Rep. Reed, 83, Veteran N. Y. Solon, Passes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—Rep. Daniel Alden Reed, an apostle of old-time Republicanism, died Thursday at the age of 83.

He had represented New York's 43rd district, in the state's extreme western tip, since 1919 and had become a landmark on the political scene. Generally speaking, he battled for higher tariffs and lower taxes.

A typical tribute came Thursday from Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R., Ill.: "Dan Reed was a great old rugged warrior whose interest in the conservation tradition never faltered."

Death came after a heart attack at Walter Reed medical center, where the congressman had gone two weeks ago to undergo treatment for an infected foot. Reed had suffered a heart attack several years ago while in Rome with a congressional delegation, and spent months convalescing.

Reed was the top Republican on and onetime chairman of the house ways and means committee, which originates all federal tax legislation. With his death the ranking Republican becomes Rep. Richard M. Simpson of Pennsylvania.

Out of respect, the house laid aside all of its work until Monday.

Henry Would Outlaw Doctor's Phone to Keep Family Peace

By HENRY McLEMORE

The next time the house and senate meet in joint session I am going to propose a bill which would make it illegal for pediatricians to have telephones.

This would end, once and for all, one of the major sources of disagreement between the two parties who share joint ownership of a baby.

A mother never wants to call the family pediatrician. She considers it unlawful, sinful or both.

A father, the most sensible member of the partnership as a rule, wants to call the pediatrician every time the baby is not sucking exactly 60 seconds to the minute, and sees no reason why he shouldn't.

If baby doctors had no phones, and were reachable only by dog sled, carrier pigeon or smoke signal, it would put a stop to mothers calling fathers crazy and inconsiderate, and fathers calling mothers callous and great big know-it-alls.

It is amazing, I have found, how having a baby of her own will turn a woman into a know-it-all, especially about medicine. Any timidity or uncertainty she may have had during the first two or three weeks the baby is at home disappears in a hurry.

By the time the baby is, say, 7 months old (the age of ours), the new mother needs only a stethoscope and a measuring tape to set up shop—in her own mind, that is.

I have always heard that it was very trying to be the wife of a doctor. I don't know about that, and never will, but I surely can tell you how it feels to be the husband of a woman who thinks she is a doctor.

Take the last two or three days, during which Megan had a tiny rash on the back of her neck. It was obvious to me, as it would have been to any father, that the child was coming down with measles, mumps, diphtheria, or, for all a layman could tell, berber.

I would have had Dr. Skinner on the phone, but from the second the first rash popped out, but Mary diagnosed it as such. "It's nothing. A little heat rash. And she hasn't any fever."

Cross-examination brought out that she hadn't taken Megan's temperature.

"I can tell," she said, as confidently as if she were Dr. Osier.

How could she tell? When did the gift of thermometerhood descend upon her? I could have shaken her as if she had been a thermometer!

When the rash went away Mary didn't say anything about it, and neither did I, but how is a father to know that his baby will be as lucky the next time, and be able to throw off a dread "something" so easily?

As a matter of fact, I did call Dr. Skinner, and he didn't make me feel any better by saying "I'd better let him talk to my wife."

Then they had a nice little chat, and the only way I know I was mentioned at all was because Mary said, "I tried to get him not to, but he is always like that. Panics."

Panics, my foot! Natural, normal worry I call it.

Food Retailer Profit Higher Than Farmer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Government studies showed today that retail grocery stores get more profit from selling potatoes than does the farmer who grows them.

A survey of potato markets in different parts of the country showed that during the 1956-57 season, processors got an average of $1.41 per hundred pounds for late-crop potatoes, which is the main crop. The retail margin, on the other hand, averaged $3.16 a hundred pounds.

Retailer Gets $3.20

In the 1957-58 season, the grower got an average of $2.17 for potatoes sold in these markets and the retailer an average of $3.20.

The retail price averaged $6.38 a hundred in the 1956-57 season and $7.17 in the 1957-58 season.

A study of grains shows that slightly more than one bushel of wheat is grown last year has found up in government price support loan stocks.

Crop Is Largest

The amount totaled 588 million bushels at the end of the loan season, Jan. 31. The crop was 1,462,000,000 bushels, the largest of record. The wheat put under price support represents in effect the portion of the crop that is not expected to be needed to meet domestic and export market demands.

It is surplus. It is added to reserve surplus supplies of about 1,000,000,000 bushels accumulated in other past crops.

The public is invited to general sessions Sunday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and to the MIA session at 8 p.m., announces F. Lyman Schenk, stake president, 752 Addison avenue.

The meetings will be held in the Twin Falls stake tabernacle, Maurice street north.

Elder Ivins is one of the seven men assigned to the world-wide Missionary work of the church. A native of St. George, Utah, he also has served as mission president in Mexico.

