Kennedy, English to Deadlock in Laos

Chief Hint Ends to

LONDON, June 5 (UPI)—President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said today that the Geneva deadlock over Laos appeared to have been broken by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's agreement with the President and the prime minister reaffirmed their determination to withstand any renewed Soviet pressure against Berlin. Since Kennedy previously had reached a similar understanding with President Charles de Gaulle, this meant that the West was solidly in agreement on measures to take in the event of another Berlin crisis.

The communique came shortly after it was announced that Kennedy will make a half-hour radio-televised report on his trip to the United States at 7 p.m. (EDT) tomorrow night. The communique made these points:

—Premier Khrushchev's agreement on a cease-fire at Vienna that the Soviet Union had announced at Geneva was wrong again.

—There is "full agreement on the necessity of maintaining the rights and obligations of the allied governments in Berlin."

His blind secretary, William J. Brennan, who in an official capacity should lead to progress in the West towards an agreement, neutral and independent Laos.

The British foreign office said the atmosphere of the meeting was "very serious, very friendly, in the best sense."

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said Secretary of State Dean Rusk would be in London tonight to fly back to Washington aboard the President's plane.

Asked about reports Kennedy and Macmillan may have explored the possibility of a big four summit meeting, or of Kennedy visiting Moscow, Salinger stressed that neither was being planned.

The talks today were held at Admiralty House, which Macmillan said was the best possible place for the talks.

Musical Chairs in Vienna

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev hasn't lost his chair. He is moving it closer to Mrs. John F. Kennedy before start of summit conference.

Summit Talk Did No Harm, Perhaps Good

LONDON, June 5 (UPI)—Western European newspapers today liked the quiet, business-like atmosphere of the summit conference between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. The consensus was that the talks did not do any harm and probably did some good.

And Kennedy's personal standing with Europeans generally was improved. Communist voices in Western Europe, reflecting Soviet reaction in Vienna, were more enthusiastic than the non-Communist papers over the achievements of the summit.

"A very good beginning," said both London's Daily Worker and Paris' "L'Humanite."

Western European diplomats and many Americans are convinced Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's decision to attend the summit was a good move.

The Russians were more enthusiastic and optimistic than the Americans when the summit communique was issued yesterday.

The Russian press spokesman, not ordinarily given to "flurry" language, described the meeting between Khrushchev and President Kennedy as "the beginning of a new era in international relations."

Dr. Charles Cullings, 42, who was moving his family from Wayneburg, Pa., to Buhl, Mo., said he became separated from his wife, somewhere between O'Neill and Alwinburg, Neb.

He said he had seen a Dodge stationwagon with his two daughters, 13 and 6, said he passed his wife's MG sports convertible while she was driving slowly in Nebraska.

"We drove on for another hour and my girls and I stopped to have a drink," Cullings said. "I didn't notice her passing us while we were waiting for a gas station. We waited for an hour and she didn't show up so we drove back to see if we could spot her. We couldn't find her so we notified the Nebraska highway patrol and drove on to Jackson, Mo., where we had planned to spend a few days."

Cullings said his wife, Muriel, 43, had not shown up at Jackson as he had expected. Wyoming and Nebraska patrolmen have had no reports of locating the missing woman.

Beat in Double Blow

Court Decisions

WASHINGTON, June 5 (UPI)—The supreme court dealt the Communist party a one-two punch today in two separate decisions, the court: —Ruled that the party must register all of its officers and members with the justice department under the 1950 subversive activities control act. —Upheld the right of the government to prosecute an individual for "active" membership in the Communist party if he undertakes its purposes. The decision strengthens the government's powers under the 1950 Smith act.

Khrushchev's Return Home Is Quiet One

MOSCOW, June 5 (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev returned today to his home in the Crimea after a two-day visit to the United States and a subdued welcome and dispensed with his usual arrival speech.

Khrushchev said as he left Vienna he hoped his talks with President Kennedy would help solve the question of disarmament and the abolishment of the cold war.

He had made no statement at Moscow's Yuzovka airport, and it was not possible to get a word from him at the airport.

The arrival ceremony was muted compared to Khrushchev's return from his trip to the United States or other visits out of the country. It was "fitting with the restraint with which Soviet press and radio have regarded the Kennedy-Khrushchev talks," he said.

Khrushchev's return to his home in the Crimea was a quiet affair. He had no public appearances and no press conferences.

Duplicated

LONDON, June 5 (UPI)—Scores of women struggled to get through police lines today for a glimpse of the Soviet Premier, Nikita S. Khrushchev, whose first public appearance in London duplicated the previous scene of Paris and Vienna.

