Another Good Tourism Year Seen for 1959

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19 (UPI)—It looks like another banner year for Pacific area tourism.

Five new superliners are due to be built for Pacific service. Jet aircraft will be introduced in July.

Hotels in and around the Pacific basin plan to increase their total number of beds by 2,000 to 40,000.

All told, the Pacific Area Travel Association (PATA) forecasts that 600,000 persons will be traveling around the Pacific this year.

More beds will be needed as school teachers, retired folk, students and businessmen with pockets filled by continued prosperity look for new recreation and trade.

In 1958 airlines posted traffic gains of up to 35 per cent. Steamship passenger traffic was up 13 per cent over 1957.

So many people want to visit the Pacific PATA expects airlines to boost their seating capacity by nearly one-third. Flights have tripled in the last seven years.

Qantas Empire airways will serve the first to put pure jets into service, using Boeing 707's. Canadian Pacific airlines already is employing prop-jet Britannias on its Pacific runs.

But steamship companies also will be bidding for the tourists, offering new superliners on which to relax. Orient and Pacific lines will compete and operate this year the 45,000-ton Canberra and the 40,000-ton Oriana.

And Nippon Yusen Kaisha Line (NYK) will build two 950-passenger liners of 22,800 gross tons each for service in 1961 and 1962 from Japan to here and Los Angeles.

Another Japanese firm, Osaka Shosen Kaisha line, introduced the 1,800-passenger Argentina Maru last year. It runs between Japan, South America and the U. S. West coast.

Eventually, they will be in competition with the 50,000-ton, 100-million-dollar President Washington, which will be constructed shortly by the American President Lines. It will have nine decks and accommodations for 1,460 passengers.

House Sentimental Gesture to Martin May Cost Us $40,000

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UPI)—The sentimental gesture of the house toward Rep. Joseph Martin, Massachusetts, after he was booted out of his job as Republican leader, may cost the taxpayers up to $40,000 a year.

Leaders in Congress cost money. The salary of the 74-year-old Martin, like that of any other senator or representative, is $22,500 a year. Congress voted itself that pay in 1955. It has also voted itself various kinds of expense money.

But as leader of the house Republicans, which he had been for 20 years, Martin got some extras: A Cadillac, a chauffeur, and about $26,000 more for office help than is allowed the ordinary congressman.

He lost those extras when his fellow Republicans, apparently because they thought he was slowing up—bounced him as their leader and replaced him with Rep. Charles Halleck, Indiana Halleck is 58.

The thought of Martin, with a reduced office staff and having to journey to work like an ordinary member of congress, appeared too much for both Democrats and Republicans in the house. They voted last week to give him back his extras.

Halleck, as the new Republican house leader, will, of course, also have a limousine, a chauffeur, and approximately $26,000 extra for additional office help. But Martin and Halleck aren't free; $1,200 for stationery; plus $150 a month for the expense of having an office back in his home district. This writer could not obtain a corresponding breakdown for members of the senate on office expenses. A request for the information was turned down flatly at the senate appropriations committee, at the senate disbursing office, and by senate secretary Johnson. It was told this was pretty much of a secret.

A protest that taxpayers' money was involved and they were entitled to the information got nowhere. Johnson is not a senator but a senate employee.

But senators and representatives are allowed to deduct $3,000 a year from their $22,500 salary for personal living expenses because they have to maintain two homes: One here and one back in their own state.

Members of congress can pay 7 1/2 per cent of their salary into a pension fund. A member of either house who has served at least five years and reached age 62 can retire on a pension of $3,000 a year. One who has served 30 years can get a pension of $18,000.

Nothing in the house for lunch? Cook eggs hard; make a curry-flavored cream sauce. Serve over toast telephoning; 20,000 telegraph words or cooked rice with chutney.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—The bipartisan revolution which toppled old-line leaders in the house and forced liberalization of senate rules was a victory for a small platoon of veterans of World War II and the Korean "police action." They are the Fidelity Caucus of Capitol Hill.

They represent a new postwar breed of legislators. With a few exceptions, they are in their forties. They are lawyers, businessmen and educators. On returning from the wars to their small towns and cities, they married and plunged into the civic, economic and political activities of their communities.

Several won awards from Junior Chambers of Commerce for distinguished service. They joined Rotary and Kiwanis, the Masons and other fraternal organizations.

They served on boards, local and state, and in the American Legion or the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

MORE AGGRESSIVE LEGISLATORS—With its favorable climate and associations, many ran for local offices, and the survivors wound up an capitol hill within the last five or 10 years. With this combination of experiences—the war, civic and political activities, middle-age problems confronting them in a turbulent and changing world—they took their seats in a more aggressive, more daring and less reverential mood than the normal newcomers possess.

They wanted "action." They translated into politics the demand which impatient and disillusioned soldiers have always wanted, whether huddled in a slow chow line or in a delayed battle formation.

