

Two Die in Automobile Collision at Rural Intersection

The sheet-draped body of Rolan T. Kidwell, 40, route 1, Kimberly, lies beneath his 1954 Plymouth as it is raised by a wrecking truck. Kidwell died instantly in a two-car collision at 11:16 a.m. Sunday a mile north and a mile east of Kimberly at a county road intersection. Investigating officers said his car went through a yield sign and struck a 1955 Dodge driven by Dean C. Murri. Kimberly, Murri and his wife were hospitalized with undetermined injuries after the collision. Their 7-year-old daughter, Karen Murri, was taken to Magic Valley Memorial hospital after the crash. She died there at 1:45 p.m. Sunday. The two fatalities raised Twin Falls county's traffic toll to three within 12 hours. Both cars involved in the collision flipped completely over and landed on their wheels. (Photo by State Patrolman James Gerke—staff engraving.)

Week-End Wrecks Raise County Toll To Three in 2 Days

Two persons died as the result of a two-car collision about 11:16 a.m. Sunday to boost Twin Falls county's traffic toll to three in less than 12 hours. Sunday's collision occurred at a rural intersection a mile north and a mile east of Kimberly. Those dead are Karen Murri, 7, Kimberly, and Rolan T. Kidwell, 40, route 1, Kimberly. Neal Dotson, 37, Twin Falls, died at 11:10 p.m. Saturday after being injured in a truck wreck one mile north of Filer. The three deaths raised Magic Valley's road death toll to six as compared to only one this time last year. State Patrolman James Gerke who investigated Sunday's accident said Kidwell failed to yield the right of way at a county road intersection. Kidwell's car was killed instantly, the girl died at 1:45 p.m. in Magic Valley Memorial hospital.

2 Airlines Shut Down by Strike

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Two major airlines announced today a three-day "wildcat" strike of flight engineers has forced them to shut down all operations, effective at midnight tonight. Another airline closed down all but its military contract flights and still others were forced to cut schedules and work forces drastically because of the strike. By midnight more than 75,000 workers were expected to have received "furlough" notices from the five airlines involved. The mass layoffs triggered by the strike left hundreds of thousands of passengers without transportation and turned huge terminals including New York's Idlewild International and LaGuardia airports into little more than airports.

Kennedy Asks Huge School Aid Program

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—President Kennedy today proposed a 5.7 billion dollar aid-to-education program designed to set "a new standard of excellence in education" available "to all who are willing and able to pursue it."

In a special message to congress, the President called for a three-year program of outright grants to the states for building classrooms or raising teachers' salaries. It would provide an average of $19.75 for each child in average daily attendance in public elementary and secondary schools the first year, increasing to an average of $24.22 the third year. Total cost: 2.3 billion dollars.

School Fund Won't Go to Private Units

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—President Kennedy refused today to accede with the clear intention of the constitution to include parochial or private schools in his aid-to-education program.

He said in a special message to congress that the program would be restricted to public schools and elementary or secondary schools. He said that the program would be restricted to public schools and elementary or secondary schools. New Election Is Scheduled For Belgians

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Feb. 20 (AP)—King Baudouin today formally dissolved parliament and decreed new general elections for March 28.

The announcement followed conferences between the king and Premier Gaston Eyskens and Vice Premier Rene Lefebvre. It was in line with the expressed wishes of the leaders of the ruling Social Christian-Liberal coalition and the opposition Socialists.

New Show!

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., Feb. 20 (UPI)—Two new Discoverer satellites chased each other round 'n' round the world today, but a monkey-in-orbit act may soon steal Uncle Sam's space circus center ring from them.

Although Discoverer XX and XXI still are performing—one has yet to attempt its finale—most attention is focused on the next Discoverer show which may possibly come next month.

House Group Urges Death to Stamp Bill

BOISE, Feb. 20 (AP and UPI)—A committee of the house of representatives sided with Idaho housewives today and urged death for the controversial trading stamps bill. The senate-approved measure would ban the use of trading stamps except by firms which could redeem them in either cash or merchandise. The committee's decision to recommend that the bill be killed was not unanimous, however. A minority report issued by Rep. Dale Garner, R., Mhidoka, said "Trading stamps must be regulated to protect merchants and consumers all over Idaho. We place their interest ahead of the interests of a few trading stamp companies."

Windows Broken

Twenty windows and a glass door panel at Lincoln school, Sixth street north, were reportedly smashed maliciously during the week-end. Twin Falls police reported Monday.

Robert Constable, school janitor, called city police at 6:48 a.m. Monday with the report. Broken were windows measuring eight inches by 16 inches and a door panel 12 inches by 20 inches. Stones and broken paving from the street near the school were used along with some B-B pellets, police said.

Election Set At Simplot's Valley Plant

BURLEY, Feb. 20 (UPI)—The J. R. Simplot company today announced two separate management union contracts for its food processing plants at Caldwell and Shelley, and a bargaining election has been set for the Simplot plant at Heyburn.

A major feature of both contracts, negotiated with the American Federation of Grain Millers, calls for an open shop at both plants.

Writ Case Is Under Study

GOODING, Feb. 20 (AP)—A petition for a writ of habeas corpus, filed Wednesday morning in behalf of Roger Hall, 23, accused of robbing Dr. John Hunt, in August, 1959, was taken under advisement Friday afternoon by Fourth District Judge Charles Scoggin.

Judge Scoggin had not reached a decision late Monday morning. George R. Kennland, Ketchum, Hall's attorney, contends in the petition Hall is being held in double jeopardy. Hall was found innocent of killing Dr. Hunt, a Portland, Ore., plant pathologist, who was found slain in the desert near Bliss Aug. 24, 1959.

Ousted Iowa Firm Chief Is Arrested

SHELDON, Ia., Feb. 20 (UPI)—Harold Kislner, Jr., ousted president of Northern Biochemical corporation in which Mrs. Burnice Gieger was a heavy stockholder, was arrested today on federal charges of illegal use of the mails.

A federal indictment charged him with using the mails for the sale of delivery of unregistered securities.

Stamps Checked

BOISE, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Investigators from the Idaho tax collector's office are looking into the use of counterfeit Idaho tax stamps found on cigarettes confiscated by authorities in Washington state.

Authorities from the Washington tax commission confiscated quantities of cigarettes with phony Washington tax stamps affixed to them in Pullman and Colfax, Wash. They also seized a truck containing a load of other tobacco products and candy owned by Ed Burke, Moscow.

Traffic Death Scoreboard

Here is a comparison of traffic fatalities for 1960 and 1961 for Magic Valley and for the entire state:

Woman Fined $100 in Topsy Case in Area

June Moore, 42, Rupert, was fined $100 and costs and her license was revoked for one year when she appeared before Police Judge George Redford Friday charged with drunk driving. She was arrested Feb. 11 by Rupert police.

Hayburn Election Set

Even as the contracts were negotiated, the national labor relations board announced a bargaining election for the Simplot plant at Heyburn. Date of that election—between the Grain Millers and the Teamsters unions—has not yet been announced.

Newcomer Is Chess Winner

George Kraus, Mountain Home air force base, won the Idaho state chess tournament held in Twin Falls Saturday and Sunday. A newcomer to Idaho chess, Kraus, who is a former North Carolina and Kansas state champion, went through the tournament without a loss.

English Prince Turns Year Old

LONDON, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Prince Andrew, youngest child of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, celebrated his first birthday anniversary yesterday at a Buckingham palace party in which he tried but failed to blow out the lone candle on his cake.

New Drought Is Feared in China

LONDON, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Communist China, already hit hard for two successive years by droughts, hinted today that its farmers may be in for another dry year.

The New China news agency, in a report monitored here, said "some districts" of Honan, Shanlung and Hopen provinces along the Yellow River basin were in the midst of a dry spell "as serious as in the corresponding period last year," while other districts had it "even more serious."

Range Leader Is Confident in Kennedy Plans

BRIDGEMAN, Feb. 20 (UPI)—The chief of the National Range Riders' Association, determined to do his job. And he is determined to help him in every way we can.

Segregation Laws Passed

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 20 (UPI)—Seven new segregation bills were finally passed in the Louisiana legislature last night, including bills to allow parishes (counties) to abandon public education and to encourage informers against persons who encourage children to attend mixed classes.

NEWS BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—The senate confirmed today President Kennedy's nomination of Livingston T. Merchant, foreign service officer, as ambassador to Canada.

WORTHSHORE BEACH, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Searchers reported shortly after today that a mysterious light sighted on a snow-covered mountain peak that was probably a fallen power line.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today announced Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov to a late afternoon conference on Laos following news that the Soviet airlift to Hanoi communists has stopped suddenly.

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 20 (UPI)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's luxurious private plane was found smashed today in a pasture near his ranch with the pilot and co-pilot dead. They were the only ones aboard the craft which vanished last night on a 65-mile flight from Austin to the Johnson ranch.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Canadian Prime Minister John Diefenbaker arrived today for a three-hour talk with President Kennedy on world affairs and relations between their two nations.

Boy, 7, Survives 275-Foot Plunge Into Well

BUCKEYE, Ariz., Feb. 20 (UPI)—Edsel Stage, a well driller, was showing his 7-year-old son a new 275-foot well when the boy suddenly jumped on its slimy plywood covering and disappeared.

Edsel Stage, Jr., plunged 275 feet down the 16-inch-diameter well before smashing into branches and debris floating on water. The water was 260 feet deep.

The next 45 minutes witnessed a heroic rescue operation yesterday which was climaxed successfully with the help of ropes borrowed from passing cowboys in this ranching area about 30 miles southwest of Phoenix.

Despite two painfully broken legs, Edsel never cried. He listened carefully to his dad's urgent instructions:

"Don't worry, son, and don't be scared. We'll get you out. Just push against the sides so you don't sink."

"Okay, dad, I will," came the reply.

