Driver Headed After Chase; Police Maimed

James E. Arnold, 34, Twin Falls, was being held in the city jail Wednesday on a reckless driving charge following an hour-long chase in and around Twin Falls Tuesday night during which two police cars, Arnold's car and at least one civilian car were smashed up. Wednesday, City Detective Richard Frazier refused to give any information about what precipitated the wild chase other than to say "Arnold doesn't have a draft card." Lives of both pedestrians and driver were endangered Tuesday night during the wild chase. Early Wednesday airmen, Arnold's car, was assigned on the reckless driving charge.

However, Times-Newspaper reporters learned Tuesday night that police went to Arnold's home in the 400 block of Elm street to question him after receiving an anonymous tip that Arnold was in the city jail. While they were talking to Arnold, who was taken into custody, a car following Arnold's car, a 1936 Buick, was struck by a car coming from the north and the Buick was thrown into a tree in the 300 block of Fourth avenue east. The Buick was badly damaged and the driver was injured. The car was taken to the city garage for repairs.

At least three shots were fired at the fleeing car. One shot hit the car's trunk.

When Arnold bolted from his quarters he got into the car and led the chase down toward the city garage and back toward the city jail. As he crossed the railroad tracks he was being followed by a car from the north. The driver of the car in front of him jumped out of the car and ran toward the city jail. The police car followed him. The driver of the car in front of him was taken into custody.

Reds Ask for Discussion of Korea Truce

PANMUNJOM, June 26 (AP)—Communist North Korea today called for a broad international conference to arrange the withdrawal of all foreign troops from Korea and bring about a peaceful solution to the problem of the divided peninsula. The demand made at a meeting of the joint military armistice commission, was promptly rejected by the U. N. command and is a proper subject for to be taken up at a military conference.

Supporter Demand

A few hours later Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai, speaking to a meeting in Peking, urged the support of the conference proposal and denounced U. S. policy in Korea.

The communists put the conference demand forward as a reply to the U. N. command decision to void the armistice provision prohibiting the introduction of new weapons into Korea. The U. N. and the communists at a commission meeting last Friday agreed that weapons would be brought into South Korea because the Reds had consistently violated the armistice since a cease-fire was signed in the Korean fighting in 1953.

Charge Repealed

North Korean Maj. Gen. Chong Kuk-ko presented the communists' demand to the U. N. command last Friday that the U. N. allies were preparing for a war by "reckless" armistice.

"Your side does not want a peaceful settlement," Chou En-lai declared. "This has been shown in the past. It was your side that broke up the political negotiations at Panmunjom and the Geneva conference for settlement of the Korean problem."

Limit Proposed on Power of Tribunal

SUN VALLEY, June 26 (AP)—Definite restrictions on the power of the United States supreme court were suggested today in a committee report to the National Association of Lawyers General. "We propose," said Attorney General George F. Guy of Wyoming, chairman of the association committee on federal-state relations, "that congress enact legislation that would say in effect to the supreme court: 'You cannot exert exclusive jurisdiction specifically authorizing you to do so.'"

Reported during the final day of the association's annual convention, adjournment was scheduled for tonight, following an address by John B. Shepperd, former attorney general of Texas.

"I feel," Guy said, "that this matter of federal-state relations could be solved quickly if we would go back to the basic fundamentals of our government; that the powers not delegated to the central government are reserved to the states, it is that simple."

The controversy over federal-state relations has been heated through much of the discussions during the three-day convention here.

"It has touched on the supreme court ruling affecting administration of the Smith act and on states' rights in the supreme court case," Thurman Arnold, a former assistant attorney general and now a law professor at the University of Chicago, said yesterday he felt the "dangers" in the supreme court case are in the economic field.

"The principle role of the supreme court since we have all the powers of the federal government in the supreme court," he said, "is to protect the states from federal encroachment."

The due process law now is devoted almost exclusively to the protection of civil rights. It no longer is a protection for business.

Boys Blamed for Brother's Jury Death of Child

A nine-member coroner's jury Wednesday found that the traffic death of a 9-year-old boy, Lynn Kunkin, last Friday was caused by the negligent driving of Mike F. Martin, 15, and that Kunkin, 14, contributed to the death by driving his car at an excessive speed which created clouds of dust, decreasing visibility. The jury returned its verdict after deliberating the testimony for a little over one hour. It retired at 11:27 a.m. after hearing testimony in the Twin Falls county courtroom and returned a verdict shortly after 12:30 p.m.

