Soviet Chief Aims to Beat Economy Bid

MOSCOW, Jan. 27 (UPI)—Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev launched the Soviet Union today on an economic offensive designed to overtake the United States before 1970. He aimed at a victory of communism over capitalism by industrial might alone. But he also disclosed the Soviet Union is militarily strong with "massive serial production of inter-continental ballistic missiles" under way. He did not explain what he meant by that phrase. Khrushchev declared that the Soviet success in launching the cosmic rocket proved the USSR can launch rockets accurately to any point on Earth.

But the main point of Khrushchev's major address to the 21st congress of the Soviet Communist party was a direct challenge for a peaceful economic battle between East and West, which he seemed to believe the Moscow camp would win. With military forces of both sides angled out by nuclear stalemate, Khrushchev indicated economic power would be enough to assure the eventual triumph of communism over capitalism.

Cuban Officer Is Convicted, Death Sentence Ordered

HAVANA, Jan. 27 (UPI)—Maj. Pedro Morejon Valdes, second "war criminal" to face revolutionary retribution here, was sentenced early today to death by firing squad at a trial lasting more than 10 hours. Morejon was whisked away in a blue sedan to a death-row cell in Havana's grim Cabana fortress-prison. He has 24 hours to file an appeal. Outside Havana, four officers were sentenced to death and one to 20 years' imprisonment by a revolutionary court-martial in Santa Clara province. Morejon was convicted by a three-man revolutionary tribunal of assassination, theft and other crimes. Approximately a third of the 55 witnesses called to testify against him offered first-hand testimony about his alleged crimes and identified him as their perpetrator.

House Passes and Sends to Senate Measure Creating Idaho Wheat Commission

BOISE, Jan. 27 (AP)—The house passed and sent to the senate today a bill to create an Idaho wheat commission, financed by a tax of one-half cent per bushel of wheat. The vote was 52-5. All five voting against the bill were Republicans. They were Reps. H. Grant Gardner, Payette; Ted Scott and Harry Turner, both Twin Falls; Sam Krasman, Ada, and Barton Brassey, Boise. The commission would have members, each serving a five-year term. They would be appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the Idaho Wheat Growers' association.

Man Facing Case of Negligent Homicide

Archie W. Hitesman, 25, King Hill, driver of the pickup truck involved in the accident Sunday afternoon near Bliss which 8-year-old Pamela Powell was killed, appeared Tuesday morning before Gooding county Probate Judge James P. Gossett on charges of negligent homicide. Hitesman took his statutory time to enter a plea. Bond was set at $1,000. Meanwhile, reported in good condition at Gooding memorial hospital were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Powell, parents of the victim, and their son, Billy, 5. Condition of Mike Powell, 11, was reported "still critical but improved" at St. Alphonsus hospital, Boise. Dismissed from Gooding Memorial hospital Tuesday were another daughter, Marion, 13, as well as Hitesman and Joe Young, Bliss, passenger in the Hitesman vehicle. Frederick A. Simmonds, 49, Twin Falls, was fined $150 and 43 costs and sentenced to 30 days in the county jail after pleading guilty in Twin Falls probate court to drunken driving.

Highway Board Gets Commendation Here

At a breakfast meeting Tuesday morning of the Citizens for Good Government, a resolution was passed endorsing the present highway board and commending it for outstanding work. The resolution included a commendation to Sen. George Bick for his stand on the highway commission on the floor of the state senate. Prior to the resolution, Carl Irwin and Ray J. Holmes briefed the group on the history of the highway department in Idaho, pointing out that many of the highways built under the political set-up had been of extremely low standard construction and had to be replaced.

The long-range planning of the present commission was outlined, and compared with the costly and wasteful system of biennial highway planning.

The matter of dedicated funds being combined with general funds was discussed and consensus was that such funds should remain entirely separate.

As one man stated, "These funds are paid in only by persons who will benefit from the fund—why should they be used for general purposes?"

Irwin, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce legislative committee, presided at the early morning meeting, and urged all present to attend the public hearing of the house of representatives committee on tax and revenue Saturday night.

Irwin announced that because of the high interest being shown in the problems, place of the meeting has been changed to the junior high school auditorium, rather than in the courthouse.

Flight Endurance Record Set

John Cook, 33, Los Angeles, waves from a light plane in which he and Robert Timm, 32, Las Vegas, broke the world endurance record last week in the vicinity of Las Vegas, Nev. They broke the record of 50 days and 16 minutes held by two Texans. They hope to stay up for 60 days. Today they were still airborne. (AP wirephoto)

Local Pastor To Take Post In Nebraska

The Rev. Ralph Wiley has resigned as pastor of the Valley Christian church in Twin Falls, to serve as pastor of the First Christian church in Broken Bow, Nebr. He and his family will leave Friday. Interim pastor at the Valley Christian church will be the Rev. Cecil Warner. The Rev. Mr. Wiley served two terms as president of the Twin Falls Ministerial association and was chairman of the Idaho delegation to the committee on recommendations of the International convention of Christian churches.

He also served as Chi Rho state committee chairman, organizing other high summer camps and serving as a counselor. He was secretary of the state board of the Society of Christian Churches of South Idaho.

The summer drive-in church service held in Twin Falls were under his direction, together with other Christian church ministers in the area. During his stay in Twin Falls he added 30 members to his church and organized a men's fellowship.

Donors From LDS Church Push Blood Donations to 203 Pints

LDS church members turned out in force here Monday to exceed by 53 pints the Red Cross bloodmobile quota of 150 pints, the first time in several visits the quota has been met, let alone exceeded. Seven wards of the church sent 133 potential donors to the American Legion hall, in all, 219 people showed up to donate blood. Other groups besides the LDS church represented at the drawing were 10 from the forest service and 12 from unions. Other volunteers were individuals who didn't represent any organization.

Physicians aiding with the drawing were Drs. Willard H. Clark, C. D. Collins, Fen Covington and George T. Davis.

V. M. Patrick received a two-gallon donor pin, and gallon pins were awarded Mrs. Agnes Greer, Mrs. Irene Dockstader, William E. Bakes, John K. Balsch and Ivan Skinner.

Taking care of registration were Mrs. John Pastoor and Mrs. Lyle Schnitker. Mrs. E. H. Gyer and Mrs. Ed Harper served as typists. Staff aides included Mrs. Heber Loughmiller, Mrs. E. R. Basom, Mrs. Dale Kunkel and Mrs. Leo Campeau.

Canteen workers were Mrs. Glen Nelson and Mrs. Howard Mills. Registered nurses assisting with the drawing were Mrs. Luther Thompson, Edith Davis, Mrs. Kenneth Givens, Mrs. Weldon Haskins, Mrs. Martha McCracken, Margaret Weeks and Mary Pletz.

Mrs. Howard Gillette, Mrs. Richard Clark, Mrs. Shirley Miller, Mrs. V. I. Pope and Mrs. Charles Foulk were nurse aides.

Unloading and reloading of the equipment was done by the Road Lord's car club under direction of Bill Emerson, president. Assisting were Michael Brown, Ronald Willis, Alan Solius, William Jenkins, Michael Rambo, Mary Peterson, Harold McDougall, Larry Hawes and Claire Mendenhall.

Smylie Asks Tough Laws for Speeders

BOISE, Jan. 27 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie asked today for a law under which any driver convicted of exceeding a speed limit would have his license suspended for 60 days. The recommendation highlighted a nine-point traffic safety program Smylie sent to the 35th Idaho legislature. He said mandatory 60-day suspensions for speeding are the practice in Connecticut. The other eight points: 1. Increase the age for getting a driver's license from 14 to 16. 2. Treat juvenile traffic offenders the same as adults. 3. Make high fines mandatory for driving without a license or with a license which has been suspended or revoked or has expired. 4. Take driver's license examination from the state department of law enforcement instead of county sheriffs.

"At present," said Smylie, "we have nearly 44 different standards in each of our 44 counties. The examination now required by law will not mean much until it is subjected to statewide coordination."

5. Add 20 patrolmen to the state police force to bring it to 76 patrolmen and officers. 6. Revamp the traffic court system. 7. Approve a point system for rating drivers, with license revocation for drivers who get too many demerits. 8. Enable law officers to keep close tabs even on minor offenses by establishing so-called "registered traffic tickets."

Smylie said a "complete reformation" might be necessary in the traffic courts.

He recommended several proposals of the State Bar association, including geographic designation of justice of the peace precincts, appointment instead of election of justices; compensation by salary instead of fee, and requirement of additional qualifications, such as a law degree or five years' judicial experience for probate judges.

Smylie said he thought people were ready for this program. "In fact, I think they will demand action."

"To temperance when we experience 270 fatal accidents and an annual economic loss of 30 million dollars unthinkable."

The governor said the state's record 1958 toll, "This is senseless and absurd. I am persuaded that excessive speed is the large contributing factor to this terrible toll."

South Solons Tell Plans for Racial Issues

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (UPI)—Southern senators today proposed a constitutional amendment to resolve the school integration crisis by assuring states and their subdivisions full control over public education.

The measure, introduced by Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D. Ga., with seven Dixie co-sponsors, appeared to be the South's long-range answer to all other 1959 civil rights legislation.

Change Sought Needed

Talmadge said such a constitutional change is needed to avert the "unparalleled catastrophe" of widespread school closings certain to follow Southern resistance to the supreme court's integration order.

His amendment would vest "administrative control of any public school, public education institute or public education system" in the state or political subdivision which operates it.

It also declares that "nothing contained in this constitution shall be construed to deny to the residents thereof the right to determine for themselves" the manner of administering the schools.

