Khrushchev Says German Issue Can't Be Discussed By Russians and 3 Allies

MOSCOW, Feb. 24 (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, emerging from two days of talks with British Prime Minister Harold MacMillan, threw cold water today on the West's plan for a four-power meeting on Germany. Khrushchev told a political rally in the Kremlin that the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and France cannot discuss German reunification because "this is a question for the two German states themselves."

ABA OK's Censure Of U.S. High Court

CHICAGO, Feb. 24 (UPI)—Resolutions questioning supreme court rulings on accused communists and recommending remedial legislation by congress were passed overwhelmingly today by the house of delegates of the American Bar Association. Principal criticism from the floor was on clauses referring to the supreme court of the United States but in each case motions to strike the clauses were voted down. The report, prepared by ABA's special committee on communist tactics and strategy, previously had been approved by the ABA board of governors but needed the vote of the delegates to become association policy.

Texas Schools Said Teaching 'Atheist' Ideas

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 24 (AP)—Some of Texas' most prominent institutions of learning, including Southern Methodist university, were accused yesterday of teaching atheism. A group of four state representatives lined at a legislative probe as church and education leaders denied or questioned the charges of godlessness. Reps. Bill Hollowell, Grand Saline; Joe Chapman, Sulphur Springs; Ben Lewis, Dallas, and W. T. Dungan, McKinney, made the charges. They said they would ask the Texas legislature for what they termed remedial legislation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—How is it that U. S. government workers enjoy plush flights overseas, including free cocktails, while taxpayers travel just along with sandwiches. Rep. Thor C. Tollefson, R. Wash., raised this complaint yesterday in a letter to the government operations committee. He asked for a committee inquiry.

British Say Stop American Wheat

LONDON, Feb. 24 (AP)—A Laborite member of parliament asserted yesterday that American wheat has been so seriously contaminated by deadly strontium 90 from atomic tests that it should be barred from Britain. The Laborite, Konni Zilliacus, raised the matter with the British health minister, Derek Walker-Smith, during a question period in the house of commons. Zilliacus said 1958 samplings of U. S. wheat averaged 50 per cent above the atomic energy commission's safe limit for strontium 90, a "suspected" major cause of "bone cancer."

Nozzle Developed To Guide Missiles

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—A successful test of a new movable nozzle, made of molybdenum, for the Polaris missile was reported today. The Washington Post quoted navy officials as calling it "a major technological breakthrough" which will improve the performance and reliability not only of the Polaris, but also of the Minuteman intercontinental missile now under development. Both are powered with solid fuel.

By altering the direction of the exploding hot gases, the movable nozzle can control the steering and stability.

Drivers' Measure Gets OK

BOISE, Feb. 24 (UPI)—The Idaho house today voted to raise the minimum driving age from 14 to 16 after passing a bill imposing stiff license suspension penalties on teen-age drivers. The 16-year minimum bill was approved by a vote of 34 to 23 and sent to the senate.

Backers appealed for its adoption on the ground that it was compatible with the previously-passed measure which set mandatory license suspension penalties for young drivers from 14 to 18. The 16-year-old minimum age bill carried an exemption for 14- and 15-year-olds engaged in occupational driving.

There was less opposition to the other measure which would have permitted 14- and 15-year-olds to drive. The roll call vote on that was 50 to 8.

Missing Idaho Couple Found Dead in Canal

BOISE, Feb. 24 (UPI)—The bodies of an elderly couple missing since last Wednesday were found today in their 1957 Chrysler sedan submerged in the New York canal south of here.

Officers said the vehicle apparently slipped off the dirt road bordering the canal and dived headlong into seven feet of water. The victims were identified as Mr. H. R. Gardner, 72, and his wife Minnie, 68. They were owners and operators of the Nampa Business college.

Jury Selected To Hear T. F. Suit on Land

Seventeen prospective jurors were questioned by opposing attorneys in Twin Falls district court Tuesday morning before a panel of 12 was selected to hear a land condemnation suit brought by the Idaho board of highway directors against the owners and lessees of a triangular lot at the southwest corner of Five Points east.

In a suit filed Dec. 7, the directors said they attempted in good faith to purchase the property in order to complete right of way acquisitions for the proposed Kimberly road project.

Orbiting Russian Citizen Predicted

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24 (AP)—Rockwell expert Willy Ley predicts a man, probably a Soviet citizen, will be put in orbit around the Earth within two years. The German-born scientist said a manned station will be established in space about six to eight years from now.

NEWS BULLETINS

BILOXI, Miss., Feb. 24 (UPI)—The executive committee of the national governors conference tentatively agreed today to make a mid-summer trip to the Soviet Union if at least five of the nine members are able to go.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UPI)—The house banking committee stamped its approval today on a plan that would permit lower down payments for middle range and higher-priced houses under FHA. The higher-priced homes would be those most affected. The legislation would permit lenders to offer terms whereby a $25,000 house could be bought under FHA with a down payment of as little as $2,605. The present minimum is $5,980. For a $10,000 home, the down payment under the legislation would be $655 instead of $780.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—The supreme court today ruled the states may tax net income of out-of-state corporations on the basis of earnings within the state. The 8 to 3 ruling was on cases coming from Georgia and Minnesota, but has important significance for all states and hundreds of corporations.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, Feb. 24 (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders emerged with an uneasy truce today after a revolt led by Walter Reuther against AFL-CIO President George Meany's one-man direction of federation policies. It wasn't exactly clear who had won. But Reuther and other leaders of the former-CIO felt their voices would be reflected more in the policies of the merged, 14-million-member organization.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—A one-time dealer in obscene records, Carl J. Burkhardt, invoked the fifth amendment today on whether he played a role in a reported gangster plot to flood the Midwest with counterfeit jukebox records.

Prober Finds Favoritism In Handling State Lands; Highway Board Bill Dies

BOISE, Feb. 24 (AP)—A legislative investigation has shown there has been "favoritism and partiality" in handling lease and sale of state lands, the Idaho senate was told today. Earlier the senate refused by a 27 to 11 vote to reconsider its action yesterday in defeating a bill that would have provided for reorganization of the state highway board. Sen. J. Reid Hoggan, D., Franklin, a member of a special committee named by the senate to investigate alleged irregularities, said the state is losing thousands of dollars in revenue because, he contended, there is little or no competition in the awarding of leases of state lands for grazing. Hoggan's report was the first from the committee since it began its study. It was authorized, on almost straight party line vote, to make a preliminary study to determine whether a more intensive interim investigation should be made.

Johnson Remains Silent About Demo Attack on His Leadership

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UPI)—Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson brushed off a fellow Democrat's attack on his leadership tactics today with the studied silence of one who has the votes—and knows it. Friends said Johnson, now in Texas with a touch of flu, probably would ignore the senate speech by Sen. William Proxmire, D., Wis., who charged that typical Democratic senators have "nothing to do" with setting their own party's program. But there was no doubt that Proxmire had touched a spot sensitive for many Democrats who have privately complained they have too little to say about senate affairs.

Student Facing Jail When School Closes

Darrell Crystal, 19, Burley, was fined $250 Monday by Burley Justice of the Peace J. L. Weldon for drunken driving with $125 of the amount suspended. He was also given a 60-day jail sentence, temporarily suspended so he can return to school at Brigham Young university, Provo. The justice ordered him to serve the sentence following completion of the school term. Crystal also was fined $100 and costs, with $50 suspended, for driving on a suspended driver's license, and sentenced to 30 days in jail. This sentence also will be temporarily withheld until he finishes his freshman year at BYU.

