3 Motorists Arrested for Traffic Case

Three motorists were arrested by Twin Falls police within a three-hour period for drunk driving between 10:35 and 1:35 a.m. Friday.

They were Pete D. Landholm, 22, 651 Second avenue north; John H. Criles, 35, 235 Van Buren street;

Landholm was arrested about 10:35 p.m. Thursday at the intersection of Second avenue west and Shoshone street after he drove through a red light at 55 miles per hour. Police chased him from the 600 block of Second avenue west to Shoshone street where he drove through a red light at more than 55 miles per hour recorded on radar equipment.

Officers said that between the 600 block of Second avenue west and Shoshone street, he drove his 1959 Pontiac "from one side of the road to the other" and "in the process passed cars on both sides of the street." Police said that when Landholm's car came to a stop at Shoshone street, he slumped over the steering wheel. It refused a blood alcohol test.

Landholm's past traffic violations include a previous drunk driving charge in December, 1959; a reckless charge in 1959, and four speeding charges.

Criles was arrested for drunk driving at 12:55 a.m. Friday at the intersection of Third street south. Police said they observed him driving south on Shoshone street and making a left turn onto McKinley avenue, "weaving to a great extent." He requested a blood alcohol test.

Criles was arrested for drunk driving at 1:35 a.m. Friday at the intersection of Second avenue west and Shoshone street. He was followed by police east on Shoshone street. He ran a red traffic light while making a turn from Shoshone street onto Second avenue east.

Uther was stopped at the intersection of Second avenue east and Second street east. Police said that when he got out of his car he "was staggering and could not walk a straight line." He also refused to take a blood alcohol test.

All three motorists in Twin Falls police court Friday morning.

Landholm, posted $250 bond and was released from the city jail. He requested preliminary hearing. Police Judge Dale J. Anderson will set a date for the hearing later.

Criles and Uther each was sentenced to 10 days in the city jail. Criles also was ordered that his drivers license was suspended for one year. The jail sentence was suspended upon payment of the fine.

Rupert—High today 62 to 65, low tonight 31 to 34.

Cumas prairie—High today 65 to 68, low tonight 21 to 24.

AGRICULTURAL WEATHER SUMMARY

Strong winds through the state Thursday reached 50 miles per hour in Magic Valley hampering field activities. The gusty winds from the west with a storm system have subsided as the pressure gradient has relaxed with the results that winds will be lighter through Saturday. Sugar beet seed bed preparations continue with 2,200 acres planted out of approximately 25,000 acres in Magic Valley. The strong dry winds have reduced surface soil moisture to the point where irrigation will be necessary for germination of newly planted beets. Heavy sugar beet seedling will continue next week.

NORTH IDAHO—Cloudy through tomorrow with occasional snow and snow in rain mixed in the mountains and rain at times lower elevations. High 39-50, low tonight 32-42.

Jerome Boy Named Star Area Farmer

JEROME, April 6—James Van Zandt received his state farmer degree and diploma at the Magic Valley convention held in Burley last week. He received the award and a watch, presented by the First Security bank, Friday.

The award is based on the applicant's vocational agriculture projects and activities that he has the best application of in this district. The youth's farming program consisted of 47 head of sheep, 43 of which were bred and produced 150 per cent lamb increase.

He also had six acres of beans and six of alfalfa. He has a registered Guernsey milk cow which he sold to buy more sheep.

He is president of the Jerome chapter and secretary of the North Magic Valley district.

Seventeen Jerome boys attended the convention. The district delegates served on the FFA representative committee. Jim Van Zandt was the first delegate for Thursday. He was selected secretary of the relations committee. This position was held by Kelly Jackson Friday.

Robert Hight and Dennis Reddick served as second delegates. They were on the award committee which went through applications for national chapter awards. Edgar Simmons of this district was the only delegate attending included Carroll Campbell, James Goemmer, Larry Coates, Rodney Trent, Bill Vernon, Vernon McMillan, Paul Dixon, Robin Spofford, Robert Ringer, Larry McAuley and Charles Chambers.

COMPLETES COURSE

Buhl, April 6—Second Lt. Ormond T. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Smith, 201 1/2th street, completed the officer orientation course at the U. S. Army armor school, Ft. Knox, Ky.

LDS Church Letter Found In Kentucky

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 6 (AP)—A letter from Mormon leader Brigham Young asking for religious asylum in Kentucky has been discovered here.

The letter, dated April 30, 1846, was addressed to Gov. William Owsley, but there was no evidence of any reply to it.

The letter was discovered by microfilm operators John Brooks-Smith and William J. Dennis in the Kentucky Historical Society vaults at the old state house building.

In the letter, Young noted that many members of the Mormon church were native Kentuckians.

"Many of our communications pointed Nauvoo have failed their destination," they stated.

Mormon pioneers were driven out of Ohio and Missouri and many were killed and their property was confiscated.

They settled in Illinois where they had a promise of full citizenship rights.

But bloodshed followed them there and the trouble was eliminated by the murder of Joseph Smith in 1844.

At that time, Nauvoo had 20,000 Mormons and was the largest city in Illinois.

Death Takes Area Woman

JEROME, April 6—Mrs. Alderia Fulkerson, 60, died Friday at St. Benedict's hospital of a short illness.

She was born April 10, 1881, at Emerson, Tex., and was married to Lewis Tillman May 15, 1900, at Chicago, Tex.

Survivors include her husband, five daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, Wash.; 21 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are pending at Wiley funeral home.

Autos Rerouted As Bridge Burns

JEROME, April 6—Traffic over state highway 29 had to be rerouted for 45 minutes Thursday afternoon after a canal bridge two and three-fourths of a mile west of Jerome was burned.

According to Don Rupert, Jerome rural fire chief, the fire was caused by burning weeds.

The fire was contained by a farmer or canal company employees had been burning the weeds.

The fire on the side of the highway, but the other side is only blackened. A state highway engineer from Shoshone and the highway, which crosses the dry canal, is safe for travel.

Fire vehicles to cross after the fire was a 7,200 pound truck, Deputy Sheriff Frank Mobley noted.

STORE MOVED

SHOSHONE, April 6—Shoshone Furniture store, with Vic Beazley proprietor, has moved to a new location on South rail street.

The building belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thurston and now a much larger space for display and new stock. Beazley has added to the store.

NEWS AROUND IDAHO

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—Removal of weight and speed restrictions on highways in southern and eastern Idaho was announced today to reduce damage to road surfaces during the spring breakup period.

The department said restrictions have been lifted from these routes: U. S. 91, Idaho Falls to Blaine; U. S. 101, Blinnham to Salmon; state 28, Mud Lake to Salmon; U. S. 91-191, Downey to Blinnham; Blinnham to county line, state 25, Blinnham to Blinnham; Blinnham to county line, state 25, Blinnham to Blinnham; state 27, Burley to Paul; U. S. 30N, Burley to Hays; U. S. 20, Blinnham to Shoshone; state 46, Gooding to Wendell; state 77, Declo to Rupert.

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—University of Idaho adult education courses will offer a six-week summer session, beginning June 11.

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—The army engineers notified Gov. Robert E. Smylie Thursday that work will start next week on strengthening a dike along the Kootenai river at Bonners Ferry.

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie announced appointments Thursday to two state agencies.

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—A new hearing date of April 11 was fixed today for the state board of education to show cause why it should not take a position on the proposed formation of a junior college district in Idaho Falls.

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—The two incumbent judges in Idaho's 10th judicial district filed nominating petitions in the secretary of state's office today, seeking election to the seats they now hold.

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—Idaho Telephone company was authorized today to obtain financing in the amount of $2 million.

Action Taken About Illegal Sale of Beer

MELVIN Bengochea, manager of all hotels in Twin Falls, was fined $50 and costs by Twin Falls Police Judge Dale Adamson Thursday for selling beer to a lady.

He was arrested by city police after Bonnie F. Hoskins, 18, Gooding, was arrested for being drunk in an auto at 1:30 a.m. Thursday at Main avenue and Seventh street east.

Miss Hoskins was fined $35 and costs by Judge Adamson Thursday afternoon on the drunk charge.

Adamson recommended that Bengochea's liquor license be suspended. The recommendation was given to the city commission for study.

Police Chief Roger Tucker said he has a recommendation to the commission that the bar be closed permanently.

He said he will police a bar located on the second floor of a building," he explained, adding that the bar has been a source of trouble for quite some time.

Direct Wire to Broadcast Meet

RUPERT, April 6—Rodney Hansen, president of the Milwaukie LDS stake, reports direct wire service will carry the special priesthood meeting here Saturday night at Salt Lake City as part of the General conference being held Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The entire program will be heard at the tabernacle in Rupert, beginning at 7 p.m. Saturday.

He pointed out that this was a direct wire service, and would not be broadcast on commercial radio or television as are other sessions of the conference.

Members of the Milwaukie stake are urged to attend this meeting, Hansen said. Most wards have canceled plans for Sunday school to allow members to watch sessions of conference on television.

Schofield Speaks To Rupert Group

RUPERT, April 6—Ralph Schofield, former vice consul to Venezuela, was guest speaker at the Wednesday meeting of the Rupert Rotary club held at Gus and Margie's cafe.

Schofield, the diplomate service in Venezuela and Uruguay, spoke on the conditions in those countries and related general experiences while there.

Program chairman for the meeting was Emil Oeck with Bob Balch introducing the speaker. Sam Osgood will be program chairman at the next meeting.

Couples Attend Funeral Services

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Crabtree, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ockerson returned from Oakland, Calif., Thursday after attending funeral services for their brother-in-law, Neil E. Nelson, a longtime Twin Falls resident, who died March 30 in an Oakland hospital after an extended illness.

Mr. Nelson moved to Twin Falls from Aurora, Neb., and worked here as a carpenter. He is survived by two sons, Donald Nelson and Raymond Nelson, and a daughter, Emma Lazzereschi, all of Oakland.

Mrs. Klinger Is Named to Board

GOODING, April 6—Mrs. M. V. Klinger was appointed as a member of the Gooding library board at the city council meeting this week. She fills the vacancy left by the resignation of Dr. W. E. Anderson.

The monthly police report showed 22 violations on the highway in fines during March. Building permits were approved for H. V. Crippen, 1000 Montana street, bedroom addition, $285; Claude Campbell, 600 Montana street, reshingle roof, $26; Harold E. Stevens, 208 1/2th avenue, west, alteration and repair of fire damage, $300, and to Alvin Correll, 708 Wyoming, remodeling and new entrance $100.

It was decided the summer sprinkling rates will be made available for water used during April.

Woman, 11 Men Pass Bar Exam

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—One woman and 11 men have completed a three-day state bar examination—conducted here by the Idaho state bar—officials announced Thursday.

They are Edward J. Lodge, Caldwell; Gerald L. Weston, Weiser; John A. O'Connell, Boise; Philip Marvin Becker, Gooding; Eugene L. McCoy, Emmett; Mrs. Beverly Sibbure Elder, Emmett; Franklin H. Powell, Boise; Jim Raymond Doolittle, Boise; Neil W. Schille, Idaho Falls; Jerome E. Park, St. Maries; Max Fred Parrish, Pocatello; and Morris M. Seydel, McCall.

FOR THE BIRDS

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—When the lights go out a week early on top of the Empire State building this spring, it will be strictly for the birds. The huge beacon is scheduled to be blacked out April 9, 10 and 11, a time usual to prevent migrating birds from crashing into the building.

Birds are attracted by lights while flying at night.

Woman Mayor Says Femininity Has Own Power

NEW YORK, April 6.—The mayor pro tem of Wilmington, N.C., shares an opinion widely held in the South—and probably the North too—that women should be gentle and feminine.

