U. S. Studies Loss of U. N. Seat to Reds

CHICAGO, June 28 (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said yesterday the U. S. government is discussing a number of alternatives to keep the United States from losing its seat in the United Nations against any possible move to seat communist China.

Asked at a news conference whether there are any U. S. discussions of the possibility of the United States recognizing communist China, Rusk replied: "None whatsoever."

Rusk said there has been increasing pressure over the past few years, particularly with a number of new nations joining the U. N., to bring the question of communist China's admission to a debate on the merits of the question.

During the past decade, Rusk said, the United States has dealt with the question on a moratorium—having the question postponed at the beginning of each session until the next session.

"The formula no longer will suffice," he said.

"The United States is concerned," the secretary said, "that the issue might come to a vote as a credential question; that is, which of China's proposals should be adopted should have the seat assigned to China."

This presents the possibility that the member nations could vote communist China as the legitimate representative of the Chinese people, a development which could be of grave consequence to the United States and support of the Peking government.

The secretary termed inaccurate a report that the United States has agreed upon a plan for entry of communist China into the U. N. saying a number of alternatives are under consideration.

"It is not possible to say whether the United States would agree to admission of communist China while the Nationalist Government retains their seat, along with one seat on the U. N. security council."

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—The founding fathers established the present circuitous presidential electoral system because they did not know how to use the ballot to elect a new independent American people. The electors still do not abide by the popular vote in their respective states.

Today, the lack of congressional interest in the movement to revise this ancient and archaic system, that the politicians on capitol hill are so afraid to touch that "one" of the major parties will benefit from a constitutional change in the method of electing a president, is a virtual certainty that this and other national defects in our political structure at both the national and state levels will not be remedied in time for the 1954 presidential contest.

Night Riders

Twin Falls seems to have acquired a perennial water problem during the hot summer months. Residents have been brought abruptly face to face with the situation again in the last few days by low water pressure and sprinkling of the streets. So far, most people have been subjected to inconvenience, at most, with little or no actual hardship. But low pressure and sprinkling regulations can be a nuisance.

There can be little doubt that the water problem has been caused by the fact that the level drops to three feet in the 20-foot reservoir, the situation is serious. What could happen with such a low supply of water in event of a major fire is too obvious.

It may be that the water problem here will continue for a number of years. In fact, the problem is not only continuing but, particularly if it is deemed unwise to provide facilities capable of coping fully with the peak summer demand for water. Certainly the summer water problem is going to be around for awhile.

Only a few years ago, water pressure was so low that it was difficult to get a drink of water. Most citizens weathered the low pressure stage in good humor, referring to themselves as "night riders," as they stayed up a good portion of the night, turning on lawn green and flowers, and blowing with alternate-night sprinkling.

Perhaps the problem will be alleviated when Twin Falls finally changes sources of water from Snake river to wells, as has been mentioned several times. It may be that the change will solve the problem.

One glaring fault in the water system for years has been the practice of filtering and treating water only once completely, naturally, duplicate distribution systems would be so costly as to be virtually impossible. However, some portions of the city still use irrigation water from ditches and the city's good supply of water shares in the Twin Falls Canal company.

Perhaps when the city's domestic water source is switched to wells, some provision could be made for use of the city's irrigation water rights. There's a possibility a system of small covered ditches could be expanded in a big way. If such a plan did prove to be feasible, it could take a tremendous seasonal load off the culinary water distribution system.

For this summer and maybe several more summers, lawn "night riders" may be evident throughout the city as residents stretch sprinkling time as much as possible. Use of alternate-night sprinkling is determined to a large extent by the type of weather. And if the weather gets too hot, resulting in an impossible demand, then brown laws may result. Twin Falls already has been enacted lawn sprinkling may be banned in event of such an emergency. This would eliminate even the "night riders."

MANY PEOPLE INTERESTED

Undoubtedly many people will be interested in the statement by Chairman William L. Cary of the securities and exchange commission that there is evidence of substantial manipulation in stock sales. Not too many years ago, only a handful of people would have been concerned, but a large percentage of people have a monetary interest in the stock market these days.

This increased interest in stocks has resulted in several revisions of the Times-News market quotations to serve readers and give a better picture of the market. Also, many people are interested in what Chairman Cary terms substantial manipulation.

Along with increased interest in stocks, there has developed the investment trust, designed to cater to the small investor. By purchasing stock in the trust, he permits the trust to use his money to invest in stocks. These trusts are individuals who may not have much money involved, but thousands of small investors contributing to a trust make that trust one of the big factors in stock trading.