More Snow

New snow was reported Tuesday in both the northern and southern mountain regions of Magic Valley. Two inches fell in the Hailey area Monday night and motorists were advised to use chains over Galena summit on highway 93. State highway office personnel reported Tuesday morning just enough snow fell to cover the highway in Wood river valley and it was expected to be melted by noon. Other highways in the southern portion of Magic Valley were reported dry. Three inches of snow fell Sunday night at Magic Mountain south of Hansen, and the ski lift will be in operation Wednesday, according to Claude F. Jones, operator.

Idaho's Road Toll Reaches 33 Total

AMERICAN FALLS, Feb. 24 (AP)—The death of a southeast Idaho man put the 1959 traffic toll at 33 today, seven more than at the corresponding time last year when the state went on to set a record of 270. Abraham Aguirre, 30, American Falls, died yesterday of multiple injuries received Sunday night. The car in which he was riding hit a highway construction barrier and rolled over four times.

Time Out

BOISE, Feb. 24 (AP)—Sen. A. W. Naegle, R., Bonneville, the senate minority leader, displayed a blue elephant yesterday presented him by Sen. R. M. Wetherell, D., Elmore. On the bottom of the small figure an inscription noted that the elephant, "like the dodo bird, is becoming extinct."

Smoking Habit Strikes Boy, 2; Substitutes Don't Please Him

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 24 (AP)—A 2-year-old Peoria boy about a month ago picked up a lighted cigarette and smoked it. Next day he wanted another. He got it. Now the little tot, Lawrence Smith, smokes five cigarettes a day. His mother, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, says she is worried because she can't break him of the habit. "I've tried," Mrs. Smith said, "but Lawrence cries and cries until he gets his cigarette. He wants his 'smoke'."

County Seeks 'Solution' for Budget Woes

Twin Falls county commissioners are "open to any practical solution" to stretching an approximately $170,000 indigent fund budget to the point where it will pay the bill. County Commissioner Chairman Russell (Bud) Larsen said Monday in a letter to local druggists.

Druggists from the area have protested a recent statement by Dr. Willard Clark, county physician, who at a meeting with the commissioners said, "We are paying at least twice as much for these drugs as they can be purchased for."

Dr. Clark was referring to drugs purchased and used in the treatment of indigent persons. The drugs are being bought from local pharmacists.

Dr. Clark outlined a plan to the county commissioners and the county health board which he said he believed would cut drug costs. His plan would be to buy drugs wholesale and dispense them from a county pharmacy, as is being done in other parts of the county.

Monday, Chairman Larsen said, "We told the local druggists that we are not picking on anyone, but merely trying to watch the indigent fund."

"We are interested in trying to stretch a $170,000 indigent fund budget so it will pay the bill." "We are just examining all possibilities and we are open to any practical suggestions in that respect."

Students 'Drifting' From Engineering

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 24 (AP)—The United States faces a shocking drift of new students away from engineering, just when more engineers are most needed, a noted educator said today. Opening a seminar of the Engineering societies of New England, J. B. Wilbur, head of the department of civil and sanitary engineering of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, deplored the tendency to label the combined accomplishment of engineering and science as "scientific achievements."

"When mankind finally lands on the moon—in a space ship designed by engineers, built by engineers and manned by engineers—it will doubtless be hailed in the press as another scientific achievement," Wilbur said.

Favoritism Is Seen by New Probing Unit

He noted revenue from such sales would go into the state school endowment fund.

Sen. A. W. Nagle, R., Bonneville, also a member of the committee said the report "deserves careful scrutiny." But he said there may be a difference of opinion as to policy.

He cited dustbowl conditions that have developed in some areas because of the using of grazing land for farming.

On another front, efforts to solve the controversy over a distribution formula for state school funds continued. Sen. Nellie Cline Stenson, D., Bannock, chairman of the senate education committee, said a new formula was being prepared.

The senate refused by a vote of 27 to 11 to reconsider its action yesterday in defeating a bill providing for reorganization of the state highway board. The vote Monday was 5-27 to 12.

Another measure, however, which was killed Monday 24 to 13 was brought for another try by a vote of 24 to 17. The bill sets a minimum salary of $4,500 for law enforcement officers in cities and counties of more than 5,000 population.

The revised bill was put on the third reading calendar to follow consideration of a proposed constitutional amendment which would provide home rule for cities.

The proposed amendment passed 41 to 0 and now goes to the house. It submits to the voters at the next election a proposed amendment giving the cities the right to draft their own constitutions.

The city could have to be adopted by voters and if approved would be the basic law of the municipality. At present legislative action is necessary before cities can change provisions of their basic laws.

Two other highway measures were held over for senate action.

One would appropriate two million dollars for the highway law enforcement office building and the other makes available the regular highway department appropriation of $9 million dollars in easement state funds and federal road building grants.

The senate passed a handful of bills yesterday in the first night meeting of the session.

Notice of reconsideration was given by Sen. Vernon Daniel, R., Payette, after passage of a bill which would allow school districts to levy either two or five mills for the plant facilities funds.

Senators also passed bills narrowing the qualifications for mental illness in prospective patients at state hospitals and including state and municipal employees under the Idaho minimum wage law.

Legislative action was completed on ratification of the Western interstate corrections compact. Backed by Gov. Robert J. Smylie, this would permit state governments to pool detention facilities for special prisoners.

The senate approved a June 30, 1960, deadline for completion of school reorganization.

A bill to let counties and municipalities retain 40 per cent of traffic fines and forfeitures instead of the present 10 per cent got through the house. But opponents said it unduly favored counties which have port of entry stations.

The house also voted to increase travel expense allowances for state employees, up to 10 cents per mile and hotel bills plus $6.50 within the state and $7.50 outside.

The "municipal home rule" principle was defeated in argument which resulted in a defeat of a police officers' minimum salary bill. Reconsideration was denied.

The measure would set the minimum annual salary for most police officers at $4,500. Sen. A. W. Nagle, R., Bonneville, minority leader, said he opposed setting the salaries at the state level and said cities should be allowed home rule charters under which they could make the changes themselves.

The deadline for introduction of bills by all but four committees passed in the senate. Twenty-eight got in under the wire, including a measure providing appropriations for state officials along recommendations made by the governor.

ABA Votes to Question U. S. Court Rulings

Its basic resolution of authority for the committee on un-American activities, setting forth that the purpose in creating the committee is to study the operation of existing laws and the requirements of further legislation.

That the American Bar association recommended that the house of representatives continue to maintain a committee to investigate matters relating to national security with particular emphasis on communist activities.

That the association recommended to congress the prompt and careful consideration and study of recent decisions of the U. S. supreme court and passage of amendments to the laws involved so as to remove any doubt as to the intent of congress.

One of the committee's key proposals would give the states power to punish sedition against the United States. The supreme court has held that this is a purely federal function.

Peter Campbell Brown, New York, chairman of the committee which prepared the resolutions, said the report was "a sober series of recommendations for what we believe to be appropriate action in fields in which congress can act."

John D. Randall, Cedar Rapids, Ia., was nominated to be the next president of the ABA. His election will take place at the August meeting in Miami Beach.

This year for the first time state delegates also nominated a president-elect who will serve as an aide to the president during his term of office before assuming the presidency himself in 1960. The president-elect is Whitney North Seymour, New York, former assistant solicitor-general of the United States in the Hoover administration.

Houses Poses New Drivers' Age Measure

Groups A and B would bring a minimum of six-months suspension.

Shortly afterward, the house prepared to take up consideration of another bill which would put the minimum driver age from 14 to 16 but would provide exemptions for occupational driving by 14- and 15-year-olds.

Several members announced that they would vote for both Higer's bill and the one following. They said that the two were compatible. However, Higer insisted that his bill would "do the job" of inculcating responsibility among teen-age drivers in a positive "rather than negative way."

