4 Deaf-Mutes Survive Fire; 2 Women Die

DESMOINES, Ia., June 10 (UPI)—Two women perished yesterday when fire swept through a three-story apartment building but four deaf-mutes and two other children were rescued from the building.

About a half-dozen other persons fled to safety when the flames roared through the top two floors of the brick structure.

The dead were identified as Mrs. Bonnie Wolf, about 35, her daughter, Lorretta Jones, about 38.

Madie Bady Turner, 42, a third-floor apartment, was burned beyond recognition.

One fireman said he got within eight feet of the window to the third floor and could hear shouting sounds coming from the apartment. However, he was broken back by the flames and could not reach the women.

However, firemen were able to rescue Mrs. Kenneth Harrison, 21, a deaf mute who was sleeping and unaware of the fire, and her two children, from their third-floor apartment.

Fireman Walter H. Mrs. Marian told United Press International through a sign language interpreter that the fire started in the front room of the apartment and took nothing of the fire until a fireman tapped on the door.

"The fire itself did not damage her apartment," Mrs. Harrison said. "The children would have been endangered by the heavy smoke, firemen said."

Mrs. Harrison, told of her experience in sign language through her husband, Kenneth, 25, who can hear and can talk slightly.

Erhard Plans To Challenge German Chief

BONN, Germany, June 10.—Admiral Ludwig Erhard confronted Konrad Adenauer today with the sharpest challenge to the aged chancellor's political supremacy since he took office a decade ago.

Returning from a visit to Washington, Erhard announced he would contest the 63-year-old Adenauer's decision last week to remain chancellor rather than carry out his previously announced plan to step up to the West German presidency. Erhard had been the favorite to take over the government.

Support Questionable

The big question was whether Erhard could muster enough support in the ruling Christian Democratic party to force Adenauer to resign his iron grip.

As economic minister and the architect of West Germany's post-war recovery, Erhard is considered one of the party's highest vote-getters. But Adenauer was strong enough last week to win the reluctant consent of the parliamentarian caucus to his change of plans.

Adenauer's Challenge

The 63-year-old economic minister, who is Adenauer's vice-chancellor as well, also challenged Adenauer's position that he thinks he is not equipped to head the country in this time of international crisis.

"I will under no circumstances," he told reporters, "tolerate the continued existence of the historical lie that I am less qualified than the chancellor to guide the German fate during this serious situation of our people."

French Pull Away From Chief Allies

PARIS, June 10.—France appears to be drawing steadily away from her partners in the Atlantic alliance as President Charles de Gaulle puts an emphasis on his country's equal role with Britain and the United States.

Western diplomats are openly worried over how far the stubborn French president will go.

NATO Gets Cold Shoulder

De Gaulle has set a course aimed at restoring France to her international prestige and power. His strategy appears to be to cold shoulder various NATO projects until the United States and Britain openly recognize the "grandeur of France" which De Gaulle proclaims with religious fervor.

De Gaulle is asking to be recognized as a bargaining equal to President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. This demand is viewed as somewhat unrealistic since France has no atomic bomb, only two under-strength divisions now under NATO and is threatened with internal dissension over Algeria.

A Bomb Formula Sought

De Gaulle wants the formula on how to put together an A-bomb life can't get it from the United States. Covertly forbids that Britain shows no inclination to give it to him.

The French president wants to work out with Eisenhower and Macmillan a global policy including the Middle East, Asia and Africa. But both the United States and Britain have misgivings about France's refusal to promote Algerian independence.

The United States doesn't want its Far East policy divided in Paris. Britain is jealous of her role as senior partner to the United States in NATO.

There has been no indication the United States or Britain will give in on any major point. Yet they don't know how to placate De Gaulle otherwise. Rebuffs would only raise the ire of the stiff-necked president.

The days of the week are named after the sun and moon and five planets.

Excuse?