She is speaking at the annual meeting of the Miss America contest. They are soft and womanly, with good, old-fashioned Southern values. And when Mrs. Block says women shouldn't compete in a man's world.

Wilmington's mayor pro tem is a sharply bronzed mother of two and youthful-looking grandmother of one, Hannah Block. And when Mrs. Block says women shouldn't compete with men she means it with wide hazel-eyed sincerity.

The fact she beat a dozen men to be elected the first woman on the city council doesn't mean she was competitive about it. It was something that had to be done.

"You not a politician," she pointed out to the Southern voters. "You can be interested in good government and remain feminine."

"I've got my husband behind me. If I have any problems I talk them over with him. Industrialists flourish. My block has been energetic. Virginia-born wife active in community work since he brought her to Wilmington as a bride 26 years ago."

"The way I see it," she explains, "socializing is very nice but it has a philosophy of its own. It goes by without my doing something constructive. I hope I'm not considered a go-good-let's-get-it. The way I see it, you're doing for others, you're doing for yourself as well."

"She is raising her children—Mary Elizabeth now a teen-ager—and Franklin Lee, now a first lieutenant stationed at Ft. Bragg, N.C., and father of the grand children—Steven. Mrs. Block has a pet hobby of running a sort of one-woman charm school.

"She gets live in her home for an indefinite period of time, and learns everything from the social graces to good grooming and how to treat people diplomatically. She wouldn't think of charging them."

Annually, one of the girls is the state champion in the America contest, and this year Mrs. Block had a winner in Maria Ziesche Fletcher.

Fund-Raising Is Richfield Women's Topic

RICHFIELD, April 6.—Fund-raising for the Richfield public library is the main topic of the program by the Idaho Power company, and the United method of fund-raising is being demonstrated at the Richfield Women's club meeting at the home of Mrs. Agnes Powell and Mrs. Fannie Anderson.

Generous donations from community institutions and individuals in the past was considered sufficient by the club, sponsors of the library. Plans for a coffee and food sale will be withdrawn unless additional funds for library operation are needed.

Eight dollars was donated at the meeting.

Earl Haroldson, Twin Falls, and Lloyd Smith, Harlow, Idaho Power representatives, showed films on mental health. J. J. Lemmon was program chairman.

The club favored the United method of fund-raising. Mrs. Eugene Alexander, club secretary, chairman this year, spoke. Mrs. Agnes Powell reported for the month.

Mrs. Walter J. Stubbs received a Polynesian gift. Guests were Mrs. O. J. Smith, Mrs. M. J. Fridmore, Mrs. Max Blair, Mrs. Albert Pelley and Mrs. Frank Pope.

The May 2 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Seward. Officers will be elected.

Styles, Cutting Of Hair Shown

CASTLEFORD, April 6.—Mrs. Leslie Jackson gave a talk on hair-styling—and demonstrated hair-cutting for the members of the PAB Sewing club at the home of Mrs. James Cothran.

Program chairman was Mrs. James Wheeler.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James L. Group. A program will be given on alcohol-covering.

Food for Americans

By GAYNOR MADDOX

TEMPERANCE HABIT
In France, a wine producing and wine drinking country, parents try to explain to their children why they drink with moderation. They think that their teen-age boys and girls have a right to drink at home. The youthful French are encouraged to give parties where refreshments are served. They assist only of mild French fruit and wine bowls served with small sweet cookies.

"We have found that our growing boys and girls can practice moderation," said G. J. Dornier, a main of Bordeaux, France, father of six and grandfather of nine now visiting the United States.

"I find it frightening that no man, no young man, has ever allowed to drink his liquor and indulge in alcohol without any restraint—yes, children of otherwise intelligent and well-intentioned parents. There is the prospect of serious trouble in such undisciplined attitudes."

The cultured and widely traveled Edouard King, of the president of the Bordeaux Shippers' association, expressed concern about "bottle parties" where youngsters bring bottles of hard

Grand Guardian Visits Wendell Lodge at Meet

WENDELL, April 6.—Mrs. Wayne Woodward, Emmett, past grand guardian of the grand council, Job's Daughters, made her official visit to Wendell bethel No. 12.

A snad bar was served at the home of Mrs. Thomas Frith. Table decorations were purple, green and white. The centerpieces were of African violets and lily of the valley. A corsage of violets and lily of the valley was presented to the guest of honor by the hostess.

A school of instruction was conducted by the grand guardian for council members. Mrs. Woodward held a school of instruction for bethel members. A lunch number was presented a butterfly pin.

A banquet honoring Mrs. Woodward was served at the home of Mrs. Thomas Frith. The banquet was prepared and served by members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Frith, past grand guardian, Mrs. Marion and Mrs. Denton Adams, co-chairmen; Mrs. George Walsh, Mrs. John Austin; Mrs. Belle Quay, Mrs. Grace Urban and Mrs. Dallas Burch, cleanup, and Mrs. Henry Burton, table decorations were small rock gardens with violets, lily of the valley and "stepping stones" to happiness. The centerpieces were of violets.

Evelyn Wilson, junior princess, was in charge of decorations. Mrs. James Frith was in charge of the program.

Sharon Bumgum gave the welcoming address and introduced honored guests. She presented Mrs. Woodward with a corsage and Goble, associate grand guardian, with bouquets.

Mrs. James Frith was presented with a corsage by her daughter, Paula Lee, bethel princess.

The program included piano solos by Susan Orth and vocal solos by Della Ewell, accompanied by Miss Orth.

The regular bethel meeting was held, with more than 140 members and visiting members present. The fund-drive for the bethel hospital in Salt Lake City was a miniature Job's Daughters queen walking a silver coin path from the front to the back of the hall to "stepping stones to happiness."

The gift was presented by Gail Robertson and Joan Malis, grand princess and princess, respectively. An original poem was read by Miss Malis, telling the methods of raising money for the project. A gift certificate was presented to the grand princess by the honored queen.

The program included Fred Buskell, Boise, vice associate grand guardian; Bertie McCrecher, honored queen; and Mrs. Dora Peterson, Donna Pope, honored queen of Joppan bethel No. 43; Diane Peterson, G. O. R. Dornier, bethel princess; and Mrs. Evelyn Peterson and Charlotte Frith.

Judith Piper Is Lambert's Bride In Buhi Service

BUHI, April 6—Judith Ann Piper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Piper, Jerome, became the bride of Joseph Dee Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lambert, Stockton, Calif., March 18 at the First Presbyterian church, Buhi.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. B. Thomas, retired Presbyterian minister, Buhi, before a background of a gold Celtic cross flanked by matching candleabra holding white candles.

The altar was flanked by white satin bouquets entwined with fern, and two cathedral baskets of white gladioli. The bride's attire was marked with white satin bows and small wedding bells with yellow flower clappers.

The bride's bouquet of gladioli also decorated the piano.

Church decorations, reception assistants' corsages and men's accessories were furnished by Mrs. Elvin Noh, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Al Kramer, carriage driver.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin, accented with a stiff bodice, sweetheart neckline and elbow-length sleeves.

Lace panels accented the front of the skirt. The distressed bride veil oversat ended in a chapel train. Tiny satin buttons fastened the back of the dress.

Her six-tiered bouffant veil of French bridle illusion was held by a coronet of seed pearls, which was secured with a tear-drop in the front.

She wore small pearl earrings and carried a bouquet of cascading white phloxenopsis orchids and ivy leaves. She wore a handmade petaloid which her grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Miller, Buhi, had worn at her wedding 60 years ago.

Maid of honor for her sister was James Piper. She wore a yellow crystal charm gown designed with a sleeveless bodice, a low back with a bow, and a belted skirt.

She wore matching shoes, a silver and red veil and white elbow-length gloves. She carried a round tuft of white net trimmed with satin ribbon and yellow zinnias.

Bridesmaids were Margaret Noh, Buhi, and Sharon Hays, Gordon, Nebr. Miss Qualls, one of the brides, and Kay Sherry, Ingram. They were dressed identically to the maid of honor.

Flower girls, Kevin Hays, 5-year-old cousin of the bride, Gordon, Nebr.—He wore a dark tuxedo and carried the rings on a square satin pillow trimmed with lace.

Candlelighters were Dan Miracle and Carl Houelle, first cousins of the bridegroom; best man was Lou Westover, fraternal uncle of the bridegroom, all Logan, Utah.

Ushers were James Lambert, brother of the bridegroom, Stockton, Calif.; Ken Houelle and Sterling Larson, Twin Falls. Best woman was Mrs. Leonard Leith, Boise; Kay Sherry, sang the hymn "Happy Bride, Uncle of the Bride," "Pearly Gates Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The mother of the bride wore a two-piece blue and white knit suit with white accessories.

The bride wore a white dress a beige afternoon dress with a matching jacket and beige corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The grandmother of the new couple each wore a corsage of white anemones and zinnias.

A reception for some 100 guests was arranged by women of the Buhi church, the direction of Mrs. Mae Glubb.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and contrasted with a four-tiered white wedding cake. The cake was decorated with white lattice work, yellow flowers and clusters of white daisies and pieces of wedding bells.

Yellow lovebirds held silver wedding rings, butterflies, and a triple wedding bell arrangement in tulle and jly of the bride completed the cake ornaments.

Italian Fashions Win Praise at Florence Shows

FLORENCE—Italy, April 6 (AP)—The Italian showings of 1951 spring and summer fashions are over, and the couturiers look stock of their hills and mists.

The designers tried to look happy as the buyers headed for Paris, but only Irene Galzigne and Patrick de Barentzen really spotted. Both were heads with the success of their collections.

After nine days of showing in Rome and Florence, the last collections were presented at the historic Pitti Palace here. More than 4,000 models were seen in the Italian shops.

Ideas came one after another. The general silhouette was one of capes, ruffles and high waists. There was a plenty of tulle and furbelows, sometimes making for a fuzzy fashion picture.

But, the buyers sifted through all the ideas and all the trimmings and picked the things most likely to become part of the spring and summer fashion picture.

Apparently it was the simple unadorned things that counted. The easy to wear, unadorned clothes that didn't take a specially created personality to carry them off.

De Barentzen said he did well with a black and white wallpaper-stripped evening gown with a jacket outlined in wide bands of red. He said it sold even better with his plain wide-sleeve flared coats, his little pleated Italian kerchief bodice coat, tall dresses.

Galzigne's high-waisted soft wool coats in bright colors, and long gowns in a size even better across the board, said a representative of the house. Butter-prints also were described as popular.

The Galzigne show had been the most applauded at Florence.

Silver and crystal appointments completed the table decor. Cake was served by Mrs. Elvin Noh and Mrs. Merlin Hays, Gordon, Nebr. Presiding at the bride service was Mrs. George Croable, aunt of the bridegroom, Ogden, Utah.

Punch was served by Barbara Crosbie, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's table was covered with a hand-crocheted cloth. Yellow and white flowers were arranged in a 21-Knappe Alpine carved crystal bowl.

The bridegroom's cake was wrapped in silver foil and tied with yellow ribbon. Presiding at the table were Tim Piper, Fayette, and David Hays, Gordon, Nebr., cousins of the bride.

Guests were registered by Judy Cole, Jerome. Gifts were carried by Tim Piper and David Hays.

For a wedding trip to Pocatello and Salt Lake City, the bride chose a pink double knit, white dress, and pink and white hand-knit sweater, a white coat and white accessories.

She carried a white lace handkerchief, a gift from her grandmother, Piper, Beaverton, Ore. She was unable to attend the wedding.

The new Mrs. Lambert is a 1959 graduate of Buhi high school and attended Utah State university. She attended Michelle's Modeling school, Salt Lake City, and is a graduate of Hollywood beauty college, Twin Falls.