Co-Sponsors Named

Co-sponsors of the amendment are Sens. Harry F. Byrd, D. Va.; A. Willis Robertson, D. Va.; Olin D. Johnston, D. S. C.; Lister Hill, D. Ala.; John Sparkman, D. Ala.; James O. Eastland, D. Miss.; and John C. Stennis, D. Miss.

Meanwhile, two Southern congressmen questioned a government plan announced yesterday to set up an integrated school next month for 500 navy children who live on Norfolk, Va., naval base unless Norfolk's closed public schools are reopened before then.

Farm Session For Richfield Has Speeches

RICHFIELD, Jan. 27—Richfield farm institute went into its final day sessions Tuesday with approximately 40 farmers attending at the Rex theater. Three speakers appeared on the program this morning.

Glen Ross, Grange representative, introduced the speakers, James Pete, agricultural stabilizatin and conservation office manager, discussed the soil bank program, the amount of loans given, and outlined the new regulations for wheat and sugar allotments.

Dr. Paul Jacobsen, Shoshone veterinarian, spoke on diseases of dairy animals, stating that incidence of diseases is lessened by clean calf pens, liberal amounts of straw, clean water in abundance and a delousing program. He advocated regular feeding as a must and said there are 12 diseases young calves can have.

G. C. Anderson, Boise, University of Idaho extension dairyman, talked (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

Highway Unit Critics Won't Give up Plans

BOISE, Jan. 27 (AP)—Two Idaho senators, critics of the state highway board, said today they have no intention of relaxing their efforts to change the formation of the board.

Wayne Summers, board secretary, told reporters at Lewiston yesterday that "it looks like the senators have backed down."

No Change Made

Sens. Art M. Amestoy, D. Jay, and Vernon Daniel, R. Payette, who led last week's criticism of the board, said they have not changed their position.

Daniel is a sponsor with Sen. James Donart, D., Washington, of a bill which would make members of the board serve at the pleasure of the governor, instead of for fixed terms.

He said that two other bills have been prepared for introduction which would "correct the abuses now prevalent in the highway board."

Letter Written

He made public a copy of a letter he said he wrote to Summers in which he told the secretary, "You must have been dreaming, or else you were poorly advised."

"We, together with 32 other senators, have just begun to fight," Daniel added.

Amestoy criticized the board last week for its routing of the interstate highway through the Eden-Hazelton area, Jerome county.

Long Walks

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 27 (AP)—It was only a small fire in some sidewalk, but it took lung power to get it out.

The fire was at the very top of the new Prudential Insurance building.

Elevators haven't been installed, so firemen had to walk up 28 flights to get to the fire.

Browns Bench Is 'Rich' Relic Area

MOSCOW, Jan. 27 (AP)—A University of Idaho faculty member says an area southwest of Twin Falls, Browns bench, on the Idaho-Nevada border, is "phenomenally rich" in prehistoric archaeological objects.

Dr. Alfred W. Bowers, associate professor of anthropology and sociology, says that materials found include sharp stone objects which apparently were used for digging and gathering food.

He said it is the first evidence of a "chopper" culture in the United States.

"The culture predates any that have been found previously in the area," Dr. Bowers said. "It is at least 10,000 years old."

Browns bench is a sage-covered area at an elevation of 8,500 feet.

Seizure Takes L. Darrington, Elba Rancher

ELBA, Jan. 27—Lorenzo Darrington, 62, lifetime resident of Elba, died early this morning of a heart attack while feeding cattle at his ranch.

He was born Sept. 4, 1896, in Elba where he operated a ranch all his life. He served once as Elba postmaster. He married Ruby Marie Olson and served as first counselor to the Sunday school superintendent, a member of the stake high council and a ward teacher. Mr. Darrington was a World War I veteran.

In addition to his widow, survivors include six sons, Keith O. Darrington, Elba; Laverne Darrington, Elba; Capt. Kenneth R. Darrington, stationed in Illinois; Mont Darrington, Snowville, Utah; Rulon L. Darrington, Layton, Utah; and John R. Darrington, Provo; two daughters, LuRena Darrington, Reno, Nev., and Annie Marie Darrington, Elba; three brothers; three sisters and 13 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Sgt. Lorenzo M. Darrington, killed in action in Germany while serving in the air force during World War II.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at Elba LDS ward chapel with Bishop Orvil Beecher officiating. Friends may call at Payne mortuary, Burley, Friday afternoon and evening and at the Darrington home from 10 a.m. Saturday until time of services. Concluding rites will be held in Elba cemetery.

33 Firms, 215 Teachers Plan For Business-Education Day

Forty-three firms and 215 teachers will participate in the Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Business-Education day Feb. 4.

Virtually all Twin Falls school teachers, including those of parochial schools and Twin Falls business college, will be guests of businessmen luncheon at the American Legion hall at noon.

Following luncheon, the teachers will tour the business or industry which they have been assigned previously. The business leaders will outline aspects of the industry for the teachers and provide information on problems and services peculiar to the particular field.

Businessmen will be guests of the schools next year for a reversal, Education-Business day.

Billie Larson and Merwin Heimboit of the Chamber education committee are in charge of arrangements.

Moulton Asks Work on New Airport Plans

BURLEY, Jan. 27—Twenty representatives from Minidoka and Cassia counties attended a special meeting here Monday afternoon called by the joint county airport committee so that county commissioners could hear Chief Moulton, state aeronautics director, who urged progress on the project.

John Ohlsholm, Burley, and Dale Garner, Rupert, were appointed to serve on the joint airport board which is being formed from the committee which has handled previous planning.

Kales E. Lowe, Burley attorney, was chosen as legal adviser and will draw by-laws governing the group's action. Moulton pointed out that since the Idaho code dealing with joint airports provides only for such relationship between cities, it will be necessary for Lowe to rewrite portions of the code to make it apply for county use. This will be in the form of proposed state legislation.

"If you don't build this joint airport, you will see the day when you rue it," Moulton told the group. "The loss in business and industry in 20 years will be tremendous." He pointed out that West Coast airlines is operating out of Burley only on a temporary permit which ends in February.

Snows Assist Ski Areas for Magic Valley

Light snow fell Tuesday morning in Ketchum and Sun Valley where skiing was reported excellent. However, at Halley, the snowflakes were melting as soon as they hit the ground.

Brief snow flurries were reported at Rupert and other Magic Valley areas Tuesday morning, with rain and overcast conditions general throughout the valley.

Ski officials at Sun Valley reported 27 inches on top of Bald mountain, 24 at the Roundhouse, 14 on top of Dollar and 10 on the valley floor.

Approximately 18 inches of new snow were reported over the weekend at Magic Mountain ski area by Claude F. Jones, operator. This makes a total of about 30 inches, he said, and he tentatively plans to open the area Saturday.

Jones was plowing the road into the area Tuesday.

Americans Await Mexican Decision

TUJUANA, Mexico, Jan. 27 (UPI)—Scores of American tourists, caught in a ruid on a gambling casino at nearby Rosarito Beach, today awaited disposition of their case by Mexican authorities.

About 60 Americans were detained yesterday when 100 Mexican soldiers, led by federal agents, crashed into the casino of the Rosarito Beach town, 17 miles south of this border town.

They spent last night in jail here awaiting a review of their cases by Federal District Judge Eduardo Langley Martinez. Gambling in Mexico is a misdemeanor.

The agents said they collected a total of $11,568 in cash, $18,000 in checks and $99 in silver.

Ike Sets Meetings To Gain Supports

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—President Eisenhower is bringing congressional Republicans into a series of breakfast meetings starting Thursday to whip up support for his legislative program.

The meetings were announced yesterday by Presidential News Secretary James C. Hagerty.

On Thursday, senate Republican leaders plus the senior Republican members of all senate committees—a total of 17 of the 34 GOP senators—will meet Ike.

On Friday, a similar lineup of 23 house leaders and committee members will meet.

Army Planning Second Moon Shot on Feb. 28

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., Jan. 27 (UPI)—The army plans to fire its second moon rocket Feb. 28, hoping the 13-pound payload will skim past the moon like Russia's Lunik, it was learned today.

But officials are afraid the public will overlook the scientific importance of the space probe and neglect that its payload is but a fraction of the size of the 3,245-pound Lunik.

After the air force failed last year to orbit the moon, the army tried last month to blast a 13-pound payload past the lunar sphere and on toward the sun. But bad aim and insufficient speed spoiled the shot, and the little Pioneer III probe stopped climbing at 60,000 miles.

Then came Lunik on Jan. 2, Dwarfing Pioneer II and shooting far past the Pioneer I altitude mark of 71,000 miles to become a sun satellite.

Developed by the jet-propulsion laboratories (JPL) at Pasadena, Calif., the gold-coated payload of the second army rocket will have the same three-foot mission as its short-lived predecessor.

These are to measure the dense and hazardous radiation surrounding the Earth, to test an "optical trigger" which should send back a signal to Earth when it "sees" the moon, and to measure cosmic rays. Pioneer II yielded valuable data but scientists wanted a "longer profile" of the radiation.

"There will be a very slight modification in the cosmic ray package," a project source told United Press International. "But otherwise this will be just a repetition of the shot we tried last time."

If the new army moon rocket functions perfectly, it will hurl the spinning, cone-shaped payload the 221,000 miles to the edge of the moon in about 34 hours. It then will hurtle on, free of both the Earth and the moon's gravity, to orbit the sun as a second satellite of the sun.

Cassia Funds For '59 Show Slight Boosts

BURLEY, Jan. 27—Representing a slight increase over the fiscal 1958, Cassia county commissioners have proposed a county operating budget of $153,431 for fiscal 1959.