"What are we waiting for?" The Republican platoon griped over the go-easy attitude of Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr. The Democratic veterans grew uneasy under the hold-over-ranks commands of Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson.

AIMS OF FORMER SERVICEMEN—The parliamentary disputes were, in a sense, a struggle between a postwar army of guerrilla politicians and the pacetime "regular" of the old guard. It was a combat, figuratively, between the soldiers of an atomic conflict and men who had never fired even a musket in anger. It was a clash of two different generations.

Their common experiences on the battlefield, on the sea or in the air, however, did not mean that they had the same political aims on capitol hill. It simply meant that each group sought changes in personnel and procedure which they regarded as improvements on the old, prewar order.

The Republicans, for instance, returned as conservatives. They wanted to preserve the old values for which they had fought, and the lives, the homes, the communities they had built since Hiroshima and the Korean armistice.

DEMOCRATS' VIEWS—The Democrats returned as more radical than when they went away. Mainly from the larger cities, whereas the GOPers represent smaller communities; they felt the need for more schools, more hospitals, more highways, solutions for unemployment, federal aid for distressed peoples and areas.

It was the Republicans who replaced Martin with Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, an utter reactionary. It was the Democrats who wrested from Speaker Rayburn a pledge to facilitate action on liberal legislation. And on the senate side they led the fight to smash filibusters.

Thus, although these alert, cocky and pugacious veterans did not achieve all their objectives—not even Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower did that—they did get "action."

BIOGRAPHICAL FLASHES—Here are thumbnail sketches of the leading rebel military records:

Sen. Paul H. Douglas, Illinois Democrat, enlisted as private in U. S. Marines at 18 and emerged as a lieutenant colonel. Twice wounded, Rep. Frank Thompson, Jr., New Jersey Democrat, awarded three combat decorations while serving with navy in Pacific; re-entered service for Korea and served 17 months. Bob Wilson, California Republican, served as infantry private.

John H. Rhodes, Arizona Republican, had four years and nine months in air force. Gerald E. Ford, Jr., Michigan Republican, served 47 months in navy. Edward A. Cederberg, Michigan Republican, enlisted in army in April, 1941, and served through invasion of Normandy and Germany. Thomas B. Curtis, Missouri Republican, did hitch of 42 months in navy.

John H. Ray, 72-year-old New York Republican, who organized the house rebellion, is a distinguished lawyer at Minneapolis and New York. He rose to become general solicitor and vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. He was special assistant to Newton-D. Baker, Woodrow Wilson's secretary of war.

Views of Others
MOST OVERUSED WORD IN OUR LANGUAGE
The English language badly needs a substitute for the word "crisis."

Webster defines the word thusly: "The point of time when it is decided whether any affair or course of action must go on, or be modified or terminate; decisive moment; turning point; also, a state of things in which a decisive change one way or the other is impending."

The word today is filled with substitutions which have been described as crises, yet which have no decisive moments, no clear turning points, no immediate prospect of decisive changes.

One of the national television networks puts the label, "Years of Crisis," on its roundup of news comments at each year's end. Yet there is no prospect that the years ahead will be any less critical than those through which we are now living.

We have been faced with crises in the Middle East, at Quemoy and Matsu, in Berlin, at Little Rock. We have become accustomed to thinking of the overall cold war itself in terms of crisis. Our tag in rocketry was at one time termed "crisis." We have been told there is a crisis in education, in our relations with South America, in the threat of Communist China to take over all Southeast Asia.

We do not for one minute minimize the gravity of the problems which face us in these many areas. But we are aware that well-informed and well-meaning men in the 19th century foresaw disaster and ruin in events which seemed of overwhelming import at that time.

In using the crisis tag so indiscriminately, we may become like the boy who cried "wolf" too many times, and we cease the word to lose the meaning it really has.—Oregon Journal, Portland.

WHERE ARE THEY?
"What ever happened to the veterans?" asks Time magazine. Thirteen years ago they were supposed to be forming a powerful force in American life, a force even stronger than the force their fathers formed after World War I, a force more like the big GAR that dominated American politics in the generation after the Civil war. They were supposed to have a tough time "getting readjusted" and everybody was supposed to help them.

Time's conclusion is that the veterans of World War II so melted into the general population that they became indistinguishable from the population. They are the population. In Time's words, they became "too busy to be professional veterans." Only one in eight joined the American Legion, compared with one in three who joined after World War I.

The veteran found, and helped create, a healthy economic climate. Thanks to the so-called GI "bill," which Time describes as "a bonus in advance," many are now in the professions instead of in the trades. The program which cost 14.5 billion dollars, has been paid back by the increased income taxes collected from men who make more money than they would have made had it not been for their additional educations.

All this is to the good. It is far better to have a body of veterans who regard themselves as citizens and taxpayers than to have a small, militant and exclusive group who swing their weight only as tax consumers.—Eugene Register-Guard.

