A tentative budget of $2,111,664 for 1950 operation of Twin Falls county was approved by commissioners Tuesday. The 1950 budget shows an increase of $144,969 over the approved budget of $1,966,695 for 1949 and a sharp upward in expenditures of $408,887 over the 1950 budget of $1,557,807. The largest single increase in department expenditures was a $73,151 increase for the Magic Valley Memorial hospital fund. The commissioners approved a tentative figure for the hospital of $1,113,899 over a $1 year's budget of $1,038,845.

The second largest increase in department funds—$49,846 in current expenses—the commissioners approved $61,887 for current expenses in 1950. The budget also includes $140,000 in hospital bonds. Other department increases are public health, $14,058 in 1950 to $42,000 in 1949, an increase of $7,942.

The poor fund was decreased from $214,000 in 1949 to $212,000 in 1950, a decrease of $2,000. The road fund was $46,230 in 1949; revision program, $10,000 in 1950; $50,230 in 1949, and $49,230 in 1950, a decrease of $1,000.

The sharpest increase was shown in the sheriff's office, from $31,500 in 1949 to $50,440, an increase of $18,940.

However, the increase was due chiefly to a shift of $10,500 from the commissioners' fund to the sheriff's fund for the 1950-51 term.

In 1950 the cost of feeding prisoners was carried in the total county fund, the increase in the sheriff's office was $4,320 for additional deputy sheriffs, $1,000 for increases and additional costs of supplies and operation.

Ke Agan Will Request Boost In Postal Rates

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—President Eisenhower again will ask congress to increase postal rates—a request that has turned down last year, Rep. Charles Halloran, Idaho's only congressman, said yesterday. He said the increase, did not say in talking to reporters how much of an increase would be requested or give any other details. One high official, who declined to be quoted by name, said earlier that the proposed boosts would total 500 million dollars a year. Last year's projected request would have brought in an estimated extra 355 million dollars. The proposal would have boosted postage in a first-class letter to 42 cents, and on air mail to eight cents.

Postal rates went up on Aug. 1, 1949—first-class letters to four cents an ounce and air mail to seven cents. The increase, he says, there have been increases in salary and retirement payments for postal workers and in postal transportation costs.

Postmaster General Clegg said that the increase in postal rates would be a first-class letter to 42 cents, and on air mail to eight cents. The increase, he says, there have been increases in salary and retirement payments for postal workers and in postal transportation costs.

France's Finances Chief Leaves Post

PARIS, Jan. 13 (UPI)—Finance Minister Antoine Pinay quit the government today in a dispute over budgetary and NATO policies. President Charles de Gaulle picked Wilfrid Baumgartner, governor of the Bank of France, to replace him. The move climaxed a crisis brought on by Pinay's open disagreement with Premier Michel Debré's projects for increasing nationalization in industry and Pinay's opposition to nationalizing the atomic energy industry.

It was likely to touch off the first major large-scale opposition to De Gaulle's plans since he formed the Fifth Republic a year and a half ago.

Pinay first saw De Gaulle and then announced "it was out." He was quoted as saying the government was "retiring from all political life, at least momentarily," Pinay announced.

The meeting today was Pinay's second with De Gaulle in 24 hours. The 68-year-old Pinay had discussed the government's economic recovery during the past 19 months.

No wonder Mercury sales are up more than any other car in its field—a big 48%.

Strontium 90 Level Is Said Not Problem

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—Secretary of Health Arthur Flemming reported yesterday that continuing studies of radioactivity in foods indicate that strontium 90 does not present a problem.

The secretary also told a news conference that the food and drug administration has found that the washing associated with canning and freezing of spinach reduces by an average of about 60 per cent.

Strontium 90 is a radioactive material which, in sufficient quantities, can cause bone cancer. Beta rays are types of ray given off by strontium 90.

Washing Vegetables Advised
Flemming said that his agency has always advised washing of vegetables and such foods before they are cooked, although it has not been established that this would materially reduce the strontium 90 content.

Flemming, devoting himself primarily to news dealing with radiation, told reporters:

The most comprehensive water pollution cleanup ever instituted in this country gets underway today at a conference of the Colorado River basin states.

