Fines Against Electric Firms Almost 2 Million As Sentencing Is Over

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7 (AP)—Fines against electrical manufacturing companies reached almost two million dollars today as a federal judge completed two days of sentencing for antitrust violations. Chief Judge J. Cullen Ganev in U. S. district court completed sentencing on 14 indictments in a little over two hours today, compared with yesterday's day-long session on six indictments. The difference was that yesterday's defense attorneys made lengthy talks. Today most of them said they stood on what they had said yesterday.

Sentencing moved so fast today that at one point Ganev proclaimed a $200,000 fine on Cornell Electric Co. before asking the plaintiff, N. J., before asking the plaintiff, N. J., before asking the plaintiff, N. J. The lawyer jumped to his feet. Ganev apologized, saying, "Oh, excuse me. I have these worked out well that I did not notice." The lawyer said he felt his company was innocent. After he completed his talk, Ganev repeated the $200,000 fine.

The 29 companies and 44 individuals involved were charged with price fixing and bid rigging in the sale of equipment that generates, transmits and distributes electric power. Fines totaled $1,924,000.

Twenty-two corporate defendants were fined $964,500 today on 11 indictments. Fourteen of their executives were fined $28,500, and five of the 14 also received suspended 30-day jail terms.

Yesterday Judge Ganev sentenced seven executives to jail for 30 days, and gave 19 others 30-day suspended sentences. All those receiving suspended sentences also were placed on five-year probation "where a watchful eye can be kept on their activities."

Yesterday Ganev fined 21 firms $272,000 and 36 executives $1,093,000. In many cases companies and individuals were fined several times, accounting for the overlapping totals.

Ganev rejected defense pleas to temper justice with mercy. But he did soften the government's demand for even harsher penalties while labeling the case "a shocking indictment of a vast section of our economy."

Attorney General Robert Kennedy said in a statement that he favored "even more severe sentences than those recommended by his justice department aides."

Under the recommendations the government sought fines to total $1,277,500 and jail for 23. It said the case involved firms doing an annual business of over eight billion dollars during the indictment period between 1955 and 1959.

"There can be no appeals to a higher court since the defendants pleaded guilty or chosen not to defend the government charges. The maximum corporation penalty on each indictment is $50,000. Individuals can be fined a similar amount and jailed for a year.

The U. S. marshal's office here said the jail terms probably would be served in Pennsylvania jails, either in Philadelphia or neighboring Norristown, Pa. These are not federal institutions.

Event Slated For Honoring T. F. Leaders

The distinguished service awards banquet honoring Twin Falls outstanding senior and junior citizens will be held at 7:30 p. m. March 15 at the Turf club, Wayne Durmill, president, said Tuesday.

Durmill plans for the annual event were made Monday night at a board of directors meeting.

Robert Shiner is chairman for the banquet. Speaker will be Dr. Donald Walker, president of Idaho State College, Pocatello. A social hour will precede the banquet.

Durmill said judges are selecting honorees for the two honors on the basis of contribution to Twin Falls, contribution to church, contribution to family and individual business development.

3 Northwest Governors Create Committee, Ask Study of Fish Depletion

BOISE, Feb. 7 (AP)—Pacific Northwest governors created a tri-state committee yesterday and assigned it the task of determining what to do about "a state of serious depletion" in the fishery resources of the Columbia river and its tributaries. They did not place responsibility for the "serious depletion" and told newsmen they did not discuss fish problems associated with dams already constructed in the area.

Free Enterprise Bumping Into Organization Man in Court Suit

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7 (AP)—Free enterprise is bumping squarely into the organization man in federal court here. He has been handling competition as his electrical equipment company apparently wanted, with the least pain to anyone involved—unless maybe the customer.

In many cases the organization man—he doesn't ask why, he just follows policy—has even been seeing that the little fellow in his industry gets a share of the business.

The federal court collision between free enterprise as set forth in the antitrust laws and what some regard as merely realistic business practices leaves a nagging question.

How widespread is the custom of price-fixing and market-dividing in other industries beside the electrical equipment one under fire? Is it a practice only of a giant industry of nationwide scope, or does it extend into the field of small businesses in small areas secretly making competition less painful?

Twenty-nine makers of electrical equipment, including most of the big ones, and 43 of their officials, from vice presidents to assistant division bosses, are learning about the bite in the antitrust laws the hard way—with fines running into the big money and jail sentences for officials, big and small, but all leaders in their home towns.

The companies and executives either have pleaded guilty or have not contested federal charges of violating the antitrust laws, with secret meetings to fix prices and coded phone calls to split up the potential market, so that each would end the year with the agreed upon sales.

In the first six indictments out of 20 to be passed on, Chief Judge J. Cullen Ganev of U. S. district court has imposed fines of $931,500 and sentenced seven executives to 30 days each in jail.

Pleas of attorneys for leniency stressed that the men were doing what they thought best for their companies, or what they thought everyone else in the business might be doing, or what they thought they must do to hold their jobs. Or that they had followed, as good organization men should, the (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

Local Driver Is Fined for Recklessness

Larry Lee Crippen, 20, 1302 Ninth avenue east, Twin Falls, was fined $75 and costs and his driver's license was revoked for 30 days by Probate Judge Joe Ann Warberg Tuesday morning for reckless driving. Judge Warberg suspended $35 of the fine.

Crippen, who pleaded innocent when arraigned Dec. 10 before Justice of the Peace Robert E. Pence, was found guilty Monday at a trial before six jurors in probate court.

Judge Warberg postponed sentencing until Tuesday morning. Crippen was arrested Dec. 9 by State Patrolman H. E. Carr on a county road three miles west and four miles north of Twin Falls.

Damage was estimated at $65 to the Day car with minor damage to the 1956 Ford driven by Mrs. Higgenbotham.

Top Hereford Sells For $1,000 at Filer

FILER, Feb. 7—A bull consigned by W. L. Shupe, Hamer, brought the top price of $1,000 Monday during the sixth annual Idaho Polled Hereford association's spring show and sale in Filer. Aster Domino 3, named Monday morning as grand champion, was sold by Shupe to the Joyce Livestock company, Murphy. The bull was among 34 sold Monday afternoon, with prices averaging $472.

Marcus Spencer, Gooding, paid $410 for Lady Gold 581, grand champion heifer consigned by Barr S. Jacobs and son, Council. Although the exact average price on the 11 heifers sold Monday has not been determined it was reported to be about $325.

Paul Pattee, secretary-treasurer of the association, said Monday evening complete results of the sale, showing all the consigners, buyers and Herefords sold, would be announced in a few days.

Alarmed Report Made For Juvenile Control Here

BOISE, Feb. 7 (UPI)—State Police Superintendent A. E. Perkins today indicated concern for Idaho's "alarming increase" in traffic deaths for 1961.

To date, 22 persons have been killed on Gem State highways compared to 12 persons for the same period last year.

"Every traffic law violator is a potential killer," Perkins said. "No normal human being would deliberately use his automobile to take another's life," he said, "yet our files are filled with records of accidents in which lives were lost because someone violated a traffic law. Whenever you disregard a traffic regulation you leave yourself open to the possibility of killing or being killed."

Feedlot Tour Goes to Five Farms Today

Cattle feeders, farmers and interested businessmen of Twin Falls county started the annual feedlot tour Tuesday morning.

Five farms in the Hansen area were toured by the group. First stop of the morning tour was the Naylor brothers' feedlots. Other stops included the Bryon Harris place, the Mark Pomeroy farm and the John Feldhusen farm.

Following the noon luncheon at the American Legion hall, a panel discussion was held on all-concerned-rations, feeding relationships to grade and sale weights, effect of the proposed Armour and company plant at Hansen on feeding potential in the area and feeding policies and experiences.

Panelists were Eugene Champlin, Twin Falls; J. J. Dahmen, Caldwell, superintendent of the University of Idaho branch experimental station; Morris Hemstrom, Boise, extension livestock specialist; J. R. Kemp, Nampa, and Pomeroy, representing the Idaho Cattle Feeders' association.

TOKYO, SHAREN

TOKYO, Feb. 7 (UPI)—A slight earthquake shook the downtown area of Tokyo for several seconds today.

