Money Is Asked In Improvement Of U.S. Forests

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—Congress has been asked to provide a $22,800,000 start on the biggest improvement program ever undertaken in national forests. Forest service spokesmen described the program, which would cost more than a billion dollars over the next 40 years, at a hearing before a house appropriations subcommittee. They requested 11 million dollars which, along with $11,800,000 already available, would be used to get the program under way in the fiscal year beginning July 1. The program was termed "Operation Multiple Use" by Assistant Secretary Ervin L. Peterson in a statement read by Forest Service Chief Richard E. McArdle.

BLM to Help Conservation, Weed Control

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—The Bureau of land management plans to spend $3,117,100 on soil and moisture conservation and $591,200 for weed control in the west in the coming fiscal year.

Those amounts were asked by bureau officials at a closed hearing before a house appropriations subcommittee. A report on the hearing was made public today.

Plans Explained

Planned work includes range seeding, brush control, contour furrowing and pitting, fencing, stock water development, diversion, water - spreading systems and other practices designed to conserve and develop resources of soil, water and vegetation.

Estimated expenditures include: Idaho—$266,00, 107,000 acres; Montana—$304,00, 114,000 acres; Nevada—$377,000, 149,000 acres; Oregon—$320,000, 110,000 acres; Utah—$325,600, 116,000 acres, and Wyoming—308,000, 155,000 acres.

Halogeton to Be Fought

Part of the money would be used to fight a poisonous weed, halogeton, which has been instrumental in the death of livestock in the Dry Mountain area.

An estimated 10 million acres are infested with halogeton. Heavy infestations are reported in Southern Utah, northwestern Nevada and southcentral Idaho.

A 'Best Year'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Commerce Secretary Frederick H. Mueller predicts that 1960 will be the best year of our lives.

The nation's gross national product should pass the $500-billion-dollar mark by the middle of this year, or early fall at the latest, he said yesterday. He told out the hope for some tax cuts.

Mueller said if congress adopts legislation to reform the administration's "hodge-podge" tax system, the economy will grow and some tax reductions will be possible.

Human Error Admitted Behind Some Failures of Titan Missile

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Assistant Air Force Secretary Joseph V. Charyk has admitted to house investigators that human errors were behind some failures in the Titan intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) program. Testimony made public today by the house defense appropriations subcommittee also disclosed that the Bomarc air-aircraft missile successfully destroyed only one supersonic target in 10 test shots.

Rep. Daniel J. Flood, D., Pa., said Titan launching crews had been guilty of "inexcusable and appalling errors in personal judgment" in at least two firing failures of the multi-million-dollar ICBM.

Charyk admitted under intensive questioning by Flood that "there have certainly been human errors that have resulted in damage to certain missiles."

The air force civilian research and development chief said Flood apparently referred to "cases where difficulties were encountered due to the failure to follow procedures which have been set up."

But Charyk said the incidents "have resulted in an intensive review of the complete operation of the (Titan) program and some major modifications in procedures have been effected." He also said "personal changes have been made" and "recent indications are that many of the deficiencies which existed earlier have been removed."

Last week, the Titan was fired twice from the Cape Canaveral, Fla., test center. Once, its second stage was successfully separated in flight for the first time. On the second firing, the missile exploded 57 seconds after blast off.

Flood also questioned Charyk and other air force officials about the Bomarc program. Flood said the anti-aircraft missile, which was the subject of a major congressional battle last year, would have cost the nation $2,500,000,000 by next July.

Air force officials admitted the Bomarc "has not proven itself against supersonic targets, but Lieut. Gen. M. E. Bradley, jr., deputy chief of staff, insisted the first Bomarc (type A) "is going to be effective."

TAYLOR "SATISFACTORY"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, former army chief of staff who suffered a broken arm when struck by a taxi Saturday, "remained in satisfactory condition today at Walter Reed army hospital.

Chessman Stay of Execution Denied

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 8 (UPI)—Convict-author Caryl Chessman today was denied a stay of execution, scheduled Feb. 19 in the San Quentin prison gas chamber.

Judge Richard Chambers, chief justice of the U. S. Ninth circuit court of appeals, also refused to issue a certificate of probable cause for appeal.

This would have granted Chessman a hearing before the full court of appeals in an effort to reverse U. S. District Judge Louis E. Goodman's refusal to grant a writ of habeas corpus.

NEWS BULLETINS

KANSAS CITY, Kans., Feb. 8 (UPI)—Edward Williams, a 47-year-old Negro butcher, was shot early today as he prepared to leave for work at the strikebound Wilson and company packing plant here. Williams, a former union member who had been on strike but later went back to work, received shotgun wounds in the left forearm, left groin and upper left leg.

HAVANA, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime maintained a tight security blackout today on the movements of Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, whose appearance at a Russian exposition here Friday was accompanied by a flurry of gunfire.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 8 (UPI)—AFL-CIO President George Meany said today Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D., N. Y., would make a "great chairman" of the house labor committee. Meany accused the Negro congressman of stirring up racial hate at a news conference following the opening meeting of the AFL-CIO executive council.

Three New County Committees Chosen By Territorial Centennial Commission

Three new county committees in Boise, Bannock and Owyhee counties were appointed at a meeting of the executive board of directors of the Idaho territorial centennial commission Monday morning at the Idaho Power auditorium.

Robert Cole, Boise, executive secretary of the commission, said each of the 44 counties in Idaho has a centennial committee, and only six are appointed officially at present.

A report was given by Cole on the Intermountain Square Dance association which will bring in dance organizations in possibly all of the western states as part of the centennial celebration in 1963. About 2,500 dancers would participate in the event if it is decided to hold it.

Cole said members are in the process of having a commemorative stamp designed for the centennial year. He said several industries are working on the possibility and the Boise Junior college art department is working on a design. He asked anyone having an idea for a design to submit it. He pointed out the request for a stamp must be submitted 18 months in advance of the proposed issuance date which would be in March, 1963.

It was decided at the board meeting to undertake a state-wide beautification project dealing with cleanup programs, painting, planting trees, etc., throughout Idaho to make the state more attractive to residents and tourists. Cole said this project is something the group feels the county committees could start working on soon.

An open meeting between the public and board members was held at 1:30 p. m. Monday at the Idaho Power auditorium. The group discussed the possibility of having traveling exhibits comprised of three to five moving vans, to be sent around the state in 1963. Cole said it would be a sort of traveling museum, featuring historical information and objects.

Also discussed at the afternoon meeting was obtaining a state official centennial seal for 1963. Cole said a large group attended the afternoon meeting.

MacArthur Is Feeling Better

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, hospitalized with a urinary disorder, is feeling better. He has been sitting in an armchair enjoying an occasional game of parchisi with his wife.

The five-star general, who was taken to Lenox Hill hospital Jan. 29 suffering a urinary block due to an enlarged prostate, has shown gradual but steady improvement in the past week.

The general took his first steps yesterday since he entered the hospital, a medical bulletin announced.

MacArthur will undergo surgery to correct his prostate condition when further laboratory tests show he has overcome the infection and kidney involvement caused by the urinary block.

The date for the surgery was not announced, but it was expected to be several weeks before he has recuperated enough to be operated on.

Congress Starts Hearing on Payola; Disc Jockeys Heard

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Two former Cleveland disc jockeys, preparing to testify at the opening of the payola hearing today, contended they were paid as consultants and not for plugging songs.

Through their attorney, Wesley Hopkins and Joseph Pinas said they have broken no laws "or even our contracts." Both are former disc jockeys on Cleveland radio-TV station KYW.

The two, with attorney Donald Zimmerman, spoke to reporters outside the hearing room as the house legislative oversight subcommittee began behind closed doors its probe into alleged under-the-table payments for plugs on the air and other radio-TV practices.

The closed session was ordered at the request of another former disc jockey, Norman Prescott, employed until recently by Boston stations.

Harris read the house rule permitting witnesses to be heard initially in executive session when testimony might "tend to defame, degrade or incriminate" anyone.

He said the committee felt it must grant Prescott's request, made earlier in a telegram from Palm Beach, Fla.

House investigators also are tak-

Youth, 18, Is Nabbed While Opening Safe

BURLEY, Feb. 8—Lloyd Leon Thurber, 18, Raselton, was apprehended about 11 p.m. Saturday while attempting to break open the safe at the Burley high school by Burley Police Officer Don Odom and Reserve Police Officer Ralph Marsh.

The policemen took Thurber by surprise after noticing the furnace room door of the high school was not completely shut. They found other doors had been forced open.

Upon questioning Thurber admitted a former breakin at the high school Jan. 28. This is the third breakin at the high school. The second one was admitted by two persons now in the Rupert jail.

Thurber, whose address is listed as Hazelton, was living here temporarily. He is being held at Burley.

According to Police Chief George Warrell nothing was taken on this attempt and $10 was taken on the first breakin.

Warrell stated on the recent livestock commission burglary, a suspect is being held in custody at LaGrande, Ore.

GRONCHI, KHRUSHCHEV MEET

MOSCOW, Feb. 9 (UPI)—Italian President Giovanni Gronchi met Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other top Soviet leaders today to discuss disarmament, European security and aid to underdeveloped countries.

Naval Chief Says U.S. Strong, but Urges More Subs

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, the chief of naval operations, today expressed his complete confidence in the ability of this country to deter any attack by the Soviet Union. Burke told the house space committee he "thought the United States is the most powerful nation on Earth." He said there was "nothing Russia can do to stop her destruction if she wants to start a war." Burke said this "is true now and I believe it will be true in the future." But Burke also said that the United States should have a total of 45 Polaris missile submarines.

The United States is presently building nine missile lobbing submarines and there are funds for three more in the budget for fiscal year 1961, which begins July 1.

Burke disclosed that the navy originally asked for 19 billion dollars for its 1961 budget but later trimmed this request to 15 billion dollars. As finally approved for submission to congress, the navy budget was $14,983,000,000.

He said, however, that he "completely accepted" the present spending levels as adequate to meet defense needs.

Burke told the committee that final tests on the Polaris missile would be begun in July and that the navy hoped to have the first Polaris submarines in operation by fall.

He said the navy had requested more than the three Polaris submarines in the budget now being reviewed by congress.

But he added that the administration did not ask for additional ships.

California Bid Approved for Bases in Area

BOISE, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Kaiser-Raymond-Macco-Pudget Sound, Oakland, Calif., today was awarded a multi-million-dollar contract for construction of Titan missile facilities near Mountain Home air force base, Rep. Hamer H. Budge, R., Ida., said today.

In a telephone call from Washington, D. C., Budge said that the U. S. army engineers district office, Walla Walla, Wash., had announced acceptance of the combine's low bid of $28,899,000.

The 25-foot missile is expected to have a range in excess of 5,500 miles when perfected. It is powered by liquid oxygen and a high grade of kerosene.