One factor holding the budget to only a slight increase is that this year's budget does not include a year's election appropriation. The major item amounted to $3,500. Deleted items showing a decrease from the 1958 budget were: justice court, $10 less; county building, $1,840 less; road and bridge, $4,516 less, and weed eradication, $3,010 less.

Total budget for fiscal 1958 was $152,625 and the 1959 budget is only $2,805 greater.

At 10 a.m. Feb. 9, the commission will hold a public hearing on the proposed budget.

Anticipated purchase of a new automobile is responsible for the major part of the increase in the sheriff's office from $21,640 to $24,666. The assessor's office is increased by $5,575, with other office and department increases varying in amounts smaller.

Also anticipating a possible road consolidation vote, $500 was set aside to cover the election.

The new proposed budget carries an allotment of $7,500 to finance a proposed revaluation program on county property, as required by the state to be performed by 1961.

Following is a run-down on the budget, showing the various amounts for the different departments, with a comparison for the previous year:

Clerk, auditor, recorder, $16,970 in 1958 and $15,570 in 1959; district court, $7,500, $7,940; sheriff, $24,666, $21,640; assessor, $20,440, $14,765; coroner, $900, $925; probate court, $7,845, $7,735; justice court, $1,000, $1,010; county building, $11,500, $13,340; general, $21,350, $15,970; total expense fund, $155,431, $152,625.

Hospital and charity, $31,331.24; $31,331.25; fair exhibits, $10,000, $10,000; roads and bridges, $13,034, $17,550; weed eradication, $7,700, $10,710; bond interest and redemption, $13,250.

Batista Official Convicted

Major Jesus Sosa Blanco, former Batista army officer who has admitted causing the deaths of 108 persons, goes on trial before the public in the sports arena at Havana. A small army of newsmen and photographers from several countries was on hand for the beginning of the trial. Sosa Blanco was convicted after four hours of deliberation by the judges, and sentenced to die before a firing squad. Today a second, former Batista army officer was convicted and sentenced to die. ### Air Wreck Kills 4 Kentucky Men

VERSAILLES, Ky., Jan. 27 (AP)—A private plane crashed in flames in isolated country near here last night, killing four men, including a psychiatrist, a writer and a photographer.

State police identified the victims as Dr. H. Halbert Leet, Lexington psychiatrist who was owner and pilot of the four-passenger craft; Frank Bancroft, New York City, writer for pharmaceutical publications; Dan Weiner, photographer for Scope publications, New York City, and Leonard Gross, Lexington, a clinical psychology trainee associated with Leet.

Chances Less Now for Army Service Tours

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (UPI)—Mathematically, a young man's chances of avoiding military service are getting better every year.

Nevertheless, if you're healthy and reasonably intelligent, the top-heavy odds are that you'll spend part of your life in uniform.

These conclusions were reached today from statistics gathered during hearings by the house armed services committee on a bill to extend the draft act for four more years.

70 Per Cent See Service

Currently 70 per cent of the men who reach the top draft age of 26 have been in military service. By mid-1963, this will have dropped to 55 per cent.

What it boils down to is this: The number of draft-age men is swelling annually, while the needs of the armed services remain about steady. This means that the army forces need a smaller proportion of the nation's total population of young males.

Requirements Boosted

However, this is largely offset by the fact that the army recently has boosted its mental requirements, resulting in an 11 per cent increase in its rejection rate.

So that while 55 per cent of all the men who reach 26 years of age in 1963 will have seen military duty, 78 per cent of those who are "qualified" physically and mentally will have been in uniform. That compares with 90 per cent of the "qualified" 26-year-olds now.

AS IT STANDS THE DRAFT LAW IS SET to expire June 30. There is some agitation against renewing it, but all signs indicate that congress will give one-sided approval to the Eisenhower administration's request for a four-year extension.

Indianan Lass to Be Valentine Girl

LA PORTE, Ind., Jan. 27 (AP)—Six-year-old Debbie Quinn, born with four defects of the heart but now a cute little tomboy, will be America's Valentine Girl for 1959.

Dr. Francis L. Chamberlain, president of the American Heart Assn., told Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn, La Porte, that their daughter will be the symbol of science conquering heart disease for the 1959 heart fund campaign.

Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower will place the crown on Debbie's golden curls Feb. 3 in a ceremony at the White House.

Boasts of Law Defiance Seen In Case Ruling

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 27 (AP)—The acquittal of former Judge George Wallace on a contempt charge leaves Wallace in the role of a potential candidate for governor boasting he defied civil rights investigators and got by with it.

Wallace insisted he disobeyed a federal court order, despite the court's finding that he had complied with it, and actually helped the U. S. civil rights commission get access to voter registration records.

The former state judge declared he had successfully defied the authority of the federal government and the civil rights agency. "They were defied and backed down," he said.

"This only shows," said Wallace, "that if you resist them (federal agents) and back them to the wall, they will hunt any way to back away."

Wallace's term expired last week. He was under court order from U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr. to make the records available to commission agents. Instead he turned them over to grand juries hastily summoned in Barbour and Bullock counties.

Johnson ruled yesterday that because the grand juries made the records available for examination Wallace carried out the effect of his order and only pretended to defy the court.

The federal jurist said Wallace from all appearances retained control of the registration records after giving them to the grand jurors, and it was Wallace himself who actually notified agents the records would be made available, he noted.

Accordingly, Johnson dismissed the contempt charge against the Clayton, Ala., lawyer, who was running in the Democratic primaries for governor last year. He is regarded as a likely candidate for that office in 1962 or for the U.S. senate next year.

Winners Told for Duplicate Bridge

Twin Falls Duplicate Bridge club met Monday night at the Legion hall with 10 tables in play.

North and south winners were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker, first; Mrs. Harry Cohen and Mrs. Elva Meeks, second; Mrs. Max Poulter and Mrs. Doris Ostler, third, and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cook, fourth.

East and west winners included Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Driscoll, first; Mrs. O. H. Weinrich and Mrs. R. S. Tofflemire, second; Mrs. C. H. Welther and John S. Feldhusen, third, and Mrs. Cecil Jones and Mrs. Eugene Walker, fourth.

GOP Planning For TV Shows

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Republican National committee may spend up to a million dollars or more on a weekly national television show but it has no plans for newspaper advertising.

Arthur F. Herman, deputy national chairman, said yesterday that committees named last week to study plans for a national TV show and for establishment of a monthly magazine will get into action quickly.

Hermann added that the national committee does not schedule newspaper advertising, leaving such arrangements to state and local committees. He said this policy will continue to be followed.

Preliminary estimates of the cost of a weekly television program were between $800,000 and $900,000 yearly, but national Chairman Meade Aorn said the amount might run considerably higher.

TRIP REPORTED

ELBA, Jan. 27—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ottley and Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell Hutcherson and son, Tommy, made a business trip to Salt Lake City over the week-end.

Boys, Unaware Of Bomb, Play Game of Catch

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 27 (AP)—"We just walked along, throwing the tube back and forth, catching it as we walked," said Ken Hall, 16.

It was nitroglycerin, police said and asked where they found it.

The boys led officers to an abandoned bullet-pocked automobile in a secluded pine forest. Vines and leaves covered the 1937 model, an expensive car in its day.

Hall, Z. W. Rogers, jr., 16, and Steve Matthias, 17, told police they spotted six cylinders packed in heavy cardboard inside the car. They tore apart one of the cylinders to get the tube inside.

"We didn't know what the heck it was," Hall said. They took it along, playing catch with it on the way home. Their parents advised them to show it to police.

Sgt. J. E. Armstrong said the tubes contained vibrolog, a gelatin form of dynamite with a nitroglycerin base.

It was enough, Armstrong said, "to blow apart a good sized house without any trouble. A heavy jar could have set it off."

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—Despite opposition criticism of President Eisenhower's 1959 budget as "political," he has shown "courage" in striking at three of the most "sacred cows" ever to stroll in congressional pastures—the rural electrification, the veterans' and the "big dam" and water power lobbies.

Only an optimist—or an amateur with respect to capitol hill politics and psychology would "dare" to predict a White House victory. But Eisenhower has begun an attack that should eventually make headway, and save the taxpayers many millions a year. In fact, some fiscal experts estimate that the economies would amount to at least a billion a year in the long run.

The proposed and audacious economies are merely hinted at in the recent budget message. But legislation to implement them will soon be introduced, providing the White House can find a man, Republican or Democrat, brave enough to sponsor measures that will alienate powerful voting blocs.

GROWTH OF THE RURAL ELECTRIFICATION SYSTEM—One of Franklin D. Roosevelt's most humanitarian reforms was creation of the rural electrification system. As he said, it was designed to "lift the burden of heavy labor from the backs of farmers and their wives" by electrifying their homes and barns with the most modern equipment. The innovations ranged from milking machines to electric washers and television. They lighted up the countryside.

Only 11 per cent of the nation's farms enjoyed this painless form of energy when the system was started in 1935. Now, 85 per cent are electrified. Only those who don't want it or live in too inaccessible areas do not benefit from this blessing.

Borrowers, mostly co-operatives, obtain money for lines and generating plants from the government at two per cent, although the treasury now has to pay four per cent for money. The REA system is now valued at three billion dollars, and it may eventually total from 12 billion dollars to 15 billion dollars, in view of new applications. Loans of a billion a year may be needed from Uncle Sam.

LANDSCAPE'S FACE-LIFTING—Meanwhile, the rural landscape has undergone a complete face-lifting and transformation. Fifty per cent of REA capacity now services nonfarm cities—factories, motels, resorts, cabarets, night clubs, beer and juke-box parlors, ranches, suburban developments.

Seventy-five per cent of new applications for loans fall into this industrial or luxury category. They are riding a two per cent "gray train" at the expense of the taxpayers, who must make up the difference between treasury payment of four per cent interest and the lower REA figure.