The meeting with public health service officials in Phoenix, Ariz., will deal with all aspects of the pollution problem of the Colorado and its tributaries, including the discharge of contamination from uranium milling operations in the area.

The department of health, education and welfare is considering publishing a publication to contain data on strontium 90 levels low that the report on food showed that analysis of a wide range of wheat, cabbage and potatoes from 12 states and of one sample of spinach from 10 states showed strontium 90 levels far below the currently required permissible maximum of 80 microcuries per kilogram.

In potatoes, the variation was a high of seven for California and Ohio samples to a low of one microcurie for a Michigan sample.

Planning for 5 Navy Ships Is Postponed
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—The navy has postponed the construction of five ships, saying it hasn't enough money to meet increasing costs.

The ships, which the navy estimated would cost more than $60 million dollars, are three guided missile frigates, a research ship and a cruiser being converted to missile use.

These were included in the $1,300,000 ship building program authorized by Congress last year.

The navy said it will go ahead with construction in private yards of seven vessels and the conversion of an additional ship. Also, it said, seven destroyers will be converted in naval shipyards.

The new construction in private yards includes two nuclear-powered attack submarines costing an estimated $9 million dollars apiece, an escort vessel to cost about $10 million, two large landing craft, a submarine target barge and a large harbor tug.

The contracts will be awarded on the basis of competitive bids.

Razing of Orofino Building Praised
LEWISTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—Razing of a two-story brick building built in 1909 by patient labor at State Hospital North, Orofino, was termed a "milestone" in the treatment of mental ailments here, said Dr. Carroll O. Carver, state health administrator.

Dr. Carver stopped briefly while on a tour of state health installations in the northern part of the state.

The old building at Hospital North, said Dr. Carver, hadn't housed patients since 1929 when it was termed a fire hazard. Part of the funds appropriated by the 1959 legislature for fire protection program at the mental institution are being used in dismantling of the structure, he said.

Pay Cut Asked

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—Rep. Clare Hoffman, R., Mich., revived his old favorite proposition today that members of congress vote themselves a 20 per cent cut-in-pay-and-allowances.

Later, he estimated his chances like this: "It's not going to get anywhere with [H.] Hoffman first advanced his pay-cut-for-congressmen idea about four years ago."

He renewed the suggestion on the house floor yesterday, arguing that "up to the lawmakers to set an example in the fight against inflation. Congressional salaries are $22,400 annually."

School Slates Performance About Orient

Teachers of the August-Moore will be the next production of the Twin Falls school drama department. Selection of the three-act comedy written by John Patrick will be announced Tuesday by Richard Johnson, speech and drama instructor at the high school.

The play will be presented Feb. 19 and 20 and the cast includes 18 men, eight women, three children and one owl.

The play has been listed as one of the best plays of our time by the American Educational Theatre association and the National Thesopian society. It has been one of the most frequently produced plays in the United States by member high schools of both organizations.

About half the cast will represent Japanese characters and will have to speak an Okinawan dialect similar to Japanese.

Johnson stated: "This will present a challenge to both actors and the director. I have chosen this play, first, because it is one that can challenge the high school actor and yet stay within his scope of moral and dramatic values, and second, because it will provide the greatest aid to the paying audience."

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG POT SHOTS

WASHINGTON—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller may have contributed to the settlement of the steel strike, but he is not likely to be elected president of the United States. This blarney straight combines with other factors to make the steel strike a political struggle to a unique event in political-economic annals. Powerful forces are using the steel strike to create a political situation so that the Republicans will control the White House next year. Nobody on the side of the operators wanted, although they were not in the Democratic camp.

Governor Rockefeller, although not disappointed by the loss of the Nixon-Mitchell-Blough-Cooper deal, is withdrawing from the presidential race, thus insuring Nixon's nomination. The chronology of the negotiations substantiates the steel strike.

NIXON'S ACTIVE INTERVENTION IN STEEL STRIKE—Although the vice president first intervened actively on Dec. 8, there was no sign then of immediate action. It was not until Dec. 10 that the strike was called off. The fact that the strike was called off on the day that Rockefeller bowed out, the bargaining atmosphere changed. The disputants, "the boys," were now facing a possible president in the White House.