Saturday at 6:30 p.m. a welfare meeting will be held for stake and ward welfare workers, and at 8 p.m. a priesthood session will be held for the stake presidency and clerk, high council, all presidencies and group leaders and secretaries of the Melchizedek priesthood quorums, stake committee for the Aaronic priesthood, and bishops of wards with their counselors and clerks.

The Sunday evening session will convene at 8 p.m. under the direction of MIA officers, Norma Linnell and Cecil Watson.

Box lunches will be provided for on Sunday by the 462nd quorum of seventy. All proceeds will go to the missionary fund.

Four times each year, members are called to the conferences for counsel and instruction from church leaders. Reports also will be given regarding the priesthood quorums, missionary work and auxiliary programs.

Expert Says Rays Come From Stars

PASADENA, Calif., Feb. 20 (AP)—A scientist just returned from an expedition that ranged from the Arctic to the Antarctic said yesterday that cosmic rays probably come from distant stars far bigger than our sun, not the sun itself.

Dr. H. V. Neher, professor of physics at the California Institute of Technology, led an expedition that measured cosmic radiation from sea level to 100,000 feet above the Earth, using 80 balloons that radiocarbon information as they rose.

He found that the sun wards off many of these cosmic rays which can cause new types of animals and plants if they hereditary genes in reproductive cells.

There is little if any change, he said, in radiation intensity at night, indicating that the rays do not come from the sun but from giant exploding stars on all sides.

Ford Accuses Labor Chiefs In Slowdown

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 20 (AP)—Henry Ford II has accused big labor of slowing down America's economic progress.

The Ford Motor company president said labor is thus "thwarting the very improvement in productivity and the increased economic growth that it says it wants."

He said labor might be controlled by legislation similar to the Sherman antitrust act, which controls business power and size.

Ford's speech Thursday night was part of a Yale university lecture series.

Ford said organized labor is obstructing a "new productive explosion in the American economy."

"In terms of unfettered power," he said, "it is the strongest single center in the American economy. It is using that power not to increase the growth of the American pie, but to cut out a larger share for its constituents."

He called the AFL-CIO "the most aggressive, ascendant force in American politics."

'Use of All Water Needed for West'

BOISE, Feb. 20 (UPI)—A former national reclamation association president says if the West is to have a sound economic future every drop of water must be fully used, managed and protected.

Marshall N. Dana, Portland, president of the U. S. National bank, told the eighth annual irrigation operators conference here last night that there is a need for a national water policy of the scope of land management or forest management.

Dana said that the state water laws should have priority over federal water laws in control of water resources and that the federal government should obey the state laws. Cooperation between irrigation districts also was urged by the speaker.

March 12, 1959—and from that date on as long as you pay your monthly premium.

Can the Company cancel my Policy?
The Company cannot cancel your Policy, change the benefits, or raise premium rates unless it does so on all FUND/65 PLAN Policies in your state. You, of course, may terminate on any monthly premium date.

What coverage do I get?
The FUND/65 PLAN covers you for all kinds of injuries or illnesses, except those caused by war or covered by any Workers' Compensation or Occupational Disease Law, provided hospitalization or surgery is required.

Am I covered for hospital room and board?
You are—up to $10.00 a day for as long as 31 days for each hospital confinement anywhere in the world. Not covered is confinement in U. S. Veterans Administration hospitals or any institution owned or operated by the Federal Government, clinics, and institutions operated primarily as nursing, rest or convalescent homes; or those established for treatment of alcoholics or narcotic addicts.

Who pays for X-rays, tests, medicines?
Your Policy pays you up to $100.00 allowance each time you are in the hospital as a result of a new accident or illness. This allowance covers X-ray examinations, operating room fee, anesthetics (including cost of administration), laboratory tests, prosthetic devices, dressings, drugs, medicines, and ambulance service to and from the hospital.

Am I covered for surgery expenses?
Yes. Your Policy pays you for every type of operation, in or out of the hospital, from $5.00 to $200.00. (Example: $5.00 for removal of a toenail; $100.00 for removal of cataract by lens extraction; $200.00 for perineal prostate removal.)

How often can I receive benefits?
You receive benefits every time you are in the hospital for a different cause even if confinements are just a few days apart. You can even collect benefits for the same cause over and over—provided six months have elapsed between each confinement.

Am I covered if I am ill right now?
Yes, if you have not been medically treated or advised for that particular illness.

What if I have been treated?
You will still receive benefits when hospital confinement begins or surgery is performed after the Policy has been in effect six months.

Who stands behind this Policy?
Fireman's Fund Insurance Company and its affiliates are backed by assets exceeding $500,000,000. Founded in the West, The Fund has stood side-by-side with the people of the West since 1863. The Company's performance in disasters such as the 1906 San Francisco earthquake and fire and its consistent interest in the needs of the insurance buying public, has brought continued growth and recognition.