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

NEW YORK—In the aftermath of the Teamsters' political feat at the New York police force, a harmless old current events club of harmless cops, the Patrolmen's Benevolent association, has been using lawyers and professional propagandists to heckle the high command.

The PBA has about 19,000 members and dues are $1.50 a month. Westbook Pepler roughly $300,000 plus a year. It has paid one retainer of $10,000 to a Broadway theatrical law firm.

Probably not one cop in a hundred even knows that the harmless old PBA has been going in for such stuff at high fees and whooping up a design, perhaps unwittingly, to Sovietize the police department.

In Petrograd, in 1917, the revolution formed councils of workers and soldiers to "cooperate" with the high command. The result was dictatorship and a discipline so brutal that the rigors of the old regime seemed like affectionate indulgence.

Norman Frank, a press agent, was engaged at $10,000 a year to handle "public relations" for PBA. Shappe-Wilkes, Inc., a middleclass advertising firm, handled the PBA's advertising account, including large newspaper display ads. The total cost of these ads to the policemen, without their individual knowledge, was about $25,000, by estimate.

The commission payable to Shappe-Wilkes would have been about $4,000 at the usual rate of 15 per cent, but Mr. Frank says this fee was shaved. Frank's services, for his $10,000, would include the arrangement of radio-TV presentations of the PBA's case against police headquarters and the professional work of contriving "press conferences" and "releases."

Harold Felix, the chief of the city's own labor department, is the authority for the statement that the law firm got a retainer of $10,000. Ordinarily this would be subject to enhancement for particular services such as phone calls and time spent in professional contemplation. Law firms regard such clients with suffocating affection.

Mr. Frank insists, however, that there will be no legal extras. The principal complaint of the PBA lies against "discipline." Conceding that in ages past, cops were shifted for lese majeste to politicians, Police Commissioner Kennedy maintains that he has never abused that power and that the commissioner must be trusted. # Don't Try to Teach Your Wife How to Drive, McElore Says

By HENRY McEMORE
There are two things a man should never, never do.

Beat his wife in one, and try to teach her to drive the other.

The first is punishable by a fine, jail, or both, and the second by temporary loss of the mind and permanent loss of the temper. And by both parties.

In his monumental work, "Maids, Motor Cars and Madness," on which he worked 12 years and wrecked 47 cars, Dr. Luther Lippmeyer gives a fascinating chapter devoted to driver instruction by husbands.

"In studies on four continents," Dr. Lippmeyer writes, "we found that wives who go into hysterics after five minutes of teaching by their husbands, submitted docilely to driving instruction by such varied types as (1) deaf pygmies, (2) draftees, (3) out-of-work landscape gardeners, and (6) lance corporals awaiting court martial.

"These men, and others, could criticize the driving technique of the wives without upsetting the beginners, but once a husband put in his two cents' worth, even though spoken in a gentle and loving tone, the wives yelled, bawled, threatened to jump out of the car and generally had tantrums."

Dr. Lippmeyer said in one case a wife in Rhodesia left her husband after three fights over driving lessons, and paid out good money to have a mynah bird teach her the fundamentals.

Oddly enough, it is the wife who usually asks her husband to teach her how to drive. She deliberately seeks the help which invariably drives them both to distraction.

Why does the husband agree? The thrill instinct. That can be the only answer. The thought of paying an instructor anywhere from $50 to $100, when he is sure he can drive every bit as well as a professional teacher, goes directly against the grain of 1,000 husbands out of 1,000.

This, as he soon learns, is false economy at its most foolish. Better that he and his family lived for a month on stale bread and artichokes, or huddled in a broom closet for warmth, and saved the money for the driving school tuition.

It is my opinion that the fault is Smart looking? You bet! And comfortable, too!

Sure, styling is important in a new car. You expect a new car to be sleek and smart—but not at the expense of comfort. Yet in trying to design a car as low and modern looking as the Swept-Wing Dodge, some '59 cars have practically designed out the people. Not Dodge. It's designed around you. It's easier to get into (no protruding door posts), easier to get out of (no high door sills to trip over), more comfortable to sit in (here's room to spare). All this and Swivel Seats, too!

Speaker Says New Markets Using Potato

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow Jan. 19 -

Speaking before the University of Idaho agricultural experiment station staff conference, he pointed out that during the past year nearly 41 per cent of all Idaho potatoes went to market through processing plants.

"Experience during World War II showed that a superior processed product could be made from Idaho potatoes," he explained.

Plant investment, $17,414,327 ($5,000,000); number of employees, 4,388 (1,120); wages, $8,499,310 ($2,188,737); total production in pounds, 300,097,557 ($0,094,085); total value, $40,070,989 ($9,517,130).

"The amount of new research needed is enormous," said Carl Hendel, chemist in potato investigations at the U. S. department of agriculture regional research laboratory, Albany, Calif., in a discussion of the impact of the processing development.

Housewives today have their choice of more than 20 potato products, most of them in the processed form.

explained Mary V. Zaehring, head of home economics research at the University of Idaho. She said that with the appearance of more processed products, housewives were concerned over the possible effect of processing methods on nutrient content and basic food quality of the potato.