"This bill is aimed directly at kids who are amating off," he said.

Rep. C. A. Vost, R., Canyon, said Higer deserved a "vote of confidence on his bill—it gets at the problem." He said he would have preferred to go along with a bill raising the minimum driving age to 16, but he doubted this session would pass such a measure.

"This is the next best thing," he added.

"I'm also going to support this measure," said Rep. W. L. Hendrix, R., Ada. "I think this will probably put the kids on their honor."

But Rep. Jenkin Palmer, R., Oneida, said he preferred the 16-year-old minimum bill as "much more adequate."

Rep. Bill Webster, D., Kootenai, remarked that "this is the first piece of legislation which is palatable. I'll handle the situation very nicely."

An effort was made to put off a vote on Higer's bill until after the other teen-age driving measure had been considered, but the house refused to go along.

Both house Majority Leader Don Pieper, D., Bonneville, and Minority Leader W. D. Eberle, R., Ada., supported Higer's bill.

Triple Rent Case Started in Court
Twin Falls American Legion Post No. 7, Inc., filed a suit in probate court Monday to collect three times the amount of rent allegedly owed the corporation by Mr. and Mrs. "John Doe" Hansen.

Legion officials claim that the Hansens orally leased an apartment at the North Locust apartments, owned by the Legion, agreed to pay $36 a month rent, took possession of the apartment last year and have refused to pay any rent.

It is claimed the Hansens owe a total of $213 in rent. Legion officials say the Hansens ignored a request on Oct. 25 to quit the premises within 10 days.

The court is asked to issue a writ of restitution authorizing the sheriff to remove the Hansens from the property. Treble damages totaling $480 are sought.

Attorneys for the Legion are Kramer and Walker.

Air Force to Get Its C130 Airship Soon

PANAMA, Feb. 24 (AP)—The air force expects to begin receiving soon a new model of its C130 transport plane which conceivably could speed its operations direct from U. S. bases to a battle drop in Europe.

A new model of the C130 transport plane for delivery within the next few months, will have a non-stop range up to 4,000 miles, compared with about 2,300 miles for the present C130s.

The air force currently has transport planes capable of carrying tremendous loads for considerable distances. But they lack several critical features.

Powered by conventional piston engines, they are slower than the C130s driven by jet turbines linked to propellers. Their troop carrying compartments are not pressurized to make possible carrying passengers at high altitudes which are safer in combat and often make possible higher speeds. Moreover, the giant C130s are not intended for use by paratroopers, for jumps into combat, as are the C130s.

The army would like to test out the ability to fly a whole battle group of paratroopers (about 1,400 men) to Europe and parachute them down directly into a mock battle.

Major Gen. Robert F. Slink, head of the strategic army command, was asked by newsmen if there were any plans to make a European test similar to the just concluded exercise Banyan Tree, in which 1,300 men were flown from the United States and dropped into Panama. He said "I have had a letter in that for the last year and a half" from army headquarters at the Pentagon.

DETROIT, Feb. 24 (AP)—Traffic court cases were dismissed by the hundreds yesterday.

Court wasn't supposed to be in session at all.

The police department admitted it got confused. It overlooked the fact that Monday would be the legal holiday for George Washington's birthday — which fell on a Sunday.

Some 4,000 tickets were issued with a Feb. 23 court date.

Judge John D. Watts dismissed cases without prejudice. This means the charges can be made again later.

He said this would be done on the serious charges or against those with bad driving records.

Prelude to Spring

Maps illustrate U.S. weather bureau's 30-day forecast for mid-February to mid-March. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense, but an estimate of average temperatures and precipitation for the period.

Temperature for the period mid-February to mid-March is expected to exceed normal in most parts of the nation, except for northern portions of the East and Middle West.

Precipitation predicted by the U. S. weather bureau for the period mid-February to mid-March indicates light to moderate amounts for most of the country.

Mideast Is Topic of Foreign Policies Discussion Program

Peace in the Middle East and the question of whether Americans are realistic about communist powers throughout the world are slated for discussion this week and next by area residents participating in the 1959 Great Decisions foreign policy program.

Program participants will be considering four basic questions concerning the Middle East, forces at work, major problems to be dealt with, whose job it is to develop the area and what policies the United States should follow in regard to the Middle East.

As for communist power in the world, those taking part in the discussions will consider the kind of power being built by communists, stresses and strains within the communist bloc, importance of communist doctrine, foreign policy tools available to communists and communists' challenge to United States foreign policy.

In regard to the Middle East, for example, specific issues to be considered are Arab nationalism, or "Nasserism," prospects for an Arab-Israeli peace, presence of the United Nations peace force in the area and the competing impact of United States and Russian economic and military aid to the area.

Communist aid programs also will be considered in more detail during discussions of the realities of com-

Plans Started To Save West 'Sinking City'

LONG BEACH, Calif., Feb. 24 (UPI)—Plans are under way here for a 60-million dollar crash program to save the city from sinking into the sea—which it's been doing for 19 years—by flooding oil fields with sea water.

Major oil producers will cooperate with the city. The money is to be spent for a network of miles and miles of pipes and 250 water wells in the 20-square-mile egg-shaped oil field.

The crash program was advanced by a recent federal government injunction which sought closure of the oil field and a U.S. navy threat to abandon its 175-million dollar shipyard here.

Some 800-million barrels of oil have been pumped from the area since the first wells were sunk at Wilmington and Terminal Island in December, 1936. The field is said to be the nation's second richest.

In 1941 the roof of the field was discovered to be sinking at the rate of about one foot a year. The Southern California Edison company steam generating plant at the center of the field, has sunk 25 feet since 1941.

The Ford Motor company plant has sunk 15 feet and the seven-story city hall, which is two and a half miles from the field, has dropped four feet in the past 18 years. Some buildings have moved as well as three feet horizontally as well as sinking.

Moving Jews Thrill Israel, Scare Nasser

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY AP Foreign News Analyst

An outpouring of some thousands of Jews from behind the Iron Curtain into Israel in recent months has aroused keen hopes among Israeli leaders and great fears among Arabs.

The new immigrants from eastern Europe come largely from communist-Romania.

In January and the first half of February, according to official Israeli sources, 6,000 arrived in Israel. In 1958 not quite 13,000 immigrants from eastern Europe resettled there.

More Expected Zionist officials have been predicting that as many as 100,000 might come in 1959.

But the exodus from Romania, which has the second largest Jewish population among communist countries, 250,000, is not the heart of the matter. Lurking in the background is the real question which excites both Israelis and Arabs in diametrically opposite directions—the future of two to three million Jews of the Soviet Union.

These Soviet Jews now are not permitted to emigrate. For several decades with few exceptions no emigration has been allowed by the Soviet government. Zionist leaders claim that probably most Soviet Jews would go to Israel if they had the chance.

Soviet Change Possible Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion has said there are reasons—which he is not free to divulge—for thinking that the factors underlying the change in policy toward Romanian Jews might lead to the dropping of barriers to the exit of Soviet Jewry.

Arab reaction has been stormy. The Arab League council meets in Cairo March 2. Bitter attacks on the Israeli immigration policy are expected.

Western observers in the Middle East have reported that the east-European migration to Israel is threatening to produce a strong anti-Soviet reaction among Arabs.

The Soviets, disturbed by the Arab reaction, have been quick to issue vigorous denials through the Soviet press.

Two rookies on the spring roster of the Detroit Tigers were born in Detroit. They are pitchers Bob Bruce and Gerald Davis.

TV Faces too Familiar, New Ones Needed, Singer States

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—If the faces you see on television seem terribly familiar, there's a reason. "Television is badly in need of fresh faces," said Merv Griffin...