She was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Lambert is a senior at Utah State university, majoring in industrial engineering. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Miscellaneous showers were given for the bride at Hollywood Beauty college; by Barbara Anderson, by Mrs. B. S. Eldinger, and by Mrs. E. W. Miller, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Roubinik, Mrs. Robert Maxwell, Mrs. Anne T. Tanager, Mrs. Kenneth Shrader and Mrs. Hazel Conrad.

A lingerie shower was given by Mrs. Rose Lee Thompson and Mrs. Hazel Conrad.

At the bridegroom's home in Twin Falls.

Special out-of-town guests at the wedding party were Mrs. James Guffy, Ogden, Utah, grandparents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. George Croable, of the family, Ogden, Utah, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; and Mrs. E. W. Miller, Buhi, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Merlin Hays and family, Gordon, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Piper, Fayette, and Mrs. W. H. Dutterworth, Centralia, Wash.; all uncles and aunts of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brown and family, Pocatello.

HOME-MADE HATS FOR EASTER PARADE

Among Fences and Cattle

While many residents in Maglo Valley were soaking up the warm sun on spring outings last Sunday, friends and relatives of William Nelson, Blaine, called him and little him brand cattle and his son, Glen, who has 350 head, are getting ready to turn them out on summer range.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Shinn, who moved from Jerome to the Elmer Pass farm of Dietrich, plan on raising black Angus cattle in addition to their other farm operations.

An even dozen coyote pups were dug out of a hole on the Cliff ranchman ranch 14 miles northwest of Shoshone last Saturday morning by Ervin Braun and his 13-year-old son, Eldon. Ervin Braun had reported to Braun that he saw the mother coyote go into this hole on Friday. The pups didn't have their eyes open yet. Though the boys were in danger of being bitten, they did manage to keep one of the pups which is being fed on a bottle at the family home. The others were killed. The mother of the litter was not present at the time of the capture. Stanley Larson, Shoshone, game conservationist, said this is about the largest single litter of coyote pups he has heard of.

Observed hard at work this week were Piler-farmers Ray Clifton drilling grain, A. E. Harper spreading liquid fertilizer on beef ground, and Fred Pong-hay ground, and Clayton Dougherty working up a beef field.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Strode, who raise Arabian horses on the 200-acre farm at Hatfield, Nev., sold two of their mares and two fillies to buyers from California last week.

The first band of sheep from the Glen Briggs ranch east of Elmer was moved to the range by Kent Davis, sheep foreman. They are on the new created weed seedling near Berger. Shearing was completed last week at the ranch and fleeces from the 2,300 sheep sheared averaged about 12 1/2 pounds.

Robert Strubbers, Hatfield, has turned his several bands of sheep onto the desert between Mountain Home and Bliss. He lambled 100 ewes on the range and will bring his sheep to summer range in Quigley gulch as soon as the snow is gone.

Norman Warren, Blaine county agriculture agent, received 300 hares and 4,000 fleeces to be used by members of the Blaine county wool pool. Last year there were 45 shepherds who sold through this pool and received top prices.

William Cloughlin, Bellevue, is shearing some 1,000 head of sheep at his ranch in Glendale. The work is being done by Ben Cooley, Jerome, and his crew of eight shearers.

Dave Baird of the Carey valley is preparing to shear this week-end.

Mrs. Herman Braun, who lives 14 miles northwest of Shoshone, has begun her usual springtime job with arrival of 250 baby pullets. She raises a flock of pullets annually each year, carrying over about 100 to the range. She has a large number of eggs for sale to neighbors, some to stores and the Wood River Convalescent center, Shoshone. Mrs. Braun also will get some baby roosters and raise them for eggs.

Range cattle belonging to Ervin and Herman Braun, north Shoshone farmers, received a spraying this week for lice.

John Beagle, King Hill sheepman, and son turned their hands off sheep out on the range of their ranch last week. They are now in Malheur where the Beagles own pastures. The sheep will graze along the trip and arrive at Malheur in May or the first part of June.

About 100 calves belonging to Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Heath were branded Sunday at the Heath ranch four miles east of King Hill. The cattle will be turned out on the range by the end of the week. Robert assisted Heath and his family with the branding.

John Hobdy, Corral, has sold 44 head of his whiteface cows to Thomas E. Jones, Corral, and is considerably going out of the cattle business.

John H. Bahr purchased about the 140 head of calves last week and is having to feed them up on snow mounds so that he can put them on his pasture.

Glen Taylor, Elba, purchased 10 head of Hereford cows from Heber Hogan last week.

Farmers Urged to Grow More Barley By Minidoka County Advisory Board

RUBERT, April 6 — Farmers were urged to raise more barley since it is a good paying crop and needed in the livestock feeding schedules as well as in the county advisory board of the program projection committee.

According to Vance Smith, county agent, the group was organized several months ago under direction of his office to do the work done by the various sub-committees composing the main group. The group reported to improve and improve the work done by the extension service here.

Reports were heard at the meeting of the various sub-committees on beef, sugar beets, sheep, weed and insect control, dairy, public relations and economic, farm management, crops and home economics.

Alto Montgomery, chairman of the best committee discussed the present problems of financing the industry, and of interest in working out a long range financial policy. Any change in the financial set-up would have to come through the state or federal levels. The group reported after inquiries through banking firms and other lending agencies. A report on the storage problem for grain being produced in the county was given by La Monte Smith, county agent. The committee also discussed the program since it was beneficial to the livestock industry as a whole. A summary of the discussion of the allotment program concluded the report of this committee. Other members are Vance Smith, Arthur Miller, Bruce Lindstrom, Hollis McClellan, and L. A. Gillette.

The consideration of seed types and control made up the main part of the report of the best committee which was given by Alex Deemer, chairman. Sugar companies are carrying on weed control methods. They were told, a D. Vance and county agent, will have information available on planting techniques and rep spacing and on cultivation methods later.

Other committee members are Leonard Winkle, Earl Ballard, and Harold West, Jerome, and Blaine and James Wood.

A request for assistance from the county in the control of predatory animals was made by state legislature for laws to protect shepherds from sick dogs. Some were reported by the committee on sheep reported to the committee by Albert Frick, chairman.

Secretary Freeman Advocates U.S. Control as Basis of Farm Program

By LOWELL DICK, Managing Editor, Times News

The farm program of the Kennedy administration advocates total control and regulation of everything in the more young people of the farm.

The spokesman and chief exponent of the Kennedy farm program is Orville L. Freeman, secretary of agriculture, who outspoken in his belief that federal regulation is the farmers' only salvation. He made this impression from a short interview in Washington, D.C., last week with Secretary Freeman and Undersecretary Charles Murphy.

Secretary Freeman took the opportunity to discuss the points that growers had asked for a marketing order which would be binding on the processors of agriculture. At the time of the interview, grass roots hearings were under way.

Freeman's interview with Secretary Freeman, one session of the hearings has been held in the county. Secretary Freeman is having heavy opposition to any potato controls. In Minnesota, growers walked out of a session of the hearings at the time of his speech.

L. A. Gillette, Paul, pointed out that unexpected opposition has cropped up at nearly every hearing session across the nation. Gillette also pointed out that the national potato advisory council was "handed off" to the industry group, which "asked" for the present hearings with the aim of establishing a marketing order for potatoes.

However, the hearings themselves may mean nothing because legislation has been introduced to impose both acreage allotments and marketing quotas on potatoes.

Senate bill 3550 was introduced by Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, Maine Democrat, and H.R. 10877, by Rep. Charles McNair, North Carolina Democrat. Both bills have been sent to agriculture committees.

Secretary Freeman was also non-committal on the problem of sugar beets, with the sugar problem due to congressional action before the end of the year. A formula would be sought, but put in a plug for total federal control by saying that the industry group is the most thoroughly controlled of all farm products and is the most burdensome to the consumer.

In answering questions, Secretary Freeman said projections of 10 per cent through 1967 and that the animals to show vaccination dates.

In the discussion of financing for the industry, it was brought out that the industry group had made recently to give better service to farmers, wishing to build up their dairy operation, and that more would probably be made in the future.

A report of the investigation of wool, state-wide marketing program in Minidoka county was heard, and a request made last week for more information on the operation of the program was discussed.

The committee expressed the feeling that the delivery of the county had been helped considerably by the program, and voted to continue it, with the addition of four or five types of feed and facilities and barns to next year's program.

Committee members include LaVer Neff, DeWayne Hansen, C. P. Tolman, Ron Hawks, Odell Smith, Tom Pierce, Clyde Ross and LaMonte Smith.

Members of the public relations and zoning committee voted to send for information from Adams county and other sources for use in planning for Minidoka county. It was reported that legislation passed in 1961 permits any county, regardless of population, to zone. The group felt that a need was a need for zoning of this type in Minidoka county.

Another area discussed was a survey on residents shopping outside the county. The group voted to select a committee to look into the problem and report to the county.

Members present were Jacob Smith, W. A. Z. Hollenbeck, Vance Smith, Harvey Pringhouse, Norman Falch, George MacDonald and George Hedling.

Data was given. This complete cost account of a typical Northside unit, compiled by Virgil K. Zander, agricultural management specialist of the University of Idaho, was made by the committee on farm production, co-chairman, John Remsburg, chairman.

This study included a cost account of the production of alfalfa hay, barley, potatoes and sugar beets, as well as a complete account of the production of milk, with modern equipment and one man handling 30 cows.

A survey and comparison of their own situations by committee members, an evaluation will be made by the chairman and a request for a similar study

Bids on Wool Rejected for Blaine Unit

HAILEY, April 6 — The board of directors of the Blaine County Livestock Marketing Association rejected three bids for the purchase of wool from the county wool pool this year, at a special meeting held at the office of the Blaine county agriculture agent Tuesday evening.

One bidder appeared in person and the other two bids were phoned. The highest bid was made by R. C. Elliott and company, for 60 1/2 cents. All bids were rejected and new bids called for. These bids will be considered at a meeting of the board at 2 p.m. April 16.

Members of the board are W. v. McAfee, president; Leon Pack, vice president; and Roy Williams, Charlie Browning, Keith Hunt, Lee Peterson and Earl Baird.

There are 40 ranchers in the pool and about 3,600 fleeces are made up from their bands of sheep.

Last year's wool was sold for 45 cents by the pool.

Meeting Set

FAIRFIELD, April 6 — An organization meeting has been called for April 21 in the American Legion hall by County Agent John Paulson for farmers to discuss the grasshopper problem. Paulson said there is a threat of heavy infestation this year and he urges farmers to attend in case they will need government help with the problem later in the season.

Report Declares World Corn Crop To Remain High

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP) — The foreign agricultural service (FAS) estimates the 1961-62 world corn crop at 2,265,000,000 bushels. This "near-record" output is only 4 per cent under the 1950 record output.

The reduction from the 1950 total was mainly in the United States and eastern Europe. Smaller reductions in other areas were more than offset by a sharp increase in the Soviet Union.

COTTON SALES DOWN

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP) — The foreign agricultural service says the U.S. share of imported cotton in world trade slumped somewhat in 11 of 15 free world consuming countries during the first several months of the 1961-62 season.

TWIN FALLS JEROME

Falls. The owners were told that the birth of twins to a high bred registered horse seldom occurs. Even in the case of ordinary horses the chances of twins being born is said to be one in 10,000. (Jenny Stewart photo)

Birth of Twins for Quarter Horse Mare Near Jerome Is Termed Rare

JEROME, April 6 — It is a very rare event when a mare produces twin colts — about one in 10 thousand — and in the filly bred upper classes it almost never occurs.

When it does occur it is said to be a miracle of either of them. But LaDeeDee, registered (P-5788) quarter horse mare of Ray and Janet Chugs, presented her owners with a little filly and horse colt recently.

The Chugs, with their two children, reside on their ranch near Jerome. It is called "Half-Way Ranch" because of the location approximately half way between Twin Falls and Jerome.