Alabama Chief Warns Schools May Be Closed

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 19 - JOHN PATTERSON, sworn in as governor today, warned Alabama Negroes that continued pressure for integration will mean the closing of their schools.

He promised to use every power to keep the schools segregated, and appealed to Negroes to turn against "the agitators of your own race whose aim is to destroy our school system."

Warning Sounded "If you do not do so, and these agitators continue at their present pace," Patterson admonished in a prepared inaugural address "in a short time you will have no public school system at all."

And if the schools are closed, Patterson added pessimistically, they may never be reopened "in your lifetime and mine. Our children will suffer the consequences."

"Our race problems will never be solved by court decrees, injunctions and federal troops," the 37-year-old incoming governor continued. "They will be solved only through mutual understanding and good will between the races without outside interference and agitation."

Negroes Barred Patterson took the oath of office in the climax of an inaugural pageant from which Negro high school and college bands were barred on Patterson's orders.

Patterson advocated passage of a law to close any school "where military or other forces are employed by the federal government to police their operations."

He also recommended legislation to cut off all public funds to any school where the segregation bars are lowered.

Patterson is the youngest governor in Alabama history. He is the son of the crusading crime fighter, Albert I. Patterson, whose murder 4 1/2 years ago touched off a massive vice cleanup in Phenix City.

Stutzman is eligible to enter the district contest.

Lazy Mind Is Worst Enemy of Our Progress, Says Educator

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK, Jan. 19 - "The biggest enemy of human progress is mental indolence," said Robert Maynard Hutchins, who is 80 years old today.

"As Aristotle said, 'Learning is accompanied by pain.' Too many people won't go through that pain," he said.

"The biggest mistake man makes is that he doesn't think through the question of just what is really worthwhile."

The onetime "boy wonder" of the educational world - he was assistant secretary of Yale at 23, dean of its law school at 28, and president of the University of Chicago at 30 - is still a figure of controversy as head of the Fund of the Republic.

At 40 he looks 50. His crew cut hair is graying, but his 6-foot-3 frame shows no sign of a paunch. Nor does his mind. He is as ready as ever to fight for his ideas, but still professes surprise that his ideas stir up so much controversy.

GOP Liberals Hold Fire at Arizona Man

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (UPI) - Senate Republican liberals withheld their fire today on a statement by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., that they ought to leave the GOP and become Democrats.

Goldwater, a leader of the party's conservative wing, said in a radio interview yesterday that the liberals "can find no compatibility with Republican philosophy."

Followed Morse, He Says Asked if he thought the liberals would be more at home if they followed the example of Sen. Wayne Morse, D., Ore., who left the GOP during the 1952 presidential campaign, he replied, "Yes, I do."

Republican liberals obviously were asked by Goldwater's statement but declined comment. Sen. George D. Aiken, R., Vt., a leader of the liberal bloc, said, "Just because one man says what he should not is no reason I should."

Move to Right Urged Goldwater called for a clear delineation of Republican policy "to the right of center," because, he said, the ground to the left already is overcrowded.

"The Arizona senator declared that the Republican party was 'weak across the country because the people don't know what it stands for.'"

Goldwater attributed opposition to his election as GOP senatorial campaign chairman to "voices within the party that want to destroy the last vestige of conservatism." He said complaints about his activities against union bosses were just a "smoke screen."

Director Elected At Church Meet

SHOSHONE, Jan. 19 - At the annual business meeting of the local Assembly of God church last week, Carl Kinney was elected to a three-year term on the church board.

Holiday members of the board are Frank Lane and C. D. Low. Mrs. C. D. Low was elected secretary-treasurer.

The meeting was conducted by the Rev. John Shaw. Yearly reports were given by various officers and the board reported on chattel property.

New projects and improvements for the church for the coming year were discussed and report was made of the completion of the past year of a new garage at the parsonage and a new ceiling at the church. Pews may be changed at the church chapel this year, officers state.

Official Says Tax Hike Unnecessary

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 - Frank O. Prior, board chairman of Standard Oil company, Indiana, today called the President's recommended boost in the gasoline tax "totally unnecessary."

"The proposed increase in the federal gasoline tax is grossly unfair, and it is totally unnecessary," Prior said in a statement.

"If the existing federal automatic excise taxes that now are being diverted to the treasury's general fund were applied to this (federal interstate) road program, there would be adequate money to complete it on schedule."

"I think that motorists must be fed up with their present tax load when federal and state taxes on gasoline amount to 41 per cent of the retail price," he said.

AFL-CIO Blasted

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 19 - The head of the International Typographical union has criticized proposals by the AFL-CIO executive county to modify the Taft-Hartley act only slightly.

Viet Nam Man Has No Plans On Communes

By LEROY HANSEN TOKYO, Jan. 19 (UPI) - Chi Minh, president of communist North Viet Nam, said today he has no intention of herding his countrymen into people's communes—at least in the immediate future.