Griffin, singing emcee, feels the industry needs to develop a system by which it can uncover and help mature outstanding young entertainers.

"There is no sure way today for promising performers to be discovered," he said. "It's harder than ever for great instrumentalists, for example, to get started."

"The colleges in particular are being overlooked. They produce concert artists, but they why don't they have universal appeal."

Griffin thinks the discovery of fresh talent today is largely a hit-or-miss matter. "A kid runs out and makes a record, rolls it to the nearest copy store where they usually toss it into the wastebasket," he said.

"Suppose they do put it out and it becomes an overnight hit. The kid usually dies overnight, too. Very few last. They don't get the training."

Help Is Rushed to Nevada Homeless LAS VEGAS, Nev. Feb. 24 (AP)—Tents, food and clothing were sped yesterday to unemployed and homeless workers camped near a foul-smelling creek 65 miles northeast of this glittering gambling resort.

Estimates of the workers range from 600 to 1,000. They came to the fields in the Moapa valley a month early because of a boll weevil invasion in Arizona cotton fields. And they came in force, many more than the available housing can accommodate.

Gov. Grant Sawyer declared a state of emergency in the camp area, saying "There are children sick and in the hospital. There is some fear of an epidemic."

Michigan Has More Trouble Over Finance

LANSING, Mich., Feb. 24 (UPI)—Michigan is so broke it can't pay for state transportation to its cities unless they spend money on travel to other states. A virtual ban on travel in a series of measures, by one of the wealthiest states to ease a budget crisis, that finds red tape hampering efforts to bail the state out of its financial straits.

State Controller James Miller said he will not approve travel requests unless a "direct and immediate" financial gain for the state can be shown.

Credit Ruins Out The big ten universities of Michigan and Michigan State are three months behind in receipt of state appropriations. They tried borrowing from banks but credit ran out. Secondary schools have been forced to borrow about 50 million dollars because the state can't meet its obligations. The state is expected to reach 110 million dollars by July 1.

Researchers Test New Tree Drying

NEW YORK (UPI)—North Woods researchers are testing a method of drying out trees before they are felled in a bid to cut handling costs. The newprint information comes from a report that since demounted trees are lighter and therefore easier to ship by rail, standing trees are killed, chemically, then left to lose up to 25 per cent of their weight by evaporation before being felled.

The committee said a solution of sodium arsenite is painted on the base of the tree where a two inch strip of bark has been removed. The spring flow of sap carries the poison up through the tree and kills it in a few weeks.

Three to 12 months later the dead tree is thoroughly dried out and is felled and shipped to the mill.

Back Door Spending Bills to Be Opposed, Budge Declares

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (Special)—The house rules committee will continue to oppose "back door" spending bills, Rep. Hamer Budge, R., Ind., said here, despite failure of a resolution banning such bills from congress.

Representative Budge said the opposition of Speaker Sam Rayburn, D., Tex., indicated there were enough votes to kill a rule change requiring all spending measures to go through the appropriations committee. The resolution had been backed by Rep. Howard Smith, D., Va., rules committee chairman.

Budge said "back door" spending was increasing through the scheme of loans from the federal treasury. Such loans, often unsecured and not paid back, add to the U. S. deficit but do not show up on voting records.

A prime example mentioned here, was a minerals-subsidy bill proposed last year. It would have been financed by a five million dollar treasury loan to the interior department. When the half-billion was gone, only additional appropriations could have paid it back.

"We object to that kind of thing and we'll continue to try to get such bills amended," Budge said.

Despite Rayburn's opposition, hearings on the resolution were scheduled to resume today.

Hiring Son Is Called Error

DES MOINES, Feb. 24 (AP)—Rep. Steven V. Carter, D., Ia., says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, the Des Moines Register said today.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying "I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it."

"I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter," the newspaper quoted Carter, "and I am going to adjust it within a few days. I've been ill with cancer and Steven has been carrying a lot of the load for me. My illness and the fact I was told that I might not live many weeks probably resulted in my making a misjudgment as to what I should pay Steve."

The freshman congressman said previously his son, a law student at George Washington university, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carter told the Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and "it is about 60-40 against me."

Henry Hopes to Invent Tonic To Encourage Hair's Fallout

BY HENRY McEMORE I walked straight from the barber's chair to the book store today and bought the biggest, best and most expensive chemistry textbook in stock.

The next step will be the installation in the guest room of a small but complete laboratory.

Then, if my experiments prove successful, the middle of the year will find me in the hair tonic business—but with a new twist.

My tonic will work in reverse. It will encourage the hair to fall out.

Millions of American men spend millions of dollars each year in an effort to foil baldness. They spend millions of dollars to have their hair cut at any where from a buck to two bucks a shot.

It cost me $2 to get my hair cut today. To the man who remembers when a haircut, with a fringe thrown in, was only 25 cents, this price makes him more uncomfortable than clippings down the back of his neck.

To be a success, the tonic I aim to concoct must make a man absolutely bald. It must make the user's head as free of hair as a window-pane. For if it isn't, he will be charged the same price for a haircut as if he wore a lion's mane.

It is this refusal of barbers to have a scale of prices for the amount of hair that a man wears that is the most disturbing factor in today's prices. There are some men who should have to pay two dollars, maybe three. But there are lots of us who don't have 10 cents worth of hair, so to speak, and are in and out of the chair before we can read a page in a magazine.

I haven't ever counted the number of hairs on my head, but 113 is a good guess. That means I am paying upwards of two cents for each hair clipped. Landscape gardeners don't charge that much for a hedge.

And the man next to me, even if he happens to have 5,765,324 hairs on his head, is handed the same check.

My tonic—if it works—will save me close to $75 a year. But I'll be bald. Well, what of it? When a man gets down to 113 or 114 hairs on his head, there is no use kidding himself. For all intents and purposes he is bald. A tuft here, a tuft there, adds nothing to beauty, it detracts. If anything, just as stray patches of grass in a flagstone walk mar its appearance.

No one has every fully explained why a head covered with hair is necessarily more attractive than one without a stitch of hair on it. I don't believe it is. There is a simplicity about a bald head that no other kind of head has. No curls, no furrows, just straight-forward and honest.

It has the pure, untouched quality of the diamond, the putting shot.

the watermelon, the newly opened can of shortening. It is functionalism at its very best.

So watch for "Old Baldy" when it hits the market. It will be sold in sizes to fit every purse and every head. And its slogan, "Bald as an eagle" will be no idle boast. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

8 T. F. Youths Due to Attend YMCA Parley

Eight Twin Falls high school students attended a YMCA youth and government training conference Tuesday at the Idaho State college campus at Pocatello.

R. V. Root, associate area secretary of the Pacific northwest area council of the YMCA, said the Pocatello meeting is the last of a series of three pre-legislative meetings held in the state prior to the YMCA-legislature in Boise in April.

The delegates wrote a house or senate bill at the conference on a subject of their own choice. They discussed legislative functions and how bills become laws. A discussion on parliamentary procedure was held, and a motion picture on legislative process viewed.

Three state officers were elected, including a speaker of the house, secretary of the senate and a senate chaplain.

The other two meetings were held at Moscow and Boise. Robert Tunnicliff, Moscow, has been elected youth governor.

Delegates from Twin Falls to the Pocatello meetings are Steve Lincoln, Arlan Call, Glen Voyles, Dee Larsen, Jim Whitehead, Gary Craner, Bob Carlson and Roger Detweiler. Harold Brown, a faculty member, will attend in an advisory capacity.

Root said the Twin Falls delegation will elect a senator and a representative and two alternates to attend the Boise-legislature. About 80 Idaho high schools will participate in the state-wide legislative meeting, April 10-11. Idaho was the second state in the union to adopt such a youth legislature, Root said. This will be the 24th session.