WASHINGTON, June 10 (UPI)—Teamster President James R. Hoffa has explained the reason he believes so many Transfer officials invoke the fifty amendment before the Senate ratification committee.

The Teamster president says, "It doesn't mean there is anything to hide" when officials at his union claim up before the Senate.

"They took the protection of the fifty amendment because they didn't have the formal education to compete with the lawyers and didn't want to run the risk of perjury," he told United Press International.

Hoffa said he gave this explanation to Rep. William H. Ayres, R., O., during a 90-minute conference late yesterday.

'What You Don't Know Won't Hurt' Saying Used by Soviets

GENEVA, June 10 (UPI)—Russia's all-Communist press does an excellent job of applying that well-worn proverb, "What you don't know can't hurt you."

The editors have seen to it that the Soviet reader knows virtually nothing about the inside story of the Geneva conference.

Of course in this respect, the Russians are only a little worse off than their western counterparts, who don't know very much either. Still, between what the Soviet reader can see of the conference from his newspaper and what the American reader can visualize in a solid stretch of information and colorful impressions which make good reading for the West.

Russian ranking newspapers, Pravda and Izvestia, have printed thousands of words on the foreign ministers conference since it started four weeks ago. They have probably devoted more of their very limited total space to Geneva than have most non-Communist papers. But what those thousands of words in Russian say compared to what the same number say in English, French, Italian or German amounts to much more than a mere difference in language.

The Soviet people realize that

"super secret" negotiations are going on here now.

They gather this from the uncommunicative communiques, published by the Soviet press, saying that the ministers had one of their usual unofficial meetings to discuss questions concerned with the conference.

They also suspect that these negotiations have at last got down to working out a Berlin settlement which will save face on both sides.

They can't be sure of this, because neither Pravda, nor Izvestia, nor Pravda's Nikita Khrushchev has told them so.

Almost all that is available to the Soviet reader are long accounts of Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's speeches and short summaries of what Christian Herter, Edwin Lloyd and Maurice Couve de Mureville say at the conference table.

But the Russians are expert at reading between the lines. And when the Soviet newspapers report British Foreign Secretary Lloyd's remark that at the present time the most sensible action is to leave the Berlin situation as is, with a few minor improvements, the Russian reader can guess which way the wind is blowing.

Not only are his guessing abilities taxed to the limit, the Soviet newspaper reader has imbedded on all the colorful incidents and anecdotes which the conference has produced.

He didn't know that the four foreign ministers argued for hours on whether they should sit at a round or a square table.

Nobody told him that Mrs. Gromyko is experimenting with her new movie camera or that the Soviet delegation Chevrolet got a flat tire while on a Sunday outing.

Curtis Eaton, John Bertie, R. S. Toffin, Mrs. LeVern Strum and Lyle Frazer will continue on the board for three-year terms. Further plans for financing the auditorium will be discussed Monday noon when a finance chairman will be named by the executive committee.

The executive group and facilities committee will meet Tuesday noon, June 23, at which time the latter committee will report its findings to the executive body. It was reported civic organizations are continuing to support the project with fund-raising events.

104 FLU CASES REPORTED

BOISE, June 10 (UP)—New cases of influenza reported in the past week numbered 104, the state bureau of vital statistics said yesterday.

Jet Pilot Fined $1,000 for Dive

NEW YORK, June 10 (UP)—The pilot of the jet airplane that took a 30,000-foot dive toward the Atlantic last February has been fined $1,000 by the federal aviation agency for being out of the cockpit at the time.

Pan American World Airways, the owner of the plane, was also fined $1,000 for failing to keep a flight-recording device in operation on the new 707 Boeing jet.

The co-pilot, who was at the controls when the plane suddenly dived from 33,000 feet, was notified the government plans to suspend his captain's rating for six months. The reason for the suspension apparently was his failure to stop the dive immediately.