Perhaps the investment trusts aren't involved in the present problem, but their rapid increase in number has been enough to have a marked influence on the daily fluctuations of specific stocks. Large of this results in a rather peculiar situation. The small investor is interested in any situation of a stock and collectively, small investors will be strong enough to have made it possible to influence the market.

All the time many of the investing public believe their interests are being protected by the government, as pointed out by Rep. Edward R. Roybal. The C. C. C. stock market crash of 1929 is dim. C. C. C. stock market has been a failure. Just as America has been making a big bet on the money, many have voiced the belief "it can't happen again." Perhaps it can't. But a house subcommittee is investigating stock market practices to determine if new laws may be necessary to protect the small investor.

Meanwhile, the small investor will sit back and hope to count his profits, showing concern over the "manipulators" who may threaten his investment.

REINCARNATION

WASHINGTON—Active planning for federal and national general wartime controls over American banking, prices, wages, rents, business operations and the rationing of foods and other commodities is now being organized on the regional basis by office of civil and defense mobilization in Washington.

There is nothing particularly startling about this planning, and it is not intended to be anything more than a study of the problems that would be met in the event of a war. It is a study of the problems that would be met in the event of a war.

BRAZEN GERRYMANDERING—Since the Democrats usually control both house and senate, it would seem that this method would be advantageous to them. However, in the case of the current rigging of congressional districts on the basis of the 1960 census has resulted in several Republican seats in the House of Representatives.

It sounds like a jolly good thing—something that would be acceptable as an answer to the telephone. Just to name a few possibilities: the carillon-whistle, the towhee's "che-wee," the Carolina wren's tea-ke-tee, the robin's "cheer-cheer" and the crow's "caw-caw-caw."

SOVIET SPACE SECRECY—A comparison of the two space flights should give more satisfaction to the Americans than to the Russians. For in the Soviet case, the flight was shorter than the Russian, it was more closely watched. To the extent that human flight into space has been made, the American flight into space has been done more thoroughly than the Russian flight. Americans have done much more to further this cause.

"WASHINGTON CALLING" BY MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—A Japanese trade-mission now is in Peiping negotiating with communist officials about a general commercial relations between the two powerful Asian nations. The mission continues to begin a process of drawing together the political and economic cause of geography and history. Peiping has been an overgrown political dictatorship.

What, at my rate, is the impression left here this past week by the members of the Japanese mission accompanying Prime Minister Tanaka to Washington. There is no question at the present time of a Japanese trade mission to Washington. Some Japanese would like to see some formal agreement with the United States which could be done without damage to the status of the communist world.

The difficult and complicated question of China, with all the emotionalism it evokes, was largely present in the mind of the one who proved himself a master of political nuance. Shima served for three years in the embassy in Washington, returning to Tokyo in 1927 to become deputy foreign minister. He is the director of the office planning staff. His three years here left him in no doubt as to the nature of the situation in this country resting any change in the status of Red China.

What is happening in its part a consequence of Japan's swiftly growing industrial production, its expansion into new markets. Every time a trade union or a trade organization in the United States demands that Japan stop expanding its market, every time that Japan's industrial production is increased, it is not only the industrial union but also the Japanese people who are protesting to stop this expansion.

Peiping's attitude toward the Japanese trade mission is a reflection of the political situation in the country. It is a reflection of the political situation in the country. It is a reflection of the political situation in the country. It is a reflection of the political situation in the country.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD THOMAS
Editor
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

My recent recommendation of "The Doctor Says" to young men, eager for an opportunity to obtain professional training without leaving their home opportunities for marriage, child-bearing and domestic life, has been a most constructive comment.

The son, husband and father of three, he writes in his words, "a few letters" to the editor, "I'm a kid, but a stamped out model of a kid. I'm a kid, but a stamped out model of a kid. I'm a kid, but a stamped out model of a kid. I'm a kid, but a stamped out model of a kid."

"In other words, the education for a nursing career is fine. But I agree thoroughly with my correspondent. The salary figures he gives are, of course, for institutions and not for the home. The coin is the considerably high rate of $10 to $24 a day that is the prevailing scale paid by the hospitals and private out-patients."

Nationwide Program Started To Stress Use of Seat Belts

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—A step toward eliminating the nationwide program to persuade American automobile owners to use safety seat belts was launched today by the National Safety Council, the U. S. public health service and cooperating organizations. Dr. E. Vincent Askey, AMA president, praised the recent decision of major auto manufacturers to install basic safety belt hardware in the 1962 models of passenger cars.

"The chances are seven out of 10 that you will have an accident in the next five years. Seat belts are the best available insurance against death or the lingering tragedy of permanent injury."