U. S. Plan on Arms Ban Is Agreed Upon

U. S. Delegate Harold E. Stassen placed the proposal before the five-power disarmament conference. He proposed that conventional arms—such as tanks, aircraft and aircraft carriers—be reduced by agreed numbers and types and placed on surplus lists.

The agreed surplus arms would then be stored in depots where they would be subject to international control and inspection, according to the U. S. plan.

Today's American move followed Stassen's proposal of yesterday that the United States and Russia reduce their armed forces in three successive stages to a level of 1,000,000 men each. But the two states would depend on settlement of East-West issues such as German re-militarization and the Korean and Chinese questions.

Five-Cent Hourly Wage Hike OK'd

PORTLAND, Ore., June 26 (AP)—The International Workers of America today announced acceptance of a contract calling for a five-cent hourly wage increase for workers at the Oregon-Pacific and Willamette National lumber plants.

By Executive W. A. Official, said members had voted acceptance of the offer.

Headings added, however, that about 35,000 members of the IWA in the Pacific Northwest remain uncovered by new contracts.

Negroes Plan Boycott Over Ban on Votes

TUSKEGEE, Ala., June 25 (AP)—White merchants in the Tuskegee area faced a large-scale economic boycott today from Negroes, who agreed to refrain from the vote last night and pledged to "buy our goods and services from those who have not hindered us and will not hinder us."

White merchants said the boycott had begun prior to the meeting but the agreement appeared likely to organize and expand it.

Walter O. Gumberson, president of the Tuskegee branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the boycott was a measure which would reduce the number of Negro voters on the Tuskegee rolls from about 400 to 10.

The measure remains only to be signed by Gov. James E. Folsom to become law.

The protest stemmed from a bill sponsored by Sen. Sam Engelhardt of nearby Shorter, which would shrink the city limits of Tuskegee to exclude a major part of the city's Negro population.

Crowd Gathered
The meeting was held at the Butler chapel some 200 yards from the city limits of Tuskegee. The church was crowded with about 400 but almost 1,000 crowded inside, standing four-deep at the back side and overflowing into the basement where microphones were set up.

Some 800 cars were parked within a three-mile radius and at least 1,000 persons stood in the church yard, according to estimates.

Immediately after the shot is fired from a 500-foot tower at Yucca Flat, some of the marines will move toward ground zero while others will be carried in 32 transport helicopters to the trenches to land zones, from simulated objectives.

Soroptimists to Sponsor T. F. Golden Age Club for Oldsters

Soroptimist club members voted to sponsor a Golden Age club for people 60 years old or more in Twin Falls at their dinner meeting at the Regerson coffee shop Tuesday.

Ernest Craner, Twin Falls city parks and recreation superintendent, told Soroptimists the city is interested in organizing a Golden Age club and said buildings for the project are available at Harmon, Harrison and Harry Barry Memorial parks. Jay-C-Ettes are assisting in furnishing the recreation buildings.

He explained a sponsor was necessary to assist in organizing the club by seeking members, providing transportation to parties and acting as hostesses at various functions. He told of activities of a Golden Age club he visited in Pocatello.

The Soroptimists requested all persons interested in becoming members of the Golden Age club or in obtaining further information to phone the city hall, 2560, and ask for Golden Age club information. President Lucile Wolfe appointed Mrs. A. F. Ostlund chairman of a committee to organize the Golden Age club.

Craner explained membership in the club is open to all persons 60 years of age or older. Object of the organization is to promote entertainment for members. The club adopts by-laws, elects a president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, and calls a business meeting at the discretion of the president but at least once every three months. Parties for members are held every two weeks. Suggested activities are potluck dinners, cards and games, dances, arts and crafts, movie and other outside entertainment. The city recreation department is prepared to assist in organization and

Tourists May Travel Along Red Highway

MOSCOW, June 26.—The Soviet government this summer is permitting foreigners for the first time to bring their own automobiles into the country and spend a holiday crossing the Russian nation.