What does this insurance cost?
$6.50 a month. The cost is low because the FUND/65 PLAN works like "group" insurance. All applications and premium payments are processed electronically, thereby cutting administrative costs.

Can I collect on other policies, too?
Certainly. You receive benefits from your FUND/65 PLAN Policy in addition to any other policies you might have. The only restriction is one FUND/65 PLAN Policy per person.

South Schools Problem Goes Before Courts

Warren county high school in Warren county, which reopened Wednesday to admit 22 Negroes, began today a full day of classes for 22 second-grade classes for 22 students. The county's 800 white students were still attending private schools, leaving the Negroes to themselves in the 30-classroom school.

Two other cities, Richmond and Newport News, go into federal courts today to argue against desegregation suits, while a third, Charlottesville, awaits approval of a voluntary integration plan.

It would be next September, however, before Negroes could enter public schools in any other Virginia city.

Four localities have complied with federal court orders to admit Negroes to their white public schools. Washington, Norfolk and Alexandria recently enrolled 30 in previously-white classes.

In Richmond, Warren county, where sentiment against integration was much stronger, agreed to reopen its only high school to the Negroes but not a single white student showed up to enroll.

In Richmond, Gov. J. Lindsay Almond's 40-member education study commission was divided into nine subcommittees to work on the state's long-range policy to circumvent the Supreme Court's ruling to minimize future integration.

State Sen. Mosby Perrow, the chairman, announced that the group would prefer for the time being a continuation of repeat or revision of a constitutional provision requiring state to maintain public schools.

Utah Sunday Closing Idea Dies by Veto

This means the bill is dead.

The governor announced his veto this afternoon. The senate voted immediately, 13 to 12 in favor of the bill, a two-thirds majority of 17 would have been necessary to override the veto.

Discrimination Claimed

In his veto message, the governor said the bill was not in the best interest of the public, that it discriminated against certain types of business, and might bring serious economic harm to the state.

The bill was passed by a 16 to 9 vote in the senate, and by a 42 to 20 vote in the house. To override the veto both houses would have to reapprove it by a two-thirds majority—17 votes in the senate and 13 in the house.

Most Business Affected

The bill would have closed all businesses except those considered necessary, recreational and charitable.

It was initiated primarily by large retail grocers because of the increasing number of stores and chain stores which were staying open on Sunday.

Jet Air Service Grows

CURRENT WORLD JET AIR ROUTES

The growing pattern of world jet airways is shown in newsmap. Four nations currently operate passenger jet airliners—U. S., Britain, Russia and Czechoslovakia. Oldest regularly scheduled service is that between Moscow and Prague (1956) and Moscow-Copenhagen (1957). All other runs came into being in 1958, a year of big expansion in jet travel.

Latest are Moscow-Cairo and New York-Miami. The latter, the first U. S. domestic service, is operated by National Airlines, using Boeing 707s leased from Pan American. To be added by June, 1959: American and TWA—across U. S.; Air France—Europe-Africa; British Overseas Airways—London-Tokyo; Scandinavian Airlines—Europe-Middle East.

In Boyle's Home, Lady Dottie, Their Cat, Has Become Boss

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP)—We have a new morning ritual in our home. The other morning I was in the bathroom and shaving when my young daughter, Tracy Ann, entered carrying Lady Dottie, her cat.

"Without saying a word Tracy walked over and flushed the toilet three times, while the cat, held aloft in her arms, watched with an eager intensity.

As they started to march out, I asked, "What's the big idea?"

"Nothing, daddy. Lady Dottie just likes to watch waterfalls."

"Well, take her out in the kitchen and turn on the faucet there," I told her crossly.

"I can't."

"Why not?"

"It's not the same thing," said Tracy with that air of exaggerated patience children adopt when explaining something to their ignorant elders. "Lady Dottie doesn't like to watch waterfalls. She likes bathroom waterfalls."

Now, every morning, whether I'm late to work or not, all operations in my bathroom halt while Lady Dottie watches her quota of three waterfalls. We have another bathroom but for some reason Lady Dottie doesn't like to watch waterfalls in it.

I cite this incident only to show how a cat that comes into a house as a guest stays to become its boss. Four months ago when Lady Dottie arrived as a mewling kitten, I was one of the dog-lovingest, cat-detestingest husbands in America.

Now I find my life is surrounded by four white paws. So are the lives of the rest of our family.

We spend most of our time now pleasing Lady Dottie. Her whims are getting more imperious every day.

I can remember when Lady Dottie was overjoyed to get a can of cat food. Not now. The other night I arrived home and smelled a turkey roasting in the oven.

"Who's coming to dinner—President Eisenhower?" I asked.

"No," said my wife, Frances. "I just thought Lady Dottie was getting tired of beef liver. The turkey will make her feel better."

