WASHINGTON, July 30 (UPI)—President Eisenhower is challenging Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to a showdown summit meeting in mid-August and the United States plans to charge the Russians with fomenting rebellion and unrest through the Middle East. A presidential note to Khrushchev, to be dispatched shortly, will call for the top-level meeting to be held within the United Nations security council—although not necessarily in New York—between Aug. 10 and 15, high officials

Cherry Tree Owners Urged to Spray Now to Kill Fruit Flies

Cherry tree owners in Twin Falls county can spray for cherry fruit fly right now and probably avoid wormy fruit next year, says Twin Falls County Agent C. W. Dalgh.

Daigh notes commercial growers in the county have harvested their crops. None was particularly bothered by cherry fruit fly since all underiook proper control measures, spraying their trees three times. Owners of a few or individual trees, however, are pretty generally plagued by worms in the county, Dalish says. Now is a good time to

Writer Charges SummitTalk 'Mixed up Mess' at Reception

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, July 29 (AP)—The summit meeting which now looks dead, was a mixed-up mess before it had a chance to start. This is an explanation of how it was shot before it was born.

Russian Premier Khrushchev on July 19 called for a summit meeting to restore stability to the Middle East. He said the meeting would be held in New York. And he made a very important point.

He suggested that the big powers should not—be usual in the council—vote on a problem discussed, but rather let them try to reach agreement about voting.

The United States, Britain, France and Russia—but not India

—are permanent members of council. They have regular delegates sitting in for them. If a summit meeting was held in the council the delegates would just turn their seats over to the heads of their governments.

It was widely reported the Eisenhower administration wanted no part of a summit meeting but was the British. President Eisenhower wrote a very angry letter to Khrushchev. But, in effect, he agreed to agree without saying so flatly to a summit meeting in the council.

But French Prime Minister Charles de Gaulle didn't go along with Macmillan and Eisenhower. He thought the big powers' delegates in the council should continue to try to reach some agreement on the Middle East, with a summit conference held elsewhere if it were needed.

On July 23 Khrushchev shot back a fast acceptance of the Eisenhower-Macmillan proposal, agreed to go to New York, and agreed with Macmillan that the meeting should try to reach agreement without voting.

He also suggested the heads of government might be able to get things done in an unofficial way. Which might mean they could sit in public in the council for a while but do their real arguing and agreeing behind closed doors.

On July 25 Eisenhower wrote Khrushchev another letter. He added something which he hadn't mentioned before. He said any summit meeting in the security council could be governed by rules of the council.

Presumably this meant voting, which was just the opposite of what

Macmillan and Khrushchev had agreed. Eisenhower went further: before there was a summit meeting in the council, the big powers' delegates there should work out arrangements for the conference. Macmillan was not sure whether Khrushchev was serious about power—to the extent of saying the delegates should make the summit arrangements. But de Gaulle still wouldn't go along. He suggested a summit meeting limited to the big powers somewhere in Europe.

Khrushchev accused Eisenhower of going to New York, teaming up with de Gaulle's idea, he proposed that the delegates meet the week—Monday—that the big powers meet in Europe.

The White House said Eisenhower

those same delegates have been unable to agree on what to do about the Middle East.

And he switched from his agreement to go to New York, teaming up with de Gaulle's idea, he proposed that the delegates meet the week—Monday—that the big powers meet in Europe.

The White House said Eisenhower

House Group "Slams Door" In Labor Bill

WASHINGTON, July 30 (UPI)—The House labor committee today voted to "slam the door" on any further labor reform bill this year, despite overwhelming Senate approval.

The committee finally received the Senate-approved reform bill, designed to create down on labor racketeering and promote democratic union practices, but Chairman Graham Barden, D. N. C., said no house hearings were in prospect, "We have to be practical," he told United Press International. "The sun is going down on this session of Congress."

Members Agree
Other committee members agreed the reform bill stood no chance of passing through the committee this year.

Sen. John F. Kennedy, D. Mass., co-sponsor of the bill, charged that a lobby headed by the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) was "flooding" Congress with "misleading" attacks upon the bill.

The NAM quickly replied to Kennedy's charges as "completely false." NAM President Milton C. Eisenhower said the organization was "not interested in the bill" and was "not interested in the bill" and was "not interested in the bill."