The women were among a crowd of 1,000 gathered around Admiralty House to await their arrival for luncheon with President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Scotland Yard had detailed heavy reinforcements to the area. But as the first lady's limousine, with the license plate "USA 1," pulled into the courtyard, the police had to look on as they held the women back.

'Spirit Alert' Need Is Cited For Upheaval

BOSTON, June 5—Greater spiritual alertness is needed to meet the unprecedented challenges and opportunities presented by the tremendous upheaval in the world today, the Christian Science board of directors said.

In a special message to the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, here today, directors called for renewed vigilance on the part of all who cherish freedom, brotherhood and truth. "Among the striking features of our day," they said, "there is more vital news than this Christianity which our Master taught and practiced. In an age of political tyranny and ecclesiastical despotism, of turbulence, unrest and hatred, Christ Jesus came preaching that the kingdom of God is at hand. He wielded a power which the might of materialism could neither conquer nor limit. In our own age, material limitations are yielding to the freedom-giving power of God, and the directors maintained, "Humanity is crying out," they said, "for freedom and liberation for liberty; nations are being born; the barriers of time and space are crumbling in the fields of religion, government, education, discovery, invention, industry and medicine; matter is slowly yielding to spirit."

Named president of The Mother Church was Mrs. Mary Lee Gough May, a Christian Science teacher and practitioner of Boston, Mass. She succeeds Arthur W. Eganman, general counsel of The Mother Church.

A native of Texas, Mrs. May received her education at Ward seminary, Nashville, Tenn., the University of Texas, and the University of Chicago. She withdrew from a musical career in 1918 to devote her entire time to the practice of Christian Science healing in Chicago. She became an authorized teacher of Christian Science in 1946. She will serve as president for one year.

In her keynote address, Mrs. May said that release from the frustrations and inequalities of materiality can come to all through spiritual awakening. "Basically, mankind needs awakening from the nightmare of belief in living matter and intelligent evil, from its confidence that matter can give satisfaction, that it holds the solution for all the disease, indignity, and inequalities of the human family," she declared.

Emphasizing that there is an answer to hatred, disease, poverty and disaster, Mr. Eckman, the retiring president, said, "It is God's law of love, which must be involved in humility and with abiding faith and clear understanding."

Headings through prayer of alcoholism, arthritis, poor eyesight, gopher cancer and other medical conditions were reported during the year by those who became interested in Christian Science through radio and television programs in the series "How Christian Science Works." Will B. Davis, manager of committees on publication, told the large gathering. The new delivery system established by the printing of The Christian Science Monitor in London and Los Angeles, as well as in Boston, has been well received, said John H. Foreign Profit Tax Opposed

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The U.S. Chamber of Commerce told congress today an administration proposal to impose "costly and unfair" taxes on business earnings abroad before they are returned to America would bring about reduced foreign investment. The effect of the policy, it said, would be to force "private investments to shrink or withdraw from those areas of competition." The result, the Chamber added, would be to "pounce and encourage" our foreign competitor in Western Europe and Japan.

Walter A. Siewinski, a partner in the law firm of Baker, McKenney and Hightower, Chicago, expressed the view in prepared testimony before the house ways and means committee.

He said "all commercial nations have adopted the rule 'of not taxing the income of a corporation located in a foreign country until it becomes income in the home country."

TVA Lock Break Poses Big Problem for Saturn Rocket

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., June 5 (AP)—A break in a lock in a TVA dam poses a major problem to the national aeronautics and space administration; How will the huge Saturn space booster be transported to Cape Canaveral, Fla.?

The booster is scheduled to be launched in Florida later this year. A barge was built especially to haul it to Cape Canaveral from Huntsville, Ala.

The barge is in Redstone, Ala., and the "damaged lock" in the Tennessee river navigation system. Huge concrete sections in the lock at Wheeler dam failed Friday night. Traffic cannot go through the lock until repairs are made. TVA said it may take many months.

to Florida. And we certainly don't intend to launch it here."
The course said the Saturn, 100 feet in diameter and 75 feet long, apparently will have to be moved on highways from Huntsville to a point below the damaged lock before it can be loaded.
However, a number of possible barriers to this plan are being considered—such as overhead structures and bridges.
The damaged lock is approximately 50 nautical miles from Huntsville. The distance to a practical loading point, over roads, would be much greater.

25,000 Go to Beach Party; Brawls Result

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 5 (AP)—A wild brawl ended a Saturday night beach party planned for a thousand rock 'n' roll fans, at which more than 25,000 showed up. One girl was raped, another was beaten to the sand and stomped by rioters, and a third-hourer's serious eye injury when a firecracker was thrown in her face.