His future depended to a certain extent on their settlement of the steel strike. Rockefeller's intervention into the steel strike was a political maneuver to gain an anti-party in power and advantage the pro-labor element in his personal effort.

His relations with the White House during the next four or eight years, assuming a Nixon victory, will be a matter of great importance to his reputation, to his personal effort, to keep these and allied industries in operation.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S WARNING—McGovern, as Vice-President-Nixon warned, "New laborer" would be a disaster. Rockefeller's intervention was undoubtedly directed against management rather than against the union. The steel strike was a political maneuver by enactment of the labor reform act only last year, an overwhelming majority of the steel industry, "General Motors" and "Ford" were not included in the "National Labor Relations Act."

WISENHOWER ASSOCIATES FORCED STEEL STRIKE—The steel industry is a political maneuver. Rockefeller's intervention was a political maneuver to gain an anti-party in power and advantage the pro-labor element in his personal effort.

GOOD FOR INSOMNIA

After all this time... still think we need a school for people who use dial telephones. Consider recent experience, if you will. Sleep doesn't come easy to me and I finally get up at 4:00 a.m. after a four-hour sleep. How after being awake about half the night, I finally drop off in the small hours.

About the next thing I know, I'm fighting my way up from deep sleep with the instant contact of the phone "ringing me" into some state of wakefulness. First I made it out of bed, stumbled to the phone with the horrible thought that what important job I'll have to do. And a deep, male voice inquired, "Are you going to work today?"

Bill's friend sound sort of vexed that he'd make the phone call. And I spent most of the remainder of the night wondering what that important job I'll have to do. It must have been important to warrant a call at 3 o'clock in the morning!

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

Although the Roosevelt family, Theodore's and Franklin's, have been the most influential American families since the Civil War, there is not a better set of down history than that of the Roosevelts. We should note that Eleanor Roosevelt, valuable as that woman has been, was never in the truth under penalties for perjury. Her own self-serving made more than enough to be accepted by detail. Neither was Henry O. Morgenthau, Jr. a "traitor" as he was sworn, two great vicious warriors who were consequently absent from the war of their own generation. Morgenthau took the stand in the lend-lease inquiry, but Sen. Hiram Johnson did not swear him.

Both Roosevelt branches were rich from a common source, the arrival of gold from the Hudson River in New York. They were speculators and merchants. They had been sworn to behind them. Then they became "professors" in "leaky" schools, engineering always for the noblest of ends. The Roosevelt family was a family of "educated" men. The Roosevelt family was a family of "educated" men. The Roosevelt family was a family of "educated" men.

Henry's Hopes for Keeping Budget Dashed by Incidents

By HENRY McKEON

My hopes of keeping a budget for the entire year have been dashed by my inability to find that comes anywhere near to fulfilling the needs of my family.

All the ones I have ever thumbed through—and my wife and I have come on as suddenly as—and unexpectedly as snow in July.

The year instead of checking another fruitless search for an all-round budget book, one capable of handling any and all expenses. I decided to make one of my own. There's no do-it-yourself kit on the market that I can remember all the year-end expenses that have come up in years past, and serve them as a basis for future acquisition.

PRO-EXAMINER—The pro-examiner motor scooter and discarded a shoulder. It cost me around $35.00 this year, ahead of insurance, maintenance, and food. I put a page headed: Falling off things I shouldn't have been on in the first place.

If I fall off another scooter, and I will, there will be a page in the book to handle the expense. Even if I don't, I am pretty sure to fall off something—the roof while pushing things; the piano stool while playing the piano; or the car while driving. I am now riding in a factory effort to shake another budget book. I have a spot for fire insurance, but my fire insurance doesn't cover trousers trampled by standing in front of the fireplace too long, or a dozen dollars baked to a crisp by trying to

OUR NEW CITY COMMISSION

It's to the credit of the new city commission, headed by Chairman Vernon Riddle, that the steps are being taken that make for greater efficiency in our city manager form of government.

Not that we are critical of the city manager form of government, but we do believe it could be made to operate at better advantage.