Mail's Delay
Speaker Sam Rayburn delayed voting the reform bill to the divided House committee for more than a month, and explained he had wanted to wait until the labor group passed a Senate-passed welfare bill.

This explanation drew the fire of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R. Ariz., who accused Rayburn of killing the bill on his desk for 41 days.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D. Ore., blamed Rayburn's "mistaken leadership" for holding up the labor reform bill, which passed the Senate 80 to 1.

Woe

TUCSON, Ariz., July 30 (UPI)—A Tucson man went to work at his job and found he had a leaky roof over his office. Water dripped on his desk, making a very messy scene.

He tried to start the air conditioner, but it wouldn't work.

He walked to the lot to stare at the rain and noticed a car had been stolen from the lot during the night.

He tried to call the sheriff's office, but the phone wouldn't work.

A few minutes later, he learned a car had been stolen from the lot during the night.

He found the car on its side in the storm-swollen Santa Cruz river.

He summoned a wrecker. He was giving instructions on how to tow the car from the river when another auto zoomed by on the wet highway, splashing him from head to toe.

Dripping wet, he retreated to his leaky office.

Increasing Surplus of Wheat, Market Decline Hint Farm Clash in Congress

WASHINGTON, July 30 (UPI)—Some farm leaders may oppose Thursday's federal control program for wheat if they once oppose it.

Events—in the form of a growing wheat surplus and shrinking markets—seem to point in that direction. The battle may be pitched at the next session of Congress.

Just about everyone connected with agriculture agrees that wheat marketing is a terrible mess. Growers are producing the second largest crop of record under a federal acreage allotment and marketing quota program that penalizes noncompliers. It is being grown at a rate that will produce a surplus of wheat that will be sold at a price that will be lower than the cost of production.

This year's crop is due to dump a lot of extra wheat onto surplus stocks accumulated under a control program that failed to control it.

Farm officials figure that the United States could still be producing wheat in 1959 and still wind up with an unprofitable reserve provided there were no emergencies.

But the surplus situation is likely to become even more troublesome. It is too late to do anything about next year's wheat program. It will be the same as this year's except that no land will be withdrawn from production under the soil bank program.

Now that wet weather has replaced a drought in the wheat-growing great plains, the chances are good that next year's crop will be another bumper one that would add more surplus.

New demands can be expected for a change in the government's wheat policy. Secretary of Agriculture Benson already has urged sharp changes. The influential "American Farm Bureau Federation" calls the present program a failure.

Under this program, the government allows 55 million acres among growers. Each grower's marketing quota is the amount of wheat grown on his allotment. Farm law does not permit a smaller total allotment. Yet perhaps 30 or 35 million acres would produce—in most years—about all the wheat that could be sold under present price policies.

The program also requires the government to support prices at between 75 and 80 per cent of parity, depending on the size of supplies. The larger the supplies, the lower the support may be. It is at the minimum now.

Parity is a standard for measuring prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

Efforts to make the program more effective in curbing excess production may move in two general directions.

One would be to tighten restrictions on production by cutting the allotments. This would run into much opposition because it would force many producers to low and inefficient levels of production. Some might even be forced out of production by inadequate allotments.

The other course would be a sharp reduction in price supports and several steps in the great plains would be designed to let economic maximum use of efficient machinery. Home forces play a larger role in possible and production costs are expected to drive many farmers out of wheat growing.

Should the issue wind down to a decision between these two courses, farm leaders and the marketing board have opposed the present 75 per cent of parity support. Automatically would jump in to try to save them. Some have indicated this would be their course.

These leaders, the present program, even with its supports below levels they have fought for, would be better than even lower supports, or a program that would prevent support but reduce the acreage sharply.

But those who favor lower supports and bring of production controls believe that the resulting lower prices would operate in line to control national parks.

Nike-Hercules Rockets' Test Is 'Successful'

COLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla., July 30 (AP)—Two Nike-Hercules ground-to-air missiles were fired at a three-second interval yesterday and struck about 47 miles out over the Gulf in a successful test.

The first missile, carrying an experimental warhead, destroyed an F-80 target fighter leading a three-drone flight.