"But a hospital emergency room on a busy week-end night would provide a lesson to anyone in doubt about the frightening waste caused by traffic accidents," Askey said.

George C. Stewart, executive vice president of the National Safety Council, estimated that 5,000 of 1960's 38,200 automobile deaths would have been prevented by the use of safety belts.

"Seat belts save lives in no longer a handy slogan but a proven fact," he said. "Day after day we receive reports of accidents in which drivers and passengers have been saved from death and injury because of this one basic safety device."

Also addressing a press conference at the Overcast Press club, was Dr. Luther Terry, surgeon general of the United States, who disclosed that all federal departments and agencies were "operating enthusiastically" in a campaign to install safety belts in all government-owned vehicles.

"If you drive a car," Terry said,

AMA Rejects Nevada City For Meeting

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—An spirited wrangle over the "image" presented to the public by the American Medical Association, its policy-making body today rejected Las Vegas as the site for its 1963 winter meeting and substituted Portland, Ore.

The question of the propriety of medicine in a town associated with gambling and other possibly questionable pursuits, came up in the AMA house of delegates when it considered a report recommending the Nevada city as the place for the November, 1963, meeting.

There were protests from the floor that the site was "beneath the dignity of this body" and that "this body is best with enough criticism right now" and that "Las Vegas at this time does not offer the image with which this body wants to associate itself."

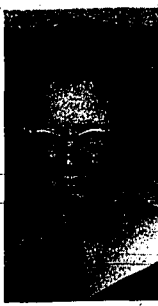

A delegate from Nevada advised the house to "face facts—the Zastor bunny does not wave the flag on Easter, nor does Santa Claus come down the chimney on Christmas."

He said 34 states have legalized gambling and added that the National Conference of Catholic Women, "11,000 strong," held a convention in Las Vegas without objection.

The delegates, by voice vote, decided to substitute Portland for Las Vegas.

The only state in the union that has a legal season for hunting with a crossbow is Arkansas.

Doctor Avers Boredom Now No. 1 Enemy

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—A Harvard doctor checking the nation's mental and emotional health today declared: "The great sickness of our age is aimlessness, boredom, and lack of meaning and purpose in living.

We can be enthralled by the speed age but almost willfully try to avoid learning how to understand and control our lives," said Dr. Dana L. Farnsworth, director of Harvard university health services and staff physician at Massachusetts General hospital, Boston.

"Medicine has made enormous strides in alleviating pain and prolonging life," he said.

Now an expanded task for doctors is to give "meaning to the life," Farnsworth told the American Medical Association's 110th annual meeting.

To endure their troubles, said Farnsworth, people need "feelings of basic confidence in one's self and others, a sense of competence and a basic faith that the whole human situation is worthwhile."

Rayburn, recording secretary; Mrs. Christine Holteson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Soper, treasurer, and Mrs. V. H. Leisher, director.

Rolling Tire Is Cause of Mishap

SHOSHONE, June 28—Three automobiles were involved in an accident caused by a rolling tire from one of the vehicles at 4:50 p. m. Monday one-half mile north of Shoshone on highway 53.

Damage was set at $300 each to the 1960 Chevrolet, driven by Marjorie Moreshouse, Sun Valley, and owned by Larry Myers, and the 1960 Nash Rambler owned and driven by Stanford E. Ward, Concord, Calif.

The tire from a 1957 Chevrolet and one-half ton truck belonging to the bureau of land management, came off and rolled first into one car and then the other. The fronts of both cars were damaged.

Ward was traveling south, behind the government truck which lost the wheel. The Chevrolet was going north.

Neither of the two drivers was injured nor was John Asplund, Gooding, driver of the truck. There was no other damage on the truck, report Sheriff Thomas Conner and Deputy Norman Draper.

The first motion picture reel copyrighted in the U. S. was "Fred Ott's Snace" in 1894.

No wonder the English keep so cool!

(mix Gordon's Gin in a tall, iced drink—and you will, too!)

The English are not easily fazed, even by summer heat. This national talent was given a cheerful accompaniment in 1769 when Alexander Gordon introduced his remarkable gin. The Gordon's you drink today harks back to his original formula, because one does not tamper with gin of such distinctive dryness and flavour. Try it soon in a tangy Gin & Tonic or Tom Collins. You'll see why, summer and winter, Gordon's Gin is the biggest seller in England, America, and indeed—the world!

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Many families find themselves in new neighborhoods, strange in an environment to which they must adjust. This often seems hardest on the children who have had to change schools and their companions. It is they, the parents make the first consideration; parents find a school easily enough, and usually a church within easy distance. But what about the doctor?