Not many Americans are expected to take up the offer but those who do will find an interesting contrast with the American road network of billboards, motels and speed traps.

Can't Get Lost

Just as this country is, there is no chance of the visitor getting lost. For one thing, he must stick to one of the two trunk highways. To make sure he does, an inquisitive agency guide will accompany him at the frontier and accompany him throughout the trip.

The highways especially the north-south route from Moscow to the Black sea — are excellent by Russian standards and, in most places, good by European ones. They are three and sometimes four-lane roads with long stretches where you can put your foot to the floorboard.

Gas stations, repair shops, amusements and restaurants are to be found about every 100 miles. Hotels are spaced at reasonable distances and built right out on the highways in the remote steppe.

Traffic Is Light

There is very light traffic, consisting mostly of trucks and buses. There are no hitchhikers. When Russians travel, and they love to, they usually go by train. Few have private cars. Whether the foreign tourist stops in a village or small town, he will be surrounded by side-eyed onlookers expressing knowledge of the mechanical features of his auto.

Rules for driving are simple:

1. Stay on the right hand side.
2. Highway and traffic signs are pretty much the same as in western Europe. One difference is that you turn right on a red light.
3. Drivers must keep their cars clean. If a policeman spots a dirty, muddy car, he has the right to stop it and fine the occupants.
4. The speed limit in a city is 25 miles an hour. On the open road it is unlimited.

Groups State Opposition to Power Leader

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Opposition to the National Power company yesterday opposed the nomination of Jerome K. Kuykendall as chairman of the federal power commission.

Clyde T. Ellis, general manager of the National Rural Electric Cooperative association, told the senate committee that he is opposed to Kuykendall, "consistent bias in favor of the public utility interests which he is supposed to represent."

Angus McDonald, assistant legislative secretary of the Farmers union, said Kuykendall is "a man who is not to be trusted."

Kuykendall, whose term expired Saturday, has been nominated for another five-year term ending June 22, 1942. He is expected to testify Wednesday before the committee considering whether to recommend senate confirmation of the nomination.

Ellis cited the licensing of the Idaho Power company to build three dams on Snake river as a substitute for the proposed federal dams as an example of what he called Kuykendall's lack of sympathy with the intent of congress to develop waterways.

Kuykendall and a majority of the commission under his chairmanship "have been continuing to grant license extensions beyond the 50-year maximum permitted under the federal power act," McDonald said.

McDonald said Kuykendall received a congressional committee in 1935 "in an attempt to get the Dixon-Vale contract" in the Tennessee valley authority area.

More recently, McDonald said, Kuykendall misrepresented facts about a February, 1937, flood on the Snake river and "used to get credit" for the Idaho Power company from specifications for a diversion tunnel at Brownlee dam.

Floods Strike Minnesota as Families Flee

By United Press

The Mississippi river, swollen by its flooded tributaries, climbed to its highest point today, and at least 100 Minnesota families were forced to flee their homes.

New thunderstorms hit Minnesota last night, dumping one-third inch of rain at Minneapolis and adding to the flood.

Other heavy rains swept down where Cedar Rapids and Mason City are located, and in the latter place a six-hour period, and Burlington, Vt., was swamped by a two-inch rain during a 15-hour period yesterday.

About 65 families were evacuated from their homes today, and in the St. Paul, Minn., when forecasters predicted the "Mississippi" would reach crest above flood stage by Friday.

Guard Alert

National guardsmen were alerted to duty in other areas should they prove necessary.

The raging Crow river flooded more than half of Delano, Minn., forcing about 40 families to flee. The flood water reached a depth of 14 feet and swept away crops.

Officials warned that the government request President Roosevelt to declare a disaster area.

The swirling Minnesota river reached a flood crest of 25 feet above normal at St. Paul and threatened its inundation of rich farmlands.

Althaus, near the 100-drawm area, said southern Arizona and the interior of southern California yesterday, but a cool air mass held temperatures in the 70s and 80s from New Mexico through the southern plains.

Dakota Cool

Overnight readings plunged as low as the 40s in some sections of the Dakotas and the western great lakes.

Weathermen said scattered showers will occur later from the southern plains through the Great Lakes, the Ohio valley and the Gulf coast region.