Church Opens Drive Against Grazing Cut

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8—Sen. Frank Church, D., Ida., today launched a campaign against proposed reductions in funds for the maintenance of Idaho's public grazing lands. Church appealed to the secretary of interior against proposed cutbacks in allocations for rehabilitation and improvement of Taylor grazing-act lands. He said continued improvement of grazing lands was essential in the light of the testimony by Idaho livestock operators, given recently at a hearing of the senate public lands subcommittee at Twin Falls, that they had received extensive cutbacks in grazing allotments.

Bureau of land management requests for soil and moisture conservation funds, as well as weed control program money for the fiscal year 1961 "have once again been sharply reduced," Church said.

"In Idaho, for example," he wrote the interior secretary, "of the best leaf hopper control program has been eliminated in the 1961 requests, and the total weed control allocations proposed are only $125,000 compared to $300,000 for 1960 and $300,000 for 1959.

"The range users do not agree that the range has deteriorated to the extent that cuts of up to 80 per cent in the carrying capacity are justified," he wrote. "But if such a trend is present, then it certainly seems to me that your department has an affirmative duty to try to reverse it. As I understand it, the Taylor grazing act was enacted primarily to improve range and weed control, and funds were inaugurated for this purpose.

"Livestock operations constitute a major fraction of total agricultural income in Idaho, and Idaho is an agricultural state," he continued. "I will have occasion, as the interior department reviews the transcript of the Idaho hearings, to consult with you about land management decisions which are causing such harm in this industry.

"In the meantime, however, I hope you will furnish the senate appropriations committee, when you appear there, a detailed explanation of your plans for range rehabilitation, and the reasons why you have cut back your estimates as to the amount of money you need for this essential work."

Disc Jockey's Aid to Drive Raises $1,589

William F. Denney, disc jockey, was taken off the Heart Fund marathon Sunday after 108 hours of continuous broadcasting.

R. W. Burden, manager of KEEP, said a physician who checked Denney regularly, said Denney had temporary internal problems developing after about half an hour Sunday night. About $1,589 had been collected by noon Monday and more is expected to be collected from pledges.

Burden said Denney was disappointed and wanted to continue the marathon but the physician insisted he be taken off before he was harmed physically or mentally. Denney began at 9 a.m. Wednesday in an attempt to beat a 204-hour broadcasting record made by a New York disc jockey and raise $10,000 for the Heart Fund drive.

Burden said a street dance will be held from 8 to 10 p.m. today, weather permitting, featuring the Twin Falls high school pep band and the Kingsmen dance band, with the "Continentals" (formerly the "Casuals"), singing. Burden said Police Chief Howard Gillette has given his okay to close down from Shoshone street to Second street. Denney will be present at the public street dance, which is to raise additional funds for the Heart Fund.

Burden said KEEP will continue broadcasting from 4 to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday this week in hopes of doubling the amount now collected.

Shortage of Power Is Caused by Storm

A heavy snowstorm struck the northern part of Magic Valley Sunday night and Monday morning while rain fell in the southern portion of the valley with power shortages reported in many areas. Power shortages were reported in the Gannett and Carey areas with school at Carey dismissed because of no electricity. Paul Dempsey, Blaine county school superintendent, reported the schools from Picabo to Carey and the one from Picabo to Hailey could not make it Monday morning because of the storm. Rain fell in most areas south of the Ice caves. Heavy rain fell at Shoshone, flooding some basements, but not melting all the snow that had been on the ground.

Some streets in Jerome were covered with water after 48 hours of rain fell there, Sunday night and early Monday morning. Ice jams in a coulee near the intersection of Buchanan street and Birch avenue were causing the intersection to become inundated, with water flowing down to Lincoln street. The Clear Springs company was attempting to break the ice loose to prevent further flooding.

City crews at Gooding were kept busy Monday morning pumping water from basements. The Gooding fire department spent about two hours pumping water on Main

The death increased Idaho's traffic toll for the year to 12, compared to 17 at this time a year ago.

Israel Likely to Buy More Arms

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Israel plans to step up purchases of arms and military equipment as a result of current border clashes with the United Arab Republic and to compensate for the recent flow of Soviet arms into Arab countries.

This was expected to be the main result of a cabinet meeting called yesterday by Premier David Ben-Gurion. The ministers conferred on the tense situation along the Israeli-Syrian frontier.

An uneasy quiet prevailed along the border today, as was the case over the week-end. U. N. observers reported no incidents in the demilitarized zone south of the Sea of Galilee, scene of most of the clashes over the past 11 days.

Top English Expert Says U. S. Feared

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—One of Great Britain's top experts on Soviet armed forces said today that the United States is at present far stronger than the Russians in long-range striking power.

"I think the Soviet leaders have never been more frightened of U. S. striking power than they are at this moment," said J. M. Mackintosh, adviser to the British Institute of Strategic Studies, in a copyrighted interview in the current issue of the magazine "U. S. News and World Report."

Mackintosh declared the U. S. advantage would last "a year anyway, perhaps more—perhaps two years."

He said that even should Russian ground forces succeed in overrunning and occupying West Europe, "the Soviets probably could not mount a full-scale invasion of the United States. The result of nuclear war, he went on, could easily be a prolonged stalemate between America and Russia.

"Just a few years ago," Mackintosh said, "it was fashionable in the Soviet Union to say that the western long-range nuclear strike was overestimated. There is much feeling now Soviet leaders are in real fear of it—the deterrent is real."

4th POLIO CASE TREATED

funds "when the system becomes operational."

"We anticipate we may be able to seek a supplemental appropriation for more missile subs when the weapon has proved itself," he said.

Meanwhile, Sen. Francis Case, R., S. D., told the senate this is the "season on goblins" in the arguments about the state of America's defense system.

Case, discounting fears about U.S. military strength, said he has heard similar apprehensions for 20 years as a member of the appropriations committee of the house and senate.

But he added that the country should note that seven of the present eight space satellites were "put there by the United States," that the strategic air command has the greatest nuclear striking power in the world, that the Polaris missile-firing submarine "looks like the best in its class."

He added that this country is spending 10 times as much each day on ballistic missiles as it spent in all of 1952.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R., Mass., urged congress today to close the "serious gap" in military buying.

He said the time lag between development of a workable idea and delivery of a military item could be almost twice as much in this country as in the Soviet Union.

Over the week-end, Sen. Karl Mundt, R., N. D., and Rep. George H. Mahon, D., Tex., chairman of the house military appropriations subcommittee, kept the defense controversy boiling.

Mundt, in a report to his constituents, charged that the Democratic critics of the administration have been playing "not so 'powerful' politics on a critical issue—our security."

He said free world defense should not be a political issue but that it had been "tossed into the political arena" time and again within recent weeks."

Mahon, appearing on a television program, said the United States faces "a frightening situation" because of Soviet superiority in missile development.

He said this country now has more military striking power than the Russians but that it was "embarrassing, humiliating and disturbing" to be behind the Soviet Union in intercontinental ballistic missiles.

Promotions of Stores Aired At Meet Here

Twin Falls business promotions were the main topic of discussion at the meeting of the Commercial division of the Chamber of Commerce Monday noon at Wray's cafe. Ronald Williams reported on last year's promotions and the group discussed which promotions to hold this year.

Promotions last year were Washington's birthday, Easter, rocket promotion in June, back-to-school, turkey day, Mexican fiesta and teachers' institute. Williams estimated profit or loss from the promotions.

Members generally favored a bunny promotion for Easter, and agreed the back-to-school promotion was usually successful. Most members were against turkey day.

It was suggested merchants give points for purchases to go for turkey instead of having a drawing. A member mentioned "Sagebrush day" was a successful promotion, and suggested it be used again.

It also was suggested having a promotion during the women's state bowling tournament here in March, and building a promotion around the fair and rodeo, possibly having a parade one day during rodeo week.

William Grange, Chamber of Commerce secretary and manager, offered to list scheduled conventions and events for the year for members, and about how many persons are expected to attend the events.

Members agreed to handle the Washington's birthday promotion the same as last year. It was mentioned the "home show" brought many persons to Twin Falls, and it was pointed out Twin Falls merchants do not participate enough in the event.

Carl Arnold, president, suggested the promotion committee and members decide on several promotions and hold them at about the same time annually, so improvements can be made on them each year.

The promotion committee will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Wray's cafe to discuss promotions further. It was suggested Charles Daugherty be invited to a meeting in the near future to discuss advantages and disadvantages of the proposed national park in Idaho.

Hearings on Payola Start In Congress

ing a look at records of a hotel at Miami Beach where some 2,000 disc jockeys are alleged to have been feted last year with girls and lavish parties.

A source close to the oversight subcommittee said records of the hotel have been subpoenaed as part of the subcommittee's investigation of payola among television and radio jockeys.

In another field congress today was asked by President Eisenhower for an extra 950 million dollars in appropriations for the present fiscal year ending June 30.

Most of it is for the executive branch, the bulk of it for mandatory expenses such as grants to states, ship operating subsidies and costs of the commodity credit corporation. There also are some unforeseen expenses such as those to repair damage caused by an earthquake in Yellowstone national park.

The White House said the request was taken into account in the latest budget revision.

For the 1916 fiscal year, beginning July 1, Eisenhower proposed today a cut of 66½ million dollars for the veterans administration.

The White House said this reflects a reduction from 225,000 to 200,000 in the average number of educational trainees under the GI bill of rights, plus a small reduction in general operational expenditures.

Eisenhower formally submitted a request for an extra 113 million dollars for the national aeronautics and space administration in the 1961 fiscal year, chiefly to push the Saturn project to develop high thrust booster rockets.

In other congressional action Everett M. Dirksen, R., Ill., and Allen J. Ellender, D., La., have launched separate fights to reduce the $3,696,000 that senate committees want to spend on investigations.

The senate took up the money requests today.

Chief target of Dirksen, senate Republican leader, is the $425,000 proposed to finance continued operations of the anti-monopoly subcommittee headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver, D., Tenn.

Two Crashes Are Noted at Rupert

RUPERT, Feb. 8 — A broken wheel assembly and failure to see a signal caused two separate accidents near here Saturday and Sunday.

Damages of $200 were estimated by State Patrolman Roy Thomas to a 1950 Ford sedan after it went over a five-foot embankment into a canal near here at 3 p.m. Saturday. The front wheel assembly of the car driven by Arthur F. Nolan, Hazelton, broke and pulled the car over the embankment.

At 1 p.m. Sunday, one mile west of Paul on highway 25, Evan L. Smith, 17, Burley, signaled to make a left turn and his car was sideswiped by a 1958 Pontiac driven by George R. Russell, 24, Vale, Ore., while attempting to pass. Russell told Deputy Sheriff Howard Piatt that he did not see the signal. The Plymouth driven by Smith is owned by his mother, Mrs. James L. Smith, Burley.

