Cassia Prisoner Follows 'Break' More Satellite Plans as Sputnik Continues Trip

BURLEY, Oct. 14.—A two-state search was under way Monday for a woman who was reported to have been taken to the Cassia county jail sometime after midnight and before 5 a.m. Sunday, Sheriff LePage Layton said an entire section of the road between the jail and the highway had been searched for the woman. Two of the bolts had been worked loose with a wrench, but the others jerked out.

The woman was 300 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches tall, and had dark hair. She was wearing a blue dress and a white blouse. She was last seen at the jail on Sunday morning.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—A top American satellite specialist predicts the U. S. baby moon will stay aloft "for a couple of years." If it is fired into its planned orbit, the baby moon, Dr. Fred L. Whipple estimated in Cambridge, Mass., last night that it would be months before the Russian satellite drops back to earth. Whipple is director of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory at Cambridge, where information from American observers is being assembled and analyzed.

Dr. John P. Hagen, director of the U. S. satellite program, and scientists at the U. S. Naval Research Laboratory here expect the Russian satellite to stay in orbit "for at least a year."

Whipple said officials at the Smithsonian Observatory believe the Soviet satellite, which has been whirling around the globe since it was launched Oct. 4, will serve as an extremely valuable "dry run" for the day when the U. S. satellite is launched.

Mrs. Henry G. Sievers, 27, Kimberly, mother of four children, died at 4 a.m. Sunday in Magic Valley Memorial hospital of injuries received Saturday in a truck-car collision which instantly killed A. The collision of a 1954 Lincoln driven by Mrs. Sievers and a loaded beat truck driven by Brown occurred at 8:00 a.m. at a county road intersection six miles southeast of Twin Falls. Mrs. Sievers was pinned in the wreckage of her car when the impact of the two vehicles caused the truck to skid sideways.

Solons Want Emphasis on U. S. Schools

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Three congressmen have called for wide government support of the nation's public schools to give them the same status as the nation's universities.

Their proposals came as Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said the nation is "failing to train anything like an adequate number of skilled workers."

Rep. Earl Wilson, R. Ind., urged creation of a "National Education Council" to coordinate national efforts to improve the quality of the nation's schools.

Rep. Frank Thompson, Jr., D. N. J., urged approval of his bill to establish federal loan programs for college students and low income tax deductions for education tuition and fees. He said this could be done without the slightest danger of federal interference with the educational system.

Reds Reaping Good Harvest Out of Woes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—The U. S. Information Agency has been unable to "think out" a heavy barrage of Soviet propaganda over the past few months of this year.

Among these is the Upper Colorado river storage project which should be completed in the 1960s.

He outlined a number of the U. S. Information Agency's programs for trapping and converting rain water, which now runs largely to the sea unused.

Among these is the Upper Colorado river storage project which should be completed in the 1960s.

He said the agency did its best to keep the record straight by telling the world of progress made in the United States toward integration both in schools and other segments of American life.

But his report, issued last night, said "the effort did not succeed in blinding out heavy press attacks in many countries of sensationalized stories on the issue."

Larson said the communists also exploited the case of army Spec. 3/C William Girard, who is charged with killing a Japanese woman with a grenade launcher, and the Formosa riots against the U. S. embassy in Taipei.

He said the Russians gave repeated emphasis to U. S. atomic testing in an effort to brand American disarmament proposals as meaningless. The Russians failed to mention their own testing.

Seaton Predicts Cities Soon Will Be Using Ocean Water

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (AP)—Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton today predicted that by 1972 some cities and towns of generating capacity for mounting water demands by converting sea water to fresh water at a price they can afford to pay.

Seaton, who spoke at today's opening session of the Inland Daily Press association's annual meeting, said that with a relatively few years of work could be America's top international problem.

He outlined a number of the U. S. Information Agency's programs for trapping and converting rain water, which now runs largely to the sea unused.

"Certainly it requires no excess of the imagination to foresee pipelines carrying converted water far inland, from the Atlantic, the Pacific, and the Gulf, to see millions of acres of our own arid West made fertile for the first time in recorded history; to see vast areas in the Middle East and Africa bloom once again as they did in the days of Babylon and Carthage; to see central Australia made fruitful."

"For the future of life on this planet, the implications in the current investigation are indeed immense," he said.

He said private research, conducted under contract with the interior department, has brought the cost down to 60 cents per thousand gallons. The cost is expected to drop even further in the near future.

Rain Torrent Sends Rivers Out of Banks

New flooding hit Texas today in the wake of torrential rains over the Colorado river over its banks and forced the evacuation of about 100 families at Ballinger, Tex.

A series of cloudbursts yesterday and last night dumped over three inches of rain at points in central Texas and up to nine inches in western portions of the state.

Rivers and creeks throughout much of western Texas climbed to flood stages, but the worst damage appeared to be at Ballinger.

Travel halted

Floodwaters blocked highways to the east and west of the city and knocked out telephone communications. The Red Cross at Abilene reported no provisions for the Ballinger evacuees.