Root said of the youth legislature, which is sponsored by the YMCA, "We think the program gives young people a better sense of their governmental responsibilities."

Expenses for Tuesday's trip are underwritten by the local chapter of the YMCA, of which E. E. Marlow is president.

Professor Clark S. Carille, Idaho State college was in charge of the planning committee for Tuesday's meeting which was held at Frazier hall.

Auto Firms Loan Trend Explained

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UPI)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, D. Tenn., said today banks and independent money-lenders would lose more than 60 per cent of the nation's new car financing business unless auto manufacturers are barred from the credit field.

Kefauver, chairman of the senate anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee, made the statement in opening hearings on bills to prohibit auto makers from financing sales of new cars.

Kefauver said that in 1954 the General Motors Acceptance Corporation (GMAC) financed about 68 per cent of the time-payment sales of General Motors dealers.

"If Ford and Chrysler re-enter the finance business and are as successful as General Motors," he said, "independent finance companies and the banks would be excluded from more than 60 per cent of the total financing on new cars."

Blaze Victim May Be Cause of Fire

IDAHO FALLS, Feb. 24 (AP)—One of the three victims who died may have been responsible for starting the fire that killed them, officials say.

Three children of Mrs. Dorothy Hansen, 27-year-old divorcee, died in the blaze that destroyed a two-story frame house here Sunday. Killed were Bruce and Wendie, 4-year-old twins, and 2-year-old Kevin.

Asst. Fire Chief Ken Dearden said investigation indicates that Bruce went downstairs before the fire broke out at 7 a.m. and turned on a range.

A hamper of clothes or some other combustible material fell onto the stove, Dearden said, and Bruce apparently fled back upstairs, where all three children died.

Roads in Color Are Considered

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24 (AP)—The latest idea in highways is dyed cement.

They're talking of different colored highways to help drivers through confusing intersections and road forks.

The proposal was outlined to reporters by Douglas McHenry, president of the American Concrete Institute, holding its convention here.

Damage to the Mercury was estimated at $200 and the calf was valued at $180. Owner of the animal was Edward Sharp, Buhl. State Patrolmen Walter Kirkley and Richard Burns investigated.

Bill on Labor Labeled Poor By Discussion

Following a report on activities of the state legislature by John Breckenridge, consensus of the Twin Falls county Farm Bureau was that house Bill No. 139, known as "the little Taft-Hartley bill," was a poor bill for farmers.

Breckenridge also reported that no agreement between producer, processor and dealer groups had been reached on proposed potato legislation.

Reporting for the commodities committee, Melvin Sackett spoke of the unfair trade practice on dairy products and asked the bureau to join with the dairy commission in correcting the problem. He also noted that the bean commission has developed a bean which is quick-cooking.

All county Farm Bureau members are asked to attend a dinner Saturday night in the Twin Falls Grange hall, Mrs. Heber Loughmiller announced for the women's committee. Meat, potatoes, rolls, coffee and punch will be provided for the 7 o'clock dinner, with members asked to bring salad or vegetables and table service.

A film on central Idaho will be shown by O. A. Keelner following the dinner. Mrs. Loughmiller and Mrs. Donald Hines reported on the women's civil defense council which was organized recently. Mrs. Loughmiller also reported on the library committee petition for a county library and stated that many people felt the outlying communities would not benefit enough to warrant the cost.

Monroe Hayes, reporting on the state and directors' meeting, mentioned several of the problems facing legislators, stating that more has been spent on education than the other three most expensive operations of the state combined, those of highways, public welfare and health and hospitals. He pointed out that because of inflationary trends, $7,500 annual earnings are required for the standard of living provided by $3,000 in 1939.

Committee directors gave reports and the group voted to investigate the proposed highway district consolidation to determine if it is to the best interests of the community. Refreshments were served.

New Reactor Starts

IDAHO FALLS, Feb. 24 (UPI)—A new million-dollar reactor designed to investigate exterior fuel element heat on fast reactor fuel elements went into operation at the national reactor testing station last night.

The Idaho operations office of the atomic energy commission said it was the 18th reactor to go into operation in the Gem state. Six others are under construction.

More Road Limits Are Put in Force

BOISE, Feb. 24 (AP)—The Idaho highway department widened today the areas in which highway load and speed limits will be effective as a means of preventing damage to road surfaces softened by the spring breakup.

Limits were effective at noon today on a number of roads in Franklin, Bannock, Oneida, Bingham, Bear Lake, Power, Caribou and Butte counties.

At 8 a.m. tomorrow limits will be effective in Owyhee, Canyon, Payette, Washington, Adams, Valley, Boise and Gem counties.

Limits will become effective Friday in Bonneville, Teton, Madison, and Fremont counties.

BRITISH AUTO FIRM STRUCK

LONDON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Britain's booming automobile industry—with thousands of export orders on the books—was crippled by two unofficial strikes today. Swiss Become Accustomed to Slide Dangers HERBRIGGEN, Switzerland, Feb. 24 (UPI)—The inhabitants of this Swiss village have become accustomed to the idea that the village is doomed.

They realize the end may come today, tomorrow, next week or even next summer although a Swiss official reported the gigantic landslide of ice and rocks threatening the village for two weeks has "stopped moving."

Josef Rovina, chief of Herbrigen's fire brigade, said "we are just minding our own business. Even this landslide does not change our way of thinking—we are accustomed to life in the mountains."

Belongings Removed Slowly
Despite the danger hanging over the village the inhabitants of Herbrigen have kept their self control and removed their belongings without any great hurry.

"We know no human will can stop the landslide," was the way Roman Catholic parish priest Emil Schmidt put it. "But we feel we are under the divine protection."

Herbrigen's tough mountaineers, woodcutters and farmers are astonished to hear that their village has suddenly become known throughout the world.

"What the hell do you want from us?" was their question to newsmen and photographers who came to the village. It was a question of amazement rather than anger.

Safety Measures Installed
There has been no political bickering about the tense situation. All safety measures needed were taken and enforced without any trouble.

Romy Imboden, a bespectacled, plump girl who owns the village's only restaurant, opened it again yesterday for the first time since the slide alarm was sounded.

She served reporters lunch—bread, salmon and a glass of beer. She did not look worried. She just ignored the fact her restaurant was in the center of the danger area.

"You can't live for two weeks with a 360,000 cubic yard sword of Damocles over your head without getting accustomed to it," she said.

HAGERMAN, Feb. 24—High councilmen night was observed at the LDS church Sunday evening with H. M. Sagers, Goding; Merlin Lancaster, Wendell, and Harold Thompson, Jerome, of the Gooding stake presidency as guests.

Mrs. Cleo Prince was organist. Claude Richens gave the opening prayer and Jesse Raddles the closing prayer.

Trees Removed

HEYBURN, Feb. 24—Work began Saturday on removing all the trees in the Heyburn village park.

The village board members decided the old park, which has been neglected many years, will be reseeded, so grass, landscaped and new trees planted.

Howland Croft, Louis Stimpson and Elwin Steube are operating the three carryalls.

Housewives Wowed by Talk About Atom as Housekeeper

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D. N. M., peeked into the future yesterday to describe the potentialities of the atom as a housekeeper. His predictions won a feminine audience.

Anderson, chairman of the senate house atomic energy committee, said the tiny atom someday may create such wonders as luminous glowing walls, lawn grass that won't need to be cut, and sterilized meat that will keep for weeks without refrigeration.

Much of the credit, Anderson said, goes to the Women's National Democratic club, is due to the radio-isotope radioactive atom. Anderson said use will eventually enable scientists to delay maturity of fruits so they won't all reach the market at the same time.