In preparation for the coming event the Chugs had installed four 250-watt heating lamps in the stall. LaDeeDee had been bred to a pedigreed registered quarter horse stallion, Peaches Vandy, owned by O. V. Kelsey, Idaho Falls.

Decline Noted In Milk Parity

WASHINGTON, April 6 — The U. S. department of agriculture announced on March 30, a drop in dairy support prices to 72 per cent of parity for the 1952-53 marketing year beginning April 1. Support prices were set at $3.11 per hundredweight on manufacturing milk of 3.82 per cent fat, and 0.72 cents per pound on butterfat. This amounts to $2.38 for 3.5 milk. In line with previous announcement, no roller process nonfat dry milk support price was set.

Secretary of Agriculture Freeman predicted at his March 30 press conference that the cost of the support program at 72 per cent of parity would be 623 million dollars for the year, and that dairy income would fall by some 250 million dollars.

Both developed colts and Dr. H. W. Bunk assisted Dr. Donnelly in saving the two animals.

Following this illness the colt was left with weak knees and those hind-legs were wrenched. Recovery was fairly rapid and the twins are now frolicking in the corral.

The Chugs have named the filly, PeeVee and the horse colt, Broomey, aided by providing new heating arrangements.

On the bathroom scales the horse colt weighed 12 pounds and the filly just over 25 pounds.

Groups Publish Joint Pamphlet

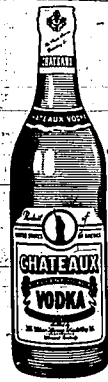

CHICAGO, April 6 — A new public relations approach entitled "Feed Men and Veterinarian Working Together," co-authored by the American feed manufacturers association and the American veterinarians' medical association, has been recently released.

The joint program is the result of many years of cooperative effort between the two national organizations. The aim has been to develop ideas that could be applied practically and simply at the level, national and local.

The report appears in two versions. An eight-page booklet has been printed and will be distributed by both organizations. The story is also appearing in a recent issue of "The Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association" and will be distributed to all veterinarians in the country.

Horse Event Planned for Filer in May

WEDNESDAY, April 4—The Inter-Mountain quarter horse annual spring show will be held at the Twin Falls County fairgrounds May 26-27, announces Harold Peterson, assistant manager for the show.

F. C. (Bud) Hodgins is general manager for the show which is sponsored by the Inter-Mountain Quarter Horse association and the Twin Falls county mounted sheriff's posse. Mrs. Peterson is secretary for the show.

A full line of registered quarter horses in halter classes and performance classes will be shown. Jay Parsons, Cody, will be judge for the registered events. Entries close May 18.

The only classes which will include non-fully registered horses will be the five youth events in which children may ride any kind of mount, and the cow-cutting classes which also are open to any kind of horse, states Peterson, Ray Chuze, Jerome, has been selected as judge for the cow-cutting horse events.

The show will start with a barbecue on the show grounds, May 25. Some of the elimination events will be held that evening.

Show classes will commence at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, May 26. A sale will be held Saturday evening. The show will be directed by Ralph Bell. Classes will commence again at 8:30 a.m. Sunday, May 27, and continue through the day.

Competition In Crops Is Control Aid

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, April 6—One of the best ways to control weeds is to use a competitive crop. To be successful, the crop must start, first and grow faster than the weeds, and then delay their growth. Once the crop has the advantage it will make greater use of soil food and soil moisture than the weeds.

The crop can only compete favorably when it has the supply of plant food. Applications of nitrogen fertilizer to grain, sugar beets, corn, pastures and potatoes makes a difference.

When cultural practices are followed, weeds are allowed to get a head start, they take advantage of soil moisture and soil food supplies and outgrow the crop. Low soil fertility gives all the advantage to weeds. They are allowed to get a head start and limited food supply and are more competitive under poor conditions than the crop.

Successful, vigorous weeds are easier to kill than slow-growing, stunted weeds. Selective weed control chemicals are more readily enter the leaves of susceptible plants when growth is rapid and the leaves are soft and tender.

Improvement Reported for Area Farmer

WEDNESDAY, April 4—Over the past few months, Lyle Adams, north Shoshone farmer, has had considerable improving of facilities to handle his cows and calves.

The most recent project has been cementing a holding pen for milk cows before they go into the barn. He also cemented along the feeders. This helps to keep the cows clean.

Several of the feedlines have been hauled from Fairfield with this put over the manure and straw bottom.

Adams is milking about 70 cows. He has 90 in all. This week he is hauling manure and starting to plow, having worked on fence.

About a year ago, Adams remodeled his barn and put in a bulk tank, doubled his herd and started the improvement program.

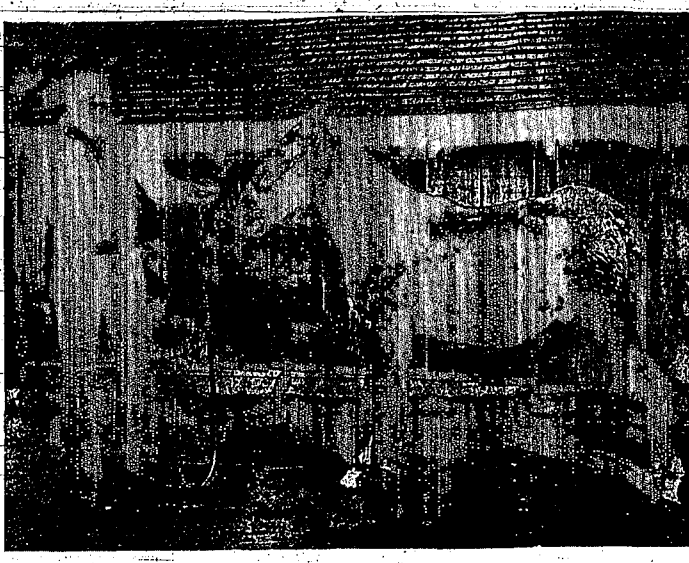

When the calves are built they are put in little individual pens, fed for about six weeks, then put in groups of 10 from the individual sheds to the calf shed. There they are kept for about three months before they are turned in with older livestock.

Adams hopes to grow enough feed on his place this year to feed his stock. He had to buy some of the feed used this year.

Funds Asked for Lunch Programs

WASHINGTON, April 6—To minimize the number of states which would suffer a significant loss in school lunch funds because of the proposed changes in the formula for distributing cash payments to states, the National Milk Producers Federation is asking this month that at least an additional $9 million dollars be made available to the program for the fiscal year 1963.

This would be in addition to the U. S. department of agriculture's largest request of the session dollars in direct appropriation, and $5 million dollars transfer from Section 32 funds—the same amount that was made available for the current fiscal year.

NEW REGISTERED horse, resulting in a cross between the Shetland pony and the Appaloosa, is displayed by Loren Craig, breed inspector for the Pony of America organization. The pony will stand about 13 hands high when 6 years old. It has an Arabian head and Appaloosa characteristics. (Times-News photo.)

Appaloosa and Shetland Pony Cross Establishes New Registered Horse

BY GALE CHAMBERS

Back in 1954 a Shetland pony was crossed with an Appaloosa and the result was the start of new breed-of-horses.

The Pony of America, bred was started in Mason City, Ia. in 1954 by such a cross. Today there are about 1,000 ponies in the United States and Canada.

According to Loren Craig, a breed inspector of POA, the pony business is just starting. Craig is a strong advocate of the breed and devotes quite a bit of his spare time with promotions.

"It's hard for a working man to get started in the horse business; there is quite an initial cost," said Craig. Craig works full-time at the Rogerson hotel, runs L. O. Vet Supply and raises horses. That Craig has been interested in POA.

"I've received a lot of help in the horse business and it's really appreciated," Craig said.

Concerning POA, Craig noted that the first few years are the hardest. These are the best years. "In this business you have to really prove yourself or you're classified as a fly-by-night operation," the national headquarters of POA is located at Mason City, and it controls the breed from there in association with the various state clubs and groups.

The national organization keeps a registry and every month publishes a magazine in addition to a yearbook listing. Transfers are released through the monthly publication. In addition, the magazine is full of articles on the ponies, including special articles concerning problems that arise in the breed.

It will take a few more years before the breed is pointed enough to be fully recognized. The specifications on the breed are tough, and they are getting tougher, Craig notes. The group brought quick results. Boomhauer was able to check the register and determine that the horse was DD's Tawko Tonto, T1767. Registry is forwarded by the national organization, and papers are sent to the owners.

Inspectors such as Craig are located all over the country and they can quickly tell if the horse is qualified as a POA animal.

Publicity and acceptance by the public is a big factor in progressing the new breed. Local showings by the various state clubs will all in boosting the prestige of the breed.

Men like Craig will do more to boost the breed. Craig says he's often been accused of "having a $40,000 horse trading office." The Golden R at the Rogerson hotel where he works.

Old fashioned horse trading hasn't changed much, says Craig. Horse traders still try to get the best of the other fellow, but more important they are usually men interested in improving a breed of animals and that is the most important part of the business.

The horse market is active and gets more active each year. Like any business, improvements are made on the old models and new models are made to meet the demands of the public. It is the hope of the POA group that the breed will do for the horse industry what the compact car did for the automobile industry. Old "Dobbin" isn't obsolete because of the automobile. He's back stronger than ever.

As yet there is no Idaho club, said Craig, but many of the interested individuals in Idaho are talking about starting one. At the present time there are about 50 POA ponies in the state.

The horse will be a pleasure and light work horse. It should prove highly popular with children who wish to ride a few hours or so. Many of the ponies have been used in barrel racing, cutting and used to draw carts, Craig says.

If the desired characteristics of fine bones and not-too-heavy muscles are attained, then the pony should prove to be a hardy animal. The foundation stock for the breed is watched closely and in another year or two the register will close.

The national show will be held this year at Hutchinson, Kans. The show gets better each year as interest mounts, Craig declared.

The thoroughness of the new organization is attested by the fact the horse Craig is now standing had no record. A telephone call to L. Boomhauer, one of the national officers,

Records Are Expected for Fat Supplies

WASHINGTON, April 6—The agriculture department said today the supplies of food fats and oils through next September will be record-breaking. The increase will stem largely from the heavy supply of soybeans and soybean oil.

Department economists, writing in the publication, "The Fats and Oils Situation," said total consumption in the 1961-62 marketing year is expected to rise to a new high, with record exports accounting for nearly all of the increase.

Supplies are somewhat greater than probable in market outlets, and an increase in carryover on Oct. 1 is likely. Most of the carryover increase will be in soybeans, although butter stocks are expected to be larger.

"The department said current prospects indicate that prices will be little higher than for the first half of the marketing year, averaging close to year-earlier levels. Soybean oil prices this year are expected to be somewhat below the same period last year.

Agency Reports Volume of Corn Under Supports

WASHINGTON, April 6—The agriculture department reports 412.2 million bushels of 1961-crop corn has been put under price support loans and purchase agreements through February.

This compares to 45.6 million bushels of 1960-crop corn put under support through February, 1961, and 378.3 million bushels of 1959-crop corn put under support through February, 1960.

Soybeans under price support at the end of February totaled 131.5 million bushels. This compares with 25.5 million bushels under support a year earlier.

Repayment of wheat price-support loans continued heavy with loans on 813 million bushels repaid through February. That left 188.8 million bushels of 1961-crop wheat still under support at the end of February. This is a smaller amount than at any end of any February since 1947, when about 181 million bushels of 1956-crop wheat were still under support.

Dry Milk Sold To Aid in Japan

WASHINGTON, April 6—The agriculture department said that contract was signed March 30 by Secretary of Agriculture Freeman and Japanese Ambassador Kojima for the sale of 100 million pounds of commodity credit corporation non-fat dry milk to be used in the Japanese school lunch program. Since 1950, nearly 450 million pounds of the product have been sold to Japan for the program. Ambassador Asakawa said that further contracts are likely, and that the school lunch program which is now largely in the cities is being expanded to rural areas.

