

U. N. LEADER KILLED IN AFRICAN AIR CRASH

Adenauer Future Left In Doubt by Election Held in West Germany

BONN, Germany, Sept. 18 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, deprived by Sunday's parliamentary elections of the majority which permitted him to rule Germany with an iron hand for 12 years, rejected today any thought of coalition with the powerful Socialists. The 85-year-old chancellor, his commanding authority now in doubt, told a news conference "I am confident that his foreign policy will be continued in the light of the current deep world crisis over Berlin, regardless of the structure of the new government."

No Control, Pilot Shoots; Crash Toll 37

CHICAGO, Sept. 18 (AP)—A top official said today a pilot's about "no control" test flight explains the mystery of the crash of an Electra prop-jet which killed 37 persons. A tape recorder at the O'Hare airport showed the pilot, Capt. Joseph J. Siro, shouting "no control" as the plane crashed into a field about 10 miles from the airport. The plane had taken off from O'Hare only a minute earlier.

Asked whether a propeller or engine failure could have caused the crash, the official said "nothing so far has shown any sign of structural failure."

He added that he had discovered the reason why had occurred "a type of airplane which is not yet in service since 1952."

The crash was the sixth fatal accident involving the Electra prop-jet since it was introduced in 1952.

Rupert Boy, 14, Is Shot In Accident

RUPERT, Sept. 18 (AP)—Michael Rupert, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Valdes, Rupert, is in "satisfactory" condition after being shot in the chest, where he was taken to the hospital for treatment of a bullet wound.

Valdes was target shooting on Snake river near the Montpelier bridge about five miles west of Rupert Sunday. He was shot when one of his three sons, Kirk, 13, was carrying a rifle and the rifle he was carrying discharged. Two other youths, Kim, 15, and Donald, 16, were with Valdes and his wife.

Discoverer XXXI Placed in Orbit

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—The 25-foot-long Discoverer satellite, the 31st of its family to orbit successfully, today was sent into orbit at 18,000 miles an hour.

Discoverer XXXI was first launched yesterday (at 8:01 EDT), and the air force announced an hour and 45 minutes that it had attained orbit around the globe.

Vote YES Tuesday

Qualified voting property owners go to the polls in Twin Falls school district Tuesday to decide if bonds shall be issued in the amount of $1,235,000 for needed improvements. High on the priority list for the funds is elimination of fire hazards at Lincoln school and the high school. Other projects to be financed through the bond issue are construction of a second junior high school building to include space for mentally retarded children and cerebral palsy students and an addition to the high school.

There can be no argument about the need to eliminate fire hazards. No citizen, whether a parent or not, can condone conditions in a school building that could lead to a major tragedy.

Overcrowding at the junior-high school is painfully obvious. The building is jammed with the largest enrollment of any junior high school in Idaho. Besides alleviating overcrowding and the hazards that accompany it, the second junior high school building would include special classrooms for mentally retarded pupils and cerebral palsy students. The latter presently attend school in the old Lincoln building, a dilapidated and totally inadequate building, complete with its own fire hazards.

Expansion needs at the high school result merely from growth of the community. The building has a rated capacity of about 1,200 students; roughly equivalent to the present enrollment.

Qualified voters are urged to vote "Yes" in Tuesday's bond election. Those who choose to vote "No" should keep in mind they are accepting the moral responsibility in event of any fire tragedy.

Winds Rack Gaming City; One Is Dead

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Sept. 18 (AP)—Landslides caused by strong winds from the Pacific today killed one person and injured others in the city's most destructive landslide.

Purpose of the bond issue is to finance a new junior high school; correct fire and sanitation hazards existing in the old junior high school building, Lincoln school and other school buildings in the district; construct a second junior high school building at the high school and furnish six classrooms at the new junior high school for handicapped and retarded children.

To be a qualified voter, a person must have been a resident of Idaho for six months preceding the election, and a resident of the school district for the past 30 days. Voters must be tax payers, or the wife or husband of such taxpayer. Contract purchasers of real estate, or real estate, or the wife or husband of such taxpayer.

It is not necessary to register for the election. A voter's ballot will be signed when a ballot is opened or real estate, or the wife or husband of such taxpayer.

Japan Storm Toll Is 175

TOKYO, Sept. 18 (AP)—Typhoon Nancy was blowing itself out on the North Pacific today after cutting a swath of death and destruction across Japan.

The human toll rose to 175 dead, 18 missing, 3,186 homeless. Crop damage was estimated at 10 million dollars and property loss at another 100 million dollars.

The storm struck a blow at the Japanese economy and the price of fish in Tokyo, which escaped the brunt of the wind, rose 20 percent.

An American spokesman said damage to U.S. military bases in Japan was light and no American were reported injured.

STRIKE AVERTED
 BOISE, Sept. 18 (AP)—Union bakers in several large Idaho grocery stores went to work under a new contract today, thus averting a strike averted by a three-year contract that calls for a 37-cent an hour package wage increase.