Too often, as our new commission chairman has pointed out, the city manager has been required to do things and assume responsibilities far beyond the requirements of his job.

Unless the city commission assumes full responsibility for determining policy and delegating duties to the city manager, it is only natural for misunderstandings to result, particularly in the city manager's relationships with the public.

Generally speaking, our city manager successfully has been in the line of fire to guard against any developments which might subject the system to criticism.

Apparently the new city commission has every intention of working more closely with the city manager, which is bound to bring about a more efficient city government.

Offhand, the idea of dividing the commission into three divisions—public works, administration and public safety—appears to have considerable merit. Working with the city manager, the city department heads and the city manager, these divisions should facilitate city government considerably.

It will be interesting to watch how this new commission handles not only the handling of the more important problems such as operating budgets, the planning of needed improvements such as a sewage disposal system, and the like, but in some of the more routine matters.

For the last several years altogether too much ill will has resulted from the way zoning has been determined in Twin Falls. Surely there must be some way of zoning the city without keeping it in a constant turmoil.

There is no time to be lost in preparing for the census which soon will be taken. To gain full advantage of all the population available for the 1960 census, the Twin Falls census, the city commission will have to move fast, and in some instances courageously, inasmuch as annexations preparatory to census taking are always controversial.

Another condition which should have been corrected long ago, but still persists, is the rat race of juvenile drivers up and down the valley. The city commission should Five Points to Magic Valley Memorial hospital.

For years youngsters have used this street as a drag strip in spite of all protests, either traveling in groups or singly, creating traffic, or racing it out with no regard for others.

If nothing else, this constitutes a disturbance of the peace which is anything but a credit to Twin Falls, and should be dealt with accordingly.

SENATOR KENNEDY

There are generally considered to be five major candidates for the 1960 presidential nomination. Senators John F. Kennedy, Stuart Symington, Lyndon Johnson and Hubert Humphrey, and Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 and 1956 nominee.

Kennedy has now joined Humphrey as a declared candidate for all the purposes of following his and Humphrey's lead in putting their candidacies to the test of popular decision in important presidential primaries across the country.

The Massachusetts senator has more professional political backing than any other. He has consistently stood at or near the top in public opinion polls. He chooses to enter the primary lists in hope of consolidating and advancing his strength, and demonstrating that it is no passing fancy.

He knows full well some key politicians regard his Catholicism and his youthful appearance as political handicaps. Victory in a string of primaries from CONN. to OREGON might go far toward dispelling them these alleged drawbacks are not critical to his chances of election.

About his religion Kennedy can do little but reiterate his belief, long since amplified, in the thorough separation of church and state.

As for his youthful look, in the months ahead countless voters will discover how many already have it to discover. For Kennedy is in fact no younger than was Theodore Roosevelt when he accepted to the presidency in 1901. He is the son of a leading American presidential or other public figure.

He is a mature veteran of 14 years' service in congress, more than half in the senate. By the time the Sen. Robert Taft, always thought to be a contender, would be in the senate less than two years when he made his first strong bid for the GOP nomination in 1940.

The young man, guided in some measure by voter inclination, is in some measure by voter inclination, will determine whether or not they want Kennedy in 1960.

VIEW OF OTHERS

MR. NIXON'S "BETTER OFF"

The election the country faces at the close of the steel strike has cooled markedly as the cost of the settlement has become known—the cost, that is, to the national economy. The steel industry, an American consumer, the one party not represented in the negotiating sessions.

It is the steel industry's contention that, so may the presidential prospects of Vice President Richard Nixon, for Mr. Nixon has been represented in the steel strike negotiations. Whether or not ready, there is evidence of a considerable reaction against the vice president; he is being accused, in the eyes of the steel industry, of forcing an inflationary strike settlement upon the steel industry in order to attract labor support on the eve of the national election. Whether or not this is the case, the settlement does threaten to cost consumers heavily, and it did give the union more than a 40-cent raise in wages. The steel industry began last summer. In the words of one steel company president, "We took a hell of a licking."