Fifty sheriff's officers and highway patrolmen braved a barrage of rocks, beer bottles and cans to break up the mob. Fourteen youths were arrested.

Rolling members of the vast throng ripped, plumbung out of public rest rooms and tore parts of liquor stores to build giant bonfires. Singer Fabian, who was to entertain at the party, refused to go on when it began to get out of control.

A Los Angeles radio station, KTLA, planned the party at Luna beach, a county facility 20 miles north of here. The violence began as the formal party ended at 11:15 p. m.

"It was a milling, drinking, ugly crowd of 25,000 to 30,000 young people on the beach in the dark," said Capt. Kirby Temple of the county lifeguard service.

"They were fighting, shouting, grabbing girls, and tearing each other's clothes. You name it and they did it."

Law officers blamed the trouble on drinking. There was no race problem, they said. Most of the youths arrested were charged with drunkenness, bringing alcohol into a county park or juvenile possession of alcohol.

Herb Heiman, KTLA program director, said the trouble started when the program ended and the crowd didn't want to leave.

He said law officers four hours to completely clear the beach.

Park Service Says Do Not Feed Animals

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Don't pet or feed the bears in the nation's national parks, the national park service said today by Director Conrad L. Wirth of the national park service.

"The bears look harmless, the cubs look cute, but they are not trying to be entertaining, they are only trying to satisfy a voracious appetite and they'll eat anything—including the hand of the visitor who is trying to feed them," Wirth said.

Wirth noted that after a long winter's sleep the bears have once again taken up panhandling and marauding on the highways, and sometimes in the campgrounds. Often there are cubs along in such areas as the Great Smoky mountains, Yellowstone and Glacier national parks and other wilderness areas.

Despite warning signs which are displayed at the major entrances of all national parks where there are bears, animals caused 143 recorded personal injuries to park visitors in 1960. This was more than double the 1959 total of 71. Last year bears injured 69 persons in Yellowstone national park alone.

Wirth said the service has instituted a stricter bear-control program to remove from the picnic and camping grounds any "trans" bears which are apt to become

Kennedy Not Tested Yet in Foreign Field

By JAMES MATHLO
WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—President Kennedy is doing well in the field he knows best—politics and country. But he can't be judged yet on his ability in foreign affairs, an area in which he has had the least experience.

His domestic proposals so far have received very agreeable treatment in congress, where Republicans and conservative Democrats could do him damage any time they wanted to team up.

Kennedy has handled congress in just about the way his vice president, Lyndon B. Johnson, Texas' most powerful senator, expected to operate if he had been the president.

Johnson, when he was leader of the senate Democrats, followed a very moderate course in the legislation he sought to get through Kennedy's congress.

But it is in the foreign field that Kennedy is still a rather unknown quantity.

His speeches there last few days with French President De Gaulle in Paris and Soviet Premier Khrushchev in Vienna didn't reveal much except that Kennedy and De Gaulle seemed to get along well and Kennedy's relations with Khrushchev appeared amiable.

Perhaps the fact that Kennedy got a chance to size up De Gaulle and Khrushchev at first hand, and they him, will help their future relations. This may have been the main accomplishment of his journey.

Idaho Guard Rumbles Into Desert Area

BOISE, June 5 (AP)—Heavy armored equipment of the 10th armored cavalry regiment is being moved into the desert maneuver area south of Gowen field near here today as the army's national guardmen buckled down to the serious task of summer training.

The 10th ACV will carry out platoon (teams and fire weapons during the 15-days of field training. The teams and fire weapons will be carried out under the critical eye of regular army advisers.

Field training exercises will be conducted for more than 2,000 civilian soldiers here and at Bishop mountain in eastern Idaho, where engineers units are conducting regular maneuvers along with halting forest roads and airman crossings.

Air-Team support will be provided by the aviation company of the regiment while transportation movements will be carried out mainly by the latter transportation company of Emmett under command of Capt. Annet Bakopon.

The transportation company will perform operations that will link the two major camps together during the 15-day training period.

The 20th army band of Caldwell started this morning for a two-week concert tour throughout the state. The band is directed by Warrant Officer William Rankin.

Another 800 men will be added to forces present at Gowen field where artillery units from north Idaho arrive next Saturday. They arrive a week later and leave a week later.

Meanwhile, two army guardmen escaped injury Saturday night when their two-and-a-half-ton truck went off highway 20 about 10 miles west of Idaho Falls while hauling 10 cases of dynamite. No one was hurt.