Edsel was feet-down in the well which was encased by a pipe. Only occasionally would he call out, "Get me out of here, daddy."

Stage, who had not worked on the well but was about to start employment with Webb Faubion on whose ranch the mishap occurred, saw immediately the well was too small for a man to enter.

He quickly summoned Faubion and about 10 others.

By chance, cowboys competing in a rodeo in nearby Palo Verde soon rode by the well.

"We got a lot of rope together and borrowed barrels from the boys riding by," said rancher Henry Stotts. "We tied them all together and sent the rope down the well."

"We told Edsel to tie it around his shoulders."

"But Edsel called back, 'I can hold onto it while you pull me up.'"

"Listen to us," said his dad. "Put the rope under your arms."

The men were afraid if the boy tried to hold the rope he would lose his grasp and plunge back down.

Soon Edsel said the rope was tied and he was pulled out.

"I've always had good luck," exclaimed Edsel's happy father.

Edsel was in good condition and sent the rope down the well. Phoenix memorial hospital today.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—The more things change, the more they remain the same. The more sophisticated observers at the capital are recalling this philosophical comment as they note the resemblance of many Kennedy policies to those proposed by former President Eisenhower and advocated by former Vice President Nixon during the last campaign.

Although it is possible to strain and overemphasize the likeness, the relationship justifies the politically damaging concession which Nixon made in his first television discussion with President Kennedy.

On that appearance, the Call-Foran said that the principal difference between himself and his opponent was one of methods rather than basic objectives. It was this remark which offended many diehard, conservative Republicans.

CONSERVATIVE APPROACH—Nevertheless, a review of President Kennedy's first month and moves as chief executive shows a more than superficial similarity between the major programs of the 70-year-old Eisenhower and his 43-year-old successor.

On taxes, both men opposed any reduction unless a really threatening emergency demanded it. In fact, the ultraliberal Americans for Democratic Action have criticized Kennedy for not lowering taxes. They demand a general $100 cut per person. Like Eisenhower, Kennedy favors a balanced budget and preservation of the value of the dollar.

Eisenhower forecast a business pickup, basing his 1962 budget estimates on that expectation. President Kennedy hopes that his predecessor's forecast will be fulfilled.

IKK'S PROPOSALS EXPANDED—Their anticommission safeguards are similar. Eisenhower ordered the federal agencies to step up purchases, and to accelerate the tempo of spending for federal construction projects. He proposed a temporary, 13-week increase in unemployment benefits. President Kennedy has expanded these proposals.

Save for his wise rescinding of the order to bring back overseas military dependents, which was hurting morale, President Kennedy's attack on the gold problem does not differ basically from Eisenhower's approach. Almost every Kennedy suggestion had been proposed by his predecessor. The same man—Treasury Secretary C. Douglas Dillon—is handling this task.

On foreign affairs and national defense, fortunately, there is no great gap. Both advocated the strengthening of the United Nations and NATO. Both demanded that our allies should shoulder a larger share of the anti-communist defense organization and of financial aid to underdeveloped countries.

MEETING OF THE MINDS—Now, despite considerable confusion caused by conflicting White House and Pentagon statements, it appears that certain military advisers see no dangerous American inferiority to Russia in war-making capacity. As a matter of fact, Nixon admitted that we might lag behind. If elected and he found this to be true, he promised to remedy it.

President Kennedy so far has handled racial problems as cautiously as did Eisenhower. In fact, certain Negro spokesmen have complained of his moderation. He said he would use the prestige of the presidency on this question when he thought it would be useful.

This review is not written with any thought of detracting from the significance of the Kennedy victory or his first month in the White House. Quite the contrary. Its only purpose is to suggest that there is a definite and wholesome meeting of minds on today's grave problems between our two major political parties.

(Released by McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

VIEWS OF OTHERS

THE U. S. A. AND NATO

President Kennedy has made it plain that in dealing with Soviet Russia he proposes to negotiate from a position of strength. To that end he is taking steps not only to increase our own military power, but also to fortify our alliances. This applies especially to "our central and most important" North Atlantic alliance.

To dispel any doubts that may have arisen on that score because of the change of administration, to reassure our allies and warn any foe, the President made a special statement at a recent press conference emphasizing that we "mean to go on as full and energetic partners" in the alliance and that in particular "we wish to maintain our military strength in Europe." The appointment of an advisory group on NATO problems headed by ex-Secretary Acheson and the special consideration being given to General Norstad's plan to make NATO a "fourth atomic power" with its own nuclear striking force underline the American stand.

But the United States is also entitled to expect adequate reciprocal loyalty and effort from our European allies. This pertains especially to a field he did not specifically mention—the obligation of all allies under the alliance treaty to "maintain and develop their individual and collective capacity to resist armed attack." Though Western Europe is now enjoying unprecedented prosperity, our European allies still lag far behind the United States in their proportionate contribution to their own defense in terms of money, military service and even mutual cooperation—in fields the President did mention—European integration and development of the new nations.

No doubt all the allies must share responsibility for what President Kennedy calls the alliance's "disarray." But the main onus seems to fall at the moment on the two continental leaders, France and Germany. It falls on France because of President de Gaulle's nationalistic policies which hamper NATO military integration and aggravate the split between the two European economic blocs. It falls on Germany because, though not the strongest economic power in Europe, its proportionate contribution to NATO defenses is among the least and only half that of the United States. Unfortunately, the problem of the German contribution has been obscured by being linked to our dollar and gold problem.

There is much work to be done to remedy these defects. The new administration has made a start toward that end. It must be hoped that our allies will follow.—New York Times.

A BLOW FOR THE PRIVATE

To Danny Blanchflower, British soccer star, goes our award for bravery in the face of awesome publicity and implacable conformism. Mr. Blanchflower actually did what thousands, in daydreams of glory, have thought they would like to. He turned on his heel and walked out just before he was to be trapped on an elaborately prepared "This Is Your Life" TV program.

The award offered for this heroic defiance of broadcasting mores will be presented at a ceremony with no one present. It consists of a plaque that does not recount the life and exploits of the winner. No photographs are taken. Speeches are omitted. No relatives or friends are notified.

When Mr. Blanchflower unblanchingly walked out on what doubtless was to be a maudlin reconstruction of his career, he was quoted as saying: "My private life is my own. I don't need to give any reason. It's a matter of principle."

WORKING PARTNERS

Now, we read, for the first time in our history, more than half of all American women holding jobs are working wives.

With our feminine labor force at a record high of 23 millions, more than 12.2 of these millions are combination homemaker-wage-earners, 42 per cent of whom have school-age children.

Nothing, too, that birth records aren't dropping off at all, we're simply awed by these new revelations of the competence of American women.—Eugene Register-Guard.

VOICE FROM 1954

Isn't that the way they used to start letters to you when I lived in Twin Falls some years back? Seems like it.

The other night we went to the Los Angeles philharmonic orchestra concert in San Diego. While we were there my mind wandered back to the time when I was a member of the Twin Falls high school orchestra. What a joyous time we used to have together!

While my mind was back there, I also thought of many other things and the thought came to me that there was something I should do that should have been done back before I graduated.

I forgot to say "thanks" to all those people who made life at Twin Falls so interesting. I'm speaking, of course, of the faculty. There were times when, naturally, we thought they were all a bunch of "old fogies" but I often think of the good times we all had together.

If I could find the proper words and knew where all those people were, I'd try to send each of them a personal note, but since this would be a huge task, maybe you can print a special "thank you" for me.

FAMOUS LAST LINE

"The dime you find on the sidewalk always seems better than the one you earn."

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

SEATTLE—You will never guess who phoned me at the Olympic hotel.

His voice squeaked, "This is Dave, Dave Beck."

I said, "Where did you see me last?" An old Chicago detective taught me that one.

"In the big committee room in the senate office building that day when Bobby Kennedy was asking me."

So he came up.

By a sensitive coincidence I was in town for the Lincoln day political orgies of the King county Young Republicans and my host was young James D. Burns, the deputy prosecuting attorney of the county, under Charles O. Carroll, who was all-America at the University of Washington.

Not so long ago these two prosecuted Dave to a total of not more than 15 years in prison for stealing $1,900, the value of one of numerous used Cadillacs, the property of segments of the Teamsters union.

The supreme court of the state of Washington split even on Beck's appeal, with one judge abstaining because in private practice he had once represented the union.

So now it is up to the U. S. supreme court and it will be interesting whether Earl Warren disqualifies himself because Beck and his own sons helped elect Warren governor of California time and again, doubtless with campaign contributions of money, too, according to union custom. Beck also helped put him on the supreme court, for he is as Republican as Warren ever was.

Bill Douglas faces an ethical problem to which he will take with the airy lightness of an antelope clearing a coral fence. He is a heartily partisan union-arian. He articulated before a grand congress of the CIO a few years ago, but whether for pay or solely for pleasure he refused to tell me when I inquired.

And Beck is a notorious unioneer of a stripe which Douglas has not to my knowing condemned out of hand. But we shall see what Warren and Douglas do about that in due course. I would like to bet a little that they will feel no compulsion to stand aside. If they don't?

When Dave came up I thought I ought to tell him I had been lally-gagging around with the Messrs. Carrol and Burns. I forgot just what impression that made on him. But I think he had heard all about it and had phoned me anyway if not actually for that very reason.

At any rate, we started even with no false pretenses and he balanced himself with remarkable

Lack of Handymen Results in New Type, 'Jill' of All Trades

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP)—What ever happened to the Jack-of-all-trades?

In our pioneer past practically every frontier settler had to battle the wilderness almost singlehanded. He had to be a man of many talents to survive.

As time passed and our civilization grew more complex, the original pioneer American Jack-of-all-trades tended to vanish from the scene. Men learned to specialize in a single craft or art.

But the tradition of the Jack-of-all-trades endured and was kept alive by a new fellow on the scene—the general handyman.

Every community had at least one, and usually several.