Hammaraskjold Is Killed on Trip to End Congo Fight

NYOLA, Northern Rhodesia, Sept. 18 (UPI and AP)—Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold was killed today in the crash of his United Nations plane in the Congo and the sole survivor said there were explosions aboard the craft shortly before it hit the ground. The 55-year-old Hammarskjold, on a mission to bring a cease-fire between the warring forces of Katanga and the warring forces of the United Nations, perished in the wreckage of his DC-8B on a mission to bring a cease-fire between the warring forces of Katanga and the warring forces of the United Nations.

President Moïse Tshombe, Hammarskjold was the second highest official of the world organization killed while trying to stop an armed clash. The deaths came 15 years and one day apart, and both men were Swedes.

Twelve of the 113 persons aboard the white-painted plane also died in the crash in a wood of young trees seven miles from here, but an unidentified United Nations security guard was pulled from the wreckage alive. The U. N. guard told rescuers that just before the plane crashed there was an explosion, followed by several smaller explosions.

The man said Hammarskjold at the last minute had wanted to land at Ndola, but was forced to land at Elizabethville where Hammarskjold's official plane was parked. The crash occurred on the 15th day of the four-day mission.

Operators of the plane said at Leopoldville that they were in the area of the crash. The plane was shot down by a jet of the Katanga army. Hammarskjold's plane was shot down by a jet of the Katanga army.

Death of Secretary Creates U.N. Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Sept. 18 (AP)—Dag Hammarskjold's death plunged the United Nations today into the deepest crisis of its history. It could even spell the beginning of the end of the U. N. as an effective world peace organization. The tragedy in the wilds of central Africa could hardly have happened at a less opportune moment. The U. N. is opening tomorrow its regular 16th general assembly sessions—under ominous storm clouds.

Hammarskjold, 54, was in the highest office of the administrative office of the U. N. His term was due to expire in 1962.

The death of the cool and courageous Swedish diplomat, for the past eight years, the secretary-general of the United Nations, was a tragedy and a stunning blow to the United Nations. Hammarskjold's death was a tragedy and a stunning blow to the United Nations.

Bean Growers 'Much Concerned' Over Rain

Will rain threatening Magic Valley bean growers and bean growers are "very much concerned." Twin Falls County Agent C. W. (Warren) Delight said today.

He reported that the amount of bean crops from Twin Falls through Rupert has been so low that no one knows what the extent of damage will be.

"All the growers who have been through are very much concerned," he said. "We got the bean out, but it's not good."

good last year, but two years ago we had an awful time getting them out because of the rain. It was pretty "obscure" rain now.

He noted that there are other crops in the Magic Valley that alfalfa may still in windows, that "it might be arrested" by rain.

"If we can get those bean through without having to move the windows, then there probably will be any loss," he said. "It's a very big year ago."

growers figured that every time a window of beans was moved, they lost one sack of beans per acre.

John Century, county manager for the Magic Valley Warehouse Association, said "it's a very big year ago."

"What we've got to look out for is what rain we have one week of rain. What rain we have one week of rain. What rain we have one week of rain."

Producers of Spuds Ask For Program

ROBERT Sept. 16—Some 200 potato growers voted to request a diversion program for the industry during a general meeting of the Magic Valley Potato Marketing association Friday night in the Minidoka County high school.

Those present represented growers from throughout southern Idaho. Dale Miller, local chairman, conducted the meeting.

Keith Thomas, Rupert, pointed out that a diversion program is needed in view of the fact that this fall's crop is expected to be 25 million hundred weight, compared to 20 million hundred weight last year and a ten year average of 21 million hundred weight. He pointed out that the proposed program would divert the surplus into non-competitive uses such as livestock feeding and production of starch and alcohol.

Robert Eaton, Portland, representing the potato division of the United States agricultural department, discussed present diversion plans. He said only two types of spuds—No. 2 and No. 3—were in demand for four ounces of starch, 14¢ a bushel for starch, and 1¢ a bushel for starch.

The price would be 60 cents per hundred weight effective until Dec. 31. From that date the price would be 50 cents and thereafter until the end of the season, 30 cents per hundred weight.

Dr. Young, St. Anthony, former chairman of the ABO, said in view of expected surplus to be marketed if prices are stabilized, every effort should be made to diversify the diversion rule by opening the grade and increasing the price.

Ted Cook, Bingham county ABO manager, and spokesman for the potato growers of that area, said the farmer should receive diversion payments direct; the price received by the grower should be 70 cents per bushel and weight for the potatoes; the grade of diversion be relaxed to include a U. S. standard No. 2 which is one and one-half inches in diameter; there be a reduction in payment until the program is made more permanent for the livestock feeders by allowing the drying of potatoes in order to insure him of a lasting supply throughout the feeding season.

Jack Gibbs, representing Caribou county, stated that his area was in accord with the program made by the Bingham county group.