State police said apparently the driver, Eric Arnold Collins, 23, Emmett, fell asleep at the wheel and the truck rolled over.

Collins was taken to hospital and a half time before coming to rest on his back.

Dr. J. C. Collier, N. P. Albert Lyle, Jr., 20, the assistant driver from Emmett, was injured although they were not taken to hospital.

Demand for Peace Corps May Be High

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver has indicated the demand for peace volunteers could be as high as 20,000.

Shriver based the estimate last night on the number of requests that have come in from the world to be sent to countries which had invited applications for discussions on peace corps projects.

He said the eight nations making initial requests for a total of 6,000 peace corps workers.

"Now if this average is maintained for other countries, we could have 20,000 peace corps workers," he explained.

He said that two out of 10, or one out of five, of the applicants would be employed in the design and training of peace corps workers for overseas service.

Earlier, at University of Notre Dame commencement, Shriver announced an agreement between the United States government, the peace corps and 34 Indiana universities.

Volunteers from Indiana will be sent to that part of China where the need is greatest," Shriver said.

"They will work alongside older peace corps men in need of help and we alone can give them."

Political Ined 'Change Needed'

FOOTBALL, June 5 (AP)—The image of the American politician as a man who is not a citizen—becomes a change, New Jersey Gov. Robert B. Meyner said yesterday.

"Government at all levels betrays attacking stress-points. It is essential need is delicate, sensitive and capable manpower," he said.

Khrushchev's Mood Differs At Last Talks

VIENNA, June 5 (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev of the Vienna summit was a far different man from the one who flew up last year's session in Paris and made a shambles of a U.N. general assembly session in New York.

The talks which he talked face to face with President Kennedy over the week-end were for the most part a success and a triumph.

Probably there were good reasons, Khrushchev came to Vienna for a specific purpose.

Diplomatic sources say his main reason in seeking a meeting with the President of the United States was to have an opportunity to talk with the young man who has taken over the leadership of the world opposition to communist ambitions.

These sources said that the Soviet premier is likely to feel that he accomplished that mission. He talked with the President, and from the talks got a better idea of just how dangerous future communist expansion by direct pressure may be.

Khrushchev also demonstrated with startling clarity that he is a man who is fully in control of himself. By his sober performance in Vienna he provided ample evidence that he knows just what he was doing when he took off his shoes and banged it on his table at the U.N. session last fall, and when he stormed and raged in Paris a year ago.

He also demonstrated his purpose. Khrushchev showed, he can take on the appearance of a careful negotiator.

One of the most significant results of the exploratory summit was the fact that Khrushchev did not push urgently on the potentially explosive question of Cuba.

The situation in the world has been extremely dangerous in recent months. The Khrushchev may have come to the conclusion that it is time now to let it simmer down and thus remove the danger of explosion.

Hard-Riding Old West Living Again in Declo 'Big D' Arena

DECLO, June 5 (AP)—When the lights go on the arena two and one-half miles southwest of Declo, the hard-riding Old West lives again.

It is a family event with the fan who blow up last year's session as being around the 100, 300-foot arena, twisting a rope in a call—balancing—on a bucking horse and trying to do a galloping steer.

A hand-lettered sign over the arena reads the "Big D" Riding Club but the name is inadequate to express the love of "stringing" the arena.

There is a real flavor of the arena and the night or on weekends when members roll to the arena and unload their horses and cowboy boots and a flashy 10-gallon hat.

Rough and tough buckers are no problem. Jim Hill and Bill Anderson, two of the arena's best men, are enough to test the best bronco riders. One gray mare owned by Hill was a favorite practice bucked preferred by Bob A. Robinson of world's championship rodeo fame.

Greatest fun for club members is to watch their youngsters come out of the chute atop a bucking horse. The youngsters have been hurt seriously.

With the guidance of experienced elders, it will be almost certainly that some will become great names in the rodeo world. High school boys already have captured amateur rodeo prizes. They can get a bucking horse or dog a steer with grace and ease.

The youngsters enjoy themselves so much in the evenings at the arena that it has become a problem to get them to go up and go home.

Among the outstanding young men are Ray Anderson, Jim Hill, Mike Matthews, Judy McGraw and Andy O'Leary.

And for young champions, there is a 4-year-old, Eddie McGraw, who learned to trot around the arena. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McGraw.

James Bailey, president of the club, explains, "We do it for enjoyment."

The club is planning an overnight trail ride, probably in the south hills, with families taking part. Ideally the club received the official incorporation papers.

This summer "Big D" members plan several competition meets with other clubs.

Honorary members are Ross Anderson, Chet Parker and Marion Warner.