The second missile, with an instrumented warhead, passed just in front of the second drone—no explosion. Technical information about the near-miss was tele-metered back to ground facilities on nearby Santa Rosa Island.

The drones were flying at approximately 20,000 feet.

The missiles left the launching pads vertically and were visible to the 300 spectators for about half a minute. After their boosters dropped off, they continued rising upward until they were almost out of sight and then leveled off and sped toward the target.

Brig. Gen. John T. Snodgrass, commander of the army tank force which completed its assignment at the launching, called them the sixth perfect firings of the Nike-Hercules test of air defense weapons.

The Nike-Hercules, a slender 27-foot projectile, is an improved version of the Nike-Ajax, which already is in operation. It is reported unofficially to have a range of at least 100 miles and a speed of about 2,000 miles per hour.

Salk Is Working In Cancer Test

PITTSBURGH, July 30 (AP)—Dr. Jonas Salk, developer of the successful anti-polio vaccine, continued Tuesday his cancer experiments with cancer.

"But we have no treatment for cancer," he emphasized.

Dr. Salk's comments were contained in a statement issued after a Pittsburgh newspaper, the Sun-Grapher, reported he had been given injections for four children with cancer.

"It is true that we have been conducting experiments in many ways with a variety of cancerous cancer-like conditions," Dr. Salk said in the statement. He added:

"Our studies are of a strictly exploratory nature, intended to tell us something about the nature of cells that grow in tissue culture. When the time comes that we have something of consequence to report, we will do so."

AI's SELLIN' OUT!

AI Hall at IDAHO ELECTRIC in JEROME Found His Keys!

Yes, AI finally found the keys to Idaho Electric's warehouse and he was just sick at the stacks and stacks of brand new General Electric Appliances stored there. They are all now stacked in front of the store and AI will sell out the entire warehouse stock in the next 3 days!

EVERYTHING MUST GO

Regardless of necessary price cuts to trade. Come in and dicker! No reasonable offer refused. Whatever you want: refrigerators, ranges, washers, dryers, TV, you can get it in the next 3 days at Idaho Electric at the lowest you'll see. Idaho Electric must have the warehouse space for new merchandise and we'll sacrifice the old to get it!

Pilot Is OK'd In X-15 Plane Test In Space

LOS ANGELES, July 30 (UPI)—Sometime within the next year or two a widely garbed pilot will be strapped into the cockpit of the rocket plane X-15, carried aloft under a giant jet bomber to the lower atmosphere and then dropped.

The X-15's thrust rocket engine then will be switched on and the missile-like craft will streak upward at a speed near 4,000 miles an hour into true space.

The man assigned to pilot America's first space ship is a poised New Yorker, air force capt. Robert R. White, 34, veteran of 81 combat missions in World War II and Korea and now designated to replace Capt. Charles E. Yeager, killed in a jet crash last Saturday at Edwards air force base.

Honor Kincheloe

White and other fellow pilots paid last tributes yesterday to Kincheloe—the man who was originally scheduled to make the dangerous mission. Kincheloe's body was taken to Arlington cemetery in the nation's capital for burial Friday.

What about the danger—on a captain's pilot?

"Well, you sort of get used to the idea," White said today. "You want to do it because it's got to be done. I'd say all the pilots on this project are happy in their work. It's kind of a dedication, if that's the right word."

Test Scheduled

Before White steps into the X-15 for an all-out assault on space, the test pilot from Great Falls, N.D., will prove the rocket plane's control and structure at an altitude of 100,000 feet, 100 miles above the earth.

White, father of a 3-year-old son, has a daughter who will be 1 on Oct. 17, is a hazel-eyed, 170-pounder who has flown 10,000 air hours in practically all types of planes. He was "back-up" pilot behind Kincheloe in the air force's outer atmosphere program, and thus steps into Kincheloe's shoes.

Although he may be the first man into space, White doesn't feel he'll be filling the space planes of the future. He says "there'll be many more coming up and that will be their job."

Oklahoma Dead At 107 Years Old

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 30 (UPI)—Harry Jackson, who once said, "I've done it all," died Tuesday. He was 107 years old.

A 50-year-old veteran of the U. S. secret service, he settled in Oklahoma after helping police the famed land run of 1889 which led to the opening of Oklahoma.