The handyman wasn't exactly looked up to by his neighbors. He was characteristically a rugged individualist who didn't like the idea of settling down to one job or one boss—or even a wife.

He was a colorful character who prized his own freedom, worked only when he wanted to, and often was strongly addicted to chawin' tobacco and bottled grain.

But whenever he dropped by sober and knocked on the back door, the general handyman was generally a guy on the job who had won many a beef for old Pop-eye. Well, let us just say that between them they did himdate a week and I can trust him absolutely.

"This lot is across the street from guess what? From a low, grey building, on land which Beck sold to the state, with the following legend across the front: "State of Washington; employment security department."

"That," said Burns, the deputy prosecuting attorney, "is where Teamsters and others go to collect unemployment when they are out of work."

Beck will never have to stand black-top parking-lots and collect nickels, dimes and two-cent pieces, morning to night, day after day after week after month and year. Sam had taken me by the lot once and Burns had another time to call on Dave but he was not there.

Dave said, "Oh, that Sam exposed on a rotund velvet couch like a pink Easter egg on a cushion. He used to take road work and some indoor workouts to keep in shape, but he never could keep those contours down.

He is round and his prickly pink head with very pale blue eyes is lodged on a stout neck growing out of an egg-shaped body which on this day was wrapped in a gray woolen double-breasted vest that buttoned over on his hips. His face is a few shades lighter than lobster-pink but actually pink, nevertheless, as it has been these last 25 years or so by my knowledge. I recalled that he never drank or smoked and that he has two reputations—one of an impetuous, free-style, bar-nothing, picket-line brawler; the other of a labor statesman, the kind who hang back and let the goons do it for them.

The late Harry Lundeberg, Pop-eye the Sailor, of the Seaman's union, used to sneer that Beck always arrived late with them bums of his after Lundeberg and his maritime whitecaps had settled a beef with their ball bats and tire chains.

But now Dave was poised there on the couch, trying to bend one foot over the other knee, and laughingly remembering that he had won many a beef for old Pop-eye. Well, let us just say that between them they did himdate a week and I can trust him absolutely.

"This lot is across the street from guess what? From a low, grey building, on land which Beck sold to the state, with the following legend across the front: "State of Washington; employment security department."

"That," said Burns, the deputy prosecuting attorney, "is where Teamsters and others go to collect unemployment when they are out of work."

Beck will never have to stand black-top parking-lots and collect nickels, dimes and two-cent pieces, morning to night, day after day after week after month and year. Sam had taken me by the lot once and Burns had another time to call on Dave but he was not there.

Dave said, "Oh, that Sam ex-

He is round and his prickly pink head with very pale blue eyes is lodged on a stout neck growing out of an egg-shaped body which on this day was wrapped in a gray woolen double-breasted vest that buttoned over on his hips. His face is a few shades lighter than lobster-pink but actually pink, nevertheless, as it has been these last 25 years or so by my knowledge. I recalled that he never drank or smoked and that he has two reputations—one of an impetuous, free-style, bar-nothing, picket-line brawler; the other of a labor statesman, the kind who hang back and let the goons do it for them.

welcome in most households. They needed his skills. For a dollar or so, a meal or two, and maybe an old coat or pair of pants, he would cut the lawn, carry out the ashes, beat the rugs, fix a leaky roof or mend a drain pipe.

Whatever chore had to be done, he could find a way to do it. And he had one unbeatable virtue. It didn't cost much to hire him. That old-fashioned type of handyman is almost impossible to find nowadays.

The new type of handyman is also difficult to find now—and he is a completely different kind of character. He is usually married, industrious, busy as a bee, and almost as business-like as a banker. In fact he is a one-man industry.

The trouble is that when you want him in a hurry, he's often tied up on another job, and if he is free—well his time is in demand.

An experienced general handyman can earn from $150 to $200 a week or more in some areas—and does.

His high cost and unavailability when needed in an emergency has resulted in the rise of a completely new Jack-of-all-trades—the suburban housewife.

Necessity has made her a Jill-of-all-trades.

In America's burgeoning suburbs today there are thousands of housewives who can outdo the pioneer mothers of yore in many ways.

They don't make soap or help fight off the Indians.

But many of them can handle minor plumbing jobs, put up wallpaper, paint a house, fix a broken vacuum cleaner, rewire a floor lamp—and do 1,001 other things necessary to keep a home in order. Smart husbands encourage these new Jills-of-all-trades to learn as many skills as possible. And for a very good reason.

Beck will never have to stand black-top parking-lots and collect nickels, dimes and two-cent pieces, morning to night, day after day after week after month and year. Sam had taken me by the lot once and Burns had another time to call on Dave but he was not there.

DO YOU HAVE ARTHRITIS?

Here is a message you will want to read.

Your doctor can tell you there is absolutely NO KNOWN CURE for arthritis. Medical research specialists are now engaged in several projects which, it is felt, will ultimately help in finding a cure, but as yet none has been found. Naturally, we all live in hope they will be successful, but until that time we must be content to get the best relief possible. Right now, there is a fast, safe and effective relieving agent available called Pruvo. Pruvo's ingredients have been used in hospitals and clinics, prescribed by doctors, and have helped scores of men and women to lead happy and full lives. You can be sure nothing is faster, safer or has been proven more effective than Pruvo for a temporary easing of minor arthritis condition or its related diseases—rheumatism, neuritis, sciatica, lumbago and bursitis. And it's wonderful for backache and every-day muscular aches and pains, too. Try Pruvo today. Ask your druggist for a generous 75-tablet TRIAL-SIZE BOTTLE. You must be satisfied with the results or your purchase price will be refunded by the maker. There are larger, economy sizes also, for continued use.

TROLINGER'S PHARMACY

"THE ADVENTURES OF HEDVIG & LOLLIE"

BY ANNA H. HAYES (MRS. JOHN E. HAYES) TWIN FALLS

Will Go On Sale Tuesday, February 21

Anna Hansen Hayes (Mrs. John E. Hayes), of Twin Falls, is a member of a pioneer Idaho family, a poet as well as a writer of children's stories. She is a former president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and she visited Japan during her term of office in order to work with P. T. A. leaders there.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS ARE BY CARL A. ORRIN, who conducts a commercial art-business in Twin Falls, Idaho, and teaches art also in the area.

This story tells of the many adventures of two little Danish girls as they accompany their Uncle John and Tanta Anna on a journey to a pioneer home in Cottonwood Canyon in southern Idaho. There is an account of the runaway ox team, of the cat Bonnie who became lost for a time, of the finding of the Wells Fargo strong box in the sagebrush, and of the starting of an early-day cheese factory. The family becomes involved in the great Indian uprising of 1878, but they are warned and escape with their lives. Eventually Uncle John returns to the Cottonwood Canyon home only to find that everything had been burned to the ground except the cabin, that the cows and chickens are gone, and that all the work of the summer has been destroyed. The story ends with Hedvig and Lollie returning home to their parents with much to tell of their experiences during the eighth months they have been away.

Weak Storms Make Idaho's Highways icy

By United Press International—More storm fronts, though weak ones, brought additional rain and snow to already-slick roads in the northern, western and far eastern parts of Idaho today.

State police reported only the major roads in the southeastern part-of-the-state-were-bare-and-dry this morning.

Sandpoint Roads Slushy

Roads around Bonners Ferry and Sandpoint were slushy and slick and rain was falling. Coeur d'Alene area roads were bare and wet while through Fourth of July canyon the road was bare and wet with some slush.

Compact snow plus more rain were reported on Lookout pass and fire chains were required.

Roads around Moscow, Lewistown, Grangeville and Whitebird hill were bare but wet.

In the Boise area, roads were bare and wet with some black ice. Rain fell and there were spots of valley fog reported.

Fire chains were needed to drive over the Boise-Idaho City road which was partly snow-covered and slick.

Area Roads Bare, Dry

In the King Hill, Bliss, Twin Falls, Arco and Strevell areas, roads were bare and dry.

Pootelle, McCammon and U.S. 91-101 south to Utah had black ice. Roads around Idaho Falls and St. Anthony were bare and wet.

From Ririe east to Wyoming on U. S. 26 the road was snow-covered and slick. Light snow fell in the Salmon area and on Gibbons pass, leaving slick spots. Ashton north to West Yellowstone on U.S. 101 was snow-covered and slick.

First Test of Farm Policies Due Tuesday

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—The Kennedy administration's first major test on farm policy opens tomorrow when a house agriculture subcommittee is scheduled to begin hearings on the President's emergency feed grain program.

Hearings will start probably Thursday on the same bill before the senate agriculture committee.

Main Feature Told

The Kennedy plan has three main features:

- Raising supports for feed grains and soybeans.
- Requiring farmers who want feed grain supports to reduce their feed grain acreage by 20 per cent.
- Offering farmers who make that reduction a payment equal to 60 per cent of the normal production of their idle acres.

One major farm organization, the American Farm Bureau, will oppose the program. Backing the Kennedy plan will be the National Farmers union and a number of other national and regional groups.

Reaction Is Friendly

Thus far most congressional reaction to the plan has been generally friendly. Many Democrats are talking about changes in details of the administration proposal but no serious trouble has appeared for the program in Democratic ranks yet. Most Republicans have been holding their fire.

Time is the biggest problem facing administration sponsors of the bill. If the program is going to become law in time to affect 1961 crops, Agriculture Secretary Quillie L. Freeman says it must be passed by March 15. That is nearly a month away—but that is lightning-fast in terms of congressional action.

Life Membership For PTA Given To Richfield Man

RICHFIELD, Feb. 20 — F. R. Briggs, elementary school principal, was presented a life membership by the Richfield PTA last week.

Mrs. Briggs read a history of his work as a basketball coach, elementary teacher, school board member and veterans' agriculture instructor, and presented the life membership pin.

In actively at the meeting a donation toward a portable laboratory for the elementary school was approved as the project for the year.