Graham Fine; Criticisms of Him Ignored

MANCHESTER, England, June 5 (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham, making a threat infection and London press criticism, today sailed into the second week of his tour of England.

Graham said he felt no ill effects from the threat trouble which forced him to miss the crusade's first week except for the Saturday night service. He said he had no doubts as to the success of his 45-minute Saturday sermon when he started.

The evangelist refused to comment on an editorial in today's London Daily Sketch which said Graham's methods and messages were "mutton dressed up like lamb."

"Dr. Graham appears to give a dramatic and highly emotional presentation of the claims of Christ upon the human soul," the Sketch said. "He is not a theologian, but a practical, a return to the dangerous and primitive habit of getting a man by change his mind while his emotions are disturbed."

"When emotions heightened by Billy Graham's evangelism have died, the results presented too often depart with them," the newspaper commented.

"The so-called converts then feel a sense of loss which they are likely to attribute to some inadequate or Christianity," the Sketch observed.

Graham's aides said that despite the criticism, the crusade was converted during the first week of the crusade. Nearly half—1,844—were forwarded after an emergency operation, is progressing satisfactorily.

More Soviet, U.S. Meetings Are Expected

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Montana, says President Kennedy probably will have further conferences with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Mansfield said the two-day Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting probably laid the groundwork for further talks between the two leaders.

He said he thought the summit talk turned out a little better than anticipated. His comments, like those of other Democratic congress members, were cautiously optimistic.

The new Republican national chairman, Rep. William E. Miller, New York, took a different tack. He said he hoped and prayed Kennedy didn't go to Vienna to "negotiate some unworkable deal" to increase his prestige.

Miller said that Kennedy's decision to meet with Khrushchev was a "100 per cent switch" from his campaign statements "there would be no summit meetings and no personal diplomacy except after profound and long staff meetings and a well-prepared agenda."

Younger American brides and grooms are getting younger all the time

This is the word from the Population Reference bureau, Inc., a private research group that keeps track of such things. It said yesterday that men now are marrying about three years younger and women two years younger than at the turn of the century. Last year more men married at 21 than any other age and more women at 18.

The bureau lauded a "spotlight on marriage," timed to coincide with June—the traditional wedding month. It predicted that about 200,000 couples would get married in the month, as against 96,000 in the winter month of January.

GOP Told to Attack Demo Fiscal Policy

WASHINGTON, June 5 — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told Republicans to go all out in their attacks on what he calls the "fiscal responsibility" of the Kennedy administration.

In recent conferences here, the former president's chairmen urged that Republicans of all shades of opinion for his budget-balancing rally calls. But how much the GOP members could accomplish in this field remained doubtful.

Rep. William E. Miller, the party's new national chairman, predicted that President Kennedy is likely to get a "substantial portion" of his budget new frontiers program through Congress.

Miller was asked by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, N.Y., on a television program if this was likely to put the government in a "bind."

"Well," the chairman replied, "if this program is adopted for housing and for education, for depressed areas and for all these increases which he is proposing in the military and in economic assistance, it's going to increase government expenditures in the next fiscal year by over five billion dollars and would result, therefore, in a deficit of some 7 or 8 billion dollars."

"This can result only in increased taxation or deficit spending which I find to be a very unattractive proposition," he said.

In contrast to this, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, a former Eisenhower administration official, estimated the deficit for the year beginning Oct. 1 at 3.7 billion dollars.

Dillon said on a television program with Clifford P. Case, Jr., N.J., and Harrison A. Williams, Jr., D.N.J., the Kennedy administration is counting on a 50 percent increase in tax revenues eventually to balance the budget, take up the added costs of the new frontiers program and to open the way to a tax cut.

Closer Tie With 'Radicals' Urged

WASHINGTON, June 5 — Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) has urged the United States to form closer ties with the "radical" nations of Africa or risk pushing them into the communist bloc.

A pamphlet by Prof. James S. Coleman and Carl Rosenberg, Jr., said these countries represent the "wave of the future" in Africa and eventually will sweep the more conservative nations with them.

Therefore, the ADA booklet said, the United States must drop its policy of giving "preferential treatment" to conservative African countries.

Teacher Opposed

YELLOW SPRING, O., June 4 — Residents of Yellow Springs, Ohio city yesterday, circulated petitions protesting the hiring of a Quaker woman as a teacher at Mills Lawn elementary school.

Citizens said they opposed the hiring of Mrs. Henry Dyer, because she at one time refused on moral and religious grounds to pay part of her income tax used for military purposes.