He died of a stroke and heart failure, although hospital authorities said he was not hurt seriously.

He was born Nov. 27, 1850, in Tarrant county, Tex., but was raised in Arizona.

Airline, Engineer Union Okay Pact

KANSAS CITY, July 30 (UPI)—The Flight Engineers International association and Trans World Airlines ended a long labor dispute by signing a two-year contract yesterday.

The new agreement covers about 700 flight engineers in both propeller and jet airplanes.

TWA and the union previously had agreed on all issues except job security and qualifications. A joint announcement did not specify terms of the contract.

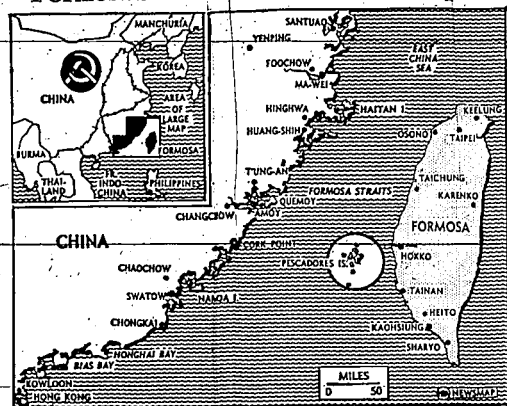

A TWA spokesman said he did not know details of this wage settlement.

Union officials were unavailable for comment.

VISIT ENDS

HAGERMAN, July 30 (UPI)—Mrs. Dale Thoms and daughter, Spokane, Wash., spent last week visiting at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis. They returned to their home by way of Boise where they will visit friends. Her mother, Mrs. Etta Ellis, who has spent the past two months visiting here, returned to Spokane with her.

Formosa Seen as Possible Trouble Spot

Newsmag above spotlights the nationalistic Chinese bastion of Formosa, short striking distance from the Red Chinese mainland. Global experts have their eyes on this area of the world, in the fear that, under cover of the Middle East crisis, the Peking regime might kick up trouble in an attempt to risk itself of the island's rich in its side. Lending substance to this fear was the fact that Chiang Kai-shek alerted his 100,000-man army last week when the Iraq crisis erupted. Pescadore Islands, circled on map, are held by Chiang government.

Vote Win Claimed By Hays, Trimble

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 30 (UPI)—Congressman Brooks Hays and James W. Trimble apparently won re-election in yesterday's Democratic primary election.

Hays, running for a seventh term, was opposed by Amos Outbridge, a segregationist leader who regards integration as "part of a communist conspiracy."

Returns to United Press International from 235 of 276 precincts in Hays' district gave him 50,898 votes to 16,021 for Outbridge.

Returns from 470 of 575 precincts in Trimble's district gave him 40,852 votes, compared with 10,859 for Judge Franklin Wilder, 7,106 for Donald Lee and 1,278 for Leo M. Whitaker.

Probers Goggle At Goggle Deals

WASHINGTON, July 30 (UPI)—House investigators unveiled a story yesterday of the navy buying sunglasses by the thousands while the air force is peddling much the same kind for a fraction of what they cost.

The disclosure came during a hearing by the government operating subcommittee of the house. It is looking into complaints that great quantities of items sold by U. S. armed forces overseas as surplus are being brought back to America for resale.

Thomas Johnson of the Welsh Manufacturing company, of Providence, R. I., was here to testify as president of the Sun Glass Institute, protesting such imports.

Johnson was shown two sun goggles and was asked if it would surprise him to learn one was sold as surplus while the navy was buying a similar type.

"It certainly would," Johnson replied.

John McGarry, subcommittee counsel, told him: "The committee looked into that, and it is a fact."

Social Planned

FILET, July 30—The Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church will hold an ice cream social from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday on the church lawn. Candy, pies, cookies and cakes will be sold in addition to ice cream.

A conference assembly is slated for Aug. 15 and 16 in Goodline. Members planning to attend are asked to contact Barbara Smith by Friday.

TOO MANY BEAUTIES

MADISON, Wis., July 30 (UPI)—Gov. Vernon Thomson said yesterday Wisconsin did not send a representative to the Miss Universe contest "because there are so many beautiful girls in the state. It would be too difficult to pick just one."