Prayer Answered By 2 Telephones

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Some 20,000 persons here find themselves "standing in need of prayer" every week. They find their need answered through the "Dial-a-Prayer" service of the East Cleveland Congregational church.

"Although the number is unlisted, we get as much business as the two lines can handle," says the Rev. Robert Peters, pastor of the church, who writes the prayers.

When the service was first started, the eight lines then in use handled more than 100,000 calls during the first week-end of September, 1955. Business was good. So good in fact that the exchange was knocked out of commission and thousands of telephones in the area were out of service for a time.

The Rev. Peters says the calls are heavy during the morning and night with a noticeable tapering off in the early afternoon. The phones have even been heard ringing at 4 a.m.

In Jhabua, a state of central India, a medical dispensary was built to mark Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee in 1897.

No Hat to Toss

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 8 (UPI) — Republicans hoping Vice President Richard M. Nixon would toss his hat into the Wisconsin primary today didn't bargain on a souvenir hunter.

Nixon left his hat on the airliner that brought him to Chicago from Los Angeles and airline officials said a souvenir hunter apparently made off with it.

Racer Ayers Drivers' Tests Ought to Emphasize Driving

By HENRY McLEMORE

American is the land of great parkers and poor drivers and always will be until the standard driver's license test is overhauled.

This is the opinion of Rex White, a tough-fibered young man who makes his living in a tough-fibered way — stock car racing.

McLemore

"I have licenses for seven of eight states," White told me as he tinkered with a car he hopes to drive 150 miles an hour around the Daytona International speedway. "And when I took the tests proper parking was the most important part.

I said I didn't know, which was the truth.

"How many people are killed by bad parkers every year?" White asked. "There couldn't be many. But regiments are killed by poor drivers. I think it would be a good idea to quit emphasizing how to squeeze a car into a small space, or how to park nice and snug to a curb, and put the emphasis on the part of driving that really counts."

White wound a spark plug or two in my direction and went on.

"I had to take a driving test when I moved to South Carolina from Maryland a while back, and I failed the first time. As soon as I got in the car the examiner wanted to see how I parked. I bumped one of the posts that represented a parking space, and that was that. I flunked. And I know I can drive a car pretty well, or else I wouldn't be alive."

I asked Rex if he managed to get his Carolina license.

"Oh, yes, I got it," he said. "As soon as I proved that I could park real pretty, the rest was a breeze. I wanted to ask the examiner why he didn't forget about parking and check on how I drove on the highway. That's the place that counts.

"You know, I'll bet you that two-thirds of the dandy parkers are potentially dangerous highway drivers. By that I mean they never know how far they are behind the car in front, or if they have enough room to brake in case of an emergency, or what to do, or try to do, in a skid, or how to handle a blowout. But in a parking contest they'd win a ribbon or some sort of prize."

Rex has reason to fear the poor driver. His only accident didn't come in competition, when running bumper to bumper with blazing competitors, but on the four-lane highway between Baltimore and Washington.

"I got it right where you'd least expect it. On a wide, wide road, on a nice, clear day, and with little traffic. A fellow jumped the dividing line and hit me head on. I spent 10 weeks in the hospital. I have no doubt but that the driver who hit me could park his car on a dime, and never, never failed to turn his wheels into the curb the right way."

While said the first thing a man should learn, if he cares about being a safe driver, is that the driver is supposed to get the car to a destination, and not the other way round.

"Too many people think that is the car's job," he said. "A car is a beautiful thing, but it doesn't have a grain of sense. It is just as happy hitting a wall as running smoothly down a road. The driver has to supply the brains."

EVER-BURNING FUSE

The 20th century's "law of continuous tension" is proving itself once again. French President Charles de Gaulle cracks the Algerian rightist revolt, and disturbances break out on the Syrian-Israeli border.

Reports indicate they are the worst since the 1956 Suez war that led to United Nations intervention. As so often before, each side accuses the other of aggression. Lives have been lost, guns are bristling, soldiers are marching.

U. N. truce forces are, of course, still on duty in the general area. If we are fortunate, U. N. observers may be able to get to the fighting scene and give us an impartial report on whose responsibility is paramount in this new flare-up.

The news comes as particularly disappointing because a fairly long period of relative quiet suggested that perhaps at least relations between the Arab and Israeli peoples were beginning to improve. Evidently they have continued on the razor edge, and the quiet has been as much accident as anything.

Whatever impartial observers may learn, we know now that the underlying causes of Middle East tension have not been eased. The Arab world, and especially President Nasser of the United Arab Republic, refuse even at this late date to accept Israel as a permanent reality in its midst.

As always, Nasser ruthlessly employs for his own political ends the continuing Arab-Israeli hostility. He plainly is not interested in softening it so long as he has something to gain by maintaining it at pitch.

Perhaps only the long passage of time will do what Nasser and similar self-serving Middle Eastern politicians decline to do—establish the permanence of Israel despite all the rancors of the surrounding Arabs.

If it is to be this way, it seems tragic that in the interim both the Middle East itself and the nervous world outside must be subjected periodically to these painful and dangerous clashes. One can hardly believe that either the Arabs or the Israelis want or would dare a war that could spread widely. Yet every time they fire a rifle across a hostile border, they flirt with that prospect.

ISSUES VS. PERSONALITIES

With the exception of Harry S. Truman, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler, most Democrats of national stature insist that the party should make its presidential bid on issues rather than personalities, and that lambasting the vice president will antagonize many fair-minded people.

In view of Vice President Nixon's restrained behavior in recent years, especially under the provocation of riots in Latin-American cities and Khrushchev's denunciations at the Moscow fair last year, they realize that they must run against the man as he is today, and not the young politician of 1946-52. They feel that they must not try to win by demeaning President Eisenhower's aide and heir in a petty and personal way.

In a sense, Nixon has responded to the pressures of new times and new problems, whereas Truman and Humphrey are tangling with questions that have lost their pertinence.

From 1946 to 1952, when Nixon did engage in slam-bang tactics similar to Truman's, it was an emotional period shaken by our fear of ruthless communist strategy on the world scene, and evidence of betrayals of trust on the part of high officials within the Truman administration, as revealed by Elizabeth Bentley and federal investigations.

Truman and Humphrey, it appears, are living in and reliving those days. Meanwhile, whether from maturity or calculation, Nixon has emerged from that exciting era as an important national and international figure, and so recognized at the White House and on capitol hill.

OLD COMMIES NEVER LEARN

Reports from Latin America indicate that cocky communists are planning anti-American demonstrations during President Eisenhower's forthcoming visit to Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina and Chile.

It was one of these demonstrations which turned into a riot in Venezuela in 1957 and seriously imperiled Vice President Nixon, his wife and others in their party.

One would hope that even the communists, who can be amazingly thick at times, learned something from the violent world reaction to that near-tragedy.

No one can guess what orders are going out to red agitators in the various South American capitals. But minimum good sense would suggest that they keep their 1960 demonstrations peaceful.

They may find, indeed, that there is nothing but political loss for them in demonstrating at all against Mr. Eisenhower; who showed on his 1959 trip to Europe and Asia how universally he is accepted as a symbol of peace and good will.

But communists generally are so wedded to the stereotype of the "demonstration" that the prospect of heavy loss may just not sink through their skulls.

It's funny that no matter what season it is, it always seems to come at the wrong time of year.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—Only a handful of Democratic politicians still believe that they should wage a campaign of personal and political abuse of Vice President Nixon as the Republican presidential nominee next fall.

The more serious and farsighted leaders of the opposition, including all but one presidential candidate, believe that they should let "bygones be bygones," as the American people seem inclined to do with respect to the Californian's earlier tumultuous career on the West Coast and at Washington.

Ray Tucker

Some of our greatest Presidents—Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, Franklin D. Roosevelt, to mention the more prominent—indulged in tactics as beginners that they preferred to forget when they attained political office and maturity.

An impelling reason for this shift of strategy is the recent polls of public opinion. They indicate that the public has dismissed indictments against the Vice President insofar as they were based on his strenuous campaigns for the house and senate and in the 1952 presidential contest.

The canvasses show that he leads such Democratic front-runner as Sen. John F. Kennedy and the two-time nominee, Adlai E. Stevenson. Interestingly, neither of these men has seen fit to indulge in petty or vicious attacks on the presiding officer of the senate.

DEMOCRATS WANT TO FORGET—The principal Democrats who insist on a vituperative onslaught are three men who are rapidly losing influence within the national Democratic organization, although not because of their anti-Nixon attitude alone.

In the order of their former importance, they are Harry S. Truman, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and National Chairman Paul M. Butler. Only Humphrey will enjoy any real influence at the national convention, and that only because he may turn up with 60 or 70 delegates. Nobody gives him a serious chance for the nomination.

The Democratic party, as now led and constituted, has no desire to carry on the former President's personal vendetta against Nixon, based on Truman's belief that the Vice President once called him a "traitor"—a charge that has never been proved.

The vice president did say that the Truman administration had been "soft on communism," although "neglectful" and "indifferent" would have been a more precise definition.

The Democratic strategists realize that the Truman type of attack would revive memories of Alger Hiss and other Truman officials who were revealed as pro-communists; of his acceptance of reports that the Red Chinese were "only agrarian reformers;" and of Dean Acheson's policy of "letting the dust settle" over the communists' conquest of the mainland.

The Democrats are willing to forget that chapter of recent history, especially as its revival might endanger any chance of terminating the "cold war" by antagonizing Moscow again. Save for Truman, most party leaders approve the administration's efforts toward a peaceful settlement.

"GIVE 'EM HELL" APPROACH NOT WANTED—For practical political reasons, many Democrats wish that Truman would sideline himself in the 1960 campaign. They do not feel that the people are in a mood for another "Give 'em hell" show, for the kind of class warfare that he waged, and which Senator Humphrey plans with his "poor man's crusade."

It is hardly necessary to note that National Chairman Butler never has had and does not now possess any real influence except among the left-wingers and racial desegregation extremists of the North.

He has been defied by Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, who refuse to accept his radical dictates. Many Southern Democrats will not contribute to the national committee so long as he heads it. The 1960 nominee will supplant him immediately after the July convention, selecting a less controversial character.

Save for minor local figures, these three are Vice President Nixon's only bitter and revengeful enemies within the Democratic party.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

INTO THE EDUCATIONAL TENT

The shape of the camel's nose has been made more clearly distinguishable by the director of federal education programs for Idaho's state department of education. The reference is to the gradual encroachment of federal government upon state and local responsibility for, and control of, the public school system, and particularly to the manifestation of this trend in operations lately authorized by the national defense education act.

Common sense, from the start, has indicated that the federal government isn't going to lay out any very substantial aid to schools without retaining, and asserting, some measures for control over how it's spent. School districts electing to avail themselves of the inducements that this new legislation holds out, seem to have pretty generally recognized this liability, and recognize that they're attempting to walk a tight rope.