HERE'S WHY: "Rambler is a well-made, efficiently designed, comfortable car with outstanding structural strength and rigidity, smooth, quiet economical operation, outstanding maneuverability in traffic and parking, satisfactory roadability, ride and handling, competitive performance, good operating economy and very significantly low ownership costs—in short, it's our choice for overall best buy among U.S. cars."

● COST: "... has a lower initial price, and on the basis of current figures will retain a greater percentage of its original cost than any other car anywhere near its price."

● SITTING: "... has developed in just three years into one of the most attractive cars on the road."

● BODY DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION: "Most evident is the solidity of the unit-construction body. On the road there is never a trace of annoying body shake or vibration."

● INTERIOR: "... an extremely comfortable car for all six passengers because the centers of both front and rear seats are not crammed down close to the transmission housing and driveshaft tunnel."

● HANDLING AND ROADABILITY: "... amazingly responsive and maneuverable at moderate speeds."

● QUALITY: "... gets high marks in quality of manufacture."

East Germans' Plant Hinders German Unity

BERLIN, June 10 (AP)—Three miles west of the Oder-Neisse border, a giant industrial plant has been built as a symbol of East Germany's economic expansion under its communist system.

The iron and steel combine of Salzgitter, planned to turn out 10 million tons of steel by 1960, represents East Germany's interest in the Soviet bloc.

Materials imported from the Soviet Union will be used in the plant's production of steel.

Eighty per cent of the plant's steel will be used in the Soviet Union.

Its very existence would be an economic burden in reunited Germany where plentiful raw material is as close at hand to Ruhr as to the Rhine.

It is not the cause of the German division, but its logical consequence, said a spokesman of the German government's coal and steel agency.

The plant, valued at a half billion dollars, is helping to turn Germany into one of the world's industrial countries.

Communist leaders dismiss the charges as irrelevant, saying that the reality of German division is permanent.

They clearly regard this division as permanent.

The plant and its new city for the workers grew out of a foreign aid project of pre-World War II Germany.

It is 80 miles east of Berlin, was chosen to be as close as possible to raw materials coming from the East.

The plant has been shown to western visitors. It was started in 1950 and began turning out pig iron nine months later.

Today its 6,000 workers produce more than a million tons of pig iron ready for steel mills operating elsewhere in Eastern Germany.

West Irrigation Backer Is Dead

HERMISTON, Ore., June 10 (AP)—E. P. Dodd, an early advocate of irrigation and river development in the Columbia basin, died in a hospital here Monday night at the age of 84.

Dodd was at various times a newspaper publisher and editor, a farmer, real estate operator, a lumberer, legislator and justice of the peace.

He was, however, he was an advocate of irrigation, reclamation and river development.

He was a pioneer in the Boise valley, Idaho. In 1890, he grew up in the banks of an irrigation canal built by his father.

FRENCH BOYCOTT READY

PARIS, June 10 (AP)—France is prepared to boycott foreign companies doing business with the American nationalities which have been running 24 hours a day for the past 9 months.

Once you've got that kind of endurance working you don't worry much about lost job time. Breakdowns go out of style the day your Chevy goes into action.

The fact is, Chevrolet trucks are dead set on dropping the word "downtime" right out of the English language. And they just might, if precision engineering and top-quality materials have anything to say about it. Chevy trucks are put together to stay together—incorporating the most advanced chassis developments, the most efficient 6-cylinder and V8 engine designs. They're built to last, built to keep Chevrolet's hard-earned reputation for reliability flying high.

Going into the real heart of Chevrolet advantages is where your dealer comes in. He'll show you, in feature after feature, that you can't buy more truck dependability—in any weight class—at any price.

Drevlow Has No "Orders" From Smylie

By The Associated Press

Idaho's lieutenant governor said yesterday he has no intention of leaving himself to a public course of action during the time the state's chief executive is touring Russia.

At the same time, Gov. William E. Drevlow said at his home in Graysmont that his actions will be governed solely by what will be the best interests of all the citizens and, when I say all I mean all.