Few families that have children of pre-school or elementary school-age will escape the need for medical help; in a strange neighborhood they are bound to be at least a while to where to find the good doctor whose acquaintance they want to make before the hour of need. The best way to seek at the hospital. When that is not convenient or possible, the American Medical Association whose address is in the telephone book will always send you at least three names of physicians they approve. The selection then is up to the head of the family.

Neighbors are always willing to help out here but the nurses are the ones mentioned above. Since people have different opinions about people and often prejudices as well, best to ask the authorities of the matter. Of course, the children will need the services of a dentist.

Which Is Best? Shopping Trips Daily, by Week

When it comes to food buying, which is more efficient—a weekly trip to the supermarket for quantity buying, or daily, on-the-spot purchases geared to the left-over situation, and the arrival of an unexpected dinner guest?

Young marrieds who have tried both approaches hedge.

It depends, first of all, on the availability of markets. City dwellers, with stores of all types right around the corner find it just as easy to shop nearly every day. Their city refrigerators and storage space are likely to be limited, too, so they don't want to stock up far in advance.

The wife who is miles from the nearest supermarket, or the girl who doesn't have the car every day, finds the weekly trip a better way to get the marketing done all at once.

Working wives, too, lean to Saturday morning shopping, since they're usually too tired at the end of an office day to stop and shop before cooking the evening meal.

The amount of entertaining a couple plans comes into the picture, too. If the two are of the gregarious type that says "come on over for supper" at the last minute, the ladies—and the cooks—must be prepared. Those who schedule parties well in advance have time to plan a company meal—and enjoy the left-overs next day.

But even the last-minute shopper will do well to plan, at least mentally, what is to be the main course each night of the week. Otherwise, she's too likely to buy week-end cook food which is hard on the budget.

EARLY BIRDS

Wedding guests should arrive at the church well before the appointed hour, both as a matter of courtesy and to get choice aisle seats. Ushers should be on hand as early as needed to mark reserved pews with ribbons and great guests.

Plans Shaped on Minors, Bonuses, Future Expansion

CHICAGO, June 28 (AP)—The two major baseball leagues, in a surprisingly short 80-minute meeting Tuesday shaped an over-all program to streamline the minors, squelch excessive bonuses and grid for future expansion. Meanwhile, the National league contemplated itself on a "slide" formula for supplying talent to its two new 1962 members, New York and Houston.

Commissioner Ford Frick, reviewing the joint session for the press, said it would result in 10 years "to put our house in order," but predicted such problems as extravagant bonuses to un-bearably youths and organization. Frick also announced the West Coast circuit was awarded the 1962 All-Star game, stating an intention to continue the new practice of holding two All-Star games within a single season will be made at a December meeting of owners and player representatives.

Frick said he will appoint a committee shortly to deal with the bonus problem. He said that for years has annoyed all owners but yet failed to determine from shelling out $100,000 payments for high school and college stars.

The committee will include two owners and four general managers from each league.

Frick said, concerning the minors, he wanted a plan to guarantee enough talent to supply talent to 20 major league clubs.

One prominent baseball official said 14 or so minor leagues might be sufficient, including two each in the A-A, AA and AAA levels, four class B leagues and four at the class C level.

With such a streamlined minor league step, Frick indicated the majors will have to provide sound organization, support and incentive.

As for expansion beyond the two 10-team leagues which will be operative by 1962, Frick said, "we owners agreed, if and when we expand further, it should work together rather than gallop around on their own." Right now, he indicated, the majors should concentrate on bolstering the new 10-team leagues.

At 1 a.m. Tuesday the National league unanimously approved a "slide" formula for grading its two fresh contenders as a manner he claimed was an improvement over the American league's 1961 sliding of Washington and Los Angeles. The National league plans to allow a $50,000 to $125,000 price range against the American league's $100,000 per-player price tag.

Under the National league compromise plan, New York and Houston must buy 20 players from the eight old clubs, but can go as high as 25.

HOMER CAPS UPRISING SEATTLE, June 28 (AP)—Bob Farley's bases-loaded homer capped a six-run uprising for the Tacoma Giants in the second inning of Tuesday night and led them to a 6-3 victory over Seattle.

Texan Loses Match, Wins People's Heart

WIMBLEDON, England, June 28 (AP)—Fourteen American men and four women Tuesday advanced into the second round of the Wimbledon Lawn Tennis championships on Sunday's highlights by the fighting play of little Nancy Richey. She lost her match but won Wimbledon's heart.

Miss Richey, a tiny 19-year-old Texan with a heart nearly as big as the state, went on the center court against the second-seeded Australian, Margaret Smith.