These inducements, though, ranging from federal contribution for the purchase of something like a microscope or other equipment for instruction in the field of science to payment of a part of the salaries of instructors and guidance personnel, seem to have had a pretty persuasive allure, so that government operations in this area are bourgeoning and unlikely to be pruned.

It develops now that this national defense education act marks the nose of the federal aid camel that's already crowding out some of the original occupants of the educational tent.

The state's director of federal education programs, who solemnly declares that he's opposed to "any federal program which would force the state to receive federal aid to education," concedes as much. Speaking in Lewiston lately he put it this way:

"Other services which could be provided by the department of education have to be curtailed because of funds needed to administer this (national defense education) act."

So we learn that normal resources of the schools are being drained away to support a federal government adjutant to education, and that fact is being used as basis for argument that there must be more of federal aid to make up this deficit.

As a clincher to this argument, there's this further quotation from this official at Lewiston:

"A number of school districts in the state could not exist without federal funds and continue with their present programs."

Whatever else may be said about this official's statement, it must be conceded that he's well entitled to credit for thus so clearly pointing out what we're letting ourselves in for, and how we're getting it.

In this there's a serious warning. It's not yet too late for those who will heed it. — Idaho Daily Statesman.

TALK OF THE HEIGHT OF FOLLY!

We heard somebody say the other day that the government should buy up the goods small grocers cannot sell each year, probably at a cost of only $50 to $100 apiece to a few thousand independents. An integral part of the scheme would be purchase also of surplus stocks of chains, involving payments of $100,000 to one million dollars each to several hundred outfits. Of course everybody said this was silly and the American people would never stand for it.

But they are standing for something very similar. This is the price support program by which the government buys up crop surpluses. A few days ago Senator Williams of Delaware disclosed that on 1958 crops 250 cotton growers received from $100,000 to $1,442,000 each for surplus production. Most of the crop comes from the larger and more efficient producers, who don't need federal aid. Most of those who do need it get very small amounts.

Talk of the height of folly! This operation rates a modern term—the summit of folly.—Christian Science Monitor.

POT SHOTS

BUT NO RESULTS

Pot Shots:

This election year might be a good time to call attention again to the old practice of election year politics. Just offhand, I can't ever recall any politician advocating an increase in the nation's budget, yet it just keeps going up.

And everyone seems to deplore the increase in the public debt, but it just keeps going up.

I'm getting to the point where I don't think any bureaucrat or politician is the slightest bit interested in reducing either the budget or the public debt. And the trouble with "turning the rascals out" is that we get another batch of "rascals" every bit as bad.

And it has been said (jestingly, I presume) that the voters actually run this country!

SLICKERED?

In regard to the note I read a couple weeks ago about people called up by salesmen, yes, we've been called up several times by insurance and such, but this one you mentioned got it beat.

Don't think it's a nice program. When you get into it, it's not so easy afterward as it sounds and can't get rid of the darn thing. Don't feel it's quite a fair deal. Yes, he pays you for your time but when you bite, you pay it right back and so you really don't benefit after all except for a big headache.

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

Often in the night on my pillow I shudder at the idea that I am the law of the land. It is so ridiculous, me the law of the great American nation of silly fools, although we are still the greatest people in all the world. I realize the world must be in a very bad way because I know what a ratty character I am. How cheap and vain, how stingy in petty things, for instance, entertainment.

Westbrook Pegler

I never give a dinner except we had to entertain her no-good brother and that buck-tooth wife of his, that ugly old tomato's face would clabber milk through a lead screen two feet thick. But I have to keep peace in the family even if I am the law of the land.

Otherwise my old lady, the war department, would never let me hear the last of it, squawking and beefing, you think you are so high and mighty just because you played along with some bum politicians and got this big payola for life on the supreme court, but listen to me, buster, my folks are as good as yours are, don't you ever forget that, you, the law of the land, you choke me with humor. I know what a cheap punk shyster you are.

Shut up, shut your ugly bazoo, where would you be if you did not marry the law of the land? You would be pounding one of those electric typewriters in the stenographer pool at the state security commission, that is where you would be. Glad of a few dates on Friday nights with state senators and committeemen, all bruised up from standing the bums off.

Now you are the wife of the law of the land you don't appreciate your luck. And moreover, that rum-dum brother of yours would still be a civil service timekeeper in the bureau of streets and sewers if I was not the law of the land. You don't think the bum got appointed to the international agency on Latin-American cultural developments, $8,500 a year and expenses, on his merits; you don't think that do you?

Shut up and let me go to sleep. The law of the land has got to put in a big day tomorrow, big railroad case, some ignorant rum-dum Republican barfly over there in Iowa ruled the railroads had a right to fire an engineer for driving a diesel drunk 90 miles an hour through Oscaloosa—but what do you know about machinery? Shut up and let the law of the land sleep.

I feel like I am going to get an ulcer going against those free canapes four, five times a week. I can eat a hod of that genuine imported Russian caviar and I hear the embassies get it free, they trade textiles or typewriters to Khrushchev and he sends them genuine gray caviar as big as grapes.

I'll have to lay off those new vodka drinks, sputniks and screwdrivers. I got looping over at the New York Times' party, then I got into that scrap with that bum from the Republican committee, I hope it doesn't get in the papers, if it does I will just deny it. No I won't, the law of the land won't say anything. Dignified silence.

Anyway, she is so darn lazy, if I did give a dinner she would call in some poor, ignorant chambermaid, put a white cap and apron on her, call her Chloe and talk about our dear old mammy and our hot southern blood. South St. Paul blood. But I have to pay income tax like everybody else and they don't give the law of the land any expense allowance for rib roast or duck for a lot of hungry lawyers and senators.

Anyway, I got it made, they can't fire me now, I am the law of the land for life. I am not tossing my money away on a lot of free loaders, I always say it is incautious, that is a hot one, or unseemly, how about that one, or imprudent for a learned justice, har, that's me, of the supreme court of the greatest nation on earth to entertain ordinary people in your home.

It isn't the expense, the hell it isn't; nor the effort, the hell it isn't; it is just deleterious to the prestige of the honorable supreme court for the august law of the land to invite ordinary human beings to dinner; it lowers majesty of the law, har, that's me; and the bill mounts up and anyway that lazy old blister of mine wouldn't know an oyster fork from a sand-wedge.

Order in the court, everybody stand up, hats off, lock that guy up with that cigar in his face, lese majeste, everybody bow down, I am the law of the land!

Diplomat Asks if Russia, Red China Have Run Into Trouble

NEW DELHI, India, Feb. 8 (AP)—Diplomats hope Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to India next week will uncover answers to this riddle: Have the Soviet Union and red China run into serious differences?

Many diplomatic observers in New Delhi believe the answer may be yes.

Khrushchev arrives Thursday in New Delhi, first stop on a tour of India, Burma and Indonesia, all of whom have quarreled with red China. He also will stop in Afghanistan on his return trip.

Since red China suppressed last year's rebellion in Tibet and seized about 50,000 square miles of territory India claims, India has developed widely divergent attitudes toward the Soviet Union and communist China. Many Indians look upon the Chinese as bad; the Soviets as good.

This attitude has been encouraged by Prime Minister Nehru, who repeatedly has declared there is no country more interested in preserving peace than the Soviet Union and none more reckless with peace than red China.

The Kremlin's own attitude has encouraged a feeling in India that Khrushchev may influence the Chinese to stop being bad. Privately, Khrushchev has been quoted as saying the Chinese are behaving stupidly. Publicly, he has termed the quarrel a misunderstanding.

Diplomats are asking: Has Khrushchev held aloof from the dispute because he felt it was a misunderstanding? Or, as [illegible] by many Indian officials, [illegible] a way of displaying anger [illegible] red China's aggressiveness at a time when the Kremlin is stressing coexistence, disarmament and summit conferences?

Nehru and Khrushchev [illegible] Thursday afternoon before Khrushchev addresses parliament. Friday morning and Saturday afternoon also are free for conversations.

LDS Leaders Will Speak at Burley, Oakley Conferences

BURLEY, Feb. 8—Three leaders of the LDS church will address of the two-day conferences of the church's Burley and Cassia stakes on Feb. 20 and 21.

Elder Harold B. Lee, a member of the council of twelve apostles, will address the Burley stake and Elders A. Theodore Tuttle, a member of the first council of seventy, and LeRoy A. Wirthlin, a director of the general welfare committee, will speak at the Cassia stake session in Oakley.

On the evening of Feb. 20 meetings will be held for leaders of local congregations. The Feb. 21 sessions are open to the public and will be held at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Stake President Newel P. Baker will conduct the Burley meetings and Stake President Winslow B. Whiteley will lead the Oakley sessions.

The conferences, like all held during 1960, will emphasize youth development as part of a special church-wide parents and youth program launched early this year by David O. McKay, LDS church president.

Elder Lee was a teacher and principal in public schools of Idaho and Utah before entering private business, and later becoming a public official. He has been a stake leader, a welfare worker and has been director of the church welfare program since 1937.

Elder Tuttle is an educator. He has served as instructor and administrator in the church school system in Utah, Idaho and Nevada. He now is a coordinator of the system.

Report Shows Safety Limits For Radiation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UP)—New research shows that nearly anyone can receive up to 200 roentgens of radiation from a nuclear blast without receiving disabling illness, the office of civil defense and mobilization reports.

A roentgen is a unit for measurement of ionizing radiation. The average American absorbs about three-tenths roentgens of radiation yearly from natural causes such as cosmic rays and certain medical treatments such as X-rays.

Leo A. Hoegh, director of the OCDM, said the new finding was made by a subcommittee of the national committee on radiation protection and measurements headed by Dr. Lauriston S. Taylor.

Dr. Taylor said that if radiation exposure is spread more or less evenly over a year, an individual could receive as high as 1,000 roentgens without becoming a casualty.

Exposure of less than 50 roentgens cannot be detected by ordinary means, Dr. Taylor said. He added that only when short-term dosage exceeds 200 roentgens does the incidence of radiation sickness and risk of death increase rapidly.

Don't Oppose Mixed Union, Pastors Urge

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (UP)—Theologians contributing to a Presbyterian magazine say a Christian should not try to stop his son or daughter from marrying a person of another race.

The February issue of Social Progress, on sale now, is devoted entirely to the question of interracial marriages.

All the theologians contributing to the magazine agreed that a Christian should accept inter-racial marriages. But they added that each situation must be considered independently.

Marcus Barth of the federated theological faculty at the University of Chicago wrote: "All talk and all striving for desegregation and for full equality and community of rights and duties of the people of different races living together in America is but rubbish unless it includes the willingness to accept and protect racially mixed marriages."