Stormy weather was common throughout the state, with heavy rain only north Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa and New Mexico failing to report rain.

East of the Mississippi river, a vast high pressure center brought relatively fair weather to the east coast of the United States.

Temperatures fell

Overnight temperatures tumbled under clear skies, with Philadelphia, Pa., reporting an early morning low of 27 and readings in the 30s common in New England and the Great Lakes.

Western rains were mixed with snow in western Colorado where two to 40 inches of new snow blanketed the Uncompaghe plateau in the Rockies.

Light snow also hit the high mountain passes west of the Colorado highway where reports were received.

Neglect Gets Blame in U.S. Crime Waves

The Rev. Don Hatt Spillman Sunday night blamed the wave of American and juvenile delinquency in America to a neglect of the Ten Commandments which he termed the "Constitution of God's government."

Speaking in the American Legion hall, he said youth crime was America's disgrace. He observed that the nation's crime bill of over 18 billion dollars last year was paid either by theft and furnished more than 3,700,000 middle-class homes, would have an automobile in the garage of every three homes in the U.S., or it would have given ten million unemployed $100 a month for the rest of their lives.

After reviewing cases of socialized crime, he said that the crime committed not only by adults but by teenagers and children as well.

Rev. Spillman declared that the golden rule of "Do unto others as you would be done by" has become "Do others."

And in doing away with the golden rule, he said, "men have lost sight of the law of God and because they have obeyed this law we find ourselves in a great wave of lawlessness."

"I am not the only one who believes in the reintroduction of the commandments to the present generation," he stated before a packed house of prominent businessmen, writers, and public servants who felt the same way.

In defense of the claim by some that the Ten Commandments have been done away with, he said that such an assumption was neither biblical nor reasonable. He quoted the scripture to prove that God in his wise foresight saw that the keeping of the Ten Commandments through Christ were to live together in happiness and security.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

The younger children, those of 4 and 5 years of age, need to play and work in groups. The kindergarten where the children are under the supervision and leadership of the trained teacher is ideal for them. But kindergartens and kindred institutions are not always available. Even where there are good public schools the essential service is omitted and not until the children are 6 years old can they go to school.

Mothers are busy people. Usually there are more children following the 4-year-old, there are house-keeping tasks outside duty and so there is little time and opportunity for the mother to give the child what he needs for group work what he needs in occupation and association with other children his age.

When this happens, when there is a group of little ones who need the mother's leadership of the kindergarten is available, mothers sometimes band together and form a home group, one mother, usually one who has had teaching experience, takes over the group for the morning session. If this can be worked out it is an ideal way to help the little ones through an important phase of their growth.

Kindergarten groups well led, are prepared for the first group in the school, ready to begin to read, trained to work in a group, trained to take direction and enjoy working toward a complete job. Such training disciplines a child's mind and body and he is prepared for the more strenuous school day he meets in the "regular" classes.

This situation is likely to arise in the new developments where houses have been built for young couples who want—want, preparation for the children who are to be born there. In this group of parents there are usually teachers and if the mothers get together, helping each other, sharing in the project, just as they hope their children will do, they can do a great deal toward establishing a group routine very helpful to the little ones and to themselves.

One thing must be kept in mind: The same leader must meet the children day after day. Her appointment should be as regular as possible, then should be a group of children who are to be born there. ## Progress for Space Travel Looks Bright

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Three U. S. aircraft companies are developing passenger-carrying space satellites fitted with television and photographic equipment for reconnaissance. Aviation Week magazine reports.

Russia also is working on such a satellite, it said. Such a vehicle, able to visually record vast areas of land and sea, would have enormous military as well as scientific value. The magazine said in an article issued yesterday that Lockheed Aircraft Corporation presently is working on a preliminary earth-orbiting reconnaissance satellite. Later versions would be manned, it said.

The trade journal said Aeronautical Systems, Inc., also is conducting studies along similar lines. In addition, it said, Rand Corporation supported, chiefly by air force funds, "has pushed work on such satellites for the last 10 years."

It said the Lockheed vehicle was known as the "Fied Piper," or more popularly as "Big Brother."

"The feeling is that Fied Piper could not be ready in the unmanned version before 1960 unless a tremendous effort is placed behind it," Aviation Week said. The manned version, even on an accelerated schedule, is closer to the idea, it added.

INDIAN HEARING SET
PORT HALL, Oct. 14 (AP)—A house subcommittee will conduct hearings Tuesday and Wednesday on the Indian reservation here to see if legislation is needed to help the Indians.

Zhukov Quips on Conquering Moon

MOSCOW, Oct. 14 (AP)—Mikhail Georgiyevich Zhukov, Russia's top soldier, toured a Yugoslav shipyard Saturday and remarked lightly that the Soviet Union will conquer the moon.

Later he watched maneuvers of the Yugoslav army, equipped partly, at least, by the United States and Russia.

Zhukov, who has become one of Russia's most powerful men, was cheerful as he walked among the shipyard workers at Rijeka. He asked them about living conditions, their families and the workers' self management.