Other groups stated that the diversion program was necessary, but they were not in favor of the same type as had existed previously. Idaho needs a new, more liberal program that will remove the crop surplus into non-food channels in an orderly and rapid manner, it was stressed.

Phillip Bara, Rupert farmer and chairman of the state ABO committee, explained his agency would handle any approved diversion program and that he would forward requests for implementation in the announced program to the proper USDA officials.

He urged growers to acquaint themselves with the program and pointed out county ABO managers could give any information desired.

Cassia Taxes To Be Hiked By $77,000

BULLEY, Sept. 18 — Cassia county will collect some $77,000 more in taxes this year as the result of a 3 1/2-mill levy increase approved by the county board of commissioners last week for county purposes.

The 3 1/2-mill increase in the rate will total 20 1/2 mills as compared to 17 mills last year. The 20 1/2 mill rate will be levied on an estimated assessed property valuation of $17,277,827 as compared to $14,972,000 last year. The amount collected from property taxes will thus be increased considerably.

The 3 1/2-mill increase in the rate will also mean a 10-mill boost in the current expense fund levy — now 7 1/2 mills, a doubling of the millage levied from two to four mills, a one-half-mill boost for fair exhibits — now one mill, and a new levy of one mill for revaluation of county property. A one-half-mill levy for weed eradication was dropped this year.

Frank B. Kearns, county clerk, said that taxes levied by villages, school and fire districts, the city of Burley and other taxing units will remain about the same as last year. Kearns said that the levy for joint class A and B districts will be one mill for school and one mill for fire. This will be higher at 6 1/2 mills this year.

He also said that all property in the county will be assessed a three-mill emergency levy for schools this year as a result of the state's County Contingency Act. The levy should be placed only on school districts.

The fire district court ruled that it should apply to all county property.

All property in the county will be assessed for fire protection with the addition of a 2 1/2-mill levy for the fire district which includes all property in the county that was not in the fire district.

The new one-mill levy for revaluation of the schools was made to comply with the state law that requires counties to revalue property.

Boise Bomb Studies Set By Students

MURTAUGH, Sept. 15.—A study bombing of Boise will be held Thursday in the Murtaugh high school auditorium.

Models of the radiation bling course are attempting to show and study the hazards of radioactive fallout to the Murtaugh area in the event Idaho's capital city is destroyed by nuclear war.

A simple chemical reaction, in plus 5, will be used to simulate the atomic explosion and the resulting white-powdered—radioactive fallout materials. The "explosion" will occur over a 10-foot square chart of the major cities in Idaho and a map will be used to simulate the prevailing winds which are expected to help disperse the fallout.

Students are expected to witness a mushrooming explosion with the presence of light and heat. This will occur over the new marked "Boise" and they will watch fallout distribute itself over parts of Idaho. The students will be required to make a number of observations and discuss by pupils raised by the teacher, Kenneth Borenstein.

T. F. Courthouse Heating System Change Studied

The Twin Falls county commission is investigating the possibility of overhauling the courthouse heating plant. Chairman Henry Crow announced Monday.

Crow explained all four floors of the courthouse and the basement are heated by a single, through-the-roof system. During winter months, this makes the upper floors uncomfortable warm, while the ground floor remains chilly, the official noted.

Preliminary estimates indicate expenditure of between $4,000 and $5,000 to install temperature gauges on each floor, Crow said. No final decision will be made until firmer estimates are available, he explained, since additional cost would postpone the renovation until the next budget year.

Maris Booms No. 58 to Blast Open 12th Inning Tie With Detroit Tigers

By The Associated Press
Roger Maris has 58 home runs and only two more in three decisions to tie Babe Ruth's all-time record of 60 set in 1927. Maris slammed No. 58 Sunday with Tony Kubek on base in the 12th inning at Detroit for a 6-4 New York Yankees victory over the Tigers. The Yanks, leading by 10 1/2 games, can clinch the American league pennant with any combination of victories or Detroit defeats adding up to two.

Old Pros Breath New Life Into NL Race

Bill Mumcey Still Boat Racing Champ

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Bill Mumcey has a date with President Kennedy today and he still has the nation's biggest boat race on his mind. Both are a result of Mumcey's cool victory Sunday in the Presidential boat race, the 100-mile, 100-horsepower race on the Potomac river. He won it by sweeping both eliminations and then finishing second in the final run with his Rolls-powered motorboat. The performance netted down the 1961 driving championship for Mumcey and top seasonal honors for his boat, the "Blue Bird." Mumcey is a member of the National Boat Racing Association, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary today. Mumcey, 32, is a former professional football player who played for the Chicago Bears and the New York Giants. He is now a coach at the University of Maryland. Mumcey's boat, the "Blue Bird," is a 10-foot, 10-horsepower motorboat. It is the fastest boat in the world, according to Mumcey. Mumcey's boat has won the Presidential boat race for the last three years. Mumcey's boat is the only one to have won the race for three consecutive years.