Fireside Held

HEVIBURN, July 30—A fireside meeting for the second ward M-Men and Glensmen was held Sunday evening on the church lawn.

Leon Hammond, Aecqua, told of his experience as an LDS missionary in California and Arizona. The fireside chat was conducted by Virginia Wilcox and Edith Schenk. Beverly Woodrow was in charge of refreshments.

EDUCATOR GETS POST

IDAHO FALLS, July 30 (UPI)—Trustees of school district 91 last night appointed Owen B. Thornequist, principal of the Idaho Falls high school. He has been principal of St. Anthony high school.

300,000 VISIT SHRINE

LOURDES, France, July 30 (UPI)—Nearly 300,000 pilgrims have visited the shrine of St. Bernadette here since March 22 when the coronation celebrations were started, was announced today.

Probes Begun In Newsman's Medical Hoax

VANCOUVER, B. C. July 30 (UPI)—An investigation was under way at St. Paul's hospital today in the case of Jack Brett, 26, who said he posed as an intern recently and delivered three babies.

Brett, now a reporter on the Prince George, B. C. Citizen, said he posed as a graduate of the University of Toronto and Queens university medical schools to prove "it could be done, and to show how dangerous the system is."

Admitted to Staff
The hospital confirmed that Brett posed as "Dr. Jack Harris," passed an interview with three doctors and was taken on the staff last April 3. He was dismissed April 23 when it was discovered he had no credentials.

However, medical authorities at the hospital denied that Brett delivered babies. One said that in terms on probation "don't work on medical wards. A second week on eye, ear, nose and throat cases and a third on maternity cases."

Dr. Yale Chien, registrar at the British Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons, said prosecution would be up to the hospital. Maximizing fine on conviction of unauthorized practice of medicine would be $100.

4-H Group to Set Program

SHOEHORN, July 30—Plans for promoting the program at Wood River Livestock Grange on Aug. 9 were made by members of the Wood River Livestock 4-H club at their meeting held at the Grange hall this week. The club is sponsored by the Grange.

Gene Cheney, vice president, conducted the business meeting. Achievement day was set for Aug. 25 with the Junior Leaders, Sharon McElroy and Judy Sims, in charge of arrangements. The Junior Leaders are also in charge of arrangements for the program presentation at the Grange meeting and will assist new members in learning the parts of a dairy cow at the next meeting Aug. 7 at the Grange hall.

Adole Sandy and Edward Sandy served refreshments at the meeting this week. Leaders are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stutman, Gaylen Sorenson, Donna Peak and Carol Thorpe were assigned to serve refreshments at the next meeting.

Mrs. Idaho Is Guest of Honor At T. F. Breakfast for Women

A breakfast at the Torgerson hotel Wednesday honored Mrs. John Runkle, Nampa, Mrs. Idaho for 1958. A key to the city was presented to Mrs. Runkle by Mrs. Rodney Tegan, acting secretary of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

Present to honor Mrs. Runkle were Mrs. Idaho finalists and representatives of Twin Falls women's groups. Mrs. Runkle was chosen as the ideal homemaker in Idaho in April.

The 41-year-old housewife, a graduate home economist of Iowa State college, is the mother of three children, John, 15, Tim, 11, and Rex, 7. Her husband owns and manages the Chynon Culligan Soft Water service in Nampa.

Mrs. Runkle attended national Mrs. America finals in May in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and was named the national No. 2 housewife.

In addition to placing second, Mrs. Runkle was the only double winner in the daily homemaking contest events. She won the sewing and dishwashing contests to become one of the finalists.

Mrs. Runkle told the group Wednesday of the Marry Marrieds club. Mrs.

Robert Brown, president of the county home demonstration club council; Mrs. A. A. Johnson, president of the county LDB alderess; Mrs. Gilbert McMill, president of Community Wives club; Mrs. Fred Dux, president of the Altitude club; Mrs. Lee Luch, and Mrs. Norm Tarter.

Mrs. Marvin Hunt, Filer, Maple Valley Mrs. Idaho finalist; Mrs. Robert High, Hansen, president of the Lakeview club; Mrs. Delbert Clapp, Kimberly, president of the Kim-Sen club; and Mrs. H. K. Maxson, Filer, president of the Springs club.