"In a cable to United Press International's Tokyo bureau, Ho squashed speculation that he soon would follow the lead of his giant northern neighbor, red China, in establishing the labor camps."

No Communes Planned "We have no intention to organize 'people's communes' in the immediate future," he declared.

In his cable, Ho also touched on the question of reunification of North and South Viet Nam and the prospects for a slackening in overall East-West tensions.

Reunification Mentioned The veteran communist spent a decade fighting in the jungles of Indochina and became president of North Viet Nam when his guerrillas forced the division of the key Southeast Asian nation in 1954.

He also voiced the "constant and firm conviction" that divided Viet Nam would be reunified—although he did not specify a date or a method.

For all this, however, Ho stuck implacably to the red line that the capitalist world is disintegrating while communism surges forward.

He said the most important event of 1968 was the fact that "the imperialist forces have considerably weakened" while the communist countries "developed by leaps and bounds."

16 Girls Hurt In Ski Resort Mishap on Ice

NORTH CONWAY, N. H., Jan. 19 - Sixteen terrified teen-age girls were injured, one seriously, when they went sliding dizzily down an ice-biased ski trail on 3,000-foot high Cranmore mountain yesterday.

The trail had been closed to skiing as hazardous. In a frolicsome mood, the girls decided to try sliding.

Instantly their speed was beyond their control and they were thrown against trees, brush and rocks as they plummeted 100 yards down the steep, icy trail.

When found, they were strewn about the trail, bruised and bleeding, some unable to stand.

One Receives Fractures Most seriously injured was Carol Di Spirito, 16, who had pelvic and lumbar spinal fractures and bladder injury. Five girls were held at Memorial hospital for less serious injuries. Ten others were treated at the hospital and released.

The girls were among about 200 members of St. Patrick's Catholic Youth organization, Lawrence, Mass., who went to the ski resort on the parish's second annual-winter sports party.

Uclans Top Coast League By Taking Fourth in Row As Mid-Term Lull Starts

By United Press-International

UCLA, which didn't look like a contender earlier this season, led the Pacific Coast conference basketball race by a half-game today and that's just the way things must stand until Feb. 6 when the lull for mid-term exams ends. The Bruins, losers in two of their first three PCC tilts this year, won their fourth straight Saturday by nipping Southern California, 65-63. The damage was done by Walt Torrance, who paced the Uclans with 20 points.

Bears Still Pushing Bengals for Top Spot

By The Associated Press

Idaho State, seeking its seventh straight title, and surprising Colorado State college lead the Rocky Mountain conference basketball chase, and no wonder. The co-leaders have won four games each and outscored their opponents by an average of more than 20 points a game. The Idaho State Bengals have averaged 78 points and their foes 45 in the early league play. The Colorado Bears have found a tremendous scoring punch and are sailing along with an 88-point average to only 64 for their opponents. Idaho State fattened both averages last week-end with 91-35, 90-38 triumphs over Western State, which now has lost 11 straight games this season, six in the league.

At Greeley, the C-Staters bombed Adams State's Indians 90-84, 97-78. Adams has won only two of six conference games. Trailing the leaders is Colorado College, which showed Colorado Mines out of a tie for third place with an 84-58 trimming Saturday night. The Miners' have won two, lost three. Only two Rocky Mountain teams will see action this week, and neither of them in conference play. Adams State is host to St. Michael's of New Mexico tonight at Alamosa, and Saturday night Regis of Denver, a strong independent team, invades the Indians' warground. Western State will meet Eastern New Mexico Friday and Saturday nights at Gunnison.

Hard Way

PIERCE, Jan. 19 (AP)—A basketball doubleheader involving 160 miles of travel? Just read on. An amateur club from this north-central Idaho community knocked over Cottonwood 60-44 in a 2 o'clock game Sunday afternoon. Then the team, which includes some former college players, drove through one and one-half foot snows to Craigmont, 18 miles beyond. Pierce won that game too, 74-62. It started at 7 p.m. Then the team drove the 80 miles home.

New York Five Pushes College Court Leaders

By United Press International
St. John's of New York, responding once again to the magic touch of old-Celtic Joe Lapchick, has raised New York City basketball prestige to its highest level since the college scandals of 1952. A smashing 97-72 victory over St. Joseph's at Philadelphia Saturday night wiped out all doubts of St. John's right to national ranking and established the Redmen as the strongest independent team in the country. They are almost certain to move up from their No. 10 ranking of last week and may soon be challenging Kentucky, North Carolina State and Kansas State for No. 1 honors.

Former Texan Wins National Bowling Title

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 19 (UPI)—Billy Wein, a transplanted Texan from St. Louis, won the men's championship in the National All-Star bowling classic last night in a memorable duel with Ray Bluth, another courageous pin-toppler from the Mountain City. The women's title went to Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., for the seventh time in 10 years. Mrs. Ladewig won't breeze until the final game of the 10-day tournament. Bowling before a capacity crowd of 2,500, Wein and Bluth squared off against each other in the last play-off round. They split four games in the semi-final, then Bluth won two of the first three games in the final.