Supt. A. M. Derr served as moderator for a program on the small high school versus the large high school. Supt. Camden Myers of Minidoka county and Mrs. Elmo Patterson spoke in favor of the large high schools. Mrs. Clifford Dayley, Mrs. Grant Pyle, Max Behr and Briggs talked in favor of small schools.

Supt. John Severson, Shoshone, was a special guest.

Mrs. Grant Pyle, Mrs. Max Behr and C. F. Chaffield were named a nominating committee for new PTA officers to be elected next month.

Wendell's Heart Fund Drive Will End on Feb. 26

WENDELL, Feb. 20—Leading the Wendell area Heart drive to be completed Feb. 26, is Mrs. L. R. Berry.

Mrs. Berry will be in charge of business district calls. Other helpers are Mrs. Carl Geissler, Mrs. Ralph Fink, Mrs. E. A. Taylor, Mrs. Roy McHugh and Mrs. Dale Bunn. Captains in charge of the city house-to-house canvass.

Other area captains include Mrs. Ray Evers, southwest of the city; Mrs. Paul Marlow, northwest of the city; and Mrs. McMillan, southwest of the city.

Mrs. Harry Frith is Heart fund treasurer and Mrs. Sam Bungum is in charge of publicity.

Declo Visits and Events Reported

DECLO, Feb. 20—Don Frier, Boise, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Frier. He was accompanied here by Oswald Bessler, South Africa, who is in Boise training as a traffic engineer.

Belva Hurst spent the week-end in Provo, Utah, visiting Margaret Lewis, who is attending the university there. Accompanying her to Provo was Mrs. Lillian Jensen, Burley.

PTA's Carnival, Supper Planned

RUPERT, Feb. 20—The annual carnival and supper sponsored by the Lincoln PTA will be held Friday at the school all-purpose room.

Serving of burribuccs, coffee, punch, cake, pie and ice cream will begin at 6 p. m. and members are urged to bring families for the evening meal.

Games, movies, novelty stand and numerous booths with prizes will be included for entertainment.

Boyd Stallings, president, points out this is the only fund raising activity of the year for the group. Funds will be used in various activities of the organization. In past years, books have been bought for the school library and record players for the school in addition to funds for convention expenses and other needs.

It's Almost Certain Man Will Make Space Trip During '61

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Man is going into space — almost certainly this year.

Eventually he will visit the nearer planets, Mars and Venus, after first touching down on the moon in this or the next decade.

Even at this point, an "interplanetary station" launched by the Russians is speeding through space toward Venus as a prelude to the Soviet's attempt to get a man into space.

Already man has sent animal astronauts—notably the Soviet dogs Belka and Strelka, and Ham, the American-trained chimpanzee—on brief jaunts in near-Earth space.

It might be argued that man has been headed toward space ever since, in the early days of his evolution as a species, he rose from all fours and stood erect.

Robert C. Seamans, Jr., associate director of the national aeronautics and space administration (NASA), puts it this way:

"Man has been striving continuously to gain altitude, to push back the horizon, and to gain a better view of his surroundings.

"The climbing of mountains, the use of balloons, aircraft, rockets and now satellites, have continually improved his perspective."

But before man could dream of visiting other worlds he had first to grasp the idea that other worlds exist. The first space travel story appears to have been written in 160 A.D. by Lucian of Greece. It tells of a flight to the moon.

A millennium and a half later Kepler and Newton worked out the rules of "celestial mechanics" which showed how the planets moved around the sun, and the moon around the Earth, in the complete gravitational field of the solar system.

But though men knew the rules of space travel, they lacked the means of space propulsion. Not until discovery of the rocket could man hope to break the chains of gravity and travel beyond the atmosphere.

The first recorded use of rockets occurred in 1232 A.D. when the Chinese repulsed invading Mongols with "arrows of flying fire."

Sir William Congreve, Great Britain, brought military rocketry to a momentary peak of development in the 18th century. His solid propellant (black powder) rockets were used in the Napoleonic wars and the war of 1812. A peacetime offshoot was a rocket device to carry a line ashore from a stranded ship.

This military rocket was pushed off scene for more than a century by the more accurate rifled artillery.

Not until 1803 did rocketry get another boost, though not from the military. In that year a Russian school teacher, Konstantin E. Tselokowski, published the first work proposing travel in space with liquid fuel rockets.

On March 16, 1926, Dr. Robert H. Goddard, American professor, fired the world's first liquid fuel rocket. His tiny experimental device, burning oxygen and gasoline, was the precursor of Germany's V2 of World War II and of the mighty missile and spacecraft launchers later developed in Russia and the United States.

Hermann Oberth, a Rumanian-German, is another giant of the space age pioneers. In 1923 he published a book entitled "The Rocket Into Interplanetary Space."

His work fired the imagination of a young admirer, Werner von Braun. Dr. von Braun became director of the German team at Peenemunde which developed the V2.

Von Braun is now director of NASA's George C. Marshall space flight center, Huntsville, Ala., where the Saturn spacecraft is being put together.

The Saturn booster, with 15 million pounds of thrust, will test flight this year. With powerful upper stages it is expected to send a three-man spacecraft around the moon and back toward the end of the decade.

Mrs. Scott, 40, Taken by Death

KIMBERLY, Feb. 20—Mrs. Louise Scott, 40, died at 8:40 a.m. Monday at her home, route 2, Kimberly.

She was born at Ottumwa, Ia., Jan. 22, 1921, and had been a resident of Idaho since 1926, coming here from Iowa. She was a member of the Kinsin hobby club. She was married to Francis Scott in Elko, Nev., in 1946.

Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Peggy Jane Scott, Kimberly; a son, Larry Lee Wooten, Kimberly, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bender, Hansen.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the White mortuary chapel with the Rev. Ray James from the Kimberly Nazarene church officiating. Final rites will be held at Sunset Memorial park.

Bids Are Called On Fire Station

JEROME, Feb. 20—Bids have been called for a new building for the rural fire department from Jerome.

Bids will be opened March 6. The building will be built across the street from the present city hall on property formerly owned by Mrs. Woody, east of the Jerome hotel.

The winning will be a 25-by-60-foot "clubhouse" structure. Plans are available at the office of Jerome Cinder products.

Bids should be submitted to Hermann Hill, secretary of rural fire department, route 1, box 132, Jerome, or to the city hall before 5 p. m. March 6.

This is a public works building and only those who have public works licenses are eligible to bid, according to Hill.

Rioting Over Congo Death Is Subsiding

By United Press International

A worldwide wave of violent demonstrations over the death of Patrice Lumumba appeared to be subsiding today nearly a week after it started rolling in Moscow.

The Belgian government was saddled with thousands of dollars in repairs to embassies in a score of capitals. Some had been burned, others looted, many had windows broken.

U. S. Buildings Attacked

In some capitals U. S. buildings were attacked and damaged.

In the latest demonstration a mob of 5,000 tried to storm the Belgian embassy in London yesterday but was driven back in repeated charges of mounted and foot policemen swinging clubs.

The thugs—both Negroes and whites, became nearly hysterical. Screams of women mixed with shrill cries of "let's burn the embassy down" before police broke it up.

About 200 arrested and assaulted the union movement headquarters of former British fascist leader Sir Oswald Mosley. Twenty-nine were arrested.

In Alexandria, United Arab Republic, howling university students tore the coat of arms from the door of the Belgian consulate last night and burned it in the street. Police stopped them from breaking into the building.

But reports of violent protests were on the decrease, as if the demonstrators felt they had made their point.

U. S. Policy Is Blamed in Loss Of China, Cuba

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—A former U. S. ambassador to Latin America has told congress that state department policies contributed to the loss of both China and Cuba to the communists.

William D. Pawley, envoy to Brazil and Peru in the 1940's and a state department emissary as recently as 1964, described what he said were a series of errors by U. S. policy-makers, that he doubted were all sincere mistakes of judgment.

Pawley testified last September at the senate internal security subcommittee investigation of communist activities in the Caribbean, particularly in Cuba. The testimony was released last night.

In his testimony, Pawley said that the decision to withdraw support from former Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista, his long-time friend, created a power vacuum that made inevitable Fidel Castro's coup.

He attacked policies of state department officials under the Truman and Eisenhower administrations and also touched the Kennedy administration with his comments on China policy.

Minimum Pay Boost Backed And Attacked

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce said today that President Kennedy's proposal to boost the minimum wage would force employers to raise prices, lay off workers and buy more foreign goods.

But Walter Reuther, president of the AFL-CIO Industrial Union department (IUD), denied that a $1.25 an hour minimum wage would be inflationary and said it was needed to spur industries "toward greater efficiency."

Testimony Taken

The conflicting views were presented in prepared testimony to a house labor subcommittee considering Kennedy's proposal to increase the wage floor gradually from $1 to $1.25 an hour and extend coverage to 4.3 million more workers.

The Chamber's stand against the President's plan was outlined by Dr. Emerson P. Schmidt, its chief economist, and Eugene B. Sydnor, Jr., Richmond, Va., president of Southern Department Stores, Inc.

Schmidt disputed the administration's argument that the wage bill would increase purchasing power and thus aid in combating the recession.

Bill Believed No Help

He contended the measure actually would reduce purchasing power—by increasing unemployment and the cost of living.

Sydnor said that if wage-hour coverage is extended to the 22 stores in his firm, it would have to buy more imports, boost prices five to 10 per cent and lay off 30 to 40 of its 739 employees. He said 324 of the workers employed by Southern Department Stores, Inc., now earn less than $1 an hour.

Reuther's testimony, presented to the subcommittee by IUD Administrative Director Jacob Clayman, supported the previous AFL-CIO contention that Kennedy's proposal did not go far enough.

Two Rupert Women Hurt

RUPERT, Feb. 20—Mrs. Melvin Madden, 52, and Mrs. Beulah Moody, 62, both Rupert, were injured Friday in a collision in Rupert.