I thought of observing that if I had asked for turkey it would have been granted only at a deathbed request.

But I held my peace. A husband who openly admits he is jealous of a cat has already lost his battlefield. This attitude paid off. Lady Dottie let me have a fair share of the turkey.

13 Arrested In Probe of Drug Selling

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Thirteen persons were under arrest and five other being sought today as suspected members of a coast-wide narcotics ring that had once ordered the underworld slaying of an informer.

Latest ring member to be arrested was Gerald Egan, who was picked up in Honolulu yesterday when the ship on which he was a messman, the Hawaiian Merchant, docked. Authorities said Egan waived proceedings and will be returned here.

A four-month long investigation of the ring's activities was made public Wednesday when a federal grand jury returned a 21-count indictment naming 17 persons as ring members. The indictment also said two of the ring's leaders paid $1,000 each for the slaying of a Portland man who allegedly informed on another ring member.

Col. George White, district supervisor of the federal bureau of narcotics, said the ring had operated since 1957 and had distributed approximately four million dollars worth of heroin and cocaine.

French Probe Death of Rich U.S. National

PARIS, Feb. 20 (AP)—Paris police are investigating Thursday the death of Mrs. Margaret Biddle, a wealthy American whose death brought together the families and influential members of an international colony in Paris.

Authorities appeared to have no reason to doubt that she died of natural causes.

The inquiry was ordered by the court investigating the so-called "Lacaze" case, an affair involving big names and big money.

Rumors Published

Sources close to the palace of justice said there was no reason to believe Mrs. Biddle's death was not natural but that certain allusions had been published and it was natural that officials wanted to be informed.

Mrs. Biddle, 54, was the daughter of William Boyce Thompson. She died June 8, 1956, at her home a few hours after attending a gala dinner. Physicians who had been summoned at the palace of justice had said she suffered a stroke.

Officials at the palace of justice had said that Mrs. Biddle's death was connected with the Lacaze affair. Since no records were available, the police investigation was requested, these sources said.

Among the information requested was the name of the physician signing the death certificate and the cause of death. If no reason is found to throw suspicion on the cause of the death, the investigation will be dropped.

Figures in Probe

Mrs. Biddle was a friend of Mrs. Jacqueline Walter and Jean-Lacaze, two of the main figures in the Lacaze affair.

The Lacaze affair involves the death of Paul Walter, who died in 1957 leaving an estate estimated more than a million dollars, based on lead and zinc mines in Morocco. Mrs. Biddle was a stockholder in these properties.

The Walter fortune was left to Mrs. Walter, who has an adopted son, Jean-Pierre Guillaume. Mrs. Lacaze designated her brother, Jean Lacaze, to administer the Moroccan properties. The main investigation of the affair centers around charges that efforts were made to have Jean-Pierre Guillaume killed, or convicted as a procurer, to keep him from sharing in the estate.

Injured Woman Has Icy Ordeal

CLINTON, Mich., Feb. 20 (AP)—A 37-year-old woman, her hip and wrist broken, crawled in near-zero weather for nearly four hours along deserted rural road Thursday before she reached help.

Elizabeth Cook fell on the ice near her rural Clinton home where she was alone. Unable to regain her feet she decided to try to drag herself to the home of her nearest neighbor, a mile and half away.

She was 150 feet from the house when her neighbor spotted her. Mrs. Cook was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital. Clinton is in southeastern Michigan about 50 miles southwest of Detroit.

Libya Complains About U.S. Bases

TRIPOLI, Libya, Feb. 20 (AP)—The press of this desert kingdom next door to President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab republic has raised renewed chorus of complaint against the big American air base outside Tripoli.

The normally pro-Western royal government at the same time is pleading for a large increase in American economic aid.

Some newspaper comment borrows on a cry for the Americans to save Wheelus airbase, headquarters of the U.S. 17th air force. Its operations stretch from the Sahara to the Italian Alps and from the Atlantic to the Soviet border.