Soil Conservation Service Starting Project of Foreign Aid in Tunisia

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP)—The soil conservation service (SCS) is getting into the field of foreign aid.

The agriculture department said SCS will provide direct technical aid to the government of Tunisia in development of a plan under the auspices of the agency for international development (AID).

The project involves water-year, intensive use of ground cover by grazing animals, cultivation of marginal areas for grain crops and clean cultivation of olive orchards. These cause excessive soil erosion and water loss. Damage from erosion and flooding during the wet months are succeeded by lack of water during the remainder of the year.

The SCS agreement with AID runs through June 30, 1962. One SCS technician will be assigned initially to assemble basic data and will be joined within three months by two SCS specialists experienced in watershed planning and hydrology.

The Tunisian government will provide counterpart technicians at the professional level, aides, laborers, transportation, land, equipment, office space and materials.

Grain Diversion Figure Reported

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP)—Operators of 87,592 farms through March 29 have agreed to divert 2,174,300 acres of barley under the 1962 feed-grain program.

The acres signed for diversion comprise about 13.5 per cent of the total U.S. barley base of 16 million acres.

For all farms signed up, possible advance payments that could be made come to about 18.5 million dollars.

GRADING EGGS is only one of the many chores that are performed at the Sunny Chick Hatchery, Filer, N. L. Johnson, owner of the hatchery, checks some of the day's eggs. Some of the eggs will become chickens and others are marketed for commercial use. About 250,000 eggs will be hatched this year at the Filer Hatchery. Each year the egg business increases in Magin Valley and the modern poultryman has to keep abreast of changing times. (Times-News photo)

Modern Machinery and Procedures Are Used by Chick Hatchery in T.F.

Unless drastic changes develop, market conditions for eggs and chickens will remain fairly stable in the Magin Valley area, N. L. Johnson, owner of the Sunny Chick Hatchery, Filer, states.

Johnson has been in the poultry business for 35 years; and 20 of the years have been associated with the hatchery business. At this time of year, the commercial hatcheryman is at the peak of the hatching season. Some 250,000 chickens will be hatched this year by the Filer firm.

So far the hatchings at the Sunny Chick hatchery are booked solid until the first of May. The big demand in the hatchery business comes in early spring and lasts through early summer.

In order to balance the workload at the hatchery and to ease the chances of its becoming strictly a seasonal project, Johnson has added other phases to the business.

A commercial egg trade is maintained and many chickens are culled and marketed for meat purposes.

As in the case of most businesses, the poultry business has had to keep pace with the changing world. Large modern incubators and hatching chambers are maintained. There are two incubators at the Sunny Chick hatchery with a capacity of 64,000 eggs. The hatching chambers hold about 8,000 eggs and chicks are hatched twice a week.

The eggs, when put into the trays, are labeled according to time and the trays are taken from the incubator and placed in the hatching chamber before the chicks begin "pipping."

The rotation order is necessary to insure a continual flow of baby chicks.

While in the incubator, the eggs are rotated automatically much like a mother hen would turn them with her beak. Rotation is necessary to insure a proper hatch.

It is now possible to determine the sex of a chicken a few days old. According to Johnson the Japanese some time ago discovered a method of determining sex by noting the variations of the chicken's "vent." Most of the hens in the chicken industry are Japanese, Johnson noted.

Chickens at the Filer hatchery are sexed once a week. This method is about 98 per cent accurate and some of the larger hatcheries in the country will guarantee 99 per cent accuracy.

Breed stock and feed methods have changed considerably, Johnson said. There is considerable competition in the feed business and that helps keep the cost of feed low.

The trend in the chicken feeding business has been to an all mash feed program. The old method of feeding hard grain is slowly dying out, Johnson noted.

The most popular chicken used in the business is the white Leghorn. This particular chicken has been developed into a top producer through breeding and new feeding methods. A chicken is productive about 10-15 months and then it is culled and killed.

Considering the short time of production and the time spent in raising the chicks, there isn't room for mistakes, Johnson said. As a rule, most chicken farms figure on a complete turnover every year.

There are several types of paying operations. The commonest is up is the floor operation and the other is the cage set up.

Dacthal Proved 95-100% "Sure-Kill" in University-Controlled Tests

DON'T BUY ANY CRABGRASS KILLER

... till you know it contains Dacthal, the Sure-to-Kill Ingredient

Like a mysterious, underground killing force, DACTHAL—found in the best brands of crabgrass killers—attacks crabgrass seeds as they germinate... never lets crabgrass seedlings develop. Result—no crabgrass.

DACTHAL herbicide was test-proved by university and state agricultural experiment stations from coast to coast... proved to be the crabgrass-killer 85%-100% sure to kill. Does not damage the "good" grasses.

DACTHAL is effective against other noxious, annual weeds, too—common chickweed, purslane, carpetweed, yellow foxtail, lamb's quarters, and witch grass.

"CONTAINS DACTHAL" appears on the bags of the best brands of crabgrass killers... look for the words to make sure you are getting an effective formula.

NO WRENCHES ARE NEEDED for take-down and assembly of new wheel-mover sprinkler irrigation system developed by R. M. Wade and company, FortLaud. Interlocking flanges on the couplings and on pipe, which also serves as wheel axle, can be connected and disconnected quickly.

Take-Down and Assembly of New Sprinkler System Fast

PORTLAND, April 6—An ingenious system is now available that makes take-down and assembly fast and easy for wheel-mover sprinkler irrigation systems.

It's all done without wrenches and time-consuming labor. It is good news also for the farmer whose fields are irregular in shape or that contain bothersome obstacles such as ditches, fences or even buildings.

Now the lateral, equipped with interlocking flanges on the coupling and on the pipe, that also serves as a wheel axle, can be disconnected and connected almost instantaneously. They are held rigidly in position when in use by a circular spring band. So simple and easy are the operations of take-down and reassembly that they are done almost as quickly as a man can walk along the line. Thus, on an irregular field, it is only a matter of minutes to drop or add a length or more of pipe or to get around an obstacle in the field, the fast handling of the new couplings makes the "take-down and reassembly" quick and easy.

R. M. Wade and company also has a new double-flange lateral drain valve that is completely automatic in its draining function, opening to drain, closing to seal. Because of its position at the bottom of the pipe and its unique design, the new valve readily flushes out sand and debris that has gotten into the lateral.

A wide dispersing device spreads the draining water thinly over a large area in a "bubble shape" that prevents the water from boring holes into the field. Three new giant-sized wheels up to 8 inches are now available in the "Wide-Train-Line" and the lateral, mechanized with their own four hp engines are moved as a unit in lengths up to one-fourth mile with ease.

A new full-flow flushing end-plug permits the operator to flush out sand and debris from the lateral merely by turning a handle, but without shutdown of the pump or turning off the lateral.

2 Men Join U.S. Farms Credit Unit

WASHINGTON, April 6—The senate confirmed President Kennedy's appointments of William T. Steele Jr., Richmond, Va., and Dr. J. B. Fuller, Torrington, Wyo., to six-year terms on the federal farm credit board. Steele is general manager of Southern States cooperative, Richmond. Dr. Fuller is a farmer and veterinarian.

In making his appointments, President Kennedy followed precedent in selecting one of three men from each of the two farm credit districts that had been nominated by production credit associations, federal land bank associations and farm cooperatives using the banks for cooperatives.

Steele, who replaced Glen A. Boger, Allentown, Pa., on the 12-member board, was nominated by farm cooperatives in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Puerto Rico, while Dr. Fuller was nominated by production credit associations in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming. Dr. Fuller replaces Sam H. Boger, Newell, D.C., on the board. Boger and Boger, having served six-year terms, were not eligible for reappointment.

Twelve members of the federal farm credit board are appointed by the President of the United States, while the 18th member is appointed by the secretary of agriculture.

Several Factors Determine Choice of Alfalfa Variety

Resistance to disease and insects, winter hardiness and yield, determine the choice of the right variety of alfalfa for planting in Idaho, says Donald Youst, Twin Falls county agent.

According to Youst, alfalfa varieties are satisfactory and pointers for comparison are suggested.

Labontan is an excellent alfalfa resistant to bacterial wilt, stem nematode and spotted alfalfa aphid. It has quick recovery after cutting and is moderately winter hardy. Yields have been good at test plots at Aberdeen and Twin Falls testing stations and have remained good for four years until it was plowed under. It is a good variety where stem nematodes are a problem, but is susceptible to foliar diseases and root knot nematode.

Because it is susceptible to stem nematode, agronomists advise against the use of Ranger in the Boise valley, but it is still one of the best varieties for general use in southern Idaho. It's a consistent top yielder, is winter hardy and resists bacterial wilt.

DuPuits is a moderately hardy vigorous variety with quick recovery after cutting. It is upright in growth, dark green, relatively heavy and moderately resistant to foliar diseases. DuPuits should not be used if stands are to remain longer than three years because it is susceptible to crown rot and bacterial wilt. It is earlier than most standard varieties and is advantageous if a cutting system is desired. Yields have been good at Twin Falls, Moscow and Aberdeen.

Vernal has done well at Moscow but has had slow yield and regrowth in tests at Aberdeen and Twin Falls. It has excellent winter hardiness and resistance to bacterial wilt. Vernal has thrived in tests at good in tests at the Tetonida branch station. It is recommended for north Idaho and high altitudes in other state areas where there are single cuttings and long term stands are desired.

Ladak has continued to perform well in northern Idaho and at high altitudes. It is recommended for non-irrigated areas because of the heavy first cutting.

Spraying Stops Alfalfa Weevil, Official States

HERMONE, April 6—The most effective control of alfalfa weevil is obtained by an early spring dusting or spraying to kill the adults. W. C. Priest, county county extension agent, advised—

This treatment is best when put on as soon as farmers can travel across the field in the spring and before the alfalfa gets over two inches of growth. Priest pointed out.

He advised the use of dipterin or heptachlor at the rate of four ounces of actual material per acre. This amount is obtained in 1 1/2 pints of 18 per cent dipterin or in one pint of a heptachlor solution which contains two pounds of actual material per gallon.

Priest cautioned, however, that heptachlor has not been approved in following years be planted prior for use in fields which to sugar beets or potatoes.

Buhl Cancels Contract for Meters Firm

BUHL, April 6.—The Buhl city council authorized the cancellation of the contract with Rockwell Manufacturing Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., for single-manual meters and door sensors for 125 parking meters at a meeting Tuesday night.

The contract was terminated by the city since the company violated its contract to ship the goods within the 30-day period specified.

In other business library board members were appointed retroactive to Jan. 1, 1962. Board members and their terms include Mrs. Frank Squires, chairman, three years; Mrs. Ted Ahm, secretary, two years; Everett Martin, treasurer, two years; Robert Peterson, council member, two years; Mrs. Walker Benfien, Mrs. Kenneth Walker and Mrs. George Likeness, one year each.

Lawrence Fawcett was hired as the new city dog catcher to replace Clyde Mills.

It was noted Fawcett will make a house-to-house canvass to sell dog licenses and will pick up and destroy unlicensed dogs. Dogs which are picked up will be impounded and the owners will have to pay a $2.00 fee plus purchase a dog license before they can recover their pet.

Glenn Denney was hired to make a new door for the fire station with the cost not to exceed $40. The council also authorized the purchase of some 300 feet of 10-inch galvanized pipe for irrigating the city airport farm and Jack Campbell's land. Campbell will share joint expenses equally with the city. The approximate cost will be $282 for each.

Despite numerous protests city officials by a unanimous vote decided to adopt the ordinance for treating local sewage improvement district No. 7 for the McCallium addition and adjacent land.