They were taken to Minidoka County hospital for treatment and released. The two women were passengers in a car driven by Charles A. Smith, 18, Rupert.

Smith's car collided with another auto driven by Ivan L. Hardy, 28, Rupert. No citations were issued.

Damages were estimated at $600 to each car, police reported. The two drivers were not injured.

Mrs. Madden's legs were bruised extensively and Mrs. Moody's shoulder was broken.

Roving Radar Target Slated By Air Force

JOPLIN, Mo., Feb. 20—The air force plans to use three special radar targets at many sites over the country where plane crews simulate bomb drops. Radar crews on the ground score the crews on accuracy.

The first radar bomb scoring train is nearing completion at Ogden, Utah, air force depot. It will be sent this week to Milan, Tenn., where it will become operational March 1.

Major Eugene R. Butler, of a radar bomb scoring group near Joplin, already has gone to Milan, where he will take command of the train. Ninety men of the Joplin group will be on the first train crew.

Each train will be manned by about 60 men. Others in the first detail will come from radar groups at La Junta, Colo., Bismarck, N. D., Minneapolis, Salt Lake City, St. Louis and Little Rock.

The trains will be spotted 45 days at a time at remote locations around the country so that each SAC plane crew can make at least one practice bombing run over each site.

Trees Removed in Plan for Parking Lot Construction

Trees have been felled in the half-block park adjacent to the Park hotel in preparation for a parking lot planned by Mrs. Lynn Stewart, former owner of the Park hotel.

Heavy equipment moved into the park late Friday and by Saturday night, all trees had been uprooted and a good portion of them hauled away. Cleanup work was continuing Monday.

Mrs. Stewart noted the lot would occupy most of the area formerly devoted to the hotel park.

The work is the first on the Park hotel site since the hotel was closed in preparation for demolition and construction of a new postoffice. The postoffice will occupy the space presently used for the hotel and the parking lot across the alley from it.

Insects Will Be Discussed At Car's Site

Dr. A. P. Schnieder, federal-state veterinarian, Boise, will discuss control of livestock insects during the morning session of the visit Tuesday in Twin Falls of the Union Pacific agriculture improvement car.

The morning session will begin at 8:30 a. m. and conclude at noon. The car will be located between the freight and passenger depots on Sixth avenue south.

Assisting Dr. Schnieder in the morning will be Rolland Portman, University of Idaho extension entomologist. Other topics to be discussed in the morning will be pesticide residues and tolerances.

During the afternoon session, which runs from 1:30 to 4 p. m., Portman will discuss crop insects including pea aphid, wire worm, thrips, mice and army cutworms. He also will explain regulations of the food and drug administration concerning crop insects.

Keith Evans, Kenneth Gibson and other federal entomologists here will help in the afternoon.

C. Warren Daigh, Twin Falls county agent, notes only three stops are planned for the car in Magic Valley. It was in Gooding Monday and will be in Twin Falls Tuesday and Burley Wednesday.

He adds that the county agent's office is making local arrangements for the car's visit. Donald Youts will preside during the morning session with Daigh presiding in the afternoon.

Boyd Baxter, Union Pacific agricultural agent, Pocatello, is in charge of the car.

Area Guard Units to Stress Readiness During Next Week

Readiness in case of state or national emergency will be emphasized at drills this week of eight national guard troops in Magic Valley, according to Capt. Robert Benoit, coordination officer for "operation muster, 1961."

During the week on a national and state scale, national guard preparedness will be stressed. All units in Magic Valley are members of the 116th armored cavalry regiment, of which Col. Edward Elliot, is commanding officer.

In the event a national or state emergency should be called by state headquarters of the Idaho national guard, Boise, all Magic Valley units must be prepared to assemble quickly and proceed to areas in and out of their respective towns for further orders.

Captain Benoit explains, "By readiness, I mean the ability to react instantly to either a military threat or a local disaster. Individually, every member of the Idaho national guard is trained to do his job and it is this training which makes all the difference."

Units in Magic Valley are located at Rupert, Burley, Halley, Gooding, Buhl, Jerome and Twin Falls (two). Captain Benoit is commanding officer of headquarters and headquarters troop, 116th armored cavalry, in Twin Falls. The other local troop is troop L, with Capt. Mack-Maupin commanding.

During the week, Muster day is honored by the national guard on Tuesday, George Washington's birthday anniversary.

During muster week in 1960, units of the 116th armored cavalry were called out in the early evening of one day in a test alert of readiness.

Fire Department Answers 3 Calls

Twin Falls fire department answered three calls Saturday, but no damages were reported.

At 10:15 a. m., a fire truck extinguished a fire in a trailer house parked in the back of the residence of E. J. Krellbeck, 418 1/2 Sixth avenue west. The blaze was confined to an oil stove in the trailer.

The department was called at 12:30 p. m. to a fire at the home of H. R. Allred, 1437 Sixth avenue east. A beam had bolted over-creating smoke, the department said.

A trash fire was reported at 5:35 p. m. in the utility room of the J. Van Wagener home, 1951 Eleventh avenue east.

New Volumes Are Added to T-F. Library

Several new books have been added to the collection of the Twin Falls public library, according to Arthur L. DeVolder, librarian.

Among them is a book donated by the late Mrs. Queen Elbridge Ingersoll, Hill, "House Beautiful Book of Gardens and Outdoor Living." Mrs. Hill was a member of the Twin Falls Garden club.

Two non-fiction titles added are "Kings and Camels," by Grant C. Butler, which tells of the experiences of workers in the Arabian-American oil company in the Near East, and "Flying Saucers and the U. S. Air Force," the official air force story by Lieut. Col. Lawrence J. Tacker.

Other non-fiction books include the "World Almanac and Book of Facts for 1961," and a report on educational experiments prepared for the New York state education department by Arthur D. Morse and titled "Schools of Tomorrow—Today."

For persons interested in foreign relations or history "Saudi Arabia," by K. S. Twitchell, will be useful as will "The United Nations and U. S. Foreign Policy," by Lincoln P. Bloomfield.

Play enthusiasts are offered the latest Coward-McCann contemporary drama "Becket," by Jean Anouilh and the life of a New Yorker, "Mother Is Minnie," by Sophie Guggenheimer Untermeyer. The final offering of adult non-fiction is "American Heritage," February, 1961, issue of the magazine of history.

In the young adult division, "Promises in the Attic," by Elizabeth H. Friermood, tells of the experiences of a young girl in a raging flood and "Lookout Summer," by Alleen Loberg, relates experiences of a firewatcher in the Cascade mountains.

A single non-fictional offering "Reaching for the Stars," by Erik Bergant, is a biography of the great pioneer in space exploration, Werner Von Braun.

LDS Speaker Cites Need of Lead in Home

BURLEY, Feb. 20—"There is a need for more positive leadership in the home," Elder William J. Critchlow, Salt Lake City, assistant to the council of 12 apostles of the LDS church, declared when he addressed a special meeting of parents Saturday evening during the quarterly conference of the Burley LDS stake.

"Youth of the church want leadership. The nagging, quarreling parents with no acknowledged leadership in the home contribute to feelings of insecurity of our youth and are a contributing factor in teen-age marriage as a means of escape from unhappy home life," he declared.

"The laws of God are laws of happiness and if lived by the parents will lead youths to a happier, higher moral life," he asserted.

Approximately 1,500 persons attended the Sunday morning session and about 1,200 during the afternoon session.

Services were conducted by the stake presidency. President Isaac Lee, Francis M. Carter and E. R. Blauer, theme of the conference was "To build happy ideal LDS homes, know the truth and the truth will make you free."

Special music was furnished for both Sunday morning and afternoon sessions by the first ward choir under the direction of Alfred Thaxton. Robert Hamblin was organist.

Speakers during the morning session were President Lee, Albert Holyoak, high council; Horace O. Hall, past member of the stake presidency, all Burley, and Mrs. William J. Critchlow and Elder Critchlow, jr., both Salt Lake City.

All speakers dealt with the theme that there was a need for moral regeneration in the world today and youth needs better leadership.

President Carter read names and authorities were sustained unanimously by the congregation.

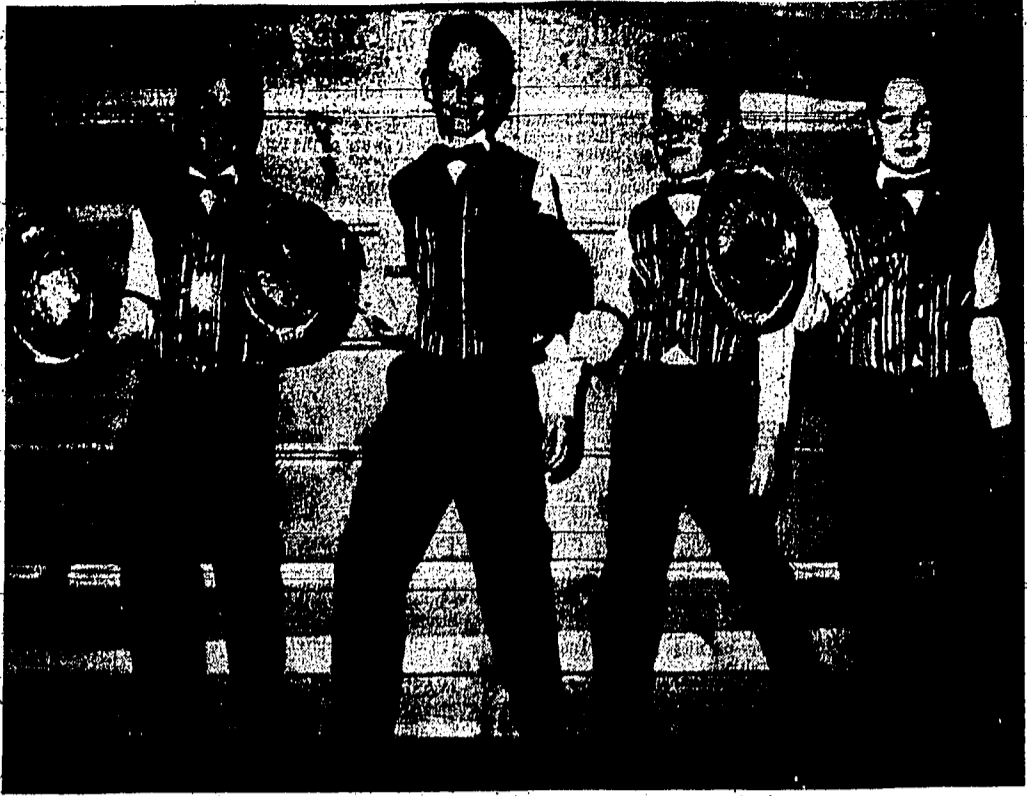

Afternoon speakers were Presidents Carter and Blauer, Bishop Norman Hurst, William Critchlow III, son of Elder Critchlow.