He got on the subject of the moon when one of the workers congratulated him on the Soviet earth satellite.

"We will get on the moon," Zhukov replied. "When we conquer the moon we will invite a Yugoslav delegation to visit us."

The workers laughed and applauded.

Project Praised
SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 14 (AP)—A high government official has described the upper Colorado river project as "the greatest potential for good in the West since the land was opened up."

The statement was made by Secretary of the Interior Beaton, who stopped in Salt Lake City briefly between planes while en route to San Francisco to address a Young Republican meeting.

He said he foresees little difficulty in obtaining sufficient funds for orderly completion of the huge Colorado river development.

Senator Raps Aid Funds as Slowing Race

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Sen. William Knowland, R., Calif., says this country might have won the satellite race if money spent in previous years on foreign aid had been channeled into the satellite and missile program.

Referring to money spent by this and previous administrations in supplying military equipment to such countries as Yugoslavia, the senate minority leader said that congress at its next session should reappraise the foreign aid program.

Knowland said Russia's successful launching of its Sputnik did not necessarily mean that the United States is behind "in all fields." He said he believed President Eisenhower was "fully alert" to the problems raised by the Soviet venture into space.

In an interview yesterday, Knowland called for a bipartisan review of the U. S. defense program. The responsibility for the advances gained by the Russians, he said, would have to be shared by both parties. He pointed out that a democratic-controlled house made "deep cuts" in the budget. But he said defense is an "American problem" and there is "too much at stake" for a partisan approach.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman has been named "grandfather of the year" by the National Grandmother and Grandfather of the Year, Inc.

Truman, whose daughter, Margaret, Mrs. Clinton Daniel of New York, gave birth to a son last summer, was awarded the title at a meeting of the organization yesterday. Truman, who is 73, was not present.

Progress for Space Travel Looks Bright

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Three U. S. aircraft companies are developing passenger-carrying space satellites fitted with television and photographic equipment for reconnaissance. Aviation Week magazine reports.

Russia also is working on such a satellite, it said. Such a vehicle, able to visually record vast areas of land and sea, would have enormous military as well as scientific value. The magazine said in an article issued yesterday that Lockheed Aircraft Corporation presently is working on a preliminary earth-orbiting reconnaissance satellite.

Later versions would be manned, it said.

The trade journal said Aeronautical Systems, Inc., also is conducting studies along similar lines. In addition, it said, Rand Corporation supported chiefly by air force funds, "has pushed work on such satellites for the last 10 years."

It said the Lockheed vehicle was known as the "Red Piper" or more popularly as "Big Brother."

The feeling is that Red Piper could not be ready in the unmanned version before 1960 unless a tremendous effort is placed behind it.

Aviation Week said. The manned version, even on an accelerated schedule, is closer to 1965, it added.

INDIAN HEARING SET

FORT HALL, Oct. 14 (AP)—A house subcommittee will conduct hearings Tuesday and Wednesday on the Indian reservation here to see if legislation is needed to help the Indians.

Zhukov Quips on Conquering Moon

POSTONIA, Yugoslavia, Oct. 14 (AP)—Marshal Georg Zhukov, Russia's top soldier, lapsed a Yugoslav shipyard Saturday and remarked cheerfully the Soviet Union will conquer the moon.

Later he watched maneuvers of the Yugoslav army, equipped partly, at least, by the United States and Russia.

Zhukov, who has become one of Russia's most powerful men, was cheerful as he walked among the shipyard workers at Rijeka. He asked them about living conditions, their families and the workers' aid management.

He got on the subject of the moon when one of the workers congratulated him on the Soviet earth satellite.

"And we will get on the moon," Zhukov replied. "When we conquer the moon, we will invite a Yugoslav delegation to visit us."

The workers laughed and applauded.

Project Praised

BALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 14 (AP)—A high government official has described the upper Colorado river project as "the greatest potential for good in the West since the land was opened up."

The statement was made by Secretary of the Interior Beeson, who stopped in Salt Lake City briefly between planes while en route to San Francisco to address a Young Republican meeting.

He said he foresees little difficulty in obtaining sufficient funds for orderly completion of the huge Colorado river development.

Senator Raps Aid Funds as Slowing Race

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Sen. William Knowland, R., Calif., says this country might have won the satellite race if money spent in previous years on foreign aid had been channeled into the satellite and missile program.

Referring to money spent by this and previous administrations in supplying military equipment to such countries as Yugoslavia, the senate minority leader said that congress at its next session should reappraise the foreign aid program.

Knowland said Russia's successful launching of its spunk did not necessarily mean that the United States is behind "in all fields." He said he believed President Eisenhower was "fully alert" to the problems raised by the Soviet venture into space.

In an interview yesterday, Knowland called for a bipartisan review of the U. S. defense program. The responsibility for the advantage gained by the Russians, he said, would have to be shared by both parties. He pointed out that a democratic-controlled house made "deep cuts" in the budget. But he said defense is an "American problem" and there is "too much at stake" for a partisan approach.