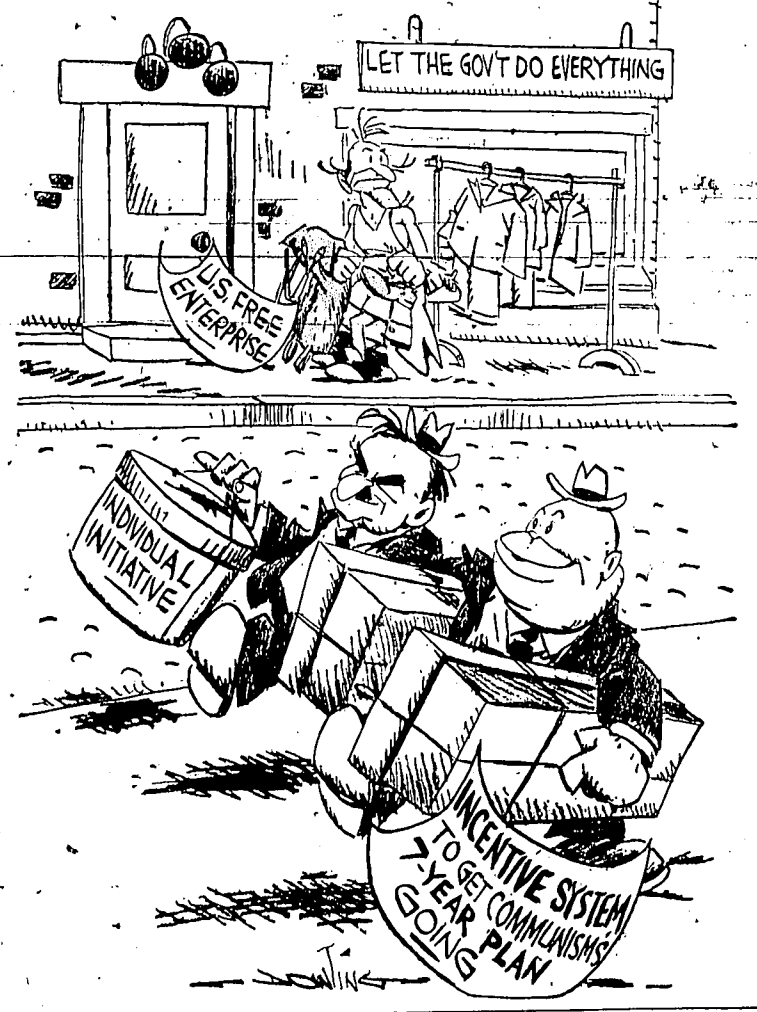

American officials believe the Libyans do not really want the Americans to go home. They think the press campaign is a move to give the Libyans a better hand in negotiating for increased aid.

Stocks Fraud Hearing Held By U.S. Group

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 20 (UPI)—The securities and exchange commission hearing on charges of "fraud and deceit" against Reynolds and company, nationwide brokerage and investment firm, finally got under way here yesterday after being postponed twice.

Reynolds has been accused of misrepresenting uranium stock issues along with Cleek-Tindell company, Spokane, another brokerage firm.

First witness to appear yesterday was Lester S. Harrison, Kellogg, Ida, former president of U and I Uranium, Inc., whose stock the SEC charges was sold by fraud, deceit and forgery on the part of Reynolds.

Harrison testified that the firm was incorporated in 1954 with 10,000,000 shares to develop the Radon and Hot Rock claims in Utah.

In cross-examination, Christopher M. Jenks, Reynolds attorney, sought to draw admissions from Harrison that he gave news media statements that the firm only had six million shares outstanding. Shown news clippings, Harrison denied this, but admitted that in one case he had been given an opportunity to correct a news release on this point and had not done so.

Harrison also disclosed that Wesley J. Roland, former Berkeley, Calif., office manager for Reynolds, had purchased 500,000 shares of the U and I stock at 20 cents a share. Roland is one of 13 persons named in the SEC charges of misrepresenting the uranium stock.

Reynolds has declared that if the firm was involved in any misrepresentation, it was the fault of certain employees who are no longer with the company.

MOSCOW, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Russian author-poet Boris Pasternak said today he has decided to leave his villa in the writers' colony at Peredelinko and go into hiding from western journalists.

He said he would move from his villa "very soon" to avoid the many correspondents who have swarmed into Moscow to report on British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's visit.

Bataan Hero Will Return in Death

CHICAGO, Feb. 20 (AP)—A soldier who once was carried away from the Bataan peninsula—wounded but alive—is going to be borne back in death.

The soldier, Emmett F. Gibson, was a lieutenant in the 192nd tank battalion. He was one of the many men in the unit who came from Maywood, a Chicago suburb.

Memorials for Area Hospital Plans Related

RUPERT, Feb. 20—Plans for accepting memorials for the proposed Minidoka county hospital were announced this week by members of the hospital board. All money contributed now will be matched by Hill-Burton funds, members pointed out.

As an example of special units of service available for the memorials, the Rev. Rhinhold Opp, Paul, board member, explained that the cost for a one-patient room will be $600, and for a two-patient room, $1,500, and a three patient room, $1,800.

Many other specialized treatment rooms will also be suitable for memorials. Joint memorials may be arranged by several units who would be unable to finance one alone.

The Rev. Mr. Opp explained that plaques would register the names of all individuals or groups making donations of more than $100 to the memorial funds, and gifts of under that amount will have the donor's names recorded in a permanent memorial book to be kept in the hospital. Contributions may be left with the county recorder.

Small Notice Due Washington's Day

By United Press International

Washington's birthday will pass with little observance in Idaho. It falls on Sunday.