And, as things now stand, scientists can preserve food with atomic radiation—even if uncooked and unfrozen—for long periods. The reason? Destructive bacteria are eliminated.

Other wonders: Potatoes kept from sprouting and bread from forming mould.

"Soon," he said, "you will be able to buy a fine steak put it on a plate, set on a kitchen shelf, leave it for weeks without danger of deterioration and then bring it out to cook with no delay for thawing before it goes into the broiler."

He said the meat preserving process involved absolutely no danger to humans.

And, as for lazy husbands who prefer Sunday golf to lawn mowing, Anderson said scientists at Brookhaven National Laboratory, Long Island, N. Y., "are developing a variety of grass that grows 1 1/2 inches high and never grows again."

For the housewife, he described an atomic watchdog—sensitive smoke—to warn of fire in the home, an alarm system to sound off when fuel oil is getting low; mothproofing with an atomic beam, odorless and instantaneous.

Radiostopes, mixed with certain materials, emit a soft glowing light that will last for years. Ideas? Anderson, for luminous panels in closets, bathroom, baby's nurseries and for night illumination of telephone dials, numbers and house entrance doors and walks.

Kennedy Religion Belief Challenged

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 24 (AP)—A national Catholic weekly magazine disagrees with Sen. John Kennedy's statement about the separation of a public official's religious beliefs and his governmental duties.

The March 7 issue of Ave Maria quotes Kennedy as saying: "Whatever one's religion in private life may be, for the officeholder nothing takes precedence over his oath to uphold the constitution and all its parts—including the first amendment and the strict separation of church and state."

The magazine's editorials said that "to relegate your conscience to your 'private life' is not only unrealistic, but dangerous as well."

Boy Is OK After Neck Is Slashed

ST. ANTHONY, Feb. 24 (AP)—A piece of glass severed his windpipe but missed his jugular vein and 6-year-old Danny Nagle was reported in good condition today in St. Anthony General hospital.

The boy broke the glass in a storm door at the family home when he dashed out to join his father, who was waiting in an automobile.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nagle, Parker.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

The radio, phonograph and the television set are wonderful aids to teachers—if they can have them. Moving pictures are fine to illustrate geography and history, industry and art—if one can have them. I say if one can have them, because education is becoming very expensive and taxes are so high that ordinary people, and it is the ordinary people who send their children to the public schools, are hard put to make ends meet. If school taxes get much higher many angry taxpayers will be, to say the least, unfriendly about schools and teachers in general.

When someone says that TV is a money saving device I look in wonder at him. Nobody is going to get TV for nothing. The bill will come in on time. It will not save paying teachers, for every teacher now in practice is needed and more along with him and all of them must be paid.

Let's be factual about this and say these aids are most helpful tools. We need and want them because they will help the teachers in their work and that's bound to make better instruction and so better educated pupils.

It is better education we want, not cheaper teaching. We cannot afford cheap schools. Not in this day and generation when we need leaders in all fields. We need the very best possible schools and teachers that money can buy and we have the money. What we need is information as to the school's needs.

Parents—and all taxpayers everywhere, need to know what tools the schools need—and why they need them. They need to see these tools in use. In all my years of working with parents and school children I have not met one parent who refused to help get the best possible teaching for his children. They sacrifice much to obtain this once they know the need.

School people should go to their patrons and in the plainest, simplest fashion explain what tools they need and what these mean to their children's future. Have a meeting for fathers' only and have the superintendent, principal and town officials on the platform. Tell them the story, the teachers doing the talking and the politicians listening for a change. Have time for the fathers to ask questions from the floor and answer them. Men will often attend a meeting for men only when they won't attend a PTA meeting. It is the men of the family who need to be convinced.

Accent the children's need for better teaching; accent the ability of the children to benefit by it; be frank about the costs of these aids. Don't say they will save teachers' salaries because larger numbers of pupils can hear and see a TV lecture. Even high school seniors must have closeup personal instruction by their classroom teacher to whom they can ask questions, get answers, personal encouragement and help. Let's tell our story better and to the people most concerned, the tax-paying public.

You should never treat a bashful child. Dr. Patri explains why and tells how to guide bashful children in his lecture "The bashful Child." To obtain a copy send 10 cents in coin to him, c/o Times-News, P. O. Box 22, Station 4, New York 19, N. Y.

CRANNEY USES 19-POINT EFFORT IN LAST GAME TO COP BIG SEVEN SCORING CROWN
A 19-point effort in his last outing Saturday night brought the Big Seven conference individual scoring championship to senior Gary Cranney, Oakley, who ended up with 12-game league slate with a total of 170 points.

Jerome, 126; Gary Anderson, Minico, 125; Wayne Buell, Buhl, 116; Ron Bryant, Burley, 111; Ron Kilm, Jerome, 106; Ross Brown, Buhl, 103; Gordon Carter, Buhl, 101, and Dickson, Minico, 100.

Of these, only Anderson and Dickson will be returning next year. Three men in the top 14, Buell, Scanlon and Tegan, played in only 11 games while Buell missed two but the championship is awarded on total, not average.

Although he was nipped in the final stages of the conference crown, Wilson picked up two other titles during the year. Wilson took the individual free throw crown with 62 conversions, seconded by Tegan with 55. Hine had 54. Wilson also was the top producer for players in triple AA classification in the fourth district, owning 200 points.

He also holds the record for most free throws in a conference game, 11, and for the season, 15. Tegan seconds him on both counts again.

Minico easily wrapped up team ofensive scoring honors, pumping through 680 points in its 12 games and the Spartans also ended the season with 958 fouls in 17 outings. Of these, they lost 20. Defenses, Jerome, J. J. Johnson, and Tegan, were the top scorers in the conference and season championship. The Tigers limited conference opposition to 40.0 points per game and had a 39.9 overall mark for the year.

Team-dwelling Oakley also had a team-crown to go with Cranney's title. The Hornets took a narrow edge in team free throw shooting, converting 805 per cent of opponent fouls into points. They had 157 free

Collegiate Grid Gate Falls Below NCAA Predictions

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—College football attendance was near an all-time high in 1958 but it was 29.9 per cent lower than National Collegiate Athletic association statistics indicate it should have been. That figure was given Monday in an analysis of attendance figures made for the NCAA television committee.

The overall total was 2,807,709 for 2,586 games played by 618 colleges. It turned out to be about 25 per cent higher than estimates based on attendance at major college games in previous years. It was the biggest total since 1949, when 682 colleges played football and drew 400,000 more spectators.

But when NCAA service bureau statisticians compared the paid attendance figures with those of the pre-television era in relation to increases in population, disposable income and college enrollment, they found football crowds hadn't kept pace with the growth of those factors.

Since 1947-48, the last pre-television season which the NCAA uses as a base, U. S. population has increased 19.6 per cent, income is up 68.2 per cent and college enrollment is up 5.4 per cent. Combining those three into a set of statistics, the service bureau came up with a P-I-E factor that was 31.1 per cent above the 1947-48 base. In the same period football attendance has increased only 1.6 per cent.

The tabulations show that after the banner 1949 season, football crowds dwindled steadily until 1954. Then they began a steady rise which finally carried the total above the 1947-48 level but still left it below 1949.

The NCAA report points out that the 1958 football season was exceptional in regard to good weather and attractive games and hints that may explain the 2.7 increase over 1957.

Digging into the effects of television competition of ticket sales, NCAA statisticians found a direct relationship. Gains were smallest in areas with the heaviest TV competition while games played without TV competition showed the greatest attendance gains.

California Dumps Beavers by 57-40

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 24 (AP)—California broke open a tight defensive game and went on to defeat Oregon State college 57-40 Monday night, widening their Pacific Coast conference basketball lead.