Burley Woman, Little Girl Helped by Transfusions

BURLEY, June 5 — Life-saving blood transfusions were given recently to Susan Heworth, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Heworth, and Mrs. Clellie Chesley, 73, pioneer of the area, reports Mrs. Robert Malberg, Cassia county bloodmobile chairman.

About every six months since January, 1959, Miss Heworth has been having internal hemorrhages. When the child first became ill the couple lived in Ontario, Ore., and her trouble was diagnosed as an ulcer. She was given iron medicine. The family moved to Burley 10 months ago and since that time their daughter hemorrhaged last October and again in March. The local physician sent the child to Salt Lake County General hospital which is associated with the University of Utah medical department for a complete examination.

It was the opinion of the Salt Lake City doctors that the child had a blocked blood vessel between her spleen and liver which cut off the normal flow of blood and caused the spleen to enlarge. When the spleen became full of blood it caused pressure on the veins, in turn causing the internal hemorrhage, the mother explained.

The child returned to Salt Lake City three weeks ago for checkup and the physicians believe she will be strong enough to undergo an operation in July. The doctors report they will probably build a new vessel and re-route the blood, Mrs. Heworth says.

When Susan was ill in October she had to have five pints of blood, and then she required three more following her illness in March. After these attacks she is weak and anemic, but feels much better now, she is a "good child" and the doctors have remarked that she is the "best patient" they have ever had, her mother notes.

The couple has three other children, Steven, 8, Linda, 7, and Ronald, 4, a year old.

The mother says Susan has no fear of the coming operation.

"Our physician says we are sitting on a powder keg, for another hemorrhage may be harder to stop, we realize there is a risk involved, but we hope that the operation will correct the cause of her trouble. The doctors feel that she was probably born with this defective circulator.

The girl is enrolled at the Dwarshank school to attend the first grade next fall.

Mrs. Chesley received five pints of blood before an operation last March 14 for a maximal tumor of the colon. She reports that she always had been in good health and had never been in a hospital until she had a quoter operation in 1957.

After her husband died last August she began to tire easily and in January she had pneumonia. Her children felt she wasn't up to "par" and urged her to have a checkup.

"I had no pain and felt fine with the exception of tiring so easily. I noticed that my waistline was larger and thought I was gaining weight. I had a hemorrhage on Feb. 25 and it was fatal, thought that it was the result of antibiotic medicine I had taken for the pneumonia. After an examination the doctor advised an operation which disclosed a cancerous tumor about the size of a grapefruit," she reports.

"They had a hard time giving me that 'life saving blood' for my veins were so small and deep in my arms and legs, they had to make incisions to find them. I feel 'fit as a fiddle now,' she says.

Mrs. Chesley and her husband homesteaded land in the Springdale area, she has lived in the Burley area since 1909. She has six

Miss Jensen Is Wed to Webb in Episcopal Rites

ROBERT, June 4—A wedding ceremony at 9 p.m. Friday, May 26, at the Rupert Episcopal church united in marriage Miss Kaye Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin, Paul and Ronald Dale Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Webb, Denver, Colo. The Rev. Kale King performed the double rite before the altar decorated with baskets of pink and green carnations. Other baskets of the same flowers decorated the church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of lace over net and satin, fashioned with a skirt, short in front, and sweeping to a chapel train in the back. The fitted bodice featured a yoke of inserted net and a high round-neckline accented by a net lace collar. Bands of lace outlined the net yoke and the full-length sleeves ended in a point over the back of the hand.

A lattice band, set with rhinestones, held her finger ring. The bridal bouquet was formed in a cascade arrangement of stephanotis, pink and green carnations, surrounding two large orchids.

Mrs. Howard Knopp attended her sister as matron of honor, with Sandra Webb, sister of the bride, and Marlene Bertsch, as bridesmaids. All wore identical street-length dresses of green orlon, fashioned with full skirts, and each carried a cascade bouquet of pink and green carnations. The bridesmaids wore miniature pink and green flowers circling net veils. The groom, attired like the bride's attendant, was Ronald Webb, nephew of the bride, who was ring bearer.

Robert W. Denver, served his brother as best man, and Howard Knopp, John McCandless and Molly Bertsch, cousin of the bride, were ushers.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Rose Cunningham, Jr., and Judy Manning sang during the service.

At her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Martin chose a navy blue sheath dress with white accents, and Mrs. Webb wore a pink sheath with white accessories. Their cor-

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Lorry was making a list of those she wanted to invite to her graduation party, when the following dialogue took place: "I'd like to invite Molly, but it's not my mother's idea," said Viola. "But it's something terrible. If I don't invite her and do invite Molly, that mother will not let me go."