In 1957 each serviceable railroad freight car in the U.S. carried an average of 976 tons of freight a distance of one mile each day.

Make Out Your Will, Boyle Suggests; It's Enlightening

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (UP)—Have you made out your will yet?

If not, you ought to. Otherwise after you're gone your relatives will wind up squabbling over who gets your new two-pants suit and the gold fillings in your teeth.

Hal Boyle

Millions of Americans postpone making out a will because the mere thought depresses them. Actually, it is rather an enlightening experience.

"I'll go along with you—just so you won't feel nervous," says your wife, when you tell her you are going to a lawyer to make out your will.

You have a deep inner conviction that this isn't her real reason at all. But what can you say? So along she comes.

"Have you decided just what you want to do?" asks the lawyer.

"Yep," you tell him. "The first thing I want to do is disinherit mankind. That's only what it deserves."

"Heh, heh, heh," laughs the lawyer coldly. "Now what about your material possessions? Do you own any stocks, bonds, country homes, yachts or old grain elevators?

Any other chattels?"

"Just her," you reply, pointing to your wife.

Well, it turns out after further questioning that about all you have to leave is a few sticks of furniture, your life insurance, and your clothing.

In a burst of husbandly generosity, you say: "Just make everything over to my wife. After all, she is a good woman and she has given me the best years of her life—she says."

The secretary types out the will. For some reason, no matter how little you have to leave, the document always runs to three or four pages.

But after disposing of all your worldly goods — and paying the lawyer—you find you have just $2.63 in your pockets.

"I'm worth more dead than alive," you complain on the bus going home.

Suddenly you remember something.

"I forgot to ask the lawyer who I should leave my credit cards to," you exclaim.

"Never mind, you can take them with you," says your wife, patting your hand again consolingly. "Where you're going, you'll need all the credit you can get."

India May Hike Defense Budget

NEW DELHI, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Premier Jawaharlal Nehru indicated today India will increase its defense budget to meet red China's threat to its northern borders.

Nehru told a caucus of legislators belonging to his Congress party that defense expenditures could not be held to current levels during India's border dispute with red China.

Demo Pledges Supports for Public Power

BOISE, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Sen. Hubert Humphrey pledged continued support for public power development of the Pacific Northwest during a brief airport stopover here yesterday.

Control of water resources, he said, is the "great issue in the West" and the "Republicans treat the West as a colony rather than an integral part of the United States."

The candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination said that the western development programs would move ahead "once we get a Democrat back in the White House."

"You don't have to wait long," the Minnesota senator said. "A Democrat is going to be elected in 1960. I don't know which one it will be but it'll be one of us."

Humphrey said he always favored public power development of Idaho's Hells canyon.

The stopoff at Boise was his first visit to Idaho's capital city. Humphrey drove from here with Malheur county Democratic Chairman Tom Jones, Nyssa, Ore., to Baker, Ore., where he made an address last night.

Men Get "Revenge" at Idaho State; Women Pay This Week

IDAHO STATE COLLEGE, Pocatello, Feb. 8—Once a year Idaho State college men are given a chance to get "revenge" for all the money they have spent on the women, books they have carried and campus queens they have elected throughout the year.

This week is it. It's "Twirp week" —the woman is required to pay, and carry, and elect a campus king.

One day of the week will be set aside for each "area of revenge." For instance, one day women will buy all the coffee and soft drinks in the Student Union and another they will escort the men to and from classes, carrying the books, of course.

And Friday they will elect a "dream man." Five candidates have been entered in the king contest, each sponsored by a campus women's organization or dormitory.

David Hill, Pocatello, is the candidate of Gamma Phi Beta sorority; Wallace Wagner, Dubois, Alpha Omicron Pi; Willard Spalding, Jerome, Sigma Kappa; Larry Henman, Twin Falls, Graveley Hall, and Dick Schmitt, Wheaton, Ill., Alpha Chi Omega.

The winner will be announced and crowned Saturday night at the Sweetheart formal, another turnabout event. Women will do the date-asking for the dance, buy the corsages and foot the after-dance food bill.

The Associated Women Students is sponsor of annual Twirp week.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

When a small child, one able to run about and "get into things," cuts things up, breaks what is breakable, we understand that he is trying to see these things. To "see" them he needs to feel them, weigh them, get the feeling of their textures and temperature, learn about them through his senses. And, if we are wise, we place temptation beyond his reach, putting away the precious odds and ends that we cherish until he has done with this experimental idea.

To help him get what he needs sooner and with better quality, we supply him with his own box or drawer filled with odds and ends that he can test with his senses, and while learning what he needs to know, harm nothing and hurt nobody's feelings. This is an essential stage of a child's growth and must be respected as such.

However, when a child of 9 years takes a pair of scissors and goes to work on his mother's hats, dresses, furniture coverings and is spanked for it, and then repeats the offense with increased damage to the household's furnishings and his mother's personal belongings, we know this is not a stage of growth but an expression of resentment. There is something that spanking does not set right. Only a change of attitude will change such an expression of revenge.

If the mother cannot find the cause of the child's antagonism herself, she should immediately look for help from specialists. No child of this age and intelligence does that sort of thing unknowingly. He knows full well that such destruction is wrong, that it will hurt his mother and father which is, very likely, what he means to do.

Why? Why does this child want to hurt his people? What have they done or left undone to stir such resentment in the child's mind? Or has the child some form of mental illness? Certainly, there is a cause for such behavior and it must be found before any progress toward reformation can be made.

Usually the immediate family is not fitted to make the search required and the specialist's services are indicated. Parents must understand, however, that severe punishments such as spanking will only make a bad matter worse. Usually what is needed is more affection, more friendly companionship, a more important place in the family's consideration. The specialist will decide. This condition must not be allowed to continue.

Angelo Patri offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning child training. If you would like to have his leaflet, P-25, "Standards of Development," send 10 cents in coin to him, c/o Times-News, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Plant Needs Are Speaker's Topic At Garden Meet

Mrs. Victor W. Nelson, guest speaker, discussed fertilizer formulas when the Twin Falls Garden club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. G. W. Bice.

In order to have lush growth, healthy and vigorous house plants, one must know the needs of the plants and the importance of good soil structure and proper potting, humidity and temperature, Mrs. Nelson said. No plant in its resting stage is given fertilizer but extra feeding is applied to aid the plant in active growth, to mature buds and to improve foliage color.

Mrs. Nelson stated that flowering plants require more nutrients than foliage plants. Slow growing plants need very little fertilizer. She advised her listeners to use complete fertilizers prepared especially for house plants, to follow directions but not to overfeed, and to understand the stated chemical analysis representing percentages of nitrogen for top growth, phosphorous for root and blossom production, and potash, a conditioner which enables the plant to use easily the other plant foods.

Mrs. Nelson showed samples of various packaged fertilizers and gave directions for making liquid fertilizers from farm animal manures. She said the stock solution should be diluted with an equal amount of water before using. Actively growing plants whose roots fill the pot could be watered every two to five weeks with this type fertilizer. The soil in the pot always must be moist to prevent damage to the plant, Mrs. Nelson warned.

Mrs. Sam Porter talking on successful transplanting, pointed out the importance of sterilized pots and soil and gave directions for sterilizing soil in the oven. Mrs. Porter emphasized the use of small pots for small plants. As the plant grows she recommended two more shifts to larger pots. Mrs. Porter preferred sponge rock in place of sand in the soil mix. It is easier for the roots, she said, and may be purchased at any building supply store. A general potting mix is one-third sterilized leaf soil, one-third peat moss and one-third sponge rock, Mrs. Porter said.

Mrs. A. J. Peavey told of the various aspects of plants showing hunger signs and stressed the value and use of a compost heap in maintaining plant health. Mrs. Peavey also reported on the National Gardener magazine and showed a picture of the Downy woodpecker, the bird of the month.

Clara Walton, program chairman, introduced the speakers.

The business session, conducted by Mrs. C. B. Requa, president, was opened with the collect read by Mrs. Kenneth Hodder. Mrs. Harold L. Lackey was welcomed into the club. It was announced that the garden school at Boise will be held Feb. 8 and 9 at the Basque center. Mrs. Floyd Bandy, iris chairman, said the American Iris society convention will be held May 18 to 21 in Portland.

Mrs. J. W. Newman, rosebud chairman, reported on members who were ill.

In reporting on the garden therapy project Mrs. Peavey, chairman, stated that miniature water gardens were being planned for children at the cerebral palsy school.

A card of thanks from Mrs. D. D. Ramseyer was read by Mrs. Howard Gillette, corresponding secretary, who also reported that the rose had received most votes in the Florist Telegraph Delivery balloting for a national flower.

Mrs. S. W. Smith reported on house plants, ardisia and hoya; and was appointed to select memorial books to be placed in the public library for Mrs. Glenn Coe and Mrs. Nellie Landon.

Yearbooks of the Idaho State Federation of Garden clubs were distributed by Mrs. Harlan Carlson, treasurer.

Mrs. Bice, recording secretary, reported receipt of membership card and silver seal from the American Rose society.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Miracle and Miss Walton, served refreshments. Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Lackey presided at the tea and coffee services. A valentine motif decorated the table.

The next meeting will be held March 2 at the home of Mrs. Vern Routh, 1968 Falls avenue east.

Mrs. Noland stated that although this is a fiction story about St. Luke it is based on as much history as Miss Caldwell could acquire. The author started this book when she was 12 years old. She rewrote the book 5 times and it was 46 years from the time she first wrote it to publication.

The book deals with the life of Luke from childhood when he believed firmly in God through his manhood when he lost his faith when his sweetheart died and the hardships endured before regaining his faith.

Mrs. Guy Kennedy presided at both the meeting and the executive meeting preceding. Mrs. Harold Campbell played prelude music. The worship center, a picture of Christ with an open Bible in front flanked by a lighted taper, was arranged on white velvet by Mrs. Virgil Lickley.

It was announced that the 10th annual Eastern district meeting will be held March 8 at the Buhl Methodist church beginning with a coffee hour at 8:45 a. m.

It also was announced that the Idaho conference meeting will be held in April at Boise.

Mrs. Leslie Roberson, co-chairman of the Red Cross blood program for Jerome county, asked that anyone interested in doing some telephoning to help meet the next quota to let her know. Something new is going to be tried this time in an effort to reach the 150-pint quota when the bloodmobile is here April 4, she said. Anyone wishing to help with this phone work is asked to call Mrs. Roberson, EAst 4-2447, or Mrs. Leo Falconburg, EAst 4-2463.