Drevlow, a Democrat, will be Idaho's acting chief executive while Republican Gov. Robert E. Smylie makes a three-week tour of Russia along with eight other governors. Smylie plans to leave this week.

Drevlow said he had been told that rumors were circulating in Idaho that Smylie had asked him to promise to take in action which had not been approved by the governor in advance.

Drevlow said he was told there were rumors he was being asked to promise not to call a special session of the legislature.

"I wish to state categorically," Drevlow said, "that no such promise has ever been made to me by Governor Smylie, and I do not believe that he has any intention of making such a promise."

Smylie, in Boise, termed the rumor "baseless" and added: "I have heard of no such rumor and certainly would not consider any such course of action."

"I have full confidence in Mr. Drevlow's personal judgment, ability and integrity and am confident that the people of Idaho will be well served. If I were not confident of this I would of course not consider taking the trip."

Drevlow, referring to the reported rumor, said that "in the event such an improperly were even proposed to me I certainly would refuse to do my own hands in the manner suggested."

Longer Lifespan Belief Gets Closer; Blood Vessels Made

(UPI)—You will understand why many scientists expect human beings some day may live a few hundred years when you study the work of Dr. Michael E. De Baky in operations on more than a thousand persons he has replaced worn-out blood vessels with blood vessels made of synthetic or man-made fabrics. With accumulated experience, he now can do this in any part of the main heart artery, the aorta, or any part of the major arterial system.

Punishment, he is now applying this accumulated know-how to one of the most common killers of people—the "coronary accident" of stroke. He still can't replace the small blood vessels of the brain, but in about 40 per cent of "strokes" the first blockade is in arteries of the neck and chest. And those he can replace. His pioneering repairs of those arteries also have led to a discovery that challenges the belief that brain cells can survive only minutes after their blood supply has been interrupted. This adds further substance to the dream of unhealed-of longevity for people. Six of his patients have had full brain function restored after the blood supply had been partially blocked for four days. All this marvelous technique has been evolving for seven years at usually taken from a cadaver. These grafts often didn't "take," so Dr. De Baky experimented with synthetic fabrics as arteries, dacton and others, first in animals and much later in people. There were problems of the fabric tubes kinking, raveling and twisting. These problems were overcome with the aid of textile technicians and the tube which Dr. De Baky now uses is knitted from dacton and made in all the diameters of human blood vessels. Dr. De Baky and his Houston associates now have patients who have survived seven years after traditionally fatal blood vessel breaks.

Boats Are Another Show Attraction

Red-hot interest in boats and boating has resulted in the boat display at the Idaho Valley Home Show being a top attraction. Two women give the boat a once-over as they walk past during 1955's show. The boat display is arranged along with autos and house trailers on the lawn north of the Twin Falls high school gymnasium. Hotpoint's "Kitchen of Tomorrow" shown in background will return again, but with more recent developments than shown in the past. (Staff photo-encouraging)

Paul Board May Tackle Problem At Special Meet

PAUL, June 10—The Paul village board, which last week heard an employee refuse to be sworn in as clerk, will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. June 17.

No official word has been released on the business to be taken up by the board, although the problem of who holds what job and the salary for each position is one of the board's current problems.

At an earlier meeting of the board Martel Lindsay said he would take the job of clerk, deputy clerk and sanitation officer. At the last meeting when the board hired a new sanitation officer, Lindsay refused to be sworn in as clerk because the salary was too low.

He would receive $105 a month for the job of clerk and deputy clerk.

The board has made no statement since the matter was tabled at its last meeting.