"What do you mean, terrible? How can a girl with a sister like Molly be terrible?" queried Lorry's mother.

"But she is, Mom. She is so loud you can hear her coming long before you see her. Her voice, her clothes, her manners are all just plain loud. Everyone in our group likes Molly, except for me. I guess I'll have a second time. I guess I'll have to leave them both out."

"Be sure it's not just your own comment her brother, Harry. But it's too bad you have to leave Molly out because of Viola."

"I'm certainly in a bind, but that's what happens when a girl, or boy, tries to hide his feelings from his father, his mother, his friends and shame disregard of the opinions or feelings of other people. Not only are they punished by those they would cultivate, but their families are also penalized."

"These young people are not easily reached by teachers and parents. They are sensitive to a touch and shake, within themselves at the first word of reproach or advice concerning their ways. They respond with a touch, 'so what? Who cares?' attitude. They scout along just to prove they are different and hence admirable, when they know they are being asked to walk with some dignity through the school building. They slam down their books; chew gum; and 'haw, haw' in derision when a classmate makes a suggestion. They behave the same way at home until their families are about ready to pull hair. Why? Because they are not allowed someone to tell them what all these and point out a way by which they can overcome their feelings of unfairness and insecurity."

To earn the place they covet among their companions, they need to stop measuring their deficiencies against others' strengths and to start looking for their own unique strengths. They need to listen more and to talk less; to watch others they admire more and to criticize them less. They need to fix on a model of behavior, to see his desires, inclinations and copy that person's good points. They need to learn to smile, to use good language, to know inner peace and like themselves better.

Congressmen Tackle Fund, Housing Bills

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The house fixes its attention on appropriations bills this week with the Senate's omnibus housing bill.

More than 50 bills are scheduled with the measure, with passage seemingly certain.

There are two money bills up for early house action. One carries $1 billion in annual appropriations for agriculture and an $4-billion dollar catch-all money measure for a score of independent-federal agencies.

House leaders look for passage of both bills Wednesday.

Target date for final action on the housing bill, carrying more than six billion dollars in loan and grant authority for a wide variety of programs, is this Wednesday.

Sen. John Sparkman, D. Ala., is managing the big housing bill on the senate floor. He says he will confide the senate will turn thumbs down on most of the Republican-backed amendments to this bill.

So far, congress has been slow in passing over the 18 annual appropriations measure. It has cleared the house and only one of these has also made it through the senate.

Aware of the heavy work load ahead, Sen. Mike Mansfield, Democrat, the senate majority leader, has abandoned hope of adjournment near the end of July.

Demos Asking Long-Ranged Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The Kennedy administration is in the capital today to sell the senate on its proposal for long-ranged financing of foreign aid.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon was the first witness as the senate foreign relations committee resumed what may be the most extensive hearing on the program since the Marshall plan was started.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk was the lead-off witness when the senate committee began hearings last Tuesday. The 10-day hearing affairs committee is scheduled to take up the $8 billion dollar aid program next Wednesday.

Key features of the administration's foreign aid request is the plan for five-year borrowing authority to permit long-term financing of loans.

Chairman J. William Fulbright, D. Ark., of the foreign relations group, and some other key lawmakers have endorsed the plan.

But Fulbright has cautioned that President Kennedy must make a strong case to the approval of the idea in congress where leaders, mindful of the power-of-the-purse, like to keep a tight check on spending programs.

The long-term borrowing authority would permit better foreign aid planning which in the long run, would save money.

Opponents of the proposal point to cases of mismanagement, waste and other abuses in foreign aid spending to support their argument that congress should make an annual check on how the program is being run.

Fined for overland loads were Larry P. Francis, Wendell, $5, and Edward E. Achurra, Jiggs, $5.

Dictating Equipment Donated to T. F. Chamber

Insurance Unit Gives $750 Check to Fund, Dictating Machine to Chamber

A portable dictating machine worth about $300 and a check for $750 have been donated to the Chamber of Commerce by the Twin Falls Association of Insurance Agents.

William Grange, chamber secretary-manager, notes that the check, which was donated for the chamber's industrial park fund, brings the fund total to $63,500. The money has been raised entirely by donations from individuals and civic organizations.

According to Carl Berg, a past president of the insurance group, the association raises money by selling insurance as a group to the city, the county, the schools and other community projects, including Magic Valley Memorial hospital. The group consists of 28 insurance agents throughout the county.

The insurance is not sold by one agent, but by the group.

The group's projects include donations to various civic groups, schools, the chamber of commerce, and each year it sponsors programs during Fire Prevention week. The association also furnishes fluorescent tape for school children to use as reflectors on their bicycles.