The major observance will be conducted by the national guard. Gov. Robert E. Smylie yesterday proclaimed Sunday as National Guard Muster day in Idaho and urged the state's residents to pay tribute to members of the guard.

Many of the guard units throughout the state will hold open houses to show the public the type of weapons and equipment utilized in keeping the organization at a ready strength in the event of any type of national emergency.

In issuing the proclamation, Smylie noted that Washington was a lieutenant colonel in the colonial militia, the forerunner of today's national guard.

Keeps Trying

MOSCOW, Feb. 20 (AP)—This northern Idaho city has gone 12 years without a traffic fatality and recently was acclaimed by the National Safety Council for its achievement.

It obviously intends to keep the record clean. This week the Chamber of Commerce listed the solving of city traffic problems as its No. 1 project for 1959.

Debt Complaints Entered in T.F.

A complaint against R. E. Phillips claims he owes $500 on a note given the bureau. The complaint further seeks $150 as attorney fees.

In an action against Martin Hillman, the bureau seeks $453.70 claimed due on a note. Attorney fees of $150 are sought.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Most families who have younger children coming along know what the duty visit means. Each week-end, every holiday, a visit must be made to close family relatives like the grandparents, or uncles and aunts. This is necessary to keep peace in the family, something greatly to be desired.

There are of course the two sides to the family, Dad's and Mother's, and it is rare indeed when no jealousy exists between them. To keep all concerned happy, the visits are alternated. If Christmas visit is made to Grandma White, Easter visit must be paid to Grandma Black. And so it goes.

It happens that son, Peter, aged 3 going on 4, is redheaded and very unlikable to the White family. It also happens that when Peter is at Grandma White's he is very unhappy while sister, aged 5 going on 6, is beaming like a full moon. It could be that Grandma White provided a new doll for sister but quite overlooked Peter, now could it? Of course Grandma loves both alike, but Peter is ornery. He balks. He whines. He wants to go home, and his mother is hard-put to keep him in any kind of order. Finally she says, "Really, they must go." And they do. Father is grim. He is a White. Mother is very still. She is a Black.

Next time the duty visit is due to the White family Peter sits down on the floor and refuses to get his coat on. "I don't wanna go."

Father says, "Now Peter, you know we have to go. Grandma expects us. Come now."

Peter remains fixed on the floor and mother says, "If you are a good boy today and behave nicely, no crying to go home, I'll buy you that nice truck you saw in the window. That's a good boy."

What are you going to do when such things arise? Space the visits more, for both sides. Make them shorter. Provide for the entertainment of the unpreferred one. Let him present the gift to grandma.

I know that children must be taught to respect their elders, but I know, too, that they won't be respected, and certainly they won't be loved, when they show prejudice, dislike and meanness to children. After the children have been exposed to ill treatment, discourtesy or worse, they will not return love or loving action. Who would? One of the best ways to keep family peace, is to keep a distance between the families; never getting too close; never holding grudges, just trying to mind one's own business, which includes the welfare of one's children.

Starting while children are young is the secret of developing correct routine for successful adulthood. Dr. Patri includes his advice in leaflet "P-14, 'Misbehavior.' To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, c/o Times-News, P. O. Box 69, Hiation G, New York 19, N. Y.

Speaking of NECKTIES

Ways to Get Longer Wear From Your Neckties

It's a rare man, indeed, who isn't interested in sporting the best possible wardrobe. However, many of us find that most of our new clothes budget goes into buying suits, coats, trousers and other large items—so that little is left to spend for accessories that are so important to being well-dressed. One answer, at accessory problem, is proper care, so that when a new tie is purchased it doesn't replace one that is being thrown away but expands the number of ties in your collection.

- Five steps necessary in the proper care of neckties are: (1) protecting the tie from beard scratches and face oils; (2) tying the tie from different directions so that all wear is not concentrated on a few threads; (3) proper storage so that ties "spring back" to their original shape; (4) alternating ties so that they will have a chance to rest; and (5) keeping them free from spots and stains.

Red Schoendienst Has Major Chest Surgery

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20 (AP)—Red Schoendienst underwent major lung surgery Thursday to speed his recovery from tuberculosis. His doctors repeated their belief it's unlikely the Milwaukee Braves' star second baseman can play this year, and they remain uncertain about 1960. This leaves the pennant-winning Braves without a likely second-base replacement for spring training. Mel Roach had been regarded as the most probable substitute for Schoendienst, the play-making team leader who just turned 36. But Roach, 26, still is limping on a left knee damaged in a collision last August. There is doubt he will be ready on opening day.

A tubercular portion of Schoendienst's right lung was removed in a three-hour operation at Mount St. Rose hospital. He has been a patient there since his ailment was diagnosed, shortly after the World Series in which he starred in a losing cause.