Fortifying legislation will propose an increase in interest to possibly three per cent. It will also provide that the system, as a solvent enterprise, tap private sources for future expansion. But last year the administration could not persuade any member to milk this "sacred cow."

REVISION OF VETERANS' PENSIONS—Veterans' pensions will undergo revision, if Eisenhower can dig up a sponsor. After national defense, farm support payments and public debt charges, this is the most costly item in the budget.

Eisenhower will not ask a cut in payments to needy ex-soldiers. But thousands are now drawing money from the treasury although clearly ineligible.

The law says that a veteran can be compensated for non-service connected disability if he has an annual income of $1,400, or if a married couple enjoy a combined income of $2,700 a year. But the records show that many veterans with joint incomes of $4,000 and assets from $20,000 to $40,000 are on the payrolls.

"This evasion of the law has been known to every postwar administration. But until now it was regarded as too politically ticklish a subject to mention or to correct."

DOUBTFUL CONGRESS WILL BE AS COURAGEOUS AS EISENHOWER—Eisenhower has provided no money for "new starts" on the development of national resources projects so dear to the mountain states and the Far West—power dams and reservoirs, irrigation, reclamation, forests, etc.

Noting that previous appropriations will boost such spending to an unprecedented figure in the next year, he thinks it is time for a "breathing spell" and taking inventory.

He dares to take this stand, although his policies in this area contributed to the opposition sweep of the West last November. It will be an abrupt shift from the era when FDR built Grand Coulee, Bonneville and lesser structures beyond the Rockies, and attached historically Republican states to the Democratic party.

It is extremely doubtful, however, if congress will be as courageous—or as economical—as the President. (Released by McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

REVIEWS OF OTHERS

DEALING WITH OUTLAWED DRIVERS

One aspect of the grievously troublesome traffic problem that has long intrigued us is the manner of dealing with persons whose drivers' licenses have been revoked or suspended for driving recklessly or while under the influence of intoxicants.

It's quite obvious that an order suspending or revoking a driver's license is one of the most difficult to enforce. On the part of the culprit there are various and compelling motives for evading the order. And enforcement officers have little if any help in catching up with the evaders.

There may be other measures that could assist enforcement officers in dealing with these infractions and thus to contribute substantially to the cause of safety in traffic; but one of the most important that has been suggested is a proposed amendment to the Idaho motor vehicle code which is shortly to be submitted to the legislature. It's one to provide a stiffer penalty for the violator, and to stiffen the backbone of magistrates in meting out the penalty.

Existing law provides for sentence of not less than two days or more than six months in jail plus a possible fine for such offenses. But it has been brought to attention that it's been a practice of some magistrates to suspend the jail sentence. The proposed amendment, according to its sponsor, Rep. Sam Kaufman of Ada county, would increase the jail sentence to a minimum of 10 days and it would stipulate that no sentence could be reduced below this minimum.

Surely one effort of this new provision of law would be to make driver under suspension think twice before venturing to get behind the wheel in traffic. Thus the number of once errant drivers might be materially reduced; enforcement officers would have fewer of them to cope with, and traffic would be safer for all of us.

Offenses punishable by suspension or revocation of license are most formidable enemies of traffic safety. They ought not to be dealt with lightly. This proposed amendment seems to provide a most effective remedy. It is well deserving of careful consideration. —Boise Statesman.

IT'S UP TO CONGRESS

President Eisenhower made it even clearer in his press conference Wednesday than in his economic message to congress that he does not want government control of wages and prices and would advocate this only in dire emergency. He made it equally clear that he expects business and labor to help curb inflation, basing wage increases only on increased productivity and price increases only on increased costs.

"You cannot excuse anybody in government from responsibility," said the President. "You cannot excuse the business leader, the labor leader, indeed, scarcely can you excuse any citizen. All of us have a problem to meet and to help solve."

But he "despises" controls and has none in mind. The President has not failed to present a balanced budget to congress. If congress creates another huge deficit by appropriations exceeding revenues, the first link in the chain of responsibility will be broken. This would be the green light for business and labor leaders to disregard President Eisenhower's plea. If congress cannot discipline itself, the least it should do would be to give the President stand-by authority to freeze wages and prices, an action he would be most reluctant to take. —Portland Oregonian.

POT SHOTS

SAVES ON RAZORS, TOO

While visiting in Ketchum, Jim Koutnik ended up in the same place as a fellow by the name of Hemingway. As we recall it, Hemingway's first name is Ernest and we don't recall that anyone ever happened to call him Ernie for short.

Anyway, Hemingway and Koutnik were introduced and chatted for awhile.

Later, Koutnik introduced his young son, saying, "Gary, this is Mr. Hemingway."

Young Gary took a long look at the bewhiskered gent and declared, "No, he's Santa Claus!"

There is one more benefit to be derived from forgetting such everyday things as whiskers.

PUPS FOR KIDS DEPT.

REAL FANCY FLYING

Nope, we didn't spot it, but after someone pointed it out, the whole thing is just utterly impossible. It was the beginning of that story that told about the fast jet passenger plane's flight from west to east across the U.S.

Here it is again: "Breakfast at 8 in Los Angeles and lunch at noon in New York was a fact today..."

See anything wrong with it? Well, that plane would have to span the U.S. in something like an hour to accomplish that feat. You see, nothing is said about time zones and when the plane leaves Los Angeles at 8 a.m., it's already 11 a.m. in New York. Actually, the claim would have been just dandy if it had read "...lunch at noon (PST)..."

But does anyone want to make a small wager against the hour-long flight across the U.S.? Give us odds and 10 years and we'll take the wager.

SQUASH FOR FREE DEPT.

This may cause the bottom to drop out of the local squash and pumpkin market, if there is one. Anyway, the reader says she has a considerable amount of squash and pumpkins she would like to give away to anyone who can use them. You can get them from 357 Quincy street.

DO SOMETHING!

This weather is terrible! Quite obviously, it isn't spring weather, although I have heard of some shoots of early flowers poking up here and there. They'll regret it when they get frozen back down.

And also quite obviously, it is not winter weather. Look at what has happened to the skiing fraternity this year—no skiing!

So if anyone has any suggestions, let's have the weather do something! Let's either have spring or winter, preferably the former.

I Hope (Twin Falls) AND DIE HAPPY

Far be it from me to dispute the claim that fully 90 per cent of the well water hereabouts is "fauly."

On the other hand, I don't think anyone is going to argue with me when I say that 100 per cent of Twin Falls' drinking water stinks, almost literally, and tastes something awful. It's enough to make a person swear off water!

After straining Twin Falls water through my teeth for years, I've about reached the point where I would be willing to trade it all for a personal supply of sweet-tasting, non-smelling well water that might be simply crawling with all kinds of horrible bacteria.

"WASHINGTON CALLING" BY MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—Not long ago Democratic conference on Jan. 7, two days ahead of the Eisenhower state-of-the-union address. And, incidentally, Johnson, has in his stable some of the ablest "brain trusters" out of the new deal who salt his speeches with vivid locations and sparkling phrases.

Quicker than you can say department-of-justice—he next put in his own four-part civil rights bill. While as a shrewd strategist he is holding back some of his plans, here are pieces of the Johnson program:

Agriculture—A complete new program dealing with the problem of agricultural surpluses. Johnson says it will save a billion dollars a year in storage charges alone. The plan is to have it introduced by a northern liberal and a southerner.

Depressed areas—A new measure resembling the one which President Eisenhower vetoed last year. The stress will be on means for abolishing the pockets of unemployment persisting with the number of jobless almost certain to stay above four million. The confident prediction is that the president will find this one a lot harder to veto.

Airport construction—The Democratic proposal will go well beyond the limited recommendations in the Eisenhower budget.

Labor—Sen. John F. Kennedy is already in the field with a revised and somewhat sterner version of the Kennedy-Ives bill adopted by the senate last year but defeated by Republican strategists in the house. Most Democrats will find it hard to oppose it.

Public works—Out of the public works and interior committee will come a rich pudding stuffed with dams and projects of every kind.

Budget and finance—Here the strategy is surprise. For what he considers such "tricks" in the president's budget as moving into this year the proposed 1.375 billion dollars for the international monetary fund in order to show a balance next year, Johnson has his own counter to be disclosed in due time. This outline is suggestive rather than comprehensive. What it suggests is the characteristic Johnson stress on the feasible, the practical, the attainable.

He wants to get as many Democrats as possible behind the compromise with the greatest possible appeal. Thus he hopes to get four states from the Confederacy for his civil rights program.

Critics in his party argue that this may be good practical politics but it does not stake out new and exciting ideological ground on which elections can be won.

The tall Texan, who gives off energy like a solar battery, brushes this aside impatiently. Didn't we, he asks, do all right last time?

And he answers his own question by saying that it was only the third time in the history of the senate that the party that had the majority did not lose a single seat.

Reception for Couple Given

An informal reception was held at the First Baptist church Sunday evening for the Rev. and Mrs. Keith Brininstool. He is new minister of education at the church.

Members of the junior high school and senior youth fellowships participated in a radio-type program, titled "You were there." Jessie Kincheole served as announcer.

The junior high school group presented a skit portraying the need of the new education director. Zoe Kuka presented a musical pantomime.

Larry Bennett accompanied Donald Amick and Paul McDonald in a duet. Welcomes were extended by the Brininstools by John Robinson for youths and Clifford Amick for adults.

Pouring at the reception table were Mrs. Ernest Hasselblad and Mrs. Dean Dietrich. The challenger class of the Sunday school had charge of the reception.

The Rev. Mr. Brininstool, who was born of missionary parents in West China, spoke at a special youth service prior to the reception, on "How to become a missionary."