Cal broke out a 34-34 tie with 11 minutes left to open a game-winning surge in the contest.

The Bears exhibited a strong defense, especially in the second half. They trimmed the Oregon State shooting percentage from .451 in the first half to .190 in the final period, which left the Beavers with a game average of .310. The Bears hit a 327 average from the field.

Al Burch was high for the game with 14 for California. Karl Anderson led Oregon State with 10.

Wildcats Edge Stall-Minded Alabama 39-32

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 24 (AP)—Kentucky overcame stall-minded Alabama 39-32 Monday night in a slow-motion Southeastern conference basketball game.

After Alabama showed slow, deliberate play in the first half, netting a 23-23 halftime tie, Kentucky copied the tactics in the second period.

The game was sprinkled with periods of up to five minutes with little or no action.

At one point, Bennie Coffman of Kentucky stood in a single spot and dribbled the ball for nearly a minute in an attempt to draw out Alabama's tight zone.

Johnny Cox led the Kentucky attack with 15 points.

Kentucky broke the game open by starting the second half with a nine-point scoring spurt before Alabama could net its first field goal.

Brennan Calls Self Notre Dame Fall Guy

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—Terry Brennan Monday night was quoted as calling himself "the fall guy" of the Notre Dame football situation, adding that he is through with coaching "because too many depend on luck."

In a story under Dick Young's byline in the New York Daily News, Brennan, who has remained silent on the subject since he was fired by Notre Dame last December, was quoted as saying:

"There's no mystery about what happened. They (Notre Dame) want to win more, but they don't want to do the things needed to win. So they had to have a fall guy and you're looking at him."

The story appeared under a Times dateline, where Brennan is director of a conditioning program for the Cincinnati Reds during spring training.

Chinese Proud of Communes; They Control Life Completely

By DR. SRIPATI CHANDRASEKHAR Copyright, 1959

The Communist Chinese officials are very proud of their latest development in agricultural production and ownership, the communes, for here they have gone one step beyond the Soviet Union.

During my six-week trip through red China, I visited four communes. The one which was best organized from the official point of view—a kind of happy-go-lucky—appeared to control every conceivable aspect of human life from morning to night from birth to death.

The Ch'iu Yin people's commune is located about 80 miles north of Chingchow in Honan province. This commune was to set the pattern for the whole country and was organized in the upsurge of the "big leap forward" in agriculture.

Chairman Mao Tse-tung of the Chinese Communist party happened to visit this place to see the agricultural cooperatives and all the peasants met him and declared they wanted real communism. But the cadres (the officials) were lukewarm.

Mao agreed with the peasants on the need for communes and pointed out that they were more progressive than their officials. And the next day, July 20, 1958, the people's commune came into being. That's what the director told me.

This commune was made up of 68 villages. The houses, the land, the implements, the cottage industries and the kitchen utensils were all owned by the commune.

It also owned and ran a few iron smelters (steel production is becoming a cottage industry), repairing mills, wheat flour mills, tailors' establishments, tile and brick kilns, fertilizer plants, etc.

The commune managed 228 public canteens where all adults ate in hotel-type dining halls. There were 135 public nurseries where babies from a week to 4 years old were taken care of. There were 130 kindergartens where children from 4 to 6 years old were housed and taught.

There were also two middle schools where 1,450 students between 7 and 18 years received some instruction. There were 38 red and expert schools (Socialist, professional and technical schools).

The commune also ran two large rural hospitals with 104 out-patient departments which administered traditional Chinese medicine (like herbs and acupuncture). The adult population boys distributed over 146 productive teams to work in rice, vegetable and cotton fields, small industries, canteens, public nurseries, schools, hospitals and so on.

3 Nations to Have Cyprus Military Site

LONDON, Feb. 24 (UPI)—Publication of the Cyprus agreement reveals that Britain will retain extensive military facilities on the island after it becomes independent. In addition to its two existing bases, two more areas will be held open for possible future use as British bases, and Britain also will have the right to install a number of radar stations on the strategic east Mediterranean island.

Two other nations will have the right to station troops on Cyprus—Greece with 950 men and Turkey with 650—and the island state itself will have a 2,000-man army, 60 per cent Greek in origin and 40 per cent Turkish.

Although all three of the nations which are to maintain troops on Cyprus are members of the Atlantic pact, Greek Orthodox Archbishop Makarios, a probable first president of the island state—says it will not join the western alliance.

In an interview, Makarios, who studied at Boston university in 1946-47, credited U. S. pressure behind the scenes for the Cyprus agreement hammered out this month by Britain, Greece and Turkey.

The agreement: —Provides that Cyprus shall become independent within a year, under the leadership of a president of Greek extraction and a Turkish vice president, who are to be popularly elected for five-year terms.

Both the president and the vice president will be empowered to veto decisions of the cabinet or parliament, so that neither racial group on Cyprus can discriminate against the other.

—Forbids union of Cyprus with any other country (meaning Greece) or partition of the island into Greek and Turkish zones (as long demanded by Turkey).

—Calls for a popularly-elected house of representatives, divided 70-30 between Greeks and Turks, to make the island's laws.

—British Gov. Sir Hugh Foot has already taken the first step toward freeing the island by abolishing the mandatory death sentence for illegal possession of arms and other emergency measures imposed during recent years.

Congress Acts On Labor Bid Unlikely Now

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UPI)—The AFL-CIO's call for a 35-hour work week appeared unlikely today to get an answer from congress this year.

Even congressional backers of the proposal conceded that there was little chance of it winning approval in 1959. But they said that the new demands might pave the way for action in the future.

The AFL-CIO executive council demanded yesterday that congress revise the federal wage and hour act to provide a seven-hour day, 35-hour work week for about 20 million workers covered by the law.

Organized labor also is renewing a drive to extend coverage to eight million more workers and to boost the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 per hour.

Members of the house labor committee gave these two reasons for doubting that congress this year would consider shortening the work week:

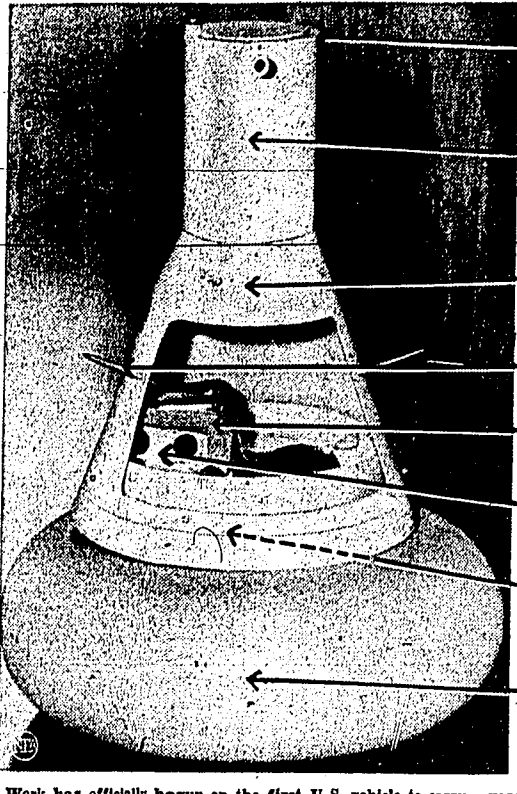

—Labor committees of both the house and the senate already have a heavy agenda, including labor reform legislation, proposed amendments to the Taft-Hartley law, the higher minimum wage proposal, and school aid bills.

—Reductions in working hours historically take time to achieve, and there is a lot of opposition in congress now to shortening the work week.

Rep. Roy W. Wier, D., Minn., a labor committee member, called the AFL-CIO proposal "a shot in the right direction."

"It may miss the first time, but it will lay the groundwork for the future," he said.