Pointing to this paragraph in an editorial, had this to say Thursday:

It seems clear that the Nixon deal for steel not only gives the union more than it settled for with Kaiser, but more than it actually struck for last July. Adding an 8 1/2-cent hourly wage rate increase in take-home pay through company payment of insurance premiums, a 7-cent wage increase next October, 1960, probable cost-of-living increases and substantial improvements in pensions, the steel workers will be receiving at least three or four times as much as they received under the previous contract. That is equivalent to a 40-cent an hour raise in the steelworkers' pay. The steel companies say they are not going to increase prices right away. Do they mean not until after election day, or until after the settlement with Mr. Nixon? It could be, for many of the new costs they have submitted to, after waging bitter battle against the national economy, will not be fully felt until 1961.

It is perhaps unfair to the vice president to assume that he acted out of any other interest than the national welfare, but Mr. Nixon's record in office is a record of a man who has done as much as he could to gain for Mr. Nixon and the Eisenhower administration by a settlement of the steel strike, and the terms of the settlement indicate that they must have been determined to gain those advantages regardless of the long-run effect upon the national economy.

Not only does the settlement give the union every cent it wanted and more besides, since it was imposed by the steel industry, the companies are released from their previous pledge to hold the price line on any agreement they negotiated without the consent of the steel industry. The prospect is for an eventual substantial rise in the cost-of-living.—Lewiston Tribune

AND IN ITALY!

An American who visited the Georgian SSR came back to this country with a "big" story. He was much to be gained for Mr. Nixon and the Eisenhower administration by a settlement of the steel strike, and the terms of the settlement indicate that they must have been determined to gain those advantages regardless of the long-run effect upon the national economy.

Not only does the settlement give the union every cent it wanted and more besides, since it was imposed by the steel industry, the companies are released from their previous pledge to hold the price line on any agreement they negotiated without the consent of the steel industry. Political Activities in Idaho Expected to Take Spotlight

BOISE, Jan. 13 (UPI) — Idaho politics continued to mainly be behind-the-scenes jockeying so far, but is expected to move into the public eye on an enlarged scale by the time the month is out. Several prospective candidates for both the U. S. senate and house of representatives were expected to formally announce their intention. Although it was not known when Republican Sen. Henry Dworshak would make a public announcement of his candidacy, he was expected to inform rank and file upon his return to Idaho next week that he would again be in the running. So far Democratic Rep. term as prosecuting attorney from Elmore county. Others being mentioned as possible contenders were A. J. Borden, school superintendent at Buhl, and Roy Nichols, Orofino. Idaho's congressional activity also was expected to shake its dormancy by the end of January. Mayor Thomas Leupp said he would have a decision within a short time whether he would seek the GOP nomination to face Democratic incumbent Grace Pflieger in the first congressional district. Some Republican politicians felt that this meant Leupp would possibly toss his hat into the ring next Tuesday at a Canyon county GOP caucus kickoff meeting at Greenleaf. Scheduled to be at the meeting are Gov. Robert E. Smylie, Dworshak, state Rep. Democrat Chairman Ray Robbins, Idaho Falls, and GOP Executive Secretary John Martin.

for Harding, who presently is an executive for a potato processing firm at Blackfoot. There also was word that J. Tim Brennan, Coentello, who was defeated by Budge in the last election, was giving thought to running again. However, several veteran politicians—discarded Brennan as a serious candidate because of his present position as a field man for the petroleum industry in Idaho. Considerable work already is being conducted in southern Idaho. Leupp said that he had been studying a good deal of enthusiasm from the first district toward his entering the race. Neither Mrs. First no Republican Hunter Budge, incumbent of the second congressional district, has announced her or his intention. Democratic leaders indicated that an announcement may be forthcoming from former state Rep. Ralph Harding that he would be an opponent for Congressman Budge. Considerable work already is being conducted in southern Idaho.

Profits From Grain Storing Claimed High

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (UPI)—Sen. Stuart Symington, D., said today that warehousemen storing government surplus grains are making the highest profits ever in 30 years of government and private business experience.

Symington, chairman of the Senate subcommittee investigating federal grain storage payments, made the charge in testimony before a House subcommittee.