In observance of youth week, youths provided the choir and led the scripture reading and prayer.

The Rev. Mr. Brininstool pointed out the rigid physical requirements of missionaries, and the need for extensive training for the work.

Couple Killed

GREEN RIVER, Wyo., Jan. 27 (AP)—A Nogales, Ariz., couple was killed instantly yesterday when their car slid into a truck on the icy highway 3 miles east of Green River.

The couple was identified by Sweetwater county coroner Pete Vase as Leon D. Stahl, 59, and his wife Minnie, 60.

Hearings Set

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—Idaho's U. S. senators said yesterday they have arranged definitely for hearings Feb. 9 on the possible future of the naval ordnance plant, Pocatello.

Sen. Henry C. Dworshak R., and Francis Church, D., invited groups wishing to appear at the hearings to contact them in advance so that arrangements could be made.

NEVADA MAN TO SPEAK

McLemore Doubts Roads to Be Built on Moon Within 20 Years

BY HENRY McLEMORE

Thousands of bar-b-que joints will have to be erected for space rockets as they blast their way to the moon. For another, abandoned camps will have to be established on proper intervals along the right-of-way, for a stretch of highway is no truly American without these roadside eyesores.

Then the souvenir shops will have to be fired to the moon—tons and tons of lamps made of coconut shells and alligators, beaded pillows and belts, moccasins, sombreros, fancy gaudy postcards, pennants, cactus candies, live baby turtles, square dresses and sea shell shirtrays.

Once these are in place it will be time for the bars and beer joints, the filling stations and the terminal and bird exhibits to be launched from Cape Canaveral.

No American highway would be authentic unless the hum of auto mobile tires was accompanied by the yowl of several million juke boxes so they'll have to be shot up, along with sign machines, wreckers, detour signs, historical markers, "leaving Juch county entering Puma county" signs, and trash cans.

But there still will be more to come if the road is to be truly American.

No fewer than 10 million billboards of every size and description advertising everything from freckle lotion to a cheese spread, all have to be placed in position before the first yard of concrete is poured.

And don't forget the "cattle crossing," "watch out for falling stars," "slippery when wet," and "stop" warnings that have to be placed.

And when you remember that even million motels must be transported to the moon, TV sets, every room, and a swimming pool built in front of every one, it is before a road is built, I am sure you will understand why I say Dr. Von Braun is a trifle optimistic. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate)

Counties Beat Savings Bond Goals in 1958

Minidoka, Gooding and Camas counties exceeded their quotas of savings bonds for 1958, according to tabulations for the year.

Adam Schufler, Jr., Gooding county chairman, reports 112.9 per cent of quota reached, totaling sales of $90,379. The figure for December was $5,850.

A. F. Beymer, Minidoka county chairman, notes that 110.2 per cent of quota was reached, or $11,855. Sales for December totaled $1,238.

Camas county topped its quota, according to Charles Scoggins, with 103.1 per cent or sales of $20,813. Only $73 of that amount was for December.

Twin Falls county reached 98.1 per cent of its 1958 quota for bond sales, reports Vern E. Hulbert, county chairman. Sales for the year totaled $490,491, with December sales of $37,695.

Cassia county also was close to its goal, with 97.9 per cent, or a total of $137,138. December sales were $4,708, reports Gerald Anderson.

Jerome county reached 99.7 per cent of quota, according to A. V. Hall, for a total of $98,692, with $4,432 for December.

In Blaine county, Everett Taylor reports 89.9 per cent of quota, or $58,465, with December sales of $25,371.

D. Sid Smith reports 88 per cent of quota for Lincoln county with bond sales totaling $24,647. Of that amount, $5,272 was for December.

Guy Shearer, district chairman, expressed pleasure with the results of sales in the district and noted that it is the first time in several years that Idaho has exceeded its savings bond quota.

State Chairman Charles C. Adams gave credit to the savings stamps sold by women volunteers to children in the schools for part of the Idaho increase and thanked all volunteers who have aided in the program.

Unit Begins Move In Oil Lease Case

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—Interior department made its formal crackdown yesterday in drive on alleged violators of federal oil and gas lease acreage limitations.

The department announced it is seeking cancellation of 86 oil and gas leases in Wyoming.

Secretary Seaton announced that 8 the department is preparing a move against alleged violators as a result of a long investigation.

Under the mineral leasing act 1920 no individual or company may hold more than 40,000 acres in federal oil and gas leases in any state, nor more than 100,000 acres in Alaska.

Japan Leader Rejects Move On Neutrality

TOKYO, Jan. 27 (UPI)—Premier Nobusuke Kishi rejected Socialist demands for "neutrality" today, but declared Japan still hopes to do business with the communists as well as the West.

Socialists Would Kill Treaty

The Socialists have been demanding complete repudiation of the security treaty and the withdrawal of U. S. forces from Japan.

Kishi expressed regret over last year's suspension of trade between Japan and red China, saying it was "most unfortunate for both countries."

"It is our hope that trade between us will be resumed without being needlessly influenced by past circumstances and with a mutual understanding for each other's political position," he said.

The Kishi administration, ignoring pressure from the Socialist opposition, has refused so far to grant formal diplomatic recognition to red China.

The question of increasing trade with red China was expected to be a major issue at this session of parliament. "Observers said another—and major—crisis with nationalist China would be touched off if trade barriers with Peking are opened."

Foreign Minister Aichiro Fujii also assured parliament today there is no prospect of Japan's turning neutral in the cold war.

Jose Tavaraz attempts to comfort his wife, Doraliza, after their 23-day-old son, John, had been stolen by his baby-sitter. The baby-sitter, a woman Mrs. Tavaraz had met only two days earlier, had sent Mrs. Tavaraz on a wild-goose chase and offered to watch the baby while she was gone. The baby was found safe today after police were led to the kidnaper by a newspaper lead. (NEA telephoto)

Gift to Country Club Inspires Idea to Help School Teachers

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27 (AP)—A gift of an ice machine to chill country club martinis inspired a community foundation that finances advanced study for public school teachers.

More than 500 school board members gave two hours of concentrated attention to a National School Boards association section meeting last night to a how-to-do-it explanation of the Columbus, Ind., foundation idea.

The idea was born with Dr. W. L. Wissman, Columbus physician and school board member.

"I heard that a man in our town gave a $1,500 ice-making machine to the country club," Dr. Wissman explains.

"I figured if there were people around with that kind of money to give away why couldn't we get some of it together to support summer study opportunities for our teachers."

The Columbus foundation collected and donated its first private money in 1958. In three years it has awarded grants to 56 Columbus teachers for summer projects including a Spanish teacher's tour to Valencia, Spain.

Private gift support for faculty research work and advanced study is widespread in colleges and universities. The Columbus foundation apparently is a pioneer in doing this job for elementary and high school teachers.

"The effect on teacher morale has been notable," declared Clarence E. Robbins, school superintendent. "And we now find we have an important advantage in recruiting good new teachers."

Less Spending Called for by Chamber Unit

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—Describing President Eisenhower's 77-billion-dollar spending plan as anything but a penny-pinching budget, the Council of State Chambers of Commerce called Sunday for "a much lower level of spending in 1959 and beyond."

The organization of 29 state and regional chambers assailed particularly the 21 billion dollars earmarked for domestic civilian spending. It said this is a 17 per cent rise from 1958.

The council's study said two states, New York and California, will carry nearly one-fourth of the total tax burden of Eisenhower's new budget.

The figures do not include the federal gasoline tax which Eisenhower proposes to increase from three to 4 1/2 cents a gallon—or social security taxes and other payments which go into federal trust funds outside the budget.

Among the other states the share will be distributed as follows:

State	Per Cent	Total Share
Idaho	26	200,200,000
Montana	39	231,000,000
Nevada	21	161,700,000
Oregon	31	700,700,000
Utah	95	289,500,000
Washington	155	1,193,500,000
Wyoming	17	130,900,000

Rites Held

BURLEY, Jan. 27—The Rev. Norman L. Foote, Boise, Episcopal bishop of Idaho, administered confirmation rites to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Douglass, Earl Gernhart and William Lamb Sunday at St. James Episcopal church.

This was the first confirmation class presented by the Rev. Hugh Wintersteen, vicar. A coffee hour honoring the confirmation class and bishop was held following the service.

FINED FOR PARKING

JEROME, Jan. 27—Eugene Harder, Jerome, was fined $3 Saturday by Police Judge Roberta Kehrer for improper parking.

Russ Leaders More Confident At Present Communist Parley

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Soviet leaders who walked into their first party congress today were not more confident group than three years ago to hear Nikita S. Khrushchev downgrade Stalin.

Khrushchev showed a lot of confidence at that time, to be sure in his own ability to destroy the memory of Stalin and still survive in the Kremlin power struggle and in the future of the Soviet Union.

It was at that time, he suggested, communist parties elsewhere could feel free to do their own thinking. It was an idea that came to a quick and bloody end when Hungarians, seizing a little freedom, tried for more and were crushed.

History will probably see Khrushchev in 1956 did what he had to do in condemning the late (enemy) of Stalin. He wanted to destroy the terror and oppression to all peoples everywhere.

If communism—Soviet brand—was to extend its influence in Asia, Africa and even Europe it had to put on a much friendlier and a more reasonable and helpful face than Stalin ever displayed.

Khrushchev's new policy has worked pretty well. Russian influence has been extended. But Khrushchev in 1958 was in a position to know what the rest of the world didn't: that Russia would soon be able to dazzle the world.