Building permits were granted to Wesley Fuller, Jr., to construct a residence with cost for $10,000; Darol Womack, construct an addition to the rear of his residence for $5,000; "Banks" River Realty, install a neon sign for $300; and William R. Ambrose, to construct a frame garage for $500.

J. R. Johnson was rehired for the season as caretaker for Faris field.

WILLIAM LOUGHMILLER received the state farm award at the state convention held in Burley, Loughmiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Loughmiller, is a member of the Filer FFA chapter. Loughmiller is one of the official delegates from the Filer chapter. Dan Vestonuk was the other Filer delegate. Richard Owen was presented a certificate and $100 for receiving the state farm electrification award at the convention. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Owen, Hollister.

Director for Filer Summer Play Elected

FILER, April 5.—Filer's Sharp was reelected for a three-year term at the meeting of the summer recreation organization.

Carlton Daniels was elected for a three-year term and Dick Shelton was elected to fill the two-year unexpired term of Al Lee.

Gilbert Chandler is chairman of the organization and Sharp will serve as vice chairman. Liner Dietrick is secretary-treasurer. Ten organizations were represented at the meeting which was also attended by other interested persons.

The group discussed the possibility of purchasing more lights for the ball field and the board of directors favored such a purchase.

It was announced that the job of instructor is open for the 10-week program which will begin June 4 and run through Aug. 10. The program will only run during the afternoon and evening of the first week in order not to interfere with Bible schools in various Filer churches.

The summer program will offer baseball, softball for girls and boys and girls, swimming lessons and ping-pong. Anyone interested in the instructor position should contact Chandler.

The directors stated that they do not wish to raise the registration fee above the $3 charged the last two years. They said that if the program is as well supported this year as in the past, the fee will not have to be raised.

Director for Student Says Choir Excited About Performance in T.F.

The College of Idaho concert choir is excited about working with the Boise Philharmonic Orchestra, according to Roger Detweiler, 1622 Ninth Avenue east, a member of the college choir.

The choir, orchestra and Boise Philharmonic singers will perform Carl Orff's "Carmina Burana" at 8 p.m. April 23 in the Twin Falls Junior high school gymnasium. Solos from Made Valley, Mrs. Oyvild Mead and Roger Vincent, will be featured in the non-sacred contemporary cantata.

Detweiler said, "We have a fouring choir which has about 45 members, but the choir that will sing with the Boise Philharmonic is the entire College of Idaho choir with from 50 to 60 voices."

Another member of the choir from Twin Falls is Robert Bobber. The choir is directed by Professor Elmer Thomas.

The choir started rehearsing "Carmina Burana" about two and one-half months ago, after it returned from a concert tour in the Los Angeles area.

"Explaining "Carmina Burana,"

Orff was one of the founders of Munich, Germany's Oudert Schule and he taught there until 1936, when "Carmina Burana" was completed. The manuscript of "Carmina Burana" was first published in 1847 as a series of folksongs and poems. Orff, who was born July 10, 1895, read a copy of the manuscript and in 1936 wrote the cantata.

"It is contemporary," explains Detweiler, adding that "some times you may encounter some people often associate that with the dissonant sound, the unharmonic sound. This work has a certain amount of that, but not to the extreme. His first chord is a very dissonant sound, but then it blends into a very pretty sound, so it's not so modern that it's uncomfortable to listen to."

Detweiler explained, "but Orff takes this and kind of makes fun of it. For example he starts with a crotchet and then it becomes a drinking song. They're in the tavern and they're toasting. They toast the bishop, they toast the fair-maidens and they toast 13 times."

Discussing the Boise Philharmonic orchestra, which is directed by Jacques Rivereaux, Detweiler said, "I've heard them perform in Caldwell and was very impressed. I think Jacques Rivereaux is quite good. I think they have a fine conductor and he's very interesting to work with."

"The concert choir is very well recognized," Detweiler said, adding that "it has been highly praised by a great number of choirs in the West. The choir toured the Los Angeles area earlier this year, giving a concert in about 10 days."

The choir appeared in Los Angeles, Imperial Polytechnic church, one of the largest in the country, and also gave concerts in cities surrounding Los Angeles, in Berkeley, Calif., and Reno, Nev.

Detweiler graduated from Twin Falls high school in 1960. He is studying political science and pre-law at the Caldwell school, where he is in charge of bringing the ROTARY club a singing group to the College of Idaho campus. He is also treasurer of the Intercollegiate Knights, a boys' honorary service group, and president of the college Young Republicans group.

The cantata will be sponsored by the Twin Falls Music Club. Tickets are available from club members and all Twin Falls music stores.

Gary Player Fires 67 to Take First Round Lead In Masters Tournament

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 6 (AP)—South Africa's Gary Player, the forgotten champion, picked up where he left off a year ago and fired a brilliant five-under-par 67 Thursday for the first round in the Masters golf tournament. Finishing in semi-darkness in a raw, cold drizzle, the blackhaired little battler from Johannesburg nailed a birdie three on the final hole to go two strokes ahead of Julius (Big Moose) Boros, the grim Hungarian, who had checked in two hours earlier with a 69.

TOOLS OF TRADE draw show of affection from Gary Player after his pace-setting 67 in first round of the Masters golf tournament in Augusta, Ga., Thursday. Player, defending champion, shot a five-under-par total. (AP wirephoto)

While the rain-coated crowd huddled the 18th green, Player sent a booming drive some 260 yards down the middle, punched a four-iron shot to within eight feet of the cup and calmly sank the putt for the best round of the long and dreary day.

The tournament's prime favorite, Arnold Palmer, scored a birdie on the final hole by sinking an 18-foot putt for a 70. He was bracketed in third place at this figure with Mike Souchak, the former Duke football star, and two draftees from Florida, Dave Hagan and Gardner Dickinson.

After Palmer rolled in his putt on the final hole, he turned to a spectator and quipped: "Well, as they say, a day late and a dollar short."

It was on this hole last year that Palmer, a two-time winner of the championship, blew to a double bogey six when he had the ball practically in his grasp. Player, who had finished earlier, won by a shot with 286.

Player's impressive first round drive, marked by only one bogey but by almost flawless accuracy on every hole, astounded most of the observers who had predicted he was a champion only a few days earlier.

Top scorers in first round: Gary Player, South Africa 67; Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N. C. 69; Arnold Palmer, Miami, Fla. 70; Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y. 71; Dick Johnson, Jr., Tequesta, Fla. 74-70; Dave Hagan, Sun City, Fla. 75-70; Billy Maxwell, Portland, Ore. 75-71; Don January, Dallas, 75-71; Don January, Richmond, Va. 76-71; George Bayer, Miami, 34-71; Billy Maxwell, Las Vegas, Nev. 35-71.

Ace Ranking New Feeling For Craig

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 6 (AP)—Being ranked as the ace of the pitching staff is a brand new and exciting experience for Roy Craig, who undoubtedly will pitch the season's opener for the New York Mets next Tuesday.

Perhaps even more than becoming a 20-game winner, the tall, soft-spoken right-hander wants to be a respected pitcher. He doesn't think he was respected during all the years he pitched for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"Twice in 1955 and 1956, he was an important factor in the Dodgers' pennants after being recalled from the minor leagues in mid-season. But in the year following each championship, he said he still was made to feel like a sixth finger."

Craig, a pleasant fellow who is grateful for even the little things, however, no grudge against the Dodgers. But he does believe Walter Alden, the manager, was not a particular admirer of his.

"Aston likes hard throwing guys like Drysdale (Don), Kousser (Gandy), Williams (Ston), and Sherry (Larry)," Craig said. "I'm not a hard thrower. I never gave me any confidence. Any confidence I ever had came from me, not from the manager."

"Whenever he'd start me, I knew I had to be phenomenal to stay in the box. Others may give up twice as many runs, but he would leave me in there."

RACE FIGURE DIES MORGANTOWN, Ia., April 6 (AP)—Raymond Lee Davison, Wapello, Iowa, a starter for the American Trotting association, died Wednesday at a hospital. He was 76. Cause of death was not announced.

Cold Didn't Hurt Idaho's Big Game

BOISE, April 6 (AP)—Idaho's big game animals generally come through the winter in good shape, despite more snow and rigorous weather, the Idaho fish and game department reported Wednesday.

Periodic breaks in the extreme cold made it possible for the game to survive. Levi Mohler, chief of game management, said: "As yet incomplete trends would show increased deer and elk numbers in some districts. Mohler said 'winter losses also have been found in some units—mostly in underharvested areas where there is too little forage to support large concentrations of wintering animals.'"

Derby Hopefuls to Get Aqueduct Airing

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—The big town gets a peek at some of the top Kentucky Derby horses Saturday in the $50,000-added Gotham Stakes at Aqueduct. But there is one huge fly in the Louisville ointment buzzing around Long Island, and his name is Jalpur, owned by George D. Widener.

5-year-olds are expected to take off in one mile Gotham, and with the $125,000 Derby at Churchill Downs just four weeks off, it's about time things got cracking in the East.

Jalpur was deliberately left out of Derby calculations by Widener, who is pointing his ace for the Freshness at Pimlico and Belmont Stakes at Belmont. But he's a steeplechase in the unfolding 2-year-old championship drama.

The main New York rival appears to be Donut King, a speedy California-bred colt, who beat Jalpur a whisker in the $200,000 Champagne Stakes at Aqueduct last Oct. 14. They haven't met since.

Donut King, owned by Verne Winchell of Los Angeles, ran fifth in the Swift Stakes here March 20 in his only start of the season. But he worked a sensational 2:26 the last week, and is expected to be a tough Donut King, a son of 1954 Derby winner, Determiner.

Montez Yeza rides Donut King, as he did last fall. Willie Shoemaker replaces the now-retired Eddie Arava, who was aboard Jalpur in his 1951 races. Odds-makers can't sport "em, making Jalpur and Donut King the early choice of 2 to 1.

Robert Lehman's Prego, the superb victor of the amazing $122,000 Florida Stakes, said Thursday he will resign and take the basketball coaching job at Ontario, Ore. high school.

Jorgenson's Caldwell cage team won the third district tournament championship and advanced to the state quarter-finals this season.

In three seasons' Jorgenson's teams at Caldwell won 37 and lost 35.

Jorgenson, 26, played basketball at Idaho Falls high school and at the University of Idaho where he earned both bachelor's and master's degrees.

Mister Pitt, and E. M. O'Brien's Our Twix, all with 114. They're all eligible for the Derby-Freshness-Belmont triple crown except Jalpur. If they beat Jalpur and Shoemaker Saturday, they'll probably have to tackle them again April 21 in the Appleton's $18,000 Wood Memorial before the big trek to Louisville. Golden Triangle Stable.

Bill Stafford Is Star as Yankees Win

By The Associated Press

Right-hander Bill Stafford, lowering his earned run average to a spectacular 1.8, became the first member of the New York Yankees pitching staff to go nine innings as the world champion edged Philadelphia 2-1 Thursday at Fort Lauderdale.

A key performer in the 1957 pennant race when he posted a 14-9 record in his first full year in the majors, the 27-year-old Stafford has been virtually un-touchable this spring. He allowed 11 hits—all singles—against the Phils, but walked only one while striking out six.

The Yankees were scored by Tom Yead and Joe Fepton, who both came home while double plays were in progress. The victory brought the Yankees record to 17-8 and left them in a tie with St. Louis for the best mark on baseball's exhibition trail.

The Cards, getting an early lead from Stan Musial's first extra-inning homer, hoped Detroit 6-5 at Lakeland and handed the Tigers their eighth consecutive loss.