Charge Fails To Bring on Stamps Vote

BOISE, Feb. 7 (AP and UP)—Charges that members of Idaho's house of representatives were afraid to vote on a senate-approved bill banning trading stamps failed today to bring the bill out of committee. Reps. H. Grant Gardner, R., Payette, and Arvil Millar, R., Bingham, asked that the measure be reported out of the insurance, public utilities and banking committee immediately. But Committee Chairman William D. Lanting, R., Twin Falls, asked that the committee be excused from reporting out the bill and the house did so by a 30 to 24 vote which cut across party lines.

Kennedy Asks Minimum Pay Hike to $1.25

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (UPI)—President Kennedy asked congress today to raise the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour and broaden its coverage to prevent "the growth of an under-privileged and under-paid class."

Kennedy's proposal would boost the minimum from the present $1 for employees covered by the federal law and extend coverage to an additional 4.3 million workers.

The president submitted the draft of a bill along with letters to Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, president of the senate, which have been carefully set at levels to which employers can readily adjust.

"Our nation can afford to tolerate the growth of an under-privileged and underpaid class," Kennedy said. "Sub-standard wages lead necessarily to sub-standard living conditions, hardship and distress in the home."

"Since the last increase in the minimum wage, both living costs and productivity have increased to such an extent that the proposed bill merely reflects an adjustment to keep pace with these factors."

Kennedy earlier told Democratic congressional leaders he would send 10 special messages to congress in the next few weeks. His program on medical care for the aged will be sent to the house and senate Thursday and a message on federal aid to education will go to capitol hill next Tuesday.

Snow Falls on Large Region Of Southwest

By United Press International

Almost half of Texas and large sections of Kansas and Oklahoma were covered with a layer of snow today and parts of Missouri braced for a possible four-inch snowfall by tonight.

All of west Texas was under snow up to five inches deep in the Oklahoma border area. Dry air moved into the state today and began melting the snow.

Four inches predicted

Up to four inches of snow was predicted for parts of Missouri. Southeast Missouri was expected to bear the brunt of the storm. Motorists were warned driving would be hazardous.

In New York and New England, snow forecasts remained in effect as mild 40-degree temperatures at New York City began turning last week-end's 17.4 inches of snow into mountains of slush.

New York City officials totaled snow removal costs so far this season at $20 million dollars. Last week-end's snow alone cost six million dollars for removal, about two million dollars more than the average bill for an entire New York City winter.

Schools Reopen

New York's schools reopened but buses were barred and 45,000 children who ride them to school had official approval for staying home. Mayor Robert F. Wagner's ban on non-essential traffic resulted in 1,000 tickets yesterday for motorists who couldn't prove their trips were necessary.

$449,229 Worry

LONDON, Feb. 7 (UPI)—A deeply religious 47-year-old railroad worker in Cheshire worried today about how to break the news to his family that he had won 160,439 pounds ($449,229) in a soccer pool.

To win this big prize he had invested two shillings six pence (35 cents) to select the eight draws required on his coupon.

He had marked his coupon with the letter "X" to convey that he did not wish his identity to be disclosed.

"My biggest worry is how to break the news to my wife and two sons, especially to my sons, who have strong religious convictions and may regard gambling as evil," he said.

More Surpluses Are Emphasized

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (UPI)—An agriculture department report served today to emphasize the urgency being expressed by the Kennedy administration over mounting surpluses of livestock feed grains.

Because of last year's record production, prices of the grains are running considerably below government price support levels, the report said.

Despite heavier use of the grains this season than last, additional supplies will be added. It said, to surplus stocks accumulated from past big crops.

President Kennedy is expected to send recommendations to congress this week for dealing with the problem.

Pocatello Man Is Killed in Mishap

POCALTELLO, Mont., Feb. 7 (UPI)—Two men—one of them from Pocatello, Idaho—were killed and another Pocatello man was injured critically last night in a head-on collision about eight miles south of here.

Sheriff-Coroner Bill Graham, Lake county, said the victims were Martin E. Olson, 50, Pablo, Mont., and Lorin B. Westover, 27, Pocatello.

Ralph Bringham, 38, also Pocatello, was injured critically. He was hospitalized here.

Americans Set Record Low In Deaths Per Miles Driven

CHICAGO, Feb. 7 (UPI)—The nation's motorists drove a record 713 billion miles in 1960 and set a record low for the number of traffic deaths per miles driven, according to the National Safety Council.

Although the 1960 traffic toll of 38,290 deaths was the highest since 1957, the council said yesterday, the ratio of 5.3 traffic fatalities per 100 million miles of motor-vehicle travel was an all-time low. The 1959 ratio was 5.4.

The council said the number of traffic deaths was up more than one per cent from the 1959 total of 37,910. The total number of disabling injuries caused by traffic accidents in 1960 was 1.4 million.

A slowdown in the number of traffic deaths during the dangerous winter months helped establish a record for deaths per mile-driven. December, 1960, traffic fatalities totaled 3,520, down five per cent from the 3,708 persons who died in December, 1959, traffic accidents.

The safety council listed an honor role of states and cities which cut their death toll during 1960. Heading the list was Rhode Island, with a 36 per cent reduction in fatalities, while Providence led the cities with a dramatic 63 per cent drop in traffic deaths.

Others among the 20 states reporting a lower traffic death rate were New Hampshire, 16 per cent; Nebraska, 14; Virginia and New Mexico, both 10; Montana and Iowa and Kansas, all down nine per cent.

Chicago led the nation's largest cities in least traffic accidents per 10,000 registered vehicles. Among cities with populations above one million, the Chicago ratio was 2.7, followed by Los Angeles with 3.0 and Detroit with 3.2.

NEWS BULLETINS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Feb. 7 (UPI)—Guinea today appealed to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to present to the security council a detailed new peace plan for the Congo keyed to the restoration to power of deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (UPI)—President Kennedy assured the senate banking committee today that he fully reviewed and evaluated an FBI loyalty report on Robert C. Weever before nominating the New York Negro as federal housing chief. Kennedy rushed a letter of endorsement to committee Chairman A. Willis Robertson, D. Va., after Robertson refused to start hearings on the nomination without such a presidential letter.

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Feb. 7 (UPI)—The University of Mississippi said today no Negro has appeared seeking registration at the all-white school since 1959. The brief statement, released without elaboration, followed reports that one or more Negroes were trying to enroll.

Organization Man Bumping Free Business

(From Page One) pattern set by their predecessors. Attorneys for the companies pleaded that the top men in big companies didn't know what underlings were doing to maintain sales and prices and profits, or that if they were small companies they had to go along as the only way to survive in competition with the giants.

Some of the company lawyers held that while the antitrust laws forbid price fixing or deals to divide up a market, the cases involved no moral turpitude but merely maintained an orderly market.

Others deny there has been any gouging of customers or injury to the public. What the customers think about it may come out later if any seek to get back part of the purchase price on the ground of overpayment.

The customers range all the way from the federal government through state and local agencies to the utilities and other companies that use the big or little electrical equipment made by the 29 companies.

The public is interested either as taxpayers who put up the purchasing money, or as customers of the companies who bought the gadgets and presumably passed along their prices in final charges.

The big fines in federal court—and even more sensational, the jail sentences—are the headlines. But what businessmen have been talking about ever since the indictments and the guilty pleas is this: Could other industries be under investigation? Is the practice of the quiet understanding widespread throughout business, big and small? In other words, just how free is our free enterprise?

That's the question that haunts Judge Ganey's courtroom.

Report Made For Juvenile Control Here

(From Page One) a report on the water survey submitted by Keith Anderson, Boise engineer-geologist. During January, Anderson stated, he conducted a review of existing area water studies from the files of the city, the U. S. geological survey and the state board of health; made a field examination of potential water reservoir sites on Rock creek; checked into the water rights on Rock creek; surveyed the amount and value of water rights held by the city as shares in the Twin Falls Canal company, and determined from state highway officials that it is possible to use the Perrine Memorial bridge to move water over the Snake river to Twin Falls.

