. Young.

West Experts Puzzled Over Refugee Flow

VIENNA, Austria, Dec. 15—The numbers of hurried refugees fleeing across from Hungary to West Germany are still a puzzle, according to West German officials.

"We don't know the Russian stop," they said.

The flow dropped to a low of 850 on Wednesday, apparently because of heavy snow and trains and buses.

"Thursday the refugee tide began to rise again along the 150 miles of snow and wooded hills that make the iron curtain between Austria and Hungary. In a period of 24 hours, the frontier was crossed by 4,000 Hungarians.

"In the daylight hours, Friday, the American police counted 60. Many more were expected to cross during the night.

"May Great Refugees

When the U. S. Vice President, Richard M. Nixon, left the area, he should be able to stand at border points and greet the refugees as they come through.

The Russians drastically change their policy of the past six weeks.

"The number who have fled Hungary may now be nearer the 100,000 mark. The last official figure given by the Austrian government was about 125,000.

"One theory is that the Russians want them out of Hungary. They speak a pidgin Russian and are the whole western world that may lead to disunion, a situation from which the Soviets could profit.

"Good Migrants

Also, the communists may consider anyone who wants to leave as untrustworthy and sign "good riddance" as he crosses the border.

"Still another possibility is that the Russians are avoiding use of too heavy a hand on the Hungarians for fear of new outbreaks of rebellion.

"Whatever the reason, Hungary is losing some of her best people and little is being done to staunch the flow.

Carling for 70,000

Austria still has more than 70,000 refugees within its borders. Only about 10,000 have been resettled in living space for other countries.

"The number who have fled Hungary may now be nearer the 100,000 mark. The last official figure given by the Austrian government was about 125,000.

Also, the communists may consider anyone who wants to leave as untrustworthy and sign "good riddance" as he crosses the border.

"Still another possibility is that the Russians are avoiding use of too heavy a hand on the Hungarians for fear of new outbreaks of rebellion.

"Whatever the reason, Hungary is losing some of her best people and little is being done to staunch the flow.

Payment Asked

An indication of assistance owed to West Germany by the United States and other countries is sought in a complaint filed Friday in Twin Falls from a court of the Federal Adjustment Bureau.

The charge states the money has been owing since Dec. 1945. The amount of $12 is sought.

"They are about $20,000 million at this time in the United States.

Driver Gets Term Over Road Death

BOISE, Dec. 15—MAYO D. KESSE, 34, Boise, was sentenced in third district court Friday to one year in Ada county jail for negligent homicide as a charge officers at first placed against his wife as the pilot of a July 7 pickup truck collision in which a Nampa man was killed.

Kesse's wife, Margaret, 33, at first told officers she was driving the pickup truck in the intersection which killed Mark C. Tindall, 40, Nampa, and injured two others.

Later, on a district court witness stand, Mrs. Kesel denied being the driver. A few days later she admitted she was the driver.

Guilty Pleas Given For Store Holdup

BOISE, Dec. 15—Two men at a highway grocery store here pleaded guilty in third district court Friday to charges of robbery.

Being held in Ada county jail are John Hoffman, 27, Lebanon, Ore., and Morris Benedict Blomgren, 31, his early 20s, was arrested with them and has been returned to Nevada to face a charge of robbing a club in Calistoga, Nev.

Red-Nosed Rudolph's 'Father' Wants to Change Yule Career

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 15—Some say Johnny Marks would like to write a hit song about the 4th of July—or maybe even the 26th of February.

"Any day but Christmas," he said.

It is unlikely, however, his publisher will let him. For "better or worse, Johnny has become as identified with Christmas songs as Mother Terese is with sentimental ballads of the Old South.

Putting the Christmas spirit to music isn't exactly a chosen career with Marks. It's a kind of strange doom he tries to escape but can't.

In 1949 Johnny was a moderately successful song writer. He had published 375, written about 750 when he composed a little ditty entitled "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Johnny, who had struggled for a year as two weeks to get some of his songs recorded, had to struggle for two months before Gene Autry agreed to gamble on the novelty number.