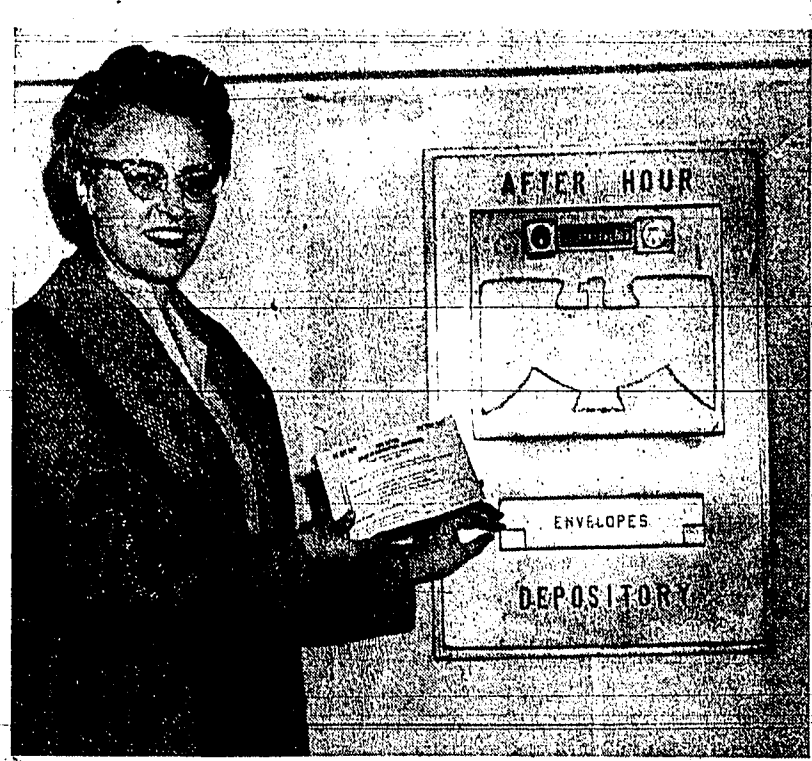

It did that late in 1957 when it shot its Sputniks aloft and made clear it was far advanced—more so, it seems, than the United States—in the development of long-range missiles.

Those missiles as they develop—or so the Soviets hope and say—will be a tremendous counter force to the bases which this country has built around the Soviet Union with the bring their lunch. Ever since he made the demand in November the Western world has been able to talk about little else and Khrushchev, judging from the gay way in which he dwells on the subject, enjoys the West's concern. He was in a gay mood last night at a diplomatic reception, promising to make such a long speech at the party congress today that he said he had advised communist leaders to bring their lunch. He can afford to be gay, he's undisputed master in the Soviet Union. In the years since 1956 he has sent into oblivion such old communist stalwarts as Molotov, Malenkov and Bulganin. Since Khrushchev has a good sense of the drama it's quite possible he will come up with some startling pronouncements at the congress meeting.

These specific common sense features are the big reasons why Ford is the best seller:

1. Six passengers, not just four, ride in comfort. Yes, even the man in the middle. Because Ford's full-depth seats are extra thick all the way across—there's no hard spot in the center as in some cars.
2. The doors are wider for easier entry. Compared with Ford's major competitor, they open wider... and have convenient two-stage front door checks.
3. Ford's styling is sensible. It's clean and simple like the Thunderbird. No useless frills or wings that are easy to dent and cause parking problems.
4. Ford's frame surrounds you with safety. In its field, only Ford has a wide-base frame that seats all passengers within the protection of its husky side rails.
5. Ford's spacious luggage compartment is easier to load and unload. High rear trunk wall on Ford's nearest competitor makes loading difficult.
6. Ford's got the most sound and weather insulation—everywhere. No other low-priced car compares.
7. Ford is economical. You save up to a dollar a tankful with Ford's standard Six or Thunderbird V-8 engines—for they thrive on regular gas. You need change oil only every 4000 miles. The muffler is aluminumized to last twice as long as ever. And Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish never—ever—needs waxing!

What's behind the big switch to FORD?

And here's good news for the economy-minded...

With all these exclusives, and with the usual optional equipment, Ford prices are as much as $100 lower* than the nearest major competitor.

$50,000 Plus Dip Reported In 1959 Fund

SHOSHONE, Jan. 27—The proposed budget for Lincoln county for 1959 is $210,623.21, more than $50,000 less than the 1958 figure of $260,612.28. The budget drops so much because the Wood River Convalescent Center was closed last year and the extra cost in the budget covered that. The center was built with Lincoln county funds and the Hill Burton act funds.

Actual expenditures of 1958 were $210,566 less than the approved budget.

A breakdown on the funds shows $285,211 in the proposed budget for current expense. Last year a budget of $31,214.42 was approved. High expenditures were only $74,311. The current expense section of the budget covers all expenses in operation of the county, including wages of various officers and care of their offices, such as office help.

An increase was granted later in the year for purchase of a radio for the sheriff's office a year ago and for $300 toward probation work.

The proposed current expense budget for this year includes $500 shortage in the prosecuting attorney's fund, which is set every year in case it is needed for handling the state's interest in a case. Often the fund is not used. There is also $1,000 fund in the county commissioners' special budget in case of emergency.

All county officers were granted five per cent wage increase this year, a carryover from the raise of a year ago when a 10 per cent increase was granted on a two-year basis. Only two deputies received raises. However, those of the sheriff and the auditor.

The county school fund was set the same as last year, $125,000, though actual expenditure in the year for 1958 was only $129,489.15. Teacher's retirement fund also was set at the same figure, $6,228. Expenditures for last year were $6,704.

The pest control fund was set at $1,000 on the proposed budget. Actual expenditure last year was $738.33.

A memorial fund is proposed at the $600 and will be divided between the Shoshone and Richfield regions.

The indigent fund last year was $250 while $10,854.84 was spent. The budget this year is $10,000.

County road and bridge fund was set at $1,000 again while the weed control fund will be $35,000. Last year it was $30,000 and $33,320.22 was expended.

For the Wood River Convalescent center, the proposed budget is $4,400, last year $65,716.40 was spent in the fund, $55,820.16 for construction and $8,896.24 for other expenses.

The state fund, over which the county has no control, is $45,000. Last year the state fund was $60,000 with $54,876.74 spent.

Budgeted for the sheriff is $4,038.72 for wages and $3,753.75 for other expenses and $3,300 for a deputy. The county clerk's wages are set at $9,127.72 with $1,816 for other expenses and $3,300 for a deputy. Compared to $3,726.40, $1,182.36 and $73.68 last year.

The county assessor's wages are $746.40 with $2,661 for other expenses and $2,794.68 for a deputy compared to $3,568, $2,311.69 and $294.68 last year.

Treasurer's salary is $3,746.40 with $36.75 for other expenses and $794.68 for a deputy, plus $50 for her help, compared to $3,568, $1,934 and $2,794.68 last year.

Prosecuting attorney's wages are $800 again with $1,358.50 for other expenses, and $2,143 for a stenographer, compared to $675.38 last year for other expenses and office help of $2,025.

Probate judge is $3,214.68 with $212.25 for other expenses and $38 for office help, compared to $61.60, $1,092.09 and $999.90 last year.

Salary in the proposed budget for the coroner is set at $55, same as last year with $125 for other expense, compared to $25.

County physician salary remains $720, with $300 added for expenses. The county nurse's salary remains $2,600 with $1,250 expenses, up from $1,023.28.

County commissioner wages are $800 again with $635 for other expenses, up from $435.65.

The county's share of the county agent's salary stays at $1,000 with $150 for other expenses, $985.92 last year and $2,894.68 for office help. Janitor pay is $2,400 with $3,600 for other courthouse expenses, compared to $1,800 and $3,881.52.

Last year the state fund was $60,000 with $54,876.74 spent.

Various items in the budget, with 59 items listed first and compared to the 1958 expenses, are district court, $1,835 and $875.75; justice court, $150, $36.52; weed supervisor, $750, unchanged; prisoners board, $50; commissioners' special fund, $50, $5,940.31.

The budget may be reduced at the February meeting but cannot be raised.

North Is Told, "Set Example" In Integration

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27 (AP)—The North should get an example for the South in eliminating race segregation in public schools, Ernest Besig, director of the American Civil Liberties union, northern California, urged last night.

Besig declared segregation is practiced in many Northern school districts as well as in most districts of the South.

Disrespect 'Is Taught'
He said public school officials in the South were teaching children disrespect for the law by openly defying the supreme court's 1954 decision outlawing segregation.

Besig, a San Francisco attorney, addressed a National School Boards association convention which on school board legal problems. He said school segregation was the country's dominant civil liberties issue.

North Has Residential Ban
In the North, Besig said, residential segregation was the chief factor promoting race separation in schools.

But, he declared, school boards and administrators in the North also have used what the U. S. supreme court has called "illegal and evasive schemes for segregation."

Besig said segregation was being maintained in schools in the North by gerrymandered districts, permissive zoning and capricious transfer policies allowing white parents to take their children out of schools with large negro enrollment.

Budge Asking End for Free Mail Practices

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—Homer Budge, Idaho's Republican second district congressman, has introduced a bill in the house which would abolish free mailing privileges now held by all departmental agencies and members of congress.

Budge's bill, HR-708, introduced Jan. 7 and referred to the committee on postoffice and civil service, would subject heretofore free mail "to postage at the regular rates, including registry fees if registration is required."

Governmental officials have long held the privilege of sending official mail free of postage anywhere in the country. Budge and others have criticized their practice, even though Budge himself is allowed to send letters and documents and other official mail free of postage.

Budge's bill also would do away with the practice of allowing former members of congress and others to enjoy the free-mailing privilege following their service in office.

The congressman's bill would provide that postage and fees for government mail be made from regular appropriations, with special stamps, permits and postage meters to identify the mail as official government matter.