During February, Anderson plans to investigate the chemical and bacteriological quality of available water; check the elevation of available water sources, and prepare cost estimates for moving available water to Twin Falls.

At a previous commission meeting, Derrick requested the survey as the first step in designing a city water supply system which will not be dependant upon the Snake river for supply.

The report will cost "approximately $3,000," Derrick estimated. Completion of the report and submission to city commission is expected between March 15 and March 20.

The commission approved a lease agreement with Cliff White, municipal golf course professional, to operate the concession at the course clubhouse, for a $600 annual rent. The 12-hole field airport cafe lease, for $12 a year, also was approved.

City Attorney William J. Langley was instructed to rewrite a clause in the Jaycee ball park lease to the Magic Valley Baseball club. The lease calls for $1,000 annual rental of the facility, to be paid in cash or equivalent improvements.

The commission authorized the public works committee and Derrick to award a contract to drill a well for Joslin field, the Twin Falls municipal airport. Two quotations were submitted. The apparent low bid of $5,447, was submitted by Mack Gray, Kimberly.

The commission voted to call for sealed bids on three cars for the police department and one car and one pickup truck for the parks and recreation department. Bids will be opened Feb. 23 at 4 p. m., and a contract is expected to be awarded Feb. 27.

More Aid for Education in State Sought

Idaho schools have not reached the lowest possible ebb, Ernest Ragland, Twin Falls schools superintendent, asserted as he spoke out in defense of more money for schools at the legislative discussion luncheon Tuesday at the American Legion hall.

The luncheon, sponsored by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, was attended by approximately 20 persons.

"I look for Idaho schools to reach the bottom in five to 10 years," Ragland said. He pointed out Idaho is having difficulty already competing for top grade teachers with other states and the situation is becoming worse each year.

The proposed five million dollar increase to school aid is diluted by increased enrollments in the Idaho schools, he explained.

The group seemed to agree with Ragland that something should be done about the schools. Controversy arose as to how and in what way the schools should be helped.

Federal aid to education was suggested as one possible means of support. This drew mixed comments. Federal aid given to the state without strings attached was approved by the group. Anything less drew violent opposition from the majority of those present.

Club Told About Escrows, Titles

Ralph Smith, of the Twin Falls Title and Trust company, explained title insurance and escrows to members of the Exchange club at the Tuesday noon meeting at the Rogerson hotel.

Smith said that this company has records of all real estate ownership in the county since the county's formation in 1897. The transactions, which are filed in geographical order, were first handwritten, then typewritten and are now photographed on microfilm, he said.

A. L. Heinrich, club president, announced a board of control meeting will be held Friday noon.

Mr. Wright was a member of the Masonic lodge AF and AM No. 61, a life member of OES chapter No. 54 and of the Scottish Rite bodies, Boise.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Harriet Miller, Jerome, and Mrs. Virginia Clayton, Boise; two grandsons and one great-granddaughter.

Charge Fails To Bring Out Bill on Stamps

(From Page One) signs of trouble already have appeared. Despite its one million dollar hike in educational expenditures, educators—who want 39 million dollars—are not satisfied.

And the chairman of the house education committee, Rep. W. Dean Palmer, R-Franklin, said his committee will fight for 35 million dollars.

The senate finance committee approved two vitally important bills yesterday in an effort to end a Democratic slowdown in the Idaho senate. The committee gave favorable recommendations to the house-approved 7.4-million-dollar construction bill and to the measure appropriating 33 million dollars for the public schools.

The building bill makes use of the revenue from the 10 "head tax" and Republican leaders hoped that sending it to the floor for decision would persuade Democrats to abandon at least for the time being their effort to force a vote on their "head tax" repealer.

If the tax were repealed, then revenues from it could not be used in finance construction proposed in the building bill.

The public school bill appropriates from the general fund 33 million dollars to the fund which is distributed to school districts throughout the state. The total, appropriated by the joint finance committee, compares with 27 million dollars in the current two-year period.

Filed for introduction in the house was an appropriations committee measure to boost salaries of Idaho's elected officials.

Rep. Pete T. Cenarrusa, R-Blaine, committee chairman, said the bill would increase the governor's salary from $12,500 per year to $17,500 and set at $12,000 the salaries of secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, attorney general and superintendent of public instruction. The attorney general now receives $9,000 and the other officials $8,000 per year.

The Democratic slowdown, in effect since last Wednesday, resulted from the Republicans' refusal to permit the printing of three bills introduced by the Democrats. One provides for outright repeal of the "head tax."

Another provides for repeal of the tax and the refunding to taxpayers of amounts already paid. And the third erases from Idaho law any reference to the bureau of public accounts, an agency which has been in dispute between Republican Gov. Robert E. Smylie and Democratic state officeholders.

Democrats said as long as those bills remained unprinted they would insist that all measures coming before the senate be read in full. Normally bills are read by title only, with the legislative records showing they were read in full. Unanimous consent is necessary for such procedure.

Republicans discussed strategy during a three-hour caucus at its outset of yesterday's session. At its conclusion, Sen. Fred M. Cooper, R-Caribou, caucus chairman, said the Republicans voted unanimously to refuse to disclose what they had decided.

He would say only that they were "sincerely anxious to break" the slowdown and "some proposals were made which we hope will do that."

One of the proposals apparently was the suggestion that the two important bills be reported out of committee.

Another was reported to have been a proposal that the Republicans themselves introduce a "head tax" repealer but couple it with a proposal that operating funds of certain institutions—including, perhaps, the University of Idaho and Idaho State college be reduced by the amount now produced by the tax.

The vote in the finance committee to report out the house-approved building bill was 6 to 3. The vote on the school appropriation was said to have been unanimous.

The building bill creates a special building fund into which would be put revenue from the "head tax" and from increases in the cigarette and beer taxes. Money from the house-approved escheatments bill, which also is awaiting action by the senate, also would be included.

The measure also sets up a priorities schedule for construction at various state institutions and authorizes issuance of tax anticipation notes to make revenue available promptly.

Also reported to the senate floor for final consideration tomorrow was the so-called farm "right-to-work" bill. It would outbid labor contracts covering agricultural workers which require union membership as a condition of employment.

The house approved 45 to 1 a bill to repeal the Boise city charter. Rep. Carl R. Burt, R-Ada, was the only representative to speak against the bill and vote no.

Burt said he thought city residents should be permitted to vote on the issue.

Under terms of the measure, Boise city would become a first class city.

Measures in the senate call for repeal of the charters of Idaho's two other chartered municipalities—Lawston and Bellevue.

Lawmakers who spoke for repeal of the charter said they did not think the legislature should be troubled with the problems of chartered cities and that local matters could be dealt with more effectively at the local level.

Passed 27 to 17 was a bill to permit holders of liquor by the drink licenses to hold public office. The senate approved measure would also reduce the residence requirement for application for the license from one year to one month, a farmer.

A senate-approved bill increasing retirement benefits for teachers who retired prior to Jan. 1, 1958, was given final passage in the house.

Fishery Study Group Set up By Governors

(From Page One) three were unanimous in agreeing there is "serious depletion" and that steps should be taken to remedy the situation.

In addition to announcing creation of the tri-state committee, the joint statement said the three governors:

Will instruct the fisheries agencies of their states "to explore the problems of uniform bag limits, licensing and similar types of regulatory programs."

Urge congress to enact legislation "which would afford the maximum degree of protection possible to the Salmon river in the interests of providing the greatest degree of protection to fisheries resources in that river in the interests of sports and commercial fisheries of the three states."

Urge legislation by Alaska, Idaho, Washington and Oregon which would provide representation of those states in the Pacific Fisheries Fisheries commission and the International section of the International North Pacific Fisheries Treaty organization, "because of the very definite impact of ocean fishing activities on the fishery stocks of the Columbia River system."

Believe "it to be the responsibility of the federal government to provide additional sums of money to carry on fishery research programs which have as their objective increasing, restoring and replenishing anadromous fish runs of the Columbia River system."

Said they are "considering" the possibility of a statutorily authorized tri-state compact as a permanent feature of their program."