The afternoon program was directed to the young people and special seating arrangements were made for them.

Elder Critchlow told them, "Keep the law if you want to find joy and happiness. What you do before marriage will be the ruling factor in a happy marriage."

Young people who spoke were Steven Johnson, Sharon Wilson, Irvin Rencher, Karen Thurston, and Francis Woodard.

Aged Care Plan Called Socialism

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R., Mo., has called President Kennedy's medical care plan "the beginning of socialized medicine." Members of both parties clashed over the controversial program yesterday.

Curtis said Kennedy's plan to provide medical care through social security would result in the federal government setting fees charged by doctors in hospitals.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D., Tex., however, said the Kennedy program "is not socialism, for it clearly guarantees each citizen's right to go to the doctor of his choice."

Desegregation of South's Catholic Schools Forecast

By United Press International
Roman Catholics in Georgia and parts of South Carolina were advised yesterday their parochial schools will soon be desegregated.

Bishops of the dioceses of Atlanta and Savannah, Ga., and Charleston, S. C., said Catholic children "regardless of color" will be admitted to Catholic schools as soon as this can be done with safety.

"Certainly this will not be done later than the public schools are opened to all pupils," the letter said.

The clergymen noted that Catholic population in the South is less than two per cent, and called their action "an honest effort to influence a way of life that has prevailed for many decades."

The letter was read at all Sunday masses in the dioceses.

New Bridge for Draw Is Planned

FILER, Feb. 20—The Filer highway district will build a bridge of pre-stressed concrete across Cedar draw one mile south and one-half mile west of Jordan's corner.

Bids have been called on the 1961 opening program.

A yield-right-of-way sign was authorized one mile east of Tegan's corner on the request of Leon Wright and Howard Annis.

A petition was presented from a group of men for opening two miles of road starting from a point two miles north of Deadman's corner and west two miles.

Ike Expected to Resume Golfing

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 20 (UPI)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was expected to resume playing golf this week following a week away from the game.

Reported feeling better after being confined in his vacation cottage several days last week by a cold, Eisenhower and his wife, Mamie, yesterday attended church at nearby Palm Desert community church.

The Eisenhowers arrived Feb. 8 for an extended vacation. They are staying in a rented cottage on the Eldorado country club grounds on the outskirts of this desert resort.

Bears Dance as Keeper Ticketed

BRIDGEVIEW, Ill., Feb. 20 (UPI)—Minnie and Rosie, two dancing circus bears, stopped traffic while police ticketed their keeper yesterday.

When truck driver Stanley George, 57, Brooklyn, N. Y., stopped to ask highway directions, an auto-driven by George C. Kucera, 34, Oak Lawn, Ill., rammed his truck from the rear.

The truck veered to one side and George freed the bears via a ladder against the door.

Minnie and Rosie lumbered out of the truck, twirled, danced, and sat down to watch an audience of about 50 persons.

Police ticketed Kucera with driving while intoxicated and George with parking on a public highway.

German Pupil Gives Speech To Declo Unit

DESLO, Feb. 20 — Trudy Hofmann, exchange student from Germany, was guest speaker at a Declo Book-Lore club meeting last week.

Hofmann's trip to the United States as an exchange student was sponsored by the Declo Book-Lore club.

She explained the exchange program that enabled her to come to America as an exchange student.

She said that the position of the German wife isn't as privileged as it is in this country and that she doesn't belong to as many clubs and organizations as American women.

The unions in Germany are not so important, nor powerful, as they are in the United States.

Radio and television stations are connected with the cultural department of the government and bring educational and news programs to the people, she noted.

At the present time television is shown for only five hours in the evening with one channel for an entire country.

Miss Hofmann pointed out differences in the schools in the two countries and stated Germans like American customs, especially the teenagers who try to imitate everything that is American.

The German people hate communism and are more concerned with it than the Americans seem to be," she claimed.

There are only two churches in Germany and 87 per cent of the people belong to one Protestant church and 48 per cent are Catholics, she said.

Miss Hofmann will be graduated this May from Buley high school, and then will return to her home in Heidelberg, Germany.

Two Degrees Given Hansen Club Couples

HANSEN, Feb. 20 — Third and fourth degrees were conferred on Mr. and Mrs. James Ater and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Huck at a Grange meeting held Thursday evening.

In other action the agriculture committee reported experimental feeding of pelleted hay to dairy cattle resulted in less butterfat content in the milk.

Lester Naylor said feeding concentrates resulted in quicker gains, better, slower gain was noted in feeding grains and forage, which possibly could result in making more money. However, the cost of the feed was about the same, he noted.

The group decided to be hosts to Buhl Grange on March 2, and visit in Buhl on April 27.

A work meeting was scheduled for Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Earl Barnes.

High Sanderson reported more than $60 had been cleared at the Grange lunch sale at the Robson-Barnes farm sale.

A film was shown on the source of area irrigation water and what is being done to maintain water.

Idaho's Part of Kennedy School Program Listed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP) — Here is the Idaho breakdown of the proposed federal aid allotments under President Kennedy's education program for the fiscal years 1962, 1963 and 1964.

Idaho's allotment would total $3,760,723 in 1962, an amount of $24.91 per pupil in average daily attendance in public schools.

In 1963 it would total $4,339,997, an average of $28.37, and the 1964 total would be $4,872,393, an average of $31.64.

Report Given By Loans Unit For Shoshone

SHOSHONE, Feb. 20 — Fifty-five loans for $271,500 have been made from the Shoshone farmers home administration office since July 1, 1960, according to Roy N. Gipson, county supervisor.

The loans have been both real estate type and operating type loans. Since last July 1, $336,800 has been repaid to the Shoshone farmers home administration office.

The FHA does not compete with private credit, Gipson points out, but furnishes credit to piggyback farmers unable to secure adequate credit from private sources.

There are 119 farm families with loans outstanding, Gipson said, with $340,000 outstanding on operating loans secured by crop and chattel mortgages and $650,000 outstanding on loans secured on real estate mortgages.

Most of the real estate payments are on schedule, Gipson states, but delinquencies on operating loans increased this past year because of crop conditions and low water supply, especially in Dajane county.

A recent change in regulations enables eligible families established in farming but working regularly at a job to supplement their income, to secure financing for livestock, machinery and operating expenses when private credit is not available.

The supervisor's office day in Shoshone is Monday of each week.

U.S. Taxes No Higher, but State Levies Are Going up

(Editor's note: This is the nation's biggest year for lawmaking by state legislatures. Before 1961 is out, 47 legislatures will have met to deal with space-age problems such as: jetliners, space before the new congress in Washington and in many cases a lot closer to home in their impact. A survey of the 50 state capitals indicates the biggest universal problem is taxes. The following dispatch indicates what is in store for taxpayers.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 20 (AP) — There is one consolation in filling out federal income tax returns this year — the taxes haven't gone up. But state taxes are going up, almost as fast as legislatures convene across the country to deal with record budgets.

The No. 1 problem facing most state legislatures and governors this year is revenue.

Help Offered

NEW DELHI, Feb. 20 (AP) — The World Health organization (WHO) had an offer from Russia today to send 15 doctors and 10 to 15 medical workers to the Congo.

Soviet physician Valery Butrov made the offer during a meeting of the organization's annual assembly yesterday. Butrov also said Russia is prepared to provide medical workers students in Russian universities.

incoming Gov. Otto Kerner said the state faced a "financial crisis" and needs 265 million dollars in new revenue. Gov. John Dalton, Missouri, submitted a 1.25 billion dollar budget, 154 million dollars above the last biennial appropriations.

Connecticut faces a 10 to 12 million dollar deficit by June 30 and a 130 million dollar budget boost for the next two years. Vermont Gov. F. Ray Keyser, who campaigned on a "no new taxes" theme, proposed record general fund and highway budgets.

In Texas, where 100 million dollars in new money will be needed to keep spending at the current level and 260 million dollars if new spending proposals are adopted. The big long fight will be money first where to raise it, then how to spend it.

Montana's new Republican governor, Donald G. Nutter, submitted a "retrenchment" budget of 71.1 million dollars, 42 million dollars less than 1959 appropriations.

A sales and use tax in Michigan was hiked to four per cent from three per cent, effective Jan. 1. GOP Gov. John H. Reed, Maine, proposed a similar boost, and leaders of both parties in the Connecticut legislature indicate they will have to follow suit.

New Moisturizing Colonaid Stops CONSTIPATION DUE TO DEHYDRATION

without gag, bloat or gripe. Most constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that loves so much moisture that its contents become so dry they block the bowel.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to stimulate your colon to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only new COLONOID possesses its great moisturizing capacity plus its stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so gentle it has been hospital-proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor gripes. Don't interfere with absorption of vitamins or food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation overnight. So, for positive relief from constipation, get amazing, moisturizing new COLONOID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Norma Williams And D. A. Gross Marry in Temple

GLENN FERRY, Feb. 20 — Mrs. and Mr. Donald Gross were honored with a wedding reception last week at the LDS recreation hall.