Jump Mark Set

BOSTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—John Thomas, Boston University's fabulous freshman, cleared 6 feet 11 1/2 inches Saturday night to shatter the world indoor high jump record. Thomas, a gangling 17-year-old, went over the bar on his third try at the height in the Boston Knights of Columbus games. DOG DERBY SET
WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont., Jan. 19 (AP)—West Yellowstone's annual dog derby will be held Feb. 21-22. Joe Brewster, manager of the Stageside Inn, said the event will actually start Feb. 20 with cutter races. Quarter races also are scheduled here Jan. 31.

Idaho Fishermen Get More Salmon

BOISE, Jan. 19 (AP)—Idaho fishermen are acquiring a taste for salmon. The number fishing for salmon has increased more than 100 per cent, said Jack Simpson, fisheries management chief, after reporting on a study conducted by the Idaho fish and game department. He said in 1954 fishermen pulled 19,000 salmon while in 1957 they took 78,000. Simpson estimated on the basis of questionnaires that in 1957 fishermen took a total of 10,800,000 fish from Idaho streams and lakes.

Pro Game Protested In Segregation Tiff

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 19 (UPI)—Owner Bob Short of the Minneapolis Lakers said he will file an official protest today demanding that last Friday night's game with the Cincinnati Royals be replayed because of a segregation incident involving rookie Negro star Elgin Baylor. Cincinnati won the game 95-91 at Charleston, W. V., when Baylor refused to play after he and two other Negro Minneapolis teammates—Ed Fleming and Boo Ellis—were denied admittance to a Charleston hotel. Baylor once played for Idaho. Short said the Lakers never would have gone to Charleston had they known such an incident would occur. The game originally had been scheduled for Cincinnati but was moved to Charleston's new olive auditorium in the hope of attracting a larger crowd.

Congress Aid Is Urged for Sports Meet

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 (UPI)—Leo Fischer, sports editor of the Chicago American, said today the Pan-American games here this summer will have effects upon the nation's prestige far beyond the field of sports, and called upon congress to take steps to help make them a success. "Progress in sports in recent years has become tied up with national prestige," he wrote. "Maybe it's a by-product of the cold war with Russia, but the fact remains that success on the athletic field is a mighty important matter these days when everything we attempt is looked upon with a critical eye by the rest of the world."

Top Horses Enter Santa Anita Card

Late Surge Gives Broncos Victory

BOISE, Jan. 19 (UPI)—Boise Junior college today held its second victory in the Intermountain Basketball conference by coming from behind for a half-rallying 59 to 58 win over Snow here Saturday night. The BJC record in conference play is now 2-2. The Broncos saw an early 11-point lead evaporate and then fell behind as many as seven points late in the game only to rally and pull victory out of the fire. It was Doug Bunch's short pump shot in the last 20 seconds of play that gave the Broncos the final hairline edge.

Utah Leaders To Be Better Next Season

By The Associated Press
How good are Utah's Redskins? Good enough to turn the Skyline conference basketball race into a runaway, but not as good as they could be next season.

The high-scoring band of Indians who have posted four straight league triumphs number only three seniors on their squad. And a 6-foot, 3-inch sophomore, Dick Ruffell, has blossomed into coach Jack Gardner's scoring ace in the past two weeks. Ruffell scored 18-points in each of the Utah victories over Montana and Saturday night, Denver.

The latter conquest was by 73-56, with 10 different players contributing to life Utah scoring. The leaders now are the only Skyline team unbeaten. They could get their stiffest test so far Friday night when they invade Brigham Young (2-1). The Cougars handed defending champion Wyoming its third straight loss Saturday night at Laramie 73-71 on a last second basket by Bob Skousen.

In other Saturday night contests, Utah State (2-1) sank Colorado State University 88-77 on the latter's floor and Montana captured its first league victory in four games, 63-44 over New Mexico (1-2).

The Utah-BYU clash is one of four league games on tap this week. In the only non-conference game, Wyoming visits the Air Force Academy Saturday night.

The three seniors, five juniors and three sophomores comprised the Utah team which turned back Denver Saturday night. Leading off 23-30 at halftime, the Utes caught fire in the second half behind Ruffell and 6-foot, 8-inch Pearl Polard, who also had 18 points.

Utah State's one-two punch of Bob Ipsen and Hal Theus accounted for 45 points between them against CSU in the second half to match the peak point production by a Skyline team this season. Denver had 88 points in beating CSU Jan. 6.

Ruthie Jessen Cops Women's Golfing Crown

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 19 (UPI)—Young Ruthie Jessen today credited two months of hard practice for her first major crown as a professional woman golfer. The blond-haired, 22-year-old native of Seattle fired a three-over par 76 Sunday to capture the $7,500 Tampa Women's Open tournament.