Wendell, Bellevue and Minico Can Move Toward Conference Wins Tuesday

The Minico Spartans and Bellevue Bulldogs can move a step closer to conference championships and the Wendell Trojans can dissolve the three-week first-place tie in the Little Six conference Tuesday night. Those three teams, and their opponents, form the highlights for the seven-game Tuesday high school basketball schedule. Minico, which needs only two wins to clinch at least a tie in the triple A Big Seven conference, will host the Gooding Senators and the loop's leading scorers in Jay Scanlon and Howard Nelson. However, the Spartans have two big siege guns in the league's top offense and defensive unit, plus two men averaging better than 10 points per game in Merlin Vilhauer and Gary Anderson.

Minico took the first meeting of the two 46-39 in what was expected to be an offensive duel. Tuesday may find the earlier prediction holding true.

On the Northside conference, the Bellevue Bulldogs are clinging to a narrow one-game lead going into their game with the Carey Panthers at Carey. Although Carey is in fourth place at 6-4, the record belies the potential of the Panthers who have been spotty during the season but warming up considerably during recent games. Bellevue must have three more wins to clinch a tie for the championship, according to the current standings.

Wendell, gunning for a rare third straight crown in the Little Six loop, will be at Kimberly, which has fallen to fifth place but still is a better team than that. With the loop's leading scorer, Jim Scheel, leading the way, the Trojans hope to get a victory and pull off to a one-half game lead over the idle Valley Vikings. Both currently are tied at 7-1 but face a do-or-die collision next Saturday night.

In other action, the Hagerman Pirates, riding in second place in the Southside conference with a 512 record, will be at Castleford (4-3). The Pirates would like another win to stay close to the pace-setting Murtaugh Red Devils while the Wolves could use another victory to help clinch a berth in the district single A tournament.

In another Southside game, Raft River will be at Declo in a "must" for both teams. Raft River (2-5) must win their last three conference games to have any chance of gaining the district playoffs to defend its title. A Declo victory would give the Hornets a 5-3 mark and put them only one game away from a tourney berth. Only the top four teams from the Southside loop final standings will be entered in the district meet at Hagerman later this month.

Dietrich, in sixth place in the Northside loop, invades Fairfield for a contest with the second-place Camas county Mushers. The Filer Bears (4-5) will travel to Gooding State, where the Panthers are 0-9.

Minico, Filer, Gooding Hold Scoring Leads

Minico, Filer and Gooding held claim to the leads in most of the statistical departments of the Big Seven conference Monday with Gooding's scoring tandem of Howard Nelson and Jay Scanlon taking the individual scoring lead. Times-News sports department statistics show Minico holds the lead in three phase including the all-important race for the conference championship, while Filer holds two team "firsts."

Scanlon, who placed fifth in last year's individual scoring race, finally caught up with his teammate last week. The pair opened up daylight in the race which saw five men crowded within one-half point in average last week. The leaders this week have a more comfortable cushion of 1.2 points in average.

However, while Scanlon and Nelson top the circuit in average, they have played in only seven games and rank fifth in point total. Their average is 13.4 and a 95 total while Burley's Ron Bryant has moved into the point total lead with 110 but falls slightly behind in average at 12.2.

Point totals and averages of those hitting better than 10 points per game are Scanlon and Nelson 95 and 13.4; Bryant 110 and 12.2; Mike Willer, Buhl, and Terry Small, Jerome, both 109 and 12.1; Gary Adams, Oakley, 108 and 12; Gary Mai, Filer, 95 and 11.9; Ray Herd, Filer, 94 and 11.8; Gary Anderson, Minico, 106 and 11.7; Merlin Vilhauer, Minico, 101 and 11.2; George Moffitt, Burley, 95 and 10.6, and Rick Church, Burley, 93 and 10.3.

In addition to holding a one-game edge in the title race, Minico again tops the circuit in offense (57.3 average) and defense (43.9). Filer has been charged with the most fouls (16 per game) but continues to dominate everything in free throw shooting with 169 free points against 154 opponent fouls, a record breaking percentage.

Individually, Small clung to his lead in free throws with 35 but Mai pumped through 12 in two outings last week to move into second place with 33. Doug Wasko, Buhl, has been charged with 35 fouls to pace that category.

The conference standings (overall won-lost record in parenthesis) include:

BIG SEVEN CONFERENCE

Six Persons Die in 1959 Hunt Mishaps

BOISE, Feb. 8 (AP)—Idaho's 1959 hunting season death toll from gunfire was six persons as compared to 11 fatalities during 1958, Ross Leonard, fish and game director, announced.

One of the fatalities was caused by a ricochet bullet fired by a hunter a mile away from the victim.

Under the rules of the National Rifle association, the organization which compiles nationwide hunting accident records, Leonard said, "We include all gun accidents which occur while the victims are away from home on hunting trips between Sept. 1 and Dec. 31, even though the shootings happen in camp or while traveling."

One of the gun accidents included in the totals was the "one-in-a-million" case of a hunter getting his thumb caught between the hammer and firing pin of his rifle, Leonard said.

A total of 40 injuries, including one from a BB-gun, was reported for 1959 while 34 were wounded in 1958 through firearms accidents.

Leonard said it is significant that 10 of the injuries were caused by hunters using hand guns for fast draw exhibitions while in camp, and another seven involved .22 caliber rifles used by varmint hunters.

Bill Stead Retires From Boat Racing

RENO, Nev., Feb. 8 (UPI)—Bill Stead, national hydroplane champion, has announced his retirement from boat racing with the explanation that he was "spending more time in hospitals than in the boat."

The 37-year-old Nevada cattle rancher made the surprise announcement last night during a dinner of the Reno sports writers. Some 400 persons attended the dinner, in honor of Stead and 12 other Nevada sports figures.

Stead had been in national hydroplane competition for 12 years. He first gained fame with his "Hurricane IV" and last season drove William Waggoner's "Maverick" to a half-dozen major victories—including the Seattle Gold Cup.

Stead was injured several times during his racing career. He received severe injuries last summer when Maverick did a complete flip during the Potomac Cup race at Washington, D. C.

The veteran hydroplane pilot said his decision to retire from racing also was influenced by the fact that Waggoner, Phoenix, Ariz., recently announced he was selling Maverick.

Defection in Fight Group Said Halted

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 8 (AP)—The president of the National Boxing association says he has halted a possible mass defection of Western states from the prizefight organization.

Anthony Maceroni said he met Saturday with representatives of Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Idaho, Utah, Colorado and Hawaii and the group voted to remain with the NBA.

A day earlier the same seven states met in Los Angeles with representatives of California and New York and made threatening noises about withdrawing from the NBA. California and New York already are outside the national group.

Maceroni said, however, that the dissidents decided to stick with the NBA after he accepted several proposals advanced by the western members. He said he will give these his backing at the next session of the NBA executive committee.

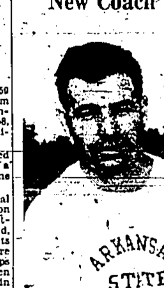
New Coach



KING BLOCK
. . . a 1947 graduate of Twin Falls high school has been elevated to the head football coaching position at Arkansas State, Jonesboro, Ark.

* * * *

Former Player From T. F. to Be Head Coach

JONESBORO, Ark., Feb. 8 — King Block, backfield coach for five years at Arkansas State college, has been elevated to head football coach of the Indians to replace Hugh (Bones) Taylor, who resigned to accept a professional football coaching offer.

Block came to Arkansas State in 1955 as backfield coach under Gene Harlow. He is a graduate of the University of Idaho (1951), where he was one of the top running backs in the Pacific Coast conference from 1948-50.

He coached three years in high schools in Idaho and California, before returning to Idaho to complete his master's degree. While there, he served as assistant to Clem Parberry, freshman coach.

The 31-year-old native of Twin Falls, Ida., is married and has two children, King, jr., 5, and Kandy, 13 months.

In addition to his football, Block also is noted for his expert horsemanship and professional rodeo talents. He still owns two thoroughbred horses, one of which is used by Arkansas State's Indian Chief mascot.

"We feel as though Coach Block has done an outstanding job during his five years as backfield coach, and deserves the promotion," Dr. Reng, president of Arkansas State, stated.

The new Indian head mentor says he plans few changes in the formations used last year.

"It'll be along the same belly series that we used last year, although we may add some new stuff and throw out some old stuff," Block said. He indicated he would like to pass a lot. "That, however, will depend on how well our quarterbacks look throwing this spring."

A 1947 graduate of Twin Falls high school, Block is considered one of the finest fullbacks ever produced by the school.

He lettered in football, basketball and baseball and was named to the then Big Six all-conference team for his football playing.

Veteran Goalie Aids Team in Shutout Win

By The Associated Press

At 33, Harry Lumley is in the twilight of his National Hockey league career. In 14 seasons in the big league, he has collected 77 shutouts. But none was more important than his latest.

The veteran goalie is the guy the Boston Bruins have to thank for the fact they're back in a fourth place tie with Chicago. Sunday night, he turned back 27 shots in shutting out the second-place Toronto Maple Leafs 3-0.

In other action, the Detroit Red Wings, behind rookie Netminder Dennis Riggin, blanked Chicago 5-0 and the last-place New York Rangers downed the league-leading Montreal Canadiens 4-1.

Lumley's shutout was his 77th in NHL—70 in regular season play and seven in the Stanley Cup playoffs, Bronco Horvath, the circuit's scoring leader, notched his 35th goal of the year for the Bruins. Guy Gendron and Leo Labine got Boston's other markers.

Norm Ullman paced Detroit's attack with two goals, Riggin, filling in for Terry Sawchuk, who completed a three-game rest, stopped 16 Black Hawks' shots.

The Rangers easily took the measure of the Canadiens for the fifth time this season. The league-leaders have lost only 10 times.

Arnold Palmer Wins Top Money In Golf Classic

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 8 (AP)—The 1960 golfers' gold rush in California was over today, with Arnold Palmer winner of the finale, the $100,000 Palm Springs Desert Classic. As the nomadic professionals headed for the next stop, the Phoenix Open, Palmer was richer by $12,000 — the largest purse in the 15 major tournaments he has won during five years on the circuit.

All told, in the five California tournaments, the pros collected $227,500—not counting the $50,000 for a hole-in-one scored here by Joe Campbell.

Palmer wrecked par 36-35—71 for the Thunderbird country club course Sunday with a 65 and breezed in to win the tournament by three strokes.

The previous high purse won by the 30-year-old pro from Ligonier, Pa., was the $11,250 he received for his greatest victory—the 1958 Masters.

Palmer's 90-hole total was 338, with rounds of 67-73-67-66-65. Runner-up, and winner of 6,600, was lanky Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., who matched Palmer's 65 Sunday.

Veteran Johnny Palmer of Tulsa, Okla., who led the way into the final round by one stroke over Arnold, took a 70 and tied with Bob Goalby for third place at 342. Each won $3,350.

Ken Venturi, Jay Hebert, Bill Johnston and Jack Fleck tied at 344, worth $2,387.50 apiece, while at 346 were Gene Littler, Tommy Bolt and Al Besselink.