Budge's bill would exempt the postoffice department from paying postage fees, but it stipulates that a sum representing the amount of such postage if it were paid will be allocated among the various activities of the department.

The bill also would withdraw the free mailing privilege from the Pan American Union, the Pan American Sanitary bureau, the Smithsonian Institution and agricultural colleges and agricultural experiment stations.

Killing Justifiable
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27 (AP)—The shooting of actor Carl (Alfalfa) Switzer during a fight over $50 was justifiable homicide, a coroner's jury ruled yesterday.

Switzer, 32, was famed for his role in the "Our Gang Comedy" films of a generation ago.

Order Postponed Teacher's Pay Doubling Bid
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—The federal communications commission has decided to extend until June 30 the effective date of its order to change VHF television boosters to UHF. Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R., Neb., said yesterday.

The FCC order, which had drawn heavy fire from the western section of the country, was scheduled to go into effect next April.

Paul Castro Gets Wed to Army Girl
SANTIAGO, Cuba, Jan. 27 (AP)—Raul Castro and his revolutionary army sweetheart, Vilma Espin Gullons, were married yesterday before a crowd of 3,000.

Raul has been named by his brother Fidel as successor in the revolutionary leadership if Fidel should die.

The civil ceremony took place in a country club grounds outside Santiago.

The bride, who was director of sabotage in Oriente province for the Castro movement under the code name of Deborah, is the daughter of Santiago industrialist Jose Espin.

Dworschak Gets Job
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—Sen. Henry C. Dworschak, R., Ida., said yesterday he has been named ranking minority member on the appropriations public works subcommittee, replacing Sen. William Knowland, R., California.

"This subcommittee," Dworschak said, "handles army civil functions, the bureau of reclamation, the atomic energy commission, the TVA and interpower marketing agencies appropriations."

Navy Has Harder Punch
Gates said the navy will be able to hit harder than ever with a nuclear punch, both from Polaris submarines able to launch missiles from under water, and from carrier-based jet attack planes.

Burke emphasized the navy needs more missiles, jet aircraft, carriers and fighting ships in general.

The admiral said the navy will have 113 active submarines by next July 1, but Russia will have about four times as many.

Here's the way Gates put it: "Russia's submarines cannot match ours, boat for boat. The great numbers the Soviets have impose a grave threat not only to our control of the seas but to our ability to defend the country against missile attack."

4 Lose Lives in Fire in Chicago

CHICAGO, Jan. 27 (AP)—An extra-alarm fire swept a three-story apartment building on Chicago's west side last night, taking the lives of at least four persons.

The blaze raged for more than an hour. Firemen began a search of the building to determine if there were other dead.

Several persons were reported injured.

Others leaped into firemen's nets from upper floors where they were cut off by the fast spreading flames. Firemen reported two women and two men were killed.

Large Number Of Russ Subs Worries Navy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—The U. S. navy is satisfied that Russia's submarines can not match the performance of American subs, boat for boat.

But the great and growing number of submarines that Russia could throw into action worries the navy considerably.

Two Men Testify
This two-sided picture was given to the senate armed services committee yesterday by Secretary of the Navy Thomas S. Gates, Jr., and Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations. They testified in a closed briefing session.

Part of the testimony made public included the appraisal of the submarine situation and a discussion of the navy's growing nuclear power. Burke especially sounded alarmed about the red subs.

Job's Daughters Welcome State's Grand Guardian

Mrs. Bernice Jones, Pocatello, grand guardian of Idaho, made her official visit to Twin Falls, Idaho, Monday.

She was honored at a luncheon at the Blue Lakes Country club by council members, and at a banquet served by chapter 29, Order of Eastern Star. The evening meeting was held at the Masonic temple.

Introduced at the meeting conducted by Carol Lindemer, honored queen, were: Dona Melner, honored queen of Bethel No. 43; Diane Rough, honored queen of Bethel No. 32, Pocatello; Shirley Divine, honored queen of Bethel No. 30, Halley; Judy Carrico, honored queen of Bethel No. 15, Gooding; Karen Koenig, past honored queen of Bethel No. 19 and present grand Bethel junior custodian; Irene Sumner, past honored queen of Bethel No. 43 and grand representative of Maryland; and Donna Ambrose, past honored queen of Bethel No. 104, Redland, Calif.

Also introduced were Mrs. Jones, grand guardian; Senior Princess Jeannie Stetler, and Junior Princess Kathryn Jones, all Bethel No. 43; Dixie Ramey, senior princess, and Anita Slavick, junior princess, of Bethel 32, Pocatello; Louise Locke, junior princess of Bethel 15, Gooding; Harriet Miller and Vera Ambrose, past grand guardians of Idaho.

Charlotte Kroll, grand librarian and guardian of Bethel No. 19; Ray Rogers, Halley, grand outer guard; Blanche Sears, Rupert, grand junior custodian.

Guardians and associate guardians were Egon Kroll, Bethel No. 19; Betty Harrison, Bethel No. 43, Twin Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert Hatch, Bethel No. 30, Halley; Mrs. Pickering, Bethel No. 39, Rupert; and Marie Myers, Bethel No. 15, Gooding. Past guardians were Mrs. Jones, Rupert; Mrs. Rogers, Halley; and Mrs. Whitler-Culbertson, Pocatello; worshipful master, Milo Craig, lodge No. 45 AF and AM; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Larsen, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magic chapter No. 52, OES, and Mrs. Spriggs, worthy matron of chapter No. 29, OES.

Initiation ceremonies were conducted for Frances Brown, Joan Tegan, Linda McRoberts, Sally Sheber, Mary Ann Urdahl, Shirley Wilson, Darlene Clark, Marilyn Carmen, Cheryl Fike, and Vivian Van Buren with special music furnished by Myrna Ann Schiffer, Marla Messman, Barbara Kroll, and Rosalie Bishop, accompanied by Janelle Sevy.

A gift from the Bethel was presented by Bunny Thorne for the grand guardian's project, the Shrine hospital. Mrs. Jones also received a gift from the Bethel.

At the banquet, the theme, "This is Your Life," was used honoring the grand guardian. The centerpiece for the head table featured dolls dressed to represent various highlights in her life. Coronets with small flowers and leaves were used as favors. The program included a reading by Marjorie York, narration by Bunny Thorne, and a trio consisting of Karen Koenig, Janelle Sevy and Barbara Kroll, accompanied by Myrna Ann Schiffer.

A reception followed the meeting with Charlene Parks and Colleen Bryan presiding at the refreshment table.

Miss Matthews Is French's Bride in Ritual at Church

Vows were exchanged by Anita Kay Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie R. Matthews, and Norman Dale French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross French, in candlelight rites Friday evening at the First Christian church.

Arrangements of large and pom-pom white chrysanthemums tied with pink satin bows and candelabra formed the background for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Donald Hoffman.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Vera Kirk, organist. David Greif, Jerome, cousin of the bride, sang "With This Ring I Thee Wed" and "The Lord's Prayer." Ann Montgomery, Carol Hoover and Diane Southwick sang "Oh Promise Me." Claudette Mendola accompanied the vocalists.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Donald Mason, Portland, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and imported net over satin. The sculptured lace bodice featured traditional long sleeves and a scoop neckline. Daisy appliques sprinkled the full skirt and outlined the neck and hemlines and her fingertip veil. A matching bandeau held her veil in place and she carried a cascade of pink rosebuds tied with pink streamers on a white Bible.

She was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Donald Mason, Portland, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Dale Orr, Twin Falls; Mrs. Ted Bradshaw, Deeth, Nev., and Mrs. Vern Nelson, Portland, as bridesmaids.

They wore ballerina-length gowns of pink satin and chiffon and carried nosegays of pink rosebuds and white feathered carnations.

Serving as best man was Larry Hinman, Ushering were Dale Orr, brother-in-law of the bride; Joe French, brother of the bridegroom; and Roger Boyd, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Rings were carried by Jimmy Boyd, nephew of the bridegroom. The flower girl, Paula Mason, niece of the bride, was frocked in pink

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

All-education is not gained in the schools. A goodly part of it is gathered in odd lessons picked up here and there in contact with people outside the schools, in books that are not in the school library, in places like grocery stores, garages, neighbors' houses and gardens.

These lessons and this learning are not to be discounted. They are highly valuable because they are highlighted by the processes of daily living. They allow the children to become aware of the ordinary ways of people who are wrestling with life in its unexpectedness, its ever-changing, ever-challenging variety and learning to accept it with calm faith in their ability to make the best of it and to get profit and happiness in the process.

Such associations with life outside the school must be discovered and explored if the children are to be well informed, cooperative and friendly; all desirable characteristics in any personality. Home and school need not only encourage such associations but help the children find them.

Schools are usually rule-bound. Rules are essential and must be obeyed but sometimes they can be more serviceable to the administration, (home and school alike), than to the children. I am thinking now of the rules that do not permit a child to leave the school building to get an "odd" lesson, valuable experiences not to be had in the school building. There is a lot of talk about individual instruction and little done about it for the plain

Do Newspaper Reading Habits Tell What You Are?

by Martha Morgan

"Show me what a man turns to first in his daily paper, and I'll tell you the kind of a man he is," Mr. Grandon, our neighbor, used to say as he'd read the editorials over his daily cup of coffee. A serious man was Mr. Grandon and he felt the weight of the world on his shoulders. He used to say if every person would be well-read on matters pertaining to the world, he'd be in a position to act wisely when called upon.

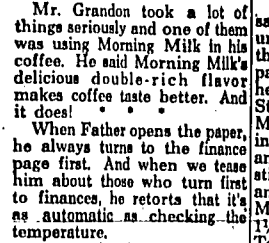

Mr. Grandon took a lot of things seriously and one of them was using Morning Milk in his coffee. He said Morning Milk's delicious double-rich flavor makes coffee taste better. And it does!