The sellout crowd of 14,000 roared and applauded the two girls, both making their first appearance at Wimbledon. Nancy, poker-faced and wearing a lime-peaked eyeshade, took the first set—and an upset looked in the making.

But the always Australian girl prevailed 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, over the girl from San Angelo.

Charles (Chuck) McKinley and Karen Hantler, the only two seeded Americans, breezed through their matches to spearhead the American challenge.

McKinley, 20, St. Louis, used all his power to defeat Italian Davis, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

Director Outlines Wildlife Program

BOISE, June 28 (AP)—The fish and game department said Tuesday that Idaho's fish and birds will be more accessible to sportsmen with completion of a $100,000 wildlife restoration program.

The department director Ross Leonard said the program is designed to provide public access to streams and lakes during the next year. He said it is part of a long-range plan to obtain land for public use through perpetual easement, lease or outright purchase.

Funds also will be used, he said, to develop the access area by building fences, roads, parking areas, foot bridges, sanitary facilities and planting trees, shrubs and grass.

The University of Buffalo plans to increase the seating capacity of its football stadium this year from 10,280 to 16,280.

Refusal of Eligible AAU Stars to Make Trip May Cost U.S. Victory

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—The refusal of seven eligible to make the trip for Olympic-style track and field meets against the Soviet Union, West Germany, England and Poland next month could cost the United States at least one victory in Moscow, AAU officials conceded today.

"It's disappointing not to be able to send our strongest team abroad," said Pinsky Sobor, chief of the track and field committee. "Actually, the team will not suffer for much except in the hammer throw."

Most of them complained that they couldn't take time off from their jobs unless they had some means of being reimbursed. Morris and O'Brien offered to go only to the Moscow meet. Connolly didn't like the way the last meet in Moscow was run.

The first and second place finishers in the national championships last week-end all were of foreign origin.

But Ron Morris, the pole vaulter; Dallas Long and Parry O'Brien, 1-2 in the shotput; Harold Connolly and Al Hall, 1-2 in the hammer throw, and Al Oerter and Rink Babka, 2-3 in the discus throw, "all refused to make the trip."

That most of these fellows couldn't go," said Sobor. "But on the other hand their absence opens the door for some of our promising youngsters to acquire the international experience that makes champions. All in all, it's a strong team."

Multiple Hook Prohibited in Salmon River

BOISE, June 28 (AP)—Use of multiple hooks is prohibited in the south fork of the Salmon river and its tributaries, the Idaho Fish and Game department reminded Monday in holding that those waters will be open July 15 to chilean salmon fishing.

Director Ross Leonard said there is one change from last year's regulations covering the multiple hook. Last year the regulation was against use of two or more hooks over 5/16th of an inch from any point to hold down the hook.

This year only single hooks may be used and they may be up to one-half inch from point to shank in size.

Leonard said the ban on multiple hooks applies only to the south fork and its tributaries. These include popular salmon fishing streams, such as the Beech river, the east fork of the south fork and Johnson creek. These waters are closed to salmon fishing until July 15 to protect the early part of the spawning run.

before Don Lee quelled the Twins. Bob Allison provoked the fire with his 13th homer and second grand slam of the season in the sixth inning.

The Twins won the opener of the twin-nighter when Zoie Verneble blooped a single with the bases loaded in the eighth inning, wiping out a Boston lead of 3-4.

Mary Thronberry, Jim Gentile and Ron Hansen hit home runs for Baltimore as the Orioles defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 5-3 and 7-2.

Thronberry, ex-A's first baseman, blasted a pair of circuit swells—his ninth and tenth—in the first game, a 430-foot smash in the fifth inning and another in the seventh. He also drove in a link in a scoring run with a single.

Gentile smacked a pair of two-run homers in the second game, together with a scoring single, gave him five RBIs for the night and a season total of 64.

Outfielder Jerry Lewis Thomas of the Los Angeles Angels prefers to be called Lee.

The retired baseball executive, 76, was reported resting comfortably at a hospital. He had been in Canada at his private fishing island for several weeks with some friends.

Angered Dark Injures Self After Defeat

PHILADELPHIA, June 28 (AP)—Pitcher Al Dark admitted today that he got a severe rash on the index finger of his right hand when he threw a shot "sinker" after the San Francisco Giants' 1-0 Monday night loss to the Philadelphia Phillies.

In a game like this you gotta work off steam somehow," said the usually quiet-minded Dark, who had several stitches taken from the wound. "I was the first one to the clubhouse and I picked up a metal stool and flung it across the room."

Dark kept the Giants' dressing room locked for 10 minutes after the defeat and was pale-faced and visibly shaken when reporters entered the room. His right hand was dripping with blood but Dark at first attempted to laugh off the injury with the explanation that he caught it on a wire screen leading from the door to the clubhouse.