School Funds Need Is Cited At T. F. Meet

Idaho can afford good schools and can provide professional salaries for teachers if citizens demand it, Elmer S. Crowley, executive secretary of the Idaho Education association, said in Twin Falls Monday night.

"Legislators will enact the kind of legislation the people demand," Crowley said while reviewing the status of education appropriations in the legislature. He spoke to some 50 members of the executive council of the IEA, fourth district.

It was announced that the teachers' institute will be held in Twin Falls in November. It was held in Burley in 1960.

"If the state of Idaho fails to provide adequately for its public schools this session of the legislature, it is the result of attitude rather than ability," Crowley told the group.

He commended house of representatives education committee chairman, Dean Palmer, R-Franklin, for his efforts to move the public school appropriation beyond 33 million dollars recommended by the joint house-senate finance and appropriations committee.

Crowley said the need of the public schools is real and that the 39 million dollars state appropriation recommended by the Unified Educational council is not excessive.

The council is composed of the Idaho School Trustees association, Idaho Education association and the Idaho Congress of Parents and Teachers.

He stated that over two-thirds of the cost of maintaining and operating the public school is born at the local level through property tax and that additional money must come from the state.

"Most school districts are now taxing to the legal limit so that schools must look to the state for additional financial support," the official said. "Most of the state money comes from non-property tax sources."

Crowley said Tuesday morning before leaving for Boise that "I am sure the appropriation will go beyond 33 million."

"The house education committee is doing everything it can to boost it to 35 million, but how far it can go without a broad base tax is a moot question."

Crowley said a sales tax would be one way of financing a greater appropriation for schools.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie has recommended 32 million dollars for schools. A bill was submitted Thursday to appropriate 33 million dollars.

Also speaking to the council on legislative matters was Supt. Camden Meyer, Minidoka county. Supt. Ezra Moore, Cassia county, spoke on activities of the National Education association.

Plans were discussed for the April delegate assembly in Boise.

The national contest will be held March 6-11 in Chicago, according to Mrs. Heber Loughmiller, chairman of the county contest.

At the state session Saturday, L. B. Martin, president of the Idaho Farm Bureau federation, spoke to contestants: The Farm Bureau sponsors the youth power program.

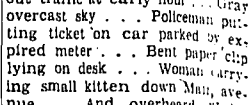

Other speakers during the session were Janet Croft, Shoshone, who was an Idaho and national youth power winner last year; Larry Jackson of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Henry McQuade, Idaho supreme court justice.

Home Burns, 7 Children Die While Fire Truck Stays Idle

WINDSOR MILLS, Que., Feb. 7—A fire truck was kept idle in a Windsor Mills garage Sunday while seven children died in a burning farm house four miles outside town.

A police report yesterday told this story of the blaze that wiped out the family of Mr. and Mrs. Marc Saint-Laurent.

The fire broke out in the two-story frame home about 9:45 a.m. while the parents were milking cows in the barn.

Constable Lorenzo Houle received a telephone call for assistance of Windsor Mills' volunteer fire department at 10 a.m. The call was from Anne Normandin, a neighbor of the Saint-Laurents.

Houle tried to reach Mayor Theophile Bolduc and Fire Chief Robert Longpre. Both were at mass.

The constable finally got in touch with Lean Desaulniers, town councillor. Desaulniers declined to

Hoffa Predicts One U. S. Truck Contract in '64

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 7—James R. Hoffa said yesterday his Teamsters union will have a nation-wide contract by Feb. 1, 1964, but added there never would be a nation-wide strike of truck drivers.

The remark about a strike was made in response to a question at a news conference. Such a strike, said Hoffa, "just wouldn't be good business for the union."

The Teamsters have contracts in the central, southern, New York, New Jersey and West Virginia areas. Many of the 7,000 employers in these areas also operate elsewhere, Hoffa said, so the majority are already committed to a national contract.

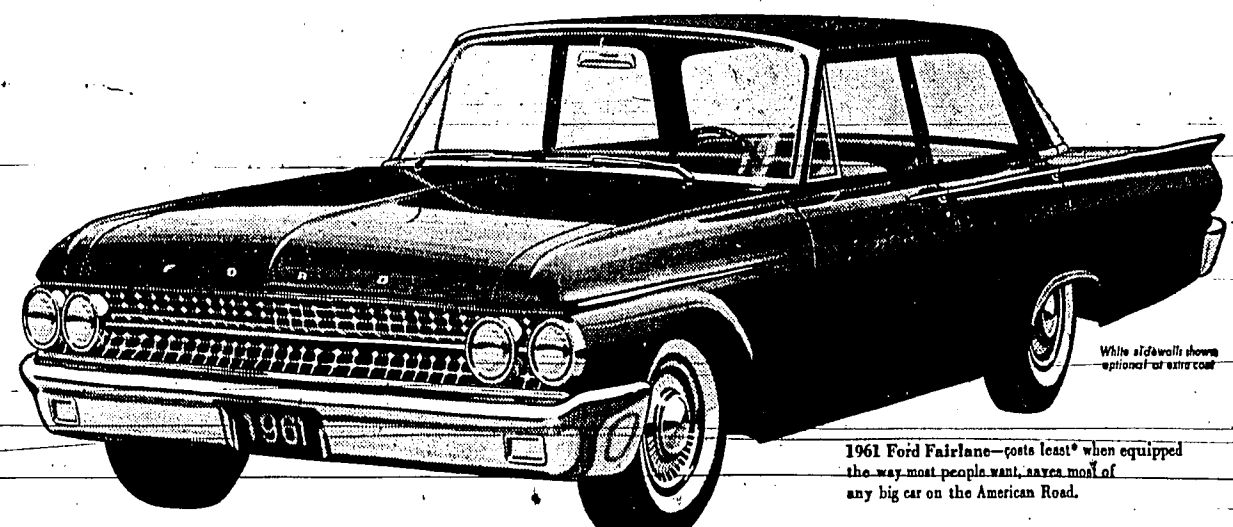

Negotiations for the over-all contract, he said, will be started 60 days before present contracts expire Feb. 1, 1964.

It's True!

This big, roomy 4-door
1961 FORD FAIRLANE
will cost you less to buy...less to run than some
"new-name" compacts!

1961 Ford Fairlane—costs least* when equipped the way most people want, saves most of any big car on the American Road.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes) because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-Flow oil filter gives you filtration through fibers... trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically.

Wards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish to make it glisten like new, it never needs waxing.

Here's the BIG car that saves like the small ones. Actually saves more... up to $84 more* on purchase price alone... than some of the "new-name" compacts. Come in. Let your Ford Dealer explain why you get terrific mileage on "regular" gas. Let us show you how you save on a '61 Ford Fairlane all the while you own it, because it's so beautifully built to take care of itself!

Beginning with its low initial cost, the '61 Ford Fairlane can save you plenty.

For instance, the Fairlane has the only modern "over square" 6-cylinder engine in its field. Ford's new Milenge Maker Six—with its short-stroke, low friction design—squeezes amazing mileage out of each gallon of fuel.

The 1961 Ford Fairlane, like every '61 Ford, can cut your operating and service costs nearly $100 a year. It is beautifully built to take care of itself—see features listed in square at left.

And here's the most amazing fact of all: On top of the greatest money-saving combination in the nation, this Fairlane gives you more value than any other car in its field! Built-for-people room. Comfort-high seats. Truck-Size brakes. Wide-Tread design. All the big and little "extras" that Ford knows how to build into a car without wrecking your bank account. All this—plus the successful Classic Ford Look that's bound to mean better resale value in years ahead.

Add up the facts for yourself. Then hurry to your Ford Dealer.

MORE TO DO THAN 'TELLING' Edward R. Murrow, the veteran news broadcaster who now heads the United States Information Agency...

Often in the past the USIA has been assailed for waste, for misguided presentation of the American story...

No doubt there are gains to be made in these matters. But a bigger USIA shortcoming needs to be overcome...

If such an agency is being properly led, it should have a substantial voice not simply in the telling but in the making of the American story...

Every move we make in these fields has obvious impact and repercussions on the world abroad...

Too many times in the postwar years we seem to have acted in matters of major importance without full regard...

Obviously there are things we must do sometimes without respect to their effect on world opinion...