A few showers also are seen for parts of New England and the middle Atlantic coast.

Paul weather is expected from the Rockies west to the Pacific and over most of the northern and central plains.

The average $45.00 a year a man in the U. S. must work two hours and 26 minutes a day just to pay his taxes, according to a survey made by the tax foundation.

Saucers Seen 10 Years Ago By Boise Man

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP)—And a happy flying saucer anniversary to you, earth people!

For, to thousands who are devoted to flying saucers, this week is important.

On June 26, 1947, a Boise businessman named Kenneth Arnold, flying alone in his own plane, saw not one, but nine, mysterious objects darting around Washington's Mt. Rainier.

Long Chain

"They flew very close to the mountain top," he told investigators when he was making his report, "like a chain of saucers."

... a chain of saucer-like things at least five miles long, appearing in and out of the high mountain peaks.

In the 10 years since this momentous occasion, some strange things have happened.

Thousands of persons have reported that they, too, have seen flying saucers.

All over the world believers have banded into clubs—appropriately, the nation's capital has a thriving organization—to discuss their theories.

One favorite theory: That these are creatures from outer space. But don't be alarmed; they are kindly folk. How could they be otherwise when they seemingly come in such droves, and yet never do any damage?

Hundreds of books and pamphlets have been turned out.

Only last month a British magazine, "Journal of Space," was predicting this would be a great year for flying saucers.

And on this anniversary date it's well to remember the Journal's advice:

"Be kind to the visitors who come to us in flying saucers." All this has taken place despite official skepticism. President Eisenhower has said it's completely inaccurate to believe flying saucers are coming from outer space. The air force says the same thing, although it still tries to track down every unidentified flying object it hears about.

Does all this official cold water chill the fervor of those who believe in the flying saucer? It does not.

So yesterday—here was Wayne Aho, formerly a major in army combat intelligence, dropping by to remind everyone that this is the 10th anniversary of the great date.

Investigation Wanted

Aho may be the first flying saucer lobbyist of all time. Like many another believer, he thinks the air force knows more than it's telling. He's trying to stir up a congressional investigation.

Aho also bore glad tidings. After years of trying, he finally spotted his first flying saucer last month. He saw it in southern California, which for some reason seems to be fertile F. O. territory.

"I had always hoped to see one," Aho said, "but it wasn't necessary to my conviction."

For him, indeed, it is a happy anniversary.

Stevenson Visits With Schweitzer

BRAZZAVILLE, French Equatorial Africa, June 26 (AP)—Adlai Stevenson said Monday Dr. Albert Schweitzer is "gratified" by the worldwide reaction to his warnings on the dangers to humanity from atomic experiments.

Stevenson, who is on a tour of Africa, visited the noted physician-philosopher-musician at his jungle hospital.

Schweitzer recorded an appeal for the end to nuclear weapons test in April at the behest of the Norwegian radio. His message was made available to broadcasting companies around the world.

Stevenson said Schweitzer felt his views were not as widely publicized in the United States, Britain and France as elsewhere.

"But he feels that his declaration may have encouraged scientists to express their view more freely," Stevenson said.

Most severe recorded earthquake occurred at Lisbon, Portugal, in November of 1755.

Benson Tries To Plug Gaps In Soils Bank

WASHINGTON, June 26 (U.S. News)—The U.S. soils bank program—assuming, of course, that there is enough soil to be put in the bank—is expected to try to plug a gap which now permits growers to shift from production of one set of crops to another.

The secretary told a news conference yesterday that his department is considering a plan under which a farmer would have to reduce total plantings of his soil-depleted crops to be eligible for soil bank payments.

Under the program as it now stands, a farmer may retire land from wheat, cotton, corn, rice and tobacco and put other crops into other crops, including soybeans, grain sorghums, flaxseed and the like and still get payments.

This shifting threatens to move the burden of surpluses from one group of crops to another, he said. Much depends, however, on what congress does about the soil bank. The House has voted to kill the Senate to continue the program. Under the plan, the department would determine a soil-depleting acreage base for each farm. This would be based on past acreages of such crops. All crops except hay, pasture, grain and legume would be classed as soil-depleting.