"That recording has now sold more than five million, some 90 other re-millions dollars, will probably earn that much again by the time Marks' copyright expires 45 years from now and the little reindeer gallops into the public domain.

In the first three years after Rudolph appeared in the same more than 200 imitative Christmas novelty songs appeared, but quickly tumbled into oblivion.

"Time after time people have tried to get me to write sequels about Rudolph," said Marks, "but I never will."

"It took me only six weeks to write the song—or a week plus 20 years if you count the time it took to learn what to throw away. I still rewrite it now and then in my mind—changing a word here and there until it drives my wife crazy.

"The funny thing is that it was only by accident that the song had Christmas theme. Anybody who sits down and says 'let's write a Christmas song' is welcome to try, but I'll guarantee it won't be a good one."

Johnny, who is 47 and looks like a Greenwich Village poet (he's actually a Greenwich Village landlord), says all his Christmas songs have been accidental. His other hits on this subject were "The Ninth Before Christmas Song," "When Santa Claus Gets Your Letter," and "Ernesto's A Child At Christmas."

"Last year I made up my mind definitely I would never write another one," he recalled.

Then, last February, while reading some poems by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, he came across one called "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day."

"It's semi-religious theme, the victory of hope over despair, haunted Johnny, who broods about the way the world is going. He put the words to music. The result: A recording by Sing Crosby which Variety, Billboard, and other trade magazines predict may last as long as Rudolph.

While making the recording, Sing noticed that Longfellow was the author, said Johnny dryly: "You had a pretty fair lyric writer on this one."

Johnny, who now operates his own publishing firm (by an odd coincidence it's called the St. Nicholas Music Company) says: "This is it. I hope I'll never write another Christmas song!"

He says it fervently—and means it. But along Tin Pan alley there are it's too late. Johnny can't help himself. Christmas is no longer just a holiday for Rudolph's father. It's a life sentence. He's Holly Jolly.

The walrus, a Jand and sea creature, gets its name from a contraction of the Norse word of whale-horse.

Miss T. F. Contestant Designs Clothing, Plans Style Career

Sharon N. Jenkins, who has put her ambition of fashion designer on her wardrobe, has entered the Miss Twin Falls County Beauty pageant. The event will be sponsored by the "Glee Club" at 8 p.m. Dec. 27 at Piller high school auditorium.

SHARON N. JENKINS

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland W. Jenkins, Twin Falls, she was graduated from Twin Falls high school and is a freshman at University of Idaho. After graduating she plans a career of fashion coordinator.

A member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, Miss Jenkins was a candidate for Sweetheart of Sigma at the university. During her senior year of high school she was honored queen of Job's Daughters and secretary of the Sweetheart ball and secretary of the student body.

Miss Jenkins' measurements include 35-inch bust, 24-inch waist and 34-inch hips. Five-foot five-inches tall, she weighs 117 pounds and has light brown hair and hazel eyes.

In addition to sewing and fashion her hobbies include typing, sports with special emphasis on bowling and skating.

Plans Set for New Building

POCATELLO, Dec. 15 (UP)—Preliminary plans have been completed for a new student union building on the Idaho State college campus.

Dr. Carl McIntosh, college president, says he hopes construction can begin next spring.

Pocatello architect, Cedric Allen has prepared the plans for a two-story structure. It would be built south of Grayley hall and east of the college library.

Temporary buildings in the area would have to be torn down to make way for the new structure, said Dr. McIntosh.

The proposed new building would include a ballroom 80 by 100 feet in size, a dining room to accommodate 400 persons, a cafeteria, a lounge, six bowling alleys and a game room.

The structure would be L-shaped and provide 52,100 square feet of floor space.

Dr. McIntosh said plans call for financing construction with a one million dollar loan from the state teachers retirement fund. Some of the money also would be used to remodel the old student union building and for other construction.

Expert Shows Pessimism for Power Future

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—A Spokane official voiced pessimism in a Pacific Northwest power outlook.