Thousands of Magic Valley Residents Expected for Third Annual Home Show Here

Thousands of Magic Valley residents inspected a wide range of exhibits during the second annual Home Show at the Twin Falls high school gymnasium last year, with crowds such as this common during all four days of the event. Booths are set up to demonstrate or merely display the new equipment and furnishings in nearly all lines of household articles. All possible floor space has been designated for booths in the third annual show scheduled to open at 8 p.m. Thursday. Another top-notch show is promised by the Snake River Valley Electrical Association, sponsor of the event. (Staff capturing)

Third Annual Magic Valley Home Show Opening Scheduled Here on Thursday

Final arrangements for Magic Valley's Third Annual Home Show, scheduled to open at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 11, are being completed. Wednesday at the Twin Falls high school gymnasium.

Holmes, chairman of the annual event sponsored by the Twin Falls chapter of the Snake River Valley Electrical Association, reports all space in the gymnasium has been sold and exhibitors are working in their products. All exhibits are to be completed by Thursday noon, Holmes states.

On Thursday and Friday the doors will open at 8 p.m. and close at 11 p.m. During the final two days, Saturday and Sunday, the show will open at 1 p.m. and close at 6 p.m. No admission will be charged and adequate free parking space is available.

Holmes reports about 70 exhibitors will display "everything for the home" inside the gymnasium. These displays will include electrical appliances, furniture, floor coverings, paint, jewelry and many other items.

Among the unusual items to be shown inside the building will be colored television and a new type of drapes. An electronic range will be displayed in "one of the booths."

On the outside there will be the 100,000 Hotpoint electronic kitchen space from the local chapter for they will be given coupons to sign for the prizes. It is not necessary to be present to win a prize, but a registration coupon must be in the box.

Holmes reports everyone connected with the show is "very enthusiastic this year." He says the show during the past two years has proved a great success and enthusiasm has continued to grow.

The show is one of three produced by the electrical association in Idaho. A similar four-day event was held in Boise last week. It will move on to Pocatello after completing the four-day run here. Local stores and businesses rent space from the local chapter for display of products.

The Twin Falls Civic Auditorium association will profit from the show this year. The electrical association has donated exclusive concession rights to the auditorium group.

Other firms and businesses have donated almost all items that will be sold in the concession stand. Members of the auditorium association will operate the booth. Money obtained from concession sales will go into the auditorium fund.

Italy and Liberia are the world's two Negro republics.

The Bourse is the Paris stock exchange.

Doctor Warns Polio Can Hit In Any Area

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 10 (U) — Cling Detroit's major polio epidemic last year, a public health service doctor warned yesterday that any city in the country could have a similar scourge this summer unless it pushes vaccination programs.

Dr. Alexander D. Langmuir, declaring that Detroit's outbreak occurred mainly in central sections of the city where there was the greatest crowding, most poverty and also the lowest level of polio immunization, told the American Medical Association's 108th annual meeting.

"Every city and many rural areas have their problem areas. These are the potential Detroit," Dr. Langmuir is chief of the health service's communicable disease center in Atlanta, Ga., which operates a nationwide polio surveillance unit.

"To achieve effective levels of immunization in these problem areas will require careful planning and joint action on the part of local medical societies, the local health departments, and all interested civic and community groups," he said.

Langmuir made his remarks in outlining the status of the country's polio picture as the nation enters the fifth year of the great national program for the conquest of paralytic poliomyelitis through the use of Salk vaccine.

Tax Laws and U.S. Backed Mortgages Hinder Treasury

NEW YORK, June 10—Other things besides a calling on interest rates are keeping the U. S. treasury financially embarrassed.

One is the tax laws that favor its competitors in the money market—corporations and state and local agencies.

Another is the higher yields that government-backed mortgages offer—investors—federal guarantees that make these mortgages look as riskless as treasury securities.

One is the tight money policy by which the federal reserve board is helping the administration in its fight to stave off another inflationary episode on the purchasing power of your dollar.

And a prime one is the habit of federal debt to grow and grow. Only Congress—some say, an aroused public—can stop that.

To some degree these factors affect both the noticeable U. S. savings bonds which individuals—most in the lower income brackets—buy, and the sizable treasury securities which look for their market among the banks, other financial institutions and funds, corporations and well-heeled individual investors.