Will Modernize Arms

Marine Corps Maj. Gen. Homer L. Eisinger, second from right, senior member of the U. N. command in South Korea, tells newsmen at a press conference in Pusan, June 26, that the United Nations plan to send more up-to-date military equipment to its forces in South Korea. The U. N. has notified North Korea and the Chinese communists it is modernizing its force because the Reds have shown "complete disregard" of 1953 truce agreements. (AP wirephoto via radio from Tokyo)

Traitor Notes "Falsehoods"

VIENNA, June 26 (U.S. News)—State department official Noel Field, in a broadcast over radio Budapest last night, said the United Nations report on Soviet atrocities during the Hungarian uprising was composed of "barbarous falsehoods."

The indictment of Russia for her intervention in the revolt by the U. N. special commission was "integrated with facts and misleading half-truths," he said.

Moscow and Budapest were right in refusing to allow the U. N. committee to carry its inquiry into Hungary, Field said.

In view of its origin and the atmosphere of anti-Soviet and anti-communist hysteria under which it was set up, this refusal was understandable and the only proper course to take," he said.

Field and his wife disappeared behind the Iron curtain in May, 1949. His brother, Hermann, was arrested in Warsaw later that year while searching for him and was released in October, 1954. Hermann returned to the United States.

Dworshak Avers Opponents Block Planned Efforts

WASHINGTON, June 26 (U.S. News)—Backers of Hells Canyon dam may block "constructive action on public projects of vital interest" to Idaho, Sen. Henry Dworshak said yesterday.

The Idaho Republican noted that Senator Neuberger, D. Ore., and other Democrats had "assailed" the House Eddy project on the Clearwater river.

He said no action had been taken on his bill to restore the Burns creek riparian dam below Fall Lake on the Snake.

"These developments," said Dworshak, "reveal the possibility that Idaho will be denied any constructive action on public works projects of vital interest because lower Columbia basin interests assume the dictatorial position that it will be a federal dam at Hells canyon or nothing."

Schools Allowed To Stiffen Rules

JELENA, Mont., June 26 (U.S. News)—A school regulate its students who joy ride at lunch and recess. Y'm in Montana, says its attorney general.

Attorney General Forrest H. Anderson issued his opinion yesterday in reply to State Superintendent of Public Instruction Harriet E. Miller. She advised that the lunch or recess joy riding creates a hazard for residents near the school.

"School authorities," said the opinion, "have power to regulate the conduct of pupils from the time they leave home for school until they return."

Extension for Taxing Power Granted Okay

BOISE, June 26 (AP)—Idaho efforts to extend its taxing power reached into Wyoming yesterday. The state supreme court ruled Idaho has a right to tax, under certain circumstances, royalties on Wyoming oil lands owned by Idaho residents.

The issue split the justices three to two. The majority ruled that the state's taxing power extends to the oil lands owned by Idaho residents. The dissenting justices argued that the state's taxing power is limited to the oil lands owned by Idaho residents.

Comfort

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—Sidewalk experiments here are that never had it so good. For their viewing convenience, a 65-foot long observation deck and clubhouse, complete with picture windows and a stage, is being set up overlooking construction of the 70-million-dollar Time and Life building on the Avenue of the Americas.

Nurse Is Shot in Israeli Fighting

JERUSALEM, June 26 (AP)—An Israeli nurse was shot and killed by Syrian gunfire Monday night and Israeli official sources accused Syria and Egypt today of trying to provoke Israeli retaliatory action.

According to an Israeli spokesman, Syrian forces opened heavy machine gun fire from across the border on the Israeli settlement of Gadiot, south of Lake Hula.

The nurse was struck by a bullet while in the communal dining room, she died on the way to the hospital.

Settlers returned fire and the exchange lasted for some 30 minutes, the spokesman said.

Hearing Set Over Land Withdrawal

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP)—The bureau of land management has scheduled a public hearing in Idaho Falls July 11 on a proposal to set aside about 12,400 acres of public lands for the atomic energy commission's reactor testing station at Arco.

The AEC seeks the land to expand operations at the national reactor testing station. The additional acres, mostly in Jefferson county to the east and in Clark and Butte counties to the north, also includes lands in Bingham and Bonneville countries.