Norma Ann Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Williams, and Gross, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gross, exchanged wedding vows Feb. 7 in the Idaho Falls LDS temple. President Davis of the temple presidency officiated for the noon ritual.

At the reception the bride wore a traditional wedding dress of white embroidered net over satin. It was fashioned with a high princess collar and long pointed sleeves. The skirt was of embroidered net with an overskirt of scalloped lace with a center panel of pleated nylon. She carried a white orchid.

Karon Owens, Salt Lake City, was maid of honor. She wore a red velvet sheath dress and her flowers were white carnations. Reed Williams, Provo, Utah, brother of the bride, served as best man and Brent Williams, Glenns Ferry, brother of the bride, and Blake Bales, Blackfoot, cousin of the bride, acted as groomsmen.

Mrs. Hattie Davis, Pocatello, aunt of the bridegroom, registered the 175 guests. Frances Fehrenbacher, Rexburg, and Suzette and Rita Williams, sisters of the bride, displayed the gifts.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. J. N. Symons, aunt of the bride. The cake featured colonnades, flowers, wedding rings and butterflies and was topped by a miniature china bride and bridegroom. A basket of red and white gladioli and chrysanthemums were on each side of the table. The gift table was centered by white chrysanthemums with red centers in a heart shape and a diamond ring encircled a bride and bridegroom with two bells with silver letters "Ann" and "Don."

Mrs. Roy Holland, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake with Eloise Irving, cousin of the bridegroom, and Eileen Twining and Donna Robinson pouring punch. Mrs. Arval Thurman and Mrs. Joe Owens were in charge of decorations.

For her wedding trip to Provo the bride wore a silk flowered jacket dress in shades of tan, brown and orange flowers with matching shoes and tan coat. Mrs. Williams chose a blue and white street dress and Mrs. Gross a blue afternoon jacket dress. Both wore carnation corsages.

Lawrence Critchfield, Provo, brother-in-law of the bride, was master of ceremonies for the program. It included a reading by Mary Alyce Wilson, Hammett; a solo by Mrs. Norman Reed, Richard Kock, Marsha Moats, Paul Eredsen and Bryn Belliston, and an accordian, clarinet and piano trio by Lois, Lyle and Karma Burrup, cousins of the bride. Piano accompanists were Frances Fehrenbacher, Wilma McHenry and Cathlene Bend. The opening prayer was given by Thayne Vaughan and the closing prayer by Bishop William Dale Goodson.

They will live in Glenns Ferry where the bride is secretary for the Glenns Ferry high school superintendent and the bridegroom is distributor for Young's Dairy.

Out-of-town guests include Mrs. Mary Burrup, grandmother of the bride, Downey; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Bales and son and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Burrup, uncle and aunt of the bride, all Blackfoot; Mr. and Mrs. Holt Burrup, uncle and

OES Activities Are Discussion At Valley Meet

HAGERMAN, Feb. 20—Mrs. Alfred Sandy, worthy matron, and Frank Tenker, acting worthy patron, conducted the Order of Eastern Star meeting Wednesday at the Masonic temple when coming events were discussed.

Introduced were grand officers and appointees. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts, Mrs. Virgil Norwood and Mrs. Alfred Sandy.

Invitations to attend friendship night were received from Flier Buhl, Hollister, and Albion OES chapters. An invitation from the Twin Falls chapter was received to attend the worthy grand matron's visit.

Mrs. Alan Erwin, chairman of the Washington birthday dinner Saturday at the temple, was assisted by Mrs. Tommy Thompson, Mrs. Carl Hardwick and Mrs. Harry LeMoyné, Jr.

Mrs. Ed Neyman, president of the First Matrons club, announced the district past matrons meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. Feb. 23 at the temple. Favors will be made for Grand chapter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. R. Russell, Mrs. Claude Allen, Mrs. Charles Cary, Jr., and Mrs. Harriet Miller.

Special Lesson Given for Girls

OAKLEY, Feb. 20 — Mrs. Ray Frymiller, View LDS ward, presented a special lesson recently for Beehive girls of the local first and second wards.

The girls and their mothers met at the home of Mrs. Donald Clark, stake Beehive leader, with their leaders, Mrs. Orville Clark and Mrs. James Lowry.

Refreshments were served by class officers, Christine Matthews, Corrine McLaws and Joan Critchfield.

Other guests were Ione Church, of the stake YLMA presidency, and Mrs. Almy Fehlman and Mrs. David Severe, ward officers.

aunt of the bride, and family, Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Roy Holland, aunt of the bridegroom, and Joyce Holland, cousin of the bridegroom, all Nampa; Thayne Vaughn, cousin of the bride, Downey, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Critchfield, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and daughters, and Reed Williams, brother of the bride, all Provo.

Others attended from Rexburg, College of Idaho, Caldwell, Oakley, Boise, Pocatello, Jerome, Mountain Home, Meridian and Provo, Ogden and Roy, Utah.

CASTLEFORD, Feb. 20—Everywoman's club met at the home of Mrs. Tom Novacek for a Valentine luncheon. Mrs. Lawrence Bill assisted with arrangements.

The luncheon was served buffet style and the guests were seated at quartet tables decorated in the Valentine theme, which also was carried out in the program.

The date for the gentlemen's night dinner was set tentatively for Wednesday. Members will be notified when plans are completed.

A get-well card was signed for Mrs. Parley Harmon, who is in Wheeler, Ore. Valentines were sent to Gloria Parkison, in a Twin Falls hospital, and to the club's adopted daughter, Loretta, at the Nampa state school.

Mrs. John Meyer, program chairman, read a humorous article for the program. Roll call was answered with "Where I met my husband." The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing Hearts, with prizes for high score going to Mrs. Howard Darrow, and low to Mrs. Faye Logan.

Mrs. Agnes Smutny, Twin Falls, was a guest.

Legion Auxiliary Women Lead Mid-Winter Meet

Mrs. Norma Brown, Flier, right, department president of the American Legion auxiliary, and Mrs. Lola Knifong, Eden, district president, conducted the business session of the women's mid-winter meeting Saturday at the American Legion hall. This was the fifth district's quarterly business meeting, with the next scheduled for May. About 40 women from Buhl, Burley, Eden, Flier, Kimberly, Oakley, Paul and Twin Falls met for the session. All are district department chairmen. (Staff photographing)

Annual Party Is Held for Hailey

HAILEY, Feb. 20 — The Hailey ward MIA of the LDS church held its annual Valentine party in the Junior Sunday school portion of the new church on south Main street last week. This was the first event to be held in the new building, which has not yet been completed in its entirety.

Dancing and games were featured for approximately 100 young people of the church and their friends.

The Laurel girls' group under the direction of Mrs. V. K. Jepsen decorated the hall in the Valentine motif. Red punch with red and white cup cakes were served.

ATTEND MEETING

WENDELL, Feb. 20 — Thirteen members of Star of the West chapter No. 35, Order of Eastern Star, attended Friendship night observance of Miriam chapter No. 16 at Mountain Home last week.

Burley Group Is Hosts at Parley Of Area Youths

BURLEY, Feb. 20 — Theme of the Westminster Fellowship rally last week at the Burley church was "How can we help those who need help?"

The opening worship service was presented by the Buhl WP group with Warren Dowd, Rosemary Barker, Diane Roberts and Larry Engkeling participating.

Speaker for the occasion was the Rev. Jack Jennings, pastor of the Wendell Presbyterian church. He spoke on "Race religion day." Skills were presented by the Jerome, Twin Falls and Wendell youth groups on "problems facing the youth today." Group discussions followed.

Burley members were in charge of recreation and also served the dinner assisted by their mothers.

The WP group of the Valley Presbyterian church presented the closing thought with the Rev. Robert Richards, pastor, basing his sermon topic on "Looking ahead to the future."

Dave Hill Wins Playoff At Tucson With 27-Foot Desperation Putt and 269

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 20 (AP)—A 27-foot desperation putt good for a birdie on the third hole Sunday gave Dave Hill, Jackson, Mich., victory in the sudden death playoff for top money in the $20,000 Tucson Open golf tournament. Former U. S. Open champ Tommy Bolt and California rookie Buddy Sullivan quietly headed for the clubhouse as the 23-year-old Hill leaped for joy. It was his first PGA victory. The putt that wasn't

Utah Youth Wins Slalom Race at Alta

ALTA, Utah, Feb. 20 (AP)—Mike Wilson of Salt Lake City won the junior I boys giant slalom Sunday in one minute, 54.2 seconds. Richard Smith of Idaho Falls was second in the intermediate ski association ski meet in 1:55 and Dale Miller of Ogden, Utah, third in 2:05.4. Darlene Despain of Jackson, Wyo., won the junior I girls race in 2:14. Chris Barlow, Twin Falls, won the junior II boys in 1:57.4. Karen Korfanta of Pinedale, Wyo., won junior II girls in 2:14.0. Top finishers include junior I boys, 1, Mike Wilson, Salt Lake City, 1:54.2; 2, Richard Smith, Idaho Falls, 1:56.8; 3, Dale Miller, Ogden, Utah, 1:58.9; 4, Mike Kirolo, Jackson, Wyo., 1:57.4; 5, Gordon Jackson, Hayle, Ida., 2:01.6. McCarthy and Meyer Win in Skate Event

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 20 (AP)—Olympian Keith Meyer and unheralded Bob McCarthy reigned as national indoor speed skating champions today as a result of a collision in an explosive mile windup. Meyer and McCarthy crashed while battling for the lead with just one lap to go Sunday in the final event of the two-day annual competition. Meyer managed to regain his feet quickly and make a mad dash for fourth place and a vital one point. McCarthy, however, was knocked sprawling, out of contention. A victory would have given either one ownership of the 1961 senior men's title. McCarthy, a New York night school student, led his rival from Glen Ellyn, Ill., by one point, 4-13, starting the mile.