Dark, normally quiet and rarely given to outbursts, was bitter because the Giants left 12 runners on base during their last defeat, which stopped them in the seventh inning.

Fishing Improves In Magic Valley Lakes, Streams

Fishing in Magic Valley's reservoirs and lakes has picked up in the last week and reports from conservation officers indicate fishing in some of the area streams is excellent. Roseworth reservoir is still listed as "poor" but fishing for trout at Salmon reservoir is reported slow. Fishing from boats has been excellent at the upper end of Little Wood reservoir; however boat launching is becoming difficult and is limited to small boats.

Lake Walcott has picked up with trout taking from two and one-half to four-pound rainbow. Fishing has been excellent in Fish creek below the reservoir and in Big Wood river above Ketchikan. Little Wood river above the Richfield area and Big Wood below Magic dam are reported good early morning and late evening with dry flies.

Fishing in the Hester area and Mastic river has also picked up since the week-end. Bass fishing at Hog Island near Hester was reported good and the beaver ponds in the Bostetter area are still producing good catches, as is Cottonwood creek. Salmon fishing has been excellent at Marsh creek and at the upper middle fork of the Salmon. Salmon fishing in the Stanley area has been fair to good.

Streams in the Cassia area are scheduled for restocking this week.

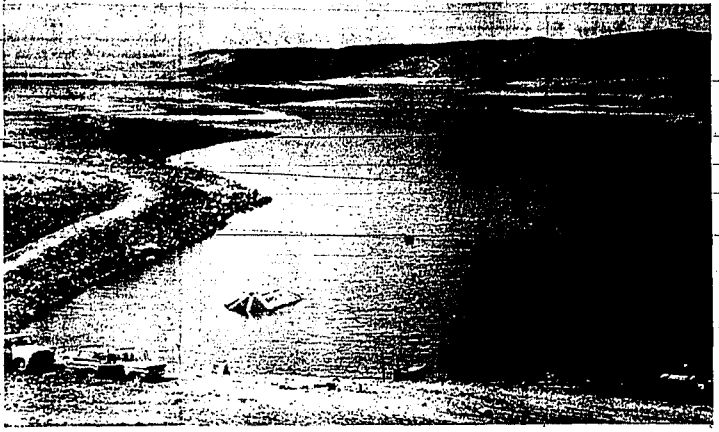

Braves Win, Musial Bats 10,000th Time

By The Associated Press
The Atlanta Braves' slugger, Eddie Mathews, blasted a "home run" leading the 7-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday night.
It was the only bright spot in the Redbirds' limp showing was the performance of Stan Musial, who collected his 10,000th hit at bat by hitting a double.
Only four players in history, Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Hank Wagner and Walter (Rabbit) Masterson, have gone over the 10,000 mark in hits.
Jerry Lynch, Cincinnati's fourth straight successive pinch hitter, was used in the eighth inning to clinch a five-run, seventh-inning rally that gave the Reds an up-10-6 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.
It was the National League leader in hits in the last 10 games.
The Reds had two on and two out in the seventh when veteran Gus Bell blasted a run-scoring pinch single. Gory, Cyprien also struck a pinch single, good for the second run.
Rookie catcher John Edwards, a quiet smitzer for Jerry Zimmerman, drew a base-filling walk.
"The walk set the stage for Jerry Lynch's base-clearing three-bagger, the pinch hitter's fourth extra base hit. Lynch has 10 hits in 23 times at bat as a pinch batter for the season thus far.
The San Francisco Giants overwhelmed the Philadelphia Phillies 12-5 as Dunn Mastaler held them to four hits and no runs through eight innings. The Phillis knocked him out of the game with a five-run ninth-inning rally.
The Giants scored a run in the first inning off John Bushardt and then kept piling it on as Marichal handcuffed the Phillies until the ninth when he needed help from Stu Miller.
Orlando Cepeda and two singles and a double to pace the Giants' 13-hit attack while Tom Haller drove in three runs with a double and single and Chuck Hiller, Willie Mays and Willie McCovey all helped themselves to a pair of safeties.
The Los Angeles Dodgers and the Pittsburgh Pirates pounded out a total of 99 hits Tuesday night and the Dodgers emerged from the free-swinging contest with a 6-5 victory.
John Roseboro sparked the Dodgers' 10-hit attack with three singles and a sacrifice fly and three runs-batted-in. Jim Gilliam also singled three times.
The Pirates collected 14 hits, but couldn't catch the Dodgers in the run department. Roberto Clemente batted out four singles for the Buccos.