Marshall Blair of Spokane, chairman of the House and Resources subcommittee of the Pacific Northwest federal technical advisory power group, which is attempting to determine if Northwest power facilities would be sufficient under partial or complete mobilization for war.

"Blair said his forecast of a shortage in 10 years took account of hydroelectric projects approved or under construction, but also of the fact that the stream flow figures were based on the 'adverse water year' of 1921-22."

"The Northwest may be hit by the power shortage even if all electric-producing steam plants are still operating," he said. "Electricity may come as early as 1941-42."

Blair said if all projects now under consideration are built soon, the expected demand of 12,500,000 kilowatts in 1967 could be met.

It is essential, Blair said, that licenses be granted or appropriations be made in the next year for these projects.

John Day dam on the Columbia river, 1,105,000 kilowatts; Seattle City Light's Boundary dam, 875,000 kilowatts; and the Mountain Sheep and Pleasant Valley projects, 392,000 and the Mountain Sheep and Pleasant Valley projects, 392,000 kilowatts, totaling one million.

The federal group included representatives of the U.S. department of interior, commerce and defense, the federal power commission and the office of defense mobilization.

Chairman Arthur Vining said the group's report will be given to the office of defense mobilization.

One Divorce and Annulment Given

One divorce and one annulment were issued Friday in Twin Falls district court.

Mr. Violet Green was granted a divorce from Leonard R. Green on grounds of extreme cruelty.

Mr. Green was given custody of their one minor child, plus $35 monthly child support. Green was ordered to pay $10 extra monthly until back support amounting to $70 has been paid.

Green was given reasonable rights to visit the child.

Mr. Green was represented by May and Reid, Twin Falls law firm.

John Hector received a decree of annulment from Fay Tillman. Hector was represented by J. Dean Mosher, Twin Falls attorney.

American Editors Pick Revolt In Hungary as Primary Story

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (AP)—Revolt in Hungary was the biggest news item picked by American editors for the year of 1934. And 1934 was the biggest year since the outbreak of the Korean war.

That is the opinion of editors of United Press client newspapers who cast ballots in a country-wide poll.

The editors made their selections from a list of 56 big events noted in his weekly letter to clients.

The Sixes crisis was voted the number two story of the year and the reelection of President Eisenhower was voted into the "big ten."

"When we began writing down entries for the ballot we realized what an uncommonly big news year 1934 had been," Johnson said. "Densest of stories on the list which would have qualified for the first in other years got only a handful of votes. An example is what happened Aug. 7 in Cali, Colombia. A fleet of trucks laden with dynamite blew up in the middle of the city, killing 1,300 persons. But of many other world-shakers happened before and after Cali that we forgot the incident ourselves until turned up in our chronology of events."

Johnson pointed out the wide range of subject matter of the stories. In a year of wars, revolutions and disasters a romance, Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier, was voted into the "big ten."

Another selection was Don Larsen's perfect world series game, feat that worked against the Olympic games, which in an ordinary year would have been almost an automatic choice.

A point-rating system was devised to show the relative popularity of the various choices. Under this system the standing of the first ten was as follows:

1. Revolt in Hungary, 1,031.
2. Sixes crisis, 1,261.
3. Election of President Eisenhower, 1,449.
4. Sinking of the Andrea Doria, 1,210.
5. Collision of two airliners over the Grand Canyon, 911.
6. Death of six marines in a night disciplinary march and the sentencing of Sergeant McKoon, 838.
7. Violence in the South over school integration, 881.
8. Wedding of Prince Rainier and Grace Kelly, 482.
9. Don Larsen's perfect world series game, 394.
10. Soviet down-grading of Josef Stalin, 349.

The next three runners-up were: The kidnapping of Peter Weirberger; the blinding of Victor Riesel and the voting in Poland.

Editors of United Press client newspapers abroad now are being polled on their choice of the ten biggest stories. Early returns indicate the list for Europe, South America and Asia will vary considerably from the selections made by American editors.