Moreover, there are even occasions when, without damage to our national purpose, we can tailor policies specifically...

To accomplish these vital goals for USIA, Murrow will have to prove himself far more than just a news expert...

And President Kennedy will have to want him to achieve these ends, to sit in on the making of policy...

Few enterprises of the new administration will be watched with sharper interest.

FITTING AND PROPER Nineteen-sixty-one marks the centennial of the outbreak of the Civil war...

The words of Abraham Lincoln at Gettysburg come fresh to mind: "It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this."

But what Lincoln went on to say over 97 years ago still holds today: It is far above our poor power to add to or detract from what those brave men did.

Again, to paraphrase Lincoln, we, their descendants, should rather dedicate ourselves to finishing the great task...

As long as injustice and human slavery, of mind as well as body, exist, that work remains unfinished...

As long as freedom stands in jeopardy from whatever enemy, the idea we call America, which so many men in so many wars have so nobly advanced...

It is in this sense that we should enter into the centennial observances...

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy's deep sense of urgency over domestic ills and foreign perils is not shared by a majority in congress...

There is no comparison in today's mood with the emergency spirit that prevailed in Franklin D. Roosevelt's "first 100 days," and which enabled him to stage the "New Deal revolution" on Capitol Hill with only feeble opposition.

The President, in both his inaugural address, and his state of the union message, adopted a serious optimism on both occasions and obviously sought to recreate the spirit of early 1933...

Many editorial writers thought that he had painted too gloomily a panorama and questioned the need of the remedies he proposes...

PROGNOSIS—MORE OF THE SAME—The Republicans, of course, can hardly agree with the Kennedy diagnosis and prescription for the health of the nation's economy and national defense...

They listened as the World War II military hero and many of his top-notch Pentagon advisers denied that the United States lagged behind Russia in conventional weapons, missiles and space developments...

ECONOMIC CONTRADICTIONS—As was noted here at the time, and as many editorial writers have commented since, the outgoing and incoming chief executives "might well have been talking about two different countries."

WALL STREET'S OLD FRONTIERS—Analysts attributed the activity of general expectations of a business pickup later this year. They noted that inventories, which have been an economic bottleneck and barrier to recovery, are falling slowly but steadily.

Wall street's reaction, if it persists, will definitely affect the strategy of Capitol Hill opposition to the President's more extreme proposals...

The Halleck-Smith-Brown faction will try to stave off action through protracted committee studies and hearings in the hope that an upturn with the coming of spring—highway and home constructions and other fair-weather activity and employment—will neutralize the President's sense of urgency...

Idahoan should be vigilant against any move to return the Idaho fish and game commission to politics. A bill before the Idaho house of representatives to make the commission elective would do just that.

The commissioners are now appointed by the governor with terms on a staggered basis much like those of the state highway board...

The word "elective" has been robbed with more than the usual sacred mission this week. Lawmakers turning down the appointment instead of the election of the state superintendent of schools argued with misplaced righteousness that the people should have control of the principal state offices...

Like any arm of government, the Idaho fish and game department must consistently justify its service to the people. If it doesn't, then a change is inevitable in the long run...

There's no one so optimistic, we've always heard, as a politician before election day. An Associated Press story from Denison, Ia., seems to bear out that premise.

In Denison, Lee J. Farnsworth, a candidate for Crawford county attorney, advertised in a local paper: "Wanted: 60,000 Democrats to vote for Lee J. Farnsworth."

Perhaps Mr. Farnsworth's ad fell victim of typographical gremlins, or maybe he's engaging in a bit of wishful thinking or just having a little fun.

But we're inclined to believe he may be taking his cue from a few counties where the legal voting registers have been known to be supplemented—with the names of the deceased—Augusta, Ga., Chronicle

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

POT SHOTS with a cartoon illustration of a man in a suit.

WASHINGTON

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—With a deep bow to Henry Wallace and Milo Perkins, this is where a lot of old new dealers came in.

The government's money came from an old law authorizing use of one-third of the U. S. customs receipts—known as section 22 funds—for encouraging larger sales of U. S. farm products. This source is still available.

There was no stigma of taking charity attached to the food stamp purchasers. The incentive furnished through the plan was to buy more free blue stamps, so as to get more free blue stamps. The result was that people had better diets.

Introduced late in the new deal, the food stamp plan in its first year, at a cost of 10 million dollars, had been extended to about one million people in 100 communities. By July, 1941, four million people in 300 communities were covered and the cost had risen to around 100 million dollars.

The plan died out in 1943 under wartime conditions. Unemployment had practically disappeared. Food surpluses had disappeared, too, and rationing and price controls were in. At the time it was abandoned, costs had run to 200 million dollars.

Efforts were made to revive the plan in congress during the 1955 and 1958 recessions. Sens. George D. Aiken, R. Vt.; Hubert Humphrey, D. Minn., and Rep. Leonor Sullivan, D. Mo., were principal sponsors.

A two-year authorization for a trial program was finally approved by congress in 1959. But the Eisenhower administration never used the authority.

The department of agriculture's secret advisory council under Secretary Ezra Taft Benson opposed it. The grounds were that the costs for feeding 25 million people estimated to be on inadequate diet would run as high as 2 1/2 billion dollars a year and that this would not reduce surpluses appreciably.

Hijacking Term Called Best Word for Santa Maria Case

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Now that the Santa Maria escape is all over, what was it: Hijacking... piracy... mutiny... barfairy?

Navy specialists in admiralty law said today it must have been hijacking that exited Portuguese soldier-author Henrique Galvao engaged in when he took over the cruise ship in the Caribbean on Jan. 22.

In any event, they said, traditional terms for describing a seizure at sea did not seem to fit the Santa Maria case. Piracy, for example, involves hostile boarding of one ship from another.

A pirate is a sea rover who is a criminal against all nations, roaming the seas in search of plunder. Galvao, ex-army officer and many of his junta went aboard the Santa Maria on purchased tickets and others boarded as stowaways.

Mutiny occurs when a ship's crew members rebel against those in charge. Galvao was no Fletcher Christian, the first mate who led the mutiny on the bounty in the famed British incident.

Finally, barfairy is defined as the seizure of a ship from its owners by its master to use it for his own purposes. Galvao certainly used the Santa Maria for his own purposes, but he was not the ship's master.

The trouble with the hijacking hypothesis, or maybe the reason the word loosely fits the case, is that its meaning is imprecise. Hijacking is a U. S. slang term, the dictionary says, with obscure origins. Mostly it has referred to holdup men, especially highway men who robbed bootleggers and rum runners.

The state department and the navy originally said navy ships were searching for the Santa Maria under the well defined terms of international law governing piracy and insurrection aboard ship.