"Everything went according to plan," said Dr. William A. Werner, one of Schoendienst's physicians. "The surgery should give Schoendienst a better chance for a normal life. Dr. Werner said.

As for the redhead's returning to action in 1960, the physician said: "That's a bit too far ahead to say."

If Roach isn't ready for the start of this season, the second base job may fall to utility man Felix Mantilla or possibly to Casey Wise.

Wilt the Stilt May Sign up With Warriors

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20 (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain is in the bag for the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association for next season, it was intimated Thursday.

Owner Eddie Gottlieb of the Warriors laughed out loud at a report from Minneapolis Wednesday night that Minneapolis promoter Max Winter will head a new NBA franchise at the Chicago stadium with Chamberlain a member of the team.

Pressed to clear the air on the status of Chamberlain, Gottlieb admitted that he had talked with Wilt and with Abe Saperstein, owner of the Harlem Globe Trotters, for whom Chamberlain is playing.

White Gottlieb didn't actually say it, his tone and obvious confidence indicated that Chamberlain, Saperstein and the Philadelphia owner had a meeting of the minds although no contract was signed.

The Warriors actually won't draft Chamberlain until next month's NBA player selection meeting. It's a foregone conclusion Gottlieb will take the big fella as his top choice. Gottlieb obtained rights to the highly publicized former Kansas All-American under a high school territorial rule passed by the NBA some four years ago. Chamberlain attended high school in Philadelphia.

Spain Signs
MILWAUKEE, Feb. 20 (AP)—Left-hander Warren Spahn, the highest paid pitcher in the major leagues, came to terms with the Milwaukee Braves Thursday for an estimated $65,000.
A 22-game winner in 1958, the 37-year-old pitching star is said to have received $60,000 last season.

California Golden Bears Hope to Strengthen Title Claim in Northwest Swing

California's Golden Bears make their final swing into the northwest this week-end where they hope to strengthen their claim on another PCC basketball championship. The surprising Washington Huskies are right behind them—both in the standings and on the road. Washington knocked over Southern California Monday to close to within a half game of the conference-leading Bears. California is expected to add a couple of victories to its 8-2 record when it takes on Washington State at Pullman Friday and moves to Moscow Saturday for a meeting with Idaho. Both hosts are up-minded, but they've been holding up the bottom half of the standings most of the season.

Murtaugh Needs Win To Take Loop Title

Neither the Southside conference championship nor the individual scoring race is decided as the loop heads into its final round Friday night, but there are two definite favorites in each department. The Murtaugh Red Devils, who already have clinched at least a tie, need a victory Friday night to wrap up the conference crown. And Little Art Jones, Hansen, his season already completed, must sit back and see whether his 163 points will be good enough to cop the scoring crown.

Auburn Coach Worries Over Wildcat Game

One reason is that his Auburn basketball team, ranked No. 2 in the nation in The Associated Press survey, lays its 30-game winning streak on the line against third-ranked Kentucky at Lexington Saturday night.

"I've been waking up awfully early," he told a reporter. "But the same thing happened last year along about the end of the season."

It was last season that Auburn's Plainsmen started winning and they haven't stopped yet. Now they hold the longest major college winning streak alive in the nation today.

In order to beat Kentucky on its home court—a feat that precious few teams have achieved in the long reign of Adolph Rupp—Eaves said Auburn "must get a good board game, must get the ball down the court fast and must be near-perfect on defense."

Kentucky has lost only six home basketball games in 18 years. As for special plans aimed at overturning twice-beaten Kentucky, Eaves said flatly: "I'm not talking."

"We might make minor adjustments. But for the most part we'll be playing the same game we've played all season."

Auburn, which plays Kentucky only once a year because they are in different divisions of the Southeastern conference, nipped the Wildcats 64-63 in Birmingham last year.

Glen Burgess Gets Draw in Boise Bout

BOISE, Feb. 20 (AP)—Young Glen Burgess of Meridian, Ida., floored veteran Luther Rawlings of Chicago, but Rawlings fought back to a draw in a 10-round welterweight bout here Thursday night.

Rawlings, 150, ran into a hard right cross and was dropped in the eighth for a nine count. Burgess, 149, crowded Rawlings to the ropes when the Chicago boxer got up, but couldn't finish him off.

Rawlings also finished strong after weathering the stormy eighth round.

Referee Jim Nalley and Judges Henry Algeria and Ken Jackson each scored the bout an even draw.

Bobby Brown, 147, Seattle, out-pointed Joe Sedlo, 152, Twin Falls (4).
Gary Sturdivant, 140, Boise, out-pointed Mike Gilmer, 143, Seattle (4).