In other games, Minnesota defeated Baltimore 6-2 at Miami, the Chicago White Sox blanked Cincinnati 5-0 at Savannah, the Los Angeles Dodgers beat Cleveland 4-2 at Tucson, San Francisco belted Milwaukee 8-2 at Phoenix, Houston overcame the Los Angeles Angels 3-1 at San Antonio and Kansas City edged the New York Mets 9-5 at St. Petersburg.

Buckaroos Win Portland Cup

PORTLAND, Ore., April 6 (AP)—The Portland Buckaroos charged back from a two-goal deficit at the end of the first period to night and handed the Spokane Cougars a 6-4 loss in the semifinal series of the Western Hockey League playoffs.

The win put Portland back on contention, Spokane now leads the series, 2-1.

Spokane, 26, played basketball at Idaho Falls high school and at the University of Idaho where he earned both bachelor's and master's degrees.

Mister Pitt, and E. M. O'Brien's Our Twix, all with 114. They're all eligible for the Derby-Freshness-Belmont triple crown except Jalpur. Downs, Pender Await Saturday Fight for Title

BOSTON, April 6 (AP)—Champion Terry Downs and challenger Paul Pender match right hands and tender noses for high stakes in their middleweight title fight at Boston Garden Saturday night. Downs, 25-year-old Brash, bullish Briton, and his 31-year-old opponent were undergoing the usual waiting period between the end of heavy drills and actual combat Thursday.

The scheduled 15-round bout will be televised nationally (ABC-TV), 10 p.m. EST, and broadcast by the British Broadcasting company back to England. This is the pair's third and rubber match.

Brookline, Mass., is an 8-5 favorite locally, 5 in the former and 5 in Downs' London bookmaking shops and those of his competitors.

Downs is stronger than ever and has youth in his corner, according to his followers. His opponent, however, is retaining the crown he lifted from Pender last July.

Pender admits to a double spurt during his career and the unjust label of a quitter says he had to give in since he retired after nine rounds in the London meeting.

Beyond these stakes, there is a matter of at least a quarter of a million dollars awaiting the winner in title-clearing bouts with NBA midweight king Gene Fullmer.

Always a boxing artist, Pender has learned heavily on his left hand and has used it in his out-ripped fistic career. Pender's right hand has been broken. Even after the right appeared whole again, Pender lifted his title recognized in Massachusetts, New York and Europe from Sugar Ray Robinson with his left hand.

Now observers feel Pender has honed his right corner to the same care he's devoted to his left.

Downs has a history of catching left hands but Pender can give him more trouble with lightning combinations.

Reports indicate Downs has been carrying a wrist ailment and with more authority than ever. Pender previously prided himself on an ability to pick off Downs' punches.

Both men are cut often. Downs to the extent he's known as a buster. A 13-11 cut on his nose stopped the first fight in their series. Pender still sports a gash across his nose sustained early in his current training program.

OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE will include representatives of the board of trustees, the athletic board, administrative officials, department staff, faculty, student body and alumni.

After the cuttings have been kept in a water-filled vase for two or three weeks, they will sprout roots and can be planted in the ground, preferably near where there is ample supply of water or where they can be watered with a hose.

Persons wanting cuttings may call Mrs. Fowler at 423-5357, Kimberley, or go to her home, located at the home of Mrs. Kimberley, immediately south of the Kimberley Seed company.

Piper Laurie Buried Past, Seeks Oscar

HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (U.P.)—The nothing like an Oscar nomination to help bury the past. Piper Laurie.

A decade ago, a press agent at Universal-International saw a young red-haired starlet, nibbling a green stem.

Before long, a parade of Hollywood columnists and photographers descended on her. She was asked to recall that Piper Laurie was a young actress who ate flowers.

"It was horrible stuff," she recalls. "The aftermath was even worse. It would have been good publicity for a budding star like the young Manfield of a Tuesday World."

But for Piper, it was not. A dedicated serious actress even in those days, she stunt hurt her career.

Producers couldn't take serious actress who ate flowers. So they went to New York and delivered some of television's best dramatic performances.

There she also made "The Hustler." Her performance as the lonely, alcoholic girl friend of Paul Newman won her an Academy award nomination.

Haydn says "Unkind Word About Oscar"

HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (U.P.)—Pia Dilly, the Richard Haydn, has some unkind words for Oscar.

"This is the reason for it. In a few days Hollywood will be forming its annual orgy of award-giving. Meanwhile, it is Oscar's last day."

George C. Scott fired a blunderbuss at the golden hue, asking his nomination withdrawn because the academy race has become too commercial.

"I applied George C. Scott, my Haydn, whose awards are more subtle."

The English-born comedian, director and actor said he was a member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Comics Don't Get Awards, Lewis Says

HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (U.P.)—When the Oscars are passed around Monday it will be another sad night for comedians, not one of whom is in the running in any category.

"This annual oversight has infuriated Jerry Lewis, who charges the movie academy with discrimination against funnymen."

"They're afraid to let us get our foot in the door," he said, pacing his office with the rage of a caged bear. "The only solution is to cast comedians in serious roles. That way we really show these dramatic actors what this business is all about."

Lewis, currently starring in "It's Only Money" (a fitting title for one of the wealthiest performers in the world), suggested the following comedians should star in suitable vehicles:

Danny Thomas in the title role of "Billingsley"; George Jessel to co-star with Tuesday Weld in "Ma and Pa Kettle Visit Jerusalem"; Jack Benny, who frequently appears on television in female garb, in the title role of "Queen Victoria";

Red Buttons and Mikee Keyes to co-star in "The Tall Men";

Jimmy Durante to play the James Mason role in a remake of "The Desert Fox," the story of Field Marshal Rommel.

Medicine Chest Should Be Full

CHICAGO, April 6 (U.P.)—How well stocked is your medicine chest? Probably not well enough to handle minor emergencies, says the American Medical Association.

Here's a list of suggested items: aspirin; calamine lotion for minor skin irritations and insect bites; a cough syrup with no habit-forming drugs; petroleum for chapped skin, burns, cuts and bruises; adhesive bandages and tape; roll bandages and sterile gauze pads; all on a thermometer plus a rectal one for small children; a bulk or mid-size laxative; special ointment and cream; a first aid kit for wounds and cuts that soap and water won't clean.

Yes, Women, You Can Camp Without Men

A man may be nice to have around the house. But he isn't needed on a camping trip. That's the opinion of three women after an unusual camping expedition which took them through California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico. They visited 12 national and state parks to find out if widows and divorcees, perhaps with small children, could camp on their own and enjoy the outdoor life.

The answer: Yes. These are the three campers: Bernice, hazel-eyed Carol Lane, women's travel director for an oil company; brown-eyed Mary Carey, in the publications department of Walt Disney studios; brown-haired Zane Ivey, liaison officer of the General Hospital and the Los Angeles health department.

The women traveled for several weeks, first in a station wagon and then in a car. Here are some conclusions they reached, reported by Miss Lane: "Leave everything possible at home. Take along a few cans of ready-made things—open them, heat and eat. "Little bags of chemical ice are fine to take along. And instant things, like coffee. And a mesh potato sack good for stumping things in a stream to cool them. "We used army surplus mess kits for frying eggs, making biscuits and, of course, to eat from. "Most parts have outdoor cooking facilities. We had metal buckets, one for hot water and the other to bring water to camp for drinking and washing. "A small camp fire is much better than a big one. Gather the wood in the daytime. Once the sun starts to set, you're in the dark! "Put a lantern on your camp table, but on a limb nearby, be every flying creature will come to dinner—your dinner. "An umbrella-type tent was easy to put up, but half the thrill was sleeping in our sleeping bags. "And Mary Carey brought a child's toy broom with a small handle. It was ideal to clean up about the camp.

Small cardboard boxes, with hand bells, are good to pack food and small equipment. "Clothes? Each of us had blue jeans and caps, two pairs of Bermuda length shorts, two drippy blouses, hooded sweat shirt tops, sweatshirts, the runners wear while working out, desert boots and one dress, with heels and hose. "And, luckily, tennis shoes. We found them much better for hiking and wading. "Women who go camping with children should give each child some camp chore to perform. A child might not do the job perfectly, but perhaps he might think up a way of doing it better. "The trips were very inexpensive. We rented our equipment for only $47, and $100 bought a lot of food. "Any drawbacks? We-oh . . . "We found that each of us gained weight," says Miss Lane, "but perhaps distributed it better. Hiking tones up your legs and seat."

GERALDINE PAGE, nominated for an Oscar for her performance in "Summer and Smoke," is shown in a scene from the film, which starts Friday at the Orpheum theater. The movie also stars Laurence Harvey.

Harvey Now Is International Star

Practically every day a new Hollywood starring assignment is announced for Britain's Laurence Harvey, who has become truly international in stature and is now co-starring with Geraldine Page in the Warner Bros. color version of Tennessee Williams' "Summer and Smoke."

Boone Steps Outside His Film 'Image'

LONDON, April 6 (AP)—American actor- singer Pat Boone switches from clean-cut youth roles to a drifter who joins a sleazy Sicilian circus in his latest movie.

"I've never worked like this before so consistently that is, in one form of restricted media," Harvey said. "In the past, I've spread myself out, skittering between pictures and the stage. Wherever there was a fascinating part that I simply had to play, I went. The experience has been glorious. There were opportunities to develop whatever talent I possessed in always different projects."

"So I thought pictures that would identify with every sort of film audience. 'The Alamo' for instance, introduced me to John Wayne and outdoor action drama admirers. 'Butterfield 8' had the popular blessings of Elizabeth Taylor, an actress whom I admire greatly. 'The Long, the Short and the Tall' is a personal favorite of mine, which I completed in England. 'Two Loves' teamed me with Shirley Bassey, a singer whose love who can do so wrong. Now, I am speaking the magnificent words of Tennessee Williams, just about my favorite playwright barring Shakespeare, in 'Summer and Smoke'."

In the Paramount production Harvey portrays a wild-ling, young doctor who lives next door to Alma Wrenn (Miss Page), a shy, repressed and lonely girl. Alma has loved him all her life.

"I realized that if I wanted to make more movies and develop my career I would have to do serious acting in dramatic roles," he said in an interview. "I've only played myself in my previous movies—except when I played a character who got drunk in 'State Fair.' But you can't go on playing yourself forever. So I decided to take more dramatic roles."

If It Lasts More Than 18 Months It Is "Perfect"

BY BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (AP)—Clyde Mack, the cynical snark, dropped by me to talk about Hollywood divorces.

Clyde is a press agent whose realistic view of the Hollywood scene keeps him unemployed most of the time. Trouble is, when a producer asks him what he thinks of a movie, Clyde tells him.

"I see you're writing another divorce story," said Clyde, reading over my shoulder. "Did you know that Hollywood divorces come in threes, just like Hollywood deaths?"

"An old wives' tale," I scoffed. "No, no, old wives don't tell tales in Hollywood," he corrected. "They merely put on grounds of 'mental cruelty.' No matter if their husbands were drunks, cheaters or liars, the charge is always 'mental cruelty.'"

"Very interesting," I said dubiously. "Now if you don't mind—"

"Oh, I know these divorce suits inside and out," Clyde continued. "You know what a Hollywood marriage is called-if it has lasted 18 months or over?"

"I give up."

"One of Hollywood's perfect marriages," The film colony is "shocked" and "taken by surprise" when it breaks up.

"Another thing. Even if he tried to pour hot lead in her ear, they are still friends." She only starts throwing the bomb china at the mention of his name, but the announcement at 11 ways," says they are "still friends."

"I peeked out a few words, but he continued."

"I finally interjected: 'Look, Clyde, I've got a deadline. See you later. Give my best to your wife.'"

"My wife?" he said glumly. "We're separated. 'Clash of personalities' she can't stand mine. Two sad. It was one of Hollywood's perfect marriages."