The Junior 1 girls' downhill was won by Mary Jane McWilliams, Twin Falls, in 53.9 seconds. Mary Reynolds, Pocatello, was second in 57.3.

ASPEN, Colo., Feb. 8 (AP)—Two old men in skiing, Tom Corcoran of the U. S. and Chiharu (Chick) Igaya of Japan, led a parade of international ski stars out of here today on their way to the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif.

Corcoran, 29, oldest member of the U. S. Olympic Alpine ski team, carried with him top honors in the Roch cup slalom derby that attracted racers from 11 countries here Saturday and Sunday.

Igaya, 28, who wound up third in the combined standings, surprised his competitors Sunday by zig-zagging to victory in the slalom race on the Thunderbowl course at Aspen Highlands. The winner of the giant slalom Saturday, Tony Spiss, 29, Austria's former world champion, is a skiing instructor at Aspen and is not eligible for the Olympics.

Corcoran won the Roch cup by finishing third in both the giant slalom and slalom races.

Rain Drenches Olympic Site In California

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif., Feb. 8 (AP)—Rain has drenched the 1960 winter Olympic site, bringing a threat of serious trouble at the cross-country courses.

But the steady downpour Sunday failed to dampen the spirits of the 315 athletes and officials who slogged to the movies, played table tennis in the recreation room or just visited in the dormitories.

They'll have company by tonight. Thirteen teams, 235 persons in all, are due in.

More than an inch of rain fell Sunday and the weatherman predicted more today.

The only athletes working out for the Feb. 18-28 games were the speed skaters and figure skaters. They used the rink inside the 1,500-seat ice arena.

"The ice is terrific," said Carol Heiss, queen of the world figure skaters. "We're the ones who are lucky."

But it was a different story at the cross country courses.

"Three to four days more of this and we'll be in serious trouble," said Birger Torrison, chief of the biathlon ski-shoot competition.

Chamberlain Needs Only 13 Points to Surpass Single Season Scoring Record

By The Associated Press

Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, the gangling freshman producing points at a record clip for the Philadelphia Warriors, can eclipse the National Basketball association single-season scoring record Tuesday night.

The fabulous 7-foot-1-inch Stilt, who graduated to the pro ranks after earning All-America honors at Kansas university and then toured with the Harlem Globetrotters, needs only 13 points—25 under his average—to surpass Bob Pettit's record of 2,105.

Chamberlain has 2,093 points in 55 games going into Tuesday's encounter with the Detroit Pistons.

Pettit, the frontline ace of the Western division's leading St. Louis Hawks, established the standard last season over the full 72-game schedule while averaging a record 29.2 points a game.

The Stilt, who will finish the season with about 2,700 points if he continues at his record pace, was unable to lead the Warriors to a victory Sunday despite scoring 38 points.

Paced by Pettit, who matched Chamberlain's output, the Hawks scored 21 points in the first 4½ minutes and wound up with a 130-108 thumping of Philadelphia.

In other games, New York upended Eastern division leader Boston 142-135 behind the sharpshooting of Kenny Sears and Richie Guerin; Syracuse made it 13 losses in succession for Cincinnati by defeating the Royals 135-122 and Minneapolis snapped a six-game losing streak by nipping Detroit 104-102.

Saturday, Chamberlain scored 44 as the Warriors edged Syracuse 129-126; Boston overwhelmed New York 143-117, and Detroit routed Minneapolis 116-101.

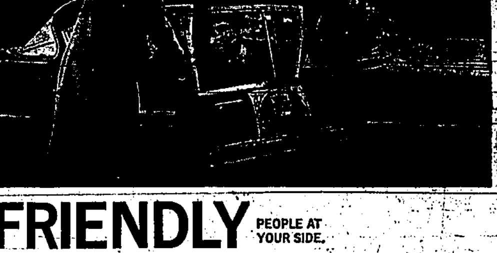
SERVICE FROM FARMERS.

"It was my first accident—and no one's fault, really. I had swerved to avoid hitting a dog on the highway and ran into a telephone pole. Now I was in trouble. I didn't have Farmers Auto Insurance at the time, but I do now. The reason is Farmers service. You really DO get fast service from Farmers.

FAIR
SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS.

"About five minutes after my accident a car stopped and the man asked if he could help. I told him that I'm a county nurse and had to get to the next town as quickly as possible. He said that he was a Farmers representative. He got all the information he knew my insurance company would want. Then he drove me to my destination.



FRIENDLY PEOPLE AT YOUR SIDE.

"He told me that Farmers insures more trucks than any other company, and maintains a fleet of cars like his to patrol the nation's highways. They check truck speeds, reroute trucks in unsafe areas and generally make driving safer for all of us. He was so friendly and so very helpful that I switched to Farmers. And, you know, my rates are lower with Farmers, too!"

YOU SAVE MONEY WITH FARMERS! Farmers rates are generally 20% lower than most other companies because Farmers insures only careful drivers. Farmers gives a 10% discount for one year of accident-free driving. Farmers allows an additional 25% discount on your second car, if you qualify.

And your Farmers auto liability policy automatically protects you against hit-and-run or uninsured motorists.

Cotton—Irregular; quiet trading.
Chicago:
Wheat—Mixed; new crop months firm.
Corn—Higher; late recovery.
Oats—Higher with corn.
Soybeans—Higher; late rally.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Stocks fell through their September resistance point today before meeting support which carried most issues back substantially from their lows.

Bargain hunters came into the market at the lows and helped lift the industrial average above the September support level, which many brokers now are counting on to turn the market around. However, they note that there will have to be a strong upturn in business activity to get investors back into the buying mood.

DuPont, down more than eight at one time in pace—the downturn, recovered substantially to finish off more than three points. Other chemicals were down as much as three points in Allied Chemical.

Steel losses generally ranged between one and two points, but extended to more than two in Lukens. Losses of more than a point in the leading auto issues were trimmed to large fractions by the close. Electronics turned mixed with IBM off around five, but Ampex and Texas Instruments up more than two.

Oils were generally fractionally lower. Rails dropped fractions to more than a point in Atlantic Coast line. Goodrich and General Tire lost about one each among the tires.

Miscellaneous features included Universal Match, down more than four, and Owens Corning Fiberglas, Owens-Illinois and Havey, all off around three.

Stock transactions today totaled 3,350,000 shares compared with sales of 2,900,000 shares last Friday.

Allies Sharing of A-Arms Will Cut Retaliation Time

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—President Eisenhower's proposal to share nuclear weapons with U. S. allies is designed primarily to cut the time required to retaliate against any Soviet air attack, it was learned today.

American strategic and tactical bombers in Europe are only between 10 and 20 minutes flying time away from the Iron Curtain.

While U. S. air defense systems could react almost instantly to a Soviet air attack, Eisenhower's military advisers warn that West European anti-aircraft systems could not.

This is so primarily because although Britain and other NATO members have received American-made weapons designed to carry atomic warheads, the warheads themselves are stored in separate installations.

Time would be required to unlock the warheads, mount them on their carriers or "delivery systems," and prepare them for firing.

Eisenhower, according to reliable sources, hopes to come up with an arrangement under which the warheads could be mounted at all times.

O. Henry said that New York city was "an aviary overstocked with jays (a country bumpkin who is a chatterbox)."

Grains

CHICAGO, Feb. 8 (UPI)—A flurry of late buying which led to short covering lifted most grains today on the Chicago board of trade.

At the final bell, wheat was off ⅛ to up ⅛, corn up ⅛ to ½, oats unchanged to up ⅛, rye off ⅜ to up ⅜, soybeans up ⅛ to ⅞ and lard unchanged to off five points.

Wheat futures closed mostly firm. The old crop futures were steady. An elevator-export house bought May. Selling was scattered.

Corn prices ranged from steady to firm. Cash houses bought March against sales of May, and there was buying of May against sales of July. An elevator and local traders led the selling. Receipts were liberal, but the spot basis remained steady. Export subsidies were granted on 1,310,000 bushels of corn and 195,000 bushels of oats.

Oats were mostly firm. A large commission house took March and May. Larger receipts touched off early selling.

Rye was mixed. Holland was reported to have raised the import duty on rye from $2.60 to $5.20 a ton. Prior to the increase on Feb. 5, importers bought 10,000 tons of American rye.

Export circles reported the United Arab Republic bought 1,850,000 bushels of white and hard wheat. Israel purchased 500,000 bushels of soybeans, and Japan took 260,000 bushels of corn.

Outside markets were mostly steady.

Fathers-Sons Banquet Plan Set in March

HANSEN, Feb. 8—Members of the local Grange decided to hold the annual father-son banquet in March when plans were discussed Thursday evening at the Grange hall. Vance Naylor was appointed program chairman.

The agriculture committee reported aphids should be sprayed early in home gardens to prevent their spread to fields where they attack potato vines and other crops. Naylor reported on a Murtaugh meeting and on research into the growth of broiler chickens in England. They also visited Mrs. C. M. Wiseman, who is ill at her home.

Interesting items from Grange Monthly were given by different members. Mrs. Clarence Hollifield read an article on the potato. The origin of St. Valentine's day was given by the Rev. John Cross. A valentine game was played. Lester Naylor read an article, "Watch That Person."

The closing thought was "You have made the world much better for the work you've done today." Mr. and Mrs. Lester Naylor were hosts.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Barring new severe wage concessions this year the profits of the nation's class I railroads could climb to 750 million dollars.

Two separate studies by Standard and Poor's corporation and the Value Line reached this same conclusion.

If realized, such profits this year would be some 30 per cent above the 575 million dollars netted in 1959 when volume was affected by the crippling effects of the steel strike. Last year's earnings were the lowest since the 1949 recession, notes Standard and Poor's.

". . . Given a favorable business climate—and earnings level—the number of roads likely to declare increased (dividend) payments in 1960 could be the largest in several years," the statistical research agency points out.

Accumulate Ford Motor and General Electric on any further market weakness, Bache and company suggests.

Joseph E. Granville of E. F. Hutton and company says a strong technical prop to the market would be provided in the event the short interest report shows a marked rise later this month. "This would coincide with expectations that the market can look forward to more sustainable rallies sometimes after mid-February. Thus far, however, it would appear that these rallies may get started from lower market levels than are now current."

Reynolds and company notes the financial position of Bendix Aviation corporation is strong and that the outlook for increased sales and earnings is favorable. The stock of this "highly diversified and well balanced industrial complex" appears to be undervalued at current levels, the firm points out.

Mrs. E. Nelson, 39, Claimed by Death

BURLEY, Feb. 8—Mrs. Eulalia Patrick Nelson, 39, died Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Lela Anne Nelson, in Paul after a brief illness.

Mrs. Nelson was born Feb. 8, 1920, at Denham Springs, La., and was married Nov. 7, 1945, at Jena, La.