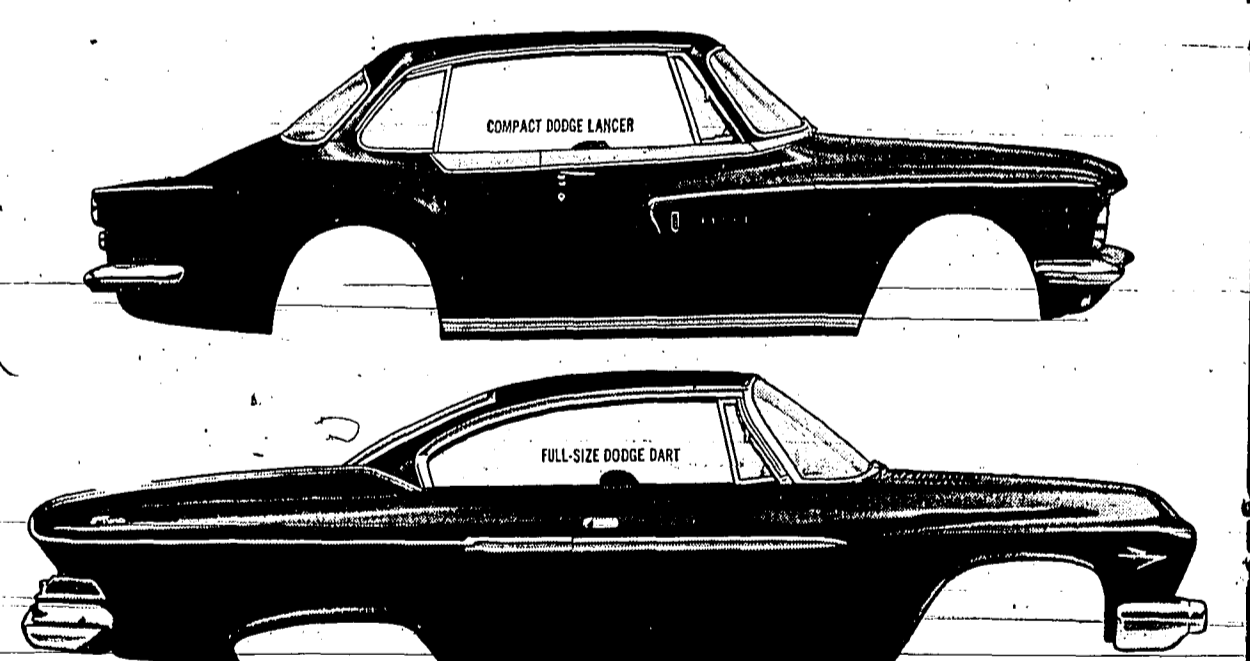

But a few days later, the state department retreated to saying only that "suspicion of piracy" existed and warranted investigation.

Eight Ranger Districts Will Hold Meeting

Rangers and assistant rangers from the eight ranger districts of the Sawtooth national forest will meet in Twin Falls next Monday through Thursday at the Twin Falls sawtooth national forest office for a multiple use planning conference.

Purpose of the meeting, according to J. L. Sevy, supervisor at the local office, is to develop multiple use plans for the eight ranger districts of the Sawtooth national forest.

The districts include Twin Falls, Burley, Sawtooth Valley, Shake Creek, Fairfield, Ketchum, Halley and Malta.

Howard Smith, from the regional forest service office in Ogden, will speak during the four-day meeting on basic guides for developing multiple use plans.

Sevy stated that the objective of multiple use management in the Sawtooth national forest is for optimum combination of uses and services for the benefit of all American people.

Multiple use management, Sevy added, means the harmonious combination of different uses of a forest on a large scale such as arranging a district or a national forest. The uses include recreation, water, timber, forage, wild life and mining, he said.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Feb. 7 (AP)—The victory of a communist-backed Socialist in Sunday's senatorial election in Buenos Aires may force President Arturo Frondizi to relax his stern austerity program.

That was the privately expressed view of government officials today as returns built up the margin of Socialist Alfred Palacios. Frondizi had hoped for a public vote of confidence.

The figures showed that since last year's congressional elections, the Argentine Socialists had picked up about 160,000 votes in this capital.

Signs Lost, so Bicycle-Riding Professor Free

EVANSTON, Ill., Feb. 7 (AP)—A judge held yesterday that Prof. Malcolm Dole didn't fracture Evanston's ordinance against bicycling on busy streets because he wasn't legally reminded of the ban.

Judge James M. Corcoran dismissed a city charge against Dole, 37, North Western university chemistry teacher who was nabbed Jan. 20 for pedaling along Sheridan road, one of Evanston's 10 proscribed streets.

Corcoran remarked, "I've got an out to dismiss this case," after City Attorney Harold O. Andrews stipulated that "no bicycling" signs had disappeared from their standards along Sheridan road before Dole was arrested.

Dole had indicated before the municipal court hearing that he wanted to challenge constitutionality of the ordinance, adopted Nov. 10, 1958, by Evanston's city fathers.

"I'll obey the ordinance as far as possible," he said, "but I want to take it up with the city council and try to get them to modify it."

Mr. Hammer led the First Baptist church of Willows in a program of rapid advance in Christian education and music. Under his direction extensive remodeling and renovating was completed.

The Rev. Mr. Hammer married the former Ethel Louise Miller, Whitler, Calif., and they have three children.

FROM ALL ANGLES
By LARRY HOVEY

Over the past three months, conference talk has run the complete course. Now it appears it's just about back where it started. Reconsideration of the somewhat hasty superintendent's decision to curtail all conference championship meets except football in the Southern Idaho conference will be taken up Wednesday at Boise.

This time the athletic directors of the seven participating schools are invited. Therefore, it appears that the Southern Idaho conference may be in for a rebirth after a death of only two months.

Superintendents, principals and athletic representatives of all the schools were notified over the week-end of the Boise meeting. It appears all seven schools will be represented.

The odds are even that the conference will regroup in the same alignment. Southern Idaho has known it for years. If that doesn't pan out, it appears rather definite work on a "Big Five" consisting of Boise, Borah, Nampa, Caldwell and Twin Falls, will begin at that meeting.

A little nosing around Boise Monday indicated those four schools are ready to take the step and Twin Falls, with little loop hope in this district or to the east, must logically fall into this new alignment.

Since the superintendents and principals met in Twin Falls in December, it appears a little cooling off period has developed. The interlude has allowed each school to recount its membership record and given them a chance to blow off some steam.

There is the possibility that Idaho Falls and Pocatello may not want back in, but the guessing has it they will. These two schools, and Idaho Falls in particular, have cited the increasing transportation costs as their disillusionment of the current setup.

Perhaps they have found that their neighboring schools aren't quite as receptive to intra-district conference as they had hoped.

If the SIO buries the hatchet, it is also possible that it will become an athletic conference only, eliminating music, debate and other extra-curricular activities. A big roadblock could develop if the superintendents should decide to bow their necks, rather than recind their action of two months ago. However, for the sake of conference action, harmony with the coaches and fans and common sense, it would appear the cooling off period will see this doesn't arise.

Burley Takes Wrestling Win From Wildcats
FILER, Feb. 7.—The Burley Bobcats dropped the Filer Wildcats 22-9 Monday night in the final tune-up wrestling match for both teams before the district tournament at Buhl this week-end.

Johnson Is Rated 3-1 Favorite in Light Heavy Bout

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 7 (P)—Harold Johnson of Philadelphia zoomed to a solid 3-1 favorite Monday as he and Jesso Bowdry took their final workouts for their 15-round battle for the National Boxing association version of the world light-heavyweight championship at Miami Beach Convention hall Tuesday night.

Promoter Chris Dundee continued to predict a crowd of 8,000 and a $60,000 gate, both of which would be records for the big arena. The previous high marks were 4,500 and $28,000, set in the opening fight show in 1958 between Johnny Busso and Joe Brown.

The main event is scheduled for 10 p.m. and will not be on television or radio. Scoring will be on the 10-point must system. Johnson is 32 and had his eye on the title long before Bowdry, 23, had any ideas of a pro fighting career. The Philadelphia had one shot at the crown, losing by a knockout to Archie Moore in the 14th round in Madison Square garden, New York, Aug. 11, 1954.

It was their fifth meeting, and Moore had won three of the previous four, none title matches. It is for ancient Archie's vacant throne Johnson and Bowdry will be fighting Tuesday night. The NBA ejected Archie for failure to put the crown on the line in a reasonable time.

Johnson hasn't fought in nine months and Bowdry has had only two fights in the last year. He was knocked out twice by a middleweight, Henry Hank, in his two preceding fights, prompting him to go into temporary retirement.

Johnson, a stolid, reticent citizen, has changed his tune from a timorous "I hope I win" to a defiant "I will win" since arriving here. His manager is predicting a knockout in three rounds.

The Bowdry camp is predicting a knockout for the St. Louis fighter within seven rounds.

19-Year-Old Assigned to Local Roster
SHERIDAN, Wyo., Feb. 7.—A 19-year-old college freshman, Carl (Marty) Jones, was signed Monday by the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league and immediately assigned to the club's new class C affiliate in the Pioneer league, the Magic Valley Cowboys.

Glen Elliott, Pacific Northwest scout for the Phillies, signed the 5-foot, 180-pound Jones, who currently is attending Sheridan junior college. Terms of the signing were not disclosed.

Jones, who hit 560 and 500 in his last two years of American Legion junior baseball, was named Wyoming all-state in 1958 and 1959 and received all-regional honors in 1959.