Mrs. Evelyn Wilson introduced the guest of honor and Mrs. Tegan. Guests from Twin Falls were Mrs. George Bever, Mrs. Idaho of 1957; Mrs. Ivan Skinner, president of the Maple Valley Memorial hospital guild; Mrs. A. W. Morgan, judge of the home economics division of the Mrs. Idaho contest; Mrs. John Wells, Maple Valley winner in this year's Mrs. Idaho contest; Mrs. L. L. # Survey Sets U. S. Geographic Center at South Dakota Peak

WASHINGTON, July 30 (UPI)—The new geographic center of the United States is near a hill called Two Top peak about 11 miles west of Castle Rock, S. D., the U. S. coast and geodetic survey announced today.

The government agency located the new center because an additional 588,400 square miles of land will soon be added to the union when Alaska becomes the 49th state. This will shift the nation's geographic center from its present location near Lebanon, Kans.

The new center is approximately at latitude 44 degrees 49 minutes and longitude 103 degrees 28 minutes west. It is 20 miles from the point where the borders of South Dakota, Montana and Wyoming meet.

Rear Adm. H. Arnold Karo, director of the coast and geodetic survey, said the new center could not be fixed precisely and might be off about 10 miles in any direction. He pointed out that it is difficult to determine the exact geographic center of two large, irregular areas on a sphere.

He said several methods could have been employed, but the coast and geodetic survey used the center-of-gravity method which he described as follows:

"If one imagines a weightless spherical shell on which the areas of only the United States and Alaska are painted with an absolutely uniform thickness, then the center of gravity, or the geographic center, might be said to be that point at which the shell will balance."

Government mathematicians started with the old geographic center of the United States in Kansas. Then they computed the center of Alaska to be about 60 miles northwest of Mt. McKinley.

Next the 3,024,000 square mile area of the 48 contiguous states was weighed against the 480,400 square miles of Alaska. The new center is considered to be at that point along the line of the shortest distance between the separate centers of this country and Alaska where their total areas would balance.

THE CAR WAS RECOVERED THIS MORNING WITH THE BODIES OF ALL BUT ONE OF THE VICTIMS INTACT. POLICE WERE DRAINING FOR THE MISSING BODY.

Savants Study How to Detect Nuclear Blast

GENEVA, July 30 (UPI)—Eastern and western scientists moved today into the final phase of their search for a foolproof plan to detect sneak nuclear explosions.

Observers estimated the scientists will need at least a week to finish their work, begun here today and in other parts of the world.

The scientists from Russia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Romania, the United States, Britain, France and Canada have agreed to a number of scientific methods to detect nuclear blasts, including Earth satellite instruments for explosions in the atmosphere.

Their big job is to combine these methods into a workable control system that will trip up any nation trying to violate a possible ban on nuclear tests.

Before the scientists went into their final secret meeting at the Palais des Nations, it was freely expected their final recommendations would include one for creation of a wide-area network of detecting stations, as part of the control system.

Key to Success
All indications so far have been that the delegates have kept strictly to the scientific phase in their discussions.

Both sides apparently have been working hard to reach an agreement on the use of nuclear tests. Russia has demanded such a commitment, but the United States has turned it down.

China forced one member of the American delegation, Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence, to return home. Dr. Lawrence, director of the University of California's radiation laboratory at Berkeley, has been ill with a bronchial condition since mid-July and was advised not to return home.

Saves Tot

Study of Crop Spray Effect of Fish, Wildlife Called for in Congress Bill

WASHINGTON, July 30 (UPI)—A bill is current in our legislature to authorize a study aimed at preventing the poisoning of fish and wildlife by forest and crop sprays.

The senate completed congressional action July 23 on the bill which would authorize an annual appropriation of $250,000 for a continuing investigation of the effects of insecticides, herbicides, fungicides and other pesticides upon fish and wildlife.

If the President signs the bill, investigators will have to look for ways to spray forests, crops, wetlands and game lands with minimum losses of fish and game.

The urgent need for study needs little demonstration. Our 3,400,000-acre forest land is being sprayed with insecticides and fungicides.