Her -72-hole total of 301 was six strokes ahead of Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga., who came in second with an 89 on the final round. Fay Crocker, Wichita, Kans., finished third with a 78 for a 72-hole total of 308.

Miss Jessen, whose victory was her first big one since turning pro three years ago, said she practiced two months straight on the poling her game before the winter tour opened. Her overall score read 74-76-15-76-301, and brought her top money of $1,247.35—more than double any other purse she's won.

Betty Jamison, San Antonio, Tex., fired the best round of the day Sunday with a 74 to finish in fourth place by Jackie Pung, Daly City, Calif., both with 202 total. Miss Pung had a 79 on the final round.

McDOUGALD WINNER
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 19 (UPI)—Infeld star Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees today was named the winner of the Lou Gehrig memorial award presented annually to the major league player who most typically represents the spirit of the Hall of Fame first baseman both on and off the field.

BEES GET TRAINER
BERKELEY, Calif., Jan. 19 (UPI)—Al Wyder, former University of California assistant athletic trainer, has signed a contract as head trainer for the Salt Lake Bees of the Pacific Coast League.

Near Miss

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif., Jan. 19 (UPI)—As Art Wall well knows, there are more ways to win or lose a golf tournament than meets the eye. Wall, the top money-winner of 1959, backed into first place in the $50,000 Bing Crosby national pro-amateur golf tournament yesterday by bogeying the last three holes and still winning top money of $4,000 by two strokes.

Two weeks ago in Los Angeles, where top money was $5,300, he finished second—because Ken Venturi came from eight strokes off the pace to beat Art's one-over-par 73.

In the Bing Crosby event, the 35-year-old Wall came close to seeing a duplication of that feat as he three-putted 16 and 17 and hit a trap on 18.

"I never won a tournament that way before," said the mild man from Pocono Manor, Pa. Actually, Art won the championship, along with the pro-amateur title which is worth another $2,000 in cold cash, by starting the final 18 holes of competition with three straight birdies.

Wall has won better than $9,000 in the first three weeks of play on the 1959 circuit and the other golfers are starting to wonder. "They talk about his great short game and putting abilities," says Fred Hawkins, a fine pro from El Paso, Tex., "but he is just as good off the tee as the rest—and he is the longest three-wood hitter in the world."

Wall ended up with a 72-hole score of 279 after a final round of 75. Gene Littler finished in a tie with Jimmy Demaret for second place, each collecting $3,150. Fourth place also ended in a tie between young John McMullin and Bob Roberts, both Californians. They had 283 for $1,500 each.

Wall, with some fine help from National amateur champion Charley Cox, won the best-ball competition with 26 1/2 five strokes ahead of the field. The team of Doug Ford and amateur Art Anderson of Studio City, Calif., finished second with 257—good for $1,500 for Ford. Littler and his partner, Jack Munger, Dallas, Tex., came in third, Gene picking up an additional $1,200.

Hawks Still On Way up in Hockey Chase
By United Press International
The Chicago Black Hawks and Detroit Red Wings both are really moving—in completely opposite directions. Beyond any question, the Hawks are the biggest surprise of the National Hockey League season and the Wings—the biggest disappointment.

The second-place Black Hawks picked up three points during the week-end by beating the New York Rangers 7-1 Saturday night and playing a 1-1 tie with the league-leading Montreal Canadiens last night before Chicago's largest crowd in more than eight years.

The fifth-place Red Wings, on the other hand, led a 2-1 decision to Toronto in the Saturday night game, but were out of a 4-3 score against the Rangers last night. Detroit has scored only one victory in its last 15 games and hasn't won game since Dec. 28.

A pair of first-period goals by Vladislav helped carry the Boston Bruins to a 4-3 triumph over the last-place Toronto Maple Leafs.

Michigan State has won seven NCAA cross-country team titles but Fordy Kennedy in 1958 gave the Spartans their first individual crown.

Without Precedent... Even Among Cadillacs!

It has long been understood that the one true way to judge a Cadillac is to measure it against another Cadillac. And yet, even this historic yardstick is not completely applicable for 1959. For this newest "car of cars" is without precedent—even among Cadillacs. Standing regally at the curbside, in motion on the highway, or making its grand entrance at some distinguished event—its majestic new styling is always the subject of unstinted admiration. Cadillac's new fabrics and leathers are breath-taking to behold... appointments are crafted with a jeweler's care... and its interiors are so spacious that entering and leaving are accomplished with wonderful ease and grace. And the car is easy to handle, so obedient and responsive to the touch and so smooth and silken in action that even the longest journey is a pleasure to anticipate—and a joy to recall. Without precedent, did we say? Well, we'll have to confess that there are some ways in which this new Cadillac is very much like its distinguished predecessors. There is the great quality of its craftsmanship, for instance... its remarkable dependability... and its extraordinary economy of ownership. But with these happy exceptions, Cadillac for 1959 is clearly in a class all of its own! So whether you are looking forward to your first Cadillac—or your fifth—or even your tenth—you have a great discovery ahead of you. We suggest you visit your dealer soon for a personal demonstration of this brilliant new Cadillac.