But they apply especially to the marketable securities which have been giving the treasury its biggest headache. These problems will remain even if Congress goes along with President Eisenhower's request to lift the ceiling on the interest Uncle Sam can pay when he borrows.

Let's look at these sales difficulties that U. S. marketable securities face:

In today's crowded borrower market competition can be stiff. And the tax laws give corporations a head start. The treasury itself picks up about half of a big corporation's borrowing cost.

That's because when it borrows it can charge the interest to expenses. Since it must pay the treasury about half of its gross earnings in income taxes it pays out, hence, paying higher rates to

Bliss Announces Visits, Journeys

BLISS, June 10—Mr. and Mrs. Vern Carson have returned from a two-week trip to Kansas where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson.

Another competitor for lending money is the home mortgage. This pays a higher yield than the treasury now does or would like to.

When the mortgage is backed by the federal housing administration or the veterans administration the risk to the investor is slight. With today's home building boom there are lots of mortgages for investors to buy.

U. S. treasury securities, on the other hand, are fully callable at the federal level. Thus they lose much of their charm for the investor who pays high taxes anyway, and sees no percentage in going into a higher bracket.

son, Miltonville, Kan.; daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Blauer, Wichita, Kans. and Mrs. W. P. Randall, Oage City, Kans.

While there they attended the 25th wedding anniversary of their son, John.

Harold Hainline and his brother-in-law, Left Dahl, Jerome, spent the week-end fishing at Henry's lake in eastern Idaho.

Hagerman Notes Family Visitors

HAGERMAN, June 10—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hagerman returned Sunday after visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robertson, and family, Pleasant Grove, Calif., and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hagerman, and family, Santa Clara, Calif.

Mrs. Scott Pressman has returned from visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Indermurte, and sisters, Mrs. Pat Gaudle and Mrs. Nel Newell, all Portland, Ore., and a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Indermurte, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hendrickson.

returned Sunday from a week's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickerson, and family, Billings, Mont. They toured Yellowstone park on the return trip.

A MEETING OF THE INTERNATIONAL PERILITY organization is holding a six-day world congress, attended by over 100 doctors. The organization aimed at combating sterility, was welcomed by Amsterdam's Mayor Gijb Van Hall, who said, "May your deliberations bear fruit."

The father and uncle of Duke Ellington, famed orchestra leader, were both butlers at the White House.

German Reds See Control of West Berlin; Unsure of East

By WELLINGTON LONG

EAST BERLIN, June 10 (UPI)—The communist regime in East Germany probably is bluffing when it threatens to force the western allies out of West Berlin.

But the German communists do believe that sooner or later they will have a great degree of influence over the activities of the allied garrisons in West Berlin and their supply.

The communists are less confident about their control over 17 million restless East Germans.

That is the sum of impressions gathered during a visit to East Berlin and East Germany this week and from talks with all sorts of people ranging from Communist (SED) party central committee-men down to railway ticket takers and construction workers.

When speaking for the record they talk through of how the Soviet will back them up in the long list of things they say they will forbid the allies to do.

When they're not talking propaganda the German communist leaders speak a lot less threateningly. They still maintain that East Germany will sign a separate treaty with Russia, but they are vague on details and indicate it will be the simple passage of time that will give them control over West Berlin's lifelines.

Aked at what points in the state-maid East-West negotiations an East German-Russian peace treaty would be signed, East Berlin's Communist party chief Paul Verner declared, "When that would be, no one can say. I'm no fortune teller, but we won't wait until 1951 when the Adenauer regime in West Germany is to have completed its atomic armament."

"The communists still refuse to believe that the West will not agree to their peace treaty demands, and they think they're making gains as far as winning."

He is associated with the Edison Brothers shoe store in St. Louis, Mo.

Approximately 4,500 persons witnessed five performances of the play presented by 700 BYU students.