They Know How to Stretch Dollar

About 8 p.m. Tuesday two teen-agers drove a hood-less 1958 Chevrolet into a Twin Falls gas station to purchase 19 cents worth of gas.

The teen-agers, Andy Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, 547 Monte Vista drive, and Boyd Ash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Ash, 822 Main avenue north, told Leon Urte, assistant station manager, that in order to stretch the dollar to its full advantage the 19 cents would go for gas, 20 cents would be saved.

For cokes later, then of course 30 cents to buy extra large bottles for two girls they hoped to meet at a drive-in, and the remaining 21 cents would be saved in case the 19 cents worth of gas bought at the beginning of the evening, did not hold up for eight round-trips.

through Twin Falls. Wilson is a sophomore at the high school and Ash is in his senior year, and both boys have proved that in this age of the shrinking dollar a person can still make a dollar go a long way.

Albums Wanted Now, Mitch Says

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—Mitch Miller of NBC-TV, "Sing Along" show, says the record-buying public now prefers albums over the once-popular pop single.

"Today," says Mitch, "the pop single is a relatively minor source of a record company's income accounting for only seven cents out of every dollar earned."

SHOSHONE HIGH SCHOOL is keeping with the student movement of Future Business Leaders of America, the local high school group will present an assembly at school this month, wherein a skill will be presented showing proper dress for business, school and formal wear.

This decision on a state-wide basis was reached at the state convention held in Boise Friday and Saturday, Vern R. Thomas, instructor, acted as both a driver and adviser for the students from Shoshone high school who attended the convention.

As part of the activity three Friday, students visited various offices in Boise, observing special office equipment.

At the public speaking contest held Saturday, Jonathan Malberg participated from the local group and competing in the spelling match were: Bill Bozuto, David Randt and Keith Thomas. They placed second.

Attending the convention were Deborah Neher, Donna Hala, Debra Chapman, Shirley Jesser, Susan Halls, Mary Forester, Gina Murua, Betty Guetchee, Colleen Allen, Kathleen Lecortta, Sally Scraper, Linda Shiner, Christie Miller, Judy Kenaston, Laverne Bernard, Bill Bonzo, Felita Thomas, Jonathan Malberg, Joe Shaw and David Randt. Boise Junior college will present a concert at 7:45 p.m. Friday, April 6, at the Shoshone high school. A National Assembly program will be held at 8:45 a.m. at the high school building on Monday, April 9. Shoshone high school junior prom will be held April 14 at the Shoshone school auditorium. Shoshone high school annual staff is sponsoring a pancake supper on April 12.

Dog Symbol

HOLLYWOOD, April 6—in other times, the foreign-made auto, hillside home, heart-shaped swimming pool and private aircraft have been the Hollywood status symbols, but if the trend toward Warner Brothers actors and actresses is any index the symbol has now gone to the dogs.

With each actor choosing a breed to suit the individual personality, schlemmer, pool, dog, beach, cottage, and home are included in the growing Warner's dog colony and apparently no one of star status would dare be seen these days without his pup (pedigreed, of course) at the heel.

Beauty Tip

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—Wrap a layer of game bandage around the hairline when applying or removing makeup or styling hair. Self-adhering conform bandage keeps hair from falling and keeps from slipping. It is lightweight and less irritating than elastic bands. One roll—three-inch width—makes about four headbands.

Furniture Is Protected by New Finish

By KAY SHEERWOOD

The homemaker who has long regretted her way to a fine new table or cabinet is understandably miffed when someone spills a glass of milk or leaves a trail of country fingerprints on the surface.

Most of us would agree that laminates are to be used and can't be overprotected in an average family. All the same, I've had some nervous moments trying to decide without harming a beautiful finish.

I wish more retail furniture salesmen were sufficiently knowledgeable about their product and their customer to have up-to-date advice on types of finishes and their care. You simply can't tell by looking.

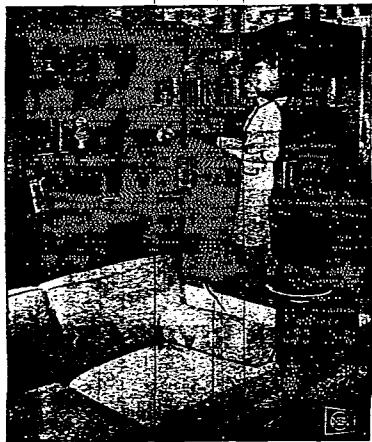

Labels Added
Some manufacturers add informative labels on many pieces I see in stores don't offer a clue to care. Because most of the manufacturers have positive ideas on how to care for their products, I write directly to the company for advice if the store can't help me.

The majority of furniture made today is finished with a protective lacquer. In much of the new furniture, a finishing agent has been added to the lacquer to reproduce the soft dull sheen of an expensive hand-rubbed finish in moderately priced furniture. The protective lacquers also may be used over pieces which have been oil-finished. I learned to "laquer" wood.

In any case, where there is a protective lacquer, it is the principal advice for care is to wax it. What kind or type of wax never varied with the maker. For the new flat finishes, for example, a half-shown cream wax is suggested. Other lacquered finishes may be waxed with paste or liquid.

Liquids Easier
Liquids are easier to use but must be used more often. Fast wax must be applied with a soft cloth in thin coat and buffed with vigor. The only soft cloth for any waxing and always buff with the grain.

When the inevitable accidents occur, I was advised to wipe up spills or stains with a soft cloth lightly wrung out in water. If this doesn't do the trick, use a mild soap and rinse with damp cloth and buff dry at once.

THE COST SECRET of these moderately priced natural walnut slabs is the finish. A new lacquering technique gives the wood the expensive glass-free look of hand-rubbed finishes, giving greater emphasis to the wood grain.

The damp cloth treatment for sticky soil also works here. Soil may also be removed with a piece of the very finest steel wool, says one expert, and the area re-oiled.

Less Common
Less common are the very beautiful natural oil finishes which accentuate the hardwood patterns. These oil finishes should not be rated but, occasionally, they may be re-oiled with linseed oil. Some experts mix the oil with turpentine and some do not.

She Teaches Right Way to Worry, Frét

Just about everybody in his right mind can worry, but it takes talent, or at the very least a worry whet, in order to worry successfully.

Jean Rindlaub has the talent, the idea for the worry whet, and, as wife, mother, grandmother and Madison Avenue business executive, a lot of opportunities to collect aesthetes.

But so good is she at avoiding exhaustion by organizing her brooding, fussing, furling and stewing into a constructive plan that writer Marguerite Clark lauds her in the book, "Why So Tired?"

"When people are tired, I say, just don't sit there. Do something. I mean something with variety. Even if it is variety in the things you are worrying about," says Mrs. Rindlaub.

"Variety in worries—or double worries—is one reason why the lady advertising executive believes working wives and mothers have the advantage over non-working ones."

"If you have had a hard day in the office with a client you need not go home and pass a sleepless night stewing about the job. Once home, you find a child with chicken pox and a hot fever, or the maid has left, or the furnace has broken down, so you address yourself to a new form of trouble—immediate, demanding, and not as hating as it might sound."

Cheap

HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (AP)—"Two for the Price" marks the 15th year that Robert Mitchum has been a top leading man.

Asked the secret of his longevity, Mitchum, always candid, answered: "I work cheap. How else could I have lasted?"

New York with her engineer husband, Willard, at the wheel, Mrs. Rindlaub switches and organizes her worries for the day.

In fact shifting worries is No. 1 of her eight-point program on how to worry successfully.

SUBIMATES DESIRE
HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (AP)—Robert Logan, star of Warner Brothers' "77 Sunset Strip" series, whose ambition is to own a 40-foot sloop and sail to Tahiti is fulfilling his desire by riding a just-purchased 1931 model Indian motorcycle along the curbside of Malibu beach where he lives.

HAPPY NEW YEAR is celebrated by Natalie Wood and Warren Beatty in a scene from "Splendor in the Grass," for which Miss Wood has been nominated for an Academy award. The movie is showing at the Idaho theater.

Producer Has Big Job of Replacing Paar With Star

HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (AP)—For better or worse (and you can get arguments on both sides) Jack Paar leaves his late night show in less than two weeks.

To millions it will be a blessing. Other millions will feel something wonderful has gone on from their lives.

To one man it will simply be a massive headache.

That man is producer Perry Cross who was a Paar producer during Jack's first year on the air.

Because he developed insomnia working those late hours, or because he has a penchant for earning a living the hard way, the NBC network put Cross back on the payroll this month saying, "Here's 90 minutes of show time five days a week for 26 weeks. Pull it. And do a good job."

This is as difficult an assignment as any television producer has had to face.

But Cross has come to Hollywood on a talent hunt to replace Paar.

Comedian Johnny Carson, the engaging star of the daytime show "The Tonight Show," is scheduled to take Paar's place on a full-time basis next October. Until then he will honor his ABC-TV contract.

"Starting April 2 we will have a different star on the air every week," Cross said.

"We start out with Art Linkletter. He's the only one we've signed for two weeks."

After that it's Joey Bishop, Bob Cummings, Merv Griffin, Zea Zea Carter, Jack Carter, Jan Murray, Spike Jones and others.

"So far we have the first 13 weeks lined up. Now I've got to worry about the last 16 weeks before Carson comes over."

Cross, a confident man with a sense of humor (which he'll admit is the array of gambles).

Library Week Observances Set for T. F.

Observance of the Twin Falls public library for National Library week is planned on a limited basis, Arthur L. DeVolder, library director, said.

DeVolder indicated that many new books would be available for both the adult and youth sections of the library with approximately 200 new books being available this month alone, as well as several hundred new titles in the juvenile department.

Since July 1 over 800 adult books, 200 youth books and 300 children books had been added to the collection. Although this is approximately 40% less total than last year, it is hoped that several more purchases will be available by May 1 to swell the total of new books added.

DeVolder also stated that Mrs. Eugene Sturgill, aided by many other persons as well as the staff members will present a children's theater skit of "Hansel and Gretel" Saturday April 14, 1962. Two performances will be given. The first performance will be at 10 a.m. followed by the second performance at 11 a.m. Children in the elementary grades are urged to attend. Approximately 75 children can be admitted for each performance.

National Library week observance will also include the formal installation of officers for the newly organized "Library Citizens committee." This meeting will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, April 13. All interested citizens are urged to attend.

Hennessey to Wed Nurse; Jackie Cooper Tells Why

HOLLYWOOD, April 6 (AP)—Doctor Hennessey is marrying nurse Martha Hall, and fans of the television show may be asking why.

"I'll tell you why," said Jackie Cooper, who is producer, director as well as Hennessey himself.

"In the past year or two, we've been getting a lot of mail from viewers, especially young persons and church people, wondering whether Hennessey and his girl friend are going to get married. They seem eager to have it happen."

"Besides which, in three years of their courtship, we had used just about every kind of line and situation that could be used with two people who were dating. It was time to try a new direction."

"A lot of people are now worried that Hennessey is going to be just another family show. It isn't. The only difference will be that instead of going home to the bachelor office quarters, he'll be going to a house of his own."

"It is safe to predict that Jackie won't allow Hennessey to sink into the well-trodden rut of the domestic comedies. So far the show has managed to avoid all stereotypes for television series."

Young Dr. Hennessey is a navy doctor—"we were on the air two years before Ben Casey and Dr. Kildare started practicing."

But it is not a medical show. "We have had a cigarette and a food sponsor, and they weren't eager for us to get clerical," Cooper explained. "I did remove a child's appendix in a mountain cabin once, but most of my practice has been off-screen."

The dual sponsorship also has contributed to Hennessey's split personality. "The food sponsor wanted us to play for comedy, while the cigarette people were willing to have some tragedy. So we usually do a comedy when the food sponsor had two of the three commercials, and a drama—with some light lines—on the alternate week."