He was born Dec. 4, 1941, in Orange, Calif., but finished high school in Sheridan, where he starred in basketball and baseball. He is right handed all the way.

Bliss Takes 45-33 Victory Over Panthers

GOODING, Feb. 7.—The Bliss Bears pulled away in the second quarter and went on to defeat the Gooding State Panthers 45-33 Monday night.

The Panthers battled the favored Bears to a 10-10 first quarter draw but the Bears wrapped it up with an 18-point second period spurge.

Bliss, getting 10 points performance from Miss Krahn and Miss Tschannen, dumped Gooding State 37-29 in the preliminary. Miss Seidel had nine for the losers.

Generous Tag Team Belt Goes on Line Here Tonight

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 7 (AP)—Dodger pitcher Don Drysdale was springing to leave for Florida before winter training, so he could compete in the baseball players' golf tournament starting in Miami Jan. 15.

His wife Ginger objected to the early departure, but Don won her over by getting general manager Buzzie Bavasi to tell her he wanted Drysdale to represent the Dodgers in the tournament.

"I told her I would get her a compact," Bavasi said. "And now I find she thinks I meant a compact car."

Gooding Boxing Club Defeats T.F. City Team

The Gooding VFW boxing club took a team victory over the Twin Falls recreation squad Monday night by winning decisions in six of 11 matches. There were three draws.

In most cases the young Gooding lads showed too much left hand for the Twin Falls crew, which look only two decisions.

Results of the matches Twin Falls boys listed first include Terry Groves decided by Bliss; White decided by Werham; Brown drew with Fuga; Smith decided by Wilmoth; Newman decided by James; Ned Williams decided by Roy Kelly; D. Williams drew with Boyer; Stricklin decided by Billson; Nutting drew with Carrio; Padillo decided by Knight, and McAdams decided Dixon.

Pilots Close in on Little Six Loop Title

Only a complete collapse stands between the Glenns Ferry Pilots and the Little Six conference basketball championship following an overtime "must" victory over the Valley Vikings last week.

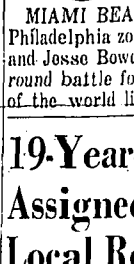

The Pilots lead the conference by two games with only three left and, being undefeated, they appear well on the road to replacing Wendell as the champions. Overall, the standings give the impression that it is time for the district double A coaches to regroup their forces for the district tournament.

Valley is the only team that has a chance of catching the high-flying Pilots. Shoshone still is in a battle to maintain its third place ranking, while Halley, Kimberly and Wendell, currently tied at 2-5 and Wendell, still must decide which will rest in the conference cellar.

The weekly statistics, compiled by the Times-News sports department, show the Pilots and Valley still are locked in their battle for offensive supremacy. The Vikings currently lead with 384 points against 383 for Glenns Ferry. Defensively, Shoshone wrested the lead back from the Pilots by one point—310 to 311.

Valley's John Brune, on a 26-point night, and Shoshone's Rick Mabbitt, with a 30-point game, moved in on Paul Miles, Wendell, for the conference scoring lead. Still Miles has the lead at 17.2 for the loop and 16.8 for the year. Brune is 15.9 and 13.5 while Mabbitt is 14.7 and 13.2. Sherm Pack, who hit 23 free throws in two outings over the week-end, roared into fourth spot with 14.2 and 14.3.

Behind him were teammates Tony Tripple, 11.6 and 10.1, and Terry Helwich, 11.4 and 11.1. Gary Gutches, Halley, tied Helwich at 11.4 and is 11.8 for the season. The wild week-end, which saw free throws and foul marks broken

Dodgers Show Uniforms, Discuss Talent

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 7 (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels trotted out their new uniforms Monday and talked a little about what they intended to put in them.

The publicity man for the new American league ball club started things off by proudly announcing that there are 30,000 stitches in each Angel baseball cap.

To some, this figure seemed fully as impressive as the other major announcement: That there is only one team in this club's farm system.

General manager Fred Haney explained: "Right now we've got one triple-A club, Dallas. We might go on from there and make arrangements through Dallas with lower classification clubs."

"We know it's pretty hard to get a working agreement with a club unless you furnish it with players. And right now we don't have many players to furnish."

The uniforms were modeled by manager Bill Rigney and coaches Red Kress, Bob Elliott and Marv Grissom. Rigney wore the home uniform, white with red numerals trimmed in blue and "Angels" in old English letters across the chest. The gray road uniforms have blue numerals with red trim. On the front it says Los Angeles.

U.S. Okays Visa To Swedish Boxer
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—The state department Monday sent a message authorizing the American consulate at Helsinki to issue a visa to Pekka Kokkonen, the favorite sparring partner of heavy-weight boxer Ingemar Johansson.

Johansson is training near Miami Beach, Fla., for a return fight with world champion Floyd Patterson-March-13.

Kokkonen, according to news dispatches from Helsinki, denies he was ever communist, but says that his name once was placed on a communist list in a Finnish municipal election.

Jets Foreing Baseball Clubs To Use Trains

CHICAGO, Feb. 7 (AP)—The booming jet age may force the Chicago White Sox to do more traveling by train this season than at any time in the last five years.
"Moving the team around the schedule has really become a headache," said Ed Short, traveling secretary.
"Nearly all the major airlines are switching to jets and trading in their piston engine equipment. The jets are operated on a strict regular commercial schedule and are not available as charters. There are fewer and fewer piston planes left that the club can have for its private use. We'll probably have to depend more on trains this season than we have for four to five years. We must arrange things so if we miss a regular commercial plane, we still can go by rail."
The Sox had chartered planes for 90 per cent of their travel last year.

broken collarbone. The title could revolve to sophomore Gary Pedrow, Filer, who makes up for lack of experience with raw power.

The heavyweight department, will see its best two combatants meeting in the first match. This one pits Burley's Phil Jones, a 255-pounder who has won 12 straight, against Rodney Rutherford, Buhl, who is 10-2.

While season records indicate these to be the probable weight-by-weight contenders, none of the coaches is willing to put a finger on one of his boys as a certainty.

The teams battle figures to follow the pattern of last year with Minico amassing a large number of points while Twin Falls and Buhl battle it out for second.

Burley and Gooding State are unable to field complete teams and, while some individuals will shine for each school, neither figures to be better than four in the final accounting. Filer hasn't the experience to expect a great deal this year.

Schnabel stands as the favorite in its 135-pound class. The 141 title appears a battle between Rush and Roger Michener, Twin Falls. Those two have battled three times and Rush has always come out on top by two to four points.

The 148-pound class is vicious. In this weight are Haubner, Burley; Larry Maupin, Twin Falls, and powerful Carron, Gooding State. Carron carries a slight edge here but can't afford a slip. Dave Royer, Twin Falls, and Minico's Whitaker appear the one-two grapplers in the 155 pound class with M. Jones, Burley, a darkhorse.

In the 165 pound class, Dale Willis, Twin Falls, is undefeated in district competition but may not be able to compete because of a knee injury sustained sking over the week-end. Buhl's best boy in this weight, Areman, is out with a

St. John's Is "At Large" Team For NCAA Meet

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—St. John's of New York Monday became the second "at large" team selected for the NCAA basketball tournament. St. Bonaventure was named previously.

Robert Brown, West Virginia athletic director and chairman of the eastern selection committee, made the announcement through the NCAA bureau.

St. John's has an 11-4 record. The Redmen have competed in the NCAA tournament twice previously. They reached the semifinals in 1951 and finished second in 1952.

St. John's and St. Bonaventure will appear in a first round triple-header at Madison Square garden, March 14.

Bobsled Marks Beaten in Tests

LAKE PLACID, N.Y., Feb. 7 (AP)—The two-man bobsled record for the mile long Olympic course took a beating Monday in practice runs for this week's world championship meet.

World champion Eugenio Monti twice bettered the record of 1 minute, 12 seconds he set last year, and his teammate, Sergio Zardini, and German Franz Schelle each did it once as entries staged their first full day of practice. Monti turned in the fastest run on his second try with a dazzling 1:10.48.