Hunt Preserve Bill Voted on In Washington
OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 20 (AP)—State licensing of privately-owned "pay-as-you-shoot" hunting preserves has house approval.
The measure, backed by state game officials, reached the Senate Thursday after the lower branch's 75-4 favoring vote Wednesday.
The bill would authorize licensing of preserves for both public and club use for the shooting of pheasants, quail, chukar partridges and such other species of game birds as the game commission designated.
The preserve would have to be at least 100 acres in size. They would be subject to a $25 annual license fee for the first 100 acres, and $10 an acre for each additional 100 acres.
Under other provisions of the bill, operators of the preserves could set bag limits and shooting restrictions. They would also have to liberate at least 100 of each species of birds to be hunted, and recovery would be limited to 80 per cent of the number released.
Before final passage, the bill was amended to require that boundaries of private preserves do not conflict with county zoning ordinances.

Special Class Is Subject for Gooding PTA

GOODING, Feb. 20—The Opportunity school at Gooding high school was subject of the program presented Tuesday night by Mrs. Helen Mabbutt, teacher, for the Gooding PTA. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert Crist, Gooding Jay-C-ettes member, who showed colored slides of students at work on various projects.

Financed by Gooding, class of school district, the class has had $485 financial assistance to date from Jay-C-ettes of Idaho, who designated Opportunity school a state project this year. Wendell, Twin Falls and Jerome Jay-C-ettes have made gifts of equipment to the school besides the financial support made through the state group.

Mrs. Mabbutt said items needed by the class include scraps of felt, scraps of print, pipe cleaners, corks, paper dollies, crepe paper, gummed crepe paper, plastic scotch tape, library books, wooden beads, model airplane kits, car model kits, types of toys, playhouse furniture for nursery and kitchen, any types of books, woolen material for braiding rugs and hooking rugs.

She expressed appreciation to the Jay-C-ettes.

The speaker said that students in the Opportunity school will not have their greatest success in academic fields but all are learning to read. The educational aims are the same as for normal children but arts, crafts and vocational fields are stressed.

Chronological age of the 10 students is 8 to 18 and the mental age varies from 3 1/2 to 9 years. The students learn slowly, but are most reliable and responsible.

"Physically, mentally and emotionally you take the children as you find them, and go on from there," Mrs. Mabbutt noted.

Mrs. Jean Kilbourn, president, conducted the business meeting. She introduced Mrs. Everett Melles, a past president and life member of the PTA, who presented a life membership to Mrs. Al Williams, a past treasurer, study group chairman, program chairman and procedure book chairman.

In recognition of Founders day Mrs. Kilbourn introduced Mrs. H. M. Thompson, Mrs. William Krahn, Mrs. Dale Butler and Mrs. Everett Melles, all past presidents.

A report on recommendations of the legislative committee on the appropriation for state support to schools was presented by Leland Burress, PTA legislative chairman.

The nominating committee, Mrs. Opal Dickson, Mrs. Lewis Canine, Mrs. Bill Conrad, was announced. Members of the speech class at Gooding school, taught by Dick Stickers, presented entertainment.

Closing Days at Burley Are Told

BURLEY, Feb. 20—Burley stores won't be closed on Monday for Washington's birthday, it was decided at a special merchants meeting this week.

However, stores will be closed on Good Friday, March 27, from noon until 2 p.m. in cooperation with the Cassia Ministerial association, for special church services.

It was announced, the Merchants association will start holding weekly meetings Thursday noon at Nelson's cafe.

Don Osholm reported on a labor meeting he attended in Boise this week, along with Norman Nielson and Harold Holmes.

JOINS IN OBSERVANCE

HEYBURN, Feb. 20—Marine Sgt. Gerald R. Haxby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur L. Haxby, Heyburn, took part in the 18th anniversary celebration of the second marine division at Camp LeJeune, N. C.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By BOB REESE

The little man with the ridiculous mustache—the man no one laughed at any more—looked at himself in his rooms, as he always did before important decisions. He refused to see anyone, ignoring the presence of the British and Polish ambassadors who were waiting to see him.

When Adolph Hitler emerged, he had made the decision which launched the world into the tragedy of war. That morning, German troops invaded Poland.

Nazi planes rained death on Warsaw. At the Polish border, a pitifully small force fought back against the overwhelming weight of men and guns and tanks shown against them. In Paris and London, urgent Cabinet meetings were called. Shortly afterward, the British and French parliaments convened.

All efforts for peace had failed. Adolph Hitler had made his decision. World War II had begun. Remember the year?

The memory of depression was still fresh in all our minds then, and those of us who bought new cars did a lot of shopping around, looking for the best deal we could get from a reliable dealer.

The year was 1939. Getting the best deal you can from a reliable dealer who stands behind the sale makes good sense today, too. See us about the terrific deals we're making now on the new Dodge, Plymouth, Swedish Volvo, Commercial Volkswagen or Fiat. Buy with confidence—and save money, too!