Angels Sign 3 More Players

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20 (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels today received signed contracts from pitcher Jerry Casale and Truman Cleaver and catcher Earl Averill to bring to 21 the number of men lined up for the 1961 season. Casale was acquired from the Boston Red Sox with whom he had a 2-9 record last year. Los Angeles fans were expected to hear Casale as a hurler for the old Coast League San Francisco club at one time. Cleaver is a Californian from Yuba. He was acquired from the old Washington Senators for whom he had a 5-11 record chiefly in relief. Averill played for both Chicago clubs and Louisville last year. He is the son of the former American League outfielder Earl Averill, sr.

"Magic Figures" of Track and Field Continue Climbing to New Heights

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 (AP)—Up, up, up climb the "magic figures" in track and field. Don Bragg's 15-9/16 still stands as the indoor record. Bragg always has had his heart set on becoming the first man to get over 18 feet. Discouraged because of assorted ailments early this season, he wanted to quit. Then, two weeks ago in Philadelphia, he barely missed at 16 feet. Last week in the New York Athletic club games, he again just did it. He cleared the bar after getting his body safely over. Now he is sure that he'll get over 18 feet before the end of the season. How high can they go in the high jump? Probably only Valery Brumel, the 18-year-old Soviet who led, can answer that. He made 7-3 1/2 in his debut on boards here last week, but jumped 7-4 1/2 in Leningrad less than a month ago.

Italian Wins 4-Man Event In Sledding

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—Eugenio Monti, the world's champion bobsledder, feels there are few fields left to conquer and today indicated he'll let someone else have a fling at the glory. The sandy-haired Italian, winner of the two-man world title a week ago, was awarded the four-man championship Sunday after rain washed away the final two heats. It was his second consecutive double crown and this time he made it by the slimmest of margins—three-tenths of a second. That was the lead he held over Stan Benham of Lake Placid after Saturday's first two heats. Gunnar Ahls of Sweden was third, Franz Schelle of Germany fourth and Great Britain's Bill McCowen fifth. The other U. S. entry, Larry McKillop of Saranac Lake, N. Y., finished sixth. "I'm getting tired," Monti said, "and I don't really know if I want to go on racing. Maybe I won't run next year."

Paul Runyan Is New PGA Seniors Champ

DUNEDIN, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP)—Paul Runyan is the new Professional Golfers association seniors champion today. Runyan carded a 3-under-par 80 for his final round of the tournament Saturday to give the 57-year-old a 4-2 triumph over Rochester. It was Sweeney's third point of the evening and gave him the spotlight over Bruce Cline who had two goals and a hand in all Springfield's scoring. In Saturday's other game, Ed Mazur and Cal Stearns with three points apiece led Cleveland to a 6-2 victory over Providence. Sunday was "goalies' night." Hershey's Bob Perrault had 30 saves and recorded a 3-0 shutout over Quebec. Dennis De Jardy also had a shutout and 30 stops as Buffalo downed Springfield 4-0. Larry Wilson was the big Bison gun with two goals. Gerry Ehman also clipped in a pair of tallies as Rochester topped Providence 5-2.

Two Horses Favored for Santa Anita

AROADIA, Calif., Feb. 20 (AP)—A pair of hometown horses, both reared within walking distance of the track, were the choices to fight it out this Saturday in the $145,000 Santa Anita handicap. The California-bred contenders, Prove It and American Comet, were expected to fight it out for first money in the race that dominates the Santa Anita meeting. Both carry the same light impost of 115 pounds. Although a dozen horses were expected to start in the 1 1/4 mile stakes, Prove It and American Comet stood out of their recent efforts as the top contenders with the defection of such stars as T.V. Lark Kelso and other top contenders.

Bud Temple Wins Utah Ski Event

BRIGHTON, Utah, Feb. 20 (AP)—Veteran Bud Temple, a winter sports enthusiast who works at Alta and does most of his skiing at Brighton, won the Hoover cup giant slalom prize here yesterday. Temple, who picked up his second championship of the season, bested a large field of class B skiers in the meet on Brighton's Mt. Majestic. Earlier this season Temple won the Majestic cup prize at Brighton. Temple's winning time was 1:07.5. Ken Pierce of Provo's Timp Haven won the men's class C with a time of 1:10.5. In women's competition, Donna Pierch of Brighton finished first with the time of 1:23.4.

Dodgers Open Workouts in Florida Sun

VERO BEACH, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers began their winter workouts in the Florida sun today. Thirty-five varsity players and 32 farm hands reported to manager Walt Alton this morning for roll-call and a kick-off session of calisthenics and track work. "They look pretty good," remarked Alton as he watched his players work out. He promised the athletes plenty of hard work. A chartered Western airlines plane landed the first wave of the ball club here last night after a flight from Los Angeles. Headed by President Walter O'Malley, the party of 55 included players, club executives, front-office personnel and Los Angeles sports writers. Reporting to Alton at Dodgerstown here were Tommy and Willie Davis, Wally Moon, Jim Gilliam, Charley Neal, Al Norris, Phil Ortega, Doug Camilli, Ed Palmquist, Ed Roebuck, Larry and Norm Sherry, Murray Wilks, Charlie Smith, Stan Williams, Thad Tillman, Dick Warren, Sandy Koufax, Ray Lova, Joe Moeller, Bruce Canine, Don Newcombe and Richard Nehf, among others.

Robinson and Fullmer Work For New Bout

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Feb. 20 (AP)—Gene Fullmer began a steady diet of track work and sparring bouts today in preparation for his mid-today championship match with Sugar Ray Robinson March 4. The middleweight champion arrived here yesterday from West Jordan, Utah. Robinson is continuing his training in San Jacinto, Calif. He will set up a training camp here Feb. 27. Robinson scored a double knockout yesterday as he worked out with sparring partners. The former champion floored middleweight Buster Mills of Denver, Colo., in the final round of the first of two scheduled three-rounders with a combination left hook and right to the chin. Then he decked light-heavyweight Bobby Birch of Boston in the second round of the second match with a short right to the chin. The sparring in Robinson's outdoor training ring was witnessed by 2,000 fathers and sons who traveled to the camp to see the fighter in action. In a meeting here Saturday the Nevada state athletic commission laid some ground rules for the Fullmer-Robinson fight and agreed to meet again March 2 to iron out further details. The commission made public several decisions about the forthcoming bout: —That the three knockdown rule and the mandatory eight count after each knockdown be waived. —If the fight is stopped because of a cut, the decision would be made only after a three-way conference between the commission's doctor and a physician representing each fighter. —The officials will mark their cards, using the five-point "mus" system, at the end of each round. The scoring, however, will not be announced until the end of the fight. —Both fighters will undergo a medical examination upon their arrival in Las Vegas, and a second examination the morning of the fight.

St. Louis Hawks Can Back Into Division Honors

The St. Louis Hawks can back into the Western division championship of the National Basketball association tonight. The Los Angeles Lakers, only team with a chance of tying the Hawks, meet the Syracuse Nationals in Morgantown, W. Va. A Nat victory and the Hawks are in. The Hawks could have gotten home clear Sunday, but they dropped a 123-100 decision to the New York Knickerbockers, who hold down last place in the Eastern division. St. Louis doesn't play again until Tuesday night, when they entertain Cincinnati.

Maple Leafs Slip Into Tie for Lead

The Toronto Maple Leafs have slipped back into a tie with the Montreal Canadiens for the National Hockey league lead. The Leafs, as much as six points ahead not long ago, fell back into a tie when they could get only an even break in their week-end games, winning 5-2 from the Chicago Black Hawks Saturday but dropping a 4-2 decision to the New York Rangers Sunday. The Canadiens, bidding for their fifth NHL championship in six seasons, yaloped the Rangers 7-4 Saturday and followed with a 4-2 victory over the Detroit Red Wings Sunday. In Sunday night's other game, the last place Boston Bruins bounced back from a 5-1 Saturday loss to Detroit and tied Chicago 2-2 on a late goal by Charlie Burns. Montreal's two victories ran their string to four straight and 5-1-1 since Jacques Plante returned to the goal tending job.

Lowrey Wins Baseball's Golf Crown

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP)—Little Pennus Lowrey outdrove and out-putted his rivals to win the baseball players golf championship with a final round of 72 and a 72-hole score of 285. Lowrey's two-over-par finish Sunday gave him a three stroke triumph over Baltimore manager Paul Richards, who shot a 74 for a 298 total at the Miami Springs course. The 5-foot, 9-inch coach of the Philadelphia Phillies credited his victory to long smashes-off the tee and to his steady putting game. Alvin Dark, San Francisco Giants manager, also had a fine round, coming in with a 74 to the defending champion Jim Hearn, former Philadelphia pitcher, for third place at 301. Ralph Terry, New York Yankee righthander, was fifth with a 78 for a 305 total. Paul Waner, the veteran hall of famer, and Jimmy Davenport, Giant third baseman, were tied for sixth at 307.

How an exclusive discovery whips extra smoothness into Schenley whisky

This is a glass of unusual whisky. It is Schenley. Its extraordinary smoothness is the result of the greatest advance in whisky making in twenty-five years.

Taking the same fine whiskies always reserved for Schenley, we now put them through a costly new step. In this exclusive step the whiskies are whirled in a specially designed vat by stainless steel blades and literally whipped into a smoothness never before attainable. This unique process breaks down each drop of the fine whiskies and grain neutral spirits into its smallest possible components and then "marries" them more thoroughly than ever before. The result can only be realized by tasting Schenley whisky. We think you'll agree: smoothness in a whisky has now taken on a completely new meaning. So start enjoying Schenley, the only whisky with extra-smoothness whipped in.