She formerly lived in Twin Falls and Paul. She is survived by her daughter.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at McCulloch funeral home with Bishop Leo Merrill, of the Paul LDS ward officiating. Final rites will be conducted at Gem Memorial gardens. Friends may call at the McCulloch funeral home Wednesday afternoon and evening and until time of services Thursday.

Car Demolished; Injuries "Slight"

BURLEY, Feb. 8—Stanley Woodbury, 22, route 2, Burley, escaped with slight injuries when his 1950 Chevrolet was demolished when it hit a cow six miles east and five and one-half miles south of here at 1 a. m. Sunday.

Woodbury told Sheriff LePage Layton there were several cows along the highway and one ran in front of his car. He was traveling about 60 miles an hour. The cow was killed and the car turned completely over and landed on its wheels in the borrow pit. The cow belonged to Don Merrill, route 2, Burley. About 100 feet of fence also was damaged.

Infant Dies

Rhonda Rae Wilson, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Wilson, route three, Buhl, died at her home Monday morning after a lingering illness.

The child was born March 12, 1958, at Twin Falls.

She is survived by the parents, two sisters, Tonya Ganiece Wilson, 4, and Lota Marie Wilson, 1; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin French, and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson, all of Buhl.

Services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday at the Albertson Memorial chapel with the Rev. L. C. Harris, pastor of the Buhl Assembly of God church, officiating. Friends are invited to call at the chapel.

Concluding rites will be held in the Buhl cemetery.

street where it threatened the Leo Rice Motor company and Gooding Toggery shop.

Twin Falls county sheriff's office reported several basements in the Hansen area were flooded.

The bureau of entomology at Twin Falls reported .61 of an inch of rain fell in the Twin Falls area Sunday and early Monday morning.

A total of .22 of an inch of rain had fallen at Hollister by 5 p.m. Sunday, according to reports from the Salmon River Canal company. An estimated .10 of an inch had fallen since the Sunday afternoon reading. The rainfall had not affected the flow into Salmon reservoir and the general outlook for water on the Salmon tract remains "pretty dim," the official stated. About noon Monday the sun was shining at the Hollister port of entry station with wind blowing. The barometer reading was falling.

A total of .45 of an inch precipitation fell in the Rupert area up to 8 a. m. Some rain fell after the early morning reading.

Burley reported cloudy and windy conditions Monday morning. Rain fell in the area Sunday afternoon and Sunday night.

From one to four inches of snow fell in the Richfield area Monday morning. Most of it fell between 7 and 8:30 a.m. About 8:30 a.m. the snow turned to rain and was continuing at 11:30 a.m. The town was without electricity for approximately two hours between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m.

A representative from the Idaho Power company Monday said five spans of line carrying power from Shoshone falls to Shoshone are down because of the storm, causing power failure in some of the area. Power had been restored in most of the area by noon Monday, but the wires still were down.

Power lines in the Hailey and Bellevue area also were down.

Wind and snow in the Fairfield area caused poor visibility. No report was received from Soldier mountain ranger station because the telephone is out of order. Telephone operators at Hailey report several rural telephone lines are out of order.

Theron Larson, Sawtooth national forest weather dispatcher at Hailey, reported that as of 8 a.m. there were 30 inches of snow on the ground at Hailey and three more inches had fallen since. It began snowing at Hailey at 5:30 a.m. Monday and had snowed eight inches by 8 a.m. In the eight inches of snow there was .83 of an inch of water content.

At the Sandy Brooks ranch on the headwaters of the Salmon river there were 16 inches of snow at 8 a.m., Larson reported. Rain fell in the area Saturday night. Last year at this time there were 42 inches of snow at the ranch.

Larson said reports from Galena store indicate 40 inches of snow as of 8 a.m. At the time a blizzard was blowing in the area so hard that visibility was not more than 20 feet. Last year at this time there were 65 inches of snow at the store, Larson said.

Sigi Engl, Sun Valley ski director, reported eight inches of new snow boosted the total depth to 37 inches on top of Baldy mountain, 34 inches at the Roundhouse and 32 inches at Dollar mountain and on the valley floor. He reports skiing conditions "excellent."

Generally, roads in the snow belt were reported slick and dangerous. Willard Baker, state patrolman at Hailey, advised against traveling on highway 93 A between Carey to Arco unless there is a real emergency.

The highway department at Shoshone reported highway 93 six miles north of Shoshone is snow-covered. Highway 30 south from 30 miles north of the Strevell port of entry was reported snow-covered and slick. State police reported snow and wind in the area.

Highway 93 from Twin Falls south to the Nevada line was bare and wet. From the Nevada line on south there was snow and slick conditions.

Rain left the roadways bare but wet in the Boise, King Hill, Bliss, Burley, Pocatello, Idaho Falls and St. Anthony areas.

If you are 50 years old you are a quinquagenerian.

Power Fails

Several persons were almost late to work Monday morning when they failed to adjust their electric clocks after a power failure in the Harrison school area Sunday.

A representative of the Idaho Power company said power was off from 20 minutes to almost an hour in some areas because of a small wire across a phase at Harrison park. The failure occurred when rain caused the current to jump across the crossarm.

Power was off less than 20 minutes about 6:45 a.m. Monday in the 1600 block of Addison avenue east area. The power company reported one leg of a transformer went out from an undetermined cause.

Kennedy and Johnson Bid At West Meet

By The Associated Press

The prize of 271 Democratic nominating votes lured presidential hopefuls into a week-end of western politicking. Sens. John F. Kennedy, D., Mass., and Lyndon B. Johnson, D., Tex., seemed most active at trying to lasso the votes.

Kennedy supporters reportedly approached California party officials Sunday and proposed terms under which he would stay out of the state primary. The terms were calculated to help Kennedy pick up convention votes.

Meanwhile, Johnson supporters, milling about the western Democratic conference in Albuquerque, N. M., claimed Johnson already had more than 200 of the West's 271 convention votes. Kennedy forces looked on the claim as Texas boasting.

Besides Kennedy and Johnson, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D., Minn., showed up at the Albuquerque conference. In a speech, Humphrey lashed out at the Republicans, calling them great wasters of resources, including human resources.

The Republicans were not absent from the West. Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who has a clear field to the GOP presidential nomination, spoke in Los Angeles Saturday and backed up the administration's defense policy.

So far only Kennedy and Humphrey are announced candidates for the Democratic nomination. But Johnson, in Indianapolis Saturday, seemed to leave the ranks of those candidates who won't admit it.

For the first time, he talked about his "candidacy." He told newsmen he expects to be chairman of the Texas delegation at the July convention "and I hope it will be committed to the support of my candidacy."

While the week-end of speechmaking flourished, the final stage was set for the nation's first presidential primary. Filing for the March 8 primary in New Hampshire closed Saturday with Nixon unopposed in the Republican preference poll and Kennedy opposed by Chicago pen manufacturer Paul C. Fisher in the Democratic poll.

Girl Hurt in Spill Off Bolting Horse

RUPERT, Feb. 8—Clara Schell, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casimer Schell, was injured slightly when thrown from a horse after it was struck by a car driven by Clifford J. Kimery, Rupert, at 5:40 p. m. Sunday at the intersection of highway 30 north and the Hopewell road.

Kimerly told State Patrolman Roy Thomas that the girl and her brother, Peter Schell, were approaching the intersection on horses, the boy's horse went through the intersection and the girl's horse stopped and then bolted in front of his car.

Damage to Kimery's 1948 Ford was estimated at $200. The horse apparently was uninjured.

National Goal Unit Formed By President

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UPI)—President Eisenhower has named an 11-member national goals commission to "develop a broad outline of coordinated national policies and programs for the next decade and longer."

Eisenhower's announcement carried out a plan he first proposed in his 1959 state of the union message. He said the group also should "set up a series of goals in various areas of national activity."

The group, to be headed by Dr. Henry Wriston, former president of Brown university and now president of the American Assembly of Columbia university, would be financed by private sources and use no government funds. Eisenhower pledged full cooperation of the White House and federal agencies.

Besides Wriston and Vice Chairman Frank Pace, former army secretary and now chairman of the board of General Dynamics company, Inc., both named last Wednesday, nine other members were appointed Saturday. They are:

James Killian, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and former White House science adviser; Alfred Gruenther, president of the American Red Cross and former NATO commander; Clark Kerr, president of the University of California; Learned Hand, retired justice of the U. S. circuit court at New York; Erwin Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor and president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce; Colgate Darden, former governor of Virginia and former president of the University of Virginia; James Conant, former president of Harvard university and former ambassador to the West German Republic; George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, and Crawford Greenewalt, president of E. I. Du pont de Nemours and Company, Inc.

Solution for Fatalities on Roads Urged

CHICAGO, Feb. 8 (UPI)—The National Safety council predicted today that if the present trend continues there will be 55,000 traffic deaths and two million disabling injuries in 1970.

"The traffic situation is one of the great unsolved social problems of our time," Paul Jones, director of public information for the NSC, told a dental convention.

"Either we go a long way toward solving this problem in the next 10 years or we had better take to the hills in self-defense," he said.

Jones said that by 1970 there will be 100 million cars, trucks and buses using the nation's highways, half again as many as there are now.

If placed end to end, they would form a solid line of traffic 385,400 miles long—15 times the distance around the world and equivalent to a traffic jam along U. S. 41 of 280 cars abreast every foot of the way from Chicago to Miami, Fla.

5 Utahns Die In 3 Crashes

By The Associated Press

Five auto fatalities spelled tragedy for as many Utah families over the week-end and raised havoc with the state's already-rocketing 1960 traffic toll.

The worst of the accidents killed three teen-agers shortly before midnight Saturday.

Another victim—killed Sunday—was a 47-year-old woman, Mrs. Mary Barnes Sharp, Logan, Utah, whose husband's car skidded into another during a heavy snow squall.

The deaths raised Utah's 1960 traffic toll to 24—a figure that is 10 higher than the toll for this date last year.

The three victims in Salt Lake City were Fred C. Sharples, jr., 16; Gayle Ashley, 17, and Eva Wood, 17, all Salt Lake City.

Don E. Epperson, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Epperson, died in a Heber hospital Sunday afternoon, a few hours after his sled collided near Midway with a car driven by Larry Bates, Midway.

Chile Train Is Wrecked; 33 Die

RANCAGUA, Chile, Feb. 8 (UPI)—Seven cars of a train operated by the U. S.-owned Braden Copper company jumped the track near here yesterday and plunged 50 feet into a ravine, killing 33 persons and injuring 107.

So far as was known, none of the casualties was American.

The train was carrying about 250 off-duty workers from Braden's teniente mine—the biggest copper pit in the world—to Rancagua. The train was only 3½ miles from the mine in the Andean town of Sewell when it was wrecked.

Benjamin Penhallow Shillaber, American humorist, wrote under the pen name of Mrs. Partinton.