Gary Sheffield and Gerry Tennant, the two marines who form the No. 1 U.S. team, had a 1:14.11 as their best time.

Too Tame

MERIDA, Venezuela, Feb. 7 (AP)—The bulls weren't brave enough here Monday. In fact they were downright tame.

So the audience vented its anger on the bull-ring. It was demolished.

Teams Have Free Hand to Arrange For Cuban Players

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Baseball clubs are free to make their own arrangements to bring Cuban players into the country, state department officials said Monday.

Mexico is understood to provide the most likely route for Cubans to obtain visas. Cubans also would be admitted if they came directly to the United States as refugees, officials said.

This country's break of diplomatic relations with the Castro regime removed American consuls from Cuba. Since visas may be issued only by a consul, Cubans trying to get into the United States as ordinary travelers—as they've come in the past—would have to go through a third country.

Jay and Lionel Hebert are the first brothers ever to win the PGA golf title.

Top Rating Is All Buckeyes Need to Win

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 7 (AP)—Coach Fred Taylor needs no needie, emotional or otherwise, in pre-game buildups to keep his brilliant Buckeye basketball team on the victory trail.

The Ohio State mentor, surveying the team's 21-game winning streak, the unblemished 16 conquests this year, the 1960 national championship and current unanimous No. 1 ranking, said: "Frankly, I like it up here. So do the boys."

"When you are on top, you're everybody's target. Every team we play is sky high. We have to be just as high—but we do it naturally, by just accepting the challenge."

"Winning is nothing new to our five starters. All were all-Ohio high school players. There's no friction anywhere."

"In addition to their ability, our boys have intense pride in their record. They know that one slip can shove them off the top. With that knowledge as an incentive, they need no pep talks."

Jerry Lucas, the all-America junior and Olympic star, is Ohio State's marked man. As a rule five defenders collapse on him every time he's within range of the basket—which opens pathways for some of his friends.

So big Jerry, despite his 25-plus scoring average, spends much of his time passing off or grabbing rebounds. That's the type of team play which has paid off. In most of the contests each of the five starters has scored in double figures—and any of them can break a game open at any time.

Barrow Rallies To Cop Decision

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7 (AP)—Kirk Barrow, young heavyweight from Spokane, Wash., got off the canvass from a first-round knockdown Monday night and went on to win a close, 10-round decision over Monroe Raliff of San Diego at Kzar Pavilion.

Barrow weighed 183½, Raliff, 181½.

It was Barrow's second win in a row, Raliff, a last-day substitute for Floyd Joyner of Phoenix, Ariz., almost proved too much for the less experienced Barrow.

Nevada Boxing Chief Resigns to Avoid Trouble

CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 7 (AP)—Dr. Joseph Ella of Reno resigned Monday as chairman of the state athletic commission, saying he did not want to interfere in the middleweight championship fight between Gene Fullmer and Sugar Ray Robinson scheduled in Las Vegas. In a letter to Gov. Grant Sawyer, Dr. Ella said: "I want to make it clear that I have had no intention at any time to say or do anything which could be construed as an attempt to oppose or delay the fight."

"For this reason I think it is best for all concerned that I submit my resignation."

Dr. Ella, who has said several times he is a close friend of Robinson's personal physician, quit only hours after announcing in Reno that one of the New York promoters of the Las Vegas title matter was not licensed in Nevada and the March 4 boxing match would have to be delayed.

As he resigned, however, Ella said plans for the fight were "proceeding on schedule." However that statement contrasted with an earlier one.

Dr. Ella said earlier that the promoter, Norman Rothschild of Syracuse, N. Y., is not licensed and added "the fight certainly is not definite yet."

Dr. Ella also said Fullmer, the champion, has not yet signed for the bout, which would be his fourth title scrap with Robinson. Each has won one, with the third ending in a draw.

Commissioners Jimmy Gay and Jim Deskin commented in Las Vegas that the fight definitely is on for March 4.

Drake Topples Bradley 86-76

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 7 (AP)—Drake's Bulldogs toppled third-ranked Bradley, 86-76, Monday night knocking the Braves out of the Missouri Valley conference basketball lead—and ending Bradley's home victory string at 46 straight.

Led by Jim Guidon and Jerry Foster, Drake, outplayed Bradley all the way with the Braves holding only three leads at a 4-2, 5-8 and 46-45.

Workers for Heart Fund's Drive Listed

Chairmen and workers helping organize the February Heart fund drive in Twin Falls were listed last week by Mrs. Martin Iverson, county chairman.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roberts, Twin Falls, city chairmen; Mrs. Ralph Burden, Heart Sunday; Ross Prather, business drive; Mrs. Harold Gerber, rural; Mrs. Don Dutches and Bill Denny, publicity; Dale Rouse, coin collection; Roger Marsh, special events, and Mrs. Martha Hochhalter, hair styling show.

Area captains in charge of house-to-house workers are Mrs. Douglas Cobby, Mrs. Bill Denny, Mrs. Dale Rouse, Mrs. John Williamson, Mrs. George Burmelt, Mrs. Ben Mottern, Mrs. Gary Cappel, Mrs. Robert Falash, Mrs. Amber Ash, Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Penny Mathews, Mrs. Denny Lowe, Mrs. Duane Shrank, Odean Brown, Mrs. Wayne Yaden and Mrs. Howard Green.

Dog Catcher Gives Report On Activities

Seven hundred sixty-nine dogs were rounded up and disposed of in Twin Falls during 1960, reports Bill Dye, city dog catcher.

Most dogs are picked up as a result of someone calling the city to complain about a stray in the neighborhood, Dye stated.

Of those picked up, over 95 per cent are disposed of, he said. Each dog is kept for 48 hours and, if not claimed, is done away with. Hypodermic injections are used to kill the animals.

"We have the heaviest traffic in stray dogs right after hunting season," Dye said. Hunters get dogs for the bird season then drop them off somewhere after the season closes.

There are many "good" dogs disposed of every year, he said. If a dog is found with no collar and no license or rabies shot he automatically is taken to the pound and 48 hours later is disposed of if not claimed, whether he is a pure-bred-breed or mongrel.

In addition to dogs disposed of at the city pound, approximately 365 dogs are killed annually in Twin Falls by cars, he noted.

Dogs are permitted to run loose between sunrise and sunset, but city law requires they be penned at night. Owners who wish to keep their dogs should be sure they are properly licensed and have received rabies shots, he warned.

Kennedy to Use Historical Desk

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy has given a historic table desk—made from the timbers of a British sailing ship—a place of honor in the White House.

The massive richly carved table desk from the 19th century HMS Resolute, has been moved from a lower floor to the President's office for his personal use.

Since her husband is an ex-naval officer, and feeling it would complement the naval battle scenes and model of the frigate Constitution already in his office, Mrs. Kennedy gave the desk to him.

Botulism Fatal To Mother of 4

YAKIMA, Feb. 7 (AP)—The mother of a family of four, stricken with botulism poisoning nine days ago, died in a hospital here yesterday.

She was Mrs. Mary Agblait, 52, Wapato. A son, Jose, 27, was listed in critical condition. He has been in an iron-lung for several days with respiratory paralysis.

Raymond Agblait, 54, husband of the victim, was reported recovering in a Toppenish hospital. Another son, George, 16, was treated there for a week and released.

The state department of health said an investigation revealed the poisoning was caused by improperly home canned chili peppers.

Washington Plan On Judges Stalls... OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 7 (AP)—Legislation to revise the state's justice of the peace system ran into trouble in the house yesterday and was sent back to committee for further consideration.

Opposition to the measure, HB119, came largely from representatives of small counties who claimed it would increase the cost of justice court operations.

Opponents rejected a plea from sponsors of the bill to withhold their objections until the measure was passed and before the senate.

Lengthy debate over the proposal followed passage with little opposition of a pair of companion measures, HB117 and HB118.

They would revise justice court procedures and traffic law enforcement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—President Kennedy has chosen Frank P. Briggs, newspaper publisher and former U. S. senator from Missouri to be assistant secretary of the interior for fish and wildlife.

Briggs, 67-year-old Democrat, has been editor and owner of the McClon, Mo., Chronicle-Herald since 1924.