Allstate takes the red tape and high cost out of automobile insurance

Customer savings of more than 20% are commonplace

Founded by Sears, Allstate pioneered a new approach to insurance that has won nearly four million friends

You'll be a friend of Allstate's too, as soon as you become a customer—and realize the benefits you'll enjoy because of Allstate's new approach to auto insurance.

This approach, based on the small-profit, big-volume, low-overhead concept pioneered by Sears, boils down to this:

Cut red tape in paying claims... print policies in large type and plain language... make it easy to buy insurance in a relaxed manner.

How much can you save? Allstate policyholders save different amounts, depending on different risk conditions and on where they live. The most common savings is 20% (some policyholders save as much as 38%) in rates charged by most other companies. You may save $25 or more.

How can Allstate do it?

Nearly $1 in every $4 spent with most companies goes to pay selling costs instead of to buy protection. Allstate's modern selling methods cut selling costs to the bone. You benefit by lower rates, bigger value.

Cuts red tape.

Allstate has more than 3,950 claims expeditors in the 48 states and Canada. Help is always as near as the nearest phone. And Allstate claims experts can often pay claims "on the spot."

Easy to understand policies.

Printed in readability, understandable language. Illustrated, too. You know exactly what you're buying.

Low-pressure selling.

You can buy Allstate over the counter at Sears, at an Allstate Insurance Center, or in your own home. Allstate Agents are listed in the Yellow Pages of your phone book.

Today, with auto insurance costs rising, wouldn't it be wise for you to investigate Allstate before you renew your policy? Until you have the Allstate facts, you don't have all the facts about auto insurance.

This modern kind of automobile insurance brings these surprising benefits:

1. Allstate may save you up to 38%.
2. Allstate cuts red tape to pay claims faster.
3. An Allstate policy is easy to read and understand.
4. Allstate makes it easy for you to buy the convenient low-pressure way.

Two Men Are Dead in Utah Plane Mishap

SKULL VALLEY, Utah, June 26 (AP)—An old World War II B-26 bomber crashed and burned yesterday in this valley some 50 air miles southwest of Salt Lake City, killing both men aboard.

The air force identifies them as 1st Lt. W. L. Jensen, 33, the crew chief, and 1st Lt. P. C. Knoke, 30, the pilot.

A witness to the crash who was driving nearby, Kerl Amann of Salt Lake City, said:

"I saw the plane flaming in the sky and a sudden burst on the ground. It skidded along the ground for a short distance and then when it stopped it just burst right open."

"There were two noticeable explosions after it stopped skidding. There were flames 50 to 75 feet high. The smoke was really thick."

Amann said the plane exploded while only 50 feet off the ground and, "It was the first explosion that caught our attention."

An air force spokesman said the plane was en route from Tull air force base to the army's Dugway proving grounds, where it was on duty. The crash occurred near the east gate of Dugway.

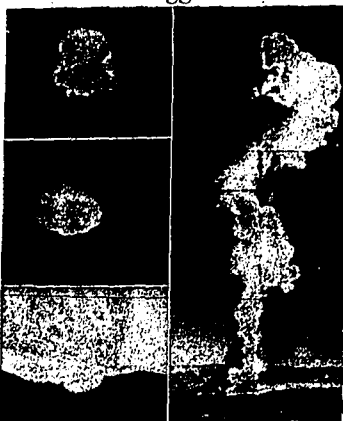

Knoke's father lives in Milwaukee and his mother in Argonne, Wis. He was unmarried.

The crew chief, whose former wife and daughter, Camille Sherman, 11, live in Boise, was from Bryant, G.D., where his parents live.

Both men were attached to the 510 chemical and ordnance test group at Dugway.

Benjamin Franklin taught himself to speak French, Italian, Spanish and Latin in 1791, improved his faculty by subsequent trips to Europe.

Series' Biggest Blast

Shown above are the fireball and mushroom cloud of the fifth and heaviest atomic detonation of the current series at the atomic energy commission's Nevada proving ground near Las Vegas. Detonated from a captive balloon 700-feet in the air, the blast was a test of underground shelters and protective clothing. (NEA telephoto)

Damage Reported

BUHL, June 26—Damage was estimated at $175 to a 1956 Buick driven by Donna M. Brennan, 16, Buhl, when she hit the rear of a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Loren

Court Upsets Board Ruling

BOISE, June 26 (AP)—The state supreme court overturned the industrial accident board yesterday in ruling death benefits should be granted the widow of a Pocatello fireman.