Five Leaders Given Award On 4-H Work

JEROME, Jan. 19—Five Jerome county 4-H leaders were given special recognition for their five years of leadership Friday night at a training and recognition dinner at the Maglo Valley cafe.

Mrs. Agnes A. Hurst, extension home agent, presented pins and certificates to Mrs. Howard Meyers, leader of the Salt Licks Livestock club; Mrs. Guy Stanton, leader of the Sugar and Spice club; A. J. Dykstra, leader of the Appletown Welders; A. E. Bruce, Hazelton, leader of the East End Livestockers; and Don Stovers, Eden, leader of Russell Lane Livestockers.

Charles Thornton, Hazelton, former president, was master of ceremonies. Charles Ward was elected president; Mrs. Don Silvers, Eden, vice president, and Mrs. A. J. Dykstra was reelected secretary-treasurer.

Donald Bailey, Idaho Power company representative from Twin Falls, spoke on "Training youth for leadership." Ellen Ulrich, one of 10 who represented the U. S. at the Canadian 4-H club week at Toronto and Ottawa, talked about her trip and showed slides.

The leaders were guests of the Idaho Power company. Arrangements for the dinner were made by the extension service.

Poisoned?

Three-year-old Deborah Mills was rushed to Children's hospital, Columbus, O., after her parents found her biting at a tube of phosphorus rat poison. The cap was on the tube, but there were traces of the poison paste around the outside of the cap. Doctors aren't sure how much poison, if any, Deborah ate. Since it is a slow-acting poison, it may be days before they know for sure. Deborah's parents said the tube was left in the house by a previous tenant. (AP wirephoto)

Police Criticized

KARACHI, Pakistan, Jan. 19 (UPI)—The Daily Leader suggested editorially today that Karachi's policemen spend more time searching for criminals and less time arresting young couples who kiss in public, an illegal act in this country. The newspaper noted that zealous police had recently extended the ban on public kissing by arresting a young swimmer in a rowboat for kissing his girlfriend in the middle of Karachi harbor.

NO RESPECT NORRKOEPING, Sweden, Jan. 19 (UPI)—The Norrkoeping museum announced today it would no longer lend paintings to the city's high school. It said disrespectful students drew mustaches, spectacles and whiskers on them.

Student Club Chooses New Slate in Vote

SHOSHONE, Jan. 19—New officers were elected for the Future Business Leaders of America at the local high school Thursday night. Gaea Carothers was elected president with Debbie Ross, vice president, and Martha-Jean Holt, secretary.

The retiring president, Janis Glasby, conducted the installation. Vern R. Thomas, teacher adviser, spoke on aims of the club.

Installation for new members was handled by the new president. New members are Rodney Glasby, Conrad Thorne and Bruce Porter.

A piano solo was played by Conrad Thorne.

For the program, Mayor Myrtle C. Burdett spoke on her trip to South America. She told the students of youth conditions there as well as sights and general patterns of living.

Special guests, other than Mayor Burdett, were Mrs. Helen Dietz, Kimberly high school commercial teacher; Barbara Brown, FELA president at Kimberly high school, and John Hutchinson, commercial teacher at Dietrich high school.

Refreshments were served by club members.

25-Year Pins for Grange Awarded

BUHL, Jan. 19—Twenty-five year membership pins were presented to Mrs. Anna Leth, Harvey King and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Peterson when the Fairview Grange met Friday night.

Members voted to hold the annual Idaho products potluck dinner at the next meeting Feb. 6 and will be followed with card games. It will be an open meeting with guests invited. Mrs. Roland Harding will be in charge of the dinner and program.

Mrs. A. E. Woodruff, Buhl, spoke and also showed a film on the National foundation. Harold Atkins, acting lecturer, introduced Mrs. Woodruff.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Peterson and Harvey King served refreshments.

Drivers Fined

BUHL, Jan. 19—Francis W. Towns, Buhl, was fined $5 and costs by Justice of the Peace C. E. Rudy Friday for fictitious display of license plates. He was cited by State Patrolman Richard Burns. Nancy Gosney, Twin Falls, was fined $5 and costs by Police Judge Bernard Starr on Friday for driving without a driver's license. She was cited by Buhl Policeman Clarence Yingst.

Why all the red tape?

You can understand why we don't sell narcotics without a physician's prescription. But maybe you've wondered why we're so fussy about other things... like penicillin, sleeping pills, the new tranquilizers. These potent medications are called "legend drugs" and you have to have a prescription to get them. Reason: Uncontrolled use may do more harm than good. Only your physician knows whether you should use them or not—and, if so, just how much. So we require a prescription. It's a matter of professional ethics and the law. Always it's common sense.