Conservation officers Stan Larson and Fred Edwards lead the barrier net for installation at Magic reservoir to keep planted fish from going out of the reservoir and being lost when water drops. (Staff engraving)

Officers Install Net Barrier at Magic Reservoir to Conserve Fish

Barrier net installed recently at the Magic reservoir outlet to screen fish from getting out of the reservoir. The net, specially constructed of nylon mesh, three-fourths of an inch square, is 23 feet long and 22 feet deep. The net is floated on the surface of the water and held in place by a series of anchors which raise or lower according to the water level. A small earth cofferdam across the tunnel outlet holds back about 500 acre-feet of water which is sufficient to sustain fish. Some 1,225,000 rainbow troutlings, two to four inches, were planted in the reservoir this spring. Some of these are already more than seven inches long. (Staff engraving)

Musial Tells Secret Of Homerun Hitters

NEW YORK, June 28 (UPI)—The secret of the modern homerun hitters is out at last—it's the bat and not the ball that's responsible for the over-increasing productivity of major league sluggers. The authority for this news is no less an expert than Stan Musial, the National League's greatest hitter since Rogers Hornsby and a seven-time batting champion. Now 40 and nearing the end of his record-filled career, Musial gave his views on the evolution in the art of hitting during the last 20 years and in customary Musial fashion his opinions made sense.
"Of course the ball is lively," said Musial, "but the big change in the game during my career has been in the bats, not the ball."
According to Musial, a whole new concept of long-ball hitting is behind the change—a change which has produced a new crop of 200 and 200 homerun hitters. Foremost among these this season is the Yankee's Roger Maris who is hitting homeruns at the record Ruthian pace despite an average in the 20's.
"Other examples of high homerun hitting but low average wallpapers are Rocky Colavito of the Detroit Tigers (18 homers and a .273 average), Bob Allison of the Minnesota Twins (12 and .241), Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants (11 and .249) and numerous others."
"When I broke in it was fashionable for the homerun hitters to swing thick, heavy bats weighing in 38 to 40 ounces and in some instances all the way up to 44 or even 48 ounces," explained Musial. From this idea developed that the speed of the bat at the moment of contact with the ball was the key to long distance hitting and the result was the production of the new light, tapered bats with stumpy handles and most of er hits when they don't connect with the thickest part of the bat." Musial pointed out that this also is the reason for the remarkable success pitchers have with the "slider." The slider is scuffed at by some experts as a "hided curve" because it doesn't have the full break of the standard curve.

"The slider is perfectly suited for the modern pitcher because it breaks sharply, although not too far," said Musial. "In other words, it breaks just enough so that the hitter can't get the heavy end of the bat on it and consequently taps out weak grounders or easy infield pops when he connects with the slender wood nearer the handle."

CHAMPIONS DEFEATED
GONZALEZ, June 28 (UP)—The Hickam Air Force Base Flyers defeated the NCAA champions from the University of Southern California 4-2 last night in a baseball game at wind swept Hickam stadium.
received all but final approval to promote the fight, probably in the fall.
The Massachusetts boxing commission said that under its rules a check must be made of the corporation's members to determine if they are citizens and residents of the commonwealth.
Chairman Herman Greenberg said "on receipt of a report of this investigation the license will be granted, or not granted."
The directors are Mrs. Lawrence (Godout) her husband and her brother, Daniel E. Carmody, all Lynn.
Del Rice of the Los Angeles Angels formerly played "professional basketball with the Rochester Royals of the old National Basketball League. He was with them five seasons.

U. S. Grange Chief Slated Here July 8

Herschel D. Newson of Indiana, 15th master of the National Grange, will arrive in Twin Falls July 7 for a noon luncheon sponsored by local granges at the Rogerson hotel. The press is invited. At 2 p.m. he will speak at a Grange meeting for all Grange members at the Filer Grange hall. The public is invited to a discussion of national farm legislation at 4 p.m. July 8 at the Filer high school auditorium.

Newson has been influential in forming and passing national farm legislation, especially the Freeman-Kennedy farm bill.

The Filer and Twin Falls visit is being made to compensate for a planned February visit to the area which was called off when Newson missed plane connections in Salt Lake City.

Humor Eases Press Meet's Somber Tone

WASHINGTON, June 28 (AP)—President Kennedy set a somber tone at his news conference today in discussing U. S.-Soviet relations but lightened it with flashes of humor on less serious topics.

Newsmen were solemn as Kennedy talked about the Russian threat to Berlin, the discouraging stalemate in nuclear test ban talks, Soviet-American economic competition and the Cuban exiles-for-prisoners deal.