The court ruled in favor of Laverna Branson, widow of former Pocatello fireman John L. Branson. Branson died Dec. 30, 1953, of cancer; his widow said she was in a knee injury he received Feb. 6, 1947, while a fireman.

The IAB denied Mrs. Branson's petition for death benefits from the fireman's retirement fund in September, 1954, on the grounds the injury had been healed by treatment and that the four-year statute of limitation had expired between the injury and the death.

The high court ruled that only "showing of a causal connection" between an on-duty injury and death was sufficient for the death claim.

American Car Buyers Scout For Bargains

TWENTY, June 26 (U-P)—New car buyers are becoming increasingly price conscious; they continue to shop around for the biggest price concessions.

This tendency is one of the things that has kept the pace of car building and merchandising in 1947, "suggested" his prices for new cars mean relatively little to new car buyers. The prices are not binding upon the car retailers and many would-be car purchasers know it.

By the current year factory output is running slightly ahead of last year's total for the like period. But the retailing division still has inventory problems. Unsold new cars are substantially below the record total of 604,000 reached in March a year ago. Unofficial estimates put the total right now at around 800,000.

Yet even that lesser total is big enough to worry some retailers. Some surveys indicate the dealer groups are concerned that a June sales lag add to the inventory total.

Preliminary estimates of the June sales potential put the total at around 850,000 until the heavy July below that figure the regular model cleanup probably will not be as hot a scramble as it was in 1935 and 1936. Nevertheless, the car and car seller are beginning to just about every new car transaction.

The auto industry's 1947 model year is in its eighth month. Probably the most disturbing thing that properly may be said about the industry outlook is that some uncertainty lies ahead regarding output and sales.

Little Luther, paper cap in hand, watched proceedings for awhile and then slipped out as quietly as he had entered. (NSA telephoto)

Grave Site of Indian Chief Causes Fight

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 26 (U.P.)—The right of famed Comanche Chief Quanah Parker's widow to select a new grave for her husband, made necessary by Ft. Bill expansion, is being challenged here by the chief's descendants.

The surviving relatives of Parker Tuesday filed a response to a petition filed by the widow, To-Pay, June 4 in federal district court here. She petitioned the court for the right to select the burial place.

The descendants said To-Pay is not a recognized widow of Parker, claiming she was one of six wives "set aside" by the chief in 1897. Congress told Parker at that time to follow the white man's laws and live with only one wife.

The controversy over burial arose when the U. S. government condemned the Comanche cemetery for expansion of Ft. Bill. The chief's children and grandchildren accepted an offer to move Parker and his mother, Cynthia Ann Parker, to the new military cemetery.

But To-Pay filed the petition asking to choose the burial site.

Grasshopper Invasion

A picture of dejection in farmer Sam Sanders as he looks over his pasture land at Chion, Calif., after an army of grasshoppers cleaned it off. Twenty-four hours before this photo was made, this field was a lush, green pasture. The same land produced 56 tons of feed for cattle last year. The grasshoppers have invaded a tri-county area in California's Sacramento valley, threatening an estimated 10 million dollars in destruction. (NEA telephone)

Attorney Trades Courtroom Career for Vacation Resort

BY HAL BOYLE
WESTHAMPTON, N. Y. (U.P.)—Is a man crazy if he gives up a successful career as a lawyer to run a summer resort?

"He has to be—there's no doubt of it," amiably said Hyles Chasler, who did just that nine years ago. His excuse is that he really did not do it deliberately. It just kind of happened. But today the crinkly faced little former attorney, "minor host" at the Dune Deck, a fabulous gathering place for social notables and entertainment celebrities, would not give a strawberry test for all the torts in the world.

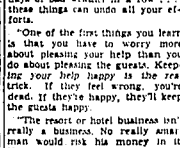

"It's a risky thing to switch careers in middle," he admitted. "And in the beginning I did miss the courtroom. But not now. I haven't the time."