When Father opens the paper, he always turns to the finance page first. And when we tease him about those who turn first to finances, he retorts that it's as automatic as checking the temperature.

Mary's Bill, on the other hand, always takes the sports section first. He loved sports as a youngster but was never good enough to go into them, so he does the next best thing by being an armchair participant.

Mary and I are alike in our interests—it's the women's page for us, and more particularly the food. Bill says he's sure the first thing I put into Mary's hand when she was born was a mixing spoon, and he says she hasn't let go of it yet.

It was, by the way, in the paper that I found this grand recipe for Southern Onion Casserole—numbers of years ago,

I've improved the recipe by using Morning Milk, for I've long since found there's no better cream sauce than one made with Morning Milk!

SOUTHERN ONION CASSEROLE

3 cups (1 1/4 lbs.) small whole onions
4 cups boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups (large can) undiluted Morning Milk
1/2 cup peanuts
1/2 cup grated cheese or soft buttered bread crumbs

Cook onions in boiling water salted, for 5 or 10 minutes or until partially cooked. Drain thoroughly. Melt butter in top part of double-boiler over low heat. Add flour and seasonings. Stir until smooth. Slowly add Morning Milk. Place over boiling water and cook until thick and smooth (about 10 minutes), stirring constantly. Add onions and peanuts. Mix well. Place Morning Milk-onion mixture in 1 1/2 quart buttered casserole. Top with grated cheese or buttered bread crumbs. Bake at 350° F. about 15 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Ferrell Is Named Fill-in Manager For Detroit Club

DETROIT, Jan. 27 (AP)—Rick Ferrell, one of baseball's all-time great catchers, Monday was named temporary general manager of the Detroit Tigers as the club moved quickly to replace John J. McHale...

Ferrell had his suitcases packed and planned to leave his home in Greensboro, N.C., Monday for Lakeland, Fla., where he was to join other Tiger personnel and instruct young baseball players.

Ferrell holds the American league's record for games caught with 1,806 and his lifetime batting average was .381. He said the immediate aim of the fifth-place Tigers is to finish in the first division—and I hope to do well enough in my new job so I will be considered for the full-time position.

Baby Located OK; Tips Aid Police in Case

NEW YORK, Jan. 27 (UPI) — A newspaper tip today led police to kidnaped infant Johnny Tavaraz and the woman accused of taking him from his mother's apartment five days ago.

Chief of Detectives James Leggett told a news conference that Mrs. Asuncion Ortiz admitted she took the child on a ruse from the mother last Thursday.

The 23-day-old infant was found in an apartment shared by Mrs. Ortiz and her husband.

He was in good condition. FBI agents and police, acting on information from the Spanish-language newspaper El Diario, picked up Mrs. Ortiz and her husband in their apartment on West 91st street early today.

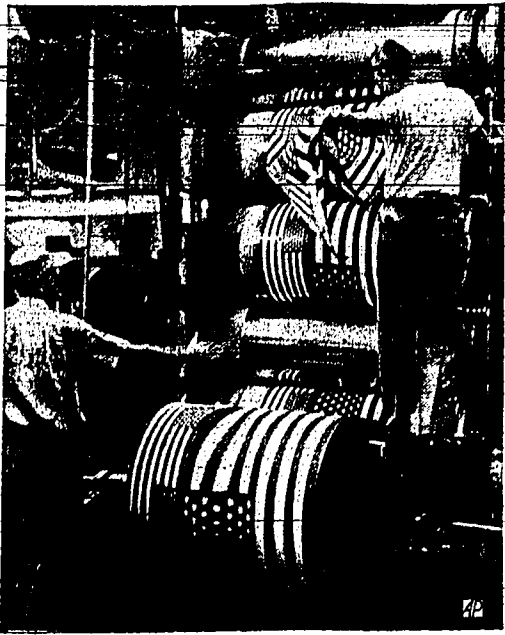

The woman admitted the kidnaping shortly before 7 a.m. after more than five hours of questioning.

Woman Admits Kidnaping Mrs. Ortiz admitted in a statement that she took the infant from the Tavaraz apartment after directing Mrs. Tavaraz to a fictitious address in search of an apartment.

Before Leggett's statement the infant was brought before newsmen in the arms of H. O. Foster, FBI agent in charge of the New York office.

The tiny boy, his eyes closed, slept through reporters' shouts and flashing of photographers' bulbs. As in the solution of the recent Lisa Rose Chionchio kidnaping, footprints proved decisive in identifying Johnny.

New Flags Made

700 Residents Tour Nursing Home in Area

WENDELL, Jan. 27 — Approximately 700 residents of Magic Valley called at the Magic Valley Manor Sunday for open house and inspection of the nursing home for the care of geriatric and convalescent patients.

Staff members conducted tours and gave explanations of the general operation and facilities offered by the new home.

Mrs. Pauline Degler, registered nurse, administrator of the nursing staff, and Charles Miller were in charge of the guided tours.

Presiding at the refreshment table in two hour shifts from 2 to 8 p.m. were Mrs. Eugene Soaps and Mrs. Norman Sant; Mrs. G. D. MacQuivry and Mrs. Bess Edwards; Mrs. Carl Geissler and Mrs. Charles Miller; Mrs. M. H. Passmore, supervisor of the kitchen, was assisted by members of the Wendell high school chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, Jean Newby, LaRae Little, Sharon Gough, Betty Robinson and Julie Gates.

Magio-Valley Manor, which opened to guests Tuesday, is staffed by registered and licensed practical nurses and has full medical coverage. Mrs. Robert Burk has been added to the nursing staff. Mrs. Carl Geissler will assist on the kitchen staff.

Additional supplies and equipment for the new home are expected to be on hand to complete all rooms on the second and third floors during the next month, says Clyde Orice, business manager.

Polio Benefit Set

BLISS, Jan. 27 — A polio benefit party will be held at the Bliss school Saturday evening under direction of Orville Readington, local chairman for the March of Dimes. Clubs of the community will furnish the cookies and coffee for refreshments. Pinochle will be played.

State Session Set for BPW Club in Area

HAILEY, Jan. 27 — Tentative plans for the 1959 convention of Idaho Business and Professional Women's clubs to be held at Sun Valley June 4-7, have been announced by Mrs. Lovenia Campbell and Mrs. Winifred Brooks, co-chairmen of the Sun Valley club's planning committee.

The local club will host the convention and give the informal reception the evening of June 4th and the banquet the night of June 6th.

The Jerome club is scheduled to host the June 5th breakfast and the coffee break June 6th. The coffee break June 6th and the breakfast June 6th will be hosted by the Burley club.

Members of the Rupert club will give the luncheon June 5. The Twin Falls club will host the banquet or smorgasbord the evening of June 5 and the Buhl club will give the luncheon June 6.

Gooding will be hosts for the emblem breakfast which will conclude the meeting Sunday morning.

These plans will be presented for final approval and additions at the state executive board meeting to be held in Boise Feb. 7. At that time the theme of the meeting and the national representative will be announced.

Washington Jobs On Defense Drop

YAKIMA, Wash., Jan. 27 (AP) — Defense employment in Washington state will drop by at least 20,000 in the next three or four years, the state's director of commerce and economic development told members of the Yakima Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

The official, Dewayne Kreager, said the drop already has started and will take place regardless of the dollar volume of defense contracts in the state.

The reason, he said, is that the shift to missiles and nuclear craft requires fewer persons with greater skills than conventional aircraft and naval vessels.

Dance Held

BLISS, Jan. 27 — The sum of $350 was received at the benefit dance sponsored by the Rod and Gun club, for the R. E. Floyd family whose home burned recently.

Henry Rademacher and his western orchestra furnished music. Lunch was served by Mrs. Melvyn Stokes, Mrs. Earle Hobday, Mrs. Leo Hobday and Mrs. Frank Wright.

Mini-Cassia's School Food Session Held

RUPERT, Jan. 27 — Mini-Cassia school lunch workshop was held at the Lincoln lunchroom in Rupert with the largest attendance in the three years the organization has been meeting.

Lunchroom personnel attended from Oakley, Declo, Malla, Albion, Springdale and Burley in Cassia county and Plover, Pershing, Lincoln, Minico high school, Heyburn, Paul and Acequia, in Minidoka county. Mrs. Leo Handy, Heyburn, presided.

Materials and a manual on emergency mass feeding, developed jointly by the federal civil defense administration and the American Red Cross was presented. It deals with basic instructions on mass feeding in case of an enemy-caused disaster. The course will be taught under the Idaho state school food service chapter. About 20 cooks said they would be willing to take the course.

Mrs. Kate Walker and Mrs. Helen Elliot, Minico high school, gave a cooks' demonstration, showing how to make cookies which required no

More Cigars

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 27 (AP) — The issue was a burning one but threats stayed cool in the clear chambers of the Washington state senate.

Smoking senators had won a voice vote to retain a regulation against smoking.

Why? Smokers wait patiently until a fellow senator or a member of the press lights up. Then one of them points out the rule-breaker.

The gully party has to buy a box of cigars to be passed around.

Individual handling. Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Minico, gave the recipe and the cost per serving. At the close of the meeting the cookies were served with coffee and ice cream donated by the Jerome Cooperative creamery.

Forty-six cooks and lunch personnel attended. Special guests were Mrs. Erna Russell, lunch supervisor of Valley program, Eden, and four cooks from the Eiert and Hazelton school lunch programs.

The next meeting will be held in one of the Cassia county lunchrooms with cooks from the Heyburn program giving the food demonstration.