But the mood brightening the state-department auditorium was dispelled for a moment when a newsmen told the President—just recovering from a back ailment and a virus infection—that "We would like to hear you say how you are feeling now." The emphasis was on the first "you."

"Very well, very well," the President answered with a big smile. "I am feeling better even than Pierre Salinger."

Salinger, the President's press secretary, smiled from his chair several feet away.

Enter Meet

WENDELL, June 28—Judging teams of the Wendell Future Farmers of America chapter and their adviser, Roy Irons, left Sunday to participate in the state FFA judging meet.

Chapter members making the trip include Charles Rich, Robert Schiffer, Rollin Park, Ed Jones, Ronald Bojan, Richard Post and Glen DeFew. They plan to return Friday.

Food Aid Offered To East Germany

BONN, Germany, June 28 (AP)—West Germany has offered to ship food to communist East Germany to help alleviate a serious food shortage, the government said yesterday.

A government spokesman said the international trade office, created to negotiate trade pacts between the two Germanys, is negotiating with the reds. No figures on the offer were given.

Similar offers made in the past have always been rejected by East Germany.

"Now in retirement we enjoy an electrically-heated home."
—E. B. Snow, Council, Idaho

"Heat was free in our ranching days, though it took a little work. Then, when we first moved to town, we burned coal. Today, in retirement, we have thermostat-controlled electric heat plus all the other benefits of a live better electrically Gold Medalion home.

"Electricity has done much to make life easier and more enjoyable. We especially appreciate the warmth and convenience of electric heat and the handy kitchen that's easy to use and keep clean. Total electric living is ideal for retired people."

Water Deficit Expected for Rupert Areas

RUPERT, June 28—Officials of the bureau of reclamation and the Minidoka irrigation district reported today that a deficit of some 58,148 acre feet in the water supply for the area is expected this week.

Cold weather during the month of August and the current hot, dry spell is causing an abnormally high demand, according to William Creason, manager of the irrigation district.

At present, the district has some 336,172 acre feet available in storage. In addition to the natural flow of about 90,000 acre feet, giving a total of more than 446,000 acre feet for the season.

According to Creason, 150,000 acre feet had been used prior to June 1. Last year's figures show some 335,000 acre feet used from June 20 until the end of the irrigation season, he said.

A number of conservation measures are being considered by the board of directors, Creason said, adding that all farmers are urged to use the best possible flow and to conserve it.

Farmers were cautioned against any unnecessary fall seeding which would require a lot of water, and the board recommended that land not be watered after the harvest as is sometimes done. Creason said that full cooperation with the ditch riders would also be a help in conserving water.

Board members expect that a reduction will be necessary, probably during August, in an effort to conserve water, and, at the same time, to help farmers to produce the best crop possible.

Hagerman Slates Swimming Event

HAGERMAN, June 28—Arrangements have been made for Hagerman youngsters at the Gooding pool July 31 through Aug. 11.

Mrs. Rex McKinley, chairman, states it will be charged this year to help defray costs of the program and maintenance and operation of the pool. There also will be a $1-a-week fee for bus transportation to Gooding.

A Junior Lifesaving course will be held from 5 to 7 p. m. July 3 through 14. Participants must be 12 years of age or over, have a Red Cross swimmer's card or be able to pass a preliminary test. Anyone interested in the lifesaving course should contact Mrs. McKinley before 9 a. m. or in the evening.

A car pool will be formed as bus transportation will not be furnished. A senior lifesaving course is planned July 17-23 from 3 to 7 p. m. There is no fee for the lifesaving courses.

Warnings of Shady Deals Issued Here

ANSEL VALLEY people are being "warned" of their savings by fast-talking salesman, according to William F. Gault, secretary-manager of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce before signing any such contracts.

Primarily known as several dental technician's correspondence schools from San Diego, Calif., and Tennessee and a roofing and siding company from Salt Lake City, Utah, these schools and the company have not been registered, as prescribed by law, with the state board of education. Gault noted.

A Twin Falls girl signed a contract with a dental technician's school after the salesman had told her that new dentists were moving to Twin Falls in the fall and technicians would be needed. The girl signed the contract promising to pay $405 dollars, when she could have taken a similar course at Twin Falls Business college for a cost of $75. This case has been referred to the state attorney general.

An elderly lady living on a pension signed a contract with a roofing company at price considerably more than local prices. The salesman alleged to represent a multi-million dollar Salt Lake City firm covering several states.

Light Olympia Beer enriches the good and good companionship of active Westerners. The rare good taste of Olympia never changes because the most priceless ingredient never changes: the naturally perfect brewing water that flows cold and pure from Olympia's famous artesian wells. That's why we say: "It's the Water"