There are two things the average man feels he can run better than those who have the job—the government and a summer resort. "It" is an exception.

Back in 1928, when Dune Deck was put on sale, Chasler, who liked to summer there, decided to get 10 other guests who liked the place to buy it with him.

"The 10 said no real test," recalled Hyles, "so I bought it myself. Then the manager died suddenly, just before the season opened, and I found I had to run the place myself."

He soon found that a liking for people and a love of good food aren't enough to make a successful resort operator.

"The biggest weakness of this business," said Hyles, "is that you are at the mercy of things beyond your control. A fresh water... three days of bad weather in a row... these things can undo all your efforts."

"One of the first things you learn is that you have to worry more about pleasing your help than you do about pleasing the guests. Keeping your help happy is the real trick. If they feel wrong, you're dead. If they're happy, they'll keep the guests happy."

The resort or hotel business isn't really a business. No really smart man would risk his money in it. You simply have to take it as a way of life.

Hyles and his wife Berenice, a former schoolteacher, follow the sun. After the 10-week season here, they spend the winter in Andros Island in the Bahamas, where they operate the equally luxurious Lighthouse Club.

Some of their guests are television star Frier Donald, a trial Charles Adams and writers John O'Hara and P. O. Wodehouse.

"The real reward—if you're willing to arrest to find out what people want and give it to them—is the friendships you make," said Hyles, who tries to create the atmosphere of a week-end party in which everyone knows and likes everyone else.

When one of his guests looks unhappy, Chasler, who could have been a fine psychiatrist, suffers with him.

"Because they know I was a lawyer," he said, smiling. "They bypass the bartender and bring their troubles to me."

Years of listening to other people's vacation woes have made Chasler, who is naturally sensitive and sympathetic, into a philosopher. He has his own theory of why so many people in a world of plenty manage to make themselves feel thoroughly miserable.

"They become too concerned with themselves," he said. "Most troubles really start from within. People do it to themselves. They can think themselves from a mood of happiness into a lowering fear. They brood about themselves."

"All a man has to do to feel better is to brood more about how he can help the other fellow—then do something about it."

DODGE outperforms "other two" low-priced trucks!

They're off! All three low-priced trucks are lined up at the bottom of a test grade equal to the steepest hill in San Francisco. The flag drops, and this grueling test of climbing power is officially underway. Dodge takes an early lead.

Halfway up, the extra V-8 power under the hood of the Dodge sends it quickly ahead. It's already two lengths out front. And there's a 1000-lb. test load on each one of those comparably equipped trucks. What's more, Dodge is still gaining!

Dodge flashes past the finish five lengths ahead of competition. Truck "C" and truck "B" just couldn't match that 20-hp. power Giant. And this is just one of a rugged series of tests that prove Dodge is best of the low-priced three.

Nerud Couples With Gallant Man to Collect Big Purses in Horse Racing

YONKERS, N.Y., June 26 (AP)—Nerud, who "never" nothing following empty was "a" has his destiny hitched to a moderate little thoroughbred named Gallant Man these days and thus far the pickings have been pretty good. The 44-year-old native of Bay Ridge, N.Y., who seldom is seen without a head on his head, has been married with horses and racing all his life. But it wasn't until Gallant Man emerged a potential three-year-old champion this year that Nerud gained national prominence.

Minor League Officials Set Talk On Future of Western Baseball

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—The minor leagues are filled with trepidation as they await a meeting with Ford Frick at the PCL office in Los Angeles on July 10 which unquestionably will produce the blueprints to alter the baseball map. But the minors, already in a life and death struggle for survival, know it is their only hope.

Schenley RESERVE

While with Woolf's stable as assistant trainer, Nerud pioneered in flying horses long distances for Alaska engagements. He accompanied Gallant Man on the first flight from Chicago to California for the Hollywood Gold Cup of 1946, in which Gallant finished third. The riding came back a week later to win the Sunset handicap.

After a few years, Nerud, who candidly admits he was tired as a trainer by Woolf, moved up to New England where he raced a few horses of his own, trained a few for other persons, and acted as agent for a promising young jockey named Ted Atkinson. Atkinson still feels he owes more to Nerud for his success than anyone else.

And it's a sure bet that Gallant Man does.