Figure 1 is a line graph showing the percentage of total catch versus the number of hauls for various fish species. The x-axis is labeled 'Number of hauls' and ranges from 0 to 10. The y-axis is labeled 'Percentage of total catch' and ranges from 0 to 100. The legend indicates: 1. Yellow perch (solid line with circles), 2. Rock bass (dashed line with squares), 3. White sucker (dotted line with triangles), 4. Common carp (solid line with diamonds), 5. Pumpkinseed (dashed line with crosses), 6. Bluegill (dotted line with asterisks), 7. Rock bass (solid line with circles), 8. White sucker (dashed line with squares), 9. Common carp (dotted line with triangles), 10. Pumpkinseed (solid line with diamonds), 11. Bluegill (dashed line with crosses). The graph shows that Yellow perch and Rock bass are the most common species, with Yellow perch reaching nearly 100% catch by the 10th haul.

Fish and Game Commission Establishes October 25 for Pheasant Season Opening

BOISE, July 30 (P)—The Idaho fish and game department Tuesday set an Oct. 25 opening date for most pheasant, partridge and quail seasons and listed grouse seasons generally for September. Season lengths and bag limits generally were similar to those of last year although some changes were made. Approval of the seasons came during the second day of the Idaho fish and game commission's July meeting. It listed these seasons: Chinese, Mongolian and Muttant pheasants—bag limit three cocks but possession limit six cocks; the first season will run from Oct. 18 to Nov. 15 in Bonner and Boundary counties, in 13 southeastern Idaho counties it runs from Oct. 25 to Nov. 15, in 25 other counties of the state it will be Oct. 25 to Nov. 23. In other partridge season was instituted for the first time in Clearwater, Idaho, Latah, Lewis and Shoshone counties from Oct. 25 to Nov. 23. In 14 southern and south central counties the season was extended two weeks to run from Oct. 25 to Dec. 7, but otherwise remains the same as last year.

Jaycee State Junior Golf Tourney Slated

Thirty of the top junior golfers in Idaho will gather at Twin Falls Municipal golf course Friday preliminary to week-end competition in the state Jaycee Chamber of Commerce tournament. The 30 participants are from 10 cities in the state. Each competitor earned his right into the state finals by placing in a local competition last month. Frank Williams, chairman for the event, said winners will be shooting for a berth in national playoffs in Denver, Ariz., next month. The Idaho Jaycee champion will receive a two-week expense paid trip to the national meet.

Lollar Belts Homer to Whip Senators 2-1

By The Associated Press. Sherm Lollar's two-run homer with two out in the ninth inning put the Yankees over the top in a 3-2 victory over the Senators Tuesday night at Washington. Lollar's homer came off Senators' pitcher, Earl Johnson, who had pitched a one-hitter in the eighth. Lollar's homer was the first of his career. The Yankees won their first game since July 15. The Senators lost their first game since July 15.

The field will become acquainted with the local course Friday, all day reserved for practice rounds. Competition will open Saturday and carry through Sunday. Champions will be crowned Sunday evening. Williams added.

The Twin Falls delegation, composed of Charles (Chick) Quinn, local tournament winner, Carl Hoes, Jerry Pracey and Loren Price, is expected to produce at least one challenger for the crown. All but Pracey were members of the Twin Falls high school golf team last year.

Russets Bump Great Falls in 7-3 Contest

IDAHO FALLS, July 30 (P)—George Schmidt, former University of Wisconsin mound star, held the Great Falls Electric in check with a seven-hit performance here Tuesday night to give the Idaho Falls Russets a 7-3 win in the five-game series finale.

The Russets won four of the five, including one makeup game that counted in the first half. The two teams traded bases empty homers to add spice to the pitchers' duel when Doug Canfield pitched a round tripper to put the Russets ahead 1-0 in the second, and Frank Franchi duplicated the feat to lead off the fifth inning for the Russets.

Great Falls scored two more runs, both of them unearned in the seventh inning. Eddie Reed and Canfield singled, and both teams were when second baseman Jack Wood dropped second baseman Russ's fly ball to the outfield on Don Carrasquillo's grounder. Schmidt whiffed Larry Burgett and Tony Lembo, but George Miller, pinchhitting for Bruce Polk, lined out a two-run single.