Mr. Eisenhower's reelection is the story.

Idaho Power Man Killed by Mishap

ANIMONIE, Dec. 15 (AP)—Don C. Whitaker of Aberdeen, 29-year-old father of five, was electrocuted in an accident here Friday.

He had been an employee of Idaho Power company for nine years.

"Officers said he accidentally touched a power line carrying 7,200 volts of electricity."

They said he was working on a pole in front of the Ronnie Paul farm.

It's Christmastime All Year

To Arthur Baylis, Shoshone, Christmas isn't one day but is all year. Throughout the year Baylis collects and repairs broken and discarded toys which are given at Christmastime to children who might otherwise be forgotten. (Staff photo- engraving)

Magic Valley Hobbies No. 51 Man Behind Santa Claus Makes Work Of Legendary Character Much Easier

SHOSHONE, Dec. 15 — Arthur Baylis, Shoshone, isn't Santa Claus. Actually, he's the man behind Santa Claus, the "helper" who makes Santa Claus possible to many little boys and girls who might otherwise feel they had been forgotten.

For five years, strictly on his own, Baylis has been rebuilding discarded toys, making them like new to gladden the hearts of children at Christmastime. Most of his rebuilt toys go to such places as the Elk Convalescent home and the Mission Community Christian center in Boise and the State School for the Deaf and Blind at Gooding.

Ordinarily, Baylis provides the transportation for his toys to Boise but this year a truck is being sent for them. Last year William Dickinson and Chalmers Martin were assistants for Santa's sleigh and reindeer from Shoshone.

Rebuilding toys for Christmas isn't a seasonal hobby for the Shoshone man. Spring, summer, autumn and winter he's looking for, picking up, buying parts for and rebuilding toys. When the weather is pleasant he works outside his home on a work bench and when the weather drives him indoors he does his work in one of the two houses he owns here.

Baylis came to Shoshone in 1905 from England and cleared land for farming north of Shoshone. Prior to coming to this country he served in the British army, serving a couple of years in Africa during the Boer war.

His wife and both of his sons are dead. One son died in 1928 following an injury received in a football game and the other son died after he was kicked by a horse north of Shoshone. His only companion now is a small dog, a little fellow he labeled in a homemade cloak against inclement weather. "Just about everyone seems to know where Baylis lives. The yards of his two homes, as well as the houses themselves, are piled high with salvaged parts of toys. Years ago he rented the smaller house and then used his kitchen as a workshop, storing the finished toys in his living room.

Now his toy headquarters are in the larger house but he still uses the latter house as a storage place for parts and finished products. In spite of the stored toys and parts on his lawn, he keeps them orderly and the lawn well groomed.

For this year's Christmas he has 13 wagons, 19 tricycles, bicycles, doll house, cupboards, toy planes, road rollers, rocking horses, fish boats, baseballs, bats, ironing boards, dolls, dishes and mechanical toys. The mechanical toys may have a bit of a hard time because they ceased to be mechanical but when they leave the Baylis workshop they are in as good condition—and sometimes better—than they were when they left the factory originally.

As an example of his work, Baylis found the top half of a china doll. He also found a small, silver colored tin. With the aid of a bottle lid he fashioned the doll to the barrel and painted them so some child will have a happier Christmas. Many of the toys he salvages have to have new parts that cannot be salvaged from other toys. When such parts are needed, Baylis buys them. Probably his greatest cash investment up to the present time has been in tires for bicycles and tricycles.

He even has collected dolls to do over. Mrs. James Franks, Shoshone school teacher, helps by removing the faces and Mrs. Charles Hansen sometimes lends a hand by making dresses for the remodeled playthings.

X-Ray Technician Meeting Reported

Magic Valley X-ray technicians met Wednesday at the home of Robert Kimbrough with Fred Bessie a special guest from DuPont. He showed a film and spoke of X-ray accidents.

James Rosenbaum spoke about the state convention to be held in cooperation with Washington in Spokane in May, 1957. Tentative plans were made for attending. Technicians were present from Twin Falls, Burley and Elfer.