U.S. to Build Space Vehicle

- Blunt nose covered with heat shield to absorb friction heat at take-off.
- Compartment containing parachutes to lower capsule to earth; also, beacons, lights and tracking devices to aid in recovery by ground searchers.
- Passenger compartment, about 6 1/2 feet across, shielded to protect passenger from heat of re-entry.
- Antennae for radio contact to and from ground.
- Fitted couch to help absorb take-off and landing shocks.
- Survival gear for 40 hours after landing in ocean.
- Reverse-firing rockets under seat to slow capsule in orbit, operated either by pilot or ground control.
- Inflatable rubber pad to cushion landing and float capsule.
- Weight of capsule: one ton.

Work has officially begun on the first U.S. vehicle to carry a man into space. National aeronautics and space administration (NASA) has ordered McDonnell Aircraft corporation, St. Louis, to develop and build a one-ton satellite capsule. The work is expected to take at least two years and cost more than 15 million dollars. Shown above is a model of the capsule, called "Mercury." It is designed to place a man into a 100 to 150-mile-high orbit around the Earth for up to 24 hours and return him safely. Probable rocket will be the Atlas ICBM.

Cuban Executions Are Fruits Of Dictatorship, Revolution

(Editor's note: For almost two months, the guns of firing squads have been echoing along the length of Cuba. Dispatches tell of new executions almost daily, with perhaps a terse and superficial explanation. What is the underlying story? An Associated Press correspondent has dug into it, looking at the records and interviewing scores of Cubans. Robert Llorente comes from Arizona and speaks Spanish fluently.)

HAVANA, Feb. 24 (AP)—Hundreds tortured or killed... scores executed in retribution. They are figures, good round figures, and with repetition they come to have little meaning.

But behind them, getting down to individual cases, they have a shocking meaning. They are the fruit of a dictatorship and of a revolution which conquered it.

The full scope of the atrocities charged to Fulgencio Batista's police state may never be known.

Fidel Castro's revolutionary government estimates 20,000 Cubans—thousands of them in no way connected with the rebellion—were tortured and killed by Batista's national police and army.

Batista fled this country Jan. 1, and his government fell apart. The Castro forces took over. So far Castro's military tribunals have executed more than 300 men—former policemen and soldiers—for taking part in the Batista killings. Many more will face firing squads before the book is closed.

Whatever the verdict of history, there are piles of evidence to show the way things went under the fallen Batista's regime. His men were out to stamp out opposition and end a revolution. Civil rights meant nothing in Cuba for months.

One man alone, Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, was accused of responsibility for 109 victims. He died before a firing squad last Wednesday. Five of his soldiers were executed for the massacre of 19 persons at one village.

The revolutionary government made no attempt to prove its entire case against Sosa Blanco. The prosecution rested after calling 62 of its 92 witnesses. The testimony, circumstantial and direct, concerned 29 assassinations and homicides.

Nine of the victims were members of one family suspected of being rebel sympathizers, near Bayamo in Oriente province. This was the family of farm worker Martin Argote who was machine-gunned by soldiers as Sosa Blanco stood by, witnesses testified.

Miguel Llorente, the 10th person in the Argote family lineup, survived through a freakish incident—he fainted and fell a split second before the soldiers fired.

Questioned on his qualifications as an eyewitness, Llorente told the court: "No, I didn't see the shooting. All I know is I was alive in front of the guns, expecting to be dead in minutes. Then I woke up with all the other dead around me."

The defense, seeking to show the Argotes were victims of a battle between rebels and troops, noted that the body of a soldier was found near Argote's.

But Llorente testified the soldier was executed under Sosa Blanco's orders when he balked at firing on the family.

How were these atrocities kept from the public outside Cuba? Havana conveyed to the outsider a scene of timeless gaiety. Elements that might have shown the true picture were trapped by fear, suspicion, lack of evidence and censorship. The local press was muzzled. Responsible foreign news correspondents could not get beyond the thin top layer of scrambled truth and scuttled.

The judicial arm of government was impotent. Disbelief and disinterest, ruled quarters that might have helped.

Thus, say Cubans now outraged by present criticism of their military tribunals, the world was unprepared to accept as fact the scene exposed by the collapse of the Batista dictatorship.

Hagerty Talk Criticized by Midwest Man

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UPI)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D., Minn., said today White House Press Secretary James Hagerty "ought to be ashamed of himself" for accusing some Democrats of headline-hunting in the illness of John Foster Dulles.

Hagerty reacted to statements by Humphrey and other Democrats urging President Eisenhower to appoint a successor to Dulles immediately by telling newsmen, "It is remarkable what people will say to get their names in the newspapers."

Humphrey said Hagerty "knows better than that."

Recovery Wished "The decision as to the secretary of state is distinctly in the hands of the President as I (initially) said," Humphrey declared. "No one could wish Dulles a more speedy recovery."

Sen. Stuart Symington, D., Mo., was the other top Democrat calling for the naming of a successor to Dulles. Humphrey said he was asked a question about what Symington had stated and "I replied in kindness and in a reasonable manner."

Both Humphrey and Symington are considered candidates for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Humphrey said he personally hoped Dulles would be able to remain in office despite the recurrence of his abdominal cancer.

But if medical examinations showed otherwise, Humphrey said, "I have a feeling that Mr. Dulles would be the first one to seek to be relieved of his duties."

"My heart goes out to him and I'm sorry that Mr. Hagerty has spoken as he has."

Some top Democrats differed with Humphrey and Symington. Sens. John F. Kennedy, D., Mass.; John J. Sparkman, D., Ala.; and Richard L. Neuberger, D., Ore., favored a wait-and-see policy on Dulles' medical progress.

Laboratory Gives Tests to Tractors

LINCOLN, Neb., (UPI)—A unique laboratory at the University of Nebraska carries out a state law that performance must be certified by actual tests before tractors may be offered for sale in the state.

The laboratory was established 30 years ago. It checks foreign models as well as those manufactured in this country.

Included among models tested this year were the first tractors ever sent to the laboratory from Sweden.

About 40 hours of actual engine running time, in addition to computations, are necessary to test a single tractor. Thirty-two were tested in 1957. The total has steadily increased with 16 to 20 once being the average numbers for a season.

Boy Lives With Glass Sliver

Cyrus Tibbals IV, 12, Mahwah, N. J., displays pieces of five-inch glass sliver which had been in his chest for three and one-half years. Doctors removed some glass after an accident years ago but the sliver was not discovered until last month when a boy jumped on his chest and he felt something snap. The sliver, broken in four pieces, was removed in a delicate operation. A member of the surgical team said if a chest surgeon who knew just how to place the sliver had tried to do so, "he couldn't have put it in without killing him." (AP wirephoto)

Senator Sees Bigger House Bill in March

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UPI)—Rep. Albert Rains, D., Ala., said today he expected congress to see to the White House by mid-March a housing bill bigger than the President Eisenhower proposed.

Rains made the statement as the $2,100,000,000 bill—drafted by the housing subcommittee—was called for action by the house banking committee.

Senate Version OK'd The senate already has approved a $2,875,000,000 version. The administration's bill carried a $1,850,000,000 price tag.

Rains said it probably would take two days for the committee to complete action on the housing measure.

But the house commerce committee hoped to complete work today on a four-year, 365 million dollar program of federal grants to help communities build and expand airports.

Bill Asks More Over the long run, the airport measure calls for 165 million dollars more in federal airport aid than the administration recommended. It would restrict outlays for the next fiscal year to 80 million dollars, same as the President proposed.

Committee Democrats cut back the measure last week to undercut GOP charges that it would wreck Eisenhower's new budget. The senate previously had approved a $2 million dollar bill.