Idaho Falls was again ahead with three runs in the third inning on two base hits and an Elect error. The Russets scored on a wild pitch and a throw by Russ. Franchi and Bob Rodgers, who caught the third run on Jerry Kujalek's single to left, one of three singles for the big first baseman.

Franchi's homer followed in the fifth, and the Russets got two more in the sixth on an error by Polk, a single and a wild pitch.

The grand slam homer was the 17th of Williams' career, and tied him with Ted Williams as the all-time home run leader among players with the immortal Babe Ruth. Lou Gehrig holds the record with 23.

Cowboys Error Away 5-3 Contest After Tomlin Wins First Game Over Boise 4-0

The fumbling Magic Valley Cowboys booted away a 5-3 decision to Boise's Braves Tuesday night after copping a 4-0 decision in the opener of the four-team, four-city pitching of lefty Gary Tomlin. Only 351 saw the bill, played in intermittent rain. It marked Boise's fifth win in the seven-game series and a sweep of the four tilts that counted in second half standings. Only solace for the erring wonder...

Senators Challenged To Subsidize Baseball

WASHINGTON, July 30 (AP)—U. S. senators clamoring to keep major league baseball in Washington were challenged Tuesday to agree to subsidize a team if it loses money. The case came from C. Leo de Orey, recently resigned director of Washington, president American league club and a vocal critic of some of baseball's leaders and tactics. De Orey had tongue in cheek when he first mentioned subsidizing the game, but he has been serious since he declared that before the question was decided, he would not support any bill that would subsidize the game.

Stuart's 'Long Ball' Keeps Klu on Bench

PITTSBURGH, July 30 (AP)—What's keeping big Ted Kluwe out of the Pittsburgh Pirates' bench? It's a sore knee or fence-busting Dick Stuart? "It's Stuart," general manager Joe L. Brown said Tuesday without hesitation. "He's been producing the long ball and driving in runs. Look at the records. There's nothing wrong with Kluwe's knee. In fact, he's in the best shape he's been in all year. The warm weather has helped."

Tri-City Stopped 5-1 on Two-Hitter

Wilkinson's Hate for Pros Proves Confusing

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 30 (AP)—Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football league, said yesterday he couldn't understand why Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson wanted to get into pro football if he thought the game was so ruthless. Bell, speaking from his seashore home, said Wilkinson, one of the nation's winningest college football coaches, recently offered to coach the Chicago Cardinals of the NFL for a 25 percent interest in the club and its transfer to Houston, Tex.

Favorites Top Field Through First Round

SALT LAKE CITY, July 30 (AP)—The champion and the runner-up came through with victories as expected in the first round of matches in the Salt Lake City parks women's golf tournament Tuesday. Shirley Edwards, 17-year-old star from Caldwell, Ida., the defending champion, beat Virginia Underhosen in the final of last year's tournament, beat Charlotte Herzog of Price 3 and 2.

Takes Lead

GOODMAN, Utah, July 30 (AP)—Al Kellogg, Portland, Ore., a 10-year veteran of the air force, took over the lead Tuesday in the 40-year handicap division of the Kootenai endurance bowling classic. He had a total of 8,110 after a sensational finish Tuesday morning. Captain Kellogg rolled a 213 on his 4th ball after 15 continuous hours of bowling. He had 22 games over 200.

Tri-City Stopped 5-1 on Two-Hitter

KENNEWICK, July 30 (AP)—Lewiston, behind the two-hit pitching of Proby Norris, downed Tri-City 5-1 Tuesday night. Norris, a fancy right-hander who has been hitting the long ball since he was a freshman at the University of Washington, struck out four in the first inning and drove in four runs with a home run in the fourth.

Stuart's 'Long Ball' Keeps Klu on Bench

PITTSBURGH, July 30 (AP)—What's keeping big Ted Kluwe out of the Pittsburgh Pirates' bench? It's a sore knee or fence-busting Dick Stuart? "It's Stuart," general manager Joe L. Brown said Tuesday without hesitation. "He's been producing the long ball and driving in runs. Look at the records. There's nothing wrong with Kluwe's knee. In fact, he's in the best shape he's been in all year. The warm weather has helped."