The world's thinnest watch is the size of a U. S. quarter.

Olympic national park, in the Washington, is the summer feeding northwest sector of the state of grounds for herds of elk.

Negroes Have Classified Class for End of Bus Ruling

MONTEAGUE, Ala., Dec. 15—Negroes availing the end of bus segregation in Montgomery are being organized into a "classified class" to help them in their fight to end the "separate but equal" rule if others strike their hands.

To guide them, the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy disclosed in an interview that an effort will be made to elect a chairman or civic leader to head the "classified class" during the early stages of integration.

Formal Order Ends
The U.S. supreme court has ruled that city and state bus segregation laws are unconstitutional. The formal order has not been issued pending action on a request for rehearing. If the court acts on the rehearing petition Monday, the Montgomery boycott may reach Montgomery later next week.

Attend Classes
Abernathy's "classified" class—aided—has 1,000 Negroes are attending weekly classes designed to "prepare" the people for the end of bus segregation. He did not elaborate on the latter part of the program, but said that the weekly classes are being conducted by the Montgomery Improvement Association, which has directed the long mass Negro boycott against segregated city buses.

He said Abernathy is vice president of the S.M.A.

Administrators and other leaders among city clubs and volunteers in each neighborhood are acting as instructors. The classes are held at various locations, including churches, and are being held in the evening.

"We are trying to get over the idea of courage," Abernathy said.

"We feel you people must not misconstrue the support of our class as a step toward democracy. Our people must return to the bus."

"We must realize," he continued, "that the white people who are on the buses are losing something. We must be sympathetic."

Idaho Men Saved After Two Nights in Marooned Car

BERIDIAN, Wyo., Dec. 15—Two Idaho servicemen were rescued Thursday after spending two nights marooned in a car in the Big Horn Mountains west of here.

Robert Huber, Oa. 1410, and William H. Jones, Oa. 1410, had attempted to cross the mountain on U.S. 14 which is closed for the winter. The car was stuck in the snow and they were headed home for Christmas.

After the car became stuck in a snowdrift, Huber found a telephone at a road, hooked it to a telephone called "Idaho" and called for help.

A highway department snow plow planned by John Cronkney and Edward Neff, both of Boise, found the car and their car out of the mountains.

Public Hearings Are Set on Land Limitation Rule

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—Three public hearings will be held in Washington state early in January on proposals to revise the land use zoning laws of the state.

Lumber giant project act, Secretary of the Interior Section announces that the public hearings will be held on Jan. 3, 1957, at Lewiston, Jan. 4 at Quincy, and Jan. 5 at Coeur d'Alene.

Several farmers on Columbia basin project have contented for several years the size of farms on which they should be permitted to make them economic units.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Fred L. Anderson, has been designated by Secretary of the Interior to conduct the hearings. The agriculture department has been invited to take part.

State Given Time To Answer Case

BOISE, Dec. 15—Judge M. Oliver Koshoy has given the state 10 days to answer a legal action filed in third district court here in the U.S. Bank of Central Idaho in Grandville.

Five incorporators of the proposed bank called that the Federal Reserve Commission of finance, issue them a charter or be ordered to show cause why they should not be incorporated.

They also asked that be ordered to dissolve the bank and to incorporate they have drawn up for the proposed bank.

The U.S. Bank of Central Idaho is a special five-man committee will report its fluoridation findings at the end of the year.

The AMA will either re-affirm its previous stand or state otherwise at the end of the year.

Heid, Md., for two months, after which he will be assigned to the Plattsburgh army hospital at Plattsburgh, N.Y.

Stand Is Studied For Fluoridation

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Dec. 15—The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has announced that it is studying the stand of the American Medical Association as its group is reorganizing its stand favoring fluoridation of drinking water.

Dr. David B. Allman, Atlantic City physician who will take over as head of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's special five-man committee will report its fluoridation findings at the end of the year.

The AMA will either re-affirm its previous stand or state otherwise at the end of the year.