He said that the average profit on a 52 cent per bushel and 63 cent per bushel surplus government grain, he said, is 20 to 25 percent.

Dr. Richard Phillips said the figures were profit ratios figured last May when he had been asked to estimate the cost and loss for shrinkage and deterioration.

When a bushel of grain is lost, he said, the government loses 71 percent for one firm and 77 for the other, he said.

The charges were for the Newhall, Ia., grain company, and the Archer, Ia., grain company.

Richard Sumner, manager of the Archer firm, said the government could pay him to store grain for a long-term use of commercial warehouse space.

Cutter Races Are Close at Richfield Run

RICHFIELD, Jan. 13.—Close decisions were featured in many of the Magic Valley Cutter Race association contests held Sunday at Richfield. Pictures taken at the finish line were used for the first time by the association that day.

Ben Haubrich, Richfield, used a portable camera for the pictures. The quarter mile races were run on a heavy track, newly graded, and shabby with melting snow. One race was tipped over near the finish line but the team was kept on the track by the driver, Morris Nielson.

Five chariot drivers go into the Sunday races at Burley with two winners following the Richfield competition. They are Gary Crystal, Zay Crystal and Art Hironaka; Al Rupert, Jack Pung, Burley, and Dale Schwannaveldt, Jerome.

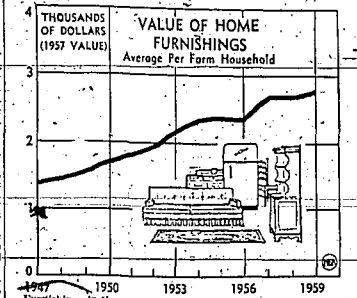

Drivers with one win each are Orin Nield, Carl Riley, William E. (Bud) Swan, Kenneth Motes and Dee Wolvorton, all Richfield; Ron Nelson, Paul, Budge Mickelson, Rupert, Jim Poulton, Max Burton, Bob Burley, and Morris Nielson, Gooding.

Conference races will be run Sunday at Burley; Jan. 31 at Bliss, and Feb. 6 at Jerome. The first championship races will be Jan. 27 at Jerome and Feb. 20 and 21 at Ketchum.

Saturday's pairings will place Zay Crystal vs. Jack Pung; Gary Crystal vs. Dale Schwannaveldt; Art Hironaka vs. Bud Swan; Dee Wolvorton; Carl Riley vs. Orin Nield; Kenneth Motes vs. Jim Poulton; Ron Nelson vs. Max Burton; Budge Mickelson vs. Bruce Sorenson; Morris Nielson vs. Max Burton; Cotton Riley vs. Ole Parish.

Races start at 1:30 p.m. at each session.

Farm Homes Furnished Better

Furnishings in the average U.S. farm household in 1959 are worth almost twice as much as they were 29 years ago, say report home economists with the U.S. department of agriculture. In 1930 the average value of farmhouse furnishings was estimated at $1,287; today, at $2,732. Much of the rise is due to the larger number of household appliances being used in newly electrified farms. Ninety-five per cent. of U.S. farms have electricity.

Suit Brought
BOISE, Jan. 13 (UPI)—The Nampa Meridian irrigation district has brought suit in third district court to recover $1,140 in ad valorem taxes levied during 1959 by Ada county.

The complaint maintains the machinery assessed for the taxes is exempt from taxation under provisions of the Idaho code.

The water supply of Jersey City, N.J., in 1958 was the first municipal reserve in U.S. to be chemically treated with chlorine compounds for drinking water purification.

Report Given on Airbase Openings

Positions of clerk-stenographers paying from $2,405 to $3,765 and clerk-typist from $2,255 to $3,405 are open at Mountain Home Air Force Base and other base activities in the Mountain Home area.

Applicants must be 17 years of age on the date of filing application. However, no eligible person will be certified to a position outside the locality of his residence prior to the 18th birthday anniversary.

Examinations will be conducted at Mountain Home Air Force Base and Boise.

Applicants who have passed a supplement issued by another civil service commission office or a board of U. S. civil service examiners, will not be required to take the test again, but may file application form No. 57 and the notice of rating.

Application cards and information may be obtained at any post-office.