Committees are organized to work with the city commission, the county commission and school. Supr. Ernest Haglund on various projects.

Berg was Chamber of Commerce president last year and C. D. (Chick) Hiett, who is secretary-treasurer of the insurance association, is on the chamber board of directors this year. Berg notes that they realized the need for a dictating machine in the chamber office and a dictaphone was donated to the chamber in May.

The small, lightweight (eight pounds), dictating machine will cut hours off of the time previously taken to arrange minutes of meetings before they could be typed by the chamber office secretary, according to Grange.

Grange notes that arranging notes from meetings generally took him two or three hours. However, now he can do the same job in 20 or 30 minutes.

The dictating machine comes equipped with a large "conference" microphone, which is sensitive enough to record voices of persons sitting around a conference table. Other equipment includes a "stethoscope" type earphones for transcribing, a pedal for operating the machine by foot and a luggage-type carrying case.

Grange says the dictating machine will record for about 70 minutes.

association also donated $750 to the chamber's industrial park fund, bringing the fund total to $63,500. The new dictating machine, which is portable and can be used at conferences and meetings, will save the secretary several hours of work a week, according to Grange. (Staff photo- engraving)

Car Firm Finance Setup Probe Set

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The house subcommittee announced yesterday it would conduct hearings this week on legislation to prohibit auto manufacturers from financing and insuring installment sales of cars.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D. N. Y., said he introduced the bill "in response to numerous allegations that General Motors utilizes its wholly-owned subsidiary, General Motors acceptance corporation, as an instrument of sales policy for purposes of obtaining undue competitive advantages over other manufacturers of motor vehicles."

The hearing will begin Wednesday with Paul Jones, chairman of the executive committee of the American Finance Association, Wilmington, Del., as the first witness.

Rechecks of Firefighting Force Asked

BOISE, June 5 (AP)—A recheck of firefighting forces is being asked by the state department of land management and U. S. Forest service officials by Sen. Henry Dworshak, R. Id., in view of an anticipated bad fire season.

Soil and moisture surveys from southern Idaho which indicate a critical drought year, Dworshak said, in a message from Washington, D. C., yesterday.

"It means that many areas of Idaho will not have sufficient water for agricultural purposes, the state," he said.

He said "we must cooperate to see that what vegetation we do have in our ranges and forests is not destroyed by fire thus further decreasing the ability of the land to hold the water we do have."

Pre-suppression work as well as building of actual firefighting facilities was urged by the senator, who said any fire that gets a start in this extremely dry year will be a bad one.

Dworshak reported that Secretary of Interior Ullah advised that his department has scheduled up meetings with the secretary of army relative to working out an agreement between the national guard and land management agencies in Idaho for use of men and equipment for fighting fires.

In April Dworshak urged the two agencies to work out an agreement making available fire fighting equipment and personnel for use of the state and federal agencies when situations develop that require such services.

Polio Suits End Outside of Court

PORTLAND, June 5 (AP)—Two more suits here accusing Carter Laboratories, Berkeley, Calif., of distributing faulty polio vaccine have been settled out of court.

Tasty Tablets May Be Final Blow to Polio

CHICAGO, June 5 (AP)—A tasty tablet or a tempting liquid may deal the final blow to the crippling polio.

AMERICAN SPEAKERS said: "The new, sweet-tasting vaccine takes its name from Dr. Albert B. Sabin, professor of research pediatrics at the University of Cincinnati. He has been working on it since 1949."

The AMA spokesman outlined two major differences between Sabin vaccine and the familiar Salk vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas Salk, Pittsburgh:

The polio virus in the Sabin vaccine is alive but in an extremely weakened condition. In Salk vaccine the virus has been killed.

The AMA spokesman said the Sabin vaccine is big advantage over the Salk type is that it can be taken orally.

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—J. National Guard Band Will Tour

BOISE, June 5 (AP)—The Idaho national guard 25th army band, tonight, will make a public concert tour through many Idaho communities, Brig. Gen. George B. Bennett announced.

He noted that a brochure was released not long ago pleading for "rehabilitation" of murderers, while posing lightly over the plight of the killer's innocent victims and families, charged that law enforcement officers "become so inhumanly by their dealings with vicious criminals that they go to the extreme of feeling that the death penalty is absolutely necessary."

The schedule includes June 13 at Rupert, June 14 at Burley, Jerome and Twin Falls, and June 15 at Buhl.

Teacher Assigned

PELLER, June 5—Clarence Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edna Meyer, Glover, has been assigned to teach the first grade at Hope Lutheran school, Idaho Falls, next fall.
